

FRENCH FARMERS WANT DUTY OFF ALL MACHINERY

Lively Scrap Between U. F. Q. Delegates and Sir Henry Drayton at Montreal.

FARMERS UNABLE TO ESTABLISH CLAIMS

Cotton Dealers Want a Duty to Prevent Dumping in Canada.

Montreal, Nov. 16.—The first time since the tariff commission has worked in the Province of Quebec, the United Farmers of the province were represented before commission this afternoon when A. H. Clement, president of the United Farmers of Quebec, presented a document in French, setting forth that "today 80 per cent of the population of the province were made up of farmers, or thirty per cent of the population of the province, and that in 1881, the population of the province was 1,000,000."

Going Over Border The memorandum further set forth that there was a migration from this province of thousands of farmers to Vermont, Maine and New Hampshire, all being farmers anxious to get better conditions, a better market, and cheaper agricultural implements and other supplies. To prevent this the United Farmers proposed an abolition of duties on agricultural instruments and other machines farmers had to use. The price of agricultural implements had almost doubled within five years. The suggestion was made that a direct tax be placed on undeveloped natural resources and lands held for speculation; a further income tax based on degrees of wealth; and increase in succession duties; and a tax on profits of industrial corporations.

Under cross examination by Sir Henry Drayton, it appeared that only one farmer had actually gone to the States, that two or three had been heard talking of buying farms in the States and that the witness had read articles in a French newspaper stating there was a large immigration of dissatisfied farmers from the Eastern townships to the States.

Other views placed before the session were included in a statement by Maurice Plante, K. C. of Valleyfield, showing the benefit to the municipality and district of Montreal Cotton Company which with other industries had brought the population over ten thousand.

Case for Cottons A. O. Dawson, of Canadian Cotton Limited, said the tariff was useless unless it operated to prevent dumping. He said his company had not taken advantage of the tariff during the war and now, if the tariff were to be lowered, both their shareholders and employees would suffer.

R. W. Walker, President of the Canadian Association of British Manufacturers, presented a statement for that organization, in which while approving the protective tariff he urged a substantial increase of the British preference to encourage imperial trade and pointed out that goods imported from Great Britain gave large business to Canadian railways and shipping. The association asked reduction of duties on articles of iron, aluminum, paints, fire brick not made in Canada and bisulphite.

CLOSER GUARD ALONG BORDER TO STOP REDS

Conflict in Passport Rules Allows Some Undesirables to Enter America.

Ottawa, Nov. 16.—Canada has its own immigration laws, and enforces them. What people enter United States via Canada, then is not so much Canada's as United States concern," sums up the comment of Mr. F. C. Blair, secretary of the Canadian Department of Immigration and Colonization, on a despatch from the Hague, which intimated passport control on the Canadian frontier would be tightened in order to prevent the entry of undesirable to United States.

The Big Difficulty. "The difficulty on the international boundary, from the United States viewpoint is that the passport of an alien coming to Canada from Europe does not carry the visa of an American consular agent abroad. Canada demands a general passport from the United States requires the consular visa. On this account it is claimed that it is easier for those people to get regular passports to Canada and then cross the border. We know that passport agents who come recently from Europe apply in numbers for visas to United States all along the border."

What Canada Requires. Canada does not require a passport from a British subject coming from the Mother Country, but all other immigrants have to have passports. Nationals of Germany, Austria, Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey may not come to Canada. Others may be turned back for mental or physical infirmity; inability to comply with our money regulations; lack of passport documents; failure to come to Canada from their own country by continuous journey; inability to become a native citizen owing to the labor conditions in Canada.

Dominion Steel Refuses to Make Any Long Term Agreement With Men.

(Continued from page 1) His statement was listened to with out undue disturbance, although there were interruptions when he spoke of the benefits which the miners of the province had received since the inception of the Dominion Steel district 26 organization.

Why Accept Sales Describing the conference at Montreal, Secretary MacLachlan said that at least he looked into a fight, but various reasons had been advanced, practically all of which were against the agreement with the operators. The International Union officers had pointed out to him the difficulties which the necessity of financing a strike in Nova Scotia would entail in view of strikes in the United States, and said they had not the money. Coal in the United States was falling in price and there was a fuel action in Canada. Work was becoming scarce in Canada and the United States. "Briefly the bottom had fallen out of the business."

Urges Extreme Caution "In the face of the industrial conditions on this continent, in the face of the fact that the international union is fighting for its very existence, in the face of the fact that this organization is striving to reconstitute, would be doing the right and fair thing to take support from men who have been fighting for months for our benefit."

Boils So E HAD TO GIVE UP WORK

POLICE ALLEGE SAILOR ADMITS $21,000 ROBBERY

Prisoner is a Deserter from U. S. Army and Former Canadian Soldier.

Yonkers, N. Y., Nov. 16.—Local detective yesterday arrested Sailer U. S. Marine, alias Umanow, alias Curtis, deserter from the United States Army, and former Canadian soldier, and charged him with the robbery on Saturday of $21,000 in cash and $20,000 in cheques from H. M. Blacketer, assistant cashier of the Imperial Oil Company.

According to the police report, Umanow allegedly made a complete confession, withholding only the exact identity of the other man, said to be implicated in the hold-up. Not only does this arrest clear up a sensational case of Saturday, but it also established identity of a deserter that was first hurried to a house through the show window of Messrs. Brothers, Jewellers, Grandville street, but a number of stolen articles were found in Umanow's room when it was searched today.

COURT TO FINE MISSING JURORS IF ABSENT TODAY

Nearly Half of Panel— Summoned at Fredericton Fail to Appear.

Special to The Standard, Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 16.—The York County Court met this afternoon for the purpose of hearing the cases which had been entered on the docket. When the clerk called the jury, it was found that eight jurors of twenty-one, who had been summoned, failed to answer to their names. His Honor strongly criticized the action of these and said that in the morning when the panel was called those that were then absent, unless they produced a valid excuse, would be fined $18 each and the court instructed the clerk to see that this order was carried out.

Settled out of Court

On the docket being taken up, R. B. Hanson, R.C., announced that the case, Douglas vs. Green, had been settled out of court, and asked for leave to withdraw the same, which was granted.

In the case of Holland vs. Ross, Mr. Hanson said that he had been served with an affidavit setting forth that the defendant was now an inmate of the Provincial Hospital, and under the circumstances would ask that the court make an order that the Hon. W. E. Foster, as the official committee of the personal estate of Charles Ross, be made a party defendant, and that the case stand for trial to November 22nd, at 3 p.m. Mr. Hanson's motion was granted, and the clerk instructed to draw up the necessary order.

On the case of Hingworth vs. Kibb, being called, Mr. Fossy, counsel for the plaintiff in the action, said he was ready to proceed in a very small room in the morning, and asked that it be taken up. The court said that the request was a reasonable one, as the two former cases had not gone on and the court was then adjourned.

Spracklin told Messenger and Chasvin he was an Inspector and was going to search their car. Messenger strongly objected and Spracklin snatched a pair of handcuffs about his wrist. Upon learning of his mistake, Spracklin released Messenger, who came to police headquarters and reported the affair. He says he will appear in court today with Spracklin and Bell for assault.

Boils So Bad HAD TO GIVE UP WORK.

From the days of Job, up to the present time, boils have been one of the afflictions of the human race. All the poulticing and lancing you may do will not prevent them from breaking out again. Boils are simply caused by the bad blood bubbling out; and the bad blood must be made pure before the boils will disappear. Burdock Blood Bitters, which has been on the market for over forty years, is well known as the greatest blood medicine procurable. It purifies the blood by removing every particle of foul matter from the system, and when this is done the boils vanish, and you should never be troubled again. Mr. James Fisher, Newport Island, Que., writes: "I was troubled with boils on my back and neck, so bad that I was obliged to give up work. I tried several remedies, but got no relief. Finally I went to a doctor, and he treated me for several weeks, and I did not benefit. At last a friend told me of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I decided to give it a trial. I got three bottles, but before I had taken two the boils were all gone. It is eight months now, and I have had no return of the old trouble, and have never felt so well. B.B.B. is put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

Chief Officer Was Captured By Germans

William Evans, Chief Officer of Strm. "Millas" Tells of Experience While Prisoner.

The steamer Millas, of the Lamport & Holt Line, which is now docked at No. 8 berth, West St. John, and will leave on Thursday for Liverpool, England, with a cargo of canned salmon, has as its chief officer a splendid type of a marine officer in the person of Chief Officer William Evans, who, while holding a similar post on the steamer Voltair, was, together with his captain and all members of the crew, taken prisoner by the well-known former German vessel known of the west coast of Ireland on December 2nd, 1918.

Inhuman Suffering.

The interesting and absorbing story of the trials, experiences and inhuman sufferings through which Chief Officer Evans, his brother officers and members of the crew passed was narrated by him yesterday in a very interesting and modest manner. The Voltair had been running from New York to ports in England and France, in the interests of the Atlantic carrying provisions, consisting chiefly of meat, to New York, was at that time a neutral port, the custom was for the steamer to obtain her cargo at New York, and then call at Halifax for her gun on her way across the Atlantic, and on her return to New York for another cargo to leave her gun at Halifax before proceeding and sailing New York harbor.

On this occasion the Voltair was returning from Liverpool to New York, via Halifax, without any cargo, when what appeared to be an ordinary tramp steamer was observed off the west coast of Ireland; but when within about one hundred yards of the Voltair, the supposedly tramp steamer dropped her bulwarks and without any signals or notifications promptly opened a heavy fire. After the first broadside she hoisted the "Star in a triangle" signal and the German flag.

Captured by Moews.

It was absolutely impossible for the Voltair to return the fire on account of the close range, and also due to the fact that the attacker, which proved to be the German Moews, was firing shrapnel upon the Voltair-deck so that no one could get near the steamer's guns. The Voltair immediately stopped to put the boats out, but the Moews still kept firing. A terrific north-westerly gale was blowing at the time; and all members of the crew, numbering about one hundred and ten, left the steamer, leaving the captain and Chief Officer Evans on board. In the meantime, however, the two latter officers had destroyed all papers which could be of any value to the enemy. German officers then boarded the Voltair, and offered to shake hands with her captain, who, however, refused to do so, telling them that if they were human beings, they would pick up the boats containing the Voltair's crew, which were foundering in the treacherous sea.

Placed Under Guard.

Chief Officer Evans and his captain were subsequently placed under heavy armed guard in a boat and in one hour's time reached the Moews. On arrival there the Germans kept the Voltair's captain on deck, with a view to attempting to elicit information from him; and Chief Officer Evans was placed below decks, where some time afterwards he was joined by the captain and placed in a very small room with their men. It may be added that, despite the fact that about fifty shots in all had been fired by the attacker, no one escaped injury. Bombs were placed in the holds of the Voltair, and "time" fuses set. The steamer was completely looted, and about 12 o'clock, noon, five hours after she had been first attacked. All the prisoners were placed under lock and key below decks, and only allowed to leave their place of confinement occasionally for recreation periods of ten or fifteen minutes' duration.

Seven More Captured.

The Moews then continued her nervous warfare in the Atlantic, capturing seven more vessels, including the Georgic, Cambrian Range, King George, Mont Temple, and a Nova Scotia schooner, Duchess of Cornwall. The crews of each captured vessel were placed in the one room, which was only thirty-five feet by seventy feet. Many of them were wounded and ill, and the least number crowded into this small place amounted to over five hundred.

About ten days after the capturing of the Voltair, the steamer Yarrowdale was sighted and also captured, and all prisoners were transferred to the latter vessel, which was put under the command of German officers, with a large armed guard. Bombs were also placed in her hold and every room, and these bombs were connected with the bridge by an electric fuse and controlled there. The captives were warned that if any attempt were made to approach the bridge, the offenders would be instantly shot without any preliminaries, and in case of an uprising, the whole ship would be blown up with the connecting bombs.

Blank Accommodation.

The accommodation on the Moews and Yarrowdale was inhumanly blank. Practically the only food supplied, and this in meagre quantities, was hot bacon, blentils and porridge, which the prisoners had to cook themselves in their overcrowded room filled with the sick and maimed. After encountering very severe weather, they finally reached Swinowude, Germany, on New Year's Eve. A few deaths had in the meantime occurred among the members of the former crew of the Voltair.

Upon Arrival there the crew were brought ashore, while the officers were kept on board for a couple of days longer. Finally, on landing, the officers were kept in barracks separate from the men, but afterwards all were sent to Neustadt, where there were only wooden benches.

Breadth Suffering.

The officers and the men suffered dreadfully from the cold, utter lack of suitable food, boots and clothing; and every group of ten men received only one black loaf of bread and a little soup every ten hours. The crew re-

MRS. TABOR WILL NOT BE TIED IN MANSLAUGHTER CASE

Prisoner is Aged 82 Years and Jury Disagreed on First Hearing.

Paw Paw, Mich., Nov. 16.—The charge of manslaughter against Mrs. Sarah Tabor, 82 years old, who was accused of causing the death of her daughter, Miss Tabor Vigor, will be dismissed, according to a statement today by Prosecuting Attorney Florence Adams.

The aged woman was tried in circuit court here in April, but the jury after being out 35 hours reached a disagreement. The body of Miss Tabor Vigor was discovered in the basement of her mother's home at Lawton, near here last November, nearly four years after the girl's disappearance. It had been jammed into a trunk, concealed under a pile of shingles.

maintained at the latter place for three weeks and were then sent to a jail, while the officers were kept in a boat and in one hour's time reached the Moews. The latter were brought by armed guard to Caribou, which at the time was being heavily bombed by French aviators. As the Voltair was allowed to communicate with their homes for the first time since their capture, and the American Red Cross sent bread from Geneva, Switzerland, but as a result of the treatment they had undergone their ranks were depleted by four. A number of British flying officers were also in confinement. Three weeks afterwards they were sent to Craveld, where they were delighted to find Canadian and British officers, who gave them a royal welcome, supplied food and clothing, in which they were in dire need, and treated them with all care and attention, looking after the sick and maimed. Some months afterwards they were again moved to Bwskow, outside of Berlin.

On Armistice Day.

At the time of the signing of the armistice, Chief Officer Evans and his brother officers of the Voltair were in a place called Wainbeck, near Hanover. They left there about December 20th, 1918, coming through Holland, and arriving in England shortly afterwards. About fourteen officers and 400 "Tommy" comprised the group, which included the officers of the former Voltair, which passed through Holland, in every part of which country they received great ovations. Chief Officer Evans did not enter into any details of the treatment received while in Germany, but from casual remarks made by him one could assuredly gather that the two years of imprisonment were filled with the most inconceivable inhuman treatment and suffering.

Chief Officer Evans was born in Liverpool, England, about the year 1838, and at an early age went to sea for five or six years in a sailing ship. In 1865 he "came into steam"; and in 1883 joined the Lamport & Holt Line as third officer, subsequently working himself up to present rank of chief officer, which he reached in 1915.

The many friends of Frederick J. Newcombe will regret to learn that he is confined to the epidemic hospital with diptheria. His condition is not serious.

TELEGRAPH CO. WANTS ITS PAY IN ADVANCE NOW

United States Government Too Slow in Paying Bills it is Alleged.

Washington, Nov. 16.—The long standing controversy between the United States State Department and the Western Union Telegraph Company has reached the stage of an open break, the company refusing to handle any further cable messages of the United States.

The Western Union Company is stated to have based its action on the delay by the department in making payments on cable messages previously handled. Department officials asserted today, however, that it was in their opinion a step in retaliation for the failure of the department to permit the landing of a cable at Miami, Fla., connected with the Barbadoes with a British cable from South America.

NO "BIG THREES" AT GENEVA CONFERENCE

All Questions to be Freely and Fully Debated—Hope for Future Good.

By EARL W. ACKERMAN. Copyright 1920 by Public Ledger Co., Geneva, Nov. 16.—Germany today threw down the gauntlet to France on the question of her admission to the League of Nations through Dr. Muller, the German minister at Paris, in a statement to the Journal de Geneve. The league's counsel and the secretary were yesterday that Germany would not ask to be admitted, but would not refuse an invitation if one was extended by the assembly.

CAPTURED GERMAN GUNS AT GAGETOWN

Three Enemy Trophies Now at Capital of Queens Co.—Placed in Memorial Hall.

Gagetown, Nov. 16.—That the capital of Queens was not overlooked by the Militia Department was shown recently when three captured German guns arrived here as Gagetown's share in the distribution of war trophies. The largest gun is a trench mortar, about seven feet in length, built in 1916. It is mounted on wheels and is still in workable condition. The rim of one wheel bears the mark of a hit from shrapnel. The other two trophies are machine guns; one a large affair requiring two men, the other designed for one man. The former is evidently a relic of early days of the war, bearing marks of hard usage. Three machine gun bullets have left their mark upon it, two having torn off the spring, and the other found its way directly through the water jacket. Worn canvas pads for the knees of the gunners and the shoulders of those carrying it are eloquent reminders of what our soldiers long contended against.

NO "BIG THREES" IN GENEVA

There are no "Big Threes" or "Big Fours" in Geneva, no Wilsons, Clemenceaus, Lloyd Georges, or Bismarcks, no supermen or advocates of super-stitutes. Geneva, in contrast to the Paris and Vienna congresses, gives promise of being the scene of a great international parliament, where the object will be to exchange and debate ideas, not for the purpose of clasping bolts of iron around the universe to hold it together, but for the purpose of laying a common foundation upon which all countries can work together.

Despite the belief of league critics there is little indication that Geneva is to be the center of the league. Far more is here evidence that the meeting of the assembly will be the funeral of the methods with which the Paris and Versailles statesmen used in Paris because Geneva is not to be a burial place for ideas. There are storms over such problems as the admission of Germany, the Japanese racial equality plank, German reparations and disarmament, military alliances and secret treaties.

CAPTURED GERMAN GUNS AT GAGETOWN

Three Enemy Trophies Now at Capital of Queens Co.—Placed in Memorial Hall.

Special to The Standard. Gagetown, Nov. 16.—That the capital of Queens was not overlooked by the Militia Department was shown recently when three captured German guns arrived here as Gagetown's share in the distribution of war trophies. The largest gun is a trench mortar, about seven feet in length, built in 1916. It is mounted on wheels and is still in workable condition. The rim of one wheel bears the mark of a hit from shrapnel. The other two trophies are machine guns; one a large affair requiring two men, the other designed for one man. The former is evidently a relic of early days of the war, bearing marks of hard usage. Three machine gun bullets have left their mark upon it, two having torn off the spring, and the other found its way directly through the water jacket. Worn canvas pads for the knees of the gunners and the shoulders of those carrying it are eloquent reminders of what our soldiers long contended against.

London, Nov. 16.—According to a despatch from Vienna to the Sunday Herald, a revolt of workers has broken out at Budapest. Troops supporting the regime of Admiral Horthy, the Hungarian regent, are occupying all public buildings.

Pound Tuesday was observed by Trinity Branch of the Women's Auxiliary whose meeting was held at the School House yesterday afternoon. This is an annual event, when the members bring in a pound of goods to be sold for the benefit of the Indian Home in A...

Work for this sale begins every year, many members taking time to sew during the week. From the opening of the meetings clothes suitable for the Indian people or gifts for the Indian are prepared, and the sale is held in November. Following the sale is an annual communion service in the school house, when the clergy throughout the diocese are invited to attend. The sale is held in the work among the Indian people, for Christmas books, candies, and nuts are sold in these boxes, so that the school scholars may have a treat which would otherwise lack of its traditional accompaniment.

FEAR THE IRISH

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 16.—The Rock police yesterday were alerted by a letter from their Consul W. J. W. of St. Louis, to protect subjects in this district. The letter quoted a warning from the "Irish-American" which declared the lives of three Englishmen in U. S. would be taken in retribution for the death of seven Irishmen in the hands of English soldiers or sailors, after Nov. 16th.

Trinity Branch of Women's Auxiliary Preparing Bales for Indian Home in Algoma

Pound Tuesday was observed at the Trinity Branch of the Women's Auxiliary where meeting was held in the School House yesterday afternoon. This is an annual event, when members bring in a pound of groceries or a donation of canned goods which is packed in the bales to be sent to the Sledgwick Indian Home in Algoma. The meeting was splendidly attended and the contributions most generous. Mrs. Leigh R. Harrison, president, presided.

Work for this bales begins in the New Year, many members taking garments to sew during the summer. From the opening of the Autumn meetings clothes suitable for the Indian pupils or gifts for the teachers are prepared, and the bales is dispatched in November. Following this sewing is at once commenced for Christmas boxes which are sent to the clergy throughout the diocese and which contain many useful articles to help in the work among the country parishes. Gifts for Christmas trees, books, candies, and nuts are included in these boxes, so that the Sunday School scholars may have a celebration which would otherwise lack some of its traditional accompaniments.

As a part of the celebration of Anniversary week, members of Centenary Church met last evening at a social reunion held in the school house. The entertainment was greatly enjoyed by the large number in attendance. Rev. H. A. Goodwin was chairman.

An excellent musical programme was arranged, which was as follows: Piano solo—March Honorus (by Kowalski)..... Arnold Young Solo—"It is Only a Tiny Flower" (by Hayden Wood)..... Mrs. G. Lockhart Solo—"Unity"..... William Lanyon Solo and Chorus—"List to the Lark" (by Dickinson)—Mrs. L. M. Curran and members of the choir.

Refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid, of which Mrs. George Jenkins is president. Presiding at the supper table, which was beautifully centred with yellow chrysanthemums, were Mrs. J. Verner McLean and Mrs. A. H. Merrill.

W. L. George Gives Views On Marriage

Writer of Modern Novels Advises a Little Quarrel Now and Then.

No less an authority than W. L. George has been laying down the law with regard to marriage. As the author has made a critical study of sex problems, he is probably in an advantageous position to speak with authority as anyone we know, says The Winnipeg Evening Telegram.

Mr. George approves of marriage; "it is always worth trying" and "it is the only insurance company which insures a policy against loneliness." But he is not happy "the marriage machine must be run with technique and art." The phrase registers the advance we have made from Jane Austen and even from Henry James. It should appeal to the millions of people who have contracted "good old ordinary marriages" such as Mr. George recommends. Like the Mollere character who had been told to "talk, please, all his life without knowing it, they have all the while in blissful unconsciousness been running their marriage machines with the technique and art necessary to happy marriages. Mr. George counsels frequent expressions of affection to promote domestic harmony, but urges also, a little cave-man stoniness: "Have a real good quarrel now and then and get it over; it all helps to strengthen the perfect union. But is not one trouble with a code of precepts for perfect marriage the difficulty of applying general rules to particular cases? As it was observed in "Anna Karenina," all happy families resemble one another, but every unhappy family is unhappy after its own fashion.

VISCOUNT GREY IS SLOWLY LOSING SIGHT

London, Nov. 16.—Viscount Grey's eyesight is so impaired that he is "unable to see birds and flowers," according to a letter which he has written to the Berwickshire Naturalists Club declining an invitation to participate in one or two field meetings.

AS SIR EDWARD GREY, THE VISCOUNT WAS BRITISH SECRETARY OF STATE FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS AT THE BEGINNING OF THE WORLD WAR AND CONDUCTED THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT CONCERNING THE POSSIBILITY OF EVADING HOSTILITIES. HE WAS FOR A SHORT TIME BRITISH AMBASSADOR IN WASHINGTON IN THE LATTER PART OF LAST YEAR. HIS EYESIGHT HAS LONG BEEN FAILING.

MRS. SOLOMON SAYS:—

By HELEN ROWLAND (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) Being the Confessions of the Seventh-Hundredth Wife.

My daughter, hear now the Proverbs of the Snob and the Creed of the Climber. Verily, verily, with the Snob, I worship at the shrine of the Almighty Dollar and sing praises to the glory of the Social Register! The rustle of silk is as music in mine ears, and the fragrance of gasoline is as incense in my nostrils.

Better a dinner of herbs served upon a gold platter by a servant in livery, than a feast of terrapin and champagne in the house where there is no butler. And where the COOK waltzes on table, it is folly to linger.

For what profiteth it a man though he win a place in the Hall of Fame, if the doors of the EXCLUSIVE houses be shut against him? Behold, the Prince may chum with the papper, and the Millionaire may delight in the company of the bohemian. But to shine amongst Shop-girls and command the respect of Waiters, requireth Paris zowms and an English accent. For they cannot be deceived by false signs and imitations.

Lo, what honor hath a woman, though she possess all the beauty of an hour and all the style of a mannikin, and cannot say, "CHARGE IT, please!" when she goeth shopping? Go to! A last year's coat may cover an honest heart, but a mantle of sable covereth a multitude of sins and a promise of many dinner invitations. Yes, better a cool nod from a purple touring-car, than a warm greeting and a "Hi!" from a Tim Lizzie.

An entertaining companion is good for the soul, and a brilliant talker is a delight, but to be SEEN in a limousine beside the dull, fat Dowager is exceeding good advertising. Shall the damsel behind the Hyvored chauffeur greet the matron in the second-hand flivver cordially? Nay, verily.

But on HORSEBACK all women are equal! The summer of a tiara graceeth the crown, my Daughter, and the light of intelligence; and a good wine-cellar is more to be honored than paid-up debts.

A smattering of near-French is the sum of all knowledge; and an understanding of the forks and spoons is more to be desired than a college education. Lo, what is so pleasant as to be able to cut an old friend, and what so comforting as a jeweled netzette, wherewith to insult the presumptuous? A snub for the too-friendly, a smile for the haughty, a stare for the humble, and a kiss for the foot that would kick thee; for the runs of the social ladder are of red hot iron and exceeding slippery.

Verily, verily, a man may learn much in his day and a woman may acquire great savoir faire. But a little Pomeranian shall teach them the grande manner; and the arrogance of a Pekinese, WHO can surpass it? Have endless the creed of the Snob, my Daughter. Give him the fruit of his labor; which is the crumbs from the feast of Life, and a bitter taste in the mouth!

Large Audiences Enjoyed Production of "Maggie Pepper" Was Well Played by Local Cast Under Auspices of I. L. and B. S.

Maggie Pepper, a play telling the story of a business woman who made good and who brought happiness to her loved ones by her courage, brightness and common sense, was given an excellent presentation at the Imperial Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening under the auspices of the Irish Literary and Benevolent Society. There are three acts in this play which is by Charles Klein and which was given yesterday so successfully under the personal supervision of John B. McCloskey before large audiences. The principal role calls for much dramatic ability on the part of the actress and Miss Blanche A. O'Brien measured well up to character, speaking her lines with distinctiveness and giving a splendid rendering of several of the tense moments in the development of the plot. She has a very pleasing stage presence and seemed perfectly at her ease, Joseph Calnan, at the hero, gave an excellent account of himself. All the characters were free from many of the faults commonly seen in amateur productions. Pretty gowns and lovely furs were worn by the ladies. Comedy was supplied principally by Miss Loyola M. Duffey as the port model, and by Mr. McCloskey as Jake Rothchilds, a Jew. The stage settings showed attention to detail. The chaperons were Mrs. J. George and Mrs. M. T. Morris.

Oxford Degrees For Fifty Women

Ancient University Breaks Traditions—Graduates Old and Young.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.) Oxford, Nov. 16.—Fifty gray-haired women and girls in their early twenties together have just received the first degrees ever granted women by Oxford University.

Some of the women had qualified twenty years ago. Several had been active in war work or government service or are prominent in educational circles. The heads of the women's colleges were given degrees as master of arts and made part of a group which included many of their former students. The picturesque traditional ceremony which accompanies the conferring of a degree at Oxford was witnessed by thousands of women, who cannot hope ever to become strong and well again unless they have plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach; it is an entirely different thing from ordinary metallic iron. It quickly helps make rich, red blood, revitalizes worn-out, exhausted nerves and gives you new strength and energy. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using it. For sale by all druggists. Beware of substitutes. The genuine has "N. I." stamped on every tablet. Always insist on having the genuine.

THE HOME RULE BILL.

Having passed the Commons safely, the Home Rule for Ireland Bill has now to run the gauntlet of the Lords, by whom it was read a first time on Monday. This is the third Home Rule Bill to pass the Commons, the last of this nature having been passed in 1914 by (then) Premier Asquith, but on account of the outbreak of the war its operation was postponed, and the situation created by it was precluded the enactment of certain amendments to the bill which further consideration indicated were required.

Several amendments were made to the Bill during its passage through the Commons, and it is said that still more are likely to be made to it by the Lords. The fundamental principles of the measure are:— First—That the people of the six Ulster counties shall not be brought, unless by consent, under a general parliament in Ireland.

Second—That there shall not be any weakening of the reservations which have been made by the government for the purpose of safeguarding the vital interests of the United Kingdom. The Bill provides for two Legislatures, with upper and lower Houses, one for the North of Ireland, and the other for the South. This idea of two separate Legislatures does not appeal to many people, but such is only the logical outcome of the principle of self-determination concerning which we hear so much these days.

"A Council for Ireland," composed of 40 members, half of whom would be selected by each Legislature, also is provided for in the Bill. The powers of the Council would be limited to those granted it by the Legislatures. The framers of the Bill, it was said, hoped the Council would form the nucleus around which could be built one parliament for the whole of Ireland.

The two Legislatures would have full control of education, local government, the land policy, transportation, old age pensions, insurance and other matters. A Court of Appeal for the whole of Ireland, presided over by the lord chancellor, is provided for. Neither body may establish any particular religious creed, or penalize anyone for belonging to or not belonging to any religious denomination.

Control of the Royal Irish Constabulary and the metropolitan police of Dublin would be transferred by the Imperial Parliament to the Irish Parliament three years after the act comes into operation.

Foreign relations, the Imperial Parliament embrace the Crown, peace and war, foreign affairs, army and navy, colonies, defence, treason, trade outside of Ireland, post office, navigation, including merchant shipping, wireless and cables, and collection of income and excess profit taxes.

Both north and south Ireland would contribute for two years to the support of the empire.

It is to be hoped that some day a way may be found of reconciling the hostile elements in Ireland. It is in the divisions within Ireland itself, not in any want of good-will on England's part, that there lies the obstacle—and practically the only obstacle—which still delays that peaceful settlement which the British democracy sincerely desire.

STRAIGHT TALK ONLY.

There has been no pussyfooting in Mr. Meighen's contact with the people of the west, no hedging, no pretence, no cant. Straightforwardness has characterized all his utterances, his treatment of all issues, his answers to all questions. Some may disagree with him, none can accuse him of avoiding disagreement by the sacrifice of conviction.

The Premier has not endeavored to shape his statements that they might seem to meet sectional views of western audiences. At Medicine Hat he was given a civic reception at which the Mayor, in his address, referred to the deep interest of the Medicine Hat district in irrigation projects and expressed hope for action by the Federal Government. He was before a gathering of citizens who wanted to hear his views on suggestions that his Government should undertake the measures which are thought necessary to ensure regular crops in the dry areas of Alberta. Obviously, as the Ottawa Journal says, he could have worn an expression that indicated he was in agreement with its views, but he might even have satisfied it with out committing himself. A little equivocation would have been easy. But Mr. Meighen did not consult the views of his audience but his own in making his reply. He told the people of the Medicine Hat district plainly that in his opinion they should not look to the Dominion to carry out or contribute toward irrigation undertakings. That actual irrigation construction work was a matter for themselves and the province. The Dominion had done its share when it spent a million and a half dollars in irrigation surveys and studies. Responsibility for carrying out irrigation projects rested with the provincial and local authorities. His attitude may have been displeasing to the people of the Medicine Hat district, but he did not attempt to camouflage it.

With the same candour the Premier has defeated palpable attempts to confuse his policies. "I am asked," he said at Calgary in discussing railway questions, "if we are so intoxicated with the prospect of government ownership that we shall eventually take over the Canadian Pacific." He meets the question with a frank statement of opinion. "It is better the way it is than embodied in any government system," he said. "So long as it is efficiently managed and operated as at present the Government system can take example from it."

With the kind of "political diplomacy" that seeks to be all things to all men Mr. Meighen has nothing to do. In this there is the greatest contrast between him and the Leader of the Opposition. If Mr. King, by his methods makes friends, then the Premier must at least be admired for the enemies he makes.

THE LIQUOR QUESTION IN SCOTLAND.

It is well that there should be no misunderstanding with regard to the recent temperance voting in Scotland. It was not an attempt on the part of the temperance advocates to put prohibition to the test; it was merely an effort to curtail the number of licenses and eliminate some of the most glaring evils connected with the traffic. The returns were disappointing to the reformers, especially in the large centres of population, where the worst abuses of the traffic abound. The result is not so far decisive, as voting will continue until December, and the smaller parishes, of which 240 are already dry through the veto of the landowners, may do better. Details may also show that the popular majority for the liquor trade is not overwhelming.

It is possible that in some districts liquor forces won a minority of the votes polled, as the law requires a majority of 55 per cent. for "no license," which must include 35 per cent. of the electors on the register. Even for the reduction of the number of licenses by one-fourth it is necessary to poll 25 per cent. of the total registered vote.

The distillery interest of Scotland is rich and powerful. It spent large sums to prevent even the slightest restrictions upon its business in the most drink-soaked slums of the cities. It had an outpost in every public house and every licensed shop. Scotland is also a country in which drinking customs and habits are far more strongly entrenched than they ever have been in North America.

It has to be borne in mind that in the old land, and especially in Scotland, the traffic is not viewed in the same light as here. Men of the highest social standing and apparent respectability, including pillars of the church, are engaged in the business, and there is apparently no prejudice against them. The traffic is so strongly entrenched that reformers have despaired of success.

The recent round with John Barleycorn has, however, demonstrated that the case is not hopeless, and as, under the law, the battle can be revived every three years, it may be that success will ultimately be achieved by his enemies.

In the British Columbia election, which takes place on December 1, there are a hundred and fifty candidates for forty-seven seats. They include Conservatives and Liberals, Laborites, Socialists, Veterans, Rent payers, and Independents, who are too separate from their fellows to be classed. Any result is possible with so many political horses in the field. The chances are that the hard fight will be between Conservatives and Liberals, with Labor third on the list of winners, and far back. In the United States, where conditions are much as they are here, they also had many candidates in the late big contest. Nobody seems to have counted the votes for more than the two old partisans, however.

ENGLAND LONG WAY FROM PROHIBITION

At a time when the keenest interest is being taken in the Scottish votes for or against prohibition, it is enlightening to hear the opinions of a man like Percy Chaplin, the managing director of W. H. Chaplin Co., Ltd., London, England.

When asked to give his opinion upon the future of prohibition in the Old Country, he states that there was a movement on foot to improve the condition of public houses by the trade themselves. It had been recognized for some time that public houses in England were possibly the cause of intemperance, owing to the conditions which had existed in the public house trade for very many years. There is now a tendency, which has already borne fruit, to make conditions in the public houses more attractive, and more approximating to the continental style. If those who have taken part in this reform are successful it is their opinion, and also the opinion of the Scotch, that the public houses which prohibition will not get a foothold.

"As far as I can see," said Mr. Chaplin, "it is apparently the policy of the British Government to tax spirits are concerned, to tax the country dry, as nearly as they can. At the old rate of exchange $4.88 to the £ the price of the highest quality Scotch whisky is equal to no less than $2.00 per bottle, and this mark you, is at the low strength of 30 under proof in England, which is the highest at which it is permitted to sell spirits today."

Mr. Chaplin was invited to state how the position of the distillers agreed with that of the brewers, the latter replied "Beer is in the same position as spirits are in the Old Country today." The present duty is a great many times more than it was before the war. This has already caused great discontent among the working classes, to whom beer is practically a food, and a necessity. All those who have experienced an English climate in the winter know that it differs very materially from all other climates in the world, and it is perhaps in this respect that from the dawn of English history we have found alcoholic liquor playing an important, but never derogating part in the affairs of the British Empire.

When Mr. Chaplin was asked what his opinions were with regard to prohibition in this Dominion he replied "that he was most interested in the fact that conditions in what he called Quebec were not so bad as they were in the rest of North America, and that it was still possible to buy in this province light wines and beers. He sincerely hoped that the rest of Canada would shortly come to the same conclusion, for the temperate use of liquors had proved an invaluable benefit to various communities of Europe and elsewhere in the past."

"It would seem to be the right course to stamp out the abuses to which it is obvious liquor is being subjected in many countries by the prohibition of these very abuses, the chief of which has been in the old days, the sale of immature spirits."

Australia was the first country to deal practically with this subject and long ago insisted that no spirits should be sold in that country, which were not guaranteed of a greater maturity than two years. England has now followed suit, imposing a restriction on sales of all liquors which are not less than three years matured. Canada for its own domestic spirits, has instituted an age limit of two years, and it seems that the British visitor in this country, a very extraordinary thing, that spirits from other countries should be permitted to enter Canada without any limit as to age.

It appears to be common knowledge that immature spirits are entering Canada today, which not only seems to be an unfair competition, against your own home producers, but an abuse against which all Canadians should combine and take steps to prevent in the future.

When Mr. Chaplin was asked whether there was any real prospect of prohibition being introduced into either Scotland or Canada, he replied with the greatest emphasis "that the only prospect which Mr. Johnson had of success, was of precipitating an old Scotch whisky into the sea. The Old Country had prepared themselves for sweeping a disaster, and this did not seem likely to occur."

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Where the Soldiers' Party. (Vancouver Sun.) What has happened to the movement for the formation of a separate soldiers' party in Canada? For a time the idea seemed to have taken a strong hold and to be flourishing mightily. But it has subsided so completely that it is practically nothing left of it except a few would-be organizers, who are still going through the motions though accomplishing nothing. Eighteen months ago the old line parties were nervous on the subject of soldier candidates. There was much talk that the reformer would be a group in the next parliament who would have to be reckoned with. To-day nothing of the kind is heard. A large measure obtained. The explanation is not far to seek. The soldiers had grievances and band ed themselves together, by a natural instinct to seek redress. This they have done. Consequently they are settling back into their old political affiliations. They are dividing into Nationalists, or Liberals, or Farmers or Laborites, as the case may be. The motives which might have made a soldiers' party permanent have ceased to operate. And so it probably will remain. The disposition of the community to treat them fairly will be fortified by the consciousness that they can get together if need be. There still is a due number of soldiers on each of the political tickets and a reasonable proportion of them will be elected. But the country apparently will not have a distinct military organization in public affairs.

Wheat Marketing.

(Edmonton Journal.) Those who follow the process of wheat marketing during the time that the exchanges have been closed must realize how extremely difficult it is not quite impossible, it would be for Canada to attempt to market its crop through a government board with an open market prevailing across the line. We may say attention to American practices and there is quite evidently not the slightest chance that the markets will be closed there again. The testimony from Mr. Julius H. Barnes, former director general of the U. S. grain corporation, which was published on Saturday, was very clear and direct. He is emphatically of the opinion that under present conditions the wheat growers are winners as a result of the restoration of the trade to its old channels. His comparisons between wheat prices and those of other products indicate that the wheat farmer is getting off very well during the period of readjustment which has to be faced with all its difficult problems. The decline in wheat he put at 18 per cent as compared with 55 for cotton.

C. H. Dexter Receives Contract to Supply 246,700 Regular Blocks at $106.
Mrs. Marie Thomas and Geo. Donnelly Charged With Statutory Offence.

The city council yesterday, after considerable debate, accepted the tender of C. H. Dexter for granite paving blocks and rejected all the tenders for special paving blocks and curbing, the price of the latter being considered too high. The vacancies on the school board were filled by the re-appointment of the present trustees and the school board will be asked to have the law amended to provide that no trustee serve more than six years. Mayor Schofield presided and Commissioners Thornton, Jones, Frink and Bullock were present.

Tenders for Granite Paving
 Commissioner Frink reported three tenders for granite paving blocks, R. B. Hanington, $115 per thousand; B. Mooney and Sons $110 per thousand and C. H. Dexter $106 per thousand and moved the tender of the latter be accepted for 246,700 regular blocks. Commissioner Bullock questioned the ability of Mr. Dexter to fulfill his contract and asked what the deposit was. He was informed that it was $500. This he did not consider enough and suggested that it be made at least 5 per cent of the contract. On motion of Commissioner Frink the council went into committee to hear Mr. Dexter. Mr. Dexter said he had taken over the business of Morrison and Newlands. He had sent in a certified cheque for $500 and was willing to make a further guarantee if this was deemed necessary. Commissioner Frink's motion for the acceptance of the tender was lost. Commissioner Bullock voting against it.

THINK "WIDLAR"
CAN BE RESCUED

Owners and Captain Believe Vessel's Hull Not Seriously Injured.

Soo, Mich., Nov. 16.—Captain Arthur Forbes, of the wrecked steamer Francis J. Widlar, and representatives of the Becker Line, owners of the vessel, were planning today to salvage the freighter which was driven upon Par-cake Shoals in Lake Superior Friday night and had, up to noon yesterday, withstood the pounding of the heavy seas.
 According to Captain Forbes, with the 27 members of his crew, who arrived here, last night aboard tugs, the steamer was not believed so badly damaged below the waterline that she could not be saved.
 The members of the crew, recovered from their sixty hours' exposure on the stranded vessel, were preparing to leave for their homes. Nothing had been heard early today of the whereabouts of the steamer, Charles N. Bradley, another vessel overtaken by the severe storm last week. All other steamers on Superior at the time have been accounted for.

 The case took up the entire day and the case took up the entire day at the end of the hearing.
 At the close of the action the argument in the case of R. Chester Peck against Elijah R. Fullerton for slander and malicious prosecution will be heard.

Uric Acid In Meat
Clogs The Kidneys

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers.
 If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.
 To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia salts. It is not a cathartic, it flushes and stimulates sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.
 Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a deliciously effective and healthful drink.

CONDEMNS FIRMS FOR GIVING AID TO U. S. TRADE

Deputy Minister of Canada Says Canadians Pass Trade Inquiries to States.

CUT OFFENDERS OFF THE LISTS

Canadian Raw Materials, Exported from Land, Return as Finished Product.

Ottawa, Nov. 16.—Canadian firms who have passed business inquiries to firms in the United States are criticized in the annual report of F. C. T. O'Hara, deputy minister of Trade and Commerce, made public today. Mr. O'Hara makes a strong plea for building up Canada's foreign trade through Canadian channels.

"The only skeleton in Canada's foreign closet," says Mr. O'Hara, "is the dependence of Canadian firms upon foreign channels. Every possible effort should be made to ship Canadian goods through Canadian channels, from Canadian seaports to foreign markets to which the goods are destined."

The great increase of Canada's merchant marine will go a long way in assisting this object. Canadian export trade should be independent. It would assist in building up Canadian seaports and direct overseas connections.

Imports Own Materials
Canada imports every day goods made under foreign flags from Canadian raw materials. The Canadian purchaser pays the wages and the profits of the foreign manufacturer, also transportation costs of both raw material and finished goods. In resources and variety of raw materials, in steel and power for factories, in transportation and in situation with regard to the world's markets, Canada is unrivalled.

Mr. O'Hara then takes up the point of Canadian firms passing on business to firms outside Canada. "Not infrequently," Mr. O'Hara says, "cases are brought to the attention of the department of Canadian firms, before whom the department has placed information as to purchases and sale abroad, who have referred such inquiries to firms in the United States."

Cut Off Lists
In such cases the department has removed the names of such firms from its lists of Canadian export firms so that no further information will be furnished them.

Complaints have also reached the department from foreign buyers that upon their placing an order with certain Canadian manufacturers to purchase goods manufactured by them they have been referred to agencies in the United States and informed that such United States agents handle their foreign business. In some cases foreign purchasers have thereupon refused to place an order.

RANGE NARROW BUT THE MARKET GAINED STRENGTH

Cheaper Money Gave Additional Firmness to All Wall Street Stocks.

New York, Nov. 16.—Business on the stock exchange today was dull and contracted in comparison with recent feverish activity. But the undertone showed greater firmness on the further elimination of weakened accounts. In large part the market's stability was ascribed to sentimental influences created by the brisk recovery of foreign exchange and fulfillment of yesterday's promise of easier money, albeit the latter condition dealt almost entirely with call loans.

Demand bills on London rose 7 3/4 cents to the pound over last week's minimum, and exchange on Paris also improved, with concurrent betterment in remittances to many continental points. The Greek rate, however, made no visible response to interesting political developments in that country.

Call Money Eight Per Cent.
Call money opened at 8 per cent. the lowest initial figure of the month, and held at that rate throughout the session, but nominal amounts were offered unofficially, according to reports at yesterday's low quotation of seven per cent. in the last hour.

The cheaper motor shares and several of the food products and equipments again proved vulnerable to pressure, shippings also falling sharply in the later dealings, but a majority of the potential leaders were variably higher or unchanged. Sales amounted to 775,000 shares. Home market reported additional concessions in leading commodities, including a cut in refined sugar to below ten cents.

Further downward revision also resulted from the diminished inquiry for silver, and some of the base metals and the backward movement in textile and kindred trades gathered fresh momentum. Liberty bonds and most of the domestic issues were irregular on smaller offerings, the initial group, however, manifesting a better trend with foreign exchange. Total sales, par value, aggregated $14,400,000.

Ontario State bonds were unchanged on call.

NEWS PRINT IS OFFERED IN N. Y. AT NEW LOW

New York, Nov. 16.—Newsprint is being offered in the spot market below seven cents, a new low record in the current downward movement. The paper is being offered in moderate amounts with buyers who want paper for immediate delivery holding off. The amount of spot paper which is being taken is small, but this is not surprising in view of the fact that practically all the users are consuming the last on their contract allotments which were made late in 1919 for the following year. Some consumers influenced by the talked of paper famine have now found that they contracted for more than enough paper for this year's needs in spite of the heavy advertising.

Newsprint for spot delivery to the extent of 3,000 tons has been offered in the New York market delivered at 530 cents a pound by representatives of German interests. One large publication which is using the German product has sent its representative to Germany to supervise the manufacture of the product which is already contracted for. It is held that the German product which has been received, has in some instances not been up to specifications as to size.

Big Delegations Explain Alleged Unfair Treatment of Local Growers.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 16.—Nova Scotia growers and agriculturists assured by Hon. P. B. Carver, man of the railway commission session held here today for the purpose of discussing the proposed increase of the rates of the railway that their complaint as to the need of the rates obtaining in Nova Scotia as compared with those in Ontario would receive consideration. When it was out that it cost the railway five per more in express rates to Sydney, Nova Scotia, than it cost to Ontario, Mr. Carver said that there was apparent thing wrong somewhere.

The session of the committee attended by leading officials of the railway commission, backed by a delegation of Nova Scotia growers, and the Halifax Board of Trade, that there was apparently no need in Halifax against a reduction of the express rates. People said, felt it was a matter that well be left to the commission. The enlargement of the radius of the express delivery, however, was urged by Saunders, secretary of the board of the officials of the express company promised to look into the matter.

Professor Cummings, secretary of the Nova Scotia growers, said that there were one or two of Nova Scotia products, soft vegetables, etc., which would not profit if subject to rate of forty per cent, and he expressed rates here.

"How is it?" asked the chairman. "They produce and ship larger quantities" replied a representative.

The chairman: "I would like more of this matter."

RAILWAY BOARD PROMISES STUDY OF N. S. FRUITS

Big Delegations Explain Alleged Unfair Treatment of Local Growers.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 16.—Nova Scotia fruit growers and agriculturists were assured by Hon. P. B. Carroll, chairman of the railway commission, at the session held here today for the purpose of discussing the proposed tariff increase of the express companies that their complaint as to the unfairness of the rates obtaining in Nova Scotia as compared with those obtaining in Ontario would receive very consideration. When it was pointed out that it cost the valley fruit shipper more in express rates to ship to Sydney, Nova Scotia, than it cost the Ontario shipper, Mr. Carroll intimated that there was apparently something wrong somewhere.

Many Are There. The session of the commission was attended by leading officials of the express companies backed by an array of counsel. President H. Wiltman of the Halifax Board of Trade, explained that there was apparently no adverse feeling in Halifax against a reasonable increase in rates. People here, he said, felt it was a matter that might well be left to the commission for adjustment. The enlargement of the radius of the express delivery in Halifax, however, was urged by E. A. Saunders, secretary of the board, and the officials of the express companies promised to look into the matter very carefully.

Professor Cummings, secretary for agriculture for the province, pointed out that there were one or two classes of Nova Scotia products, soft fruit and vegetables, etc., which would be shipped at profit if subject to rate increase of forty per cent. and he compared express rates here.

"How is it," asked the chairman, "there are different fruit rates here and in Ontario?" "They produce and ship them in larger quantities," replied an express representative. The chairman: "I would like to hear more of this matter."

Strawberry Growers. Mr. M. Ellis of Port William, whose concern ships about a third of the strawberries produced in the valley, said that under scale N they had a twenty per cent. reduction in shipping charges but that scale L1 had been abolished. This meant an increase of fifty per cent. Nova Scotia never had the commodity rates of Ontario, which could ship as cheaply to Sydney as could the valley. "It looks to me as though something ought to be abolished," remarked the chairman.

T. E. Macdonnell said it was a fact the Maritime Provinces had no fruit commodities rates. The chairman asked if something is granted to four-fifths of Canada why not to the other fifth. Mr. H. Church of Falmouth, who conducts a large greenhouse and market gardening business there, said that his interests ship about 400 tons

Dominion Rubber System Rubbers

Made Expressly for Children

THEY are designed by men who know children, Canadian winters and rubbers.

They fit the little shoes snugly; they are easy and comfortable because dealers who carry these Dominion Rubber System products can get all shapes and sizes for children's shoes.

The Dominion Rubber System rubbers are made with good, stout soles and heels to stand the kicks and scuffs which active children give to rubbers.

Dominion Rubber System rubbers mean dry feet—mean that the kiddies won't catch cold or have sore throats because of wet feet. Rubbers, properly fitted as the Dominion Rubber System dealers fit them, enable the children to wear old shoes in wet weather and thus save their good shoes.

When you take the children for new rubbers, be sure to find the dealer who carries Dominion Rubber System rubbers. He will take particular pains to see that they are properly fitted with rubbers that will wear well.

Dominion Rubber System rubbers are made in shapes and styles to fit all shoes for men, women and children and are sold by the best dealers throughout Canada.

Thirty-Second Annual Review

James W. Power of Halifax Shows Records Broken, Fields Larger

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 16.—The thirty-second annual review by James W. Power, sporting editor of the Acadia Recorder of the turf season in the Maritime Provinces prepared for publication this afternoon shows a continuance of the great progress made in the previous year. Several records were lowered; faster time in general was made than ever before; the fields were larger than usual, and trotters were more plentiful. Several track records were lowered.

Peter Farren
Peter Farren, 2:07 1/4, lowered the Chatham record to 2:08 1/4. Fredericton, N. B., 2:09 1/4, lowered Woodstock record to 2:11. Bellefleur, 2:10 1/4, placed the Truro track record at 2:14. Corwin, 2:13 1/4, lowered Montague, P. E. I., record to 2:19. 2:21 is held jointly by Orwell Belle, 2:18 1/4 and Hilda S., 2:16.

794 Heats For Season

Seven hundred and ninety-four heats were trotted, or paced in 2:30 or better, or 127 more than in the previous year, or 382 more than in 1918. Sixty heats were trotted or paced from 2:40 to 2:50; 84 from 2:50 to 3:00; 261 from 3:00 to 3:10; 281 from 3:10 to 3:20; and 162 from 3:20 to 3:30. Peter Farren, 2:07 1/4, driven by D. O. Keefe, St. John, and driven by W. Brickett, was the fastest performer of the year, lowering the Maritime Province record to 2:07 1/4 at Chatham, as well as pacing the fastest three heats on a provincial track, 2:10 1/2, 2:08 1/4, 2:09. He won the fastest four heat races on the Maritime Provinces in 4:08 1/4, 2:08 3/4, 2:12 1/4. Fern Hal winning the third heat on 2:12 3/4.

Bill Sharon Senseless
The sensation of the season was Bill Sharon, owned by A. Alcorn, Blackville, N. B., driven by Peter Carroll and recently purchased by Thomas W. Murphy, the noted horseman of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., for $25,000. He was in twelve races in the provinces and Maine, and was never defeated. In five different heats he trotted in 2:11 1/4, the fastest mile ever trotted by a horse used in the Maritime Provinces. At Fredericton he was the fastest four heat race ever trotted in the provinces in 2:11 1/4, 2:11 1/4, 2:12 1/4, 2:14. Brage, driven by Frank Boutinier, sharing in the honors by winning the first heat in 2:11 1/2.

Fastest New Pacer

Dick C. owned and driven by D. A. McKinnon, Charlottetown, was the fastest new pacer of the year, with 2:14 1/2, at Charlottetown. Toke M., owned by J. W. Gallagher, Woodstock, and driven by Hamilton, was the fastest new trotter of the season, 2:14 1/4, at Fredericton, as well as the fastest trotting gelding. Bill H. S., owned by W. C. P. Oakes, was driven by Jimmy Boutinier, was the fastest provincial bred pacer of the year, 2:15 1/4, at Chatham. Saskia, owned by W. H. Koyne, St. Stephen, was the fastest trotting mare of the year, 2:15 3/4, at Fredericton. Miss Belle Rico, owned and driven by H. McArthur, was the fastest green trotting mare of the year, with 2:15 1/4, at Fredericton.

New Performers

Forty-six new performers entered the 2:30 list, and thirty-four others, already included therein, lowered their records.

The Recorder's list of record harness horses in the Maritime Provinces thirty years ago, shows that the fastest record horse racing on the provincial tracks was Black Prince, 2:30 1/4.

HALIFAX BALL PLAYER DEAD
The funeral of Charles Foley, the Halifax baseball player, was held Monday from his mother's residence, 104 Agricola street, and was largely attended. No more popular athlete than "Charlie" Foley ever performed on the Halifax diamonds, and the news testified to his popularity with the public.

The late Mr. Foley is well known to the St. John ball players who will learn with regret of his death.

English Cricketers Won Melbourne, Victoria, Nov. 16—The English cricket team, now touring Australia, today defeated a Victoria eleven by an innings and 59 runs.

Maritime And Maine Circuit

Meeting is Called by Secretary to be Held in Chatham November 24th.

Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 16.—A meeting of the Maritime and Maine Circuit, which conducted the harness racing in the Maritime Provinces during the past season and also included several meetings in Northern Maine, has been called for Wednesday, Nov. 24th.

The call which has been sent out by Fred M. Tweedie, of Chatham, N. B., the secretary names Chatham as the place of meeting, but the objects of the meeting are not stated. Neither the time nor the place are regarded as convenient by western members of the circuit, and some doubt is expressed here as to whether the meeting will take place as scheduled.

The Fredericton Park Association's annual meeting has been called for Monday, Nov. 22nd, and what the local track will do about next year's racing will not be determined until the new board of directors are elected at that time.

Grand Season For Athletics

Physical Instructors Wearing Pleasant Smiles — Enrollment Large.

Physical instructors in the city are wearing pleasant smiles these days. They have been much encouraged by the interest being displayed in athletics in their different departments, and the heavy enrollments in all classes.

In addition to athletic young men and sports-loving school boys, the gym has fascinated many others this fall. It is a common sight now to see staid and dignified business men dispersing themselves on the gym floor and having the time of their lives. Not only the business men have caught the fever, however, for the keen-eyed and alert young women of the city are also to the fore, as well as large numbers of school girls.

The enrollments at the different institutions are very large. The Y. M. C. has the banner class, its Senior Girls' class numbering 97, the Y. M. C. A. Junior "A" is a close second with an enrollment of 85. The Y. M. C. A.'s largest class has an enrollment of 75.

In addition to these classes, the other departments are also doing well. The swimming pool is doing well, and the present season promises to be one of achievement in athletic circles.

Wonderful Game Played At Truro

Dalhousie and Acadia Battled For One Hour and Forty Minutes Without Scoring.

Truro, N. S., Nov. 16.—One hour and forty minutes of actual playing time failed to decide the inter-collegiate football championship of the Maritime Provinces, held this afternoon, when Dalhousie, champions of the Eastern Section, and Acadia, champions of the Western Section, met to settle the issue. After two grueling periods of thirty-five minutes each had failed to net a score for either side, the management of the two teams decided to play an extra fifteen minute period. And, when this failed to decide the superiority of either team, a second extra period of fifteen minutes was agreed upon. This ended as had the former periods, and the two teams left the field with the issue still undecided. It is understood that a second game may possibly be arranged.

Truro En Fete

Truro was en fete for today's contest and special trains from Halifax and Wolfville brought hundreds of rooters to cheer for their respective teams.

The First Half

In the first half there was no score, both teams battling frantically but vainly to put the pigskin safely over the opposing line. Mont Haslam, by clever work, got across Acadia's line, but the referee called the play off-side. Haslam started from Acadia's thirty five yard line, passed to Coster, circled the Acadia backfield and received from Coster, running for the blue and red line for what he thought was a touchdown. Dalhousie was disappointed when the whistle blew, the referee judging that Haslam had been ahead of Coster when receiving the ball.

Parker's work at back for Acadia and Tingley's tackling for Dalhousie were features of the first half of the game.

The Second Half

In the second half, Acadia started out with the ball in her territory and Dalhousie kept her there for ten minutes, after which Parker, Acadia's hard kicking full back, drove the ball well up towards centre field. From this time most of the play was in the Dalhousie end of the field. A number of short runs by the Acadia boys several times forced the Dalhousie team to a desperate game to hold their line clear. When the whistle blew for the end of regular time, the ball was on Dalhousie's 25 yard line.

Mont Haslam, Dalhousie, was left fifteen minutes before the regular time ended and was replaced by White.

Played Overtime.

When the players weary after their grueling struggle, left the field, it was considered unlikely that there would be any overtime. But the managers and captains of the two teams got together and agreed upon fifteen minutes overtime play. By this time a number of spectators had left the field. Play was very keen in the

Bill Sharon's Purchase Complete

Thomas W. Murphy of Poughkeepsie at Fredericton — Not After Lady Grattan.

Fredericton, Nov. 16.—Thomas W. Murphy, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., the wizard of the grand circuit, arrived here at noon today to complete the purchase of Bill Sharon, 2:11 1/4, the Fredericton bred trotter, and this afternoon at the Barker House he paid over $25,000 in United States funds to A. Alcorn, of Blackville, N. B., and took possession of the stallion.

Frank C. Murchie, of St. Stephen, N. B., who has put through the sale of Bill Sharon at the biggest price ever paid for a Canadian bred trotter, arrived with Mr. Murphy. It was reported this morning that Lady Grattan, 2:09 1/2, a pacing mare which Mr. Alcorn owns, was going to be shipped away with Bill Sharon, but Mr. Murphy professed to have no intention of buying her. It is said that Mr. Alcorn has already refused $8,000 for the Grattan mare and has placed a price of $10,000 on her.

Settle Disputes In Chicago

Judge Landis, Baseball Commissioner, Explains How He Plans to Retain Positions.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—All disputes in professional baseball will be settled in Chicago, Federal Judge Keneasaw M. Landis said today in reply to queries as to how he planned to retain his position on the bench and still find time to perform his duties as baseball commissioner, the position to which he recently was appointed by unanimous action of the two major leagues.

"When baseball matters come up, the participants will come to me here in Chicago to plead their cases," said the judge. "I have nothing to do on Saturdays and Sundays, and federal court also is closed during much of the baseball season. I'll handle the two jobs without any trouble. I guess my record for the past fifteen years is sufficient assurance that I can handle anything that comes before me."

SYDNEY MAN TENTH

Toronto, Nov. 16.—In the amateur trapshooters' target contests during the season of 1920, J. E. McCurdy, Sydney, N. S., comes tenth with 240 targets, 1,940 breaks and an average of 8.660.

overtime period but when the whistle blew there were still no score. It was decided to play another fifteen minutes overtime. Both teams, their energies virtually spent by their strenuous play, went at it again, hammer and tongs, but without result. There was no score, and the game was called a draw. The referee, Lily, of Dalhousie, had to be removed from the field in the final overtime period because of a strained tendon. Marshall replaced him. Lou Buckley refereed the game well.

Will Build New Racing Schooner

Semi-Knockabout Fishing Schr to Race Next Year for International Championship.

Halifax, Nov. 16.—Designs are being drawn in Halifax by W. J. Rous, member of the Halifax Sailing Committee for a semi-knockabout fishing schooner to be built at Lunenburg this winter, which it is expected will bring back to Nova Scotia and to Canada the championship of the North Atlantic fishing fleet.

Decision Reached.

The decision to build a schooner was reached yesterday afternoon in a conference between G. A. Rhuland, designer of the Delovans, A. J. Walters, G. C. Walters and C. Iverson, of Lunenburg, and the Halifax sailing committee.

The Lunenburg men arrived in the city yesterday. They will return to Lunenburg this morning. Lunenburg and Halifax interests are behind the building of the challenger, and it is expected that upwards of half the shares in her will be owned in Halifax.

Build at Lunenburg.

Work on the new vessel, which it is expected will be built in the yards of Smith & Rhuland, Lunenburg, will start December first, and she will be ready for the water the latter part of February, or early in March. She will spend the fall 1921 season on the fishing grounds, thus qualifying for entry in the international contest.

Business Men's Volleyball League

A Business Men's Volleyball League has been started at the Y. M. C. I. Four teams have been lined up in an interesting schedule, and the first game of the season took place last night. The teams are captained by Fred McDonald, E. Striving and J. McNulty, the fourth team carries the colors of the K. of C.

Judging by the interest displayed in last night's contest, the game promises to be a favorite with the Y. M. C. I. Business Men.

Appreciates Spirit Of Sportsmanship

Boston, Nov. 16.—Governor Coolidge received a letter today from W. H. Silver, chairman of the Halifax Committee that managed Canada's interests in the Delovans-Esporcanto International fishing schooner race, expressing the Canadian's appreciation of the spirit of sportsmanship and good will displayed by the United States arrangements committee. The letter expressed the trust that this spirit would "govern the races in future years."

Arthur L. Millett represented the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and W. A. Reid, of the Gloucester Board of Trade, on the United States committee.

Art. Spencer In Six-Day "Whirl"

Many Foreign Riders Enter the Grind at New York Next Week.

New York, Nov. 15.—One week from yesterday a gun will bark the start of the first six-day race here this season. New York is guaranteed two races within the short space of three weeks, and possibly may be inflicted with one or two more in the latter part of the season, if success attends the impending whirl about the saucer-shaped tracks.

Independent Race.

The Twenty-second Regiment Army will be the scene of the first installment of this annual sport. The New York Velodrome Company, not caring that there is such an organization as the National Cycling Association, will conduct its independent race—one event which has not received the sanction of the N. C. A. On December 5 the second race, this one under N. C. A. sanction will again begin at Madison Square Garden.

Fifteen Teams.

Fifteen teams are scheduled to start the tiresome whirl about the saucer at the Army. Some of the riders are: Alf Goulet and Freddie Hill; Jack Magnin and Eddie Madden; Ray Easton and Harry Kaiser; Arthur Spencer and Frank Corry; Willie Hanley and Willie Keller; Gus Lang and Charles Osteritter; Tom Bell and Joe Kopsky; W. FORMER CONSUL VISITING CANADA

Conferring With Gov't in regard to Extension of Logging S. Service.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Nov. 16.—That Brazil likely to cultivate the pulp and paper market by utilizing her vast forest resources, was stated last night by Senator G. Alves de Lima, in consultation for Central America formerly Brazilian Consul in this city who now has his headquarters in York. One of the important papers on the South American continent, he stated, the demand for print was becoming a more important one. The importance of such an asset, the attention of foresters had been turned to manage forests in the southern part of Brazil. He stated that he had imported from Canada, Sweden and Norway. Transportation greatly improving, and the telephone service was stated last night to be efficient. Wireless stations being provided on the coast.

Wants Better Ship Service. Senator de Lima is particularly interested in this trip in connection with the Canadian government. He stated that he was in the service of the government of Brazil, and he was of opinion that there was room for great expansion in that trade. One important factor which he thought was capital expansion was that of vessels, in which respect he felt that Brazil was in a position to compete with Canada and the United States. While Asia had on varieties of coconuts oil, Brazil had and as it is all on the coast, the system of transportation was not so good. Senator de Lima acknowledged that Brazil had only now awakened to the importance of this asset, that the coconuts oil had been and generally thrown away used, because water had been used.

Canadian Fish. Senator de Lima had arrived in Halifax last night, and mentioned incidentally that he was very impressed with the development of the territory covered by the Canadian Railway; also he was with the service on that railway.

In the Maritime Provinces he sought to impress upon the people the importance of the fish industry. Brazil was in a position to take quantities, he said, and had, it always been a customer. The fishery was a large country that so far had only touched it. The room for expansion of trade in products as wheat, machinery, cultural implements, and other manufactured in Canada, and other hand, Brazil had certain products which Canada could not produce. Senator de Lima is leaving for York tonight. He was consulted between 1893 and 1896, and mentioned on the remarkable expansion of the city since that time.

MEN AND BUSINESS
 (By Richard Spillane)

New York, Nov. 16.—It happened in New York state. There was a traction strike. The men resorted to sabotage. In one instance a conductor ripped the packing out of the journal boxes of a car. As a consequence the friction caused a blaze and the car took fire.
 The motorman was not so close-lipped as he might have been. He told about the conductor's act. For so doing he was called before the union and fined $50.
 The strike ended. The men returned to work. The motorman had not paid his fine. The union thereupon sent a demand to the traction company to deduct the $50 from the motorman's pay and remit it to the treasurer of the union.
 That's a queer story that comes from Buenos Aires about the threatened strike of liquor dealers, tobacconists and purveyors of playing cards. It appears that in the province of Cordoba the authorities became alarmed over intemperance in liquor, in smoking and gambling and to check it, put a heavy tax—a very heavy tax—on salons, tobacco stores and sellers of cards, whereupon the storekeepers announced they would close their establishments and keep them closed until the tax was abated.
 The Latin way is not the Anglo-Saxon and, particularly, the American way.
 Here the dealer passes the buck to the public and adds a little for the trouble he has incidental to the passing.
 From the large number of jewel robbers reported these days it would appear that never in the history of the country did the people have such an amount of wealth in precious stones.
 The deduction is correct. Europeans have sold an immense amount of their diamonds, rubies, emeralds, etc. here in the last five or six years. There's why a man should be around with $8,000 in gems for adornment is not plain.
 But there is no accounting for tastes.
 Comparatively few persons would relate how much some families have invested in gems.
 Ludwig Nissen, the greatest dealer in pearls in America and, perhaps, in the world, told the writer of one family that has $1,000,000 in pearls. When he gave the name of the family the writer was surprised. You wouldn't guess the name if you had a hundred chances.

FORMER CONSUL

Special to The Standard.
 Montreal, Nov. 16.—That Brazil is likely to cultivate the pulp and paper market by utilizing her vast resources in forests, was stated last night by Senor G. Alves de Lima, inspector of consulates for Central America, and formerly Brazilian Consul in this city, who now has his headquarters in New York. While the increase of newspapers on the South American continent, he stated, the demand for newsprint was becoming a more serious matter, and in days when paper was such an asset, the attention of manufacturers had been turned to the immense forests in the southern portion of Brazil. At the present time, he imported from Canada, Sweden and Norway. Transportation was greatly improving, and the telegraph service at present was in a high state of efficiency. Wireless stations were being provided on the coast as well.
 Wants Better Ship Service.
 Senor de Lima is particularly interested in this trip in conferring with the Canadian government Merchant Marine, about the shipping service to his country. The South American service of the government
 Lats has been greatly appreciated by Brazil, and he was of opinion that there was room for great expansion in that trade. One important industry which he thought was capable of great expansion was that of vegetable oils, in which respect he declared Brazil was in a position to supply all that Canada and the United States could want. While Asia had only two varieties of cocoa oil, Brazil had seven,
 and as it is all on the coast, the problem of transportation was not a difficult one. Senor de Lima acknowledged that Brazil had only now awakened to the importance of this asset, and that the cocoa oil had been wasted and generally thrown away after the cocoa water had been used.

FRENCH BISHOP
 REFUSED MASS
 FOR MacSWINEY

Bishop Gosselin Based His Refusal to Allow it on Political Grounds.
 (Copyright 1920 by Public Ledger Co.)
 Paris, Nov. 16.—It is learned on reliable authority today that Bishop Gosselin, auxiliary bishop of the diocese of Paris, definitely refused permission to celebrate at the Church of the Madeleine a solemn mass for the repose of the soul of Terence Mac-Swiney, lord mayor of Cork. The Madeleine is the most fashionable aristocratic church in Paris and is frequented by high government officials and members of the old nobility.
 When the Irish delegation was told by the cure that they would have to seek permission of Bishop Gosselin, they turned to the little St. Joseph's church, supported by English speaking Catholics, and had no trouble in having a mass celebrated there quietly and unostentatiously for the late lord mayor.
 However, priests sought an audience with the bishop and asked for permission to celebrate a simple mass in the Madeleine out of respect for Irish residents in Paris, declaring that it was in line with the usual functions of the Catholic church, and a purely religious service.
 Bishop Gosselin replied that he asked to maintain an attitude of "resistance" on the request. When proceedings were held for religious or political reasons, he replied that the reasons for his refusal were "rather political." The delegation returned as it could go no farther than the bishop.
 Following this incident, letters expressing sympathy arrived in Paris from all quarters notifying the Irish Republican representatives that masses had been celebrated for the late lord mayor in many towns in France, Spain and Italy.
 It was noted that at the time of the Irish request France was in the midst of a rift in her relations with England through Premier Lloyd George renouncing the rights to confiscate German property in England.

 that nothing could be accomplished have decided not to send the proposed delegation east and will likely take a referendum upon the issue involving direct action by sixty thousand employees of the system to bring the matter to a final show down.

 Meantime a conference of C. N. R.
 union representatives of the Dominion will be held to deal with the prelimi-

Longshoremen, Coal Handlers and Freight Handlers Take Vote on Wages. The longshoremen, coal handlers and freight handlers have taken a vote as to their attitude on the wage demands, started upon the 15th companies which have been rejected.

From reports current there seems to be a feeling that the results of the count today will show a large majority in favor of the different lodges accepting last year's scale.

The Clerks Tonight. The action to be taken by the railway and steamship clerks at their meeting tonight will be determined by the result of the vote cast by the three unions mentioned.

Low Prices For Provincial Spuds

Increased Yield in States Over Last Year Makes Prospects Bad for Carleton Prices. With a yield of 451,352,000 bushels of potatoes in the United States this year, according to the November report of the government, compared with a yield of 357,901,000 bushels in 1919, the prospects for high prices for Carleton County spuds are not very bright.

Plenty in New England. Carleton, he says, has always found a ready and profitable market in the New England States, but with the surplus of potatoes there this year all of which will be disposed of at a less price than Carleton shippers can afford to handle potatoes at there can be but little hope entertained for high prices in this province.

Fairly Satisfactory Yield. Many Carleton farmers harvested discouragingly small crops, but on the whole the yield was fairly satisfactory. If the United States does not reimpose a duty on Canadian potatoes, and there is a rumor to the effect they are to do so, Carleton hopes to yet pull out a slight winner on its 1920 crop because of the superior quality of the stock.

Beaconsfield May Be Another Village

Ratifiers Seriously Considering Applying for Incorporation. The ratifiers of Beaconsfield are seriously considering applying for incorporation as a village under the act passed at the last session of the Provincial Legislature. It is understood that a meeting will be called in the near future to discuss the matter. The meeting will be held in the school house. The provisions of the act any district may apply for self autonomy and be declared a village. Each village has three councillors and a president to be elected among them.

Conduct Own Business. Beaconsfield considers that it is large enough to conduct its own business without reference to the act of the Province of Lunenburg. Speaking regarding the matter yesterday a resident said that its pro rata of taxes is larger on general assessment than Fairville, and its privileges are negligible. Beaconsfield is the only area in the entire county which has an up-to-date school and school system. It is practically the overflow from the city and its citizens represent some of the better element of the business of St. John.

Future of City. The future of the city depends largely on the ability of the suburbs to take care of its surplus population. Beaconsfield has been doing this for many years, and it seems probable that it will continue to do so. It has lights, water, sewerage, police protection and why not govern its own affairs. This latter phase will be discussed by the people.
