

MEIGHEN FIGHT SIGNAL BEING WELL RECEIVED

Vigorous and Enthusiastic Answers to London Call From Gov't Supporters.

PREMIER DELUGED WITH CONGRATULATIONS

Preparing Preliminaries of Campaign - Organization Work Launched.

Special to The Standard Ottawa, Sept. 6.—The signal to fight, run up by Mr. Meighen at London last Thursday, is being answered with vigor and enthusiasm by Government supporters in every province of the Dominion. Back at his desk, preparing the preliminaries of the campaign, the Prime Minister is being deluged with congratulatory messages. Offers and pledges of support are coming from most unexpected quarters; organization work has already been launched in scores of constituencies, and everywhere the old militant spirit of 1911, revived by the historic trade issue, is in evidence.

Ontario Restless

This is particularly true of Ontario, where assaults upon the National policy have always been most stoutly opposed, and where Mr. King's indecision and pussy-footing tactics have already created a powerful movement among his immediate followers. In this province, it is pretty generally conceded the fight will be most exclusively between the Government and the Farmers. In Ontario, as in the West, Liberalism is admitted to be in eclipse. The political descendants of the Howards and the Blakes and the Cartwrights, represented by the Charltons and the Cronys, the Guthries and the Newburns, are divorced from Sir Wilfrid's successors and Mr. King's desertion of the Province, with its devastating effect upon the morale of his entire party, has made a reconciliation impossible.

West Opposes Liberalism. Nor is it in Ontario alone that fortune is dealing hardly with official Liberalism. Mr. King, it is being glibly predicted, will not have more than a score of candidates in the three Western Provinces but will be content to advance to the Farmers in Saskatchewan and Saskatchewan he will hand down his flag to Mr. Cramer. In Alberta he will march behind the purely class candidates of the Kansas Ex-Populist, Mr. Henry Wiebe Wood.

This does not mean, however, that the Agrarians will have an easy march upon Ottawa. In practically every Alberta riding a government candidate is already in sight. In Manitoba every constituency is already manned. (Dr. Whidden, of Brandon, is retiring but will be replaced by strong candidates) and even in Saskatchewan, a candidate against the government will organize a powerful, spirited and well equipped fight. No seats will be defaulted; war will be carried into the enemy's territory, and government victories are expected.

To Tour Maritime Provinces.

The Prime Minister, who will enter upon his first campaign as the party chief, will tour the Maritime and the Maritime provinces. Following the tactics employed in the course of his western trip last fall, he will wage his fight on the trade issue, preaching the same doctrine in Maritime every constituency he preaches in Halifax and Fredericton and scoring Mr. King's tactics of one policy for the west and another for the east. In the course of his western trip, he is not likely to invade Marquette, the constituency of Mr. Cramer, and where the agrarian leader will have to fight for his life against General Dyer, one of the strongest of government candidates.

Reorganizing Ministry.

Meanwhile Mr. Meighen is tackling a reorganization of his ministry, it is believed that he will buttress it by the addition of considerable new blood, by a combination of big business men, men of demonstrated executive capability, with leaders of parliamentary experience. Mr. R. B. Bennett, of Calgary, is in the capital, and it is unlikely that he will be offered a portfolio. Brilliant, vigorous, aggressive, a noted platform orator, and with the advantage of wide experience in business affairs, Mr. Bennett would undoubtedly add a strength and prestige to any ministry, and promote its cause in the west. Nor is the Prime Minister without some good raw material to choose from the House. Stewart, of Lanark; Stevens, of Vancouver, and Hanson, of Fort William, comprise a trifling of unusual ability with the additional advantage of parliamentary and political experience.

Representative From Quebec. The new ministry will have representatives from Quebec. It would not be surprising if it should contain as many as three French-Canadians. The Prime Minister expects or, at all events has reasons for expecting, a measure of strong support in this province. For this there are many reasons. In the first place, Mr. King, although the choice of Quebec Liberals, is not popular among French Canadian leaders. Lamont and LeCompte have long since discarded the gulf between the leadership of Sir King and that of Sir Wilfrid, and this

MORGAN TAKES AIRPLANE TRIP FOR BUSINESS

Americans to Co-operate With British and German Financial Groups, is Report.

TOURING EUROPE BY AIR ROUTE

Refuses to Register at Hotels and Studiously Seeks to Avoid Publicity.

Berlin, Sept. 5.—J. P. Morgan, head of the bank house of J. P. Morgan & Co. of New York, arrived in Berlin, Mr. Morgan did not register at any Berlin hotel and it was authoritatively stated that he sought to avoid publicity in connection with his presence here. It was persistently reported here last week that the Armstrong-McVickers interests in England and the Hugo Stinnes group in Germany were coming together, with financial participation by Mr. Morgan. The common field of operations, it was said, would be Russia. These reports are communicated under all reserve. There is much interest here in trade with Russia, and the statement was made today by Boris Stankovich, that Soviet Russia would recognize the debts and contracts made by previous governments provided world capital participated in the reconstruction of Russian industry and trade.

Americans arriving in Berlin from Moscow told the New York Herald correspondent, some similar rumors have been given by Ludwig J. K. E. Martens, formerly Soviet "Ambassador" to the United States, and other prominent Bolsheviks. This may indicate a notable change in the policy of the Moscow Government in view of its previous categorical repudiation of all foreign obligations. J. P. Morgan arrived in Paris on August 23 and the following day left there for an alpine trip, which, it was said, would take him to Brussels, Amsterdam, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Warsaw, Berlin and, perhaps, Prague and Vienna. This news was contained in a cable despatch from Paris to the New York Herald. There has since been no public mention of Mr. Morgan's movements in Europe.

"Tiger" Oppressed By His 80 Years

Grows Out That He Will Be Dead in Year's Time—Looks Fit.

Paris, Sept. 5.—"Next year I shall be dead," was the reply M. Clemenceau growled out when, at Marcellin's yesterday, someone expressed the hope that he would return next year. The old man was just about to embark on a steambath for Corsica, where he was going to spend a holiday, when he made this prophesy of evil. He looked and stepped as young as ever, and those who saw him recently since his annual "cure" at Vichy declare that he never looked better. But his years seemed to be oppressing him and he lunched the head waiter with pride, brought him some champagne to taste after his meal. "It has been eighty years in the bottle," the head waiter confided, in the awestruck voice suitable to discussion of such a vintage. But old "Father Victory" who seldom drinks anything but water was not impressed.

Fiscal Question

Finally, there is the fiscal question. Next to Ontario, Quebec is the most protectionist province in Canada. Its recent wonderful prosperity, so largely due to the protective principle, has increased its hostility to anything bordering on free trade, and it views with apprehension Mr. King's tendency to flirt with the economic theories of the Agrarian West. Hence the probability of a strong protectionist rally in the French constituencies. While regrouping his cabinet, and before talking the field, Mr. Meighen will have to make a number of appointments. Dr. Eld and Sir George Foster, anxious to retire, will go to the Senate for Ontario. Mr. Calder and Mr. Ollis will go to the same body for Saskatchewan. Mr. E. F. Green and Col. Peck, V. C., for British Columbia. There are also Senate vacancies to be filled from the Maritime Provinces. Col. Hugh McLean is most likely choice for New Brunswick. Lastly there has to be a new Lieutenant Governor for Ontario and another for Manitoba, a High Commissioner for London, and a Minister Plenipotentiary for Washington. These posts will all be filled within the next fortnight.

OIL FIELDS OF MEXICO OPEN TO AMERICANS

Immediate Resumption in Tampico District is Expected to Follow Agreement.

WILL END EMBARGO PLACED ON EXPORT

Funds and Stored Petroleum Freed and Delayed Taxes to be Paid.

Mexico City, Sept. 6.—Immediate resumption of oil operations in the Tampico region by American petroleum companies, and the payment of postponed taxes, with the lifting of the Mexican government's embargo upon the companies' funds and oil in storage, will result from the agreement reached by government officials and the heads of five American oil concerns which were reported last night. There will be an immediate movement of oil from Mexico, and after minor details have been adjusted, a settlement will be reached of all the great petroleum problems which have vexed the Mexican government and American development companies for years. The agreement reached in the conferences which terminated late Saturday night has the complete sanction of President Obregon, who has described it as a "happy and satisfactory solution to all concerned." The American oil men who participated in the conferences, and after minor details have been adjusted, a settlement will be reached of all the great petroleum problems which have vexed the Mexican government and American development companies for years.

Situation of People More Pitiful Than Can Possibly be Imagined.

Paris, Sept. 6.—Samuel Untermyer of Central Europe and studying political and economic conditions, has returned to Paris. In a statement tonight discussing the situation in Austria, which he characterized economically as grave, Mr. Untermyer said he had been informed that Dr. Grimm, Austrian minister of finance, and his adviser, Dr. Rosenberg, are soon to leave Vienna for Washington to ask the United States to delay collection of funds advanced to the Austrian Government for relief work. Mr. Untermyer has been having conferences with Chancellor Wirth in Berlin, with Count Apponyi in Budapest and with leading representatives of Austria, Hungary and Czechoslovakia. He refused to discuss the subject of his meetings, but spoke freely upon condition in Austria. LABOUR'S ATTITUDE

An announcement comes from Toronto that "a gentleman's agreement" has been come to between the Farmers' and the Independent Labour Parties, under which Labour men shall refrain from entering rural constituencies, but shall support the Farmers' nominees, and that the Farmers will reciprocate in urban constituencies and muster up behind the Labour standard bearers. Labour further announces that it "will evade the tariff issue, and will substitute instead their programme of class betterment for the worker."

The first arrangement is no doubt quite workable, but to evade the tariff issue and substitute a betterment programme, is really a brilliant idea. To the average mind it would appear that the first essential towards bettering conditions for the workers is to take care that they have plenty of work at as high wages as economic conditions will permit. They cannot have either work or wages unless a tariff sufficiently adequate to protect their industries from cheap foreign competition is in operation. Why then were to be allowed to be freely brought into this country to compete with home productions. The very last thing that sensible Labour should do is to evade the tariff issue, for no issue was ever more vital to their interests.

Prices are gradually coming down, and it is as well that they are, but it would be better for Labour to keep up and work should be plentiful, than that prices should be low and accompanied by widespread unemployment. Of what benefit would bread at seven cents, and potatoes at a dollar a barrel, be to the out-of-work with no money in his pocket? And it is very certain that the greater proportion of Labour in this country soon would be out of work if goods manufactured in foreign countries where labour is cheap and plentiful were to be allowed to be freely brought into this country to compete with home productions. The very last thing that sensible Labour should do is to evade the tariff issue, for no issue was ever more vital to their interests.

THE IRISH SITUATION

All true friends of Ireland must regret to note the position that Mr. De Valera has taken up. The offer made to Ireland by the British Government of Dominion Home Rule is conceded on all sides to be the utmost that it could be expected to make; and by rejecting it, the Irish leader has alienated the sympathies of many moderate men and women who feel that the Irish people should have a large measure of control of their own affairs. The Standard has maintained all along that Mr. De Valera should take what is offered to him and make the best of it, and trust to the future to give him more. This it has since transpired, is Gen. Smuts' view of the situation, for in his letter to De Valera, he strongly advised him to accept the government's offer to go on with it.

In declining both he and his friends will accept no terms short of absolute independence for Ireland. Mr. De Valera shows very clearly that he utterly fails to appreciate the situation at all. He is credited with being a man of some intelligence, yet the course he has chosen to adopt belies this. If he knows anything, he must know that the British public will not tolerate an independent Ireland alongside them on any terms whatever. As for his so-called guarantees that he offers that the country shall not be allowed to be made an instrument by means of which Britain might be prejudiced. Bethmann-Hollweg's famous "scrap of paper" would be a valuable document compared with them.

The reply of the British Government to Mr. De Valera's note of rejection is awaited with keen interest, although there is scarcely any doubt in the minds of most people as to its probable tenor; but the world will hate to see a recurrence of the reign of terror which existed until a few weeks ago. Mr. De Valera has it in his power to prevent this happening.

LOWERED FREIGHT RATES

The lowering of freight rates in Canada is merely one way of translating into practice the fact that we have a more economic and efficient system of transportation so seaboard than exists in the United States. This is also shown by the way in which the bulky export trade of the United States, particularly in wheat and cattle, is seeking the port of Montreal.

With cheaper land, cheaper freight rates, a more generally economical system of transportation, plenty of ships and cheaper money, the basic producer in Canada should be in as good a position as anybody to dispose of his surplus products on terms advantageous to himself.

He is apt to compare things as they have been and as they ought to be with things as they are for the time, and be depressed. He should compare things as they are with him compared with the situation of other people, and then he would feel greatly encouraged.

Canada has not met the full force of the gale that has swept the world. Our credit system is good, our transportation system is good, and it is upon the excellence of these two services that the producer mainly depends.

The Winnipeg Tribune draws attention to an instance by which the merit of our credit system was well illustrated the other day. The cattle industry was in undoubted danger in Canada. In the United States it was in equal danger. Over there they availed themselves of the temporary and financially dangerous makeshift of a pool. Here it only required a touch on a lever to focus the full force of our credit system on the ruler of the danger zone, and the ordinary system in operation every day of the year expanded without difficulty to the special need.

We do not sufficiently realize our advantages and the good order of our estate because we do not project ourselves beyond the difficulties of our own environment which are pressing enough. But other people both see and admire how trimly Canada is riding out the storm, without the loss of a spar or the stretching of a seam.

What we do not sufficiently realize our advantages and the good order of our estate because we do not project ourselves beyond the difficulties of our own environment which are pressing enough. But other people both see and admire how trimly Canada is riding out the storm, without the loss of a spar or the stretching of a seam.

Speaking at Kenora, Ont., last Friday, Mr. Crerar, the Progressive leader, said that nowhere could any warrant be found for the statement that the Progressives got control of affairs. Free Trade would be the result. He continued:

"We Progressives would shape our fiscal policy to encourage the industries based on the national resources of the country, the chief of which is agriculture. We cannot develop the wealth of Canada by closing ourselves in with a high tariff fence. We will grow rich only as we produce and sell abroad. We cannot sell abroad unless we trade with the world. Further, a protective tariff is the most fruitful agency in building up trusts and combines that oppress the people, and, if I mistake not, the Canadian people have definitely set their faces against the 'chief instrument in the maintenance of these trusts and combines.'"

If that sort of policy doesn't mean Free Trade, it would be hard to say what it does mean.

If it is true, as announced in yesterday's afternoon papers, that the Mayor has stated that Jimmy Licences will be granted where the requirements of the new by-laws are complied with, then it is high time some strong representations were made to His Worship on the matter. There are already a considerable larger number of these Jimmy running kegs around the streets than are needed to handle all the traffic available, and their presence there and the manner of their operation is fast becoming a public nuisance. If their number is to be increased, it will soon become necessary to provide subways by which to reach the other side of a street.

It is not The Globe somewhat in error when it states that "a recently enacted law allows a candidate to run in one constituency only, the probable fate of the two 'old party' leaders on election day is one of the most interesting 'of political problems.'" Should it not be that there is a law which provides that a member elected by more than one constituency, shall not be allowed to hold both seats, but shall within a fixed time declare which of the constituencies he chooses to sit for?

Those managing our railroads display a peculiar lack of knowledge of human psychology in their methods of operating their dining cars. The ridiculous cost of a meal on a train angers passengers of all classes, creating more railway "knockers" than any other feature of our railway system. Moreover, the most affluent traveller now orders separately when he enters a dining car, while ordinary folk are being educated to take a lunch basket with them when they are making a long trip.

Ausloists should be kind to Exhibition visitors. The worst use one can put an Ex. visitor to is to spill him out onto the street.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

LIKED WEIGHERS' STYLE.
 If I were asked to say off-hand the best address I have heard from any member of this Imperial conference I should declare for that delivered by Mr. Matthews when proposing a loyal toast at the annual dinner of the Royal Colonial Institute. His remarks were brief and to the point. His accent was not harsh and added a definite Canadian flavor to his speech. The words were well chosen, the statements expressed seasoned good sense, and were certainly in admirable taste. He did not raise his voice; the voice was seldom raised above a pleasant level, but it was precise and clearly audible. The warty restraint, perhaps by force of contrast, gave it an added value.—Britannicus in London Financier.

SERVICE FOR SALE.
 What one gets for nothing one is apt to undervalue. That fact is being urged in some quarters as a reason for non-attendance at church services. It is argued that what is needed and what people in churchable an admission fee. The argument, as presented by Dr. Frank Crane, is interesting. What the church has offered to give away or sell, he points out, is not religion, but service. The lawyer sells, not justice, but his service. So the clergyman and his church are bringing a service to the community which the people of the community want, and would be eager to get if they could pay for it like honest folk, and not have it thrust upon them as if they were mendicants.

Dr. Crane doesn't seem to take the collection plate into account at all. However, his argument is interesting and illustrating the view point of many people on the subject of church services. He assumes that people go to church to enjoy sacred music, vocal and instrumental, and to listen to a sermon more or less instructive and entertaining. But there are many who go to church mainly to join in public worship. To them it is a religious duty, irksome at times perhaps, although it may be a source of spiritual comfort and stimulus.

To those who with Dr. Crane, regard attendance at church service as a form of pleasure, the proposal to charge an admission fee may seem fitting and proper; but it will not appear to those who go to church to engage in worship. Payment of a fee for entertainment is one thing; payment of a fee for the opportunity of performing a religious duty is quite another thing.—Hamilton Herald.

GENTLEMEN ADVENTURERS.
 Gentlemen adventurers in days of long ago,
 Huddled it from Wapping Stairs round to Plymouth Hoe,
 Waxed their ships a-fitting and as soon as they might be,
 Drained the tankards, buzzed the girls and took their ways to sea
 Where they fared they little cared, or when they came again,
 What they sought was less than nought, yet more than most at-tain.
 Liberty to do and be all they had never been,
 Fill the eye with seeing and the heart with having sound.
 But who goes adventuring, adventuring today?
 Well, here's one, and there's a one and more of us beside.
 Aboard the outward-bounders on the Morsey or the Clyde,
 The sailing ports have changed, per-haps, but not the sailing breed,
 So sign and sell 'em if it's adventure that you need.

Gentlemen adventurers, in fighting days of old,
 Hunted both the hemispheres for glory and for gold,
 Snuffing like the war-horse, the battle from afar,
 Homing with eagles on the sight and sound of war.
 Hot a-foot for fight or loot of town or more of us beside.
 Just as quick to join or pick the quarrel bare of gain;
 The first in the forlorn hope, the last to leave the beach,
 Making war a sport, a trade to live and learn and teach.

Now, who will go a-riding, a-riding to the wars?
 There aren't wars enough today to keep up all in jobs.
 But you may find a few of us in most of the fighting mobs.
 And in our country's battles the address of me an' mine is still the same old number one, front rank, the firing line.
 —Boyd Cable.

An Unfailing Way To Banish Hair
 (Beauty Notes)
 Ugly hairy growths can be removed in the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of delatone and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. This should be left on the skin about 3 minutes, then removed and the skin washed. No harm or inconvenience can result from this treatment, but be sure you buy real delatone.

It is astonishing how much of flavor there is in a little cooked and grated green corn. For instance, delicious little corn pancakes are made thus:—
One-half cup to two cups of grated green corn, two eggs beaten until they are light and have genuine body, a scant half-cup of milk, one cup of flour, two teaspoons of baking powder, one teaspoon of salt, about two table-spoons of melted butter. Beat the eggs, add milk and beat, add corn and mix thoroughly, and then the flour sifted with the salt and baking powder, folding it in and not beating so as to break down air cells. Add the butter and mix well in. Drop in small spoonfuls on hot griddle or into oiled frying pan.

HOUSE PROBLEM ACUTE IN FRANCE AND BRITAIN

England Began 60,000 Dwellings Last Year—Death of Labor.

London, Sept. 6.—The housing problem is as acute in England and France as in the United States. In England the shortage of houses has had a very bad effect on the general health. Not only is there a lamentable lack of accommodation, but a considerable proportion of that which exists is inadequate and unhealthy. The result is that health and morals suffer, and in fact a good deal of the industrial unrest at the present time is due to inadequate and bad housing. The British Government is endeavoring to grapple with the problem and has made more progress than might have been expected with its housing scheme in the last twelve months.

The efforts, however, are greatly hindered by the shortage of labor, especially skilled labor. Statistics with regard to skilled labor in England and Wales are appalling in their significance. For example, in 1910 there were 78,012 masons; in 1920 there were 19,310. There were 9,798 slaters in 1910; there were 3,673 in 1920. There were 21,901 plasterers in 1910; in 1920 there were 12,067. There were 115,995 painters in 1910; in 1920 there were 53,042. Still, as said before, the Government is making progress with its scheme. In some 60,000 houses were commenced in 1920.

The municipal council of Paris adopted a housing scheme at a recent sitting. M. Elevation, municipal inspector, for which 100 meters of land has been secured in the Picpus quarter. There will be three streets with houses six stories high, but the houses will be so placed and the space around so spacious that all the walls will be exposed daily to direct rays of sunlight. They will contain 628 tenements and there will be a large central square or playground. Of these 300 will consist of a kitchen and three or four rooms, and 200 of a kitchen and two rooms. Each room will measure from eleven to thirteen square meters.

Then there will be 100 cabinets where the tenants can take douches and a steam laundry will be put at their disposal. Large enough for eighty tenants to do their washing at the same time. They will save much time and trouble by using the machinery available; and though a small charge will be made, it will cost much less than if each tenant had to warm his own boiler and work his own mangle. The sum paid will help to defray the general cost. In the case of the Picpus quarter, the premises on a level with the streets will be let at commercial rents, to reduce the deficit which may result. As proposed, the tenements are let at a low rate.

The capital expenditure voted for this enterprise is 27,000,000 francs, or at the normal rate of exchange about $5,400,000, but as it will take three years to build the three new streets it is calculated that the cost will be much less toward the end than at the beginning of this period. In any case, the municipality feels it must strive to solve the housing problem even if this involves financial loss. Besides, 628 good tenements, through involving a loss at first, will prove in the long run a profitable proposition. This is all the more probable as few tenements will offer such advantages. Nor is this the only enterprise of the sort the city of Paris has in hand, although it is the newest venture. Eleven groups of cheap buildings began and interrupted by the war are now being completed.

SALVAGE.

Life has stripped me,
Broken my body,
Stamped on my heart,
Taken my name,
Clothed me in shame,
Flung me these rags.
I am alone.
Kindred, forgotten;
Old friends forgot;
Homeless my head
Down in the dust.
Useless the fight,
Weakness to fight
Ever must fall?
Yet from the rack,
Out of the black
Darkness and storm,
Lo! I have brought
In anguish wrought
This Pearl—my Soul.

Tells Dyspeptics What To Eat

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things. Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a Little Bismarck Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antidote than Bismarck Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach, and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of peppin pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate, and in the bisulphate form is not a laxative. Try this plan and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

Hired Audience in "Stadium Pariola" Give Film Producers Plenty of Action.

Rome, Sept. 5.—Roman chariot races staged in the "Stadium Pariola" by the Fox Film Company which is in the city of Rome. The play to be called "Nero" resulted in a real tumult of the populace genuinely reminiscent of imperial times when 6,000 spectators were present. The hired audience in the stadium rebelled against the authority of the American management and refused to play the part assigned them. American Ambassador Chiffo and Italian Foreign Minister Della Torretta had been invited to witness the grand reconstruction of the ancient circus games, but on their arrival found mounted police charging an infuriated mob in the arena and "Nero" in his purple robes flying from the popular wrath in an automobile. The direct cause of the sudden upheaval was the shortage of drinking water. The hired multitude, men, women and children, filled the seats of the vast arena patiently under the blazing sun so long as the water brought with them last night, but when the water bottles were empty they rose in wrath and descended into the arena tumultuously crowding towards the exit. The efforts of the company's employees to restrain them proved ineffectual and amid universal confusion and excitement several revolver shots were fired. The situation might have become serious but for the prompt arrival and energetic intervention of strong police forces.

This incident is the climax of a series of difficulties and tribulations that have beset the American film producers in Rome. With the exception of the parts of Nero and Poppa all the players engaged by the film company are Italians, thousands of whom thus found lucrative employment but certain circles of Italy's film industry view the activities of Americans with disfavor and have from the beginning tried to put as many obstacles in their way as possible. There is a suspicion among the Americans that intrigue in these circles, who proclaim that the story of Nero's rise and fall is a Roman monopoly, were not entirely foreign to the sudden revolt of the thirsty "spectators."

Several children have already been adopted from the infants' Home Booth at the Toronto Exhibition. Mrs. Rex Nicholson, who is in charge, states that the majority of the inquiries regarding the adopting of the babies has been made by men. One man who had already secured one baby from the home asked for another, so that the first would have a playmate.

"Did you see the cat show?" asked the enthusiastic neighbor lady of the group. "I did not," was the answer. "The only thing of that kind I'd attend would be one where the dog show was turned into a cat show. Look at my flower beds!"

ATHLETICS ARE INJURIOUS TO SCHOOL GIRLS

School Exercises Charged With Producing Many Bad Effects Upon the Girls.

London, Sept. 6.—The question whether athletics at school are injurious to girls has aroused discussion, writes the London correspondent of the Journal of the American Medical Association. At a public dinner and also in a letter to the Lancet, Miss Cowdroy, headmistress of Crouch End High School, attacks the present system. "She said she had known many women who were physical experts and prided themselves on the fact. Few have not had at some time a more or less serious breakdown. Girls who engaged in strenuous games acquired hard muscles, set jaw, flat chest and often a hard, aggressive manner. The health of the athletic women was often more apparent than real. They frequently suffered from 'nerves,' heart trouble, some form of rheumatism or a displacement of some kind. They did not seem to meet unaccustomed strains. Their marriages were often childless. Their children were physically inferior to those of the feminine women of Victorian days."

On the other hand, other headmistresses disagree with these views. Miss F. G. Gray, head mistress of St. Paul's Girls' School, Hammersmith, says: "All this was said twenty or thirty years ago, and it was then shown that there was nothing in it. One of two cases of girls' physical disabilities are brought up again and again. No real proof is offered that these were the results of games or drill. I am certain that games are not overdone in properly conducted girls' schools. All trained gymnastic mistresses are constantly on the alert for this. Then there is the medical officer who sees the girls from time to time and is careful that there is no overstrain."

LOST 29 POUNDS DYSENTERY WAS THE CAUSE

Dysentery is one of the worst forms of bowel complaint, and hardly any other disease so quickly undermines the strength and brings about a condition of prostration and utter collapse that often terminates fatally.

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

M. G. H. McVagh, Mawar, Sask., writes: "About eight years ago I had a severe attack of dysentery. I was sick for three weeks. I weighed 164 lbs. when I took sick and 125 when I got it stopped. I think I tried every medicine on the market, but did not find relief until I used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and one bottle did it. I think there is nothing like it for diarrhoea or dysentery. I always keep some on hand as a person does not know when he will need it." Price, 50c. a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. Common Council Regular Meeting

Gov't Asked to Extend Grain Conveyors to Gov't Berths and Complete Breakwater.

The city council yesterday passed a resolution calling on the Dominion Government to extend the grain conveyors to the government berths on the West Side, and to complete the Negropow Breakwater to Partridge Island, both without delay, and deal with several matters of routine business.

Mayor Schofield presided and Commissioners Thornton, Jones, Bullock and Frink were present.

The commissioner of finance and public affairs recommended the payment of the following departmental accounts for the month of August last past, as follows:

Treasury department, $1,264.48 Public Safety dept., 4,482.07 Public Works dept., 6,251.79 Water and Sewerage dept., 3,247.58 Harbors, Ferries and Public Lands dept., 1,606.76 and reported payments for the month of August last to the amount of $326,332.67.—Adopted.

Permissions Granted. The committee of the whole recommended that permission be granted to John Sims to erect an illuminated sign from his premises, No. 25 Poole street upon his executing the regular agreement, and the sign being erected to the satisfaction of the city engineer and that the Furry Ice Cream Co. Ltd., be granted permission to erect an electric sign extending over the sidewalk from the premises of the Royal Pharmacy, King street, upon conditions that the usual agreement is signed and upon the sign being erected to the satisfaction of the city engineer.—Adopted.

A communication from the New Brunswick Power Co. with regard to the claim of the city that the proposed increase of 33 1/3 per cent. in the lighting rates was absurd, contending that the rate was really no higher than Halifax paid, was received and filed.

On motion of Commissioner Thornton the application of the New System Laundry Co. for permission to install three gasoline tanks with a capacity of 690 gallons was granted, provided the tanks were approved by the Board of Fire Underwriters.

Wanted Better Facilities. Commissioner Bullock referred to the advisability of the city council efforts to obtain better facilities for the handling of grain at this port, and moved the following resolution:

"Whereas this council realizing the need and importance of having the government berths No. 7 and No. 14, be therefor resolved that the department be requested to have the said extension completed in time for the coming winter's business; and be it further resolved that the said department be requested to make an extra effort to have the extension to Partridge Island breakwater completed without delay."

This passed unanimously, and a copy will be forwarded. The Unemployed. Mayor Schofield asked if any of the commissioners had given thought to works which might be carried on during the winter, and thus provide work for some of the unemployed.

Commissioner Jones said he might be able to do some work, and mentioned a sewer in Forest street, and the extension of the water main up Carman street. Commissioner Frink said this problem of unemployment would only be solved when men with money to invest could put into industrial with a reasonable amount of security that both principal and interest would be safe.

All the commissioners promised to bring in a report on work which might be done during the winter.

Mountain Madonna Is Reconsecrated

15,000 Italian Pilgrims Travel to Peak for Event—Statue Removed During War.

Monte Grappa, Italy, Sept. 6.—This mountain, 5,000 feet high amid rugged crags of the Alps, has just been the scene of a vast pilgrimage of 15,000 veterans of the world war, women and children, who for days have been climbing to reach the summit where the statue of a Madonna and child was reconsecrated in memory of the Italian heroes who fought in these mountain fastnesses.

The road to the summit is 18 miles in length and winds through passes, skirts the edge of bottomless ravines and rises finally to giddy heights, where to the south one sees the plains of the Isonzo to the sea, to the north continue chains of towering Alps. It was thus that during the war, the army that occupied Monte Grappa controlled the plain. It was the mountain's battleground of the Italian and Austrian armies and its changing of hands during the course of the war is the story of the whole campaign.

The Madonna which has now been taken her place on the summit was placed here in 1910 by Cardinal Saraceni, patriarch of Venice. In May, 1918, while the stronghold was in possession of the Italians, an Austrian bomb struck the pedestal on which the statue rested. A captain of engineers and handful of men left their dugouts among the rocks and in a terrific bombardment lifted the statue and took it to a place of safety.

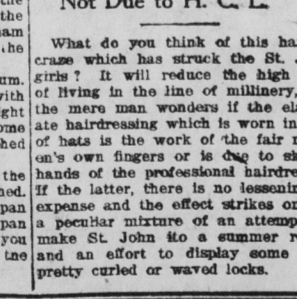

For the ceremony of replacing the Madonna, which has just taken place, the King was represented by the Duke of Bergamo, who delivered an address on the sacrifices made by Italian troops in the defense of Grappa. Former Premier Orlando made the principal speech, in which he recounted the heroic exploits of the Italian army in overcoming the seemingly unmountable difficulties of the mountain strongholds. There were special commissions of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies to the sacrifices made by the Italian army.

General Giardino, known as the "Defender of Grappa," received a gold medal from the city of Treviso. While the ceremonies were performed a huge Italian dirigible hovered over the mountain heights signaling to the mountain villagers. It also carried a message to Grappa from the city of Venice, which read as follows: "The bulwark of the air salutes the bulwark of the mountains."

HATS OR NO HATS! WHICH SHALL IT BE? St. John Has Been Overtaken by the Hatless Brigade—Not Due to H. C. L. What do you think of this hairless craze which has struck the St. John girls? It will reduce the high cost of living in the line of millinery, but the mere man wonders if the elaborate hairdressing which is worn in lieu of hats is the work of the fair maid's own fingers or is due to skilled hands of the professional hairdresser. If the latter, there is no lessening of expense and the effect strikes one as a peculiar mixture of an attempt to make St. John fit a summer resort and an effort to display some very pretty curled or waved locks.

She'd Go For Days Without A Meal

New Brunswick Woman Was Despondent and Miserable—Now Well and Happy.

"I just can't begin to tell how happy I am that I tried Tanlac, for it has proved to be just what I had been needing for so long," said Mrs. James Landry, 68 Moore St., St. John, N. B. "I certainly had more than my share of suffering for four years. It is just impossible to describe the agonies I suffered after eating. Gas formed on my stomach and pressed up into my chest until it would almost cut off my breath and I would have to gasp and struggle for air, and my heart would palpitate like it would jump out of my body. I suffered a great deal from nausea too, and for days at a time would go without eating a bite of anything. My nerves finally became all unstrung and I got little rest day or night. To add to my misery I had frequent headaches, and these hurt me so bad I would almost go distracted at times. I was as despondent and miserable as anybody ever gets to be, and I didn't believe there was any chance for me to be well and strong again."

"This was the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac, and I can say for it that it proved to be a friend in need. It benefited me in every way, gave me an appetite, put my stomach in first-class condition so that I digest everything without trouble and it brought back my strength. My nerves are steady, too, I sleep all night without waking once and get up in the morning feeling as refreshed and happy as a girl. Tanlac has been an untold blessing to me and my heart is full of gratitude for the wonderful relief it has brought. There is no doubt in my mind that it is the best of all medicines."

"Tanlac is sold in St. John by F. W. Munro, and by leading druggists everywhere. True happiness is unregretted pleasure."

Joffre Possessed Great Appetite

Chef Says He Was Great Eater and Could Eat Enough for Three Men.

Paris, Sept. 6.—The latest war reminiscences to be printed are those of the "chef" who presided over the kitchens of the French general staff during the battle of the Marne and who prepared the simple but abundant menu that Marshal, then General, Joffre sat down to at very irregular hours.

"During the battle of the Marne, if the chef's culinary accomplishments were not superior to his military talent, then one pitied poor General Joffre, and it must have been a relief to the commander-in-chief to leave the mess table and return to the battle line."

"The chef's general putaway enough food to feed three ordinary men." Then he adds naively: "I hope Marshal or Marochal won't mind what I say about the general."

One of the most amusing incidents related by the chef is that on September 12, when it became clear that the enemy was in full flight northward and that the battle was won, congratulations were in order and he received instructions that the menu for the dinner should be as much of a banquet as his raw material would permit.

Just as the meal was about to be completed, a British automobile came up to headquarters with a basket of champagne as a token of congratulation to the French staff. It came from a British unit in liaison. The chef was just getting ready to serve it when he noted that the bottles bore a German mark, and he informed the officer of the fact. That worthy forbade him to serve the champagne to the staff and ordered him to throw the bottles away. "We did," says the chef, "but only the next morning, and they were empty."

Mrs. Annie Besant Will Soothe India

Hastens Back from London to Counteract Radical Propaganda.

Paris, Sept. 6.—Mrs. Annie Besant, the English woman who has devoted the latter years of her life to the cause of India, and who as president of the International Theosophical Society presided over the first world congress of the society which has just closed here, is hastening back to India to counteract the activities of Gandhi, the radical agitator.

Mrs. Besant said she had received several disquieting cablegrams from Madras since she had been in Europe as to the activities of Gandhi. "Gandhi is getting desperate, and I foresee losing his head," said Mrs. Besant, "and I must get back to my people as quickly as possible. They have great confidence in me, and I am sure, I can in a large measure lead them away from the radical, vicious teachings of Gandhi."

The Indians, Mrs. Besant said, who she said had shown since his arrival in India a profoundly sympathetic understanding of the Indian people, and she felt, would gradually further the cause of "home rule." Gandhi, whom she described as the "Tolstoid of India, is losing his following for he has preached boycott of schools, legal machinery, even hospitals, gaining for a time a tremendous following, but in all cases where boycott was effective many of the agitator's disciples returned to the schools and utilized the legal machinery and medical aid.

Revolution will never gain headway in India, Mrs. Besant believes; first, because the people are unarmed; secondly, because they do not want to gain political liberty that way. Mrs. Besant frankly talked of her interment during the war for her teachings and with pride said a large number of the reforms she has been instrumental in effecting are gradually being granted.

before she is ready to take the reins of Dominion government in her own hands. Great Britain, Mrs. Besant believes, is at last awakening to the needs of India. It is more sympathetic, and through the newly formed national council, is granting many of the demanded reforms.

Mrs. Besant expressed great admiration for Lord Reading, the Viceroy, who she said had shown since his arrival in India a profoundly sympathetic understanding of the Indian people, and she felt, would gradually further the cause of "home rule." Gandhi, whom she described as the "Tolstoid of India, is losing his following for he has preached boycott of schools, legal machinery, even hospitals, gaining for a time a tremendous following, but in all cases where boycott was effective many of the agitator's disciples returned to the schools and utilized the legal machinery and medical aid.

COSMETICS CAUSE PEARLS TO LOSE THEIR LUSTRE

London Jewellers Issue a Warning to Lady on Question of "Painting."

London, Sept. 6.—Road street jewellers complain sales pearls rapidly falling off because of deterioration in jewels caused by women wearing too much cosmetic. "Women are continually bringing us their pearls complaining their lustre is dying," explained one jeweller, "we cannot very well tell these women to cease smearing their necks with cosmetics. Pearls will thrive only when they are worn next to unadorned skin; they will deteriorate so badly after having been worn over painted skin that they will lose half of their value after three seasons."

Private Bars To Gladden Visitors To Armistice Conference at Washington—Authorities Approve of This Proposal.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—Private bars will flourish in Washington during the armistice conference. Plans to this effect became a certainty today when the prohibition officials placed the stamp of their approval upon the plan to import large liquor shipments from abroad for use in making hospitality a real feature while the conference will be in session.

No specific orders were necessary to assist the foreign envoys who will want their liquors when they want them. A plain statement of policy was outlined with reference to the treatment of foreign liquors which may be brought in for the exclusive use of the envoys and their friends.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue David H. Blair, chief rum boss, expressed interest in reports that delegates, ambassadors and ministers from foreign countries which will be represented, already are perfecting their plans for the importation of big stocks of wet goods to tide them over the arms conference session. Mr. Blair was amused when informed that several shiploads of liquor for the envoys soon would enter American ports.

On the assumption that such liquors would come through as the "goods or property" of the foreign diplomats or delegates, Commissioner Blair said there would be no interference whatever in the movement of such shipments from the ports of entry to Washington.

Government prohibition officials have been informed that the foreign delegates will have practically the same status as accredited diplomats stationed in Washington, so far as concerns immunity from search and seizure of their baggage or other goods brought with them. Every possible step will be taken by the customs and prohibition authorities to insure to the conference. The scheme contemplated is in line with that usually followed at inauguration time.

JITNEY COLLIDED WITH FRUIT WAGON
Bus Owner Will be Called on to Pay Damage Done Yesterday Morning.

A serious accident was narrowly averted about 9:30 yesterday morning when a jitney bus ran into the rear end of one of the delivery carts of J. F. Estabrook & Son, Charles London, the driver of the fruit team, was driving his horse across Mill to North street when the jitney swooped down upon him. It was only by quick action that he jumped from his position beside the team and averted being hit. The jitney after passing him struck the rear of the cart, badly bending the axle.

As the wagon was on the car tracks at the time, the force of the blow caused it to slide on the wet rails, otherwise it would have been demolished.

Mr. London contends that the jitney driver was solely to blame for the accident, and he will therefore be called upon to make good the damage which resulted.

Busy Session In Police Court

Wm. O'Brien on Suspicion of Robbing Liquor Warehouse.

Yesterday and not Monday was "Labor Day" at the police court, for from two in the afternoon until well after five the police magistrate and clerk were kept busy attending to the series of cases that presented themselves.

No session of the court was held in the morning pending the return of His Honor from a holiday visit spent out of town. On the opening of the court four drunks were charged and sent to the lock-up. William O'Brien was then charged on suspicion of robbing together with others, breaking into, entering and stealing from the warehouse of the Great West Wine Co., Water Street, 12 cases of Scotch whiskey to the value of $600 on the night of Sept 6th.

G. H. V. Belyea appeared for the prosecution, and J. A. Barry for the defendant.

Ovilia Dubois, the local manager of the Great West Wine Co., was the only witness called. He stated that his firm were doing an export liquor business at 51 Water Street where they had liquors of all kinds stored.

That he left the warehouse at 9 Saturday night and noticed nothing wrong at the time. At 8 Sunday morning he was called up by phone by Sergeant Detective Power, and at his request accompanied him to the warehouse. Policeman Dykeman was there and witness found that 12 cases of Scotch whiskey, eleven of Dewars, and one of Black and White, was missing.

The warehouse room, he said, ran from Water Street to a wharf on the waterfront, and a broken pane of glass in a window opening from a toilet in one corner of the room on to an elevator shaft on the wharf, was the only clue to how an entrance had been obtained. The window measured 8 by 30 inches, all the other windows were closely barred, and the door leading to the wharf was locked from the inside.

O'Brien, the accused, was familiar with the place having been in the employ of the firm up to the 16th of July.

The case was allowed to stand until this morning at 10 o'clock.

William Nixon, Nick Shiban, William Truffen and Jack Kestuck, charged with stealing a tire from an automobile on the Golden Grove Road, were on application of L. A. Conlon, who appeared in their defense, allowed out on bail. They had been sent up for trial at a previous hearing, and entered into recognizances of $400 each, with the exception of John O'Neil giving securities of $200 each.

D. Michael Seabury was charged with assaulting his wife, and was remanded. Mrs. Seabury first took the stand and stated that every time her husband got drunk he threatened to kill her and to knock down the house with an axe, and on Friday last he told her if she did not give him 50 cents for rum he would "kick her inside out." This request and threat had been made nine times since last January, and twice since July.

She asked the magistrate to see that her life, and that of her nine year old boy, were protected. She thought her husband bought his liquor on Prince William Street. The prisoner was remanded, and the wife was turned over to the liquor inspectors to swear out her information against the men she thought served her husband.

Funeral Directors Are In Convention

Two Sessions Held Yesterday Delegates Welcomed by President.

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Funeral Directors' Association was opened at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the Seamen's Institute. There were a large number of the funeral directors of the province present as well as representatives from Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

The feature of the opening session was the reading of P. J. Fitzpatrick's annual report as president of the Provincial Association. He showed the association to be in good standing and pointed out that the National Funeral Service Association for Canada would greatly assist the Provincial Association to higher ideals. President Fitzpatrick welcomed the visiting brothers to the city.

The following wholesale houses with funeral supplies were present: Christie Brothers & Co., Amherst, N. S., represented by T. Fred Christie and A. W. Murray, also their eastern traveler, W. McLeod Day of this city. Cameron & Fraser of New Glasgow was represented by G. L. Grant, while C. F. Tuttle represented Tuttle Brothers of Moncton. J. W. Elsworth of this city represented Elliott Brothers of Preston, Ont., while L. M. McKinnon represented the Montague Funnishing Company of Montague, P. E. I. It was unanimously passed by the delegates that there is presented at the convention the most display of funeral supplies ever shown in St. John. The afternoon session was mostly taken up on practical demonstrations on the cadaver.

There was no session held last night the delegates taking the opportunity of visiting the exhibition.

The sessions will be resumed this morning at ten o'clock and the convention will be brought to a close on Friday.

Missing Girl In Fredericton

Gerardine Mitchell Says She Was Taken to the Capital in Automobile.

Gerardine Mitchell, the fourteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell, 7 Mill Street, has been located in Fredericton, according to a phone message received by Sergeant Detective Power, from Chief of Police Finlay yesterday afternoon.

Up to when word was received by Sergeant Power, nothing had been heard of the young girl since the time she left her home at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. She was then found for the exhibition to meet her chum, Eleanor McNamee and her sister Kathleen. Neither of the girls saw her at the fair and as the hour grew late the police were communitated with.

Nothing was learned of the girl's whereabouts however, until the Fredericton chief phoned that the girl had called at the police station there at an early hour Tuesday morning and requested assistance. She said she had been taken to the capital in a motor car by an elderly man.

In conversation with an aunt who phoned to her from this city later in the day, the young girl stated she had not been ill-treated. Police Matron Ross left for the capital last evening to bring the young girl home. The present day would be avoided and the community would benefit thereby.

The Mitchell girl was not the only one whose absence brought worry and alarm to her household, for the assistance of the police was also solicited in locating an 11 year old girl of Prospect Point. The girl was later found to be visiting an aunt on Albion street.

The case of the Mitchell girl called forth some pointed remarks from Police Magistrate Ritchie yesterday. Honor took occasion to say that if young girls' whereabouts and companions, as they were wont to do in years gone by, many of the ills of the present day would be avoided and the community would benefit thereby.

Identified By Finger Prints

Edgar Baram, Prisoner With Interesting Record, Will be Brought Here.

Edgar Baram, who attracted much attention two years ago by escaping from the county jail here, and later by fighting the extradition proceedings brought against him in Boston, whence he had fled, by the local authorities, has been located in Chatham, Ontario, and an officer will be sent to that place to bring him back to St. John to face his trial.

Baram's record is a rather interesting one. He was arrested for breaking, entering and stealing from the W. H. Thorne Co. a quantity of hardware, including several revolvers. While awaiting sentence in the local jail, he escaped. He was traced to Montreal and then to Boston, where the St. John authorities took extradition proceedings against him. These were fought by Baram and led to a prolonged legal contest during which he was admitted to bail by the American officials. Baram skipped his bail and disappeared. Recently he was arrested in Ontario, on a vagrancy charge. His finger prints were taken by the police there and forwarded to the Central Finger Print Bureau at Ottawa, where they were found to be similar to the ones of Baram sent from St. John along with his record, two years ago. The local authorities were immediately notified of the fact, and consequently an officer will leave for Chatham this evening to bring the much travelled youth back to this city to face his trial after a postponement of two years.

Open Up Areas For Development
Com. Frink Gives Notice of Resolution for Development of Lands in Stanley Ward.

Commissioner Frink gave notice at the meeting of the common council yesterday of a resolution which will interest every citizen who wants to see the city expanded, and which if the council adopts, it will mean the development of a large area for home building. The motion will come up for debate at the council meeting on Tuesday next, and the commissioner will then outline what he has in mind for this area.

The notice of motion follows: "That it shall be the policy of the common council to open up such areas within the limits of the city which present opportunities for economical and profitable development."

"That in the opinion of this council the area in Stanley ward, bounded by Millidge avenue north, the west and northeast of Newmarket Bridge presents an exceptional opportunity for such development.

"That the work begun this year for the widening, grading and paving of Millidge avenue be continued until such work extends to the river St. John; taking and possessing any lands which may be found necessary for the prosecution of this work, either by negotiation direct or by expropriation. The common council should determine by resolution the extent of work to be undertaken in any one year and the measures to be taken to provide payment for the same.

"That it shall be the policy of the common council to extend the water and sewerage services to the area previously cited in such manner and under such conditions as may seem desirable."
