The Paily Tribune.

J. L. STEWART, EDITOR. FRIDAY EVENING JAN. 24, 1873. Influencing Legislation. in The States it was openly charged that many leading members of Congress were interested in the profits of the Credit Mobilier, an organization form-

Sign Painting ed from the Pacific Railroad Company for the building of that great work, and that the votes on railroad bills had been improperly influenced by reason of such self interest. The charge was that shares in the Credit Mobilier had been presented to Congressmen, or sold at par when they were really worth from two to four hundred per cent, premium, subscription notes be-Flour, Groceries & Liquors, ing accepted and one or two of the dividends allowed to pay them. These charges were stoutly denied at the time, and the general belief was that they were election canards. The investigation ordered by Congress, at the GEORGE MURDOCH, request of one of the implicated members, shows that there was a broad basis of truth for the "election can-AND DEALER IN basis of truth for the "election can-basis of truth for the "election can-parts" to rest upon. It relieves some of the gentlemen of the odium cast upon them and implicates others whose names were not used during the campaign. The investigation shows that Oakes Ames held two or three hundred shares of this stock—stock that paid fabulous dividends under the favorable legislation of Congress-in trust for members of Congress. Mr. Ames swears that he sold the stock to Con-THE Subscribers beg to announce that they have entered into a Professional Co-Partnership, under the name and style of McKEAN & FAIRWEATHER, for the purpose of carrying out of Parks, Cemeteries, and Private Grounds. mium, "and if we had gone back on hem they would have gone back on us, you know" - that is, Congress would have declined to legislate any longer in the exclusive interest of the Credit Mobilier. One of the funniest results of the investigation Ship Broker & Commission Merchant. is the fact that many of those who held the stock found that it burned their fingers at the first intimation of publicity peing given to the affairs of the concern by a threatened lawsuit. Vice President. Colfax and others, at the mention of the Credit Mobilier going into court, rushed frantically to Oakes Ames and forced

> It is often asked, What is the Credit Mobilier, and how did it get in the way of making the enormous profits credited to it? It was formed in this way. The eading spirits of the Union Pacific R. R. Company found that the subscribed apital of the Company, and the enormous subsidies in land and money voted by Congress, would build the road and leave a great profit. Was this profit to go into the pockets of the Company? Was this surplus to be divided among the plebeian shareholders? No. sir; it must belong to the leading spirits aforesaid, and to them only. Having come to this serious determination it was ne-

the Company deeply in debt, and the contractors made $20,000,000 or so.

CHAS. McDONALD. CARD. WE regret to announce to our subscribers and friends the total destruction of our and friends the total destruction of our subscribers FLORENCE

Wand friends the total destruction of our Printing Office in New York, on Christmas Eve. This event will necessarily cause a postponement in the delivery of our January Reference Book. We have, however, duplicated Manuscripts of the entire work, in our numerous branches, so that although the fire is a very great calamity to us, the delay in issuing the book is the chief feature involved in it. We shall immediately commence the work again, and respectfully ask the indulgence of subscribers under these calamitous circumstances. The preparation of new type, the press work, composition and binding, will, with every exertion we can make, occupy tim, but we think that we may safely promise that the delay will not exceed two months at the utmost, and in the meantime the detailed information on our Office Records (the foundation of all the ratings) is freely at the services of subscribers.

A Moravian Idyl (very).

With just sufficient sense to imitate the plan A Chemist had, to advertise his store of the plan A Chemist had been a chemist On this revolving globe once lived a man, With just sufficient sense to imitate the plan A Chemist had, to advertise his store Of Soaps and Oils, in King Street twenty-four. This grim Moravian with the rhymer's art, First stole his title, not wholly but in part. Then to his lines, impossible to scan, The names of Hood and Cowper at the botton ran: Then to his lines, impossion.

Liverpool

Londonderry

Halifax

BOTHERS,
Smyth street.
St. John, N. B.

Then ames of Hood and Cowper at the bottom ran:

He mocked our sense of tune with ill-timed halts;
And grammar vile commingled with the false And limping lines, unreadable and base,
Jours fit to guide "Dame Spearing to his place."
Once in this lair, the shopman held to view
In runic rhyme mysterious number 2.
The man who "steels my purse takes trash,"

'tis said.

The man who "steels my purse takes trast,

'tis said,
But stol n brains won't fit a wooden head;
For such a deal-end pate i'd recommend
A dose of Epsom Salts, and to the Chemist send
And buy a box of Peristatite Pills—
A sure and certain guard 'gainst farther ills:
Take these, my friend, and ease that dread
Neuralgic pain,
Forswear the muse and ne'er write rhyme again.
Remember what to us Will Cowper gave,
And let him rest in peace and not turn in his grave.

James Montgomery. JAMES MONTGOMERY.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safeat, surest, and best of all the PIIIs with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purlied, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of his restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleaned by Ayer's PIIIs, and stimulated into action. Thus inclinent disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor, and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action. For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Billious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Fickness, Billious Colic and Billious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

pathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
