BULLER'S THREAT!

He Considers Himself a Victim of Conspiracy and Will Unmask His Assailants.

New York, Nov. 6.—Gen. Buller, says the London correspondent of the Tribune, considers himself the victim of a South African conspiracy, and threatens to unmask his assailants. Unlike Gen. Roberts, who rallied the political as well as the military forces in South Africa, and did not make any enemy except when compelled to criticise subordinate generals and officers, Gen. Buller lacked flexibility in dealing with men, and excited much opposition. At Westminster Buller's friends now assert that he will vindicate his reputation by exposing the machinations of the conspirators who have been traducing him, and by telling the secret history of the Jameson raid and other operations.

Manchester, England, Nov. 6.—The retaliation of Buller against his "persecutors," which was predicted by the general's friends at the time of his dismissal from the command of Aldershot is, according to the Dispatch, about to take definite form. The paper says:

"Buller has decided to give the unvarnished history of the military operations in South Africa, from the Jameson raid onward. All the intrigues of the Rhodes set will be exposed and war office bungling brought to light."

ORDERED TO SOUTH AFRICA.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 6.—Orders have been received from the war office to dispatch to South Africa without delay 500 specially selected royal artillerymen, serving in this garrison. Capt. Duffus, a Haglonian, will command the detachments, which will take with it six of the latest and most improved type of Maxims.

BENSON'S MEN.

London, Nov. 5.—Lord Kitchener telegraphs the war office that the troops in Col. Benson's command who were wounded in the fight near Bethel, have been brought in to the Springs. He says that he has received no further details of the fight.

Lord Kitchener further reports that Cape Colony, to the eastward of the western railway, is cleared of Boers, with the exception of the Fouches-Myburg-Wessels commando of 400 men, with which Gen. French is dealing.

CUT HIS CLAWS!

The Tammany Tiger Badly Worsted in Tuesday's Battle---Seth Low Elected by Nearly 30,000 Majority---Shephard Carried Only One Borough.

New York, Nov. 6.—Full returns in New York city of the vote for mayor show the election of Seth Low, the Fusion candidate, by a majority of 29,864, Mr. Low receiving 294,992 votes and Edward M. Shephard, Democratic candidate, 265,128. Mr. Shephard carried only one borough, and in that one, Queen's, his majority is only 762.

In the county of New York the last remaining hope of the Democrats is swept away by figures indicating the defeat of John T. Oakley for sheriff, by Wm. F. O'Brien. O'Brien's majority, however, probably is not more than three or four thousand.

The majorities of the Fusion candidates for justice of the supreme court, and of William Traverse Jerome, the fusionist nominee for district attorney, are even larger than reported last night. Incomplete figures indicate that Jerome has carried his district, New York county, by about fifteen thousand.

So badly was Mayor Van Wyck scratched for justice of the supreme court that it is believed that he will run nearly 30,000 behind his ticket.

All of the Fusionist candidates for justices of the supreme court in New York county are elected, and all of the Democratic candidates are beaten. The name of Justice O'Brien, however, appears on both tickets as a candidate for justice of the supreme court.

Appearances this morning indicate that the Democrats have just one out of sixteen members of the board of estimates and apportionment of Greater New York—the board, which under the new charter, succeeds to many of the powers formerly vested in the mayor. The only Democrat who is certain of a position on the board of estimates and apportionment is Borough President Cassidy, of Queen's.

THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY.

In adition to the election of an entire new assembly, two state senators were voted for to fill vacancies caused by death in the thirtieth and the forty-third senatorial districts. William B. Barnes (Republican) and Merton E. Lewis, one of the Republican leaders in the last assembly, won. The election of Messrs. Barnes and Lewis leaves the senate unchanged.

There will be 35 Republicans and 15 Democrats in the senate of 1902, which is the same number each party had in the senate of 1901.

The assembly of 1902 probably will stand as follows: Republicans and Fusionists, 108; Democrats, 42. This is in all probability a Republican and Fusionist gain of three, leaving the Democrats in a minority of 66.

OTHER CITIES IN NEW YORK.

In the municipal elections throughout the state the Republicans effected some gains in the larger cities. Buffalo, the only first class city outside of the metropolis, elected Erastus Knight, Republican, by over 5,000 majority. Of the four second class cities Syracuse was captured by the Republicans, Mayor McGuire, one of the Democratic leaders of the state being defeated. Albany and Troy were retained by the Republicans. Both parties are claiming Rochester, and the plurality of A. J. Rodenbeck (Republican) in the event of the official figures demonstrating his election, will be very small.

BRITISH PRESS COMMENT.

London, Nov. 6.—The most vindictive opponents of Tammany Hall in the thick of the campaign could not have painted that organization in blacker colors than do the editorial writers in the afternoon newspapers here today in congratulating New York on the result of the election.

"The success of Seth Low is an event on which every friend of America and every lover of virtue and honesty anywhere has good reasons to raise paeans of congratulation," says the St. James Gazette, adding:

"It is the greatest blow yet struck at the most nefarious system of organized, triumphant villainy ever foisted on a civilized community by a gang of corrupt blackmailers. But the terrific power of such an organization can only be finally crushed by a counter-organization and equally far-reaching energy."

The Pall Mall Gazette says:

"The gods that preside over honest government deserve a libation from every good citizen throughout the world."

The Westminster Gazette remarks:

"The New Yorker seems at last to have grasped that he has a citizen's responsibility for the good government of his city. With a president who has declared against the spoils system, and a detamanized New York the outlook for the United States is brighter than for a long time past."

Last Night's Report.

New York, Nov. 5.—Seth Low, formerly president of Columbia University, and four years ago the Citizens' Union candidate for mayor of Greater New York, was today elected the second mayor of New York by a plurality ranging anywhere from 30,000 to 40,000, defeating Edward M. Shepard, of Brooklyn, the Democratic nominee. The campaign was an exciting one, and the vote, though somewhat less than the presidential election a year ago, was the largest ever polled in a municipal contest in the country.

In addition for the canvass for mayor public interest largely centered in the nomination of the Fusionists of William Travers Jerome for district attorney, and Mayor Robert A. Van Wyck, by the Democrats, for justice of the supreme court. Both the candidates for district attorney and justice of the supreme court were voted for only in the territory contained in New York county.

Returns also indicate the complete triumph of the Greater New York Fusion ticket—Charles Vincent Fornes, the nominee of the Citizen's Union, and the Republicans, defeating Geo. M. Van Hoesen, the Democratic nominee, for president of the board of aldermen. E. M. Grout, for the past four years Democratic president on the borough of Brooklyn, now the Fusionist nominee for comptroller, has also been defeated by W. W. Ladd, jun. (Dem.)

ELSEWHERE IN THE STATE.

Reports received from the various sections of New York state show that the Republicans will retain control of the lower house of the state legislature.

In the various municipal contests reported from up the state the most interesting elections noted were those of Albany, Troy, Rochester, Syracuse and Buffalo. The city of Albany will be carried by the Republicans, ex-Senator David B. Hill taking no active part in the local canvass.

In Troy former U. S. Senator Murphy headed the fight for the candidate of the Democrats, while former Governor Black managed the campaign for the Progressive Democratic-Republican ticket. Daniel E. Conway, the candidate for mayor, supported by ex-Governor Black, was easily elected.

In Buffalo the entire Republican city and county ticket was elected. Erastus C. Knight, the state comptroller, being chosen mayor.

The result in Rochester was close, but Mayor Warner's friends claim his election over the Republican candidate.

In Syracuse Mayor McGuire, for a number of years past the Democratic mayor of the city, was defeated by Kline, the Republican nominee.

WAITING FOR THE VERDICT.

It is estimated that between 40,000 and 50,000 were massed on Broadway, between 22nd street and 38th street, to watch for the returns. The crowd was by far the greatest that had ever congregated to watch for the returns of a local election. During the evening several hundred Columbia students appeared in the vicinity of 34th street and Broadway. They wore silk hats and carried Chinese lanterns on the ends of canes. They were jubilant that their former president had won, and they celebrated the event by the blowing of horns and cheers for Mr. Low. They gave no trouble to the police.

MAYOR-ELECT LOW.

About 11 o'clock Mr. Low gave out a formal statement, in which he said: "The outcome of this election is a splendid vindication of universal suffrage. From all parts of the city have come the votes that have rebuked the Tammany orgie of the last four years. All the patronage of the city and limitless money have not availed against the aroused indignation of the people, and it is safe to say that absentee government and government for private gain will not be seen again in New York city for many a day. This is no man's triumph, but it is the people's victory. The agencies that have brought it about are many. Those who labored so long and so patiently to bring about the successful fusion so loyally are entitled to the heartiest credit. For myself, I ask for the generous and constant support of the community in the great task to which it has summoned me, and I dedicate every power that I have to its loyal service."

EXIT CROKER.

Mr. Croker, Maurice Untermeyer and Senator T. D. Sullivan were together at dinner during the night, and it is said on good authority that a little later Mr. Croker said this was his last political fight. Mr. Croker asked Senator Sullivan who he desired as leader. Senator Sullivan answered that John F. Carroll would be pleasing to him; then and there Richard Croker abdicated his leadership of Tammany Hall, and turned it over to John F. Carroll. The party proceeded to Tammany Hall, where John F. Carroll was awaiting them. He was apprised of the purpose of Mr. Croker, but said nothing. He accompanied Mr. Croker to the Democratic Club in a cab, and going upstairs remained almost an hour closeted with him. It was after this conference that Mr. Croker announced: "This is my last campaign."

COMPACT OF THE POWERS!

Gives France a Free Hand in Her Dealings With the Porte.

Seizure of Smyrna to Follow Ultimatum to Sultan---Russia, England and France Agreed.

Paris, Nov. 6.—The correspondent of the Mail and Empire learns from an authoritative source that Count von Buelow, the German imperial chancellor, sought to oppose French action in Turkey without receiving in return a concession for the Bagdad Railway, and that Emperor William had to formally command a cessation of this policy. A curious report which is current in well-informed circles is persistent enough to deserve notice. It is to the effect that exists between France and Russia and England under the terms of which Russia is to be left peacefully in Manchuria, England in Egypt, and France to be allowed to occupy Smyrna. If the report is true it accounts for the boldness of M. Delcasse, the French minister of foreign affairs, in reasserting French prestige in Turkey, despite German susceptibilities, and also for the condemnation by the kaiser of Count von Buelow's policy.

A CLASH.

Jerusalem, Nov. 5. — The Church of the Holy Sepulchre, surmounting Christ's tomb, was the scene of a sanguinary affair Monday last between Franciscans and Greeks, during which there were a number of casualties on both sides. The dispute arose on the question as to which community had the right to sweep the church. Troops had been posted in the vicinity for several days in order to prevent the anticipated clash, but they were overpowered by the contending parties.

ENSHROUDED IN FOG.

London, Nov. 5.—Although the streets twenty-four hours, and steamers bound without the aid of lamps, the coasts were still fog-bound and railroad and other traffic much impeded. The cross-channel steamers had the utmost difficulty in making their ports, in spite of the fact that the big fog guns were being continually fired. Traffic on the Clyde has been blocked for twenty-four hours, and steamers bound of London were traversable today port. A number of foreign steamers bound for Glasgow have taken twenty hours to traverse the twenty-four miles of river. On the Humber traffic is suspended. There have been railroad collisions at various points, and minor wrecks have been reported along the coasts. On the Thames traffic is almost at a standstill. The hospitals of the metropolis say that there were about 100 cases of accidents treated during the night. The mercury hovers about the freezing point. Continental reports show that Calais, Ostend, Lyons and Munich are among the points fog-bound.

TO KEEP MITYLENE.

London, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—According to the Paris correspondent of the Daily News, France intends to keep Mitylene as a guarantee for the future good behavior of the Sultan. The correspondent enlarges on the value of the island as a naval base, and says it contains the largest and deepest sheltered habors in the Levant. He recalls the opinion of the late Jules Ferry, formed when he was minister at Athens, that the possession of Mitylene would give any great naval power command of Symrna and the Dardanelles, and would go far towards giving it command of the Suez Canal.

CARNEGIE REFUSED A BARONETCY.

London, Nov. 6.—The Exchange Telegraph Company today says that Andrew Carnegie, prior to leaving Scotland for the United States, was offered a baronetcy, which he declined.

JULES VERNE NOT DEAD.

Amiens, Nov. 6.—A newspaper correspondent has interviewed Jules Verne, the famous author, here. Jules Verne is not blind, as was recently reported, but is suffering from a cataract. He is just finishing his 99th story.

CABLE NOTES.

Sir Wm. H. White, director of naval construction, who may be said to have created the British fleet, has decided to resign, owing to failing health.

A cargo of 15 ancient bronze guns which formerly stood on the walls of Pekin, has reached Berlin. The most ornamental of the guns will be placed in the naval museum in Berlin. The others will be melted for the sake of the bronze in them.

London business men were surprised by the delivery of mails that left New York on Tuesday last, and at least a day in advance of the usual time. Often it is Wednesday before they are delivered. This remarkable record is due to the rapid passage of the Kron Prinze Wilhelm, which arrived in Plymouth at 38 minutes past midnight on Sunday, thus covering the 2,978 miles in five days, 8 hours and 18 minutes.

ORANGEMEN CELEBRATED

Guy Fawkes Day Was Observed in the Usual Fashion.

L. O. L., No. 230, Gave a Supper at Which There Was Much Speech-Making and a Deal of Fun.

Guy Fawkes' Day was celebrated in typically enthusiastic style by the members of Ahoghill, Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 230, and many of their friends. Last night, at the lodge room on Adelaide street north, a great company gathered, and the room could not hold all who desired admittance. In point of attendance alone, the celebration was the most successful that the lodge has held, and an excellent supper, together with a general air of gaiety, added to the pleasure of the affair. The members of the lodge were congratulated, and felt that congratulations were in order upon the success of the celebration.

The speech-making at the Orangemen's annual supper is always sufficiently earnest and of an order of eloquence high enough to be interesting, and the names of the principal speakers last night—Messrs. Essery, Gilmour and Wilson—are an indication of the style of speeches that the lodgemen and their guests heard.

Worshipful Master Bro. George Geohegan, who presided, introduced a toast list, and "The King" was first proposed. In response the National Anthem was sung with loyal goodwill.

The toast to "The Glorious, Pious and Immortal Memory of King William III., and Our Late Queen," was honored in silence.

"The Supreme Grand Lodge of British America," brought a reply from Bro. E. T. Essery.

Rev. George Gilmore, of London Junction, gave some delightful reminiscences of his experiences in Ireland, and his description of Irish life and characteristics were enjoyable. During his address he expressed his pleasure at being present, and said that he wished at all times to be on the side of that which tended to the elevation of mankind.

Rev. Thomas Wilson, of the King Street Presbyterian Church, said that he had carefully studied the principles of the order, and believed them worthy to be presented to this country and to every other country.

The committee that had charge of the supper were Bros. Geo. Geohegan, T. Patterson, W. Hodgins, R. Aiken, W. Aiken and W. B. Waller. Miss Stinson, Mr. Wm. Reid and Mr. Ed. Hutson sang solos during the evening.

EVERY INCH AN HONEST MAN

Tribute to Memory of the Late William E. Leonard.

Was a Liberal in True Sense of the Term and Held Fast to All That Was Right.

[St. Thomas Journal.]

The sudden death of Wm. E. Leonard, manager of the Southwestern and Farmers' Loan Company, came with a painful shock to everyone who heard it this morning. That the Grim Reaper had claimed him for a victim when he seemed to be in the full flush of a rugged and ripened manhood, could hardly be realized.

Mr. Leonard passed away at his residence, Talbot street east, this morning about 9 o'clock from the effects of angina pectoris, an affection of the heart, brought on or aggravated by straining himself while working around his home on Saturday.

The deceased was a gentleman of the highest integrity and probity, and was held in the highest respect by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. He was a man whose word was his bond, a man to whom one could point, as in the case of Brutus, and say: "Here was a man."

A Reformer in politics, he was a "Liberal" in the true sense of the word, and held for all that was right and true. While holding his own opinions he conceded the rights of others to hold an honest difference of opinion. He took a prominent interest in political matters, and held a high place in the counsels of his party, and that he was not nominated as a candidate of the party was because of his disinclination to accept the same.

For five years Mr. Leonard occupied the position of county police magistrate, and he brought to the transaction of the duties of his office a sound judgment and keen insight, and while ready to perform his duty and vindicate the law, he was also ever ready to "temper justice with mercy."

For some years past Mr. Leonard has been manager of the Southwestern Loan Company and a director of the Southern Loan Company, and had proven himself to be a capable financier and sound business man.

William E. Leonard was a son of the late Lyman S. Leonard, of Yarmouth, and was born in Yarmouth 55 years ago. In 1830 his father and uncle, the late Hon. Elijah Leonard, latterly of London, built a foundry in St. Thomas, which they conducted for years. His mother is still alive, and lives in Aylmer. Mr. Leonard married Miss Lawton, and besides his wife leaves one son, William J. Leonard, accountant of the Southern Loan Company. Mrs. (Dr.) Marlatt, of Aylmer, is a sister of the diseased; Alex. Lawton, farmer, Yarmouth, is a brother-in-law, and Mrs. John McBride, of this city, a sister-in-law of the deceased. In 1889 Mr. Leonard was appointed manager of the Southwestern and Farmers' Loan Company, to succeed the late George W. Suffel. In 1878 he was appointed a director of the Southern Loan Company, and was a member of the board until the time of his death. He was the father of the Yarmouth Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and for years has acted as secretary-treasurer of the institution.

In 1885 he was appointed a county police magistrate, and occupied the position until 1891.

Mr. Leonard attended Immanuel Baptist Church.

Mr. James Hodd, ex-mayor of Stratford, and manager of the Classic City flour mills, purposes leaving next week for the Northwest, where he will probably take up his residence in the future.

Mr. T. A. Summerskill, master mechanic on the northern division of the Grand Trunk, at Allandale, Ont., has been appointed superintendent of motive power on the Central Vermont, vice Mr. Wm. Hassman, resigned.

The Dutton public school board met last night and completed the engagement of their teachers for 1902: W. Beer, principal, $520; Miss Kate McCallum, first assistant, $300; Miss McColl, second assistant, $250; Miss Ruthven, third assistant, $230. The school made a good showing last year.

Timothy Bresnahan, the oldest resident of Windsor, is lying at the point of death at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Jeremiah Lawley. His age is believed to be not less than 101 years. Mr. Bresnahan was born in Castle Gregory, Kerry county, Ireland. He came to America in 1850.

On June 18, 1901, Albert C. Krause, son of Charles Krause, New Hamburg, was killed in the Philippines. His father, after considerable correspondence with the government at Washington, has secured the promise of the authorities to bring the remains as far as Detroit, at which point the father will have to take charge.

Col. Guillot, commander of the 21st (Essex) Regiment, has appointed Sergt. John Northwood, one of the Windsor boys who served in South Africa, as orderly-room clerk, with the honorary rank of sergeant, in succession to Victor Raper, whose dishonorable discharge from the regiment for refusing to join the regiment at church parade, has been recommended to the militia authorities at Ottawa.

Bearing his three score years and ten easily, George Campbell is back in Windsor, after a second trip to the Klondike. His first trip to Dawson took him eighteen months; his second was made in five, showing the better facilities for travel. He places the output of gold this year at nearly $40,000,000, and says that with new diggings being discovered, mining in the Klondike will be continued for many years.

A TERRIBLE MISTAKE.

A New Brunswick Man About To Be Operated On for Appendicitis—A Narrow Escape.

St. Marys, N. B., Nov. 4.—What came nearly being a fearful blunder happened here a short time ago.

Thomas Harrison thought from his painful symptoms he had Appendicitis. He was being treated for it, indeed the surgical operation, which is supposed to be the only successful treatment for Appendicitis, had been suggested. He really had Stone in the Bladder.

Mr. Harrison says:

"About this time an anxious friend advised me to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and by the time I had finished the first box I passed a stone of unusual size, which is now in the doctor's possession.

"I began at once to feel better, and you may judge of my gratitude for my escape thus promptly and safely. Having taken only three boxes I am happy to state I am absolutely cured, with no sign of the return of my old trouble."

ANOTHER CASE OF LOCKJAW

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 6.—The twelfth death from tetanus, resulting from the treatment of diphtheria patients with anti-toxine, supplied by the city, occurred yesterday, when Mamie Keenan succumbed. Her brother is not expected to recover. Her death makes three victims in the Keenan family.

TRIBUTE TO LATE MRS. JOHN McKILLOP

The St. Thomas Journal, in its account of the recent death of Mrs. John McKillop, gives a number of additional particulars. The Journal says:

"The late Mrs. John McKillop, whose demise was noticed in Wednesday's issue, was a daughter of one of Elgin's earliest pioneers. She was born in Dunwich, and was the youngest of a family of eight.

"The late Duncan and Archibald Black, of Dunwich; John, of Yarmouth, and Daniel, of London, were brothers. James Black, of Wallacetown, and Mrs. Campbell, of Aldborough, are the only surviving members. The deceased was at the time of her death in her 75th year, and had enjoyed wedded life for the very long period of 53 years.

"Mr. and Mrs. McKillop settled in Aldborough township upon a beautiful site on the banks of the River Thames. There by many years of earnest toil they hewed out of the forest a delightful home and did a large part in making that section of the country what it is today. Twenty-three years ago they moved to the township of Orford, where they resided till her death.

"Her sons, Duncan, a teacher in Belleville Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, preceded her to the better land about three months ago. The surviving family, beside her husband, are James B., of London; Daniel, of Walkerville; John A., of Orford; Albert A. and Mrs. Robert Bandeen, of Aldborough, and Mrs. James McClelland, of Ottawa.

"The deceased was for many years an active member of the Disciples' Church. Her religious life, while not ostentatious, was of that earnest, practical character that made itself felt. Her door was always open to the poor, and her hospitality was more than generous. Her home was a center of religious activity, and no time, nor labor, nor money were spared in the enterprises of the church. Her superior intelligence and kindliness of heart, her devotion to principle and quiet enthusiasm secured for her the love and esteem of all who knew her and justifies the calling of special attention to her life."

2,000 POUNDS OF POWDER EXPLODED.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 6. — The powder magazine of the Santa Fe Pacific at Williams, containing 2,000 pounds of powder, exploded, the shock breaking windows and glassware and tearing doors from houses. The magazine is supposed to have caught fire from sparks from an engine switching near by. The cars and engine were wrecked, but engineer and crew escaped.

MOTORMAN CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER.

Toronto, Nov. 6.—Detective Black has sworn out an information, charging Jas. Gunn, superintendent of the Toronto street railway, and H. H. Buer, a motorman, with manslaughter. The charge rises out of the death of an old man, James C. Duggan, who was killed by a car on Oct. 19. The coroner's jury merely censured the street railway company.

Weary Brainworkers

Fagged out, ideas come as slowly as molasses. You think of things just a minute or two too late. Snap's gone! The buoyancy that made work a pleasure —that's gone, too. The doctor would tell you that you are run down, not eating enough nor digesting enough. Your stomach needs aid, your digestion needs a bracer, too. Your blood requires Phosphorus and Iron that it may be formed readily. Now Ferrozone is a wonderful nerve bracer and blood maker. It's food for the blood and nerves; it will make you strong quickly and permanently. Sold by W. T. Strong & Co.

COMMITTEE WILL LOOK INTO CASE

Board of Education and the Prodger Charges.

Complainant's Wife Must Also Stand an Investigation.

Six Vacancies Filled and Other Business Transacted at Last Night's Session.

Last night's meeting of the board of education opened with Trustee MacRobert in the chair, but Chairman English came in just when the Prodger-Baker affair was being considered. The most important matters dealt with by the board were the aforesaid affair, which was handed over to No. 1 committee for immediate investigation, and the appointment of five teachers and an assistant kindergarten teacher. Those present were: Chairman English, Trustees MacRobert, Strong, Gillean, Teasdall, Hamilton, Colerick, Evans, Blackwell, Wilkins, Boyle, Heath, McCormick, Ziegler and Bayly, Secretary McElheran, Architect Matthews, Inspector Carson and Principal Radcliffe.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Miss Hattie Westman, Miss Augusta Moore, Miss Annie Hodges and Miss L. Wood (Stratford) applied for appointment on the teaching or kindergarten staffs. D. Steels and Mrs. Hart applied for appointment as janitor of the Richmond street school. The applications were referred to No. 2 committee.

Miss Jessie MacDonald tendered her resignation as primary teacher in the Grand avenue school, she having been appointed teacher of modern languages in Fergus high school. Her resignation was accepted.

Dr. W. E. Waugh applied for the use of the chemistry room at the Collegiate Institute before school hours for lectures to the medical students. The faculty of the Medical School is willing to pay for the use of the rooms.

Trustee Strong moved that the request be granted, No. 2 committee to arraneg terms. Motion carried.

THE PRODGER-BAKER AFFAIR.

The following letter was received from Mr. George Prodger, of 703 William street, in relation to the alleged assault committed on his son by Mr. Samuel Baker, principal of St. George's school:

"I beg to complain of the conduct of Mr. S. Baker, principal of St. George's school, towards my son, Samuel George Prodger, and my wife, Eva Prodger, on Nov. 1, and to ask for an investigation, and if my complaint is found to be correct, for the removal of Mr. Baker, or for such other punishment as may be just. My complaint against Mr. Baker is as follows: 1. That he administered corporal punishment to the said Samuel Prodger unnecessarily, and without cause. 2. That he was guilty of an infraction of rules 20 and 21 relating to teachers in his method of administering the said punishment. 3. That he assaulted the said Samuel Prodger with a stick and caused him to be bruised and blackened on the arm and leg. 4. That when the said Eva Prodger complained to him of want of any cause for such punishment and of the severity and illegality thereof, he used insulting and abusive language towards her. 5. That the said Mr. Baker has been guilty on other occasions with other pupils of a similar infraction of the rules of the board."

Trustee Bayly moved that the complaint of Mr. Prodger be referred to No. 1 committee for investigation, and he also moved to the effect that No. 1 be instructed to investigate the disturbance said to have been created at the school by Mrs. Prodger, and the advisability of laying information against her under section 108 of the public school act.

Dr. Zeigler seconded the motion.

Trustee Bayly said he did not intend to discuss the matter until it had come before the committee, but the reason for his motion was that he had been informed by the teachers at the school that for fully twenty minutes it had been impossible to carry on the school because of the disturbance created and language used by Mrs. Prodger. Trustee Bayly's motion carried.

Trustee Bayly then moved that the soliciter of the board be instructed to appear on behalf of Mr. Baker in the proceedings taken against him in the police court by Mr. Prodger. Mr. Bayly based his motion on the fact that Mr. Baker was a servant of the board and as such was entitled to the board's support in any position in which he was placed in fulfilling his duty.

Trustee Blackwell said he was unable to see that Mr. Baker should be defended by the board's solicitor. The board had no more right to defend Mr. Baker than to defend Mr. Prodger.

Trustee Evans supported Trustee Blackwell's contention.

On the vote being taken, the yeas and nays were called for, they being as follows: Yeas—Strong, Hamilton, Wilkins, Boyle, Heath, McCormick, Ziegler, Bayly and Gillean—9. Nays—Blackwell, Evans, Colerick—3.

Trustee Gillean asked to be excused from voting, but the board refusing his request, he voted yea. No. 1 will meet tonight for the proposed investigation.

OFFICERS' REPORTS.

Inspector Carson reported in part as follows:

Principal Woodburne, with two substitute teachers, opened Chesley avenue school yesterday with 184 pupils in attendance. Miss Weir returned to her duties at West London school on Oct. 14 after leave of absence in Europe. Miss Lee has secured a position in Pittsburg, and is no longer an applicant for appointment. Adopted.

Principal Radcliffe's report for October showed 521 pupils enrolled on the general course, with an average attendance of 492. On the commercial course 99 are enrolled, with an average attendance of 94. The total is 620 enrolled and 586 average attendance, an increase of 57 over October, 1900, and 5 over October, 1899. The report was adopted.

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

No. 1 committee's report was taken up clause by clause. The first two clauses were adopted. The first recommended that the salary of Mr. S. K. Davidson, drawing master at the Collegiate Institute, be readjusted, owing to increased work on his part. It was recommended that he receive the amount formerly paid him, $650 per annum. The second clause reported that tenders for supply of pens, ink, erasers, etc., were let to the lowest tenderers, while new tenders will be asked for foolscap paper, the lowest tender being too high. Clauses 3, 4 and 5 were struck out. They recommended the following appointments: Miss Eva L. Williams to vacancy caused by resignation of Miss Smibert; Miss Strongman and Miss Gahan to Chesley avenue school; Miss Porteous to the new room in Victoria school. The report was adopted as amended.

The report of No. 2 committee recommended payment of accounts totalling $457 81. Repairs have been found necessary for the roof of Princess avenue school. The expenditure on flags and decorations for the visit of the duke and duchess had been assumed by the general reception committee of citizens. The report was adopted without change.

NEW TEACHERS APPOINTED.

The appointment of teachers to fill the five vacancies existing was then proceeded with. Inspector Carson, on motion, addressed the board. He said he could speak especially favorably of Miss Strongman and Miss Williams, but he said that all the applicants had the necessary qualification and would make good teachers.

Sixteen applicants were then placed in nomination and eleven ballots taken, which resulted in Misses Hodges, Williams, Gray, Nichol and Strongman being chosen. The ballots were as follows:

Miss Hodges...	9	12	10	11	8	11	10	12	11	11	12
Miss Williams..	12	10	13	12	12	11	12	11	11	10	11
Miss Gray.....	14	13	11	13	14	14	13	13	14	14	14
Miss Nichol.....	9	10	8	11	11	12	9	9	10	11	10
Miss Strongman	13	10	9	10	9	11	10	11	9	10	11
Miss Abbott....	12	10	7	9	10	7	10	8	9	10	8
Miss O'Brien...	12	10	12	10	10	11	9	8	9	9
Miss Fisher.....	10	10	10	10	9	9	10	10	8
Miss Gahan.....	11	9	8	9	11	7	8	7
Miss Whittaker.	9	11	10	9	9	8	8
Miss Porteous..	7	8	5	8	7	7
Miss Leggatt...	8	6	8	7	6
Miss Jeffrey....	6	6	6	2
Miss Plewes....	7	5	3
Miss Field.....	4	5
Miss Pennock...	4

On motion, the assigning of the appointed teachers to their respective schools was left in the hands of the inspector.

The appointment of a kindergarten teacher to fill the vacancy at Victoria school, caused by the death of Miss Edith Pope, was then taken up. Three applicants were nominated, Miss Augusta Moore, who had been filling the position since Miss Pope's death; Miss Westman, of this city, and Miss L. Woods, of Stratford. Miss Moore was chosen, the ballot standing:

Miss Moore	9	11
Miss Woods	5	4
Miss Westman	5

A VOTE OF THANKS.

On motion of Trustees MacRobert and Boyle, the sub-committee, appointed by the board on the ducal reception committee, was tendered a vote of thanks and discharged from further duty. Chairman English and Trustee Gillean were the members of the sub-committee.

INQUIRIES BY TRUSTEES.

Trustee Boyle inquired of No. 2 committee if the architect had yet brought in a report of the sanitary condition of the schools. Trustee Hamilton replied that he had not. Trustee Boyle stated that the lavatories of Lorne avenue school were in a decidedly unsanitary condition.

MOTIONS.

Trustee Blackwell moved that clause 5 of No. 1 committee's report, on Oct. 1, be struck out. The clause was to the effect that a cash deposit be required from the junior and senior leaving pupils at the Collegiate Institute, 50c from the former and $1 from the latter, to cover cost of breakages in the lavatory.

Trustee Blackwell secured a seconder and said that his reason for making the motion was that the clause was an imposition on the taxpayers and an imputation on the pupils. The latter, he said, were ladies and gentlemen and should be treated as such.

The motion received 8 votes for and 6 against it. As it required a two-thirds vote to carry, it was declared lost.

Trustee Boyle moved that Miss Florence O'Brien, who was attached to the staff of Chesley avenue school, but who has been at Grand avenue school since Miss MacDonald's resignation, be retained at the latter school.

In amendment it was moved that the matter be left in the hands of the inspector with power. The amendment carried.

FOR DAY LABOR

Ottawa Labor Delegations Want It on the Mint and Geological Museum.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—A committee from the Allied Trades and Labor Association of Ottawa waited on the minister of public works today and asked that the experiment of day labor be tried on new buildings, such as the mint and the Geological Museum, which are about to be erected in Ottawa. They argued that the best work was done by day labor.

Mr. Tarte pointed out that he had always been in favor of day labor, and had done a good deal of work in this way, but there was the government and House of Commons to be dealt with. He was but a very humble member of the administration. There were parts of the country where he would not recommend day labor, but generally speaking he favored it. He would do what he could for them.

BRITAIN ACCEPTS

The American Proposition Relative to Clayton-Bulwer Treaty as Basis of a New Agreement.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Ambassador Choate, who arrived in Washington last night, called upon Secretary Hay and had a long talk about the projected Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

Lord Pauncefote, British ambassador, has notified Secretary Hay formally that the British Government accepts the American proposition relative to the Clayton-Bulwer treaty as the base for a new treaty. Within a day or two the state department will begin the preparation of the convention itself. It is possible that this work will be finished in about two weeks.

ONE MILLION HATCHETS.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—The British Government has given an order for 72,000 dozen, or 864,000, boys' hatchets, to the South Chicago tool works. It has been taken by one tool company, which manufactures the greater percentage of the axes of the country. It is the largest order ever given, and is for use in South Africa, each soldier being given a hatchet. The order was offered English manufacturers, but declined.

DREAM SAVED INSURANCE.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 6.—Miss Nettie Palmateer, a school teacher of this city, who was to have been married to John E. Ellabarger, who was killed last night at Judson, Ind., says she had a dream three months ago that Ellabarger was killed in a wreck. She told this to Ellabarger, and he took out $2,200 life insurance in her favor a month ago.

BLACK MICA IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 6.—A trial shipment of ten tons of black mica, consigned to Manchester, England, has been made from the mica beds on Ice River, east of Golden, B. C. If this shipment gives satisfactory returns it will mean a great deal for Golden, as Ice River is only a few miles from the mouth of Beaver Foot River. The mineral of Ice River is not only mica, but a high grade of zinc ore is found, while assays from a gold copper ore gives a value as high as $50 in gold per ton.

REDMOND'S NEW YORK SPEECH.

New York, Nov. 5.—Irish-Americans to the number of 3,000 or 4,000 from this city and vicinity gathered at a reception given at Carnegie Hall, in honor of John E. Redmond, M.P., leader of the Irish Nationalist party in the British Parliament. Redmond caid: "The policy of the United Irish League movement was to make the government of Ireland by English difficult and dangerous, and finally impossible."

Tammany Defeated.

The municipal election in Greater New York, which took place yesterday, has attracted the previous attention of the world. New York is one of the greatest cities of the earth, and Tammany is an organization long notorious for its corrupt methods, and celebrated because of its supposed invincibility. No wonder, then, that the strenuous contest of yesterday was looked forward to with eager interest. "Tammany" is simply the name of a hitherto puissant municipal organization of New York. Although mainly municipal, it had also a political side, and worked in affiliation with the Democratic party; although no doubt embracing under its banner loose fish from the other party. Its organization was widespread, skilful and tyrannical. It took possession of New York city, and proceeded, by its agents, to levy toll, directly or indirectly, on every citizen. It rewarded its friends by lightening their assessments, and punished its opponents by adding to their taxes. It allowed saloons to violate the law on payment of blackmail scarcely concealed. Gambling houses could be kept open all day and all night on payment of hush-money; and the same is true of a diabolical trafficking in the bodies and souls of the innocent, which can only be hinted at, but which cannot be particularized.

Tammany was beaten yesterday, and Seth Low elected Mayor, by the power of an aroused public opinion, and the combination of the decent element, ranging itself under what is known as the Fusionist party. The name explains itself. The Fusionists included all those who had grown sick of Tammany's corruptions, all those who, whether ordinarily and individually Republicans, or Independent Democrats, or political neutrals, desired clean government in civic affairs. Never before was so direct and powerful an appeal made to the conscience and the better instincts of the electorate. Not in vain was the appeal made, as the sweeping triumph of Seth Low and his associates and the overwhelming defeat of the Tammany candidates amply testify.

The result of the election in Greater New York is eminently satisfactory, and suggests a warning to all men whether individually or collectively, who are tempted to do those things which are tyrannical and corrupt.

God does not pay every Saturday night—but he pays.

Too Much Governed.

Some time ago the Herr Kaufmann was elected as second burgomaster in the city of Berlin. It appears that this Terr Kaufmann, twenty years ago, as a young officer of the reserve, gave offense by the public opposition he offered to the anti-Semetic movement and was consequently, in accordance to the views of the military authorities, deprived of his military rank. But it further appears that the "military authorities" have long memories and great power, for when he was elected to high civic position they managed to get the Emperor to place a veto on his election. The result is that Herr Kaufmann is elected a second time, and "the chief government president of Brandenburg" fails to send on the name to the Emperor. Then this becomes a subject of discussion. One journal takes the position that this official's crime has been conciliatory. "If he had meant to crush the representative of the city utterly by his reply, he would, without more ado, have announced, that in accordance with the law he had appointed So-an-so to fill, on behalf of the Government, the office of second burgomaster." Another journal points out that "So-an-so would have been placed in a very uncomfortable position, and exposed to the sarcastic wit of Berliners." According to the municipal constitution there would have been no need to assign him any real work; he would probably have been socially boycotted by the members of the council. Other journals demand that the second election should be submitted to the Emperor, according to the constitution. So the fight goes on, and the business gets worse complicated all the time. The moral for Canadians is to be thankful that they have got real municipal government, and as it is real we ought to try to make it effective and clean, so that there can be no reproach from outside. Another cause for gratitude is that with us "military authorities" do not interfere with civil affairs. [illegible] authorities anywhere have not of late been managing their own business so well that they need desire to intrude into things that other people can do better.

Colonial Office Ignorance.

It is annoying, says the Insurance and Finance Chronicle, to have such displays of ignorance in regard to Canada as appear in the official journal of the colonial office. The recent official announcements are also incredible. One reads:

"The King has been pleased to approve of Count Francesco Mazza as Consul-General of Italy, at Montreal, with jurisdiction over Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island."

The genius who drew up that announcement for the press seems never to have heard of Confederation though he is engaged in the colonial office. A second is equally startling; it reads:

"The colonial office has received a message of congratulation on the accession of King Edward from the Legislative Council of Canada."

There is no such body as the "Legislative Council of Canada." It would seem desirable to start a night school for the staff in the colonial office where elementary lessons could be given on modern geography and the political organizations of the colonies.

A Problem for Mr. Chamberlain.

According to the present programme, when the colonial secretary has settled the Boers, he will attend to the Irish. His latest plan for dealing with the Irish question is to reduce the number of members in the Imperial Parliament. The question of the legality of this, from the standpoint of the act of union, we need not now discuss; but what is going to be the good of such a course is surely a pertinent question. This question is asked by Mr. T. Lough, in a letter to the Times (London). He shows that the Irish members have hardly any influence on Irish affairs. "If 103 are perfectly powerless, 50 or 70 could be no less so." If it is a question of obstruction, 70 determined men could provide a sufficient supply of that article to discredit still further our parliamentary institutions. As the correspondent says, the sad feature about the present proposal is that it indicates despair of being able to deal with the Irish question in any satisfactory way, and so there is a certain logic about the statement, "If any change is to be made, would it not be better at once to deprive Ireland of civil rights and thus allow the political situation honestly to conform to the actual facts?" "Peaceful villages are filled with highly paid armed men, whose idleness, if recent parliamentary disclosures may be trusted, is not always of a beneficent character. In defense of skilled advice of the highest authority, a ridiculous railway system has been developed, which alone is sufficient to account for much of the industrial decay. Natural education is impeded, ruinous taxation, constantly increasing, is imposed in spite of the protests of the whole body of representatives; and so the picture might be filled to any extent. The Irish members, who your correspondents allege are much too numerous, are totally unable to alter any of these local conditions, under which they are asked to submit, to the destruction of their national ideals." All this may, or may not, be true, but taking a dozen members from Ireland at this time avowedly to "abate the Irish nuisance" does not seem likely to do anything except increase the bitterness of feeling.

Times' Estimate of Mr. Rhodes.

The London Times of Oct. 12, discussing the Rhodes-Schnadhorst correspondence declares that "it reflects no credit on anyone concerned." "What will primarily strike the reader is a certain squalor that hangs over the whole transaction. Without being able to point to any conspicuous transgressions of the moral law, most people will feel that the whole business is in the highest degree questionable—some might even say shady. For a business man, Mr. Rhodes would seem to be very unbusinesslike." The Times says that there is no evidence that Mr. Schnadhorst ever mentioned the matter to Mr. Gladstone, but we are not concerned to discuss that point. We merely wish to show the judgment that the organ of imperialism is compelled to pass on Mr. Cecil Rhodes. "Who sups with a party organizer of the Schnadhorst type should have a long spoon. But we have no sympathy with Mr. Rhodes in this matter. The transaction he proposed was demoralizing, and he deserved to be sold, as sold he undoubtedly was." "We trust he will accept the lesson, and be content in future to pursue imperial ends by methods less redolent of the mining camp or 'of the fatted shows wherein he stood,' if we may borrow a line from the fine verses by Mr. Rudyard Kipling—lately printed in the Times. Mr. Rhodes is within reach of greatness, and tantalizes us with the feeling that only an illuminating touch of spirituality is wanted to enable him to maintain it. He somehow reminds one of a saying of Ruskin's, 'Bandmelli leaves a touch of common clay about his Christ.' Is there no spiritual purge to make the eye of the camel easier for a South African millionaire?" The jingo view is that Mr. Rhodes is an "Empire builder," and as such need not be hampered by such trifles as conscience and the moral law. The other extreme is that Mr. Rhodes is a rascal, who thinks only of gain and personal aggrandizement. The view given by the great London journal comes in between these two, and certainly does not err on the side of severity. The tone of this article is gentle and sympathetic. It longs to see the great millionaire saved from coarse materialism and brought into a more spiritual kingdom. If what Mathew Arnold called the "ancient and inbred integrity of the English people" is to be maintained, others besides Mr. Rhodes will need "the spiritual purge."

Queen's University Extension.

The county of Frontenac has failed to follow the example of the city of Kingston, being appealed to for a gift of $20,000 to build "Frontenac Hall." It has replied by a decisive adverse vote. This is a check to the "forward movement," which many will regret at the present time. We venture to think that the hall will be built; the difference will be that the name it bears will not be the same, as the money will come from another quarter. Either some wealthy men will be stimulated by the present defeat, or the graduates will again collect their "mites" and prove that many littles can be rolled up into a big sum. The principle of local aid to educational institutions is one that does not need any defense, though, of course, the people of a particular locality are free to decide when, where and how they will give their help. It may be that although the campaign has been lost, good educational work has been done. In Toronto recently there haye been manifestations of generosity on behalf of education, and we feel sure that the people of Ontario will do their duty in these matters. However, it is just as well that progress should be slow and sure. The men of this generation are building for the days that are to come, and while there may be ebb and flow of tide, the general movement will be forward under the determination to make Canada one of the finest and best equipped of nations.

A correspondent writes: "I notice your interesting references to mispronunciations of common English words in Canada. One of these calls to my mind a summer holiday incident. At a resort, I met the daughter of a well-known Anglican clergyman, with her children. One of these was a lively little fellow of six, who was determined to be unconventional in his conversation, and gave his mother much trouble in consequence. One day the boy was overheard asking a comrade to go out on the grass to play. His mother called him aside, and sternly said, "Reginald," don't you know that I have forbidden you to say "grass"? You must recollect that the way to pronounce the word is "grawss." Don't let me hear you say 'grass' again." What would your grandfather, the bishop, say, were he to hear that you were so vulgar?" The lad looked thoroughly cowed while in his mother's presence, but he no sooner got out of her hearing than he was heard exclaiming, "grass, grass, grass; I'll say grass if I like; all the other boys say it!" A more potent argument, certainly, than that advanced by his foolishly inaccurate mother. I agree with you that "grawss," "bawther," and "pawk," and all such pronunciations are in bad taste, even when inculcated in the grandson of a bishop. The plainer a child is taught to speak the better, and all affectation is foolish.

SOCIALISM SCORED BY ARCHBISHOP CORRIGAN

New York, Nov. 6.—In the second of a series of sermons on "Socialism," at St. Patrick's Cathedral, Archbishop Corrigan, literally tore its doctrines to shreds. He declared that no socialist leader is a Christian; that Christianity is omitted from the socialistic creed, and that its ideas are contrary to Christianity. The much-vaunted doctrines of communistic ownership, the destruction of private possession, the archbishop declared, is a direct blow at labor. The destruction of individual ownership of property, at which socialism aims, would mean the degradation of the race. It would place upon a common level men of all degrees of ability, prevent free choice of occupation, and stifle that ambition through which all that makes for progress is secured.

The entire sermon was a scathing rebuke of the claim that "liberty, equality and fraternity" would be advanced by the means of socialistic theories.

"There is not a single leader among the socialists who is a Christian," said he. "They are either agnostics or anti-Christian. Religion is left out of the socialistic creed altogether. There is essential opposition to Christianity in the socialistic ideas, so much so that when last year a certain number of Catholics desiring to ameliorate the condition of the poor began a movement which they called social Christians, in opposition to social democracy, the holy father, in an encyclical, said that there was nothing common between the two, and that there was as much difference between them as between daylight and darkness."

ANARCHIST SLEW ANARCHIST.

New York, Nov. 5.—Antonio Livenro, Italian, will be arraigned, charged with murdering Frank Pannizzone, of Summit, N. J., March 17. Pannizzone kept a boarding-house in Summit and Liverno was one of his boarders. They quarreled because Liverno accused Pannizzone of being lukewarm in his anarchist faith.

STOLE $20,000 WORTH OF DIAMONDS.

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—Burglars broke the big show window of the Dulme Jewelry Company's store on Fourth street early today, and stole $20,000 worth of diamonds. In their flight they left a trail of diamonds, indicating the direction they took. It is supposed the robbers took advantage of the no se of a passing wagon or car to break the glass, seize the tray and run.

CALLED HIM ORANGEMAN

Ottawa, Nov. 6.—Judge Rochon gave judgment in a very interesting libel suit in the Hull Superior Court. The case was that of Gibson vs. Le Temps and La Presse, two separate actions. Judgment was entered for plaintiff allowing him $100 damages in each case, defendants paying all costs. Gibson lives in Aylmer. In June last an item appeared in Le Temps of Ottawa and La Presse of Montreal, dealing with Gibson's domestic relations. In it he was called an Orangeman and accused of having, while drunk, assaulted his wife and little daughter. Plaintiff, it was stated, was opposed to his daughter making her first communion in the Catholic Church, and tore her veil. Judge Rochon, in rendering judgment, stated that every charge made against the plaintiff in the newspapers had been disproved. The fact that he was called an Orangeman was cited as an injury and injustice, inasmuch as Gibson resided in a Catholic community and is not a member of the Orange Order. The statement to the contrary might have had a tendency to injure Gibson in his business relations with his Catholic fellow-citizens. Judge Rochon stated that he was also satisfied that Gibson was not drunk and had not kicked the child.

THE RICHEST MAN

U. S. Senator W. A. Clark, of Montana, May Claim the Distinction.

Phenix, Ariz., Nov. 6.—The American Mining News contains the following about the great United Verdo mine, the property of Senator W. A. Clark, of Montana, which, if correct, would indicate that it is probably the richest mine and he the richest man in the world:

"It has only lately come to light that the average value of the ore taken from the United Verdo is $75 per ton in all values—gold, silver and copper. This mine, so far as has been developed, including explorations and diamond drilling below the present workings, shows an immense ore chimney, 400x600 feet across, that has been explored by shafts, tunnels and drill holes, to a depth of 1,400 feet.

"Just how far it will be possible to work this mine down before the heat limit is reached is hard to say, but a reasonable estimate would be 3,000 feet. An estimate by one of the best mining engineers in the country shows that the mine to the depth of 1,400 feet contains 336,000,000 cubic feet of ore, and estimating 11 cubic feet to the ton there is practically 23,000,000 tons in sight.

"If we carry these figures a little further on the present four values of the United Verdo we have the average value of ore equaling $2,500,000,000. The present owner of the property has refused $500,000,000 for the mine."

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

TORONTO, Nov. 5.—The supply of cattle was heavy today, nearly 1,500 head being boarded at the western live stock market. Export cattle met a much better demand at higher prices, the improved cables making the advances possible. Sales were made as high as 5c per lb, Joseph Gould paying this price for 3 loads of cattle averaging 1,325 lbs. They were, however, the choicest lot of grain and grass-fed cattle seen here this season. They will form part of a shipment of 25 loads which Mr. Gould is sending out tonight, 12 loads of which were bought here today, costing from $4 30 to $5 per cwt, and averaging from 1,275 to 1,350 lbs. Mr. Levack was also a good buyer of shipping cattle, paying $4 85 per cwt for 2 loads of the best cattle on the market. Butcher cattle were in fair demand at steady prices. The bulk of receipts will consist of light, roughly finished cattle. Stockers were a fairly good sale, but prices keep low. The Buffalo market is in poor shape and dealers here say they cannot pay what the cattle are really worth, quotations running from 2c to 3c per lb. Feeding steers and bulls are in good demand at steady prices. Lambs showed no improvement. Sheep steady. Calves are a rather slow sale, the low prices of mutton restricting the demand for veal. Hogs took a big drop and are now quoted at 5⅝c per lb for selected animals running from 160 lbs upwards, and at 5⅜c for lights. The market is weak even at the decline, and further recessions in values are predicted. Receipts were 76 cars—1,496 cattle, 500 hogs, 762 sheep and lambs. Joseph Gould bought 12 loads of cattle, averaging 1,275 to 1,350 lbs, at $4 20 to $5 per cwt. Wm. Levack bought 200 cattle, paying $2 75 to $4 10 for butchers; $4 12½ to $4 40 per cwt for picked lots, and $4 to $4 85 for shippers. C. McCurdy bought 16 butcher cattle, weighing 709 to 960 lbs, at $2 60 to $3 25 per cwt. A. W. Pringle bought 20 cattle at a total weight of 19,420 lbs, at $2 85 per cwt; 6 cattle, 850 lbs each, at $2 70 per cwt, and 10 others at $3 65, weighing 940 lbs. Dunn Bros bought 1 load of export steers, weighing 1,250 lbs, at 4¼c per lb. Charles Zeagman bought 100 lambs at $3 15 per cwt, and 60 sheep at $3 15 to $3 20 for the Harris Abattoir Company. Wesley Dunn's purchases consisted of 200 sheep at $3 20 per cwt, 300 lambs at $3 15 per cwt, and 12 calves, which cost $7 each. W. B. Levack bought 140 lambs at 3¼c per lb, and 50 lambs at $3 15 per cwt. Wm. Mumford bought 60 lambs at $3 20 per cwt, and 4 calves at $8 apiece. Quotations:

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 5.—Fire last night destroyed the lamp works of John D. Bord & Co. Three firemen were injured by falling walls. Loss about $80,000, with $50,000 insurance.

Amherstburg, Ont., Nov. 5.—Early yesterday fire was discovered in the frame store, corner Murray and Simcoe streets, occupied by A. E. Harris, grocer, and owned by the Boufford estate. Harris had $600 insurance on stock and furniture. The building was also insured. Loss light.

Charlotte, Mich., Nov. 5.—The Phoenix Hotel, a three-story brick structure, was destroyed by fire last night, and several of the guests had narrow escapes. Brooklins, of Iona, Mich., was taken out unconscious, but may recover.

Anyway, the pocket in a woman's dress is about as easy to find as the inside pocket in a man's vest is to get at.

A GOOD NAME IS TO BE PRIZED.—There have been imitations of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil which may have been injurious to its good name, but if so, the injury has only been temporary. Goodness must always come to the front and throw into the shadow that which is worthless. So it has been with Eclectric Oil, no imitation can maintain itself against the genuine article.

BAYLEY'S

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Caught in the Web.

A special corps of scrub-ladies were busy all night cleansing the stage of the New Grand Opera from the sanguinary stains left by the production of Joseph Le Brandt's lurid detective play, "Caught in the Web." A record of the shootings, stabbings, sand-baggings, and other bodily injuries inflicted would look like a complete list of the casualties of the Spanish-American war. There never was a minute when there wasn't something doing, and the doings were always fierce. Whenever one of the characters had nothing else to do, he or she produced a revolver, a knife or a loaded sock and soaked somebody hard. The audience was treated to a display of more lethal weapons than the average man sees in a lifetime, unless he works in an arsenal. There were realistic scenes of how things are not conducted in a police station, a bank, and a counterfeiter's den. There was not much acting, but it was not required anyway. All the performers needed to know was how to pull a trigger or swing a "footpad's friend" so that it would light on the proper place, behind the left ear. The curtain did not rise till 8:45 o'clock, as the company jumped from Titusville, Pa., and did not reach the city till 7:30.

COMING NEXT WEEK.

The company that plays "The House That Jack Built" at the Grand on Monday evening next, Nov. 11, is under the management of Messrs. Broadhurst & Currie, of New York. "The House That Jack Built" received one of the best receptions at New York and Boston of any of the Broadhurst farces. An immense amount of scenery is carried for the production. Mr. W. H. Currie, of Broadhurst & Currie, is a former resident of London, and a brother of Mrs. (P. M.) Frank Love.

ON THE KING'S BIRTHDAY.

Local theater-goers have no doubt long been waiting for a chance to see that much-talked-of play, "Mistress Nell," that was made all the rage by Henrietta Crosman in New York last season. The local playhouse is apt to be crowded next Saturday, matinee and night, when a specially-equipped company, under the management of Maurice Campbell, will present the play for the first time here. Agnes Ardek will play the part originated by Miss Crosman, and she is said to be especially well suited to the part, so that an excellent evening's entertainment may be looked forward to. The part of King Charles will be played by Mace Greenleaf, an actor of excellent reputation, and the other characters in the play will all be in the hands of reputable actors of acknowledged ability. The sale of seats for both matinee and evening performances will open Thursday at 9 a.m.

"THE VOLUNTEER ORGANIST."

One of the most carefully put together organizations en tour the present season is Harry Martell's "The Volunteer Organist" company, which appears at the new Grand next Friday night. The piece was staged by that past-master in the art of stage craft, Lawrence Marston. That Mr. Marston possesses remarkable gifts along this line is proven by the fact that it was he who staged the big Drury Lane melodrama, "The Price of Peace," for its run at the Broadway Theater, New York. He also staged Viola Allen's "In the Palace of the King" and Robert Grant's drama, "Unleavened Bread," each of which were admitted to be flawless in regard to stage management and incidental action.

SALES FOR OCTOBER TOTALED $108,453

Commissioner Grant Makes a Comparison That Is Timely.

The remark most frequently heard at sessions of the court of revision is to the effect that the ratepayer appealing against the assessor's valuation would sell for less. Assessment Commissioner Grant maintains that his department invariably places a lower rate upon the property than would be taken at a sale, and as evidence in support of his contention, he secured from Registrar Dignan a statement of the sales effected during October. It shows that in the 71 transactions recorded the sum of $108,453 changed hands. Compared with the assessment of the same properties, this shows an increase of $26,220, the commissioner's assessment being $82,220.

The big bulk of the sales were of small size, running from $50 to $2,500 or $3,000, the number above the latter figure being small. The largest amounts were $8,500, $8,000, $7,000, $6,500, $5,600 and $4,150.

THE PAN-AMERICAN CONFERENCE IN MEXICO

Prospects for a Treaty of Arbitration and Peace Proposed.

Mexico City, Nov. 6.—The prospectus for a treaty of arbitration which will be submitted to the Pan-American conference today by the Mexican delegation, is largely framed on lines raised by The Hague Peace Conference. However, it proposes an increased number of obligatory subjects for arbitration, and has in view coercion or punishment of nations which, after signing a treaty, fail to live up to it.

Among the measures proposed are the following: The aggrieved nation, and any other nation sympathizing with it may terminate their treaties with the offending power before the proper date for their expiration. Members of the offending power on the court of arbitration may be erased therefrom, and if the majority of the nations signing the treaty approve, a note of censure may be addressed to the said power.

In extreme cases the disapproving power may suspend diplomatic relations with the reicalcitrant government. The reception of M. Diaz to the delegates and their families at Chepultepec Castle last night was the most brilliant yet of the social functions in honor of the visitors.

THE MANUFACTURERS

Canadian Association Meets at Montreal—Recommendation of Tariff Committee.

Montreal, Nov. 6.—The annual convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association was opened at the Windsor Hotel last evening. P. W. Ellis, of Toronto, presided, and there was a large attendance of members.

On the recommendations of the tariff committee, a special committee was appointed to report on the various items to the committee, and the latter will report to the association when the whole question will be threshed out.

The parliamentary committee present 825 members in good standing and 28 applications.

The parliamentary comimttee presented a report reviewing the work done since the last meeting. The report dealt with the alien labor bill, the trade mark act, insolvency legislation and other matters. A satisfactory report was also presented in regard to the Toronto Industrial Exhibition. All the reports were adopted. It was decided that steps should be taken to have the association incorporated.

An open meeting of the association was held at night.

One of the most important questions to be brought before the convention is the proposed increase in the tariff for woolens and cottons.

ROSEBERY IN HARNESS ONCE MORE!

Ex-Liberal Leader Comes to the Help of His Party.

Feals a Crisis Has Arisen in the Fortunes of the Country—Li Hung Chang Dying.

London, Nov. 6.—Lord Rosebery has decided to leave his lonely furrow. In response to an appeal from the Liberal Association of Derbyshire, the ex-leader of the Liberal party has decided to take his part once more in the political arena. He feels that a crisis has arisen in the fortunes of the country and that it is increasing in gravity. Growing uneasiness is, perhaps, reflected by the heavy fall in consols. Yesterday the premier British security declined to a figure a little below 91, below which it has never stood within this generation.

NO END TO THE WAR.

Conservative newspapers like The Daily Mail and The Express take the view that with the present slack and listless management of the war there is no particular reason why the conflict should not linger on for an indefinite time, while The Daily News points out that the home-serving forces have never since Great Britain first began to maintain a standing army been in such a perilous condition as that in which they now are.

KRUPP CRITICISING BRITAIN.

London, Nov. 6.—Acording to the Berlin correspondent of the Times, the Berliner Nachrichten, which is most hostile in its criticisms of British army methods, is owned by Herr Krupp, who sells cannon to Britain.

BURGLARS BUSY!

Forced an Entrance Into Precious' Grocery Store at Glencoe—Some $50 Worth of Goods Stolen.

Glencoe, Ont., Nov. 6.—The store of George Precious, Main street south, was broken into last night and $50 worth of goods taken.

The stolen goods include small groceries, smoked meats, canned goods, and boots and shoes, with about $8 in coppers.

The burglars made an entrance at the rear of the building by breaking through a small window, and then forcing a door leading to the main part of the store. There is no trace of the guilty parties.

SENTENCED TO BE HANGED.

Basin City, Wyo., Nov. 6.—John Felton, alias A. A. Winters, who shot and killed Mrs. A. L. Hoover on the street at the Thermopolis, because she would not marry him, was yesterday found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged.

KICKED TO DEATH.

Buffalo, Nov. 6.—Ernest Merkt, an iceman, whose home was on Seneca street, near police station No. 2, was found lying in a pool of his blood in an alley alongside Frank Murphy's saloon on Alabama street, near Seneca, this morning, and died before the ambulance arrived. Murphy the saloonkeeper, and a dozen other men who were about the place are under arrest as witnesses. Merkt apparently had been kicked and beaten to death.

Loss of Flesh and Weight

An Indication of Wasting Disease, of Exhausting Nerve Force and Declining Strength and Vitality.

Note Your Weight and Test the Flesh-Forming, Tissue-Building Effects of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food—The Results Will Surprise You.

Can you imagine a more severe test of any preparation than that of adding firm flesh and increasing the weight of the body? It is possible, of course, to add fat by the use of fish oils, but the tissues created by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food are firm and natural. The blood is thoroughly enriched, and the nerve force replenished. Pallor and weakness give place to a healthy complexion and the strength of mind and body. Languor and discouragement are driven out to make way for vigor, new hope, and confidence.

It might be worth your while to make a test of this great food cure as a builder of flesh and muscle. Note your weight when beginning the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and watch the gradual increase week by week. At first the increase may be slight owing to the wasting process, which must be stopped. Then, naturally and certainly, the whole system is built up and perfect health and vitality restored to every part of the body.

Mr. A. R. Fawcett, the well-known editor and proprietor of the Leader and Recorder, Toronto Junction, writes: "It is very seldom that I need medicine of any description, but this spring I got so badly run down and out of sorts generally that I became somewhat alarmed. Chancing to read a testimonial about the results derived from Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, from a gentleman whose case seemed to be identical with my own, I purchased a box and commenced using it.

"The result was simply marvelous. I was benefited from the first, and soon restored to my usual good health. I never felt better in my life than I do now. To tell the simple truth, I did not have any great faith in any medicine until I used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, but now I have no hesitation in strongly recommending this great remedy to others as a valuable and effective remedy."

The Oceanic Beats Her Best Time, But Has to Stop at Quarantine.

New York, Nov. 6.—The big White Star steamer Oceanic arrived this morning from Liverpool and Queenstown, making the run across in her best time of 5 days, 17 hours and 50 minutes. Her speedy run was without avail, for on her arrival at Quarantine Dr. Doty detained the ship in order to closely inspect the crow and steerage passengers, owing to the existence of bubonic plague at Liverpool.

WORK OF WHALERS.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—The whalers Norwahl and Bowhead have arrived from the Arctic. The former took seven whales, while the Bowhead brought in 21,000 pounds of whale bone and 300 barrels of oil.

LONG OCEAN BOAT RACE.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 6.—A 3,600-mile ocean race has just been started from Providence to the Cape Verde Islands between the schooner Unique and the Brigantine D. A. Small. Each carries 35 passengers. Considerable cash has been wagered on the result.

STEAMER AGROUND.

Port Colborne, Ont., Nov. 6.—The steamer Rosemount, from Fort William to Kingston, with grain, while entering the harbor last evening, struck bottom right in mid-channel and knocked a hole in her engine room floor tank, which is filling rapidly. Pumps are at work. The water in the channel is very low, about thirteen feet six inches on the sill.

AN END TO BILIOUS HEADACHE.—Biliousness, which is caused by excessive bile in the stomach, has a marked effect upon the nerves, and often manifests itself by severe headache. This is the most distressing headache one can have. There are headaches from cold, from fever, and from other causes, but the most excruciating of all is the bilious headache. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will cure it—cure it almost immediately. It will disappear as soon as the Pills operate. There is nothing surer in the treatment of bilious headache.

Mr. John E. Redmond, the Irish leader, is expected to speak in Montreal next week.

EXTERNALLY OR INTERNALLY, IT IS GOOD.—When applied externally by brisk rubbing, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil opens the pores and penetrates the tissue as few liniments do, touching the seat of the trouble and immediately affording relief. Administered internally, it will still the irritation in the throat, which induces coughing, and will cure affections of the bronchial tubes and respiratory organs. Try it and be convinced.

We quote today: Finest Canadian, fall makes, colored, 46s to 47s; white, 45s to 46s; finest colored States, 45s to 46s; white, 45s; summer cheese, ripe qualities, 38s to 42s; skims and half-meats nominally 20s to 32s per cwt.

OIL MARKETS.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 6.—Oil opened at $1 30.

DETROIT BEAN MARKET.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—Bean dealers had a busy day of it and the price showed more fluctuations than usual. Cash closed 1c up. November 1c off, December unchanged, and January 2c up, compared with the last prices of Monday. Quotations: Cash, $1 70; Nov., 1 car at $1 67, 1 car at $1 68, 2 cars at $1 67, 4 cars at $1 66, 3 cars at $1 67; Dec., 2 cars at $1 60, 1 car at $1 62, 1 car at $1 60, 1 car at $1 62; Jan., 3 cars at $1 60, 1 car at $1 61, 1 car at $1 62.

HIDES, SKINS AND TALLOW.

Toronto, Nov. 5.—Hides—In fair supply; all offerings sell rapidly, and the market is steady; local dealers quote 8c for green cows and 9c for steers, and for cured 8½c for cows and 10c for steers. Sheepskins—There is a good demand for fresh city take-off, and for other kinds as well, and the market is 10c higher than it was a week ago, at 65c. Deerskins—The season has just opened, and there are none offering yet; prices are quoted by local dealers as nominal, at 11c to 12½c. Calfskins—Quiet, at 9c for No. 1 and 8c for No. 2. Tallow—Steady; local dealers are offering 5¼c to 5¾c, and asking 6c to 6¾c.

WOOL MARKET.

Toronto, Nov. 5.—There is no improvement in the market here, and trade is about as dull as it has been for many weeks. There are two features in the markets across the line, which directly concern holders of Ontario fleece, and they are: First, that the big improvement in the demand has so far brought about only a fractional advance, and that only in certain domestic fine lines; and, second, that the wools being sold are of the finer growth and not the same as our coarse wools. Fleece—The market is dull and generally unchanged; there is no inquiry for export reported, and no sales in the local market; local dealers quote 13c for 1901 clip washed, and 8c for unwashed. Pulled wools—The market is quiet and prices show no change from last week's quotations; we quote supers 15c to 16c, and extras 16c to 17c.

A Boston report says: The wool market in Boston is very active and without soft spots. Approximately about 18,000,000 lbs of wool were cleaned up last week, making one of the best weeks of the season. Values are about the same, and recent sales have been at ruling quotations. While they may be no prospect of any immediate advance in prices, the dealers are not at all in a hurry to let go of good lines at anything under the ruling market prices.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the London Collegiate Institute Junior Hockey Club it was decided that the forms compete for a challenge cup. The following officers were elected: Honorary president, S. J. Radcliffe; president, J. B. McCready; vice-president, F. W. McCutcheon; treasurer, Basil Essery; secretary, L. H. Ingram; together with an executive committee: R. Hodgins, II. A; S. Bridgeman, II.D; C. Wilson, I. A; A. Holman, I.D, and Hal Little, I. E.

COMING FRIDAY NIGHT.

The Johnson Swiss Bell Ringers and Asetceam Trio who appear at the Auditorium on Friday night, Nov. 8, as the next number of the popular concert course, come highly recommended as a combination of artists, who present a programme of great variety and merit. Opie Read, the novelist, says of the Asetceam Trio: "It is with pleasure that I recommend the Asetceam Trio. The combination is most artistic, and must appeal to the lovers of genuine music in every community."

MONDAY WILL BE THE HOLIDAY

As the mayor has issued a proclamation calling for citizens to observe Monday as a holiday, the merchants will keep their stores open on Saturday for the usual hours. As some doubts have already been spread abroad through the surrounding townships as to which day London intended to hold the holiday, it is to be hoped that the farmers will take notice of the announcement, which will appear in tomorrow's and Friday's issues of The Advertiser, calling upon the citizens to observe Monday as a holiday.

A SOCIAL REUNION.

Court Defiance, No. 7, Canadian Order of Foresters, held a social reunion in Sherwood Hall last night. A large number of the brethren were present, and an interesting programme was presented. Among those who took part were Bro. G. Turner, who gave an account of war life in Africa; and Bro. C. W. Walker, T. C. Cockril, W. H. Harding, A. C. Wyatt, J. W. Thompson and J. Baskerville, who favored the audience with songs and recitations. All those who took part in the programme were accorded liberal applause. Mr. A. R. Galpin, who acted as chairman, delivered a spirited address, and appropriate remarks were also made by Edward and Wm. Reid. Coffee and other refreshments were served during the evening.

Inward and Outward.

The inward effects of humors are worse than the outward. They weaken all the organs, inflame the mucous membrane, cause catarrhal troubles and endanger the whole system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla eradicates all humors and cures all their effects.

It's the great alterative and tonic medicine whose merit has been everywhere established.

x Mrs. B. Roy, Kilmanagh, Ont.

A north-bound car of the Scranton Railway Company, while going from Scranton to Carbondale, was dynamited at the upper end of Mayfield, and hurled crosswise off the tracks. Every window and the front platform where shattered. The motorman was severely bruised. The conductor escaped unhurt. Two passengers were thrown from their seats in the car and injured. This is the first outrage of the kind in connection with the strike of the company's employes.

NON-JURY SITTINGS NEARING THEIR END

Verdict for Defendant in Suit Against the Street Railway.

The non-jury sittings of the fall assizes, opened on Monday before Mr. Justice Lount, will probably conclude this afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon the action of Miss Edith Tuxford against the London Street Railway was disposed of. The suit was one in which Miss Tuxford claimed $2,000 general damages and $270 special damages, for injuries sustained on June 11, by being struck by a street car on Richmond street, near Albert. Twenty-two witnesses were called, seven for the prosecution and fifteen for the defense. Mr. Johnston argued the case for the plaintiff, but argument by Mr. Hellmuth, for the defense, was not taken. Mr. Justice Lount assessed the damages at $500, in the event of his judgment being set aside on appeal.

This morning the case of Heal vs. Spramotor Manufacturing Company was taken up. It was an action to recover $329 28 for goods supplied. Judgment was given the plaintiff for $329 28 less $150 paid into court with costs. Thirty days' stay was granted. In case it was held that the defendants should succeed on account of delay, reference will lie to the master to assess the damages.

The suit of Purdy vs. Purdy, et al., was next called. This is a claim by the plaintiff for an injunction, directed to the defendants, Philip Purdy, James William Sutherland and W. F. Brown and the surrogate court of the county of Oxford, restraining the defendants and the court from granting probate of the last will, the plaintiff declaring that the alleged will was not the last will and testament of the said Emeline Purdy, and that the deceased died intestate, and for the administration of the property and costs of action.

The case of McGraw vs. Procunier is the only one awaiting hearing.

"Cure-Alls" Didn't Cure

Only a Kidney Specific of the genuine merit of South American Kidney Cure can ever hope to cope with insidious kidney diseases in all its forms.

"For two years I was greatly troubled with an affection of the kidneys—frequently unfitting me for work. I tried many patent medicines and "cure-alls," without getting any relief, for I had intense pain almost constantly. South American Kidney Cure was recommended to me. A few hours after commencing its use I got great relief. Four bottles cured. It is worth its weight in gold."—Frank S. Emerick, Alvinston, Ont. 38

I am in good health and I shall stay right here for some time to come.

In Other States.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—Eugene E. Schmidt, the Union Labor candidate for mayor, has been elected by a plurality of 2,500. Asa E. Wells (Republican) ran second and J. S. Tobin (Democrat) third. Besides the mayor the Union Labor party elected three supervisors. Democrats and Republicans divide other offices about equally.

CONNECTICUT.

Connecticut chose delegates to the first constitutional convention to be held in the state since 1818. On the first Wednesday in January, 1902, the delegates elected will assemble in Hartford to begin the work of remodeling the state's constitution.

IOWA.

The result in Iowa is remarkable. With the falling off in the vote throughout the state, the loss in some precincts being 40 and 50 per cent in the total vote, and the average loss for the state being one-fifth of the vote of two years ago, A. B. Cummins (Republican) has been elected by a plurality of something like 90,000—the largest ever given a governor in this state. The entire Republican state ticket is elected by similar pluralities; some extraordinary gains have been made.

KENTUCKY.

Charles F. Grasinger (Democrat) is elected mayor of Louisville by over 8,000. Every member of the school board of Louisville elected is a Democrat. Returns and reports from all over the state indicate corresponding Democratic success.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The Republican party in carrying Massachusetts, as customary, suffered in the size of its vote only to an extent expected in an off year. Gov. William Murray Crane, who for a third time headed the ticket, leads Hon. J. Quincy (Democrat) by a plurality of 70,304. The remainder of the state ticket is entirely Republican. Governor's council included seven Republicans and one Democrat, as last year. The legislative returns show that the Democrats lost two members in the senate and gained sixteen in the house of representatives.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—Latest returns from this city indicate that it has been carried by the Republicans by about 3,000 plurality. The entire Republican city ticket with the possible exception of the sheriff has been elected.

MISSISSIPPI.

As only the offices of the state treasurer and secretary of state were to be filled, little interest was manifested in the election. Private telegrams indicate that the temporary incumbents George W. Carlisle and Joseph Powers, have been elected state treasurer and secretary of state respectively. Returns will not be received for a day or two. All the candidates were Democrats.

NEBRASKA.

Reports from the state indicate a Republican majority on the state ticket of from three to five thousand.

NEW JERSEY.

Revised returns from the various counties of the state show Franklin Murphy, the Republican, to have been elected by 14,763 plurality, over Mayor Seymour, of Newark, Democrat. Jersey City elected a Republican mayor by about 2,000 plurality.

OHIO.

Senator Foraker claims the re-election of Governor Nash by 60,000 plurality, with both houses of the legislature safely Republican. Chairman Dick at 1 a.m. gave out a statement that the Republicans had carried the state by over 50,000, with a decisive majority in each branch of the legislature.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Latest election returns from Pennsylvania indicate that Frank K. Harris (Republican) has been elected state treasurer over Elisha A. Corey, jun., the Fusion candidate, by between 50,000 and 55,000 plurality. The vote polled was unusually light.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 6.—Lacking 12 districts out of a total of 139, the vote this morning showed Gov. Gregory, the Republican nominee, re-elected by a plurality of over 5,000. The general assembly in both branches is largely Republican, but by a decreased majority.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

The vote was light, only circuit judges being elected. The indications are that the Republicans elected all eight judges, but the Democrats claim two.

UTAH.

Returns from 33 voting districts of Salt Lake indicate the election of Thompson (Republican) for mayor over Liady (Democrat) by about 500 plurality.

VIRGINIA.

Indications are that the Democratic state ticket is elected by 20,000 or more.

SNOW IN MANITOBA.

THEY ARE NOT VIOLENT IN ACTION.—Some persons when they wish to cleanse the stomach, resort to Epsom and other purgative salts. These are speedy in their action, but serve no permanent good. Their use produces incipient chills, and if persisted in they injure the stomach. Nor do they act upon the intestines in a beneficial way. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills answer all purposes in this respect, and have no superior.

ELSIE.

Each of the sons was to take one hundred a year. Richard was pushing on very well at the bar; a good situation in the civil service in India had been found somewhere for Charlie. Owen—what of Owen? He who was still the heir despite his poverty, despite the obloquy that attached to his name! Owen, Mrs. Grundy said, was in London, plunged in the lowest dissipation, drinking himself to death, living under an assumed name; he had sunk to the lowest, he would never rise—the curse of Cain was upon him.

All this was said, but it was said, as we observed, by that eloquent and amiable lady, Mrs. Grundy.

* * * * *

All this outward circumstances of Elsie's life have altered since those long, light spring days when poor Lord Hammond met with his cruel death. Arrangements were made that were satisfactory to everybody. Elsie was the companion of Rose Stanly, at a salary of one hundred a year, and was passing the season in London with that young lady at Mr. Stanly's handsome Kensington mansion.

It was wonderful how Rosa had rallied from her grief. Elsie could hardly believe that this was the same young woman who had declared that she could more easily have endured the loss of her fortune or the death of her father than to find that Owen did not love her. She was in love again by this time—very much in love with a certain high-church clergyman, fortunately some years older than herself, handsome, energetic, ambitious within lawful bounds, and outrageously poor.

The Rev. Eldred Barker was a widower with two pretty little boys; he had married a fair and penniless bride for love in the days of his romantic youth, and they had struggled together through all the difficulties, and bitternesses, and sordid sorrows which poverty entails until the twin boys were two years old, when the pretty young wife presented the loving husband with a tiny baby girl, and before a week was over mother and babe were laid to rest in the churchyard of the country church where Eldred had officiated as working curate under a richly-beneficed and somewhat easy-going rector.

Afterwards Eldred was appointed as senior curate at St. Hilda's, Kensington, and in due time he became acquainted with the plump, plain young heiress to wealth made by pickles. Rosa somehow found consolation for her sorrowing spirit and balm for her bruised heart in the society of the Rev. Eldred Barker. His little boys, now nine years old, were the most charming children she had ever seen; and the Rev. Eldred saw clearly how things were, knew perfectly that he might have Rosa and her yearly thousands for the asking. He was so poor, and found such excruciating difficulty in paying his rent and satisfying his grocer, that the prospect of wealth was as delightful to him as the sight of a fountain of clear water springing up suddenly in the desert must be to a traveler who is athirst.

Besides all this, though he was not in love with Rosa, he felt that he should never be "in love" in the romantic sense with any other woman as long as he lived. What good he would do with Rosa's money! And Rosa herself—her cheerful disposition, her good-nature, her generosity, the innate meekness of her spirt, covered only by a somewhat hoydenish manner—Rosa herself was, if not dear to him, at least agreeable and soothing, things were pleasanter for Rosa than they had been for a long time.

She went to dinner parties and conversaziones; and she was always accompanied by "the pretty Irish girl," as the gentlemen called Elsie.

Elsie's spiritual nature was woven from fibre different from Rosa's. She could not forget. Her heart still hungered after Owen Hammond, and yet she shrank from the idea of meeting him—whispers reached her that he had plunged in low dissipations; that he spent the hundred pounds a year, which he received from the rental of Raby, in the course of a few days after receiving each quarterly allowance; and that the rest of the time he skulked about the streets in seedy garments, smoking!

Mrs. Grundy asserted that he had gone altogether to the bad; that it was even likely he might drink himself into his grave before the Earldom of Chase came to him; the odd thing was that no person was ever distinctly named as having met, or seen, or spoken with this unhappy Owen of Mrs. Grundy's manufacture.

It is not true! Elsie would say to herself at night, after she had wetted her pillow with the tears driven back during the day. "He is not a drunkard, he is not degraded in that way; he is working somewhere; I fear—I believe that in a moment of mad passion he killed poor Lord Hammond, and remorse is eating into his heart. I wonder he does not write to me; he must know where I am; and if not, he might see me if he cared to find me; and yet he loves me—oh, he loves me! When I think of that morning in the shrubbery, I know that he loves me, unless that was only a dream; and sometimes when I look back to it, it does seem like a dream!"

* * * *

Elsie was dressed for a ball. It was the first real ball she had ever been invited to since that memorable one at Charteris Court, from which she had been so cruelly torn away by the false telegram. She had been to concerts, dinner-parties, conversaziones, but not to a ball. This was a very grand affair. An enterprising lady friend of Rosa Stanly's had schemed to get the heiress and her companion invited.

This ball was given by no less a personage than the gay Lady Rosewood, who was mentioned in the earlier pages of this story as visiting at Charteris Court. Her husband, Sir Rupert, was still absent in India; but Lady Rosewood had plenty of money and plenty of dash. She was extravagant, eccentric, loud in dress and in manner; and very desirous to make herself a name in society journals as a woman with splendid charms and exquisite taste.

Moving in the very creme de la creme of the upper section of the upper ten, Lady Rosewood invited as many titles as she could possibly contrive to scrape acquaintance with to her great rooms in Harley Street (her husband's family mansion was in the quaint Queen Anne district); but after that she had room for a few millionaires and heiresses, Rosa Stanley among the latter; and by some chance Elsie was included in the invitation.

The schoolgirl was not spoiled by her season in town or by the compliments she had received. She stood before the long panel mirror let into the front of the wardrobe in her luxurious room, and she saw a slender creature clad entirely in white gauzy robes trimmed with clusters of snowdrops; the only spot of color in her attire was a great cross of rubies set in gold, suspended by a slender chain of pure gold, round her white throat; this was a present from Rosa Stanly. There was a faint flush on Elsie's pure cheeks; she looked lovely in ball costume, and yet not a spark of the vanity of youth smoldered at her heart; other thought had extinguished that. Nobody, but she herself, knew what new ambition had awakened in her soul of late. Love had failed her; he whom she loved she would be compelled to turn from, even if he ever came to her in all the glory of his young manhood, the world at his feet, the Chase coronet in his hand. If he came to her with love-vows as ardent as those he had spoken to her in the shrubbery, and asked her to be his wife, his hand was stained with an everlasting stain, and she would never take it. But she had given him her heart; and this girl of nineteen had made up her mind to live and die single for his sake.

No commonplace old maid will she become when thirty more years have rushed over her head; she will not have settled down to the round of meaningless visits, and the mechanical charities of the district lady, who preaches patience to the poor in the morning, and goes to genteel tea and supper parties in the evening, where she meets, perchance, a stray single curate, who is possibly inveigled into an innocent game of whist.

Nothing of the humdrum is to enter into Elsie's future. Some day people may hear of her, but she is determined that they shall not hear she is an easy-going old maid.

She may be dreaming as impossible a dream now, while she stands there in her white ball dress, as she dreamed the last time she wore a ball dress; but that was a pink gown, and she was at Charteris Court.

The carriage has come. Elsie leans back, wrapped in a long opera cloak of pale blue brocade. Rosa Stanly is glittering tonight in diamonds, worn over a costume of sunflower-colored brocade.

The carriage stops before the house in Harley Street; a carpet is laid down over the steps. There is a crowd of poor folks assembled to watch the ladies alight. Mr. Stanly hands them out. Elsie sees a little dirty boy selling a bundle of the evening edition of the Echo.

"Echo! Echo!" screams the urchin; "Fresh evidence of the murder of Lord Hammond last March! Warrant for the arrest of Owen Hammond!"

Happenings of Interest From Track and Field.

TURF.

THE AQUEDUCT RACES.

New York, Nov. 6.—The last race at Aqueduct developed into a farce yesterday. Six horses faced the starter, with Dr. Riddle favorite at 3 to 5, and Astor second choice at 11 to 5. The field broke through the barrier before the starter challenged to come on, and Dr. Riddle, Harry McCoun and Hammock raced over the course, the other three pulling up. Dr. Riddle won easily from Harry McCoun. The stewards declared it no start, however, and the field lined up again. This time the other three starters had the race between them, Big Gun, at 20 to 1, winning from Whistling Coon, at 10 to 1. Astor finished third. The other three were beaten a sixteenth of a mile. Only two decided first choices won—Sadducee, at 7 to 5, in the first, and Lamp O'Lee, at 7 to 2, in the second. Potente beat the black whirlwind, Imp, in the Idlewild handicap, both going to the post at 2 to 1. Summary:

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 6.—Harry Forbes, of Chicago, received the decision Monday night over Abe Attell, of San Francisco, at the end of fifteen rounds of fast fighting at the West End Club. It was only Forbes' superior strength that finally brought him the victory. They fought at 116 pounds.

FOOTBALL.

LEADING PLAYER MAY BE FATALLY INJURED.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Grave apprehensions are felt for the safety of James M. Sheldon, captain of the Chicago University football team, who was injured in the game with the Northwestern University last Saturday. It is believed his skull was fractured. Sheldon's sister, Mrs. E. A. Elgnes, has been hastily summoned from her home in Forest, Ill.

Anxious thoughts sometimes perplex the wife who sees maternity before her. If she is treading an untried path, she sometimes frets herself into a nervous condition which is injurious and prostrating. If motherhood has already been a painful experience she is apt to shrink from the coming trial and by her very mental anxiety increase the possibility of her suffering.

There is no cause for anxiety for those prospective mothers who use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite, induces refreshing sleep and produces mental cheerfulness as well as physical vigor. It gives strength and muscular elasticity so that the baby's advent is practically painless. It is the best tonic for nursing mothers.

"I am so thankful for what Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for me," writes Mrs. John T. Smith, of Slocan, Brit. Col., Box 50. "It helped me through the long months before baby came and I have a big, strong baby girl, the most healthy of the three, and it cured me of a disease which was taking away all my strength."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser—sent free on receipt of stamps to cover expense of customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers; or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Aeronaut Fatally Hurt—Fell 100 Feet When His Balloon Burst—Other Casualties.

LYNCHING IN LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 6.—A negro, name unknown, was burned at the stake on Sunday at Perry, Harrison county, for criminal assault on Mrs. Jesse Fortenberry, wife of a farmer. Perry is on the Gulf and Ship Island Railroad, 15 miles from Gulfport. After identification he was taken to the scene of his crime, chained to a tree and a fire of pine knots kindled around him.

Blood ran from his nose, ears and eyes, and he soon became unconscious, but the physicians in attendance do not think he is fatally hurt.

Stratford, Nov. 6.—A fatal accident happened at Newton, about twenty miles north of here, Monday. Michael Jantzi, proprietor of a planing mill here, was oiling the drive wheel of the engine, when his coat caught in a nut that protruded from a shaft, and he was drawn against the shafting, and dreadfully mutilated by the wheel, which revolves at the rate of several hundred times a minute. He died inside of ten minutes.

SHOT BY HIS SON.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Dan H. Hogan, known far and wide as a bookmaker and sporting man, was shot and killed by his son, Dan M. Hogan, jun., in the family's country home at Wilmington, Ill. The immediate cause assigned for the shooting was the abuse and brutality of the head of the household in striking his wife until shot down by his son. Hogan, jun., was held by the authorities pending an inquest by the coroner. The jury returned a verdict of "justifiable homicide."

THIRTY INJURED IN A WRECK.

Bedford, Ind., Nov. 4.—A wreck occurred Monday on the Monon track at the passenger station in this city, in which 30 persons were injured. HANGED THEMSELVES.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—Alexies De Clare, a veteran of the civil war and who had campaigned with the 24th Michigan Regiment, hanged himself on Tuesday. He was 58 years of age and is survived by a widow and seven children. Coroner Hoffmann considered an inquest unnecessary. The man, who was a tailor, was out of work and became despondent.

About the same time that De Claire took his own life, Joseph Pape, 42 years of age, a cigarmaker, who lived at 110 Breckenridge street, committed suicide in the same identical manner. Eddie, his 6-year-old son, found his dead father in the cellar and summoned help. Pape had been brooding over the idea that someone might accuse him of murdering a woman, and that the police were going to arrest him. Pape is survived by a widow and three children.

Many a man is able to climb to success because his wife holds the ladder.

He that is successful can afford to smile; he who is not successful cannot afford to do otherwise.

DRY ROT IN THE PULPIT.

The "unkindest cut of all" among unintentional sayings capable of satirical application was that of an old pew-opener in a southern county. She was in attendance on the rector, the church-wardens, and a city architect down with a view to church restoration. Said the architect, poking the woodwork with his cane: "There's a great deal of dry rot in these pews, Mr. Rector." Before the latter could reply the old woman cut in with, "But, law, sir; it ain't nothink to what there is in the pulpit."

He Shines by Contrast.—"If you had worked hard during the summer, as I had, you would not be obliged to beg now," said the ant coldly. "Very true," replied the grasshopper, "but if I were not lazy you would never be able to acquire such a reputation for industry."—Judge.

FOOTBALL SOUVENIRS.

"That is Jimmy's hair," said the football play, laying out his trophies after the game, "and this is Billy's nose, and this is Tom's ear, and this eyebrow belongs to young Rusher, but I can't identify this finger to save me."

SAME OLD SONG.

The same old chorus, year by year,
Man raises, willy nilly;
We rail at summer's heat severe,
And grieve when winter's chilly.

—Miss M. LeBean, of Buffalo, is visiting Mrs. J. T. Cook, of the Richmond House, London.

—Sister St. James, of the Sisters of Mercy, New York, formerly of this city, has been appointed superioress of the convent at Ottawa.

—The Guelph Mercury says that Mr. Clarence Reid, who has been ill at his parents' home in that city, expects to return to London at the end of the week.

—Maurice J. O'Connor, aged 37 years, died yesterday at St. Joseph's Hospital. The funeral will take place from the residence of James Dibb, con., 4, Dorchester, on Thursday, to the cemetary at Dorchester.

—The Brussels Post says: Miss Lizzie Sample has taken a position as soprano soloist in the Memorial Church, London, and is also busy during the week as saleslady in a department in Whiskard's store. She is a good vocalist, and will do her part well. We wish her success.

—Mr. Thomas H. Martindale, the well-known Philadelphian, is on a short visit to London. It has been his custom for many years past to visit this city every fall. He looks well and prosperous, and we hope his holidays, which he purposes spending with his gun, will enable him to go home in perfect health.

—Canada should be proud of her exhibit of poultry at the Pan-American poultry show at Buffalo last week. With one-third of the total number of entries, Canada won within $100 of half of the prize money paid, which demonstrated that the Dominion has the quality while its neighbors have the quantity. Londoners, in particular, should be proud of their exhibit from this district, each of the exhibitors having won well in the classes where they competed. Messrs. McNeil and Oke were streets ahead of their American cousins, having won more prizes than the four largest winners in the United States.

FRUIT GROWERS TO MEET.

Globe: Mr. L. Woolverton, of Grimsby, secretary of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association, is a guest at the Walker House. He is on his way to Cobourg, accompanied by several members of the association, to arrange for the annual meeting of the organization, which will be held on Dec. 4, 5 and 6. Several famous professors of horticulture in the United States colleges, as well as a number of well known experts from various parts of Ontario, will dediver addresses during the meeting. Mr. Woolverton confirms the report as to the utter failure of the apple crop in the Niagara peninsula. In one orchard which last year yielded 3,000 barrels of apples, only 30 were picked this year, and this, he said, was a fair illustration of conditions throughout. Other fruits had given a fair yield.

MISSION TO LEPERS.

At the Auditorium last night the Mission to Lepers held their annual thank-offering meeting, a large attendance being present. Rev. Dr. Sowerby conducted and gave an instructive reading on Christ and the woman at Jacob's well. The solo, "The Heavenly Song," was very ably rendered by Mrs. McCrimmon. Dr. Oliver, lady missionary to India, gave an interesting address. The thank-offering totaled $27 54.

RINES—PARISH.

Miss Geina Parish, of this city, was married yesterday afternoon to Rev. Harry J. Rines, of the Centenary Methodist Church, Binghamton, N. Y., by Rev. A. A. Cameron, at the First Baptist Church, Ottawa. Mr. G. Herbert Parish, brother of the bride, had the honor of giving his sister away. Miss Parish was supported by her two nieces. The groom was attended by Earl Parish, nephew of the bride. The Wedding March was played by Wm. Warwick. The young couple will visit the groom's parents at Hamilton.

HARVEST HOME.

The Ladies' Aid connected with the Colborne Street Methodist Church are very much pleased with the success attending their efforts last night, when they held a harvest home festival. After the large attendance had done justice to a dainty but substantial repast, they proceeded to the spacious auditorium, every seat of which was occupied. The church has been thoroughly modernized, and with the decorations presented a pleasing appearance. Rev. A. K. Birks, the pastor, occupied the chair, and introduced the following meritorious programme: Piano solo, Mr. B. Weir; recitation, Miss Vera Scarrow; solo, Miss Ayers; quartet, Misses Edyth Hance, Winnifred Isaac, Messrs. Ernie Moule and Frank Westbury; violin solo, Mr. Murray; solo, Mr. Phil Barter; solo, Miss Edythe Hance; reading, Rev. Mr. Harrison; solo, Mr. Stockwell; solo, Mr. E. Moule. While the supper was in progress Miss Lena Kinder favored with a number of piano selections. The success with which the church has been visited is largely due to the efforts of the pastor, Rev. A. K. Birks, numbers having been added to the membership, and the debt reduced $3,000. By his encouragement the erection of a new parsonage has been completed.

FOOD FOR GIRLS

Should Be Fed Just Right When Growing.

When parents are at a loss to know what kind of food to supply their boys and girls it will interest them to know of the experience of some mothers in the selection of food that actually does rebuild and nourish the young folks in their school duties.

A school girl in Springfield, Mass., writes, "I wonder if you care to hear from schoolgirls, and I wonder, too, if you have any idea how many girls there are who are troubled as I was before I used Grape-Nuts Food.

About a year ago I began to have severe headaches and I could not sleep well. Was so nervous that I would cry at the least little thing, and finally began to have attacks of faintness. My parents were much alarmed and thought I would be obliged to give up studying. Our physician said my trouble was extreme nervousness and a disordered stomach.

"I was tired all the time and rode home from school because I did not feel able to walk. Mother tried to tempt my appetite in every way. Breakfast I did not care for. Meat I could not endure, and the different cereals I did not like as a rule.

"I attended the high school, and we have an excellent lunch-room in the building. As I kept getting worse, mamma said, 'I am going to try this Grape-Nuts Food that I see advertised, but I am afraid you will not like it.' Well, she got a package of it, and it was so delicious in taste, with a little cream poured over it that I liked it at once, and since then Grape-Nuts has formed the principal part of my breakfast. I have also a banana or orange with now and then an egg.

"I wish you could see the difference in me. I cannot tell how much I have gained in weight for I did not know my weight when I was ill, but the difference is great. As for strength, I walk both ways to school, and do not feel at all weary from it.

"I can study much better and am entirely free from headaches; I am so well, in fact, that I am very happy. I fall asleep almost as soon as my head touches the pillow, and rest thoroughly.

"I am afraid my letter is lengthy, but my subject is Grape-Nuts, of which I cannot say too much." Clara L. Condon.

The mother adds to this letter, "I would like to add just a line expressing my gratitude also for the benefits which my daughter has derived from Grape-Nuts. Respectfully," Mrs. I. C. Condon.

ARE HELPING YOUNG WOMEN

The Praiseworthy Year's Performance of the "I. C."

Annual Meeting Reveals Extent of the Good Work Being Done by the Institution.

A body of energetic women, working for the betterment of their fellows, with no money consideration at the end, is the Young Women's Christian Association. Their annual meeting was held last night, at their rooms, and the reports read were of a highly gratifying nature, and showed with what success and enjoyment a burden can be taken up. The work carried on is unique in its way, and should meet with encouragement from citizens generally. The only drawback in the association has taken the shape in lack of room. Owing to increased membership in every department, the work cannot be carried on as it should be. In a larger building board could be obtained for every member desiring, there could be a well-equipped gymnasium, and the well-earned noon-hour could be spent partly in recreation. In Peterboro, Brantford and nearly all the large cities of the Dominion, the association has a new and fully-equipped building, and there is no reason, except a financial one, why a similar one should not be erected here.

Rev. Dr. Robert Johnston presided at the meeting, and spoke of the admirable way in which the work was being carried on.

Owing to the resignation of Miss Kirkpatrick in April, the general secretary's report was read by Miss Little, traveling college worker. The report spoke of the general rise of the association since its origin in England in 1855, and the remarkable fact that branches were now established in nearly every city in the world. In the fourth biennial conference, held at the beginning of the year, Miss Carson, of this city, was elected, and has since been appointed field worker in Canada, and has rendered much assistance during that time. Three self-government clubs for juniors have been organized—the Victoria, the Alexandra and the Winnifred—the latter a club for girls, formed in a local manufactory—all of which have large memberships. These clubs have for work, literary study, choral work, and sewing.

A very successful series of meetings was held in February. Religious meetings were held every Sunday and Tuesday afternoon and evening. The total number of meetings was 76, with an aggregate attendance of 1,203.

Educational meetings were held throughout the season, and arithmetic, reading, spelling, writing and composition were taught. The Shakespeare club met once a week during the year, and discussed the "Merchant of Venice."

The Current Topic Club discussed the life and times of Queen Victoria, the progress of women during the century, Humphrey Ward's "Eleanor," and "The Passion Play."

Very interesting and helpful lectures were kindly given during the year by Prof. Clark and Messrs. Dearness and Saunders.

Receptions were held every month for the benefit of members and their friends, and pleasant evenings were always spent.

Seventy-five young ladies were accommodated during the summer at the Port Stanley home of the association, "Summerholm." The board thanked the residents of Fraser Heights for their reception of the concert held there. The proceeds from the home amounted to $46, which will be given towards beautifying the place. The success of the year was largely due to the efforts of Miss Priddis, the president, seconded by her energetic associates.

The statistical report showed an aggregate of 5,883 visitors, members and applicants.

The report of the treasurer showed a balance of $189 98 on the right side.

The officers for the coming year are: President, Miss Minnie Trebilcock; vice-presidents, Miss McMillan, Mrs. Weld, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Miss A. Yeates, and Mrs. C. E. Leonard; treasurer, Miss McGuffin; recording secretary, Miss Gunn; corresponding secretary, Miss Jarvis; general secretary, Miss A. C. Stover.

At the close of the meeting, Mr. M. D. Fraser made a few complimentary remarks on the businesslike nature of the reports and their interesting character. Mr. Fraser said he did not see how such information laid before the citizens could fail to help the institution.

GOOD WOMAN PASSED AWAY.

Mrs. John Young Died at St. Joseph's Hospital Yesterday.

At St. Joseph's Hospital, London, on Tuesday, Nov. 5, Mary, wife of John Young, passed away after a brief illness. Mrs. Young was the daughter of the late Robert McGee, of Manchester, in Huron county, and had resided in London for the past fifteen years. She was a woman of devout Christian character, greatly beloved by all who knew her, and although suffering from much bodily weakness, was always thoughtful of others and forgetful of self. Great sympathy is felt for her husband and the daughters, Miss Mamie Young and Mrs. Percy Hill, of Wingham. Mrs. Young had been for years a faithful member of the First Presbyterian Church in this city, and was greatly interested in the Ladies' Aid and Women's Foreign Missionary Society in that congregation. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. D. R. Menzies, of Staples, and Mrs. McLaughlin, of Auburn, and one brother, Robert, of Woodstock.

Stomachs That Won't Work,

That Retain the Food and Refuse to Digest It, Make the Head Heavy and the Nerves Weak. Need Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is a cure for dyspepsia. Sufferers who have tried noxious nostrums will probably be skeptical but skepticism vanishes when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are tried. Whether the trouble is dyspepsia of long standing, or merely a simple case of indigestion, relief is prompt and pronounced. The less the trouble the fewer tablets need be taken.

Heaviness after eating, sour stomach, as indicated by belching, fatigue with slight exertion or with no exertion at all, disturbed sleep, nervousness, constipation, depression, "blues," these things can commonly be set down as symptoms of dyspepsia. And dyspepsia is merely indigestion in an aggravated form.

By promoting perfect digestion, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets produce strong nerves, restful, refreshing sleep, pure blood and good, sound, healthy flesh. They make the skin clear, the eyes bright, the mind cheerful.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a medicine and more than a medicine. They digest the food and make it easy of assimilation, and they relieve the inflamed, diseased condition of the membraneous linings and the glands of the stomach and bowels. They help the digestive organs over the hard places, and put them into a healthy, active condition. They effect a quick and permanent cure. You don't have to continue taking them forever, still it is well to have a box handy and take one at the first return of the trouble.

Perfectly well people are made sick by eating too much, or unwholesome food, but not if they take a tablet after eating. Treatment with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does not necessitate dieting or any change of habits. They digest the proper food and act upon the other kind in such a way as to make it pass off quickly and harmlessly. You may eat and drink what you like, when you like, and as much as you like, if you take a tablet afterwards.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full size package.

Send to F. A. Stuart Company, Marshall, Mich., for little book on stomach diseases, mailed free.

If many of us could see ourselves as we really are we would be ashamed to be on speaking terms with ourselves.
