

44TH YEAR. NO. 19183

THE ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1907—TEN PAGES.

PRICE TWO CENTS

A VERY QUIET ELECTION VOTES POLLED BELOW AVERAGE

Conservatives and Labor Men Working the Subdivisions—Former Have the Largest Number of Rigs—Labor Organization Defective.

"Absolutely the quietest election in the history of London," was the remark heard everywhere on the streets today. London, the center of some of the most strenuous political contests ever waged in Canada during the past half century, was as quiet today as on an ordinary business day. No excitement prevailed anywhere, and there was no noise.

London, for once, refused to get excited over politics. It is infinitely more interested in the Wall street slump or the coal question.

A Small Vote.

The vote will be a small one. Almost every polling booth reported the polling as very light. In one division where there are 150 votes on the list, only ten votes had been registered at 3:30 a.m. At noon there was a more decided movement towards the booths.

The Labor Party.

The labor men were voting better than was anticipated, although the vote will fall considerably short of the average.

The Conservative party has a good organization, and it worked and manned the polls completely. The Labor party organization was not thorough. Some of the polling booths have not even scrutineers, and there was not the proper watch kept on the voters.

There were plenty of rigs on both sides, though the Beattie rigs were in the majority.

Will Bulletin Returns.

The Advertiser will bulletin the returns as they come in, as this paper has done in all elections. The bulletin will be full and complete. Watch the Advertiser bulletins.

Both organizations are confident of winning. At one o'clock, in sub-division 8 of ward 3, only 50 votes out of 153 had been polled. In another sub-division only 27 out of nearly 100 votes had been polled.

Slaght Acquitted on Charge of Theft

After hearing the evidence in the case against Jefferson Slaght, charged with stealing an overcoat and a pair of shoes, Judge Elliott, in the county judge's criminal court this morning, rendered an acquittal.

Slaght was arrested on the 18th of October, and was committed for trial several days later by Magistrate Love. The evidence offered was almost purely circumstantial.

Robert Mickleborough, the complainant, testified that he had left his overcoat hanging in a Maple street livery stable on the day of the theft, and that when he returned it was gone, along with a pair of shoes. He described the coat as being a black silk-faced one with a common cloth collar. In its place he had found a coat which resembled one he had seen the prisoner wearing the same day.

Thomas Orum, a fellow-liverman, had seen a coat similar to the one produced in court hanging on the hook in place of Mickleborough's coat.

The two most important witnesses were Detective Egleton and a liverman named Wilson. Egleton had seen the prisoner wearing a silk-faced coat at five o'clock on the day of the theft. He could not swear as to what kind of a collar it had on.

Wilson met Slaght earlier the same afternoon, and the prisoner wore a silk-faced overcoat with a velvet collar.

No Conviction.

"I would like to know where you expect to secure a conviction on the evidence offered," remarked his honor when he had heard all the evidence.

Mr. McKillop replied that the fact that Slaght had been seen around the stable the same day, and that he had come out with a different coat than he came in with should be sufficient to secure a conviction. A search had been made for the stolen coat, but it was not located.

Slaght was then discharged with a warning that the road of crime was a poor one to travel on, and that while he had not been found guilty beyond a doubt the circumstances in connection with the whole case had been rather suspicious.

BIG OFFER TO ONTARIO GOVERNMENT

Toronto, Oct. 28.—The Provincial Government has received an offer of $1,000,000 for one million acres of land in the great clay belt of New Ontario but has refused to consider the proposition. The offer was made apparently in the belief that the Government was anxious to sell large blocks of land in that part of the Province. A Mr. Pritchard, of Winnipeg, laid it before the Premier on behalf of a syndicate of Canadian and British capitalists.

A New Athlete for Irish-Canadians

Toronto, Oct. 29.—The Irish-Canadian team will receive another strong addition to its team this fall, a man who will be an important addition to the Canadian Olympic team. Tom Flanagan today received a letter from M. J. Creed, of Elton, in Limerick County, a schoolboy comrade of his, in which he says that he has determined to come to Canada to live. He wrote to John Flanagan and Jim Mitchell, the New York weight men, and they recommended him to come to Toronto. So he wrote Mr. Flanagan and started. He is now en route, and is expected here in time to make his appearance at the Garrison games, on Nov. 9.

Creed is a little fellow. He is 5 feet 5 inches tall, and, though only 20 years of age, has already won over 700 prizes. His specialty is jumping, but he is a good hurdler and fair sprinter. Creed broad jumps 23 feet 1 inch, high jumps 6 feet 2 inches, and holds the world's hop, step and jump record of 48 feet 4 inches. He is one of the best hurdlers in Ireland.

School Board and the Coal Vouchers Latter Are Still Very Much Missing

A Bunch of Resolutions Were Passed, But the Documents Wanted Not Produced.

The coal question was the subject discussed by No. 2 committee of the board of education yesterday afternoon, and later a meeting of the board was held to discuss the finding of that committee.

As anticipated in The Advertiser, nothing very startling was done. The board gave Mr. Buchanan a clean bill in regard to the whole matter.

It developed, during the afternoon, however, that there were no vouchers for the soft coal produced. Mr. Buchanan admitted that practically all the soft coal was delivered in car lots, and was not weighed on the city scales as was the contract clearly called for.

Here They Are.

The permission to do this was given by Dr. Teasdale, chairman of No. 2 committee, and Chairman Fitzgerald of the board of education, and by Trustees McCormick, all of whom were consulted by Mr. Buchanan before the coal was delivered.

No vouchers were produced before the board. There was absolutely no check on the transaction, and not one janitor, not one principal or anybody else could be found who could disprove the rumors going about the city by stating that he knew the coal had been delivered or checked.

Mr. Buchanan said the coal had been delivered. His word could not be disputed, nor was it. But there was no person on behalf of the board prepared to lend his assurance that the coal had been delivered in accordance with the contract.

Personal Remarks.

There were a number of rather personal remarks made, but no serious clashes. Trustee MacRobert was in an indignant mood and declared that a story that a London school trustee had received coal from the contractor had gone all over Western Ontario, and he was being made fun of everywhere. He declared it was a serious matter. He paid a few compliments to The Advertiser, and declared that this paper had lied about him for three months past, and that he intended to have the "lies" concerning the coal question settled.

Trustee Strong's Position.

Trustee Strong held his ground throughout the discussion, and effectively answered the arguments of the Conservative members of the board. They charged him with being the cause of the whole unpleasantness, and he replied with the unanswerable argument that if the board had insisted on having the coal delivered according to the contract by being weighed on the city scales, and the vouchers produced, it would have effectively answered all insinuations about crookedness, and would have refuted the insinuations regarding the members of the board getting coal.

As far as the present condition of affairs was concerned, the board could not give an effective answer to any of

ALFONSO'S TRAIN JUMPS RAILS

The Royal Spanish Party in Peril En Route to England.

Cherbourg, France, Oct. 29.—The King and Queen of Spain had another close escape. They entered Paris at midnight bound for this place, where they are to board the British battleship Renown, which is to carry them to England.

The journey from Paris was made in safety, until just as the train was entering Cherbourg, when it ran off the rails. The royal party escaped injury.

WOODSTOCK SUES OXFORD COUNTY

The City Council Claims There Is Four Thousand Dollars Coming to It.

Woodstock, Oct. 29.—The city council last night decided to put in a claim for over $4,000, with interest for over six years, against the County of Oxford. The city separated from the county six years ago for all county purposes. It is claimed that at that time the county had a surplus of over $5,000 though it was represented to the city council that there was a deficit. It is for a just proportion of this amount based on the equalized assessment for the year in which the council is putting in a claim.

The inaugural meeting of the Woodstock Canadian Club will be held this evening. J. S. Willison, of the Toronto News, is to be the speaker.

Southwold Girl Brought to City Inspector Sanders Acted Quickly

The Peculiar Case of a Wayward Child Brought to Light by a Letter.

Inspector Sanders, of the Children's Aid Society, has returned from his trip to Southwold yesterday, and he has brought back with him a slip of a girl who looks to weigh only about 50 pounds, and to be of 14 or 15 years of age.

Mr. Sanders made the trip in response to a letter which was received by and published in The Advertiser yesterday in reference to a young girl who was alleged to be living with an Indian named Joe Dostaxtor near Southwold.

Mr. Sanders was accompanied by an Indian Constable, and the pair had to drive twelve miles from Tempe to reach the Indian's hut, which is located near the townline road.

Upon arriving at the place it was found that three or four Indians were in the hut which is not much bigger than an ordinary room. Dostaxtor did not relish losing the little girl, but made little remonstrance beyond favoring the visitors with deep scowls.

Girl Indifferent.

The little girl, strangely enough, appeared indifferent as to what became of her, and expressed the wish to stay where she was, as she said her mother, with whom she had lived in Port Burwell, is bad.

"My mother is not good," said she, "and I have just as much right to be bad as she has."

The girl claimed to be 21 years of age. She said her father was dead and that her mother was living with another man. Some time ago she went to St. Thomas, where the Indian met her two weeks ago, and hired her to keep house for him at a salary of two dollars a week. He had not paid her any wages, but when she was leaving he handed her twenty-five cents.

"Well, I will take you to Port Burwell," said the Inspector.

"I don't want to go there," she replied. "I would rather go to London or some other place."

She did not know that Mr. Sanders had come from London.

Brought to London.

The girl gave the name of Viola Betterly. She is at present in the Children's Shelter in this city, and will remain there until such time as her future can be determined.

The question is rather a deep one. If, as she says, she is 21, the Children's Aid Society or no other society has any authority over her.

Mr. Sanders today said that the people of Southwold and vicinity were very much worked up over the fact that the girl was living with the Indian.

The Indian is known to have been arrested several times on a charge of drunkenness, but so far as can be learned no more serious charge has ever been proven against him.

Dr. McWilliams Is the Vice-President

Dr. J. McWilliams, who was announced in a recent issue of The Advertiser, has been invited to participate in a series of peat tests at Norfolk, Va., is at present at Norfolk, and has been elected vice-president of the newly-formed American Peat Association.

Dr. Joseph H. Pratt, state geologist, of North Carolina, was elected to the presidency.

Yesterday Dr. McWilliams read a paper on "Commercial Drying of Peat," which was much appreciated, according to a dispatch from Norfolk, which also goes on to say that a Canadian gas-producing engine will be operated today for the edification of the Canadian visitors.

On Saturday, Dr. McWilliams will accompany a delegation to the Dismal Swamp, where an interesting experiment will be made. The American peat experts believe that the swamp can be drained, and that the peat of the swamp can be utilized for fuel.

It is believed that if the tests prove successful the swamp will be ultimately drained and the products used commercially.

KILLED IN THE YARDS

Tragic Death of Young Ottawa Man at Englehart.

Englehart, Ont., Oct. 28.—J. Kearns, aged about 30, formerly of Ottawa, was instantly killed in the station yards here tonight by being struck by a train. The body now lies in the freight shed. It is likely an inquest will be ordered, but as there is no coroner here, one will have to be brought from New Liskeard. The deceased was employed as a teamster for William Daily, Canadian Construction Company, and was well known at both Ottawa and Depot Harbor, where he also formerly lived.

SIX MONTHS FOR GILLETTE

Big Life Insurance Magnate Sentenced for Perjury.

New York, Oct. 28.—A sentence of six months' imprisonment in the penitentiary was today imposed by Justice Dowling upon Dr. Walter R. Gillette, former vice-president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, who was convicted of perjury. Dr. Gillette first denied and then admitted to a grand jury that he had deposited $50,000 in a bank to be used in influencing legislation affecting insurance companies.

A physician testified today that Dr. Gillette was suffering with heart trouble and that imprisonment might result in his death.

SENTENCED TO DIE

St. Petersburg, Oct. 29.—Mile. Ragoznikova, who yesterday shot and killed Gen. Maximoffsky, director of the department of prisons of the ministry of the interior, was taken to the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul today, tried by court martial and sentenced to be hanged.

UP GOES MILK.

Quebec, Oct. 29.—At a meeting of local milkmen it was decided, owing to the considerable increase in the price of fodder, to increase the price of milk from November next to 10 cents per quart.

Reduction Will Not Affect London So Says a Local Pork Packer

In Speaking of the Cut in Prices Made by the Chicago Packers.

"The reduction in the prices of meat made by the western packers will in no way affect local conditions," said Mr. Rehnitz, of the Canadian Packing Company to The Advertiser this morning.

"Conditions here at present are such that there will be no change in prices. There are plenty of animals in this part of the country, and we are obtaining as many as we need. For some time we have been killing on an average of 2,000 hogs a week. Lately the lard trade has been very active, and we have been shipping regularly over 15,000 pounds a week.

"The meat trade is good, particularly at home, where we have a large and growing market. I venture to say that in a very few years we will practically cease shipping meat to England and the European markets."

"This condition of things will be due to the demand at home, where we have been finding a ready sale for our products at good prices. The American packers are not sending nearly so much goods across the water as they did either. They seem to be developing the market in the Canadian west for all there is in it, and have practically control of it at present. There are three very large packing houses in Winnipeg at present. Our trade is growing so rapidly that before very long it is likely we will have to add to our present premises. Our staff now numbers nearly ninety, and we are very busy."

The Messengers Are Still on the Job

The messenger boys are still on the hustle. They continue to carry messages as usual with no thought of strike agitating their bosoms. They delivered their ultimatum some days ago, but there has not yet come that raise in salary in which they stood in such dire need. Both the managers of the telegraph companies have listened to their complaints and have gone their way, declaring that they could not give the raise asked for. "Gee, I guess we don't get no raise," said one of them this morning. "Kids is too plentiful. The other day when they heard we was going to strike, there was six kids for me and me for the job. No strike for me."

"Best lot of boys I ever had," said Manager Dan Bowen, of the C. P. R. "They are all right. I have not heard anything about a strike."

Elderly Lady Found Dead in Chair

Mrs. Mary Wilson Elliott, relict of the late Gideon Elliott, was found dead in her home at 732 Princess avenue this morning.

Mrs. Elliott lived alone, and had been in somewhat delicate health ever since a paralytic stroke which she received a few years ago. Yesterday afternoon her daughter called to see her, and when she left Mrs. Elliott was in her usual health.

This morning, however, the neighbors noticed that she was not around, and upon investigation, discovered her sitting in her armchair quite dead.

A physician was called and found that during the night Mrs. Elliott had sustained another paralytic stroke, which caused her death.

Mrs. Elliott was a native of Scotland, and 69 years of age. For many years she had resided here, and was widely known and esteemed.

She is survived by two sons, Gideon, of Byron avenue, and George W., of New York.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

London Nurse for Hamilton Hospital

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Hamilton, Oct. 29.—A head nurse, for the Hamilton Asylum for the Insane is wanted, and while the applicants have been many for the position, Dr. English, the medical superintendent, is said to be anxious to have a London nurse appointed to the position, and is said to have written, or had communicated with the London hospitals, in order to secure a head nurse. No one has been selected so far as can be learned, but it is stated here on good authority that the appointment of a London nurse to the position will be announced in a few days.

Did Sullivan Sell Liquor to Indian

Timothy Sullivan was considerably in the limelight at the police court yesterday and was very drunk. As he has been up many times before, Magistrate Love fined him $10. Sullivan was unable to produce the coin, and was given to understand that 21 days was the alternative. He took the days.

Another Charge.

There was another charge against him, and one which if proven may result in Sullivan's visit in jail being lengthened for some time. An Indian named Wesley Elm laid an information against Sullivan, charging him with selling Elm liquor.

The case was adjourned for a week to give the authorities time to look into it.

Paid for Fun.

Kost Pappas paid $2 and $4 costs for the fun he had in punching the jaw of Louis Diamond. Mr. Diamond's mouth was considerably cut, and the magistrate gave Mr. Pappas a long lecture on the evils of letting one's temper get away.

The case of Lucy Berry, charged with being a vagrant, was dismissed, as Lucy has since been married.

Tied Cow on Street.

George Everett tied a cow to a post out in East London and left it standing there for some time. A policeman came along, and obtained the name of the owner of the cow, and Mr. Everett paid $1 for breaking the bylaw.

John E. Hopper allowed one of his horses to wander at large, and paid $7 for so doing.

Eight first-time drunks were allowed to go.

Cost of Distributing Plant, $117,000 Annual Charges to City $18,000

The Niagara Power Figures Have Been Given Out by the Commissioner.

The cost of a distributing plant in London to distribute Niagara power will cost $117,337, according to the figures prepared by the hydro-electric commission, and given to the special committee of the city council appointed to deal with that matter.

The amount to be distributed must not exceed 5,000 horsepower. If meters are installed the cost will be over $5,000 in addition to the amount named.

Annual Charge.

The annual charge will be $18,000, making the cost $30 per horsepower per annum for distribution. The price

the commission agreed to supply the power at the distributing station ranged from $18 to $23.50 per horsepower per annum. According to these figures Niagara power delivered at the door of the manufacturer will cost from $21.50 to $27.10. There has been no definite statement from the commission as to whether the lower or higher price will prevail. But it is practically an assured fact, it is said, that the price will be $25 a horsepower delivered to the manufacturer.

These figures make no allowance whatever for any profit the city may desire to make out of the sale of Niagara power. They are merely the figures of absolute cost.

People Must Vote.

This question will have to be submitted to the ratepayers either at the coming municipal elections or later. It

THAT CAMPAIGN FUND.

There are some points which are not cleared up in Mr. Hugh Graham's apologia. He says that his own money which he donated to the Conservative party in 1934, amounting to $29,351.70,
was spent in a group of Quebec constituencies. Yet by Mr. Graham's own admission he was sending money to other provinces. Here is an extract from his sworn testimony:"About the 24th of October—23rd or 24th of October—I received a letter from Mr. Borden, the chief, telling me that money must not be handled by men in the party, in public life, or words to that effect, and that it was better to have, in each province, persons appointed who were in every way acceptable to the party locally. I sent a copy of that to all the different provinces
where I was giving any assistance."
Mr. Borden denied having written such a letter, but whether he did or not, Mr. Graham's admission that he sent money outside of Quebec corroborates Mr. Pugsley's charge that a huge fund was raised for the Conservative party in the last general election. Mr. Graham was apparently the treasurer, but he was not the only subscriber. Who were the other patriots with long purses?It will be remembered that the men who were handling the money in Quebec carried on their operations under cover of a code. Mr. Graham was known as "Zandray," Mr. Pelletier,
the party organizer in the Quebec district,
was "Zandring"; Mr. McNab, an employee of Mr. Graham's, was "Zandride"; and Mr. Casgrain, a Conservative ex-M. P., was "Zandrunk." Why this secrecy if the operations were purely legitimate? Why should Mr.
Borden, if he wrote the letter, which Mr. Graham says he received from him, advise that money should be handled by party workers other than those in public life? These elaborate precautions and modes of concealment contrast oddly with the theory of a purity fund, and Mr. Graham's contention that a law should be passed compelling all contributions for party purposes to be made public "with the names of the givers attached." Mr.
Graham has at least owned up to his own share in financing the Conservative campaign, but who were the others, and what were their motives?
Where did the rest of the money come from?

EDUCATION.

Here is a sensible utterance on education by the editor of the Parkhill Gazette-Review, himself a teacher of experience:"There is an unrest about our system which is probably a sign of healthy and intelligent growth. One thing, however, which receives little thought or attention and which plays an important part in the education of any country, is the attitude of the people who are to be educated.
To those who have mingled to any extent with the people it is quite palpable that the chief reason why the schools fail to educate as they should, is because the people do not realize the benefits conferred by education. It is not usual to find much of that thirst for knowledge or that recognition of that power that knowledge gives which spurs a youth on to educate himself even while employed at hard labor.""There is a pretty general idea that education is not necessary in the ordinary walks of life. Too often you hear it said that a farmer has no need of any but the most rudimentary knowledge, and too often you hear it said that a girl does not need an education, for she marries, and then it is no use to her. Even in pupils entering the high schools to take up commercial work or in young people about to learn a trade, you find this idea firmly implanted, and no amount of persuasion will convince them that a broader education than the public school affords will enable them to grapple more successfully with their chosen calling, and will finally place them in a position near the top. They will tell you that what the world needs today is specialists. True, but the medical doctor who becomes a specialist first completes his general education and specialize afterwards. The specialists in Great Britain does not neglect his mathematics or his French, and the farmer who makes a specialty of good butter does not neglect to learn to plow or hoe. This idea is one of the strongest factors in retarding the work of educating the people, and if it could be replaced by a thirst for knowledge our schools would do good work despite their faults."The old idea of learning for learn-ing's sake has lost the grip it once had.
The majority of people look upon education merely as a means to making a living. It is a means to that end because it trains, or should train, one to make the most of his faculties, but it is also an end in itself, for nothing more than the broader outlook upon life, and the wider interests it gives the individual, and the whole range ofhigher enjoyments comprised in the word culture. The broader and deeper the foundation the higher the superstructure may rise; the broader and deeper one's general education the higher his reach should be in his chosen calling. It is a foolish notion that all knowledge is irrelevant and useless if it has no direct or obvious bearing upon a man's pursuit or occupation, even if he is a specialist.
What of its bearing upon the man himself? He is more important than his work.

MR. TURGEON'S POSITION.

An interesting political situation
confronts the people of Quebec Province. There have been Cabinet changes of late, two ministers having resigned. Their places have been filled, and the Government has behind it an overwhelming majority in the Legislative Assembly. What opposition there is comes not from the remnant of the Conservative party, which is no longer a force in the province, but from Mr. Bourassa. That gentleman is always looking for trouble, and appears to feel that the provincial arena presents a more promising field than does the Federal. Mr. Bourassa has chosen the Minister of Lands and Forests, Mr. Turgeon, as the special mark for his shafts, and has taken up the exploded charges of Baron l'Epine,
the disappointed head of a Belgian land syndicate. For months Mr.
Turgeon has been under heavy fire.
Charges of the most reckless character have been hurled against him.
Finally, to show that he has nothing to fear, and to prove that he still retains the confidence of the people, the minister has demanded a thorough investigation and resigned his seat in the Assembly, though not in the Cabinet, and challenges Mr. Bourassa to run against him in his constituency, Bellevue, and thus test public opinion.Mr. Turgeon is evidently determined to have the charges against him thoroughly sifted, as he has demanded the appointment of a royal commission.
Had he so desired he might have waited until the opening of the Legislature, and secured the appointment of a Parliamentary committee, but, as he points out in a letter to Premier Gouin, such a committee would be unable to have witnesses examined abroad, and it might be found difficult to induce certain Montreal witnesses to go to Quebec. He deemed it best to have a royal commission of judges appointed immediately. The judges will have more extended powers than are possessed by a Parliamentary committee, and may even go to Belgium to take the evidence of witnesses there. Moreover, the appointment of a royal commission need not prevent inquiry by the Legislature.Apparently Mr. Turgeon has no fear of consequences. Meanwhile politicians are looking forward to the session of the Legislature with much interest.

Is London to be Jacobs' ladder?

We're so glad the fearful strain of this by-election is over.We hazard the prediction that the Liberals will not be the winners today.At the same time, we cannot agree with our local contemporary that a Conservative victory today would be a purging process.Whatever the result tonight, don't be surprised. There may be undercurrents that election prophets have not detected.The price of meat will be reduced in the United States because a few great packers have so decided. It will be noticed that the packers decided what the reduction shall be.London wants a technical school, and has refused to install manual training in the public schools. It wants Government aid for the Western University and has done nothing to support that institution. Providence helps those who help themselves.

KIPLING'S FIRST POEM.

Kipling's first literary effort, a poem written when he was a schoolboy in knickerbockers at Westward Ho! appears in the Reader this week. This interesting relic, which is in the possession of a schoolfellow
of Kipling's, is a "Browning" poem, entitled "The Jampot," and runs as follows:"The jampot—tender thought—I grabbed it; so did you—
What wonder, while we fought Together, that it flew
In shivers, you retort.""You should have loosed your hold
One moment; checked your fist.
But as it was too bold,
You grappled—and you missed
(More curtly, you were told).""But neither of us shared
The dainty—that's your plea?
I answer . . . Let me see,
How have your trousers fared?"
It is a far cry from this to later Kipling developments.

IMPORTED PEARS MENACE ORCHARDS

Five Carloads From U. S. Held Up Alleged to Have San Jose Scale

Toronto, Oct. 28.—Five carloads of pears from the State of Maryland, infected with San Jose scale, are at Grimsby station and two more are on the way. The five are being held on the instructions of the Ontario Agricultural Department, pending a decision as to what shall be done with the fruit. Meanwhile there is great excitement among the fruit growers and dealers of Grimsby and vicinity, who at an emergency meeting on Saturday night, passed resolutions urging that the department have all the fruit, as well as the baskets and crates in which it is packed and the cars, fumigated. The fruit is consigned to a canning factory at Grimsby.

THAT PENNY-A-MILE CASE

Appeal of Grand Trunk Being Heard Before Supreme Court.

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—In the supreme court argument is proceeding in the appeal of the Grand Trunk vs. Robertson, from an order of the board of railway commissioners decreeing that the fare of a third-class passenger on the Grand Trunk shall not exceed one penny per mile and that at least one train of third-class carriages should run every day over the line. The board decreed the law to be in force. The appellants claim it to have been repealed by the Dominion act allowing a variation of tolls. The board refuted that such exemption does not apply to the G. T. R. Newell, K. C., for appellants; Curry, K. C., for respondents. Bailey, K. C., has obtained the privilege of speaking on behalf of the Ontario Government.

TOO MANY DOCTORS

Not Too Few Patients, Says Noted
English Physician.

London, Oct. 28.—In delivering the opening lecture today at the St. George's Hospital Medical School, Dr. William Ewart, senior physician to the hospital, said doctors were too many, patients too few. The average income of the British practitioner had been estimated at £200 to £250 a year. Making reasonable provision for old age was stated to be difficult and almost impossible. The immediate causes of this crisis included the free thinking and liberty of conscience in matters medical on the part of the laity consequent on increased knowledge and the salutary effect on the growing moderation in the use of alcohol. The future earning power of the medical profession was not easy to estimate. They had seen their busiest days in the treatment of disease, and henceforth they must be devoted to the care and culture of health. The registration of each individual's health with a view to prevention was not a utopian idea, but a measure suggested by common sense. They would not stamp out tuberculosis till watch was kept over each life. The highest skill was essential for this class of work and would call for adequate remuneration from the state.

PLAIN TALK FROM THE DOCTOR

A prominent physician, famous for his success in the treatment of kidney and bladder troubles, stated that to the following prescription is due a great deal of his success:

One ounce fluid extract dandelion;
One ounce compound salutarin;
Four ounces compound syrup sarsaparilla.

Mix and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, drinking plenty of water.

This mixture will, he says, positively cure any diseases arising from weak, clogged or inactive kidneys, and will assist these organs to cleanse the blood of the poisonous waste matter and acids, which if allowed to remain, cause lambo, lame back, rheumatism and related,
and at the same time will restore the kidneys to healthy normal action.
The ingredients, which are purely vegetable and entirely harmless, can be procured from any good druggist
and mixed at home at very little cost.
This advice will undoubtedly be much appreciated by many readers.

KILLED BY A COW'S TAIL

Elmhurst, N.Y.—Wm. A. Wells, of Newark Valley, was milking when a cow wished her tail, striking him on the forehead with the fleshy part of the appendage. Shortly afterwards,
Mr. Wells returned to the house, complaining of a pain in the head, which rapidly grew worse. Physicians, pronounced it apoplexy, brought on by the blow from the cow's tail. Mr.
Wells died the same night.

Apoplexy is the result of poisoned blood. Bowels become constipated, kidneys get weakened, skin action becomes poor, and the blood is loaded with impurities, which produces weakness in the blood vessels.

Whenever there is headache, backache, neuralgia, rheumatism—it means blood poisoning. "Fruit-a-tives" are a certain cure for all these troubles.
"Fruit-a-tives" are made of fruit juices and tonics, 50c a box. At all dealers.

MILITIA MINISTER SUES MAGAZINE

Action for Criminal Libel Taken
by Sir Frederick Borden.

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—Preliminary steps have been taken in the institution of what promises to prove one of the most sensational libel suits in being brought to book, and the plaintiff is no less a personage than a Canadian cabinet minister.

In the October number of the Ninteenth Century appears an article on "Pure Canadian Politics," signed by a well-known magazine contributor, H.
Hamilton Fyfe. The article scathingly criticizes political methods in this country, more than hints at crooked methods, and refers to the alleged prevalence of graft. But in none of these respects does the matter go much beyond generalities. The gravamen of the article is in its closing paragraphs, wherein citation is made from a Western weekly publication that has achieved some notoriety by its method of dealing with the alleged private affairs of public men. In fact, its peculiar style and the tone of its articles have placed the Calgary "Eye-Opener"
under the ban of the postal authorities, and for some time its transportation through the mails has been prohibited. It is from this paper that the writer in the Nineteenth Century
quotes, and it is this extract, reproduced with comment, which is pronounced by Sir Frederick Borden to be maliciously false and libelous.

Story of a Dinner.
It is a story of an alleged bacchanalian orgy at a military dinner in Toronto and subsequent hilarious proceedings, all of which the Minister of Militia declares is easily capable of disproof.

In the end the author of the Ninteenth Century article himself does not rank the "Eye-Opener" as the most reliable publication on earth, but he goes the length of stating that if the story were untrue the publisher would long ago have been sued for libel.

This, however, is the very antithesis of the position taken by the Minister of Militia. He points out that to talk of any man bringing the "Eye-Opener" into court is to assume him to be lacking in ordinary commonsense. Nothing, he says, could possibly be accomplished by it, except perhaps, to give the publication a prominence that would be most undesirable.

Says He Has Taken Action.

A report that the Minister of Militia would take action against the magazine was heard on Friday last,
and on Saturday Sir Frederick was asked if such was his intention. His reply was: "Yes, indeed, and more than that, I have already taken steps to bring the matter into court as speedily
as possible. I cabled instructions yesterday to a leading law firm in London to bring action against the Ninteenth Century for libel, and I have their reply that they are doing so. I should have preferred saying nothing about the case until it has actually been started in London, but since you have heard about it, I suppose there is no reason why the facts should not be stated as they exist."

Although Sir Frederick did not state
the amount for which he is suing, he admitted that it would be a considerable sum. It is not improbable therefore that damages to the amount of fifty thousand pounds sterling will be asked. The minister's name is not printed in the magazine article, but the writer of it says that the name is given in full in the "Eye-Opener"
paragraph which he quotes, "dashes"
being used by him where the name occurs in the original.

TOOK CARBOLIC

Former Toronto Accountant Suicides
in Rooming House.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—John Healy, 60 years of age, engaged a room at 33½ Jarvis street, this morning, and said he wanted to sleep for a while, asking the proprietor, W. P. Hawley, to call him at 1 o'clock this afternoon. A short time later Hawley heard the man breathing heavily and bursting open the door of the bedroom found him stretched unconscious across the bed with a two-ounce bottle which had contained carbolic acid beside him. Healy was taken to St. Michael's Hospital where he died at noon.
He was formerly an accountant.

The late Maurice Grau, after the work he did, should have retired with a half-million—but he didn't. It is the same old story. Gailhard, who,

ber, is also not in the list of Paris millionaires and millionnaires in Paris

United States Navy Urged to Delve

New York, Oct. 28.—That the dirigpressed by President William L. Moore, at the opening of the third international aeronautic congress here today.

Rear Admiral C. M. Chester, U. S. N., discussing the "airship for the navy,"
said he believed the "airship is to become the antidote for the submarine."

He said the navy must go deeply into the subject of aeronautics and added that the secret history of the

The C. A. A. U. Blacklists I.P. Teams

Toronto, Oct. 28.—The C. A. A. U. board of governors at their meeting yesterday afternoon dealt promptly and firmly with the football teams that have disqualified themselves by playing with and against professionals, and hereafter every man who has participated in senior interprovincial games will find himself barred from all amateur sport controlled by the governing union, which, by the way, now controls practically every line of athletic effort in Canada.

The C. A. A. U. has had many cases of violation of the amateur spirit and rule to deal with, and this is but one more case where principle has been placed behind temporary pecuniary advantage. The promiscuous mixture of professionals from hockey and lacrosse that prevails in the interprovincial Rugby Union could only result in the exclusion of its players from all forms of sport under the control of the amateur body, and the forced retirement of the clubs that retain them in membership.

The fact that the clubs concerned are important bodies cuts no figure. The big fellows and the little ones look alike to the present control of the C. A. A. U., and the rules and penalties will apply to all. The repudiation of the interprovincial clubs by the representative of the Intercollegiate Union emphasizes their position, and the Argonauts' inability to get a match with Varsity will bring home to that club the unfortunate result of the hasty and ill-considered action of the section of the club executive which has brought it to its present straits.

It was decided to notify all clubs in the other branches of sport to which the suspended men belong of the position in which they stand.

London has just one cause for feeling none too blue. Dundas got it also. The little Cubs had to travel a few furlongs to get there. The score at full time was a tie, 0-0.

Coch Williams was approached just as he was leaving Northrop field on Monday evening.

"Looks rocky, doesn't it, Doc?" inquired the scribe.

"Yep," answered Doc.

"How big are your men this year?" "All feather-weights," said Doc.

"Will any of them be able to sit up on Saturday?"

"One; maybe two."

"Then it's your plan to put a team on the field merely to keep from disappointing the crowd?"

"Yep."

"Score will be about 40 to 0, I suppose."

"Maybe."

"Think you might score accidentally?"

"That's a good deal to expect."

"They know your signals, I guess, don't they?"

"Wouldn't wonder."

"And they understand all your formations?"

"So I hear."

"They tell me Stagg's team is weak this year."

"Don't you believe it," said Doc, winking up. "Best team he ever had."

"Say, Doc, what's the use of your holding secret practice with a bunch of crimpies when they know all about you?"

"Just habit," replied Doc.

Then he smiled. It was the same smile he used last year before the Chicago game.

It will be remembered that Frank Farrell was not a welcome addition to the American league on account of his "racetrack connections" in the days when the New York franchise was rambling through space. BIG FOUR OUT IN THE COLD?

O.R.F.U. and College Teams
Will Not Play the Inter-provincial Winners.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—The News says: All four senior interprovincial Rugby Union teams having been suspended from the amateur ranks, the champions of the new league will not be given an opportunity to play off for Dominion honors, and the game will be played off between the O. R. F. U. and intercollegiate champions on the grounds of the intercollegiate winners, as called for by the C. R. F. U. rules.

Dr. Macdonald, of Varsity, the representative of the Canadian intercollegiate Football Union, stated that there was no possibility of Varsity playing against the Argonauts for the city championship or for anything else, and the same position would be taken by all the collegiate clubs.

Ottawa College has already publicly taken this position, and will not play the winners of the interprovincial, and it is certain that the O. R. F. U. winners will have nothing to do with the disqualified teams.

It so happens, however, that the Canadian Union this year is controlled by interprovincial interests, and it is almost an assured fact that President Shillington and Secretary McKeand, an old Tiger player, will award the championship to the interprovincial winners by default, in the event of a refusal of the other leagues to play.

A CHALLENGE TO DAN STEWART

Sporting Editor Advertiser:

Having become tired of waiting a reply to a letter I sent to Dan Stewart, of Windsor, who intimated that I was afraid to meet him, I take this method of informing him and the public that I will race him two miles at any time for a side bet of from $25 to $50. Immediately upon his accepting my challenge I will place the money in the sporting editor's hands, and he can cover it at his convenience. Unless I am greatly mistaken Mr. Stewart is suffering from a severe case of cold feet, and has only been four-furlonging in order to work up a reputation in his own town. I would like the contest to take place in the Jubilee Rink, in this city, but will meet him at any place he suggests. Sincerely yours,

GEORGE CRISPIN,
Champion of Ontario.

CHAMPION CRISPIN WINS AT TORONTO

George Crispin, the well-known crack local roller-skater, who holds the title of champion of Western Ontario, was successful in defending his title in Toronto Saturday night, when he met Fred. Waggoner, champion roller-skater of Ohio.

The race was for one mile, and the local man won out by several yards.

On Friday night the pair also met, when Crispin won out by two feet. Both races took place in the Riverdale Roller Rink, which is managed by C. W. Smith, former proprietor of the Jubilee Rink in this city.

Crispin is open to meet any skater in Canada at two miles, for a side bet. Communications can be addressed to the sporting editor of The Advertiser.

General Watts a Sensational Performer This Fall

Chicago, Oct. 28.—It will be a long time before the furore that General Watts has created in the trotting world died down. All the season since in August he won at Readville, Mass., trotting two consecutive heats each in 2:09 1/4, it had been recognized that he was one of the greatest three-year-olds that had ever been seen. But no one for a moment imagined that he could and would not merely beat the three-year-old record of 2:08 1/4, which had stood for fourteen years (it was 1893 that Fantasy chalked it up), but would beat two whole seconds. But that was what he did, as the climax to his campaign, which had previously included an unheard of racing feat, the winning of the three chief Furlonges of the year.

Not since Lou Dillon trotted in 2:00 has such excitement been aroused among trotting enthusiasts as this little yellow-bay colt has created. Highball and Sonoma Girl had been in the spotlight all the season, but now both of them have been relegated to minor positions by the phenomenal youngster. Time, merely as such, means much more, goes for much more, on the harness turf than it does among the runners. But it is not alone from a time standpoint that the Watts colt looks so great. He is the most won-to-be so great. He is the most won-to-be so great. He is the most won-to-be so great.

CLEANED UP $7,500
ON FOOTBALL GAME

Hamilton, Oct. 28.—The Tiger supporters who accompanied the team to Montreal on Saturday and plunged their bank rolls on the Jungle Kings brought back nearly $7,500 of Montreal money. There is scarcely a man on the team who is not badly bruised after Saturday's awful battle. The loss of Ben Simpson, the brilliant half-back, who has been with the Tigers through all their victories of recent years, is keenly felt. Frank Burton, who jumped into the game on Saturday and made such an excellent showing, will replace Simpson for the season. The Tigers say that in the four years of the drop-back system there has never been anything to equal the roughness of Saturday's game, especially the last quarter, since the Ottawa team gained the title of Rough Riders. The Tigers expect an awful battle on Thanksgiving Day with the Ottawa team, after the exhibition it made of the Argonauts on Saturday.

An electric filter, the invention of a Hungarian engineer, is about to be exhibited in St. Petersburg. The filter is in two parts, and is, it is said, of very simple construction. One part is connected with an electric circuit which sends a powerful current through the drinking water and thereby kills at once any micro-organisms in it; the second part is an ordinary filter of an improved type. This new filter is to be tested in the St. Petersburg hospitals and laboratories.

BIG AL. KAUFMAN IS DISGUSTED

New York, Oct. 28.—Disgusted by his failure to get matches in the east for his new heavyweight, Billy Delaney started west with Al Kaufman last week. Their first stop will be in Denver, where there is a chance for a fight with "Tack" (Twin) Sullivan.

Relay Gallagher and Otto Gedo, managers of rival clubs in the Colorado city are expected to bid for the contest so that a good purse may be offered. Sullivan, according to a letter from Delaney some days ago, was about to start for Denver to learn what would be offered for the bout. If a match with the twin falls, Delaney will try to get John Wille or Marvin Hart for Kaufman.

"There is no chance in the east for a big man to fight," said Delaney before he left. "The authorities won't stand for them, and the clubs don't stand interested in them. These six-round contests that you have had here have educated the public up to fast slugging battles in which the big men usually don't shine."

Delaney's experience has been that of all the other big men who have tried to get on fights here. Even in Philadelphia where the authorities will permit heavyweights to fight, the clubs take little interest in them. A featherweight slugging match seems to be more attractive than a bout between big men who have sense enough to box more calmly and slowly, with some thought about the science of the game.

ON FOOTBALL GAME

Hamilton, Oct. 28.—The Tiger supporters who accompanied the team to Montreal on Saturday and plunged their bank rolls on the Jungle Kings brought back nearly $7,500 of Montreal money. There is scarcely a man on the team who is not badly bruised after Saturday's awful battle. The loss of Ben Simpson, the brilliant half-back, who has been with the Tigers through all their victories of recent years, is keenly felt. Frank Burton, who jumped into the game on Saturday and made such an excellent showing, will replace Simpson for the season. The Tigers say that in the four years of the drop-back system there has never been anything to equal the roughness of Saturday's game, especially the last quarter, since the Ottawa team gained the title of Rough Riders. The Tigers expect an awful battle on Thanksgiving Day with the Ottawa team, after the exhibition it made of the Argonauts on Saturday.

An electric filter, the invention of a Hungarian engineer, is about to be exhibited in St. Petersburg. The filter is in two parts, and is, it is said, of very simple construction. One part is connected with an electric circuit which sends a powerful current through the drinking water and thereby kills at once any micro-organisms in it; the second part is an ordinary filter of an improved type. This new filter is to be tested in the St. Petersburg hospitals and laboratories.

Mrs. Anna F. Coston has on Staten Island the oldest laboratory and factory know. It is where the distress signals, her own invention, used in the army and navy, the revenue service and the life-saving and light-house bureaus are manufactured. Will Recover.

The physicians who are attending William Patrick, who was injured so seriously at the works of the International Harvester Company last week, are now confident that he will recover. A new aspect of the case, however, has arisen, and it is feared that Mr. Patrick may never be able to speak, as certain muscles may become paralyzed as a result of the blow he received.

will take the form of a debenture by-law, and must, of necessity, have the opinion of the ratepayers expressed upon it.

The by-law passed last January merely gives the council power to purchase electrical energy from the hydro-electric commission. The committee will first get figures from the London Electric Company for its plant and fixtures. All matters pertaining to the question of the distribution of power will be thoroughly inquired into by the committee.

A Second Plant?

It is possible that a second or emergency plant will have to be purchased.

—Tonight is the night of the Scotch Concert at New St. James' Presbyterian Church, and a large crowd is expected. The talent secured is new to Londoners, and the programme provided will be an interesting one.

—Rev. E. E. Shields, late of Kincardine, well known to Londoners, who will occupy the pulpit of Nassau Street Baptist Church, Winnipeg, for a few months, is expected there about the first week in November, and will occupy the pulpit the following Sunday.

The Southwestern Traction Company yesterday sent its first car over the line from St. Thomas to Port Stanley.

The trip was marked by no celebrations of any kind beyond a slight demonstration on the part of individual residents of Port Stanley, who were so delighted at the new facility afforded they could not retain themselves.

The officials on the car were Manager S. W. Mowbray, Superintendent G. Northcott, Roadmaster Evans and St. Thomas agent, H. Roe.

A dinner was served the officials by Mr. Matt Loney, at the Port, after which the new car was thrown open to the public for a free ride.

Manager Mowbray stated that the cars would run from Port to London on Thanksgiving Day.

ed by the city in addition to the municipal distribution station as proposed by Hon. Adam Beck, and that the London Electric plant will be taken over. The Toronto company has a duplicate system, as sometimes some thing happens to Niagara power, and it is shut off. This has happened more than once during the past year or so.

The Niagara power commission intend to build a loop line from Hamilton to London by way of Guelph, Stratford, Galt and other cities, and in case a break occurs, the power can be fed from the opposite way of the loop. There will be duplicate lines from the Falls to Hamilton.

J. M. THOMSON.LOCAL MARKET.

Tuesday, Oct. 29.
 The market today would be a credit to the average Saturday. The near approach of Thanksgiving Day was, no doubt, the cause of the large attendance of farmers and buyers. While the supply of poultry was the prominent feature of the market, there was not as much offered as in the past. The season has been a backward one. There was a brisk demand in nearly every line. Potatoes and apples were slow, but the remainder of list sold quickly.

Grain—Oats opened up strong at $1.70, but prices soon fell to $1.65 and $1.66 per cwt., and nearly all of the loads sold at these figures.
 Hay and Straw—There was only 8 loads offered, and the demand was brisk at $17 to $18 per ton. Straw sold at $7.75 and $8 per ton.

Butter and Eggs—Butter was scarcer than on Saturday and prices were firm at 27c for crocks and 28c for pound rolls. Eggs were a trifle slow at 27c per dozen, by the basket lot, and 28c for a single dozen.

Vegetables and Roots—There was a large delivery of potatoes. Sales were fair at 80c to 90c per bag; mostly at 85c per bag. Onions were dull at 90c per bushel. Tomatoes sold at 25c per bushel. Carrots were 35c a bushel. Beets and parsnips sold at 40c a bushel, and celery at 25c per dozen.

Fruits—Apples were dull, as there have been too many offered of late. Prices ranged from 50c to 80c per bag, or $1.75 to $2.25 per barrel. Snow apples sold at 25c per bushel. Pears were dull at $1 to $1.50 per bushel, the latter price being paid for nice, large fruit. Chestnuts sold at 25c per basket. Quinces sold at 20c per basket, and grapes sold at 20c to 25c per basket.

Poultry—There was a large amount of poultry offered, and the demand was fairly brisk at the following prices: Turkeys, sold at 13c to 15c per pound, dressed; ducks, 10c to 12c; chickens, 10c, dressed, and 8c, alive; old fowl, rather slow, at 5c to 6c, alive, or 7c to 8c, dressed; geese, 9c per pound, wholesale, or 10c to 12c retail.

Dressed Hogs—Nearly 100 carcasses offered, which were sold at slightly lower prices, at $8 and $8.25 per cwt. for the bulk of those offered, and $8.50 for a few sold early in the morning.

PRODUCE MARKET.TORONTO.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Prices are so high and the outlook so uncertain that there is practically no trading of importance in the local market. The obvious impossibility of doing an export business at prices 7c to 8c higher than Chicago levels has placed an effective check upon buying of Ontario wheat. Provincial millers are buying at $1.04 to $1.05, but even this demand is diminishing. The receipts of Manitoba barley are not likely to have any effect upon the strength locally, as the general quality of the western crop is so poor as to render it almost totally unfit for brewing. Samples have just been received by Coffee & Co., of the board of trade. The color is a dirty yellow, the kernels are frost-bitten, and wheat and wild oats are almost as prominent as the barley itself.

Sales of peas were reported at 85c, but there were no offerings when a similar bid was made on the call board. Dates are steady, and corn a little firmer. Quotations: Wheat—Manitoba, $1.13 bid, at lake ports; Ontario winter wheat, No. 2 white or red, $1.04 to $1.04½; No. 2, $1.03 to $1.03½.

Peas—No. 2, 55c bid outside.
 Oats—No. 2 white, 55c bid outside.
 Barley—No. 2 yellow, 72c asked, at Toronto.
 Rye—No. 2, 85c bid outside.
 Buckwheat—56c bid.

Flour—Ontario 90 per cent patents are nominally about $2.95 bid; 85 per cent, $2.85; 80 per cent, $2.75; 75 per cent, $2.65; second patents, $2.40 to $2.50; strong bakers, $2.30 to $2.40.

60 Years Experience

in stove building is concentrated in the Souvenir Steel Range. It has no equal amongst modern cooking stoves.

Added to its compactness, is every advantage to be found in any

SOUVENIR RANGE

Its Aerated Oven, changing the air therein completely, without lessening the heat a degree, gives it an immense advantage over all other ranges.

Its deep fire-box holds the fire easily over night—no ashes can accumulate to choke the draft.

Its grates can be removed without loosening a single bolt. Every desirable improvement for effecting a saving in labor, time and fuel is found in the Souvenir.

Every Souvenir is absolutely guaranteed by the makers.

A programme of local talent will be delivered, and refreshments will be provided by the ladies. Each lady may bring a gentleman, also any friends who may be visiting at their homes.
Graduating Recital.
A large number of music lovers attended Harding Hall last night, when Miss Florence Barnum, of Strathroy, gave her graduating recital. Miss Barnum was assisted by Mr. Hugh Ward, baritone, who is in his graduating year. A number of selections were rendered in a most pleasing manner, and delighted those present.
Travelers Were Sorry.
The resignation of Mr. Ennes, formerly of the G. T. R. here, who has been appointed superintendent of the Breckenridge, Minnesota, division of the Great Northern Railway, was at the last meeting of the Travelers' Club accepted. A resolution was unanimously carried by the members, regretting the departure of Mr. Ennes, and wishing him all prosperity in his new situation.
Dr. Moulton.
The first lecture of Dr. Moulton's November course will be given on the evening of Nov. 8, on "The Wandering Jew," the wonderful novel by Eugene Sue. The plot is magnificent, and affords ample scope for the dramatic oratory for which Dr. Moulton is noted, so that this is counted one of his most popular recitals. Friday, Nov. 8, and following days should be kept clear of other engagements.

Practical Charity.
Hamilton Herald: On Saturday afternoon the new Grafton Infirmary in connection with the Mountain Sanatorium was formally handed over to the Hamilton Health Association by Col. Grafton, of Dundas, as the gift of his father, J. B. Grafton. The presentation was made in the presence of a large number of prominent ladies and gentlemen, including Mayor Stewart, and several speeches were made. In making the presentation, Col. Grafton stated that it had long been the desire of his father and himself to do something toward aiding the work of combating the dreaded disease, tuberculosis, but not until the Hamilton Health Association, aided by the earnest labors of the Daughters of the Empire, undertook to establish the present sanatorium, had they been given the opportunity. It was with great pleasure that they had erected the new infirmary, and he formally handed the keys of the institution over to the board of directors, represented by J. J. Ewel.

Miss Love Scored a Signal Triumph On First Appearance at Bennett's

Accomplished London Vocalist Sang Admirably and "Made Good."

Miss Irene Love, the charming young vocalist of London, appeared at Bennett's yesterday afternoon and last night, and she won her audiences completely. Her rare singing qualities proved a surprise to very many of her friends, for though they had heard her occasionally they were not aware of the great improvement in her voice, with careful training has brought about, since she determined to try her fortune on the stage.
Last night's audience was made up of very many personal acquaintances, but if she had been a stranger to them all she would have won applause just the same. For the three songs she sang were rendered with a quiet simplicity, and vocal quality which will win favor anywhere and with any audience. The applause from the pit and boxes was deafening, but she had also the satisfaction of hearing the gallery applaud her long and loud.

Auspicious Occasion.
Miss Love made her debut on a local stage under auspicious circumstances. The audience was a very fine one, and included the majority of the officers of Wolsey Barracks and the Seventh Regiment. Before the rise of the curtain, all stood and sang the National Anthem.
Miss Love's place was fourth on the bill, and a good bill it was. First she sang "That's What the Rose Said to Me," a beautiful number, well calculated to display her excellent voice. She was accorded a hearty encore, and sang the sweet, popular number, "School Days." Her rendition was perfect. She threw into the song a wealth of feeling, and at its conclusion was given a thunderous encore.
Hit of the Evening.
Then Miss Love made the hit of the evening, for she sang "When Tommy Atkins Marries Dolly Gray."

"WAY DOWN EAST" AS GOOD AS EVER
This Sterling Attraction Played to Rather Small House at the Grand

"Way Down East" was the offering at the Grand last night, and it proved to be as good an attraction as formerly. The audience was not large—not nearly so large as the merits of the play deserved. Those present were very appreciative.
The company is a strong one, and included several who were in the cast when the play was first staged. Miss Phoebe Davies, as Anna Moore, was one of the original cast, and proved herself last night a very capable actress. Miss Mary Davenport, another original, as Louisa Bartlett, was also very convincing in her role. Mr. John E. Brennan, as Hi Holler, while not a member of the original cast, was here in the play before, made a splendid impression, and showed himself almost the equal of any man who has yet assayed the role. The village choir sang well.

A Shadow Full of Substance.
"The Shadow Behind the Throne," will be seen at the Grand tonight with the same company, scenery, costumes, light, loveliness and general liberality of production that sent it out of Greater New York. It is a story full of patriotic spirit, love, war, crime, cruelty and comedy, with five acts replete with scenes and examples of devotion, true-heartedness, tenderness, subtle treason, despotic desire and tremendous retribution.

"The Wizard of Oz."
"The Wizard of Oz" will be at the Grand Thanksgiving Day, matinee and evening. Those two famous characters, the Scarecrow and Tin Woodman played this season by George Stone and Frank Hayes, are perhaps the most unique and delightfully funny of stage creations, and the clever comedians who are capital singers and excellent dancers, provide unbounded fun in the parts.

"The Gingerbread Man."
The scores of pretty little girls who take part in the chorus of the notable musical comedy, "The Gingerbread Man," which appeared at the Grand next Friday and Saturday, and Saturday matinee, were selected from over 200 applicants. Their great charm is their beauty and naturalness.

LAST SHOT OF THE LOCAL CAMPAIGN

The Labor Men Hold a Largely Attended Meeting in the City Hall.

The Labor men held the last meeting of the campaign in the city hall last night, and it proved to be the best meeting of the series.

A very large crowd was in attendance, and a great deal of enthusiasm prevailed.
All the speakers spoke confidently regarding the outcome of today's struggle, and predicted that the Labor candidate would have a large majority.
The speakers were W. F. Maclean, M. P., Alphonse Verville, M. P., Allan Studholme, M. P., Edgar N. Compton, St. Thomas, and the candidate, Mr. Jos. T. Marks, the local Labor man, was chairman.
Mrs. W. F. Maclean, of Toronto, came up to London and was in the audience.

The officers were immensely pleased, and everybody else in the house applauded, too.
Miss Love's appearance was a complete triumph. General Manager Bennett, who had never heard her sing, watched her intently for a moment, somewhat anxiously, it must be admitted, but when she sang her first note, he leaned back in his seat, and was satisfied. In stage parlance, Miss Love had "made good."

The London lady is no novice on the stage. She carried herself with admirable assurance, and gave every promise of winning great favor as a professional. To Mr. Cyril Dwight-Edwards she owes her vocal training, and she is a pupil that is a credit to him. She will sing at Bennett's every afternoon and evening this week.

Excellent Bill.
Manager Elms is to be congratulated upon this week's bill as a whole. Leon Morris' Society Circus is the best animal act of its kind ever seen here. The dozen or more ponies, and as many dogs, as well as a couple of monkeys, exhibit marvelous intelligence. And two of the ponies wrestle with a colored man, creating more fun than there was at Berzac's famous circus, when Maud, the mule, was here.

The Don sisters proved themselves a pair of excellent entertainers. Their naive English humor won them the hearty applause of all sections of the house.
Tom Moore said some exceedingly funny things, sang some things that were funnier, and recited a few verses, which made a big hit.

Henry Clive, a card manipulator, assisted by Miss Mai Walker, was all to the good. His act is away above all of its kind.
Grant Gardner and Maria Stoddard have a very funny act entitled, "Vaudeville Frivolities." It scored a hit last night.
Gilbert and Irving have a fair Hebrew act, as have also Fred and Bess Lucier, who last night made good with a London audience.
The moving pictures were very fine.

Every character of this musical fantasy is taken from the story books of our childhood. The original company of 55 players which was seen in New York during the long run of "The Gingerbread Man" will present the play here.

A HAPPY GATHERING
Worthy Dunwich Couple Celebrate Their Golden Wedding.

"Maple Grove," Dunwich, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, was the scene of a pretty event on Monday, Oct. 21, it being the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Guests were present from Oil City, Florence, Fingal, Shedd, Dutton, Rodney and surrounding vicinity. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion and about 6:45 p.m. the guests repaired to the dining-room where a sumptuous dinner had been provided. Then came an evening of music and song, with Miss Unsworth, of Florence, presiding at the piano.
During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Ross were presented with handsome gifts, and several pieces of gold as mementos.

What Joy to be Freed From Piles

It is not only the intense itching and stinging that causes such great suffering from piles, not only the dread of a surgical operation, with its pain, expense and danger, but the whole system seems to be undermined, and as the ailment drags on from day to day and year to year one becomes discouraged, despondent, and in despair gives up all hope of cure.
The joy which cured ones experience in being freed from itching, bleeding and protruding piles is told in the thousands of letters which we have received from time to time.

You need not tell the writers of these letters that there is a case which Dr. Chase's Ointment will not cure, for they will not believe it. They alone know how they suffered, and also know that Dr. Chase's Ointment cured them. In many cases the cures were almost miraculous. Little ointment was used. In others, while relief came quickly, cure was only effected by the persistent use of several boxes of the ointment.

Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only positive and guaranteed cure for every form of piles, 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
