CHINA SHORT OF SINEWS OF WAR

Government Facing a Serious Financial Situation.

TRYING TO RAISE LOAN

Revolutionists Continue to Have Successes in the South.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Oct. 25.—The Times' Peking correspondent says:
"China's financial situation is becoming desperate. The Government has made formal request to the diplomatic body that the payment of the monthly installments of the Boxer indemnity be postponed for nine months. This request has been met by the reply that some of the Governments must be consulted. Since then China has been making desperate efforts to scrape the money together. The Shanghai treasury, which at present has less than 1,000,000 taels, is unable to pay the official salaries."

"Chinese and Manchus of the latter class are leaving Peking in large numbers, removing their treasure to the foreign concessions in Shanghai and Tientsin, and even to Mukden, where it is believed security will be found under Japanese protection."
Court May Move.
"In event of reverse in the Yangtze Valley, it seems certain that the court will remove to Jehol, in the Province of Chihli, 115 miles to the northeast of Peking."
The Government is endeavoring to obtain a loan of 12,000,000 taels ($4,000,000), repayable in one year at 8 per cent, with the guarantee of an Imperial edict, from British, French, German and American bankers. The bankers, at a meeting held to discuss the proposal, desired to be informed exactly for what purposes the money was to be used. They also made it a condition before recommending the guarantee of the Imperial edict that Yuan-shih Kai be given full power satisfactory to himself and the bankers, to deal with the situation.

CANON CRAIG NOT FOR UNION

Unless the Church of England Keeps Forms Intact.

URGES ENTHUSIASM

Tells A. Y. P. A. That the Church is Worthy of Best Efforts.

"It is no wonder that young people are leaving the Anglican Church when a text book so unfavorable to the church as Greene's History of the English People is used in all our high schools," said Rev. Canon Craig, of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, at the Inter-Diocesan A. Y. P. A. Conference in Cronyn Hall this morning. This remark of Canon Craig's was incidental to the canon's statement that Greene, the historian, who was no lover of the Church of England, admitted that the Anglican Church could trace back its connection with the early Eastern Church to have developed. From there to sub-apostolic times, and then only a step further to the early Apostolic Church, the origin of the Church of England could be followed back.

"Why We Should Be Enthusiastic for the Church of England" was the subject of Canon Craig's address, which was given in place of an expected talk on "What the Church Stands For" which Bishop Williams, who was unable to be present, had intended to deliver. The historical value of the church, the part that the Church of England forms in the Church Universal, all that the Anglican Church owes to the observance of the Christian year, and the stand that the Church has always taken for the open Bible, ought to make its members enthusiastic in support of its cause.

Canon Craig declared that he would not favor union of the Anglican with other churches, unless the historical significance of the Church of England were preserved intact, together with its forms and doctrines to which it holds so closely.

CHICKEN THIEVES CAUGHT IN ACT BUT MANAGE TO MAKE ESCAPE

Street Railway Motorman Fitzsimmons Surprises Marauders and Fired at Them With Revolver, But Failed to Stop Them.

The operations of chicken thieves, who have been particularly active about the city of late, were interrupted in a rather startling skirmish in the coops of Mr. Benjamin Parker, a street railway conductor, of 2000 St. Lawrence street, shortly after midnight this morning. The men escaped, but when fired upon dropped a bag in which they had placed one chicken. Mr. Parker was on duty during the day and was unaware of what was happening, but between 12 and 1 o'clock, Mr. Alex. Fitzsimmons, a motorman on one of the night runs, who lives on Queen's avenue, and whose lot abuts that of Mr. Parker, returned home. On entering his backyard he noticed some person was using a flashlight in

Giants Beat the Athletics Today McGraw's Men Still Have a Chance

World's Series, the Fifth Game of Which Was Played at New York City, Is Growing in Interest.

[Canadian Press.]
Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 25.—Some ten thousand spectators swarmed out to the Polo Grounds this afternoon to see the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants clash in the fifth game of the world's series. With three victories already won, the Athletics came on the field determined to capture a fourth, and settle the question of the baseball championship for 1911. The Giants were making their last stand to win the victory to give them a further chance at championship laurels.
"If we lose, we go down fighting," said Manager McGraw. "If the Giants can't win this series, it has been determined to make a winter trip to Cuba. Ending summer never furnished a more beautiful day for baseball. The sun shone brilliantly in an unclouded sky, and the playing ground was as bright as the proverbial trivet.
The clubs were heartily cheered as they trooped on the field for practice. The infielders put in a few extra innings under the inspiration of a brass band, which played merrily near the Giants' bench.
Marquard Returns.
There was a loud cheer from the stands when the megaphone man announced that Marquard and Meyers were the battery for the Athletics. Umpire Klem went behind the bat, with Umpire Dineen giving directions on the bases, while Umpire Egan stood at right field, and Umpire Connolly at left field.
FIRST INNING.
Philadelphia—Marquard used great speed and was inclined to be untidy, and Lord had three balls and two strikes on him, when he drove a short fly to left, on which Devore made a fine catch. Oidring went out on a grounder to Doyle, who made a pretty play on the ball to Markle. Oidring broke his bat in smashing the ball. Marquard seemed slightly nervous, and Meyers went down and patted him on the back. Collins was out on a fly to Snodgrass. No Runs.
New York—Devore hit the first ball pitched to Barry, who got him handily at first. Doyle hit a weak foul, which Baker caught. Snodgrass gave a big cheer when he stole second. He went out, Baker to Doyle. No Runs.
SECOND INNING.
Philadelphia—Baker got a big hand when he came to the plate. There was another cheer when Marquard fanned. Baker, Murphy singled sharply to left. Marquard almost caught Murphy off first on a snap throw. The crowd cheered Umpire Dineen when he called Murphy safe. Davis singled. Murphy tried to steal second, but was caught by Meyers to Doyle. No Runs.
New York—Murray couldn't get Coombs' fast ones, and struck out. Markle was singled strike-out victim. Herzog singled between Barry and Baker after Coombs' hit. Oidring struck him. Herzog stole second. It was the second base stolen by the Giants in the series. Fletcher fanned. No Runs.
THIRD INNING.
Philadelphia—Barry went out on a grounder to Herzog, whose throw beat the runner several feet. Lapp singled. Oidring sent a ball that was far over his head. Meyers had Lapp caught off first on a beautiful throw, but Merkle dropped the ball. It was not an error for Merkle. Coombs hit a grounder to Herzog, who threw to Doyle, and the Giant second baseman dropped the ball in his eagerness to make a double play. With a man on first and second Meyers went down and talked to Marquard.
Lord sent up a high one to Doyle. Lapp, Coombs and Oidring scored on Doyle's home-run drive into the left field stand. The crowd went wild. The Athletics players shook Oidring's hand as he came to the bench. Oidring's smash unsteadied Marquard, and Collins stroled to first on four wide ones. Collins stole second, Meyers threw was wide. McGraw sent Ames out to warm up. Baker fanned out on a grounder to Merkle, unassisted. Three runs.
New York—Meyers rapped a single which bounded off Baker's legs. Becker was sent to bat in place of Marquard, and shot a liner to Barry, who tried to double Meyers off first, but Davis dropped the ball. Under the Marver Davis the scoring Davis is not credited with an error. Devore struck out and Meyers was out attempting to steal. Lapp to Collins. No Runs.
FOURTH INNING.
Philadelphia—Ames bow went into the box for the Giants. The crowd howled when Ames curved the first one over for a strike. Murphy sent up a high foul which landed in Doyle's mitt. Davis was out, when Merkle

COAL MEN SEEK BETTER CONDITIONS

Importers Want New Plan of Charging Demurrage for Detention of Cars.

AVERAGE UP AMOUNT

So Speed on Their Part Would Give Them Time When They Needed It.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—The hearing of the application of the Canadian Retail Coal Dealers' Association, of London, Ont., for amendment to the Canadian car service rules providing for optional average demurrage to be arrived at or agreed upon between consignees and railway companies for all shipments of coal and coke, was resumed before the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners yesterday morning. Under the present rules a period of three days is allowed for unloading a car, and the coal dealers ask that if they turn a car over to the railway company at the end of the first day they be allowed five days to unload the next car.
Mr. C. H. Beeber, of the Detroit and Michigan Central Railway, said he thought the adoption of average demurrage would materially decrease the efficiency of the car service in Canada.
Mr. F. Price, superintendent of the Grand Trunk car service, said the adoption of the average demurrage rule would result in an increase in the period of detention of the cars.
John Hogan, car service inspector of the C. P. L. to Montreal, gave evidence as to the time taken by various coal dealers to unload the cars. He said that the adoption of the average rule would not only work hardship to the railways, but also to the shipping public, and would result in the congestion of terminals.
Mr. Thomas Hayes, vice-president of the Coal Dealers' Association, claimed that the question of detention was considered in making the demurrage rates. He thought, also, that the "average" plan would solve the present difficulties, and suggested a trial of the plan for twelve months.
The chairman asked Mr. Duval to prepare for the board a statement showing demurrage paid by all shippers since the first of the year. An enlargement was asked for on behalf of the lines west of Port Arthur, but the chairman did not think there should be further delay. The decision of the board was reserved.

LADY TEACHERS WILL NOW ASK THE BOARD FOR MORE SALARY

Will Ask That the Minimum Be Raised From $450 to $500 and Maximum From $700 to $900.

The request of the male principals of certain public schools of London for an increase in salary of $200 a year will be followed by a request from the lady teachers that they be given more money. It was stated at the city hall today. A petition is being circulated among the teachers in the Guild, and is being largely signed. While the nature of their demand is not known definitely, it is understood that they wish the minimum salary raised from $450 to $500, and the maximum from $700 to $900. The petition will be presented to the board at the same time that the male teachers file theirs. It is understood that both communications will be referred to No. 1 committee of the board to report on.

LONDON ELECTRIC CO. AND CITY MAY AGAIN COME TOGETHER

Move On Foot Amongst the Shareholders to Have Sale of Plant to City Talked Over Once More.

The shareholders of the London Electric Company will make a final effort to come to an agreement with the city, whereby the people may buy the company's plant.

Several of those who hold large blocks of stock in Toronto and elsewhere are considering the matter, and information has been obtained that a meeting will be held in that city in the near future to determine what action shall be taken. Letters have been received in London from some of these shareholders, asking information as to the possibility of the city purchasing the company's plant and business.

One shareholder, writing to a friend outside the city, asks the question whether or not the company is paying expenses at the present time. Other questions equally as important to the shareholders are also asked.

No Action.
It is understood that the water commissioners will take no action on the matter now. They regard the proposed transaction as closed.
"I do not know anything about the shareholders," said Chairman Pocock. "No proposition has been made to us since the last offer was turned down. Whether or not another offer will be made I am not in a position to state. It strikes me that the time for negotiations has long since passed. We are going ahead with our own propositions without regard to the London Electric or any other company. We intend making the city's proposition pay, and make no mistake, we will succeed."

TO PUNISH WIFE DESERTERS

Recommendation Made That Culprits Be Fined $1,000 Or Given Two Years in Prison.

MR. SANDERS SPEAKS

London Official Says That Cases of Wife Desertion Are Growing Very Frequent in This City.

"Any husband who shall without just cause, desert or refuse to provide for the support of wife and children, shall be guilty of an indictable offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $1,000, or two years in prison with hard labor, to be provided by the state or municipality, the proceeds of which shall go to the wife and children; also that some other agency besides the wife shall be empowered, if preferable, to lay complaint against the husband."

The above amendment to the criminal code was read Tuesday, in Toronto, at a joint committee meeting of the Associated Charities and the Local Council of Women. It was approved and sent to a sub-committee composed of Father Minahan, Rabbi Jacobs, Rev. S. W. Dean, Mrs. R. L. Brereton, Dr. Chambers, S. Arnold, Mrs. Robert Glasgow, Dr. Margaret Johnston, Alan Stronach, M. P. F. and Staff Inspector Kennedy.

This sub-committee will draft the amendment in final form, when it will be presented to a full meeting of the societies concerned. If approved it will be sent for indorsement to the municipal authorities and then presented as a memorandum to the new Minister of Justice at Ottawa.

Rev. S. W. Dean advocated the lash for wife desertion, but his severe penalty was not generally supported.

Inspector Sanders, of the Children's Aid Society, and Charity Organization Society, was seen by The Advertiser today in regard to the matter. He came out strongly in favor of severe punishment for wife desertion.

"I find in London," he said, "that cases of wife desertion are becoming very frequent. I think the punishment for the crime, as stated in the article, is none too heavy. However, I would like to see the law so framed that men who leave their homes shall be compelled to work on a prison farm, such as the one at Guelph, where they will earn enough to support their wives and children, and thereby keep the burden off the community. Of course, we sometimes find cases where I do not blame the man very much for getting out, but as a general thing when a man and woman cannot live together there is no sympathy to be wasted on the man, and he should be punished to the limit of the law for failing to provide for his wife and children."

Taylor---Macmillan

One of the prettiest weddings of the autumn season was solemnized this afternoon in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, when Miss Kathleen Dora, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Macmillan, of 361 Dufferin avenue, united in marriage to Dr. Bruce William Taylor, of Montreal. Rev. Dr. Ross, D. D., pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Robert Johnson, D. D., minister of the American Presbyterian Church, of Montreal.

The church was artistically decorated, the chancel being bedecked with palms and ferns, while huge baskets of yellow and white mums adorned the pulpit front. The pews for the invited guests were marked with clusters of white chrysanthemums and white American twine.
Mr. Charles E. Wheeler, organist of the church, officiated at the organ, and to his perfect rendition of the Lohengrin Bridal March the guests assembled. During the signing of the register, Miss Lelia Armstrong, of Bridgen, rendered beautifully "Be-cause."
At 3 o'clock the wedding party entered the groom, supported by Dr. Hubert Clark, of Montreal, entered from the vestry, and took his place at the altar. The ushers, Mr. Clifford Spiers, of Toronto; George Borland, Montreal; Kent MacArthur, London, and Percy Borland, Toronto, preceded the bride, who was escorted by the register, Miss Lelia Armstrong, of Bridgen, rendered beautifully "Be-cause."

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 25.

EARL GREY'S REBUKE.

Two eminent British statesmen of opposite parties paid tributes to Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the banquet tendered Earl Grey by the Royal Colonial Institute.

The Colonial Secretary, Right Hon. Lewis Harcourt, spoke of the British people's grateful sense of the great services rendered by Sir Wilfrid to the progress and prosperity of the Dominion. Earl Grey testified to his own "affection and admiration" for Canada's "distinguished statesman."

Two points in Earl Grey's address were especially significant. He told his hearers that the policy of reciprocity was in no sense a policy of dislike toward closer connection with the mother country, and that Sir Wilfrid was fully persuaded it would strengthen both Canada and the Crown. There was a rebuke in these words for the slanderers of Canada and Canada's greatest son both here and in Great Britain. Sir Max Aitken, for example, dishonored his title and his native country by telling a Lancashire audience that Sir Wilfrid had tried to drive Canada out of the Empire.

Earl Grey further warned his countrymen that there was "no expectation in Canada that the recent Canadian elections should be used for inducing any change into the tariff of the United Kingdom." "It cannot be too clearly understood," he added, "that Canadians are as adverse to the idea of interfering in your local affairs as they are to any interference on your part in theirs." This is also language which British politicians should heed. Some are sorry in view of the admonition. Their comments on the Canadian election have been an affront to common sense, and to the intelligence of the Canadian people. Mr. Balfour himself has been an offender. In his recent speech at Haddington he professed to interpret the result in Canada as a demand upon the British people to reverse their fiscal policy. This is a mischievous misreading of the situation. The bulk of the Canadians ask no favors from the mother country beyond the maintenance of her open market. The interests which control the Government at Ottawa will be the strongest opponents of further concessions to British producers.

Earl Grey, fresh from this country, will do a good service to the empire if he can check the tendency of the Unionist leaders to interfere in Canadian domestic politics.

NATURAL GAS IN WESTERN ONTARIO.

The annual report of the Ontario Bureau of Mines reviews the natural gas business for the year 1910. So far, Western Ontario has been the only section of the province to yield a sufficient amount of gas to make the drilling of wells profitable, and it is interesting and gratifying to learn that the older wells have been increasing the output, and that a new field is under development.

In a paragraph, the output for 1910 was valued at $1,188,179, while in 1909 it was valued at $1,491,239, an increase of $303,059, or 25.5 per cent. The quantity of gas produced last year is given as 7,263,427 thousand cubic feet. The average price at which the yield is valued at 20.5 cents per thousand cubic feet.

The gas producing territory, lying on the north and east shores of Lake Erie, has been steadily extending, and appears likely, the report says, to cover practically the whole of the Ontario side of the lake. The three producing fields are situated in Welland County, Haldimand and Norfolk Counties, and Essex and Kent Counties.

The Essex-Kent fields had a considerable advantage in yield, producing last year 3,841,234 thousand cubic feet. The Haldimand-Norfolk wells gave more than a million thousand cubic feet less, and the Welland field was just about as much lower in yield below the Haldimand-Norfolk. The three fields have 828 wells, 982 miles of pipe, and employ 186 hands, to whom they pay annually $118,786. The greater yield of the Essex wells is apparent, when it is considered that it has but 47 wells, while Welland has 337 wells, and Haldimand-Norfolk 444 wells.

The new field in Elgin County, situated along the shore of Lake Erie in Bayham Township, is expected to be a producer. In two out of three wells "big gas" has been struck. The report states that those controlling the two companies in the fields have had long experience in the natural gas business, and that in their hands it is certain that "the field will be energetically and intelligently exploited."

A BELATED GROWL.

The Toronto Telegram says that "the whole burden of guarding the seas against the ascendancy of European militarism falls upon the forty million people of the British Isles, plus the direct contribution of Australia and New Zealand."

Why does the Telegram speak of the "direct contribution" of Australia and New Zealand? Australia abandoned the policy of direct contributions for one precisely the same as Canada's, only less costly. New Zealand has built a Dreadnought to be used in the China station by the British admiralty, but only on condition that a squadron of smaller ships be maintained in New Zealand waters at the expense of the British taxpayers. The Telegram goes on to say:

"Canada, the home of 7,000,000 people who in wealth and earning power easily equal the poorest 20,000,000 people in the British Isles, is being deluded into the acceptance of Henri Bourassa as Premier of this country for purposes of naval defence. The Borden Government bids fair to be as thoroughly pro-Bourassa and as timidly pro-British as English-speaking Canada will let it be."

The Telegram, before the election was perfectly aware of the Borden-Bourassa alliance, and what it implied, but it had not a word of warning or protest then. The blatant jingoism of Toronto are partisans first, and patriots a long way afterwards. The Telegram belongs to the school. It has spasms of outspokenness, but these are carefully timed. They never manifest themselves in an election campaign.

The Laurier Government bequeathed a surplus of $30,000,000. It is giving back more than it got from the other side.

Hon. George E. Foster is acting premier of Canada. Sir Mackenzie Bowell's feelings are too deep for words.

Mr. Borden has laid down a naval policy. Is he afraid to fight for it? A referendum will be a confession that he is.

If there is to be an investigation of Federal departments, will the Government summon Hon. Clifford Sifton as a witness?

The unkindest cut of all is the Conservative Montreal Star's assertion that in Mr. Borden's cabinet, "the ministers with clean records are easily in a majority."

A Connecticut woman has left $110,000 to a youth who gave up his sleeping car berth to her fifteen years ago. Courtesy, like honesty, is the best policy. Courtesy is best, too, when there is no policy in it.

There will be a five weeks' session of parliament beginning Nov. 15, for which members will receive $2,500 each. They will be the only beneficiaries of the defeat of reciprocity.

The Victoria Times says the British News, owned and edited by Arthur Hawkes, got $500 per week during the anti-reciprocity campaign. The public will look for an answer from Mr. Arthur Hawkes. His British-born crusade was supposed to have sprung spontaneously from his British bosom.

George Gordon, member-elect for Nipissing, will make way for Hon. Frank Cochrane. Mr. Gordon was one of the English-Canadians who catered for the French vote in his riding by promising to follow Mr. Bourassa on the navy question. There is no need for Mr. Cochrane to take the same pledge. He is already a follower of Mr. Bourassa.

If there was any object that used to stir Canada's bile it was the walling Yankee Anglophobe. It is not nearly so numerous as he used to be. Unhappily this country has developed in late years a brood of Canadian Yankee-phobes, every bit as developed in late years a brood of Canadian Yankee-phobes, every bit as offensive and ill-mannered as the Jefferson Bricks across the line.

THE SURRENDER TO BOURASSA. [Hamilton Herald.] There appears to be a tremendous anxiety on the part of the Conservative press lest the new Dominion Government should offend Mr. Bourassa on the naval question and perhaps alienate its Nationalist supporters.

The London Free Press was one of the newspapers which a year or two ago were loud in their demands for immediate and substantial contributions by Canada to imperial naval defence. No "tea-pot navy" would do for it. Now that news newspaper remarks that "when the need arises" Canada will be found ready to aid the empire! Only when "the need arises" — no preparation for the hour of need, mark you.

NOT PARTICULAR NOW. [Goderich Signal.] The London Free Press rushes to the defence of George E. Foster, and says it is a "cowardly" thing to recall his record. What kind of a sheet is the Free Press, anyway? Only three short years ago, after the 1908 elections, it warned Mr. Foster that he must clear himself of the charges made against him if he desired to continue in public life. Mr. Foster took his case into court and lost it. The Free Press came to the conclusion that any sort of record would do for a member of the Borden cabinet?

TOO MUCH. [Toronto Saturday Night.] We have had a few federal cabinets in this country since Confederation, but the present one will unquestionably march through time as having received the record number of hard knocks. If the personnel of the present body is satisfactory to anyone, he has not been heard from; and to do the Hon. Mr. Borden justice, I doubt very much if he is himself altogether tickled over the result. To the English-Canadian, and to many French-Canadians, the most discouraging feature is the thought that the Premier deems it necessary to cater to the Nationalist element of the Province of Quebec. Here we have Monk, Nantel and Pelletier, and Monk with the most important portfolio, aside from that of finance, safely tucked away in his coat tail pocket. One might have passed without serious criticism, but three is too much for even the most ardent Tory that ever cast a vote.

SIR WILFRID AS AUTHOR

(London Chronicle.) Literature may be the winner by the surprising result of the Canadian general election. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been Prime Minister for such a long time—a decade and a half—that many of us have forgotten that he was leader of the Opposition for nine years. Sir Wilfrid devoted his leisure to writing a History of Canada, and the work was well advanced when he was called to power. Some years ago Sir Wilfrid stated that he had not been able to add a line since he became Prime Minister, but the manuscript was locked up in a cupboard, and that he reserved its completion for the occasion of his death. Some enterprising publisher might possibly persuade Sir Wilfrid to finish it now.

BREATHE NOT ITS NAME. [Toronto Telegram Con.] Oct. 21st is Trafalgar Day, but don't mention it—it might offend Henri Bourassa, and fail to sound like "GOOD POLITICS" in the ears of Sir James Whitney's favorite statesman, Hon. Frank Cochrane, and the illustrious strategist who "invited Bourassa to Sudbury."

WHY ONE WIFE.

[Tientsin, Atlas, Syndicate News.] A woman missionary in China was taking tea with a Mandarin's eight wives. The Chinese ladies examined her clothing, her hair, her teeth, and so on, but her feet especially amazed them.

"Why," cried one, "you can walk and run as well as a man!"
"Yes, to be sure," said the missionary.
"Can you ride a horse and swim, too?"
"Yes."
"Then you must be as strong as a man!"
"And you wouldn't let a man beat you—not even if he was your husband—would you?"
"Indeed I wouldn't," the missionary said.

The mandarin's eight wives looked at one another, nodding their heads. Then the oldest said, softly:
"Now I understand why the foreign devil never has more than one wife. He is afraid!"

NOT FLATTERING.

[London Daily News.] "I don't think," says a correspondent, "this sort of notice, which I lately saw posted up outside a small hotel in Cambridge, can be good for the empire." This is the notice:
GOOD ACCOMMODATION FOR GENTLEMEN AND COLONIAL VISITORS.

IS THERE SUCH A GIRL ALIVE?

[Advertisement in Lutan (Eng.) News.] Wanted, for Weston's Fish Restaurant, 76 Wellington street, Lutan, even only one, a young woman, must be alive, single, about 18 to 20, clean, obliging, and willing to sell just what customers want, at full prices, and to see if workingman with a twopenny plate as well as for the young spark with a six penny supper spread. Must be keen on pleasing a "one and one" customer as the "Six of Fish and Three of Chips" for the family supper. A girl with a future, not a past. Good wages and prospects of promotion to bigger shops.

HAMLET WITHOUT HAMLET.

[Ottawa Citizen (Con.)] The Canadian House of Commons without Mr. Wilfrid Laurier would be almost like the play of Hamlet with the melancholy Dane under eclipse.

THE WORLD WENT ON.

[Ottawa Free Press.] Sifton, Oliver and Rogers all met together on one small room the other day and the world still went on. Wonders will never cease.

THE HENS.

[Kansas City Journal.] I've fed 'em lime,
I've fed 'em hay;
I have a time
To make 'em lay.
They do not seem
To mind my meat;
To custard, cream,
Or angel cake.

They fill their crops,
They eat and grow;
But there it stops—
They never lay.
When I get vexed
I'm pretty mean;
I'll feed 'em next
On Paris green.

WHERE THE MENACE LAY.

[Baltimore Press.] The interests have gained their end, and like the people of the United States, they are now in a position to bring about conditions making for tyrannical rule by trusts and combines that it is to undo their own work. Time will show that in the recent election it was not the Americans who were the greatest menace to our flag, and it will just as surely show that true loyalty consists in striving for the welfare and happiness of the masses of one's fellow countrymen, rather than venting racial spite against the people of another nation.

NOT HARD TO BELIEVE.

[Tit-Bits.] A certain lady called up her grocer by telephone the other morning, and after she had asked for the goods the man who responded, said:
"And, what's more, the next order you get from me will be the last I'll ever give you."

"It probably will, madam," said the voice at the other end of the wire, "you are the last of your kind."

GILBERTIAN.

[Chicago Evening Post.] This anecdote was famous in the '70s. As it concerns W. S. Gilbert, lately deceased, it is reprinted on a chance.

The performance of "Pinafore" in London enlisted an actor named Standing, to whom the librettist took a violent dislike. The show was a tremendous success, and the burlesque of British politics and old-time Italian opera, and a friend of Gilbert's congratulating him predicted that it would run a year or two.

To which Gilbert said:
"Notwithstanding."

The Great Northwest

PORT ARTHUR AND FORT WILLIAM ON THE WAY.
(Special Correspondence of The Advertiser.)
No. 2.

Our trip by the Astoria to the Soo caused us to leave one of the two best boats of the C. P. R. line on the Upper Lakes, but by delaying over a boat, we got the Kewatin, its sister ship, at the Soo, for Port Arthur and Fort William. These boats are all that could be desired. We landed safely at Port William, and much improvement is visible here. The C. P. R. have opened their new station, more streets are paved, more schools and churches, more business houses, and, altogether, Fort William is assuming more the appearance of a city. We took the street car for Port Arthur. Here the Canadian Northern have built a fine hotel, the Prince Arthur. It is perhaps to the credit of the whole Northwest that they have better churches and schools than they have hotels, but the hotels will come in time, because some of these, bad as they are, are turning travellers away, and making fortunes for their owners.

But a short distance, spanned by a municipal street railway, divides Port Arthur and Fort William. It will not take many years until the two grow together, and whatever jealousies now divide them will then be forgotten, as they should be. If I was to pass judgment on them as they appear to me today, I would say that Fort William had the best-looking business houses, and Port Arthur the best-looking residences.

One noticeable feature of Port Arthur is its splendid stone Collegiate Institute, half-way up the hill. I noticed the grounds in front, laid out apparently to plant trees and shrubs, and although a very large of trees and flowers and shrubs, I said "What a pity!" What a beautiful view of both cities and bay and mountains! When the trees grow you will neither see the cities, the bay or the mountains, and the Institute will not be visible to the incoming traveller from the bay. This is not a spot where you require the trees for shade, and their effect will only be to shut out the view both ways. What is needed most is the use of this very ground for athletic purposes by the students. It will do them a vast amount of good, and everyone within hearing of their voices. I know, because I have lived for many years near school grounds, and no chime of bells is sweeter to my ears than the sounds of boys' voices engaged in play.

Port Arthur has the best residences, and two of the best are occupied by former Londoners, Frank Keefe, son of the late Londoner, and his wife, and the splendid residence half way up the hill, the residence of Mrs. Wiley (nee Miss Hodge, daughter of the late Dr. Hodge). It is in the summer of the hill, on the side of the old Dawson road, a solid stone house, splendid architecture, and magnificent surroundings. I have rarely seen a residence that pleased me better. It is not finished, but in course of construction. Another former Londoner's sign stands in the face, "Marquay Park Hotel." I expect to see it in the future. Everyone remembers his genial father in London, when J. J. was only a boy. He is not a large wagon dealer in Port Arthur and Port Arthur, and has been elected to both Houses of Parliament. His survey is all paved, and will come down a large wagon road. It is covered with splendid houses when next I visit Port Arthur, and I don't intend to be away long next time. You can't go to the Northwest once in five or six years and keep track of it. Two years is the outside, and every year would be better.

Here, as at the Soo, I find everyone has faith in the future. The fact that the Twin Cities are situated at the head of the largest lake in the world, with power only a short distance away, and large factories built and building, seem to justify their faith. A large wagon dealer in Port Arthur, and ironworks are in operation at Port Arthur. The fact that the country is in course of construction at Port Arthur, and ironworks are in operation at Port Arthur, is the most numerous attended of any such gathering ever held east of Toronto.

Points from all over the province are represented. Eastern Ontario particularly. The annual financial report presented by the field secretary, Mr. B. J. Glasford, of Guelph, gave total receipts at $10,047, and total disbursements at $4,000. There remains a balance on hand of $4,000.

The report of the general secretary was given by Rev. W. E. Halpin, showing an issue of literature throughout the year of 109,105 copies. There was an increase in the number of superintendents of departments of work in the counties from 101 to 238, and in the townships from 171 to 358. In the province there are now 385 teachers who hold teachers' training certificates. The association embraces 5,922 schools, 50,407 officers and teachers. CAPT. T. J. MURPHY

THE NEW PRESIDENT

Will Be Chosen By the Canadian Club On Thursday Night.

Capt. T. J. Murphy will be elected president of the Canadian Club at the annual meeting to be held Thursday evening in the board of trade rooms. He is at the present time first vice-president, and his selection for the higher honor is taken for granted. Capt. Murphy has been elected to the position since its inception. Few meetings have been held without his presence, and in various ways he has done much to keep the club alive.

Mr. Jared Vining, now second vice-president, will be elected to succeed Capt. Murphy. He also has taken an active part in club affairs.

It is not known who will be named for second vice-president. There are many eligible for the post, and undoubtedly a good selection will be made.

Mr. S. Frank Glass, president of the club, will occupy the chair.

ROWLEY-RITCHIE

Daughter of Late Chief Justice Weds Ottawa Gentleman.

[Canadian Press.]

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—An interesting marriage was celebrated very quietly this morning at a quarter to eight o'clock in All Saints' Church, when Miss Elsie, youngest daughter of the late Chief Justice Sir William Ritchie, was married to Mr. William H. Rowley, president of the E. B. Eddy Company, of Hull, and one of the foremost members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. Rev. A. W. Mackay, rector of All Saints' Church, assisted by Rev. G. Philip Woolcombe, performed the ceremony.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. C. A. Ritchie. Owing to the recent death of the bride's mother, the wedding was a very quiet one. Mr. and Mrs. Rowley left immediately after the ceremony by the 8:30 train in a private car for Montreal, New York and the south, and after their return they will reside at Worfield House, Mr. Rowley's handsome residence on Bay street.

Among the large number of magnificent presents received by the bride were a beautiful diamond and sapphire bracelet and a gold watch bracelet, two fur coats, from the groom; a diamond pendant from Earl and Countess Grey; and a crown derby dinner service from the members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

Among those present at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ritchie, of Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Owsley Rowley, of Peterborough; Mr. William Hodgins and Miss Betty Hodgins, of London, Ont.

Yarns about the World's Series Players
By Billy Evans
NATIONAL League umpires believe that the Giants' success in winning the pennant this season has been largely due to the players because of too strenuous objections to decisions.
The arbitrators are of the belief that McGraw gave instructions that he would do the kicking and take the punishment. While McGraw's absence for three days or a week is a handicap, it does not demoralize the club as much as the loss of players like Doyle, Devore, Meyers and others.
About all suspension for a manager means is inability to get out on the coaching lines. It is possible for them to direct the team from the grand stand near the players' bench, without infringing on orders.
McGraw overlooks a bit. One of the arbitrators tells of a kick that McGraw made during an important game, that resulted in his getting a three-day suspension, but made possible the winning of the game. That was his sole intent for he knew the suspension would come.
During the game in question McGraw's crack southpaw "Rube" Marquard was going great guns. For seven innings he had let the opposition down with-

WORLD'S SERIES BATTLES VIEWED FROM EVERY ANGLE BY EXPERTS BIG MONEY FOR CONTESTANTS

Each of Winning Players Will Get $3,654.68, Each of Losers $2,436.39—Defeat a Heavy Blow to Mathewson—Some Claim Mack Learned Opponents' Signals.

IN SEVEN INNINGS the world's champions—presented the star of the Gotham for ten safeties, six of them doubles. Although the immediate cause for Mr. Mathewson's removal from office was the necessity for inserting a pinch hitter, Matty's escape from being knocked out of the box was purely technical. McGraw's early in the game, but let him stick until he came an opening when Beals Becker theoretically looked better at the plate.

THE STAKES OF the series are the richest ever offered for two baseball teams. The players' participation in the receipts ended yesterday's game. They will get $127,910.81, of which 60 per cent or $76,746.38 will go to the winners and 40 per cent or $51,164.24 to the losers. Twenty-one players on each team are eligible to participate in the money, so that the players on the winning team will each receive $3,654.68 and the members of the losing team $2,436.39 each. The Athletics in winning the world's championship last year received $2,064.74 each, and Chicago, the losers $1,575.16.

IT MUST HAVE BEEN a cruel blow to Matty, being the star pitcher against the same American League club, to view the flying heels of his outfielders as they pursued extra base hits. It wasn't batting, either, but slugging so sincere and vigorous that one would have been justified in forming the opinion that the Athletics were actuated by ulterior motives and malice aforethought.

FOR A THIRD of the game, too, it looked as though the two tallies would be one more than McGraw's bunch needed, but that was before the Mack uprising of the fourth. This was a characteristic Athletic inning, in which it seemed for a time as though nothing but the first department could put 'em out.

THE FIRST THREE MEN to face Mathewson in the action chapter weeded out doubles. Then came an out and a sacrifice fly, the net proceeds of all those being three runs. Each of the doubles was worth all the runner made of it, too, being a whack of the sam Crawford school of slugging and travelling until stopped by some portion of the architecture.

DAVIS OUGHT TO HAVE had at least one more hit, while the Indians probably would have beaten out a couple of his tape had he been able to proceed faster than a flock of canal boats going upstream. However, four runs will beat two just as thoroughly as will forty, and Mathewson was spared a lot of useless humiliation.

BENDER WAS BATTED much harder than in the first game he pitched, seven hits, including a triple, and a couple of doubles, going on the Giants' credit. After that first inning, however, the Indian couldn't have done better work. He kept the plate inviolate had he been assisted by a regiment of soldiers stationed on the line between third and home.

IN SIX OF THE PERIODS after the first there was at least one New Yorker on the paths, yet only one of them reached third base, and he after two were out. The Giants' baserunning, on which they were supposed to be going to vault themselves into a world's championship, was so bad that it was funny to everybody except those who had their money on McGraw's crowd.

ONCE CHEIF MEYERS, with a fine chance to make some trouble at second, got himself thrown out on twenty feet trying to go from second to third on a near passed ball. Again Larry Doyle, most devilish of the speed demons, dashed madly from first to second on a high foot that Frank Baker captured within ten feet of his sack.

THE NEW YORK CAPTAIN evidently became blind and deaf at the same time, and started with the pitch that Murray fouled. Instead of heeding the coaches' frantic shouts, he kept right on, and he kept right on when Baker caught the ball. Of course, the double was a cinch in this play the astute Mr. Collins and the alert Mr. Barry pulled off a trick that was as pretty a bit of quick thinking as anything that has been shown on the diamond this year.

HERZOG PLAYED a magnificent game, while Merkle and Fletcher finished baseball. That fiendish Eddie Collins wrought havoc with everything that came towards him, one of his stops being second base work. Baker, despite one error on a tough chance, was a mighty valuable man to his club, and old Harry Davis, whose years in baseball would entitle him to a place among the "experts" in the press stand, was as kittenish as in the days before the war when he was a youngster just breaking out.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON SAYS: "It was a case of too much Baker and Collins. I don't want to detract from their glory if I could. They are two great ball players. Many persons who saw the game probably thought that I wanted to pass Baker purposely in the seventh inning. That was not the case. I endeavored to get him to hit at a bad ball, and laid two over low for him, and the others off the corner of the plate. He would not bite and got to first base."

TYRUS COBB WRITES: "To Bender belongs the lion's share of the glory in winning today's game. The merry way that he stuck to his task and shut the Giants out without a run after the first inning when it looked so dark for him and the Athletics, was beautiful to look upon. It was in the initial period that the New Yorkers showed their only real class of the entire 1911 series, and it is a great significantly did he arise to the occasions that the Athletics had difficulty in winning, and for a long time it seemed as if they never could win, and that the luck which has pursued the Giants through the entire series would carry them again to victory."

NEW YORK HIT rather luckily. Three of the seven hits accredited to them were due to more luck than to anything else and the only real hitting they did was when Doyle, who is a real ball player, chopped into a first ball and drove it far and away to right centre, and almost won the game.

MCGRAW HAD MANIFESTLY changed his line of attack, and was sending his men in to smash away at the first pitched ball. The Giants are particularly strong at the waiting game, but the Gotham leader had discovered, apparently, that his men were being kept in the hole by this method, and switched tactics. They succeeded in the opening attack.

HOW IT CAME ABOUT that the young Mackmen were able to leap out of certain defeat and overcome their great rival is explained in a word—hitting. It was removed that the tricky Mack fathomed the Giant signs in that single inning. Possibly. But they don't cut the money that way. The Giants hung on, and made a good, game fight. They deserve a great deal of credit. They have made this so far the greatest world's series ever contested, and if they should accomplish the apparently impossible now, and still take the series, then indeed must they be accounted a wonderful team.

SOME CURIOSITIES OF DOMINION'S FINANCE

Odd Items Not Usually Found in Government Blue Book.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—The statement of casual revenue received by the Federal Government during the past fiscal year contains some curiosities, which would not be looked for in a Government blue book. Conscience money does not figure as largely as might be expected. The customs department got most of it, $300,55, but some persons who had done a wrong to the finance department was troubled to the extent of $5, whilst the marriage and fisheries department was enriched to an amount of $5,25 by conscience money. The public works got $12 from the same cause, and the railway departments $1,25.

The sales of products of the experimental farms brought in $15,727.70. While the tobacco grown at the Government experimental stations will be sold for $2,024.28.

The financial department secured $8.76 from the "Sale of Sweepstakes," whatever that may be, and while it made money on the coinage of both copper and silver, it lost $35.36 by the coinage of gold.

A rag at the Almonte postoffice was sold for $5. Scrap iron in the Toronto public buildings produced $35.17, while a barber chair in the House of Commons was transferred upon payment of $25, which is a good price for a second-hand and well-used article.

Somebody broke a window in the Winnipeg postoffice and had to pay $2 for doing so.

The interior department sold a buggy for $15, a tent and flooring for $7, a railway ticket for $12, straw for $12, and received $19 from a man who killed a dog, named Topsy.

The Indian department received $1.50 for the tuition of white children, but it is not stated how long a period this fee covered.

During the game in question McGraw's crack southpaw "Rube" Marquard was going great guns. For seven innings he had let the opposition down without a run and only two hits. He looked so good that it seemed foolish to warm up Matty, as he was carded to pitch the following day. In the eighth Marquard weakened, and it looked as if the five-run lead held by the Giants would be wiped out.

McGraw ordered Mathewson to warm up. The apparent move was how to stall off the overwhelming of Marquard, until Mathewson could get sufficiently warmed up to stop the slaughter.

On the first close decision McGraw protested strenuously. Realizing that every game means a great deal, the arbitrator listened. He then ordered play to resume, but McGraw continued to protest. He was finally put out of the game. He protested against such action, but went, taking his time, and turning around several times to voice his opinion of the ruling.

Finally as he made his exit, Matty, who had been working like a beaver back of the stand, stepped to the box, ready to do his best. He made the first man pop up and the next strike out, retiring the side. The following inning he also blanked the home team.

To the average spectator McGraw's kick looked like a baby trick. McGraw knew it was, and knew he would be punished, but what cared he. His object was to consume enough time to give Matty a chance to warm up, and be in shape to take up the burden. He succeeded and felt his success was well worth three days of punishment.

GAMER youngster than Jack McInnes, who played a great game at first for the Athletics, never broke into baseball. "Stuffy," as his mates call him, recently celebrated his 21st birthday, yet he is one of the cleverest in the American League. He is the most dangerous and dependable when a hit, stop or throw will save the day.

"Stuffy" hugs the plate, and no matter how terrific the pitcher's speed, he doesn't blink. He is a real ball player, but he has no fear in his makeup.

McInnes is full of dry humor. In a recent series he pulled a funny one on Pitcher Knapp, of Cleveland, who has a choice spit ball which he makes more effective by the use of something he chews while working.

With McInnes at bat and two down, Knapp tried to trick him by runner off third and in the excitement swallowed his "cud." This caused nausea. The count on McInnes was two strikes and no balls when Knapp began showing signs of the agony caused by swallowing his saliva.

"What's the matter, Knapp?" asked McInnes.

"I have a cramp," responded the little pitcher, trying to smile.

"What license have you to have a cramp? I ought to have one with two strikes and no balls, two out and a man needed to win the game," said the batter. And then he proceeded to hit the next one on the nose.

The divorced father rebelled at the idea of his daughter marrying Armstrong. He found that the only way that he could prevent it was by remarrying his wife. She consented and they were reunited. A STORM SEWER SYSTEM NEEDED

No Extensive Pavements Can Be Laid Until City Looks After Storm Water.

ENGINEERS ARE AGREED

A Bylaw May Be Submitted to the People in January Next to Deal With the Matter.

A storm sewer system for the entire city is absolutely necessary before any extensive area of pavements can be laid. That statement was made to the London Advertiser by the local engineers today, and later confirmed by City Engineer Wright.

The local improvement committee of the city council is at the present time working out a scheme for paving the city. The idea is to pass a bylaw authorizing a certain class of pavement for the downtown district, and for other kind for residential sections, and so on. Mr. Wright is now preparing a report on this subject to be submitted this week.

Before such work can be done, it is necessary to have a storm water sewer system covering the whole city.

What is Required. "Every time a street is permanently paved, manholes and catch basins must be provided to carry away the surface water," the engineer quoted stated. "The result has been that a sewer system, intended only for sanitary purposes, has today to carry away immense volumes of surface water in addition. This cannot go on much longer. Cells are flooded all over the city, and a menace to the public health is caused. There is every possibility that within the next few years a large amount of paving will be done. The citizens will ask for permanent roads, under the new act, and they will have to be drained. It is impossible to put any more water in the sewers now laid. The only way to prevent further difficulty is to have a storm water sewer."

City Engineer Agrees. City Engineer Wright agreed with the above.

"I think it is absolutely necessary that the question of the pavement question is finally settled," he declared. "It will be impossible to do any permanent paving on any kind of a basis unless some disposition is made of the surface water. That should be got rid of at once."

Mr. Morgan gave notice of motion at the last meeting of the council that he would bring the question of submitting a bylaw for a storm water sewer to the ratepayers in January at the next meeting.

The board of works are unanimously in favor of it, and a large number of the other members of the council are also in sympathy with the idea.

In all probability it will be voted on at the next municipal elections.

CHINAMEN FINED

RAN OPIUM JOINT

Police Made Early Morning Raid and Proved Their Case.

Three Chinamen, Charles Sing, John Sam and Charles Lee, were each fined $5 in the police court this morning on a charge of smoking opium. On Sunday evening, Sgt. Birrell, Sgt. Lucas and P. C. Cox raided a laundry at 324 1/2 King street, and discovered a number of Chinamen smoking opium. The whole outfit was lodged in the police cells, but Monday morning some of the Celestials were allowed to go home, as it was proven they were not using the drug. The others were bailed to appear this morning. Sgt. Birrell testified to seeing the men smoking the opium, and stated that when the officers went into the place some of the Chinamen threw the pipes out of the windows. There were produced in court this morning, together with numerous vials filled with opium, prepared for smoking purposes. The Chinamen, represented by Mr. R. K. Cowan, The apparatus for smoking the drug was confiscated and will be destroyed by the police.

Nasal Discharge Proves Catarrh is Active

THE PURE BALSAMIC ESSENCE OF CATARRHOZONE AFFORDS RAPID AND QUICKEST CURE.

Catarrh is certain to cure because its healing vapor is carried with the breath direct to the seat of the chest, nose or throat trouble. Being composed of the purest balsams and pine essences, it immediately allays irritation, facilitates the ejection of mucus, soothes and stimulates the lungs and bronchial tubes. The marked effect of the age in cutting winter illness—that's what thousands say about Catarrh. There is nothing so sure to cure and to those in fear of changeable weather, those who easily catch cold—those who work among lung-chilling surroundings, or where dust, impure air, fog, or damp, can affect them—let them get Catarrh and use it several times daily—it will cure every time.

BAD CASE CURED IN TWO DAYS.

"I was unable to get enough to catch a bad cold from sitting in a draught in my bare head," writes Miss Nora E. Jamieson, well known in Sangre Grande, Yd. "An acute catarrh of the catarrh developed in my nostrils, and for three days my eyes and nose ran most copiously. The usual remedies failed to relieve. I then read in The Mirror newspaper about Catarrh, and sent to Smith Bros' drug store for a dollar outfit. In two days Catarrh cleared out my nostrils, cured the sneezing, coughing, and all traces of catarrh."

Large size Catarrh, sufficient for two months' use, guaranteed, price $1.00; smaller sizes 50c and 25c. Beware of imitations, and substitutes, and insist on getting "Catarrh" only. By mail from the Catarrh Co., 1000 Commercial, Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Ont.

THE BRITISH ISLES FACING ANOTHER GIGANTIC STRIKE

[Canadian Press.]

London, Oct. 25.—It is believed now that nothing can avert another great railway strike, a prolonged fight to a finish between the companies and the men, which would inflict incalculable damage on the industries of the nation.

AUTO MEN CHARGED WITH SPEEDING CARS

Appeared in County Court Today and Will Come Up Later.

Three prominent Londoners were summoned to appear before Squires Chittick and Robson at the court house this morning to answer charges of speeding on the ground that the car was driven at a speed of 15 miles an hour. One of them, a physician, stated that he did not believe his machine was on that road at the time the constables claimed, and will bring witnesses to prove this.

Another young man told the court that he hired a chauffeur from a local garage to drive his mother and father out in the country on that day, and while he did not think that his parents believed in cross-country racing, he was willing to accept the word of the constables on the ground that garage men rarely drive a machine under fifteen miles an hour. He had not asked the driver about the speed, so the court gave him time to inquire into the case before next Wednesday morning.

The third did not appear, apparently having overlooked the matter, but as he is a responsible businessman the court decided not to issue a warrant for his arrest. He will answer the charge on Wednesday.

The constables took the time of an Indianapolis tourist, but it was estimated that he would be in Detroit before the police could reach a telephone if he continued at the pace he set in passing them. He was decided to let the matter drop rather than resort to extradition.

"POLE FINDER" COOK MENACED BY MOB

Hailed as Swindler, He Makes Hurried Exit From Danish Lecture Hall.

Copenhagen, Oct. 24.—When Dr. Cook, the fake Pole finder, reached the hall where he was to lecture tonight, he found a tremendous crowd outside. He was greeted with hisses and jeers and shouts of "swindler." About 1,500 people inside the hall, and it didn't take the doctor long to learn that he was not wanted. In a very short while he was compelled to go out of a rear door, escorted by the police.

There was some hand-clapping when Cook came on the platform before he began his lecture. His former friend, arose and said that Cook was the most insipid swindler that ever happened. Cook tried in vain to convince those present that he thought that he had gone to the Pole, but there was such an uproar that he had to give up without getting any further north.

MANTELL'S WIFE AT DEATH'S DOOR

No Hope for the Recovery of Marie Russell.

[Canadian Press.] Atlantic Highlands, N. J., Oct. 25.—Hopes for the recovery of Marie Booth Russell, wife of Robert B. Mantell, the famous geologist, have been practically given up. Her condition became so grave a few days ago that Mr. Mantell was summoned from Canada, where he was playing, and he has been at his wife's bedside since. The Mantells have made their home here for many years.

NOT LORDS OF ROAD

Justice Middleton Hands Out Some Advice to Motorists.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—"While it is quite true that a motor is not an outlaw, it must also be borne in mind that the driver is not the lord of the highway, but a man in charge of a dangerous thing, and so called upon to exercise the greatest care in its operation." This was the advice handed out to motorists by Mr. Justice Middleton in writing the judgment of the divisional court in the case of Fisher vs. Murphy. Mr. Justice Fisher was driving a buggy along the Queenston road, in Lincoln County, when she was overtaken by an automobile belonging to Frank Murphy and driven by one of his chauffeurs. The motor bumped into the carriage and not only damaged it, but occasioned Mrs. Fisher severe injuries. Mrs. Fisher's action was dismissed in the county court, but the divisional court allows her $200. Mr. Justice Middleton explains that the onus was upon the defendant to prove that he was within the requirements of the statute, and this onus the court holds he failed to satisfy. He was supposed to travel no faster than seven miles an hour while within 100 yards of the buggy, and to signal until he was heard.

DEATH OF MRS. PATTERSON

Widow of the Late Canon Patterson, of London.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 24.—Mrs. J. W. Patterson, widow of the late Canon Patterson, once prominent in the London Diocese, died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Patterson, in Walkerville. Mrs. Patterson had made her home for the past fourteen years with her son-in-law, Rev. W. H. Patterson, rector of St. Mary's Church, Walkerville. She formally resided in Stratford, where her husband was rector of St. James' Church, and later canon of St. Paul's Cathedral, of London. Mrs. Patterson was 78 years old, and had been an invalid for over a year. The body will be taken to Stratford, where interment will take place on Thursday.

THIS WIFE IS ALLEGED TO HAVE LEFT HUSBAND

Leonard Fitch and His Better Half Had a Dispute and Now There Is Real Trouble.

Leonard Fitch, of Dillabough street, East London, is anxiously looking for his wife, who, it is alleged, left him last week, and whom he has not seen since. Besides her husband she leaves three children, one 3 years old, another 5, and the third a babe a few months old. The couple had been living quite happily together, but the other day there was a dispute about some household matters, and Mrs. Fitch left home. Although her husband has searched the city he has been unable to find a trace of her.

LABOR UNREST IS FELT IN ENGLAND

Seems To Be Little Chance of Averting Railway Strike.

London, Oct. 25.—Labor unrest throughout Great Britain continues. In many well-informed quarters it is believed that more serious disturbances are ahead. There seems to be little chance of averting the threatened national strike of miners which will throw not less than 250,000 men immediately out of employment, and is quite likely to involve the railway employees.

That the Government is taking unusual steps to be prepared for this, or for any external crisis that may arise, is made evident by a royal warrant that has just been included in the new army orders. Heretofore reserve officers could only be called out in a national emergency—i.e., in case of war. Now they may be called out in the event of a strike. Henceforward they can be called out "when a national emergency appears to be imminent."

While Mr. Churchill in a speech to his constituency in Dundee makes it perfectly clear that the Government intends, if necessary, to use the entire strength of the army to put down any strike upon the railroads or at the ports that will interfere with the national food supply.

"We have been and are still passing," said Mr. Churchill, "through a period of labor disputes marked by new and very grave features. Very few people realize how absolutely dependent we are on the railways. It is no exaggeration to say that the complete stoppage of the railways and at the ports would produce in a short time a time measured by hours rather than weeks—throughout the vast industrial areas of Great Britain, and especially in England, total unemployment followed by absolute starvation. There would be no raw material for the mills, no coal for the furnaces, no food at the grocers' shops, no bread at the bakers', no meat at the butchers', no wages to buy any of those commodities, even if there were any to sell, no means of borrowing, no escape from the famine area. You would have all the horrors of war, which would descend upon the working people in the towns, while it would not be a case of all dying together. What they would do, the aristocracy, the landowners, and the rural population generally would scarcely suffer at all."

"If once things went too far, it might not be possible to recover in time, even if all classes worked together. The trains might run again, the ships might pour their cargoes on to the quays, food might flow into some great starved-out district, daily bread would be there again—only a week too late. That week would produce consequences which I think would satisfy even Mr. Keir Hardie himself."

"I say this hoping it may reach the eyes of the socialist party. It is upon the working population in the great manufacturing towns and districts of Great Britain that a strike would fall with absolute certainty and with incredible swiftness. The Government is bound to take the most effective measures in their power."

NO AGITATION TO HAVE SUNDAY LIBRARY

Trustees Are Not in Sympathy With the Proposal.

There is no agitation, so far as the library board are aware, to keep the library here open on Sunday. The members here are of the opinion that they have heard nothing of it. As a matter of fact, they do not sympathize with the suggestion. "I have heard nothing about it whatever so far as London is concerned," said Librarian Carson. "Wherever it has been tried it has not been a success. The people, who, it was thought, would be attracted to the library, failed to come, and an undesirable class did. In the majority of instances the scheme was abandoned."

"I have heard nothing of such an agitation, nor would I favor it," said Mr. W. H. Winnett, president of the board.

DESTITUTE PRIESTS.

Boston, Oct. 25.—The patriarch of Lisbon has sent to the Vatican a list of 2,150 priests who are accepting a pension from the Government, and the names of 5,500 who have refused this aid. Of the latter, 2,400 are destitute. The Vatican has decided to give the penniless a small monthly allowance, pending the possible conclusion of a better arrangement with the state. Those who accepted the pension contrary to the commands of their bishops will be excommunicated and their names entered on the registers of the Catholic clergy.

TURK ATTACK A GALLANT ONE

Threw Themselves Fearlessly On Italians at Tripoli.

SCARED BY AIRSHIPS

Aeroplane Give Excellent Aid to the Invaders as Scouts.

Tripoli, Oct. 24.—The combined attack of Arabian horsemen and Turkish cavalry against the Italian lines on Sunday morning was both picturesque and fierce. The main attacking force was assisted by Turkish infantry and small guerilla bands of Arabs, who directed a galling fire from the shelter of trees.

The Italians withstood the shock and then repulsed the enemy, eventually surrounding and capturing several hundred. The enemy lost several hundred dead and many wounded. The Italian loss was not serious.

Scared by Airships. Messages from the interior say that the reports of "flying Italians with destructive machines" are everywhere.

Some of the native tribes have decided to migrate to points further into the interior, while others are burying their valuables in the ground. Bolder tribesmen are being lured to attract the aeroplanes into positions where they can be fired upon.

In military circles it is thought that the aeroplanes are helping to influence the natives to surrender.

Aerial Scouts Aid. Tripoli, Oct. 24.—Captains Piazza and Misso, who left Monday morning in an aeroplane on a scouting expedition, perceived about one hundred Turkish cavalry in the desert, about four kilometres from the Italian front.

The enemy's cavalry appeared at eight o'clock on a sandhill. The Third Battalion of the Fortieth Regiment opened fire at a range of 500 metres, supported on the right by field artillery and on the left by a battery of naval gunners.

From the trenches several wounded could be seen on the right. The Turkish cavalry made a turning movement toward Boumelina. Firing continued, and at this moment a battery of field artillery joined in the action, driving the Turks toward Sciaralacat.

The retreating Turks were pursued for some distance. The Italians had several losses, but remained masters of the situation. The Turkish flank, and behind Tripoli the Italian outposts face the desert, and it is easy to sweep the sandhills with a double fire of rifles and field guns.

Access can be obtained to the quarter from Tasioura under cover. The attack yesterday morning between Boumelina and Gargareth had for its object to attract attention from this flank, where about eight o'clock the enemy's cavalry in force unexpectedly attacked the bersaglieri.

Groups of Arabs hidden in houses between Tripoli and the bersaglieri, and the town opened fire on the Italians, who defended themselves admirably.

TO SEND PRINCE TO SIAM CORONATION

England Designates Alexander of Teck as Official Representative.

London, Oct. 24.—Prince Alexander of Teck will be one of the royal family wintering in foreign lands this year. He has been appointed by the King to undertake the mission of representing his majesty at the coronation of the King of Siam in December. This is the first time the prince has been selected to fulfill such an important court function, but he has considerable tact and much personal charm.

The prince was educated at Eton, and was a popular member of the royal household even in his schoolboy days. Of late years he has lived so much at Windsor Castle, and entered so heartily and generally into all the interests and social life of the town that his absence will be felt. He and the new King of Siam were well acquainted in their schoolboy days. The late King Chulalongkorn sent his sons and nephews to England to be educated, and the then crown prince was at Eton for several years, so that it is easy to foresee that the present King of Siam will give a very warm welcome to King George's special envoy, all the heartier because he happens to be an old acquaintance.

Miss Mary McDonald, who kept house for Mr. O. Hanley and son, left for Detroit a few days ago to take up a lucrative position in that city. Mr. Patrick Ferguson arrived home from sailing on the lakes during the summer. He will spend the winter with his mother on the estate of the late Patrick Ferguson.

GREY'S TRIBUTE TO SIR WILFRID

In London Speech Refers to Laurier's Great Service.

NOT AN ANNEXATIONIST

Declares That There Is No Separation Sentiment in the Dominion.

London, Oct. 24.—The Royal Colonial Institute tonight entertained Earl Grey to a banquet on the expiry of his term of office as governor-general of Canada. The colonial secretary, the Right Hon. Lewis Harcourt, M.P., presided, and he was supported at the principal table by Earl Minto, Sir J. Deven Edwards, the Duke of Marlborough, Earl Carrington, the Right Hon. Alfred Lyttelton, M. P., Earl Dundonald, and Earl Brassey. The general body of the guests included practically all the leading men in British and Canadian circles. The crush was so great that many guests were forced to dine in the ante-room. Nearly three hundred sat down to dinner.

Laurier's Great Work.

After the usual loyal toasts, the chairman, proposing the health of the guest of the evening, said Earl Grey's departure from Canada coincided with Sir Wilfrid Laurier's resignation. Mr. Harcourt said he was quite sure there was no assembly of British people who would not wish this moment to pay a tribute to that distinguished prime minister, and to express their grateful sense of the great service he had rendered so many years to the progress and prosperity of the Dominion, to which he devoted his great intellect and energy.

No divergences upon the latest policy of Canada could detract from the warmth of gratitude felt for the great achievements of his past career. (Cheers.) In his reply Earl Grey said the regulations of Canada to the empire were contained in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's words, "that the twentieth century belonged to Canada," and in the greeting hung across an Ottawa street on the arrival of the Duke of Connaught, "Empire our country. Canada our home."

The Annexation Bogy. Continuing, Earl Grey said: In justice to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, my affection, and admiration for his distinguished statesman requires me to say that he and his Government were accused by no annexation sentiment in the policy they adopted. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was fully persuaded that his policy if adopted would strengthen both Canada and the empire.

I can say, however, with the greatest confidence that with the exception of an occasional crank here or there it is impossible to find an annexationist throughout the whole of Canada. (Cheers.) I say with equal confidence that notwithstanding some desire to the contrary there is no expectation in Canada that the recent Canadian elections would result in any change in the United Kingdom. It cannot be too clearly understood that Canadians are as averse to the idea of interfering in your local affairs as they are to any interference on your part in theirs. The method by which the Government of the Dominion may collect revenue requiring them to fulfill not only national but imperial obligations, is regarded by Canadians as a local matter within the sole jurisdiction of the Dominion concerned. They do not wish to interfere with the desire of the people of the United Kingdom to raise revenue in such a way as may seem best to them.

"Heavy work, severe straining and evil habits in youth brought on Varicose Veins. When I worked hard the aching would become severe and I was laid up for a week at a time. My family physician told me an operation was my only hope—but I dreaded it. I tried several specialists, but soon found out all my money was gone. I commenced to look up all doctors as little better than rogues. One day my boss asked me why I was off work so much and they were square and satisfied. I wrote them and got 'The New Kennedy' and followed the directions. My progress was somewhat slow and during the first month's treatment I was somewhat discouraged. However, the second month's treatment for three months longer and was rewarded with a complete cure. I could only earn $15 a week in a machine shop before, now I am earning $30 and never look a day's work. I wish all sufferers knew of your valuable treatment."

DARING MARINERS THOUGHT TO BE LOST

No Word for Months From Pair Who Started Across With Yawl.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Oct. 25.—It is feared that the yawl Pandora, in which two South Australian sea captains left New York last July 29, for London, on the third leg of an adventurous trip around the world, has been lost. The customs house received an anxious inquiry today from J. Forbes Blythe, of Coventry, England, who is a brother of George B. Blythe, one of the two captains of the yawl. Customs house officials were forced to reply, "Unreported."

Captain Blythe, and his mate, Peter Arapakia, who had grown tired of shipping aboard lumbering freighters, decided to seek real adventure in a 36-foot yawl, which they built in Perth, South Australia, under their own supervision, staunch enough for a globe-girdling cruise. They sailed from Perth two and a half years ago and weathered many severe storms in crossing the Pacific and rounding the Horn. The Pandora reached New York early in July considerably battered, but still seaworthy. The trip across the Atlantic in midsummer was looked upon as the easiest leg of the long cruise, but three months have passed, and the vessel has not even been reported so far as known.

ORANGE ORDER AND ELECTIONS

Will Not Start Active Campaign Against Schools.

SOME NOT SATISFIED

Want Legislation Right Away on the Schools and No Temere Decree.

Toronto, Oct. 24.—The Star today says: As the time comes when the Ontario election campaign must take some shape it is more and more evident that the Orange Order is not going to take a very large part in it. Strongly committed in favor of the abolition of bilingual schools, the order was at first expected to take an active part in this campaign. It was then pointed out, however, that it was embarrassed by the fact that its chief officers were Government officials. Since then the matter has been pretty thoroughly discussed, and for other reasons it has been decided that the order will not actively campaign. The case against bilingual schools, as Orangemen see it, will be put before candidates of all political stripes, but no attempt will be made to hold the gun to anybody's head.

Rely on Merchant Report.
According to the Orange point of view the Government action on the representatives. It has appointed Dr. Merchant to make a thorough report on bilingual schools and to recommend any legislation he may think is needed in regard to them. The Orangemen accept this as an answer to their requests. Even the length of time that it has taken to prepare this report has not worried them. They say that if the commissioner was to get at the real conditions he had to move slowly and could not make an advance trip through the country.

There are people connected with the order, however, who are not satisfied to wait. They want legislation right away, both in regard to bilingual schools and in regard to the temperance cause. In the latter, official Orangemen are waiting until the decree has been tested by the courts.

These advanced Protestants have formed themselves into an association and there is some talk of their putting candidates into the field. H. C. Hockley is spoken of as one of the candidates. It is said that he will make an effort in the West Toronto Conservative contention to get the straight Conservative nomination but that he is unsuccessful there he may run in some outside constituency.

The chances of a straight Orange candidate, even in Toronto, are not very bright. East Toronto is spoken of as an Orange stronghold, but between five and six thousand Orangemen in Toronto, and of these about sixteen hundred are in East Toronto. The Orange vote in the Dominion is about 2,300. Supposing that his vote represented the total Orange vote, the possibility of an Orange candidate could get all the other vote, and say, a thousand of the sixteen hundred Orangemen in Toronto, and still have a substantial majority. And that is allowing a very generous number of Orange votes to be counted.

Out Whiteside.
Aside from the Orangemen the Conservatives of East Toronto may have some excitement in their convention and election. It is said that T. R. Whiteside may be out of the running for the second nomination and that the candidates for the honor will include Mark Irish, president of the Second Ward Association, ex-Ald. Sanderson, and Joseph Thompson, former publicity agent of the city.

Joseph Russell may also run as an independent against Dr. Pyne. His chances would be very small, indeed, but he is a man of some energy and is practically impregnable.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE FOREST CITY

Paper Read by Capt. T. J. Murphy Before Historical Society.

"The Catholic Church in London" was the subject of a comprehensive and interesting paper read by Capt. T. J. Murphy before the Historical Society last night. A part of the paper dealt with the early missionary activities of the Roman Catholic Church in Canada.

Donna O'Brien was one of the first, if not the first Catholic who arrived in London. He came in 1820, although the first Catholic priest, Father John, came in 1825. In the same year Leo XII. created Upper Canada into a bishopric with Bishop Macdonnell at its head, and the first Catholic bishop in the Dominion was created. In 1827 Col. Talbot invited Bishop Macdonnell to visit him at Port Talbot. Father James W. Campbell was directed by the bishop to visit the Catholics of London and St. Thomas twice a year. The first mass in London was celebrated in Donna O'Brien's house.

A way between Ridout and Talbot streets on the south side of Dundas, where the Parliament building now stands, Bishop Macdonnell was a member of the Legislative Council of Upper Canada appointed by Sir John Colborne, Oct. 13, 1827. He was the first Catholic member of the council.

Capt. Murphy will read a second paper on the Catholic church in this city at the November meeting of the Historical Society. At last night's meeting the following officers were elected: President—Capt. T. J. Murphy. Vice-president—T. H. Purdom, K.C. Secretary—Rev. G. M. Cox. Assistant secretary—Miss Coyne.

APPEAL IS ALLOWED DAMAGES REDUCED

Wilson vs. Deacon Is Likely to Be Fought Again.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—At Osgoode Hall, in the case of Wilson vs. Deacon, I. F. Gibbons (London), for plaintiff. An appeal by defendant from judgment of Riddell, J., of May 27, 1911. An action for recovery of damages to the plaintiff by the defendant, as commission on the sale of patent rights for a carpet sweeper invented by defendant, under an agreement made between the parties, whereby plaintiff was given the exclusive privilege of selling the patent rights for said sweeper in Canada, Great Britain and the United States.

At the trial judgment was given to plaintiff for $1,100 and full costs of suit. Appeal allowed and judgment varied to the extent of reducing the amount of the damages to $825. The defendant will pay the costs of appeal. This order to be without prejudice to any other proceeding any of the parties may be advised to institute against the other in respect of the matters in question.

A BIG DEMAND FOR BUILDING PERMITS

Total for October Will Be Very Heavy.

Building permits are still in demand, and the total for the month of October will be almost three times that of the same month in 1910. Last year there were permits amounting to $30,400 taken out, while about $65,000 worth have been issued so far this October.

Among those granted today were: C. B. Moran, story and a half brick house on Millland street, to cost $1,600, and to R. Carruthers, for a two-story brick veneer residence on Grosvenor street, costing $2,000.

CHINA SHORT

Shanghai, Oct. 25.—The capture of the revolutionists of Chang Chou, an important railroad centre in the province of Honan, was announced in dispatches which reached this city shortly after noon today. From a strategic point of view this city should prove of great value to the rebels. It is the junction of the Kai Ping and Pekin-Hankow railroads, and is located about 250 miles north of Hankow. Its capture apparently cuts off from Pekin all the imperial troops now gathered around Hankow and Wu Chang.

Fleet Retreats.

Today's news from the lower Yang Tse Valley was all discouraging to the Government. With King Kiang in undisputed possession of the rebels, the imperial fleet has retreated on down the river, some of the vessels being reported as far eastward as Wu Hu. Conditions are ominous not only in Wu Hu, but also in Nanjing.

The Tao Tchang today became so excited over the possibility of the secession of the native city to the rebels that he removed his household to the city of Shanghai. The city of Shanghai, in panic owing to the revolutionary threats of five thousand rebels, has evacuated the city. The city is now in a state of panic. Su Chow has 500,000 inhabitants, and is one of the wealthiest cities of China.

The probable attitude of Yuan Shi Kai, who has been declared by the Government to put down the rebellion, is a subject of lively interest here. Yuan is everywhere regarded as the man of the hour in China. It is hinted here that he may be induced soon to give the rebels a reprieve, and in cities throughout South China has booted all censorship and is printing the most exaggerated reports of insurgent successes in all parts of the country. Apparently the Government officials are making no effort to enforce the censorship.

ONE OF THE PONDS CONTAINED BACILLI

Water Commissioners Receive a Report On Water Supply From Toronto.

The efforts of the water commissioners to find the alleged source of contamination at the Springbank ponds are being rewarded. A report was received from Dr. Amyot, provincial analyst, Toronto, giving the analyses of several samples of water from the Colville pond, one of those said to contain colon bacilli, and it showed that the water feeder, or stream, was the one causing the infection.

Six other sources of supply were tested and found to be absolutely pure, the chlorine count also being very small. Dr. H. H. O'Brien, who immediately turned the report over to Superintendent Gaultier, and the latter will take every precaution to prevent contamination in the future.

"We are going to drain the pond, and clean it thoroughly," said Mr. Gaultier. "Now that we have found where the source of infection is, we will prevent a recurrence of the trouble. This supply will be cut off at once, and I will work to prevent it from coming back. It works through a secluded spot for 40 feet, and is exposed to contamination. I will take up the tile and probably lay new ones. It will be an easy matter now to find the supply always above reproach. There is no need to worry about the bacilli. There were very few found, merely an infection, but we are determined to keep London's water supply beyond suspicion."

"We have found the trouble," said Dr. H. H. O'Brien. "There were very few colon bacilli, and nothing at all to be alarmed about."

THREE IN FIGHT AT BRANTFORD

Labor Decides to Place a Man in the Field.

[Canadian Press.] Brantford, Ont., Oct. 25.—There are prospects here for a three-cornered fight in the coming election. The trades and labor council announced today that a labor candidate would be placed in the field. A convention of labor men was called for tonight for that purpose. The contest would be a pretty one with a labor candidate in the field, and would add uncertainty to the parties may be advised to institute against the other in respect of the matters in question.

CHARGE WAS DISMISSED BY POLICE MAGISTRATE

No Transient Trading of Fountain Pens by New York Manufacturer.

Magistrate Judd dismissed the charge against H. S. Wortham, the New York fountain pen manufacturer and dealer, in the police court this morning. Inspector McCallum charged Wortham with breaking the transient trader's law, in that he was selling his pens in Guillemont's drug store without taking out a license.

The case was up last Friday and the evidence taken. Mr. Wortham and Mr. Guillemont both testified that the pens were sold outright to Mr. Guillemont, and in proof of this the marked cheque in payment of the goods was produced.

We have the word of Mr. Guillemont," said the magistrate, "who has been in business in the city for a number of years, and has always been known as an honest and reliable man. The word of Mr. Wortham, that the pens were sold in a business way and were owned outright by Mr. Guillemont, is anything to the contrary would be charging these two gentlemen with perjury. Therefore, I dismiss them."

REV. WALTER MOFFATT IN QUITE UNDECIDED

Speaks of the Call From Millbank—Charge Is a Prosperous One.

At a meeting of the Stratford Presbytery held Tuesday a call was presented from the members and adherents of the Presbyterian Church, Millbank, in favor of Rev. Walter Moffatt, of Chalmers Church, this city. The charge at Millbank is a prosperous one, and the call was accompanied by a guarantee of a yearly salary of $1,000, manure, glebe and a four weeks' vacation. The message will be forwarded to the London Presbytery, and so it will be sustained and accepted by Mr. Moffatt. It was arranged that the moderator of the London Presbytery should preside at the induction.

Rev. Mr. Moffatt when seen today, stated to The Advertiser that his decision would not be made known until after the meeting of the London Presbytery. The call had to come before them before he could decide whether to accept or not. However, it is believed that Mr. Moffatt will accept. He stated that the charge was a good one, and that the call was worth considering.

Mr. Moffatt came to London in October, 1896, and during the past fifteen years has organized and built up the present congregation of Chalmers Church. The church is now in a prosperous condition, and the building is one of the finest church properties in the city.

Psoriasis Was Cured

AFTER FIVE YEARS OF SUFFERING—THREE DOCTORS FAILED AND SAID CASE WAS INCURABLE.

ITCHING AND BURNING WAS TERRIBLE UNTIL RELIEF AND CURE WAS EFFECTED BY

Dr. Chase's Ointment

Psoriasis is another name for chronic eczema. It is the worst form of this dreadful itching skin disease. Once eczema has reached this stage it is usually considered incurable.

But here is a case which proves again the wonderful healing power of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Not only does relief come quickly, but the resulting benefits are thorough and lasting.

Mrs. Nellie Massey, Concession, Ont., writes: "I thought it my duty to write you telling you the great benefit I received from using Dr. Chase's Ointment. For five years I suffered with what three doctors called Psoriasis. I doctored with three different doctors, with no good results, and one of our noted doctors told me if any one offered to guarantee me a cure for $50.00 to keep my money, my pocket, as I could not be cured."

"The disease spread all over me, even on my face and head. The itching and burning was terrible. I was glad to say I am entirely cured, not a sign of a sore to be seen. I can hardly praise the ointment enough, and you are at liberty to use my testimony, as I hope these few lines will induce others to try the same."

HAY PRICES ARE HIGH IN

From $16 to $18 50 a Ton. Selling as High as $17.

The continued high price of hay is a source of no small anxiety to the farmers. The local market is so tight that it is difficult to find hay for all that is offered, even going off at $17 a ton. Oats are still in unusual demand, the price ranging from $1.40 per bushel.

The fruit market was steady today. Grapes sold at from 25c to 30c per basket. Peas of early variety sold at 60 cents per bushel. Dressed poultry continued to be in demand. Eggs and butter are unusually high.

Dressed pork varies from 10c to 12c per cwt. On the whole market is pretty strong and steady.

CONGREGATIONAL TEA
MEETING A SUCCESS

Nearly 500 People Present in King Street Presbyterian Church.

The King Street Presbyterian Church was the scene Tuesday evening of a congregational tea meeting and social evening, given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society.
It was one of the most successful events in the history of the church, and it is estimated that nearly 500 people were present. Supper was served from 6 o'clock until 8:30, and the tables were crowded every minute of the time. The basement had been prettily decorated for the occasion, and the tables were in charge of members of the Ladies' Aid.
After the supper all adjourned to the body of the church where a splendid programme was given. Rev. Mr.
McIntosh occupied the chair, and the programme consisted of the following:
Songs by Messrs. Ed. Webster and Elmer Haynes, and Miss Gladys Reed.
Miss Mason and Miss Edith McBride.
Recitations were given by Miss Jean Walker, Miss Curtis, of Toronto, and Mrs. Case. Miss McBride's rendering of "The Norwegian Love Song" was especially good, while the other numbers were well executed.
Mr. W. Bleuthner, organist of the church, and Miss Belle Brown were the accompanists.

BISHOP SWEENEY ON GUIDANCE OF GOD

Inspiring Address Delivered in Cronyn Hall by His Lordship of Toronto.

"The Fatherhood and Guidance of God" was the subject of a masterly and inspiring address which the Right Rev. J.
F. Sweeney, M.A., D.D., Bishop of Toronto, delivered last evening in St.
Paul's Cathedral in connection with the inter-diocesan conference of the A. Y. P. A.
His text was chosen from Jeremiah
1:10: "With you not from this time cry unto me, my Father, thou art
the guide of my youth."

God is a sufficient guide of both nations and individuals, declared the bishop, and all who recognize the Fatherhood of God and surrender themselves to the divine guidance will be safely guided through life. To the young people, largely composing his audience, Bishop Sweeney recommended accepting the Divine Father as the guide of their youth.
Touching upon the organization of the
A. Y. P. A., he referred to the peculiar fitness of the association meeting in St.
Paul's where it was first established. In 1902 Canon Brown and the present Bishop of Huron, realizing the need of an Anglican Young People's Society, moved the appointment of a committee, through whose efforts the A. Y. P. A. was organized.

CANON STARR'S ADDRESS
AT A. Y. P. A. MEETING

"An Educational Policy" the Subject—Social Problems Are Increasing.

"An Educational Policy for the A.
Y. P. A." was the subject of a concise and interesting address which Rev.
Canon Starr, of Kingston, delivered yesterday at the afternoon session of the A. Y. P. A. Inter-Diocesan Conference. Young people of today, declared the canon, are regrettably ignorant of religion, and are not joining the various churches as they should.
There is a drift toward what is practical in life and religion, being viewed otherwise, is neglected.
The social problems of today are increasing and becoming steadily more and more complicated. There is a strong need for a wise educational policy in the training of the youth of this country. An education is needed for development along lines of adaptability and usefulness in life. Life is essentially social, and no man can live comparatively happy and contented education in the fullest sense of the word. The self-revelation of God to men through religion is gradually going on. The falling away of the young from the church is due to a failure of the church to recognize the needs of the young.

The inner life must come to outward expression in order to realize itself. A great educational work lies before the A. Y. P. A. It should be a steadfast ideal to inculcate virtues of co-operation, consideration for the rights and opinions of others, and true self-government in the minds of the young. The educational aim of the A.
Y. P. A. should be "For Christ and the Church."

During the afternoon Rev. Dr. Tucker spoke on "A Definite Missionary Policy for the A. Y. P. A. as a Whole," and Rev. H. P. Westgate, of St.
Thomas, spoke on "A Definite Missionary Policy for Each Branch of the A. Y. P. A." Both addresses were greatly instructive, and called forth unlimited discussion.

Music and Drama

"Satan Sanderson," a dramatization of Halle Ermline Rives' novel, was presented at the Grand last night to a rather small audience. It was a fair production, and did not cause the audience to endorse it.
Norman Hackett, a Detroit boy, and who is said to be a former Canadian, who is rapidly winning his way to the front was in the leading role, that of Satan Sanderson. He showed real ability in every situation. However, one cannot help wondering why he spends his time in such a play.
Hackett has possibilities of better things.

The supporting company was good.
William H. Sams, as Hugh Stiles, Sanderson's double, enacted his role with distinction.

A Dramatic Recital.

Truly remarkable in many ways was the dramatic recital given by Miss Ellen Von Volkenburg in the Auditorium last night. "What Every Woman Knows," taking the parts of each of the characters as the play was presented, with Miss Von Volkenburg in the leading part.
Miss Von Volkenburg has never seen the manuscript of the play, and has only seen the play itself presented once, yet she repeats it word for word, without error.
Strikingly effective is her simple manner of explaining how the scenery is laid in the play, as actually presented on the stage. One follows the different characters in her recital as readily as if they were all actually before the audience. She possesses a natural, unforced, and naturally, and without the artificial documentary effects of the average reciter, she proves herself a delightful entertainer, with whom one cannot fail to be pleased.
Although the story of her marvelous memory makes her appear a wonderfully superior woman, of whom one might almost be afraid, this feeling of respect and awe inspired by reading her advance notices is happily dissipated the moment she comes before her listeners, and makes them feel immediately at home. The only thing to be regretted is that a larger audience did not hear Miss Von Volkenburg last night. Those who were present, however, accorded her an enthusiastic reception.

"The Private Secretary."

Evidently "The Private Secretary," which appears at the Grand tonight, has once more caught the public fancy, for the production of the play was received on its late revival in New York.
Where it broke all records at the Empire Theatre. This laughable play has been so successful that it is being produced in the foremost of the high-class American comedies. The story is an intensely

"The Rosary," which will be seen at the Grand Opera House next Tuesday evening, Oct. 31, tells a story of a modern garden of Eden, in which the serpent enters in the form of a rejected suitor, who wrecks the home and happiness of a married couple by playing upon the jealousy of the husband.
There is diffused through the drama a remarkable air of purity, faith and hope from the opening scene, which pictures the happy couple about to celebrate their second marriage anniversary, and surrounded by all the creative comforts of modern civilization to the last act, when the wain, broken in health and fortune, and wrecked by jealousy, come like two weary children at the feet of the old priest, who has fathered them throughout their troubles. Seats Friday.

England's Great Organist.

Gatty Sellers, solo organist of the Queen's Opera House, London, and Crystal Palace, etc., makes his first appearance in this city, accompanied by the King's trumpeter in the coronation music, on Tuesday, Oct. 31, at the First Methodist Church, and a crowded building is anticipated. Appeared in an English press notice, speaking of his recital before he left England: "With a full remembrance of visits paid to this town by organists of national repute, we have no hesitation in stating that we have never listened locally to a greater execution than Mr. Gatty Sellers. The event was one which reflects emphatic credit upon the officers of the church, providing as it did an evening of fascinating enjoyment to an audience which crowded every portion of the edifice, as well as furnishing an event which in its artistic aspects is certainly one of the most important of recent musical seasons. We know not whether the more to admire the phenomenal facility of his renderings—for movements whose technical subtleties would have appalled the ordinary executant—were rendered with unvarying smoothness interesting one, but at the same time absolutely clean and pure. It is not made up of incidents that are not improbable in themselves. Indeed most of them could very easily occur in everyday life. The whole play is a series of comparatively natural situations, but these, by reason of their relation to each other, make up a succession of events that are as a whole irresistibly funny.

"The Right of Way."

The present high cost of living is such that one should not spend their good money on every cheap show that comes along, but exercise economy by selecting only those that you will be benefited by, and will be glad to remember one by. Tell others you have seen. Such a one is "The Right of Way," from Sir Gilbert Parker's famous story, to be presented here by Mr. Stanford Dodge, and his splendid company, at the Grand, Saturday, matinee and night.

Cleveland Truck Farmer Tells Readers of
The Advertiser of Notably Successful Experiment in Profit-Sharing.

Martin L. Rutenik, of Cleveland, O., is proving that profit-sharing farming pays, by making $12,000 a year clean profit from 12 acres. He has made that sum ten years straight. He says his success is due to his plan of sharing profits with the men who help him work his model farm.
His success has been so notable that George W. Perkins, a director in both the steel trust and the International Harvester Company, who left J. P. Morgan's banking house to study profit-sharing schemes for the benefit of working people, has investigated Rutenik's methods.
Here is Rutenik's own story of how he has turned 12 acres into a regular gold mine and amassed a comfortable fortune in ten years.

By Martin L. Rutenik.

Ten years ago, after having bought out a brother-in-law whom I had rented his 18-acre place from my father, and farming it for a time, I conceived the idea of entering into partnership with me.

Holiday Attraction.

In getting up the massive production of "The Private Secretary," in which Maudie Adams is to be seen at the Grand on Monday (Thanksgiving Day), matinee and night, it was not the intention of Charles Frohman to dazzle the eye, tickle the senses, and leave the minds of those witnessing the work in a bewildered state. To him, the host of carpenters, mechanics, electricians, costumers, etc., that labored on the production, were engaged on a detail of the play. To speak of them was to touch merely the superficial aspect of the play and to forget the play itself.
To Mr. Frohman's mind the most glorious settings that could possibly be given the drama would be of no value compared to the worth of the play itself. The production of "The Private Secretary" in the country is very limited. Mr. Owen Martin, head of the MARTIN-ORME COM-FANY, makes it his special business to see that this important work is done to perfection in his factory, and personally inspects each instrument before it is shipped.

Of course, if Mr. Martin were not a fully-qualified tone-regulator himself, his inspection would count for little, but as he happens to be one of the best in the country—well, the MAR-TIN-ORME Piano tells the rest.

I have some booklets, all ready to send you when I receive your name and address. Will I call and bother you? Not much!
I'm too busy, that is—unless you wish it.
