The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

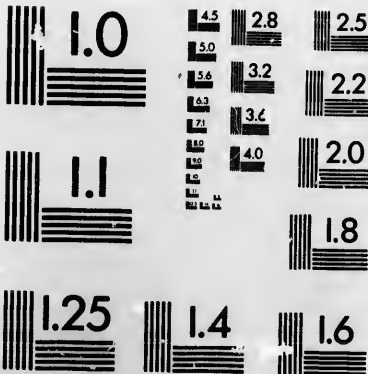

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

TORONTO

SOUVENIR OF THE EXCURSION OF THE OLD
 BOYS OF DUFFERIN RESIDING IN TORONTO TO
 ORANGEVILLE ON MONDAY, AUGUST 6, 1900

All the world's a stage.—Shakspeare.

Dufferin Post Book and Job Office, Orangeville.

INTRODUCTORY

THIS little brochure is intended as a suitable souvenir of the excursion of the Dufferin Old Boys residing in Toronto to Orangeville on Monday, August 6, 1900. When the Dufferin Old Boys' Association was organized in Toronto a few months ago THE POST concluded that the publication of a small pamphlet like the present when the intended reunion took place in Orangeville would be opportune and might prove satisfactory from many points. It is estimated that there are residing in Toronto today fully 1,200 persons whose former homes were in some part of Dufferin. The following pages are largely biographical, a narrative of the success of old boys of this county in the Queen City, and the only regret of the publishers is that they have not been able to make it more full and comprehensive. There are many former Dufferinites in Toronto, whose names and present calling THE POST has been unable to secure at all, and the achievements of these cannot of course be recorded in permanent form. The publishers believe, however, that even with the drawbacks mentioned the pamphlet will be found of considerable interest and of some value for future reference. The insertion of advertisements may be regarded as somewhat of an obtrusion, but this feature of the brochure has been indispensable in order to make the venture a financial success.

Considering its size and population, there is not, we believe, a county in Ontario that has furnished more successful men to the Queen City than Dufferin. THE POST begs to congratulate all upon the honorable role they are playing and to wish them many years of activity and usefulness.

The publishers beg to return their warmest thanks to Mr. J. F. Denton, barrister, Toronto, secretary of the Dufferin Old Boys' Association, for the great assistance he has rendered them in securing information for the souvenir.

THOS. LONG, ESQ., M.P.P.

In thinking over the old boys of Dufferin in Toronto undoubtedly the first name that presses to the front is that of Thos. Long, Esq., ex M. P. P. When a boy Mr. Long attended school at Mono Centre, township of Mono, and is still remembered by many of the old residents of that hamlet and vicinity. He early manifested a predilection for mercantile pursuits and his first venture for himself was a small store on the townline between Mono and Caledon, about a mile west of Mono Mills. The store was on the Mono side, was situated near Campbell's tannery, the ruins of which still remain, but all vestiges of Mr. Long's first mercantile establishment have long since disappeared. Mr. Long's great success has been scored in Collingwood, where he and a brother run the largest store, or rather series of stores, not only in Collingwood, but outside the great cities. Mr. Long is also the owner of several lines of steamers plying on the Northern Lakes and has for years been a director of some of the largest financial institutions in the country. His success has been scored by industry, sobriety and integrity and he stands high in public confidence everywhere. He has taken an active part in politics and represented West Simcoe in the Conservative interest in the Ontario Assembly from '75 to '83. Mr. Long resides on Jarvis st., Toronto, his residence, "Woodlawn," being one of the most palatial in the city. In May, 1861, he married Ann Patton of Collingwood and the surviving children of the union are two sons and two daughters. Mr. Long is himself a native of Limerick, Ireland, where he was born in 1837 and he had the courage and adventurous spirit to try his fortunes alone in America in 1850. He is to a large extent not only a self made but a self educated man and the history of his life should be an incentive to those who have no inheritance but strength of will, talent and perseverance with which to engage in the great struggle upon the theatre of existence. Mr. Long has faith in the future of Canada and thinks that the young man of honesty, sobriety and application has even a better chance of attaining the goal of his ambition to-day than when he himself made his first start at Mono Centre nearly half a century ago.

THOS. LONG, ESQ., Ex-M.P.P.

ROBT. HEWITT, ESQ.,

Ex-Deputy Reeve of Orangeville.

Mr. Robt. Hewitt of Toronto deserves a creditable position in this volume and we are sorry that we are unable to present our readers with a photo of a gentleman who was at one time a leading figure in the public life of Orangeville. Mr. Hewitt informed our agent, however, that he had not had a photo taken in years and, as he could not spare time to sit for one, we were helpless. The writer of these lines has known Mr. Hewitt for a full quarter of a century and is consequently able to speak of him with the authority of long experience. In the early history of Orangeville Mr. H. was active and prominent, for he was spirited, intelligent and enterprising and was consequently summoned to the front. As a building contractor he saw several large undertakings to a successful issue and many of the finest edifices in the county town owe their stateliness and permanence to his taste, skill and general proficiency in his calling. For the Conservative party he worked hard and earnestly in his days of vigor and enthusiasm, but several years ago, like many other honest Conservatives, he failed to see eye to eye with his party leaders and saw much to applaud in the career of Hon. N. C. Wallace. Like Mr. Wallace, however, Mr. Hewitt remains a Conservative and he no doubt believes, as Mr. Wallace does, that the Conservative party has profited by the hard discipline to which it was subjected within its own fold. In the municipal politics of Orangeville Mr. Hewitt took an abiding and leading interest, for he had, and still has, considerable at stake materially in the county town. He served for several years as a councillor and then successfully aspired to the deputy reeveship, an office to which he was elected after two hard fights with strong opponents. His contest for the deputy reeveship in '84 was exceptionally keen and exciting owing to the agitating question of the location of the post office site being still a live issue. Mr. Hewitt was put forward by the citizens favoring the erection of the post office on its present site and was elected by a majority, as nearly as we can remember, of over 150. In the council he discharged his general duties with such urbanity and ability that toward the end of the year former opponents had developed into strong supporters and opposition to his election in '85, even though he was opposed by a leading and well favored citizen, was so unpopular with the masses that Mr. H's success was more significant than it had been the year before. In those days deputy reeves occupied seats at the county council board and we need scarcely add that at the county green table the interests of Orangeville were ably and vigilantly representedly by Mr. Hewitt. At the end of his second term of deputy reeve Mr. Hewitt retired from public office and three years later removed to Toronto, where he has since resided. In the Queen City he has been extensively engaged as building contractor and has met with gratifying success. Mr. Hewitt has several sons and daughters, but he met the saddest bereavement of his life a few years ago when he lost the sharer of his joys and sorrows. Mr. Hewitt does Dufferin county credit wherever he goes and if he is among the old boys who revisit Orangeville on August 6 none will be more welcome.

Mr. McLaughlin went to Toronto in 1882 and has since been a resident of the Queen City. He is a native of Mono Mills and for years conducted a large mercantile business there, also running a big flour mill. In Toronto he has been engaged as a flour and grain merchant and is credited with having scored a big success. His office is in the Board of Trade. He has also been an active politician all his life and when he resided in Cardwell was one of the foremost spirits of the Reform party. In the Dominion election of 1892 he was the Reform candidate for Cardwell, his opponent being the late Hon. Thos. White. Mr. McLaughlin encountered defeat, but it was after a gallant fight. His campaign was one of the most spirited and exciting Cardwell has ever witnessed and many Conservative friends, who knew and appreciated his personal qualities, found it difficult to record their votes against him. He has not since aspired to parliamentary honors, although in Toronto, as in Cardwell, he remains a steadfast and enthusiastic Reformer. Mr. McLaughlin is one of those men who would be likely to score success anywhere, for he possesses a keen and quick intellect, is always sharp in business matters, reaches a conclusion without doubt or hesitation, and possesses the rare and happy faculty of forming an unerring opinion of the worth and characteristics of those with whom he comes in contact. He is still a young man and if he is spared the world is sure to hear more than it has yet of James F. McLaughlin, and, we may add, that nothing will be to his discredit for Mr. McLaughlin is a gentleman of honor and principle. He is one of the old boys of Dufferin who reflects in the Queen City the highest credit on this nice little, tight little county.

FRANK DENTON, Q.C., D.C.L.

Mr. Frank Denton, Q.C., who has reflected credit on Dufferin in Toronto, and is likely to reflect far more, for within the past year he has been frequently mentioned as a probable appointment to the judiciary, is a son of the late Wm. Denton, Esq., J.P., of Toronto, but who before his removal to the latter city conducted a successful general store at Mono Centre for several years.

Mr. Denton's connection with Dufferin county dates from the seventies, when he taught school for three years at the old log school at Coleridge in Amaranth. Then a few months at the Orangeville High school, a term at the Toronto Normal school and we find him back in Orangeville for two years as a teacher in the Model School. Then, without his knowledge that the position was vacant, and without application, he was appointed English master of Cobourg Collegiate Institute, then in affiliation with Victoria University. Two years in Cobourg and we find him a law student in Toronto, where he has ever since resided. He took the degree of B.C.L. with honors in 1887 and the degree of Doctor of Civil Law in 1893 from Trinity University, and in 1899 was appointed "one of our counsel learned in the law." otherwise known as a Queen's Counsel. He is at the head of the well known law firm of Denton, Dunn & Boulton, Barristers and Solicitors, Temple Building, Toronto. Mr. Denton has always been favored with a large practice, and has had many important cases, both civil and criminal, entrusted to him. He has acted as crown counsel in several very serious prosecutions in different parts of the province. Richmond Hill, in the County of York, claims Mr. Denton as one of her boys, as that was his birthplace. He is a past master of St. George Lodge A.F. & A.M. and is a trustee of Broadway Methodist Tabernacle, Toronto. In 1884 Mr. Denton married Miss Clingan of Orangeville, a daughter of the late Fleming Clingan, J.P., of Relessey. Mr. Denton is an older brother of Mr. M. H. Denton, treasurer of Mono Township, and of Mr. J. H. Denton, secretary of the Dufferin Old Boys' Association. In politics Mr. Denton is a Reformer.

FRANK DENTON, Q.C., D.C.L.

THOS. BABE, ESQ.,

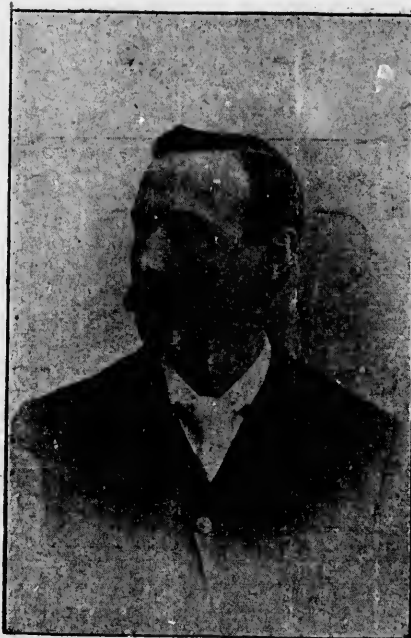

Mr. Babe's is a familiar and well accredited name in the district of which Orangeville is the centre. Our first acquaintance with him dates back to the 70's, when he was running a large grocery store in Orangeville in partnership with the late Jas. Allen, at one time deputy reeve of the town. Subsequently Mr. Babe conducted a general store at Cataract, and about sixteen years ago moved to Parkdale, then a prosperous and rapidly growing village. At Parkdale he opened a staple dry goods store and soon established a large and flourishing business, which still continues on the increase. In those days there was much that was primitive about Parkdale and such a convenience as a street car was unknown. Mr. Babe, being an intelligent and progressive man, took an active part in everything that tended to the welfare of the village and was one of the most useful members of the municipal council before annexation came and Parkdale was swallowed up in Toronto. He has still an enduring confidence in the West End and is glad to find many of the old boys of Dufferin of the same opinion. He meets former residents of Dufferin every day and is always glad to do business with them. Mr. Babe, we need not add, is honest and straightforward in business, a fact which, coupled with his agreeable and obliging disposition, accounts for his success in a populous city where so many strive and fail in the effort.

G. H. COOPER, ESQ.,

Late of Grand Valley

No more genial or popular gentleman ever left the county of Dufferin for the Queen City than Harry Cooper, as he is familiarly called by his friends everywhere. Mr. Cooper, who is meeting with gratifying success in Toronto, will receive many a glad handshake if he is one of the Old Boys of Dufferin to revisit this district on August 6.

Mr. Cooper is a native of Yorkshire, England. He came to Canada in 1882 and settled in Luther village, now Grand Valley. For about 8 years he was with Mr. W. R. Scott in the Grocery and Hardware business, afterwards manager of A. Richardson's bank. He left the village on the Grand on the 1st September, 1899, having bought the extensive and old established grocery business of Messrs. Caldwell & Hodgins at the corner of Queen and John streets, Toronto.

G. H. COOPER, ESQ.

Mr. Cooper has a host of friends in the Townships of East and West Luther, Amaranth, the Garafraxas, and the county Town. On leaving the Valley the citizens presented Mr. Cooper with a very handsome gold headed cane and a feeling address of regret. The Masonic fraternity also expressed their regret at losing one who had held exalted positions in the craft.

Mr. Cooper has one of the finest Grocery stores in the City of Toronto (250 Queen street west.) By handling only first class goods and by his obliging manner he has retained the trade of the old firm and is fast making many new friends. He is a member of the Church of England, of the A.O.U.W., and Canadian Order of Foresters, as well as the fraternity previously mentioned.

JNO. NOBLE, ESQ., M.D.

Dr. Noble, who is in the enjoyment of a lucrative practice in the city, and who is a prominent figure in educational matters, is a native of the township of Erin, having been born about a mile east of the village of that name in 1854. When he was still young, however, his parents removed to the vicinity of Mono Centre, where the family still still reside. Before entering upon the study of medicine was engaged several years as a teacher and proved a most capable and progressive one. He was principal of the Arthur public school for some time and is still well and favorably remembered in that village. He has been practicing medicine in Toronto since 1890, his office being at 314 Queen st. east. He still takes an active interest in education and has been a leading member of the Toronto Public School Board for the last six years. In the east end there is scarcely a more familiar or popular figure than Dr. Noble and if the doctor ever seeks political honors the achievement of his ambition will be easy. He is a life-long Conservative, but in 1896 was one of the many thousand Conservatives throughout Canada who revolted against the Dominion Government for its attitude on several issues, notably the Manitoba School question. He is a facile and incisive speaker and in the campaign in East Toronto he contributed materially to the election of John Ross Robertson, the independent Conservative candidate. The vexed questions which rent the Conservative party asunder in '96 are, however, dead or happily settled and Dr. Noble, like many other dissidents of four years ago, is heartily in line with the policy of his party. In religion Dr. Noble is a Presbyterian and is an attractive bachelor who has so far defied all the arrows of Cupid. His status in the medical profession is high and this, coupled with the fact that he is most genial in manner and possesses rare social qualities, explains his rapid rise and advance to the front in a city in which the learned professions are so crowded. Dr. Noble is a Dufferin old boy who is playing his part chivalrously in the arena of life and we are among those who shall not be at all surprised if he shall in the near future occupy a creditable position in the councils of his country. The writer cannot wish too many good things to this genial social figure and spirited Canadian.

JNO. NOBLE, ESQ., M D.

JAS. K. PAISLEY.

Mr. Paisley is a son of Mr. Jno. Paisley, one of the pioneer hotelkeepers of Dufferin and for a quarter of a century manager and proprietor of that far famed hostelry, the Paisley House, Orangeville. Jas. K., though a young man, has already made a record as the conductor of large city hotels and popular summer resorts. He is at present manager of the Iroquois Hotel, corner of York and King streets, Toronto, one of the most spacious and best equipped hotels in the city, and also conducts two of the most popular summer hotels on the Georgian Bay, the Belvidere at Parry Sound and the Sans Souci, Moon River. Mr. Paisley is an ideal mine host, suave, genial and accommodating, while his enterprise in his line reflects credit not only on himself but on the county which claims him as one of its old boys.

GEO. MARSHALL, ESQ.,

Mr. Marshall is an old Horning's Mills boy who has attained success in the Queen City. He is a chemist and druggist, being a graduate of the Ontario College of Pharmacy. He was two and a half years in Shelburne, where he received his first instruction in his chosen calling. He has been in business in Toronto for eleven years and has a neat and up-to-date establishment at the corner of Queen and Berkeley streets. Mr. Marshall has the reputation of being one of the most reliable dispensing chemists in the city and is in the enjoyment of a large trade. He is another instance of a Dufferin boy succeeding in a crowded field, but a gentleman of Mr. Marshall's talent, perseverance and reliability will often score the highest success where opposition is keenest.

A. H. PERFECT, M.D., TORONTO JUNCTION.

Dr. Perfect is an old Orangeville boy, being a son of the late Robt. Perfect of Springbrook. At first, as he is still known to the friends of his youth, has been practicing at Toronto Junction for about ten years and prior to that had an experience of a few years in his profession in New Mexico. His practice at Toronto Junction is large and lucrative and he is generally considered one of the ablest and most reliable men of the city to consult in his profession.

REV. D. C. HOSSACK, LL.D.,
TORONTO.

Formerly pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Orangeville.

INO. KYLES, ESQ.

Mr. Kyles is the eldest son of James Kyles, Prince of Wales' Road, Mono, and was born on the east half of Lot 15, 2nd Con. east, Mono, on 17th Sept., 1860. He worked on his father's farm, west half lot 20, 1st con. west, Mono, and attended the public school at Camilla till 1877, when he obtained a third class teacher's certificate and during the two following years taught school at Mono Centre. In 1880 and the early part of 1881 he attended Newmarket High school, and in July 1881 passed the matriculation examination for entrance to the University of Toronto, from which institution he graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts in June 1885, taking first class honors in logic, ethnology, history and English. During the latter half of 1882, while pursuing his university course, he taught school at Whittington. After graduating he became articled to Alexander MacNabb, Esq., formerly police magistrate of the city of Toronto, and began the study of law. He was called to the bar in September 1888, and since that date has practiced his profession in the city of Toronto. In May 1899, he entered into partnership with Mr. T. H. Bull, late clerk of the Peace for the County of York, under the firm name of Bull & Kyles. The firm's offices are in the Canada Permanent Buildings, 18 Toronto street.

As a lawyer Mr. Kyles stands high, being regarded as a gentleman of first class attainments, while he enjoys a flattering reputation for business honesty and integrity. He is a man who to a large extent has made his own way in the world and his friends will be delighted if some of the high honors of his profession fall to his lot.

E. J. COBEAN, ESQ.,

Mr. Cobean is probably the most recent arrival of a Dufferinite of note in Toronto. He resigned the treasurership of Mono, which he had held for 9 years, in the fall of '99 and removed to the Queen City shortly after. He is a native of the township of Mono, having been born near Mono Mills, and received his education in Dufferin county. He ran a general store in the village of Hastings for several years and thence removed to Camilla, where he was village postmaster and general merchant for over twelve years. His business at Camilla was very extensive and it was in fact its onerous character that compelled him to retire last fall. In addition to his own private business he was local agent of the Bell Telephone Co., telegraph agent, secretary of the A.O.U.W. and salesman for the local cheese factory. These varied duties, coupled with the more arduous ones of township treasurer, induced Mr. Cobean, as we have stated, to retire from Camilla altogether and seek a more easy avocation in the Queen City. He is now manager of the Hygiene Kola Co., 84 Church st., Toronto, who manufacture and sell Kola Wine, a medicine which is now enjoying almost unprecedented popularity. Mr. Cobean is reported to be prospering immensely in Toronto and he cannot have better luck than his legion of friends in Dufferin wish him. A biographer could say nothing that would not be complimentary of Mr. Cobean, for he is an unassuming and warm-hearted man and will be long remembered in Mono for his invariable courtesy and obliging disposition. In religion Mr. Cobean is a Presbyterian and in politics a staunch Conservative.

Late Treasurer of Mono.

W. R. SCOTT, ESQ.,

Mr. Scott is a comparatively recent resident of Toronto, having gone into business himself there only two years ago and removed his family to that city last spring. He is a native of Mimico, where he was born in 1845, and settled in Grand Valley in 1869. He was the leading general merchant of the village for years, did most of the local conveyancing, was postmaster, notary and a commissioner for taking affidavits. He was also the leading auctioneer of the district for years and was most successful in this line. He served in the municipal council of East Luther for several years both as councillor and deputy-reeve and the fact that he was always returned by a large majority attested his popularity with the farming community. In 1888 he secured the establishment of the Bell Telephone Co. in Grand Valley and was the local manager until last May. When it became known in the Valley that Mr. Scott intended making Toronto his permanent home there was a keen feeling of general local regret and Mr. Scott was made the recipient of a touchingly worded farewell address from the citizens of the Valley and accompanying the address was a substantial recognition of his talent and worth as a friend and citizen. In March, '98 he opened an office in Toronto as Ontario agent for the Victor Safe and Lock Co. of Cincinnati, Ohio. He is also agent for the celebrated roll top desks, chairs and office furnishings. His establishment is at 54 Yonge st. and his many Dufferin friends will be glad to learn that he has already built up a large trade. Of course he will be glad to see them whenever they call, for no man was ever cast in a more genial and kindly mould than W. R. Scott.

J. H. DENTON, LL.B.

James Herbert Denton is a practising barrister and solicitor. He is a son of the late Wm. Denton who for many years kept a general store at Mono Centre. He received his early education at Mono Centre, afterwards in Orangeville, where he attended the High and Model schools in 1883. He taught school at Honeywood, in Mulmur, in 1884, afterwards attending Collingwood Collegiate Institute, from whence he went to Toronto. Mr. Denton is an honor graduate in law of Toronto University and in his law examinations before the Law Society he won distinction by winning a scholarship or honors on each examination, and wound up his course by standing first on call to the bar and first on his solicitor's examination and carrying off the highest medal awarded for the year. He has for several years been a member of the firm of Pearson & Denton, having their office at 1 Toronto st, and has been entrusted with many cases of importance both as solicitor and counsel. He takes a deep interest in public libraries and at present is a member of the Toronto Public Library Board. He is secretary of the Dufferin County Old Boys' Association and one of its first promoters. We might add that Mr. Denton is a brother of Treasurer Denton of Mono, and of Frank Denton, Q.C.

W. N. IRWIN, ESQ.,

Barrister.

Mr. Irwin is a native of Orangeville and is a son of Mr. Francis Irwin, for twenty one years treasurer of the county town. He graduated in law with distinction in 1886 and after practising for a short time in his native town removed to Toronto, where his lot has since been cast. Mr. Irwin displays considerable force and vigor as a public speaker, and is in the enjoyment of an encouraging law practice in the Queen City. He has always taken an active interest in bicycling and has for years been one of the chief executive of the C.W.A. He has been correspondent for some of the leading sporting journals of the United States, his contributions being on subjects connected with the wheel, and all of them have been marked by the terseness and clearness of expression which are the marked features of Mr. Irwin's literary style. Mr. Irwin was married in '93 to a daughter of the late Mayor Carter of Picton.

J. H. DENTON, ESQ.

DR. J. SIMPSON ISLAND.

Dr. Island is a young man who has just commenced his career in Toronto. Last spring he graduated with honors in the Royal Dental College of Ontario and recently opened an office at the corner of Parliament and Gerrard sts., Toronto. He is a son of Mr. Jos. Island, one of the wealthy and prominent farmers of Mono township, and is a native of Dufferin. Dr. Island's record as a student warrants the prediction of eminent success in his profession. He has yet his laurels to win, but the editor of these pages has known him for years and has invariably found him honest and reliable. In the practice of his profession we are sure that urbanity and integrity, as well as skill and knowledge, will be marked characteristics. Confidence in oneself is absolutely required in these days of keenest competition and confidence in himself and in the future Dr. Island displays by beginning his professional career in the heart of a great city. We trust that all his expectations will be realized and that at no distant date Dufferin will be pointing to him proudly as one of her brilliant and successful old boys in Toronto.

JNO. R. ROBINSON, ESQ.,Editor of the Evening Telegram.

Mr. Robinson is among the old Orangeville boys who have reflected credit on the county town of Dufferin and he stands probably at the head of the distinguished list. He has been editor of the Evening Telegram for several years, his literary style being pungent and epigrammatic. The editorials in the Telegram are remarkable for their vigorous brevity and in this style of writing Mr. Robinson has few equals in journalism in Toronto. He first won notice as a municipal reporter on the Telegram, his reports of the proceedings of the city council being always accurate and elaborate, and when the editorial chair of the journal with which he had been so long connected became vacant the keen and clever proprietor, Mr. J. Ross Robertson, M.P., had no hesitation in promoting his bright and piquant municipal reporter to the position. Brilliant success in a field in which success is so difficult has not turned the head of Mr. Robinson, for he is today as plain and courteous as he was in the years when he was climbing the ladder of distinction, and is always glad to meet old Orangeville friends and to say a good word of the old town in which he spent his schoolboy days.

W. WALLACE, ESQ.

Mr. Wallace needs no introduction to any Orangeville reader who peruses these interesting pages. He is a young man of considerable literary ability and wields a pen at once facile and vigorous. He conducted the Dufferin Advertiser at Orangeville for over ten years and during the decade said many things which amused and interested his readers. In November last Mr. Wallace disposed of the Advertiser and a few months later accepted the position of assistant city editor of the Toronto Evening Star, a post which he is well capable of filling. Mr. Wallace is a native of Cork, Ireland, a fact which of course accounts for the keen and classic wit. He was a member of the Orangeville town council for two years, being elected on both occasions by acclamation, and in Dufferin's county town he has many warm friends and admirers who wish him well in his larger field of activity.

THOS. McLAUGHLIN, ESQ.

Mr. McLaughlin is a native of Mono Mills, that once prosperous and promising village, whose glory, like that of Garryowen, is gone forever. He is a brother of Mr. Jas. F. McLaughlin, referred to in an earlier page of this brochure, and was engaged with him in business at Mono Mills before his removal to Toronto. Mr. McLaughlin is at present dealing in mining properties, timber lands, etc., and his office is in the Trusts and Guarantee Building, 16 King st west. He is keen, sharp and reliable in business and it is not surprising, therefore, to hear that he is meeting with eminent success.

W. A. DENTON, ESQ.

Mr. Denton is a brother of Mr. Frank Denton, Q. C., and Mr. J. H. Denton, to whom we have already made extended reference. He has chosen a mercantile life and for years has been engaged with the wholesale firm of Jno. McDonald & Co., Toronto. He appears to enjoy the fullest confidence of the firm, who must also have a high opinion of his ability, for during the past few years he has visited Great Britain and the continent to make purchases for the house. The Dentons would seem to be a most talented family.

JAS. CURRY, ESQ.

Mr. Curry is a native of Farmington, Amaranth township, and has been in the city for about fifteen years. During the real estate boom in Toronto he was reported to have scored an immense success. He is at present engaged at estate and mining broking, conveyancing, etc., and his office is Rooms 23 and 24 Manning Arcade, 24 King st. west, Toronto. Mr. Curry is an instance of a young farmer going to the city and succeeding in a calling requiring the exercise of the keenest faculties.

CONCLUSION

We have, however imperfectly, completed our undertaking. In the brief space at our disposal we have recorded the success of former boys of Dufferin in the Queen City of Canada and have, as far as possible, given a full list of former Dufferinites residing in that populous and progressive centre. We know there may be some to whom we have not done full justice and others who deserved more extended notice, but there has been at least the intention to give a fair and impartial narrative. The success of some of the old boys of Dufferin is bright and inspiring, notably that of Mr. Long, the record of whose life is like the history of Dick Whittington who went to London a penniless boy and eventually became Lord Mayor of the great metropolis. The little brochure should surely be an inspiration to others who leave the county in search of fortune, for they will read in it of the successes of Dufferinites before them. We trust that when the next excursion of reunion and rejoicing of old Dufferin boys in Toronto takes place to Orangeville there will be a still larger honor roll of names and that the pamphlet on that occasion recording trials and victories will, warranted by the new circumstances, be more pretentious than the present one. Success undoubtedly awaits every Dufferin old boy who leaves home and is faithful to the precepts of home, school and church and we cannot end more appropriately than by saying to each of our boys who leaves his own county for other parts :

"To thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man."

Old Boys Young Boys

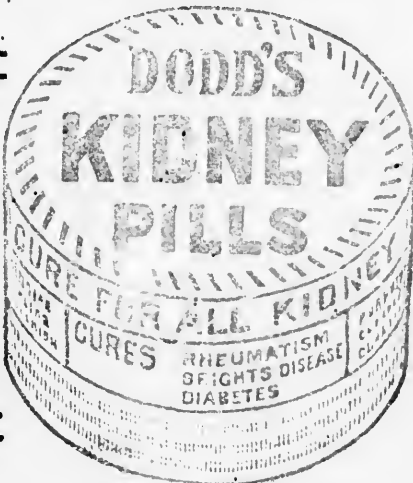

Are not always old.

Are not always young

A man or boy grows old slowly or quickly just as he takes good or bad care of his body. THE KIDNEYS are the most important organs of the body. Sick Kidneys mean bad health. With healthy kidneys a man cannot be very sick.

No boy

should have
