After the unsuccessful pursuit of Daniels in a motor procession to Ottawa last night, members of the mob which joined in the cross-country chase had dispersed, it is believed, since the procession as a unit has not returned to this city.

GENERAL SUCCESSES

Are Reported in To-day's Despatches by the Italian War Office.

Rome, Aug. 31.—An attempt at a new Austro-Hungarian offensive against the Italians in the Tenthio was foreshadowed by a 24-hour artillery bombardment of Gen. Cadorna's positions between the Adige and Brenta rivers, reported by last night's war office statement. The report announces several successes for the Italians at various points of the line.

The lull in the fighting around Gorizia continues. The Italians have straightened out their line on the Carso Plateau as a result of local actions. The statement follows:

"The hostile artillery bombarded our positions continuously between the Adige and the Brenta. They shelled Ala, Arasero and Seghe.

Extend Lines

"In the Fassa area our Alpini extended their occupation of the crest northeast of Caurl, taking 21 prisoners, a trench mortar and numerous rifles. The enemy's artillery opened heavy fire on Caurl, which was effectively answered by ours.

"At the head of the Felzou Valley we brilliantly attacked and carried some strong trenches on the northern slopes of Punta Forame, and at the bottom of the valley. The enemy suffered heavily and left 117 prisoners, including three officers, in our hands.

"On the rest of the front there were desultory artillery actions. The enemy shelled Gorizia, Vallizza and Olivers intermittently.

"On the Carso small actions enabled us to straighten out our line.

BILLION DOLLAR CROP EXPECTED

After a thorough canvass of various points throughout Western Canada, Dr. McGill of the Dominion Grain Commission, is quoted in Calgary as saying that Alberta would have a crop as good as last year, that the Dominion would have a billion dollar grain crop and that the grain crop of the three Prairie provinces would be little, if any, behind that of last year.

"The country as a whole never looked better than it does at present," said Dr. McGill. "The weather was made to order, as you might say, and I am of the opinion that this year's harvest will be another wonderful one."

Those who contemplate going West will do well to remember that the most fertile districts in Western Canada are served by the lines of the C.N.R. and that this season they can travel from their home districts to destination Canadian-Northern all the way.

The first of these excursions will be run in August, the date will be announced later.

WOODPECKER CONVENTION

The woodpeckers held a convention. Why? Because they were jealous of Jimmy Woodpecker's handsome noisy bird of none-to-good-a-reputation, whom the birds in the forest now called "Red-Head."

"Ever since Dr. Owl grew cross and ducked Jimmy Woodpecker's head in the pot of red dye," they whispered, "he's been so vain he's unbearable. He thinks he's handsome! Think of that! Handsome!"

"What," asked an old woodpecker, "shall we do about it? That's what I want to know. I'd like to take him down a peg or two and jolt his vanity."

"There's just one thing to do," said a peevish woodpecker, who prided himself on his cleverness. "We'll go to old Dr. Owl and beg enough of his red dye to paint our feathers. Then Jimmy Woodpecker won't be the only Red-Head in the forest and he'll get over his dreadful conceit."

So the woodpecker convention took wing and went to the tree-house of old Dr. Owl.

But Dr. Owl, who was polishing his spectacles with a cobweb, was pretty cross.

"Of with you!" he cried. "I'll not give a drop of my crimson dye to any one of you. Didn't I have enough trouble with Jimmy Woodpecker sticking his beak in all my pots of dye until I ducked his foolish head for him?"

And he said as they might he wouldn't give in.

Now Dr. Owl wrote books upon tree leaves and only he knew the secret of making colored dyes from the berries and bark of the woodpecker. He'd learned it from the Indians.

"What'll we do?" whispered the woodpeckers. "We must have a pot of that crimson dye for not one of us can make it."

And in the end, my dears, they stole it! Stole it when old Dr. Owl was asleep up in his leafy bedroom.

Now the plan was for each woodpecker to dip his head in the pot of dye and come forth splendidly red-headed like Jimmy Woodpecker himself, but do you know they fell to quarrelling over the pot of dye and in a time the woodpecker convention was in an uproar. Instead of dipping their heads in the dye in an orderly manner, they began to throw the dye about in an angry battle. "Away with you! Out with the things that happened. One woodpecker's crest was dyed scarlet and his wife's was not. Ivory-billed woodpeckers, I think they called themselves, the hairy woodpecker came out of the battle with a scarlet spot on the back of his head. So did the downy woodpecker, who his wife flew away in fear and escaped without a mark of it. Another woodpecker came off with a red cockade, one with a scarlet crown and head, one with a monstache, one with the back of his neck quite red—they were a sight and no mistake. Mostly their wives, being better behaved, escaped. As to this day the woodpeckers bear the mark of that battle. That's why we have so many kinds with such different markings.

PRESIDENT BUNNELL

Strikes an Optimistic and Patriotic Note

In His Address to the Municipal Association Convention.

Toronto, Aug. 31.—Municipal development is at a standstill, but the councils are defining themselves to the successful prosecution of the war, according to the many addresses delivered before the annual convention of the Municipal Association in session at the city hall yesterday.

Arthur K. Bunnell, City Treasurer of Brantford, in his Presidential address struck an optimistic and patriotic note. Referring to the war, he said:

"To-day confidence has taken the place of doubt. The mighty forces of the Empire and of her allies in men, money and material have been organized and co-ordinated. Our forces in the field are slowly but surely obtaining the mastery. Here at home financial conditions have so improved that the people from their savings have been enabled to advance to the Finance Minister of the Dominion the sum of one hundred million dollars to help meet the expenses of our volunteer armies to the scene of conflict, and a further loan is now about to be floated, and will no doubt be fully taken. Employment at remuneration rates is being general, and all classes, for the time being at any event, are enjoying great prosperity. In the language of Lloyd George: 'We have crossed the watershed and victory is flowing in our direction, and while the end is not in sight, final victory is certain.'"

Ontario's Record

"What has Ontario done? She has a record to be proud of. The Province has enlisted forty-two per cent. of all the men enlisted in Canada, representing nearly six per cent. of its total population. To the British Red Cross subscription of October, 1915, Ontario gave upwards of one million dollars, and to the Canadian Red Cross nearly another million. Of its twelve million subscribed to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, Ontario supplied five millions."

Too Much of Little Things

Resigning municipal government in Canada Mr. Bunnell little thought it is that there is still comparatively little interest taken in this great branch of public work.

"This country has become too much a land of little things," he said, "and not enough attention paid to the great opportunities. Councils take up their duties, with trivial things and petty incidents that might be looked after by the appointed officials. More attention is paid to a small appointment than to such essentials as 'Cupable Assesment,' 'Good Roads,' 'Prevention of the Pollution of Streams,' and many other important matters."

Needs Larger Viewpoint

"Against we do not meet enough of the dignity of the office of Alderman or Councillor, and discussions at our Council Boards often degenerate into mere personal attacks."

"The war has widened our vision and broadened our outlook, and there is no field that offers more opportunities than that connected with municipal government. Canada has taken upon herself an immense burden of debt, both nationally, provincially and municipally, and the present war is adding to it by millions every month, and we must see to it that conditions are such that every man has an opportunity of obtaining a living for himself and his children

THE SITUATION

The Roumanians have apparently crossed the Transylvanian Alps and have already occupied the very important centre of Kronstadt.

Over the Courier Leased Wire today comes word that fighting is now severe along the entire Macedonian front and that the Serbians appear to have the upper hand.

On the various other fronts there is nothing of a marked nature to report except that news from the standpoint of the Allies continue to be satisfactory.

The transference of the supreme German command to Von Hindenburg is generally regarded as a move to hasten the German populace who are commencing to wonder why the promised definite results are not forthcoming.

THE THREATENED RAILWAY STRIKE

Unless some last minute happening intervenes the railway strike in the States would seem to be a certainty on Labor Day, Monday Sept. 4th.

The following is an extract from a report of a recent championship lacrosse match between Cornwall and the Shamrocks: "The match was not entirely devoid of interest, for while the first two and last periods passed pleasantly enough, some extra was thrown into the third that furnished excitement for a time."

The Union representatives of the Trainmen, state that the fight is for an eight hour day. The Railway managers, for their part, deny this. They claim that the men expect to work as long hours as ever and that what they are really after is the time and a half pay demanded after the elapse of the eight hour period.

Such is the hooking of horns which imperils the welfare and the prosperity of the States as never before in its history, since the Civil war.

If the thing reaches the threatened climax, Canada also will become affected, for we have very large dealings with our neighbors in coal, produce and other articles. The C. P. R. authorities have not yet expressed any views, but the Grand Trunk Manager has expressed the belief that there will not be any trouble with the men in its employ, as the road and the Brotherhood are on good terms.

Herman Blair, a driver for D. B. Martin and Co., meat packers, was robbed of $700 on a Philadelphia street in broad daylight by a highwayman, who threw pepper in his eyes and blinded him.

FRENCH BRUTALITY

Elsewhere in this issue there appears from the London Times a summary of the official French report regarding the brutality of the Hun when French subjects were torn from their homes to do farm and munition factory work in Germany.

The Times referring editorially to the matter, says:—"Everywhere we see the same spirit at work—the boundless insolence which arrogates to the German officer the right to trample upon all laws human and divine, while contending that these laws as interpreted by himself bind others under pain of death, and the callous insensibility to the sufferings he inflicts, upon the innocent and the helpless—upon those whose sex is a protection to them with all who have ever had a spark of true chivalry and honor."

Thus one more chapter is added for the terrible day of reckoning which will assuredly overtake these human brutes.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Constantine will have to get off his Hun perch.

The latest new dance is called the "Winkie Trot." The next thing in order will be the "Winkie Wobble."

Sir Sam Hughes is receiving all kinds of attention from notables in the Old Land. Probably their descriptions to The Globe have expired.

Fresh from a visit to the Old Land and the battle front, Sir George Foster at the Industrial Fair luncheon in Toronto yesterday conveyed the tense and solemn message that it was the duty of Canada to shoulder greater burdens. He pointed out that the war is far from over and that "for every activity here you see thirty and forty in Great Britain."

The following is an extract from a report of a recent championship lacrosse match between Cornwall and the Shamrocks:

"The match was not entirely devoid of interest, for while the first two and last periods passed pleasantly enough, some extra was thrown into the third that furnished excitement for a time. In the first place, Thompson, the Cornwall goaler, had his nose broken early in this quarter, when Billy Walsh sent in a bullet shot that landed in the wrong place. Thompson had to retire, and Cooper took his place for the balance of the quarter, and John St. Thomas played in the net in the fourth. Then Penny and Oaks had a set-to, and Sands went into the net feet first. He was retired for ten minutes. Dunthes next refused to take a ticket from Mr. Brown for back talk, but finally retired. The next episode was the worst of the day. Penny, still angered for his previous treatment, got after Oaks and Simon Hirst, the caretaker of the grounds, and "put the boots" to both of them. A general melee seemed imminent, but both Oaks and Penny were retired for the match, and play continued without interruption to the close."

It is this kind of thing more than any other which is relegating Canada's great national game to second place alongside of baseball.

Vancouver, Aug. 31.—Vancouver's business as an ocean port will be practically at a standstill, if a lengthy strike results from the railway situation in the United States, according to railway and steamship officials here.

INSTANTLY KILLED

Quebec, Aug. 31.—Struck by the Maritime Express last night at Dunstan on the I. C. R. near Drummondville, a man so far unidentified was instantly killed. The man was driving a Cadillac automobile, and did not see through a thick fog, the approaching train. His body was hurled fifty feet from the track, and the car was burned in the ditch.

Impressive Funeral of a Dead Hero — Meeting of the Town Council.

Paris, Aug. 30.—(From our own correspondent).—Yesterday afternoon the remains of the late Allan Fraser, who lost his life in the Grand River, on Saturday, while trying to rescue several young girls who were in danger of drowning, were laid to rest in the Paris cemetery.

The services being conducted at the home by Rev. D. A. Armstrong, assisted by Rev. J. C. Nicholson, who read the lesson, and Rev. B. B. Williams, who led in prayer. Miss Clare Stewart and Mr. Ed. Aver, sang very feelingly. "God Shall Wipe Away all Tears." A sorrowing and three children were left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, also five brothers, William of Ottawa, Gordon of Bramshott, Eng., at present, Lorne of Toronto, Archie and Elmyer of Paris, and two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Springate and Miss F. E. Fraser, to whom the sympathy of the whole community is extended. A large number of friends were in attendance to pay their final tribute to the deceased, and a great many floral offerings were received. The remains were carried to their last resting place by Messrs. David Brockbank, John Thompson, Ed. Gibbs, Charlie Strickland, G. Rutherford and William Brockbank. The monthly meeting of the Council was held Monday evening, those being present were: Mayor Patterson in the chair, Deputy Mayor James Sinclair, Isaac Stewart, J. McKay, C. B. Robinson and Charles Walker.

The sum of $200 was granted to the fire sufferers in New Ontario. The Geo. W. MacFarlane Engineering Co. made application for fixed assessment on the plow works property, at the station, as they are thinking seriously of buying the same. At present they have a large number of men employed on munitions, and engineers work at the town hall, but require a larger place. It is thought that it would be a good thing for the town if the MacFarlane Co. occupy the plow works, as it would mean a great deal more work for men.

Mr. Smoke, who is acting for the Appleby Estate, sent a letter, saying that the drain near McCausland's, on William street, was causing considerable trouble, and that the water leaked through into the cellars, and was liable to damage the foundation. This was left to the streets and sidewalk committee.

MacFarlane Co. were granted $5000 for bridge over the raceway on William street. A by-law was passed fixing the assessment for the school and all premises at $32,500 for the next 10 years.

It was decided to advertise the Paris Chopping Mill for sale, and not to accept the offer which had been made. The Finance Committee were instructed to make enquiries about a pulmotor, with view of purchasing same.

The Council then adjourned. Miss Florence Maus, who has been visiting her parents for the past two months, has left to resume her duties on the Calgary teaching staff.

On Monday afternoon, the remains of Miss Doris Seton Adamson, who was one of the victims of the sad drowning fatality on Saturday, were taken to Owen Sound, where interment took place yesterday morning. Miss Seton Adamson was the eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Seton, who was born at Southampton, 16 years ago. The family moved here from Shelburne only two years ago, and Miss Doris, who was a winsome young lady, had made many friends. She will be sadly missed by school, where she taught one of the primary classes. The service at the Rectory here was conducted by Rev. Dr. McKenzie, of Brantford, as-

BANANA CROP

Has Been Completely Ruined in Jamaica by a Hurricane.

By Courier Leased Wire.

Kingston, Ja., Aug. 31.—Information collected from all parts of the Island respecting the damage done by the hurricane of the fifteenth instant, indicates that for all practical purposes this year's banana crop has been completely ruined, the crop of 1917 reduced by fifty per cent. and barring further blows the full output from all plantations will not be in effect before 1918.

While the copanaut loss is considerable, due to the blowing down of immature nuts, the loss in growing trees is probably not more than two per cent. on the average. So far as is shown from reports from mountain districts, damage to coffee has been negligible and the same may be said of other crops. Although the Island was practically in the teeth of the storm, the damage done was moderate as compared with that wrought by the "blow" of 1903.

of his promotion. Rev. Mr. Purton left Paris two years ago last month to assist at St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit, but has now resigned to become an assistant to Rev. W. D. Maxon, of Christ Church, on Jefferson Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. R. Whitson, Walnut Street, who has been visiting at Toronto, for the past month has returned home.

Miss S. Clinton, of Kincairdine, has been visiting with relatives in town.

Mrs. George Midgley has returned from an enjoyable holiday spent at Erie Beach.

Miss Bella Cahill is spending her vacation at Crystal Beach.

Miss Emma Wright who has been visiting at Hamilton and Niagara Falls, returned home Monday.

PARIS PAPERS

Predict Decisive Developments Will Take Place in Balkans.

By Courier Leased Wire. Paris, Aug. 31.—The Figaro, The Matin and other Paris newspapers, predict decisive developments in the Balkans which will have a notable effect on the war. The Matin says:

"The diplomatic task of the Allies has ended with the entrance of Roumania into the war. United action on the whole front is absolute, and the hour has arrived for the high command to act. The Allies have complete liberty of action. In addition to the great superiority which they possess armies which on all fields of battle have given proof of the most heroic virtues. They have at their disposal war material which permits them to give blow for blow. It is now the turn of the cannon to speak."

"But there is one battle front, where the most rapid and decisive results must be obtained. That is the Salonik front. General Sarrail (the allied commander) has French, British, Serbians, Italians and Russians. The action of the Russians and Roumanians in the north, and of the allied armies in Macedonia, the newspapers say, may be expected to hasten the decision."

Toronto Exhibition Headquarters Independent Order of Foresters

is the Independent Order of Foresters' headquarters, where they have erected a magnificent tent, beautifully furnished and decorated with palms and flowers, and where every comfort is offered to the many Foresters, friends and visitors whom they will receive during the two weeks of the fair. This will be a much-sought-after spot, as there are so very few places of rest.

When visiting the tent you will be received by G. A. Mitchell, A.S.C.R., assisted by the two able Deputy Supreme Chief Rangers, Brothers Fellman and Harvey Lloyd. A most attractive calendar has been prepared for distribution, and several other novelties will be given to all visitors. It will be well worth while for the many admirers of this great Order to make a call at this tent and learn more about the great fraternal work the I. O. F. are doing, and to listen to the stories they tell with reference to caring for the orphans—the little children who have lost their mothers and fathers—and also the great work they are doing in their sanatoriums in treating their members who are afflicted with tuberculosis.

MAPLE DELL

(From our own correspondent.) Mrs. George H. Wallace, went on Monday last to visit her father, James Miller, whose home is in the County of Halton, Ont. Mr. Miller is a veteran of the Crimean war. He fought at Alma-Balaclava, Inkerman and the taking of Sebastopol, and came through without a wound. On his return to England his company, the Black Watch, was ordered out to India to quell the mutiny. He spent five years in India, but did no actual fighting. He then got his discharge and came to Canada, settling in the township of Nassagawaga, where he still resides with his eldest daughter. Though in his 84th year, his general health is fairly good. What might have been a big fire yesterday, was seen in the nick of time, a spark from a passing train caught in the dry grass in Andrew Sharp's field. Fortunately it was seen in time and help was near to stamp it out.

MAYOR BOWLBY

Sat on the Bench at the Toronto Police Court.

(Toronto Star) Mayor J. W. Bowlby, of Brantford, who is in the city for the Exhibition, visited the police court yesterday and sat on the bench with Squire Cohen for half an hour, listening to the cases. When he was told that 80 cases had been heard, he looked agitated, and said to Squire Cohen: "I wouldn't like to have your job." Mayor Bowlby, who is an uncle of Sir George H. Perley, came from Brantford for the opening of the Exhibition. He is to represent his city at the Ontario Municipal Association today.

"I am also looking for a Russian counsel to discuss some business with him," said Mayor Bowlby, "and to my disgust, found that there wasn't one in Toronto."

INTERESTING LETTER

From a Member of the 125th Brant County Battalion.

The following letter is from a member of the Brant Overseas Battalion. It will be noticed that it was written on board ship.

Allan Line, R.M.S. Scandinavian August 17, 1916.

Dear Mother:

We expect to be in Liverpool this afternoon about 4 p.m., so had better notify you by cable, which I expect you will receive "Saturday the 18th. There has been a great deal of luck with 125th Battalion, as we see on either side. We have had lots of games and sports on the boat, which is a liner with all the fittings and not like some of the transports that have the bunks out so they can pack in a bunch of hammocks for the men. The destroyers are out in front of each ship about half-a-mile to look after subs. We were about seven days without seeing a boat except one small Danish sailing boat.

Well, I have charge of a platoon in "B" Coy, now, as well as the Sig. transport. I had Simpson a Sgt. The boat has given us a lunch for the train ride to-night, so I think we will be in the South of England Saturday morning.

My cable and letters, etc., will be a few days late, they say, as they hold them all four days, as the letters have to be sent very strict about photos aboard the ship, also at Halifax, so I may not be able to send any for some time. I had in a supply of films at Montreal, N.B. I have seen some war vessels of several classes. The "Carnarvon" of the country class came over with us, there being four transports, the "Scandinavian," 125th leading; "Scotia" next, with 124th Highlanders; "Metagama" with 123rd, Toronto.

George Thorburn may be on the "Cameronian" with the 119th, as they were at Halifax when we were there. We came over very slow, and not on the usual route, so did not meet any ships. When near Britain, 400 miles away, we were told the destroyers would pick us up, and sure as fate they did, at noon, to the minute. Give some, eh?

We began a race which the Cameronian will win, and we will come second, with the Metagama near us. There is great rivalry between us and both going like mad. The destroyers can laugh at us all, and circle around us whenever they feel like it, with the foam going over their bows—nearly 40 knots, sometimes 45 per hour, which is awful for a ship to make.

You can write me any time you do not know my address, to the Canadian Army Postal Service, London, England.

Lesson X.—Third Quarter, For Sept. 3, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, II Cor. xi, 21-33. Memory Verses, 25, 26—Golden Text, II Cor. xii, 9—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The beginning of our lesson chapter takes up the very topic of the last part of last week's lesson, that of the church being espoused as a chaste virgin to Christ as her husband, or, as he said in Rom. vii, 4, we are married to Christ, raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. We still wait for the actual marriage of the Lamb, which must take place before we can come with Him in His glory. See the order of events in Rev. xix. Paul speaks of Eve being beguiled by the serpent, and the church is the body and bride of Christ, the last Adam, just as Eve was both the body and bride of the first Adam. When this Eve shall have been united she shall be brought to her Adam in the air, and then shall be the marriage of the Lamb, in which approaching event all the redeemed in glory must be intensely interested. The same serpent who deceived Eve is still deceiving all his blinded ones, coming to them as an angel of light, preaching another Jesus, another spirit, another gospel (verses 3, 4, 13). All from whom the true gospel is hid are blinded by him as the god of this world, and now, as in the time of Paul, multitudes suffer gladly to be taught by fools rather than listen to the wisdom of God (verse 19; iv, 3, 4). It is sometimes said of preachers and evangelists that they are in the work for what there is in it financially. This may be true of some, but we prefer to judge nothing before the time till the Lord come, for the judgment seat of Christ will make all His own and their works manifest (I Cor. iv, 5; II Cor. v, 9, 10).

They could not accuse Paul of seeking his own gain in any way, for while at Corinth, as we saw in Acts xvii, 2, 3, he and Aquila and Priscilla worked at their occupation at tent makers. He would not be chargeable to any man nor be a burden to any one, rather would he spend and be spent for them, though the more he loved them the less he was loved by them (chapters xi, 7-9; xii, 15-18). He counted all things as nothing compared with the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, his Lord, for whom he suffered the loss of all things (Phil. iii, 7-10). He did not tell us that it was a special privilege to suffer with Christ (Phil. i, 29) without having tasted of the same in full measure himself.

In verse 23 he speaks of labors, stripes, prisons, deaths, and then in the verses following he tells of five scourgings, three beatings with rods, once stoned, three shipwrecks, besides all other sufferings which he mentions, making up a list which perhaps was never exceeded in the life of any other individual believer. Yet he says: "Most gladly will I glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake" (xii, 9, 10).

Was there ever such another devoted follower of the Lord Jesus or such a record of suffering for His sake? He certainly did cause others to suffer when he was a persecutor and murderer, but when his turn came he must have far exceeded them all. If the record in chapter xii, 1-8, refers to his experience at Lystra, when he was stoned to death there on his first missionary tour, what he saw and heard in paradise of the third heaven, while for a little while dead, and dragged out of Lystra as such must have greatly sustained him in all his sufferings after that. Peter tells us that we should rejoice to be partakers of Christ's sufferings, for when His glory shall be revealed we shall be glad with exceeding joy (I Pet. iv, 12, 13). In II Cor. iv, 17, Paul speaks of affliction as being light, and but for a moment, compared with the far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory which will be ours.

Abraham was sustained by the assurance of the city for which he looked and was fully persuaded that God would do as He had said. What Jacob saw in vision at Bethel must have been a great strength to him, unworthy though he was. The assurances given to Joseph in his dreams must have been a great comfort to him in the years of his imprisonment and slavery. The good will of Him who dwelt in the bush and the recompense of the reward were more to Moses than all the pleasures and treasures that are set in Egypt. Isaiah was cheered in dark days by a vision of the King, the Lord of Hosts (Isa. vi), and our Lord Himself was sustained by the joy set before Him (Heb. xii, 2). There is nothing like light, and but for a moment, compared with the far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory which will be ours.

German "Surrender Drill" Latest on Somme Front

With Characteristic Thoroughness, the Kaiser's Soldiers Have Rehearsed Plan of Procedure.

By Frederick Palmer.
With the British Army in France, Aug. 30, via London, Thursday, Aug. 31.—An officer and 50 Germans surrendered in a body near Guillemont to-day. They were put out as usual with orders to stick under the British shell fire and against British infantry attacks to the last man. But when the British worked their way up on either side of the exposed trench they held, they ran up a white flag without making any fight of it. They said that they had suffered enough hardships and had had enough of war and preferred to be taken prisoners.

The heavy downpour of rain continued all day, making ponds of the shell craters and turning the trenches into mud holes.

While the German press is saying that Roumania's entry will lengthen the war, prisoners taken say that will shorten it, as it is evident now that Germany cannot win, and had better compromise than prolong the struggle.

"But we are not going to consider any compromise," the British soldiers tell them.

The British who have received the surrender of Germans say that with their characteristic organization they now have what the British call a "surrender drill" when they come out of their dugouts to give themselves up, as in the case of the body to-day, they have all their letters, papers and valuables in their hands, ready as a peace offering to their captors.

THE VATICAN IF CONGRESS PASSES AN EIGHT HOUR DAY BILL THE STRIKE WILL BE CALLED OFF

Considering the Action of Germany. In Forcing the Inhabitants of North France to Work in Fields.

By Courier Leased Wire.
Paris, Aug. 31.—The Vatican is considering the action of Germany in compelling the inhabitants of the north of France to work in the fields, according to a statement by Cardinal Gasparri, the Papal secretary of state, says the Rome correspondent of The Journal. The cardinal declined, however, to discuss the status of this subject.

Questioned as to the possibility of the resumption of diplomatic relations between France and the Holy See, the cardinal said the Vatican would be delighted by such an event, but that all would depend upon the relations with the Holy See, and whether that government desired it.

With the re-establishing of peace, all the belligerents would have imperative need for rest which would be a number of years at least put an end to internal wars, said the cardinal. Religious peace, he declared, will never be complete in France without a resumption of diplomatic relations with the Holy See. He asserted that after the war, the points of contact between the civil power in France and the ecclesiastical authority will not disappear, but rather will go on multiplying, and he predicted a government really careful of the interests of the French Republic, will not sacrifice them to an old-fashioned anti-clericalism.

"Otherwise there would be no peace, or it would not be lasting," concluded the Cardinal. "In awaiting this peace the Holy See will maintain absolute impartiality toward the belligerent, whatever one may say to the contrary."

No Hits, No Runs Off Leonard

Boston, Aug. 31.—"Dutch" Leonard, the Red Sox southpaw, walked into the baseball hall of fame yesterday by pitching a no-hit, no-run game against St. Louis. Only twenty-nine batters faced the Boston pitcher. Two received bases on balls, one in the eighth, and one in the ninth. In the first seven innings the Browns were set down in order, the Red Sox giving sensational support to Leonard. Hooper's catch of a long drive by Sisler in the first inning, and Lewis' shoestring stab of Austin's liner prevented extra base blows. Manager Carrigan was behind the bat, and handled Leonard's delivery in faultless style. It was Carrigan who caught George Foster when the latter pitched a no-hit game against New York on June 21.

Jack Berry will be out of the game about four weeks owing to the injury sustained on Tuesday when a pitched ball by Davenport fractured a small bone in his hand. Boston yesterday purchased from the Athletics the release of Outfielder Jimmy Walsh.

Robins Won on Bunched Hits

St. Louis, Aug. 31.—Bunched hits, coupled with errors by the St. Louis infield, enabled Brooklyn to win 4 to 1, starting each inning in which the visitors scored with a single. Score: St. Louis . . . 020001010—1 5 3
Brooklyn . . . 020001010—4 8 1
R. H. E. Williams and Meyers; Steele, Williams and Gonzales.

Rally in 11th
Gave Giants Game

Cincinnati, Aug. 31.—For eleven innings yesterday Cincinnati and New York battled with honors even, but in the twelfth four consecutive singles by the visitors gave them the edge, and they captured the final game of the series, 6 to 5. The wildness of both Benton and Perritt caused them to be relieved early in the struggle, while Schneider weakened in the eighth, and he, too, was supplanted. McCarty was ordered out of the game in the fifth inning for disputing a decision. Score:—
New York . . . 100100110002—6 13 1
Cincinnati . . . 030100000001—5 6 3

Larry Doyle Demands Raise

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Larry Doyle, the former captain of the New York Giants, who figured in the trade which sent "Heinie" Zimmerman to the Giants to-day, refused to play with the Chicago Cubs. Doyle refused to join the local club unless guaranteed an increase in salary over that called for in his contract.

Baseball and Strike Situation

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Plans for transporting baseball teams, in the event of a general railroad strike, by boat, motor and interurban trolley have been discussed in every league which would be affected, it was learned here to-day.
President Johnson, of the American League was not in his office, but it was said on interruption in the schedule was anticipated, as tentative plans for moving the teams from town to town by motor cars where trolleys or boats were not available already had been arranged. Boat lines from Buffalo to Cleveland or Detroit and thence for most of the way to Chicago, if the trolley lines will be used by teams here and probably the St. Louis Clubs.
The extensive trolley system of Indiana, Ohio and Illinois will make solution of the transportation problem not difficult.
Leonard's no hit, no-run performance against the Browns at Boston yesterday and the defeat of the Tigers by the Highlanders at New York, sent Carrigan's team a full game ahead of the Detroiters.

Restrictions on Baseball Drafts

Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 31.—The National Commission yesterday served notice on all major league baseball clubs that all clubs whose roster includes thirty-five or more players on September 15 will not be permitted to file a draft for this season. The announcement also reminds the clubs that the major league drafting season begins on September 15 and closes on September 20. The hour and place of the commission's meeting for the opening and awarding of selections of players through the draft will be announced later.
It was also learned semi-officially that the meeting would be an open one this year and the drafts announced publicly. This will be the first time in the last three seasons that this has been done. During the last two years of the Federal League the drafts were kept secret, until the player had been signed to a contract.

Leafs Cleaned Up on Richmond Yesterday, Taking the Whole Series of Five

The Leafs made it five straight from Richmond by capturing both ends of the double-header yesterday at the Stadium, the first by the score of 10 to 1, and the second by the score of 4 to 2. The initial game was a rout, as after the first inning Herbert was invincible, while McKenery proved easy picking for the local sluggers, who batted the sphere for a dozen safeties. The Leafs as usual had two big innings, they scoring four in the fourth and three in the fifth. After these spans it was time to figure out the plans for the second game.
In the get-away contest two southpaws were on the slab, in Crabbie, who was making his initial appearance here, and McTigue. The latter has been unfortunate in his last three starts, but managed to break the spell against the Rebels, although it was the hardest game of the series for the locals to win. Both teams had the same number of hits—nine—but McTigue was unsteady at times, and there were two innings where the visitors might have broken up the game, namely, the fifth and sixth, when the side was retired with bases full. The local southpaw deadheaded six to first, while he fanned twelve. Timely hitting, coupled with good base-running, was responsible for the Leafs winning.
A pass to Truesdale in the third, followed by Trout's sacrifice and Murray's double, brought the Leafs their first run in the second game, while in the fourth another was added when Smith doubled, stole third, and scored when Third Baseman McDemott was throwing out Hayden. In the sixth one more was chalked up, when Blackburne walked and then went to third on Smith's sacrifice, Hayden scoring him with a sacrifice fly. Singles by Graham, Viox and a double by Blackburne gave the Leafs their last tally in the eighth.

Rudolph Won His Own Game

Pittsburg, Aug. 31.—Boston shut out Pittsburg, 1 to 0, in the first game of a double-header here yesterday, but lost the last game, 6 to 5. Rudolph's single after Egan had doubled in the fifth inning scored the only run made in the first contest.
After Pittsburg had tied the score in the last game in the sixth inning, Baird doubled in the eighth, stole third and scored the winning run on Smykal's sacrifice fly. Hirschman at first base did not have a punt until he retired the last man in the game.
First game—

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Lavender held Philadelphia to three hits to-day, while a cluster of two-baggers in the fourth off Demaree netted the Cubs a 2 to 0 victory. Score:—

CURRENT OF WAR DRAWING GREECE

Decision Is Already Formed —Will soon Follow Ex- ample of Roumania.

Athens, Aug. 31.—The news from Roumania overshadows everything. It is felt that the events of the last few days and those immediately pending bring about a tremendous change in the Balkans and mark the opening of a vitally important stage in the progress of the war. An official communication is published by the Saloniki journal, "Opinion," stating that the Roumanian government is about to deliver to the government of Sofia an ultimatum demanding the immediate evacuation of Serbian territory and a return to the status established by the Bucharest treaty.

France Asks Interview

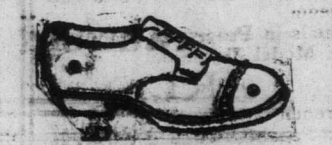

Meanwhile the sudden recurrence of the king's illness is holding up the march of events. Yesterday the French minister requested an audience of the king on two occasions, but was unable to be received owing to his majesty's indisposition. Guilleminot renewed the request yesterday. Diplomatic circles attach considerable importance to this reiterated request. Nea Hellas declared that today or to-morrow the Entente ministers, by order of their governments, will inquire personally of the king to what point he would be disposed to permit the inroad of the Bulgars into Greek territory, so that knowing his decision the powers may adopt the necessary military measures in case of an accentuation of the enemy's advance.

Zalmis to Quit

The same journal states that it is in a position to declare that Premier Zalmis has come to a decision not to remain in power, and adds that he will communicate his decision to the king to-day. Two weeks ago Zalmis informed his majesty that in case of not ceasing to be responsible for the government, Nea Hellas concludes, "It can be affirmed that the question of the attitude of Greece has reached its final phase, and in a few days the problem will be solved one way or another."

This diagnosis of the situation is confirmed by Paris, which says: "We have reason to believe that the Zalmis government will not remain indifferent to the action of Roumania. The government's opinion on this subject is already known, and will only be strengthened by Roumanian's official declaration of war."

INVASION OF WOMEN

(1) Women Car Cleaners at Work. (2) Turning Fuses. (3) Port McNicoll. (4) Women Workers at Galt.

BEFORE the war there were five million, five hundred women wage earners in Great Britain; today there are said to be over ten million. Five million men have enlisted for active service, and a woman has taken the place of every able-bodied man who might have been engaged in peaceful occupations. England has never been so busy a manufacturing and industrial country as she is in 1916, but this would never have been possible if women had not stepped into the breach.

ANOTHER GREAT CRIME IS COMMITTED BY GERMANS

Details of How French Girls and Elderly Men Were Deported to Work For the Huns - Harrowing Details of How Families Were Broken Up

(From the London Times)

The French Yellow Book dealing with the conduct of the German authorities towards the inhabitants of the French departments in enemy occupation is a lasting monument of German shame. The evidence contained therein is summarized in the Note desepatched to neutral powers. In this document it is set forth:—

"On various occasions the government of the republic has had to draw the attention of neutral powers to the proceedings employed contrary to treaty by the German military authorities in dealing with the inhabitants of the French territory which they temporarily occupy.

"The government of the republic is to-day obliged to place under the notice of foreign governments documents which furnish proof that our enemies have decreased fresh measures of even greater inhumanity.

"On the order of Gen. von Graevenitz, and with the aid of the 64th infantry regiment detached by the German general headquarters, about 25,000 French subjects, young girls of between 16 and 20 years of age, young women and men up to the age of 55, without distinction of social condition, have been torn from their homes at Roubaix, Tourcoing, and Lille, separated without pity from their families, and forced to work in the fields in the departments of the Aisne and the Ardennes.

"At the beginning of April the German authorities issued an appeal for agricultural labor. As last year, when the crops were got in they were all dispatched to Germany, and the laborers were robbed of the fruit of their toil, the response to this appeal was meagre. An order for wholesale deportation followed in these terms:—

"All the inhabitants of children below 14 years of age and their mothers, and old men must be ready to be transported within an hour and a half. An officer will finally decide who is going to be taken to the concentration camp. The inhabitants of the house, therefore, must gather in front of their domicile. In case of bad weather they will be allowed to remain in the house, and the house must remain open. All appeals will be useless. No inhabitant, even those who will not be deported, will be allowed to leave his home before 8 a. m. in the morning. German time. Every one will have a right to 13 kilogrammes (about 27 lb.) of luggage. If there is any excess weight everything belonging to that person will be refused without ceremony. The baggage must be separate for each person, and must have a label, clearly written and firmly fixed. The address will give surname and Christian name, and the number of the identity card. It is absolutely necessary in your interest to take utensils for eating and drinking, as well as a blanket, good shoes and linen. Every one must have his identity card. Anyone trying to escape deportation will be mercilessly punished.—Etappen Kommandatur."

A Week of Shame.

"The 64th infantry regiment was removed from its more heroic duties at Verdun, and sent on an order from general headquarters to see to the carrying out of this inhuman proclamation, which would make of the Holy Week of 1916 a week of shame for every German. In the town, where the blackest misery has long prevailed, rumor as to what was about to befall had filled the hearts of every one with apprehension. During the three weeks which preceded the posting of the placard there had been isolated raids. A transport would be stopped by a detachment of troops and three or four men or girls ordered out of it, and taken off there and then for unknown destinations. The French civil authorities against the protests of the bishop and the inhuman proceedings were unheeded. The only reply of the general to the bishop's personal remonstrances was, "You bishop, be quiet, and get out."

"A meeting of protest was arranged, and while that meeting was actually in progress the placards appeared upon the walls of Lille. They were full of troops, and a new general arrived to direct operations. The placards appeared on the 18th. Never had Holy Week seen such a church in Lille crowded with congregations so fervent in their prayers. Never were the words of pity and consolation uttered by the clergy listened to with more hope.

"At 4 o'clock on Saturday morning at Tourcoing, Roubaix and Lille the soldiers of Germany marched down to occupy positions for the night. By 4 o'clock in the morning they had surrounded the Pives quarters which was the first district attacked. At cross roads, and at the end of each street, they installed machine gun sections, and then patrols of 10 or 15 men with fixed bayonets on their rifles, and they proceeded to order the inhabitants out into the street. Outside each house there hung a list of all the inhabitants, and there was no means of escape. An officer, accompanied by a non-commissioned officer, selected from 10 minutes to an hour and a half in minutes to prepare themselves for their departure and bid farewell to their families.

"A Delusive Truce.

"On Easter Sunday there was a truce, and the rumor went round among the French that the vehement protests of the bishop had moved the German general's heart. That the neutral powers had intervened; but when the work was resumed again in the early hours of Monday morning, the dismay of disappointment added to the whole horror. For a whole week this infamy continued. The Germans imposed upon themselves only two merciful restrictions. They left children below the age of 14 and their mothers, and in taking girls below the age of 20 they took some older members of their family with them.

"Selection among the rest of the population was governed by general considerations. Girls whose hands showed signs of work were taken in preference to the others; servant girls were taken nearly everywhere, and in many cases their mistresses, declining to be separated from them, went with them to share the unknown future. The proportion of women taken was between 20 and 30 per cent. Two hundred schoolgirls of 15 were taken away, but on the whole it was the laboring classes who suffered, and in some instances young girls of good family who had been removed have been sent back.

"The raids were accompanied by terrible scenes of grief and sorrow, and not a few elderly people lost their reason when they saw their daughters being carried off. Some of the men, especially of the Landwehr, seemed to be conscious that they were engaged in shameful work, some of the officers, too, admitted that nothing could ever cleanse the German flag from this fresh stain of blood. Indeed, it is said in Lille that a number of officers and men are in the citadel awaiting their trial for refusing to dishonor themselves.

"By this act of honor they spared themselves scenes which one would have thought might melt the heart of even a German—the maddened daughter were taken, who cursed them in their race, in their wives, and in their children; or the woman who broke out into sweat of blood when her boy was taken, and whose shattered reason refused to recognize him when he was brought back.

Victims' Defiant Spirit.

"Against all this black horror

AN OPEN AIR NURSERY IN LONDON, ENGLAND. When the weather is fine, the babies at the City of Westminster Infirmary, spend the day in the open air. Fine work in the direction of child welfare is done at this institution.

stands out the splendid spirit of its victims. On leaving their homes they were collected in the churches and schools of their district, numbered and labelled, and carried off in carted wagons to the station, harlots and young girls, ragamuffins and merchants, all joined in the common misery. Yet, as the train passed, these wretched creatures, some of them, defiantly shouting "Vive la France!" and for the first time in their lives entered Lille with a sense of freedom and release.

"I saw those herds of people, wrote a man of Roubaix. "It broke one's heart. The women, as they tried to throw little parcels to their husbands, brothers, or sons, the young fellows on the whole held themselves sturdily, some of them were singing. What moved us most was the departure of the women and young girls who had been taken. You can imagine the state of parents who saw young girls of between 16 and 20 years of age going off in the midst of young chaps of all sorts and conditions. And whether? That no one knows. The wind of sorrow is blowing round us, but for all that we keep our courage and are confident."

25,000 Deported.

"Some 25,000 persons have been deported from the towns of Lille, Roubaix and Tourcoing alone. Details as to the whereabouts of all have not been sent in, but the majority of them would appear to have been scattered between Sedan and Toul, down to the Ardennes and Tempelhof, where they are employed in various labors; some on the soil, others road-mending, some in the manufacture of munitions, and in the digging of trenches. But the fact which is most appalling to those who have studied the question of German atrocities is that the women are employed in cooking for the German officers.

"The inhabitants have been forced by threats, by violence, by executions, imprisonment and deportation, to make trenches, bridges, roads and railways; to work in factories and mines; to make sandbags for use in the trenches. They have been forced to work daily, without pay, in conditions of the utmost misery, without food, liable to be flogged, and to other odious punishments at the hands of the slave-drivers. They have been deported and carried off to work in the mines and factories of the Rhineland and Westphalia. But perhaps the most serious revelation contained in the latter part of the report is that large numbers of civilians who were in Germany at the outbreak of the war, and were interned, have been brought back to work immediately behind the German lines in France.

THIS GIRL IS PLUCKY

The First Member of Fair Sex to go Right Up to the French Front.

London, Aug. 31.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The first girl who has been right up to the front of the French Army is Kathleen Burke, the same English girl who on her tour early this year in behalf of the Scottish Women's Hospitals in the Eastern States and Canada collected so much money for the newspapers as the "thousand-dollar-a-girl."

A mere slip of a girl of the type that might be afraid of the report of a rifle, Miss Burke stood calmly by the side of the officers in Verdun, and while big shells were dropping about watched the direction of a counter-attack that repulsed the enemy.

As a special mark of appreciation of the splendid devotion of the body of workers she represents and of her own zeal in raising more than a million francs in support of hospital work, she was decorated with the Croix de Guerre, and French soldiers were entertained by three great generals. Her hosts were General Petain, the original defender of Verdun; General Nivelle, now in command of the army of Verdun, and General Dubois, in command in Verdun itself. Miss Burke was also rewarded by General Joffre. At a dinner given by the staff of the Citadel of Verdun to toast the success of the Allies and to the visitor's health were proposed to the accompaniment of the band of big guns.

Under the care of the Commandant Jean de Pulligny, of the Ministry of Munitions, and recently Chief of the French Engineering Commission to the United States, in position by the French Government, Miss Burke visited practically the entire front, paying practically attention to the big guns, and the hospitals. She remained in France about a month. "Ten days after my arrival I assisted at the opening of a new ward of 100 beds in the hospital of the Scottish Women at Royumont," she said. "The ward is called 'Canada' because it was paid for by the Canadian money. The money was given to me by five Canadian cities, Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton and London, Ontario. The Canadian Red Cross made me a splendid gift of $10,000."

"Everywhere I was tremendously impressed by the work of the hospitals, their remarkable systems whereby the wounded are so promptly and so effectively treated, and I was glad actually to witness the wonderful work of the American Ambulance Sections. I saw several of them, and they were much closer to the front than anyone would imagine, the young men being constantly in the greatest peril, but seeming to forget in their zeal all about their personal safety.

Although she knew it in a vague way, Miss Burke says that she did not realize the great danger she was in at Verdun as she stood out near the top of the Citadel and watched the battle. Men were falling within a few hundred yards of her. "It was a bit thrilling," she said, "especially to see the big shells 'rough-words' from Krupp, as the officers referred to them, falling on various sides. I do not retain 'impressions' of any of them individually, but one burst of shrapnel was particularly terrifying. Another unit was a big one. We did, indeed, feel much safer when we were in the comfortable and protected vaults under the citadel. I think it must have been the perfect ease and lack of the slightest trace of anxiety among the officers that set me so much at my own ease during the terrific cannonade of the big guns.

For her efforts in behalf of the Serbians, Miss Burke has been made a Knight of St. Sava in Serbia, the youngest on the roll. Her organization had four hospitals in Serbia and transferred their work after the German occupation to Salonki and Corcica, where they have a medical corps of 6,000 Serbian refugees. Another unit is leaving shortly to join the Serbian Army in called the "American Unit," as it was paid for with funds subscribed in America.

Music and Drama

"The Bohemian Girl."

"The survival of the fittest" is an old saying that applies to "The Bohemian Girl," which the Aborn Opera Company will present with their spectacular production at the Grand Opera House shortly.

This special modernized presentation, staged by the Messrs Aborn six years ago in New York, has continued with unabated attendance ever since that time, and from reports of the large audiences greeting it this season, it is probable that this attraction will continue for a long time as a perennial offering. And this is a sort of second life for "The Bohemian Girl," for this melodious masterpiece reigned in the first rank of popularity for several generations, during which time other operas continued in favor for a time but were all shelved and were forgotten or at least revived only occasionally. It was retained in the repertoire of many opera companies continuously, but the version used was the old-fashioned one. The Paris Opera Comique reproduced it with a new libretto and elaborated score, and the Aborns used the same version in their presentation.

The same elaborate equipment and organization that has graced "The Bohemian Girl" for six seasons will be seen in its presentation here. The cast includes Jeannette Wells as Arline, Albert Parr as Thaddeus, Phyllis Davies as the Gypsy Queen, Albert Wallerstedt as the Count, Francis J. Tyler as Devilshoof, Ralph Nicholls as Florestin, Carl Burton as conductor, Baby Phillips as the infant Countess, and the wonderful Tzigan Arab acrobats.

While the Paris version used by the Aborn company demands a more elaborate production than the old one, and gives fastidious music lovers a more musicianly score, it retains all of the beauties of the original, including such gems as "Then You'll Remember Me," "I Dream I Dwell in Marble Halls," "The Heart Bowed Down," "Bliss Forever Past," "A Soldier's Life," "The Fair Land of Poland," and others.

HINDENBURG'S APPOINTMENT

May Mean a Big Blow Against Riga and Petrograd.

By Courier Leased Wire. London, Aug. 31.—The Daily Chronicle, in discussing Von Hindenburg's appointment as chief of staff, means that the Germans are preparing a great offensive blow against Riga and Petrograd. "The Verdun scheme has failed," says the newspaper, "the alternative scheme, a blow against Petrograd, has always been associated with Von Hindenburg. His failure to make it good in 1915 was due in part to the failure of the German staff to give him needed reinforcements at the new Petrograd offensive is contemplated. It is natural for Von Hindenburg to be selected as chief of staff. It is natural that he should make it a condition of the undertaking that he be appointed chief of the general staff so that the whole resources of Germany may be at his disposal.

Bowling

Five rinks of Fernleigh bowlers, from Hamilton, played the Heatlers yesterday and were defeated by 48 shots.

At the bowling tournament in Dunnville, a Dufferin rink, composed of A. F. Wicks, N. F. Sheppard, J. S. Dowling and J. B. Wilson (skip) won the Aikens trophy, a large tankard. They had to win eight games to land the goods. The individual prizes were cut glass butter dishes.

TENNIS

Forest Hills, N.J. Aug. 31—Thirty-two players, including nearly all of the leaders have survived the first three days of the National Lawn Tennis tournament. Interest in the struggle for the championship increased to-day as the diminishing field improved the quality of the matches. All the others are from the east.

The greatest interest was displayed to-day in the battle between Maurice E. McLoughlin and Theodore R. Pell. From the result the spectators hoped to get the first reliable indication of McLoughlin's chances of regaining the championship. William M. Johnston, national champion, also has a hard match before him to-day. He will meet Nathaniel W. Miles, the Boston star.

HAS HE FLED?

Rumor Is Current that King Constantine Has Legged It.

By Courier Leased Wire. London, Aug. 31.—No confirmation of the reported flight of King Constantine from Athens to Larissa has been received in official circles here, which considers it highly improbable.

The report that the King of Greece had fled from the capital and had taken refuge with a German escort of 300 Thians at Larissa, was forwarded from Saloniki by Ward Price, the official British representative in Greece under date of Tuesday evening. King Constantine, according to despatches from Athens underwent a surgical operation a few days ago and has since been suffering from the effects of it.

BRANT FORTY-SIXTH YEAR

A VERY HIGH MOVEMENT

Is Reported Towards the Southern Roumanian Frontier

By Courier Leased Wire. London, Sep. 2.—A despatch from Paris, received in information received in London, seems to show that the Germans preparing to bring the full weight of their effort upon the southern Roumanian frontier, toward which heavy movement of troops is reported to be in progress.

It is the general opinion that Marshal Von Hindenburg's first fort will be made there upon Danube, and that he will combine himself with holding the western front—if necessary after withdrawal on a shorter line.

General Sarrajl assumed the offensive on August 20. There seems more than ever reason, both the military and the political, of view with regard to Greece, to push his offensive with energy.

MORE AND GRAVE PREPARATIONS

With Regard to Crisis in Greece Committee of National Advances sues an Appeal

By Courier Leased Wire. Paris, Sept. 2.—A despatch from Paris, received in London, Friday, says that a committee of national defense composed of Col. Zimbrakakis and other prominent military men and civilians has proclaimed as the provisional government of Macedonia. A gendarmerie and cavalry, says the despatch, have joined this movement. A parade of revolutionary troops of Zimbrakakis took place, which there was a parade of civilians and volunteers wearing blue and white uniform of Manian Hussars.

A Manifesto to Paris, Sep. 2.—An Athens despatch from that city publishes a manifesto by General Lapatzis to the Greeks to enroll as volunteers in the army which will free Greece from its enemies. A despatch from Athens quotes Lapatzis as saying the Greek army which had been set for October will be useless, and urging the
