LOST IN THE WOODS

Last week two young men living at Clementsport, one named Swiber, recently returned from the West, and the other named Balcom, went in the woods to hunt moose. They became separated. Balcom returned home and swiber was lost. Searching parties have been out for over a week with the result that yesterday Charles Kaulbach, of Victoria, found the missing man in Cranberry Meadow about two miles and a half from the nearest house. He was suffering from exposure and hunger, but was carefully cared for by Mr. Kaulbach, and returned to his home in Clementsport, yesterday morning, where his mother resides.

CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, via London, November 6—(By W. A. Willison, special correspondent of the Canadian Press)—In another great advance along their whole front, the Canadians seem to have taken Passchendaele, Goudberg, and Messelmarkt. If this is so, no of maintaining the Passchendaele position secure, Hindenburg, after the successful Canadian advances on Bellevue spur and the capture of Crest farm and Meetechee issued a special army order should be held at all cost and if lost must be retaken. For days the enemy had been rushing up and new formations of troops to insure his hold on the position His efforts proved unavailing. The best troops the enemy has give ground before our forces, who have moved more signal triumph has been won in the whole history of the Canadian corps.

Our division will have more than settled the old score on St. Julien. Dominating Roulers and Roulers plain, Passchendaele would give the allied forces a firm footing on the series of great spurs extending from Ghelvelt, on the south, including Bellevue spur, and Passchendaele ridge, running northeast for miles. Possession of Passchendaele would mark a great triumph in the long struggle to secure possession of this higher ground. It would give the allies the advantage of position in the salient, and relegate the Boches to the lower levels, dominated by our guns.

To Hold at All Cost. Knowing too well the vital necessity enemy shell holes and concrete strong points in advance, and capturing numerous machine gun positions which threatened our attack from the Paschendaele-Zonnebeke road to the village itself, where the enemy, from cellars and machine gun positions in the ruins, fought to break down our attack. To the left our infantry met with desperate opposition seventy-five yards in front of Meetechee, where the enemy stronghold formed the key to their whole left position as Meetechee did to ours.

Messelmarkt was the scene of another determined resistance. steadily towards their objective since that strategic situation was sure an that crations, October 25.

GERMANY CALLS LAST RESERVES Zurich, November 8—Germany has called up her last reserves. The action is attributed to the intention of the central powers to make a final effort on the Western Front before America's help is effective.

PRESS AND UNION GOVERNMENT

There is naturally some difference of opinion on the part of Canadian newspapers as to union government, but a survey of the whole field shows that a great majority of the leading journals of Canada are giving the union ministry direct and powerful support. While some strong newspapers still reserve a position of some detachment, or have declared their political independence until the end of the war, few have thrown their influence directly against union since the East was given adequate representation in the cabinet. Coming down to particulars, there appear to be only two journals of importance in the West which are opposing union, The Edmonton Bulletin, owned by the Hon. Frank Oliver, and the Calgary News Telegram.

In Ontario union government has very general newspaper support. The Toronto dailies, irrespective of politics, are supporting the ministry. In Hamilton The Herald and The Spectator are "Union," and The Times is as yet neutral. In Kingston both papers are supporting the ministry and such is the case in Ottawa. In London it is one and one. In Montreal The Gazette, The Star and La Patrie favor the ministry; The Herald is as yet not committed, and La Presse, Le Canada and Le Devoir are hostile. In Sherbrooke The Record is neutral and The Tribune is opposed to union.

In Quebec city The Chronicle and L'Evenement are supporting the government, and The Telegraph and Le Soleil are opposed.

In Halifax The Herald and The Chronicle are supporting the ministry, and The recorder is against it. In Moncton The Transcript is opposed to union and The Times favorable. In St. John The Globe and The Standard are believed to be supporting Union, while The Telegraph and The Evening Times are favorable but take the ground that the union plan must be judged by results.

SAVING STEPS IN THE KITCHEN

A well-planned kitchen saves time and every woman is always on the lookout for ways and means of saving time and steps. She needs the extra time that a convenient kitchen will give her. she needs it for rest and recreation quite as much as for the performance of the countless other home and social duties that fall to her lot. A woman worn by much trudging in a mammoth, badly arranged kitchen wearied by endless carrying of fuel and water, and fatigued by poor light and ventilation cannot expect to do her duty. She may wear herself out in the service of her family, but her duty—giving her best to her family—will not have been performed, because her "best" will have been expended in the hours of toil, and she will be too tired and worn to enjoy the family companionship which makes life worth living.

Think of the saving in steps and strength by even so simple a thing as a wood box beside the kitchen range instead of running to the outdoor supply each time the fire is replenished. Women who have made their kitchens a convenient workshop may think it isn't possible that any kitchen in unprovided with a near-at-hand fuel supply but unfortunately such is the case. And then, just to go a bit further these hot days there should be an oil or gasoline stove, and further yet, a fireless cooker, to eliminate the heat of much necessary baking and brewing. Work in a cool kitchen is far different from work in a hot one.

A drain board on one or both sides of the sink is a great help. Her vegetables can be prepared or dishes washed without once having to cross the room. Drawers may be built beneath the sink or a cabinet arranged above to hold soap, scouring powder, brushes, towels, etc. The sink should have rounded corners, because such will not catch the dirt and are easy to keep clean.

There are not two housewives in a dozen who would arrange their cupboards alike, but all will agree that they should be roomy convenient to both stove and sink, and of a height to suit the worker. All working utensils should be kept near the place where they are most used. Built-in cupboards above and below a work shelf or a kitchen cabinet (and the present day cabinets are wonders in the completeness of their equipment) serve this very need by having handy pots and pans as well as provisions.

Of course the size of the kitchen depends upon its uses. A small kitchen, well lighted and well ventilated, is much to be desired if it is possible to have it. But even when it is necessary to use a large kitchen the equipment may be concentrated at one side so that there need not be useless tramping over a great space.

COST OF TAKING LIFE GREATER

In this War has any other LONDON, Nov. 2—"The cost of taking life is greater in this war than in any other wars. It takes somewhere between three and four tons of projectiles and explosives to kill a single individual." Dr. Woods Hutchison, fellow of the American Academy made this statement in the first of his three Chadwick lectures at the Royal Society of Medicine yesterday.

"There is every reason to believe," he said, "that the total death rate per annum in this war doesn't exceed five per cent of the total number of individuals engaged. Of the allied soldiers who survive wounds six hours 30 per cent recover. Of those who reach a field hospital 95 per cent recover, and of those who arrive at base hospitals the recoveries are 98 per cent.

"The percentage of cripples or permanent discharged is the smallest known in history. There are fewer amputations proportionately than ever known before. The wounds of war have been made less deadly than we ever could have imagined possible."

A slater who was engaged upon the roof of a house in Scotland fell from the ladder and lay in an unconscious state upon the pavement.

One of the pedestrians who rushed to the aid of the poor man chanced to have a flask of spirits in his pocket, and, to revive him, began to pour a little down his throat.

"Canny, mon, canny," said a man looking on, "or you'll croak him."

"Pour awa', mon, pour awa'; ye're doin' fine."—London Fund.

No Advance in 3 Years

With war-time prices so terribly high for nearly every article of food, it must be a particular satisfaction to those who love good coffee to know that there has been no advance in the price of Red Rose Coffee for three years—and the great increase in the sale of Red Rose Coffee this year shows that the price is appreciated.

People everywhere seem to be using much more coffee than they did before. Red Rose Tea is economical on account of its superior quality—but Red Rose Coffee is economical both on account of its quality and price, a combination hard to maintain in war-time.

PETROGRAD STRONGLY DEFENDED.

Petrograd, Oct. 29—Premier Kerensky speaking Saturday in the Preliminary Parliament said that the government never had debated the possibility of surrendering Petrograd to the enemy, as alleged by some newspapers. On the contrary the defence of the capital to the uttermost had been the constant care of the government, which, as a result of its deliberations, decided not to leave Petrograd, until the highest interests of the state demanded such a course.

Premier Kerensky added that the pre-beginning of the Passchendaele operation was no necessity for the Preliminary Parliament to discuss the question as a matter of urgency. If the evacuation of Petrograd were decided on, it would not be due to military events, but to the difficulties of obtaining supplies of food and fuel. All steps taken had for their object the strengthening of their defence.

HOW ONE FARMER KEPT HIS BOY ON THE FARM

A drainage inspector in a Canadian province once visited a certain farmer and found him not only in possession of a good house, with modern sanitary equipment, but he and his family were enjoying the occupation of the best rooms in the house. On being asked why he did not live in the kitchen like his neighbors, and why he looked so much after the comforts of his home, he replied that he wanted to keep his boy on the farm, and that he could not expect to do so if he did not provide him with home comforts equal to those enjoyed by people of equal means and rank of life in the city. There is more sound philosophy in the method of that farmer than is found between the covers of many text books on rural depopulation. —From Rural Planning and Development.

RURAL PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

A New Report on Problems of Vital and Current Interest in Canada

The latest report of the Commission of Conservation deals with the important subject of the planning and development of rural districts and small towns in Canada. It has been prepared by Mr. Thomas Adams, Town Planning Adviser of the Commission, who has made a close study of the problems of rural development in this country during the past three years, following twenty-five years experience in farming, land surveying and town planning in other countries.

The report deals comprehensively with the social conditions and tendencies in rural areas and the prevailing system of land settlement and development. It indicates the rural problems requiring solution in order to secure the proper development and economic use of land for purpose of efficiency, health, convenience, and amenity. The great injury which land development in Canada suffers, from speculation, neglect of public health, and want of expert business administration of land settlement is considered. Incidentally, the problem of returned soldiers is dealt with, and the connection between land development and such questions as taxation, unemployment, and high cost of living is clearly shown.

Having regard to the need for more attention being given to production in Canada; to the extent to which production is impaired by speculation in land, by neglect of public health, and by haphazard systems of development; to the importance of increasing the supply of human skill and energy and of capital derived from production instead of by borrowing; the problems dealt with in this respect are vital and current interest to the people of this country.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT FOOD CONTROLLER'S OFFICE

Ninety per cent of the food consumed in Canada passes through the hands of our women. There is, then, a great responsibility resting upon them to conserve supplies needed overseas and to utilize perishable foods. Waste in all its many forms should be regarded not only as a sin, but as actual disloyalty in war time. It is important that sufficient and nourishing food should be provided suited to the needs of the different members of the family.

Arbitrary rules in this case are of little value but the principle is of general application—that the women in the homes can do no more important patriotic service than by guarding against waste. The question of substitution is very largely in their hands. A little saving in every home, when multiplied by all the homes in the Dominion, would mean a very large amount of food products saved for the soldiers. You may feel that you do not need to sign the Food Pledge—that you will save all you can without it. But how about your neighbor? The actual pledge may help her to remember the duty of food service. The housewives of Canada, pledged to food service, and living up to their pledges, will be a powerful factor in the struggle against Germany and against starvation.

To Stick to Laurier is to Desert our Soldiers; To Stick to Our Soldiers is to Desert Laurier! You Must Must Make Your Choice!

(From the Win-the-War Winnipeg Telegram.)

Old time Liberal partisans naturally find it difficult to repudiate the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier the "party" chieftain whom they have followed unquestionably for years. They look upon it as disloyalty to the old leader for them to declare themselves Union Veterans. There is loyalty and loyalty in the present case, old time partisans of Sir Wilfrid thru no fault of their own, must make the choice between their leader and loyalty to Canada's heroic soldiers at the front. To stick to Laurier is to desert the soldiers. To stick to the soldiers is to desert Laurier. The choice must be made. It is an unpleasant choice for staunch old friends; but the Telegram has no doubt that the vast majority of those old time friends of Sir Wilfrid will make the right choice when the time to make it comes—the choice that patriotism demands.

What Will Canada's Answer Be?

OVER in the sodden trenches amid the bursting shells and the roar of artillery where Canada's boys are fighting and dying. —they are waiting for Canada's answer when the sale of Victory Bonds begins.

CANADA'S soldiers expect that we at home will put up the millions they need to keep on fighting, —the millions they must have to win Victory for freedom, home and Canada.

What answer will Canada make?

What answer will you make?

Shall it be said that Canada spares not her sons from the sacrifice of battle, yet withholds her dollars to give them victory?

Rather will it be said that Canada once more, for the fourth time in three years, cheerfully puts up her millions upon millions for the cause of freedom, righteousness and justice.

Canada's answer must be,

—that the Canadian hand to the plow of Victory holds steadfast and firm.

—that Canada is in deadly earnest when she says the "last man and the last dollar."

That is the answer Canada will give to our boys in the trenches, our kinsmen in Britain, and our Allies everywhere.

That is the answer we will give to the Huns who thought and said that Canada would desert the Empire before she would fight or pay.

Every bond you buy is an answer. Let the millions of answers from Canada's loyal men and women make a chorus of Victory to ring around the world.

GRAND DIVISION ELECTS OFFICERS

Head of the Order in North America Calls Attention to the Necessity for Continued and Increased Temperance Work

Halifax, Nov. 8.—The closing sessions of the Grand Division, Sons of Temperance for Nova Scotia were held today. The reports showed a decreased membership on account of the war, so many members having gone overseas. Red Cross and other patriotic work in all the towns and villages in the province has been the reason for decreased attendance at subordinate divisions. Emil L. G. Hohenthal, the head of the order in North America a one-time candidate for the governorship of Connecticut and present chairman of the exemption board for the first district of Connecticut spoke strongly of the necessity for renewed efforts in temperance following the war. He showed a copy of a circular being sent out by the liquor interests in Cincinnati in which the statement is made that "our soldiers when they have shared French wine and British rum with our allies will come home prepared to overthrow the last vestige of the prohibition idea." Grand officers were elected as follows:

- Grand Worthy Patriarch—John E. Hills, Halifax
- Grand Worthy Associate—Rev. J. McLuckie, Shelburne
- Grand Treasurer—George O. Wallace, Halifax
- Grand Secretary—A. M. Hoare, Halifax
- Grand Chaplain—Rev. J. McAskill, Musquodoboit Harbor
- Grand Conductor—H. G. McKay, Florence, C. B.
- Grand Sentinel—Mrs. Walter Stewart, Sydney Mines
- Grand Patron—Cora M. Lavers, Halifax

The additional members of the executive elected were: Andrew Hubley, Mrs. B. C. Morrison and Miss Ella McCrow, of Halifax.

WESTERN GRAIN GROWERS UNANIMOUSLY SUPPORT UNION-VICTORY GOVERNMENT

Regina, Saskatchewan, November 7.—J. B. Muzzelman has given out a statement expressing the views of the full board of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association in regard to Union-Victory government. His statement was to the effect that the board was unanimously in sympathy with the Union government and pledged its approval but objected to the old-time political parties dividing up the Province so far as representation is concerned. Nominating conventions should have been open, in the opinion of the board, for the people to choose whom they wished, regardless of their political affiliations.

British casualties reported during the week ending Nov. 6 totalled 21,291 officers and men, as follows: Killed or died of wounds, officers 231, men 4,976; wounded or missing, officers 313 men 15,801.

DETACHED THRUSTS OCCUR ALONG TAGLIAMENTO

Time of Vital Importance to Italians.

The Canning Advertiser

Who Await Aid of Allies to Turn Invaders

ITALIAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Nov. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—The bulk of the Austro-German invading forces today present a main frontage of about thirty-five miles back of, and along the Tagliamento River, with reconnaissance parties thrust forward eight or ten miles west of the river for the purpose of feeling for the points of least resistance. This is producing detached engagements, but no battle in force has yet occurred. The Livenza River, to which the Italian withdrawal is now progressing, is only one of a series of successive defence parallels. The Italian army still has in reserve large bodies of troops, which, however naturally feel the effects produced by the recent retirement of their main body. Large reinforcements at this moment therefore would render invaluable assistance in the opinion of the military authorities.

Enemy Has Reached Plains

The enemy territorial occupation in eastern Friuli presents a sinister aspect for beyond its military purpose. The Alps heretofore have been the traditional boundary between the northern Teutonic and the southern Latin races. The Austro-Germans recognize the Alpine boundary, except for Trent and Trieste.

Now, for the first time, the Teutonic forces are occupying territory in the Friuli Plains, which are the easternmost part of Venia, and the age-long possessions of the Latins. Such an invasion strikes at the very heart of the principle of nationality, and also thrusts a Teutonic wedge southward along the Adriatic. This brings up the grave question of whether Germany will finally secure territorial lodgment, with ports and naval bases on the Adriatic, thus realizing her aim to reach a Mediterranean, as well as a North Sea, power, unless the Allies turn them back from the Friulian Plains. This would seem to be a warning to the Allies that no time is to be lost in reinforcing, concentrating and co-ordinating.

THE ITALIAN ARMY CONDUCTS SKILFUL RETREAT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Official cablegrams received here today from the Italian battle front say the retreat is being conducted with skill; it is characterized by many brilliant examples of self-sacrifice and personal bravery and that the new lines, which it is hoped will be permanent have been most carefully prepared.

The official account says the retirement of the Italian armies to the Livenza was conducted in strict conformity with the plans already laid, and has been successfully accomplished. While the Tagliamento River, which line was abandoned, formed a considerable obstacle to the enemy advance, this is true only in time of flood water. When the rains stopped and the waters of the river receded the river was no longer any considerable natural obstacle to the enemy's advance.

FIGHT FOR PINZANO HILLS

The army corps commanded by General Di Giorgio and some parts of third army corps retreated on the extreme left to hills above Pinzano, and by a wonderful manoeuvre, succeeded in greatly retarding the enemy's crossing of the Tagliamento River, presenting a serious menace to the Austro-Germans right wing and threatening his communication in the direction of Codroipo.

Meanwhile the retirement of the main body of the Italian Army to the Livenza, was greatly aided by the configuration of the ground and the streams which delayed the pursuit of the Austro-Germans.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR PUGSLEY IS SWORN IN

Installed in Office as Chief Executive of New Brunswick at Fredericton

FREDERICTON, N. B., November 8

The very impressive and exceedingly interesting ceremony of inducting into office a Lieutenant Governor for the Province of New Brunswick was carried out with all the pomp and splendor usually attendant upon such ceremonies, when Hon. William Pugsley of St. John, was sworn into office here tonight. The oath of office was administered by Chief Justice McKeown in the presence of Premier Foster and all the members of the Provincial Government. Pugsley was represented by Lieut. Colonel McAvity. All deputy heads of Government departments were present as well as dignitaries of the State and society leaders. Rudolph Boudreau, Secretary of the Privy Council at Ottawa, was the official representative of the Dominion Government hearing the commission and authority to be invested by the Dominion Government in Mr. Pugsley.

CANADIANS MAKE A GREAT DRIVE

The Canadians have added more glory to their country and themselves in their almost unparalleled success at a front some six miles north east of Ypres.

In a smashing drive they have broken the boasted "Hindenburg line" and have captured important highlands of Passchendaele, Goudberg and Messelmarkt.

This is a great victory and now the British dominate Roulers, only three or four miles away.

This spur was to be held at all costs, was the great Hindenburg's orders, but with a big drive and a great smash the Canadians carried every objective, that was put before them.

LIBERALS OF KINGS COUNTY NOT FAVORABLE TO UNION GOVERNMENT

The meeting of the committees of the Liberal, Conservative and Alliance, held on Saturday failed to accomplish the making of arrangements for the Union Convention, representing all parties and the saving of a contest in Kings County. Kings County Liberals are not inclined to follow Murray, Fielding, McLean and all the other leading Liberals in their endeavor for Union but have nominated a straight party platform.

However the Temperance Alliance is in favor of and in sympathy with the present Union Government and will assist in the selection and support of any person named in the Union Convention providing he is a man who maintains the principles for which the Alliance has fought for years.

Next Saturday such a man will be nominated by a Union Win the War Convention.

LIBERAL CONVENTION NOMINATES CANDIDATE

The adjourned meeting of the Liberal Association of Kings County was held at Kentville on Saturday last with a good attendance. The regular work of the Association was transacted and officers appointed.

After the meeting of Association a convention was held presided over by Mr. L. R. Clark, vice president. Roll of delegates was called and the County was well represented from the different wards.

On motion of Mr. H. H. Wickwire, seconded by F. G. Curry a committee of five was appointed to meet with a committee of five each from the Conservative Association and Temperance Alliance. The committee was composed of Messrs. H. H. Wickwire, A. E. McMahon, J. H. Cox, S. L. Cross, C. A. Campbell.

The three committees met to discuss a basis of Union to agree on a candidate as a supporter of the present Union Government—the name of Sir R. L. Borden, Premier, being submitted. This was not acceptable to the Liberal committee and convention and the convention proceeded to select a person as a straight Liberal candidate. The nomination was first offered to Mr. H. H. Wickwire who on account of his health and other grounds stated could not accept said nomination. The selection then fell to Mr. A. E. McMahon of Berwick an ex-Warden of Kings County and general manager of the United Fruit Companies.

Mr. A. E. McMahon addressed the audience thanking them for the honor conferred on him but asked for time to consider as he had to consult the corporation of which he was an official.

The convention then adjourned to meet again this Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Court House to hear Mr. McMahon's decision.

RECITAL AT WOLFVILLE

Two musical events of interest have taken place recently under the auspices of Acadia Seminary. The first was the Pianoforte Lecture Recital given by Mrs. Edward MacDowell.

The second event was the Faculty Recital, which was given before a very large audience in College Hall, Friday evening, November 2. Mr. McKee, director of the Conservatory, was the accompanist of the evening. Miss Bessie Eadie, violinist, was at her best in a group in which she played selections from Miersch, Rosenbecker and Sarasate. Miss Boone, reader, showed her careful training in her selections from Noyes, and demonstrated her ability as an interpreter in a well rendered scene from "Quality Street," from Barrie.

Miss Bunting, pianist, delighted the audience in Theme Varié, by Paderewski, and won further applause by her rendering of her second group, in which "The Lark" and Chopin's Waltz (A flat, op. 34, No. 1) were given with fineness and warmth.

Miss Arlen McConney, contralto, captured her audience with her Recitative and Aria from Carmen, and was (as were all the other performers) compelled to respond to a well deserved recall. Miss McConney's second group aroused enthusiasm. Her rendering of Cyril Scott's "Lullaby" was a fine piece of work, finely and sympathetically done. The universal comment is "One of the

THE NEED FOR UNION

"Dissension among ourselves is fatal to the success of any and every campaign. Let us have endurance, concentration and unity. Personal and sectional differences and sectional differences, suspicions and resentment must be forgotten or postponed. This is no time to talk of parties. There is but one party, the nation's"—Premier Lloyd George at Albert Hall, last week.

There could be no more patriotic creed than the above for the Canadian people today. Union Government is clearly carrying with it a great majority of the best brains of the country. But the good will and support of every man counts. If there are Canadian Liberals who are still in doubt as to what their course should be, we hope they shall weigh the words of Lloyd George, that great champion of British Liberalism and decide to join with Howell and Carvell, Guthrie and Sifton, Crerar and MacLean in "concentration and unity" here rather than with the Lauriers and the Olivers, the Murphys and the Lemieuxs.

GOOD FOR WINDSOR

This includes the sum of $40 sent in by Mrs. H. H. Miller, for Newport Station and St. Croix and a cheque for $20 from R. B. Mounce, Avondale.

YE OLDE FIRME

If You've Shut any Rooms in Your House of Life

If you are only living in parts of the many roomed mansion that was given you to make the most of, you are missing something that makes life fuller and richer for others.

Throw open the doors—install a Heintzman, and you'll realize that music was what you dimly felt was lacking.

For playing, for singing, for artistic appearance, it is as much superior to the average piano as the organ of a great cathedral is superior to the average organ.

Yet it is not expensive in proportion. The seventy years experience of its manufacturers and the fact that they make more pianos by far than any firm in their field leads to large economies in operation.

Perhaps a Heintzman is just what you have been hungering for—you can tell if you come in and see it.

THE FIGHTING IN THE EAST POTASH NOW BEING MADE FROM SEA WEED

Later announcements by the British War Office add to the story of the British success in Palestine. The victory at Beersheba is more complete than earlier reports indicated.

The struggle in Mesopotamia is by no means a minor one in this great war, although we are often inclined to look upon such. Germany's scheme was not only to colonize Mesopotamia but also to establish a foothold in Morocco. It has long been the Kaiser's ambition to branch out towards the East and not the least of his hopes was centred in the Bagdad railway, that great strategic line running from the Bosphorus to the Persian Gulf and sending its branches into Asia Minor and Palestine. The British recognized from the first that "this line by its Palestine branches would put German termini within twelve hours of Egypt on the West and within four days of India on the East." General Maude has removed the Indian menace, and now General Allenby has shattered the German hopes in the West. The British are fighting along parallel lines across territory 500 miles wide, which, owing to the desolate nature of the country, means that they are driving the Turks and Germans out of Mesopotamia and Palestine.

Potash for This Purpose Has Been Erected in British Columbia
When the war broke out, the fertilizer supply, especially that of potash, was badly disrupted. Until then, Germany had been the principal source of supply. Attention was immediately directed to several possible materials from which potash might be obtained. Among these was kelp, a water-plant growing in great profusion along the sea-coast. Especially is this the case on the British Columbia coast, where owing to the many indentations, the kelp beds are of large area.

After careful investigation a plant for making potash from kelp has been installed at Pacific, on Moresby island, one of the Queen Charlotte group. It will have a capacity of 1,000 tons of wet kelp daily, and will get its supply from Cumsheva inlet. The kelp is reaped by knives suspended below scows, which cut the standing growth as they pass over the beds. The kelp then rises to the surface, where it is gathered up.

The company, in addition, proposes to extract oils from nonedible fish and to make fertilizer from the fish refuse.

DIAMOND RING AS TEE

Seattle Society Woman Plays Unique Golf at Banff Springs

MRS. MAE Stehle, of Seattle, Wash., was recently the heroine of a unique bit at Banff Springs which caused much comment. Wagering with a fellow member of the fashionable colony at Banff Springs that she could make nine perfect drives on the mountain golf course, Mrs. Mae Stehle, of Seattle, Wash., took her ball from the top of a fifteen hundred dollar diamond ring on each hole. A slip, a low swing or anything "that" would not come under the title of a perfect drive would have sent the ring spinning after the ball and ruined or lost it.

A large gallery left the Banff Springs Hotel to watch Mrs. Stehle use a magnificent well-treasured ring in following her unique wager. The Seattle society woman, who is a black cotten and who finished high in the recent tournament at Banff, placed her ring on a small round of wood, held her ball upon it, and with the utmost coolness made her drive as though the safety of a valuable ring did not depend upon her intention. When Mrs. Stehle repeated her feat on each hole and by her success won one of the most elaborate dinners of the season.

It is hard to make most of the farmers realize that there is a great possibility of them not being able to get what commercial fertilizer they will require this spring. VALUE OF FOODS TO THE BODY

Just how much food the human body does need is a complicated problem to which in recent years scientists have been devoting much attention. Food is the source from which the body derives both its energy, or fuel, and the substance it uses to build and replace worn-out tissues. It also provides small amounts of recently discovered substances needed to regulate growth and other bodily functions. As a unit for measuring the energy supplied, scientists have adopted what is known as the calorie, and it is estimated that for a full-grown man in moderate physical work, 3000 calories a day are needed. Of these, from 300 to 400 should be supplied in the form of protein, the chief substance utilized by the body in tissue building. There should also be some fruits and vegetables which supply the mineral matters for building tissues and help in various ways to keep the body machinery in good working order; also fat and starches and sugars, which are available sources of energy. The energy supplied by the foods, as a whole, is consumed by the body in running itself and performing its daily work.

The number of calories and the amounts of nutrients contained in stated quantities of different kinds of food have been worked out by scientists and afford a basis for comparing the nutritive value of various dishes. The matter is so complicated that the ordinary housewife probably has neither the time nor the inclination to make a mathematical calculation of the nourishment her meals afford. It will, however, help her to know that by observing a few fundamental principles she can alter her bill of fare to suit changing conditions at home or in the market without any risk of underfeeding the family. First among these is the fact that an adequate diet should contain articles from each of the five groups into which the common food materials may be divided. These are:

- 1. Vegetables and fruits which supply acids and other substances that the body needs to keep it in proper working order, as well as some building materials and energy.
2. Meats, fish, eggs, milk, legumes, etc in which the proportion of protein to other substances is high comparison with the other groups.
3. Starchy foods, like potatoes, rice, flour and other grain products, etc., which furnish much energy and some protein and mineral matters.
4. Foods rich in sugar, an excellent source of body fuel, the pleasant flavor of which makes the diet more attractive.
5. Fats, like butter, bacon, cream, lard, etc., which are valuable sources of energy.

Not one of the groups can profitably be omitted altogether. It is, nevertheless, possible to avoid from a nutritive point of view a useless waste of money by selecting, first, the cheapest articles in each group; and, second, by substituting to ascertain extent articles from a cheaper group of those from a more expensive. In particular, the grain foods in group 3 may be used more extensively than is common in many households, and the use of the higher ones in group 2 may be correspondingly decreased. The grains furnish protein as well as energy, and in a cheaper form than meat. By combining them with a little meat, the meat is secured and a dish as nutritive but much less expensive than meat alone obtained. This does not mean that all animal foods or even all meats should be shut out of the diet entirely. As far as can be judged, in the light of our present knowledge, the body is most likely to keep in health if it obtains its protein from a variety of sources, including milk (especially in the case of children) eggs, meats, etc. Similarly, dried fruits contain not only the characteristic properties of foods in group 1, but sugar as well, and a liberal use of them will provide in an economical form much of the sugar which the palate craves.

The housewife, too, who understands these and similar facts in regard to the composition and uses of food will be able to free herself from many existing prejudices. Skim milk, for instance is regarded as unfit for human use. As a matter of fact it contains practically all of the constituents of whole milk, except the fat taken off in the cream. On farms it is frequently fed to live stock, but in many cases it might be more economical to use in the household. If it is considered too thin for drinking it may be used in cooking as in making soups, mixing bread, or cooking cereals.

COAL HERE FOR $107

(Evening Times) American anthracite coal is being landed in St. John, in carload lots for their own use by a local concern, at a cost averaging about $10 a ton. Inquiries made today confirmed this statement, showing that ten or eleven cars have been brought in and the price, for various sizes of coal, including the small as well as the larger sizes, and for purchases from various sources, has averaged about the same. The last carload, for instance, was invoiced at $5.50 a ton of 2,240 pounds and the freight was $5.45, making a total of $10.95 for a long ton, or about $10 a short ton. The company still is ordering on the same basis.

HARBORVILLE.

You can hear some darn funny things now and then over the telephone. I had nuthin' to do the other day becus there was a stiff Nor Easter blowin with rain and snow and a few other things, so I herd a call on the phone, and of course I hed to rubber. Say I near dropped dead, it was the Berwick Bank talkin' to somebody, and was tellin' somebody ALL ABOUT another man's bank account. Don't that beat the dickens. I'm only an old fossil as the old feller on the hill calls me, but I know enough to know that bank has no business tellin' other peoples affairs to somebody else, but they seem to do just as they like in that Berwick bank. Of course, if I hev some fellers check I can call up the bank to know something about it, but if they is smart, they wud tell me to bring in my check and they wud tell me. You see, it might be, that when I telephoned to the bank, that man might only hev a few dollars there maybe cents, but in a hour or so he might have more then double to pay my check, so it looks to me that a man as smart as a Bank Manager ought to be derned careful what he hed to sey, euse it might someday cost his bank a whole lot of money.

I was down to our councillor's store yesterday, and I see that the Liberals is goin to hev a meetin' over here on Friday night. The nois was layin' on Ben's counter, cause hes so busy gettin' his pertaters out of the storm, that he aint hed time to put it up. I'm goin' to be at that meetin' if the old woman hes to do all the work for a whole week, and I'll tell you all about it after its done, but it looks to me just now, as if the old feller on the hill had been wasting his time writtin about UNION. There aint no UNION in this country. As fer as I can see, everybody includin' Boyd Parker and our Councillor, Ben Bezanson is out tryin' to skin everybody even Doc Spicer hes started in on the same game.

Tom Morse, is buyin all the cows over here to ship to Coby, so the niggers can hev sour milk with the pertaters Ben Bezanson and Wallace Ogilvie is sendin' down to them, well, Tom, sent a man over for a cow, the other day, an the big storm Wednesday swelled up the grand ditch we hev, here the Given Road used to be, that they culd'nt get through with the old cow and Tom telegraphed to Toronto, to have a airship sent down to salvage that cow. He asked me if I thought it wuld cost more than the cow was worth, and I tol him if he was any kind of a man, seeing he is County Recorder and so forth, he would hev hed that road fixed long ago, so the ditch wuld be on the side of the road instead of through the middle, says I, what is the use of being County Recorder, in Kings County, if you aint got pull enough down in Halifax to either have that road fixed, or else have Colonel Weaver sent over to Germany, where he culd bust up 'sum of the roads over there. Especially, ses I, cause you hev a farm on the road, and hev to haul your stuff over to Berwick, where you can use 'em, and what do you think? Tom got real mad and climbed up on his load of oats and druv off. That's just like them politicians.

I hed no idear I was such a great writer, till yur paper sum over here Thursday afternoon towards night, I hed went to the Post Offis, in Parker's Shop, between rain spells, and got it, and wen I seen how much I hed writ and that you hed printed it all I was sum stuck up. Then I went out and borrowed a Kentville Chronicle to see what the old feller on the hill had in it. Sey, Howard, he must be losin his punch, or else them fellers that print the Chronicle, don't like what he hes to say about Union and McNally, becus from the way he hes talked to me I was lookin for sumthin' great, but there wusent a dern word about it. I gess that paper aint much for Union or they wud sey sumthin about it onet in a while. I notis, that you don't seem to be afraide to put things in yur paper, even if they do hit you or the Tories a slap. Well, thats the way to be.

I seen by yur paper, that the Tories in our county hed met last week in yur town, and hed appointed a committee of five Tories, who was to meet five Liberals, and they was to talk things over and see if they couldnt come to sum agreement to hev a Union meetin', and pick out some good man to end up to Ottawa. I seen too in the Berwick Register, that our friends—or enemies, I don't know witch—hed also hed a prayerful meetin' and hed sed they wanted the same thing, but I seen too in the Chronicle, that the Liberals, air only goin' to appoint the five men on Saturday the loth, at half past one, and then three goin' to have their convention to pick out a canderdate, at half past two. Es the old feller on the hill would say, That's sure is goin' sum, and it looks to me as if the other comittly, that aint picked out yet hes already got a man in their minds, and I woudnt wonder if he wusnt a Unionister either. Maybe that's why the Chronicle don't print what the old feller writes. Then the Tories will hev to put up their man, and we will have h——— in Kings Co. I hev herd it sed it wusnt much of a hum wind, that didnt do sumbody some good, or sumthin like that, so if thers got to be a election, there maybe will be sum money get over this fur, and we will get sum of it, whil the gettin' is good, and we need it as money is durin 'see round here now.

Of course, I hev been told I was an old fossil, and didnt know poleritics, if I met em in roads, meybeso, I know one thing sur, and that is I can't make those Liberal papers no how. Heres the Kentville Chronicle that keeps num on Union, and went even print the name of a Union Canderdate, ust becus he was baptised a Tory, and aint got over it yet, whil the great grandmother of the Chronicle, that great religious family paper The Chronicle, printed in that ainful place called Halifax, is ALL UNION from the cellar to the roof, includin the hired help. They dont seem a bit afraide to give Laurier blazes, when he desurves it, and if Sir Robert happens to make a mistake rememberin his good metherdist bringin' up, and dus sumthin' good, it don't giv em a fit to praise him, but its different in Kentville.

But the old feller on the hill ses I don't know a independent paper, wen I see one, and he ses the Kentville Chronicle is one, because they told him so. Maybesa, but I gess secin' is believin, and time will tell.

Even the weather seems to be agin the Grils, fur we hed the worst storm so far on Thursday night, and it looked Friday mornin', as if they wuld have to wade thru all kinds of weather to get to Parker's Hall tonight fur the meetin'. Es I was lookin' out of my winder about day-light, I was glad I lived on this shore instead of over in Cumberland County, cause they was a pile of snow over ther, whilst we hed only a little but that little made are goin' dern bad, but it wont kill off them pesky alders, and I was wonderin how Lem Brown wuld ever get over with the mail thi smornin betwixt the gale that was blowin and the snow, and them same alders, I wonder dos Weaver ever get over that road.

I gess ther aint meny liberals round here nohow. They was to hev a meetin' last night and apoint delergates to go to the convention to Kentville Saturday but there werent any. I went up to Clarence Parish's house were it was to be, and ther was nobody ther, so I went back to the shore, but the stores wus both shut up tighter than a clam. But I thought I culd see sunbody in Ben's shop, so I knocked on the door and Ben opened it, and I went in and ther wus Ben and Clarence Parish holding that meetin in the dark. Ben sed ther had nobody cum, so they was just talkin things over, but it was no meetin', and ther was no delegates appointed, so I less that Union bizness me and the old feller on the hill hev been writin about has took, and that they are all in fur Union. Well, I am glad if they is. By and by along come Ed Curry, and he was not talkin' poleritics at all, but he was clean plum mad, because he sed that account of the bridge abuv his house bein' in bad shape he culd not use his horse, except by takin' him out of the barn up the Hamilton Road, and down through the Park and back up the road to his house to get the wagon. His barn is just across the river from his house and he wanted to know from Ben, where that man Weaver was, becus he ought to fix that bridge before there is some great clamity happens.

I gess none of em will go to Kentville Saturday and that looks as if ther wuld be no convention in your town. Too bad, after George Graham hed made plans to let em ride to Kentville on the mornin' freight, and hed even hed a passenger car hitched on to it, so they wuld be comfortable. He's sure some good feller, that Graham, evna if he is manager of a railroad.
