But, after all, while we have so entirely the advantage of our sectarian friends in argument, it may yet be that there is something in their practice, in this regard, which is not wholly without a lesson to some of us. Only a bigot or fanatic, or an unthinking person can condemn innocent, quiet recreation on the Lord's Day, when religious observiances have been duly performed. But we cannot forget that the terms of the Divine Command are, "Rec member the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy." If a young man goes to a twenty-five minute early Mass on Sunday morning, stands about the corner with his companions the rest of the forenoon, and spends the afternoon in playing or witnessing a base-ball match, and the evening in talking it over, can he be said to have remembered the day to keep it holy? After two or three years, when they have the looks and qualities of pure-bred to admit that I cannot give satisfactory reasons for my practice in this matter. It has never occurred to me before that any argument at all was necessary. I now acknowledge that with me it is entirely a matter of tradition, of training and habit use of pure-bred cocks which we recommend, no male bird should run with the same flock moye than two years. If he is healthy and vigorous, and his progeny of the first year take strongly after him, in form as well as feather, he may well be kept the second year to run with pullets of his own get. After the commend, no extensive and intelligent farmers in south-western, Manitoba, this year will be realized. In this is the case as far as that there does not seem to be any information of the settlements along the first year take strongly after him, in form as well as feather, he may well be kept the second year. The following from a letter dated that the advantages of cross-breeding will be realized. Catholics can afford to smile and be amused at the inconsistencies of their neighbors, who perform their conscientious observances in so illogical a way. We know that our Church is the only one which prescribes a formal, positive recognition and act of observance of the Lord's Day, and requires it underpenalty of grave sin. Since then Mr. LELAND has recommended AVEE'S GARRAPARILLA in many similar cases, and he has never yet heard of its failure to effect a radical cure.
Some years ago one of Mr. LELAND'S farm labories bruised his leg. Owing to the batte of this blood, an ugly serofulous swelling or hump appeared on the injured limit. However, the desired of the side with hereing and or lump appeared on the injured limb. Hor-rible itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The leg became enor-mously enlarged, and running ulcors formed, discharging great quantiles of extremely offungive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. LELAND's direction, was supplied with AVER'S SARSAPA RILLA, which allayed the pain and irritation saled the sores, removed the saled the sores, removed the limb to use.
