

UNLAWFUL VOTING.

A Warning to Evil Deeds—A Fitting Rebuttal to the Tory Organ of the County.

THE LIBERALS HANDICAPPED.

One of the votes cast against Mr. M. C. Cameron in West Huron was that of one Sturdy, a hotel keeper, who committed perjury in order to get in the vote. For this offence he was tried at the Goderich assizes and found guilty. With blackball, perjury, gormandizing, and manipulation of assessment rolls against them, the Liberals were heavily handicapped in the last Dominion election. But time and justice are on their side.—[London Advertiser.]

IT MAY BE A WARNING. A Mr. Sturdy of Goderich got the lenient sentence of three days imprisonment with a small fine for perjury in taking the oath that he was entitled to vote at the late election. Light as the penalty is, it may be a warning to persons inclined to undervalue their oath. He voted the Tory ticket.—[Waterloo Chronicle.]

AN EXAMPLE. The conviction of an election of Huron for perjury and unlawful voting, and perjury will, perhaps serve as an example to other over-zealous electors. The sentence was a fine of a hundred dollars and three days imprisonment. The offence is not by any means a common one, but it is known that it is now and then committed, instances having been cited in connection with elections in our own city. The Huron voter has doubtless by this time realized that it was hardly worth while to violate the law in order to get in an additional vote for his party.—[Toronto Telegram.]

ANYTHING TO BEAT CAMERON. "Beat Cameron by hook or by crook" was his opponents' watchword in West Huron, and the action of Mr. J. L. Sturdy, in perjuring himself to get in a vote, was only one of the many flagrant acts of wrong-doing practiced in order to defeat the Reform candidate. When the devices adopted for that end are taken into consideration, it becomes evident that Mr. Cameron was contending against tremendous odds, and made a remarkably good fight. It is hoped that the lesson taught Sturdy will have a salutary effect on a good many others, no matter to which side they belong, who might, on a future occasion, be tempted to vote, when they have no legal right to do so.—[New Era.]

A PATRIOTIC CONSERVATIVE. J. L. Sturdy is his name and he lives in Wingham. He is a patriotic Conservative and he believes in the principle of voting early and often, but he got caught at it up in Huron, and he doesn't believe in it any more. He was tried at the Goderich assizes for perjury and unlawful voting, and was fined $100 and sent to goal for three days, and he has to thank the man he perjured himself to vote against for getting off with a punishment so light for his offence. We know several cases just like Sturdy's which occurred in Dundas at last election, and it is a pity that the men who perjured themselves here were not punished for their offence. The law on such cases should be strictly enforced.—[Dundas Banner.]

A SHARP REMINDER. A Wingham hotel-keeper named Sturdy, has been convicted of perjury at the Dominion elections and sentenced to three days imprisonment and a fine of $100. Another person in South Norfolk has had the penalty for election bribery imposed upon him by the courts. The Wingham man is a Conservative and the Norfolk one is a Reformer, so that we cannot be accused of being biased by party leanings when we express our gratification at seeing signs of a determination to enforce the penalties for infractions of the election law. It is only by making examples of those who willfully violate the law that a stop can be put to the prevalent practice of false swearing, perjury, and bribery, that are so common at our elections. Men who in other matters would shrink with horror from the commission of crime, appear to have no scruples about breaking the law themselves or inducing others to do so, when it is done for the benefit of a candidate or a party during an election contest. A few sharp reminders that crime has its penalties, election crimes as well as other kinds, and the evil will be wiped out.—[Sarnia Observer.]

Teachers Engaged.

Mr. H. S. McLean, of S. S. No. 3, Colborne, has been engaged as principal for Lucknow public school for 1883, at a salary of $600. Mr. Robt. L. Stubbers formerly of Ashfield, who has been teaching in the southern part of the county, has been engaged to teach at Holyrod, Co. Bruce, for next year. Salary $425. Mr. Thor. Elliott has been re-engaged in S. S. No. 4, Colborne. John McIntosh, jr., has been engaged as teacher in Shine's school, Grey, for 1883. Mr. Wm. McKay, of Searforth, has been engaged to teach a school in Waterloo county, near Berlin, at a salary of $425. The following teachers have been engaged in the respective schools for the current year, at the salaries named:—Sec. No. 1, Mr. Mackey, $450; No. 2, Mr. Scott, $330; No. 3, Mr. F. W. Sellers, $450; No. 4, Miss Landsborough, $320; No. 6, Miss Giffin, $400; No. 7, Miss Forest, $275; No. 8, Mr. Hicks, $450; and assistant, Miss Crawford, $225; No. 9, Mr. Horton, $450; No. 10, Mr. McGill, $450; No. 11, Miss Wilson, $240.

Clinton.

BICYCLING.—On Thursday last Robt. Holmes of the New Era, made the run from Clinton to Exeter, a distance of 19 miles, on a 52 inch bicycle, in exactly two hours. He went from Clinton to Brucefield without dismounting, in 40 minutes, Brucefield to Kippen in 20 minutes, and Kippen to Exeter in one hour. A great many teams were met on the road, which made it necessary to slack up pretty often. The trip back took somewhat longer. On Saturday, Mr. Coleman, of Searforth, rode up here in 45 minutes, riding up every hill except Stapleton.

FIRE.—At about 11 o'clock Thursday night, the Record printing office was discovered to be on fire and the sounding of the fire alarm quickly brought out a crowd who soon had the engine on the square, and for some reason it could not be got to work. Entrance being gained to the premises by the front windows the application of a few pails of water soon extinguished the fire, but not before it had done considerable damage. How the fire originated is not known, but it is supposed that a lamp had been left burning which exploded, the oil taking fire. A number of cases of type were completely destroyed, the metal melting and running on the floor, the racks or frames on which the cases stand, being also burned. The loss will be considerable, and our friends will be thrown behind somewhat by the occurrence. They have our sympathy under the circumstances; we know what a fire in a printing office means. There is an insurance on stock. A portion of Mr. Stephenson's stock of furniture was removed, as it was feared that the building would go, and was more or less injured in the removal.—[New Era.]

Lucknow.

MILL SOLD.—Messrs. B. & W. J. McClure have sold their steam flour mill to Messrs. Joseph & Chas. A. Tomlinson, of Malton, who intend taking possession at once and carrying on the business extensively.

ASSIGNMENT.—We regret to learn that Mr. D. D. McIntyre, hardware merchant, has been forced through business difficulties to make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. D. E. Cameron, banker, is trustee in the matter.

HOTEL SOLD.—Mr. R. J. Whitley has purchased from Messrs. Cameron & Campbell the hotel he occupies, and intends making extensive improvements. The price has not transpired. An excellent and commodious shed is being erected for Mr. Whitley by Messrs. Cameron & Campbell on the rear of the bank lot. This will prove a great boon to the farmers who will not be slow to appreciate such accommodation. Mr. Whitley is to be congratulated on his enterprise.

NOT TRUE.—Some malicious or stupid persons have been industriously circulating the report abroad that typhoid fever is prevalent in the village, to the serious injury of business, as timid persons are apt to avoid a place where any contagious disease is supposed to exist. The report is groundless, however, as the fever has been, and still is, confined to one house in the village, and the afflicted ones, we are glad to say, are rapidly recovering.

THE NEW BANK.—Lucknow can now boast of one of the handsomest banks we have seen in the Province, and the proprietors, Messrs. Cameron & Campbell, are to be congratulated on the enterprise and taste exhibited in the matter. The building is a substantial brick one, two and a half stories high, and is finished throughout in the most modern fashion. The interior is finished in dark and light woods and presents an attractive and cheerful appearance. Inside the vault which is large and substantial, is a powerful burglar proof safe. Altogether the new bank is well worth a visit, and Messrs. Cameron & Campbell will be pleased to see all who wish to call. The contractors were R. & J. Stewart who deserve great credit for the excellent manner in which they have finished their contract.—[Sentinel.]

The Occident publishes the following as the searching sermon of a circus clown said to have been delivered recently at the close of the usual ring performance in a crowded tent in Virginia. We have taken in $600 here to-day—more than most ministers of the Gospel receive for a whole year's service. A large portion of this money was given by church members, and a large portion of this audience is made up of members of the church. And yet, when your preacher asks you to aid him in supporting the Gospel, you are too poor to give anything. But you come here and pay dollars to hear me talk nonsense. I am a fool because I am paid for it. I make my living by it. You profess to be wise, and yet you support me in my folly. Now isn't this a pretty place for Christians to be in? Don't you feel ashamed of yourselves. You ought to.

LOVE AND MARRIAGE.

From the earliest times no event in human life has been associated with a more extensive folk-lore than marriage. Beginning with love divinations, these are of every conceivable kind, the anxious maiden apparently having left no stone unturned in his anxiety to ascertain her lot in the marriage state. Some cut the common brake or fern just about the root to ascertain the initials of the future husband's name. Again, nuts and apples are very favorite love tests. The mode of procedure is for a girl to place on the bars of a grate a nut, repeating this incantation:

If he loves me pop and fly; If he hates me nut and die. Great is the dismay if the anxious face of the inquirer gradually perceives that nut, instead of making the hoped for pop, die and make no sign. One means of divination is to throw a lady-bird into the air, and repeating meanwhile the subjoined couplet:

Fly away east and fly away west, Show me where the one I love best. Should this little insect chance to fly in the direction of the house where the loved one resides, it is regarded as a most favorable omen.

Another species of love divination once observed consisted in obtaining five bay leaves, four of which the anxious maiden pinned at the four corners of her pillow, and the fifth in the middle. If she was fortunate enough to dream of her lover, it was a sure sign that he would be married to her in the course of the year.

Friday had been held a good day of the week for love omens; and in Norfolk lines are repeated on three nights successively, as on the last one it is believed that the young lady will dream of her future husband:

To-night, To-night is Friday night, Lay me down in dirty white; Dream who my husband is to be, And lay my children by my side, If I live to be his bride.

In selecting the time for the marriage ceremony precautions of every kind have generally been taken to avoid an unlucky month and day for the knot to be tied. Indeed, the old Roman notion that the May marriages are unlucky survives to this day in England. June is a highly popular month. Friday on account of its being regarded as an auspicious and evil day for the commencement of any kind of enterprise, is generally avoided.

In days gone by Sunday appears to have been a popular day for marriages. It is above all things, necessary that the sun should shine on the bride, and it is deemed absolutely necessary by very many that she should weep on her wedding day, if it be only a few tears; the omission of such an act being considered ominous of her future happiness.

In Sussex, a bride on her return home from church is often robbed of all her pins about her dress by the single women present, from the belief that whoever possesses one of them will be married in the course of a year, and evil for tune will sooner or later inevitably overtake the bride who keeps even one pin used in the marriage toilet.

The Self-Helping Baby.

An English gentleman, who passed many months hunting among the Rocky Mountains, says the first genuine impression of the West came while he was riding over an arid plain and from a squealing baby. It revealed to him the ingenuity with which a Western woman adapts herself to circumstances and makes the most of her limited resources.

"There was nothing," he says, "very peculiar about the appearance of this baby I saw just ahead of me. It was not overburdened with garments, and was strapped in Indian fashion to a board about two feet long and one foot broad. Board and blanket were leaning against the log wall of a frontier shanty on the shady side. There was nobody near. The baby seemed very happy. Its little arms were free and kept up constant movement.

As my horse came nearer I saw that some strings were dangling about the baby's neck, and that one was tied to the big toe of one of its rosy little feet. "I was puzzled. Dismounting I had the curiosity to examine the tape arrangement. The child was sucking at a bit of raw pork, about the size of a large walnut. This was tied on one end of the string, while the other end was fastened to the child's foot. A second piece of twine, knotted to the board over his head prevented the pork from falling to the ground should the child drop it.

"Suddenly the baby grew very red in the face. Then its eyes filled with tears and its little arms beat the air with frantic energy. At that moment the mother made her appearance. "That baby is choking, madam," I cried. "No, he ain't and he can't," she replied tersely.

"At this instant the infantile legs began to work. One kick, two kicks, and there on the board lay the piece of pork, jerked from the baby's throat by the string tied to the big toe." "Aunt you ever seen this afore, mister?" asked the mother, observing the Englishman's surprised looks. "No—o—," he answered slowly. "Then kind o' remembrance it. May-haps yer wife won't go back on it."

The Marmon Question.

To His Grace the Most Rev. J. J. Lynch, D.D. Archbishop of Toronto: YOUR GRACE,—Allow me to congratulate you on the well-merited castigation you have so successfully administered to the patrons of immoral literature, who in their blind zeal for party or political purposes are ready to sacrifice conscience, Christianity, and reason itself to uphold a doctrine which they know well is wrong. I am really surprised to notice that the Mail newspaper has become the champion of that sort of morality as is contained in "Marion," a work brilliantly written, it is true, but all the more offensive to Christian morality, and principally so to Catholic feelings. And this is the work which, according to the Mail, should be imposed on the boys and girls and the young men and young women attending our schools; to be studied, analyzed, and admired by them, and to be proposed to them as a model in any sense of the word, not to speak of the teachers and of the members of our religious communities who would be expected to explain it. But every weapon is available at the time of an election contest, should it even raise religious prejudices.

The Mail and all those concerned should know that we have always considered, and consider now more than ever, that Your Grace is the able defender and advocate of Catholic right and of sound Christian morality, and that if until now very few have come forward to help you, (it is not correct to say that nobody else has upheld you, for amongst others Father Stafford, of Lindsay, has written able articles in condemnation of the morality of Marmon) it is because we know well that Your Grace is quite competent for the task. No; Your Grace is not alone. You have with you the Bishops, the clergy of the Catholic Church who have the faithful laity, all those really worthy of the name of Catholic and who prefer conscience to party; you have with you all those outside of the Catholic Church, who want only books of sound morality to be placed in the hands of their sons and daughters, and also who object to religious prejudices being kept alive between the members of the community and imbibing these prejudices even in the school room.

As for some of the other effusions of that paper, so coarse and offensive to Your Grace's dignity and personal worth I believe that it means to be witty. Let some think so. A just and unprejudiced public is of a different opinion. I have the honour to be, My dear Lord Archbishop, Very respectfully yours, JOHN FRANCIS JAMOT, Bishop of Peterboro', Peterboro', Oct. 19, 1882. [NOTE.—We understand that the other Catholic Bishops of Ontario take the same ground as Mons. Jamot.—Ed. GLOBE.] Most Rev. Dr. Jamot, Bishop of Peterboro': MY DEAR LORD,—I owe your Lordship an apology for the publication of your kind letter. I sent in to the Editor of the Globe that he might see how untrue were the statements of the Mail, but not for publication. He mistook my intention and allowed the letter to be published. I regret it, as I did not wish to pay so much attention to the wild statements of a writer in the Mail who appears to have lost his wits. I have the honor to be, Your Lordship's Humble servant and brother in Xt., JOHN JOSEPH LYNCH, Archbishop of Toronto, St. Michael's Palace, Toronto, October 25, 1882.

All About a Shoe-Peg. It is laughable to see how little it takes to raise a crowd—or to start a story—in a city street. "Never you mind me," said a bent-over old man, when asked what had happened to him. "How did he get hurt?" asked a man out of breath. "Did the horse step on him?" queried a colored man with spectacles. "Where did the dog bite him? Did they shoot the dog? Was it a big dog? Has he got a wife? Did they live together?" rattled a woman made up a good deal like Widow Bedott. "Come and see the man in a fit," squeaked out a bootblack, as he called the rest of the brigade. "Look out, he's going to shoot!" yelled a big man with red whiskers; and the crowd blew away like dust when the old man slid his hand into his pocket as if for a shooting iron.

Woman's True Friend. A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease, more particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial always proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste, and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by James Wilson.

The "Laws" of Nature.

The following letter was written by the late Charles Kingsley, December 23, 1862. It contains a hint of value to many in the church to-day:

"You are a sanguine man, my dear sir, who ask me to solve for you the riddle of existence, since the days of Job and Solomon, since the days of Socrates and Buddha; the especial riddle too, of our time, with its increased knowledge of physical science. But what I seem to know I will tell you. Knowing and believing a great deal of the advanced physical sciences of Darwin's school, I still can say that I believe in the existence of Law. "Laws of nature," "laws impressed," or "properties impressed on matter," are to me, after careful analysis of their meaning, mere jargon. Nothing exists but Will. All physical laws and phenomena are but the manifestations of that Will—one orderly, utterly wise; utterly benevolent. In Him "the Father," I can trust, in spite of the fact that my own prayers are not answered. I believe that He makes all things work together for the good of the human race, and of me, among the rest, so long as I obey His will. I believe that he will answer my prayer, not according to the letter, but according to the spirit of it; that if I desire good, I shall find good, though not the good which I longed for. And "law" and "necessity" I took on as phantoms of my own imagination, always ready to reappear, but always certain, likewise, to vanish again, before one sound blow of careful logic or of practical life. Yours very truly, C. KINGSLEY."

Rheumatism.—This painful disease that so often cripples life, arises from poison circulating in the blood, and often from an excess of acid. Inflammation is developed in the muscles, ligaments and joints, by cold, damp clothing, &c. Liniments are serviceable to relieve. Among many Haysard's Yellow Oil is preferable. To eradicate the rheumatic poison from the system, nothing can surpass Burdock Blood Bitters.

Game Laws.

Wild Turkeys and quail shall not be hunted taken or killed between 1st Jan and 1st of Oct.

Woodcock shall not be hunted, taken or killed between 1st January and 1st of Aug.

Snipe shall not be hunted, taken or killed between 1st of January and 15th Aug.

Water fowl known as mallard, grey duck, black duck, wood or summer duck shall not be hunted, taken or killed between 1st of January and 15th of August.

No batteries, sunken punts or night lights shall be used for taking any swan, geese, or ducks at any time.

No traps or nets shall be set for the purpose of taking game birds at any time.

Hares shall not be hunted, taken or killed between the 1st of March and 1st Sept.

Beaver, muskrat, mink, martin, racoon, otter or fisher, shall not be hunted taken or killed between 1st May and 1st Nov.

Deer shall not be hunted, taken or killed between 15th December and 1st Oct.

Deer shall not be hunted with dogs or hounded between 15th November and 1st Oct.

Never Neglect It. If you suffer from a cough, never neglect it, it is no trifling matter, and might lead to a speedily fatal disease of the Lungs.

Haysard's Pectoral Balm will allay all irritation of the mucous membrane by its soothing healing power; it cures Bronchitis, Asthma and all throat and Lung complaints.

A $20.00 Biblical Reward. The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for November, among which is the following:

We will give $20.00 in gold to the person telling us which verse in the New Testament Scriptures (not in the New Revision) contains the greatest number of words by November 10th, 1882. Should two or more correct answers be received, the award will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner November 15th, 1882. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the December Monthly, in which the name and address of the reward and the correct answer will be published. This may be worth $20.00 to you; cut it out. Address RUTLEDGE'S PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton, Penna.

"Mr. Cameron and his friends" still smile.

Did the Mail ever get the full returns from Muskoka?

The Hon. Adam Crooks has substituted Goldsmith's "Traveller," optionally, for "Marmion" at the Intermediate Examinations to be held next July. The "Traveller" is a beautiful poem, far ahead of "Marmion" in our estimation, and will not be objected to by anyone.

The Barrie Advance (Tory) fastens the defeat of the party candidate in Simcoe upon the Mail. It says: "The Mail's dissertations upon the Marmion question were nine-tenths of them totally uncalled for. We do not know what effect they may have had upon other portions of the Province, but we do know that in this section at least they have disgusted all classes alike."

The Tory papers in Bruce are rejoicing because O'Connor's total vote at the bye-election was not quite as large as that of Wells at the general election. And they have good reason to rejoice; for a majority larger than 505 would have been a sockdolager. Will our Tory cotems in Bruce kindly let the Reform vote alone, and tell us what came over the Tory vote, that it failed to connect for Eckford?

The statement published in the Star last week, that J. L. Sturdy pleaded "guilty" to the indictment, for perjury and unlawfully voting, is not correct. Mr. Sturdy pleaded "guilty" to the indictment for unlawfully voting, but did not withdraw his plea of "not guilty" in the perjury case. It was the jury that decided the perjury case. The Star in publishing that Sturdy pleaded guilty to both indictments is inaccurate, as usual.

The Kincaid papers are "doing themselves proud" because Eli Perkins is billed to lecture in that burg. The only peculiarity about Eli is that he'll lie right straight along, and does not pretend to respect the truth. But in going to Kincaid to lecture his imagination will be put to a heavy test, for Mr. Meredith spoke there on behalf of the Ontario Opposition, at the bye-election in Bruce. Eli has a right smart contract on hand to "out-stretch" Meredith.

Why do Orangemen celebrate the 5th of November? Because it is the anniversary of the day that William Prince of Orange landed at Torbay, and issued an ejection summons upon King James II, his father-in-law. Very few Orange orators are aware of this fact, and when eloquence burns and speech is warm, they usually endeavor to bridge over 150 years, by linking the Orange order with the discovery of the Gunpowder plot, which occurred in the beginning of the reign of James I, before William of Orange's grand father was born. Orangemen had no more to do with the discovery of the Gunpowder Plot than it had with the death of Queen Mary, or the battle of Clontarf.

There are any number in this section who are ready to show their confidence in Cameron and his cause by being willing to wager their substance on him against Tory luck. We understand a couple of bets have been indulged in by Mr. J. C. Currie and Mr. P. Kelly, of Blyth, Currie is the well-known Gode rich auctioneer,—a Grit of the Grits—and Kelly is the gentleman whom the Tories sacrificed at the shrine of Col. Ross in 1879. Kelly, like Ephraim of old, is still "joined to his idols"—he still wallows in Conservatism—but Currie is not disposed to "let him alone." Kelly, sometime since, speaking of the protest against Cameron stated that it was his intention to "fight his matter to be better ind" and Currie informed him that he would have his labor for his pains. The argument got warm, and finally Currie wagered a suit of clothes—to cost not less than $30—that Cameron would not be inserted before the court; and he wagered another suit of the same fibre that Cameron would be returned by an increased majority at any future election which he contested. If any of our readers see Currie sporting around in the sweet by-and-by, clad in a spanking new suit of clothes, they can make up their mind that Kelly had to eat the bill.

The Conservative press seem to forget that the political turn which the Marmion matter has taken was forced upon Archbishop Lynch by the Mail. At the beginning, the prelate took the ground that the work was objectionable as a text book. It was his place to point out anything which bore hard upon his people, and in objecting to the prescribed text book he spoke what proves to have been the mind of the entire Catholic clergy. The brutal onslaught made upon Hon. Mr. Crooks by the Mail for taking into consideration the Archbishop's complaint, and the base attempt of that sheet to put the Minister of Education in a false light, forced the plain-spoken prelate to administer a fitting rebuke to the impertinent scribe who harped about "intelligent Catholics," who had an intellect above that of "poodles." Turning his abuse upon the Archbishop, the Mail writer again received a terrible drubbing from the head of the Church in Ontario, and then posed as a martyr. Abused, misrepresented, derided and taunted by the representative journal of the Conservative party, the venerable Archbishop could not be driven from supporting the minister who had paid deference to his opinion, and so tried, successfully it proved, to correct the injurious slanders uttered by the Mail. It now remains to be seen who are the best guardians of Catholic morals and Catholic education, the bishops and priests, or the editor of the Mail, John O'Donohue and Frank Smith, the latter of whom spells proprietor with an "a," and copy with an extra "pe."

An old toady named French has been getting freely advertised in the papers recently, owing to the fact that he has been guilty of the "crank" of sending a barrel apples to the Queen, another barrel to Sir Garnet Wolseley, another to Lord Dufferin, and five barrels to different other distinguished persons, who never heard of old French, and wouldn't know him if they ran against him and his umbrella on King st., Toronto. If French would give some of his surplus cash to his own flesh and blood in Toronto, he would deserve more respect than is his portion on account of his apple freak.

THE PRESS ON THE STURDY CASE.

On our second page we reproduce a number of pithy extracts from our exchanges on the Sturdy case. They all point out the benefit of an example being made by those who violate the election law and attempt to steal the franchise. The Seaforth Expositor has gone into the subject a little more fully, and its calm comment on the case is well worth reading. It says:

At the recent assizes in this county Mr. J. L. Sturdy was found guilty of perjury and false voting. The full particulars of the case will be found in another column. Suffice it to say here that Mr. Sturdy's offence was committed in connection with his voting at the recent election in West Huron. He took the oath of residence, thereby testifying that he was a resident of the riding, and voting as such, when in reality he was not a resident, and had no right to vote. This, of course was a most flagrant offence, and one which might have subjected him to the severest punishment. Fortunately for him, however, the judge, at the urgent solicitation of the Crown Prosecutor, took a most lenient view of the offence, and inflicted the lightest possible punishment. This, under the circumstances, was quiet proper, but at the same time the warning afforded should be none the less heeded. It is too frequently the case that in the heat of an election campaign many are far too apt to be indifferent to the course of their conduct. Mr. Sturdy is said to be a thoroughly honorable and reliable man as a rule, and in any ordinary business transaction no doubt would be so, and in a court of justice or at any other time, would no more think of making a false oath and committing the crime of perjury than he would of committing theft. But, on this occasion, he evidently deliberately swore to what he must have known to be false. This, however, is not so much due to his disregard for his oath, as to the loose and indifferent manner in which election oaths are usually administered as well as taken. Too many are apt to think that in politics everything is fair, and they will resort to trickery and dishonesty to gain a point at an election, which, in connection with the ordinary business of life would almost make them shudder to think of. In this way the case tried at Gode rich should have the effect of making the people who take an active part in elections more careful in future. We have an excellent election law, and if its provisions were strictly adhered to, and infractions of it as promptly punished as in the present instance, our elections would be a deal more free from corruption, any our legislators too, would be more honest than they are now. Mr. Cameron is certainly entitled to credit for his efforts to check this species of election corruption, which has been too commonly practiced in the past, and his promptitude will bear good and wholesome fruit in the future. If candidates generally were to look more closely after violations of the law, they would be saved no little expense and trouble at elections. And it would also be well for electors to look closely after candidates. A few examples on both sides similar to that referred to, would have a splendid effect in keeping our excellent elective system pure, and ridding it of the many abuses which it is to be feared are still

THE BIBLE IN THE SCHOOL.

Nothing could be better in form and spirit than Mr. Mowat's reply to the recent denunciation on this question. He admitted that up to a very recent period the existing law on the subject had not been familiar to him, but stated that he had, in view of the interview looked into it to some extent. That he had done so to some purpose was manifest from the clear and accurate supposition of it which he gave in his remarks. The present law and regulations on the subject, he reminded the delegates, were originally the result of a compromise amongst the representatives of various religious denominations acting in concert with the late chief superintendent of education. He reminded them also that they have remained unchanged for thirty years, the only recent official utterance on the subject being Mr. Crooks' answer to a deputation which waited on him a few years ago.

And how far does the regulations go? In the first place they make no mention of school visitors. By giving a minister the right to enter a school whenever he pleases, and as much information about its working as he can, enable him to see how far the official recommendations are carried out, and give him the right to advise the teacher, trustees, and ratepayers on the subject. They enable him to devote himself to the improvement of the school in the matter of religion without laying himself open to the imputation of being an intruder. How have the clergy availed themselves of this great privilege? How many of them even know that they have been constituted by law visitors of the public schools. How many of them have ever gone into a school to see for themselves what kind of moral teaching is practised and what status is accorded to the bible? How many of them have talked this matter over with the school authorities, and endeavored in this way to secure more generous recognition of the scriptures in their own schools? Well might the attorney general remind the delegates of the notorious remissness of the clergy in this particular direction. If there were more earnestness in the discharge of this obvious local duty there would be less of this helpless appealing to the secular powers to enable the clergy to recover their waning influence over the masses. How much harm the church is likely to receive from this publication of clerical fault-findingness time alone can disclose. Clearly some of the successors of the apostles have very little of the apostolic zeal and endurance. Fancy Paul appealing to the civil power for help. All he wanted from it was opportunity to preach unmolested.

In the next place the regulations not merely permit but actually recommend the use of the bible and of certain religious exercises in schools. Is this nothing? The whole history of our school system shows that it is a powerful influence. Religious exercises are now conducted regularly in six-sevenths of all our public schools; would that proportion have become so great but for an official recommendation of words so strongly that it is often mistaken for a positive direction? And is it worth raising the whole question of state-control of religious exercises on the few remaining schools? In all probability the clergy could if they would exert themselves a little, secure the introduction of the bible in the great majority of the schools in which it has at present no footing. Suppose they all set to work this year and make the experiment; it would be interesting to note the statistics of 1883, and read the lesson they would convey. [Toronto World.]

The Crooks Act a Boon.

The London Advertiser directed circulars to many prominent clergymen enquiring the operations of the Crooks license act, and among others, receiving the following replies to the interrogation:—"Do you desire to see the issuing of liquor licenses placed again in the hands of the municipal councils?" Rev. Principal Cayet, Toronto:—"No. Neither on general grounds, nor in view of results, would I desire this to be done." Rev. H. D. Hunter:—"No, never, but license commissioners should be selected, as nearly as may be, from both political parties." Rev. R. N. Grant:—"I believe the Crooks Act a most beneficial law, and would regard its repeal as a disaster." Rev. E. Rainsford, Toronto:—"Heaven forbid! The result would be a nation of drunkards, and the creation of a saloon keepers' municipal and political ring, and the appointment of the most worthless characters in the community as (1) saloon keepers, (2) aldermen and wardens, (3) M. P. P's." Rev. W. Williams:—"No; nor in any other hands."

In the course of his reply to a felicitous address presented to him at Prince Arthur's Landing on his way home from Winnipeg, Sir Charles Tupper gave a glowing picture of the work being done on the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the prospects of the country through which it runs. He said there was now being enacted in our western country rapidity of railway construction which surpasses anything the world ever saw, and that he believes it to be a fair and sober prediction that within five years a great Canadian highway from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean will extend from city to city and from town to town in its course across the continent. It is all ways invigorating to hear Sir Charles speak; he seems to be so sanguine and so thoroughly in earnest in everything he says that quarters always look like half-dollars all the time he is speaking, although everybody knows that they are only quarters. He expects that a large immigration of Irish tenants will set in for Canada next year.

Serious apprehension is caused in Germany and Austria at the heavy concentration of Russian troops on the frontier of the former Power. The German Minister of War has ordered the strengthening and extension of all the fortresses in Eastern Germany and on the Baltic coast.

MARMION.

Condemnation Reiterated—Confidence in the President System.

Kingston, Nov. 5.—(Special).—Bishop Cleary, in his sermon this evening, returned to the "Marmion" question, and pronounced it unjust and unfair that it should be forced upon Catholics when bishops—guardians of the morals of the young—objected, and considered it offensive. He alluded to the importance of having the text books pure and undefiled, as the students had not only to read them, but had the contents indelibly impressed upon their minds. Was it right then that pictures such as Scott had drawn of Catholic life and institutions, of the immorality and turpitude of Marmion and Constance, should be impressed upon the memory of youth? Certainly not! He again reviewed the educational history of Ireland, and pointed out that the Catholic contemners of Queen's College and other Schools because the Pope had decided that they were intrinsically dangerous to the Catholic faith and morals. So far as he (the Bishop) could perceive there was but one difference between them and the University and High Schools of this Province, in the spirit manifested by the Government towards them.

CONFIDENCE IN THE SCHOOL SYSTEM. In his diocese, most of which he had visited, he had failed to find a single instance in which the Catholic contemners of Queen's College and other Schools because the Pope had decided that they were intrinsically dangerous to the Catholic faith and morals. So far as he (the Bishop) could perceive there was but one difference between them and the University and High Schools of this Province, in the spirit manifested by the Government towards them.

TRANSPORTING ENGLISH PREJUDICES. He could not understand why the immoral book, the book of so much discussion and deserving of condemnation, should have been transported to Canada, carrying upon its face English prejudices. He could not see why a wrong should have been done in making it a text book in the first place, and why it should be retained now when an attempt was made to undo an injustice. It was foul, abominable, and should not be a standard work.

PAST AND PRESENT.

In closing he alluded to the bad name Kingston had won in times ago for religious strife, a name that had gone to Europe. It had suffered on account of this reputation. Its growth had been retarded, because people did not wish to live and make their homes amid a conflict of creeds. Now the utmost harm done by the past was nearly forgotten, and he hoped nothing would happen to revise it. The whole country was orderly, and in civil and religious matters such an improvement on the United States that without a wonderful change annexation could not take place, and it was not desirable. The sermon, a particularly able one, and but faintly outlined above, occupied about an hour and three-quarters in delivery, and the latter part was a criticism of school books. The first part was advisory in reference to the responsibility devolving on parents in the training of their children.

The "Mail" and the Bishops.

The presumption of the Mail is something stupendous. It has got itself into no end of a pickle over the Marmion discussion, and instead of quietly dropping the whole subject it is getting deeper into the mud every day. It has abused Bishop Jamot, Bishop Cleary and Archbishop Lynch in good round terms, and says in many words that they do not possess intellects above the level of a poodle, and that they do not know what they are talking about. It calls upon Bishop Jamot to retract his statements in regard to itself, such reparation for defamation, it says, being due to it from him as a Christian. Bishop Cleary is also requested to come forward and square up with the organ. In his case the Mail says it will not retaliate, as "an apology will suffice for all the satisfaction we need." Of course the venerable archbishop and the two distinguished bishops will wind their way to the Mail office forthwith and ask the editor's reasons for having dared to differ from him in a matter affecting the welfare of the Catholic youth. Burning of the Provincial Poor Asylum, Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 7.—A fire broke out at midnight at the eastern end of the Provincial Poor Asylum, an immense six-story brick structure in the southwestern suburb of the city, containing about 400 people, and at 1.30 a. m., one-half of the building is a mass of flames. The fire originated in a bakery, where there were twenty cords of wood stored. The flames, catching this, then spread with lightning rapidity, and soon had that part of the building used as a hospital in their clutches. The inmates rushed about the building in great confusion, seemingly almost out of their senses, and the work of getting them out was very difficult. It is thought most of those confined in the hospital have been saved, but it is feared a number of lives are lost. The whole city is in a state of alarm, and the water works are now at the scene of the conflagration, but can do little, hardly any water being obtainable.

LATER.—Thirty-one lives have been lost.

The women in Scotland were celebrating Friday last with much enthusiasm the first occasion on which they have exercised the municipal franchise. The women make up from one-tenth to one-fifth of the municipal electors in Scotch cities and towns like Greenock, Paisley, Aberdeen, Glasgow and Edinburgh, and they are determined not to rest satisfied till they have obtained the parliamentary franchise also.

A BED QUILT.

London, Nov. 3.—The Ladies' Aid Society in connection with the Lucan Episcopal Church, having made an autograph quilt, a meeting was recently held in the town hall to dispose of it. Two of the churchwardens, Mr. John Fox and Mr. Wm. Stanley, proposed that two young ladies be nominated as candidates for the quilt. Accordingly Miss Alice Porte and Miss Louise Goodacre were the nominees respectively of Mr. W. E. Stanley and John Fox. The voting went on at a lively rate until when some $40 or $50 had been collected, when the poll was declared closed, when Miss Goodacre declared queen of the quilt. But just as the declaration was made some one picked up a $5 bill from the floor and stoutly maintained he had put it in for Miss Porte. The polls were therefore opened again, and in a few minutes a trifle of $90 was collected, and amid deafening cheers Miss Porte was declared elected. But here another hitch occurred, the uproar became deafening, and Mr. Fox demanded the poll to be opened again, laying his $100 gold watch and chain in favor of Miss Goodacre. Mr. Stanley, not to be outdone, shouted "I'll give my $1,000 house, and lot in support of my girl, Fox." Whereupon Mr. Fox pulled out a $200 roll of bills which he laid down in front of the poll clerk. "There," he said, "is $200, and I have a thousand more at the back of it. Come on now." The meeting now became a scene of confusion, some claiming the quilt for Miss Goodacre, and others demanding it for Miss Porte. The matter stands in the meantime Rev. Mr. Magaghy has returned the watch and chain, house and lot, and the roll of bills to their respective owners, and says the church will be well satisfied with the $90, which, when added to the receipts of the evening and the proceeds of the quilt in the item of names, will make something like $300. It is understood that Messrs. Fox and Stanley have resigned their positions as churchwardens.

Heavy Business in Oil.

Bradford, Pa., Nov. 6.—Notwithstanding that it is Sunday there was an active market at all the exchanges in the oil region yesterday. The market on Saturday closed at 119½, but last night the brokers were buying all the oil offered at 125. One of the heaviest speculators taking 100,000 barrels at that figure. Chicago capitalists have bought up a million or so barrels. Orders to buy come in from all parts of the country, and last night as high as 126 was bid.

Affairs in Egypt.

London, Nov. 4.—The Governor of Crete has telegraphed to the Khedive that by order of the Porte the prisoners, Mussalaked Pasha, Hassan Pasha, Suleiman Pasha and Dacub Pasha, who were arrested at Cardia after the hurried flight and pursuit from Cairo, and who were implicated in the burning of Alexandria and the scenes of pillage and slaughter which accompanied it, will be surrendered to the Egyptian Government for punishment. The Sultan prefers to let the authorities of Egypt deal with them than to make an exception in the case.

Cairo, Nov. 4.—In consequence of the impression which is still prevalent among the high Egyptian officials that the Egyptian powers are ready to oppose the English efforts to procure the lasting unification of Egypt, Baron Treloar, German Consul, has been instructed to inform the Khedive and Egyptian Minister that Prince Bismark has most explicit confidence in England's disinterested policy regarding Egypt, which he considers as being the only and best means of establishing peace and order.

London, Nov. 4.—Various special dispatches to London newspapers, and telegrams received from Cairo, say the report from Khartoum, dated October 30, of the defeat of the false prophet with great slaughter is not believed. Dr. Schweinfurth writes to the Anti-Slavery Society, under date Cairo, October 23, that all the Provinces of Egypt lying south and west of Khartoum are in the hands of fanatical insurgents, and that Khartoum is only hanging on by a thread, the army being cut down by constant distressing combats with the false prophet, and is reduced to half its original size. The mass of the population believe in every victorious false prophet. Six thousand men, Schweinfurth reports, were massacred in June by Mahdi's army, which is reported to number 150,000, and despatched to the Sudan. The army, it is expected, will march on Khartoum. Schweinfurth also states that the Governor of the Sudan estimates that during the war 30,000 of the false prophet's followers perished.

Cairo, Nov. 6.—It is reported that the forces of the false prophet made five assaults upon the town of Obeid, in the Sudan, but were repulsed with great loss. The prophet continues to advance upon Khartoum.

London, Nov. 6.—It is asserted that it is under consideration to bring the trial of Arabi and the popular leaders to an abrupt conclusion in order to bring about the deportation of them all to Cyprus.

Alexandria, Nov. 6.—Numerous complaints having been made that the Egyptian authorities treated with great harshness Swiss recruits brought here to serve in the new army, it has been decided to send them back to Switzerland tomorrow.

Cairo, Nov. 6.—Abdel Kader telegraphs from Khartoum, Nov. 5th:—"I have defeated the rebels at three points. They were somewhat demoralized by a report that English troops were coming. Khartoum is for the moment relieved."

The Rev. Charles Spurgeon, son of the famous pastor of the London Tabernacle, has been preaching to crowded congregations in St. Louis and other Western cities. He preaches short, plainly-worded sermons, with touches of pathos and dramatic style of delivery. In St. Louis he was regarded as one of the most eloquent preachers that ever had visited that city.

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

Pursuant to an order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, made in the matter of the estate of Henry Morley, deceased, and in a cause Morley against Morley, the creditors of Henry Morley, late of the village of Belgrave, in the County of Middlesex, who died in or about the month of March, 1882, are on or before the 14th day of November, 1882, to send by post prepaid to the plaintiff, Sarah Morley, the administrator of the deceased, their Christian and surname, addresses and description, the full particulars of their claims, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them, or in default thereof they will be deemed to be excluded from the benefit of the said order.

Every creditor holding any security is to produce the same before me, at my chambers at the Court House, in the Town of Gode rich, in the County of Huron, on the 14th day of November, 1882, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, being the time appointed for adjudication on the claims.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF LANDS.

COUNTY OF HURON. By virtue of a Writ of Fieri Facias issued out of Her Majesty's County Court of the County of Lanark, and to the effect that certain lands and tenements of JAMES STRACHAN, at the suit of FINLAY MCKIBBIN, I have seized and taken in execution all the right, interest and equity of redemption of the above named defendant, in and to lot five hundred and ninety-two (592), situated in the Town of Gode rich, in the County of Huron, comprising a dwelling house and one quarter of an acre of land, and also subject to a mortgage of three hundred dollars, which lands and tenements I shall offer for sale at my office in the Court House, in the Town of Gode rich, on Tuesday, the 30th day of January, 1883, at the hour of twelve of the clock, noon.

EGYPTIAN OIL.

Francis Mott, Commercial Hotel, Brantford says: "I was troubled with a distressing headache. For four days I could neither eat nor sleep, and was nearly distracted. I had even allowed my head to be combed. My son went to Toronto and bought for me a bottle of Egyptian Oil, and gave me half a teaspoonful, and also bathed my head, and I can honestly say that the effect was belief. It cured my headache and gave me the utmost comfort in ten minutes, and I felt as once a desire for food, and in two days I was able to work again. I have had no return of the pain. A ten dollar bill is the value I put on that bottle of Egyptian Oil."

A PAINFUL HISTORY.

Sad Death of a Former Wealthy Merchant.
Baleful Effects of Strong Drink.—Saved for Dissection.

London, Nov. 6.—About 25 years ago Wm. Muir was a partner in the firm of Adams, Hope & Co., he was at that time considered to be one of the wealthiest men in the west. He lived in a first class residence, kept his carriage, and was the first in the city to introduce a liveried footman. He was a brother-in-law of Judge Daniels, and was otherwise well connected. After leaving this city he went into partnership with the well known firm of Buchanan, Harris, & Co., of Hamilton. In that city he married a niece of Mr. R. W. Harris, which still tended to improve his financial standing. In the crisis which swept over the Province a few days after, Mr. Muir, who had been speculating freely, was among the victims, and in an evil hour he had recourse to drink in order to stifle his grief. He now removed to Montreal, but it was only from bad to worse. His career was now steadily downward, and to such an extent was he reduced that he was obliged to travel the country as a book agent. When last seen in this city it was evident to those who were acquainted with him that he was fast breaking up. On his return to Montreal he was reduced to great poverty, and finally through exposure and the baleful effects of drink he fell a victim to disease and was removed to the Montreal hospital where a few days ago he died. During all his dreadful seasons of distress he seemed to realize his position keenly, and he kept aloof as much as possible from his former associates, his pride preventing him from making known his wretched position to those who would have willingly stretched forth a saving hand. In his case, however, it would have apparently proved an impossibility to snatch the devotee of folly from the grave. He carefully concealed from his friends his whereabouts, and after his death in the hospital his remains were taken to the dissecting-room to be operated on, as is the custom, by the Montreal students. Just as the professor was about to plunge the knife into the subject an old friend arrived at the dissecting-room in the greatest haste and excitement, and forbade the Professor proceeding. After some parley the matter was satisfactorily explained, and the remains of the once wealthy, influential, and respected Wm. Muir were taken in charge, and decent sepulture assured.

A Mother's Corpse Neglected.

London, Nov. 6.—A case of shocking depravity is reported from London township. On Wednesday last an old woman named Mrs. Loudon, residing on the 3rd con., died from old age and general debility. Her two sons named John and James, who were informed of the death of their maternal relative, borrowed some money from Mrs. Scatchard and her hired man for the purpose of purchasing a coffin for the enclosure of the remains. They sat out for London with about $16 in their possession, but on their way called into two or three taverns where they squandered all they possessed for drink and did not return. The neighbors kindly sat up with the body, which was placed on the lounge without a shroud covering, all Wednesday night. Thursday came and passed, but no news of the men was received. The warden of the county was visited and acquainted with the circumstances, and immediately ordered a coffin, and on Friday afternoon the remains were interred at the Roman Catholic cemetery in presence of three men and a few ladies, the sons not being present. That in this enlightening age two young men should be so depraved as to leave the corpse of their mother without, so far as they were concerned, a shroud of covering, lying upon a lounge for two days and a night, whilst they revelled in taverns and barrooms, is almost beyond credence.

The Minister of Education has extended the time for the payment of grants to Mechanics' Institutes throughout the Province, which expired on Wednesday last, to December 1st. About $20,000 has been paid out since the 1st of May.

A general order has been issued by the British government to the consuls of the empire in all parts of the world directing them to carefully avoid any interference in the politics of the country to which they are assigned.

WILL YOU EXCHANGE a case of Dyspepsia or Biliousness for 75 cents? It is awfully unwise to postpone unduly the cure of this ailment. It is cured by Zepes, a single dose relieves; a sample bottle convinces; a 75 cent bottle cures. It acts directly upon the Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys. Cleanses, Corrects, Regulates, Zepes gives energy and vitality to the Liver, Nerves, and Muscles, simply by acting upon the Digestion, and giving activity to the Liver. Cut this out, take it to any dealer in medicines, and get at least one 75 cent bottle of Zepes, and tell your neighbor how it acts. It is warranted to cure Dyspepsia and Biliousness.

By casual observation, we find all speculators have a feverish and watch the ups and downs of property, thus making large fortunes. But the whole secret is, they keep the system in a healthy condition by the use of THE PRIDE OF THE VALLEY MEDICINE for the great lung and blood purifier before going west. Read the following statement: We could give thousands of the same kind if it were necessary. I certify that I was troubled with Catarrh in the head, gathering of phlegm in the throat, choking and coughing at night for years, so I could not sleep, often troubled with dull, lifeless feelings, pains in the chest and back. After giving hundreds of dollars to doctors, and giving up all hopes, I tried the PRIDE OF THE VALLEY, and am now able to do my work after seven years' sickness. MRS. JAMES MCNEIL, 202 Simcoe Street, London, Ont.

Jones thinks a man fortunate who has his will contested after death only. He says his will has been contested ever since he married Mrs. Jones.

"What are you going to do when you grow up?" asked a teacher of a rather slow boy. "I am going to be school teacher, and make the boys do all the cyphering," was the reply.

It is related that President Segnier was always hard upon the lawyers. When the docket was being called one day it was found that both advocates in a certain case were absent. "Go on with it, then," cried the president, in high spirits; "go on with it; we shall have a chance of getting at the truth."

A dry goods clerk, with a very affected gait, had to go to a distant part of the store for some goods for a party of feminine customers. "Walk this way, ladies," he called, as he swung himself off. "But we can't walk that way," cried a pert miss; "we never learned that style, you know." The clerk is now drilling on a more common method.

An elderly resident, of Newtown, was approached by an agent for a cyclopaedia. "I guess I won't get one," said the elderly citizen, and frankly added, "I know I never could learn to ride one of the pesky things."

It was at the house of the bride's parents after the wedding. On a table were exposed the costly presents. Two gentlemen were examining them. Said one of them suddenly: "These, you say, are the bride's presents, but what does the groom get?" "Oh," replied the other, "he gets the woman." First gentleman: "Is that all? Poor fellow!"

READY WIT.—The jester attached to the court of Peter the Great of Russia was remarkable for his ingenuity in extricating himself and others from trouble. A cousin of his, on one occasion, had fallen under the Czar's displeasure, and was about to be executed. The jester presented himself at court to petition for a reprieve. On seeing him enter the chamber of state, and divining his errand, the monarch shouted to him—"It's of no use coming here; I swear that I will not grant what you are going to ask." Quick as thought the fool dropped on his knees, and exclaimed—"I beseech your Imperial Highness to put that scamp of a cousin of mine to death. Peter, thus caught in his own trap, had no choice but to laugh, and sent a pardon to the offender.

A Reliable Witness.

Mr. White, late proprietor of the Mansion Saloon, King Street, Toronto, writes as follows about Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters: "I have used Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters for nearly two years, and I believe it to be the best medicine in the world. I would not be without it for anything. I have induced scores of people to try it, and when taken according to directions, I have never known it to fail. I call the Bitters, 'The Doctor.' It has certainly been my family doctor ever since I first used it, and will continue to be as long as it acts the same as hitherto. I strongly advise all my friends and the public generally, who suffer from any affections of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver or Blood, such as Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Headache, Dizziness, Costiveness, Impurities of the Blood, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc., to buy a bottle of 'The Doctor,' and I am certain that not one will regret having done so. I do not think there is any medicine in the whole world so well as Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters." [Signed,] JAS. WILSON. Sold in large bottles at 50 cents by all druggists.

Is Froggy A Fish?

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 29.—A Washington correspondence writes. An important omission has been discovered in the famous treaty of Washington which threatens to affect seriously an important American industry by leaving it unprotected, and may cause our Government to lose thousands of dollars on duties which would otherwise have been collected. The demand for frogs as an article of food in cities has increased so largely of late that the domestic supply has been found insufficient a brisk trade in these amphibious animals has sprung up with Canada, and large numbers are being shipped across the border to American dealers. The action of certain Customs collectors, however, threatens to put an end to this traffic if their rulings are sustained by the Treasury Department. Under the provisions of the treaty of Washington fish caught in Canadian waters have been admitted to the United States free of duty. The Canadian dealers insist that frogs are fish, and therefore exempt; the American Customs officers object to this classification, and hold that fish were never known to have feet, while the subject of dispute has four. To this the Canadians reply, that if frogs are not fish they are certainly not animals nor birds, and cannot be subjected to classification for duty. The matter has been referred to the Treasury Department for a decision, but is not expected that Secretary Folger will attempt to give an opinion until after the election—probably not then, for fear of foreign complications—and the matter will probably be referred to the State Department.

Never Give Up.

If you are suffering with low and depressed spirits, loss of appetite, general debility, disordered blood, weak constipation, headache, or any disease of a bilious nature, by all means procure a bottle of Electric Bitters. You will be surprised to see the rapid improvement that will follow; you will be inspired with new life; strength and activity will return; pain and misery will cease, and henceforth you will rejoice in the praise of Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle, by Jas. Wilson. [5]

Words of Wisdom.

Sorrow may endure for a night, Joy cometh in the morning. He who knows most, grieves most for wasted time.

The most profound joy has more of gravity in it.

Goderich Township

There died at his residence, Huron Road, on Friday Nov. 3rd, Mr. John Taylor, aged 74 years. Deceased was one of the sons of probably the first settler in Goderich township. His father settled about where deceased's homestead and late residence was, in the year 1829, but was killed by a falling tree soon after. Deceased, except for a short intermission in town, has resided on his property on the Huron Road about five miles from town, for about 54 years. He was one time an active member of the Methodist body. Of late years he has not moved about much. By industry and thrift he accumulated a fair competence. He leaves one son, Robert, who resides on the homestead, and several daughters, most of whom are married and provided for. The funeral took place on Monday and was largely attended. Mr. Alex. Taylor, brother of deceased, and who has lived here since 1828 or '29, is yet a hearty yeoman and bids fair to lengthen out for many years an industrious and respected life.

Colborne.

A BAD SCARE.—The Halloween marauders, after having finished their labors of carrying off immense gates, removing ponderous wheels from wagons, etc., hiding plows, and doing other silly acts, captured a goose and cooked it at their improvised camp fire in the old style of Colby in "Lawwood." Just as the mischievous company were about to satisfy their hunger an alarm was sounded, and the cry given that the Dunlop constable and his portly colleague from Sheppardton was upon them. The crew fled precipitately, leaving goose, campfire and all. The next morning it was found that the advancing figures were those of two active ladies returning from a merry making. It was a bad sell on the boys.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The municipal Council of Colborne met in the Township hall, on Friday, 27th October, 1882. Members all present—Reeve in the chair. Minutes of last meeting read, when it was moved by A. Beck, seconded by A. Malloy, that the minutes just read be amended by striking out the motion made to pass a by-law prohibiting all animals from running at large in this township. There being no amendment the minutes were accordingly amended and signed by the Reeve. Communication from H. Y. Attrill in regard to a house on the public road opposite his property, which he wished the Council to cause to be removed. The matter was deferred until the party has an opportunity of procuring a place to remove to, which is to be not longer than six months. The clerk was instructed to communicate with Mr. Attrill regarding the nuisance complained of. The Reeve reported the sexton had resigned his position. Moved by Mr. Beck, seconded by Mr. Carroll, that Thos. Mitchell be appointed sexton—Carried. The fees were fixed at $1.25 per grave. The tax roll was handed over to the collector, his bonds being previously examined and found satisfactory. The Council then adjourned.—J. A. McDONAGH, Clerk.

Leoburn.

That mild form of idiocy indulged in by certain boys and young men on Halloween in the way of running gates, etc., has not yet died out here. It dies hard.

GOOD HORSEFLESH.—Mr. Matthew Foley sold his fine bay gelding two years and three months old to Mr. A. M. Polley, of Goderich, for $151. Mr. Polley also purchased a four year old bay colt from Mr. James Bogie, Jr., for $165.

ROOTS.—Although roots are not large as a rule this year, the crop has been pretty good all over, the rows being very regular in growth. One farmer raised 2,300 bushels of roots, chiefly mangolds.

THRASHERS.—The Morrow Bros. finished their labors here on the 31st ult. Their best record was at Fred. Horton's, in two hours and a half 240 bushels of fall wheat; at Mr. Burke's 180 bushels of oats in one hour, keeping two grain clerks on the hop. When leaving they expressed a hearty feeling at the kind treatment they had received from the Leoburn and Dunlop farmers. Tall Donald and the junior engineer expressed a deep sorrow in parting with the lasses. We are afraid that though they are gone they have left their hearts behind. The firm started off for Turkey line amid loud cheers, having still 45 days' work ahead.

TEMPERANCE.—The following are the officers for the Leoburn Lodge I. O. G. T., 213, for the ensuing quarter: W. C. T. Bro. H. Horton; W. V. Sister F. Horton; W. S. Bro. G. H. Clifton; W. F. S. Bro. Peter Stewart; W. T. Bro. John Lankester; W. M. Bro. John Stewart; W. D. M. Sister Jane Lang; W. I. G. Sister Helen Burke; W. O. G. Bro. R. Hogarth; W. R. H. S. Sister Edith Horton; W. L. H. S. Sister M. Macmanus; P. W. C. T. Bro. W. Macmanus; W. C. Bro. S. B. Williams. During the winter arrangements will be made to give a lecture or other entertainment to the public. The lady's address is Dunlop

The new Presbyterian Church on the 10th line of East Wawanosh, which is under the pastoral charge of Mr. Anderson, of Whitechurch, opened for Divine services on the 22nd of October, by Rev. Jas. Little, of Princeton, preaching morning and evening, and Rev. A. McLean, of Blyth, in the afternoon. The church was filled to overflowing, at some of the services not even standing room could be secured. The collections amounted to $85. On Monday following a successful tea meeting was held. Tea was served in the Methodist Church near by, and addresses were delivered in the new church by Revs. Cameron, of Lucknow; Brown, of Wroxeter, Little, of Princeton, Mr. Cuyler, of Whitechurch, and pastor Excellent music was provided by a union choir, under the leadership of Mr. Wm. Roach, the leader presiding at the organ. At the close of the meeting a number of story cakes were brought forward for presentation to the choir. Each member received one and Mrs. A. two very nice ones. On the following evening a social was held for the young people, which was highly enjoyed by those present. Total proceeds $213.

Seaforth.

A Row.—A number of roughs from Clinton, named Butcher, Swartz, Horton, Cook and Holloway, succeeded in raising a disturbance at the Queen's Hotel, early on Wednesday morning. They had come to town the previous evening, and a party of horses and carriage, and had evidently indulged rather freely in Seaforth whiskey. About one o'clock in the morning, just as they were starting for home, they stopped at the Queen's Hotel, which was closed, and the inmates wrapped in the embrace of Morpheus. They pounded on the door and wakened Mr. Stephens, and fearing they would break in, he came down and opened the door, but refused to admit them. They were not refused, however, and attempted to force an entrance, but Mr. Stephens was too much for them, and succeeded in closing them out. Mrs. Stephens came to the assistance of her husband, and in the disturbance one of the rascals hit her on the face, discolored her cheek. When they found that they could not get into the hotel, they started out and gathered up a lot of stones, and then threw the stones at the windows, breaking a number of panes of glass. Mr. Lushy, the chief constable, was apprised of the affair, and soon appeared on the scene. While they were driving round he caught the horses, and captured two of the men, but the others alighted from the vehicle and made their escape. The captured men were placed in the lock up, where they were afforded an opportunity to become sober. The names of the two who escaped are Butcher and Horton, and they are still at large. The third gave himself up on Wednesday. The captured party were liberally fined. The horses and vehicle were taken care of by Mr. Lushy, and the owner arrived in town on Wednesday and took them home. They belong to Mr. Burns, liveryman, of Clinton.

Carlou.

The poetry, given below, was written under the following circumstances. Some one on the last evening of October, in sport we presume, took the gate off No. 1 Colborne from its hinges and mounting the school house took the tongue from the bell, and hid both. The gate was found next day, but the tongue has not yet turned up. It is hoped that the kind invitation, given in the poetry, to return it, will be acted upon.

THE LAMENT FOR THE TONGUE.

On the last night of October, In the stillness of the night, Had we watched our school house bellfry, We'd have seen a curious sight.

On the first morn of November, Lo! the bell had lost its tongue, Listening for it now was useless, For it could not now be rung.

How we gazed in speechless wonder Upwards at his house on high; Then looked round to think and ponder, Why its tongue so still did lie.

Horror stricken, almost speechless, Were we, when we knew the truth, Knew that it had lost its clapper By the hand of reckless youth.

Soon were voices heard to utter, While our hands we ceaseless wrung "Lo! the gate has left its hinges, Gone perchance to hunt the tongue."

Mourning for the gate is ended, Still the tongue has not appeared; Should it turn up as the other, Greatly then we should be cheered.

Good old tongue for years so faithful, How we miss it every day, If, who called us weary strugglers In from all our youthful play.

Will the public, if they meet it, In its wanderings far from home, Kindly to its place return it, And we'll teach it not to roam.

Dungannon.

No less than two wedding parties visited our town one day last week. Inspector Miller visited our public schools one day lately.

The funeral of Mr. Phillips, of Belfast, passed through this place last Tuesday, 31st ult.

There are a few cases of diphtheria reported in this village; but none of them appear to be very serious.

Mr. D. S. Munro has been re-engaged as principal of the public schools here, at an advance of salary.

Quite a number of magistrates' cases have been tried lately in the hall over the lock-up.

Miss Mattie Caswell, who has been on an extended tour through the States, has just returned, and appears to have enjoyed enjoyed Yankee society immensely.

On Sabbath last quarterly services were dispensed in the Methodist church here. The Rev. Mr. Caswell occupied the pulpit, and preached a very suitable sermon to a large and appreciative congregation.

Mr. Robert Wallace, who has spent the greater part of the summer in Winnipeg, returned home a few weeks since. Mr. W. spent all of his time in the city of Winnipeg, and consequently gives no opinion on the state of the country, but he says that city is growing at an astonishing rate.

Our boys on Halloween behaved the themselves with becoming propriety, and contented themselves with playing some funny tricks. So far there have been no reports of any destruction of property. This says a great deal for the good spirit prevailing among the youth of our village.

Mrs. Christie Stewart of the Nile, who has been for a long time ailing, passed peacefully away on Sunday morning. Deceased was widely known and highly respected. The bereaved husband and family have the sincere sympathy of the community.

Dunlop.

Miss Rose Currie, Goderich, was the guest of Mrs. Allen.

Mrs. Allen, who was laid up last week by an attack of illness, is now on the mend.

The lads abstained from making any depredations on Halloween, and have been commended for their good sense by the local constable.

"We never miss the water till the well runs dry," sings our jolly son of Erin as he drives his cow to the lake. All his wells have given out.

Literary Notices.

In this number the Rev. C. S. Eby, B. A., of Japan, completes his admirable series of "Lectures in Europe," which has been so finely illustrated. A paper on Quebec and its Environs," gives numerous engravings of historic scenes in the ancient capital. The Rev. Hugh Johnson, M. A., contributes a striking paper on "Personal Recollections of the late Rev. F. Nunan," and the Rev. Dr. Sutherland an able discourse on the "Attractive Power of the Cross." The Rev. E. R. Young, for many years missionary to the North-west, gives a very interesting account of the "Invention of the Cree Syllabic Characters by the Rev. James Evans." He gives the full alphabet, and shows how readily it can be combined into words, and how easily it can be learned. The Rev. R. W. Harrison has a thoughtful paper on "The Destruction of Faith and its Results." The story of "Life in a Paragon" is drawing to a close. A fine poem by John Macdonald, Esq., and a Letter by Dr. Nelles on the Mormon Question, with an unusual number of very full book notices complete the number.

Among the contributors announced for the next volume are Prof. Goldwin Smith, Dr. Daniel Wilson, President of University College; Dr. Dawson, Principal of McGill College, and other foremost writers in Canada.

"No (Poor) Irish Need Apply."

"The prospect of a large pauper immigration from the south of Ireland is not a pleasing one. The pauper classes, who have learned to live upon others, have lost all those qualities which would make them anything but an intolerable burden, and a source of danger to us in this country. We don't want them. We have evil elements enough in our population without having them augmented by the ignorance, idleness, and vice inseparable from the pauperism of the Old World."—Mail.

"The American News Exchange."

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—An advertisement has appeared in many newspapers and periodicals, purporting to furnish easy employment and good compensation to persons desirous of entering the journalistic ranks. The Pennsylvania Society for the Evacuation of Vice and Crime wrote to the office of the "American News Exchange," the title of the organization at Cincinnati, and received in return a circular containing two cards, supposed to be "Open Sesame" to theatres and railroads. It was stated that the cards must first be signed by a reporter, and returned, with $5, for the signature of the manager of the "Exchange." Railroad officials and theatre managers say the cards are worthless. The "Exchange" will be investigated.

Gladstone's Success.

New York, Nov. 5.—The World's London correspondent says "It is now understood that the Irish home rulers have come to a definite understanding with Mr. Gladstone's administration not to oppose the closure or any ministerial measures brought forward this year in consideration of future concessions to Ireland next session. The opposition to Gladstone's measures has collapsed utterly and the close of the season 1882 will find him the most powerful minister of modern times."

Boston, Nov. 5.—B. M. Sullivan, M. A. says the reason the Irish members voted with the government against Mr. Gibson's amendment to the closure would have crushed the Irish party and allowed the Tories to escape. The Tories always have a third in the house, but the Irish party has not. Mr. Gladstone's closure will hit the Tory and Home Ruler alike. Sullivan believes the coming land revolution in England will far outstrip in magnitude and tremendous consequences the Irish land movement.

A quill match has been arranged between McClure, champion of the United States, and Dobson, champion of Canada, to decide the championship of America. The match is best two in three games, and will be pitched at Walkerville on the 10th and 11th inst.

Mrs. Keltie, the favorite vocalist of Hamilton, and her son, while staying at a friend's house on Bay street, in that city, on Saturday night, were attacked by a rat. One of her ears was bitten, and blood was streaming from one of the child's ears.

THE WORLD OVER.

Archer, the well-known jockey, fell from a horse at Newmarket, Saturday, while jumping a hurdle and was severely injured.

The illness of Anthony Trollope is now regarded as very serious and possibly fatal. His friends fear if he recovers his mind will be permanently affected.

Mr. Charles Holmes, who for a number of years was County Engineer, of East Middlesex, died in the London Insane Asylum Sunday.

The department of marine and fisheries have received documents which completely exonerate the lighthouse keeper at Lamely island from the charge of robbing Asia Victoria.

A body found in Chamberlin's fish net at Stoney point on Saturday has been identified as that of Orion Avery of Bothwell, Ont., who was drowned at Amherstburg October 19.

A monument erected to the memory of the late Prof. McJann, of the Belleville deaf and dumb institute, was unveiled last week, in presence of the superintendent, officers, pupils and friends of that institution.

The Allan steamship company has taken an action against the Montreal Witness for $50,000 damages for libel in retracting statements made against the treatment of passengers on the steamship Sardinian.

The widow of the late A. Duncan, drowned off the Asia, has been presented with an address, and will receive $1,000 from the Commercial Travellers' Association, of which her husband was a member.

At Barrie, on Friday, Henry York was acquitted of the murder of Daniel Dewel in Tay township in May last, the evidence not proving that death resulted from the blow struck.

Mr. George Neale, a veterinary surgeon living near Brocklin, Ont., hanged himself Friday morning. He was much respected and in easy financial circumstances. It is supposed he was laboring under a fit of melancholy. He leaves a wife and two children.

It is reported that the ex-Empress Eugenie has made a will leaving all her property to Prince Victor Napoleon, to whom falls the inheritance of Napoleonic succession. The estate is of immense value.

The burning of the Park Theatre, in New York, has excited general interest in London. There were numerous expressions of sympathy for Mrs. Lantry, though the Times reproaches the Americans for offering so young an actress homage adequate to the genius of Siddens.

Next year it is the intention of the Telephone Company to construct lines all through Canada, the experiment between Kingston and Montreal proving that service is more expeditious and better for some purposes than the telegraph. Napanee and Deseronto are now being connected by telephone.

Levi Kelp, who tried to escape from penitentiary at Columbus, O., last week, has confessed to the murder of Noah Apps, an insane inmate of Sereca County Infirmary. Kelp was sentenced to 15 years for assault with intent to kill. He has grown despondent, and seeks to avoid 11 years unreserved sentence by standing his trial for murder.

Mrs. Langtry made her debut at New York on Monday evening at Wallack's Theatre before one of the largest and most fashionable audiences ever assembled here. She made a very favorable impression, and her impersonation of "Heater Grazebrook" in "The Unequal Match" is considered by critics to be a fine performance. The debutante was repeatedly called before the curtain and received many floral tributes.

The body of Mr. Samuel Brownlee, the man who has been missing since a week ago last night, was found about noon to-day in the canal in the rear of Riordon's Paper Mill where the deceased had been formerly employed. He was evidently on his way home when he fell into the canal and was drowned. He was a member of United Workmen and leaves a wife and three young children.

A BRUTAL MURDER.—One of the most appalling murders ever perpetrated in the Ottawa district occurred on Thursday last. It appears on the day mentioned a cripple, named Robertson, son of a Vankleek Hill merchant, left his home on a hunting expedition. Not returning the same evening a party of friends organized and went in search of him. His mother accompanied them, but no success was achieved until Saturday, when his mother discovered the dead body of the unfortunate man in his own room. His skull was fractured, evidently by some blunt instrument, and his face and body also bore marks of harsh treatment. It is thought that after being pummeled he was left to die in the woods by the villain who attacked him, but subsequently recovered sufficient strength to crawl home. The Crown-Attorney has the matter in hand, and a detective is now at work on the case.
