NEWMARKET FAIR BIGGER THAN EVER

Splendid Display of Fruit, Vegetables and Dairy Produce. RECORD OPENING DAY. Remount Race Caused Much Excitement—Joseph Pegg the Winner.

Favored with beautiful weather, the Newmarket annual fall fair attracted a large number of exhibitors and visitors yesterday, the attendance exceeding that of any previous opening day. There was a large number of entries in all classes, notably in live stock, the major portion of which will be judged today.

The special attractions yesterday were the speeding and remount races in the horse ring, which attracted a great crowd and provided excellent sport, especially the remount races. This was run off in heats and each contestant had to circle the track three times, changing his mount each time around. It was both interesting and exciting because of the many entries, and the winner proved to be Joseph Pegg, who led all the way in the heats and in the final.

Trotting Races. The 2:15 pace and the 2:35 trot brought a large number of starters for the $125 purse, which was divided, $42.50 first, $37.50 second and $25 third. It was run in mile heats: best three in five. Fred L., owned and driven by G. Senes, Newmarket, won the three heats, leading all the way in the final, time 3 minutes and 35 seconds, followed by Grocery Boy (J. Smith, Toronto) and Effie Wright (W. Hezewood, Toronto).

The three-minute pace or trot also ran in mile heats with a well-contested race, the horses putting up a keen fight to the finish. The animals driven by the owners, the result being: Very Direct (J. McQuarrie, Orangeville), Decorator (C. Cumisky, Newmarket), 2, and Alex (D. W. Gilks, Allandale) 3.

Motor Cycle Race. Only three started in the 5-mile motor cycle race, but they made it very exciting while it lasted. Jack Knowles, who finished second, had trouble with his machine at the start and lost almost two laps, but he put up one of the best races witnessed for a long time, speeding round the track at a great clip, but was finally beaten by the least margin, the winner was Harry Brown, who after finishing proceeded a little distance along the track to enable him to turn, but in doing so he collided with Knowles and they were both thrown to the ground. Luckily they escaped with nothing more serious than scratches to the hands and legs.

Fruit Much Admired. The fruit section of the fair was very much admired, splendid specimens of Alexander, American russets, Baldwin, Ribston pippins, Maiden's Blush, snow and spy apples, pears and grapes being on exhibit. The most prominent winners were: G. Johnston, A. E. Starr and G. H. Hibbert. Vegetables were abundant, the largest exhibitors being: T. W. Stevens, T. Sellers, U. Young, W. N. Gibney and J. Squires.

In grains and seeds, which were of fine quality, a great number of prizes were won by T. W. Stevens, the largest entry. At night a grand concert was held in the town hall and attracted a packed attendance. The following artists contributed to the program: Miss Ruby Long, Miss Eleanor Muldoon and H. Rich, Will Spencer and Henry Hill.

COOKSVILLE FAIR QUITE MARTIAL

Body Guard Troop Gave Military Flavor to the Day's Sport. EXCELLENT HORSES. Miss Orr of Meadowvale Proved the Best Lady Driver.

The Cooksville Agricultural Society's fall fair, held yesterday, attracted many thousands of visitors. The president, J. K. Hopkins, and the directors, expressed satisfaction with the marked success of the fair, which they consider the best yet held, the entries being more numerous than in any former year.

Much interest was created by an exhibition hurdle race contested by the officers of this cavalry troop, in which Col. Sandford Smith, with his horse, "Silver Buckles," came out victor in the three-year-old class. The exhibition was shown in the exhibition of jumping by the colonel and officers of the Body Guard.

In the saddle horse class this military unit scored a distinct success. Col. Sandford Smith being placed first and Lieut. O'Brien second. There was a large entry in both light and heavy horse classes, among the principal exhibitors in the agricultural section being Jameson, McCaugherty and Madill of Streetsville.

The three-year-olds in carriage class made a good showing, Tilt & Cheney of Derry West being first with their horse, "The General." Terrance of Brampton second with "Queen," and Wedgewood of Palestine third. The single roadster class was won by Clarence Dolson of Brampton, while R. E. Pallett of Dixie was placed first in the roadster farmer's turnout class.

A splendid entry was made in the pony and outfit class, in which J. Creesh of Lambton Mills was awarded first place and T. J. Reid of West Toronto second. The ladies' harnessing contest also evoked much interest, expedition and show, in this class Miss Orr of Meadowvale was awarded the absolute control of her horse, was awarded first place.

The annual meeting of the Todmorden Conservative Association was held last night and a large number of the members were present. President George Moses, Jr., was re-elected to fill the office for another year, while the results of the elections for the other positions were as follows: 1st vice-president, Philip Padlar; 2nd vice-president, Harry Wells; 3rd vice-president, Mark Maynard; secretary, John Faine; executive committee, Charles Cosburn, Wm. Wyatt, A. Joslin, Robert McGregor, Sed Holmes; amusement committee, S. Goodman, M. Bellinger, C. Roberts; auditors, E. Goodwin, C. Featherbridge. A eulchre drive will be held in two weeks and will be the first social event of the season.

Many new members were added to the roll and a vigorous canvass of the district is to be made at once to round up those who have not joined. Vast quantities of vegetables continue to be stolen in this neighborhood and the thieves cannot be apprehended. Night after night they visit the surrounding market gardens and pilfer large quantities of produce. They destroy nearly as much as they cart away in their hasty efforts to get away. The police seem powerless to act, although they have chased them on numerous occasions, but to date they have escaped under cover of darkness.

HORSE WAS BURNED. Originating from an unknown cause fire completely destroyed a wooden stable in the rear of 58 Wolsey street, owned by J. O. Patterson and occupied by Samuel O'Brien, 58 Wolsey street. O'Brien's horse and harness were destroyed in the fire, which caused a total loss of about $500.

GERMAN FLAGS CAPTURED. PARIS, Oct. 7.—President Poincare today visited the entrenched camp in Paris. He brought back six German flags, which had been sent to him at Bordeaux by the regiments which captured them. The trophies will be deposited in the Invalides.

Benefit Concert. The citizens of Runnymede, under the auspices of the ratepayers' association, held a grand benefit concert last night in the auditorium of the Annetts street Masonic temple, the proceeds of which will be devoted towards the relief of families in the district, who, during the coming winter, will suffer from the unemployment situation. Mayor Hocken occupied the chair and an excellent program of music was rendered by well-known local talent, the Runnymede brass band giving several selections.

Wallace Preceptory, Royal Black Knights of Ireland held their regular monthly meeting last night in St. James' Hall. A large number of members were present. Twelve Austrians and one German living in West Toronto have applied for naturalization papers, as British subjects at the close of the sessions. The majority reside on Maria St., Royce and Perth avenues.

CANADA HUMILIATED SAYS HON. A. E. KEMP

Thru Defeat of Naval Bill Had to Give Place to New Zealand. WARD ONE TORIES MEET. Old Guard Out in Force to Discuss Policies of the Party.

The standing room only sign was hung out last night at the monthly meeting of the Ward One Conservative Association in Armstrong Hall. President Fenwick was in the chair, and introduced Hon. A. E. Kemp, M.P., who responded with a sparkling address on the humiliating position of Canada in regard to her protection of her shores. The fact that the opposition had prevented the granting of necessary funds to build the warships which would have been of great assistance to Great Britain, had forced the largest British colony to retire in favor of even little New Zealand. He was enthusiastically received. Secretary Birmingham of the Central Conservative Association touched lightly on the subject of the proposed split but was of the opinion that the Conservatives of the ward would forget their differences as heretofore and present a solid front in the coming election. Aid. Sanderson reported that the picnic to Oshawa this year was a great success.

WHEN PURCHASING GOODS SPECIFY CANADIAN-MADE

Sir George E. Foster, at Board of Trade Luncheon, Speaks of Canada's Opportunity—Big Market at Home for Producers, But Extravagance Must Cease.

"The time has come when the optimist can hold up his head. He has another chance." Canada's minister of trade and commerce, Sir George E. Foster, spoke in hopeful terms of the country's commercial future, at the board of trade luncheon yesterday. "Of all the countries of the world Canada occupies the best position. God be thanked that we have men and money. We are at peace within our borders. Canada is strong, because primary products are the source of her wealth. Four hundred and thirty-two millions of dollars' worth of Canada's goods were exported last year. There is no shadow of war in Canada. For that reason her products will not be interfered with at all.

"These will be greater in demand than ever. Canada stands in a strong position, yet neither you nor I can be blind to the fact that there are consequences of this struggle that we cannot rid ourselves of, and for a long time the world must face them. This does not discourage the strong man. Let us have confidence that there are trying times to be faced. We hold our optimism and keep our sense, knowing that regard will come." In regard to the industrial side, Sir George said there are 8,000,000 people in Canada alone who must be fed and clothed. They will still be purchasers. Further he said, "We have not lost much in respect to the countries to which we exported."

It was surprising the amount of goods of the merchants' shelves that were imported. "The more labor can learn to make the things Canada uses, the better," was his observation. Make Canadian Fashions. "Before you buy, find out if you cannot get what you want in Canada. You may want another style or kind. I am dead sick of this style." Be men enough to make Canadian fashions. We'll set the fashions ourselves. But the manufacturer must cater more to the Canadian buyer. Get down to the man you are catering to. Then give him the article at a right price. But then, on the other hand, I say I would rather give a little more for real Canadian goods. The difference would be the extra cost of labor, but I would have the satisfaction of knowing that the amount would be spread around me at home. Then, cultivate the British Empire market. You have a preferential entrance into British territory. In the overseas markets Germany has a $25,000,000 worth of goods. They got them and possessed them. Canada can take one-half to three-quarters of that trade."

In regard to South America, Sir George advised caution. Conditions there have been greatly delocated. "But," he said, "producers should be looking over the ground, however. There is a splendid market. Personal study there would pay well. What do we need?" he asked. "Courage and a well based confidence." Canadian products, he thought, compare well with those of other countries. Continuing, he said, "We have been extravagant in the past. Everybody has been. First we should set ourselves to face the position and conquer it. You've got to trench yourselves. It's war in commerce. Organization, courage, persistence. That courage will not fail you."

Germany is an organizer. His persistence is almost impossible to be weighed. He never let the market go until he had his foot in it. In New Zealand this fact was emphasized. "There are some traits about the German we may well copy. We should all co-operate. Every time I go into a store I am going to buy what I want in Canadian goods, and if I cannot get Canadian goods, I will buy goods made in the British Empire. And, if the goods I want are not made either in Canada or the British Empire I will do without them."

Stop Wasting. "There are some things every one ought to stop. One is waste. I believe there is sufficient waste in Canada each year to make a respectable profit for Canada. On the farms, in the houses, the shops, the factories—what waste! Then we should stop extravagance. We have been extravagant. I think one thing will come from this war—it will chasten the people of Canada. It has been a curse. In the face of all the destruction that is taking

LARGEST NUMBER IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Two More Rooms Needed to Accommodate Students of Commerce.

A PORTABLE BUILDING

Will Probably Be Erected—Night and Day Classes Over-Patronized.

Owing to the overcrowding at the high school of commerce, Clinton St. the advisory committee yesterday decided to recommend a two-roomed portable building be erected to the south of the present temporary accommodation; that Miss Elsie Matheson be appointed as temporary teacher and that E. V. Knowlton be appointed as office assistant and supply room clerk for day and evening classes at an annual salary of $600.

Principal Eldon reported: "The attendance in the day classes is the largest in the history of the school, either as a department of high school work or a separate institution. There are now 376 regular students enrolled. Many have been refused admission owing to the departmental regulations requiring us to exact the high school entrance standing."

Need More Space. "We now require a two-roomed portable building to accommodate two extra classes—the new fourth year and an extra first year class. The latter is scattered over the four other first year classes, using chairs and such other temporary accommodation as can be secured."

"The number of students in the evening classes is also in excess of last year's enrollment at the same date, and is now over 700." "In any place, what man in Canada dare be extravagant? No one must gratify our desire for extravagance and show. Let us also stop speculation. Let us stop grousing. Say that men and women here in Canada are of such a calibre that confidence cannot be shaken. We will cultivate hope."

CAME FROM ROSSHIRE SO THE STORY STARTED

Gaelic, Long Grey Coats, and Highland Accent Deceived English Guard.

There have been many solutions offered as the cause of the rumor prevalent a few weeks ago that several hundred thousand Russians had passed thru England en route for France. Hehe is the latest: A train with the seats for three Yorkshire in the night and stopped at a small station. There was a very sleepy porter on duty. A large number of the Highlanders got out to stretch their legs. They were wearing long grey coats and conversed in that mysterious language. "Where do you come from?" asked the porter. "Ross-shire," answered the Scot. Let any Scot, highland or lowland, say "Ross-shire" to an Englishman and nine out of ten will imagine he means "Russia."

GUILTY OF RIDING WITHOUT PAYING

Albert Cheesman and Harry Yates Convicted in C. P. R. Case.

LIARS BY PROFESSION

So Robinette Characterizes Private to Get Convictions.

Albert Cheesman and Harry Yates, the Sudbury bartenders charged with conspiracy with conductors to defraud the C. P. R., were found guilty yesterday of riding on trains without paying proper fares, by the jury, in the court of general sessions. The case was adjourned until this morning. Scathing criticism of the private detectives, Speers, Hanks and Williams, featured the defence address to the jury. The men who had served many years in the C. P. R. employ should be believed before the detectives, was the contention of T. C. Robinette. "After hearing the unblemished record of Conductor Coker during nearly 40 years on the road, would you take against his word and deny of these accusations, the word of a man like Speers?" he declared, "a man whose life is a daily lie, who fairly eats and drinks deception, a contemptible hireling of the railway, who knows that if he fails to secure a conviction he cannot hold his position?"

"Would the jury believe that the accused conductors had carried the Thiel detectors on short fares, and that the two Sudbury bartenders had conspired with them by the notes of introduction and cards exhibited to cheat the C. P. R.?" Mr. Robinette maintained that there was absolutely no evidence against Cheesman, but the prosecution asked that he be branded with the broad arrow on the statements of imported men who were "more skilled in some ways than our own detectives." "Believe the men you know rather than the strangers you don't know," he said in conclusion.

Social Outcasts. "I will not ask you to believe the evidence of the type of men the crown has felt it necessary to bring into this case," said T. H. Lennox, in opening his address to the jury on behalf of Yates. "We have brought before you men who were born in this country and have helped to raise the standard of morality in this great province. The crown asks you to believe the story of social outcasts."

"Do not let these men you see smiling here go back to the United States and say they pulled the wool over the eyes of a Canadian jury." He closed

TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE AGAIN TO MEET.

Second Attempt to Hold Conference as Unsuccessful as First.

Once more the special transportation committee failed to meet yesterday afternoon as was arranged. It may meet today. The board of control yesterday was told by the lawyer handling the Masonic Temple matter that if the order to the city architect to prohibit building was not withdrawn, he was under instruction to apply for a mandamus to compel the issue of the permit. The temple is to be built at 16 Spadina avenue. The board referred the question to the police commissioner.

ONTARIO RAILWAY BOARD CONFIRMS DECISION GIVEN.

Cornwall Has Right to Assess N.Y.C. Railway Bridge.

The Ontario Railway Board issued a judgment yesterday confirming the decision of the revision court that the Town of Cornwall, in Stormont County, had the right to assess the New York Central Railway bridge for $300,000. The matter has been under consideration for some time, the railway claiming that the country did not possess the legal right to apply this tax. The board stated that this property is assessable and ruled accordingly.

RULES ISSUED FOR SLAUGHTER HOUSES

Cleanliness and Sanitary Condition to Be Enforced by Health Law.

BOARD TO PASS PLANS

No Abattoir Will Be Built in Future Without Government Permit.

"The time has come, in the opinion of the provincial board of health, for slaughter houses throughout the province to show a decided improvement in sanitary conditions. A series of corrective regulations has been prepared, and this week will be sent to all places where meat is prepared for the market. This being the first time that these places have come under the operation of health regulations, the aim is to avoid harsh measures but to make it clear that the meat supply of Ontario must be clean and wholesome. In future no slaughter house or abattoir may be established until the plans and specifications of the structure have been approved by the board. Those now in existence will have a distinct set of rules to follow. The board rules that every establishment must be suitably lighted, ventilated and maintained in a sanitary condition, and that it must be provided with sufficient drainage with proper traps or other approved sewer connections. All work performed in these places must be of a cleanly and sanitary nature, and inspection departments are to be kept free from steam and other vapors."

Must be Clean. One point especially emphasized is the cleanliness of employees. Workmen who are affected with tuberculosis or other communicable diseases are not to be employed in any department where meat is handled. The board outlines the interior arrangements to be enforced, separating the curing, storing and packing processes from all others. Any person slaughtering or permitting the slaughtering of animals or offering for sale or transportation for food purposes a carcass or any portion of product derived from it which is unhealthy or unfit for food becomes guilty of an indictable offence. Every slaughter house in the province is to be open to inspection by the medical officer of health or sanitary inspector and no such exception will in future be established except with the board's approval.

THE MONTREAL DAILY MAIL

ONE YEAR OLD TO-DAY

JUST one year ago to-day the Montreal Daily Mail commenced publication as a one cent morning newspaper in the city of Montreal. In that period it has shown a most remarkable growth as evidenced by the accompanying tabulated statement.

THE Montreal Daily Mail had in the first month of its career a total average net paid circulation of a little over 10,000. When it was six months old it had an average net paid circulation of over 20,000. In the month of August the average net paid circulation was 32,380, and in the first week of October—the week preceding the first anniversary, the figure had grown to 35,150. These figures are exclusive of war extras, and represent only standard or regular editions.

THE Montreal Daily Mail has achieved success by giving the people a strictly independent newspaper, by the quality of its news services and by keeping faith with the public.

In the month of May last, in response to an insistent public demand, an afternoon edition—the Evening News—was launched. This enterprise, although only four months old, has rivalled the success of the parent Company.

"Y" and "L.T.L." Demonstration Closed Second Day of Convention.

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

Westminster I.O.E. Sewing Circle Meets Today—Warm Scarfs for Bengalese.

The item of most widespread interest on the program yesterday of the W. C. T. U. convention was the big demonstration of "Y" and "L. T. L." week, given in the Carlton Street Methodist Church. The entertainment was chiefly of a musical nature, consisting of orchestral selections, song choruses, solos and a play.

A tour of the city in motor cars, commencing at 1.15 p.m., was enjoyed by a large number of the out-of-town and local delegates.

The morning session was especially representative, and a record attendance listened to the addresses of the president, Mrs. E. A. Stevens, Toronto.

Mr. Copeland of the National Council, Y.M.C.A., explained the nature of the work conducted by the men sent by them to the front, and the social service question was discussed.

ODD AND INTERESTING FACTS FROM EVERYWHERE.

It is a noteworthy fact that during his 50 years practice at the bar, Sir Edward Clarke was never instrumental in securing a death penalty, unless an argument against a prisoner before the jury council on a colonial appeal be so described. Even more remarkable, perhaps, is the record of two High Judges, Baron Fitzgerald, who was on the bench for 20 years and never once pronounced a capital sentence, and Lord Morris, who sat for 22 years and never handed a criminal.

HER KITE

IT flies at the end of a wonderfully long string, so long that in a good breeze she has a lot of trouble in drawing it in, though she always SEEMS to be holding it very lightly. Sometimes it breaks away from her altogether—and THEN all the men who are steadying it for her disappear altogether. This, you see, is a kind of a parable,

By Michelson

and, really, you can take a good many extravagant chances in a parable, just as she does in her kite flying. The point is that if she has TOO MANY men at the end of that string her kite sags. THAT'S where the skill comes in. And she has astonishing dexterity at making this balance so that the men are kept up in the air for a LONG time.

A HISTORY OF SEVEN THOUSAND YEARS

From the First Pharaoh of Egypt to the Present Day. The first authentic records of mankind are dated nearly 7000 years ago. From that time until the 20th century man has contrived to leave some record of his doings and his sayings so that his descendants might know who and what he was. With these records before him, Larned traces the life of mankind in its continuity—that is, the life of human society, in successive generations by a survey of history—not only of naked events—but the forces, movements and influences by and through which the man of today and the life he is now living have come to be what they are. It requires a genius to do this. And Josephus Nelson Larned, author of

MUST FIGHT OUTSIDE WALLS OF UNIVERSITY GROUNDS

Students' Council Does Not Approve of Hustles. The Students' Council of the university, at an indignation meeting held yesterday, decided that all future fights between the first and second years must be waged outside the university grounds. President Falconer would make no statement as to what developments might be expected. It is known that about 15 names were taken of students who offended particularly, and some of the science men are fearful that they will be suspended. Media intend to hold their fight this morning, and the Dents and Vets will also hold theirs some day this week.

A Bride's Own Story

NO. 5—HOW DO WE KNOW WHAT IS NUTRITIVE FOOD? WHY are certain foods like meat or eggs or cheese called strengthening? I asked Aunt Juliette today. "And how can you measure to find out what foods are better than others?" "Do you mean to say you don't know what food is composed of—what are the proteins and the fats and the carbohydrates?" she demanded, amazedly. "Wouldn't you know a protoid from potato," I returned without a blush. Whereupon Aunt decided on a very formal lesson for me.

LARGE FORTUNE FOR SUFRAGETTE CAUSE

Mrs. Frank Leslie Bequeathed Bulk of Estate to Mrs. Catt. Canadian Press Despatch. NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The sum bequeathed by Mrs. Frank Leslie, who died recently, to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, the suffrage leader, is in excess of $800,000 in the opinion of William Nelson Cromwell, one of the executors of the estate. The will was filed this afternoon. The entire residue of the estate is left unconditionally to Mrs. Catt, the only obligation placed upon her being the expressed desire that the residue estate be converted into cash and the entire amount used in the furtherance of woman suffrage. Mr. Cromwell said this afternoon that the estate would probably be in excess of $1,000,000.

To Those Who Desire Happiness

By Winifred Black Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

IT'S a quaint little affair, the old prayer book. There's nothing new or fanciful about it. Even the binding is of the fashion of another day. And in the back of it is a little letter to those who wish to live at peace and die in happiness. The letter is an extract from some of the works of one of the old saints. It is full not only of beautiful pley, but of a shrewd, worldly wisdom that is somehow as refreshing and unexpected as a whiff of anise or bay in a flower garden. There are rules for daily living—quaint, curious rules that tell a quaint and curious story of quaint and curious times. Many of them are practical today. Among them was this—'not, perhaps, in these exact words, but something near them: "When ye come into the presence of one who is strange to you and have with him business of a sort, pause for an instant e'er you speak and salute interiorly the angel within the stranger's heart, and the angel will reply."

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Deafening Sounds Are Now Added to War's Dangers

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins).

ALTHOUGH America at this moment is far from the maddening strife of Europe, gun deafness is a malady that must be considered by everybody exposed to the din of anvils, the clang of hammers, and those terrific noises which sometimes spring into your unsuspecting ears when you use the telephone. Dr. Johnson Horne, the London ear specialist, has given close attention to the subject of "gun deafness," and auditory disturbances caused by sudden noises are called "deafening sounds" as he is in reality as the colloquial phrase seems to indicate. Abrupt, unexpected vibrations in your ears are much more serious matters than most students of ear troubles might be given to expect. Boiler-makers, blacksmiths, persons who use the telephone constantly, track workers, machinists, and others in contact with rumbling wheels, street noises and other sleep murdering surroundings are prone to dull hearing and to become ultimately deaf.

Ears Pay Penalty. In fine, it is not only miners, railroad engineers, sportsmen, gunners, fighting men, or those who use explosives who acquire gun deafness, but any one associated often with sudden sounds of any sort. What happens when an unexpected concussion of air—shocks are merely vibrations of the air—shocks the exterior of your ears, is to transfer the shock by way of the auditory nerve to the inner structures of the delicate organ of hearing. Irreparable damage to the hearing often follows, whether the ear drum ruptures or not. Aboard battleships it is easy to discover the harm to the ear of the ear drum immediately after the discharge of giant artillery. Surg-Gen. Suzuki of the Imperial Japanese navy states that he found much deafness after the discharge of six and 12-inch guns.

Not only is loss of hearing the price to be paid, but all sorts of bizarre noises, whistles, buzzes and the like are to be heard afterward by the sufferer. Methods of Prevention. All sorts of deafness which results from these concussions can be prevented. One of the methods proposed by Dr. Poltzer of Vienna has proved that deafness can be prevented in many instances if the mouth is kept open when abrupt noises are about to break. This relieves the pressure on both sides of the ear drum. Telephone operators who chew gum or keep toothpicks in the mouth bring about the same effects.

If you ever travel much in Europe, especially in Switzerland and Italy, you will be prone to ask people why they have plugs of cotton stuck in their ears. This is a wise precaution in going through tunnels and under mountains, where the roar and bumpings of the rolling stock send shock after shock into the ears. Deafness is prevented by these cotton plugs.

Better than cotton for this purpose are little sterilized plugs of vulcanite, the famous History for Ready Reference, is conceded by all scholars to be a gem in historic writing. His History of the World, now being distributed by this paper, is his latest work, the result of many years of research and study in the field of history. It is as accurate as a photograph and as entertaining as a novel. To one who has never read history it is an education in itself. To those who have read the ordinary school histories it is a revelation. That it should be in the home of every reader of this paper goes without saying. Our coupon offer points the way, and the coupon should be clipped consecutively beginning with today.

Answers to Health Questions. G. H. 1.—What will develop my bust? 2.—What can I do for moles on my face? 3.—What can I do for hair on my face? 1.—Massage the bust with some good oil; breathe deeply often. 2.—The moles may be removed at a hospital. 3.—The hair may be removed by any of the sulphide depilatories.

P. S. M.—How you give me any advice as to how I may rid myself of some slightly protruding lumps on my neck, the result of a series of boils? 2.—Can you suggest a remedy for acne? 1.—Massage and electrical treatment, or excision by the surgeon's lancet are among the ways of getting rid of these. 2.—The treatment is internal and external. Internal treatment consists in eating non-starchy, non-oily, sugary foods and no hot dishes. Drinking cream of tartar water and copious draughts of good drinking water, sleeping in a well ventilated room, and going much into the sunlight. The external treatment, equally important, is the avoidance of soap and plain water on the face, the use of camphor water and a chamomile skin to clean the face, and the application of some mixture containing about 1/2 ounce of sulphur, 1 ounce of spirits of camphor, 1 ounce of tincture of iodine, and 1 ounce of lily of the valley. X-rays are also valuable in the treatment.

Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He will not under take to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is of general interest letters will be answered personally, if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, care of this office.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 8

War and the Hydro-Electric

War has driven every other consideration out of the ordinary man's mind. But the country has to go on doing business, and the government has to be carried on, and the things on which we all depend for comfort, and often for existence, have to be provided, war or no war.

One of the things that are being done in Ontario at the present moment makes the war a more intimately vital question to us than is usually understood or even thought about.

It is essential for the progress of peaceful states such as Ontario, not less than for Belgium or Holland, that we be delivered for all time from the terror of military ambition, territorial aggrandisement, and kaiserism.

Ontario, with all her commercial resources and activities, depending upon the continuous operation of the hydro-electric system, would be the most vulnerable community in the world for an enemy to attack.

We have the good fortune to possess immense water powers, and we have had the further good fortune to find statesmen and a party willing to take the responsibility of bringing them under service to the people.

But if we have begun late we can take care that no further false steps are made. All the remaining powers of the country should be developed by the public authority for the people for all time to come.

coupled together will give a total of 60,000 horse power for the northern districts. The Wasdell plant furnishes power to the Beaverton district, including Brechin, Gamsbridge, Cannington, Sunderland, Woodville, and the townships of Rama, Mars, Thorah, Brock, Eldon and Mariposa.

With the confidence that we shall attain that consummation we may the more confidently turn to the Ontario Government with its renewed assurances from Premier Hearst that Sir Adam Beck's hands will be strengthened, and that progressive and active support will be given to the hydro-electric policy.

It is the firm foundation of public ownership in the province, and the guarantee that not only the sources of power but all the distributive plants and all the public utilities depending upon the power generated by the government, street cars, trolley cars, and any other work for public purposes to which publicly owned power can be put, shall also come eventually into the possession and under the control of the people.

The Investors' League

The traditional blind horse, to whom a wink is said to be as good as a nod, will have no difficulty in guessing the real purpose of that Investors' League recently formed in New Jersey, composed of property owners, bank depositors and life insurance policyholders, as well as stockholders in corporations.

The people who join this league, we venture to think, are already suffering from the fall in the prices of railway securities and other corporate issues and view with alarm the coming avalanche of six billion dollars of American securities for which European investors desire gold.

Evidently it is hoped to enlist on the side of Wall street a vast constituency of plain people who have their savings tied up in stocks, either by direct investment or indirectly thru their life insurance policies and the like.

We fear that these people may be throwing good money after bad. Their situation indeed is serious—far too serious to be mended by stock rigging and stock manipulation.

MONTREAL NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE

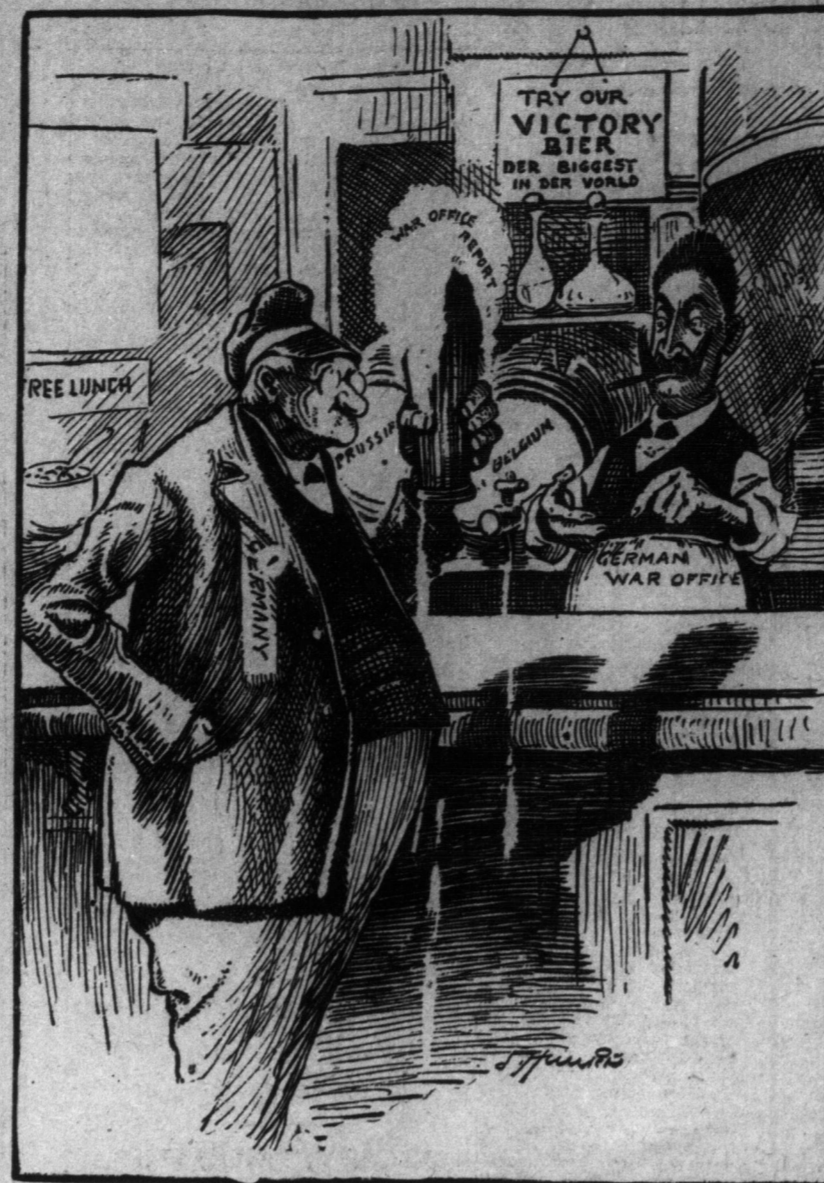

To establish a daily newspaper in a field already occupied by successful and popular journals is one of the most difficult of business undertakings. Not only is the venture hazardous in itself, but it entails large preliminary capital expenditure and heavy current expenses.

Yet this task has been accomplished in the case of The Montreal Daily Mail, which one year ago today commenced publication in that city as a one cent morning newspaper.

But if we have begun late we can take care that no further false steps are made. All the remaining powers of the country should be developed by the public authority for the people for all time to come.

Chancellor Boyd handed down a judgment yesterday in the action against the city and board of harbor commissioners brought by Schofield, Holden Company and Hickey Bros. The action was originally instituted against the city only with regard to premises occupied by the plaintiffs at the foot of Carlaw avenue, but later the harbor commission was admitted into the action as the companies claimed that their rights on Ashbridge's Bay were being eliminated by the proposals that body. Damages were also claimed against the city because access to the premises was shut off during the construction of the low level sewer along Eastern avenue, and on account of the pollution by sewage.

Chancellor Boyd stands under this, each side paying its own costs. Claims $50,000. T. Irwin Crowley, mining engineer, entered action at Osgoode Hall yesterday against the Dome Mines, Ltd., to recover $50,000 damages for injuries alleged to be due to the neglect of the defendants. He lost the sight of one eye, while the other was so badly injured that he asserts he will be unable to follow his profession.

SOCIETY

One of the most beautiful weddings of the season took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Church of St. Simon, when Rev. J. W. McKenna officiated in marriage Monica Kathleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. McColl, to Mr. Ormond Kennedy Lawson.

Dr. Harrison played the wedding music, and during the signing of the register "Benedicamus" was sung by the groom's sister, Miss Marion Lawson, Buffalo, who was wearing a smart gown of white satin with black sash and black velvet hat.

Braves Work Out In Philadelphia

WORLD'S SERIES BASEBALL OPENING GAME TOMORROW

Connie Mack and Geo. Stallings Give Their Views — Toronto Fans Pull for Braves—Three Local Score Boards.

Local followers of baseball will generally pull for the Boston Braves to beat the Athletics in the world's series, that opens tomorrow at Philadelphia.

With Rudolph and Cather, former Toronto players, in the Boston line-up, it is natural that the Braves are local favorites.

The Braves have a good chance to win, notwithstanding the accident to Third-baseman Smith.

Interviewed this week, Geo. Stallings said concerning the contest: "We'll give a good account of ourselves against the other champions, and don't look for a loss."

Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, gave a characteristic talk on the struggle. He said: "I hope that we will be able to win the world's series, but if we are going to lose, I trust that we will be the worst beaten team on earth, and that the Braves will lick us in four straight."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 7.—By winning from St. Louis today, the Indianapolis Federal League team, for the second time in two years, captured the Federal League pennant.

President Gilmore of the Federals has announced that he will challenge the winner of the world's series on behalf of the winner of the Federal League pennant, but there is little hope that a series can be arranged.

While at Shibe Park, George Stallings met Connie Mack. There were mutual congratulations over the winning of their respective pennants.

Some of the routers of the world's champions are becoming anxious over Mack's performance as a pitcher.

Good beers are our hobby.
