The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Seminary of Quebec
Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Séminaire de Québec
Bibliothèque

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

CHAPTER X.

The sun shines. It is time to get up. Jane, come and dress Charles. Wash his face and neck, and make him quite clean. Comb his hair. Tie his frock.

Now Charles, we will go down stairs. Fetch that stool. Sit down.

Here is some milk; and here is a piece of bread. Bread is made from flour. Flour is made from wheat. The wheat is put into a mill and ground.

Do not spill the milk. Hold the spoon in the right hand. There is the right hand. The crust is hard. Do not leave it. Sop it in the milk. Do not throw the bread on the floor. We should eat bread, and not waste it.

There is a poor fly in the milk. Take it out. Put it on this dry cloth. Poor thing! It is not quite dead. It moves and shakes its wings. It wants to dry them. See how it wipes them with its feet.

Put the fly on the floor where the sun shines. Then it will be dry and warm. Poor fly! I am glad it was not dead. I hope it will soon be well.

CHAPTER XI.

Where is puss? There she is. Do not pull her by the tail: that will hurt her. Charles does not like to be hurt; and puss does not like to be hurt. I saw a boy hurt a poor cat.

He took hold of her tail; so she put out her sharp claws and made his hand bleed.

Stroke poor puss. Give her some milk. Puss likes milk. Now that Charles is so kind to her she will not scratch nor bite him. She purrs and looks glad. Be kind to Puss, for she serves you at night. She keeps you safe from rats and mice. No rat or mouse will dare to come where she is. Her tread is soft and she is so swift that they fear her.

CHAPTER XII.

Come to me Charles: Come and read. Here is a new book. Take care not to tear it. Good boys do not spoil their books.

Speak plain. Take pains, and try to read well. Stand still. Do not read so fast.

Mind the stops. What stop is that? It is a full stop. Charles has read a whole page now. This is a page. This is a leaf. A page is one side of a leaf.

Shut the book. Put it by. Now give me a kiss. Be a good child, and God will bless you. God knows all things. He knows all that is done at school, in the street, and at home. He knows each word you speak, and each thought that comes into your mind.

CHAPTER XIII.

Shall we go forth, and fly our kite? No—not now. I think it will soon rain. Look how black the sky is! Now it rains. How fast it rains!

Rain comes from the clouds
The ducks love rain. Ducks swim and geese swim. Can Charles swim ?

No ; Charles is not a duck,
nor a goose ; so he must take
care not to go near the pond, lest he should fall in. I do not know that we could get him out. If we could not, he would die.

When Charles is as big as James he shall learn to swim.

CHAPTER XIV.

Let us take a walk in the fields, and see the sheep, and the lambs, and the cows, and trees, and birds.

Call Tray. He shall go with us. He wags his tail.

He is glad to see us, and to go with us.

Stroke poor Tray. Tray likes those who stroke him, and feed him, and are kind to him.

Do not walk on the grass now. It is too high, and is quite wet. Walk on this smooth dry path. There is a worm. Do not tread on it.

CHAPTER XVI.

DINNER.

The clock strikes. It is time to go and dine. Is the cloth laid? Where are the knives and forks and plates? Call Ann.

Are your hands clean? Sit down. Do not take the broth yet; it is too hot: wait till it is cool. Will you have some lamb, and some peas? Do not smack your lips or make a noise when you eat.

Take some bread. Break
the bread; do not bite it. I do not put the knife in my mouth,
for fear I should hurt my lips.
Knives are sharp: they are to cut with, and not to put in ones mouth, or to play with. Jane must shake the cloth out of doors. The birds will pick up the crumbs. Now let us go and play with George.

CHAPTER XVII.

THE POOR BLIND MAN.

There is a poor blind man at the door. He is quite blind. He does not see the sky, nor the ground, nor the trees, nor men.

He does not see us, though we are so near him. A boy leads him from door to door.

Poor man! O, it is a sad thing to be blind! We will give the blind man some bread and cheese.

Now he is gone. He is a great way off. Poor blind man! Come in, Charles. Shut the door.

I wish the poor blind man had a warm house to live in, and kind friends to take care of him, and to teach him to work. Then he would not beg from door to door.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE KIND LITTLE BOY.

What a good boy George is! we all love him; and he loves us, and does not try to vex and tease his friends, as some boys do: and how he loves Ann! She is a sweet child; and he gives her all his toys, when she points at them.

He sits by her while she sleeps; and when he hears the maid on the stairs, he steps to tell her that Ann sleeps, and that she must not make a noise.

When he gets fruit or cakes, he will not eat, till he has first put some by for his dear Ann; for he likes to please her more than to have things for his own use.

she will

CHAPTER XIX.

THE LITTLE BOY THAT WAS LOST IN HIS WAY HOME.

When Charles came home, he told his friends where he had been, and what he had done. I met an old man (said he) on the heath, with a bag on his back. He was weak, and the bag was full, and it made him bend, and lean on his staff.

I was glad to meet him for I could help him ; if I did not, he would have been all night on the heath ; and it was cold and the snow fell.

When we came to his house, his wife ran out to meet us. She was glad to see him come, for she thought he had lost his way and could not find his home.

She said I was a good boy for what I had done and that God would bless me ; and that I must (if I would have his love) be kind to the old and weak who could not work, and were in want of bread.

I had a mind to help them, but I had not much in my purse : I gave them what I could spare and left them glad.

In my way home, I lost the path on the heath. It was dark ; I fell down, and found I was in a pit. The ground was soft and I was not hurt ; but I could not get out ; and I thought that no one would pass by at so late a time to help me.

But there came by a poor man, who heard me and took me out. He made me go home with him to his house to dry my clothes.

The house was nice and clean, and there was a good brisk fire; which I was glad to get near to, and so was the poor man. His wife put on more wood, and we were soon dry and warm. They gave me some dry and and cheese, and some milk; and I came home gay and well.

Thus God sends help to those who keep his law, and who help the poor and weak in their sorrow.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE ASS

The ass has hoofs, and very long ears. He brays very loud. But the ass is very meek, and never hurts any thing.

The ass is not so big as the horse, and cannot gallop so fast ; but he works very hard. Sometimes he carries little boys on his back, two or three at a time.

He carries greens to market, and turnips, and fruit ; and sometimes he carries a great load of pans, and mugs and pots, with which his back is almost broken. He gets nothing to eat but a few thorny thistles or some plantain, or some coarse grass from off the common. He has no stable to go into, as a horse has. He lies out in the fields, in the snow, and in the rain : but he is content and does not complain. The ass gives milk as well as a cow ; and the milk is very good for people that are sick, to make them well again.

THE HOT MUFFIN.

A little girl about four years old, had a great desire to taste a hot muffin. When she heard the muffin man go by her mother's door, crying "Muffins! muffins! Hot Muffins! Ho!" she asked her mother to give her a penny to buy one.

Her mother gave her a penny; and the child ran down stairs and bought a muffin.

At the door she saw a very poor woman, who asked her to give her a penny, to get something to eat, for she was very hungry. The child said she had no pennies of her own, but would go and ask her mother for some.

She ran up stairs, and soon came back, and said to the poor woman, " My mother has no more pennies to give me; but here is a muffin for you; and it is hot too.

The little girl never told any body that she had given away her muffin; and though she heard the man call " Muffins!" two or three times that night, she did not ask her mother again to buy one for her.
