Manitoba's Breeding Blooded Stock Tariff Keeps Out Cheap U. S. Horses

Prairie Province Tending More to Mixed Farming, and Ontario Should Profit.

Winnipeg, April 3.—(Staff Correspondence).—Live stock interests are rapidly forging to the front in Manitoba, and the Territories are not far behind. This was the observation of the World of G. H. Greig, who holds the position of Dominion live stock commissioner for Manitoba and the Territories. He is said to be an authority on the subject and a man of keen observation. In a chat with the World, Mr. Greig talked of the interesting relations between Ontario and the west. He said the interests of the two sections were closely united, especially those of the farmers and stock raisers. He asserted that his philosophy taught him that the best sign of the substantial progress of the rural districts of the west was to be found in the increase of diversified farming.

"As rapidly as Manitoba farmers become prosperous they begin mixed farming," he said. "Wheat growing is being done in many sections of stock raising. It is noteworthy that last year most of the animals bred in Manitoba were disposed of at home. The course in some lines Ontario must be drawn upon. This is especially true on the point of convenience in the purchase of live stock. A buyer can go to any Ontario railroad station and select a trainload for shipment west. This is done largely by the breeders in the Territories, because the rate is very little more than from Manitoba points. Thus, a buyer might save much more energy in order to secure a car-load of cattle at Manitoba points.

"I cannot place much emphasis on the excellent prospects existing for western farmers. Mixed farming is the hope of the country, and our farmers are earning the art rapidly. They are good judges of live stock, and some of the finest breeding stock in the Dominion produces to-day are numbered among the herds and studs of this part of Canada. The tendency is to on live stock in the west. He is editor of the Farmers' Advocate and last year he was judging horses in Alberta. There he had some experience with the chap from across the line and his little horses, which he got across largely through the ignorance of the customs officials who were supposed to know enough to judge an animal at its commercial value.

"85 Horses Rated at $25."—I was at Lethbridge, Alberta, said Mr. Black to the World, "and saw a bunch of horses, probably a hundred. They had just been brought over and were not ten miles from the border. I did not let the dealer know what my business was. He took me out to the herd and offered to sell the whole at $10 each, but singly they were held at $25. That entire bunch had been rated at $25 by the customs officials only a few miles away. The fraud was apparent, but it has been practised for long no objections seem to be raised.

"Many of the newcomers, especially from the Continent of Europe, who are taking up homesteads, don't know the difference between a swaback, spavined horse and a broken-down animal. Therefore it is argued that they will be at the mercy of the Yankee horse dealer unless protected.

"Stock Breeding Difficulties."—But the type of Canadian who is attempting to reach the highest standard of live stock excellence is the farmer. He is a class of men whose influence for good is certain to tell on the country until the end of the story. Any man can grow wheat of fine quality in Manitoba. They have the soil and the seed and the knowledge of the man who grows it. They are a class of men whose influence for good is certain to tell on the country until the end of the story. Any man can grow wheat of fine quality in Manitoba. They have the soil and the seed and the knowledge of the man who grows it. They are a class of men whose influence for good is certain to tell on the country until the end of the story.

"Steady Newspaper Quotations."—But we are getting the farmers of Manitoba and the Territories trained up to the standard of those of Ontario. I was lecturing the other day before a meeting of farmers and I urged them to keep close touch with the newspaper quotations of everything they had to sell and to buy. I recall how we used to buy the Toronto World in Ontario to get the latest information on the market value of the products of the farm. I have learned that the success of the Ontario farmer is due largely to his close personal knowledge of the value of everything he must buy or has to sell. I told these Manitoba farmers it was a good idea to have a price on everything and know that it was the top market price. "That we are progressing in the west can be seen at a glance, and the best Western States and a good Manitoba Ontario bred horse is not so common as it used to be. This little stuff costs at least fifty dollars, and sometimes sixty. It wears out early, and when bred produces a cross that is absolutely worthless for heavy farm work. Some of these chaps that only want an animal to drive to market occasionally want this small stock.

"The gross impositions of these Yankee dealers are in no small respect responsible for the hard conditions now confronting the chap who would bring stock in from the States for this market. It is the story of the brick fakes over again. Not one or two but dozens of came of gross injustice have been practiced on farmers in Manitoba and the Territories in the purchase of this class of stock.

"How Farmers Are Done."—Dealt over the line with a bunch and drive across the country, selling as they go. Farmers select what they want, and if they have not the ready cash their note is accepted. They are assured the animal is valuable for this or that work and the conditions are not as represented the purchaser can have another horse. This sounds fair, because the farmer has only given his note, and he argues that if his deal is not up to guaranty he will resist the collection. The horse dealer takes a heavy discount on the whole, and no matter what class of animal the farmer discovers he has purchased he finds the note in the hands of an innocent purchaser, and of course must pay it. Horses that died before they were sold are first-class animals. It is no secret that many defects that render a horse worthless are not discovered until the horse has been actually worked, or at least kept under observation for a few days. It is from this latter experience the Western Canadian farmer now draws his expressions of protest against placing a premium upon the traffic that has brought no good and much evil to the Dominion.

"New Tariff Will Profit."—When we get this new tariff ruling we will be protected from the curse of the country. I don't believe there will be any hardship on the poor man. It is more economical to purchase good animals than indifferent stock. Any man who has a farm to till can secure credit to buy better stock if he has not the cash. In fact, the difference between these little cayuses from the

ALDERMEN TELL HOW MUCH IT COSTS TO GAIN HONOR

But All Deny Knowledge of Anything Crooked in Conduct of the Election.

The civic investigation is nearing its close. Aldermen and controllers were examined yesterday morning by them in the amount of money spent by them in the last municipal election. In the afternoon Messrs. Riddell and Lobb visited the offices of the Toronto Railway Company, and made an examination of the books and vouchers relating to the "secret service" account. If they found anything to arouse their suspicion, they will in all probability ask a number of questions were asked the controllers and aldermen; amount of their election expenses; amount of their "campaign fund"; of any attempt being made to "saw off" or stop the enquiry; and if they had any information that would help the investigators along.

"Where Money Went to."—Ald. Sheppard had not heard of any "saw off." He spent $28 for cards. Ald. Chisholm spent $82; $30 for printing, the balance for scrutineers. Controller Hubbard was more reckless. He had a hall in which he held the public good he was. It cost him $188 to have his name printed as controller in the papers.

"Bank of Montreal Wins."—Chicago, May 3.—The suit brought by the trustees of the George H. Phillips Company, to recover from the Bank of Montreal $200,000, which the members of the firm had deposited shortly before the collapse of the corn corner in 1902, came to an abrupt ending in the United States circuit court to-day. Judge Seaman took the case from the jury, and decided in favor of the bank. The court held that a bank was not in the same class as other creditors of a bankrupt.

"Dr. Wilkie's Case Again."—The Presbyterian Foreign Mission Committee met yesterday afternoon and discussed the matter of several appointments to the mission fields, as well as the position of Dr. Wilkie, for whom they are to select a field in India. Dr. McKay afterwards said that there was nothing yet to announce. Wilkie expects to leave Toronto in September.

Mr. Stordeur, minister of inland revenue, to-day asking that the government should establish an electrical standardizing bureau, to be located in Ottawa, and connected with them, and the possession of any other branch of the public service, and placed in charge of a qualified electrical expert, at whose disposal would be placed standards of resistance and proper facilities; the purposes for which a bureau is required are, for the standardizing of electrical measurements of electrical quantities, and to enable the electrical expert to make tests of instruments and machinery used in the electrical service; that the law be amended so that the penalty of any device in the possession of any one to prevent the proper registration of electric current should be prima facie evidence of his conviction.

WARNING TO SIR WILFRID

Somewhat of a Political Sensation Created in Quebec by Recent Article.

Montreal, May 3.—A special from Quebec says: Somewhat of a sensation has been created in political circles here by the recent publication of a very vigorous and outspoken article on the political leadership at Quebec, in the columns of the Courrier de Montreuil, edited by Armand Lavigne, M.P., and which, since the decease of Le Soliel's influence, consequent upon the illness and subsequent death of the late Mr. Taché, has become recognized as the organ of the younger group of Quebec Liberals, composed of the supporters of Messrs. Caron and the Dechenes, who they were the life of Liberalism in the city and district of Quebec.

"An Old Liberal."—The author of the article signs himself "Vieux Liberal," and states that he writes as one living on the spot, and who is perfectly conversant with all that is going on.

"He says that the Liberal party has not reached that phase of its existence where it is necessary to keep its eyes wide open if it desires to avoid compromising its future. Referring to Mr. Laurier's statement in the house, that he intended to retain his present position, this old Liberal declares that he would remain at his post. His answer, he says, was very diplomatic, but he adds that he would have done so already if the question of his successor had been settled."

MRS. E. ST. AMOUR, 293 Richelieu St., St. Côme, Quebec, writes:—"For fifteen months my two little girls, Angeline and Antonette, who suffered from eczema, were in a terrible state. Their hands were all covered with itching sores, and though we tried all sorts of salves and lotions it seemed impossible to obtain a cure.

"Then we heard of Dr. Chase's Ointment and began to use it. As the result of this treatment my two little girls were completely cured, and are happy to be free from this terrible ailment which caused them to suffer so much. I do not believe there is a better Ointment than Dr. Chase's for itching sores in the case of my children. It was a pitiable sight to see how they suffered, and the cure is perfect."

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP AS A CRIME.

Alkinkshaw is the pen name of an Ottawa correspondent of The Winnipeg Free Press, who describes with grim accuracy the decline and fall of the Conservative party into the abyss of government ownership. The amendment moved by Mr. Borden to the Grand Trunk Pacific bill is the cause of Alkinkshaw's lamentation, and we regret to observe that Mr. Borden's lapse from grace is ascribed to this mild and inoffensive family journal and its proprietor.

There is no one blinking the matter. State socialism is the crime into which we have tempted Mr. Borden, a man who has hitherto led a pure and blameless life. The danger of falling into this sin is all the greater because it is so obscure. A municipality may carry away four feet without being accused of socialism; but when it begins to supply clean water it is on the danger line; because private corporations sometimes own waterworks. A municipality may pave and clean and protect its own streets, but when it proceeds to light them it is guilty of socialism. So likewise, a government may carry letters and parcels of a certain size and weight; but when it undertakes to carry larger and heavier parcels, it infringes on the rights of the express companies, and so plunges headlong into socialism.

In the case of railways, the distinction is finer still. Geography comes in. The Dominion government runs the Inter-toronto Railway, which formerly ended at Levis, opposite Quebec. This was not socialism. The Laurier government then extended the Inter-toronto to Montreal. This part of the line was also free from socialism. Mr. Alkinkshaw raised his voice in protest or warning. But at Montreal the thing must stop. Hitherto shall thou come, says Alkinkshaw, but no further; and here shall thy proud wains be wrecked.

The world of finance, on which this country must greatly depend for means to develop its resources, would proclaim the name of Canada as smelling of the East. It would set up public competition against private railways, without offering to buy these out at a fair valuation. After this it seems odd to find Alkinkshaw charging Mr. Borden with pessimism and lack of faith in Canada. What could be more pessimistic (says some rash critic of Alkinkshaw) than to describe the fate of Canada as depending on the opinions of capitalists. However, we do not want to bandy words with Alkinkshaw. There is something mysterious almost uncanny about the way he writes his fatidical fingers on Montreal, and says that government ownership is all right to the east, but all wrong to the west. We feel that it is almost presumptuous to inquire into the grounds of his judgment. But it may be that in Quebec and in the maritime provinces he believes that the headlong career of government ownership is checked by the natural conservatism of the people, while in Ontario and the west the people are prone to rashness, and government ownership might drive them to destruction.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

The Democratic line of attack on President Roosevelt is now clearly defined. He is to be labeled "dangerous," and accused of contempt for the law and the constitution. "Caesarism" and "Rough Rider" are phrases that will do duty during the campaign. His want of caution in the use of language has subjected him to a long indictment by one Claude Kitchin. From him we learn that Mr. Roosevelt has expressed his contempt for the farmer, for the workman, for the Quakers, for the American foreign birth, for both the great political parties, for law, for one great section of the country, presumably the south, for the legislative branch of the government, for a long line of distinguished presidents, for eminent leaders of his own party in congress. As if this list were not long enough, The Buffalo Courier adds contempt for his own past ideals, and for honest public sentiment.

There is doubtless some exaggeration in these diatribes, but they may serve to show that Roosevelt will not have the easy path before him that was expected. McKinley was what is known as a safe man, and being also mild and amiable he drew a little fire as possible from the enemy. Roosevelt is the kind of man who invites attack and probably has no objection to it. He is the war horse who swallows the ground with fierceness and rage, who smashes the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains and the shouting. Should the Democrats nominate Parker, the contest will present some points of resemblance to that between Blaine and Cleveland in 1884.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S POSITION.

Mr. Chamberlain is again said to be ill with the same distressing malady—aphasia. Than this there can be nothing more unfortunate for a public man. To have a convenient memory—to forget what is not expedient to remember—is said by cynics to be an essential part of the equipment of him who aspires to take a hand in state affairs. But when the keys of the garnered treasures of years of activity in our friends the Dominionists is lost, they are as if they had never been, and he to whom the thousands listened descends again to common clay.

If it be the case that Mr. Chamberlain cannot pick up the dropped threads of his fiscal agitation, the failure must have a grave effect on the immediate position and prospects of the movement. Altho he had not many engagements during the current month—the only two being the annual meeting of the Birmingham Liqueur and the tariff reform annual meeting on May 15—the knowledge that he was still at the helm necessarily influenced the situation. It was understood that during the autumn he would repeat his last year's pilgrimage of education and complete the conversion of the many who are meantime halting between two opinions. But if this is to be set aside and unless one can be found on whom the prophetic mantle can descend, who is to wield the bow of Ulysses? Even if it did not involve the collapse of the agitation, it would at least seriously retard its progress.

It does not mean that the movement for fiscal reform is a one man's affair. If it has any substantial basis at all in fact and circumstances, these are naturally entirely independent of individual change. But Mr. Chamberlain is just now a unique personality. There is no one who could fill his shoes, no one commanding the same attention and wielding the same power. He is universally regarded as the representative of the new imperial spirit, as a honest striving for the best interests of the empire and for the welding of its scattered parts. To him more than to any other British statesman is due the altered view now taken between the mother country and the free, independent, vigorous, self-governing communities who cannot be held in leading strings any longer.

Joseph Chamberlain was the first man of mark in British politics who read correctly the signs of the times and discerned their meaning. To do so required a mind untrammelled by legal theories, traditional opinions and impudent precedents. It is slavish adherence to the dry-as-dust records of older states born under different conditions and developing under inapplicable circumstances which leads astray so many reconciliatory constitutional experts who cannot get out of the grooves in which they were formerly equipped has so long traveled. But Mr. Chamberlain knows little and cares less about antique formulas and arbitrary axioms. He accepts new conditions and meets them with new methods. The empire is just now in the throes of a new evolution—the line of advance is gradually clearing and is seen to be in the direction of complete individual freedom for the several states, and yet common action for common purposes. The link will be more slender, more flexible, more invisible and yet paradoxically it will be more and more intimate than if written upon parchment. It will be a real tragedy if Mr. Chamberlain, after doing the spade work and the surveying, has to leave the field and the reward to other laborers in the imperial cause.

Two cents a mile. It is said that the two-cent rate in Michigan and New York are based upon density of population. Very well, southwestern Ontario is one of the most densely populated parts of North America. It certainly compares very favorably with the most populous parts of the State of Michigan. Other parts of Ontario are sparsely populated; so are other parts of Michigan. We are quite willing that the two-cent rate shall be tried first in the densely populated parts of Canada, extended from time to time to other parts. The opponents of the two-cent rate say that it would be unreasonable to apply it to all Canada; and also that it would be unjust to apply it to any particular part of Canada, without applying it all round. We are ready to begin anywhere, and to be thankful for the smallest mercies.

COONS COMING DOWN.

Yesterday was a great day for coons coming down. In fact they tumbled out of the old tree. These hot spring days have evidently roused them from their long winter's sleep, so suddenly that they fell out and down on the ground. Of two of them one was marked "fair play to the farmers in competing telephone lines," and the other was marked "two-cents a mile," and they both came out of The Globe's tree. The same kind of coons are also coming down in Ottawa, where members of the house and members of the government are beginning to see that they must take the public side of the agitation in favor of competition in telephones, and have a two-cent rate for railway fares in this country. We publish in another column what The Globe has to say in regard to both these questions.

BUILT UP BANK ACCOUNT USING NAME OF DEAD MAN

Swindler Operated in New York for Two Months and Lived in Style.

New York, May 3.—By representing himself as Colonel John D. He it, president of the Buckeye Coke and Coal Company of Bramwell, W. Va., director of the Bank of Bramwell, a swindler has been operating in New York for two months, having drafts on Col. Hewitt's Philadelphia Bank cashed and passed by that institution through New York brokers. Col. Hewitt died more than six months ago.

The papers whereby the impostor was able to open an account for $10,000 with a large stock exchange house, negotiate for the purchase of a $50,000 residence in Brooklyn, live at a first class hotel, and enjoy himself generally, were stolen by the man from Col. Hewitt in Atlantic City, where the West Virginian was endeavoring to recover his health.

When the swindler began to use his documents here he first visited the brokers and showed them a letter of credit on a Philadelphia bank made out to Col. Hewitt. The bank reported that it had cashed a draft for $10,000, which was placed to the impostor's credit. He drew only occasionally on the account for a few dollars. Several weeks passed, and the man continued about town negotiating for yachts, houses, etc., but never drew the money.

Suddenly the Philadelphia bank discovered its error thru Col. Hewitt's son, and notified the New York brokers and asked the swindler to explain. He demanded an explanation. He quickly disappeared and the bank recovered its money in Great Britain.

NOT UNREASONABLE.

Stratford Beacon: The demand of Mr. Maclean, M.P., that the New York Central should guarantee the earnings of the Grand Trunk in Canada that it concedes in New York State is not unreasonable. The rate in that state is 10 cents per mile, while a three-cent rate is charged in Canada. The injustice of the discrimination is made apparent by the fact that a man in New York can buy a ticket over the New York Central thru Canada for the lower rate, while a Canadian, across the river in Windsor, is charged three cents per mile. Parliament should make the rate to conform with that of New York State on this line at least.

MARINE NEWS.

The coming of the Turbina is being awaited with considerable interest in local marine circles, due to the fact that she will be the first boat equipped with high pressure engines to enter Toronto harbor.

The Turbina engine, however, altho heretofore unknown here, are well past the experimental stage as a means of propulsion, their introduction dating back a number of years, and their efficiency on boats operating on the Tyne has been clearly proven that it is now safe to say the Turbina is coming to this country.

For enlightenment it may be said, in explanation that the method of working is of a simple order. The apparatus consists of three cylinders, each containing numerous fans. Steam from the boilers is directed into these cylinders, the middle one of which is the high pressure cylinder. The shaft is connected therewith, and the motion is applied to the other two cylinders. The fans are termed "low pressure" and "high pressure" and are checked by the boat's speed when needed. When the Turbina is in operation the other engines are dormant, and vice versa.

The apparatus is confined to the bottom of the hull, and is worked from the superstructure, save for the two funnels. The admirals of the turbine engine claim on its behalf that it does away with the usual shaft and propeller, and that it is not expected that the Persia of the Toronto, Hamilton and Erie will be replaced by the Turbina, which will leave Newcastle within three or four weeks, and when she arrives here should prove considerable of an acquisition to Toronto's navigation.

J. & O. local freight officials have a feeling of trouble encountered by the Corsican in making her initial trip to Montreal. Just east of Cornwall ice-bound conditions will exist to some extent, but blasting had to be resorted to in order to effect passage. However, the way is now cleared, and it is not expected that the Persia of the Toronto, Hamilton and Erie will be replaced by the Turbina, which will leave Newcastle within three or four weeks, and when she arrives here should prove considerable of an acquisition to Toronto's navigation.

The White Star will not figure in local marine circles this summer. She is not expected at the Polar yards, and will shortly be removed to Quebec by her purchase by the Gillespie, who is serving in Montreal.

The lightship Lurcher, constructed during the winter, will be started for the Nova Scotia shoals in about three weeks. The crew from Quebec will in all likelihood be sent up.

THINKS ROSS IS HONEST
WILL MAKE PROMISE GOOD

Rev. W. H. Harvey Expects Him to Go to Country on Prohibition Issue.

Rev. W. H. Harvey, Methodist clergyman of St. Catharines, thinks Hon. G. W. Ross is honest and proves it by quoting a hymn written by the premier 25 years ago. This is the hymn:

Watchman, What of the night? Is the Day at all come?
 Look how long we struggled on, Wearily we tall and pray,
 Wearily we wait for day.

Response—
 'Tis a long, long night, and murky and drear,
 But my faith is strong that the day is near.
 There's a gleam of light in the dusk,
 It must be, brother, that the day is near.

Watchman, What of the night? Run and run, hand in hand,
 Sweep like winds across the land,
 When shall we ever cease?
 When shall shine the sun of peace?

Response—
 The sunshine of peace is coming now,
 Its brightness I see on yon mountain's brow.
 Let the weary rise and the faint be strong,
 For a night's dream cannot be long.

Watchman, What of the night? Need we look at any day?
 Shall we wait all hope away?
 Shall we leave our sons to die?
 Is there hope in yonder sky?

Response—
 I see a light like the light of day,
 It is shining fast thru the fading gray.
 And its gleam of gold over spreads the sky,
 Oh, let us rejoice, for the morn is nigh.

"Any man who could express such sentiments, in my opinion, is honest," said Mr. Harvey in his sermon Sunday night. "I believe that Premier Ross will do as he has promised. I have not lost heart, and I am firmly convinced that within a very few months Premier Ross will go to the people on a prohibition platform. I hope he will, as yet we have only the promise of it, not the reality."

See Mill Will Turn Out 100 Tons a Day at Beginning.

Detroit, May 3.—One of the first products of the plants of the Canadian Improvement Company, formerly the Consolidated Lake Superior Company, will be steel rails, says Charles Moore, secretary of the United Trust Company. "At the beginning of the output will be about 100 tons a day. They will use about 20 per cent. of the ore from the Helen mines, and consequently will be in the market for about 50 per cent. of the ore used. The company owns two blast furnaces, both of which are in operation. It has a charcoal furnace, the largest in the world, with a capacity of 15,000 bushels a day. The charcoal the company will make itself, half of it in the woods and the other half of it in the retort at the plants at the Soo. This retort furnace makes charcoal a by-product manufacturing acetate of lime and wood alcohol, both of which find a ready market in London.

"That there is a chance of making money out of the rail mill is evident when it is taken into consideration that pig iron is $13 a ton and rail $28. Then there is the bounty which will be paid by the Dominion government."

PASTOR IS PRACTICAL.

Mounts Scaffold and Assists Workmen in Building Operations.

London, May 3.—The Rev. P. W. Francis, M.A., curate of Christ Church, North Finchley, has adopted a novel method of securing the confidence and friendship of the men employed in building new villas in his parish. He mounts the scaffold, and, seizing a trowel, works with the men while he talks to them.

"You can't help liking him," said one of the bricklayers, "for he's a man as well as a parson."

"When a visitor comes on the scaffolding it's the custom to ask him to help his footing."

"And I know how he would take it, but he can't stand up on a trowel. He doesn't believe in giving us the money to buy alcohol."

"Pick, shovel and trowel all come the same to him."

Mr. Francis has announced that the members of his Bible class are going to build a drinking fountain near what used to be Pinchley Common.

"And I am going to help them," he added, "I shall take off my black coat, and help to dig the ground ready for the laying of the water pipe from the main to our drinking fountain."

The action of this practical curate calls to mind the cases of the Stepney priest who cleaned his own church; the Peckham pastor who, with the help of the congregation, painted and decorated his chapel; and the Aston vicar, who has been helping in the voluntary toil of his parishioners to repair their church.

ADAMANTLY SIGHTED.

ADMIRAL SIGHTED.

Polina, May 3.—Lord Charles Bessborough, accompanied by the officers of the British warships here, landed this afternoon in order to accompany the admiral on his visit to the island. The admiral was unable to find a seat with the royal suite.

The admiral, evidently much surprised, did not attend his majesty's reception.

The premier, Lord Bessborough, immediately upon learning of the incident, ordered the prefect of Palma to go on board the ship Caesar and offer Lord Charles Bessborough an explanation.

RE-DISTRIBUTION.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)
 London, May 3.—A meeting of members interested in the redistribution question will be held to-day. A number of influential Unionists favor the plan on the ground that Mr. Chamberlain's proposals are essentially of a nature as to be properly submitted to a reconstituted house of commons.

ASHAMED OF HER AGE.
 Vienna, May 3.—Henriette Borsari, a widow, supposed to be the oldest woman in the monarchy, was admitted into the Budapest policehouse yesterday.

She gave her age as 105, but when her papers came to be examined her birth certificate was found to date 1785, which makes her true age 116.

When asked why she had not given her true age, the old woman replied that she was ashamed of being so old, and that she had suffered from an affection of the heart for 30 years.

Evils of 'Forty Winks.'

London, May 3.—The danger of forty winks after a heavy dinner was illustrated as an instructive case at the hearing of the Leeds, on William Vaise, a man who worked at a colliery.

He had been working on a bench, smoked his pipe, and after chatting about Australian cricket fell asleep. He suddenly rolled to the floor, and was found dead.

A doctor said death was due to the evil effects of "forty winks." The jury returned a verdict of "natural causes."

IMPERIAL BUCK
LIBERAL'S FALSE STEP

Accused Member of Tariff Commission With Knowing Tariff Changes Too Soon.

London, May 3.—Quite a little breeze was raised in the house of commons to-day, during the discussion of the budget resolution increasing the duties on tobacco and cigars, by Reginald McKenna (Liberal), who insisted that the chancellor of the exchequer had been influenced by Joseph Chamberlain's tariff commission and a certain tobacco merchant who would reap direct benefit from an increased duty on striped tobacco.

Mr. McKenna remarked on the extraordinary increase in the importation of unstripped tobacco in March by this representative of the tobacco trade, who is a member of the tariff commission.

Both the chancellor of the exchequer, Austen Chamberlain, and his father, jumped up and heatedly demanded that Mr. McKenna should formulate his charges in express terms.

Mr. McKenna then explained the slightest intimation of imputing anything dishonorable to the chancellor of the exchequer, but he maintained that Joseph Chamberlain's commission correctly anticipated what the budget proposals were going to be.

SIKHS FOR THE KING.

Four Indian Officers to Attend His Majesty's Coronation.

London, May 3.—Four Sikh officers of the Indian army, as representatives of this country to attend the coronation of the King, were named to-day. The plan of having our great eastern possessions represented at the Court of St. James during the season of the coronation was announced last year, when representatives of various castes were brought to London.

It will now be an annual feature of court life.

The officers whom Lord Kitchener has selected to attend the coronation are: Risaldar Kais Singh, 2nd Lancers (Gardiner's Horse); 33 years' service. Served in the Amoy, Afghanistan, Egyptian campaigns, Risaldar Tilok Singh, 3rd Lancers; 23 years' service. Served in the Afghanistan, Indian, Chinese and Northwest campaigns, 1897-98. Subadar-Major Magar Singh, 26th Punjab; 31 years' service. Served in Afghanistan, Burma, Lushai, Northeast and Sudan campaigns. Subadar-Major Atar Singh, 7th Punjab; 25 years' service. Served in the Gwalior, Afghanistan, Miranzai, Waziristan, Tirah and Northwest, 1897-98, campaigns.

Roughly speaking their ranks correspond to that of captains and majors.

These officers are tall, splendid specimens of the Sikh race, and their whole life has been spent on the frontier. They are to reside at 48 St. George's-road, S.W., the house being leased for the purpose by the war office.

They will have an old Indian warrior in attendance, and special native cooking with proper deference to caste is to be provided, but the house is furnished in English style.

In addition to going to Buckingham Palace, the officers will attend the King on all state occasions.

They are to be placed under the orders of Major-General H. D. Hutchinson, the assistant military secretary for Indian affairs, and Captain McKenna, 26th Cavalry, who will be attached to them during their stay.

NEW COMPANIES.

Charters have been granted to Fruitlands, Limited, of Ottawa, capitalizing $250,000; and to the Ontario Fruit and Produce Company, Limited, of Ottawa, capitalizing $250,000. The Ontario Fruit and Produce Company, Limited, of Ottawa, capitalizing $250,000, will be formed to produce and distribute fruit and produce in Ontario.

TELEPHONE COMPETITION.

The Globe concedes that the Bell Company must give in to Port Arthur.

The Editorial: As the decision regarding the telephone monopoly in the Canadian Pacific Railway station at Port Arthur is a point of law, the Bell Company should alter the law at once. The present session should not be allowed to pass without it being made clear that the right of individuals to enter railway stations is extended so as to include, within proper limits, a similar right on the part of telephone companies.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Cornwall, May 3.—A fatal accident took place at Millie Rochee yesterday afternoon. The fireman, John Rochee, was playing around the fire in a shed when he was wrapped in flames. Several people ran to his assistance, but ere they could reach him the blaze had become too intense, and he was terribly burned. He was removed to the Cornwall General Hospital, where he died this morning.

Drummond's Speech.

London, May 3.—The Liverpool Daily Post, commenting on last night's Liverpool Chamber of Commerce banquet, says that the speech of Mr. Drummond was full of the earnest loyalty that pervades Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Mr. Drummond's speech assured that, the some Englishmen are enthusiastically in favor of Mr. Chamberlain's proposals, and others are not, there is only one feeling in this country where Canada is concerned.

NEW DISCOVERIES IN CHEMISTRY.

Recent Experiments.

A pin prick and a drop of blood on a glass slide will tell whether your blood is in a healthy condition or not. Every healthy man should have five million red blood corpuscles to every square millimeter of blood. If there are too many white blood corpuscles the person is said to be anemic and run down. A chemical test of the water from the human body will tell whether the kidneys are in good health or not. These tests of health are conducted by expert physicians and chemists every day. Such examinations are made without cost. This is only a very small part of the work of the staff of physicians and surgeons under the direction of Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., the founder and director of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of that city. To build up the body that has been weakened by an attack of grip, pneumonia or typhoid, write Dr. R. V. Pierce for advice, giving all your symptoms, and he will give you the best medical advice possible to suit your case, and without cost. For those who are weakened by the after effects of a bad cold, cough or grip caught during the winter, nothing will increase the number of red blood corpuscles and eradicate poison from the body so quickly as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This is a remedy which has stood the test of a third of a century, and has sold more largely than any other blood medicine in the country during that time. A most stimulating tonic because it goes to work in the right way, assisting the stomach to assimilate the food thus furnishing the blood proper nourishment, which in turn feeds the nerves. Neuralgia and nervous breakdowns are only "the cry of starved nerves for food." The proper food for the nerves is good, rich, red blood. The "Golden Medical Discovery" does not depend upon alcohol for a stimulating effect. It is guaranteed to contain not a particle of alcohol. It is safe for the most delicate system, as it is an alternative extract made from roots and herbs. Although we know the germs of consumption and grip are in the air we breathe in rooms, street cars, shops, in fact everywhere, yet scientists have not been able to fight these bacteria with any success. The best thing we can possibly do individually at present is to keep ourselves in such a state of health as to enable us to fight the bacteria with our own strength. The blood through our veins and arteries should contain healthy, red blood corpuscles, which are capable of warding off the attack of these germs if they get into our systems. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is just what is needed for such persons and it has received the praise of thousands of people throughout the United States.

"About eight months ago I caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs and I tried several medicines which were recommended for such troubles but received no benefit," writes Daniel N. Tripp, of Melville, Prince Edward Co., Ontario. "I went to our doctor and he said I had bronchitis and it had run so long that it had turned into quick consumption. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and after taking four bottles I was able to go to work again. I can highly recommend the 'Golden Medical Discovery' to any one who has lung trouble."

"Having had an attack of La Grippe," writes W. P. Archibald, of Truro, N. S., "which reduced my physical organism rather seriously, I used your medicines, which did me a lot of good; and I recommend it to anybody wanting the use of medicine to try Dr. Pierce's remedies. I am sure you are the very best preparator to be found in the market." The Common Sense Medical Adviser, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper cover, or 50 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A remedy without a rival for the cure of all diseases and troubles arising from bad blood. A record extending over a quarter of a century and thousands of testimonials will prove this. Mrs. Deitz writes: "Too weak to work, tortured with the pain of ulcers, boils and pimples all over my body, especially on my face. I had almost given up my mind to give up trying to have them cured. I was ashamed to have any person come to see me, my face was in such a terrible state. I tried everything. I could think of but got worse and worse. I was then led to try Burdock Blood Bitters and was surprised at the wonderful change the first bottle made. Altogether I took seven bottles and am now completely cured and am in perfect health again. I feel that B.B.B. saved my life."

ENGLISH BACON AND CANADIAN HOG PRICES.

The World's Intimation that there is an understanding between packers as to the price to be paid for hogs has already no other denial than that of the William Davies Company, already published. One of the Ontario packers, writing to the hog market, to The World, makes the following statement:

THE EMPHATIC CREAM SEPARATOR

CATTLE SHIPPERS COMPLAIN.

Live stock dealers attending the Toronto markets are loud in their complaints of the way in which their shipments are delayed. With the extreme weather of last winter they were satisfied to extend some latitude to the railways, but they now think that patience has ceased to be a virtue.

MODERN FERTILIZERS.

Will the modern fertilizer become in time one of the most powerful aids in the success of the Ontario farmer? At the present time the percentage employed in this province is undoubtedly very small. In some portions of the Dominion of Canada its use is much more general and varied than in the district surrounding Toronto.

PRICES HOLDING FIRM ON TORONTO HORSE MARKET.

Few Horse Show Sales Made—Montreal Shipper Secures a Good Lot.

Sales in consequence of last week's Horse Show have been uncommonly light, and for the moment there is no break demand for any particular class of horse, general purpose and heavy draught continue to sell fairly well, however, while good express horses are hardly obtainable, and could easily be sold for from $150 to $100, being a little advance over last quotations.

RAILWAY DISCRIMINATION.

Canadian railways have notified live stock shippers that on and after May 1 the full fare of 3 cents a mile will be charged for personal transportation, except where the traveler wishes to use the caboose, when the rate will be one cent.

W. H. DEAN.

One of the prominent Toronto cattle dealers, whose unassuming manner has made him many friends, Mr. Dean has engaged in the cattle business for years. His business is feeding cattle at his own farm, and during the year he provides himself with about 600 exporters, finished under his own care.

Hints for the Henkeeper.

Fat prevents laying and promotes sitting. See that the fowls have plenty of food. The game breed is considered superior to all others for the table. Do not overcrowd the hen-house; keep the fowls clean and dry. Ground bone should occasionally be mixed in soft food for chickens.

STOCK MARKET RECEIPTS.

Fat Cattle, Butchers and Exporters Firm—Hogs Firm at Monday's Advance.

Receipts of live stock at the city yards amounted to 86 cars, including seven cars of hogs to Park, Blackwell, consisting of 1270 cattle, 1075 hogs, 451 sheep and lambs and about 100 veal calves, and 575 hogs to Park, Blackwell.
