King Refers to Charge That Capitalists Put Up Millions For Election

Canadian Press PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Feb. 2.—Premier King last night...

"Back of this protectionist thought," wailed exultantly the Premier, "lies the desire of a few men of great wealth to get political control in this country..."

There were only a few Pataud candidates in the House of Commons but they had not been there five minutes before they were supporting Mr. Meighen.

Large Crowds See King and Queen on Way to Westminster Ceremony

Canadian Press LONDON, Feb. 2.—His Majesty the King, at noon today, opened the second session of the present parliament with all the state ceremonial and color. The procession from Buckingham Palace to Westminster with the King and Queen called for the usual brilliant military display, but owing to the court being in half mourning for the Queen Alexandra, there was a somewhat more subdued tone in the House of Lords. The day was bright, the sun pouring down on the great crowds which from early morning filled the route.

PRINCE ABSENT. The Prince of Wales did not participate, a broker-dealer who which he suffered in a recent accident making it impossible for him to don a uniform. Two determined male members of the House waited at the doors all night to be sure of securing the seats they desired.

Prosecuting Attorney Kemper elected to try the defendant on the charge growing out of his attack on Mrs. Bryant here January 19. Conviction in this case carried the penalty of hanging by a noose.

J. Young, Liberal member for Weyburn, Sask. The people in Central Canada, he said, "consider it their patriotic duty to burn Alberta coal, but they want the rest of Canada to pay for it."

WEST WASTEFUL. People in the west, he said, looked forward to industrial development in those provinces. Puts Out Fire By Sound Wave Vibrations

United Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Firemen of the future would not move outside the fire stations to put out fires, Charles Kellogg, California scientist, predicted following a demonstration in which he put out a large gas flame with the vibration created by drawing a bow across an aluminum tuning fork. Kellogg predicted that each house would have its "pitch" scientifically determined and in the event of fire the sound of a much larger tuning fork to correspond to the pitch would extinguish the fire.

Estimate $40,000 More Than Last Year But Assessment Likely Lower

Special to The Times-Star. MONCTON, Feb. 2.—The City Council last night passed the estimates for the year 1926 to the amount of $509,664.37 for city purposes and $232,647.55 for school purposes, a total of $742,311.82. This is an amount in excess of the $468,827.27 for 1925, but exclusive of the city share of county assessment which will likely amount to about $13,000. It was stated that the city assessors are making adjustments in the city assessments and that there would be some shrinkage from the total assessment of last year.

Canadian Press NEW GLASGOW, N. S., Feb. 2.—The local board of school commissioners today accepted the verbal resignations of Principal Douglas Hight, Miss Sylvester, Miss Day and Miss Murray of the New Glasgow High School, and appointed a committee to select others to fill their places so that pupils may resume their studies. Yesterday the school was closed owing to the absence of the principal and the members of his staff, who were expelled to return to their duties unless the board upheld the suspension of 16-year-old Robert Williams who was expelled by Miss Murray, the French teacher. The board ruled that the boy might return if he apologized for his remark, but Miss Murray would not agree to this, and her refusal was backed up by her colleagues, all of whom immediately went on strike.

HOUSE LIKELY TO HEAR 2 MORE AMENDMENTS

Adjournment At Week-End Now Considered Doubtful

2 VOTES COMING

Motion on Address Debate and Question of Recess Await Decision

Canadian Press OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 2.—For the first time this session, which has lasted nearly a month, the House of Commons will meet today in some doubt as to the business before it. The first motion of non-confidence in the Government was defeated two weeks ago by a majority of 3. The Meighen amendment to the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, was defeated last night by a majority of 10, all the Progressives and Independents supporting the Government motion.

It is understood that the acting government leader Hon. Ernest Lapointe, intends to place the motion for adjournment first, and rumor has it that the Conservative opposition will oppose it. If debate is brief, and the motion comes to a vote within a few hours, the adjournment will be decided. It is only after this is decided that the House will adjourn for the recess, and with at least one more Conservative amendment pending to the address, there is little likelihood of adjournment being taken until this weekend or perhaps later.

ANOTHER AMENDMENT.

The debate on the address after the Meighen amendment had been defeated was adjourned by Donald Sutherland, a Conservative member for South of Oxford. It is understood that Mr. Sutherland is prepared to move an amendment calling on the House to express its conviction that the duty of industry in Canada requires further protection and its claim will be supported by critics of the Canada-Australian Treaty.

The amendment may open up several days of debate before a vote is taken. If the amendment is defeated, there may be still another Conservative amendment pending to the address before the address in reply is disposed of.

Ground Hog Says "Spring Will Be Early."

Those who believe in the power of the lowly ground hog to indicate the length of the winter can take heart today. The shaggy little burrower popped out of his underground habitation this morning, searched vainly for his shadow, and went back with a determination to prepare for an early spring. We shall see, ere long, if there is any truth in the age-old rhyme:—

If Candlemas Day be fair and bright, Winter will have another night; If on Candlemas Day it be shower and rain, Winter is gone and will not come again.

Those who believe in the power of the lowly ground hog to indicate the length of the winter can take heart today.

Today two motions await consideration in the House, the government's original motion to present an address in reply to the speech from the throne and the government's motion for an adjournment, when the address has been disposed of, until March 15.

RECESS MOTION FIRST.

It is understood that the acting government leader Hon. Ernest Lapointe, intends to place the motion for adjournment first, and rumor has it that the Conservative opposition will oppose it. If debate is brief, and the motion comes to a vote within a few hours, the adjournment will be decided.

Wireless, Radio Compass and Lundin Life Boat Get Great Praise

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Held at bay by human ingenuity and inventiveness, which have provided a thrilling rescue the last week, the stormy Atlantic is still threatening disaster to many vessels far at sea.

While naval men are anxiously following the fate of half a dozen smaller ships caught in one of the worst storms the Atlantic has known in years, the toll of known dead stood at 27 with 63 men known dead from imminent death. Three vessels are known to have foundered.

INVENTIONS HELP

Naval men are high in praise for inventions which enabled the rescue of most of the men aboard the schooner Simmons during the storm. The wireless, of course, played the biggest part, but two more recent developments also were used to advantage.

SAYS CANADA OWES DEBT TO THE MARITIMES

C. N. R. Head Stresses East Has Only Open Winter Ports on Atlantic

HE WARNS AGAINST RAIL RATE SLASHES

Favors Wheat Exports Via Canadian Ports, Toronto Audience Told

TORONTO, Feb. 1.—Sir Henry Thornton, Chairman and President of the Canadian National Railways in an address before the Canadian Club here today referred to the Maritime case.

The aim of the Canadian National, Sir Henry stated, was to co-operate in every way with the people and to help in the building up of the nation.

"All the people can contribute their share in this national work," Sir Henry added. "We must remember that we owe a debt to the Maritime Provinces. They have the only winter ports on our Eastern seaboard. It would be an unsound economic condition were we as a nation to be forced to rely upon the United States, to receive and export our goods during the winter season."

The Maritimes give us the advantage of open winter shipping and this obligates us to assist them. I recognize this obligation and I propose to leave nothing undone discharging this obligation which the nation owes to them."

"Taking up the question of the diversion from Canadian routes this year of 128,000,000 bushels of Canadian grain to United States ports via Buffalo and New York, Sir Henry pointed out that the shipment of grain was a matter of economic and ocean shipping conditions. The greater shipping facilities of the United States ports, with the possibilities of "spot" shipping and other attractive conditions appealed to the shippers and provided an inducement for the diversion of exports in that direction.

OBJECT DEAR TO C. N. HEART. "Let me say," Sir Henry declared, "that the Canadian National Railways have no object dearer to their hearts than the desire to encourage the export of wheat through the Canadian Maritime ports."

UP TO PEOPLE. "I do not think," said the C.N.R. president, "that the Canadian National should be called upon to correct all the economic ills of the country, but if the people feel that the Canadian National should be called upon to reduce its freight rates to cure those ills, it would relieve me of the anxiety as to the result of its efforts."

net earnings. The property is yours, with you must rest the decision. Does the progress made by the system justify an optimistic outlook regarding the future? Does it suggest that, instead of breaking it up, absorbing or destroying it, you may have a thing of usefulness in your economic development, a thing which properly fostered may be an asset? You alone have to say what must be done? VISION UNFOLDED.

A Canada united, self-contained within itself and animated by a national viewpoint, with the Canadian National Railways playing a leading role in its upbuilding, was the vision of the future unfolded by Sir Henry.

The Canadian National Railways, said Sir Henry, was rapidly approaching the day when it would cease to be a burden on the people of Canada. The five Progressives who supported the Conservatives in the last division switched to the government in this.

Herbert Lennox, Conservative, of North York, was absent, but was paired with C. W. Cross, Liberal. W. P. Kay (Liberal) was absent through illness. Immediately the result of the vote was declared Donald Sutherland (Conservative), North Oxford, rose and moved the adjournment of the debate. He desired, he said, in view of the prolonged observations from the Liberal benches, to say a few words on the main motion. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, acting government leader, voiced no opposition to Mr. Sutherland's motion, which was carried.

QUOTES FIGURES. Sir Henry in this respect quoted the following figures: Additions and betterments, $124,446,000. Interest due the public, $60,000,000. Discounts on loans, $3,900,000. Refunding and sinking funds, $27,000,000. Cash on hand, $8,000,000. Interest to Government (estimated), $95,000,000. Total, $819,345,000.

The Morbid Husband Who is Jealous of His Wife in Society—Poor Little Miss Seventeen Who is Getting Married—How to Soothe a Nervous Mother

DEAR MISS DIX—I am 33 years old and my wife is 23. We love each other dearly, but we have many quarrels. Almost invariably our misunderstandings come after we have been out to some social function. When we stay at home we get along splendidly.

When we go to parties it seems that my wife is too anxious to be popular, especially if there is any sheik around to entertain her or dance with her, and, of course, there is always such a man around who will monopolize a good-looking married woman if she will let him.

Under the circumstances I do not feel right toward my wife, and as a result of this feeling I have become irritable. Although I give her everything she asks for, I regret that I cannot do without a grudge. I love her better than my own life, but I cannot fall at her feet and worship the ground that she walks on when she does these things.

Under the circumstances I do not feel right toward my wife, and as a result of this feeling I have become irritable.

DOROTHY DIX

ANSWER:

I think that you have allowed yourself to grow perfectly morbid with jealousy and that you are cultivating a spirit that bids fair to poison your entire life, alienate your wife from you and wreck your home.

From your own showing, your wife has done nothing except conform to the usages of good society. In the circles in which you evidently move, a woman is expected, when she goes out to dinner, to make herself as agreeable and entertaining to her dinner partners as she can. She is expected, also, to know how to dance well enough to make men cut in on her dances, and seek her out as a partner. Also, she is expected to dress so as to enhance whatever beauty she has to the highest degree.

You would not want your wife to be so dowdy and unattractive that she would cut a poor figure among the other women, and no man would look at her, except to pity her for having married her, and wonder why you picked her out. You would be mortified to find that she were a dumb-bell, and so hard to talk to that every man hated his hostess for having invited her on him as a seat mate at dinner. And you would be far from pleased if she were a wall flower at balls, and no man danced with her except from an heroic sense of duty.

Yet when your wife takes the trouble to make herself pleasant and agreeable in society, and reflects credit on your taste and judgment, instead of being proud of her as you should be, you permit yourself to be eaten up with jealousy. And the poor woman has done a thing to deserve your suspicions!

You yourself are to be blamed if you judge her by the standards of Rabbit Track, instead of the world in which you live. In the provinces, to speak to any man except her husband, or where at the church socials, the men sit on one side of the room and talk to each other about crops, chicken cholera, and what not, and the women sit on the other side of the room and discuss babies and the women sit on each other, a woman who daintily with a man other than her husband, or engaged in a pleasant conversation with him, might be open to suspicion. But, good heavens, the thing is ridiculous in society in a city!

The trouble with you, Mr. Man, is that you are reading your own interpretations into everything your wife does. You are seeing harm where none exists. You are making mountains out of molehills, and when we let our imaginations run riot there is no limit to which they cannot go. There is no interpretation so vile that we cannot put on a perfectly innocent act. You can see lasciviousness in a harmless dance. You can see a rendezvous in a chance meeting. You can scent unfaithfulness in every act, and suspicion love-making in a casual conversation. You can torment yourself into insanity over nothing at all. And that seems to be about what you are doing, Mr. Man.

And bear this in mind. There is no other way in the world that you can kill your wife's love for you so quickly as you can by jealousy. A woman soon comes to hate the man who looks at her with his suspicions, and who makes her afraid to be decently polite to any man she meets.

You can't keep a woman shut up in a harem in these days. The only way you can bind one to you is kindness, and putting the faith in her that puts her on her honor.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am 17 years of age, and very much in love with a man whom my father disapproves. My mother has consented to our marriage in March, and says that she will sign the marriage license for me, as I am not of marriageable age. After mother has signed, can father have the marriage annulled?

ANSWER: I don't know. I hope so, because somebody should be able to save you from your own folly and keep you from making a marriage that is almost certain to spell disaster for you.

For, believe me, Patty, when I tell you that there is not one girl in a thousand, not one girl in ten thousands, who marries at 17, who does not regret it in bitterness and tears. At 17 a girl hasn't had her playtime. She isn't ready to settle down and assume all the burdens and responsibilities that matrimony inevitably brings. Of all the pathetic sights in the world, there is none more pitiful than a poor little sickly child-mother, wrestling with a sickly little baby.

When the law forbids girls of 17 to marry it is trying to keep them from committing the form of suicide that you are contemplating. And it is a shame that silly and romantic mothers like yours have it in their power to nullify this wise provision.

There ought to be something with boiling oil in it done to a woman who will aid and abet a girl of 17 in getting married.

DEAR MISS DIX—Ten years ago account of financial reverses, my mother started dressmaking to give us the necessities of life. But sewing is having a bad effect on her, as she has gotten so nervous and irritable that we can hardly stand it. She gives way to her feelings about everything, and fusses over nothing.

What could we do to make her pleasanter to live with?

ANSWER: Go to work and help her make the living. She is overworked. Take her burdens on your strong young shoulders. Pet her, and make her see how grateful you are to her, and she will calm down. You can't wonder that it gets on mother's nerves being the perpetual family goat.

News Notes From Movie Land

By JACK JUNGMEYER

ONE of very few authentic Alaskan backgrounds incorporated in pictures dealing with Alaska is presented in "Rocking Moon," a Metropolitan production of Barrett Wiloughby's novel, directed by George Melford.

This wild grandeur of the Sitka region, showing the north in summer garb, is the chief distinction of the melodrama based on fox farming on an island which gives the film its title.

"Rocking Moon" unfolds a tale of love and intrigue in a land where early Russian adventurers left paternal traces in the succeeding generations of Indians. An unscrupulous fur trader, played by Rodolfo Peltow, utilizes the worst element in this mixture of blood in an effort to poach upon the affections of the heroine, Lillian Tashman, as well as upon her material possessions.

John Bowers is the frustrating hero, and Laska Winters is the half-breed serving girl victimized by the covetous trader. Comedy counter-point is injected by Luke Cosgrave, a faithful retainer.

Scouring through nearly every scene are the little animals destined to garnish the shoulders, and one trained fox has an important role in aiding the hero at a critical juncture of the play.

The suggested breeding presence of a faithful spirit held in awe by the natives, contributes another element of novelty. In performance the piece is rather commonplace, the characterizations being superficial, due probably to the overburden of story, allowing little time for emotional expansion. Its bid as entertainment rests largely upon the unusual setting and a few swift phases of action.

SEE-SAWING ON BROADWAY

THIS is a little tale of New York's great East Side. You've all heard about the melting pot the melting millions, the crowded tenements and all that.

Now over on Henry street, in the heart of the East Side, Uncle Al was a janitor for 25 years. Al Hiller is his name, but to every kid that has grown up in that block during the past quarter of a century he was "Uncle Al." He was Irish and his religion Catholic. The kids that played around the neighborhood were mostly Russian or Polish Jews.

They are all alike to Uncle Al. Jews, gentiles, Catholics, pagans. His pennies were for kids, and so were his services at all hours. In summer you'd find him on the vacant lot, stopping a ball game, and explaining to the arching a few of the laws of give and take.

Probably nobody on the East Side was better loved by the youngsters. A few days ago the kids missed him. And there was a hockey game on, too!

There is an emanation from the heart in genuine hospitality which cannot be described, but is immediately felt and puts the stranger at his ease—Washington Irving.

Sons Sue Owner of Car They Say Killed Mother In Crash

BANGOR, Me., Feb. 1.-Suits for damages have been brought by Kenneth G. Smith, of Bangor, for $10,000 and by Garvin L. Smith, of Bangor, for $25,000 against Mrs. Nellie L. Bartley, of Greenville. She is named as the owner of the automobile which was driven by her son-in-law, Sumner P. Alward, as her agent and with her consent and whose negligent operation resulted, it is alleged, in the death of Mrs. Charlotte T. Smith, of Boston, mother of the two plaintiffs, in a collision on the state road near Bangor on Aug. 23 last. Alward was convicted this week on an indictment for manslaughter and is under bonds awaiting sentence. Garvin Smith sues also for personal injuries, as he was in a hospital some time after the accident. Service was made today and the case will be entered in the Federal Court.

Suffered with rheumatism for years

GOT RELIEF FROM RHEUMATISM AT LAST

Spent more than $100 for remedies before help was found. How an obstinate case of rheumatism was given relief by a simple home treatment is told by a man in Los Angeles, California, who suffered for years with rheumatic pain in the feet and hands. "I spent more than $100 for liniments and medicines in twenty-four years," he writes. "Then I used Sloan's Liniment and it gave me complete relief." And it is amazing—the quick, genuine comfort that Sloan's gives to even the most long-standing rheumatic aches. Sloan's doesn't just deaden pain—it helps your body to throw off the cause. No need to rub even. A Little Sloan's rubbed lightly on—and a healing tide of fresh, germ-destroying blood begins tingling through the aching places. Before you can believe it, the pain, swelling and stiffness are relieved. Try it! All druggists—45 cents.

Archbishop Gauthier does not ask that the newspapers maintain an "absolute alliance" with respect to "dishonorable deeds" but believes that discretion should be exercised. On the charge of the theft of $35,820 from the province of Alberta, Mr. Smith pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by a jury.

Coal Miners Seek World Agreement

LONDON, Feb. 1.—A movement aimed at the standardization of hours and conditions of employment of coal miners throughout the world will be fostered by the International Miners' Federation, according to Frank Hodges, secretary of the Federation. Besides attempting to standardize working conditions, Hodges said, the Miners' Federation also would seek to establish some measure of international control over the export of coal, with the view of limiting mad competition, especially among Europeans.

THIS WOMAN NOW WELL

Her Suffering Relieved and Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Toronto, Ontario.—"I am certainly very grateful for the benefit I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, also the Sensitive Wash and the Liver Pills. In the early spring I was suffering so much from loss of blood that I thought I would never be any better as doctor's medicine relieved me only for the time being. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in the Toronto Star, and I find the Vegetable Compound Tablets the best for me. I have been taking them since Spring, and I intend keeping them by me all the time. After reading your Private Text-Book I saw it was necessary to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sensitive Wash, and I can safely say I feel a different woman. My friends remark how well I look. I am a very busy woman, but I am ready at any time to boost your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES GIFFIN, 349 Lansdowne Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Stock prices moved in a rather narrow and irregular limit at the opening of today's market, but the main tendency was again upward. Initial gains of a point or more were recorded by American Woollen, Dupont and Gold Dust, the last named touching a new record high. Oils were slow in responding to the announcement of higher crude oil and gasoline prices.

Morning Stock Letter NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—The reaction was due, in our opinion, to two reasons. First, was the run-up in call money rates to 3 1/2 per cent, and, secondly, was the fear of brokerage loan figures which will probably be published some time this week. Higher call money rates are the result of month-end requirements and will ease off again in a day or two, but the nervousness over brokerage loan figures will be with us until they are published. Fundamentally, there is nothing bearish about the publication of the figures. The tremendously big total of three to four weeks ago was beaten in itself, but it has been rather drastically corrected in the last two weeks. Speculative firms, of course, are always afraid of the unknown, however, and there may be some more selling this week. There is apt to be considerable irregularity. Special stocks still look higher, but we would not buy them on this break. If the market has gone dull on weakness, purchases of G.M.O. (it is up 10 points) the meantime. We believe it will go still higher and we would buy it on its reaction. Dupont and Fisher Bond should go with it. The rail stocks may be further affected by the demands for higher wages, but we are still bullish on J. & H. Central, Atchafon, C. & O. Ry. and Hook Island.

Brokers Opinions NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Clark Childs—"Many falls, some motors, steel issues and most of the oil and better copper shares seem likely to be among the first to improve." Block Maloney—"The oil companies should do extremely well this year."

ILLUMINATION

WHEN darkness has fallen, we of today revel in light. Among the many beneficent changes wrought by Electricity in the lives of the people, illumination is assuredly the most widespread in its effects. Under the magic of illumination buildings take on a new beauty. Streets lose the frown of darkness and extend a smiling welcome. Cities assume a grandeur often surpassing that of day. Homes are beautified by illumination that in itself is a decoration. Old and young may read at night as in the daytime, without eyestrain. Well-lit, a city is always better and certainly safer than a badly-lighted one.

A little over a hundred years ago the City of Montreal installed its first street lamps—twenty-two of them—on St. Paul Street, in order that ladies who were compelled to remain at home by night "might be induced to visit their friends more frequently." Now, even small villages have streets that are as safe by night as by day, due to electrical illumination. Whenever you see a brilliantly lighted building, or a downtown street ablaze with lights you may know that the magic power which supplies them is running through mile on mile and league on league of wires, and through thousands on thousands of switches and lamps, manufactured right here in Canada. We are proud of the part this Canadian company takes in the great service which every night brings to Canadian communities everywhere the boon of abundant illumination.

Northern Electric COMPANY LIMITED Equipment for Transmitting Sound and Power Information Hydro-electric development in Canada represents a total investment estimated at $767,000,000. At present rate of progress this total will reach $1,750,000,000 by 1940. This is No. 13 of a series of advertisements issued in the interest of Canada's electrical development.

STARTS INQUIRY INTO QUIST'S ACTIVITIES WITH THUNBERG

BRATTON LOOKS INTO SECOND GARDEN MEET

Local End Is Absolutely O. K., Says Secretary

HUGO QUIST, fellow-countryman of Pasvo Nurmi and Clas Thunberg, famous Finnish athletes, may get Thunberg into the same mess he plunged Nurmi through professional influences, according to a report in the Pittsburg Post recently and re-published in the Toronto Globe, and at present W. G. Bratton, president of the International Skating Union, conducting an investigation into the matter. The Pittsburg Post says that if the reports on which the investigation are well founded, Thunberg will be classed as a professional and barred forever from amateur competition.

DETROIT IS NEXT SKATERS' MEET

O'Neill Farrell Takes United States Title With Score of 70 Points

BINGHAMPTON, N. B., Feb. 2.—O'Neill Farrell, Chicago, with 70 points, won the National ice skating championships at Endicott yesterday. Paul Forsman and Lew Morris, were tied for second place with 60 points each.

Farrell was third in the 440, won the half mile and three mile. The three Saint John boys competing did not place. Willie Logan set a stiff pace in the three mile, taking the lap prize as he did in the two mile on the first day. Ed Snodgrass qualified for all the finals, except the 220 on the opening day. Snodgrass finished fourth in the final of the 440 yard event which was won by Forsman. The entire squad was due for Detroit to compete in the international events there the latter part of this week. Charlie Gorman, world's champion, has not made up his mind yet in regard to competing.

Along The Sport Trail

WELL DONE, NEW BRUNSWICK! WINNING this world's titles out of seven is not a bad day's work for any section of Mother Earth, and New Brunswick has reason to be proud of the efforts of her young manhood at the world's championship meet here last week.

Championships came to this province through Charles Gorman in the seniors; Tommy Tebo, in the intermediates; C. H. Smythe, Moncton, in the 16 years; Chester Cole, Sackville, 14 years; John Landry, Saint John, in the 12 years, and three local youngsters in the 10 years. The only title that was of the province was the ladies', Miss Leila Brooks, Toronto, winning the title.

Even though the youngsters had not won any titles, their work would have been of vast encouragement to those who have at heart the cause of healthy athletics for the young of their province who did not even figure in the title lists performed was a tremendous revelation.

And, to our mind the palm goes to a youngster by the name of Willie Logan, Saint John.

ACADIA OPENS SPORT INVASION OF PROVINCE

Basketball Team Plays Trojans Here Thursday Night

ACADIA UNIVERSITY opens an athletic invasion of New Brunswick this week with her well-coached basketball and hockey teams, the basketball team meeting the Trojans, Maritime champions, here on Y. M. C. A. floor on Thursday night while on the same night at Fredericton, the hockey team opens the western section of the inter-collegiate race with the University of New Brunswick.

The visit of the Acadia boys to Saint John with the basketball team is arousing more than ordinary interest as much speculation has been aroused as to what form the collegians will display under the special coaching of a highly-touted instructor from the United States. In this respect, they are on par with the Trojans, who secured the services of Hubert Nevers at the opening of the season to perfect their team in their drive for the Canadian national title. In their games against the Rideaus and other outside teams, the Trojans showed they had every whit as good natural ability but lacked the polishing touches. Nevers has helped the team wonderfully this year and the clash of methods on Thursday night between Trojans and Acadia is awaited with interest by basketball fans here.

AT FREDERICTON—FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 2.—(Special)—The intercollegiate hockey season will open here on Thursday when Acadia University will meet the University of New Brunswick in the first game of the western section. The Acadia team is an unknown quantity here but is believed to contain much of the material of 1925. The U. N. B. team also will contain some of last year's material, but also will have new players. It has not been possible for the red and black to secure a match in preparation for the first college game.

Hopes For Pennant

CONNIE MACK

Nothing but a pennant will satisfy Manager Connie Mack of the Athletics this year.

The tail leader of the Athletics doesn't take to heart the manner in which the Athletics exploded last season when all the experts had picked them to win.

ATLANTICS ARE WINNERS OVER LOCAL OUTFIT

Saint John Wilts in Final Period Last Night

THE STANDING.

Moncton	8	3	56	30	16
Saint John	4	3	56	42	8
Sussex	3	6	32	55	6

MONCTON clinched its right to a play-off berth for the Maritime hockey title by trouncing Saint John in the railway city last evening, 6 to 3. The score hardly indicated play, as the Saint John boys entered the final period leading by 3 to 2. The Athletics braced up wonderfully in the dying moments and rode through to an easy victory. Moncton has one more game to play, that with Sussex tomorrow night, but the outcome will have no effect on the league leadership. That is settled for 1926, and Saint John fans join in congratulating the Moncton boys on their clean-cut hockey all the way through.

The fight for second place is not over yet. Sussex still having a chance of dumping Saint John into the cellar. The game here on Friday night between these rivals should be a thriller, as this will practically decide it. Temple Lane played his usual good game for the visitors with Jimmy Gilbert, seen for the first time on local ice, played a game that brought the fans to their feet with roars of applause. McPhee in the Saint John nets played a stellar game and his many stops and saves, certainly saved his team.

MEET COMMITTEE WINDING UP AFFAIRS

Accounts Still Are Coming in—Few Days Yet Before Completed

The skating committee in charge of the World's Championship meet last week is engaged in winding up the financial business in connection with the races. Accounts are still coming and are being attended to, and the headquarters in Prince William street is being kept open for a few days until this work is completed.

The committee are trying to get all accounts in so that they may be dealt with before the end of the week. No loss is expected as a result of a deficit of credit balance is to be expected owing to the fact that several outstanding standing accounts had not come to hand.

Writer Praises Gorman

L. J. Spiker, reviewing the week in speed skating in the New-York Times, has the following:

"From the snow-driven heights of Finland to the heated interior of Madison Square Garden, and then to the placid cold of Saint John, N. B., is a far journey. To have fallen on the ice in New York and Canada, therefore, can hardly be listed as surprising, especially when the differences in conditions are understood. So white Charles Thunberg did not swing to victory he has not fallen in the wide interpretation of the word.

At Chamonia, when the Olympics were in progress, Thunberg was the hero. In the shorter races his name was among those placed, and at the longer distance he was first. There, as elsewhere in Europe, the skaters raced against the clock, not against each other.

CONDITIONS AGAINST THUNBERG.—The element of personal competition, with its battling for position, fighting for the post, and irregular maintenance of the skates, are too foreign for the Finns. In all fairness it can be said that conditions were responsible to at least 80 per cent for his dismal performance.

The United States always has found personal strife more exciting in its sports than competition against the clock, and there is small reason for believing that it will even modify its present system.

There only is a problem when international events are held, and in time it appears reasonable that the American style will become universal, as it provides the greater thrill to the gallery, an ever-increasing factor in the importance of events athletic.

BRILLIANT WORK OF GORMAN.—Charles Gorman's triumph in the world's outdoor championships, in JELICOE HEADS RIFLE CLUB.—LONDON, Feb. 2.—Viscount Jellicoe has been elected chairman of the National Rifle Association in succession to Lord Cheylesmore, who died in July last.

Neglected Coughs

IMPERIAL BILL IS FINE PROGRAM

Anita Stewart, Skating Races
And Opening of Movie
Contest

Large Audiences Also Delighted
With Fine Singing of Belgian Visitors

Last night's overflow crowds at Imperial Theatre were a testimony to the quality of the program presented. It has been some time since the King square house offered such a variety of diversion.

The outstanding novelty was the singing duo Mons. Becker and Mille Dupuis, Belgians, who came to this country with the San Carlo Opera Company of wide notoriety. These singers, dressed as Pierrot and Pierrette, sang three numbers, two of which were popularly known, viz. "In the Garden of My Heart" and "The Garden of My Heart". The strangers were heartily received and their artistic renderings much enjoyed.

MOVIE STAR CONTEST

Introducing its movie star contest the Imperial created a lot of fun at the very outset. The portraits of 25 screen players were projected upon the curtain and each patron, supplied with chart and pencil, strove to write down the proper names as the stars' pictures flitted across the silver sheet. This contest continues until Saturday night and next week a new batch of portraits will test the discernment of Imperial patrons.

A third excellent feature in the program beside the main photoplay was glimpses of the vast crowd, the races and other "wholes" taken during the world's championship skating races at Lily Lake last week. Of course, Charlie Gorman's picture started a riot of applause.

WONDERFUL PICTURE

Picturized in the South Sea Islands, "Never the Twain Shall Meet," the Imperial's big picture, brings to the screen a note of realism and a series of gorgeously beautiful backgrounds. Tar Hill and Moore are used as the South Sea Island romance and adventure. Anita Stewart has an unusual opportunity to portray the various facets of a dual-nature—the passionate and stormy temperament of her French father, Bert Lyell, Humpty Dumpty, Lillian Belmore and other stars are in this great Peter B. Kyne story.

The above program will be repeated today but tomorrow the photoplay will be changed for First National New York police drama, "The Making of O'Malley," in which Milton Sills will be the featured star. The movie contest, singing duo and championship pictures will be continued.

Order To Kill Dogs On Sight Is Issued

TORONTO, Feb. 1.—Hon. Dr. P. Godfrey, Minister of Health, has issued instructions that every dog found on the streets of Kenmoreville is to be shot on sight. This drastic order is necessary, according to Dr. Godfrey, as the result of the spread of rabies through that section of the province.

Armstrong Facing 50 Court Charges

TORONTO, Feb. 1.—Late additions bring up to 50 the number of charges that J. A. M. Armstrong, former M.P. for North York and real estate agent and conveyancer of that county will have to face in the County Court soon Feb. 4.

Crown Attorney Frank Moore today announced that the charges would amount to that number, being for theft, forgery, uttering forged and altered checks, and other offenses.

Mr. Armstrong is at present released on bail of $50,000.

PALACE THEATRE SCREENING "HAVOC"

Gripping Story is Well Told in Film By Capable
Cast

There are two kinds of havoc in the William Fox production by that name which opened at the Palace Theatre last evening. There is the havoc caused by war and the havoc caused by a woman. It is a fine, big picture, excellent in its conception, and well carried out by a well chosen cast.

The play was a success in New York, London and Paris.

The story is of two men whose life-long friendship is ruined by their love for one selfish woman. Circumstances made one of them a captain and the other a lieutenant in the same company. In a fit of mad jealousy, this captain sent his friend into the most exposed position on the line, ordering him to hold on there. Many lives were lost needlessly—including that of the captain himself, who committed suicide. But the woman went on serenely.

The captain is played in a masterful manner, by Walter McGrath, and his young rival by George O'Brien. Margaret Livingston has the vampire role, and Madge Bellamy is an appealing Red Cross nurse. Leslie Fenton is a young juvenile actor, stands out favorably among the principal players. Others in the cast are Eulalie Jensen, David Butler, Harvey Clark, Wade Boteler and Captain Calvert.

Last showing of "Havoc" will be at the Palace tonight.

SCHOOL BOARD BROKE Faith, Mitchell Says

FREDERICTON, Feb. 1.—Alderman Mitchell at the City Council meeting tonight declared that, in his opinion, the School Board of Fredericton had broken faith with the school children of the city.

Mitchell stated that the board had promised that the cost of the new High School would be within $180,000, while the actual cost had exceeded the estimate by upwards of $30,000. He stated that an effort should be made to reduce school expenditures and the other aldermen expressed similar views.

SANDRA SHOWN ON SCREEN AT UNIQUE

Bert Lyell and Barbara La Marr in Leading Parts—
Comedy Also

Two of screen's most popular stars, Bert Lyell and Barbara La Marr, appeared at the Unique last night in a unique, beautiful and thrilling photoplay "Sandra" which proved greatly enjoyable.

"Sandra's" beauty was appealing and this famous beauty was one woman by day and a different woman by night, unlike modern women, yet highly modern. This description is hard to grasp, and the picture is one that baffles vivid description, suffice to say that it is an excellent and unusual film.

A two reel comedy furnished the fun, making a good evening's entertainment.

NEW OPERA HOUSE PROGRAM ENJOYED

"Dixie to Broadway" Presented
Last Evening By Pretty
Nifty Revue

Frank Soper's Pretty Nifty Revue scored another triumph in their production, "Dixie to Broadway," at the Opera House last evening. The revue contained several gorgeously costumed musical numbers, clever dancing and funny sketches and the audience was alternately charmed and amused with the entertainment.

One of the big hits was a specialty dance by Piccott and Demuth, in which the steps of 80 years ago were contrasted with the Charleston of today.

George McNally scored heavily in several jazz numbers. Happy McNally in a black face comedy number was very funny and received a good hand from the audience.

Ed Soper in "Old Pal," with full chorus, sang a funny song which touched a responsive chord in the hearts of the married members of the audience when he dealt with the price of women's clothes.

Other musical numbers were effectively given by Melba and chorus, Betty Wheeler and chorus and Ed Soper and chorus.

Joe Doran, Ed Harrington and Frank Soper appeared in an excellent novelty musical offering.

Several vaudeville sketches were delighting changes from drama to comedy.

The success of the production was very materially assisted by a chorus of pretty girls, who were also good singers and dancers. The performance is being repeated today and Wednesday.

beautiful photography and thrills, "Three Faces East" is a mystery drama of superlative quality.

This picture will be shown again tonight and tomorrow.

The story deals with the adventures of several members of the British and German secret service during the war. It is finely developed along dramatic lines and there is a surprise finish. The scenes along the fighting line, in the hospital, in London and Berlin are not only impressive because of their massiveness and fidelity, but they hold the attention of spectators with thrilling results. Here is a picture that one can see again and again with increasing interest. It was superbly directed by Rupert Julian, under Cecil B. DeMille's supervision.

The featured players present highly artistic portrayals and they contribute to the enjoyment of the production. From start to finish there is not a dull moment in the action, and with its

POLICE CHIEF IS ASKING FOR THREE MORE MEN

Reviews Work of 1925 in Annual Report to Commission

PRAISE IS GIVEN DETECTIVES' WORK

Arrests Detailed—Increase in Number on Drunkenness Charge

The report of Chief of Police John Smith, for 1925, just filed with the Commission of Safety W. L. Harding, goes very fully into the activities of the department for the year. At the end of the year the force was composed of 60 persons, including the police magistrate, the court house and ambulance drivers. Of these, 46 were stationed in the central division, 16 in the North End, and four in West Saint John.

AUGUST WORST MONTH

August was the month with the most lawlessness, 122 arrests having been made in that month. December came next with 116, and November was third with 102. On 37 days of the year no arrests were made. May holds the palm in this regard, having six days of the 31 on which the blotter was clear. January, March, October were tie for second place, each having five days on which no arrests were made.

DETECTIVE DEPARTMENT

In concluding the report the chief says: "The work done by Sergt. Detective John T. Power, and his detectives during the year ending December 31st, 1925, has been very satisfactory. Value of goods lost or stolen, $80,687.25. This includes the following: 15 autos (all recovered); value, $11,335.00; 16 bicycles stolen; value, $35.00; 14 bicycles recovered; value, $800. Other goods stolen or lost; value, $12,977.25. Value of goods recovered, $27,287.25. Not recovered, after investigation, $8,416.00. Complaints investigated, 648. Finger prints taken, 73. Identification established through finger prints, 28. Assisting prohibition officers, 25. Arrests by detectives, 164. Assisting police officers, 74. Convictions secured, 145.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"I beg leave to again recommend that there be three more constables appointed to the force to take duty on account of the increased number of autos going through the streets, as during the summer months the strength of the force is lessened by six men on leave of absence on vacation.
