To be cautious in the choice of medicines. Many are injured by trying experiments with compounds purporting to be blood-puritiers, the principal recommendation of which would seem to be their "cheapness" Being made up of worthless, the gh not always harmless, ingredients, they may well be "cheap;" but, in the end, they are dear. The most reliable medicines are costly, and can be retailed at moderate prices only when the manufactuing chemist handles the raw materials in large quantities. It is economy,

Sir Richard Cartwright asked how the clause providing that the bill shall not come into effect until the present parliament is dissolved would affect the revision of the voters' lists.

Sir John Thompson said they must be revised upon the lines of the present constitutencies. Assuming that the Franchise act remains as it is, the revision impast take plage on the old lines, but next session when we bring down our amendments to the Franchise acts, it will be necessary to consider the question thoroughly.

Upon motion for the third realing, Sir Richard Cartwright moved his amendment for the uniting of the ridings of South Grenville and North Leeds and Grénville, and of Lennox and Frontenac.

Mr. Calvin, the new member for Frontenac, made his madden speech in opposition to the proposal. Mr. Wilson
