GERMANS TAPPING BRITISH TELEGRAPHS

New York, Aug. 8.—A London dispatch to the Sun says: The Germans in France have invented a new device which is automatically projected into the Allied lines and grapples telegraph or telephone wires, establishing an electrical connection and enabling the Garmans trans passing an electrical connection and enabling the Germans to tap passing messages regarding operations. Prisoners recently taken confirm stories previously told of how the German command obtained exact information of the hour set for attacks. This new device probably is the most successful means of espionage invented by the Ger-mans. Our soldiers in France mans. Our soldiers in France have always been mystified by the ease with which the Germans identified new British regiments coming into the front line. When the newcomers arrived they were invariably greeted by placards erected over the trenches or by a hail from the enemy line calling them by name. Amend Banking Act To Help Prairie Farmer Will Be a Demand of Winnipeg Convention—Cold Storage Resolution Under Consideration.

Winnipeg, Aug. 8 .- It was 10:30 a.m. today when the Liberal convention was called to order by Chairman Hamilton, who announced that the work of the convention was pretty well advanced, and that "questions arising out of the war' would soon come up for consideration.

Only Two Resolutions. There were only two resolutions on hand, he said. The convention was keeping up with the resolutions committee. These two resolutions dealt with banking and cold storage. The banking motion read 'that the bank act should be so amended as to per-mit the creation of local agricultural banks under proper Government supervision with provision for redis count facilities under federal control; all such banks to have a minim paid-up capital of $50,000, with power to lend on chattel securities out without power to establish

Husband In Jail, Wife Destitute As Child Is About To Enter World

Without Ample Food and Medical Attention, Mrs. William Henry Is Found by The Advertiser in Deplorable Condition-Must the Innocent Suffer With the Guilty?

While its father is serving a four months' jail sentence for theft committed under the influence of liquor, the little baby of William Henry will be born at the home in Broughdale, to face hardships entailed through the loss of income aused by the father's arrest, which will seriously injure its health, if they do ot cause its death-unless the mother is given the care and food required at uch a time. According to the story told to The Advertiser today by Mrs. Henry, her husband was arrested in June on a charge of stealing a roll of silk and a pair of boots from the offices of the Canadian Express Company, where he was employed on the night staff.

FOUND SILKS, NOT WHISKEY. She states that on Saturday he had obtained three bottles of whiskey for her father, who is a moderate drinker. He broke the seals on these and used some-of the liquor, becoming intoxicated. When he left for home he picked up the parcel which he supposed to be the whiskey. It proved to contain, when he was seen in police court today, three young men, all Kitchener nts, pleaded guilty to desertion, was arrested, the silk and boots. Somebody, she declares, took the whiskey arrested to a term of six and substituted the other parcel in its place.

and were each sentenced to a term of six months in the county jail.

Two others, whose homes are in Stratford, also pleaded guilty to the same offence and were given similar senders and were given similar senders. Rather than face the more serious charge of breaking the prohibition laws, with the almost certain $200 fine or six months' imprisonment to follow. Henry pleaded guilty to the charge of theft. The magistrate, determined to make an example of such cases, sentenced him to a term of not less than four months example of such cases, sentenced him to a term of not less than four months Charles Close, Lloyd Burkholder and and not more than six.

PARENTS ABLE TO GIVE LITTLE HELP. Part of that term he has already served, but since his arrest his wife has seen without any income and is being supported by her own parents. She has practically no money, and states that a doctor whom she asked for medical assistance during her coming sickness, refused, knowing her to be without means of paying him. A fire destroyed all the property belonging to her father and mother two years ago, and it is only with great difficulty that they are now able to meet the increased cost of living and keep their daughter in addition. Her condition is such that she cannot work. A brother, the only male member of City Firms Expect to Send td the family in addition to the father, is with the 135th Battalion in France, and did has been at the front since December.

U. S. WILL NOT EMBARGO COAL TO THIS COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Reports that the United States would embargo coal shipments to Canada were denied officially today. Canada has been receiving large quantities of coal from this country recently because of the Dominion's reduced production, but coal experts now connected with the American Government say the United States is producing enough coal for both countries and that the problem is s one of equitable distribution.

New England users have complained that while coal is scarce in the northeastern states great shipments are going through to Canadian con-

After eight months of anxious waiting, following the report that their son, Lieut. Harris Mills, was missing, Mr. and Mrs. William Mills of Queen's avenue, received the first definite intimation that the young officer had been killed in the form of a letter from a sergeant of his company today.

Lieut. Mills received his commission with the 33rd Battalion, going to the front with that unit. He was reported for three months. When arrested he missing last October, but because many missing soldiers subsequently turned out to be prisoners of war, hope was given up by the young officer's many friends until a few months passed, and no word regarding his fate had been

Wide Search Made. Extensive inquiries made by Mr. Mills failed to reveal the lot of his son. Letters from representatives of the pope saying that the name of Lieut. Mills had been posted on all prisoner camps of Germany, were received, but none carried with them any definite information, until this morning, when a letter than until this morning, when a letter will this morning when a letter. tion until this morning when a letter in answer to inquiries of Mr. Mills, came from Sergt. Watson, who is at Sandling, Kent, recuperating from inquiries as to the whereabouts of Lieut Mills, after a particularly heavy bomb-ardment of the Canadian trenches, following a charge for a certain objective. Some of Lieut. Mills' men told the sergeant that the young officer had been blown up by a shell. That is all Sergt. Watson remembers, as he was himself hit with a piece of shrapnel shortly afterward. He mentioned, however, that Lieut. Deacon, another offi-cer of the 33rd Battalion, would know something about the fate of Mr. Mills, as he accompanied him on the charge the German trenches. London, Ont., Wednesday, Aug. 8. LET US PRAY FOR LEADERSHIP.

ANY WRITTEN and spoken words are given currency with the greatest of sincerity in these days. We do not believe that as a whole the common people of Canada ever came closer to being spiritualized for the cause than at the present moment of tremendous crisis. One meets a Liberal who declares himself heart and soul with the policy of conscription. He looks upon the nation as a partnership for good or ill and he asks that the partners of his boys at the front do their share in the cause. Another Liberal fears a vital wound that shall still the voice of the people. He sees the menace of Roger-dodgerism again enthroned at Ottawa. He sees half the population of Canada set apart for three years and told that the war is none of their affair. He sees a vicious misgovernment and his soul revolts at the possibility of its perpetuation. One may travel the streets and the concession lines and everywhere the conflict of honest opinion is encountered. It is not a time for demagogues among men and newspapers to impute motives, on the one hand of Prussianism and on the other of disloyalty.

Sooner or later the people must decide the great issue. On the whole the people are less concerned with party politics than ever before. One party has failed in its attempt to conduct a war-time government on partisan lines, failed in every phase of government, and, worse than all, displayed at times a petty meanness toward affairs of state such as has nauseated men of both parties.

Men strike off the imaginary chains of party very quickly. And men's minds change overnight. At the present moment there appears no solution to the problems of the hour. The country is hopelessly at sea for leadership and no suggested leader seems to satisfy all. Borden has re-established Rogers and all he stands for. Laurier may come sweeping back on a wave of ing river; from the porch of the massive restored national confidence. Sifton does not appear to appeal to hotel drifted the sound of soft music. Western Liberals, and his attitude while in the west toward Sir hands, looked with unseeing eyes across Wilfrid Laurier did much to injure his chances to apply a cementing influence and to alienate those who saw in him a possible leader.

Had Premier Borden been possessed of the vision and statesmanship to apply national government when the war broke out or two years ago the present crisis would have been averted. His plans toward unity are nebulous. His leadership has been most difficult, but he seems always to have been largely influenced by those in whom the country has no faith. His unfortunate choice of Cabinet men in 1911 has told the tale. His lot is not a happy one, when such party-ridden papers as the London Free Press says: (August 6) "No wonder there is talk that the Government is dominated by 'the moneyed interests,' " in speaking of the manner in which the Government has handled the newsprint situation.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

SPIRITUALISM AND SPIRITISM.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:
I have read the spirited and talented replies of Rev. Mr. Moyer to the pulpit structures of Rev. Mr. Norwood, as reported in The Advertiser. I have also read the flood of letters from lesser lights on the same subject of spiritism as appearing in the local press. I notice that Rev. Mr. Moyer uses the term spiritism consistently throughout instead of the more popular, though more ambiguous term

The Advertiser has no sneers to east upon those who are fighting through the fogs of today toward the light. Our earnest prayer is for tolerance and for broad consideration of the tremendous responsibilities that lie upon all men who represent the people. May Canada's guiding star soon beam forth in rays of brilliant leadership. And is that star to rise upon the western horizon?

JUSTICE FOR JUSTICE GALT

The report of Justice Galt reflected seriously on the character of Hon. Robert Rogers, and on account of this fact a commission was appointed by Sir Robert Borden to review the evidence and find the reflection unjustified; at least, that is the general impression had reviewed and certainly that was the result. But the commission went further than; it reflected seriously on Dustice Galt. Will the premier be as careful of the latter's reputation as he construction, it will be constructed by Sir Robert Borden to review the evidence and find the reflection unjustified; at least, that is the general impression had reviewed and certainly that was the result. Will the premier be as careful of the latter's reputation as he was of "Mr. Rogers"? If he is, he will appoint disinterested commissioners to again review the evidence and give a deciding opinion.

One commission more or less need not cause any inconvenience to the Government which is so partial to them, and certainly Justice Galt's right to one is fully as valid as Mr. Rogers' claim. The only question is in regard to the premier's sense of justice and fair play.

What is the idea of training Canadian aviators in Texas? There is how minutes neither spoke. Ned broke the silence. "Bravery doesn't always consist in doing something that is rash and foplish," he said. "If I had plunged into the water, there would have been two special under the circumstances—and I'm sorry that you should be humiliated."

G Business has been speeded up to an unheard-of degree—its demands are insistent, urgent.

I Telephone workers and telephone equipment are both at a premium. As fast as they are to be had they are put to work in an endeavor to keep up the quality of our service, local and long distance.

I But in spite of everything we can do there are delays which, in normal times, were unknown. Long distance users are having to wait as never before for the completion of their calls.

To add to the difficulties of an abnormal situation, a series of terrific electric storms has kept a large part of our construction staff busy on repairs, holding up urgent new construction.

I We ask that our patrons keep in mind the abnormal conditions as above. We are doing what we can to avoid delays and to keep up the quality of our service.

ARE WITH THE ONE CLUB

The two best run-makers in baseball are secluded or sequestered upon one club.

They are Ty Cobb and Donie Bush. Cobb so far has 74 runs and Bush has 69.

These two are well beyond the third man, who at present happens to be Heinie Groh, with 63.

Bush is only batting around 270, but he has Ty Cobb and Bob Veach back of him. Donie is a great little man to get on, one way or another, and a fine base-runner once he arrives. This combination, with Cobb and Veach adding further impetus, is sufficient to account for his standing.

Cobb is undoubtedly the greatest run-maker the game has ever known. In this respect he has never had an 300.

RUMOR SAYS REDS

Managers Will Make No Statement—
Sox Are Ahead Financially.

Boston, Aug. 7.—There have been many rumors afloat in the Hub that Harry Frazee and his partner, Hugh Ward, would sell the Red Sox franchise the close of the season, providing the club did not win the pennant.

Frazee was interviewed Saturday and stated that he did not know what his Managers Will Make No Statement-

Plank Says He Will Pitch at 50

"I wouldn't be surprised if "I wouldn't be surprised if I would be pitching baseball when I am 50 years old."

Eddie Plank, the 42-year-old southpaw of the St. Louis Browns, made this statement to Detroit friends after he had won the only victory which his team was able to take in a recent fivegame series with the Tigers.

Although Plank has lost much of his speed, and the sharp of his speed, and the sharp break on his curve ball, he has developed a "floater" that prob-ably will stop many batsmen be-fore the Gettysburg wonder closes his career. Plank's brains, plus his control, a fair curve and his slow ball, enable him to pitch

"I ought to have my throat cut for hitting at that stuff, Ed," shouted Cobb, as he trotted back from first base.

But Cobb knew that he had to hit—for Plank was putting his slow ball, waist high, across the plate.

Mr. Varley, at 10:40 this evening moved that the convention adjourn until the morning so that the resolutions committee might have plenty of time to get down to the real business of the convention. He said he considered resolutions such as those which they had been dealing, important, but he thought there was little use in spending much time on them until it was seen if the convention was united in its main business. Mr. Varley's proposal was voted down, and the convention took up the prohibition measuries as Mr. Varley on the leadership to the before adjourning. A fellow delegate intimated that he held the same views as Mr. Varley on the leadership to the thought the convention arranger ments should not be interfered with. Immigration and Settlement.

The evening session opened with consideration of a resolution on land settlement, moved and spoken to by J. G. Turriff, M.P., of Assiniboia. This resolution describes the second of the seco resolution declared for a comprehensive scheme for immigration and land sive scheme for immigration and land settlement, in co-operation between federal and provincial authorities. There should be made available for settlement lands now owned by speculators, rallways and land owners, said Mr. Turriff. When the war was ended $300,000,000 annually would be required to "see Canada through" each year. This must be paid, he went on your doubling the population and cuting the taxation in two per head.

"Put the people on the land and double and treble production. Bring in people of Angio-Saxon races," he said. The work of the farmer should be profitable. Make conditions on the farm satisfactory and it will not be farm satisfactory and it will not

I don't think it is advisable for the people of Ganada to pour any more money into the Canadian Northern Railway, so long as it is owned by McKenzie and Mann. If we have to put up the money we may as well as own the road."

Mr., Turriff proposed that federal and provincial authorities jointly provide the money to secure lands within easy reach of the railroads, develop them and devote them to the production of the wealth of the soil.

—Warsaw Under Martial Law.

London, Aug. 8.—The situation in Poland is critical, according to information received by the correspondent at Lausanne, Switzerland, of the Exchange said to be discussing the possibility of an organized revolt on the part of the Poles.

All German women in Poland, including the wives of high military and civic officials, have returned to Germany.

Martial law, the correspondent adds, has been declared at Warsaw and in other Polish centres. Riots, which had been suppressed with much bloodshed in the mining areas, have been renewed.

TWO NEW BATHING PLACES

Council to Provide at Once for the Children of London. The city council spent some fruitless minutes last evening trying to discover what the contract of Chipman & Power, engineers for the storm sewer system, really means. At the recent meeting of the board of control, Willis Chipman of the board of control, Willis Chipman informed the board that when the contract for the sewage disposal works was completed, he was through. The aldermen were not certain as to whether he meant the contract for the sewage plant, or the storm sewers. There was a unanimous desire to end the services of the engineers, but it was not clear just how this can be done. The firm will be asked to state when their contract ceases. Some of the aldermen fear that Chipman & Power will be able to collect a fee on all storm sewer work in the future. The assessment department came in for some discussion last evening. The opinion of the city solicitor was read in the effect that neither Assessment Commissioner Grant, or any assessor had any right to make any exemptions on income assessments other than income assessments other those provided by statute, and that it was also not necessary to have any declaration in connection with assess-ments. However, the council passed a

Controller Saunders did not think much good would come from the city's offer, as there were few men fitted for the work in the employ of the city. It would be a waste of money to send such men to the farm. He offered to go out with some of the aldermen supporting the proposition. MILITARY NOTES

Wellington Had Dizzy Spells and Could Hardly Keep From Falling.

"My friend who persuaded me take Tanlac couldn't have done me greater kindness, for now I'm feelin like a different woman and sincere hope my statement will be the cause others finding relief," said Mrs. Alic Wellington, who resides at 142 Jame street. Hamilton. "I was in a general rundown condition, nervous, weak and dizzy," continued Mrs. Wellington. "I suffered with something like gastric indigestion, had frightful pains in my stomach and what would eat seemed to do me no good. My head ached terribly and I had such awful pains through my temples and orehead I thought I would go distrac ed. My blood became so thin that my kin was all covered with some kind ash that tormented me day and night I was as nervous as a cat, couldn't stand any kind of noise, and even if I heard a dog bark it would upset me so I would almost have to go to bed. I would roll and toss all night, never getting much rest, and would get up in the mornings all tired out. I never felt like doing my work and every time I stooped over I would turn so blind and dizzy I would almost fall. I had a drowsy, sluggish feeling and yet I could hardly sleep at night at all.

"I suffered this way so long and tried so many different kinds of medicines without getting any relief that I was getting discouraged and out of heart. I took twelve bottles of one kind of medicine and it did me no more good than that much water. A lady friend told me one day about Tanlac doing her so much good that I decided to try it, and there's where the long lane turned. I bought me a bottle of Tanlac and have been or the road to recovery ever since. I wake up in the mornings now feeling rested and refreshed, and it's a pleasure fo me to do my housework. I sleep bette than I have in a long time and all that tired, lazy feeling is gone. My appetite and stomach have improved until I can eat hearty of anything I want without the least trouble afterwards. No kind noise disturbs me now because my under the evil, hypnotic influence of a wicked man.
