People of West Want Units Returned For Demobilization

VICTORY LOANS SUBSCRIPTIONS TOTAL $403,105,000

GERMAN WARSHIPS MUST BE DISARMED BEFORE RELIEF CAN REACH SUFFERING MILLIONS

Battleships Also Held by Ukrainian Government Must Be Rendered Powerless, and Freedom of Movement Allowed Allies in the Baltic and Black Seas.

London, Nov. 13.—Problems connected with the policing and provisioning of Russia and the central powers hinge primarily upon the immediate disarmament of the German fleet, the Russian warships held by the Germans and those under control of the Ukrainian Government in the Black Sea.

Without freedom of movement in the Black and Baltic seas the Entente powers and the United States will have great difficulty in affording economic relief to Central Europe, as well as Scandinavia. Consequently the attitude of the German navy toward the armistice terms is watched with eagerness by Entente officials, who are anxious to prevent starvation among the belligerents and to restore normal social and economic conditions among the suffering millions.

Speedy Action Necessary.

Speedy action is necessary for the relief of regions adjacent to the Baltic Sea, as many of its ports will be ice-bound within two months and the congested and disrupted condition of the railways makes relief by land routes uncertain. The United States and the Entente powers have shown no disposition to deal with the Bolshevik Government. While Russia remains in the control of the soviets, therefore, there seems to be little hope of feeding Moscow, Petragrad and other large cities there.

If the Russian Bolshevist movement which has been started against Finland should be successful, Finland will also be placed temporarily beyond relief. Food conditions are more favorable in Ukraine and in the Caucasus regions, where there is much grain stored, and which the peasants would probably sell if offered manufactured goods or money with reasonable buying power. If the Skoropadsk government survives the peace shock and German troops which now occupy Ukraine do not join with the Russian Bolshevists, the Ukraine should return to normal conditions rapidly after the Black Sea is opened. It is supposed to have adequate stores of grain for its own use.

Feeding Armenia.

Georgia and Armenia can be fed with comparative ease when the Allies are free to navigate the Black Sea. Railroads there have not been seriously impaired. Germany is supposed to have about 250,000 troops in the Ukraine and in the Russian Baltic provinces, as well as 50,000 in Finland. Under the armistice terms these troops will remain until the Entente requests their withdrawal. Adequate provisioning of these is of prime importance to prevent their disaffection and possible alliance with the Russian Bolshevists.

VON HINDENBURG STILL COMMANDS GERMAN ARMY

Issues Order To That Effect To All Troops.

London, Nov. 13.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg remains as head of the supreme German army command, according to a German wireless message received here which contains the text of a message he has sent to army commanders ordering them to lead their troops home in order and discipline.

The order of the field marshal reads:

"To all, and especially the army group under Field Marshal von Mackensen (in Rumania): I remain as hitherto the head of the supreme army command in order to lead the troops home in order and discipline. I expect the command, staffs, officers, non-commissioned officers and men to continue to do their duty. This is to be made known to all the troops."

NAVAL CONDITIONS OF ARMISTICE ARE BEING EXECUTED

Representatives of British Admiralty Meeting German Plenipotentiaries.

Berlin, Nov. 14—(By Wireless to London).—The German light cruiser Koenigsberg on November 13 at 1 p.m. put to sea with plenipotentiaries of the workmen's and soldiers' council of the German fleet in order to meet the representatives of the British admiralty.

The chief of the high seas force, Admiral Hipper, is taking part in the negotiations as expert adviser for the deliberations concerning the execution of the naval conditions of the armistice.

DUTCH SOCIALISTS MAY ESTABLISH A SOLDIERS' AND WORKERS' COUNCIL

Meeting To Be Held to Decide Question On November 16.

Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—Pieter J. Troelstera, the Dutch Socialist leader, declared at Rotterdam yesterday that a meeting of the Socialists on November 16 would decide whether a soldiers' and workers' council would be established in Holland, according to advices received here. He is said to have denounced Bolshevism and to have said that Dutch Socialists would act calmly but drastically.

People of the Prairie Provinces Desire That Official Welcome Be Given To Troops As a Body and Not As Individuals—Delegates Instructed To Press For Such Action At Inter-Provincial Conference.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Winnipeg, Nov. 13.—Hon. T. C. Norris, premier; Hon. T. L. Johnson, attorney-general, and Hon. Edward Brown, provincial treasurer, will leave for Ottawa on Friday to attend next Tuesday, an inter-provincial conference with the Federal Government. Matters for discussion will interest more largely Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta as follows: Transfer of national resources from federal to provincial control; demobilization of Canadian forces and establishment of policy of scientific mobilization of labor throughout Canada.

The demobilization question will affect every province. No definite information is forthcoming as to what federal authorities have in mind so far as western troops are concerned, but it was intimated today that none of western representatives are prepared to accept any plan which provides for demobilization of troops on the European side of the Atlantic, and their transfer to Canada along economic lines. That every western unit must return as a unit to receive official welcome coming to it is one matter upon which it is understood every prairie province delegate will have been definitely instructed before he sits at conference.

MANUFACTURERS OF NEWSPRINT NEARLY TREBLED PROFITS IN LAST YEAR COMPARED TO 1914

Mr. Justice White, Presiding at Appeals, Intimates That the Paper Controller Set the Price Before He Had Received All Available Information.

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—Startling figures as to the profits made by Canadian paper mills were submitted to the paper control tribunal by W. N. Tilley, acting for Canadian publishers today. He showed that the Laurentide Company had net earnings, after deductions for depreciation and betterments, of $2,321,951 for the year ending last June, as compared with $867,592 in 1914.

Price Bros.' 1918 figure was $1,374,782, as compared with $451,287 in 1913.

Spanish River mills' net revenue was $1,729,231 in 1918, as compared with $879,285 in 1914.

"But they manufacture other things than newsprint," said a member of the tribunal when these figures were read.

"Yes," said Mr. Tilley, "and that is why we want to examine the government auditor, G. T. Clarkson, to see if newsprint is really a by-product or sideline, which is the one thing this board will have to consider. The profits made before the war were normal profits, plus what could be obtained by well-regulated combine.

"Did't the commissioner go into that?" the tribunal asked. "We wanted to go into that but we were stopped." Mr. Tilley, who took up much of today's session in a recital of the publishers' efforts to get further investigation of the paper mills affairs and then urged that Mr. Clarkson be allowed to tell the tribunal his experiences as investigator. No decision as to calling Mr. Clarkson was reached, but the tribunal did decide that newspapers must pay the Pringle price of $69 per ton for newsprint, solely on the ground that they have no jurisdiction to stay his order. The Government may give them jurisdiction however.

The tribunal, consisting of Justice Middleton, Toronto; Justice White, Sussex, N.B., and Justice Archer of Montreal, convened to hear the appeals of the Canadian newspapers and Canadian newsprint manufacturers from the award of Paper Commissioner Pringle, which fixed the minimum price of roll newsprint at $69 per ton, as compared with $35 per ton up to the end of 1916. The appeals concerned not only the price, but Controller Pringle's order making it retroactive to July 1, 1918, was questioned by the newspapers, and they ask a stay of this order until the appeal has been heard. Justice White, as senior of the three judges, is presiding.

W. N. Tilley, on behalf of the Canadian newspaper publishers' special committee, opened up the question of discussing the application for a stay of the new prices before going on with the other appeals. "Have you considered the question of our jurisdiction?" asked Justice White. "The Government is pledged to enlarge the tribunal's jurisdiction, if that is necessary," said Mr. Tilley, "and if the tribunal believes it has not now jurisdiction, I would like a finding to that effect."

Asked Declaration.

Mr. Tilley explained that what he asked was not exactly a stay, but a declaration, that the retroactive order made by Mr. Pringle should not have been made in that form, and should be altered by the tribunal accordingly.

The tribunal declared that under the existing order-in-council it did not feel it had jurisdiction to stay the retroactive order in the meantime.

Mr. Tilley then went on with the newspaper appeal as to price. He said that the hearings before Mr. Pringle had been held usually hurriedly, under pressure, without time for adequate investigation. He now wanted a definite understanding whether his clients would be free to use the services of G. T. Clarkson, and the information compiled by him during and as a result of the Pringle investigation. He accused Mr. Pringle of having gone ahead and raised newsprint prices with unwarranted haste. Mr. Tilley further said that he would be glad to use Mr. Clarkson, but the arrangement would not be satisfactory if every time Mr. Clarkson attempted an investigation something is said to him which stops him.

May Hear New Evidence.

Justice Middleton: "If we hear further evidence than was offered before the commissioner, every facility will be granted for securing it, but whether we are to hear new evidence is not decided."

H. A. Stewart, Government counsel,

FOCH RECEIVES FIRST OF U. S. NEW MEDALS

Honor Is Conferred by General Pershing.

GREAT COMMANDER PLEASED

Praises Gallantry of Boys From the Land of the Stars and Stripes.

Senlis, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the American forces in France, today conferred upon Marshal Foch, the commander-in-chief of the allied armies, the American distinguished service medal. The presentation was made in the name of President Wilson at the villa where Marshal Foch has his headquarters, and was an impressive ceremony.

Gen. Pershing, addressing th generalissimo, said:

"The Congress of United States has created this medal to be conferred upon those who have rendered distinguished service to our country. President Wilson has directed me to present to you the first of these medals in the name of the United States Government and the American army, as an expression of their admiration and their confidence. It is a token of the gratitude of the American people for your achievements and for the great achievements you have rendered to your army. I am very happy to have been given the honor of presenting this medal to you."

Praises American Troops.

In accepting the decoration, Marshal Foch said:

"I will wear this medal with pleasure and pride. In days of triumph, as well as in dark and critical hours, I will never forget the tragical day last March when Gen. Pershing put at my disposal without restriction all the resources of the American army. The success won in the hard fighting by the American army is the consequence of the command and organization of the American general staff and the irreducible will to win of the American troops. The name "Meuse" may be inscribed proudly upon the American flag."

Following his own decoration, Marshal Foch presented to Miss Ducane, an Englishwoman, the French War Cross, for her heroic work in bombed hospitals near the front.

PERSONNEL OF THE NEW GERMAN GOVT.

Friederich Ebert and Philipp Scheidemann Hold Principal Positions.

Copenhagen, Nov. 14.—The new German Government has organized with the following cabinet members: Premier and minister of the interior and military affairs, Friederich Ebert; foreign affairs, Hugo Haase; finance and colonies, Phillipp Scheidemann; demobilization, transport, justice and health, Wilhelm Dittmann; publicity, art and literature, Herr Landsberg; social policy, Richard Barth.

BILL FELT PEEVED BECAUSE HE WAS FORCED TO WAIT

Former German Emperor Experienced New Sensation in Holland.

Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—William Hohenzollern who, as German emperor, never liked to be kept waiting, had to remain Sunday in what amounted to temporary arrest in a railway car at a small wayside station until word came from The Hague permitting him to proceed on his way and telling him where to go. The former emperor, continues a contributor to a Maastricht newspaper, felt his position keenly and he kept himself hidden in a railway car throughout his stay at the station.

Some of his companions were much more visibly impressed with the situation than the former emperor himself.

SCHEIDEMANN TO HEAD DELEGATES TO PEACE CONFERENCE

Paris, Nov. 13.—Philipp Scheidemann, German majority Socialist leader, probably will head the German delegates to the peace conference, according to a Zurich dispatch to L'Information. In diplomatic circles in Zurich it is not believed that the German delegates can be nominated before the end of the week. It is pointed out there that it will be difficult to make up a common delegation now that Germany has two score of republics apparently without relations between themselves.

AMERICAN GENERAL IS TAKEN PRISONER BY U. S. TROOPS

With the American Army in France, Tuesday, Nov. 12—(By the Associated Press).—To be taken prisoner by American troops was the experience last Friday of Brig.-Gen. Douglas MacArthur, a brigade commander of the United States 42nd Division. The 1st and 42nd Divisions were advancing rapidly that day toward Sedan and in the region of Autrecourt the lines of the two divisions became criss-crossed.

Gen. MacArthur, who was at the head of the advance of his men, was taken prisoner by soldiers of the 1st Division, who could not believe that any Americans were ahead of them. The situation was explained quickly and Gen. MacArthur released.

AUSTRIANS ARE FACING FAMINE AND DISEASE

Released Montreal Aviator Describes Terrible Conditions.

Italian Headquarters, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—G. D. McLeed of Montreal, an aviator, and C. M. Young of Des Moines, Iowa, who were taken prisoner by the Austrians during the Italian campaign, have been released and have reached the Italian lines. They bring direct news of conditions in the interior of Austria, having traveled from Salzerbad, near Vienna, after being liberated.

"Horrible food conditions prevail in Austria," said McLeed today, "and it is quite possible that a million persons will die there this winter from lack of food, weakness and disease. The country is quiet now, but another Russia may grow out of the situation as soon as the troops returning from the front discover that the end of the war has not brought relief.

"Scenes along the railways are like those on the battlefield. We saw bodies scattered here and there as a result of men crowding on the tops of trains and being swept off by tunnels. There were also bodies of wounded men who have been taken from road crossings and left to die. Terrible sanitary conditions prevail in little towns filled with returning soldiers.

"What Austria needs is food. I and other prisoners are alive only because of food received from outside of Austria. For three days I and a friend had between us only a little bad bread. It was about as big as a man's hand. Five hundred newly arrived Serbian troops are keeping order at Laibach."

GERMAN SOLDIERS REPORTED TO BE BURNING BRUSSELS

Belgian and French Scouts Will Restore Order If the Rumor Is Confirmed.

Ghent, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—Conflicting rumors as to the situation in Brussels have reached this city. Reports are current that German soldiers there mutinied and shot their officers, and are burning and pillaging the city.

Belgian and French scouts are now half way from Ghent to Brussels. Should reports of the mutiny be confirmed, a flying column will be sent to restore order at the Belgian capital.

Mr. D. W. Griffith's Appreciation

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 31, 1918.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Permit me to thank you for your very wonderful editorial appearing in your newspaper in the issue of Friday, September 13. The bad luck supposed to take place on Friday, the 13th, seems to have been very good luck as far as I am concerned.

This editorial is one of the finest tributes I have received, yet it is written in all sincerity. As a great writer has said: "Sincerity is the basis of all great things."

Again thanking you for your kind effort, I beg to remain, very truly yours,

D. W. GRIFFITH.

Ed. Note.—The editorial to which Mr. Griffith makes reference was written about "Hearts of the World," his latest great production.

PROPERTY OF THE CROWN PRINCE WILL BE CONFISCATED

Ministry of Finance Will Administrate Holdings.

London, Nov. 14.—The property of the Prussian crown will be confiscated, according to a German wireless message received here today. According to a proclamation issued by the new Prussian Government the entailed property of the Prussian crown will be placed under the administration of the ministry of finance. Property which is not entailed, but which is personal to the former king and his family will not be affected.

UPPER SANDUSKY IS SWEPT BY FIRE; LOSS IS $300,000

Eight Firemen Are Reported Injured by Falling Walls.

Toledo, Nov. 14.—Upper Sandusky, a town of about 15,000 inhabitants, is being swept by flames and threatened with destruction. Eight firemen are reported injured by falling walls of a burning hotel.

One entire business block, including the Hotel Fetter, has been wiped out by the fire, which started about 2 a.m. All of one hundred or more guests in the hotel barely escaped with their lives. The loss up to the present time is roughly estimated at $300,000.

AMERICANS CROSS FRONTIER.

Paris, Nov. 14.—American troops have crossed the German frontier toward Metz and Strassburg.

FOCH WILL ENTER STRASSBURG AND METZ ON SUNDAY

President Poincare and Premier Clemenceau Will Be Present.

Paris, Nov. 14.—Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of the allied armies, will make solemn entry into Strassburg and Metz on Sunday, in the presence of President Poincare and Premier Clemenceau.

MORE ABDICATIONS

Leopold IV. and Duke Edward Are Reported To Have Quit.

Copenhagen, Nov. 13.—The abdication of Leopold IV., Prince of Lippe, and Duke Edward of Anhalt are reported from Berlin. The latter has resigned the throne in favor of his son, Joachim Ernst, who was born January 11, 1901.

BAVARIA WANTS THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT TO PROTEST TO THE ENTENTE

Basel, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—Declaring that the new democratic state of Bavaria is not responsible for the faults of the old regime in Germany, a manifesto has been sent from Munich to the new federal Government, of Germany, asking that complaint over the conditions of the armistice be sent to the Entente powers. It is said that the terms agreed to by Germany in stopping hostilities are of such a nature as to prevent rapid re-establishment of order in Bavaria.

SIGNALLER EARLE A. HUMPHREY has been awarded the military medal for gallant work in one of the recent "shows" at the front in France. He is the eldest son of Mrs. A. Humphrey of Mount Brydges, who has just received word of his being given the decoration.

He went overseas with the 135th Battalion, and has since been a member of the 1st Canadian Machine Gun Battalion. His only brother, Pte. Leo R. Humphrey, has been twice wounded, and is now in a Red Cross hospital at Barry Docks, Wales.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bisurated magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bisurated magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It should instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

Take a little bisurated magnesia immediately after a meal, and you should be able to eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort.—Advt.

NEARLY TWO HUNDRED DEATHS DUE TO INFLUENZA AND PNEUMONIA IN CITY SINCE BEGINNING OF OCTOBER

Already 187 Have Been Registered, and It Is Believed More Returns Are To Be Made — Other Illnesses Caused 95 Death s in Same Period.

There have been 187 deaths attributed to pneumonia and influenza since October 1, according to the records at City Clerk S. Baker's office. During the same period, up to November 13, there were 95 deaths from other causes. While 92 of the deaths from pneumonia and influenza were registered since November 1, this does not signify that the disease is still severe, as the greater part of these occurred in October and were not registered until November.

It is thought that there are still some returns to be made, which will bring the number of deaths from the epidemic to still larger figures.

CARRY YOUR PAPERS, OR DOMINION POLICE MAY CATCH YOU YET

C. P. Telegrapher Learns This To His Sorrow.

There is a certain young man in London town today who is inclined to feel that people have been shouting "Peace! Peace!" when there is no peace. He had a rather bad half-hour yesterday, for the simple reason that, like many other optimistic persons in this city, he took too much for granted. In other words, he left his military papers and registration certificate at home in the pocket of his other suit of clothes when he sallied forth to work in the morn. All went merry as a marriage bell until he met a Dominion police officer, who, as luck would have it, chose that morning of all others to question the civic concerning his papers. For the first time in many moons Mr. Civic did not have his papers on his person.

"Why, I didn't think I'd need them," he said in amazement, whereat Mr. Dominion Police smilingly replied: "The war isn't over. It's just an armistice that has been signed."

Wrong Office.

Mr. Civic was invited to go along with the representative of military authority, and they compromised by paying a visit to the M. D. A. registration headquarters, where Mr. Civic has acquaintances of position. As luck would have it, the Dominion police officer ushered Mr. Civic, not into the presence of the deputy registrar for No. 1 Military District, but the office of the hitherto unknown Capt. Minard.

When Mr. Civic explained that the trouble was due to the fact that he was fortunate enough to own two suits of clothes, the captain may have been impressed, but not to the point of dismissing the case. The nature of the employment of the detained gentleman constituted the argument which effected his release to return to duty, pending investigation. The work of a Canadian Press telegrapher was recognized as too important to be held up in office hours, even for a first offence of failure to carry military papers. In the meantime the case is being followed up.

There Are Others.

When the telegrapher returned to his key, the first inquiry which came over the wire was: "What's the matter with you? Where have you been?" A minute later the story of the arrested was flashed back to Toronto, whereat the operator at the Toronto end of the line registered distress and exclaimed via telegraph: "Great scott, I've left my marriage certificate at home today!"

It is possible that others as well as the Terrible Example Telegrapher are due to be found guilty of negligence in the matter of carrying birth certificates and military papers, unless they watch out.

Yesterday numbers of men were heard remarking, regardless of their ages, that it was a relief not to be obliged to worry over carrying papers any more, "now that the war is over."

PERFECT WOMANHOOD

Perfect womanhood depends on perfect health. Beauty and a good disposition both vanish before pain and suffering. A great menace to a woman's happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some functional derangement which soon develops headaches, backache, nervousness and "the blues." For such suffering, women find help in that famous old root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for three generations has been restoring health to women of America.

BISHOP FALLON HAS CALLED FOR SERVICE OF PRAYER ON TUESDAY

Bishop Fallon has issued the following letter addressed to the clergy and Catholics of the city of London:

Dearly Beloved in the Lord,—One event for which during four long years we have hoped and prayed has at length come to pass. The appalling war that was devastating the world and threatening the very foundations of society has come to an end. It is fitting, in the circumstances, that we should raise our hearts in grateful thanksgiving to Almighty God who, in the very midst of our sorrow and gloom, has deigned to show us his infinite mercy by the assurance of our victory and the triumph of the principles upon which our just cause rested.

But, dearly beloved, the cessation of warfare finds mankind facing problems and difficulties of the gravest and most menacing character. The reconstruction of society in the allied and victorious nations will require a wisdom and a prudence that will be even more severely tested in the protection of the very existence of life among the enemy peoples. It is to our good God that we must mainly look for light, guidance and support in the fulfillment of obligations that bear even more heavily on victors than on vanquished. To thank God for his mercies and to humbly supplicate his divine protection and strength in the days that are now upon us, a solemn pontifical mass will be celebrated in St. Peter's Cathedral on Tuesday morning, November 19, at 10 a.m. You are invited and urged to assist at this act of religion, and to associate yourselves with the intentions for which the holy sacrifice is offered up.

Another sacred duty is likewise incumbent upon us at the present time. During the years of war, a multitude of Canada's sons went forth to fight in Canada's cause. Many of them, alas! will never return to us. Their bodies lie at rest in foreign fields; their souls have returned to meet the judgment of their Creator. Was there ever a moment which called for a more reverent and loving application of the words of holy writ: "It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from sin?"

To comply with this demand of Catholic faith and piety a solemn pontifical mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. Peter's Cathedral on Wednesday morning, November 20, at 10 a.m. We invite you to be present thereat and to offer up to God your pious prayers for the eternal repose of the souls of our dead who fell gloriously in the great war. With our cordial blessing, we remain, yours faithfully in Christ,

M. F. FALLON,
Bishop of London.

TWO ADDRESSES ON THE TRAINING OF BOYS ARE TO BE GIVEN IN MONTH

November 18 and 25 Dates Set for Institute Meetings.

An institute for the training of workers with boys is to be held in the Y. M. C. A. on Monday, November 18, and on Monday, November 25. The latter meeting was to have been held last Monday, but owing to the peace celebration was postponed. Both meetings will be preceded by a supper. On November 18, Rev. H. T. Ferguson, president of the London advisory committee, will preside. At this meeting, as at the one which is to be held a week later, W. R. Cook, territorial boys' work secretary for Ontario and Quebec, will speak. Mr. Cook will speak on "The Fourfold Program for Older Boys" at the first meeting. Rev. W. Leslie Armitage will lead a discussion on the subject.

Rev. Canon Tucker, honorary president of the London advisory committee, will preside at the meeting which is to be held on November 25. At this meeting W. R. Cook will again be the speaker. "The Fourfold Program for Younger Boys" will be the subject of his address. On this occasion, Geo. W. Gofferd of the Normal School will lead the discussion.

All male teachers of teen-age boys' classes, ministers, superintendents, mentors, fathers and others interested in boys are invited to be present. It is essential that all interested in boys' work should come and study the revised C. S. E. T. program. This institute is being conducted by the London advisory committee for co-operation in boys' work.

QUERIES REGARDING MILITARY SERVICE

Address Your Problems to the Military Editor of The Advertiser and They W l Be Answered From Official Information.

HARROW. Q.—In answer to my recent query you told me to parade before my commanding officer at the expiration of my harvest leave with full facts of my case and proof of the same. After my exemption was cancelled and I had to report on June 13, I gave papers (including my mother's declaration that I was her sole support, my own affidavit to that effect, and a doctor's certificate that my mother's health did not permit her to earn her own living) to be sent to Ottawa. I was then given 30 days' leave, and 20 days extra, and I had to report again on September 13. My mother's statement and my own contained nothing but the truth, but when I reported the second time my commanding officer told me that he could do nothing more for me after my claim had been refused at Ottawa. Was it because I did not furnish proof from some persons not connected with the family?

2. Would my commanding officer send my papers away again with proof of facts after saying he could do nothing more for me? I feel as though there is something wrong, as other widows' sons in this district have received the leave of absence.

A.—As you suggest, there is something wrong in your case, which was referred to military headquarters here, and the information gained that your case was never brought to the attention of headquarters, and, consequently, was not forwarded to Ottawa for consideration, and therefore could not have been refused. It is the view of the local military headquarters that either you did not lay your case before the proper officer or that it was lost track of somewhere. As harvest leave has been extended, it would be advisable for you to apply for leave of absence once more on reporting back to your unit (provided that the war is not over by that time), and your case will likely be forwarded to headquarters for consideration without delay.

R. W. S. Q.—My husband was ordered to report for military service in Janary last and went overseas. Am I not entitled to patriotic money, and, if so, can I collect it after my husband's death?

2. Can I obtain any for my child, and, if so, how much?

A.—Yes. You are entitled to $10 month, but this amount ceases upon the death of soldier. However, you should obtain back money for period during which your husband served in the army.

2. Soldiers' wives are allowed $3 per month for each child, and your case seems legitimate for this amount dating from the day of your husband's enlistment. It would be advisable for you to apply to your district office of the patriotic fund for money that you are entitled to receive on your husband's account.

READER. Q.—I received indefinite leave of absence from the 1st Battalion, Western Ontario Regiment, but am now ordered to report for duty on November 26. I am working a farm and have a fatherless young brother, who is in delicate health, and I support the family on a 135-acre farm. Do I stand any chance of obtaining leave of absence on reporting back to my unit?

2. To whom should I apply, to Major Black or Capt. Kirkland?

3. On what ground should I apply for same?

4. Is Major Black at the head of the leave of absence board for Military District No. 1?

5. If I am not physically fit on reporting for examination, would I be granted leave of absence, as I am indispensable at home?

A.—1. Yes. Your case seems a legitimate one for leave of absence, and if your services are still required on the expiration of your leave, you should apply for same again.

2. To your commanding officer, and your application would be handled by Capt. Kirkland, who is adjutant of your regiment.

3. If your mother is alive, apply for indefinite leave of absence as her sole support (she being a widow). If she is not living, apply for leave on the ground that you are the sole support of helpless dependents (invalid brother and family). If harvest leave is still current on expiration of your leave, you could apply for same to continue working your large farm. Any one of the above three courses is open for you to pursue.

4. Major Black is leave of absence officer for the district, but he cannot grant you leave of absence. He simply reviews your case, and, if he finds it to be a legitimate one, refers same to military headquarters for consideration.

5. Depends upon the degree of your fitness. If you are totally unfit for military service you will likely be discharged from the army. Otherwise, if not granted leave of absence on account of your domestic position and if your services are still required, you will be compelled to serve.

WATERLOO. Q.—Your queries are all inside ones, which could be answered officially only by an officer of the Royal Air Force who is acquainted with conditions throughout the various camps in the Toronto district. You could address them to Capt. Walter Smith, 402½ Richmond street, London, Ontario, who represents the Royal Air Force in this district, and he will forward them to Toronto for your own information. In inclosing these queries also inclose a stamped, addressed envelope for reply.

INQUIRER. Q.—1. Can a young man 21 years of age, exempted as a farmer, rent his farm?

2. Would he be free from military service, as he is in category A2, exempted as a farmer?

3. Is he free to engage in other work?

4. If I quit farming, would I be liable to be called for military service?

A.—1. If he is exempted as a farmer, he must continue such duties or have his exemption cancelled. He could rent his farm and continue in another locality at farm work, but he must notify the deputy registrar of any change in address, under penalty of forfeiting his exemption.

2. Not if he stops farming.

3. He may engage in other government work during the winter months, such as munition manufacturing or lumbering, but he must notify the deputy registrar of any change in address. If he is employed at other than war work his exemption will likely be cancelled.

4. Yes, as you were exempted as a farmer?

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

WHY DON'T THE PEOPLE CHEER?

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Were you one of the spectators of the parade yesterday, and were the people who came under your observation as stolid and indifferent, when the veterans passed by, as were the crowds at the entrance of Victoria Park, where I observed them?

The returned soldiers, who had helped bring peace about, marched along, some sick and tired-looking, one man in particular almost green he was so white. The crowd looked on, unmoved. A youth, who stood in front of me, six feet tall, and proportionately broad, placidly chewed his gum, his hands in his pockets. A few ladies clapped and endeavored to raise a cheer, but might have been standing amidst a throng of deaf mutes for any response they got.

But when a clown passed by and poked a friend with an umbrella, the people, including the bovine youth, grew hilarious. "Look at him!" "Give it to him again!" "Atta boy!" The clown was very popular.

Was this attitude typical all the way along? If so, why?

Was the mentality of the crowd such that they could appreciate nothing higher than the antics of a clown, or is their frame of mind similar to that which led a London citizen to put the sign: "Dogs and returned soldiers keep off"? What do you think? M.

Parkhill, Ont., Nov. 12, 1918.

Ed. Note—The psychology of London crowds was fairly well demonstrated in front of The Advertiser Monday evening. A good deal of coaxing and taunting was necessary before the cheering commenced in earnest. The people needed leadership, and when a band arrived they joined in "The Maple Leaf" with real spirit. Cheers for the returned men and the allied leaders were given in volume, and when one searches in vain for individuals who have an unkind spirit toward the returned men, he comes to the conclusion that it is bashfulness rather than anything else that holds back the cheers. The Advertiser has never heard of the sign referred to. Can our correspondent give its location?

WESTMINSTER PEOPLE TO CONSIDER ELECTRICAL TRANSPORTATION PLANS

A meeting for the purpose of solving the electrical transportation problem will be held on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Masonic Hall, Lambeth. Prominent speakers from London and Westminster will be present, and it is expected that all those who are interested in this problem will be there to take part in the discussion. It is reported that the people of Lambeth and vicinity are determined to have an electric line communicating with London, even if it has to be built.

WHEN A FAMILY NEEDS A FRIEND

In the Absence of Doctors Nobly Gone to War, After Influenza, the Grip—

Those wonderfully useful medicines, Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills, are warmly recommended.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, taken before meals three times a day, and Hood's Pills, taken at night as needed, are reasonably sure to keep a family in health and prove to be reliable and always ready friends. They purify the blood, relieve and prevent billousness and constipation, build up strength and regulate the system.

Get both, or either one, as you think you need, from your druggist today and begin treatment at once.

MAYOR PLANNING TO GIVE BIG RECEPTION FOR RETURNED MEN

Thinks This Will Be Great Occasion.

Now that the homecoming of London's brave sons who have survived the fierce struggle for democracy is within sight, Mayor C. R. Somerville is already thinking of some monster civic reception for them. This will include all the others who have returned from time to time. Mr. Somerville thinks that as it is probable that quite a large number will be returned together at the last, a large reception should be arranged when these arrive. Invitations will be extended to all the others who are in the city, who have had a part in the great conflict. There is no doubt in his mind that this event will be one of the greatest in the history of the city.

BODY OF W. F. SHAW, DROWNED ON SOPHIA, BEING BROUGHT HERE

Victim of Wreck To Be Buried at Hyde Park.

On October 26, William F. Shaw, brother of Charles H. Shaw, formerly of West London, met his death when the steamer Sophia was wrecked on the Vanderbilt reef off the coast of Alaska. The young man had been in Alaska for the past ten years, and was on his way home on the ill-fated steamer to visit friends and relatives. The body was brought to Vancouver and is being shipped to this city. It is expected that the body will arrive here on Sunday, November 17. The funeral will be held on the same date from the residence of Mrs. William Routledge at Hyde Park. Interment will take place in Hyde Park Cemetery. His brother Charles resides in Detroit.

ENGINE STRUCK LORRY.—As a result of the lorry on which he was riding being struck by a C.P.R. engine which was backing cars into the C. S. Hyman Company's siding at the corner of Richmond and Mill street about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, William Nixon, a teamster in the employ of the Dominion Transport Company, was painfully injured by being thrown to the pavement. He was taken into the tannery and Dr. Tillmann dressed his injuries. The police ambulance removed him to his home.

Again Furs Are Most Popular

Nor is this popularity one of chance, but deservedly, because of new style ideas of exquisite beauty in new furs. Beautiful odd muffs, stoles and sets in Hudson seal, Alaska sable, black sable, opossum, taupe, brown, natural or black wolf, red, white and black fox, fitch, civet, Siberian Wolf and Iceland fox.

SKUNK—dependable for wear. This fur is enhanced by handsome designs, tail-trimmed pieces, stoles and scarfs. Those in Hudson seal and wolf are also very popular.

Furs have had a number of triumphant seasons, but the season of 1918-19 bids fair to be the climax. Fashion, of course, has much to do with this, but the exceptional quality of the skins gathered last winter, the practical turn of fashion and the continued demand for fur-trimmed garments are considerable factors, as furs are becoming greater in demand, the early buying wisdom is more apparent. Furs should be bought NOW, and will be well bought at this season's prices.

LOCAL NEWS

IS RECOVERING.—Vincent Perry, 400 Burwell street, who has been confined to the house for some days suffering from tonsilitis, is recovering.

ANOTHER VOLUNTEER.—One volunteer and two defaulters were listed at the local mobilization centre yesterday. The volunteer's name was H. H. Clapp.

CLEARINGS INCREASE. — The bank clearings for last week were $2,547,194, and for the corresponding week last year, $2,344,526, an increase of $203,668 over last year.

KITCHEN CAUGHT FIRE.—The firemen had an early morning run to the home of Robert Lisbon, 326 Burwell street, Wednesday. The kitchen caught fire behind the stove and the blaze was put out with chemicals. The damage was about $20.

PLANNING BIG CONCERT.—The G. W. V. A. is planning to hold a concert on Sunday evening, November 23, at the Patricia Theatre. The proceeds are to be used in helping to buy band instruments for the veterans. Some noted artists already have been obtained, and it is expected that the concert will be one of the best ever held in this city.

GAVE LOAN BIG BOOST.—"The giving of the front page of The Advertiser to the Victory Loan Tuesday night was one of the best boosts we have had," said a canvasser today. "It brought the loan right back to the people after the celebration and stirred us fellows up to work harder than ever. It was one of the finest pieces of newspaper service the city has ever had."

FALL WHEAT LOOKS PROMISING

Delmer, Nov. 13.—The weather for the past two months has been favorable to the growth of the fall wheat, and has resulted in a beautiful prospect for wheat for the next harvest. In fact, never has fall wheat at this season of the year looked more promising or with a better top and such a healthy color.

Hiram D. Smith has bought the 80-acre farm adjoining his own, known as the Benstead farm, for $70 an acre.

A large number from here attended the anniversary services held at Brownsville on Sunday, and were well repaid in the excellent sermons preached by Rev. W. G. H. McAllister of Eidgetown. The morning discourse was from the text "All is Yours," and was handled in a most able manner. In the evening the subject was "Where is the Seer's House?" The music furnished by the choir was of a high order, and much appreciated and enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kipp on Sunday visited Mrs. Kipp's old home in Malahide, where her father and mother are both seriously ill.

Dr. W. Pratt of the seventh concession of Dereham has sold his fine 100-acre farm to Neil Jensen of Dereham Centre.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kipp went to Newark on Saturday to visit Mrs. Kipp's father, who is ill.

INTER-ALLIED FOOD COUNCIL WILL BE STRONGER THAN TRUST

Meat Packers Ring of America Is Criticized in British House.

London, Nov. 14.—In a discussion in the House of Commons yesterday concerning the food question and control of the meat supply, the American Meat Trust was criticized severely by some speakers.

Major Waldorf Astor, parliamentary secretary to the food ministry, said that the trust controlled more than 50 per cent of the available and importable meat supplies, which constituted a serious menace. However, he added, the inter-allied food council set up by the food controller and which would buy in the world's markets, was going to be stronger than the trust. It would be able to dictate to the trust if necessary, and would be able to fix reasonable prices for consumers.

said that Mr. Clarkson's instructions had been to furnish all available information to the publishers. In his opinion, some of the information sought by the newspapers was not relevant. "Whether additional information can be secured, I cannot say. Some may be," concluded Mr. Stewart, "but some may not be obtainable from the books of the companies."

"The commissioner evidently did not wait to secure all the information Mr. Clarkson could get," remarked Justice White, "and we have power to entertain an appeal on that ground."

Mr. Montgomery, on behalf of the mills, declared that the information in the questionaire which the newspapers say they have not been able to secure, was all brought out in evidence from time to time before Mr. Pringle.

"The price of newsprint, as of other commodities, is fixed by the larger market," he said, "and the larger market is the United States, as only 11 per cent of our newsprint is sold in Canada. The United States price, fixed by the federal trade commission, is $75.05 per ton, or $6.05 in excess of the price paid the same manufacturers by Canadian newspapers.

RAILROADERS ACQUITTED.

Perth, Nov. 13.—Newton Lebo, engineer, and Roy Campney, freight conductor, who, on May 19 last, through forgetfulness, ran their train on the line of an express, causing a collision and the death of K. Butland, fireman, and A. Martin, brakeman of the express, were acquitted of a charge of manslaughter.

COME TO CANADA TO MARRY.

London, Nov. 13.—In the House of Commons, Mr. Denman asked whether passports could not be granted to women desiring to go to Canada to be married. The Right Hon. T. J. Macnamara replied that the whole question of restrictions upon traveling at sea would shortly be under the immediate consideration of the government department concerned.

"FLU'S" TOLL ON ARMY.

London, Nov. 13.—Replying to Viscount Wolmer in the House of Commons, Shirgeon-General W. G. MacPherson stated that in October nearly 25,000 British soldiers in France were in hospital owing to influenza. Of this number 421 died; 2,700 were in hospital owing to pneumonia, of whom over a thousand died.

FIGHTING McGUIRE FAMILY HAS WONDERFUL RECORD AT FRONT

Six Sons and Two Stepsons of Mrs. Mary Anne McGuire Have Served Empire in Great War—One Has Given His Life.

Advertiser Illustrations

Now that the war has been lost and won, there will be stories to tell of how individuals, families and communities have played their part in making the world safe for democracy. Mrs. Mary Anne McGuire of Motherwell, Scotland, sent six sons and two stepsons to fight for the Empire. In the picture are the six sons and their mother. Those standing from left to right are: Staff-Sergt. Hugh McGuire, Pte. Samuel McGuire and Corp. Herbert McGuire, while those seated from left to right are Pte. J. A. McGuire, Pte. John McGuire, Mrs. McGuire (who is 70 years of age), and Sergt. William McGuire.

Dardanelles and France.

Staff-Sergt. Hugh, who is the eldest son, served at the Dardanelles with the Royal Scots Guards, but was sunstruck and invalided home. He is now serving in France. His service dates from the commencement of the war.

Pte. Samuel is only 17 years of age, but, like his brother Hugh, is doing his "bit" in France with the Royal Scots Guards. Corp. Herbert, who served in France with the Royal Field Artillery, made the supreme sacrifice on August 1, 1918.

One Son Here.

Pte. J. A. McGuire, who at present resides at 86 Forward avenue, this city, left London with "K" Company of the Royal Canadian Regiment on August 2, 1914. He was wounded at the second battle of Ypres, and afterwards received his discharge.

Pte. John enlisted with the Scots Guards, and was on a transport which was torpedoed while on the way to Egypt. He was in the water two hours before being rescued. He is now in Jerusalem with a regiment of the Palestine Expeditionary Force.

Sergt. William is serving with the Royal Field Artillery. He has been gassed twice and wounded twice.

One of the stepbrothers, Pte. John McClung, is serving in France with the Scottish Rifles, after having been twice wounded. The other stepson, Pte. Thos. McClung, was serving with the Tenth Gordon Highlanders until he was taken prisoner by the Germans.

The McGuire family may well be proud of its splendid record, and the members of it might well be called the "Fighting McGuires."

BULLETS FROM VICTORY LOAN MACHINE GUN

MOTHER GOOSE ON VICTORY BONDS.

There was a man in our town
And he was wond'rous wise.
He said: "To buy some Vict'ry Bonds
Some money I must 'rise'."
And so he hocked his hat and shoes,
His pants and everything;
Now, with the interest on his Bonds,
He's happy as a king.

There was another guy in town
And he was mean as sin.
He said: "For those old Vict'ry Bonds
I will not spend my tin."
And so he hung on to his kale;
The poor simp starved to death.
"I wish I'd bought some Vict'ry Bonds,"
That was his dying breath.

Humpty-Dumpty sat on the wall,
He didn't buy any Bonds at all.
So, when he fell off, it was a great fall.
The town had to pay for his funeral.

Citizens have reason to be proud of London, for the city heads the list in regard to percentage of objective already obtained in the Victory Loan. Here's how London stands with sister cities:

London, 54.74 per cent.
Ottawa, 53.60 per cent.
Toronto, 51.95 per cent.
Hamilton, 36.77 per cent.

The border cities of Windsor, Sarnia and Welland have already reached their objectives, due in no small measure to the American money that has been invested in bonds. Trust the Yanks to cuddle up to a good investment like Victory Bonds.

After yesterday's sales, the largest since the loan opened, the salesmen can whistle but one song, "Smiles."

Every man who figured up Wednesday's bond total, with the exception of W. E. Doble, hailed from the McCormick Manufacturing Company. They were George W. Pepper, John Sumner, J. L. Skinner, J. Newton, D. Hand, R. E. Fotheringham, M. Gould, W. H. Biggs, J. Waud, R. W. Hodgins, J. Newman, J. A. Stone, R. C. Skinner.

As the campaign draws to a close a number of large subscriptions are being received. The Canadian Order of the Woodmen of the World have taken out $60,000 in bonds, the London Loan and Savings Company, $25,000; the McClary Manufacturing Company, $150,000; the Ontario Commercial Travelers' Association, $60,000. It is expected that the employees of the McClary Company will subscribe over $75,000.

The total number of applications for bonds this year is lower than in 1917. This is due in a great degree to the amount of sickness that has prevailed in the city.

STANDING IN VICTORY LOAN LEAGUE.

Gum Sox	$916,100
Macs	$625,200

The Gum chewers sold $174,200 worth of bonds for 142 applications yesterday, while the Macs sold 118 for $153,350.

Chairman George M. Reid wore an ear-to-ear smile today.

"What are we going to get today? Well, I'll be disappointed if our total doesn't range somewhere around the seven hundred thousand mark," said Mr. Reid. Salesmen report that everyone from the workingmen to the capitalist is doubling up on his bond subscriptions. We want to hoist that honor flag Friday night from the public utilities building if possible."

E. V. Hessian, who with J. J. Dyer has been one of the stars of the industrial salesmen, is confined to his home with the "flu." His partner, J. J. Dyer, is shouldering the double burden, and is making a wonderful showing.

All hail the Industrials. Last year the Industrial objective was set at $6,500,000. This year $200,000 was taken away from them in "special clients," leaving them with $450,000 worth of prospects to start out with. The objective for 1918 is $750,000, which will undoubtedly be obtained today. Three loud and real cheers for the workingmen of London, who have subscribed already $350,000 more than they did last year. Also three whoops for the executive committee that looked after the detail necessary in such a big undertaking.

How did they raise the extra money? Here's the answer. A whole pile of firms with every employee subscribing. Those who joined the honor flag list yesterday were Holeproof Hosiery Company, London Bolt and Hinge Company, R. C. Struthers, Dennis Wire and Iron Company, Greene-Swift Company, London Life Assurance Company, Huron and Erie Mortgage Corporation, National Brass Company, London Rolling Mills.

Organizer Jack Clarke, after reading The Advertiser's appeal to buy Victory Bonds until it hurts, pawned his hat to help make a payment on an extra bond. John says someone stole his K-K-Katy from the office, but no one believes him. However, the French are safe even if Jack's lid isn't, as Norman Tovell would say.

Two things worth while. A good wife and a nice big Victory Bond. If you have a good wife, buy her a Victory Bond. If you haven't, buy a Bond. It will help you get the other . . .

(Sing This to Tune of K-K-Katie)
(By Robin Mitchell.)

Currie is a general strong and bold,
Currie has a heart as pure as gold,
Like an act of fate,
Old Bill knocked down Belgium's gate,
Now he's had to pay for all his crime,
Currie, with his men was just a chum,
With them he could drive back all the Hun,
In a few nights at eight,
They'll be at Berlin's gate,
While his men will shout this song aloud!

C-C-C-Currie, General Currie!
You're the only G-G-General we adore,
Sure as the sun shines in the morning,
We'll be knocking down the K-K-Kaiser's door.

No one could be just so cruel and vile,
No one could, and with a sarcastic smile!
That's what Currie thought,
When his men to France he brought;
Now he's marching on, to old Berlin,
Currie knew he'd not take any chance,
When he said he'd make the kaiser dance,
Shouting left and right, to men so strong and bright,
This is what old Bill hears at his door:

C-C-C-Currie, General Currie, etc.

Soldiers who have been to France and seen,
Know how Huns used the Belgians mean,
That's what people cry when the Victory Bonds they buy;
Now they've shot the last, the fight to win,
Old Bill thought the whole world he'd defeat,
Make us all bow humbly at his feet,
But Victory Bonds we bought, and the money bought the shot,
Now at home, and those in France, shout:

V-V-V-Victory! V-V-V-Victory!
V-V-V-Victory Bonds, Oh! Victory Bonds will buy,
And another, still another,
Will knock old Bill a sailing mighty high.

"Y'S" TO HAVE IMPORTANT PART IN RECONSTRUCTION

That in the work of reconstruction and demobilization, the Y. M. C. A. will play an important part is the opinion of the officers in charge of the local branch of this organization. "The country, in the work of reconstruction, must lay great emphasis on young people's work," declared Secretary R. E. G. Davis.

To carry on this work, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will jointly organize and conduct a campaign to raise $30,000. This campaign will be held from December 3 to December 6. An opening supper will be held on the evening of December 2. The campaigners will work two hours each day. These things were decided at a meeting of two committees, one from the Y. W. C. A. and the other from the Y. M. C. A., held yesterday at the "Y." A committee on lists and advertising was appointed and has already begun to make its plans.

NO LIKELIHOOD OF ALLIES GRANTING A PRELIMINARY PEACE

Supreme War Council Fixed Things as Well as They Can Be Fixed.

Washington, Nov. 13.—The proposal of Dr. Solf, the German foreign secretary, for a preliminary peace conference had not reached Washington in official form tonight, but it is understood that there is little probability of its acceptance. Such a conference is regarded here as unnecessary, and as likely to uselessly complicate the work of the general conference when it is held.

The supreme war council in Versailles did more than consider the subject of the armistice, and it is now learned that for a long time preceding the final collapse of the central powers much study and attention was given to the subject of final peace in all of its ramifications. Therefore, when the peace conference meets it will find before it a fairly well digested program for the conduct of its business, calculated to keep the sessions within bounds, not only in the matter of expenditure of time, but also in the range of subjects to be discussed.

WORK OF ENFORCING M.S.A. ENDS TODAY

According to camp orders today, the work of enforcing the M.S.A. ceased today. This is taken to mean that it is no longer necessary to carry military papers. All men of the C.E.F. who have been attached to the C.M.P.C. for the purpose of enforcing the act will be returned to their units. Deputy Registrar H. F. Beresford stated to The Advertiser today that he had received no orders affecting his part of the work.

CROWN PRINCE IS NOW REPORTED WITH TROOPS

Basel, Wednesday, Nov. 13.—Reports that the former German crown prince is with his father in Holland are denied by a dispatch from Berlin bearing Tuesday's date. The dispatch states that he is with his troops at the front.

SHOT BY UNKNOWN HUNTER.

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—E. G. White, local representative of the Dupont Powder Company, is in hospital here, suffering from a shattered left arm. He was shot while hunting in the Mattawa district by an unknown hunter. Mr. White was one of Canada's best-known trap shooters.

J. A. FORTNER WOUNDED.—Mrs. Smith, 124 Elmwood avenue, has received official notice that her brother, John A. Fortner, has been admitted to No. 6 Casualty Clearing Station, with gunshot wounds in the shoulder.

RELEASED FROM GERMAN RULE PEOPLE COULD NOT DO ENOUGH FOR THEIR CANADIAN RESCUERS

Lieut. Martin Bluethner Tells of Last Days of Fighting and Sends Home Interesting Collection of Trophies.

Thomas Martin of the London Conservatory of Music was the recipient last week of two most interesting letters and a box of souvenirs sent to him from France by his nephew, Lieut. Martin Bluethner, of the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles, and eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bluethner, this city. The souvenirs, which were mostly collected in the last battle of Cambrai, consist of a German gunner's helmet, in which the Prince of Wales, on a recent visit to Lieut. Bluethner's battalion, is said to have taken much interest, a flag, several French and German buttons, rosary, cigar holder and a cigarette lighter, made by a British prisoner in Germany, a Dublin Fusilier, who was found hiding in a house in Cambrai, having escaped from the German lines, and not knowing that the Allies had captured the town. In his joy he presented the souvenir to Lieut. Bluethner.

Picture of the Fighting.

The letters are of public interest in that they give a clear idea of the nature of the fighting on the western front as it gradually drew to a close, the incidents described being perhaps typical of what might be called the last fighting days of the great war.

"We are having a wonderful experience here just at present. As you will have seen by the papers, we are advancing very rapidly and the Germans are retiring so rapidly that we are entering towns and villages and finding them almost in their usual state, with the civilians all there and scarcely any signs of war whatever, except the great number of German signboards and fingerposts stuck up everywhere. This is an immense change and innovation for us, of course, as we have become so accustomed to finding everything all smashed up with shell fire and the whole country plowed up and levelled almost flat. This advancing through an untouched country seems fine to us.

Were Welcome.

"Yesterday we marched through three or four towns from which the Germans have only withdrawn about two days. We weren't quite the first British troops to pass through these places, of course, as we are not yet up in the front line of the advance, but are following closely behind, awaiting our turn. But we were the first to go through in marching order, in fours, with transport kitchens, etc., and bands playing merrily and all the poor French people crowded along the sides of the road greeting us and laughing and kicking up a great row. They sure were a happy bunch to see British troops after their long captivity of over four years now, and they gave us a big reception.

Real Hospitality.

"And tonight we are staying in a nice little town, full of civilians. Another chap and I have a peach of a billet and the people cannot do enough for us. We have a very fine bed with about two feet of feathers to sleep on ,and are enjoying it greatly. I am in a nice little sitting-room writing this, with a cheery fire burning, and the people come running in about every five minutes to know if we won't have some coffee, wine, cognac or something. They are so glad to have British soldiers here, you see."

"We had a great trip this time, Unc, heaps of excitement and all kinds of change and novelty. My battalion went through a large city, which has been prominent in the news lately, and we had a very interesting time, making the passage across the canal, patrolling the streets and squares of the city, and so on. We had very little opposition and our casualties were consequently beautifully light. My platoon got five prisoners.

Sending Souvenirs.

"I managed to get some souvenirs together, 'Unc,' and am getting them ready to mail you. I've got a nice German helmet and a few buttons, shoulder straps, etc.; also a lighter for cigarettes, made in a prison camp in Valenciennes by a prisoner, a Dublin Fusilier, who escaped and came in through our lines a couple of days ago. We were in a village on the banks of a canal, and he came across a ruined bridge in the night and hid in a house, as he thought he was still in the German lines.

"Next afternoon, the company commander and I were up on a reconnoitring trip, getting a good look at the bridge, and trying to figure out a way of getting across (which we did later) and capturing the city which lay opposite us. I went into the house where this fellow was, and was thus the first British person he encountered. He sure was a happy fellow, when he knew he was safe in our lines again, and he gave me the lighter, which he said he had carried just for the purpose of giving to the first Britisher he met, if he was lucky enough to get through. So you will be pleased to have it perhaps, as it is rather an interesting souvenir.

Visit of Prince.

"The day before yesterday we were honored by a visit from the Prince of Wales. The colonel introduced us to him, and he shook hands with us all. I hear the Canadian corps is going to receive the distinction of having him on the staff. Quite a compliment, eh? When he was here, that helmet I am sending you was on the table. The prince picked it up, had a look at it and said, "A gunner's helmet." He was right, too. It is an artillery helmet, and I got it in the limber of a gun which Jerry left behind in his hurried exit. The German buttons I got from a fellow we took prisoner.

"The news continues to be great. Things are certainly going well, and we should get that unconditional surrender soon. Here's hoping!"

DIES FROM INFLUENZA; FOUR YEARS OVERSEAS

Advertiser Illustrations

After four years in the service of his country, Pte. Archie Jacques succumbed to Spanish influenza on Nov. 9 at Devonport Hospital, England. He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Jacques, 422 York street, and went to England in December, 1914, with the Army Medical Corps. He had been on active service continually, never having been wounded, but slightly gassed on one occasion, and he was recently invalided to England with trench fever. While recuperating from fever he was taken ill and died two days after he entered the hospital. In his letters to his parents of late he had been writing of the expectation of coming home in the near future, and it was with a shock that Mr. and Mrs. Jacques received the news in a telegram from Ottawa on Wednesday. He was only 26 years of age, and four years of his young life have been given for his country. He is survived by his parents, one sister, Miss Dorothy at home, and a brother, Cadet Alfred Jacques, who has been overseas with the R. A. F. for two years.

GRAIN.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Fresh weakness in the corn market resulted today from the official order eliminating wheat substitutes. Commission houses were the chief sellers. Reports, however, that Southwestern feeders were bidding in Illinois for corn checked the decline. Opening prices, which ranged from unchanged to ⅜c up, were followed by a material setback all around.

Oats paralleled the atio nof corn. Ater opening unchanged to ⅝c lower, the market underwent a further sag.

GRAPHIC PICTURE OF BATTLEFRONT, ENGLAND AND THE LONGING FOR HOME FELT BY BOYS OVERSEAS

A descriptive letter of England and her beauty and the war and its horrors has been sent to a friend in the city by Pte. Guy R. Cotton:

Dear Friend,—Here in this quiet rural beauty spot of England, I am going to give you, as so often promised, my impressions of the war, the country over here, and the home land viewed from a distance of 3,000 miles. As I look back over my army life, there is a great deal of it that seems unreal, but every morning the notes of the reveille call me from slumber, dispelling all illusions, leaving only the hard reality of a new day. Naturally you remember the "1st Hussars" of London and what a manly lot of fellows they were. The Land of the Maple Leaf may well be proud of such men, for they have nobly verified their name.

Some Gone.

But, alas! there are some of them who lie in nameless graves "over there." For them the bugle has sounded the last call, while the notes of "Last Post" have marshaled them into a company, where danger, battle and death are not known. No more will they look upon the sun climbing the hills of their native land across the sea, or hear again the welcome of loved ones, but far greater than all else is the knowledge that their spirit lives on in the comrades left behind, who standing over their prostrate forms, breathed to the flame-swept sky, a vow to carry on till his pals' sacrifice will not have been made in vain. To the dear ones at home who mourn their loss, our hearts go out in sympathy, for we, too, can never forget, but keep always before you, that your loss is the world's gain, and if you could have heard their last message it would have been "carry on."

Crisis Past.

There is no question but that the crisis is now past and goal in sight. . . . . It is surely a joy for all true Canadians to join hands with their mighty neighbors across the line, to set up the standard of democracy. Today the Stars and Stripes float side by side with the Union Jack. . . . Just at the moment, I can picture the scene as night draws on, the darkness relieved intermittently by one of the most spectacular exhibitions of fireworks ever recorded in history. The many-colored star shells, rockets, gun flares, or belching flames of giant guns, accompanied by the whizzing of rifle bullets and the dull boom of the heavies. No, indeed, the Boche will not be allowed to become bored at all.

One Incident.

However, it cannot all be taken in this sporting spirit, for one sees sights that make the blood run cold, creating a wonder, if we have not suffered a relapse from our vaunted twentieth century civilization to the barbarism of pre-historic days. Only a few weeks ago I was in London, during the great Whit-Sunday air raid, of which one incident alone will suffice to tell the whole story. A little golden-haired tot was tugging at the breast of a beautiful woman pinned beneath debris, that had in all probability, killed her instantly. The little tot was crying in its childish voice, "Mamma, wake up," all unconscious of the fact that she would never wake up, except in another world. Such sights fairly turn one's reason, leaving only one thought, one feeling: the resolve never to give up until the instigators of such a foul deed are punished and stamped with the mark of Cain.

Surely you can imagine what a pleasant relief it is to turn to the beauty of the quaint old English scenery to dispel the tragedy and horror of war. I would that I could portray for you, the singular beauty of the long twilight, stealing gently over the country. No poet or painter could adequately do it justice. The whole is beautiful, splendid, magnificent, typical of the great British race.

Something Wanting.

But somehow, there is a void, a something in our hearts and minds that is not satisfied. You at home must realize it is a longing for that great western hemisphere, Canada and the United States. Though we love this beautiful land, with its many good people, there is a fever, a burning desire that draws us back to the land we call home. I am convinced it is that spirit of freedom that is in the air, you breathe it into your lungs and impress it indelibly upon your mind. It is in the notes of the song bird. The night winds tell you to sleep in its security. All we can say is we love the land of liberty and that when it's over "over there," we are going to respond to that love, that insistent magnetic impulse and come back to your shores, wiser as well as better men. If you people at home, only knew how eagerly we get together after mail call to exchange any home news, you would write us much oftener. Trusting this has given you an idea of affairs in general from a soldier's standpoint, I am yours sincerely,

PTE. GUY R. COTTON.

TOOK SEVERE COLD ON HIS LUNGS

COUGHED PHLEGM AND BLOOD

On the first appearance of a cough or cold, do not neglect it, but get rid of it at once before it has a chance to grow worse, and gets settled on the lungs, causing bronchitis, pneumonia and other serious lung troubles.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will cure the cough or cold on its first inception and perhaps save you years of suffering.

Mr. G. F. Stratychuk, Canora, Sask., writes: "Last winter I took a most severe cold on my lungs and was coughing up phlegm and blood most of the time. I had the cough for over two months, and took a great deal of different medicines, but found no relief from them. At last a friend advised me to take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I did, and it gave me great relief in a very short time, and today I am enjoying good health again."

The marvellous results that Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has achieved in its cures of coughs, and colds has caused many so-called "pine" preparations to be put on the market, which do not contain any pine whatever. See that you get the genuine when you ask for it.

Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

An Inside Bath Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill-health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible materials, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach, others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing.

ROUSING WELCOME GIVEN 40 RETURNED HEROES LAST NIGHT

Big Reception for First Men to Come Home Since War's End.

One of the most rousing receptions ever given in this city was the welcome accorded the first party of returned men to arrive in London since the signing of the armistice by the Germans. The heroes arrived at 9:05 o'clock last evening via the Grand Trunk.

"We left Liverpool two weeks ago tomorrow, and arrived at Halifax about 11 o'clock Sunday morning, staying there until 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon," stated Pte. James Key, a former member of the 186th Battalion. His home is in Chatham, but his sister, Mrs. Alice Arnold, resides at 34 Robson street, this city.

The veterans were met at the station by the W. O. R. Band, and by members of the G. W. V. A., who carried flags of the Allies. The party, composed entirely of hospital cases, was conveyed in autos through the business section, and then to the Central Military Convalescent Hospital, where a refreshments were provided by the Red Cross Society.

Rev. Father Brennan, addressing the men, spoke for all present when he declared that Canada owed them a debt of gratitude and that the way to make the first payment of this debt was to extend a hearty welcome to them.

The witty remarks of Dr. Knowles, who is here from the United States on social work in connection with the Salvation Army, kept the men in constant laughter. Like Father Brennan, he also extended to the men a hearty welcome.

Went With 34th.

In the party was Pte. S. C. Lake of Kincardine, winner of the Military Medal. Pte. Lake was one of the original members of the 34th Battalion, and was wounded at the Somme in August, 1916, being with the 5th C.M.R. at that time. He modestly refused to give the details in connection with the winning of the decoration.

Pte. Robert Leslie Black, son of Sergt. James Black, enlisted before he was 18 years of age, and served with the A. M. C. A brother, Pte. Vincent Black, left London on August 2, 1914, with K Company of the R. C. R., and fought in France until April 16, 1916, when he was gassed. The father was a sergeant with the 1st Battalion, and served with the forces in France until September, 1916. He was returned home wounded.

Pte. N. Poile of Stratford, who was in the party, was the first of six brothers who went overseas to return to Canada. One brother made the supreme sacrifice. His father, David Poile, an old soldier, has been on service in Canada. By mistake the name of Pte. R. H. Roberts, 569 William street, was omitted from the list published yesterday. Pte. Roberts enlisted with the 70th Battalion, and is the son of George Roberts, an employee of The Advertiser. He was wounded twice, the last occasion being at Passchendaele October 31, 1917.

Among the eight London soldiers to return was Lieut. C. N. Tucker, son of Rev. Canon Tucker of St. Paul's Rectory. Lieut. Tucker went overseas with the 135th Battalion, afterwards transferring to the 18th Battalion. He was too tired, as a result of his long homeward journey, to talk at any length last night and went directly to his home from the station.

G. W. V. A. and Many Others.

It was due to the untiring efforts of the reception committee of the soldiers' aid commission, the Great War Veterans and William Moore that the reception was so full of enthusiasm. The soldiers' aid commission wishes to thank the following for loaning their cars: Charles Alford, A. E. Barbour, G. H. Belton, William Gorman, A. Bowen, Rev. H. B. Ashby, J. A. Brownlee, Sam D. Campbell, J. C. Beemer, Col. A. A. Campbell, George F. Copeland, Ald. F. Harley, D. J. Cowan, J. L. Johnson, Geo. S. Gibbons, Bert A. Heaman, J. S. Ashplant, the Christian Science relief committee, and others.

The list of those who were in the party, which was in charge of Lieut. Love, follows:

R. L. Black; E. E. Fortner, 55 Wharncliffe street; J. P. Hartford, 174 Briscoe street; J. Haldane, 713 Elias street; J. E. Petrit, Argyle street; R. H. Roberts, 569 William street; S. W. M. May, 57 Wortley road; Lieut. C. N. Tucker, St. Paul's Rectory, all of London; A. W. Pooley and D. Parkinson, Stratford; W. S. Pearson and W. A. Schooler, Guelph; Lieut. E. B. Gandier, Port Elgin; H. R. Beswick, Paris; S. Craig, Innerkip; R. Clarke, Dutton; D. F. Doering, Millerbow; R. M. Dilly, Galt; J. Key, Wallaceburg; S. C. Lake, Kincardine; R. Pearce, Tillsonburg; A. P. Peters, Stoney Point; F. A. Stewart, Fergus; W. G. Shaddock, Hensall; A. T. Smallman, Woodstock; J. Ward, Chatham; R. Young, Mount Forest.

The following have no Canadian addresses: Capt. W. H. Taylor, F. B. Johnson, J. B. Allmon, N. Polle, R. Statline, R. Rose, F. C. French, W. Hodging, W. H. Lippert, H. Marshall, M. Maloney, J. B. Pritchel.

London's fire department is again in the limelight. A committee from the firemen, consisting of Lieut. Stanley Scrubey, Capt. John Mitchell, Engineer George Bolton and Fireman Wm. Fountain, supported by George Jackson of the trades and labor council, waited on No. 1 committee last evening to ask for a consideration of some grievances. Mayor C. R. Somerville, Controller C. H. Merryfield, and Ald. S. Manness were appointed a committee to deal with the matter.

The delegation asked for the reinstatement of George White; that the rule asking for all firemen to be medically examined before being taken on the force be recognized; that the drivers of the horse-drawn wagons be given the extra $25 per year the same as the drivers of the "horseless" wagons; that a board, consisting of the fire chief, the assistant chief, and one captain from each hall be appointed a committee to pass on all promotions in the department, and finally that the firemen be given an increase in pay.

Want White Reinstated.

The entire committee of the firemen thought that White should be reinstated. It also agreed that he had not acted altogether squarely with Chief J. Aitken, but he had been duly punished, inasmuch as he not been taken back yet. They thought this should be considered as a suspension and that he should be given another chance on the understanding that if he made good he should be retained and if not he should be let out.

Alderman W. Wilson said he was in favor of White being given another chance, and he asked Chief J. Aitken to forgive and forget, and "we will think all the more of you for it, and so will everybody. I move that the chief be asked to take him back," he continued.

Old, Old Story.

"That is the same old story," said Chairman F. E. Harley. He asked if it was a case of spite or inefficiency.

Controller C. H. Merryfield thought that it was not spite, or at least, he would not care to believe that this was the reason for the chief's refusal to take him back.

The firemen also complained that they had not been given their winter clothing yet, and wanted to know the reason.

Chief Aitken said that he had been after the company who has the contract every week, but it claims that it has been unable to get the clothing made.

Chairman Harley thought that the chief should report back to the committee when he is unable to get any firm to fill its contract within a reasonable time. The company will be asked to hustle the clothes through.

A gentleman, who gave his name as Leonard, was present and made an impassioned appeal to the better natures of the members of the committee for fair play for the firefighters. He promised to see that every one of them was returned at the next election in return for a square deal to the men. He was assured that the men have always had and will always receive fair play. Mr. Leonard was quite overcome, and advancing to Chairman Harley he said: "Shake hands, your worship." With a "God bless you all," he retired, secure in the belief that he had eased the situation for the men.

Caused a Mix-Up.

In connection with the natural gas question it appears that there was a hitch in appointing the committee, and as a result no meeting has been held with the City Gas Company. At the time the appointment was made Controller Merryfield mentioned the chairman and Ald. Wilson. As Controller E. S. Little was occupying the chair at the time it was taken that he was meant. Controller Merryfield explained last night that he meant Ald. Harley to be on the committee, and the minutes were accordingly changed.

It was decided to recommend to the council that a plebiscite of the people be taken on the question of Sunday cars to Springbank at the next annual election.

It was also recommended that the McClary Manufacturing Company be allowed to install a switch to its York street plant from the G. T. R., crossing York street near Clarence.

Look into Market.

On the motion of Alderman S. Manness the following committee was appointed to investigate the advisability of making a charge for the use of the market house by the farmers: Alderman F. E. Harley, Mayor C. R. Somerville and Alderman S. Manness.

Alderman W. Wilson moved that the purchase of beam scales for the use of the market clerk to aid him in keeping tab on the lightweight potatoes be recommended. It was decided to recommend the calling of tenders for the purchase of a starter for the Seagrave truck at No. 2 fire hall.

Two invitations were extended to the council through this committee to attend thanksgiving services, one by Rev. Dr. R. G. Peever, on behalf of the Ministerial Association, to attend at First Methodist Church, on Thursday evening, and one from Bishop M. F. Fallon to attend one in St. Peter's Cathedral next Tuesday morning. Both invitations were accepted by the committee on behalf of the council.

JUDGING TEAM SELECTED AT O.A.C. TO GO TO CHICAGO

GUELPH, Nov. 13.—Prof. Wade Toole, head of the animal husbandry department of the O. A. C., has made his selections for the team of students who will represent the college at the great International Stock Show to be held at Chicago the latter part of this month.

For some time Prof. Toole and the members of the fourth year have been at work preparing themselves for this judging contest, which is the largest of its kind in the world, and they have had a very busy time of it. They have visited as many as 40 different farms, and were given some valuable practical experience in judging some of the finest stock to be found anywhere, and Mr. Toole is confident that the students who go to Chicago this year will give a splendid account of themselves. The judging team is composed of five men, but eight are being taken to Chicago and not until their arrival will the final selection be made. Following are the names of the eight students:

C. Lamont, Mount Brydges; C. F. MacKenzie, Guelph; D. F. Aylesworth, Bath; W. C. Caldwell, Carp; R. E. Brigg, Tiverton; D. J. Matheson, Lucknow; C. F. Luckham, Burnam, and W. R. Duff, Avonmore.

PARADES AT WROXETER.

WROXETER, Nov. 13. — The clang of the fire alarm and ringing of bells early Monday morning aroused the residents here to the glorious news of victory for the Allies. Parades and a thanksgiving service were features of the day.

HAPPY DAY AT GRANTON.

GRANTON, Nov. 13.—Monday was a day in which the news of peace was gloriously celebrated here. At early dawn the people were awakened by the clanging of bells and from that time until near midnight the joyous enthusiasm of the citizens gradually worked itself up to a crisis.

At 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. respectively, union services of prayer and thanksgiving were held in two of the churches. At 3 p.m. a parade was held, headed by two mounted soldiers from the neighborhood, and followed by a long line of gaily decorated autos. Bonfires were a feature of the evening.

A Message to Men Who Feel Weak, Played-Out and All In.

It is a true saying that "A man is as old as he feels." Brigham Young used to say he never felt old and he lived up to his boast. He used to say that no man need feel old if he cared to take the trouble to keep young. The same means he used to keep young, strong and vigorous is obtainable by anybody who will take the trouble to ask the Standard Drug Company or any other reliable druggist for Brigham Young's Invigorator. It is made according to Brigham Young's original and private formula, and has only recently been made obtainable by the public.

It is perfectly safe and harmless, and it never fails to produce satisfactory results. Your druggist will give you your money back if it fails.—Advt.

"I wonder what he thinks of me?"

Another wounded soldier!

Never have I noticed so many on the streets as there seems to be to-day.

I wonder why that chap gave me such a searching look? If he thinks I am a slacker he's wrong. I'm not able to fight; but I have done my duty. Here's my honor-button on my coat to prove it.

I've bought ten Victory Bonds—put nearly all my savings into them. Not quite all—that hundred I have left must be kept to buy Christmas presents.

Christmas presents?

I wonder if this would be the best way to spend that money?

Let's see; I could take that hundred dollars and pay it as a deposit on four $100 bonds—then pay the other $300 in instalments.

But that would leave me nothing to buy Christmas presents.

I have it!

This year I'll give Victory Bonds as presents.

But would the wife like that? Would she like a Bond as well as the gift I was going to buy her?

Why she'd rather have a Bond, if she knew it might save one poor boy from being crippled like that lad there.

And the three children, every one of them has been at me to buy a bond.

I could pay the other $300 in instalments—by being a little more careful of my expenditures. And the wife will gladly help.

I'll do it.

I'll take that hundred dollars to buy four more bonds. I wonder why I didn't think of that way before.

Let every Canadian do some serious thinking along these lines to-day.

You have only three days left to set yourself right with the boys who fought and toiled, suffered and died—for you.

To-day may be the biggest day in your life.

You've never known a day that compares with it in opportunity to serve your country, for this loan must be overscribed.

Canada must show both friend and foe that she is in this fight to win.

70,000 PEOPLE

die every year from bronchitis! A large proportion of these could be saved by direct treatment, but in order to heal the bronchial tubes a remedy must be taken which will get there direct. Peps can. Peps is a breatheable remedy which goes right to the seat of the trouble—hence its wonderful success in cases of bronchitis.

Dissolve a Pep in your mouth. The medicine contained is turned into vapor and carried by the breath to the bronchial tubes and the minute air passages. The inflamed lining is healed, the pain ended and the cough stopped.

Miss Mary Weston, a graduate nurse living at 457 Victor Ave., Winnipeg, says she owes her health to Peps. She writes: "When I finished my hospital training I was suffering with chronic bronchial trouble, and I was told I would not be able to continue nursing. I used Peps so perseveringly, however, that I was finally entirely cured. I am quite sure that I would not be following my profession to-day if it had not been for Peps."

For asthma, laryngitis, sore throat, coughs, colds and hoarseness Peps are equally invaluable. All dealers, 50c. box.

WINDSOR LAWN BOWLING CLUB GROWING RAPIDLY

WINDSOR, Nov. 13. — At the annual meeting of the Windsor Lawn Bowling Club, held this evening, a highly encouraging financial statement was presented, as well as a report of growing increase in membership for the year.

Officers were elected as follows: Directors, A. Laing, J. Kay, D. M. Eagle, H. W. Wilson, Charles Fraser; entertainment committee, F. Pashley, Henry Clay, C. Chirtian, Chas. Fraser, D. M. Eagle; winter games challenge committee, Dr. C. Green, H. Clay, Charles Fraser; chaplain, Rev. Dean Downey; secretary-treasurer, Price Fisher.

DANDRUFFY HEADS BECOME HAIRLESS

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advt.

BRITAIN PLEDGED FOR PEACE OF JUSTICE BY HER PREMIER

NO POST-WAR ECONOMIC WAR

No Sense of Revenge or Spirit of Greed Must Over-Ride the Fundamental Principles of Righteousness.

London, Nov. 13.—British Wireless Service.—Premier Lloyd George, in discussing the question of a league of nations before his supporters, said that such a league was more necessary now than ever. The meeting was attended by 200 coalition Liberal peers and commoners. He pointed out that the conditions which prevailed in the Balkans before the war were now affecting practically two-thirds of Europe.

"A large number of small nations have been reborn in Europe," he continued, "and these will require a league of nations to protect them against the covetousness of ambitious and grasping neighbors. In my judgment a league of nations is absolutely essential to permanent peace.

"We shall go to the peace conference to guarantee that a league of nations is a reality. I am one of those who believe that without peace we cannot have progress. A league of nations guarantees peace and guarantees also an all-round reduction of armaments, and that reduction of armaments is a guarantee that you can get rid of conscription here.

No Conscription Anywhere.

"Of course, we must have in this country that efficient army to police the empire, but I am looking forward to a condition of things with the existence of a league of nations, under which conscription will not be necessary in any country.

"One of the principal issues at the forthcoming general election will be the nature of the peace settlement," said the premier. "It will mean the settlement of the world."

"What are the principles on which that settlement is to be effected?" he asked. "Are we to lapse back into the old national rivalries, animosities and competitive armaments, or are we to initiate the reign on earth of the Prince of Peace? It is the duty of Liberalism to use its influence to insure that there shall be a reign of peace.

Conditions Must Be Just.

"What are the conditions of peace? They must lead to a settlement which shall be fundamentally just. No settlement that contravenes the principles of eternal justice will be a permanent one. The peace of 1871 imposed by Germany on France outraged all the principles of justice and fair play. Let us be warned by that example.

"We must not allow any sense of revenge, any spirit of greed, any grasping desire to override the fundamental principles of righteousness. Vigorous attempts will be made to hector and bully the Government in an endeavor to make them depart from the strict principles of right and to satisfy some base, sordid, squalid ideas of vengeance and of avarice. We must relentlessly set our faces against that.

"The mandate of this Government at the forthcoming election will mean that the British delegation to the peace congress will be in favor of a just peace."

To Further Reforms.

Lloyd George outlined his reconstruction policy, saying the victory must be utilized as an impetus to reforms. A great rehousing program was necessary, the hours of labor must be reduced, a minimum wage introduced, and production increased through land reform.

The prime minister also foreshadowed a large development in transport, and said that there was value in the prevailing revolutionary spirit, if wisely directed. It must be combatted by national unity, co-operation and sacrifice. He feared neither revolution no Bolshevism, but reaction and dissension. Mere party considerations were unseemly. He wanted a united government representing all parties.

No Economic War.

In regard to free trade, Lloyd George said that he did not propose to go as far as the Paris resolution. The third of President Wilson's points prevented any idea of a post-war economic war. Irish home rule was essential, but there must be no coercion of Northeastern Ulster.

The premier concluded by stating that the watchword of the Government was progress. He must have the support of Liberals.

The meeting unanimously pledged support to Lloyd George and the coalition government during the period of reconstruction.

The premier received a remarkable ovation.

A meeting of the Unionist party today voted confidence in Chancellor Bonar Law after the latter had announced that he proposed, recommending the continuation of the present coalition government.

CITY BREVITIES

HAS INFLUENZA.—Pte. James W. Boniface, whose wife resides at 211 Wellington street, is reported to have influenza in No. 14 Field Ambulance quarters.

PERMITS TOTAL $12,140.—Building permits up to date total $12,140, according to the records in Building Inspector A. M. Piper's office. This sum represents fifteen permits, most of these for small amounts.

AN EASY DAY.—Three lonely drunks occupied the prisoners' box in police court today. Two were fined $10 and costs, while the third, Arthur Foster, paid $200 for consuming part of a six-ounce bottle of whiskey in the Grand Cafe last night.

TO DISCUSS SCHEDULES. — The question of schedules, which was to have been taken up at the meeting of No. 1 committee last night, was laid over until the special meeting of tonight. There is some doubt as to whether the increased fares to Port Stanley will be considered, as Sir Adam Beck may not be able to be present.

SUFFERED SCALP INJURY.—Struck on the head by some material which fell from the top of a car at the G. T. R. carships this afternoon, Alfred Osborne of 155 Rectory street, and employee of the shops, received a scalp wound, but it was not serious. Dr. F. B. Clegg attended to his injuries and closed the wound with a few stitches. It is anticipated that he will be able to return to work on Friday.

SICK HEADACHE AND CONSTIPATION

CURED BY

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive, the bowels become constipated, the tongue becomes coated, the breath bad, and the stomach all out of order.

Then come those terrible sick headaches. They take out every bit of life and ambition, bring on depression, and often end in complete mental and physical prostration.

To keep the liver active, and your bowels moving regularly is the only way to get rid of the constipation and the distressing sick headaches. Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will do this for you by stimulating the sluggish liver into manufacturing sufficient bile to act properly on the bowels, thus making them active and regular.

Mrs. Winslow McKay, Jordan Branch, N. S., writes: "I have been sick for a number of years with sick headache and constipation. I tried all kinds of doctors' medicines, but none did me any good. I tried Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and after using four vials I am completely cured. I would heartily recommend them to all sufferers."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are small and easy to take; and do not gripe, weaken or sicken as so many pills do. Price 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

STOP DANDRUFF! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Girls! Draw a cloth through your hair and double its beauty.

Spend a few cents! Dandruff vanishes and hair stops coming out.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff, is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed, and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will, you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

MUNITION WORK TO SLOW DOWN GRADUALLY NOW IS INSTRUCTION

Will Give Workers Chance To Obtain Other Employment.

From now on, there will be a gradual reduction in the quantity of munitions turned out by local factories, and a gradual reduction in the staffs of munitions workers until the middle of December. No definite date has been fixed yet for shutting down the manufacture of munitions entirely in Canada. Instructions received today from the Imperial Munitions Board by W. R. S. Careless, inspector of shells, in charge of the London district, advise the gradual reduction in order that people employed on munitions work may be given time to be absorbed into other industries or occupations, and that raw materials on hand may be utilized. "The idea is to prevent hardship and unemployment through the cutting off of the essentially war industry.

"All instructions are based on these lines, 'the terms of the armistice make it improbable that any further quantity of shells will be required,'" stated Mr. Careless today. He added the information that the instructions cover all sizes and types of shells, 6-inch Howitzers, 4.5 Howitzers and 18-pounder shrapnel. His inspectorate covers London, Woodstock, Ingersoll, St. Thomas and Galt.

HAS TUBERCULOSIS, BUT IS UNABLE TO PAY HIS INSURANCE

Pitiable Condition of Veteran With Large Family.

Facing death from consumption, and with his wife and five little children depending on him, one of London's returned heroes will have to drop the one method by which he could provide for his loved ones after he leaves them, because he cannot keep up the payments on his insurance policy. To make matters worse, the house where he has lived for some time, and where his family kept the home fires burning while he was overseas, has been sold, and he has to move. The insurance premium has to be met this month or the policy will lapse, and he does not know what to do.

This is one of the cases that City Treasurer James S. Bell has discovered during the last few days since he has been looking up the soldiers whom the city insured. Each one will have the option of keeping up the insurance by paying the premium, which in this case amounts to about twenty dollars per year. Letters have been sent to all the men who have returned, telling them of this chance, but few have responded, and the city treasurer is endeavoring to see them all personally before the policies are allowed to lapse.

Mayor C. R. Somerville, when the case was brought to his attention this morning, said that something ought to be done to help the man keep up his insurance.

MAY REFUSE POSITION IN ORDER TO HELP IN RECONSTRUCTION WORK

Thomas M. Goodburne, brother of Joseph Goodburne of The Advertiser linotype staff, county roads engineer in Alpena, Mich., has been elected county drain commissioner of Alpena. Notwithstanding that this is an inviting field of work, it is probable that Mr. Goodburne will refuse to qualify. He was formerly a gunner in the Royal Canadian Artillery, stationed at Fort Frontenac for five years, and it is his intention to go overseas in the capacity of an engineer to assist in reconstruction work in Europe. He has two sons in the Military Acadamy at Delafield, Wis.

SCARLET FEVER STILL HEADS ALL DISEASES

There is still more scarlet fever in the city than any other communicable disease, according to the weekly report issued by the health officer, 24 cases being in isolation, with nine of these at the hospital. However, there was only one new case reported, which speaks well for the care being taken to prevent its spread. Five cases of chickenpox, three of diphtheria, and two of tuberculosis complete the list of new cases. There are now ten cases of chickenpox and thirteen of diphtheria in isolation, making a total of 47 cases of communicable disease isolated in the city, 21 of these being at the hospital.

INFLUENZA HAS NOT YET LEFT THE CITY ENTIRELY

While Spanish influenza in this city is no longer in the epidemic class, new cases are still continuing to develop, indicating that it is unwise to abandon precautions, or to fail to consult a doctor on feeling "all out of sorts."

Victoria Hospital still has 75 patients, five of whom were admitted yesterday. Some of the cases are very serious. Three were discharged yesterday. At St. Joseph's Hospital the number of cases is down to 30, with only one or two in serious condition.

BACK TO SCHOOL NEXT MONDAY, OFFICIAL WORD

After having been closed for over one month the schools of the city will reopen on Monday, November 18. It was decided definitely this morning by the special committee of the board of education that it was safe to open the schools again. On Friday, October 11 the kiddies went home rejoicing in the fact that the following Monday being Thanksgiving Day would be a holiday, but overshadowing this was the thought of Tuesday, when they would return to their tasks. On Monday, however, the board of health met and decided to close all schools, churches and places of public amusement on account of the prevalence of the "flu." This order was printed in all the morning papers of Tuesday, but some of the children had not heard of it, and started out as usual to the schools, only to find them closed, which caused general rejoicing among the kiddies.

NOT MUCH DEMAND FOR COMMISSION'S COAL

The public utilities commission reports that there is no demand at present for soft coal or for buckwheat. The commission has a supply on hand of both, and has announced that it is for sale, but few orders have been received. Manager E. V. Buchanan is inclined to the belief that the fuel situation is not severe, or there would have been more demand for this coal. He is anticipating that when severe weather sets in he will have a sale for the supply.

THE LAST TO GIVE THEIR LIVES.

ONE CANNOT hush the printed word and soften the voice of the newspaper that seeks to carry consolation to those in our community who are sore and heavy of heart. The desire of all is to lay the hands of the comforter upon those bereaved in the war, and especially upon those yet to be bereaved. For, while the last official shot of the war has been fired on the western front, thousands of Canadians died in the last savage death struggles of the German tiger as they rushed into his lair and gave their young breasts to his claws in order that the beast might never again stalk through the world. They fell upon the field of valor in the dying days of the war. Their names have not yet appeared in the casualty lists, and the stupid, if unintentional cruelty inflicted by the militia department when it announced that out of 50,000 Canadian casualties only 15,000 had been reported has added to the suspense and placed an aching uncertainty in the bosoms of tens of thousands of Canadian men and women. These men died far into the captured country. They carried on the cause of Canada to the strong points of the invader, the first to smash the Hindenburg line, the first in Cambrai and Valenciennes, and they won a historic name, perhaps reckoned in sentimental value above all their other deeds, when they swept into storied Mons, the nameplace of the "contemptibles" and, men of the north from a new land, wrote an epic of restoration that thrills the world. The men of the old motherland died lying in shallow trenches, "potting" the massed Huns with eight rounds rapid," then dying with a cheer on their lips. From the far west beyond the Atlantic came a newborn race to take up the torch of the original Tommies. The Canadians have reclaimed the graves of the first heroes of Britain.

Canada, the peace-loving, feels tenderly over the men who made the last sacrifice. Some must have died the day before the blessed peace was written. They fought on to the last moment, active in the war from the memorable days of April, 1915, until November, 1918. Canada would not have had them slacken. Canada knew that they and their mothers and wives and fathers entered the war in the spirit expressed by Kossuth when he said:

> "I am a man of peace. God knows how I love peace; but I hope I shall never be such a coward as to mistake oppression for peace."

The country feels for those who are yet to receive the fateful messages, and every celebration will be restrained because of the unknown dead who are not today mourned, but must be added to the lists ere the Dominion's contribution to liberty has been paid in full, even while the air is full of joyful sounds.

EXIT THE HAPSBURGS.

WITH A THRONE toppling every other day the report that the Emperor of Austria has abdicated fails to thrill or amaze. Abdications have become rather boresome occurrences that interest less than Mary Pickford's latest. It has been evident for some time that the Hapsburgs were through. Finis was written to their reign when the once great empire split up into half a dozen democracies. Karl in going does not cut such a sorry figure as the ex-Emperor of Germany. He seems to have been sincerely anxious to save his own and other peoples from the miseries of a prolonged struggle.

But for the threat which Berlin constantly held over him it is likely that he would have capitulated a year ago. There is evidence to show that he fought against sending his soldiers to the shambles. Coming to the throne after the war has been well started he and his armies were carried along in the wake of the Hohenzollern war chariot. Personally the Austrian monarch is said to be somewhat of the late czar's make-up, preferring the simple life and democratic in his ways, the antithesis of the arrogant and braggart Potsdam gang. As he steps down Karl is rather a pathetic figure, much as was that other victim of Prussian intrigue and ruthlessness, the assassinated Romanoff.

AN UNREVEALED LOVE.

"The Love of an Unknown Soldier," McClelland, Goodchild & Stewart, Toronto.

IF YOU DO NOT read this little jewel of literature that shone out from the muck of a shattered dugout in France, you are going to miss a message of "sweetness and light" that seems one of war's veritable inspirations.

Some of the most wonderful things of life have been revealed in letters. Every once in a while a publisher comes on a correspondence in which one or another of two people, or perhaps both, revealed his or her soul. "The Love of an Unknown Soldier" is this sort of classic. It is a series of letters written by an English officer to an American girl in the Red Cross. He did not believe he should make known his love until his part in the war had been played. He did not know whether or not his feeling was reciprocated in any degree. He had found his one real love in life, and to the woman he wrote his heart impulses, with all the beautiful philosophy of a noble lover, whose bravery of repression was as wonderful as his physical bravery in action. He wrote these letters and placed them aside, to be kept and given her only if he survived.

His light of love for the girl gleamed always, his suffering and pangs of uncertainty were with him through the horror of months and months of dashed-up fighting and physical weariness. He played upon his lute to her, torn by the desire to reveal himself, held back by bravery that conquered his passionate longing to send his letters to her, realizing that he would not survive, and treasuring his affection and his memories of her as the greatest things of life.

There is a man's note all through the letters. His descriptions of life in the line are sometimes brutal, but set down as a background for the finer things that transcend material existence. His dramatic instinct is never lost, and were it not known that the letters were found hidden in a dugout, apparently after the death of their author, one might suspect a literary trick, designed to form, as the publishers call it, "the most intriguing mystery the war has produced." But the intimate note is not sounded after the fashion of posed literature. Such letters have been written by men to women, but rarely, perhaps, have such letters been unsent and unsigned.

Did she ever know? Has she read the letters since the book came out? Has someone used a war situation to perpetrate a hoax? Hoax or not, the letters are worth while. Dead or alive, the author has written a soul story that could only come as close to the heart of the public by its anonymity.

The book will have a wide circulation. It is not poetry, but it comes from a poetic soul. One closes its covers, wondering and saddened, but the sadness is sweetened and the impression is one of having glanced into a sacred document, sacred but human in its spelling of the impulses and yearnings and hopes and doubts that are universal.

WHAT OF THE HOHENZOLLERNS?

THE WORLD convulsion has caused the upsetting of many precedents hoary with age.

Still another of them, that "sacred" tradition that mischief-making royalty can escape physical punishment by exiling itself on neutral soil, may go by the board. Those imperial thugs and murderers, the ex-kaiser and his precious heir, may be brought to trial just like any plebeian criminal. Today the world is distinctly inclined to consider the slaying and torturing of millions as material for a criminal court investigation. A British jury has ruled that the ex-emperor of Germany is responsible for the deaths of English children, victims of a baby raid, and the British people have a "horrid habit" of sticking to it until their point is gained. We may yet see some royal ruffians on the gallows.

But even should the British Government not insist upon the extradition of Wilhelm and his family it is unlikely that they will be permitted to reside in Holland. That is too close to the Fatherland, where there might be continuous intrigue with the object of restoring the monarchy. It is safe to assume that the Entente powers will place the Hohenzollerns where they will be helpless to hamper the building up of a democratic Europe. The Hague would no doubt take their departure as a good riddance of bad rubbish. Anyway it's no place for the ex-crown prince, whose carousing tendencies might be aggravated by proximity with the well-known gin factories of Holland.

It is said that the new German Government expects to secure control of the ex-emperor's private fortune. Should it be successful the Hohenzollerns would be beggared. Then the sons would have to go to work. That would be a fearful retribution, a preliminary taste of that torrid region to which Colonel Watterson daily consigns the whole tribe. Still they could do very well for themselves in the democratic workaday world, where everybody is—or should be—rewarded according as he "delivers the goods" once the horror of mixing with the rest of us wears off. The old man's moustache—as it used to be—would fit in handsomely with the villain's part in Uncle Tom's Cabin, while in the clown prince's profile rests a fortune as a sideshow freak. Finally the whole lot of them, high class butchers as they have shown themselves, would always be sure of a good job in the Chicago stockyards.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

And now, Mohammed, it's up to you. Beat it!

Another week or two and that armistice might have been made in Germany.

The Hohenzollerns never expected that foreign armies would keep the watch on the Rhine.

It's going to take Germany longer to build up a decent reputation than it did to build up that army.

Now, if the United States would ride through Mexico, the world would be rid of the other peace disturber.

EXPLANATION DUE.

[Edmonton Bulletin.]

Hon. Messrs. Calder and Carvell warmly deny that the Government has any scheme in mind to sell Dominion lands to the Mennonites. The allegation to that effect was no doubt created by the fact that the Government, just before the Mennonite influx, took authority by order-in-council to sell Dominion lands in blocks of a section or less; and by a previous order-in-council reserved all Dominion lands within a reasonable distance of railways from homestead entry.

KEEP AGREEMENTS.

[Calgary Herald.]

If trades unionism hopes to wax strong and powerful in the land it must foundation its strength upon a recognition of the sacredness and inviolability of its agreements with employers. One must respect that man who keeps his word; one can neither trust nor respect him who breaks it. In encouraging the sympathetic strike move in this city, Alex. Ross and his colleagues are advising union men to treat their agreements with employers as scraps of paper.

"Yes, ma'm," smiled the Clerk. "What size, please?"

"Size three," replied Mrs. Everywoman.

"Just let me measure your foot," said the Clerk, as he began unlacing Mrs. Everywoman's shoe.

"But I told you the size," insisted Mrs. Everywoman. "Size three!"

"Yes, ma'm," replied the Clerk. "But we have four sizes of size three—size three for a size five foot, size three for a size six foot, size three for a size seven foot, and size three for a size eight foot."

"I was in a town where they had some of them," replied Jones, "and most everybody called them jokes."

Our Joe Miller Contest.

Edward T. Dixon claims that the oldest joke is the one about the small boy who was watching his new-born baby brother as the little stranger lay in his mother's arms. "Say, Ma," said the boy, "has he cursed yet?" Cursed?" said his mother. "Why, of course not! Little babies can't even talk, much less curse. Why do you ask a question like that?" "Well," replied the boy, "I heard the preacher say in his sermon last Sunday that Job cursed the day he was born."

ENOCH'S THANKSGIVING.

By S. B. Hackley.

Old Paulina Dotson stood beside the spring welling out from between two bowlders in her yard at the foot of Big Laurel mountain, and sighed lugubriously.

"David's a goin'—a goin' soon!"

"Where's Davy goin'?"

"I didn't know you was around, Abagail Seal!" Pauliny frowned a bit resentfully. "You always did have the softest steppin' pair of feet—for all the world like a cat's!"

"Or a thief's!" muttered the hard-visaged old man sitting near the spring, mending a bridle.

The blooming young girl, looking over the low stone fence, reddened at this covert thrust.

"Davy's goin' to take his $200 railroad tie money and go to the preacher college after Thanksgivin'. I thought he was goin' to marry on it, but he says he aint," went on Pauliny.

"Oh, Pauliny, I wasn't meant for David!" Abagail raised propitiating eyes to the old woman's censuring ones, then they deepened and darkened solemnly. "Folks has got a heap to think about besides marryin' these stirrin' times, Pauliny."

"David knows that," his grandmother drawled defensively; "a-bein' lame is all that's keepin' him from enlistin', but it won't hinder his preachin'."

"Two hundred dollars is a lot of money—I wish I had the half," observed Abby wistfully. "Where does Davy keep it, Pauliny?"

"He's got it in my little beaded sack a-hangin' in the loft. He's afraid of banks."

When the girl was gone the bridle-mender, Cleophas, rebuked Pauliny.

"Laws," Pauliny tossed her head—"Abby's honester than you, Cleophas. You are a-holdin' spite foolishly. Abby's got her woman's right to prefer Enoch Dawn to our Davy!"

Abby, walking with light swiftness through the reddening woods, stopped when she came to a dead poplar that, destitute of limbs and punctured by woodpeckers and ants, hung over the path.

"I'm goin' to axe that poplar!" A cheerful voice sounded behind her, and a sunburned young man lifted her aside out of the way of the leaning tree. 'I't shan't fall on my girl while I'm fightin'! Yes, I'm goin', Abby. Something in me says: 'Enoch, don't stay here takin' it easy makin' excuse your mammy's got but you.'"

She raised glowing eyes. "Oh, Enoch, I couldn't stand it if you didn't want to go! But I—Oh, Enoch, you might not come back."

Enoch kissed her paling cheek.

"There's worse things could happen us, honey."

"I know," she whispered; "sin brings folks the worst griefs."

"I'm not goin' to enlist until Thanksgivin' day, three weeks yet," the boy said presently; "I've got to get the corn in and leave things in shape for winter first for mammy."

The next morning when Enoch met Abby in the woodland path and bent joyously over her she seemed scarcely to sense that he was kissing her.

"My silver breastpin you gave me is gone," she told him nervously. "I could not find it anywhere this mornin'. I'm afraid losin' it'll bring us bad luck!"

"Let's walk as far as Cleophas Dotson's and look for it," Enoch suggested.

"I wasn't in Pauliny's yard yesterday," she demurred fretfully as they walked along, "I don't want to go there, Enoch."

Pauliny ran out to meet them, her eyes wide with excitement. "David's money's gone! Stolen!"

Enoch felt Abby's fingers sink into the flesh of his arm. Then David came out, corroborating his mother's story.

"And nobody knew I kept the money in the loft!" he observed mournfully.

"Only Abby!" old Cleophas muttered. "Pauliny told her but jest yesterday."

"Here's the ladder settin' outside the window just like it's been all summer," David went on.

"Yes, and them that climbed that ladder and stole that hard-earned money ought to be made to suffer, be it man or woman!" Cleophas remarked, and Enoch felt that he knew what was in his suspicious old brain. Then, in the grass at the foot of the ladder, his troubled eyes fell on Abby's brooch. When his heart began to beat again, he set a cautious foot over the pin, and, unobserved, stooped and transferred the trinket to his pocket.

"I wish I could know where my pin is!" she murmured on their way home. Enoch's hand, pressing his breast pocket, felt the uncomfortable roughness of the brooch within, but he grew cold at thought of restoring it to her. Had Abby been tempted to take David's money? He recalled that she had been unaccountably disturbed and troubled over the trivial loss of the brooch, and she had not wanted to go in the direction of Pauliny's to look for it.

Enoch knew that, once he were gone, leaving Abby with no men folk to defend her, old Cleophas would not hesitate to accuse her. But if he stayed, the cowardly old man would not make trouble. Could he stop his ears to the call of the flag and stay behind with Abby?"

For three weeks Enoch worked and suffered. Two days before Thanksgiving Day, the day he had set to present himself for enlistment, he met Bate Owens, a neighbor lad.

"Cleophas says he believes he knows who got Davy's $200," he remarked, "and wind and weather permittin', he's goin' uptown Saturday and notify the sheriff. Who do you reckon the old cuss has fastened it on, Enoch?"

Enoch shook his head, but when Bate left him, he sank on the fallen leaves and raised beseeching eyes to the November sky.

"Hear me, Lord!" he cried. "If she—if my girl never done that wrong, send me a sign, and forgive me for thinking she might have! And if she did sin, show me what to do between now and Thursday!"

A woodpecker, tapping on the dead poplar, scolded fiercely as a crow lighted on the top. Enoch rose wearily and went to the Seal place.

"Bring me the axe, honey," he requested Abby. "I'm goin' to cut the old poplar. I was about to forget it, and I'm goin' day after tomorrow—at least I ought to. Stand out of the way now."

Presently Enoch, examining the fallen tree's top, gave a joyous cry. On the ground lay some red string, a door key, a safetypin and Pauliny Dotson's little red and yellow beaded pouch.

Enoch opened the bag and took out David's four fifty-dollar bills. "I saw a crow fly up there—a tame one, I reckon. He must have had a habit of goin' in houses around here, and he fancied the bead's on Pauliny's pocketbook."

"Your worried look's gone, Enoch!"

He threw his arms about her and held her so close she could scarcely breathe.

"Oh, Abby!" he cried, "that little worry pressed me hard, but it's gone now forever!"

When he was alone again in the wood, he fell on his knees by the felled dead tree.

"O God!" he cried out, "day after tomorrow is the world's Thanksgiving Day—but today is mine, today is mine, blessed God!"

WHY STAY FAT?
YOU CAN REDUCE

The answer of most fat people is that it is too hard, too troublesome and too dangerous to force the weight down. However, in Marmola Prescription Tablets, all these difficulties are overcome. They are absolutely harmless, entail no dieting or exercise, and have the added advantage of cheapness. A large case is sold by druggists at 75c. Or if preferable they can be obtained by sending price direct to the Marmola Company, 864 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Mich. Now that you know this, you have no excuse for being too fat, but can reduce two, three or four pounds a week without fear of bad after-effects.

"To the Delegates of the Peace Conference"

O, that your hearts be both loyal and true
O, that your vision be keen,
Ye, with a task more stupendous to do,
Than ever the world has seen.

Out of a world of chaotic unrest,
Yours now to form and to plan;
National destinies hang on your will—
The future contentment of man.

Let righteousness lead ye as never before,
Hatred and enmity cease;
So the finger of Hist'ry write of your work,
That here dawned a CENTURY'S PEACE.

THINK IT OVER

When things look blue,
As they sometimes do;
When you hit Fate's line and you can't break through;
When the dark is deep
Where the shadows creep,
And ghosts of trouble break up your sleep.
How would you like to trade your hand
Facing the German host.

With the Fellow Out There in No Man's Land,
Hooked to the Listening Post?
How would you like to trade your job,
Swapping it wrench for wrench,
With the fellow feeling the big gun's throb
Out in the front line trench?

When things get tough,
Where the break is rough,
And you slip and skid as they call your bluff;
When you're out of gear,
Where the world looks drear
And you curse your luck with a sigh or tear—

How would you like to make a trade,
Swapping your troubles dire,
With the fellow storming a barricade,
Raked with machine gun's fire?
How would you like to trade your turn,
Making an even swap,
With the fellow watching the rockets burn
At the last call—"Over the Top"?

PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

SEIZE THE OPPORTUNITY YOU WOMEN OF CANADA!

A selfish, grasping yesterday,
He purifies with fire, today,
Evolving in a mold of sorrow,
A purer, fairer day, tomorrow.

We are close upon the dawn of tomorrow, women of Canada. Today, with all its depression, sorrow and pain, is fast drawing to a close. The bloody sun of war, which for four long years has painted the sky red, carrying in its trail storm clouds and hurricanes, has set, and only the twilight of remembrance remains, when wounds as yet too fresh for healing, burn, and hate still rankles in the Victor's heart. A little time in which to learn mercy and forgiveness yet remains, before the sun of peace shall rise to pour its glory upon a great tomorrow.

As we wait in the "between," do we, the women of Canada, realize that someone, somewhere, is molding the day that is to come? Shall our war-weary souls sleep through the obscurity of the night, which like a mist hides the day that is to come, allowing others, more wide-awake than we, to mold our destinies along the lines of selfishness and materialism, merely turning us back to yesterday, and making us forget the lessons learned in today's mighty conflict? Or rather shall we, like wise virgins, keep our lamps filled with oil and brightly burning, as we endeavor to pierce through the gloom, and catch a glimpse of what will teach our minds and hands to move in the right direction, so that when the day dawns it shall be truly ours, a day not coldly materialistic, but full of "the light that never was on land or sea."

Tomorrow is peculiarly ours. The period before the war was the outgrowth of generations past, and we were flung into its materialism and egotism like helpless chips in a mountain stream. But today we have won our majority, working all together to dam back a viler stream of militarism, and if we will, we may regulate the waters which are to flow into the great river of tomorrow.

Women of Canada, shall we lose this opportunity?—THE EDITOR.

The Adventures of the Little People of the Great Forest.

THE BEAVERS CARE FOR THE RESCUED.

When the Beavers had paddled their lifeboats to shore on Mirror Pond, they helped every little neighbor into the house. You see, the little folks had had an awful fright, and they had had nothing to eat, and their little stomachs were very empty.

When Dick Otter got out of Father Beaver's lifeboat, he said to Benny Mink, who was in the same boat: "Benny Mink, lend me your jack-knife."

And Benny Mink asked: "What on earth do you want with my jack-knife at such a time as this?"

And Dick Otter answered sadly: "Benny, my stomach is so empty that I must take in my belt a few holes." So Benny Mink lent him his jack-knife. You know, Benny Mink has a sharper jack-knife than any boy you ever saw, for his long, sharp front teeth beat any jack-knife in the world. Why, Benny Mink could cut down a little tree with his jack-knife while a boy was cutting off a broomstick with his jack-knife.

Dick Otter was certainly a funny sight after Benny Mink cut more holes in his belt, and he had buckled his belt tight around his waist. Why, he looked as if he could break in two in the middle; and Benny Mink was tickled into fine bits, and said: "Why, Dick Otter, you look as if you'd never had a mouthful to eat in all your life; and I guess it will take all the fish in Murmuring Brook to fill you up."

Well, the Beavers finally got every little neighbor to his home, and each one was wrapped up warm in his own bed. And then the Beavers started to get them some food. You see, the Little People of Mirror Pond were so weak after their terrible experience in the mire, and after they were almost drowned by the rising water, that they couldn't even walk into their own houses, and so the Beavers had to carry them in and put them to bed. And the Beavers looked into the pantry to find some food, but they didn't find a bite. Every house was like Mother Hubbard's pantry. You remember that:

"Old Mother Hubbard went to the cupboard,
To get her poor dog a bone,
But when she got there the cupboard was bare,
And so her poor dog had none."

"Now," said Father Beaver to Benny Mink and his family, "I will send right over to my house and get a lot of food for your whole family." "Many thanks," replied Benny Mink's father, "but we are so weak that we couldn't digest the food you eat. What food have you in your house that you could bring us." Now you know a big joke is coming about that food.

The Beavers had to carry them in any put them to bed.

SUGGESTIVE READINGS ON THE UNIFORM LESSON FOR SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1918.

ONE GOLDEN TEXT SUGGESTION. By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.

Jacob Fleeing From His Angry Brother.—Genesis, xxviii., 10-22.

QUESTIONS FOR TODAY.

12. Verse 15—To whom does God promise to be a companion and a protector in these days, and how much practical dependence may we place upon the promise?

13. Does God give sinners, as well as saints, necessary things, so far as they will permit him to do so? Why or why not?

14. Verses 16-17—Should we place any dependence upon anything which we may think God tells us in our sleep? Why?

Golden Text: He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us after our iniquities.—Psalms, ciii., 10.

THE NATURAL FRUIT OF SIN IS SORROW.

"Whatsoever a man soweth, that also shall he reap," is truth both in the vegetable kingdom and in the spiritual kingdom. Whoever sins necessarily suffers. Sinning is the pathway of sorrow, and the road to destruction; it entails misery upon the sinner, and upon the sinner's relatives and companions, and yet the moment he turns from his sins, and seeks reconciliation with God, there is a supernatural law which intervenes, which counteracts the natural law of cause and effect. I would not say that the evil influence caused by man's sins are all counteracted, as I fear that would not be true; but it is gloriously true so far as the man himself is concerned. His sorrows are things of the past, and his day of joy has come.

A number of the members of the Cairo Tipperary Lassies' Club met at the home of the president, Miss Jessie Furgeson, for the purpose of packing boxes to send to the boys overseas, and boxes were sent to the following boys: Ptes. Roland Moorhouse, Samuel Burcombe, Oliver Watson, T. Durant, Clifford McLean and C. Copeland, and Cadet Kelso Annette.

KERWOOD W. I.

The Woman's Institute forwarded the following articles to Hyman Hall: 75 pairs socks, 31 flannel shirts, 59 suits pyjamas, 32 towels, 2 facecloths and 64 head bandages. They also sent 24 boxes of Christmas cheer valued at $59 to boys overseas. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mills on November 20.

MOLESWORTH W. I.

Although prevented from holding their regular meetings on account of the influenza, the members have had a very busy month. Two pigs were donated to the society by Robert McIntosh to raise money for Christmas boxes for soldier boys, and by much hustling over $100 was realized from them. Miss Marion Allan and Miss Edna Smith winning the pigs. Twenty-three boxes of "eats" were packed and sent off, as well as parcels containing two flannel shirts and a pair of socks to each boy.

BURGESSVILLE W. I. TO HOLD BAZAAR.

The Women's Institute shipped 30 Christmas boxes to the boys overseas. Their annual Red Cross bazaar will be held the first week in December.

The first regular meeting of the London Conservatory Alumni will be held at Conservatory Hall on Monday, November 18. At this opening meeting supper will be served at 7 o'clock, to be followed by speeches by the honorary president, Mr. F. L. Willgoose; the president, Mr. Charles Percy, and the honorary vice-president, Miss Georgia M. Newbury. There will also be a short musical program.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in Watford on Tuesday, November 12, when Edna Irene Scoffin, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Scoffin, was united in marriage to Frederick P. Graham, son of Mrs. George Graham. The bride was attired in a navy traveling suit, with hat to match and corsage bouquet. After the ceremony, performed by Rev. A. C. Tiffen, Mr. and Mrs. Graham left for eastern points. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm at Warwick.

The wedding was solemnized on Tuesday afternoon of Miss Eva Irene Baskette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baskette, 87 Cartwright street, to William E. Holland, both of this city. The bride was prettily gowned in white duchess satin with overdress of georgette trimmed with pearls, and carried a bouquet of roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Bingham under a huge canopy of lilies. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and her bridesmaid was Lila Baskette, who wore pink taffeta with black picture hat. Harry Baskette of Niagara Falls was best man, and Mrs. Facey of Belton played the wedding march. After a reception, Mr. and Mrs. Holland left on a wedding trip to Toronto and Montreal. On their return they will reside at 61 Stanley street. The groom's gift to the bride was an onyx ring set with diamonds, to the bridesmaid a pearl ring, to the best man a tie pin and to the pianist a pearl bar pin.

CYNTHIA GREY'S MAIL-BOX

She'd Exhibit "Bill."

Dear Miss Grey,—Have just finished reading your interesting corner and thought if you had room for a stranger I would like to enter. We have taken The Advertiser for some time and like it fine. Kaiser Bill is getting what he deserves now. If I had my way I'd put Bill in a cage and show him at the fall fairs. Pretty tough, eh?

Now, Miss Grey, I would like to know the meaning of the following names and then I'll stop: Gladys, Annie and Grace. Would like some girl correspondents. I am 18 years old and attended high school for two years. I would also write to a lonely if you send me one. I will sign myself

VICTORY.

Ans.—You are very welcome to be a correspondent e'en tho' you give evidence of such a terrible disposition—where "Bill" is concerned. The name Gladys has the same derivation as Claudius, which signifies "lame;" Annie means "grace," and Grace means "favor." Who wishes to correspond with Victory?

Homemaker's Friend's Method.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am inclosing a stamped envelope for Homemaker's Friend, who wishes to give me her method of washing. Thanking you for your kindness and also Homemaker for her trouble.

SLOW BUT SURE.

Ans.—I am very glad to forward the letter from Homemaker's Friend and hope that her method may help you to lessen wash-day drudgery.

One of Our Reciters.

Dear Miss Grey,—I saw in your columns not long ago where someone asked for a recitation book and you said you would tell her where to get it if she sent you her address, so I am going to send my address and would like to have you send it to me, too. I would like you to please inclose also, Peg's address, as I see she wishes for some recitations from me.

Will try and help some other time when I am not so busy.

UNION JACK.

Ans.—The address is sent you, and I hope you may like the book if you get one. Sometime you must say a piece for us. Won't you, now? Peg's address is also inclosed in your envelope.

Glad To Adopt One.

Dear Miss Grey,—In exchange for this roll jellycake recipe, will you please send me a lonely soldier's address? I have no relatives at the front, so would be glad to adopt one to send boxes to. Please send it as soon as possible so I can mail him a Christmas box.

The recipe is the one I use all the time, and have fine success. It may also be used for a layer cake. Best of wishes,

SIS.

Jelly Roll—Two eggs, 1 cup sugar, 1-2 cup milk, 1 cup flour, 1 1-2 teaspoonsful baking powder, 1-4 teaspoonful salt, 1-4 teaspoonful extract. Beat yolces of eggs until lemon colored, add half the sugar gradually, and continue beating. Add milk and remaining sugar, flavoring, whites of eggs beaten stiff, flour, baking powder and salt mixed. Bake twelve minutes in a moderate oven. Remove while hot, turn out on cloth wrung out of cold water. Cut off thin strips from sides and ends of cake. Spread with jelly and roll quickly to prevent cracking.

Ans.—Several names came to hand and I was pleased to be able to send you one. It will reach you before this letter sees print and thus be in sufficient time for a Christmas parcel. Your nice recipe is appreciated.

We Don't Object.

Dear Miss Grey,—I hope you will not care that I have come back so soon. Kindly pass your opinion on my writing. What is the meaning of Janet, Olive, Jessie, Dunc, Lavina, Simon and Thomas? What are Sweetheart coupons?

BONNY JEAN.

Ans.—1. Very neat and readable. 2. Janet means a gift from God, Olive, peace; Jessie, wealth; Duncan, a brown chief; Simon, hearing with acceptance; Thomas, a twin. 3. Coupons given with spices, extracts, etc., of that name.

Thin, Nervous People Need Bitro-Phosphate

What It Is and How It Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force In Two Weeks' Time In Many Instances.

SHOULD BE PRESCRIBED BY EVERY DOCTOR AND USED IN EVERY HOSPITAL.
Says Editor of "Physicians' Who's Who."

Take plain bitro-phosphate as the advice of physicians to thin, delicate, nervous people who lack vim, energy and nerve force, and there seems to be ample proof of the efficacy of this preparation to warrant the recommendation. Moreover, if we judge from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Clinical tests made in St. Catherine's Hospital, N. Y. C., showed that two patients gained in weight 23 and 27 pounds, respectively, through the administration of this organic phosphate; both patients claim they have not felt as strong and well for the past twelve years.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

Physicians and hospitals everywhere are now recognizing its merits by its use in ever-increasing quantities. Frederick Kolle, M.D., editor of New York Physician's "Who's Who," says: "Bitro-Phosphate should be prescribed by every doctor and used in every hospital to increase strength and nerve force and to enrich the blood."

Jos. D. Harrigan, Former Visiting Specialist to Northeastern Dispensatory, says: "Let those who are weak, thin, nervous, anaemic, or rundown, take a natural, unadulterated substance such as bitro-phosphate and you will soon see some astonishing results in the increase of nerve energy, strength of body and mind and power of endurance."

Bitro-Phosphate is made entirely of the organic phosphate compound referred to in the National Standard Dispensatory as being an excellent tonic and nervine and a preparation which has recently acquired considerable reputation in the treatment of neurasthenia. The standard of excellence, strength and purity of its substance is beyond question, for every Bitro-Phosphate tablet is manufactured in strict accordance with the U. S. Pharmacopoeia test requirements. Bitro-Phosphate is therefore not a patent medicine and should not be confused with any of the secret nostrums, so-called tonics or widely advertised "cure-alls."

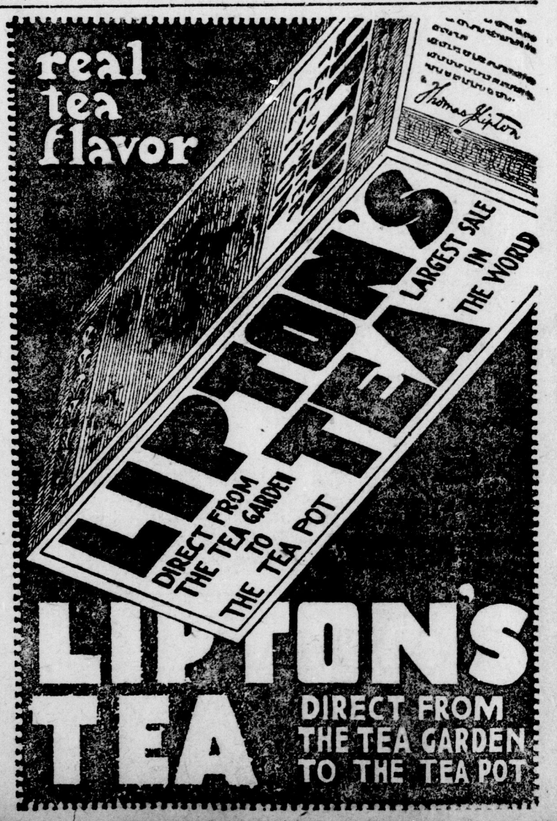

CAUTION.—Although Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties it should not be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.—Advt.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Jack Dempsey has four matches definitely scheduled, and one still on the fire. Three of these will be fought for the United War Work cause. On November 19 he will be in St. Louis, and on the 22nd in Cleveland. His opponents in these contests have not been named as yet.

On December 9 Dempsey is matched to meet Carl Morris in a twenty-round contest in New Orleans. This will take place during the race meeting and is certain to draw a large gate, notwithstanding Jack's knockout of him in Buffalo last winter, and previous four-round victory over him on points in San Francisco some time before.

Jimmy Dougherty is endeavoring to arrange another match for him in Philadelphia. The opponent has not as yet been selected. There is talk of putting Bartley Madden or Billy Miske against him. It is extremely doubtful whether Bartley will consent to meet him. The Miske match is a possibility.

FAST RUGBY GAME

Local Squad Will Hold Signal Practice at Tecumseh Park Today.

London Collegiate plans to take a big part in the annual sports of St. Thomas Collegiate at the Railway City on Friday. Several carloads of students and their friends are expected to go along, and a L. C. I. rooters' club is expected to be among the attractions.

The L. C. I. rugby team will play the St. Thomas team as the leadline attraction of the afternoon, and the L. C. I girls' basketball team will meet the St. Thomas girls in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium after the outdoor sports. A feeling of friendly rivalry prevails among the athletes of the two schools and the games will be hard and fast, for both girls and boys have been working all week to give a good account of themselves in the city built along Talbot street.

Workout Yesterday.

Eleven members of the local rugby team attended the workout held at Tecumseh Park Wednesday afternoon to prepare for the game at St. Thomas on Friday afternoon. The team is in pretty good shape and should give the St. Thomas lads a good fight for the game. Gillies will be missing from the backward division. The line is not as strong as it might be, but nevertheless the locals are confident of winning.

A signal practice will be held at Tecumseh Park this afternoon, and it is likely that a light workout will be held tomorrow afternoon. All members of the team are requested to turn out at the workout today.

STRATFORD WILL HAVE FAST HOCKEY TEAMS

STRATFORD, Ont., Nov. 12.—Enthusiasm is running high in hockey circles here, and it is thought that Stratford will regain her place on the hockey map of Ontario. A junior team will be entered in the O. H. A. and likely in the Northern League, of which the Midgets have seen junior champions for the past two years.

There is abundance of material this year, all experienced men, who should give good account of themselves. "Toad" Edmunds, one of the best hockey players ever developed in the Classic City, will coach the lads.

Four of last year's team are available for use this year. Two wing men, Thorne and Lavelle, and centre Moreau and left defence Zebach. Kelterborne and Berger, two of last year's Kitchener Union Jacks, are here, as is Wally Young of Owen Sound, for goal. H. Baechler of last year's Goderich O. H. A. team, has been secured to take Malone's place, Malone having enlisted.

Challenges has been sent in by Secretary Denroche to De la Salle for the Christmas tree series to be played at Toronto arena, and local kids are getting in shape right away to be able to step in bladed boots fit for a stiff game.

GREAT REVIVAL OF ATHLETICS IS ANTICIPATED FOR FUTURE

Dominion Boys Will Take Big Part in Sports When Troops Return — Sport Boom Expected All Over the World.

Like the make-shift, grabbed-together, last-minute team that is placed on the rugby field in the early season against a well-trained team, so did the Allies step into the big game in Flanders in August, 1914. The same make-shift team and the same well-trained teams ended their battling on Monday morning—a day that will live forever in history. Through a period of trying times the make-shift team of 1914 passed until it achieved the height of its power, thanks to the great coaching of Head Coach Foch, and his numerous advisers, says the Toronto Telegram.

The contrast in the armies of the central powers and those of the Allies is shown in the same sport trait of the respective nations. The English, Irish, Scotch, Welsh, Canadians, Australians, Americans, French, Belgians, Italians and other representatives of the Allied countries are men who are never beaten in sport until the final whistle blows. On the other hand the Germans, Austrians, Bulgarians and Turks are of the calibre who talk big when on top, but "crawl into their hole" when the landslide starts.

Sportsmen have played a prominent part in the war of the Allies. Those representatives of Canada who now lie in Flanders' fields have not fought in vain. They went willingly, they fought willingly, and died willingly, in order to make world-wide freedom. Their relations and friends have solace in the fact that the great European struggle—which it must be admitted looked serious on a number of occasions—has brought about an end to the rule of the Hohenzollerns. May the struggle that ended Monday be the final page in the history of world wars.

Sport should boom in Canada, and in fact all over the world. Of the 500,000 Canadians who crossed the Atlantic few of them did not take part in athletic activity of some kind. Before donning the khaki there were many of them to whom sport was a perfect stranger, except so far as the standpoint of a spectator goes. They have now learned the full value of outdoor recreation and will be keen to keep up their interest. It is for those now at home to begin at once to provide means of recreation for the boys who will soon be coming back to the shores of Canada.

Despite the inroads of enlistments that took the cream of the sporting talent from Canada, the sporting fraternity at home have carried on splendidly. There were a few objectors, who expressed the opinion that sport should cease while the war was on, but these were only people who had never taken an interest in sport. The rugby, lacrosse, soccer, hockey and other unions have paid particular attention to the younger fellows, and there will be many new faces when the senior activities are renewed once more.

In rugby the O. R. F. U. is the only provincial union that has carried on. A senior patriotic series has been operated, but most of the attention has been given to the series under twenty years of age and to the inter-scholastic section. Next fall should see the regular senior series back in running order. The Inter-provincial Union, too, is pretty sure to oil the machinery once more, while the Inter-collegiate Union, with Toronto, Queen's and McGill, are certain to renew their oldtime struggles that have been sorely missed by the rugby fans.

Hockey will be the first of the sports to realize from the ending of the war. While it is true that all the soldiers in France will not be home before the winter is over, many of them will have returned, while many of those quartered in the various camps throughout the Dominion will be discharged. The O. H. A. has a rule that men in khaki may play where they take up their residence, and this will not prevent players now quartered in cities from returning to their home towns. It will mean that many military teams that had been planned will now be unable to go through. While these teams will be lost, it will mean that many towns that had planned to remain inactive this winter will get into the game owing to players coming back.

TWO MINOR LEAGUES LIKELY NEXT YEAR

National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues in Session at Peoria.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 13.—The baseball outlook for 1919, as viewed by the members of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues in session here, is extremely hazy. Intimations were given today by some of the members that no concerted action concerning schedules would be made by the association, but that each league would be left to settle its own particular problems.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—According to a special dispatch from Peoria to the Daily News, members attending the baseball convention in Peoria are discussing the formation of two leagues, to include cities in the International and American Association, with some new clubs added. One proposed league would include Louisville, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Peoria, Kansas City, Des Moines and St. Joseph. The other would take in Baltimore, Toronto, Milwaukee, Buffalo, Newark, Indianapolis, Columbus, and Toledo.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY OWEN SOUND CURLERS

Dr. A. B. Rutherford President and A. F. Batchellor Vice-President.

OWEN SOUND, Nov. 13.—The Owen Sound Curling Club at its annual meeting tonight elected the following officers: Patrons, Judge Sutherland, Judge Widdifield, D. M. Butchart, G. P. Creighton, William Taylor; president, Dr. A. B. Rutherford, vice-president, A. F. Batchellor, secretary-treasurer, J. C. Telford; chaplain, Rev. P. T. Pilkey; auditors, C. W. Niblett; W. H. Smith; representatives to O.C.A., W. H. Wright and Dr. Rutherford. An executive committee of twelve members was chosen and committee for bonspiel and inter-rink competitions, the retiring president, Mr. W. R. Chester, is offering a medal for competition at the points game.

FERGUS CURLERS HOLD 84TH ANNUAL MEETING

FERGUS, Nov. 12.—The 84th annual meeting of the Fergus Curling Club was held in the municipal offices, when the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Patron, Mr. Robert Steele; president, John Graham; vice-president Andrew C. Steele; secretary-treasurer, James H. Steele; chaplain, Rev. M. Kelly; auditors, T. J. Hamilton and R. Kerr.

Executive Committee—A. A. Armstrong, J. B. Bayne and the officers.

Sports Committee—Dr. A. W. Muir, John G. Wilson and B. Kerr.

Tankard Skips—J. B. Bayne and John Graham.

District Cup Skips—J. B. Brown and Lew Sargent.

Representatives to O. A. C.—T. J. Hamilton and James H. Steele.

The financial statement was a most satisfactory one, showing a considerable surplus, which the club agreed to invest in 15-year Victory Bonds, which, with the interest, will be available to celebrate the centenary anniversary sixteen years from the present time, which celebration many of the members hope to see.

This club is the oldest in Ontario and the second oldest in Canada, one in Montreal being a few years older. It seems to improve with age, as it never was stronger or more enthusiastic than at present. Its record is an inspiration to its members.

LONDON CURLING CLUB TO HOLD MEETING FRIDAY

The annual meeting of the London Curling Club will be held at the Jubilee Rink, Lyle street, Friday evening, November 15 at 8 o'clock.

The annual statement will be received and the officers will be elected for the ensuing year. The committee will be elected and the skips appointed.

The secretary of the club requests all the members to be present.

THISTLE EUCHRE MEET TO BE HELD FRIDAY

Handsome Prizes Will Be Given to Winners—Series of Eight Games.

The opening euchre tournament of the Thistle Club will be held Friday evening at the club rooms. This tournament will be the first of the eight which are to be held. Handsome prizes will be given for the first and second winners.

All members of the club are requested to turn out Friday evening and make the starter a record-breaker. It will be some time before the curlers will be able to get on the ice, and in the meantime the euchre meets will be held to bring the members of the club together.

The date for the annual curling meeting has not yet been fixed.

HAS-BEENS DEFEATED W. O. R. THREE TIMES

THE STANDING.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Has-Beens	6	0	1,000
Brunswicks	2	1	.667
Irish Rangers	2	1	.667
Nationals	2	4	.333
Blue Labels	2	4	.333
W. O. R.	1	5	.167

The Has-Beens won three straight games from the W. O. R. in the City Bowling League at the National alleys Wednesday evening. The soldiers fell short on every game. The last game was a close contest, but the Has-Beens won by a 31 point margin. The Has-Beens are now leading the league, and it looks as the team should be named "League Leaders" instead of Has-Beens. M. Smith ran up a score of 587 points in the four games. This was the highest score of the evening.

The Irish Rangers and the Brunswicks play tonight in the City League, and the Tool Makers and Office teams will meet in the Spramotor League.

The teams and scores:

SAFETY RAZOR BLADE SHORTAGE

There is a shortage of over 200,000 dozens of safety razor blades.

So many reports of shortage have been received that the Hardware Age sent telegrams to 30 of the largest and widely distributed hardware houses requesting a report. With the above result. The shortage will probably grow more acute before it is relieved.

It is not a local shortage, but covers practically every town in Canada and United States. And a possibility of big advances in the price of blades. The main reason for this is on account of the high-grade steel required to manufacture blades—costing about $50,000

The Banks will advance you money to buy Victory Bonds on a Twelve Monthly-Payment Plan

How much money did you save last year—$100, $500, perhaps $1,000—and you have it in a savings account all ready, like a prudent patriot—to put into Victory Bonds.

But—just a moment:

If you saved $100 or $500 or $1,000 last year, how much do you expect to save during the coming twelve months?

You can now capitalize your ability to save and help your country at the same time.

In this way: Any Chartered Bank will give you credit for ninety per cent. of the amount you can save to put into Victory Bonds and the Bank will carry you for a year, charging just the same rate of interest as you get on your bonds—so the interest costs you nothing.

You can pay off your bonds to the bank in monthly instalments and each instalment begins to earn 5½ per cent. for you the moment it is paid.

Step in and see a Banker about it today—it costs nothing to investigate and you take no risk in any event.

What You Can Do to Make Your Memory Dependable

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG,
A. B., M. A., M. D., (Johns Hopkins University.)

DR. HIRSHBERG

A definition which fits many untrained minds can be found in the answer the little child gave when asked what memory is. She promptly replied, "It's what you forget with." It is possible, however, for the ordinary person to train the mind so that it will remember with extraordinary exactness.

Many stilted systems of memory training have proved valueless, as a rule, because of their unnaturalness and artificial training, and because they demanded greater mental capacity than the average. You can easily gain the habit of remembering accurately if you adopt a proper method and stick to it persistently and patiently.

The reason a husband invariably forgets to mail his wife's letters is because of the fact that he does not concentrate his mind on the matter, especially when the missive is given him. Things that are remembered by the average person are those which make a deep impression, and this impression can be depened by associating with the new thought something that is already very familiar and in some way related to it.

Laws of Association.

If, when a wife gives her husband a letter to post, he would say to himself, "I will mail this at the corner where the first letter-box I come to is stattoned," then the very sight of the mail-box when he reached it would recall his errand.

The same rule that applies to the letter is true of more important matters. The idea is to deepen the impression on your mind at the very moment that it enters. This is made possible, not only by concentrating the mind upon the idea itself, but by surrounding it with all possible associations of ideas, so that one will help the other.

The mind is governed by certain so-called laws of association, such as the law that ideas which enter the mind at the same time emerge at the same time, one helping to recall the other.

The difficulty with persons who complain that they can never remember anything two minutes is that they have not concentrated their minds sufficiently on the purpose at the moment when it was formed.

Secret Is Concentration.

It is possible for every person to train the mind to remember by the concentration of attention, the planning of the purpose, and the actual centering of the mind on what is intended. When the habit is well formed the attention is more easily centred, and you soon find that you remember easily. Then your memory is not what you forget with, but a valuable assistant in your every-day work.

When you first begin the method of concentration and association you may have to hesitate a few moments to find a proper associate with your idea, but as time goes on and you follow the plan day in and day out the associate will pop into the mind as readily as the original idea, and you will hardly realize you have been searching for it.

Answers to Health Questions

E. R. Q.—Kindly advise what to do for cataract.

A.—A cataract can be operated upon when it is fully ripe.

F. H. Q.—Kindly advise what to do for my nose, which is sunk in the middle.

A.—Go to the nearest hospital and have an examination made of your nose.

C. D. Q.—Kindly advise me what to do to stop a person from biting his finger nails.

A.—Put some bitter alum on the nails at night.

T. P. Q.—Kindly advise what to do to increase my height.

A.—Take plenty of exercise, such as swimming, horseback riding, stretching, etc.

MRS. A. B. AND D. A.—If you will send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your query repeated I will be glad to answer your questions.

MRS. W. C. Mc. Q.—Please advise what to do for goitre.

A.—There are various kinds of goitre. Some require no treatment, but most of them require an operation, which is the only cure. They are seldom inherited and their cause is not known.

C. C. S. Q.—Kindly advise what to do for a pain in my knees.

A.—Very likely there is a slightly torn tendon in the joint which requires a slight operation by an orthopedic surgeon.

LILLIAN R. Q.—Kindly advise what to use for dandruff.

A.—Apply a little of the following to your hair about three times a week.

Sulphur	1 dram
Resorcin	10 grains
Salicylic acid	10 grains
Sulphate of quinine	10 grains
Petrolatum	1 ounce

G. M. C. A.—If you will send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your query repeated I will be glad to answer your questions.

G. C. U. Q.—Please advise how to gain weight.

A.—Your weight may be increased by ten to twelve hours' sleep in a well ventilated room by eating sugars, butter, starches, puddings, fatty meats, rich soups and gravies. You must drink lots of water and milk. Take little exercise, but be in the open air and sunlight just as much as possible. Keep the intestines open and active.

2 YEARS AGO

A rash broke out on my hands and the doctor told me it was eczema." So writes Mrs. McDonald, of Oyster Ponds, N.S. She adds: "In spite of the doctor's treatment bad sores appeared, which gradually spread more and more. Finding that the doctor's treatment did me no good, I turned to various so-called remedies, but I met with no relief.

"Knowing how terribly serious eczema is and how it will sometimes defy all treatment for years, I became almost discouraged. This was my state when I read about Zam-Buk and decided to give it a trial. By the time I had used one box the eczema was not so bad. The inflammation and the irritation were subsiding. Naturally I persevered with Zam-Buk, and as I did so the disease was gradually overcome. Day by day the sores got less and less and, to my delight, the disease was finally driven out entirely. It seemed almost too good to be true and I feared the eczema might break out again, so I waited several months to make sure that I was permanently cured. I am; and Zam-Buk deserves all the praise."

If you are suffering with eczema, eruptions, blood-poisoning or any skin disease, don't delay, but apply

Good Night Stories

TOMMY AND THE TRAMP DOG.

One day as Tommy was on his way to school he spied a poor dog crouching in the fence corner.

"Get out of here!" cried Tommy. Picking up a stone, he was about to throw it, when something caught his hand and held it tightly.

"I don't believe I'd throw the stone," said a merry voice, and Tommy turned to see Squeedee, his little elfin friend from Joyland, smiling at him. "He isn't harming you, is he?"

"It's not my dog!" exclaimed Tommy. "He's been hanging around here for a long time. Guess he's a tramp from the looks of his dirty coat."

"Then all the more reason you should be kind to him," said Squeedee. "Perhaps he belongs to some other little boy and he's lost. You wouldn't want other little boys throwing stones at your doggie, would you?"

"But he don't belong to any of the boys," replied Tommy. "The boys all tie cans to his tail to see him run. He can certainly go fast."

"Guess your dog would run fast if the boys mistreated him, too," laughed Squeedee.

"I'll not let them!" exclaimed Tommy.

"Nor should you let them tease this poor fellow," replied Squeedee, calling the shivering dog to his side. "He's cold and probably hungry, and you want to stone him. How would you like to be treated that way every time you asked your mamma for a slice of bread?"

Tommy looked at the poor, shivering dog and opened his box of lunch and held out a big sandwich, which the hungry creature devoured greedily and begged for more.

"Why Didn't I Think of That Before?"

Tommy fed him all his lunch and the dog licked his hand and wagged his tail until he nearly wagged it off.

"Now, if you had tied a can to his tail he couldn't thank you," laughed Squeedee. "A dog's tail is his only way of expressing his joy, love and gratitude. He's trying to thank you for the good lunch you gave him."

"Poor fellow, I'm sorry I stoned you," exclaimed Tommy, patting the shaggy head. "If I didn't have a dog of my own I'd take you home with me."

"I know!" cried Squeedee with a merry twinkle in his eyes. "Old Granny Grey lives all alone with her cow and chickens. Maybe she would take him."

"Why didn't I think of that before?" laughed Tommy. "Granny's been wanting a dog for a long time. Let's take him down there." And away they ran to Granny Grey's house, the poor dog trotting at their heels.

Tommy took the dog in and asked Granny Grey if she would like to have him, and Granny Grey was so glad she gave Tommy a pocketful of cookies, which he divided with Squeedee, who waited for him at the gate.

"I'm glad he has a home!" laughed Tommy, "for I'd hate to see my doggie lost."

"Well, little fellow," said Squeedee, "if you'll always stop and place your pet or yourself in the other fellow's place you'll soon grow kinder to dumb animals. Dogs are man's best friends." Before Tommy could blink his eyes Squeedee had disappeared.

"Squeedee's right!" laughed Tommy to himself, "and I'll tell the other boys," and, sticking his cookies in his pockets, Tommy ran on to school.

To-morrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15.

Some rather peculiar events and situations are indicated by this day's planetary figures. Neptune, the planet of the unique, eccentric, mystical and perplexing, is operating strongly, in aspect with Mercury, Mars and Luna. From this the mind, as well as the emotions and sensations, will act in peculiar or erratic ways, though not necessarily with detrimental results. On the contrary, benefits may arise from these singular operations—which might be expressed through premonition, mediumship or psychic insight or through a burst of genius, inspiration or illumination. There may be much activity in business as well as in mental pursuits, though the financial prospects are not encouraging. Jupiter being unfriendly. Important changes are perhaps inadvisable.

Those whose birthday it is will have an active year, but must protect and cherish their money.

A child born on this day will be peculiarly endowed and may attain celebrity through psychic gifts. It will have good abilities and advanced views, but must be taught the value of money.

It will be found less easy to uproot faults than to choke them by gaining virtues. Do not think of your faults, still less of others' faults; in every person who comes near you look for what is good and strong; honor that, rejoice in it, and, as you can, try to imitate it, and your faults will drop off like dead leaves when their time comes.

D. L. B., London, Ont. Q.—Kindly advise what to do for tuberculosis.

A.—Tuberculosis may be present without a cough. The symptoms are loss of weight, little fever or subnormal temperature, low blood pressure, and other things apparent to a skillful diagnostician. The fever is high when it is 99 or over. This condition may be present without any germs in the sputum. An incipient case of this disease is one that can get well with sunlight, outdoor life, and sanatorium treatment.

Believe in yourself; believe in humanity; believe in the success of your undertaking. Fear nothing and no one. Love your work. Work, hope, trust. Keep in touch with today. Teach yourself to be practical and up-to-date and sensible. You cannot fail.

MY SOLDIER HUSBAND

ADELE GARRISON'S CONTINUATION OF

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

Why Lillian Found It Necessary To Tell Madge What She Believed About the E. Stern Checks.

"Take this pencil," Lillian said curtly, as she looked up from Dicky's cancelled checks which she had been ruffing through her fingers. "Please put down names and dates as I give them to you."

She handed me the pencil and her tiny notebook, open at a vacant page, and for the next few moments read rapidly and steadily the indorsements on those of Dicky's cancelled checks which bore the name of "E. Stern."

"No use bothering with the others," she said before commencing the category. "It's in these the key to the whole business lies."

Her voice departed from its steady jog trot only once.

"Check for Jan. 14," she intoned monotonously. "Indorsed by E. Stern, then by——"

She hesitated for a second.

"Second indorsement blurred," she muttered hurriedly as I looked up inquiringly, "but I can make it out. It is Brown, R. Brown."

"Are you sure it isn't Rita Brown?" I asked quietly.

Lillian stared at me.

"Yes, it is," she admitted, "but what do you know about Rita Brown?"

Out of the Past.

"Very little, I am afraid," I admitted. "My remark was the most random of shots. But I had the name of Rita Brown very vividly impressed upon my mind on one occasion, and so, when you——"

"When I tried to cover up my own recognition of it your memory naturally filled the gap," she commented grimly. "Now, if you'll just oblige me with all your knowledge, no matter how slight, of Rita Brown?"

I told her, briefly, of the evening when the art student characterized by Dicky as "a former East Side product who would some time make her thousands a year as an illustrator" had accompanied the Fairfax girls to the same restaurant at which the Durkees, Dicky and I had been dining. And, with cheeks that burned again at the memory of the humiliating episode, I retailed the history of the expensive blue hat Dicky had bought for me, and which Rita Brown had imitated so wonderfully that if it hadn't been for Mrs. Durkee's perspicacity, we should have thought it the original.

"And This Check—"

"Now, I am not sure, Lillian, but I have always had the impression that she used to spend a great deal of her time in Dicky's studio. I imagined also that it was she who once called me up to give me a rather unpleasant message from Dicky."

"Unfortunately, your imagination was no doubt working correctly," Lillian returned gravely. "I had hoped you would never hear anything of this particular phase of Dicky's foolishness, but I see it can't be helped. If you'll just finish these checks now and give me a few minutes with this manuscript, we'll tumble all these things back again, lock up and get back to your room, where I'll clear things up for you as well as I can."

I waited with a calmness that was only outward. Inwardly I was seething with impatience to know the things so vital to Dicky's future, to my own peace of mind, which Lillian evidently had discovered. It seemed hours before she finished looking over the manuscript, from which she jotted down several notes. But in reality it was less than half an hour to the time when, having realletically restored the bulging disorder of Dicky's desk, Lillian locked it, restored the padlock and chain, and with a last look to be sure no scrap of paper remained to betray us, led the way back to my room.

"Look here, Madge," she said with rough kindness, as she saw the pallor which I couldn't help. "Don't go to imagining a lot of things that aren't so. This is no Grace Draper affair. Indeed, I don't think Rita Brown cares two snaps of her finger for Dicky, or he for her. But she did hang around his studio enough to cause quite a bit of unpleasant gossip——"

"And this check which he issued is indorsed over to her," I said in a voice which I hardly recognized as my own, so hoarse was it.

"For a very good reason, my dear. She did good, honest work for that check, and was underpaid at that, if I know anything about the gentleman calling himself E. Stern, and I think I do."

I clenched my fingers into the palm until the nails cut. Lillian saw the gesture. She took me by the shoulders and swung me around facing her.

"I see I shall have to tell you the truth in words of one syllable," she said. "E. Stern is one of the few shyster theatrical men of Broadway, and he's just about got away with every cent Dick has on the pretence of producing the play the poor boy wrote with Edith Fairfax some time ago. And I suppose the Brown girl has been designing costumes. She's a genius in that line."

VETERAN OF CRIMEA AND INDIA, FRIEND OF FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE STOOD ON CURB TO WATCH PARADE

William E. Routledge Had No Carriage or Motor Car, But He Carried Medal on Breast and Memories in His Heart Which Made Up for Them.

In all the throngs that watched London's mammoth peace parade on Monday afternoon there was no more interested spectator than an old veteran of the Crimean war, who had seen service in India under "Little Bobs."

William Edward Routledge, "going on 82," son of the first chaplain who preached in Westminster Abbey to Queen Victoria after her coronation, didn't ride in a carriage or decorated automobile in the grand procession which marked the close of another war of victory for the empire. The old soldier hobbled down from the Aged People's Home, and leaning on his staff, took up his stand near Cronyn Hall.

Lived for This Day.

"I'm glad I've lived to see this day," he said as he wiped the tears of happiness from his eyes. "I've taken a great interest in the war, and I did want to live to see it through. If I'd only been young enough I could have been in it."

A minute later he announced: "But it isn't all over yet, I tell you. The Allies aren't going to be satisfied until they get the kaiser, dead or alive."

Over his heart on the day of the peace parade the veteran was wearing his most highly-prized possession, a Maltese cross, the queen's jubilee medal, which had been pinned on his breast in Westminster Abbey on the day of Queen Victoria's jubilee celebration in 1887. It is other circumstances associated with it which give the jubilee cross priceless value in his eyes.

Pinned On By the "Angel."

The hands of Florence Nightingale, the "angel of the Crimea," brought the medal to him and pinned it in its place. Had his queen herself performed the service it could not have meant so much to him. The period in all the four score years of his life which the veteran best loves to recall covered the years of the Crimean war when, as a lad in his 'teens at Sebastopol, in the pioneer army medical service, he had the honor of working with "the Lady of the Lamp" in the relieving of suffering.

"I was born at Cransley vicarage, near Kettering, Northumberland," he tells when in reminiscent mood, "in the year 1837, the very year of Queen Victoria's coronation. My father, who was the vicar at Cransley, was the first chaplain to preach to the queen in Westminster Abbey, and that's how I came to be in the abbey at the jubilee and to have this medal.

Called to Crimea.

"I wanted to go into the navy and was on a ship training before the mast when the Crimean war broke out. We were ordered to the Crimea, so I was taken off training to go to the war on the Duke of Wellington, the largest man-of-war floating at the time. It was a full-rigged ship and we carried a hundred guns, fifty on one side and fifty on the other.

"I was what is known as a 'powder monkey'; I used to swab out the cannons. We didn't have to worry about submarines in those days as we sailed off to the Black Sea. It was straight fighting. You never heard of shrapnel shells. Cannon balls were made round. You put in the powder first, then the ball, and fired. We were in Sebastopol all through the siege. They talk about war bread and meatless days! We used to get hard tack and sea biscuits.

Sang With Florence Nightingale.

"Twice I was sent up to the heights with others at Sebastopol to help clear the field and bring in the wounded on stretchers. I used to help also in the hospital. I had a good tenor voice, and often I sang duets with Florence Nightingale to help cheer up the sick and wounded soldiers. She had a high soprano voice. I remember one duet we used to sing a great deal, 'What Are the Wild Waves Saying?' She used to call me 'Billy' and 'Brother.' She was a medium-sized, slender woman, with dark hair and eyes, very much beloved by everyone.

"I was in this city working for Dean Innis for some time before 1887, and Bishop Hellmuth took me over to England with him for the queen's jubilee. I had a place in the abbey with the clergy. Florence Nightingale got word to the queen that the son of Rev. John Routledge, her first chaplain, was there, and the queen sent down this medal to me, which Florence herself pinned on. After all the years that had gone by, Florence knew me and called me 'Billy.' I cried like a child six or seven years ago when I heard Florence Nightingale was dead at the age of 97.

"Well I remember the day peace was declared at the close of the Crimean war. We were ordered back to our ship, where we cheered just like the people cheered on Monday when the news was told that the war was over. We manned the yards and decorated them with flags and bunting, and made a big day of it.

Ordered to India.

Scarcely was the Crrimean War at an end before Routledge was ordered to India, to serve under Lord Roberts in the quelling of the Indian Mutiny.

From his coat pocket, as he talked yesterday, the Crimean and East Indian veteran drew a roll on which was written the life of Lord Roberts, another of his idols.

"I helped to take him off his horse and to carry him into the canvas hospital when he was wounded," he tells proudly. "It was towards the close of the engagement, when, as Lord Roberts rode up on his horse, he was shot at twice. The first bullet was aimed at his heart, and would have got him, but just at that moment his horse reared and the bullet hit the horse in the ear instead. The horse reared and sprang back, and the second bullet hit Lord Roberts in the back.

Bobs' Message.

"'Little Bobs,' as we called him, used to say, 'Come, boys, do or die. You've only got to die once.' That is one thing that has gone with me ever since, 'Do or die. You've only got to die once.'"

William Edward Routledge, veteran of the Crimea and East India in '57 and '58, is never lonesome. He has his memories. Almost four score and two years old, he never forgets for a second a date, the name of a place, a person, a ship or an event connected with the years of his life. He had conned over these memories so often that he recites them like a beloved and oft-told tale.

"I'd have liked to have been out at the front with the boys when peace was declared there."

Then he has his work. Even the title "Crimean Veteran" doesn't appeal to him as much as the one he has bestowed upon himself, "the poet laureate of the poor." His absorbing interest is writing poetry. The fact that poetry is difficult to market doesn't in the least discourage him. In the last few years he has written poetry to fit almost every stirring occasion, on almost every conceivable theme. He writes for the love of writing, and the God of things as they are must know and bless his service, he feels absolutely sure.

LANDED IN CANADA ON DAY OF REJOICING

Advertiser Illustrations

To have served in France, and known what war is and to return home and put foot on Canadian soil once more, on the day that peace is declared, is an interesting coincidence.

Lieut. G. N. Tucker, son of Rev. L. N. Tucker of St. Paul's rectory, who arrived home last night with the party of returned heroes after being severely wounded, said that the steamship Neuralia, the vessel on which they sailed, had received wireless news of the war situation each day, and they knew that the signing of the armistice was expected, but they docked in Halifax harbor and were waiting to leave the vessel, when they found Halifax in a veritable uproar and peace celebrations the order of the day. Lieut. Tucker left with the 135th Battalion, and spent considerable time in France.

KAMERAD!

We note that Solf asks Wilson if he'll kindly intercede
To help the German people in their desperate ration need,
He says they're facing famine, and for mercy makes a plea,
But we locked the gates of mercy, and we threw away the key,
When they murdered Edith Cavell, when they sank our Red Cross ships,
And the Lusitania's cruel fate brought wild cheers from their lips;
Now they ask for ample nourishment to fill their worthless pelts,
Let them do the way we used to, take a notch up in their belts.

WALL STREET.

New York, Nov. 14—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Buying orders in large volume lifted prices considerably at the opening of today's stock market. Demand evidently resulted from more authoritative assurances of an easy transition of business from war to peace conditions. Rails, shippings, oils, coppers and equipments shared almost equally in the advance, which extended from 1 to 2½ points in the first half hour. United States Steel was the only leader to make little upward progress, holding within fractional limits. French municipal bonds were strong at the record quotation of 102.

New War of Ideas Between Central Europe and the Western Nations.

BY FRANK H. SIMONDS.

Copyright, 1918, by N. Y. Tribune.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—It is impossible to escape a sense of apprehension in reading of the rapid march of the revolution in Germany toward conditions which are wholly analogous to those of Russia at a similar period in the upheaval in the Slav state. Indeed the real fact seems to be that the pace is far faster in Germany than it was in Russia.

The familiar conception of the German as a disciplined, orderly, obedient creature, taking his pleasures in food and drink rather than politics and enjoying his restrictions as others peoples enjoy their liberties, may easily serve to blind the world to the perils of the new situation.

"Made in Germany."

The truth is, of course, that the Russian revolution was made in Germany, not merely procured by German influence, but based upon the ideas of the German Socialists, it marched rapidly through all the phases of an aggravated class war which has now degenerated into a government by assassination, always keeping time to the tunes of the German doctrines of socialism.

Although the revolution is less than a week old in Germany, we are already informed that the moderates are excluded, the bourgeois is not to have any representation in the Government, although the bourgeois in Germany represents at least a third of the whole population, whereas in Russia it was insignificant, but to exclude both the bourgeois and the Conservative elements in Germany who still adhere to the older order of monarchial ideas, is to pass rapidly from the tyranny of autocracy to the tyranny of anarchy.

Not Republican.

So far as one can now judge the German revolution is not republican in our sense, exactly as the Russian is not, it does not aim at providing representative democracy such as we have, such as the English and the French have. It aims at replacing the dynasties of the past with a new autocracy comparable wholly with the Lenine regime, which in Russia, succeeded that of the Romanoffs. Russia is today governed by the same methods and by an equally small minority as in the days preceding the war.

If the recent course of events in Germany be not promptly changed nothing seems more certain than that we shall at no distant time find ourselves facing eastward over the Rhine upon a vast seething mass of anarchy extending from the Rhine to the Siberian wastes, and including within its limits the 200,000,000 people of Russia, Germany and Austria, for it is to Russia that Germany is now turning for her methods and machinery, exactly as Russia at the outset of her revolution borrowed her ideas from extreme German Socialists.

Hostile to Westerners.

If the present movement in Germany continues we shall find also that the hostility which swept over Russia after the revolution, the hostility for the western nations, the hatred of Britain and of America as reactionary states, will appear in Germany.

All contemporary signs point to the swift arrival in Germany of exactly the same sort of control which has plunged Russia into anarchy and ruin. German autocracy has failed in its effort to make over the world, but German socialism which has already conquered Russia and Germany, and has invaded Austria and Bulgaria, is not less hostile to the western form of democracy than was German autocracy.

The thing Americans as a mass do not and cannot understand is that to the German - Russian Socialists the American form of democracy seems more hideous than their own expiring autocracy.

Those Now in Control.

The men who now control the German and Russian revolution are as hostile to the form of representative democracy under which we live as would be the Hohenzollern or Hapsburg rule, which was for them but an intermediate stage between slavery and complete liberation.

A new war of ideas has begun between Central Europe and the western nations. It may lead to a new war before the old war has finally been liquidated. It seems bound to lead to new horrors and fresh anarchy. It may preclude any settlement, such as the league of nations provided, because the Germans and Russians of the revolution may refuse to deal with nations which they regard as reactionary and capitalistic. To national war, international class war may now succeed if Germany and Russia can bring it about.

ALDERMEN TO ATTEND SPECIAL THANKSGIVING SERVICES IN CHURCHES

The city council has accepted the invitation of the Ministerial Association which was tendered by Rev. Dr. R. G. Peever, to attend the union thanksgiving services which are being held in First Methodist Church this evening. It is expected that a large representation from the civic bodies will be present. Owing to pressure of important business, the members of No. 1 committee will be unable to attend, as a special meeting of this committee had been arranged for this evening.

It was also decided to attend the thanksgiving services which will be held in St. Peter's Cathedral on Tuesday morning next at 10 o'clock, on the inviation of Bishop M. F. Fallon.

APPLE CAMPAIGN WAS A SUCCESS, BUT RECIPIENTS SLOW TO SEND THANKS

That the apple campaign for soldiers was a great success is the opinion of A. C. Attwood of Evergreen Hill Fruit Farm at Ilderton, which is expressed in a letter to The Advertiser. About 150 bags of apples were picked from his trees and brought to the city by soldiers.

The letter, in part, says: "The campaign was a great success. The road between Ilderton and the city was continually crowded with autos returning to London filled with bags of apples instead of ladies' skirts."

There is just a note of sadness in the letter over the fact that he has had no acknowledgment from the majority of the families who received the fruit. "I am reminded," he says, "of having read somewhere of the ten lepers who were healed and only one of the ten returned to give thanks. I asked all who got the apples from here, about 100 families in all, to send cards acknowledging the receipt, but only three have sent me any word so far."

Mr. Attwood thinks some similar scheme could have been adopted by the potato growers who had large crops, and the men who have served their country could have been greatly benefited.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MRS. STORY PASSES.

The death occurred in Victoria Hospital on Wednesday of Ann Myers Storye, widow of George Storrey, in her 68th year. She is survived by one son, Herbert, and two daughters, Miss Maud at home, and Mrs. H. G. Smallman of Hamilton. The funeral will be held on Friday from the family residence, 667 Princess avenue, at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Woodland Cemetery.

DEATH OF MRS. PACE.

The death of Mrs. Pace, wife of Charles Pace, in her 29th year, occurred this morning from pneumonia. She is survived by her husband, one son, Frank, and a daughter, Thelma. One brother, George, with the 135th Battalion, and three sisters, the Misses Anna, Lucy, and Mary Leitch, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leitch, also survive. The funeral will be held from 10 Dundas street on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. G. B. Sage will conduct the services and interment will be made in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

U. S. WITHDRAWING ALL CENSORSHIP REQUESTS

Washington, Nov. 14.—Withdrawal of all volunteer censorship requests under which American publishers have been working since the United States went to war, was announced today by George Creel, chairman of the committee on public information, after conferences with Secretaries Baker and Daniels of the war and navy departments.

PROGRESS BULLETIN OF MIDDLESEX VICTORY LOAN

An interesting race is being staged between Adelaide and Biddulph Townships for the leadership of the rural communities. It will be noted that the urban centres are doing relatively very much better than the townships.

Subscription lists close on Saturday next, and it is, therefore, most important that every canvasser devote himself most strenuously to the work from now until Saturday.

Since the bulletin was prepared returns have come in from Ailsa Craig sufficient in amount to put the village "over the top," securing the Honor Flag. The amount received today is sufficient, not only to secure an Honor Flag but also an Honor Crown. To Ailsa Craig, therefore, goes the distinction of securing the first Honor Crown in the county.

MR. CANVASSER—IT'S UP TO YOU!

PUT MIDDLESEX OVER THE TOP THIS WEEK!

Following are the returns up to and including November 11:

VETERANS OF FRONT LINE PREPARING TO JOIN PEACE PARADE

Plans to This Effect Are Already Under Way.

Preliminary steps have been taken already for the organization of a distinctive feature of the parade that is certain to be held in London when peace has been signed, sealed and delivered. It will consist of all the London members of the "We've Been in France" club. The men who have been in the actual theatre of war will claim first place in the procession, and first will come the crippled men in motor cars who are unable to march. Then will follow the men who are able to march. They will let the people know who they are, not with a desire to create friction with other returned men but to let the public know who, where and how many have served in the trenches or in the lines immediately behind the trenches.

The men are not depending on anyone else to make the arrangements. They are going to organize the new parade club themselves and will make known their plans through The Advertiser.

This should be a most satisfactory feature of any parade, and the public will have an opportunity to show its interest, to put it mildly, in the men who were in the fighting zone and almost to a man suffered wounds or other disability that forced them to return.

The "We've Been in France" men will appreciate any co-operation from motor car owners, for there is nothing like proper advance preparation, as they learned in the days when barrage fire behind the infantry was mighty thin, and ammunition dumps few and far between.

TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

On Friday, Nov. 15, the Ontario Garage and Motor Sales, Limited, are demonstrating the Cleveland Tractor on the farm of Mr. James Carmichael, con. 10, lot 14, London Township. Farmers interested in tractor work should attend this demonstration. b

THE BATH CITY OF AMERICA.

The mineral baths of Mount Clemens, Michigan, are noted for the treatment of rheumatism and kindred disorders. Mount Clemens has eleven public bath houses and many hotels and boarding-houses, and the baths and hotels are open the entire year. Now is an ideal time to visit "The Bath City of America," which is best reached via the Grand Trunk Railway System. For full information apply to any Grand Trunk ticket agent or C. E. Horning, D. P. OVER HALF-MILLION DOLLARS RAISED IN LONDON YESTERDAY

London is making her final war effort in the Victory Loan, one to be proud of. Yesterday the jubilant citizens subscribed $537,000, making the total for the city $5,602,700 to date. It was by far the best day of the campaign, and the entire Loan headquarters staff was in high fettle last night.

The salesmen declared it was the best day yet, and that all classes of citizens seemed to be anxious to buy more bonds. "Repeat" sales were numerous, showing that the people realized it was the last chance to get in on a sterling silver investment. The teams brought in $258,500 in subscriptions.

The military boys are still buying heavily and last night saw their total reach the sum of $211,000. Major Frank Spry of militia headquarters staff, who has charge of the loan at Queen's Park and Carling Heights, stated last night that the soldiers were not through yet, and that quite a few thousands would be added to their total before the loan closes Saturday night at midnight.

Worked Into Night.

Secretary Michael Kaplanasky of the industrial group worked far into the night catching up with the "industrial" applications with which he was deluged. London's workingmen dug down into their overalls yesterday for over $200,000, making the industrial total $742,250, and a lot more to come yet.

The results Wednesday were extremely gratifying to Loan headquarters, as it was feared that, owing to the excitement and relief caused by the signing of the armistice, the public might not maintain its previous great interest in the loan.

"Yesterday's total is a great tribute to the deermination and patriotism of the people of London," said Chairman George M. Reid last night. "The city is doing wonderfully well, and I expect that in the three remaining days of the campaign they will see to it that London gets an honor flag for having gained its objective. The citizens are co-operating with the canvassers, and I know that the public will not pass up this gilt-edged investment that is being offesed it.

Still a Necessity.

"The fact that an armistice has been declared," continued Mr. Reid, "caused some people to remark that the Victory Loan was no longer a necessity, but the fallacy of this is obvious to those conversant with the situation. It is apt to be six months or a year before the final terms are adjusted, and during that time our boys must be fed and clothed as well as paid, and we've got to support them with the Victory Loan.

"It is essential right now as much as ever that the Canadian people bend every effort to making the loan a success. In addition to this, and more closely touching us is the fact that this money must be raised to bring the boys home from the trenches. The slogan 'Bring the boys home with the Victory Loan' is applicable at this moment," he added.

The County of Middlesex had another good day, but is still far short of its objective. Yesterday County Organizer Cork received 290 applicatins through the mail for $147,450, making the Middlesex total $1,308,450.

Ailsa Craig, a good Scottish community showed its good Scottish sense by considerably oversubscribing its objective of $35,000, by $13,100. Today it is expected will be a big one by both city and county alike.

DOROTHY DALTON AT THE MAJESTIC TODAY, FRIDAY

Also News Weekly, Comedy and Jack King in Vaudeville.

Miss Dalton is an actress of remarkable ability which she has evinced in numerous characterizations in such notable picture successes as "Tyrant Fear," "The Mating of Marcella," "The Kaiser's Shadow," and others, but in none has her artistry been so capably manifested as in this superb photoplay.

The scenes of "Green Eyes" are located in the south, and it is filled with dramatic episodes, all vibrant with real thrills and tense heart appeal.

DOROTHY DALTON in "Green Eyes" A Paramount Picture

There is a fine admixture of comedy which will be relished by all admirers of this popular star, and the production doubtless will increase her reputation and add to the prestige of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, and his fine staff of assistants.

In addition to the above production, a news weekly and a 2-reel comedy, "Sheriff Nell's Tussle," will be shown.

Friday and Saturday Charlie Chaplin will be seen in "The Musical Tramp," a great farce.

On Saturday Vivian Martin will be featured in "Her Country First."

Miss Pickford will appear at the Majestic Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in her greatest, "Johanna Enlists."

LIBERAL WOMEN CHOSE DELEGATES TO MEET CHIEFTAIN

Preparations Made for Western Ontario Liberal Association Meeting.

There was a large attendance at an emergency meeing of the executive committee of the London Women's Liberal Association, held on Wednesday afternoon in Hyman Hall, for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the convention of the Western Ontario Liberal Association on this city on Tuesday next, November 19, at which Sir Wilfrid Laurier is to be the guest of honor.

Liberalism in the city is entitled to a representation of six official delegates, three from the men's and three from the women's associations. Mrs. W. N. Manning, president, Mrs. George S. Gibbons, honorary president, and Miss Isabel C. Armstrong, first vice-president, will represent the latter.

The annual meeting of the Women's Liberal Association will be held on the evening of November 28, when, in addition to the election of officers, future activities of the organization will be planned.

Former United States Senator Mason, Pioneer

IN PURE FOOD AND DRUGS LEGISLATION, FATHER OF RURAL FREE DELIVERY SYSTEM SAYS NUXATED IRON

Increased His Power and Endurance So Much, That He Feels It Ought To Be Made Known to Every Nervous, Run-Down, Anaemic Man, Woman and Child.

Opinions of Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author; Dr. James Francis Sullivan, Formerly Physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital; Former Health Commissioner Wm. R. Kerr of the City of Chicago and Others.

What Senator Mason Says

Gentlemen: Chicago, Ill.

I have often said I would never recommend medicine of any kind. I believe that the doctor's place. However, after the hardest political campaign of my life, without a chance for a vacation, I had been starting to court every morning with that horrible tired feeling one cannot describe. I was advised to try Nuxated Iron. As a pioneer in the pure food and drug legislation, I was at first loath to try an advertised remedy, but after advising with my medical friends, I gave it a test. The results have been so beneficial in my own case, I made up my mind to let my friends know about it, and you are at liberty to publish this statement if you so desire. I am now 65 years of age, and I feel that a remedy which will build up the strength and increase the power of endurance of one at my age, should be known to the world.

Yours very truly,

Wm. E. Mason

Senator Mason's statement in regard to Nuxated Iron was shown to several physicians who were requested to give their opinions thereon.

Dr. Ferdinand King, a New York Physician and Medical Author said: "I heartily indorse Senator Mason's statement in regard to Nuxated Iron. There can be no vigorous iron men without iron. Pallor means anemia. Anemia means iron deficiency. The skin of anemic men and women is pale; the flesh flabby; the muscles lack tone; the brain fags, and the memory fails, and often they become weak, nervous, despondent and melancholy.

Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly Physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, said: "Senator Mason is to be commended on handing out this statement on Nuxated Iron for public print. There are thousands of men and women who need a strength and blood builder, but do not know what to take. In my own opinion there is nothing better than organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for enriching the blood and helping to increase the strength and endurance of men and women who burn up too rapidly their nervous energy in the strenuous strain of the great business competition of the day."

Former Health Commissioner Wm. R. Kerr, of the City of Chicago, says: "I have taken Nuxated Iron myself and experienced its health-giving and strength building effect, and in the interest of the public welfare I feel it my duty to make known the results of its use. I am well past my threescore years, and want to say that I believe my own great physical activity is largely due today to my personal use of Nuxated Iron. From my own experience with Nuxated Iron I feel it is such a valuable remedy that it ought to be used in every hospital and prescribed by every physician in this country."

While Former Health Commissioner Kerr is not himself a physician, still his experience in handling public health problems must give his opinion more than ordinary weight.

Dr. Schuyler C. Jaques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City, said: "I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication, as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But in the case of Nuxated Iron I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising results. And those who wish quickly to increase their strength, power and endurance will find it a most remarkable and wonderfully effective remedy."

Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change your food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained.

MANUFACTURERS' NOTE.—Nuxated Iron, which was used by Senator Mason with such surprising results, and which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians, is not a secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated and does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser, or they will refund your money. It is dispensed in this city by Standard Drug Company, Limited, and all other druggists.

From the Congressional Directory published by the United States Government: "Wm. E. Mason, Senator from Illinois, was elected to the 50th Congress in 1887, to the 51st Congress in 1891—defeated for the 52nd Congress, 1892—Elected Senator to the 55th Congress, 1897 to 1903."

Senator Mason is now Congressman from the State of Illinois.

Senator Mason's championship of Pure Food and Drugs legislation, his fight for the rural free delivery system, and his strong advocacy of all bills favoring labor and the rights of the masses as against trusts and combines, make him a national figure at Washington, and endeared him to the hearts of the workingman and the great masses of people throughout the United States. Senator Mason has the distinction of being one of the really big men of the nation. His strong indorsement of Nuxated Iron must convince any intelligent, thinking reader that it must be a preparation of very great merit, and one which the Senator feels is bound to be of great value to the masses of people everywhere, otherwise he could not afford to lend his name to it, especially after his strong advocacy of pure food and drugs legislation.

Dr. George F. Baker, formerly physician and surgeon in Monmouth Memorial Hospital of New Jersey, says: "During convalescence from SPANISH INFLUENZA (La Grippe) I find Nuxated Iron to be of great benefit."
