How the Methodist Quadrennial Conference is Legislating.

Pastors May Now be Retained Four and Even Five Years—The Transfer System.

The quadrennial Methodist conference at Toronto dealt with some large and important questions last week. The decisions show that the governing body is being forced along in broader lines by the great body of the church. The selection of the classes of the report of the superannuation fund committee, providing that, before superannuation, clergymen should be examined by a medical man, shows that one reason why the Methodists have not been supporting that fund has been because they have not had the fullest confidence in the soundness of the claims made upon it. It is worthy of note that Rev. Dr. Dewart opposed the proposal to change the length of the pastoral term from the ten to the five years. It is quite evident that the Methodists are not all satisfied with the itinerant system as it stands. An effort was made to have the pastoral term extended to five years; it failed and the committee's report, providing that at the request of a quarterly board, expressed by a vote of three-quarters of those present, and voting by ballot, due notice of the meeting having been given that the pastoral supply will be considered thereat, the stationing committee may appoint a minister to a station for four or five years in succession, was carried. This is a concession and along the right line. At the next conference a further step should be recommended; that the same privilege be allowed to quarterly boards for the shortening of a ministerial term. Cases arise where this action would be as desirable and advisable as the other. The transfer system also came up for discussion, and from the free and fearless way in which the subject was handled by some of the speakers, some remedial legislation may surely be looked for. The conference is certainly being forced along in broader lines by the laity.

FEAR JACK THE SHARK.

Turks Yield to the British.

FRANCE WILL NOT ATTEMPT TO HOLD FASHODA—ZOLA CON- VERTED—GENERAL CABLE NEWS.

Candia, Sept. 18.—The Sultan has ordered D'ad Pasha, the military commander in Crete, to accede to the demand of the British admiral, Gerard Henry Noel, for disarmament, thus complying with the whole ultimatum of the admiral. The British military detachment has occupied the entrance to the harbor, and it is rumored that the Ottoman troops will be withdrawn and a British force will occupy the town. Among the prisoners already handed over to Admiral Noel are two who are credited with being ringleaders in the attack on the British camp. "JACK SHARK."

Navy men are quite satisfied, that whatever happens in Crete, there is little danger of the English Admiral "Jack Shark," and Admiral Pasha may find that this unexpected epithet is fairly well deserved. A spy told that Noel's anger at some of his own men having been shot down by Turkish fire was something ominously quiet. It will take all the combined efforts of the European concert to keep "Jack Shark" from having at least one good bite in return.

A GUIDE'S HEROISM

He Sacrificed Himself for His Charge and Escaped Unhurt.
London, Sept. 18.—The season's record of Alpine fatalities is appalling. This week has added several to the list. It also brings one of the most splendid stories of heroism ever told. Prof. Kasse, well known in Bergmann and Dr. Borchardt, with two guides, the four men roped together, were traversing the Fie Blane over a snow bridge, which is considered safe by the guides. The bridge gave way, and the leading guide and Prof. Kasse fell into a crevasse. The latter had the rope around his chest and hung in mid-air. A half hour later, to relieve this intolerable strain, the leading guide cut the rope between himself and Prof. Kasse and disappeared into the depths. The other guide and Dr. Borchardt were then able to pull Prof. Kasse up, but he was dead. It is cheering to know that the guide who so willingly offered his life, was not killed but was found unhurt by the rescue party.

ZOLA TO BE A PRIEST.

The Eminent Member whether said to have been converted.
London, Sept. 18.—London Life claims to have information that M. Emile Zola is about to become a Catholic priest. It says that the Vatican was approached on the subject a fortnight ago, and that the Pope has given his blessing to the ordination six months hence. M. Zola's conversion is said to have been made by Father Gougeon, the pastor of a small parish church, and an intimate friend of the novelist.

"LET IT PASS."

A Picture Which the Czar Could not Make up His Mind About.
London, Sept. 18.—A photograph of the Czarina nursing her baby recently appeared in an English newspaper, and when it reached the Russian censor the latter was a much puzzled official. He consulted with the minister of the interior, who was equally perplexed, and decided to consult with the Czar. "The best thing I can do," said the Russian Emperor, "is to stop this to the Czarina and let her decide." In a few minutes, so the story goes, the Czar returned and said, with a smile to the minister of the interior: "Her Imperial Majesty finds nothing in the picture contrary to the law; let it pass."

ENGLISH BY ELSTON.

The Liberal Unionist Candidate Elected to Succeed the Late Mr. Pease.
London, Sept. 18.—The election for the seat in Parliament made vacant by the death of Arthur Pease, Liberal Unionist, resulted in the return of Pike Pease, the Liberal Unionist candidate, by a majority of 1,008 votes over his Liberal opponent, Owen C. Phillips. The poll was as follows: Pike Pease, Liberal Unionist, 5,697; Owen C. Phillips, Liberal, 2,689. At the last election Arthur Pease was returned by 2,354 votes, against 2,697 cast for Sir Theodore Tyle, the Home Rule candidate.

FRANCE WILL GET OUT.

Major Marchand Will Leave Fashoda—France's Attitude is Very Friendly.
London, Sept. 18.—From Cairo, and from an entirely independent source, the Daily Mail learns that France has assumed a conciliatory attitude towards Great Britain, and has declared that the expedition of M. Marchand is quite unofficial. The Sirdeh will of-and your money back if you wish"

Some people pay their bills, some pay them after many months, and some never pay at all. Note the loss through bad debts. It takes both time and money to make slow collections—time wasted looking after them, and a loss of interest on payments.

See the needless expense. This needless expense then has to be made upon the goods that are paid for. In plain language what other people don't pay becomes part of what you pay.

Are you willing to pay other person's bills? We avoid this needless expense. We do not give credit. We found we could buy cheaper and sell cheaper for cash. True it may not be very much on any one article, but in the course of a year it amounts to quite a large sum.

We would be much pleased to have your orders. We promise you the best goods at low prices.

We also promise prompt delivery and civil attention. It will pay you to try us.

A CHATHAM BOY FIRST.

Two weeks ago the Chicago World published a prize puzzle. In this picture very cunningly secreted among the trees and foliage in the upper right hand corner was a young woman called the "forester's daughter." The trick was to find this coy maiden; so two prizes were offered—the World for one year and the World for six months to the first two people outside of Chicago who were able to locate her. They received a large number of correct replies, and as the time of discovery in most instances omitted it bothered them somewhat to tell which two were really first. But, taking distance into consideration, and the time the quickest ones could have received the World, they decided that the prize should be awarded as follows: The first to Herbert Mount, Park Hotel, Chatham, Ontario, and the second to Sam. Brown, 304 Twelfth avenue, Adelaide, Wis. Young Mr. Mount is an attendant of the Collegiate Institute.

WANT A BONUS.

Tobacco Manufacturers Want Chatham and Windsor to Bid Against Each Other.

The following is from the Detroit Free Press of Sunday. The parties referred to have not yet visited Chatham officially, however:

Representatives of Goldstein Bros., of Montreal, tobacco manufacturers, left Windsor yesterday for Chatham, where they will consult with the board of trade of that city relative to establishing a plant for the manufacture of all kinds of tobacco from the Canadian leaf. They made a tour of Essex county this week and found that the crop of the country was an excellent one in every respect. All of the different varieties of tobacco are grown in the county, and they were of the opinion that it would pay them to establish their plant close to the district where the tobacco is being grown. They intimated before leaving Windsor that they would accept the proposition of the municipality offering the largest bonus for the contemplated factory. They wish to get offers at once, as they want to have the factory in running order by December 1 of this year. An attempt will be made by some of the business men of Windsor to have the factory located there. It is expected that the board of trade will take some action in the matter at an early date.

KILLED THE GHOST

And According to Law he Did Not Commit Murder.

Peculiar Case Which Engaged the Attention of the India Authorities.

Bombay, Sept. 19.—An extraordinary case of alleged murder came up on appeal before the High Court, which, apart from the nice point of law involved, throws a strong sidelight on the superstitious degradation in which the lower strata of the rustic community of a North-western province still remain.

KILLED THE GHOST.

The ghost seemed in his eyes to grow bigger and to be approaching. He could no longer articulate his fears, and in desperation struck out at with his hand—which, fortunately, was in his hand—three times. The blows fell on the head of the prostrate form.

Corrected.

A chance visitor to a rural neighborhood stopped into a little and antiquated school house to see what the educational methods of the locality were like.

Faith.

There can be no real belief, for whoever believes in the steadfastness and reliability of the laws of nature, whoever believes in the supremacy of right over wrong, whoever even plants a tree or sows a seed to the future, thus bears witness to his own faith in God, whose name, perhaps, he may find himself denying, and his faith only needs expansion and to be conscious of itself in order to be the support of a conscientiously religious life.

Key-Note of Harmony.

If you should wish to be miserable, you must think about yourself—about what you want, what you like, what respects you ought to pay to you, and then to you nothing will be pure. You will spoil everything you touch; you will make sin and misery for yourself out of everything which God sends you; you will be as wretched as you choose.

PRIMITIVE ANCHORS.

STONES AND WOODEN TUBES FILLED WITH LEAD FIRST USED.

The Earliest Anchors Made on the Hook Principle Had Only One Fluke—Crests Devised That Are Still Used in Different Parts of the World.

There appear to be two ideas which have led up to the invention of the modern anchor: (1) the idea of attaching the vessel by means of a rope or chain to a weight sufficiently heavy to keep the vessel from moving when the weight has sunk to the bottom of the sea, and (2) the idea of using a hook instead of (or in addition to) the weight, so as to catch in the bottom.

The earliest anchors made on the hook principle probably only had one fluke instead of two. In the "Sunset Anchor," there is an illustration of what has been surmised to be an anchor made out of the natural forked branch of a tree. It was found with an ancient British canoe at Burgham, Sussex. There is in the British museum an interesting leaden anchor with two flukes bearing a Greek inscription. Its date is about 80 B. C. and it was found off the coast of Crete.

The invention of the anchor with two flukes is attributed by Pausanias to Miles, by Pliny to Eupalamos, and by Strabo to Anacharsis. Different Sicilians state that the first anchors were wooden tubes filled with lead, while another classical writer says that before the introduction of metal anchors lumps of stone with a hole through the middle for the attachment of the cable were used.

The form of the anchors used by the Greeks and Romans is well known from representations on Trajan's column and in the catacombs at Rome as an early Christian symbol. This form does not seem to have changed materially for quite a thousand years, as is shown by the Bayeux tapestry.

Some very primitive kinds of anchors are in use at the present day in different parts of the world, and a study of their construction may throw some light on the evolution of the modern anchor.

An anchor which came from Japan consists of a natural forked branch of a tree, slightly improved artificially, so as to make a hook. Two round bars are fixed at right angles to the shank, and to these two ordinary beach pickets are tied. The length of the anchor is 2 feet 3 inches, the width across the hook 8 inches, and across the transverse bars 1 foot 5 inches. The stones are from 5 to 8 inches in diameter and 3 inches thick.

Another anchor was in use quite recently in the Arran islands, off the west coast of Galloway. It is constructed of a sloping bar at each side and three cross-bars, forming a figure not unlike the "swooshes" triangle in Euclid's post-antennum. The lower end of the three cross-bars is of square section and is fixed by iron spikes at each side to the sloping pieces so as to prevent them spreading outward. The stone, which acts as a weight, is clipped by means of the two side pieces, being held tightly by two split rings of rope passing under the upper cross-bars.

These cross-bars are of round section and project at each side, thus keeping the rope rings from slipping upward. The cable is fixed to the middle of the lowest transverse bar and is carried up on one side of the stone, then between the two sloping boards, and finally through a loop fixed to a hole at the top of the anchor. The boards at each side are 1 foot 10 1/2 inches long and the stone 1 foot 5 inches long.

It may seem strange that such primitive looking contrivances should continue to be used by fishermen who have a full knowledge of every modern appliance connected with navigation and vessels, yet there are good reasons why they should have survived. Where the sea or river bed is rocky anchors are easily lost. This is a serious matter when the anchor is of iron and of some value, but if it is constructed like those described there is not much difficulty or expense in replacing it. A beach stone and a few bits of wood are always at hand, and the skilled workmanship required to fashion them into a very serviceable anchor is but small.

Thus it is that under certain conditions primitive appliances must always hold their own against modern inventions. When, as often happens, a newly introduced contrivance gets out of order, it generally involves much greater loss of time and more expense to replace it than if it were of simpler construction and capable of being made by an ordinary workman out of materials readily procurable on the spot.

Highly civilized man has much to learn from his prehistoric ancestors and from uncivilized races still existing as to how he should act in an emergency when deprived of his usual appliances.—Reliquary and Illustrated Archaeologist.

DETAILS OF TRANSLATION.

English critics say that recently fate gave evidence of more than usual intelligence in the office of a Parisian journal. The Parisian editor saw a London article's appreciation of Anna Thibaud, whose songs are as pointed and flowery as her "rebound" slippers. The Londoner wrote that "mademoiselle's feet were incased in fairy boots." The Parisian set himself diligently to work with his dictionary, and soon had it correctly translated, we presume, but when it appeared in print, instead of reading that mademoiselle's feet were incased in "fairy boots," it said they were incased in "pots a fleurs" (scented pots).

"Never be critical upon the ladies," was the maxim of an old Irish peer, remarkable for his language to the sea. "The only way that a true gentleman ever will attempt to look at the faults of a pretty woman is to shut his eyes."

HEART DISEASE.

Weak, Palpitating, Fluttering, Throbbing Hearts can be Cured.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS THE REMEDY.

HEART DISEASE has of late years become frightfully prevalent. Day after day the papers record sudden deaths of those who might have lived for years to fill their place in the world if they had only heeded the first signs and warnings of heart trouble and had their hearts strengthened by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Dizzy spells, skip beats, palpitation, fluttering of the heart, choking and smothering sensation, getting out of breath easily, especially on going upstairs, pain in the left side of the breast, are all indications that the heart requires help.

No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a normal and healthy condition as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Jane Alcorn, Woodstock, N. B., says: "For many years I have been afflicted with palpitation of the heart, pain in the breast and dizzy sensation on rising quickly. My appetite was poor and I was completely run down. I could not sleep at night and the nervous weakness and general debility from which I suffered intensified my misery. My attention was called to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and I started to use them. They have made a wonderful change in my condition, my appetite has been restored and I never get refreshing sleep. My heart troubles have all disappeared and I consider the results in my case most gratifying."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are sold by all druggists at 50c. a box or 3 boxes for $1.25. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, Ont.

LAXA-LIVER PILLS clear all poisons and impurities from the system in Nature's easy manner without any griping, weakening or sickening effects. Price 25c.

DOAN CURES A MANITOBA MAN.

Mr. Alexander Fraser, Miami, Man., writes: "I cannot refrain from recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to any person troubled with kidney disorder, for I believe if they could cure me they could cure any case."

Realization is never a luxury to the man who did not hope.

SORES HEALED.

Sores and ulcers of the worst kind are readily healed by Burdock Blood Bitters. Take it internally and apply it externally according to directions and see how quickly a cure will be made.

Only the fear of endless torment causes some sinners to repent.

MARTYR TO HEART TROUBLE.

Mrs. Selma E. Core, Amherst, N. S., says: "At times I suffered intensely from palpitation and fluttering of my heart. I was weak and my nerves shattered. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have regulated my heart, toned my nerves and built up my health."

A man's unreliability very often exceeds his assets.

GRAND REMEDY FOR COUGHS.

"I have used Hagar's Pectoral Balsam and found it a grand remedy for coughs and colds, and highly recommend it." O. M. Doherty, Camilla, Ont.

It is safer to learn from an enemy than it is to instruct a friend.

WHEN BEAUTY FADES.

In response to repeated inquiries from ladies with whom Dr. Chase's Ointment has become so popular for skin diseases, asking if face powders are injurious and can be used while using the ointment, we state that while the majority of face powders are injurious Dr. Chase's Ointment is the ladies' friend for all skin diseases. Address Dr. A. W. Chase Co., Toronto.

It is useless for a man to seek a steady job if he isn't that way himself.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Guelph, Ont.: "My husband had a bad chill which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors were called up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took it all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Sold by all druggists. 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded."

Turn some men loose in a brewery and trouble would very soon begin to brew.

HOW MICA IS OBTAINED.

Getting Out This Valuable Mineral is the Poetry of Mining.

The mica trade is controlled practically by three or four large concerns in New York, Chicago and Boston. These houses have an agent who buys for cash whatever mica is brought by the miners. They control the market and fix the prices to be paid to the miner as well as the price for which it is sold in the market.

Mica, it must hardly be said, is a very valuable, almost precious mineral, as those who are obliged to buy a small strip for their stove doors will testify. A package worth hundreds of dollars can be carried in a basket slung over the arm or in a pair of saddlebags on horseback. When prepared for the market the solid block is taken from the mine is split into sheets. The thickness is equally or rectangular of almost every possible size, from 2 by 3 inches up to 8 by 10 inches, and sometimes even larger. There are no less than 125 separate kinds of mica by dealers.

The mining of mica is the poetry of mining. It is impossible to conceive of a more exciting and fascinating employment. The mica miner works in a quarry lying between rocks of different formation, has been found. The cap rock has been blasted away. Little "niggerheads"—small lumps of crumbling mica mixed with slate and other rock—are growing plentiful. The rock is carefully examined by the experienced miner, and all indications of mica are noted and marked. A blast is made. The rock and debris are cleared away, and there in the bottom is a block of the precious stuff, a ragged corner showing itself from the white quartz in the white quartz in which it is imbedded. With the tips of the fingers the mica gently and affectionately brushes away the dirt and small stones which partly cover it. The thickness is carefully noted, its position in the rock is learnedly discussed, and many a speculation indulged in as to its size and quality. The hole is quickly drilled, the small blast is made, the loosening the rock, and all eagerly crowd around as one of the men with his pick pulls away the broken stone. There it lies, a block, glittering mica, several inches across its face, 3 or 4 inches thick and irregular in shape, as all blocks of mica are. A good sized block, if solid and of a perfect shape will be worth several hundred dollars. The excitement is not allayed, however, and will not be until the block is split open and we know how it looks on the inside. The mica is then broken up into all sizes, for there is danger that the fine polished flates will be scratched.—Godey's Magazine.

Why? There is something almost plaintive in the truly English word "why." It may be indefinitely prolonged upon the lips. "Why" is almost poetical in itself and fitly introduces the best hexameter in the language. "Why do the heathen rage and the people imagine a vain thing?" His use in poetry are almost infinite and one modern writer makes almost a line of it alone: "Why do the night winds sigh, The sea birds wildly cry, The little drops and die, The light fade from the sky? Why—why?" To most of the whys there is not a good because. The inquiring mind is puzzled to account for many things besides its own existence. Hundreds of such questions occur to us at every step, and no satisfactory reply can be expected. Life is too short. Socrates was always saying "Why," and we have all heard of the man who called Pope the "little crooked thing that asked questions."—Exchange.

Patent Medicine Almanac.

There are a half dozen patent medicine firms in St. Louis, each of which sends out 2,000,000 almanacs each year. At least 20,000,000 almanacs, made in St. Louis, are spread all over the country each year. The almanacs for a certain year are shipped out in the fall of the previous year. The average cost for making and delivering them is from 25 to 35 and $10 per thousand. As every large patent medicine establishment now has its own printing department, the cost of making almanacs is reduced to a minimum.

The astronomical portions of the almanac, including the weather predictions, signs of the zodiac, changes of the moon, and so on, are prepared by some astronomer. A certain astronomer in Massachusetts has made a specialty of doing this work for patent medicine firms for years. He charges $20 for preparing the astronomical letters for one year's almanac.—Chautauquan.

Caged Chinese Will Sings.

After the Chinese war in the fortress Lord Luck had, while attached to the British embassy there, the misfortune to be captured by a band of infuriated and ignorant Chinese. They were so savage at the loss they had suffered and were ready for any brutal acts of revenge on the hated English. They took Henry Luck, as he then was, and his companion and put them both into narrow cages just like the beasts in a show, and they carried them up and down the country, exhibiting them to the enraged Chinese, who jeered them, mocked them and tormented them in every possible way. Happily for the two unfortunate, British soldiers were not long in coming to the rescue when the news became known, and they, quite contrary to their own expectations, thus managed to escape an awful fate.—London Globe.

An Experiment.

Mr. Billis (calling down the stairs): Maria, have the children gone to school? Mrs. Billis—Yes.

This is the girl's day out, isn't it?" "Yes, she has had a day out."

"This is not the minister's day to call to it?"

"No."

"Any of the neighbors likely to drop in during the next hour or so?"

"I think not."

"You're alone, are you?"

"Yes, who else is there?"

"Then put some cotton in your ears, Maria. I am going to shave myself with that new razor you gave me the other day."—London Tit-Bits.

A Shock.

"I don't see what you're grivin' so about," said Fiddling Pete. "Tain't no disgrace to have a dyke."

"I don't know about dat," answered Maudering Mike. "Dat medical student said it come from overworkin' me stomach."—Washington Star.

Encouragement.

Jack—I am afraid that if I ask you to be my wife you will treat my proposal as a joke. Molly—But all jobs are not rejected. Jack.—Brooklyn Life.

LONDON WOMEN

Have Words of Praise for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

No wonder the praises of Doan's Kidney Pills are on the lips of nearly every woman in London.

The terrible backaches, side-aches and headaches which are so common among women quickly disappear when these conquerors of kidney ills are used. Women are recognizing more and more that the root of these troubles is in the kidneys—that Doan's Kidney Pills banish all the pains or aches by making the kidneys filter out the poisons from the system.

Here are two London ladies who want to say something for Doan and his pills. One is Mrs. Jane Reding, 435 Gray St. She says: "I highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had a weak and painful back for a long time, and until I took this reliable kidney medicine, was unable to secure relief. They acted like magic, removing all my troubles and restoring me to health."

The other is Mrs. Taylor, 755 York Street, and she says: "For years I have been afflicted with kidney troubles, and I am now pleased to say that Doan's Kidney Pills cured me, removing the pain from my back, and restoring my kidneys to natural action."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists at 50 cents a box, or 3 boxes for $1.25.

CIDER WILL BOOM

Provided the Whole Dominion Adopts Prohibition.

Difference Between What is Now Proposed and the Scott Act—Correspondents' Views.

To the Editor of the Planet. Sir—It is not the deficit in the Dominion treasury that prohibition will cause but the deficit in his own barrow receipts that is worrying the bootlegger. He is looking out for himself. Why will not the farmer do the same? Every man with an orchard should not only vote for prohibition but get his neighbors to. Apples today are worth from 40 to 75 cents a barrel, while cider is worth only 15 cents a gallon. If prohibition carried out people could not get whiskey and beer they would drink cider. The statement that prohibition will stop cider making is untrue. It will only prohibit cider with alcohol in it. The success of prohibition would therefore mean the success of the apple industry. Instead of selling for 15 cents a gallon, apples would be worth 50 or 75 cents a bushel. Correspondingly, as apples would be worth at least $2 and $3 per barrel. Every apple raiser should vote for prohibition and look after his own interests instead of sacrificing them to the welfare of the liquor dealers.

COMMON SENSE. Chatham, Sept. 17.

WHY PROHIBITION WILL BE ENFORCED.

Editor of the Planet. Sir—The argument is used that because the Scott Act was a partial failure total prohibition will also be. There are not analogous. There was no machinery provided in the Scott Act for its enforcement. It was a Dominion act whose penalty depended on the license laws of the various provinces. But in the case of prohibition violation will come under the internal revenue or customs. Liquor, if it is to evidence, must either have been smuggled or else made in a illicit distillery in either case those concerned are liable to go to the central prison for the commission of a criminal offence. There can be no such thing as humping out there under the Scott Act. Dominion officials will be required to enforce the law against the same under prohibition as they are now, and they enforce it pretty thoroughly now. J. I. D., Chatham, Sept. 17.

BLENHHEIM

Sept. 19.—Postmaster J. K. Morris returned on Saturday from his holiday in the Rideau Lakes, looking the better for his outing. He left Miss E. Morris at Perth and Mrs. Crookshanks in Toronto visiting friends.

The funeral of the late Rev. Kilpatrick took place to-day at 3 p. m. in St. Thomas, the deceased being a. O. U. W. lodge, the deceased being a. O. U. W. lodge. The whole community were shocked to hear of his sudden death, as beyond a slight indisposition he had not complained of any illness. The date of the special harvest home thanksgiving services in Trinity church has been changed from the 29th to Wednesday, the 26th.

General complaints are heard on all sides about the mail service, coming in and going out, since the change in the timetable on the L. E. & D. R. While the train service is excellent and all that could be desired, the principal

TEST THE KIDNEYS

Why Are the Great Fevers of Our Race—the Parity of the Blood—Dependent on Their Cleansing Power. Dr. A. W. Crane in Consultation.

There's a time to all, old and young, man or woman, when poor health brings trouble, anxiety, and burdens hard to stand up under, and one's efforts to rid himself or herself seem only to be baffled at every turn, and we are prone to grow discouraged. That is not the time to give up; that is the time for action, the time to seek out the seat of the trouble, and act as your best judgment and the experience of others will help you, guarding against mistakes in the treatment adopted for your particular ailment.

Spasms Landed for Hours at a Time—Left Great Aching and Soreness—Dr. Crane's Kidney-Liver Pills Freed Me Entirely.

It was for over six months troubled with very sharp pains in the region of my kidneys, the spasms lasted for an hour at a time, and left me with great aching, soreness and pain. I tried many remedies, but they did no good. I commenced taking Dr. Crane's Kidney-Liver Pills according to directions. I had not much sleep that they would cure me, but after taking one box I noticed a change for the better. It may seem incredible, but after taking the second box the spasms all left me entirely, and I have not had them since—Amos Carter, Mellorville, Ontario.

BROKE THEIR RUNS

Saints Lose Their First Game in Two Weeks.

Chatham Took It From Them Without Much Trouble.

(Special to The Planet.) St. Thomas, Sept. 19.—St. Thomas lost the first game in two weeks at Atlantic park on Saturday when Chatham won by a score of 4 to 2. McCann pitched a superb game for the Babes and received tip-top support. Pears was batted quite freely by the visitors and he didn't get very good support. However, St. Thomas lost the game simply because the players couldn't solve Eugene's curves. The score:

THE REASONS WHY

Liquor Men Want the Electors to Oppose Prohibition.

The Literature They are Circulating Throughout the Country.

Anti-plebiscite arguments are being distributed in the form of a printed card headed "Ten good reasons why I will vote 'No' on the plebiscite." The "ten good reasons" are as follows:

1. Because I value personal liberty.
2. Because prohibition would necessitate the raising of nearly $9,000,000 annually by direct taxation.
3. Because the debt of the country would be increased by from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000 to compensate those whose business would be ruined.
4. Because it would throw thousands of men out of work and place them on the already overcrowded labor market.
5. Because prohibition has proved a failure wherever and whenever tried, and leads to drink and secret drinking, for example, the Scott Act.
6. Because prohibition would create ill-feeling and breed informers, spies and perjurers.
7. Because prohibition would ruinously affect many other lines of trade and lead to wholesale smuggling.
8. Because it would be class legislation and would lead to further restrictions on personal liberty.
9. Because it would require an army of officials if an attempt were made to enforce it, and even then it could not be enforced.
10. Because experience has shown that it is the worst method of dealing with intemperance and that it induces the weak and vicious to use drugs and other dangerous stimulants.

Ayer's Asthma Cure

better known as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, has made a record for its remarkable cures of asthma. Cases that have been considered beyond hope or help have been cured by this remedy. We give two examples of such cures out of the many on record—

"My mother has been a great sufferer from asthma for the past ten years, and her recovery is almost without a parallel. On account of her advanced age—over seventy—we had little hopes of ever seeing her well again; but she was sincerely grateful to tell you that she has been entirely cured by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."

INGLIS BANKS, The Brook, N.B.

"I was a sufferer for a long time from asthma, vainly endeavoring to procure relief in the use of ordinary remedies. At length I was induced to try a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle afforded me so much benefit that I continued the use of the remedy until entirely cured."

FASHION AND FABRIC.

Plain colored pique de sole and very lively tinted tulle are among the favored autumn fabrics for evening toilets.

Clearly fitted waists with surplus fronts made of sheer tulle and French lace are worn with many dainty evening costumes.

Transparent materials and other beautiful summer wools are combined in some of the most stylish and attractive gowns of the season.

The prevalence of soft, beautiful, light colored cloth materials in contrast to the equally fashionable deeper dyes for the coming season's wear will be very marked.

Tulle of crepe de chine in all their varied and exquisite colorings are conspicuous among the smartest and most gracefully worn gowns at the various fashionable watering places this summer.

A great variety of lustrous reppé silks and other corded materials will be worn this autumn and not all of them plain. There are brocade stripes, plaids, checks and novel fancy patterns among the new weaves.

Buckles still remain a prominent part of dressy gowns. They are formed of cut steel, mock opal, pearl, rocco, jet or rhinestones, and they range in value from an imitation gilt device to genuine gold set with real diamonds.

Salter made suits of white or colored linen or pique, worn at the fashionable watering places, show many of the skirts made after the graceful five gored model.

Small, closely fitted, round fronted jackets open over waists of colored linen if the costume is white and of white pique or linen if the gown is colored.

Crepe de chine and ivory white wools are extremely popular, and the fabrics are made up into gowns appropriate for both day and evening wear. The transparent white organza, batiste and muslin, almost hidden by their elaborate trims of lace, are exceedingly beautiful and equally expensive.—New York Post.

BABY SUPERSTITIONS.

If you wrap the newborn baby in fur, it will have curly hair. A baby should touch a dog before ever it is allowed to touch a cat, as that will make its hair bushy.

To prevent the baby from wearing out its clothes fast let the swaddling band be a ribbon from the mother's bridal dress and something old for the clothing.

Let a newborn child be dressed up handsomely for three successive Sundays, and when it grows up its clothes will set well on it, and it will always be a quick "step."
