"Truth is Catholic; proclaim it ever, and God will effect the rest"—BALMEZ

ALIVE BOLLARD

VOL. XII., No. 44

TORONTO, THURSDAY, NOVEBER 3, 1904

. PRICE FIVE CENTS

MR. MICHAEL DAVITT

Speaks on Free Trade and Home Rule confiscation" preached in Connacht by in a Notable Speech

Glasgow; Oct. 17.-A most successful Irish demonstration was held in the Wellington Palace, Commercial road, this afternoon, when an address was delivered by Mr. Michael Davitt. Mr. Davitt addressed the meeting. He said: Your first resolution demanding National self-government for Ireland is in itself a testimony the devoted loyalty of Glasgow Irishmen to the cause of their Celtic fatherland. It is also a reasoned appeal to the political intelligence of this educated land of Scotland to give its support to the unanswerable claims of justice in this connection. No one who knows anything of the past record of Glasgow's Irish citizens can question that loyalty for a moment. It has been conspicuously and generously manifest in every stage of the struggle in Ireland during the past thirty years in the auxiliary efforts of able lieutenants, like our Chairman (cheers), which Glas- in this land of Scotland. Supposing gow has given to our movement, and that what was done by a Unionin the open-handed contributions that ist Government in the year 1903; have never failed to offer timely as after a quarter of a century of sistance to both the National organ- semi-social revolution in Ireland, and ization and the Irish Parliamentary all the attendant passions, crime, Party (cheers). Glasgow has been losses and waste of public money, and still is the chief citadel in Great had been accomplished by similar le-Britain of the Home Rule cause, and it is in keeping with this your posi- as well as Great Britain, be to-day tion and character that you should to-day once again address the people of Scotland in behalf of the princiis not an ordinary hostility, based upon constitutional grounds, or inby rational or fair conten-Nothing of the kind. The claim that two and two make four is not a bit more unanswerable in arithmetic than the claim put forward by three-fourths of the people of Ireland through four-fifths of their Election though we are far from elected representatives, for a system of National rule, based upon the free suffrages of all the people, similar to that of Canada and Australia, and by Mr. Chamberlain in the domestic ter), spoke in April, 1885, and they such as Ireland possessed a hundred affairs of Great Britain. That is, are as true to-day as when they for that system of Dublin Castle fiscal proposals which now occupy government which is anti-constitutional in character, an absolute and we in Ireland will make Home Rule complete failure in operation after a our usual campaign platform. Both century's experience, and which is today an institution without a friend cretary and that of Ireland-will be or a supporter in any political paraddressed to the working classes of to further enrich certain aristocratic remove the block (loud cheers).

HOME RULE IN ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND

ty (cheers). Against this constitu Great Britain, not necessarily as aland capitalistic interests at the cost, HOME RULE DOES NOT STAND tional claim of ours there is no answer, except one from England, which simply says: "No, we shant!" In other words, two and two, if Home Rule, must be sought for WAGES Irish, do not make four in England. through the assent of the electors, for the workers of town and country The sum works out all right in Canada, and in seven Australian colonies, but not in a land situated sixty miles westwards of Wales. But from the vastly preponderating mathough English antagonism is racial justy. But I am going to put and prejudiced, it is not by any both these proposed reforms formeans unconquerable, for we know ward to the tribunal of Scotch, Engthat almost every other Irish de- lish and Welsh workingmen, in ormand of the last one hundred years der to show their relative merits has been met in its time by the and value to the industrial demo-"no-we-shan't" answer an attitude, cracy of Great Britain (hear, hear). only to win its claim, nevertheless, Now, what does Mr. Chamberlain tice and through perseverance and enterprise and labor and for a closer sacrifice, just as will happen again bond of union between all parts of as a result of similar pressure in the the British Empire than what obcase of Home Rule (cheers). Allow tains at present? There is only one

THE MOST RECENT EXAMPLE. of this kind of Irish progress against English antipathy before our friends and opponents here in Scotland, as an argument in support of your first resolution. Twenty-five years ago the latest and greatest agitation for and a similar duty on dairy produce, land reform sprang into existence so as to favor importations from the among the peasantry of Ireland. Your colonies and to stimulate home prohonored chairman and myself had a duction in similar produce, may be (cheers). It was a radical agitation, a popular uprising for a root and branch reform of a system of land tenure as unjust as that of Dublin Castle, only two hundred years older in its sins against the right, name (cheers). But call it in the and in its legal and illegal infammeantime what we please, it will rectardly of the Portlands Devonies upon the industry and social welfare of the land workers of Ireland. The demand of the Land League was "the land for the people." (Cheers.)

FURRIERS

Fur time now at hand. Write to for our new Catalogue if you intend to purchase by mail. Call at the big

TORONTO-

Showrooms.

What was the answer from England? A stern, "we shan't." nunciations from Press, pulpit, and Parliament of "the communism and "mercenary agitation," an dall the rest. Then came coercion, with cocrime; after crime imprisonments, then partial concessions. The ''no we shan't' was changed into know the result of this ignorance and weakness associated with Westminster legislation for Ireland. There was more fierce agitation, more coersion, more crime. Lives were lost, prisons were filled again, the country was once more torn asunder, millions of public taxes were wasted in twenty-five years of unconstitutional rule ty-nve years of unconstitutional rule and all its consequences; when all the opponents of Irish Radical land reform capitulated (loud cheers), and the original demand "of the land for the people" was agreed to in various purchase acts for the buying out of the landlords of Ireland by means of State funds advanced at low rates of interest. Now, let me put this ONE QUESTION TO OUR UNION-IST OPPONENTS gislation in 1880; would not Ireland, enormously better in every possible way? (Cheers.) Who will deny the proposition? Another correlative ples for which you stand in this question necessarily follows, which is offer us besides a vigorous Foreign great contention for the rights of this: Are we to have a similar expolicy, which might perchance find perience of the "No-we-shan't" stu-THE OPPOSITION OFFERED TO pidity in English statesmanship on the present Irish demand for the which would undoubtedly raise their right of the people of Ireland to re- rents? gulate their own domestic con- return to Protection, in any shape or cerns in their own way as, say, faroff New Zealand does to everybody's satisfaction, and with no injury any kind done to a single British Imperial interest or concern? (Cheers). This, ladies and gentlemen, is the question which will not Election, though we are far from upon them by the Corn Laws, in or-urging that it should be made an der to keep up the rents of the landissue on this side of the Irish Sea, lords." These are Mr. Chamberparamount to one at present raised lain's own words (cheers and laugh-

the British people will vote on the the forefront of public attention, while ternative policies, but because all of such proposed reforms, whether in support of Protection or in behalf of the compelling force of its jus- advocate for the advantage of British honest name for this Fiscal scheme to levy duties upon foreign food, and that is Protection. The Prime Minister may insist that he is not a Protectionist, and so may Mr. Chamberlain; but a proposal to levy two shillings a quarter or imported foreign corn, a meat tax of five per cent. to do with the movement called anything you please so as to avoid a name with a bad reputa-tion; it will nevertheless be Protec-tion in both principle and practice. tion in both principle and practice, and it will never be disguised in its economic demerits under any other of in Great Britain, and not the scheme which will make bread and work out to that numerous and important section of the people known as consumers—namely, the families of wage-earners-in something like those mentioned, a bonus of about a million and a half pounds each year to Canadian and Australian producers, and to bring in some six million more pounds to the British Treasury, with which to offset a remitted duty on tea and tobacco; it is computed that

THE WORKING CEASSES

Why it is Safe

The Canada Permanent Mortgage Corporation is one of the largest and strongest in Canada or the United States.

It has a Capital, fully paid up, and Rest, amounting to $7,750,000. Its assets exceed TWENTY-THREE MILLION DOLLARS. It is under the management of an experienced and conservative Board of Directors and Staff of Officers, and in every transaction safety is placed above It is purely an Investment Company, not a speculative institution.

On Deposit Accounts Interest is Allowed at THREE AND ONE HALF PER CENT per annum, compounded half-yearly

HEAD OFFICE,

TORONTO Toronto-street,

NEARLY TWENTY MILLION

pean competing countries. This is Mr. Chamberlain's panacea (laughter) for the alleged decline of British trade and commerce, and the of relief which he makes to working classes of Great Britain and Ireland, who are the vast majority of the population of the three countries. Well, the answer has already been given to this offer (cheers). Every Trade Union organization has spoken decisively on the matter, and the reis borrowed from a high authorwhose words are clear and emphatic. They are as follows: "What is it that they (the Tories) have to places for some of their younger sons, or a tax on the food of the people, As to the prospect of a form, I think it is inconceivable that the agricultural interest would allow manufacturers to be protected while food imports went free, and I think it equally improbable that the working classes of this country will ever again submit to the sufferings and , to the miseries which were inflieted Radical opgave expression to the ionions of the ex-Colonial Secretary. Protection in these countries, as a substitute for Free Trade, can only benefit the landlord class at the expense of the consuming community and can have no other result than to further enrich certain aristocratic remove the block (loud cheers).

DEARER FOOD AND SMALLER

alike (hear, hear). It is an audacious proposal in face of the existing wealth of the rent-owning classes, and of the burthen which their monopoly of land and of mineral royalties enables them to place upon the shoulders of the whole industrial community. Cheap food for the masses coming from America, the Argentine, and Russia, is to be taxed so as to cost consumers about twenty millions more each year than at present, in order to encourage British agriculture and to benefit the Colonial producers, while British and Irish landlords actually levy a class or monopoly tax upon British and Irish industry, in the forms of agricultural rent, mineral royalties and ground rents, of more than £150,000,000 a No such monopoly tax is levied in the United States, or in the Argentine or the Colonies, nor even in Russia, and this is the chief reason why cheap food can reach these shores from those countries. These foreign countries are protected against class monopoly, and hence the ease with which they can comrent-rolls of the Portlands, Devonshires, Bedfords and Londonderrys. and other great land and colliery owners, with their enormous revenues levied off the sweat and toil of the farmers and miners of England, Wales and Scotland. It is quite unnecessary, above all at a Glasgow meeting, to insist upon all the industrial and social evils associated with CLASS OWNERSHIP OF LAND AND MINERAL RIGHTS:

now it handicaps industry, how banishes labour from country towns; how it causes crowding cities, creates slums, deteriorates the physique of the people and breeds pauperism. All this is as well known to Mr. Chamberlain to-day as when he delivered his historic Inverness speech some twenty years ago. But for the purpose of immediate argument I will quote a zecent pronouncement by a broad-mindthe little place to an infinitesimal residue of the population which is thousand individuals hold it all. opulating the country, and in makthe housing of our towns a public ndal. In the towns, which it has congested with slums, it lies heavy as a nightmare on all efforts to redeem the diaasters that it has pro-As a system, it tells dead against social reform. It is in possion; and nothing shakes it. If session; and nothing shakes it. If we insist on the sanitary laws, we send up the rents. If we put in action the laws against overcrowding, we send up rents. If we insist needful repairs to the houses we send up rents. If we raise the rates in order to provide conveniences, recreations, wash-houses, open spaces, rent is raised double the rise of rate. If we use public moneys the districts we have favored rise. If we want to clear a bad district the amount of compensation paralyses our remedial endeavors. If we desire to organize our urban develcannot do it without buying out inter-We are blocked every way." (Cheers). They are blocked every way, and will be blocked until the Eng-or for land monopoly, and this is why the Tory Party hate and fear it (hear, hear). It stands for Democracy; not in the narrow party or class sense of the word, but in its original Greek meaning; the rule of the people, by the people, for the people, irrespective of class, privileges, or of sectarian rivalries (loud cheers). There was political wisdom as well as an appeal to generous sentiment Church of England divine, Canon Barnet of Bristol, when a few days ago he urged the Labor leaders and organizations of Great Britain to put Home Rule and other just issues forward along with Labor's more direct claims. He said: "Labor should put in the forefront of its programme some item which confessedly will not bring material benefit to the workingman. Let Labor make Home Rule, fuller local goverament, or our foreign relations the battleground and not one of Labor's day of Cardinal Merry del Val, Paown special ends." (Cheers). But I want labor to have material benefit from its political activity as well as the moral recompense of a generous advocacy of all just causes. It is only under the influence of Home Rule institutions that a Labor Party has risen to the level of Government responsibility in the history of the world's politics. We have recently had, and I trust we will soon and Porto Rico, who took his fareagain see, a Labor Ministry in power in the Commonwealth of Australia (loud cheers). Think of what this Ministry of Labor for Great Britain (cheers). But Mr. Watson, late Premier of Australia, is only an antipodean John Burns; an able, honest, capable leader; and it was only un-der a Home Rule constitution that the working classes of a great Colonial community have been able to do, by organized action and political intelligence, what has never been acomplished heretofore in any country n Christendom, namely, the head of the Government of the country in which they live and labor (cheers).

> BRANCH . OFFICES :

FOR CLASS RULE

(Continued on page 5.)

THE CHURCH IN FRANCE

Government's Narrow Escape on the Separation Bill

Paris, Oct. 29.-M. Combes to-day presented the Government's project for the separation of Church and state to the committee of the Chamber of Deputies having charge of the subject. The measure embraces twenty-five articles, which do not differ materially from the committee's measure heretofore prepared. Some of the chief features of the Government's bill are as follows:

Instead of making an outrage separation as the committee proposed, M. Combes providing for a period of transition with the view of the ed English divine, Canon Scott Holland, in a late number of "The Commonwealth." Writing of class monopoly of land and of Government he says: "Yet, after all, we go and hand over the possession of transition with the view of the organization of new Church conditions, and allows the clergy an indemity of 400 i. for four years following the separation, in order to permit of their making new arrangements for the private support of the ments for the private support of the residue of the population which is crammed within its borders. A few thousand individuals hold it all. They own the hearth of Empire; we lic and religious manifestations on trust them to determine to what use the streets and highways; the generall its audacious flurkiness, work well? The answer is positive. As a plan of campaign, it has succeeded in depopulating the country and in the streets and highways; the general supervision of cults is retained; the French Embassy to the Vatican is suppressed, and there are many detailed the new regime.

The narrow escape of the Ministry last night from overthrow causes surprise and consternation in Ministerial circles. When the majority falls to twenty it is considered that the danger point has been reached. The Ferry Ministry resigned when its majority reached five. Therefore the narrow margin of four last night is the most serious blow the present Cabinet has received. It was the votes of the Ministers themselves which gave the slender majority.

The newspapers reflecting army sentiment continue to demand that the War Minister, General Andre, resign, The Figaro declaring that his retento scatter the population, and to give tion of his portfolio will raise in the them enlarged transit, the rents in army a feeling of indignation amounting to mutiny.

Death of Father Twohey

Kingston, Oct. 27.-News reached the Bishop's Palace to-day of the ests at a price which is prohibitory." death at two o'clock, this morning, at Mount Clemens, Michigan, Sanatarium, of Rev. Father Twohey, of Trenton, Archbishop Gauthier was at his bedside when life departed.

in Kingston, last month, he had to undergo treatment at the Hotel Dieu, and when he recovered sufficiently to church. I repeat emphatically, the be out, his doctors advised a complete rest. Accordingly he left Tren- word to the last and wish you ton, for Mount Clemens, where typhoid developed

The late Father Twohey was born in Lindsay, and was educated at the Regiopolis College, Kingston. He was stationed here for some time un-der the late Archbishop Cleary. Then he was appointed parish priest at an utterance by another leading Westport, afterwards being removed to Picton. About two years ago he was appointed to Trenton. He was chancellor of the diocese during the time of Bishop O'Brien, and was much beloved throughout the diocese.

Honor to Cardinal Secretary of Rome, October 24.-This being the feast of St. Raphael and the name many greetings, all the Cardinals and other high prelates being especially cordial. The greetings of Cardinal Rampolla, former Secretary of State, were especially appreciated.

Among the American callers was Archbishop Chapelle, of New Orleans, Apostolic Delegate for Cuba

Very Rev. Dominic Reuter, Trenton, N.J., the new general of the Order of Minor Conventuals, who weans, by imagining King Edward the Order of Minor Conventuals, who vill. having to send for John Burns and his first visit to Cardinal Mercheers) or Kier Hardie, to form a ry del Val since his appointment, informed the Papal Secretary that he would leave Rome in January for a visit to the European provinces in which there are establishments of Rome after Easter, 1906, for America, to preside at the chapter of the Conventuals there.

Monsignor Kennedy, rector of the American College, also visited Car-dinal Merry del Val and presented him with the good wishes of the whole American College, informing him that for the first time the col-But, allow me to carry my Scotch lege opened the year with 100 spu-and English workingmen friends with

Funeral of Cornelius Shields

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 31 .- The funeral of the late Cornelius was held this afternoon.

Study by Mail

The well-known Central Business College of Toronto, is giving the very best mail courses obtainable, in all Commercial subjects, including Advertising and illustrating, as well as a special course for the Chartered Accountants' Examination.

This college has a continental reputation for thorough work, and is the largest and best representative Canadian Business School, and anything it does is always well-done.

If a member of its field force is not convenient, anyone interested in Correspondence Instruction may obtain a copy of prospectus on application to the Central Business College. to the Central Business Yonge and Gerrard streets.

A DELIBERATE FABRICATION

Spread by the Conservative Press About the Recent Meeting of the Bishops

Montreal, Oct. 28.-His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi makes the following statement with regard to what transpired at the recent meeting of the Canadian Hierarchy at Three Rivers. His Grace stated that the meeting dealt purely in Ecclesiastical mat-

When show a report of the meeting which appeared in a Toronto paper, His Grace expressed great surprise and amazement. After reading the article His Grace said:

"This article astonishes me. It is false from beginning to end. To begin, there are several reported present who were absent. Archbishop O'Connor, of Toronto; Bishop Casey, of St. John, N.B., Bishop MacDonnell of Alexandria, Bishop O'Connor of Peterboro, Bishop Archambault of Joliette, Bishop Dowling of Hamilton, and Bishop Michaud of Vermont, who are mentioned as being present, were not there.

"The Archbishops of Canada only assist at the Council. The meeting is an annual event similar to that held by the Archbishops of the United States. The meeting takes place every year on the first Wednesday of October. For the last three years it was held in Ottawa. The meeting: this year was to be held in this city. but at the request of Bishop Cloutier, of Three Rivers and to change the date to October 13th, so as to afford the Archbishops the opportunity of assisting at the crowning of the statue of the Blessed Virgin, at Cap de la Madeleine.

"This explains the presence of the bishops simultaneously in Three Rivers with the archbishops, which the writer in his haste or ignorance put down as participating in the deliberations of the Council. They were not even present at the meetings, they came solely to assist at the crowning of the statue. The whole article is false from the first word to the last. The intimation or guess that we were to issue a joint ecumenical, letter on the political situa-tion of the day—that a hint might be passed among the cures not to oppose the Laurier candidates, and as the article continues, thereby let the schools should be forced upon the Territories or to try and obtain better terms from the Conservative leaders, is pure invention-false im every word. There was no mention made in any shape or form of poli-Father Twohey had been in failing tics. Neither did we discuss the health of late. When at the retreat school question. We discussed purechurch. I repeat emphatically, the whole article is false from the first would repeat in the Star my formal, positive and forcible denial to all assertions that there was any political question or phase discussed our meeting."

In reply to the question of his approaching visit to Rome had any bearings on the conclusions of the Council, the Archbishop replied: "None whatseever. I had planned my trip long before the meeting. I anticipate my ad limina visit, which is prescribed by the canons of the Church, and which I should make in 1905, in order to assist at the grand ceremonies of the Jubilee of the Immaculate Conception. My venerable predecessor, the late Mgr. Bourget, fifty years ago assisted at the pro-mulgation of the Immaculate Con-ception, and I think it fitting and proper to assist at the golden jubilee of the event. It will be my first opporpal Secretary of State, he received tunity to pay my respects to His Holiness, Pius X.

The Archbishop will leave New York on November 3rd, in company with Rev. Canon E. Roy.

Abbey 300 Years Old

The ninth centennial of the cele brated Abbey of Grottaferrata, near Rome, will be celebrated with solemn ceremony Friday. Cardinal Vannu-telli will be the principal celebrant.

This Abbey is the only monastery in Italy where all the ceremonies are conducted according to the Roumanthe celebration will be an exhibit on of art objects illustrating the history the order. He will again leave of the famous Abbey, which was founded by St. Nilo in the eleventh

> A Cure for Fever and Ague .- Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are compounded for use in any climate, and they will be found to preserve their powers in any latitude. In fever and ague they act upon the secretions and neutralize the poison which has found its way into the blood. They trance into the system through correct the impurities which find endrinking water or food and if used as, a preventive fevers are avoided.

That's the expression used by the greatest musicians to mark the exclusive place held by the Heintzman & Co. PIANO Ye Olde Firme of Heintz-man & Co.

For over fifty years we have been giving experience and study to the perfecting of this great piano.

Plano Salon: 116-117 King St. W., Toronto

CELEBRATED LIHICH VALLEY COAL

P. BURNS & CO.

COAL AND WOOD MERCHANTS

HEAD OFFICE TOPONTO. Can-

Long Distance Telephones Main 131 and 132

PRINCESS STREET DOCK

CORNER FRONT AND BATHURST STS.

Telephone Main 449

428; Yonge Street—Telephone Main 3298
572 Queen Street West—Telephone Main 139
304 Queen Street Bast—7 disphone Main 134
429 Spadina Avenue—Telephone Main 210
1312 Queen Street West—Telephone Park 711
274 Quilt ge Street West—Telephone North 1179
324; Queen Street West—Telephone Main 1409

the creaking boiler. "Come, shut keyhole used to be and insinuatingly

ed of seven men, three firkins, and

Some miles beyond the town Phil to have a shoe fastened. But, of "Michael."

"Phil, avourneen," said I, "let me made the old rafters shake. Then, clear out on the floor. Phil said he heard the delf on the dresser shake;

"What the divil?" shrieked Michael,

'What the divil's up out there, that ye must thry to knock down a man's

"It's not yer fault, then, or ye'd rise him. Who the divil's tnere?"

humble servant, and several other equally respectable country gentlemen, who are thryin' to keep the pavement warm batin' it wid their

"All right," said Michael, "I'll be with ye immaijetely," and after five minutes I discovered, on prying through a broken pane, Michael once more in the arms of Morpheus, and he snorin' like vengeance. "Michael!" I yelled, that you might have heard

"Holy Moses!" * roared Michael,

'Sarra foot I'll go! Do you want she seems to have enough to do to travel on her feet. Howsomever, I'll

In ten minutes we had the shoe fas-

Phil now said that the first cart they overtook the firkins we were carrying would have to be transferred to it; for it was against the " master's ordhers to lift firkins. We soon came up with Peter Cassidy who had up, "ye'll hev to put another couole of firkins on. I hev too hig a load.'

"So you won't oblige me by puttin'

"The dickens take ye for a stupid

"Och, well, niver mind, ye could cadger ye!"' said Phil, who wasn't going to be outdone in abusive language. "If ye wanted to be disobligin' at self ye might larn to keep ye dhrive him about, ye ould profii-

"Can ye take a couple of firkins?"

he was blowed if he's put it on. The owner of the rejected firkin thereupon bosthune! Don't ye see I can't?'

"It's too many I hev altened and we were leaving Michael rise Michael for you, and that in the mare to thravel on her knees?"

who wants a shoe fastened,

"The divils are Phil McGoldrick,

"The divil's not out here at all, at but I won't vouch for that.

house lake that?"

all. Michael.

ened there.

am with ye!"

Peter.

ready.

on a hungry firkin?"

within. Then he shouted: "Michael!"

offer from one of his father's old in the most prominent spot you can find, make tea with the apparatus we provide, and distribute sample cups of a man and cuite corolla of them to find.

Dut surreptitious ways are not hard for them to find.

Philip considered himself very much common. I ain't a mite afraid of or was fond of it. progress. You are to pitch your tent but surreptitious ways are not hard in rnnning order-to be the business over the rail to join them one manager, in fact. Of course we pay them stopped him. all expenses. Will you do it?"

at-if you're willing to trust me- body's nag? I'll be glad to try it.

cipal requirements. It's a man's races this fall than you've ever seen work, but I believe you are capable altogether. I know something about work, but I believe you are capable altogether. I know something about the most satisfyin' boy!" said she roared out such a "Michael!" as carroll Watson Rankin in the Youth's must have lifted that individual morrow morning if you decide to un-dertake it, and I'll give you detailed fiver on Torchlight." instructions.

The following morning Philip went outs of betting, however, was far home jubilant. Forty dollars a more limited than he suspected; but month and expenses seemed a prince, the men winked at one another. They ly sum to the boy. He thought almost scornfully of his classmate, Sam Peters, who was tremendously elated over the prospect of earning five dol-found their way into the lad's hands. It was in early May, and I was defound their way into the lad's hands. In a little touring, and on this lad's hands. lars a week.

a good thing while it lasts, and mo-

week to week in strange and divers other neck was craned to see the horses sweep down the home stretch, Corrigan. places. He visited towns that were Mrs. Bailey sat with her shrewd eyes undergoing the agonies of street fixed upon Philip's face. She saw it "You'd scarcely recognize," said related the same at Cuileagh. Tairs, firemen's tournaments, Fourth grow white as the horse's swept past he, "a horse's track when you'd sec me at Cuileagh. "Holy Moses of July and other celebrations. He the judges' stand and under the wire. one—you haven't that much 'gump-travelled in the wake of circusses and "M land!" said she. "If I'd real-shin."

complicated gasoline stove, solved this world's comin' to." the problem of serving the greatest With empty pockets and hanging meet it in the middle of the Sahnumber of persons in the shortest head Philip worked his way through ara.' space of time, and learned to hire, the crowd and set off across the field The aproned assistants.

possessed at least one small boy who from view. Then, with a long, re-McGoldrick, the driver. "Where's was willing, for the triffing reward of a dime and a few sample packages of tea, to fill bis big copper boil
"But when a mere babe like that is returned Phil." ers with water, and to keep the steeped in vice it don't take him "Did the Bishop understand, my first, but he profited by them. Mr. been so mistaken in anybody. Well, "I don't know, nor devil a bit of broken pane would have fetched him. well enough to earn a living by it. Prescott, the teaman, had reason to it's too bad-too bad!"

friends. He had a bright, attractive for the night, some motherly impulse face; he carried his handsome head impelled her to look in upon her with a jaunty, self-respecting air, and young neighbor for a farewell word. he was all business. His small boy It was the last day of the fair, and assistants spoke of him as "the pro-prietor" and addressed him as "sir." she knew that the tea-tent would be Moreover, his mother was a gentlewoman; therefore her boy's speech in' to make a gambler of me," said was refined and his manners were ir- she, philosophically, "and a reproachable. "A fine boy," was the word ain't goin' to do the lad verdict wherever he went.

him in northern Michigan, where the chap-' Carp County Agricultural Fair was in progress. He obtained permission to pitch his tent between what the ed on a wooden box, with his head directors facetiously called "the jel- against the gasoline tank, his face ly-and-jam building" and the horticul-tural department. By Monday noon missed his assistants, and he sat his outfit was unpacked and every- alone, as Mrs. Bailey said afterwards, thing was ready for business; but the crowd was not ready for tea.

The fair grounds were inconviently far from town. Many of the exhibit- spreading a newspaper over an upors who had no horses and felt too turned boiler and seating herself bepoor to patronize the railroad, even side Philip, "I want to know how at greatly reduced rates, carried long this here gamblin' business has their exhibits from town, over two been goin' on? You didn't strike miles of dusty road.

The distance, too, from the en- stock." trance gate to the buildings was considerable; bit it seemed never to oc-cur to the lounging group of men and boy's knee. Mrs. Bailey noticed it siderable; bit it seemed never to ocboys just within the gate to offer with a sudden ray of hope. any assistance to tired old women, y ho fairly staggered under the weight and his helpers instructed, Philip any betting?" found time heavy on his hands until he discovered a weary old woman bent almost double over a huge basket of carrots.

"Let me help you," said Philip, springing to her assistance. This was only the first of many baskets that the energetic lad carried Toward noon he went to town for men.

that sprawled on the benches. "I state, with no visible means of reachguess you don't belong to this ing his destination. I found I had another ring to grow badge, upon which was printed, "Su- an idiot. I'm so ashamed I—" ing the scene lively. The sun was perintendent of Class G." "It beats "I don't know but that's the one just rubbing the sleep out of his

THE CAKE AND PIE ANGEL

The last day of the fair was the time set for an exciting series of horse races. The attendance on Friday afternoon exceeded all previous records, and the entire crowd was ing his triumphant graduation from the high school had grown cold Philip

The last day of the fair was the time set for an exciting series of horse races. The attendance on Friday afternoon exceeded all previous records, and the entire crowd was assembled upon or near the grand stand. Upon the platform used for the acrohatic performances Philip saw thing about me except what I we told the acrohatic performances Philip saw thing about me except what I we told the acrohatic performances Philips and the morning I'll see to it that you have enough to pay your way to whatever you want to go—and no but the wiser."

"Except me," said Philip, genuine ly surprised and deeply touched. "But, "Completed a magnificent touching scene.

Mrs. Bailey, you don't know one thing about me except what I we told the morning I'll see to it that you have enough to pay your way to whatever you want to go—and no but the wiser."

"Except me," said Philip, genuine ly surprised and deeply touched. "But, "Completed a magnificent touching scene.

Phir piled men and firkins on the little farmers sitting by the waythat a property was the time set for an exciting series of horse races. The attendance on Friday and the mouths of lanes nursing the little firkins of butter till a cart or car should come along and side at the mouths of lanes nursing the mouths of lanes nursing the part of the morning I'll see to it that you have enough to pay your way to whatever you want to go—and nobody a bit the wiser."

"Except me," said Philip, genuine ly surprised and deeply touched. "But, "Except me," a lift, "completed a magnificant touching scene." the high school had grown cold Philip stand. Upon the platform used for Conway was listening to a business the acrobatic performances Philip saw thing about me except what I've told car without stint, until on rolling several men with their heads close together over certain small books. Philip had attended too many coun-"If you accept this position," the try fairs not to recognize the men at man was saying, "you are to go from, once as professional betters, who make to place to place all over the country, were quietly making wagers on the place to place, all over the country, various races. Their business is selwherever any unusual gathering is in dom conducted openly at the fairs, in' very far astray in her judgment cog. It is remarkable that most provide, and distribute sample cups of a man, and quite capable of taking you. and advertising matter to the crowd. care of himself under any circumstan-In each town you will need to hire ces. To be sure, he had no intention two neat young women by the day to of betting, but he wanted to see what serve tea and wash the dishes. You was going on. The men on the plat-meed do none of the actual labor form seemed to be having a lively yourself, but you are to keep things time; but as Philip was climbing

"Run home to your mather, sonny" "I must do something," replied said the man, sneeringly. "Were you think I'm equal to thinkin of puttin five cents on some-Philip colored angrily, drew a roll "Prof. Kendall says you have plen-ty of executive ability, and that you are trustworthy. Those are the prin-want to. I've seen more horse

Philip's knowledge of the ins and scented an easy victim

Torchlight won the first heat, and Elated at sight of the money and particular occasion was about to pro-"Of course," said Philip. grandly, spured on by the jeers and commen-tit isn't the sort of thing a man dations of the men, Philip threw cau-of Cavan, to Enniskillen. wants to engage in for life, but it's tion to the winds, staked all he had My friend Corrigan, who was seeing won-and more-on the second heat, me off, accompanied me to Duff's-la,

"Wild West" shows-wherever there ized sooner what he was up to I'd was a crowd there was Philip with marched over there and rescued same time," said I, looking hard at a him! But maybe he ain't worth sav- mark left in the mud by his foot, with careful judgment, his two white- toward the little white tent. Mrs. Bailey, surprised and disappointed, He discovered too, that each town watched him until he disappeared him the pleasantest boy I ever laid Enniskillen to-day in that waggo Of course Philip made mistakes at eyes on! I don't know when I've ette?"

gone in the morning.

"After all, sayin' good-by ain't goharm, if he is bad. When all's said The latter part of September found and done, he's been the politest young

"just swallowed up in grief and unwashed teacups."

"See here," said Mrs. Bailey, me, somehow, as comin' of gamblin'

There was no response, but some

"Cry away if you want to," said she, laying a kindly hand on Philip's of home-made pickles, potted plants shoulder. "I don't know as I thank shoulder rolls of rag carpet. "I don't know as I thank any less of you for it. Was this, by His tent up, his samples unpacked any chance, the first time you've done

Philip nodded his head. 'Sure pop, honor bright?" "Honor bright!" mumbled Philip, with a gulp. "The last, too."
"Sure pop, the last?"

"Yes. "Then you sit up here and ?ell me made me sick to see you with those acter of the car-drivers.

men.

Touched by her sympathy, Philip gate of the fair grounds on his reportly woman with two baskets filled portly woman with two baskets filled with plates.

Touched by her sympathy, Philip ould Balcoort himself.'

it; ye're fad enough lookin' to be ould Balcoort himself.'

ould Balcoort himself.'

'I can take wan.''

'Off wid yours, now,'' said Phil, and a near relation to Mr. Ballory with plates.

ould Balcoort himself.'

'I am a near relation to Mr. Ballory with plates.

ould Balcoort himself.''

it; ye're fad enough lookin' to be ould balcoort himself.''

ould Balcoort himself.''

it; ye're fad enough lookin' to be ould balcoort himself.''

ould Balcoort himself.''

it; ye're fad enough lookin' to be ould balcoort himself.''

ould balcoort himself.''

it am a near relation to Mr. Ballory with plates.

out of the first in the state wan.''

portly woman with two baskets filled in the state wan.''

portly woman with two baskets filled in the state wan.''

it; ye're fad enough lookin' to be out of the firkins of the firkins of the firkins on the car; wand pitch him entertain a portly woman with two baskets filled in the state wan.''

portly woman with two baskets filled in the state wan.''

it; ye're fad enough lookin' to be out of the firkins ployer, from whom he had received him entertain a wholesome awe of "Let me carry those baskets," said

Philip, touching his cap.

"It's easy to see you've been well brought up," said the woman, with brought up," said the woman, with brought up, "said the woman, with brought up," said the woman, with the disdainful glance at the loungers in three days at a fair in another thramps as all that. Faith, they must thramps as all that. Faith, they must thramps as all that. Faith, they must be was blowed if he's put it on. The guess you don't belong to this ing his destination.

"But, oh, dear! Mrs. Bailey," he concluded, "the worst of it all is that ger him.

"State, with no visible means of reaching to grow owner of the rejected firkin thereupon owner of the rejected firkin thereupon on my horn yet before I could bad-concluded, "the worst of it all is that ger him. I'm so horribly disappointed in my-"I'm the cake-and-pie woman," vo, self! I did think I had more sense. Swanlinbar, and the market cars hugging his little firkin, and looking services, for fifteen cents per hour.

all, the way folks bring their dough- redeeming feature," said Mrs. Bailey. eyes (which were watery enough lookredeeming feature. Said Mrs. Balley and cake and cake and goodness knows what else, without a sign of a plate to put 'em on. Every year I have to lug out a bushel or two of plates for other people's doughnuts. Come in when you're huggry and I'll let you sample some of mine. Thank you you green in when you're huggry and I'll let you sample some of mine. Thank you you green without further words that the betting ain't a safe poy as you are—mine went to Cuba. This home with me ent to Cuba. This home with me, and get a good hot supper, for a don't believe you're had not returned.

During the week that followed Mrs. Bailey and the "tea-boy" exchanged many courtesies in the way of 'ea, and the 'itea-boy' exchanged many courtesies in the way of cookies and curs of lates back to the car for me, two of tea, and the long, tire words that the belephone bell rang faces character of Bickle's Anti-Consumption, and the mists were rising from the eastern in the week that followed Mrs. Bailey and the "tea-boy" exchanged many courtesies in the way of cookies and curs of whith the telephone bell rang faces character of Bickle's Anti-Consumption, and the mists were rising from the eastern in the start that the telephone bell rang faces character of Bickle's Anti-Consumption, and the mists were rising from the valleys and larily cereming the thing about horse racing, but there also many thing about horse racing, but the 'ull do say it's all fixed up beforehand who had the consumption and the mists were rising from the valleys and larily cereming the thing about the eastern will all the vill do say it's all fixed up beforehand who had the consumption and the mists were rising from the valleys and larily cereming the thing about the season's the telephone bell rang faces character of Bickle's Anti-Consumption, and the mists were rising from the larily and the at length. "Ye'd betther be at there do in 'some thing, and the at length. "Ye's, if ye let on the firkin."

"Yis, if ye let on the firkin."

"Yill, ye let, in the coll of the t nuts and cake and goodness knows "Seventy-five dollars! That's a heap ing, like he had been on the "tare"

you. How do you know I'm to be through Swanlinbar our load consisttrusted?'

"I'm willing to risk it," returned my portmanteau. The Swanlinbar mrs. Bailey, beaming over her specple didn't seem to recognize me, "I guess a woman that's for they didn't call out the band or tacles. seven cows in her lifetime, that sort of thing. I was glad of bought without bein' cheated once, ain't go- this, for I was travelling strictly in-

"You're just an angel! I don't pulled up at Michael Maguire's forge know how to thank-' said course, Michael was yet in bed. Phil "Just a cake-and-pie angel," Mrs. Bailey, rising cautiously from put his mouth to the place where the up shop as quick as you can, my lad. whispered: It's most time for the last train. Neither Philip nor Mrs. Bailey said All to no purpose. I knew Michael a word about repaying the loan, but within a month the money began to return in instalments. Each check return in instalments. was accompanied by a letter that turb his dreams.

Mrs. Bailey considered far more pre- "Phil, avourned" cious than the money. She read and at the door," and I gave him such a reread those letters until the paper "tindhearary"—so Phil called it— as parted at the creases. "The politest, the pleasantest and applying my mouth to the keyhole, I Companion.

On An Irish Jaunting Car

(By Seumas MacManus.)

ther needs every dollar I can earn throw Mr. Prescott is doing this solely because he and father were such friends, but I II just show him that he didn't make any mistake."

With this noble resolve the lad started out upon his new and unuscrated out upon his new and unuscrated and early other neck was craned to see the content of the final heat, when every other neck was craned to see the content of the lad of the final heat, when every other neck was craned to see the content of the lad of the lad of the final heat, when every other neck was craned to see the content of the lad of the lad of the final heat, when every other neck was craned to see the content of the lad of

"It is not," said I.

"That may be, indeed; but at the He mastered the intricacies of a ing. Dear me! I don't know what "at the same time," said I, "I'd know a donkey's track if I was to

> The arrival down the lane of Duffy's side-car at this point checked reprisals. "Hello, my man," said I to Phil the waggonette?" "Gone to Glan with the Pishop.

freakish gasoline stove from explod- long to land in the penitentiary-and good man, that I intended riding to double-quick time.

me cares-that's more.' heart.

"Troth, an' I'm thinking them that tould you were a gintleman has a rising till we come back." dail to answer for. Gintleman, mor-yah! They must be turnin' out chape pattherns somewhere if you're wan. 'Now, see here! I came to get a seat on a waggonette, and not only do I meet with insult from you, but and his concern behind.

you turn around and ask me to go on a rickety old side-car that I verily believe was the identical one used to wheel the bears into Noah's ark. said I, "you are a vile impos-Sir."

"Aisy, avic, who axed you to go on a load of firkins on his cart. I av car? Ye're very schaight intiremy car? Ye're very schaight intirely if I thrust the likes of ve on it at all, at all, for I misdoubt me very much if I could persuade a dacint man to sit alongside ye." "I won't go on your gol-dinged, old tax-cart, ye son of a lobster! "Maybe," said Phil insinuatingly, maybe c'd lake to go tandem?

"Why," said I, somewhat mollified, "I don't care if I do. I should have preferred the waggonette; but seeing can't get it, I don't mind if I go

"All right, agrah, jist step out wan foot afore the other, an' when a civil tongue in yer head. If ye ye reach Enniskillen ye can tell 'em widout a lie that ye came in tandem.''

I gave him one withcring look that should have caused an ordinary man to shrink up and vanish.

I gave him one withcring look that should have caused an ordinary man to shrink up and vanish.

I gave him one withcring look that should have caused an ordinary man to shrink up and vanish.

I gave him one withcring look that some of these days, ye illittle could be expected of the lakes of ye, that niver had as much man that you are dependent on me while the neatly mended garments with a most gratified air, saying, as she will be attentioned to the lakes that you are dependent on me while the neatly mended garments with a most gratified air, saying, as she will be attentioned to the lakes that you are dependent on me while the neatly mended garments with a most gratified air, saying, as she will be attentioned to the properties the neatly mended garments with a most gratified air, saying, as she will be attentioned to the properties the neatly mended garments with a most gratified air, saying as she will be attentioned to the properties the neatly mended garments with a most gratified air, saying as she will be attentioned to the properties the neatly mended garments with a most gratified air, saying as she will be attentioned to the properties the neatly mended garments with a most gratified air, saying as she will be attentioned to the properties the neatly mended garments with a most gratified air, saying as she will be attentioned to the properties the neatly mended garments with a most gratified air, saying a she will be attentioned to the properties the properties the properties the propert to shrink up and vanish.

Phil only laughed heartily, and said: ners as would carry mate to a bear! "Why, then, if ye won't go tandem, I'll take pity on ye. Step up, avic." An' as for your ould rickle of a horse, small wondher ye wouldn't put After crying my good-by over Cor- a load on him he's for all the world rigan I got up along with a few lake a delf-crate on four props, an' it killen market.

to gate ye!' As we proceeded, I endeavored about it like a man. If you can just entertain Phil (and inspire him with I perhaps should have mentioned from the gate to the buildings that convince me that I haven't made a respect, also) with a fiction about day. The people amused him by their quaint speeches, and it did not occur to him that he was doing any occur to him that he was doing any for some hours. I declare, it just convince me that I haven t indic a mistake in you, after all, you'll make how I was a government official travelling through these parts for the he turned the flood of abuse on him. We soon overtook another cart. "Troth," said he, "I don't doubt said Phil to the driver.

We were nearing the village

Junteered his companion, displaying a I didn't dream that I could be such coming from Curlough were render- appealingly from cartman to cart- Telephone connection." man; but "No kind emotion made reply No answering glance of sympathy." "What'll I do?" said he at length.

November: ELEVENTH

DAY OF MONTH DAY OF WREE + 1904 + ALL SAINTS. Holy day of obligation. T. Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. 7 Of the Octave of All Saints. 3 4 T. F. S. Charles Borromeo Of the Octave of All Saints. S. Twenty-fourth Sunday After Pentecost. Su. M. T. Vesper Hymn, "Lucis Creator Optime." .6 Of the Octave of All Saints. Octave of All Saints. Dedication of St. John Lateran. W. 19 S. Andrew Avellino. w. S. Martin of Tours. 11 S. S. Martin I., Pope. 12 Twenty-fifth Sunday after Pentecost Pa ronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Vesper Hymn, Su. 13 Ave Maria Stella. Deusdedit, Pope. M. S. Gertrude. 15 W. S. Josaphat. S. Gregory the Wonderworker. 17 T. Dedication of the Basilicas of SS. Peter and Paul. F. S. S. Pontianus, Pope 19 Twenty-sixth Sunday after Pentecost S. Felix of Valois. Vesper Hymn, "Ave Maria Stella." Su. M. 20 Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. 21 T. W. S. Cecilia. 22 S. Clement, Pope. r. 23 S. John of the Cross. 24 F. 25 26 S. Catharine. S. S. Sylvester, First Sunday of Advent Vesper Hymn, "Iste Confessor." Su. M. T. W. 27 S. Gregory III., Pope. S. Gelasius I., Pope. Fast. S. Andrew, Apostle. 29 30

firkin on me knee till I get to the waking up. "Is Bedlam loose this mornin'?" "Musha," said Phil, after the roar of laughter at this proposition had "No, Michael, nothing loose, barsubsided, "but it was the pity they rin' the mare's shoe."

"All right, I'll be with ye immaijetely," and "immaijetely" Michael fortunate divil, an' throw the firkin turned over and went to sleep once into the well of the car, an' if iver ye ax me put a firkin on the mare again I tried to force Phil to drive on I'll taich ye to dance a reel that yer to Enniskillen and get the shoe fast- diddler nivir larnt ye. And so we rolled into Enniskillen. And our carload melted away like e mare to thravel on her knees?" the morning mists. And I bade fare"Well, I should think not," said I. well to Phil McGoldrick.

THE PLACE

If Michael was anywhere this side "There's no use, Aunt Emma. of Kingdom-come my yell now at the can't think of anything that I do After the usual parley, Michael was I surely can't wash, as most of the feel that he had made a wise choice in selecting his friend's son as his advertising agent.

Wherever the lad went he made Wherever the lad went he made when she had locked up her building for the had locked up her building for the constraint of the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the way to answer a gentleman?' said I, straightening myself up with the wa down here to Charlie Murphy's to undrum over which I've been puzzling have a treat, and ye needn't mind these three weeks. I seem to be no "Hould on ye, ye bla'guards!" said it up. Somewhere in the world there nearer its solution, but I'll never give Michael. "Don't dare go there till I is a place for me, and I'll find it

From the look of determination on the speaker's face, one might be sure she would make good her words. "You know you are welcome to stay here, dear, forever, if you like. We would all be glad to have you." "I know, Aunt Emma; I feel very grateful to you for all your kindness, more grateful than I can express; but you don't need me, and if I stayed here it would be as a dependent on your charity, and my father's daughter could never fill that position gracefully." "Och, the sarra wan more!" replied

There was silence for a while, as the two ladies sewed busily, the elder with a steady, restful manner, like one who, having found her place in life, takes placid content therein; the younger with rapid, impatient fingers and a brow clouded by thought. At length she folded the garment on which she had been working, laid it on the pile beside her, and carried them all to her aunt. That lady don't, maybe some wan jill be afther, the neatly mended garments with a you mend like that, for you are worth your weight in gold. Two or three of those garments-now as good as new, thanks to your skillwould have gone for rags; tor posicountrymen who were going to Engis- baits me to know why the polis lets tively I cannot find time to do all of such work that needs to be done, but do what I can and let the rest

> Laura said she was glad she had that Phil, took care to get some little helped her, and turned to go with distance ahead of his victim, before the same pre-occupied, thoughtrul look. She had taken but a few steps when she paused, turned toward her aunt, and exclaimed:
> "Does every housekeeper have as > much mending as you, aunt?"

> "Why, yes," that lady replied, wonderingly; "more, usually, and ever so your ould firkins on there. Off wid yours quickly or VII heel all into the "Then that's my business, I'll go "Then that's my business. I'll go from house to house and mend.' "What are you talking about,

"I'll show you in a week or two." In the Daily Record, two days later, there appeared the following:
"Miss Laura Baldwin, No. 8 B street, will mend and repair neatly, of the poor fellow stood, affectionately at the houses of those who desire her and Laura soon had her hands full. while her aunt comically remarked that the telephone bell rang inces-"Ye'd betther be afther doin' somethin', an' that quick," said Phil; tained an assortment of silks and thread, scissors, thimble, etc., and thread, scissors, thimble, etc., and what is claimed for it. It is sure in Educational

For Electricity or Gas. Church work a specialty.

McDonald & Willson

St. Michael's

IN APPILIATION WITH College der the special patronage of Hist Grace the Archbishop of Toronto, and directed by the Basilian Fathers.

Full Classical, Scientific and Commercial Courses

Special courses for students preparing or University Matriculation and Non-Professional Certificates.

TERMS, WHAY PAID IN ADVANCE : I Day Pupils..... 30

For further particulars apply to REV. J. R. TEEFY, President, oretto Abbey... WELLINGTON PLACE, TORON:0, ORT

LADY SUPERIOR.

ESTAPLISHED School of Practical Science TORONTO

The Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering of the University of Toronto.

Departments of Instruction. 1-Civil Engineering. 2-Mining Engineering. 3-Mechanical and Electrical Engineering. 4-Architecture.
5-Analytical and Applied Chemistry.

3-Chemical. 2-Assaying. 3-Milling. 4-Steam. 5-Metrological. 6-Electrical. 7-Testing. Calendar with full information may be Laboratories.

had on application.
A. T. LAING, Registrar.

The Course of Instruction in this Academy Imbra-ivery Branch Suitable to the Education of Young Lad grew, and her purse allowed her luxuries for herself and gifts for oth-ers, and she laughingly assured her elephone connection."

"The idea took," as the saying goes, vastly comfortable.—The Household.

"Perfectly Trustworthy" is the HOME CIRCLE ****

rang sharply over her head, and up visitor, sitting in the cool parlor, heard the message wafted down.

What a revelation it was of tender

one foot raised, stood the flushed as the sweet tones went from her the ingratitude, the lack of love for us, which finds her packing up her

The mother replied, "It will be all

A quick patter of feet and the natural ways of children we should be surprised at the beautiful paths into which a little child would lead

FROM CELLAR TO GARRET

If stovepipes are well rubbed with of newspapers, they can be safely

Alum, the size of a hickory nut, dissolved in a pint of starch will brighten the color in muslins, ginghams and calicoes after washing.

Grass stains on linen should be soaked for a few moments in kerosene then washed in very hot water with

If non-rust hairpins are used to

The fastidious girl secures a num-her neck and belt ribbons smoothly

After table silver has been polished, if laid away, it will keep bright for a year in a paper box well covered with flour that has been thoroughly

Blood stains on a silk gown can be

A faded cotton dress can be made white by boiling in cream of tartar

Several thicknesses of newspapers laid between the bed springs and mat-shoulders where it can be licked but with a soft cloth moistened with lukewarm water to which a little amonia has been added. Use very lightly and immediately wipe the pic-ish Pain in the Back

Cured Mrs. Jas. Murphy and everyone else she recommended them to-

River Gagnon, Que., Oct. 21 .-

(Special).-No complaint is so com-

Back. It is a safe estimate that fully half the women in Canada are afflicted with it. For that reason every evidence that there is a sure and complete cure in existence is thankfully received. And there is nev Pills is just such a cure. This but one is enough for an example.

phy. She says:
"I suffered for thirty-eight months

IN EVERY CASE

ture with a soft dry cloth.

Photographs can be nicely cleaned removed by cold strong borax wa-stored without fear of rust.

a generous supply of soap.

plot as in regular stretchers.

make excellent dusters.

camphor before wetting.

donning easy.

over them.

a soft, dry cloth.

not rolled off.

dried.

generous application of alcohol.

"Good-night, Hilda dear!"

She hurriedly shuffled on her gear, she had started up the and precious womanhood!

and take liberties with us.

refering to the cook.

fitly spoken."

the basement she must toil.

THE ROSE.

Why is the rose, beyond compare, The queen of flow'rs? 'Tis not more Than many others-nor so rare. Its dainty petals, folded tight, Enshrine a heart-or red, or white-That breathes of love-exhales de-

O, mystery of Nature's art—
'Tis just that quality of heart,
That sets the rose for e'er apart.
—Mary M. Redmond in Donohoe's for September.

GREEN TOMATO PICKLE.

Cut a thin slice off both top and bottom of tomatoes, slice and sprinkle with salt, using one cup of salt to a peck of tomatoes. Drain the next morning, boil filteen minutes in two quarts of boiling water with one quart of vinegar, then drain again. Boil for five minutes two red-pepper pods (cut into stripes) in two quarts of vinegar with half a tablespoonful of white mustard seed and one-half cupful of mixed spieces. One pound or one cupful of sugar is added to the boiling vinegar and the tomatoes gently simmered in it for half an hour, then the spices removed and the pickles sealed in jars.

CHOW CHOW.

her what money cannot buy? Make a strong brine, and from time to time drop in tender bean pods, young pop-corn cars, onions, caulinight deared, a child asked: flower (pulled apart), both green and ripe tiny peppers, small green tomatoes, cucumbers, unripe cantelopes cut in cubes, and nasturtium seeds. When ready to bottle, put in fresh water, cook for fifteen minutes then drain and boil for another fifteen minutes out: in the following dressing: Mix one-quarter of a pound each of mustard and tumeric with sufficient cold vine- beaming face of the little Swedish gar to, form a smooth paste, then maid appeared at the foot of the add to it three cupfuls of brown su- stairs with a dear tacked to the end gar, one-quarter of a pound each of celery seed and white mustard seed far from perfect, but the dear was an It doesn't mean to be unkind, with one quart of vinegar. Seal in medium-sized bottles or jars. the fatherland.

The summer homes of many wellknown people are known more by their title than by the railroad station near them. The Vanderbilt homes are called Deepdale, Shady Point and Idle Hour; John Jacob Astor's home is known as Ferncliffe on the Hudson; Hamilton Fish calls his place Rocklawn; Lilian Bell's pretty place on the Hudson is called Applethorp; and Robert J. Burdette's home in Passadena is Sunny Crest. Of course there must be music a lasting luster than without. the christening and all will join in, at least, one verse of "Home, Sweet Home," at the close. When moving into a new house the Germans repeat this little prayer: "Take from us.

O Lord our God! all heartaches and homesickness and all trouble, and grant us health and happiness where we kindle our fire." Selections may be read or recited from The Hanging of the Crane and part of the blessing of the cornfield from "Nia-watha," by Longfellow and the "Dream of Home," by Moore.

WHEN YOU GO TO COLLEGE.

I hope you have been judicious in your selection of clothing. You are wise if you have spent your extra shekels on the dresses that are to have the most wear. The light, befrilled creations to be worn only on festive occasions may far more wisely be made of cheaper material. The best material that can be afforded should be used in the making of the week-day dresses. The girl whose school dresses are made of cheap material works under a real disadvantage, since an unexpected exposure to rain or other accident literally wilts the garment, and its days of respectability are ended, while a really good cloth is not in the least injured in such a happening.

I hope that you will turn resolutely away from the contemplation of a wrapper of the fussy, tight-lining variety. It affords less actual comfort than a regulation tailor-made costume. A wrapper you must have, of course, but let it be what the name implies. The thing is a possibility-a beautiful Oriental garment, with long, graceful lines, which can be donned in an instant, and fastened with a few loops and frogs. Such a garment is a blessing at times, when in the privacy of your own apartment, you feel special need of relaxation, but remember that only the chronic invalid is excusable for appearing in public in such a state

I hope your mother has been very sensible and taught you the invaluable art of mending and "fixing" in general. The woman who is not mistress of the situation in this respect is an object calculated to make men and angels weep, and certain it is that the victim herself will often indulge in that lugubaious emotion. There is an assurance, an ease in the bearing of the girl who knows how to make and mend that is utterly lacking in her who must depend

Wage eternal war against spots and Let the little tray in the new trunk where the toilet accessories are How Dodd's Kidr ey Pills Banplaced carry the simple but effective means of dealing with such accidents. Two or three small "silk" sponges, a bottle of amonia, another of benzine and another of alcohol; a box of French chalk and a clothes brush of the best quality. See to it that your toilet always suggests dainty freshness rather than constant change of apparel.

"BRIDGET DEAR."

All day the thud, thud, thud of the iron had echoed in the hot, kitchen. All day dear, old, faithful Bridget had traveled around in a burning treadmill from the stove to the ironing table and clothes-horse, from the clothes-horse to the ironing table and The soles of her feet felt nearly as hot as the palms of her steamed and blistered hands.

First, the worn boots had been kicked off into a corner; soon the stockings were tossed to them for company, and bare-footed Biddy had for a moment secured coolness and comfort.

Only for one moment. The doorbell of the pain in my back. I took just one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and I have never been troubled with the pain since. I also recommended Dodd's Kidney Pills to other people, who complained as I did and in every case the Pills did their duty and brought relief."

Children's Corner @

DISAPPOINTED.

Dorothy, aged three, was to be taken on her first long trip. She seem-ed most interested when told that she was on a ferryboat. After a footback few moments her mother noticed a stairs when down into her very soul look of disappointment came over her all right; I've been to the door." The

"Where are they, mother?" "Who?" asked her mother.

"Why, mother, you told me thie with was a fairy boat, and I've looked and looked and can't find a single wi fairy," sighed dear little Dorothy.

At the bottom of the stair, with and tired servant; at the head of the EDISON AMENDS AN EPIGRAM. stairs stood-an angel! Such to Francis Bacon Croker, a professor Bridget seemed her mistress that day of electrical engineering at Columbia University, recently wrote to Thos.

A. Edison for a photograph of the lips to the servant's heart. Forgotten were her hot face and smart-latter large enough to hang in the office of the electrical department of ing feet, and the kitchen seemed a bit of heaven as she carried back the university, and also requesting

Mr. Edison to inscribe the picture to it a heart gladdened by "a word with some motto that might be How much spontaneous kindness and goodwill are barred out of lives and helpful to the students. In a few homes by a theory. It would never do to speak a loving word to our ventor arrived, and at the bottom of servant; she might presume upon it it in the large, strong, well-defined handwriting of Edison was the fol-When she some day tells us that she lowing:

is going to leave us we wonder at "All things come to those who hustle while they wait."-Success.

I WOULDN'T FRET.

belongings with a light step and snatches of a song. Have we tried to win her loving service by giving Dear little lad, with flashing eyes, And soft cheeks where the swift red In a home where papa, mamma, and the children were always good-

Some one has grieved you, dear; I know Just how it hurts; words can hurt "Why don't we say Hilda dear?"

But listen, laddie-don't you hear right to say if if it is in your heart." The old clock ticking loud and clear? From the top of the stairs a little It says, "Dear heart, lct us forgetwhite-robed creature cheerily called I wouldn't fret, I wouldn't fret!'

> Why, little girlie, what's gone wrong? My song-bird's drooping, hushed her song. The world has used you ill, you say? Ah, sweetheart, that is just its way. to Retta Perkins, who stood near of her good-night. The English was exact echo of a loving heart far from So, little lassie, never mind; The old clock ticks, "Forget, forget, Did we but take pattern from the I wouldn't fret, I wouldn't fret!"

HE FIGURED IT OUT.

us .- Mrs. C. A. Beckmtth in The Ad-"I've got an eight-year-old boy at home that will make either a metaphysician or a detective-I'm not sure which," remarked a downtown law-The little soft cotton dish mops yer, as he entered his office the other morning, says the Tribune. "The The wax from dripping candles can kid's just getting over an attack of be removed from table linen by a measles, and has hard work amusing measles, and has hard work amusing himself. Yesterday his mother and said Mabel. "I heard Mrs. Fisher blacking will produce better and more the nurse were in the room, and he spoke up all of a sudden, much to the embarrassment of his mother: Cold rain water and soap will re-" 'Say, ma; I know how old nurse move machine grease. To remove peach stains soak fabric in spirits of "His mother thought the nurse might be confused; but she wasn't. The smart woman saves time and "'How do you know so much, Wilpatience by keeping a shoe horn with lie?' she asked. the children's rubbers to make their

"Well, I asked you once how many years you've been nursing, and you said five. Then when you forgot that lard and tied in several thicknesses I asked you how old you was when you went to the training school, and you said eighteen. Then, by and by, I asked you how long you were in school, and you said four years. Now eighteen and four and five are twenty-seven-see?' "

> GOODNESS IS THE SOUL'S BEAUTY.

Edith came across the above line fasten them down, curtains can be in her parsing lesson, and atter puz- you?" as nicely dried on a good thick grass zling over its meaning for some time, carried it for explanation to her mober of wide pasteboard ribbon rolls

"I do not understand it at all, mamma," said she. from the dry goods store and keeps

Said her mother: 'Among your mates are your dearest friends the most beautiful girls?" the very best of all is Alice Maxwell, ends. who says 'she is sorry for her friends because she is so homely.' "

"Does she look unlovely to you, fections, but I like her so well I ne- would fellow. ver think of them, or notice them." "Why do you like ner so west, my daughter?"

tress are equal in warmth to another "Oh, because she is so sweet-temmattress. Laid between the blanket and quilt they equal an extra blanket. the most unselfish person, unless your-Clean enameled shoes with sweet self, mamma, tnat I ever knew. milk after all dust and dirt have been "In short, then, Edith, Alice is a removed, allowing the milk to remain person of rare goodness?"

on for a minute then wiping with "Yes, mamma." "And yet you say she is what is termed 'homely?' " Medicine can easily be administered to a cat by mixing it with lard and rubbing it on the forelegs near the

"Not to me; she is beautiful to me, or at least better than beautiful. She is so very good.' "I think, Edith, if you reflect you will perceive the meaning of the quo-tation from Johnson. Your plain friend is beautiful with goodness, the soul's beauty, which truly is 'Beauty in its best estate." "Goodness is the soul's beauty, repeated Edith. "I understand it now, mamma, and I think I like that kind of beauty." "Yes, dear, it is a kind that is en-during, and a kind of beauty we all may grow into and possess forever.' HALF-PAST.

"Half-past what?" asked Connie. "Three," guessed Nan.

Then came Millie's turn. "Nine," she guessed.
"No," said Connie. said Connie. "Ada comes

And so it went on down the long line of girls who were playing the mon among women as Pain-in-the- game, and at last it came to Kiity. "Eight," she guessed.
"Right!" cried Connie, and then she started toward the corner, running as hard as she could, and Kitty ran post on the corner before Kitty abundant evidence that Dodd's Kid- caught up. "You didn't get me!" she said, tridistrict could furnish a dozen cures, umphantly. "No, I can always guess the num-The one is that of Mrs. Jas. Mur- ber, but I can never eatch anybody, laughed the little girl, and she again after her. But Connie reached the took her place in the line. Then Connie and a girl that she picked out chose a number, and the "Four," she said. "Right."

Then Nan started to run, but what was the matter with Kitty? When she heard the word "Right," she had there floated the sweetest and most little girl's face. Asking the reason, given a jump and a little scream, heavenly thing—"Bridget, dear, it's Dorothy said: | cried "Half-past four!" and started to run, not after Nan, but in the opposite direction. On and on she went, with the girls watching her in won-

> When Nan saw that she was not being pursued she went back to the others. "Why did Kitty run that way?" she > asked But nobody knew "She looked up at the sky, holler-ed, and ran off," said one of the smaller girls. "Suppose we all go after her and find out why she did it," suggested

Nan. they reached Kitty's home they found her sitting on the doorstep. Her face was flushed and she looked tired, but she smiled when she saw them.

"Why did you run away?" demanded several of the girls.
"I was so afraid that I wouldn't get here in time," Kitty told them. "You see, I promised mamma that I would be here by half-past four, and when we said that in the game, I just thought of it, and I had to hurry as fast as I could so as to keep my word

"Would your mother punish you if you hadn't come?" questioned Nan.
"Oh, no, but she would have been sorry!

"Anyway," Kitty added, "when I say I'll do a thing I want to do it if possible."—Exchange.

" MADE-OVER."

"Some folks feel quite proud in their made-over clothes, don't they?' Mahel Drew nudged Lizzie Smiley as she spoke, and directed her attention

"I thought that was a new dress," whispered Lizzie. "It was new once, when Mrs. Fisher wore it." "Oh!" exclaimed Lizzie, opening her eyes very wide.

"Yes," continued Mabel, "and that cloak was Miss Ledyard's. It's just made over.'

Retta turned and looked toward the girls at that moment, but Mabel met her smiling glance with a toss of the head, as she drew Lizzie away toward the door.

telling mother all about it. She had the dress turned and made up wrong side out, and Miss Ledyard's cloak was cut over, and that velvet on Retta's hat was on Clauda Fisher's last year. And Mrs. Fisher said : 'Now, we're not going to mention it, and nobody will know but the things are new.' Just as if we girls could not tell made-over things! Wouldn't you have known that was a turned

Lizzie was a timid child, and it was natural for her to agree with other people; but she was a truth-teller, so she answered: "No, I really thought it was new and Retta looked real pretty in it.' "Well," said Mabel, sharply, would have known. And if I had to wear other people's things I'm sure wouldn't expect to deceive them. think it's wicked to deceive, don't Again Lizzie was tempted to say, "Yes, indeed I do!" but after a moment's thought she replied, soberly: "I don't think it was really deceiv-ing. The things are just as good as new, and they are new to Retta." "Dear me! You're as contrary as you can be, Lizzie Smiley. 1 didn't

"Oh, no, mamma! The girl I love know you were so fond of odds and Then Mabel drew her arm away from Lizzie and started to cross the But Lizzie ran after her, and Ma-

"Why, no, mamma, 1 know she has bel's selfish heart knew at once that a large nose and some other imper- she could still "lead" and Lizzie The next Sunday Mabel drew away from Retta with a meaning smile and glance at Lizzie. It was so very foolish, but that little act seemed to pered, so gentle and kind. She is affect the whole class, and made Retta silent and uncomfortable the entire hour.

The next Sunday, and the next, Retta was absent; and the teacher, Miss Ledvard, thought surely she must be ill.

So, as soon as possible, she went to home. Retta was at school Mrs. Perkins was there to answer the teacher's earnest inquiry. Her face flushed and she looked away as she replied:

"I'm very sorry, but Retts heard something said about her made-over clothes and she felt as if she couldn't come any more. 'Mother,' she said, 'the girls looked me over from top to toe, and they smiled at each other.'

"Oh, Mrs. Perkins. I am so sorry! I didn't suppose one of my girls would do such a thing," said Miss Ledyard. "Retta cried over it more than once," continued her mother. "She was so pleased with her dress and cloak. 'Why,' said she, 'father need not worry about me this winter. You know he's been out of work and we've had a hard time to get along. I sometimes think that if the little girls that have all they want could know how poorer children feel they wouldn't mind quite so much about clothes."

"Indeed they wouldn't!" exclaimed Miss Ledyard; "but I can't give up Retta however, to bring Retta back into the class. "This may be your cross, dear, can vou bear it bravely Jesus' sake?" This was the argument which finally made the child So she came again, but the bright, happy look was gone from smile that had passed between Mahel and Lizzie, and every Sunday she sat a little apart from the others. "I wish I could catch somebody just once," sighed Kitty. "I'd like to be chased."

"Half-past?" Nan was asking, and Kitty's turn had come to answer.

"I was gone, too, and she could only look forward to the time when she could have things that were not "made over."

Is Mabel in your class? THE RHEUMATIC WONDER OF THE AGE

BENEDICTINE SALVE

This Salve Cures RHEUMATISM, PILES, FELONS or BLOOD POISONING. It is a Sure Remedy for any of these Diseases.

A FEW TESTIMONIALS

RHEUMATISM

What S. PRICE, Esq., the well-known Dairyman, says:

212 King street east.

Toronto, Sept. 18, 1908.

John O'Connor, Toronto: DEAR SIR,—I wish to testify to the merits of Benedictine Salve as cure for rheumatism. I had been a sufferer from rheumatism for some time and after having used Benedictine Salve for a few days was complete.

475 Gerrard Street East, Toronto, Ont., Sept. 18, 1961. John O'Connor, Esq., Nealon House, Toronto, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—I have great pleasure in recommending the Benedictine Salve as a sure cure for lumbago. When I was taken down with it I called in my doctor, and he told me it would be a long time before I would be around again. My husband bought a box of the Benedictive Salve, and applied it according to directions. applied it according to directions. In three hours I got relief, and in four days was able to do my work. I would be pleased to recommend to to any one suffering from lumbago. I am, yours truly,

(MRS.) JAS. COSGROVE

2561 King Street East, Toronto, December 16th, 1901. John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto:

DEAR SIR,—After trying several doctors and spending forty-five days in the General Hospital, without any benefit, I was induced to try your Benedictine Salve, and sincerely believe that this is the greatest remedy in the world for rheumatism. When I left the hospital I was just able to stand for a few seconds, but after using your Benedictine Salve for three days, I went out on the street again and now, after using it just over a week, I am able to go to work again. If anyone should doubt these facts send him to me and I will prove it to him.

Yours for ever thankful.

Yours for ever thankful, PETER AUSTEN

198 King street East, Toronto, Nov. 21, 1902. John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto:

DEAR SIR,—I am deeply grateful to the friend that suggested to me, when I was a cripple from Rheumatism, Benedictine Salve. I have at intervals during the last ten years been afflicted with muscular rheumatism. I have experimented with every available' remedy and have consulted, I might say, every physician of repute, without perceivable benefit. When I was advised to use your Benedictine Salve I was a helpless cripple. In less than 48 hours I was in a position to resume my work, that of a tipsmith. A work that requires a certain amount of boddly according to the salve I was a helpless and the salve I was a helpless of a tipsmith. A work that requires a certain amount of boddly according to the salve I was a helpless of a tipsmith. that of a tinsmith. A work that requires a certain amount of bodily activity. I am thankful to my friend who advised me and I am more than gratified to be able to furnish you with this testimonial as to the emcacy of Benedictine Salve. Yours truly, GEO. FOGG.

12 Bright Street, Toronto, Jan. 15, 1902:

John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR,-It is with pleasure I write this word of testimony to the marvellous merits of Benedictine Salve as a certain cure for Rheumatism.

There is such a multitude of alleged Rheumatic cures advertised that one is inclined to be skeptical of the merits of any new preparation. I was induced to give Benedictine Salve a trial and must say that after suffering for eight years from Rheumatism it has, I believe, effected an absolute and permanent cure. It is perhaps needless to say that in the last eight years I have consulted a number of doctors and have tried large number of other medicines advertised, without receiving any benefit. Yours respectfully,

PILES

7 Laurier Avenue, Toronto, December 16, 1901.

John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto, Ont .: DEAR SIR,-After suffering for over ten years with both forms of Piles, I was asked to try Benedictine Salve. From the first application I got instant relief, and before using one box was thoroughly cured. I can strongly recommend Benedictine Salve to any one suffering with Yours sincerely, JOS. WESTMAN.

241 Sackville street, Toronto, Aug. 15, 1902.

John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR,—I write unsolicited to say that your Benedictine Salve has cured me of the worst form of Bleeding Itching Piles. I have been a sufferer for thirty years, during which time I tried every advertised remedy I could get, but got no more than temporary relief. I suffered at times intense agony and lost all hope of a cure. Seeing your advertisement by chance, I thought I would try your salve, and am proud to say it has made a complete cure. I can heartily recommend it to every sufferer.

JAMES SHAW.

With the Boston Laundry.

Toronto, Dec. 30th, 1901.

John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR,-It is with pleasure I write this unsolicited testimonial, and in doing so I can say to the world that your Benedictine Salve thoroughly cured me of Bleeding Piles. I suffered for nine months. I consulted a physician, one of the best, and he gave me a box of salve and said that if that did not cure me I would have to go under an opera-It failed, but a friend of mine learned by chance that I was suffering from Bleeding Piles. He told me he could get me a cure and he was true to his word. He got me a box of Benedictine Salve and it gave me relief at once and cured me in a few days. I am now completely cured. It is worth its weight in gold. I cannot but feel proud after suffering so long. It has given me a thorough cure and I am sure it will never return. I can strongly recommend it to anyone afflicted as I was It will cure without fail. I can be called on for living proof. I am, Yours, etc., ALLAN J. ARTINGDALE,

BLOOD POISONING

Corner George and King Streets, Toronto, Sept. 8, 1904. John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto:

Dear Sir,—I wish to say to you that I can testify to the merits "of your Benedictine Salve for Blood-Poisoning. I suffered with blood poisoning for about six months, the trouble starting from a callous or hardening of the skin on the under part of my foot and afterwards turning to blood-poisoning. Although I was treated for same in the General Hospital for two weeks without cure, the doctors were thinking of having my foot amputated. I left the hospital uncured and then I tried your salve, and with two boxes my foot healed up. I am now able to put on my boot and walk freely with same, the foot being entirely healed. I was also treated in the States prior to going to the hospital in Toronto, without relief. Your salve is a sure cure for blood-poisoning. ood-poisoning.
MISS M. L. KEMP.

Toronto, April 16th, 1902 John O'Connor, Esq., City:

DEAR SIR,-It gives me the greatest of pleasure to be able to testify to the curative powers of your Benedictine Salve. For a month back my hand was so badly swollen that I was unable to work, and the pain was so intense as to be almost unbearable. Three days after using your Salve as directed, I am able to go to work, and I cannot thank you enough as directed, I am able to go to work, and I cannot thank you enough 72 Wolseley street, Otty.

Toronto, July 21st, 1902.

DEAR SIR,—Early last week I accidently ran a rusty nail in my finger. The wound was very painful and the next morning there were symptoms of blood poisoning, and my arm was swollen nearly to the shoulder. I applied Benedictine Salve, and the next day I was all right and able to go to work. J. SHERIDAN, 34 Queen street East.

JOHN O'CONNOR LAST, TORONTO

WM. J. NICHOL, Druggist, 170 King St. E. J. A. JOHNSON & CO., 171 King St. E PRICE S1.00 PER BOX. And by all Druggists

John O'Connor, Esq.: It took a good deal of persuasion

She could not forget the glance and pleasure in the pretty dress and cloak

POSLISHED EVERY TAURSDAY BY THE CATHOLIC REGISTER PUBLISHING CO PATRICK F. CRONIN. Business Manager and Editor.

SUBSCRIPTION : OFFICES-9 JORDAN ST., TORONTO

Approved and recommended by the Arch shops, Bishops and Clergy. ADVERTISING RATES Fransient advertisements, to cents a line, A liberal discount on contracts, Remittances should be made by Post Office Order, Postal Order, Express Money or by Registered Letter.

When changing address, the name of former Post Office should be given. Telephone, Main 489.

MONTREAL AGENCY 6 Richmond Square

R. J. LOUIS CUDDIHY, MONTREAL REPRESENTATIVE

LOCAL AGENT JOSEPH COOLAHAN

THURSDAY, NOV. 3, 1904.

THE TASTE OF CROW.

a contemptible manner towards the operation to bitter opposition. Standpublic in regard to its exploded sen- ing there together they formed a sation over the recent meeting of rare subject for philosophic contem-Three Rivers. Archbishop Bruchesi, the features and dress of both, deshaving been called upon, gave the pite their academic robes. Their least have accepted without any at- or agreed to differ. They had once ands she comes by dollars. tempt at vulgar flippancy or pretence agreed and later differed widely in that the Archbishop went out of his their views of Irish affairs. They way to denounce the lie. But The had agreed closely in their opposifor the position of an Archbishop not alone to the little republics, but by bringing the Jackdaw of Rheims to the reputation of England. Standsupon the carpet. It was an inapt ing there upon neutral ground they allusion. In the case of The News might have been a pair of human dothe bird was crow; and The News cuments whose pages were quite legireally might have eaten it with a lit-*le more decency.

TORE IMPENDING VOTE. and the issue is in the hands of the in the minds of many of those aselectors of Canada. The opposition began the fight with a formidable ence to the literary and political forces arrayed against Christianity and aggressive platform, including fame of Mr. Gladstone's friend and more adequate protection, imperial- biographer. Nearly everything else a more obedient tool. ism and opposition to the new touched some association of their trans continental road as an unnecessary and wasteful undertaking. Mr. R. L. Borden quickly found out by his tour of Ontario that imperialism his mind from the indirect suggestation of their common university, Oxford. And when Mr. Morley rose to reply he made no apparent effort to detach his mind from the indirect suggestation of their common university, Oxford. And cillors have voted the abolition of saints' names from the streets of the voyage down a part of the Fraser and then west by land to the Pacific Octanio that imperialism to its mouth in the Arctic Ocean, made another much more perilous detailed to its mouth in the Arctic Ocean, made another much more perilous detailed another much more perilous detailed another much more perilous detailed to its mouth in the Arctic Ocean, made another much more perilous detailed to the level of the savages they had come to as the representatives of the voyage down a part of the Fraser and then west by land to the Pacific Ocean in 1793. Father Morice, stating that he was the discoverer of New pot-latching or heathen feasting, renvoice of "adequate protection"; and ments abstracted, way; of its influing for the removal of the statue ing his courage, tact and prudence, even polygamy"—these two cases of St. Bernard from his native place regrets his lack of accuracy in names were "those of officers, each of G.T.P., government ownership and of university education in general. of Fontaineles-Dijon was rejected, of places and his linguistic deficien- whom was at the head of a fort; one control came into platform favor. But the thought he kept turning over Strange how Catholic electors in Morion writes "to have been blossed There was a curious contradiction and over was this, that though unifrom the point of view of the poli- versities educate almost all the poli- them in public bodies. tical economist, between the de- tical leaders of our times, their inmands for higher protection and the fluence should not make opstopping of railway development. portunists but men who can distin- hops of Dijion and Laval-Mgr. Le West Continent of America, London, Canada is to-day in a prosperous conguish between right and wrong and Nordez and Mgr. Geay-are to re- 1801) "he gives us brief vocabularies Canada is to-day in a prosperous conguish between right and wrong and stand for that which they conceive ceive each an allowance of 8,000 and of the 'Nagailer or Chin Indians.' showing increasing surpluses year by to be right against all opposition, francs yearly ($1,500) from the Soveshowing increasing surpluses year by year. This growth in revenue must maturally be regarded as proof that maturally be regarded as proof that the tariff is quite up to the country's promising nothing of principle. All such purposes. If the two Bishops er counterpart is intended to repro- was "utterly repugnant to the feelrequirements, and that if the Conser- this without any effort of the mind had resigned while in favor with the duce words which, in the mouth of ings of the Western Denes, who nevatives were to stand committed to seemed applicable in a special manner French Government, they would only his informants, were evidently Carver practised it ill "it was taught an all-round increase of duties it to Mr. Goldwin Smith and Mr. Mor- be entitled to a superannuation al- rier." Mackenzie also omits to set and forced upon them by a white would be without the slightest re- ley. gard to revenue purposes. The gov- But the opinions of public men are ernment offers the country develop- not usually important unless they ment and all its incidental benefits ripen into action. Here Mr. Morley out of the application of surplus re- was deeply serious when he repeated venue to railway construction. In time and again these two commonthis there is the assurance of increas- places: There is a relation between ed employment and better wages for cause and effect. There is a differall classes of the people. It was ence between right and wrong possibly with the hope of getting out "These sentences," he went on, "I of the dilemma to which increased should like to see written in letters taxation pointed that Mr. Borden gold at the entrance to our Houses adopted the proposition of govern- of Parliament. Ladies and gentlement ownership and control of the men, nations have paid dearly for the railways. But as The Register has error, for the oversight, for the sevalready said such an undertaking erance of right and wrong from pubscannot be rushed into. National lic actions. Things are what they prosperity is after all but the turn- are and their consequences will be ing of a wheel. Too much of a what they will be; why, then, should edrag may be placed upon it, and the we deceive ourselves." wheel may stop or begin to turn the other way. No responsible statesman can tell the people of this vast tion as he spoke, there was deep and and sparsely-settled land that they potent suggestion in the half hour's are safe to tax themselves additional-Ay for the building and administration of a new trans-continental line of railway as an experiment in public www.ership. The increase of taxation thereby incurred would be so great to this degree at least, that Toronto as to check the prosperity of the peowhe instantly and imperil the solvency of the Dominion before many years had run their course. The adoption of government ownership and control an the stress of the election campaign was but an impracticable device, and its legitimate tendency would be to paralyze the economical sand wise undertaking contracted for with the Grand Trunk Pacific Com- thrift of time will repay you in after pany, and either put a period to na- life with an usury of profit beyond phoid fever and is in the Barrie Hostional railway development or check it for an indefinite time. So that that the waste of time will make you he is improving under the kind and at present there is but one issue at dwindle, alike in intellect and moral skilful treatment which patients restake-railway development. The stature, beyond your darkest reckon- ceive in this fine institution. t meer of the people as far as the compaign has proved it, is one of sconfidence; and, as Mr. John Morley election is a foregone conclusion. eministration that so far marks unex- cians during the wind-up of a gener- time taught here in the collegiate inampled strides in Canadian prosper- al election. This is a great deal to ssaid on Monday, the result of the

MR. JOHN MORLEY.

Is now calling upon Toronto Subscribers, cause, found himself standing on a municipality. Canadian platform beside that other adoption of the Home Rule policy, which completely changed admira-The Toronto News has behaved in tion in his case to enmity and cotors.

When Mr. Goldwin Smith began to speak, his words were a true echo The campaign is drawing to a close of the reflection that must have been sembled. Most brief was his refer-

In manner, language and ideas simple and without a shadow of affectadiscourse. Every sentence was a public message and the quick sympathetic applause that broke out at intervals proved that a fearless statesman's words were clearly understood University was honoring itself in offering Mr. Morley, the pro-Boer, the Home Ruler, the anti-Imperialist, the opportunity of uttering them.

To the students and to all young men and women Mr. Morley read from a scrap of paper which he had carried in his waistcoat pocket this short sentence of Mr. Gladstone's. "Believe me when I tell you that the your most sanguine dreams, and

SUPERSTITIOUS TORONTO. In Toronto, which is an enlightened Hagan, and Protestant city, a fortune-telling celebrated Canadian writers, and al-All signs point to the return of the lady from Kansas has divided the attention of the people with the politisay, either for the capacity of the The campaign has been conducted lady to humbug the crowd or for the with comparative freedom from ir-

The Catholic Register ritating topics of creed or race. The perstitious pretences. But it is in FATHER MORICE'S GREAT BOOK Matilda, Ont., and died at St. Annumber of English-speaking Catholic its details that the episode is truly candidates in the field is larger than in surprising. In Toronto the ordinary any past election we can recall, and there are very good prospects of ten like get but short rope. They English-speaking Catholic supporters are usually brought before the police magistrate charged with witch. of Sir Wilfrid Laurier entering the lice magistrate, charged with witchnext parliament. who came as an Oblate missionary first permanent port ever erected from France more than twenty years within that part of British Columbia Having, in his speech at the Cana- city detective brings a case of sto- and an authority among philolo- at the Rocky Mountain Portage, a dian Club, gently warned the people len jewels from a prominent citizen, gists. In recognition of his services post which he had just established of this land against vain imitation and she pretends to put the baffled to the science of languages the Philo- immediately east of the Mountains, of this land against vain imitation of European militarism, and spoken words of generous friendship for the hour of going to press we have Ireland, John Morley was presented not heard that the jewels have been honor was conferred upon him by the ish Columbians. Their first immediat Toronto University on Monday recovered. But the trust reposed in Geographical Society of Neufchatel in superior was La Malice, "a worthafternoon for the honorary degree the alleged supernatural powers of Switzerland. of Doctor of Civil Law. His pre- the fair visitor by the police authori- tic account of the early years of Sir more aptly named" (p. 67). sentation was at the hands of Mr. ties is so great a boom that she has James Douglas, who was such a An amusing incident is related in Goldwin Smith, a circumstance which come out of her winding sheet to prominent figure in the beginning of connection with the first introduction seemed for the moment to influence tell the newspapers of all manner of the Province of British Columbia. the thoughts of both. Mr. Morley crimes confided to her by the perpetuce the necessity of his work by two one must known that these Indians had brought to Canada the glow of trators, including murder. And she palmary instances. "Who knows that were in the habit of cremating their Gladstone's espousal of the Irish ted out all the family skeletons in the a representative of our own race made by the ruling whites to put a News had to swagger its disrespect tion to the Boer war for its injustice weak in faith develop a hunger for fraud and of their free will and pleatender to supernatural knowledge.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Combes is moving rapidly. The late M. Waldeck-Rousseau appears to could not have been provided with tion of Mr. Goldwin Smith's intro- ile Zola, Blanqui the Communist, Caledonia and, therefore, of the in- dering murder for murder, the lax hastily dropped. It also became ad- ductory speech. He talked of Ox- whose motto was "Ni Dieu, ni Mai- terior of British Columbia, follows observance of the Lord's Day, diswhose motto was visable to talk in more subdued ford in a reflective, and at motter," and so on. A proposition calling many points, and, while praising many points, and at motion was a subdued for the sanctity of the market praising many points, and at motion was a subdued for the sanctity of the market praising many points, and at motion was a subdued for the sanctity of the market praising many points, and at motion was a subdued for the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points, and the sanctity of the market praising many points are sanctity of the market praising many points.

> be entitled to a superannuation allowance of 6,000 francs, or $1,000, and "the drinking of ant streams which he must have intoxicants, which has sounded the from the State, and would receive passed on his way down. "In his death knell of morality, peace and ornothing from the Holy See. It is own journal Fraser occasionally der among the natives" also affirmed that the two retiring notes some of these missions, and in In reference to the character French Bishops will not receive new titles, and will be known as the when he passed a large steamer he their dreadful depravity before they their hereditary monastery pretend that they have discovered and now the manufacture of their liqueurs, these circumstances, Messrs. H. his life. Thus 'ne and his men, as the more fully, commenting on the father Morice shrewdly observes, warring sent out by the manager at and process of the manufacture of those whom fear had driven away be strictly on his guard against the their liqueurs have been preserved absolutely intact by the monks, and shed, an arm of the Pacific Ocean, writes: "After a constant interneither manufacturing nor about to and was back at Fort Chippewayan twenty years, and a ceaseless study sell such liqueurs." The genuine liqan officer of the North-West Combegs leave to take exception thereueurs are now being made in Spain an omicer of the North-West to. Of course, the ministrations of by the Chartreux monks, and are in 1795, but in 1801, after publish- religion, the acquaintance with the being shipped under this label: ing his "Journal" in England, and Gospel teachings and the fear of an les Peres Chartreux. This liqueur is x Y Company, which had seceded the only one identically the same as from the North-West Company, and of the difficulties that ever arose that made at the Monastery of the he became the directing spirit of the Grande Chartreuse in France pre- former till the two companies were can be traced to mutual misundervious to the expulsion of the monks, reunited in 1805. who have kept intact the secret of company, in conference at Fort Wil- tives did not understand their white

Barrie Correspondence

Mr. T. F. O'Meara is ill with typital for treatment. His many

The "Milwaukee Catholic Citizen" of October 22nd contains an interesting article on "Conditions in written by Dr. Thomas O'-Dr. O'Hagan is one of our

You cannot dream yourself into a character; you must hammer and

The History of the Northern Inters In the autumn of 1805 Fraser foundsmartly fined. But the Kansas lady's ago, has long been known among the which lies west of the Rockies. case is a reserved one. To her a learned as a man of fine scholarship exists to this day. Returning in November of the same year to winter his great biography of Mr. Gladstone. of course, keeps her confidences salong before Victoria and New West-dead, and when the deceased left a He, the man whose imagination and cred. At a special matinee "for minister had been called into exist- couple of wives these had to stand broad democratic sympathies had ladies only," it is reported the moin a way, and had possessed a reguwas burned off their own heads (p. ence, the province had been settled by, patting the corpse, till the hair been most deeply impressed by Mr. there and daughters of Toronto trot- lar capital-at Stuart Lake, where 89). For twenty years no effort was ruled over reds and whites? equally distinguished English scholar who had ardently admired the greatwho had ardently admired the greatreaping in cash as fast as she can try and its Aborigines," Father Mointeresting description of "The Country and its Aborigines," Father Moimpress the natives with a proper rice records the earliest trustworthy idea of their wonderful resources, count it and everybody is happy. The widows are told that their invest- indians of that region, and in doing whereupon the whole crowd of Carments and speculations will be profit- so he has achieved what no histor- riers fell postrate to the ground. To able and the young girls that they ian of Central Canada (Manitoba, N.W.T., and New Ontario) has been tobacco was offered them, which, on will all be married next year. If a able to do. In our part of the Do-being tasted, was found too bitter, new sect were formed on the crest minion Indian oral tradition affords and thrown away. members of the Catholic hierarchy at plation. Simplicity stamped upon it would undoubtedly become a rich and sixty years ago. One century ing from their mouths, the people of this wave of sordid superstition no reliable detailed information of its use, the crew lighted their pipes, and influential denomination. The and sixty years ago. One century ing from their mouths, the people and a half-the lifespan of two old began to whisper that they must yarn a flat contradiction from first very meeting told their mutual sin- Dowie's work. She is to some ex- Not so with Father Morice. He since they were still full of the fire lady herself hints that she is doing men-seems to be about the limit. come from the land of the ghosts, tent. Where Dowie comes by thous- goes back almost two centuries and wherewith they had been cremated. But that all these impostors are mentioned by the Carrier Indians of of fat, set upon crunching them, working the self-same vein of social Stuart Lake, cannot have been born degeneracy is undeniable. A people later than 1660 and did not die till the mouth, which puzzled both actors 1765, perhaps even five years later. and bystanders."

certain Tsalekulhye, born about tobacco than to the soap. lived till 1840. Taya, the present says: "The writer sincerely wishes head chief of the Stuart Lake band, he had not to answer that questo judge from his picture at page tion; but the close association of 15, is a sturdy fellow, and we are the two races during the last eighty told that he "has hardly a grey hair years renders imperative the considat eighty." He is a son of 'Kwah, eration of the result of such comhave considered Combes an unwilling who saw Na'Kwoel and lived for mingling. Both written and oral inagent in the hands of anti-religious some time with him. Thus the formation is not wanting to force forces. He mistook his man. The claim linking the middle of the seven- on us the conclusion that the influthe twentieth is unbroken.

On pages 257-8 of his volume" (Jour-It is stated in Paris that the Bis- nal of a Voyage through the Northone instance he supposes that Sir these natives, although Father Mo-The Combes Ministry after driving getting that Mackenzie is himself against slander. When Peter Skene the monks of the Chartreuse from candid enough to confess that it hap- Ogden, governor of New Caledonia, pened to him more than once to doze in his canoe." to regret the pleasure he had taken character." from them." "Liqueur fabriquee a Tarragone par being knighted by George III., he

In 1805 the head officers of this tains, and Simon Fraser, son of Captaking. "Simon Fraser was a Catholic-a circumstance which goes some friends will be pleased to learn that ranted antipathy—and though not a (p. 214). way to explain Bancroft's unwarmodel of perfection, he was 'ambito honest convictions.' These very encomiums have escaped Bancroft became the founder of New Cale-donia; he explored the main fluvial artery of British Columbia, which bears his name, and established the drews, in the township of Cornwall, in 1862, at the age of 86.

less kind of fellow," (p. 55) "than This book includes the first authen- whom few people seem to have been

Not one word is heard in disappro- it possibly can. After a clear and On discovering Lake Stuart, Fraser's stop to this inhuman cruelty to the rice records the earliest trustworthy idea of their wonderful resources, a half, up to 1660. Na'kwoel, who is Pieces of soap were given to the wo-Allied to Na'kwoel's family was a squaws took more kindly to the > teenth century with the beginning of ence of the superior race was degiven his name to the great river of of lifting the lower race up to the of them, a white man, who could hardly speak of the natives without dubbing them rascals and scoundrels, any aptitude for native languages. cohabited simultaneously with two of their women, and afterwards attained the rank of Chief Trader"were not only countenanced, but actually practised by the company's officers and servants. The cremation

Alexander must have been asleep rice does not hesitate to mention never mentions. Whereupon H. H. were converted (p. 228), he is ever Bancroft becomes very wroth, for ready to defend them when he can writes to Thew about the Indians: "Look at our numbers compared to In the course of this first venture theirs; look at the many opportunipossess the recipe of the monks for of white men among suspicious or hos- ties they may have of committing tile Indians Mackenzie had occasion murder; look at their treacherous and that they are now manufacturing in firing off his gun to frighten and this parenthesis: "which, however, and about to ship them to foreign overawe the natives; for they banded exists only in Ogden's mind" (p. countries under the old label. In against him and seriously threatened 200), and further on he explains him-Riviere and Co., of 50 Mark lane, "were in the ludicrous position of Fort St. James to the man in charge London, write to say that the secret people haunted by the apprehension of at Babine, to the effect that he must However, Mackenzie Indians, who are "at all times most succeeded in reaching, without blood- treacherous wretches," Father Morice that "the French Government is now Bentinck Inlet, on July 22, 1793, course with that race, lasting over after life, have had a powerful influence on that nation. Neverthebetween the white and red races standings and a misconception of liam, Lake Superior, decided to enter brothers or their ways, any more the field west of the Rocky Moun- than the latter could see the reason tain Fraser, a U. E. Loyalist, and outbursts and incomprehensible acof so many, to them, uncalled-for then 29 years old, was chosen as the tions. Language is here the greatman best fitted for this great under- est barrier which separates races into so many antagonistic camps, each of which lives in perpetual syspicion of its neighbor's intentions' tious, energetic, with considerable on the Hudson's Bay records between the conscience, and in the main holding 1824 and 1831 is that of William A name which figures prominently Connolly, a chief factor, whose name himself, who naturally hastens to qualify them to the extent of practically withdrawing them." Fraser in our last issue, he is erroneously called Henry Connolly. Bancroft calls him James, and the Biographical Dictionary of Well-Known Brit-ish Columbians calls him John: so first trading-posts in the country. In 1811 he was premoted to the charge of the whole Red River department, retired from the service in 1621, when he married the daughters been a most painstaking man, ter of Captain Allan McDonnell, of pany. Seventeen years after he had

AND LOAN COMPANY

In business as a Savings Bank and Loan Company since 1854.

HEAD OFFICE:

78 Church St., Toronto

BRANCH "A"

522 Queen St. W Cor. Hackney

Assets $3,000,000

Interest allowed on Deposits from Twenty Cents

Withdrawable by Cheques.

Office Hours : 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Saturdays 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. OPEN EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT 7 to 9 O'Clook.

JAMES MASON, Managing Director

Death of Canon McCarthy

The death is announced from Ottawa of Very Rev. Canon Peter McCarthy, for the past 14 years pastor of St. Bridget's parish, and since 1891 Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Ottawa. He was born at New Ross, Ireland, May 6th, 1851. His parents moved to this country when he was a child and settled in Pembroke. He attended Ottawa University, and sure become the victims of any pre- 1735, whose son 'Kwah, a famous As to the effect of the Hudson's Duhamel, on June 17th, 1877. In was ordained priest at Pembroke by personage continually referred to as Bay Company on the native population of Caledonia, Father Morice L'Orignal, Father McCarthy was curate to Mgr. Routhier, who is now Vicar-General. He was later in charge of L'Orignal, Vankleek Hill and Hawkesbury, until Oct. 5, 1878, when he was appointed to Farrelton. There he was in charge of Low, which is now Martindale. He was made a member of the Archbishop's council in 1899, with the rank of Canon. On Sept. 13th, 1890, he was placed in charge of the new parish Sir Alexander Mackenzie, who has ests of the Western Denes. Instead the first few months of its existthe North, which he descended in 1789 standard of Christianized Europeans, McGovern. A happy event in the The Dijon, France, Municipal Counto its mouth in the Arctic Ocean, the latter, in too many cases, stooplate Canon's career was the grand societies he organized in the parish. B.A., the C.O.F., the Congregation of St. Ann, the St. Jerome Sewing Society, the Temperance Society, St. Vincent de Paul Society, and the League of the Sacred Heart.

The funeral took place on Saturday morning and was attended by almost the entire parish of St. Bridget's. At 10.30 a.m. the Solemn Mass of Requiem was chanted in the parish church, where, in the sanctuary, the late Canon's remains had lain in state from 4 p.m. the day before, attended in pious vigil throughout the afternoon and night by different gentlemen of the congregation. His Grace Archbishop Duhamel officiated and in the sanctuary were Rev. Fathers W. Murphy, O.M.I., T. P. Fay, George Fitzgerald, J. J. Foley, T. Harkins and A. Carriere, who acted as pall-bearers, and Mgr. Routhier, Rev. M. J. Whelan, V. Rev. Canon Campeau, V. Rev. Canon Plantin, Rev. Fathers Gascon, Brunet, A. Newman and representatives of the Dominican, Franciscan and Marist orders of priests.

Assisting in the musical services were members of all the other Catholic church choirs of the city, and of St. Mary's Bayswater. Mr. Louis Dauray was the director, gnd Mrs. T. Stringer presided at the organ. THOSE ATTENDING.

Attending the funeral were the members of St. Bridget's Branch No. 94, C.M.B.A., St. Bridget's Court, Catholic Order of Foresters, the council of management of St. Patrick's Asylum, the boys of St. Bridget's school in charge of Mr. Wm. Burke, the principal and a large and representative number of the citizens of the capital. Among those present were Messrs. George Goodwin, Chabot, Dr. A. Freeland, T. Birkett, N. Champagne, T. McGuire, S. Ebbs, M. J. O'Farrell, R. Stewart, E. P. Gleeson, H. M. McClory, W. J. Lynch, W. C. McCarthy, Gerald O'Gorman, John Gorman, Jno. Heney, Jno. P. Dunne, E. P. Stan-Wm. Kehoe, S. Cross, Dr. Dowling, F. Kehoe, M. Cullen, F. Stringer, J. C. Reynolds, J. Mundy, J. Gleeson, George Murphy, J. Phalen, M. Carroll and others. Among those who went to Pembroke with the funeral were Rev. Father Fitzgerald, Judge O'Mara, Jno. D. Grace, A. G. O'Reilly, W. Kehoe, M. J. O'Farrell, F. O'Reilly, Ed. Devlin, P. Sullivan, T. Grace, P. Cassidy, H. F. Sims and others.

settled down in Lower Canada Sir George Simpson still refers to him as a standard authority. Writing to the man in command of Fort St. James, he says: "Connolly will scarcely believe that it is possible to collect so many furs in one season in his old and favorite district

Cathedral in Pembroke friends were allowed to view the remains and

Rev. Father Latulippe officiated at the funeral service, assisted by Rev.

Father John Ryan of Mount St.

Patrick, and Rev. Father Breen of the Pishop's Palace.

Real Estate

48 VICTORIA RT

MURPHY

N. MURPHY

I believe that in such a combination only can salvation be found for tainly, peace and content cannot be tremists of either party-those, on or Nationalist, were to have their way poor Ireland would for ever remain the cockpit of politicians and the reproach of the Empire, but if the policy of the Reform Association be adopted there will be, I became into power with an overwhelmdisappointment at the result which wards settling the land question.

endangered, by that concession.

The Earl of Dunraven, K.P.

Sent on Approval

FOUNTAIN

SOLID GOLD PEN

highest grade, large size 14k, gold pen, any flexibility de-sired — ink feeding device purposes $1.00 extra. Grand Special Offer

You may try the pen a week

ented, fully as fine a value ustomer in 5000 has asked nt free of charge with each l augillin Mfg. Co.

impotence.

sincerely,

We all. remember the dire predic-

WEST RIDGEWAY.

A TIMELY POINTER-Do not buy an ash-sifter. but put the money into our Coal. Our Coal burns to the ash, and leaves no clinkers. Consumers never

The Imperial Coal Co.

HEAD OFFICE-1184 YONGE ST.

PHONES - North 2082, North 2083 and North 1901.

DRESS WELL FOUNTAIN, "My Valet,"

SIR WEST RIDGEWAY

His Startling Conversion to Irish Sympathy

The following appeared in The Lon-

To the Editor of The Times Sir,—At the desire of the Irish Reform Association I enclose for publication copy of a letter addressed by me to their chairman, Lord Dun-

You will observe that this letter have been achieved. was written before the last meeting of the association, and therefore, al-Mr. Gerald Balfour created the Dethough it gives expression to my full partment of Agriculture and Technicconcurrence with the aims and objects al Instruction, which under the symof the association, it does not com-mit me to equally unreserved appro-val of the particular methods for-lireland, and Mr. George Wyndham mulated at that meeting for carrying has, I hope and believe, gone far tointo effect the proposed policy.

Let me anticipate the usual charge Nevertheless, several real grievances of inconsistency by mentioning that remain unredressed, and other im-the views and opinions expressed in portant questions have not been my letter are not of recent birth. touched, or, if touched, quickly drop-They were conceived during the per-They were conceived during the period of my service as Under-Secretary University question. We all know for Ireland, and were embodied in a Mr. Balfour's statesmanlike views on memorandum written in 1889. In this important subject, but the exthat memorandum I advocated the tremists of the Unionists forbid him occasion of a liberal measure of lo- to do justice to the Roman Cathocal government in provincial as well lies of Ireland. Nor can we reasonably hope that the Opposition when tion of the education grant and other in power will dare to grasp this netfunds raised for that purpose by a tle, and consequently we moderate local body—at least partially elec-men are forced to the conclusion that tive-with safeguards for minorities if this question, on which the peace in the various localities, the decen- and contentment of Ireland so largely tralization of finance, and consequent-ly the loosening of the rigid Treas-be settled in Ireland by the frish ury control, the reorganization of themselves.

Dublin Castle, and especially the abo
For this reason, but not for this lition of that chaotic anachronism- reason alone, do I subscribe to the administration by semi-independent proposal of your association, for the devolution to Ireland of a work of one-and the creation of a larger measure of local government council to advise the Chief Secretary than she now possesses," and unhesisuch as that of the Secretary of tatingly do I share your belief that State for India, and comprising the the Union will be strengthened, not

So long as I was in the public service, faithful to the traditions of the tions which attended Mr. Balfour's Civil Service, I held my peace, but gift to Ireland of the limited rights now that I am free to speak I ask of local government which she now for the hospitality of your columns, enjoys, and we have lived to realnot because I claim any special value ize-what I realized at the time or originality for my opinions, but that happily Cassandra, for once, because I think that it may interest prophesied falsely. Therefore we those who are again studying and need not be alarmed or depressed discussing the eternal Irish question she again denounces the devolution in the light thrown upon it by the to Ireland of those extended rights manifesto of the Reform Association of local government which must soonto learn the conclusions which were er or later be delegated in other independently formed by a man who directions if the Imperial Parliament was Under-Secretary during six stor- is to be saved from paralysis and my years-who went to Ireland an uncompromising supporter of law and order, but otherwise with an open mind, free from preconceived opinions and anxious to consider Irish questions in a judicial spirit.

Naturally I rejoice at the spontaneous spread of liberal and enlightened views among Irish landlords; but for this revolt, or, let me say, awakening, the extremists of the Unionist party-none the less dangerous because loyal and conscientious- are chiefly responsible, for they, by their stubborn policy of non possumus, by their refusal to allow justice to be done to the Roman Catholics of Irein the matter of University education, and last, but not least, by the short-sighted and relentless way in which they expelled from the House of Commons the wise and patriotic Irishmen who there represented the sober-minded members of the Unionist party, have caused moderate Irishmen to reflect and realize that theirs is an irreconcilable policy which spells disaster to the Union -I am, sir, your obedient servant,

WEST RIDGEWAY. The Athenaeum, Pall Mall, S.W., October 10th.

September 7, 1904. Dear Lord Dunraven,-Permit me, a former Under-Secretary of State for Ireland, to congratulate you and those who are associated with you, on the formation of the Irish Reform Association, and to express my cordial concurrence with its aims and objects and with the policy which it

Most emphatically do I agree "that the prosperity of the people of Ire-land, the development of the resources of the country, and the satisfactory settlement of the land and other questions depend upon a pursuance of a policy of conciliation and of good will and of reform," and gladly do I welcome the proposal of your association to promote "a Union of all moderate and progressive opinion, irrespective of creed or class

Are you particular About your Table Linen?

We do not tear it in handling

New Method Laundry HEADACHE

Claims to be an Irishman and His Heart Turns to the Irish Question.

JOHN MORLEY ON IRELAND

Right Hon. John Morley, who was the guest of the Canadian Club, Toronto, on Monday in the course of a short speech which he delivered devoted most of his attention to Irish affairs. He said:

Turns to the Irish Question.

The a notic larther in my comparison between Mr. Chamberlain s "F.scalites" and the principles and policy of Home Rule. Let me come down to concrete actualities. In 1891 John Ballance,

THE SON OF AN ULSTER EVICTfairs's He said:

"The chairman seemed a little perplexed as to using the words English, Scotch, Irish, Canadian. To a certain extent, I claim to be rather international because I was born in England, I represent the best of Scotch constituencies (laughter) and the most active portion of my political life has been devoted to Iredivided and distracted Ireland. Cerland so that I call myself an Irishman. I hope, before I go back after extracted from the policy of the exmy short visit, within three or four months, at all events, to have seen the one hand, who regard chronic coercion as the Irish millennium to three general elections; one in Can-ada, another in the United States, be prayed for by all true Unionists and a third, and not altogether the those, on the other hand, who least interesting of them to me, in strive to reach the goal of separation my own country by lawless, if not violent methods. If these extremists, either Unionist "I have heard, but I may be entirely wrong, that here and across your southern border it is a foregone conclusion. I may say without arrogance and with every confidence I may inform you that it is a foregone conclusion in the third of these countries. Upon the points at islieve, some hope of a united, prossue upon this continent it would be perous, and therefore contented Irerather presumptuous and impertinent for me to meddle. I will only make Since my retirement from the Irish this general observation that, in the Under-Secretaryship I have never present exciting age of the world, ceased to be a vigilant but neces-sarily silent observes of Irish poli-tics, and when a Unionist Government where there are new and even startling apparitions of nations among the forces of the world, you may depend upon it, gentlemen, that the choice of rulers at such a moment, either in Canada of the United States or the motherland, may prove to be a very serious departure for good or evil in the policy and persons of this who so embark.

"Now, so far as Canada is concerned, I hope you will let me, without offence, say but one thing on of Great Britain and Ireland' the topic which, I am sure among (cheers). My friends, Messrs. Balyourselves you often debate. will understand what I am at when I say I submit to you that, in my view, no policy that withdraws eithsources from the gigantic and supreme and beneficent task that lies They want to keep it there, and therearound you of laying the solid founaround you of laying the solid foun-dation of prosperity in your own radical issues that would raise the land-that any such diversion, and World would, indeed, be a poor con-lation, would spread to Great Bri-pensation for the loss you would tain and imperil the present supre-Wales, and Scotland as well (cheers). velopment and your own good.

"If I was what in Canada is called a statesman I don't believe I should find any part of my work more incommon effort for the common good of the land." He believed that after the general election in England that with the distribution of parliamentary power the Irish party would be able to hold the balance between the two parties.

ion as to the policy proposed for Ire-I am, dear Lord Dunraven, yours

"I myself never quarreled with any one because he did not come right round to our newly adopted opinions," said Mr. Morley, "even in that great difference of 18 years ago." All were agreed in a common desire to do justice to Ireland and the gift of £112,000,000 of good British money was proof that they were not only just but generous.

"If it should appear that these Irishmen are in a position to determine for us what our rulers are to be and what their policy shall be, I think that John Bull will waken up to consider the question if such a state of things is really terrible; and he will perhaps apply himself again to a solution of the national difficulty which is still outstanding and confronts us." The speaker thought that those of strong views in Toronto would not dwell under the delusion of supposing that a grant of money would avert the necessity of taking the next step.

"This is polemical, I gather frpm your silence that you feel I am on polemical ground. I hope I have not shown anything of the polemical spirit," the speaker said, with conciliatory tones, and the response was

"Having twice assumed the rewhich is not a joke, and it is not any more a joke when the Nationalists are your friends than when they are your opponents. I trust you will forgive me giving so much space to this matter in my observa-tions." He was sure that whatever the result of the elections, there would be manoeuvres from one side or the other.

A Valuable Prize

Moving through London, Ont., sometimes called the "Forest City," during the past week, I accidentally er in the House of Commons, and stumbled into the home of an old will. I hope, even in the next Parliaposition to the Irish movement. I tended eight similar sales and the position to the Irish movement. I tended eight similar sales and the position to the Irish movement. are both well-known and much respected all over North Middlesex. The spected all over North Middlesex. The stample" proved a pleasant one, but it was doubly more so when his clever little doubles. friend, Mr. Walter Kilgallan, whose clever little daughter, Mary, sub-mitted for examination a costly prize which she won at a school examinawhich she won at a school examination on the preceding day. This consisted of a valuable gold medal, the gift of His Lordship Bishop McEvay, for good conduct, regular attendance, general proficiency and application. Little Mary Kilgallan felt proud of her conquest and so did I; and I now heartily express the hope that greater victories and richer testimonials are in store for her.

AJAX HARMLESS HEADACHE
Every man has as much busine within himself as a physician in

MR. MICHAEL DAVITT-Continued from me a little farther in my compari-

ED TENANT FARMER.

became the Prime Minister of the Home Rule Colony of New Zealand. He was a strong Labor leader and an able reformer. He placed pro-labor men in power, in place of capitalist politicians, and with what result? New Zealand is to-day the most progressive country in the world. Not a single paucer can be found in the colony. pauoer There is a progressive income tax and land tax; a taxation of land values, a local option law, one man one vote, with votes for women as for men (cheers.) There are old age pensions for workers, a Government bank, direct advances of state money to land workers and others on adequate security, with many and various other beneficial laws; all passed with the purpose of minimizing poverty among the people, and with the object of making domestic government a State agency for promoting the material betterment and social well-being of all the workers and all the taxpayers, without distinction of class, interest, or creed (cheers). "Delendo est Carthago," as old Cato once said to the Romans; and we Irishmen here to-night can say to the toiling millions of Great Britain : Look to Home Rule in the Colonies to see what British and Irish workers can obtain and accomplish under the protection of its laws and institutions in New Zealand and Australia and if the wage-earners of these islands aspire to similar benefits and blessings they can be got, and got only, from the triumph of Home Rule principles in the political arena of Great Britain and Ireland" four and Chamberlain

ARE NOT TIRED OF THE IRISH QUESTION in Westminster. Nothing of the kind.

such departure, would be, I submit, a and class ownership of land (cheers). of election expenses and of members glements and quarrels of the Old tic prosperity by democratic legis- would insure Home Rule for Iresuffer in attention to your own de- macy of the classes in the govern- I confess, my friends, ment of these islands and in the They would gather, proceeded the rule of the British question will ege to command, and of course, teresting than in making effusion and I am as liable to err as any other human item in the Irish movement. Frankly, I am opposed to both the talk about and the policy of the Irish Party having the balance of power in the next Parliament. I doubt very much the wisdom of such talk, and I believe such a policy He was certain there were in that would spell certain defeat to the assembly profound difference of opin- Home Rule cause in the next House of Commons, should such a balance of power fall by any chance to the Irish Party. This is a question of race and principle, and not of policy. Liberals and Tories are British in a common racial feeling, though divided on political issues into party divisions, and so are, of course, the people of Great Britain. They will not permit an Irish Party of eighty to dictate what a British House of Commons of 670 members shall shall not do, any more than the Irish Nationalist majority in Ireland will permit the dictation of the pro-British minority in our country (cheers); and there is absolutely nothing more certain in the political once before with disaswas tried results, by Mr. Parnell, in two to oppose his purpose, and the defeat of Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule Bill in 1886 was due entirely to the tactics which Tory intrigue had sugous year. Home Rule must come on its merits, as a measure of jusas a measure to appease Irish hostility in America (cheers), as a great ment, is the British Labor Party election, it would be this: Support neither Torv nor Liberal in any conto return fifty or sixty Labor memhers to a House of Commons which

TEMPTING BUT DANGEROUS

FIVE PER CENT. IN

By means of a 5%, GOLD BOND POLICY you can secure a guaranteed investment and protect your family in case of your death.

> WRITE FOR PAMPHLETS. POLICIES ISSUED ON ALL APPROVED PLANS.

Confederation I ife

ASSOCIATION-HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO.

W. H. BEATTY Esq.,

W. D. MATTHEWS, Esq. FREDERICK WYLD, Esq.,

W. C. MACDONALD

J. K. MACDONALD

 ANY FIRST-CLASS GROCER CAN SUPPLY YOU WITH FIBRE WARE

TUBS, PAILS, WASH BASINS, ETC.

Manufactured by

LOWER PRICES MORE

BETTER INSIST ON

* question of class rule in government man one vote measure, the payment grievously mistaken policy. And, depend upon it—like my distinguished host here, I have thought of this would result in laws similar to those question for many years—and depend now in operation in Australia and ed country; and with these progres- an Irish Catholic University, must be upon it, for you here with your own New Zealand, and they dread that sive changes effected in the constitu- allowed to come before the question

DURABLE

I AM NOT OVER SANGUINE. speaker, that his thoughts turned to soon arise in Irish political circles, that this suggestion will prevail, but to further English Unionist intrigues that the French Canalise Countries of the British question will raily once that the suggestion will prevail, but the further English Unionist intrigues that does not lessen my faith in the on this issue, but will raily once semblance between the French-Canadians and the Irish. It was a mournful reflection to him that had m an important question, and we are an encouragement to do for our will put an end to this Anglo-Irish Ireland as for Canada in 1763, the all deeply interested in it. We are country, and their own, what class strife and restore to the Irish people history of Ireland would be vastly each entitled to our honest views politicians in the Tory and Liberal the right to legislate in their own different. Anything that set up di- on this matter, and I only claim an parties will not do if they can pos- land for the domestic needs and for vision between two races anywhere individual right to express my opin- sibly avoid it. Labor representa- the peace, contentment, and prosperin the world worked mischief to man- ion for what it is right to express tion in the House of Commons is ri- ity of our common Fatherland (loud my opinion for what it is worth diculously small when compared with cheering).

(hear, hear). I claim the right to advise (cheers), but not the privilgium has over thirty in its Parlia- t'e greatest possible pleasure to ment, Holland has sixteen, France has 'r ove that a hearty vote of thanks thirty-six, Italy has twenty-five, Ger- be accorded to that unassuming, unmany has eighty-one, for the Social Tretentious, and brilliant Irishman, Democratic Party is virtually the La- Nichael Davitt, for his masterly adbor Party in all Continental Parliadress (cheers). They saw in him ments; Australia has forty-six in its all that was best, most heroic, and Commonwealth Legislature; West most self-sacrificing in the children Australia has a Labor Ministry; New of the Irish peasantry (cheers). Zealand's Progressive Party numbers Mr. C. L. Gillespie seconded the seventy-eight, and it stands for in-vote of thanks, which was carried dustry as against class interests, with acclamation. while the twenty or more millions of Mr. Davitt suitably replied, and workers of all grades in Great Bribers to Westminster. This is a thusiasm.
state of affairs which British work-' The proceedings concluded with the ingmen will not allow to continue, singing of "God Save Ireland." and I for one hope and believe that the very next Parliament there will be a Labor Party forty or fifty strong, at least, which, in conjunction with eighty Nationalists from Ireland, who are sure to be, as us-possibility of developing a trade in ual, true to the interests of labor live stock with Argentina is given will make for the rule of the peo- F. W. Hodson, live stock commisevents of the next five years than Ruled New Zealand now enjoys to find all cattle landed here must, bethe summary rejection of any proposed Irish measure by the House of Lords, if such a Bill is the price to be paid by any British Party for Irish support in the House of Commons.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION

sue to a settlement in this Parlia- has to bear the entire loss." we are now threatened by a body in cattle at any price. tice to Irish claims, as a means of London called the Catholic League In a later letter Mr. Spark says relief to the Imperial Parliament, with the same policy which is to The more I see of this country the make the School question again para- more convinced I am that the Canamount to that of the Home Rule in dians can do a very large trade revolutionary reform essential to the English elections. So far as this is here in live stock, and agricultural interests of the masses of the people of Great Britain, as well as to those their politics from the "Tablet" we any duty on here. I enclose you an done by English Catholics who take machinery, neither of which there is of Ireland, and not by means of an cannot reasonably object. They are account of a sale of imported bulls Irish Party proposing to hold some deadly enemies to the Irish National which took place last week, which British Party in power in return for demand; but as nine-tenths of the shows that the twelve animals offered some offer which the House of Catholics in England are Irish it is brought $79,900, or an average of hope and believe that this policy will average prices paid have been 1,400 Great Britain for the next general Government, especially at the insi- tember (the best month), October and dious suggestion of badly-concealed November, so they have to be shipneither Torv nor Liberal in any con-stituency where a Lahor member can to the interests of Home Rule in You really should attend next year's be elected by aid of Radical and Great Pritain during the past two exhibition at Buenos Ayres in Sep-Irish votes (cheers), and thus help years owing to the assistance given tember which will be interesting. years, owing to the assistance given tember, which will be international by the Irish Party to the present I hope Canada will make an exhibit. government on the schools question, for if she did all the stock could be some Irish members going so far as sold at the exhibition at every recould, and they would, with Radical some Irish members going so far as Labor and Irish support, carry a one to support the closure against Welsh munerative prices. members and to vote for the correction of the mass of the Welsh people who are rightly and manfully standing Inside and Outside En welopes $2.50. Samples Mailed Free.

WALTON ENGRAVING CO.

Britain not to permit themselves to Britain not to permit themselves to bear infamy and reproach. members and to vote for the coer-

POLITICAL INSTRUMENTS FOR TORY PURPOSES

work lying to your hand, to suffer the example of an Irish National As- tion the Labor Party of the near of Home Rule. This is to all true yourselves to be caught in the entan-sembly, engaged in promoting domes- future, if not of the next Parliament, Irishmen paramount to every other public question that can appeal to our kith and kin in Great Britain, and I feel confident that you and they, having already done your duty to the cause of Catholic Schools here proposed a similar compliment to the tain send only thirteen Labor mem- chairman, which was carried with en-

Live Stock Trade with Argentina

Some information regarding the (cheers), will mutually aid each oth-er in promoting all measures which English horseman, in a letter to Mr. ple as against class rule, and will sioner. Soon after his arrival in stand for such legislation as Home that country Mr. Spark wrote: I the content and blessing of its pros- sides the certificate of breeding, have perous and progressive population a certificate (or rather the shipper (loud cheers). Others, however, are must produce it) from the Minister of advising other policies, and among Agriculture, or his deputy, of the them are those who insist that country from which they are sent, country from which they are sent, to declare that there has been no infectious disease in that country for shall again be made the foremost el- six months previous to shipping. If ectioneering issue for Irish or Cath- the said document is not produced the olic electors in British constituencies cattle are not allowed to land. In notwithstanding the declarations any case, all cattle must be kept in 1885. He so balanced both British made at the last General Election by quarantine for 40 days, after which Parties that one of them split in English Catholic leaders, that if they are tested and if they do not Irish Catholic voters forced this is- pass are slaughtered and the owner ment, it would in future be out of withstanding all this trouble, it will the way of Home Rule (hear hear). pay breeders to send really good gested to Mr. Parnell in the previ- Well, they got this settlement of the pure-bred Shorthorn bulls and heifers question in the Act of 1902, and yet here to sell. You can't sell grade don window, filling the air with dancing thoughts, that made our novelist so retrospective-and idle. He had in his mind, vaguely, a vision of that June morning in a Devon cider orchard, when in the eternal egotism of youth he had talked, and she had listened. When, half fearfully, he had touched the mysteries of love.

Long ago-oh, very long ago! Bless me-what was the girl's name? She had had ridiculous ideals incompatible with such a merry round face and such impertinent red hair—the Emili-ent Novelist recollected. Her father had owned the cider orchard and many others. What was the name? Sampford, or Widdicombe, or Debby-

Not any of them a bit hie it. She was a memory-nothing rore. The Eminent Novelist sighed. Times had changed since then. Now he waswell, famous, in a sort of way. That is, he had no worldly sordid

A discreet tap at the door disturbed these more comfortable reflections. It was the page boy.

"Please, sir, a lady. "Won't give her name, sir. Wants to see you very particular. Has called twice already—"

"Ask her to be good enough to come in," interrupted the Eminent Novelist, with a faint hope of 'copy" rising within him. Those blank sheets were reproachful.

A moment later a girl rustled into the sanctum. She was dressed in violet voile, made in the extreme of fashion, with a great black feathery hat on her well-poised head. She appeared very much at ease and smiled affably enough toward the Eminent Novelist.

"You must forgive my 'boarding' you like this," she began graciously. 'I haven't sent the carriage away, so you can imagine that I won't really detain you.'

The Novelist indicated a seat and bowed

"Thanks awfully. I see I have disturbed you . . . Well, to the point, then, at once. I have come to talk ly secured a point. about your books. Your last one is a distinct falling away."

in the open," the girl went on, airily. She had a perfume of violets about her, and a pretty trick of dimpling his own style. One or two phrases her cheeks. The Novelist seemed to her cheeks seemed to her cheeks. The Novelist seemed to her cheeks seemed to her cheeks seemed to her cheeks. The Novelist seemed to her cheeks seemed to her cheeks seemed to her cheeks. frank p Very eyes she had, and gleaming hair. Altogether, the Novelist found it in caught his earlier methods. him to overlook her impudence.

you know," continued the girl, sud- strive after them!" denly becoming serious. "And, in "Time smooths away the epochs in sort of thing-'falling in love with a scars."

at any rate, you're lighting the fire Girl." preparatory to it. Now, I'm sorry She who care, don't you know.

"It's very good of you."
"Not at all. As I said, one has ideals and things in one's youth." (The Novelist admitted that.) "You sign it?" are rather my ideal-or you were: I can prove it to you that you are falling away. Take your first book, for the Novelist "Crude and very sincere," correctpears to set in much earlier. I'm not keeping you?"

"Well, do just read some of your early work again. I'm sure-"

The violet girl laughed again and dimpled her round cheeks. Well, that is business, certainly, and I'd dearly like to take up the challenge! But I want to speak of your books generally, with a view to helping youand myself. You know that now it's your name that sells.' The Novelist shrugged his shoulders and glanced toward the clock. "It's so, I am afraid," said girl, smoothing her skirts deprecatingly. "I had not forgotingly. "I won't keep you a minute ten. The offer is still open." longer. This is my notion. I'll write your stories for you, and you'll sign them. It will be a good deal less work for you, while—''

"Yes?" inquired he, rising.
"I don't seem to be able to sall

"I don't seem to be able to sell ing him the agent's note. my stories as it is, don't you see?" she continued, with the first signs of losing her nerve. Her dimple had ed in "Young People," in August, vanished temporarily.

"I'm profoundly obliged to you," remarked the Eminent Novelist very sons-" coldly, "but I fear that such an arrangement would be scarcely fair." touch of scorn. "Not fair? now, of course. It's just your pame and took up his pen. "Pay one hundred guineas," he wrote rapidly, racked with pain means speedy subjugation of the most refractory elements. It cures pain, heals bruises, maintain that I shall do you more than justice. Here's a short piece."

She produced from a little bag hanging at her waist a folded paper, in a crossed to her with the process of the produced from a little bag hanging at her waist a folded paper, in a crossed to her with the process of the produced from the produced from a little bag hanging at her waist a folded paper, in a crossed to her with the process of the produced from the produced little while the Eminent Novelist heard the sound of departing carriage wheels. He laughed then heartily—utterly. "Well, I'm—" mories of another June morning, far like to know." He seized his pen; signed the manuscript in his neat, Mayhap, it was the bright sunshine small handwriting; then pushed the streaming in through the open Lon- paper hastily into an envelope. Without permitting himself time to relent, he addressed the envelope to his agent; stamped it; rang for the page

> "Post that at once, will you?" he ordered coolly.

Within three posts the manuscript was returned-with an incredulous note from the agent.

"My dear chap," it began somewhat familiarly, "what are you about? Is it a joke or midsummer madness? You send me a queer little piece thoughtful, analytical, and done with more than your usual style. So much I'll freely admit. But where's the story? Don't you know by now that the tale's the thing? Haven't I drummed it into you ever since we started together : and with the best results for both of us? I can sell your stuff like hot cakes in the ordinary course; and I can find a market for the last-if you insist.

"But! Firstly, the public hate analysis. it, or the patience-or the understanding. Secondly, they can only appreciate thought so long as it keeps on the copybook platitude le-Hang it man-remember howbooks sell! Lastly, as regards style, the public honestly don't care one way or t'other. Forgive my brutality and let me know what I'm to do.

"Yours, perplexed, The Eminent Novelist pacified the publisher by withdrawing the obnoxious piece and sending hin two short stories in his (the E. N's) later manner. Then the Eminent Novelist waited for the return of the violet girl with outward calm.

Inwardly, he was disturbed-a little. He felt some sense of triumph the public should have failed so dismally at the very outset!

whole, the violet girl hadn't actual- will answer you in kind. About to- in the Bedford jail to write the

The Novelist sank in his round- second time at her story. He smiled sions. backed chair and waited in silence. as he noted the construction, the "Oh, I know it's unusual and all anti-climax, the "youngness" of the that, for one to speak one's opinion thing. He shrugged indulgently to-

It was really clever how she "Ideals are the Unattainable," she "I have read all your books, don't wrote, "yet every decent man will a manner, I have rather gone in for our lives; so that presently only them. A woman's first enthusiasm wrinkles are left to mark their portrait' idea. You understand?" "My next book will be all margin.

"I think so." (He rather flattered But I don't suppose the public will himself on understanding the sex!) appreciate the delicate irony of it.' "Well, honestly, you know-you're Satirical, eh? Another phase of

-and so are heaps of people, who- of violets and memories. The Em- sustaining. The zealous ticket-vendor

"And send it off?" so much."

"Crude and very young," suggested turned up the agent's letter. "I sent to get married do so with much less cret still remains between the two sentimentalism than was displayed in ed the girl swiftly. "I begin to be- of us. I was piqued into being un- former decades. We observe the inlieve that with age and experience fairly fair! Now, please read my fluence of this fact in the novels of one's eyes grow dim. I understand it's physiologically so in the fifties; but, as regards the soul, decay ap-fered, and read the note a second time. He perceived, as she bent her "If you can really prove to me that pretty head, that her hair was of a my stuff is becoming worse instead of very charming color-red, gold and slightly better," the Novelist checked shining. He fancied, as she did not her, "I will very willingly give a check for one hundred guineas to any charity you like to name."

stiffing. He fancied, as she did not look up, that perhaps she was—crying.

He made the effort then to break an He made the effort then to break an awkward silence; but she interrupted him on his first words, in a strange stifled manner; "Did you say a hundred guineas," she asked, "or was it pounds?"

"I don't think I quite—"
"You said that if I could really prove your work to be falling away, you would give-" "Oh, yes; a hundred guineas to any charity you cared to name," he re-

"What do you mean?"

"And I'm 1889. I cut it out then, and a week ago had it typed. I brought it with of the people to give us the best atme the other morning for two rea-

"One of which I know," murmured best types of manhood! the Eminent Novelist, commanding "Not fair?" she echoed, with a himself most surprisingly. A sudden suspicion had helped to parry the troubled waters means to subdue an otherwise deadly thrust. He to calmness the most boisterous sea. whom? To your publisher? He an otherwise deadly thrust. He to calmness the most boisterous sea. doesn't even read your manuscripts reached for his checkbook, opened it To apply Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil ing at her waist a folded paper, in a crossed to her with the paper flutterconjuring trick kind of a way. "Read ing feebly in his hand. "And how that; sign it—and do me the honor is the cider orchard now, Muriel?"

A Ventilating Oven that Ventilates.

There is only one practical way of ventilating a range oven, and that way has been adopted in the Pandora-is an actual, positive, working feature, and not a mere talking point.

Fresh air is drawn from the outside through small vents into the oven, while the odors and cooking fumes are forced by the fresh air out through small vents into the smoke flues, and up the chimney. Puddings, cakes, bread, etc., cooked and baked in a "Pandora" oven are always light, fresh and entirely free from mixed odors and foreign flavors. Ask your dealer to show you the Fandora Range or write to us London, Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Vancouver, St. John, N.B.

. The Average Young Man

Perhaps the moralists have been too to be paragons. But they pay their way. They put in good solid work every day and don't like it if they are idle. They get to bed before midnight. They try to do no man ty anywhere. They would pass that her impudent notion of fooling evil. Talking mean things about through a gold mine without seeing people they know is something they mally at the very outset!

Moreover, on reflection, he decided that the agent had sought to soften his rejection of the MS.; and so had ingeniously implied it to be "too good." This seemed a reasonable view of the man's letter. On the whole the violet girl hadn't actual will answer you in kind. About to in the Bedford jail to write the always capture gate money from rubbish, beside a street in Florence. them. Reading circles are too new which some unskilled workman had

Religion is entirely unobjectionable angel in the ruin, and with his chisel to the average steady young fellows and mallet, he culled out from it one we are discussing. Their parents of the finest pieces of statuary in practiced it—often fervently. It is a Italy, his young David. An observ-good thing with them. So far as ing barber in Newark, N.J., thought they think of it they approve of it, he could make an improvement in but they don't think of it much. The shears for cutting hair, invented clipchurch service of Sunday is no pers, and became rich. A Maine man sooner out of sight than out of mind. was called in from the hayfield to They will not be classed as infidels or wash clothes for his invalid wife. non-Christians, but the gulf between He had never realized what it was them and devotion, piety, ardor, faith to wash clothes before. Finding the and the other qualities of virile, liv- method slow and laborious, he ining Christianity is very wide. The interest they take in religion is a fortune. not doing yourself justice. I won't youth! He returned to his work. fairly gauged, perhaps by the money say you're pot-boiling exactly; but, His new daring novel—"Heart of a they put into it. Good, steady and sensible as they may be, they are not She came, with her faint fragrance much at church building or asylum inent Novelist took up an attitude of at a church fair prefers to deal with a to the possibilities of the twentieth tolerance toward her and strove to married man every time. It is well century, they are everywhere. lesson the blow. She put that aside that the churches of the country are Avenues greater in number, wider well—about the story? Did you so well built up. Perhaps the maturine extent, easier of access than ever ed generation has been overdrawn up- before existed, stand open to the on in this particular, and the incoming generation is evening matters up chanic, to the educated youth, to the "Yes. I was weak enough to dare by too much economy. So the whir-He laughed a little as he ligig of time brings in its revenges.

Those of our typical young men who successes than ever before within the

She read it, standing; her own ex- poetry in such affairs is as much the pression unreadable. She sat down exception now as it was the rule suddenly in the chair he silently of in other ages, when troubadours did a rushing business. Our fair-to-average young men, if they look over the summary of their expenses for the year, will observe that most of their money is spent on themselves. It goes for board and clothing. It serves to gratify this or that little taste in luxuries. It helps them to "have a good time." Our young men do like, occasionally, to "have a good time," and they must have it. But their money does not go mains to be done than has ever been for charity. Not much of it goes to the church. And, as a local pulpit speaker observed, they do not HOME TREATMENT FOR CANCER even spend it on their girls. It is all for self. The dollar mark is solely before Ego. It is this selfishness that thoughtful people are beginning to consider the chief fault of your ordinarily respectable young fellow. That sician. Send for book telling what kind of man doesn't lend his life for wonderful things are being done by the defence of his country. Self-sacrifice is not one of his shining vir-

This is the young man as you meet him, with "naught extenuated and naught set down in malice." The characteristics are those of a healthy animal endowed with an attenuated soul. The spiritual life is too much eliminated from the every-day world tainable types of manhood. And how badly we stand in need to-day of the tasten of that man, firming of Jose Com. I brent an utter Lead

Opportunities in Little Things

Don't wait for extraordinary ophard on the young man, says the portunities. Seize common occasions Quarterly, Altoona, Pa. Maybe he and make them great. Every day is isn't so bad after all. At any rate full of these. Larger opportunities there is no lack of pretty fairly aver- come only to those who keep their age good fellows. They don't pretend eyes open for the smaller ones that anything precious or worthy of their pics which their line of work brings greatest allegory of the world, on Having thus entirely disposed of her, the Eminent Novelist glanced a second time at her story. He smiled as he noted the construction, the vented the washing machine and made

> PROFESSIONS AND TRADES MUL-TIPLIED.

Opportunities? To the young man with open eyes and ears, who alive sober, frugal, energetic and able meoffice boy and to the clerk-avenues through which they can reach greater reach of these classes in the history of the world. A short time ago there were only three or four recognized professions-now there are 50 And of trades, where there was one, there are a hundred.

Bestir yourselves, young men who cry "No chance!" Wake up to your opportunities, which are everywhere. All doors of service are open wide for you. The world looks to you to be ready to take the places of the men who made the nineteenth century the greatest in achievement of all ages. The east and the west, THE THOROUGHLY TESTED AND the north and the south call to you. In agriculture, in mechanics, in business, in science, in inventions, in surgerv, in law, in the higher and lower walls of life alike greater work reaccomplished.

Dr. D. M. Bye's Balmy Oils, for home, without the service of a physimply anointing with oils. relief from pain, destroys the cancer microbes and restores the patient to health. Thousands of cancers, tumors, catarrh, ulcers, piles and ma-lignant diseases cured in the last ten years. If not afflicted, cut this out and send it to some suffering one.
Address the Home Office, Dr. D. M. Bye Co., Drawer 505, Indianapolis, dients of unquestioned curative pow-

Thus kind words, by their young, so long as directions are folpower of producing happiness, have lowed also a power of producing holiness, and so of winning men to God. Do not expect too much from others, but remember that all have some ill-nature. "hose occasional outcropping we mest expect, and that we and Turpentine has always brought must forbear and forgive, as we of quick relief. By using it at the first ten desire forbearance and forgive sign of trouble the disease is checkness ourselves.

Useful at all Times.-In winter or conjuring trick kind of a way. "Read that; sign it—and do me the honor of making the attempt. Good-morning."

She dropped the paper into the hand outstretched in dismissal, courtesied charmingly, smiled and dimpled once more, then rustled herself to the door and disappeared from his view. 'eaving a perfume of violets and long tent of the door and disappeared from his view. 'eaving a perfume of violets and long tent of the dismissal and colds with and overcome any healthful our minds will be full of summer Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will cope with and overcome any is the cider orchard now, Muriel?" he questioned, in a would-be dry our play there still?"

She dropped the paper into the hand outstretched in dismissal, courtesied charmingly, smiled and dimpled once made full confession—"but—I do not forget." she added, in a gentle, learnt the value of the sunshine, and long treatment of violets and violet change of diet, change of the digestive or a capacity for in the violet treatment of violets. The violet treatment of violets and violet chan in summer Parmelee's Vegetable Pills We also use it for coughs and colds

. E. SEAGRAM

WATERLOO

ONTARIO

GOLD MEDAL

AWARDED

Labatt's Ale and Porter

SURPASSING ALL COMPETITORS

BRANDS

The O'Keefe Brewery Go.

Made in Toronto Telephone Park 553 and have one of my waggons call with a sample loaf. It Will Only Cost You 6 Cents. . . .

If You wish to try the Best Bread

H. C. TOMLIN, The Toronto Bakery 420-22-24-26 Bathurst St. TORONTO

THE DOMINION BREWERY CO.. Limited

MANUFACTURERS OF THE CELEBRATED

White Label Ale

TORONTO ONTARIO

He that has to do with an enemy in his breast has a harder task upon him than he that has to encounter one in the field. Never retort a sharp or angry word. It is the second word that makes the quarrel. Learn to say kind things whenever the opportunity The way to make future calamities easy to us in the sufferance is to make them familiar to us in the con-

Be Ready

For Croup AND PROTECT YOUR CHILDREN BY KEEPING IN THE HOUSE

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine HON. E. J. DAVIS

RELIABLE FAMILY ME-DICINE.

To overcome croup you must act quickly. There is usually no time allowed for sending for doctors or medi-

The hollow, croupy cough at midnight may be your first warning, and cancer, is a positive and painless this will strike terror to your heart cure. Most cases are treated at if you are not prepared to fight this disease.

It may be of little use to know that Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is a positive cure for combination is a secret; gives instant croup if it is not to be obtained at the critical time.

Most persons who have tested this treatment for croup keep a bottle at hand, so that by prompt action they can prevent the disease from reaching a serious stage. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is composed of simple ingreer, is pleasant to the taste, well liked by children, and can be used Happiness is a great power of holi- with perfect safety by old and > George Brown, 71 Harbord street, Toronto, writes: "Our children have been very subject to croup, and we have found that Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed ed at once. We always keep this remedy in the house, and in fact, feel that we could not do without it.

IF YOU ARE

or working for someone else, why not get a farm of your

NEW ONTARIO

For Particulars Write to

Commissioner of Crown Lands TORONTO, ONT. JAS. J. O'HEARN

PAINTER! DECORATOR CALSOMINER GLAZIER

161 QUEEN ST. WEST Telephone Main 2677 Residence Phone Main 377

TERMS: $1.50 PER DAY

Electric Cars from the Union Station Every Three Minutes.

We are showing complete sets of tools in prices from $3.00 to $20.00 a set.

Cor. KING & VICTORIA ST., TORONTO

KIND HEARTS AND CORONETS

J. HARRISON

Kind Hearts are more than Coronets, And simple faith than Norman Blood.

Copyrighted 1903, by Benziger Bros.

CHAPTER XIII.-Continued. "Nor do I, thank God, love you that way, for if I did 'twould make the parting doubly bitter. I have been careless, maybe-but I am not all to blame. I love this dear old place-every inch of its ground.

could not rest in my grave buried out of Lindsay's white soil. "I have made you cry," he continued, for the tears were flowing swiftly down her cheeks. "I am not worth a single tear. But your self-sacrifice, your friendship, shall be with me fore she did so. wheresoever I may go. And it is better for me-God knows a hundred times better for you that I go alone. He put his arms about her tenderly then, and kissed her on the lips, his own eyes heavy with tears. She broke from him, and ran up through the woods and out past Matthew like a startled deer. And she had registered a vow in the depths of her aching heart that no other lips That she would die as she had lived-alone. Then, after years of silence, had come the news of his death-the bitter, sudden news that had almost killed her. She shuddered as with cold now when she thought of it.

What was to prevent her bringing back the body of the man she loved -to taking the matter in her own hands? With Laurence Lindsay resting in the majestic silence of death at his gates, the master of the manor might rave and storm, but for decency's sake dare not refuse admis-

She thought this over now, and at last drew pen and paper towards her, and started a letter to Mr. Fraser. A pathetic little note it was in its way. Though its writer strove to be thoroughly business-like, the yearning of this unguarded moment stole into the terse lines. Would he advise her? she asked. And then went on to tell him of Laurence Lindsay's wish, and of how, after hearing his death, she had tried to find the Mr. Fraser who had been so good to him, but could not. And of how that very evening ex-Senator Hilliard had mentioned his name. She had made bold to write to him-and would he answer her? For well she knew that Laurence Lindsay could not rest in his alien soil, nor could she rest thinking of him so far away, for she had been his true friend and loyal comrade even in his absence. She looked up when that letter was

"Are you satisfied with me?" she whispered. "Laurence, my darling, are you satisfied with me?" Her tears fell heavily and slowly. leaned her head down an the desk, and pressed her lips to the photo-"My darling, my darling, be satisfied with me."

She faced the world again the next morning with serene blue eyes and mien as proud as ever. Her letter she posted with her own hands, and after that came another trial-waiting. She had no idea how long it would be before it reached him. The first week she would not think of it. Put with the second came expectation, and with the third a longing that was almost feverish. And then just as she left that she could bear the suspense no longer, the answer arrived. It was one pleasant afternoon as she sat with Aunt Estelle and Gertrude in the former's sittingroom. Aunt Estelle, busy with her embroidery, did not notice how the girl's face changed, and how her hand shook when she saw the foreign postmark. Uncle Eric, looking up from his newspaper, inquired in a jocular manner whether it was her turn to be receiving love-letters now. She smiled, and made some evasive reply, slipping the note, meanwhile, into her bosom. Then in order to distract the attention of the others, she went about her self-imposed auties as usual. She poured the tea, waited on her aunt, practised a song or two with Gertrude. Only now and then her hand stole to the front of her dress, in order to assure herself that the precious missive was a reality, not a dream.

He wrote a peculiar, cramped hand, she thought, when she first unfolded the thin sheet in the privacy of her room. And then she settled herself to decipher it.

"Some years ago, when I first met aurence Lindsay," began the letter, Laurence Lindsay," "he told me of Miss Mildred Powell. He told me of her strength of charater, her fidelity. Pardon me if I laughed at him-for I did not believe in either of these traits as charact- giveness. eristic of woman. I see that I have been unfortunate.

vividly before me when you ask me to that she had wounded her. help you to fulfil his wish to be buried in his native soil.

the way. I would be obliged to go the sublimity of her mother's soul. to Costa Rica—to the inhospitable re-his approval.

Through Laurence I know there is an old man connected with manor-Matthew, I think they call him-who would be willing to mortal. help and advise you. I will manage to see you within the next iew weeks, perhaps, through this Matthew And the mother answered ser if I can discover him. At the pre-sent a letter addressed to 'Hotel L'-Etrangere, Paris, will reach me.

bird of passage anywhere.
"Why not broach the subject to Mr.

alone! Of Matthew-and of me, me!" here, had we seen each other! Oh, he would have grown to love me, I

There was a new problem facing the girl now. What was she to do? How broach the subject to Uncle Erie? How bear his reproaches, maybe his sneers, in all probability his rage? She winced. She would write again to Mr. Fraser and explain things be-

CHAPTER XIV.

The Mother's Disappointment.

The happenings at Lindsay Manor were affecting one more person as deeply as any of the principal actors in the scenes. At Westport, in her little room, Mrs. Lindsay pursued heart that no other lips ever touch hers in caress satural. France had grown quite settled-the year from sixteen to seventeen does a great deal to mature the hoydenish, thoughtless, incipient future woman. She was very tender with her mother-much more tender and gentle than she had ever been-for she noticed that there was a weary droop to the kind lips, and an anxious furrow between the eyes and seldom lighted now with the glad merriment of old.

For her first-born, probably the dearest of her children, was causing her the greatest sorrow of her life. She saw before him nothing but misery. His letters showed her how was his infatuation. It was not the sort of affection she had existence." thought her Hugh would have entertained. Day by day the new love was absorbing all his thoughts, his cares, his tenderness. Day by day he was putting from him all and everything save one alone. He had given himself up to the great passion with what seemed madness to his mother. She could not really tell why she felt so badly over itthere was a strange foreboding at her The cynical phrases that so often must have excitement, emotion, poe-children, and when Agatha came, re- surface, echoes of the artificial life Leigh. joicing at Hubh's engagement, exalt- she had led, the artificial coin of the ing the new sister-in-law-to-be to the artificial world. She would forget skies, the mother had nothing to say them when she entered the country into it just so much does it contain. except coinciding words. Then, in an of truth and simplicity-his native unguarded moment, her daughter told air, his mother's native air. her of that last interview with Ger- He had to return to the city the trude before she left-told her that last of November, and he had hoped she had always been afraid of Hugh that Leigh would promise to marry "With love and duty as the spirit signed and sealed—looked up at the silling in long with the state of November, and he had always been afraid of Hugh that Leigh would promise to marry pictured face, and drew it towards falling in love with the girl—that his him at Christmas, so that he could of your daily existence good-fortune was partly due to her. Who knew what might not have their new home, with his mother's happened had she not roused Gertrude's pride before things went too

> Mrs. Lindsay listening, almost speechless, turned now. Agatha, gazing up with satisfied complacency, read something in the flushed face, the flashing eyes of her mother she never seen in them. For the first time she stood frightened before her.

"Not another word!" said Mrs. "Not another word! I Lindsay. am at last to learn how well I have succeeded in rearing my children. That you, my daughter, could have wounded the heart of that most loving child in such a bitter manner! That child, for whose welfare I have prayed night after night, scarce daring to ask of God the great boon that she might love my son! Now I hold the key to her pathetic little letters-in which her aching heart tried to mask its pain under smoothsounding words. And my son Hugh. my darling, whose prayers were learned at my very knee-forgetful of his pride, forgetful of his religion, he takes this woman-who will humble him first in his own eyes, and be the cause probably of the loss of his immortal soul! Go home, Agatha, go home, and when you reach there go down on your two knees, and ask God to give you the child-like faith, the loving heart of the little girl you despise. Would to God she were indeed to be my daughter! Gladly would I welcome her, and her place would not be lower with me than any one of you.'

She left the room then, and Agatha, astonished, sat silent for a long time. She had never seen her mother so moved in all her life. And she was scared as well at the storm she had raised. She went away, indeed, not angry-but frightened. And that night when her busband came home she told him, with tears, of the oced her, telling her that they would go together and ask her mother's for-

So it happened that Agatha-a very humble Agatha indeed!-crept into Well did Laurence love his country her mother's loving arms, and with and his home. It brings the past penitence asked her not to remember

And, perhaps, in that hour, the mother and daughter got closer togeth-"But there are many difficulties in er, and Agatha realized in very truth For Leigh had written-and Mrs. gions in which my poor friend lies Lindsay took out the beautiful letter, order to be sure that it was each character so carefully formed. really his body that came back. I She read the high-sounding phrases not prepared for this journey that, analyzed, meant so little. And she placed Gertrude's scrawl beside "I would take it more quickly if I it, and she showed Agatha how the were sure that his uncle would con- one note was missing from that highsent that he be buried in the Lindsay flown epistle-the note of sincerity. vault. It would hardly be wise to In Gertrude's every line was simple try so great an undertaking without affection and honesty-one felt she said not half that her heart dictated. And Aratha saw with her mother's eyes, and learned the value of things material in contrast with those im-"Oh, mother," she said, "when

And the mother answered, smiling sorrowfully: When your children are as old as

How soon I may come to the United And, indeed, as those weeks sped by States Peannot tell, for I am but a it was well for the good woman that she knew not the truth of the condi-"Why not broach the subject to Mr. Lindsay, and find out how he feels in the matter?"

"Which is just what I dare not do," she murmured. "How Laurence must have loved to describe his home—and me—and poor old Matthew to a stranger in a far-away country! Oh, ner towards him underwent many to think of him dying alone—all changes. She was as contradictory to the manner and how to turn to think of him dying alone—all changes. She was as contradictory to the manner and poor old Matthew to a stranger. The manner and poor old Matthew to a stranger in a far-away country! Oh, to think of him dying alone—all changes. She was as contradictory to the manner and to be to the maching the manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratificial manner and was anxious to change the subject to the assignment and was anxious to change the subject. With an aching the ratifical manner and was anxious to change the ratifical manner and was anxious to change the ratifical tions existing at the manor.

sweet words were enough to remove all disagreeable impressions. It was natural for her to feel sq, he told himself. She was so wonderful—she har a reputation.

Experience of life had made Mrs. Lindsay forbearing towards all humankind. When the young girl spoke his wife expressed her contentment tha or France.

he would have grown to love me, I know, I know he would. No one ever took my place in his heart."

There was a new problem facing the girl now. What was she to do? Here is a strong of the girl now. What was she to do? Here is a strong of the girl and young the solution of the girl and young the solution of the soluti riage between the girl and young Bayard Cameron, found herself in ton, who, in her way, enjoyed anydeep waters. She had grown very gentle and tender in her intercourse with those who constituted her fam-ily, but in a case of this kind Aunt have said. Leigh made a wry face. Estelle was to learn that the stubtrol for the beauty was not above a word now and then to make the younger girl writhe secretly. She hadn't enough to eat," said Mrs. had not much for her pains, how- Fenton, placidly. pose as a jealous sweetheart, nor say's word on it? Gertrude as a love-sick, disappointed | They stayed the week. girl.

> at me, Hugh, some time, and give me ing to read on the step a thorough scolding— But no, do still. absorb but one element into your how practical! lives. We women change our whole cious.

Reared by one woman whose every gravely. careful word had been a true one, whose every feeling was pure and noble, Hugh's ideal was a rare and radiant creature who could think no wrong. In Leigh he felt that he had found her. It was well that she contemplated the future with such troubled eyes. She was no hare- question. "I would not, I could not, brained, careless character, not she. live a dull life in a dull house. I heart, despite his reassuring letters, passed her lips were no indication try, beauty. of her true nature, he assured him-She never lost her temper with her self-merely bubbles that rose to the without its poetry and beauty, month fitting up ty even in these. help-for she must be content with said Leigh, slowly. at such a speedy marriage. No; that much," she went on. more than he had counted on.

gentle letter, and in it she asked for the sake of a poor girl!" willingly.

"And while you're there I'll take a run to the office and drop in on had suddenly gobe mad. my partner, said Hugh, with a practicalness that she hated him. to offer?" feel suddenly "I've earned this vacation honestly, but perhaps he'd like a little help for a few days. Besides, I want you and mother to get to know tion as honest, if unexpected, answer. each other -you will succeed in doing so better if I am not there. So it chanced that Westport, at the close of one beautiful day wards the end of October, received heart. Mrs. Fenton and her daughter. This meeting between his mother and his

He had no doubt as to the consequences. If Mrs. Lindsay looked about her little home, wishing it them as they really were. "She will perhaps understand my boy better when she sees the home in which he was born," said his mo- breath of life to me," sharply. ther, with wistful longing. grant her a true heart-may she be as good as she is beautiful. left to be desired. She opened her arms to the girl, and Leigh, stirred currence. He was a sensible young eyes, returned her embrace with a warmth that astonished Hugh and impressed his mother favorably. She greeted the older woman no less heartily, and then took them to their rooms. The simple chamber, with its pure white curtains and sparse with furniture, struck the girl, who was so used to luxury, as a relief.

"It looks so cool," she said, smiling. "And it will be such a change. I did not bring my maid," she went onl "I wanted to do things for myself for a week to see what it is like. I never did without a maid more than a day at a time before

She was standing at the mirror taking off her hat as she spoke. The mother noticed how beautiful she was, how altogether patrician, and how altogether out of place in this small room. But she would allow herself no such thoughts as this last. "Let me be your maid," she said, "Remember I am Hugh's smiling. mother, and anything I can do for you will be a pleasure indeed."

Hugh went to the city next day, leaving Leigh to his mother and sisters, and at first Leigh did enjoy the Everything was so very different that the novelty of it attracted her-for the first two days. At the end of that time she made up her mind that life in such a place as this was circumscribed and narrow and miserable. They were so dread-fully punctual and so conscientious.

as an April day—one moment all sun-shine, the next a storm-cloud. So great was his love that her first self to display the talents that had had been so completely a law unto herself, what surprising in the fact that she often took to heart the her with clear-eyed wisdom, and then thought of a husband's absolute in a few simple words, laid bare power? By his gentleness and kindness he would show her that apart her how much more she knew of the from being his sweetheart she was subject than Leigh herself. Nor did also his beloved comrade and friend. she do this in a patronizing way, Eric Lindsay was satisfied, and but gently, as if she had been Agaalso, willing, even anxious, to agree "Three days more of it!" said Leigh She sighed. "Had he stayed with him in everything. Gertrude, lad we seen each other! Oh, bravely fighting out the sorrow of ing. "Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, we thing that left her in peace. "And Mrs. Lindsay is an excellent cook. It was the worst thing she could

"I suppose I, too, will be expected born will of old remained. Leigh's to be cook, and everything else," she almost constant presence did much said, hotly. "What of the Leigh to teach our little heroine self-con- Fenton I have known-she of superior

Now that her ever, and in crossing swords with so daughter was engaged she saw no skilled an antagonist in the use of reason to be so considerate of her repartee she got the worst of it. Besides, there was no danger in the They were quiet skirmishes on the prospects that Leigh viewed so whole, for Leigh had no wish to gloomily—for had she not Eric Lind-

Hugh was perfectly dense to before they left for home Leigh was Leigh's innuendoes that Gertrude sitting beside Mrs. Lindsay on the cared for him, and she had enough porch. France was bus- in the house womanliness left not to say what and her merry voice could be heard she meant outright. To him each in a snatch of song as she went passing day made Leigh more pre- from room to room. Leigh listened ious.
"You have no idea," she said once, that Mrs. Lindsay's eyes were on "how hard it is to contemplate the her face. At last she patted a yawn future. I wish you would get angry and threw the novel she had been try-

"How can that girl sing so?" she not, or I shall be more unhappy asked, turning to the mother. "What You men, when you marry, a sober life you live out here-and "An earnest, quiet, happy life it is to us, my child," she returned,

> "I couldn't lead it," her teeth shutting together with a snap. "No? Tell me, dear, what sort of a life you would nke. A different one to ours?" "Different? Oh, heavens!"

"There is no life on God's earth She shrugged her shoulders.

"And just as much as we put We can idealize even our daily occupations. "Such occupations as yours-mend-

"Ah, well, we won't discuss it," the home of his own loving hands away from this quickly-she would would make for her. Leigh rebelled stifle here. "Perhaps I expect too" wasn't half enough time she wanted ways wanted to be best in everylonger to get used to the idea. thing. Nothing but what was per-Even April was too soon-but she fect ever suited me. I dreamed that would consider it then. April- it when the time came my love would was not long to wait-four months come to me with such idolization as the poets write of. The love that His mother wrote just then-a very makes kings lay down their crowns him to bring Leigh and Mrs. Fenton eyes glowed. "A love that would for a week's stay at the little house carry a man out of himself-a wild in Westport. And Leigh, with a tempest of affection that would stop sweet look in her eyes, consented at nothing. Oh, somewhere there is love like this in this world.'

The mother looked at her as if she "And for this great, all-absorbing, that made the girl passionate devotion, what have you

> The question was an honest one. For the first time in her life, perhaps, the girl gave an honest ques-"Only this," she said, touching her face with her hand. "Only that!" sorrowfully. "What a poor exchange for a man's whole "I love Hugh," said the girl, casting down her eyes. "He makes me betrothed had been Hugh's one wish. ashamed of myself often. Hugh understands me," almost defiantly. "He knows I am not like other people. "You are romantic, Leigh, and life were finer to receive Hugh's aristo- is an earnest thing after all-from cratic sweetheart, she did nothing to dress it up. The girl must know what harvest grows from the seed what harvest grows from the seed we plant. Dreams do not help us to lead aimful lives." "What are dreams to you are the So this was Hugh's sweetheart. thought the mother-this was her as good as she is beautiful."

home-loving, quiet boy's future wife, this girl whose head was filled with silly nonsense, with fantastic notions. And Hugh saw none of these faults. She was his idol. Afterwards how would it be with him Afterwards-He was not one to yield the truth of his heart and soul to any one woman's views. But if he really loved her would she not influence him, would she not lead him to her way of thinking as his father had been led by her? Slowly, maybe, but surely, from his holy religion -- for the sake of her who believed in nothing. Oh, that she might speak to this girl with the tongue of an angel, would that she could show her the reality of life as she had found it!

With a sigh she laid her hand over the beautiful white ones. "My child," she said, tenderlye "I want you to listen to me. My views are not yours, for I am old and I have seen many things come to pass. Above all the idle fancies that weave their way into our lives, there is but one thing necessary-the will to do right. God is our supreme Creator, and a woman is at her best and loveliest when bowing to His decree. The passionate love you describe is not the true love God wishes us to have-for He must come first in our hearts-first and foremost. He come first in yours, Leigh-even before Hugh?"

"I am not much interested in relirion," said Leigh, indifferently. 'Hugh has said he will show me how you Catholics believe some day. If I can see it—but pshaw!" She shrugged her shoulders gracefully and vawned again. She had recovered

Companies

ASSURANCE NCORPORATED

FIRE and MARINE HEAD OFFICE - TORONTO, ONT.

CAPITAL $2,000,000

DIRECTORS

Hon. GEO. A. COX, PRESIDENT. Hon. S. C. Wood. Geo. McMurrich, Esq. H. N. Baird, Esq. W. R. Brock, Esq.

J. J. KENNY,
VICE-PRESIDENT AND
MANAGING DIRECTOR Geo. R. R. Cockburn J. K. Osborne. E. R. Wood.

WM. A. LEE & SON. GENERAL AGENTS 14 VICTORIA STREET.

Phone: Office Main 592 & Main 5098 Phone: Residence Park 667

THE ork County Loan and Savings Company

Plans suitable for those desiring to own their homes instead of continuing to pay rent. Literature free.

Head Office— Confederation Life Buildin JOSEPH PHILLIPS, Pres.

THE EXCELSIOR LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Insurance In force $5,170,816.30

Men of character and ability to write Insurance can obtain with this Company an agency which will give them an ever increasing income apply to HEAD OFFICE. TORONTO EDWIN MARSHALL, Secretary. DAVID FASKEN, President.

A CHANGE IN THE TRUSTEESHIP

Whether of a Will, Marriage Settlement or Bond Issue, is a troublesome and expensive

Where private trustees are appointed such changes are inevitable.

The Trusts Company alone enjoys continuity of tenure, fixity of residence and permanent records.

THE TORONTO GENERAL TRUSTS CORPORATION

Paid-up Capital $1,000,000 Reserve Fund - $300,000

59 Yonge St., Toronto

ROYAL

ASSETS $62,000,000. DOLLARS C. Mc. L. STINSON

Local Manager IM. A. LEE & SON GENERAL AGENTS

14 Victoria Street, Toronto Phones Main 592 & Main 5098 Residence Phone Park 667

ATLAS ASSURANCE CO., LTD. LONDON, ENGLAND

ESTABLISHED 1808 CAPITAL $11,000,000.

TORONTO BRANCH, 24 Toronto St. A. WARING GILES, Local Manager.

WM. A. LEE & SON 14 Victoria Street, Toronto Tels. Main 592 and Main 5098.

Legal

JAMES'E, DAY JOHN M. FERGUSON.

DAY & FERGUSON, BARRISTERS AND SOLICITORS

Successor to ANGLIN & MALLON

Office-Land Security Chambers, 34 Victoria Street, Toronto.

HEARN & SLATTERY BARRISTEPS, SOLICITORS,

Proctors in Admiralty. Offices: Canada Life Building, 46 King Street West, Toronto, Ont, Office Phone Main 1040. T, FRANK SLATTERY, Residence, 285 EDWARD J. HEARN, Residence, 2t Grang Ave. Res. Phone 1058.

ATCHFORD, McDOUGALL & DALY BARRISTERS AND SOLICITORS. Supreme Court and Parliamentary Agenta

OTTAWA, ONT. F. R. Latchford K.C. J. Lorn McDougall Edward J. Daly.

T EE & O'DONOGHUE

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, Etc.

Dineen Bldg., Yonge and Temperance Sta Toronto, Ont. Offices—Bolton, Ont. Phone Main 1583 Res, Phone Main 2075 W. T. J. Lee, B.C.L., John G. O'Donoghue L.L. B MCBRADY & O'CONNOR BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS,

NOTARIES, Etc. Proctors in Admiralty. Rooms 67 and 68
Canada Life Building, 46 King St. West, Toronto.
Telephone Main 2625.
L. V. McBrady, K.C.
Res. Phone North 452

SCOTT, SCOTT, CURLE & GLEESON BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, Etc. Supreme and Exchequer Court Agents
CARLETON CHAMBERS OTTAWA, ONT Hon, R. W. Scott, K.C. L.L.D. D'Arcy Scott W. H. Curle, M. A. D'Arcy Scott, Departmental Agent and Parlia-mentary Solicifor authorized under the Rules of the House of Commons of Canada.

I NWIN, MURPHY & ESTEN C. J. MURPHY. H. L. ESTEN ONTARIO LAND SURVEYORS, Etc. Surveys, Plans and Descriptions of Property.
Disputed Boundaries Adjusted. Timber Limits and Mining Claims Located. Office: Corner Richmond and Bay Sta., Toronto, Telephone

Architects

ARTHUR W. HOLMES

ARCHITECT 10 Bloor St. East. TORONTO Telephone North 1260.

Soofing

CORBES ROOFING COMPANY-Slate and Gravel Rrofing; Established forty years. 153 Bay Street. 'Phone

E. McCORMACK MERCHANT TAILOR 1 BOOK SOUTH OF TORONTO.

McCABE @ CO. UNDERTAKERS 222 Queen E. and 319 Queen W. Tel. M, 1406

F. ROSAR 40 King St. East, Toronto Telephone Main 1034.

Late J. Young ALBX. MILLARD UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER TELEPHONE 679 359 YONGE ST.

MONUM ENTS The McIntosh Granite & Marble Co.

LIMITED, 1119 & 1121 YONGE ST.

Telephone North 1249 TORONTO

(Terminal Yonge St Car Route.)

Wednesday, the Feast of All Souls, saw the face of everything changed from that of the previous day. Then our churches were all in the bright-ness of the glory of the Saints and the Church triumphant; on All Souls day we saw nothing but signs of mourning as typified by the vestand we heard only the pitiful cry of the city on Sunday next. In makrising round us on every side, "have ing the announcement from the pulpity on me, have pity on me, at pits attention was drawn to least you my friends, have pity on great work which the institution is me for the hand of the Lord hath doing and to the necessity for cotouched me," and in response the cry operation on the part of the and from the large congregations parents are dead and others whose which filled our churches the pray- natural guardians are unable to super for pardon went forth unceasingly port them. It then devolves on othfor those who, unable to help themers to undertake their care. In view cry for assistance. In Toronto, as in view of the fact that three hundred approached Holy Communion, showing the firm belief of the children of the Church in the consoling doctrine was hoped that the subscriptions of the Communion of Saints, and in from the congregations would be as the belief that "it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins.'

ANNUAL MEETING OF MOUNT HOPE COMMITTEE.

The annual meeting of the Committee of Mount Hope Cemetery was held at St. Michael's Palace on Sunday afternoon. His Grace the Archbishop presided and Rev. Father Rohof the Sacred Heart were represented. Of the two appointed representatives from each parish, twenty in a work of supererogation that hint all were present. After the usual reading of minutes and other routine business, votes of thanks were passed to all who had worked during the past year. A special committee consisting of Rev. Father Rohleder and Messrs. O'Keefe, O'Hearn, McGlue and Burns was appointed and an historical committee consisting of Messrs, J. D. Warde, Jas. McCabe and D. Cares was also named. The old by her sister Miss Ethel Shen. and D. Carey was also named. The ed by her sister, Miss Ethel Shepwork of this committee will be to gather data as to the beginning and McDonohue supported the groom. Mr. dress His Grace spoke of the many Richmond street west. bear no mark or sign of Christian-ity, and expressed the wish that every mark or monument erected ir Mount Hope should in some way typify that it denoted the resting place of a Christian; in other words that the figure of the Cross should in future be found on every monument erected to the memory of the dead.

Cawthra Mulock of $100,000 to the a meritorious and gallant term of General Hospital, under certain con- twenty-one years. Part of this ser-Hospital question generally has acquired a position of immediate and vivid prominence in the mind of the was activaly according to the was activally according to the was activaly according to the was activally according to the was activated to the way activated to the was activated to the way activated publishes interviews with the Govern- Of a company of ninety who entered ment, the city, the medical faculty upon the campaign at the Crimea, and others on the subject. In the Sergt.-Major D'Arcy was one of the also under certain conditions, and len victims to the exigencies of war. it was stated that an additional As a testimony to his career in the $100,000 has been bequeathed, but Crimea he received the medal with bore her untold sufferings the three clasps, signifying that he had taken part in the engagements at suggested that the city might be induced to act in a similar way and to an equal amount. In reply to the suggestion both the mayor and Dr. Sheard were wisely doubtful as to the policy of immediately complying with the line of procedure so far followed in the movement of giving to the General Hospital only to the exclusion of all other city hospitals.

The three clasps, signifying that he had also the the engagements at the engagements at Alma. Balaklava and Sebastapool. He had also the Turkish Medal, that of the Fenian Raid and also the medal for Good Conduct. Deceased was well known in Toronto in military circles, as until the closing of the Pension Office in this city he held the appointment of Staff Sergeant-bey, and Mrs. P. J. McManus, Totonto; Mrs. Dennis Flood, London; was a Mrs. William Fisher, Metcalfe, and Mrs. William Fisher, Metcalfe, and say at present until I have looked sence and as he lay at rest robed are other hospitals in the city to Mount Carmel, nothing save the me- gene and William Gallagher, which we contribute as well as to the General," and Dr. Sheard, amongst other things, showed that the city is now contributing to severy hospitals, that last year on the per diem allowance of fifty cents for every patient admitted on the certificate of the Medical Health Officer the sum of $55,866 had been contributed by the city. Of this sum the which was private took place on buted by the city. Of this sum the General Hospital got $11,723.40, and next in order came St. Michael's, which received $10,316.60. The other five received different amounts, the his widow. May he rest in peace. that given St. Michael's there is only a disparity of something over $1,000, and the amounts in proportion to the services rendered, it follows that St. Michael's as a public servant is but the funeral took place from St. Michael's cemetery. The decased was in his 24th year and the work of the smaller hospitals in mind the civic authorities was the voungest son of Mary and did well to hesitate before promising did well to hesitate before promising the asked for award. While the necessity for one first-class and in every way up-to-date hospital is acknowledged on all sides, particularly in relation to the needs of the University, yet with $300,000 already assured the General, it would surely be adequate recompense.

COLLECTION FOR SUNNYSIDE ORPHANAGE.

The annual collection in aid of the Sacred Heart Orphanage at Sunnyand garb of our sanctuaries side will be taken up in the churches doing and to the necessity for cofor mercy rose up from every altar lic. Many children are there whose selves, could yet send forth a pitiful of the near approach of winter and usual, on the Feast large numbers and more little ones are at Sunny-

> WORKING FOR CHRISTMAS. A few days ago news accidentally came to hand of the working of a certain Sodality of the west end, who at their last meeting formulated spirit which envelopes things generally at Christmas, by making a colleder acted as Secretary. All the fifteen parishes of the city with the ber pledged herself to make one or ber pledged herself to make one or more garments, the whole to form a contribution from the Society., As may appeal to others.

SHEPPARD-DAWSON.

At St. Patrick's church, Toronto, progress of the Catholic cemeteries of and Mrs. Dawson, on returning from the city. In the course of his ad-In the course of his ad- their wedding trip, will reside at 15

On Sunday, Oct. 30th, the death oc-curred of William D'Arcy, late Sergeant-Major of Her Majesty's 47th Regiment of foot. The closing of the life of the deceased was the end-Limerick, Ireland, where he first saw THE HOSPITAL QUESTION.

In view of the late grant by Mr. Her late Majesty's forces and served

Mr. George Thompson of No. 3 Staf-ford street. The sad event occurred at Gravenhurst Oct. 24th. The remains were brought to Toronto and the funeral took place from St.

a mistake to dwarf the powers of to hear something of its meaning and others, which so far as the immedivalue. I happened to be present when others, which so far as the immediate convenience of the public is concerned are at least of equal moment.

The Feast of All Saints was celebrated on Tuesday last. In the churches of the city a high mass and several low masses were said, and in the evening Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given and Vespers for the dead sung in preparation for the Feast of all Souls. On the commemoration of the feast in its annual visitation, nothing perhaps strikes us so strongly as the magnitude of the multitude whom it honors and the corresponding addition to the loss far as the immediate convenience of the public is concerned are at least of equal moment. Sergt-Major D'Arcy. It turned out that he himself was a veteran, that ready public opinion generally, to divide the grant amongst the host life, but seeing the death notice, was prompted to pay a last mark of redone, for which last year's schedule of grants would serve as a very fair er in arms. Amongst the medal song in preparation for the feast in its annual visitation, nothing perhaps strikes us so strongly as the magnitude of the multitude whom it honors and the corresponding addition to the the multitude whom it honors and the corresponding addition to the glory of God. Perhaps at first glance we are inclined to think only of those whom the Church names in her litanies or honors in her services, but a second thought brings become, but a second thought brings become us the word districts of the city would contyne the corresponding addition to the department by the erection were interested, he gave more particulars: "Before a man obtains that culars: "Before a man obtains that or address J. D. McDonald, District or can be even recommended for it, because the study of clinics. The effects eighteen years without any mark against him. After that his conduct is rigorously investigated and it is considered districts of the city would only after certainty in recovery of the city would only after certainty. fore us the vast throng from Adam congested districts of the city would only after certainty is secured of it down who have fought the good fight have ready access, and as a place of being deserved that it is awarded. and won the incorruptible crown. All who have reached heaven after a sojourn on earth are saints in some degree and the gathering as so represented must be such as no man can the incorruptible crown. All general convenience it could not It is greater even than the Victoria very easily be excelled. The permanency of a certain amount of open space and of a fair prospect for while the medal is given only afterthe inmanency of a certain amount of open space and of a fair prospect for while the medal is given only afterthe incorruptible crown. All very easily be excelled. The percross; the latter is given for gallanmanency of a certain amount of open space and of a fair prospect for while the medal is given only afterthe incorruptible crown. All number. So in imagination we see the unending procession bowing before the great White Throne and amongst them we recognize side by side with the patriarchs of old, those whom we ourselves knew in the flesh, and we praise and thank God for the mercy shown to the patriarch and surgical departments and the metal with recipient stands beside the generation of the churches directly opposite ious service. When it is presented the recipient stands beside the generation of the event of the grant and its division as suggested, the old part of him, each man at the salute to do ion as suggested, the old part of him honor." This little history the mercy shown to there are all surgical departments radially seemed that no metals when for the mercy shown to those now dical and surgical departments radi- and it seemed that no matter how his saints, once more our own on earth and still in heaven our loved ones.

ALL SOULS DAY.

Wednesday, the Feast of All Souls, saw the face of everything changed ing its wearer, we too, should pass him mentally at least with our hand

"at the salute." MISS CATHERINE MALLON The death of Miss Kate Mallon, which occurred at St. Michael's Hospital as the result of a fracture sustained a few days previously, takes from the east end a member of one of the oldest and best known families of St. Paul's parish. Miss Mallon was the daughter of the late Mr. Jas. Mallon, a gentleman remembered for his activity in all good works pertaining to the parish and particularly in the work of the Society of Vincent de Paul. Miss Mallon also until failing health prohibited it, taken part in any charitable or religious enterprises which her hands found to do, and this, together with her fine personality, had made her many friends. The funeral, which took place from her mother's residence, 309 Wilton avenue, on Friday last to St. Paul's church, was one of the largest seen in the parish for some time. Besides her mother Miss Mallon is survived by a brother, Mr. John Mallon, and a sister in the Community of St. Joseph, London, Ont. May she rest in peace.

In Loving Memory

Of Mary Meehan, Who Died Sept. 26, 1904, Aged 24 Years. She is gone, our blessed sister, She is gone from earth away; No more shall pain and sorrow Her gentle spirit stay.

For He, her loving Master, Hath burst her bonds to-day, And she on angels' pinions To her heaven has soared away

Her young heart yearned to be Enclosed within a cloister, There to serve Him faithfully.

Now the gentle Saviour Hath heard her sighs and tears, Then stretching forth His blessed hand He cancelled all those years.

And there above in heaven Her vows are ratified, And Jesus, He will crown her Among the virgins white.

Mourn her not, dear loved ones, Tho' hard it is to part, For us she'll plead in heaven, Unto His sacred heart. -Infant de Maine.

A Pioneer of Ekfield

vivid prominence in the mind of the was actively engaged throughout the was the beloved wife of the late public, and the "News" of last week entire course of the Crimean War. John Gallagher, and her death took John Gallagher, and her death took place at her home near Longwood at the age of 69 years. Deceased was possessed of a remarkable constituname of the Government the Premier only remaining three who returned to tion and always enjoyed good health has promised the sum of $100,000 their homes, all the rest having fal- until the death of her husband seven years ago, when she was attacked by diabetes. During her illness she from what source was not stated, the three clasps, signifying that he Christian resignation and fortitude. exclusion of all other city hospitals. partment. The deceased was a Mrs. William Fisher, Metcalfe, and The Mayor's answer was: "I cannot man of handsome and dignified pre- Miss Bridget at home. The pallbearers were her two sons, Michael more fully into the matter. There in the peaceful garb of Our Lady of and John, three nephews, John, Eu-

FLANAGAN-At Chicago, Oct. 24, 1904, Daniel Joseph Flanagan, son of J. Flanagan, sr., aged 62. Buried at St. Michael's Cemetery, Toronto, Oct. 27, 1904. Only sur-viving brother of Mrs. Cloony. Lord have mercy on his soul.

The Crick in the Back .- "One touch sings the poet. But what

"A WEEK AT ST. LOUIS."

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY THANKSGIVING DAY

SingleFarefor Round Trip

Between all stations in Canada, also to Port Huron and Detroit, Mich., Susp Bridge, Niagara Falls, and Baffalo, N.Y Good going November

Valid Returning Until Nov. 21st, 1904

16th and 17th

GO NOW To the World's Fair St. Louis

The weather is delightful. Those return ing are more than satisfied.

Reduced rates in effect include stopover privileges at Chicago, Detroit and inter-mediate Canadian Stations.

Handsome Illustrated Booklet Free application to Agents,

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY

McSHANE'S BELLS are ringing evidences of sterling worth.
Over 30 000 ringing round the world, we next pourney, Baltimore, Ed., U. 8

INTERCOLONIA RAILWAY

COMMENCING JULY 3

CANADA'S NEW TRAIN

____THE____ OCEAN LIMITED

Will leave Montreal 7.30 p.m. Daily except Saturday

Arriving

Halifax 8.15 p.m. The following day, making close connection with PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

Via Point du Chene. Through the Famed Metapedia Valley by Daylight

Grand Trunk Day Express from Toronto makes direct connection at Montreal.

Toronto Ticket Office 50 King Street East

Why are Karn Pianos Famous?

BECAUSE They are endorsed by musicians and the purchasing public. BECAUSE They are favorably tic to the Pacific.

BECAUSE They are musical as well as durable, pleas ing to the eye, melodious to the ear.

A postal will bring you illustrations

Permanent Ouro Guar- some renumeration for securing sub-anteed, without knife, X-Ray, Arsenic Scriptions to "Men and Women.

or Acids; no inconvenience. Write for book. Write to-day.

T. E. KLEIN.

BEST QUALITY COAL AND WOOD

At Lowest Prices

OAL

LIST OF OFFICES 3 KING ST. EAST 415 YONGE STREET 793 YONGE STREET 576 QUEEN STREET WEST 1352 QUEEN STREET WEST 415 SPADINA AVENUE 306 QUEEN STREET EAST 204 WELLESLEY STREET ESPLANADE EAST, Near Berkeley Street
ESPLANADE EAST,

BATHURST STREET, PAPE AVENUE, Front Street YONGE ST., at C.P.R. Crossing

LANSDOWNE AVENUE,

Near Dundas street

Cor. College and Dovercourt Road.

Cor. Dufferin and Bloor streets.

"ELIAC DACEDO CA

THE CANADIAN

TORONTO, ONT. Strictly first-class in all departments. Magnificent catalogue free: Students admitted at any time. Corner Yonge

The C. S. BELL Co., Hillsboro, O

WORLD'S GREATEST BELL FOUNDRY

DR. JOSEPH LOFTUS

DENTIST

1 14 St. Paul St. Opposite James St.

TYPEWRITERS

All makes rented and sold on instalments

UNITED TYPEWRITER CO. Limited

TORONTO

Shorthand

to-date methods; position guaranno difficulties; everything simple and tion and leading newspapers; thou-

Education

211 Townsend Bldg.

NEW YORK

UNEXCELLED

H.E. STGEORGE LONDON ONT

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for Toronto Island Breakwater Extension," will be received at this office until Wednesday, November 2, 1904, inclusively, for the construction of an extension to the Breakwater of an extension to the Breakwater on South side of Toronto Island, City of Toronto, in the County of York, Ontario, according to a plan and a specification to be seen at the office of

H. A. Gray, Esq., Engineer in charge of harbor works, Ontario, Confedera-tion Life Building, Toronto, and at the Department of Public Works, Ot-

Tenders will not be considered unless made on the printed form sup-plied, and signed with the actual sig-

An accepted cheque on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Honorable the Minister of Public Works, for seven thousand dollars ($7,000.00), must accompany each tender. The cheque will be forfeited if the party tendering decline the contract or fail to complete the work contracted for, and will be returned in case of non-acceptance of tender.

The Department does not bind it-

By order, FRED. GELINAS, self to accept the lowest or any ten-

Newspapers inserting this advertise-ment without authority from the Department, will not be paid for it.

REPRESENTATIVES WANTED

93 Yonge street

Toronto

Young men and women obtain hand-

Department of Public Works,

Ottawa, October 18, 1904.

natures of tenderers.

for stamp.

Church Peal and Chime Bella Best Copper and Tin Only

THE W. VANDUZEN COMPANY Buckeye Bell Foundry Cincinnati, O. ESTABLISHED 1837

W. J. ELLIOTT, and Alexander Sts.

HOMESTEAD RECULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting a and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the District in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the Local Agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted as entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry, under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father 20 Lessons such person residing with the father

(3) If a settler was entitled to and Absolutely most complete and up- has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act teed; lessons by mail exclusively; no teet may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second interference with regular occupation; homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestrad.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead clear; indorsed by boards of educathe requirements of this Act as to resands of graduates; first lesson free upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his home-Department 51, Campaign of stead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommoda-tion, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of the three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office is Winnipeg, or at any Domision Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information formation respecting the land, tim-ber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba; or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

JAMES A. SMART, Deputy Minister of the Interior. N.B.—In addition to Free Crant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from Railroad and other Corpora-tions and private firms in Western Canada.

THE BEST ALE! THE BEST PORTER! (From Pure Irish Mait only)

THE BEST HALF AND HALF.

ALWAYS ASK FOR THE BEST! COSCRAVE BREWERY CO.

PARK 140, And of all reputable des

MEN WANTED

We want one good man in each district, local or travelling, $840 a year and expenses $2.50 per day, to tack up show-cards and distribute advertision. tising matter in all conspicuous pla-ces introducing New Discovery. No experience necessary. For particu-