

MOTHER SLAIN BY FOUR-YEAR-OLD

Shot Through the Heart—Terrible Fatality at Collingwood

[Canadian Press Despatch] COLLINGWOOD, June 16.—A mother was slain here Saturday night with a bullet fired in play by her four-year-old son, whom she had taught how to load and handle the rifle. The circumstances of the case as related by eye-witnesses, are so extraordinary, as to appear beyond precedent.

James Calback, his wife, a son aged four and a daughter aged two and a half years, lived with Calback's father in a small cottage owned by the latter in Albert street here. On Saturday evening the little boy complained of violent toothache. The father went into the town and bought a supply of remedial drops, which on his return to the cottage shortly before midnight, he administered to the child. The drops apparently mitigated, while not entirely relieving, the boy's suffering, and the father retired to bed, leaving the mother to sit up with the little patient, who was still in too much pain to go to sleep.

Knew How to Use Rifle Mrs. Calback has been in the habit of permitting her son to play with his father's rifle, and, according to the story, had taught him how to load the weapon, demonstrating the method with empty used cartridges. Apparently these empty cartridges were saved for his enjoyment.

When Calback went to bed, the boy was sitting beside a table in the living room of the cottage. On the table lay the rifle which he had learned how to handle. The child asked his mother for something to play with, and she brought a number of toys from a cupboard, among them a saucer filled with cartridges which she evidently believed to be empty. Subsequent investigation has revealed the fact that at least two of the cartridges were loaded with bullets.

The boy seems soon to have forgotten his toothache and became absorbed in his play, and his mother now that he was quiet and happy, seated herself in a rocking chair at the opposite side of the table. She had ceased for some time paying any attention to his actions when he

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED AT PARIS

An unknown man was instantly killed at Paris station this morning by being struck by train No. 1 on the Grand Trunk which passes through at 10:13. The body was picked up and carried into the baggage room, where the undertaker was called. During the charge of the remains which are being held for identification.

The deceased was well dressed, wearing a navy blue suit, about 5'8" tall, weighing about 155 pounds, and appeared to be about 30 years of age. In his pocket was found a note with two Montreal addresses written in it. This is the only clue to his identification.

The First Baptist.

The services yesterday were well attended. The pastor preached in the morning on "The gospel a fact of a force." There were 350 in attendance at the Sunday School and the offering amounted to $24.94. In the evening a large audience was present and thoroughly enjoyed the service of song arranged by Mr. Wright. The choir rendered two choice anthems, "One weedy solemn thought" and "The wicket." Miss Hutchinson sang in splendid voice "The Gloria." Mr. Verne O'Neill of Woodstock also sang "Consider and hear Me," with splendid effect. The hymns by the large congregation were heartily sung. The pastor preached a short sermon on "The Ministry of Sacred Song," emphasizing its devotional, consolatory and comforting ministry. Sister Errol Gamble, violin soloist, will assist the choir in the musical service next Sunday evening.

Cut Out Flowers.

TORONTO, June 16.—There is considerable interest taken in the action of Rev. E. E. Powell, rector of St. Barnabas church, who urged last evening urged his congregation to discontinue the practice of placing flowers on the graves of relatives and friends, suggesting instead that the flowers be brought to the church and used for the decoration of the altar. The Y.M.C.A. today expressed the opinion that this was a matter for each individual to settle for himself, and while not condemning the placing of flowers on graves, he thought that if any change were made in the custom flowers would do the most good taken to the hospitals. Rev. Father Minahan, priest in charge of St. Peter's Roman Catholic church, agreed with Mr. Powell's views.

Militant Was Kicked Unconscious By Mob

Attempts to Hold Meetings in Hyde Park Were Prevented, All the Women Being Rushed Out of the Grounds.

[Canadian Press Despatch]

LONDON, June 16.—The militant suffragettes were again roughly handled yesterday when they attempted to hold a meeting in Hyde Park.

The members of the Women's Social and Political Union raised their flags at four points in the park. The moment their flags were hoisted they became the storm centres of trouble. Each group was attacked and rushed out of the park.

A woman in one of the groups of Suffragettes fell and was unable to rise. The crowd believed she was shamming, and would have hurried her again, but for the fact that a party of sailors happened along at the time and they formed a circle about the woman and kept the crowd back. The woman had to be lifted to her feet. Then she was unable to stand up and was carried out of the park. She had apparently been trampled upon or kicked. Her comrades were also badly treated, and were in a dishevelled condition when they escaped from the park.

Storm at Guelph

GUELPH, Ont., June 16.—In a terrific thunderstorm early this morning, the smoke stack on the Raymond Sewing Machine Works, was struck and a barn belonging to John Laird on the York road, was struck and completely destroyed by fire.

FORESTERS AT DIVINE WORSHIP

Attended Interesting Service at Colborne Street Church Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon the local order of the Ancient Order of Foresters accompanied by the Knights of Sherwood Forest of Hamilton under Adj. Smith and Capt. A. R. Martin, High Court Junior Woodward and visiting brethren from the Amherstbury, Cayuga and St. George and the United Ladies band held their annual church service at Colborne Street Methodist church, when they were addressed by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Holm upon the three principles which underlie the success of the order: First, self-help; second, mutual help; third, Divine help.

About 450 were in line exclusive of the Dufferin Rifles band. The juveniles were out about thirty strong, the Knights of Sherwood Forest numbered 20 and two others, and the local order and visiting brethren numbered about 400.

Line of March.

The Foresters headed by the band lined up on Dalhousie street, opposite their lodge rooms. They turned off Dalhousie street, and marched up George to Darling, along Darling to Market, down Market to Colborne and down Colborne to the church. Returning to the lodge rooms they turned off Colborne street on to Park Avenue, and marched to Dalhousie street and up Dalhousie street to the lodge rooms.

The Service.

At the service the church choir led in the service of song. The choir rendered acceptably, "Save Me, O God," (Ashford), solo part taken by Miss Agnes Butler. Mrs. Leeming rendered in her usual good voice and manner, "Gloria" (Picca). During the offertory the band, excellently rendered "Nearer My God to Thee" with variations.

After the service at the lodge rooms Mayor Hartman, who is a member of the order, gave an address of welcome to the visiting brethren, to which Capt. Martin replied. Votes of thanks were tendered the Knights and the Hamilton and other visiting brethren.

Half of the offertory went to the Tuberculosis hospital.

F. Muir and Mr. Geo. Schultz, which are situated along the Ayla Road, but owing to his Honor being busy with other matters an adjournment was made until 4 o'clock this afternoon. If the order is granted the railway will pay into court a sum of money, which is fixed by the judge, to go ahead with the construction of the road. The amount put up is security that the company will pay whatever money the arbitrators fix. Mr. M. F. Muir is appearing for himself and Mr. Schultz.

Roper and family and Mr. Roy Sloan and chums are also camping there.

SILVER JUBILEE OF THE KAISER

Is Being Celebrated in Berlin With Great Eclat To-day—People Rejoice.

[Canadian Press Despatch]

BERLIN, June 16.—The twenty fifth anniversary of the ascension of the Emperor William to the imperial throne was celebrated to-day in Berlin and throughout the German Empire as a general holiday. The brilliance of the festivities and the enthusiasm displayed by the people, testified to the monarch's great personal popularity among all classes of his subjects.

The commemoration which had been deferred from its actual date of respect to the memory of the emperor's father Frederick, coincides with the forty second anniversary of the triumphal entry of his grandfather at the head of his victorious army after the Franco-Prussian war and was naturally marked by considerable military display. Emphasis however, also was laid on the peaceful aspects of the emperor's quarter century reign—industrial and civic developments and the material prosperity of the country.

To a delegation from the British church in Berlin received by his majesty this afternoon, the emperor said:

"I can assure you I shall continue to do my best to preserve peace and promote the friendly relationships existing between our two countries." The emperor responding to an address from the American peace societies, headed by Andrew Carnegie, congratulating His Majesty on the completion of his twenty-five years peaceful reign, said:

"I hope we shall have twenty-five years more of peace." The official Reichsbote leads off its special "jubilee" issue with a glorification of the emperor's services to the cause of peace.

The day began with a "general reveille." The massed military bands from the division of the guards summoned the emperor to his window with deafening music, played in the inner courtyard of the castle.

The bandmen then paraded from the castle to the Brandenburg gate at the other end of Unter Der Linden, and back again, playing popular melodies and military marches. In the meantime 7,000 school children had replaced the bandmen in the castle courtyard, where they sang several songs to the evident pleasure of the emperor. The reception of deputations and the presentation of loyal addresses began at ten o'clock, but was interrupted from eleven o'clock till two o'clock by His Majesty's reception of representatives of the government officers, the army and the navy, the parliament and various municipalities.

The impressive ceremony of the mounting of the castle guard and the luncheon of the imperial family at the castle ensued.

The array of deputations seemed almost endless. The delegates represented organizations of every kind and all brought with them illuminating addresses while some of them conveyed handsome gifts to the emperor, despite his declaration that he did not wish money to be spent in this way but rather devoted to philanthropy.

The most imposing testimonials were the endowment of $2,250,000 by the German municipalities for charitable and educational establishments and the national subscription of $950,000 devoted to German Christian missions in which Catholics and Protestants participated, the Catholics paying $625,000 and the Protestants $325,000.

The emperor spoke to each deputation a word or two of thanks. It was expected that amnesties affecting minor civil and military offenders would be proclaimed during the day and a shower of decorations was conferred, the list filling many pages of the Reichsbote. High officials gathered the biggest orders but art, literature, science and commerce were all well recognized.

SALARY DEMAND MAKES TROUBLE

St. Luke's Congregation Do Not Want Mr. Alfred Hunt It is Said.

From the present outlook it does not appear as if there will be a great deal of headway made at the meeting of the vestry of St. Luke's mission church this evening at the mission.

There has been considerable trouble over the payment for the services of Mr. Alfred Hunt, who has been doing considerable work at St. Luke's church. Mr. Hunt desires to know his financial relations with the mission, and has been instrumental in having the vestry meeting this evening called.

Notice Posted

In accordance with the regulations of the Anglican church, a vestry meeting can be called when a request for such meeting is signed by six members of the vestry and presented to the wardens of the church or mission. The request was presented, but the wardens refused to call the meeting. Following the refusal, a notice was posted on the church door last Sunday to the effect that the meeting would be held this evening. The posting of the notice is the next course after the wardens refused to call the meeting. Rev. H. A. Wright, acting rector at St. Jude's and under whose charge St. Luke's church is, stated to a Courier reporter that the notice which was sent in to the wardens asking them to call a meeting was signed by a number of men who were not members of the vestry, therefore the wardens refused to call the meeting. He denies the statement that he refused to call a vestry meeting, and says he never was asked to call a meeting of the vestry, nor was any notice read during the services last Sunday calling such a meeting. Some irresponsible person placed the anonymous notice on the church door. He said that it is not expected that the members of the vestry will heed such an anonymous notice.

Galt Case

Gerrard Pleads Not Guilty to Charge of Stealing Watch.

REALT, Ont., June 16.—Pending the resumption of the inquest into the death of James Bruce, who was last Thursday found drowned in the Grand River, a charge of stealing a watch was laid against Melvin Gerrard, whom chief German arrested with a watch owned by the dead man in his possession, appeared before Magistrate Blake and after pleading not guilty to a charge of theft, was committed to jail Saturday evening when he was last seen alive. They will divulge no information but developments may be expected at any time. It is said the autopsy showed no water in the lungs, indicating that Bruce was first killed and then thrown into the river. Provincial Detective Green has been given charge of the case.

Expensive Work.

TORONTO, June 16.—It cost the Serpent River Logging Company just $4,444.20 to clear a potato patch in the woods northwest of Massey, Ont. One of the camp managers set a man to work to do the clearing, and he employed fire, which got out of control and, cutting a swath through the woods, destroyed the camps of John Johnston, a lumber jobber, who lives at Orillia. This morning, on the application of J. T. Mulcahy, acting for Mr. Johnston, judgment was given against the Serpent River Logging Company for the amount named.

At the inquest on a fifteen-month-old child at Birmingham it was stated that the child in trying to get out of its cot got its head fixed in the iron work and was suffocated.

STORM WAS HEAVY ONE

AS FAR as can be learned, the electrical storm early this morning did nothing but good, although for an hour Brantford and vicinity were in the grip of electrical cross-currents shooting through the atmosphere close enough to be dangerous. A few telephone circuits and the alarm wires were burnt out, but so far as can be learned, the damage was of a minor nature. On the other hand, the rain will prove most beneficial to all kinds of produce. Over half an inch of rain fell during the shower.

Six Feet Seven Inches Tall and Still Growing

Only Way Growth Can Be Stopped is to Remove Pituitary Gland at the Base of the Brain—Surgeons Astonished

[Canadian Press Despatch]

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—The surgeons at the medico-chirurgical hospital in this city have been astounded at the case of John Michael, who is not yet fifteen years old and is six feet seven inches tall, and is still growing. The big boy is suffering from 'gigantism' which simply means that he is outgrowing everything and every organ of his body.

The boy came to the hospital about two months ago. The surgeons examined him and subjected him to all kinds of tests. Finally Dr. Judson Daland and Dr. Theodore Welsenberg, the brain and nerve specialists at the college, determined that the only way to stop his growth was to remove the pituitary body which is located at the base of the brain and controls the growth of the body.

When first admitted to the hospital he was kept under observation for several weeks, while his growth in the institution was marked. One week, in spite of a rest treatment, when he was not allowed to even turn in bed, he grew an inch and a half. When he first went into the place he only measured six feet three inches, and when he came out he topped six feet seven inches.

Dr. Judson Daland, who has charge of the case as the senior physician at the hospital, sailed for Europe today, and upon his return the operation will be undertaken.

RECEIPTS WERE TREMENDOUS

American Sport Loving Public Took Great Fancy to Polo Matches.

[Canadian Press Despatch]

NEW YORK, June 16.—The gate receipts of the two games of the International polo cup series amounted to over $200,000—a greater sum than has ever been taken in during two days of baseball in the world's series. The exact figures were $95,000 at Tuesday's game and $105,000 at the second contest on Saturday.

The expenses are understood to be about $25,000, leaving a net profit of $175,000. What the American Polo Association will do with the balance has not yet been determined. About 60,000 persons saw the two matches at prices ranging from $25 for some of the boxes; $2 for seats in the grand stand and fifty cents in the field.

Will Try Again.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The Duke of Westminster, who backed the English polo team on its trip to this country in the unsuccessful attempt to lift the Westchester Polo Cup, "has only just started his campaign to get the cup back to England." This is about as far as the English players here would commit themselves to-day as to the possibility of another challenge for the cup next year, but there seems to be the general opinion that in view of the close score by which the cup was defended last week, the Duke will not be content until he has seen the Englishmen try again.

YOUNG LADY BADLY INJURED

Miss Marie Cahill Lost Arm on Grand Trunk Track Sunday Evening.

[Canadian Press Despatch]

A serious accident, which may prove a fatal one, occurred in the Grand Trunk railway yards yesterday afternoon about 4:15 opposite the Brantford Roofing Company, when Miss Marie Cahill, who resides with her adopted father at 156 Albion St., was struck by a switch engine and had her right arm almost severed. She was rushed to the hospital in the ambulance where her arm was amputated by Dr. Henwood. Her face was also badly lacerated, and she was badly shaken up.

The unfortunate girl was walking eastward along the track in company with Miss Ruby Schuler, daughter of Mr. J. Schuler. When opposite the Roofing Company they saw a freight train approaching them, and Miss Cahill stepped off one track on to the other, and was struck by the switching engine, which she evidently was not aware was approaching from behind. She was knocked under the wheels, which almost severed her arm above the wrist. Amputation of the member above the elbow was deemed necessary. A Courier reporter phoned the hospital at one o'clock to-day, and the authorities there stated that she was doing as well as could be expected, and that they had hopes of her recovery.

Many friends will greatly regret to learn of Miss Cahill's misfortune. She had been getting along fine, stenographer and had only recently accepted a good position. The nature of the accident proves distressing to the girl's many friends in the North ward, all of whom will hope for her speedy recovery.

BRANTFORD GETS BIG SHOW FIRST

Hamiltonians Like Ferrati People Secured For Centennial Week.

[Canadian Press Despatch]

Brantford will be the first city to get the Col. Francis Ferrati Show, the attraction being here July 5-12. The shows also appear in Hamilton in August, and the following from the Spectator will be of interest:

"John Lentoux, president; C. W. Cartwright, treasurer; C. Murton, secretary, and H. J. Waddie, of the Centennial committee, accompanied by Aldermen Ryan and Gleadow of the property committee, returned this morning from a trip to Buffalo, where they went to look over the Colonel Francis Ferrati's United Shows, which are exhibiting in that city this week under the auspices of the Buffalo Order of Moose. The visitors were well pleased with the attractions, which will be a feature of the Hamilton Centennial. Secretary Murton said this morning that the committee were the guests of Colonel Ferrati and his manager, Victor de Levitz, and that both of these gentlemen would come to Hamilton next week to select street locations for the shows.

"The Hamilton public will see one of the best shows in this country which ever visited Hamilton," said Mr. Murton.

The report that there would be changes in the time-table of the evening Montreal-to-Chicago express and eastbound trains to Buffalo is also incorrect, as there will be no changes whatever. Mention was also made of the old rumor about a new station being erected at the junction cut, so that the passengers could change there for other places, instead of having to come into the Stuart street station. Superintendent Gordon said that there had been no mention of such a station being erected. Three new trains will be operated on the Toronto-Hamilton line in the near future.

A passenger train will leave here for Toronto at 12:40 noon, arriving at Toronto at 1:45 p.m. A new Muskoka express will leave here daily at 12:55 noon, arriving in Toronto at 1:58 p.m. A train will leave Toronto for Hamilton at 12:05 noon, and will arrive in this city at 1:20 p.m.

AVIATOR MADE GREAT FLIGHT

Thousands of People Watched Airship in Brantford Saturday.

Hitting second base at a mile a minute clip and gliding over the ground at 30 miles an hour like an automobile. Aviator Hemstrought on Saturday night came down from the heavens and made a hole in the fence at Agricultural Park, knocking one of the helpers over, and all but crashing into an automobile. It was surely a spectacular flight, the first of the kind ever seen in Brantford, and when the aviator appears here, Brantford Carnival week for daily ascensions there will surely be a big time in Brantford.

Hemstrought made two circles above or rather around the city. Brantford people say he crossed above the village, while the farmers beyond Transquility aver that had the birdman fallen, his machine would have hit their potato patch. All of which goes to show that Hemstrought must have been several thousand feet in the air, making the angle a difficult one to judge.

When he hit the fence at the park he broke some minor parts in front of his Curtiss machine, which prevented a second flight which Hemstrought intended to make. Although one of his assistants was knocked down, Hemstrought remarked to the fellow that "this was a bright one" for his inability to stop the machine. Had he stopped it there would have been an ambulance call right there and then.

When Hemstrought ascended those at the park thought he would surely hit the fence on the west side. He got a tremendous speed up running along the ground and barely twenty yards away lifted the plane shooting over the fence by inches. Then he went up. People in the park did not think he went over the river, but he was over Cainsville. Thousands of people watched the performance, and were carried to the machine where seats were free on the river-side grand stand, it was a wonder.

When the aeroplane comes Carnival week in July, an opportunity will be afforded any one desirous of making a trip in the machine which carries two people, and is interesting to watch results.

HAMILTON IS NOT SIDE-TRACKED

But Brantford Gets Benefit of An Improved G. T. Train Service.

[Hamilton Spectator]

It was announced this morning by Superintendent Gordon of the Grand Trunk that the story published in a local paper yesterday to the effect that the Montreal-to-Chicago express would pass Hamilton up entirely, the trains going right through from Toronto to Brantford, was incorrect.

"The only change that is being made," said Mr. Gordon, "is that the train is being split up into two sections, one running to Hamilton and the other going through to Brantford. At present the Montreal train reaches Toronto at 7:30 a.m. and leaves there for Hamilton at 8 a.m., reaching here at 9:05 a.m. The schedule will be changed so that, starting on June 22, a train will leave Toronto at 7:40 a.m., with a Hamilton sleeper and day coach and new equipment. This train will make no stops between Toronto, and Brantford other than the stop here, and will get the passengers in Brantford 25 minutes earlier."

The report that there would be changes in the time-table of the evening Montreal-to-Chicago express and eastbound trains to Buffalo is also incorrect, as there will be no changes whatever. Mention was also made of the old rumor about a new station being erected at the junction cut, so that the passengers could change there for other places, instead of having to come into the Stuart street station. LOCK GATE IS BROKEN

Unparalleled Accident Cripples Welland Canal.

Little Steamer Lloyd Porter of Pictou Heads for Lock One and When the Engineer is Signaled to Stop He Doubles His Speed—Steamer Neepawah In Rapidly Emptying Basin Narrowly Escapes Grounding.

ST. CATHARINES, June 16.—A steamer striking the foot gates of a lock filled with water was the extraordinary accident which befell lock one on the Welland Canal at five o'clock yesterday morning. Four gates were carried away and the steamer Neepawah, in the level above, had a difficult time in avoiding serious damage. The Neepawah had left lock one upward bound, and the upper gates were still open when the little wooden steamer Lloyd Porter of Pictou, made for lock one, the lower gates of which were, of course, closed. When the captain discovered this fact, the boat was traveling at a lively rate of speed. A signal to the engineer, instead of reversing the engine, was followed by full speed ahead. The little craft raced into the foot gates, springing them a few inches and allowing the water to start through. Both foot gates and the steamer were hurled into the harbor by the rush of water, which also carried away the two open head gates.

The Neepawah was still some distance from lock two in the level which was being rapidly emptied. Danger whistles from the harbor caused the officer in charge of the Neepawah to make haste to enter lock two, which he did with scarcely a half inch of water to spare. The big steamer was just settling on the bottom of lock two when the foot gates were closed and water let in to float her from the level above.

On account of the weakness of the stone wall separating the lower level of the old canal from that of the new canal, the old canal level had to be emptied. This is not only three miles long, but is very broad and contains a tremendous volume of water, including the Royal Canadian Henley course. All day the water has been pouring out of this mighty basin, and it was late last night before the work of replacing the destroyed gates could be started. Navigation will hardly be resumed before late tonight.

Ancient Trade Goes.
PARIS, June 16.—Sixty thousand members of the ancient and picturesque profession of the "chiffonnier" or ragsman are in revolt against the authorities at the prospect of seeing their means of livelihood taken away from them by the new sanitary regulations of the city of Paris, which come into force next month.

Under the new rules all the rubbish is to be put out by householders for collection in closed bins only to be opened by the dustmen, who work around midnight. Thus at one sweep the occupation of an army of workers is gone.

Danef Form Ministry.
SOFIA, June 16.—Dr. S. Danef, who was head of the peace delegation at London, has formed a new Cabinet, he himself taking the portfolios of Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs. Gen. Kovatchef, the former commander of the Rhodope army, is Minister of War; T. Theodoroff retains the portfolio of Minister of Finance, and Michael Madjaroff, the Bulgarian Minister at London, is appointed Minister of the Interior.

AMAZING DIVORCE
Lady Legally Separated Without Knowing Anything About It.
A remarkable divorce case, which surely has no parallel in fiction or fact, is arousing great attention in Paris. The details, as alleged, are as follows:—
A lady, described at the Countess de B., aged twenty-seven, and living apparently very happily with her husband, the count, in the quarter of the Ecole Militaire, has been divorced by him, without her knowing anything about it. Curious details are published in the Paris press as to how the count succeeded in legally severing the marriage tie without letting her know of it, and actually gave a dinner with his wife, to a number of friends on the day when the surprise divorce was pronounced by the courts.
Pushing his audacity still further, the count, it is alleged, while continuing with the countess, became engaged to marry another lady, of great wealth, and had the bans published in the Mairie, also before the countess was aware of it. The secret, it is stated, leaked out quite accidentally. A "notaire," who was a friend of the countess, met her in the Bois de Boulogne. "What are your plans now?" he enquired discreetly, referring to the divorce which he had seen registered against her by the courts.
"What do you mean?" asked the countess, quite mystified. The notaire had to be explicit. "I mean what are your plans since your divorce."
"My divorce?" exclaimed the countess with an outbreak of laughter. "You must be mistaken. My husband and I are getting on very well together." "But a divorce has been pronounced against you; I am sure of it," replied the notaire. "I saw it registered in the town where you were married. It is a matter of public knowledge. Moreover, your husband is about to marry, so and so. The bans are published at the Mairie."
The countess began to have misgivings. She took the train and went to the town where her marriage had taken place. There she found her divorce inscribed at the registry. Returning to Paris she went to the Mairie and found the bans published of the forthcoming marriage of the count to so and so. She immediately asked to have a stay in the proceedings. It was too late, the courts told her. The papers had all been duly presented to her and signed by her and the divorce had become effective.
Light now dawned upon the countess. She had had a blind, implicit faith in her husband, whose word she had never seen any reason to doubt. One day after luncheon he had told her that he had great worry of mind about some business undertaking of his which was on the point of failing. The only hope that he could see of saving the situation was to apply for a separation of property. In order to obtain this she would on a certain day be asked to go to the house of a friend, the Marquis of so and so, and there a process server would present her with a legal summons. She was to reply that she was well where she was, and to sign the papers presented to her.

WHAT BALTIMORE DID

The city of Baltimore, Md., like many other municipalities on both sides of the international boundary, has found it difficult to dispose of its debentures in the usual channels. It found itself with $5,500,000, for which it was offered a price considerably below 90 cents on the dollar. The issue bears 4 per cent.

THIS BEAUTIFUL CITY

A walk along just about all of Brantford streets these leafy June days reveals the constantly increasing beauty of this city. For many years most of the thoroughfares of the place have been lined with trees, which have afforded the appearance of a park approach, and more recently there has been a marked improvement in the picturesque appearance of the houses, the stands of verandah flowers, and the well-kept lawns and boulevards.

world's money markets which it thinks are needlessly sounding alarm notes.

The Courier has often pointed out that the Canadian West will never dominate the East, and in this connection the Toronto Globe says:

"There is no possibility of that portion of the Dominion west of the great lakes becoming more influential in the national councils than the East."

"The potentiality of the West is great, almost unthinkably so. But here in Ontario alone there are natural resources in sufficient quantity and variety to support the population of Great Britain and Germany combined. The history of the Eastern and Western States of the American Union will be repeated in the history of Eastern and Western Canada, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa, Nebraska, and the other great agricultural States of the Middle West may have held the belief forty years ago that they would become as populous and powerful as New York and Pennsylvania, and Ohio. There was the same rush of immigration then into these mid-Western States that is now going into the Canadian Northwest. They drained New England, and took much of our own best blood. But the point of saturation in these States has been almost reached, while the great industrial States of the East still absorb an increasingly large proportion of the inflow of immigration."

"To Western Canada, Ontario and Quebec will continue to bear the same relation as New York and Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania, and Ohio near to the Western States. Ontario alone, with the single exception of coal for the absence of which compensation is found in an abundance of electrical energy—has resources as great as the four States above mentioned with their population of almost thirty millions."

It is not often that this paper is able to see eye to eye with the Globe, but it most emphatically does in this. Each division has its own great part to play according to natural resources, and Ontario, among other things, will always be the chief manufacturing workshop of Canada, with Brantford right in the thick of it.

Without doubt Brantford is a great fraternal city, and a mighty good thing, too.

We are now willing to admit that Miss June can do a few stunts when she really tries.

Jupiter Pluvius must think he is doing the bunny hug with the present perspiring mortals in this neck of the universe.

That air-flying is a very graceful and alluring-looking performance, but a good pair of feet planted on Mother Earth is good enough for most of us.

An Ontario settler advertised in a London, England, paper for a wife, and so far he has had 116 answers. Now he is in a worse frame of mind than ever.

In the States some scientists are making the experiment of reading the brains of a dead professor. Next thing you know, they will be able to purchase, at so much per section, of the grey matter of leading men deceased, and become inoculated with some much-needed thoughts.

St. Catharines Journal: One who comes much in contact with boys was heard to remark a few days ago that the last quarter of a century has brought many changes, and that city in particular are growing less and less fond of work.

The basis of this observation is on the general experiences of those who are obliged to engage boys as help. It is almost impossible to-day to get a boy to do any work of any kind in a store or office even at wages equal to what were paid adults a few years ago. Some of the foremost men in Canada at the present time worked hard as boys in the country at from 30 to 50 cents a day and two meals. Their hours were from sunrise to sunset in the summer months. As all will agree who have put in such hours, they were too long, but the contrast between those conditions and present conditions are also too marked. Boys to-day in our cities seem to scorn honest labor and many of their parents uphold them in their idleness. The results cannot be anything but demoralizing to society generally.

The Warden Picked the Hymn. Guelph Mercury: When the Presbyterian ministers visited the Prison Farm on Saturday, there was singing on the programme. The prisoners wanted to use the old favorite, "Gates Ajar," but the warden wouldn't hear of it, and closed with "Abide With Me."

The King and Stocks. Ottawa Free Press: Press despatches coming through United States channels allege that King George lost $100,000 by the slump in C.P.R. stock. Well, these are the day for fish stories.

The King could not lose money in C.P.R. stock unless he were gambling on margin. A drop in market value of a safe stock does not hurt a person who is holding it as an investment—unless circumstances compel him to sell, which would not be the case with the King. No likelihood exists that King George would buy C.P.R. or any other stock on margin. Still less likelihood exists that such stock would be bought on margin in his own name, or in any way in which outsiders would suspect that the King was buying. Thirdly, in any case nobody who knew would be likely to leak.

The chances are more than large that the story is made out of whole cloth. It isn't half as particular and emphatic as was once the libel that King George had contracted a morganatic marriage which was proved to be an absolute lie as gratuitous as it was dirty.

Solving the Farm Help Problem. Guelph Herald: Shortage of farm labor is admittedly one of the most difficult problems confronting the agriculturist to-day, and the fact that a considerable portion of the help which reaches Canada shows very little competency adds additional emphasis to the undesirable situation.

Both citizens and farmers are interested in the solution of this admittedly difficult problem, for many hundreds of acres of good arable land have been seeded down and has become practically unproductive because help was not to be obtained for looking after it. In this manner the producer and the consumer have had to suffer loss; it is just a question whether the latter is not the worst hit of the two.

Various efforts to solve the problem have been made, and while the efforts of the government to secure the right sort of immigration have had some result, the best achievement appears to have been secured through private effort. In this matter, as in many others, co-operation amongst the farmers seems destined to secure the best fruit.

This is emphasized by an undertaking which has been successfully accomplished in the County of Hamilton. The Farm Labor Review of that county, with the assistance of the Ontario Immigration Department, has through its representative in the Old Country, Mr. L. Goodfellow, personally elected and placed in that vicinity an experienced farm hands, proving beyond a doubt the contention of the organizers of the scheme that the only way to solve the farm labor problem is to make a personal selection of the men required and to conduct them to their new homes.

At the vestry meeting last Easter an additional grant of $25 was proposed which he refused, because he stated there had been a previous arrangement whereby he was to receive a salary from November 1. He also stated that it was generally felt in the congregation that he should receive this, and the congregation were supposed to supplement the grant by a salary. He stated he did not receive any salary from the congregation, and in order to bring the matter to an issue tendered his resignation.

Rev. Wright made a motion at the meeting that he was to receive $15 a month for April and May, but no account was taken of his services, and Rev. Mr. Wright had contended that the whole of his work had been purely voluntary. He did not accept this proposition but resumed the work after he had been waited upon by a committee of the church.

Rev. Wright said he had been in Scotland ever since his resignation, and that there has only been one preaching service and that in the evening; also that the attendance had fallen off one-third. Prof. Hunt says that Rev. Wright will not allow him to continue his usual work and has called a meeting to try and arrange the difficulties.

Rev. Mr. Wright. Rev. Mr. Wright told a Courier reporter that he has charge of St. Luke's parish. The acting rector went on to state that Prof. Hunt understood from the first that he could not receive any permanent salary at St. Luke's, since he could never hope to be ordained by the Bishop and no arrangement had been made with him for salary to commence Nov. 1. Since his resignation he wished to come back but he was not wanted. Rev. Mr. Wright said he would not attend the meeting to-night as he would be in London attending meetings of the clergy and that he did not recognize to-nights gathering. He further stated that there might be a few followers of Prof. Hunt at the meeting, but that they could do nothing. The whole trouble, he said, was that Mr. Hunt wanted to force himself upon the church and make the church support him when he was not wanted either by the acting rector or by the congregation of St. Luke's.

Work Progressing. Rev. Mr. Wright said that the work was progressing very favorably under the circumstances. The Sunday school which is held at three o'clock Sunday afternoon is very well attended and the service each Sunday evening is conducted by a lay reader and much appreciated by the people who attend. With regard to the morning service, Rev. Mr. Wright termed it a glass and said that he had given notice that it was to be discontinued. A curate will shortly be appointed for St. Jude's and he will have charge of the work at St. Luke's, and says will be regular morning and evening services there.

A Physical Wreck

Suffered Tortures from Nervousness. Miss Marguerite Lees, 91 Robert St., Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I was a wreck, reduced in body, and dependent on my own strength, from nervousness, and was totally unfitted for work. A friend recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla. I commenced taking it and by the time the second bottle was consumed I knew that I was mending. Gradually I grew well. I have used Hood's since. I would not be without it on any account, and do most enthusiastically endorse every word in its favor."

Salary Demanded

Mr. Hunt's Story. When interviewed by a Courier reporter, Mr. Hunt told of the work he was doing at St. Luke's, and also of the work the Hunt family had done in the interests of St. Luke's.

He says that he had been looking after the choir, the Sunday school, the Boy Knights and doing church visiting.

Lay readers had conducted the evening service. On January 1 last a grant of $200 a year was secured out of the mission fund of the diocese for the work at St. Luke's, and the rector had paid Mr. Hunt at this rate until last Easter, when he resigned.

At the vestry meeting last Easter an additional grant of $25 was proposed which he refused, because he stated there had been a previous arrangement whereby he was to receive a salary from November 1. He also stated that it was generally felt in the congregation that he should receive this, and the congregation were supposed to supplement the grant by a salary. He stated he did not receive any salary from the congregation, and in order to bring the matter to an issue tendered his resignation.

Rev. Wright made a motion at the meeting that he was to receive $15 a month for April and May, but no account was taken of his services, and Rev. Mr. Wright had contended that the whole of his work had been purely voluntary. He did not accept this proposition but resumed the work after he had been waited upon by a committee of the church.

Rev. Wright said he had been in Scotland ever since his resignation, and that there has only been one preaching service and that in the evening; also that the attendance had fallen off one-third. Prof. Hunt says that Rev. Wright will not allow him to continue his usual work and has called a meeting to try and arrange the difficulties.

Rev. Mr. Wright. Rev. Mr. Wright told a Courier reporter that he has charge of St. Luke's parish. The acting rector went on to state that Prof. Hunt understood from the first that he could not receive any permanent salary at St. Luke's, since he could never hope to be ordained by the Bishop and no arrangement had been made with him for salary to commence Nov. 1. Since his resignation he wished to come back but he was not wanted. Rev. Mr. Wright said he would not attend the meeting to-night as he would be in London attending meetings of the clergy and that he did not recognize to-nights gathering. He further stated that there might be a few followers of Prof. Hunt at the meeting, but that they could do nothing. The whole trouble, he said, was that Mr. Hunt wanted to force himself upon the church and make the church support him when he was not wanted either by the acting rector or by the congregation of St. Luke's.

Work Progressing. Rev. Mr. Wright said that the work was progressing very favorably under the circumstances. The Sunday school which is held at three o'clock Sunday afternoon is very well attended and the service each Sunday evening is conducted by a lay reader and much appreciated by the people who attend. With regard to the morning service, Rev. Mr. Wright termed it a glass and said that he had given notice that it was to be discontinued. A curate will shortly be appointed for St. Jude's and he will have charge of the work at St. Luke's, and says will be regular morning and evening services there.

Allowed to Go

This morning a local motor boat owner caught a young lad tampering with his motor boat, which he keeps tied up along the canal. Under threat of receiving a bath in the canal, he pleaded very hard for mercy and was allowed to go. The owners have had considerable trouble as the result of their boats being tampered with. The canoeists have also reported trouble.

Very Obliging.

At the Grand Trunk telephone number 82, enquiry was made yesterday afternoon by anxious ones, relative to the address of Miss Cahill, who was so badly injured. The address of the girl only was asked and not any particulars as to the cause of the accident, which office understrappers are not supposed to divulge under the great Grand Trunk system. The understrapper who answered the telephone, however, refused to impart the secret as to where the girl lived and banged down the receiver. It is a case of gross ignorance such as this of accidents which often gets railway employees deservedly in wrong with coroner's juries and the public in general.

Brant Dragoons.

The 25th Brant Dragoons were very highly complimented at headquarters by the brigade officers at Niagara camp. They had the best class of horses in camp, the cleanest lines and were the best in shooting. In musketry shooting their figures were: Figure of merit, 279—A Squadron, Sergt. G. Woods, 102; B Squadron, Sergt-Major Cove, 122; C Squadron, Corp. A. Spencer, 117; D Squadron, Troop. James Stevenson, 102. During the sham battle D Squadron, under command of Sergt-Major W. Dawson, captured a troop of Mississauga Horse. Boys back from camp say that though there were no canteens, still there was enough booze in bottles to last till Christmas.

Smuggled a Keg.

Mail and Empire: Col. Sam Hughes will have no cause to complain of order prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor not being enforced. With the exception of a few odd bottles smuggled into tents, there has been practically no "booze" inside the lines, and the ice cream cone stands have done a roaring business. Even two of a certain regiment managed to smuggle a ten-gallon keg of beer into their mess tent and concealed it in the wood box nearby. When the officer of the day came round all he could see was a neat pile of firewood and never suspected what was under it. Unfortunately, however, he happened around one day while the sergeants were enjoying a friendly glass with some visitors, and his wrath was a mighty thing. He rushed out to order a squad of men to remove the keg. The sergeants were not to be done out of their hard-earned refreshment so easily, however, and in the interval they ran the beer off into pails, leaving just enough to satisfy the wrathful and dutiful officer. The keg was taken away all right, but the non-coms kept the beer.

Not So Polite As It Looked.

Crowds were on the street car when the tall woman struggled up the aisle and grasped a strap. Twelve men were seated on each side, but not one arose and offered her his seat. At last a small boy touched her on the arm. "You may have my seat lady," called the youngster.

"Thank you," said the tall woman, seating herself in the vacant space, "that was very polite of you." "No," replied the boy, "it wasn't politeness; there's chewing gum all over the darned seat."

WHAT BALTIMORE DID

The city of Baltimore, Md., like many other municipalities on both sides of the international boundary, has found it difficult to dispose of its debentures in the usual channels. It found itself with $5,500,000, for which it was offered a price considerably below 90 cents on the dollar. The issue bears 4 per cent.

The city was willing to sell the issue at 90. This led the Baltimore Sun to purchase a large block of the issue at this price and to sell it at cost over its counter to the citizens. In three days of selling it disposed of $300,000 worth of the debentures to residents of the city. Its campaign led to a considerable number of sales being made by the city treasurer to the local investors. At 90 the investment yields 4 1/2 per cent.

A Toronto man who was in Baltimore at the time of the Sun's debenture sale saw a schoolboy buy $100, the smallest amount purchasable, and a market man invest $5400 in the debentures.

When the success of this sale became known, a local syndicate made an offer to the city to buy the whole of the remainder of the debentures, and the probability is that Baltimore will succeed in placing the whole issue in Baltimore.

THIS BEAUTIFUL CITY

A walk along just about all of Brantford streets these leafy June days reveals the constantly increasing beauty of this city.

For many years most of the thoroughfares of the place have been lined with trees, which have afforded the appearance of a park approach, and more recently there has been a marked improvement in the picturesque appearance of the houses, the stands of verandah flowers, and the well-kept lawns and boulevards.

It is astonishing to note the missionary effect which a neatly-kept residence speedily has upon its neighbors, and they in turn upon theirs. The writer particularly noticed in the early spring a small row of dowdy-looking houses in connection with whose upkeep the spirit of emulation was manifestly sadly lacking. Then one of these comparatively small properties changed hands, and the newcomers, both man and wife, speedily got to work with floral and other artistic adornments. Now there is not a neater or natter-looking row in all this community.

Then the members of the Parks Board have done much splendid work, and also the educational establishments and the Brantford Horticultural Society.

Take a walk to Terrace Hill, or Tutela Heights, or the rising ground at the far portion of the East Ward environs, and then look down on this fair city, and you will witness a pretty sight, such as very few other centres can excel.

And, further than that, go along the many lovely Grand River reaches through and adjacent to the city, and there is small wonder that the average resident soon learns to love the place and to have an abiding joy in existence here—a place of enough industrial and commercial activity to be a foremost centre, and enough of natural beauty to delight the eye in all directions. Hats off to Brantford!

THE EAST AND THE WEST

There should not be in Canada any such term or feeling as the East versus the West.

In the latter portion of the Dominion the people are very hopeful and volatile, feelings which are part and parcel of the very atmosphere, and there is quite a tendency to boast that the West will in the end be it with a big I.

In this connection a Western publication recently used the language:

"The Canadian West has infinite resources. The alarm notes from the eastern world are sounding in our ears, but there is plenty of available cash, however, for legitimate needs. It would be economic folly for Western Canada to hesitate, to falter, to become penurious, in its necessary or provident purchasing on the threshold of the era of prosperity it has entered upon."

"Let the ringing note of confidence be sounded throughout the western land at this time by the Winnipeg business men, and let the courageous note of a purposeful people, sure of themselves and confident of the future, be heard. The proof of the confidence rests with the people, and as they provide the proof so will be the verdict in a continued prosperity throughout the West. It rests with us."

To this the Monetary Times replies that the Canadian East has every confidence in the West, and that it is the world's money markets which it thinks are needlessly sounding alarm notes.

The Courier has often pointed out that the Canadian West will never dominate the East, and in this connection the Toronto Globe says:

"There is no possibility of that portion of the Dominion west of the Great Lakes becoming more influential in the national councils than the East. The potentiality of the West is great, almost unthinkably so. But here in Ontario alone there are natural resources in sufficient quantity and variety to support the population of Great Britain and Germany combined. The history of the Eastern and Western States of the American Union will be repeated in the history of Eastern and Western Canada. Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa, Nebraska, and the other great agricultural States of the Middle West may have held the belief forty years ago that they would become as populous and powerful as New York, and Pennsylvania, and Ohio. There was the same rush of immigration then into these mid-western States that is now going into the Canadian Northwest. They drained New England, and took much of our own best blood. But the point of saturation in these States has been reached, while the great industrial States of the East still absorb an increasingly large proportion of the inflow of immigration."

"To Western Canada, Ontario and Quebec will continue to bear the same relation as New York, and Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania, and Ohio bear to the Western States. Ontario alone, with the single exception of coal—for the absence of which compensation is found in an abundance of electrical energy—has resources as great as the four States above mentioned with their population of almost thirty millions."

It is not often that this paper is able to see eye to eye with the Globe, but it most emphatically does in this. Each division has its own great part to play according to natural resources, and Ontario, among other things, will always be the chief manufacturing workshop of Canada, with Brantford right in the thick of it.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

What's the matter with getting after the sun for scorching.

Without doubt Brantford is a great fraternal city, and a mighty good thing, too.

We are now willing to admit that Miss June can do a few stunts when she really tries.

Jupiter Pluvius must think he is doing the bunny hug with the present perspiring mortals in this neck of the universe.

That air-flying is very graceful and alluring-looking performance, but a good pair of feet planted on Mother Earth is good enough for most of us.

An Ontario settler advertised in a London, England, paper for a wife, and so far he has had 116 answers. Now he is in a worse frame of mind than ever.

In the States some scientists are making the experiment of reading the brains of a dead professor. Next thing people know, they will be able to purchase, at so much per section, of the grey matter of leading men deceased, and become inoculated with some much-needed thoughts.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

Then and Now.

"St. Catharines Journal: One who comes much in contact with boys was heard to remark a few days ago that the last quarter of a century has brought many changes, and that city lads in particular are growing less and less fond of work."

The basis of this observation is on the general experiences of those who are obliged to engage boys as help. It is almost impossible to-day to get a boy to do any work of any kind in a store or office even at wages equal to what were paid adults a few years ago. Some of the foremost men in Canada at the present time worked hard as lads in the country at from 30 to 50 cents a day and two meals. Their hours were from sunrise to sunset in the summer months. As all will agree who have put in such hours, they were too long, but the contrast between those conditions and present conditions are also too marked. Boys to-day in our cities seem to scorn honest labor and many of their parents uphold them in their idleness. The results cannot be anything but demoralizing to society generally.

The Warden Ficked the Hymn. Guelph Mercury: When the Presbyterian ministers visited the Prison Farm on Saturday, there was singing on the programme. The prisoners wanted to use the old favorite: "Gates Ajar," but the warden wouldn't hear of it, and closed with "Abide With Me."

The King and Stocks. Ottawa Free Press: Press despatches coming through United States channels allege that King George lost $100,000 by the slump in C. P. R. stock. Well, those are the day for fish stories.

The King could not lose money in C. P. R. stock unless he were gambling on margin. A drop in a market value of a safe stock does not hurt a person who is holding it as an investment—unless circumstances compel him to sell, which would not be the case with the King. No likelihood exists that King George would buy C. P. R. or any other stock on margin. Still less likelihood exists that such stock would be bought on margin in his own name, or in any way in which outsiders would suspect that the King was buying. Thirdly, in any case nobody who knew would be likely to leak.

The chances are more than large that the story is made out of whole cloth. It isn't half as particular and emphatic as was once the libel that King George had contracted a morganatic marriage which was proved to be an absolute lie as gratuitous as it was dirty.

Solving the Farm Help Problem. Guelph Herald: Shortage of farm labor is admittedly one of the most difficult problems confronting the agriculturist to-day, and the fact that a considerable portion of the help which reaches Canada shows very little competency adds additional emphasis to the undesirable situation.

Both citizens and farmers are interested in the solution of this admittedly difficult problem, for many hundreds of acres of good tillable land have been seeded down and has become practically unproductive because help was not to be obtained for looking after it. In this manner the producer and the consumer have had to suffer loss; it is just a question whether the latter is not the worst hit of the two.

Various efforts to solve the problem have been made, and while the efforts of the government to secure the right sort of immigration have had some result, the best achievement appears to have been secured through private effort. In this matter, as in many others, co-operation amongst the farmers seems destined to secure the best fruit.

This is emphasized by an undertaking which has been thoroughly successfully made in the County of Hamilton. The Farm Labor Review of that county, with the assistance of the Ontario Immigration Department, has through its representative in the Old Country, Mr. L. Goodfellow, personally selected and placed in that vicinity 40 experienced farm hands, proving beyond a doubt the contention of the organizers of the scheme that the only way to solve the farm labor problem is to make a personal selection of the men required and to conduct them to their new homes.

Mr. Hunt's Story

When interviewed by a Courier reporter, Mr. Hunt told of the work he was doing at St. Luke's, and also of the work the Hunt family had done in the interests of St. Luke's. He says that he had been looking after the choir, the Sunday school, the Boy Knights and doing church visiting.

Lay readers had conducted the evening service. On January 1 last a grant of $200 a year was secured out of the mission fund of the diocese for the work at St. Luke's, and the rector had paid Mr Hunt at this rate until last Easter, when he resigned.

At the vestry meeting last Easter an additional grant of $25 was proposed which he refused, because he stated there had been a previous arrangement whereby he was to receive a salary from November 1. He also stated that it was generally felt in the congregation that he should receive this, and the congregation were supposed to supplement the grant by a salary. He stated he did not receive any salary from the congregation, and in order to bring the matter to an issue tendered his resignation.

Rev. Wright made a motion at the meeting that he was to receive $15 a month for April and May, but no mention was made of past services, and Rev. Mr. Wright had contended that the whole of his work had been purely voluntary. He did not accept this proposition but resumed the work after he had been waited upon by the congregation of St. Luke's. He said the work had been in jeopardy ever since his resignation, and that there has only been one preaching service and that in the evening; also that the attendance had fallen off one-third. Prof. Hunt says that Rev. Mr. Wright will not allow him to continue his usual work and has not called a meeting to try and arrange the difficulties.

Rev. Mr. Wright.

Rev. Mr. Wright told a Courier reporter that he had charge of St. Luke's parish. The acting rector went on to state that Prof. Hunt understood from the first that he could not receive any permanent salary at St. Luke's, since he could never hope to be ordained by the Bishop and no arrangement had been made with him for salary to commence Nov. 1. Since his resignation he wished to come back but he was not wanted. Rev. Mr. Wright said he would not attend the meeting to-night as he would be in London attending meetings of the clergy and that he did not recognize to-night's gathering. He further stated that there might be a few followers of Prof. Hunt at the meeting, but that they could do nothing. The whole trouble, he said, was that Mr. Hunt wanted to force himself upon the church and make the church support him when he was not wanted either by the acting rector or by the congregation of St. Luke's.

Work Progressing.

Rev. Mr. Wright said that the work was progressing very favorably under the circumstances. The Sunday school which is held at three o'clock Sunday afternoon is very well attended and the service each Sunday evening is conducted by a lay reader and much appreciated by the people who attend. With regard to the morning service, Rev. Mr. Wright termed it a class and said that he had given notice that it was to be discontinued. A substitute will shortly be appointed for St. Jude's and he will have charge of the work at St. Luke's, and there will be regular morning and evening services there.

Drives Asthma Before It.—The smoke of vapor from Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy gives asthma no chance to linger. It eradicates the cause. Our experience with the relief-giving remedy shows how actual and positive is the succor it gives. It is the result of long study and experiment and was not submitted to the public until its makers knew it would do its work well.

With the City Police

There was a very quiet session at the police court this morning.

Allan Gillen charged Frank Bryan with damages to the pavement caused by the latter's horse. The magistrate dismissed the case, as he thought it was an accident and a case for the division court.

One lonely drunk, who had been on a spree, was dismissed, as this was his first offence.

William Smith, a vagrant, who was charged last week with not working, has at last secured a place, and the magistrate dismissed the case.

Building permits at the city engineers office have been issued to F. Harrington for the erection of a brick cottage on Elgin street, to cost $700. G. Strobridge, brick barn, costing $500; A. League, Park Ave., brick cottage to cost $950.

Allowed to Go

This morning a local motor boat owner caught a young lad tampering with his motor boat, which he keeps tied up along the canal. Under threat of receiving a bath in the canal, he pleaded very hard for mercy and was allowed to go. The owners have had considerable trouble as the result of their boats being tampered with. The canoeists have also reported trouble.

Very Obliging.

At the Grand Trunk telephone number 82, enquiry was made yesterday afternoon by anxious ones, relative to the address of Miss Cahill, who was so badly injured. The address of the girl only was asked and not any particulars as to the cause of the accident, which office understrappers are not supposed to divulge under the great Grand Trunk system. The understrapper who answered the telephone, however, refused to impart the secret as to where the girl lived and banged down the receiver. It is crass ignorance such as this in case of accidents which often gets railway employees deservedly in wrong with coroner's juries and the public in general.

Brant Dragons.

The 25th Brant Dragons were very highly complimented at headquarters by the brigade officers at Niagara camp. They had the best class of horses in camp, the cleanest lines and were the best in shooting. In musketry shooting their figures were: Figure of merit, 279—A Squadron, Sergt. G. Woods, 102; B Squadron, Sergt-Major Cove, 122; C Squadron, Corp. A. Spencer, 117; D Squadron, Trooper James Stevenson, 122. During the sham battle D Squadron, under command of Sergt-Major W. Dawson, captured a troop of Mississauga Horse. Boys back from camp say that though there were no cauteens, still there was enough booze in bottles to last till Christmas.

Smuggled a Keg.

Mail and Empire, Col. Sam Hughes will have no case to complain of his order prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor not being enforced. With the exception of a few odd bottles smuggled into tents, there has been practically no "booze" inside the lines, and the ice cream cone stands have done a roaring business. Even two per cent beer was taboo this year, and the thirsty ones were forced to sate themselves with ginger ale. Of course the bars down town were filled to overflowing with soldiers every evening, but there was almost no drunkenness. Indeed, the policemen of the permanent corps report only a few isolated cases. It is said that sergeants of a certain regiment managed to smuggle a ten-gallon keg of beer into their mess tent and concealed it in the wood box nearby. When the officer of the day came round all he could see was a neat pile of firewood and never suspected what was under it. Unfortunately, however, he happened around one day while the sergeants were enjoying a friendly glass with some visitors, and his wrath was a mighty thing. He rushed out to order a squad of men to remove the keg. The sergeants were not to be done out of their hard-earned refreshment so easily, however, and in the interval they ran the beer off into pails, leaving just enough to satisfy the wrathful and dutiful officer. The keg was taken away all right, but the non-coms kept the beer.

Not So Polite As It Looked.

Crowds were on the street car when the tall woman struggled up the aisle and grasped a strap. Twelve men were seated on each side, but not one arose and offered her his seat. At last a small boy touched her on the arm. "You may have my seat lady," called the youngster.

"Thank you," said the tall woman, seating herself in the vacant space; "that was very polite of you."

"No," replied the boy, "it wasn't politeness; there's chewing gum all over the darned seat."

WOMEN'S HOSPITAL AID MEETING ON FRIDAY

The meeting on Friday morning of the Women's Hospital Aid was one of general congratulation over the success of flag day, and the splendid generosity of the public in giving their assistance toward enabling them to furnish the nurse's home suitably.

The President, Mrs. J. E. Waterous, presided, and all the officers and a large representation of members were in attendance.

Reports of secretary and treasurer were received and approved. The tag day total has improved somewhat, and as money is still coming in, it was resolved to publish a revised statement at the end of the week.

Fees amounting to $10. from the centre of the city were paid in by Mrs. Tisdale, and a number of new members were reported in several different districts.

The thanks of the society were tendered to the following: Barber-Elis for 300 collectors' boxes; Dr. James and Mr. B. J. Wade for free use of Colborne street store for headquarters; Pursel & Son for furniture for the same and general kindness; Stedman for cutting out pennants; Schultz & Co., for 400 pennant sticks and for coloring them; Howie and Feely for gas plate; the Brantford Gas Co. for gas; Peashey for dishes; Silver Plating Co., for spoons; Scouts, for attendance at headquarters; Chief Slemin and men for putting up and taking down of streamer; Cooper, percentage on ice cream; Mrs. John Orr, for special rates on whips; Mr. Miller, for use of store for Eagle Place workers; Mrs. Welsh for serving at afternoon tea free of charge; donors of cakes, sandwiches; Mr. Nelson, for passes to collectors into hall grounds, junior hospital aid and helpers and the children's branch and to all who contributed to make the day a success.

A number of accounts were presented and passed, and letters were read from Burford and St. George, also three letters of appreciation for sympathy and flowers. In connection with tenders for furnishing nurse's home, the following firms have been successful: J. M. Young & Co., blankets; Pursel & Son, feather pillows; E. Long, battleship linoleum and white enameled bedroom furniture; I. L. Sutherland, window shades; E. B. Crompton & Co., curtains and poles, towels and bath towels; Ogilvie & Lochead, mattresses and covers, counterpanes and pillow cotton; Malcolm, sheeting; Bennett & Bowden, towel racks; Duncan, reception room furniture and small bedroom rugs.

The electric fixtures have not been assigned as yet. In connection with the opening of the nurse's home, the president stated it is hoped to throw it open to the public for inspection as soon as a formal opening can be arranged for, but the date is still uncertain as the building is still in the hands of the contractors. Four ladies were made life-members, namely: Mrs. Frank Cocksbutt, first President of the W. H. A., Mrs. W. F. Cocksbutt, H. A., Mrs. W. F. Cocksbutt, In connection with this happy event, the President reported having received an additional cheque from Mr. F. Cocksbutt for this purpose, while that of Mrs. W. F. Cocksbutt's was given in appreciation of a generous donation given by herself on tag day. A cheque for $25 from the firm of Geo. Watt & Sons, at the request of the firm was applied on a life membership for Mrs. F. D. Reville, in appreciation of her work as treasurer during Mrs. Watts' illness. This well-deserved honor was much appreciated by the W. H. A., who also honored Mrs. W. C. Livingston in a similar way in recognition of her many years of faithful service. Mrs. Livingston and Mrs. Reville, who were present, responded feelingly, and expressed their pleasure at the unexpected honor conferred on them. The meeting was then adjourned until next September's Donation.

Those Leafs Hammered Saturday's Game

Guelph outbit Brantford on day and won the game by out batting rally in their half ninth. The Leafs are by far the hardest hitting team in the and what they have done to the pitchers since they have been is a shame. Although the Leafs played just as good ball field as the visitors, but they hit as hard. It was not their ninth innings that the Leafs away.

SERIES WITH GUELPH PROVED TERRIFIC ONE

Those Leafs Hammered the Ball Hard in Last Inning of Saturday's Game and Pulled Out a Victory, 12-6 - Details of the Game.

Guelph outthrew Brantford on Saturday and won the game by one grand batting rally in their half of the ninth. The Leafs are by long odds the hardest hitting team in the league and what they have done to the local pitchers since they have been here is a shame. Although the Sox lost, they played just as good ball in the field as the visitors, but they did not hit as hard. It was not until the ninth innings that the Leafs broke away.

It was a great game of ball, full of sensations from start to finish, and kept the large crowd uneasy during the whole game. At the end of the fourth innings, the score was 3 all. Both teams were bled in the 5th, 6th and 7th.

The lead however, was of short duration, as the Sox came back with a two, thanks to Duff Slemm's home run. With two on bases, two out, three balls and two strikes on Slemm, Duff laced the pill over the centre field fence for a home run, sending two of his team mates in ahead of him and evened up the score 6 all.

The Slaughter Kane pulled Donovan, who had been hit for 16 hits by the Leafs, out of the box and sent Clermont in. The change did not have the desired effect, for Louis Cook sent out his wrecking crew and they hit Clermont's offerings to all corners of the lot. Coose was sent to relieve him, and ere the side was retired the Leafs had scored six runs.

There was no stopping the Leafs, they simply hit everything that was served up to them, and walked off with the game 12-6.

The Red Sox could not come back in their half, and the Guelph team went back to the Royal City with three straight wins from the Sox.

KANE SCOUTING FOR A NEW TEAM

Manager Kane left Saturday night on an extensive scouting expedition for new players. He will go all through New England with a net, and will visit Brockton, Lawrence and other cities in an endeavor to bolster up the Brantford team. Kane has been instructed to bring back only players who are above par; not only that, but the club will pay bigger salaries, and will cut down the number of men, rather than go along as they have been going.

HAMILTON WON FROM ST. THOMAS. Umpire Black Had to Be Escorted From the Field When Leaders Lost.

ST. THOMAS, June 16—Hamilton nosed the Saints out by one run in Saturday's game, the visitors winning by a score of 3 to 2. The locals held them scoreless up to the seventh, and had a one run lead when the visitors mixed a couple of hits with a costly error by Thurney, and put three runs across. St. Thomas tossed the game away in the eighth. Kopp the first batter up, laced out a single to right. Craven put one in the same place, but Kopp appeared to be confused as to where the ball had been hit, and hesitated before going to second, and was forced by a beautiful peg by Tyson to Murphy. Kustus, the next batsman, tripled to right, scoring Craven. Wright flew out to Tyson, and Kustus was caught at the plate trying to score. Umpire Black had to be escorted off the grounds after the game.

Rollie Zeider, the new New York Yankee, is a smooth-working infielder, who injects just enough brain pepper into his defensive work to make him at all times a power. One of the last things Zeider did as a member of the Chicago White Sox was to put one over on Sam Crawford. The Tiger "vet." was going from first to third on a hit by Ty Cobb. When he was approaching the bag Crawford was prepared to slide, but he saw Zeider standing unconcerned, so decided to save his skin and go into the bag. Zeider did so, and just as he was about to plant his foot on the base, Zeider deftly nipped a throw from the outfield and slapped the ball on Crawford. Sam soured on baseball life in general, but when Kid Gleason yelled, "Don't feel hurt, Sam, they did the same thing on me in 1881." Crawford was ready for the halter.

Brantford Away. The Red Sox go on the road this week for three games in Hamilton and three in London and it is to be hoped they will be able to split even on the weeks play. With Hamilton and London going good, the best the fans should wish for is any even break. If the Sox are successful in winning half their games this week they will be doing all that is, should be expected of them.

Some Hitters During the visit of the Guelph team in Brantford they collected 56 hits in three days at the expense of the local pitchers. Any team that can do that must be classed as "some hitters."

Junior Ball Owing to the examinations in the various schools last week, the junior games were postponed and it necessitated a new schedule to be drawn up. The games will all be played at 6.30 sharp and all teams are requested to have their players on the field early. The revised schedule will be as follows:

Table with columns for game dates and locations: At Tutela Park, Eagle Place; At Agricultural Park; At Climbars vs. Eagles, June 20.

OTTAWA BEAT PETERBORO. Champions Hit Tracey Hard and Won by Score of 10 to 2.

OTTAWA, June 16.—Ottawa managed to win Saturday's game from Peterboro, and held fifth position in the Canadian League. They hit Tracey hard in the first inning for four runs, and had things pretty much their own way afterwards.

There were some fans at Agricultural Park on Saturday fair enough to say that a good game of ball had been provided. Some were fair enough to say that the Brantford club having so many hits against it both on Friday and Saturday did pretty well to keep the Guelph runs down. In fact the game's each day were not decided until the last inning, and it was in the last round when the Red Sox were a beaten club. This is good baseball.

Surprises sometimes happen, and to pan the manager for the change of pitchers in the ninth on Saturday's game. What else would the manager do? Donovan had told him that he was gone and would blow any minute if he had to go back into the box. Up to that period 16 hits had been made off Harry. Had Donovan not even told his manager that he was all in, it would have been good judgment to have changed pitchers. But having no one else than Clermont, Kane sent the boy in. Then, Clermont got his in proper style. Clery had made the mistake of saying he was alright when he went in, and a half minute later, confessing to a sore arm. It was this which aroused the managerial ire of Kane and not the fact that hits had been made. Baseball is surely a funny game.

Guelph and St. Thomas are having a pretty race in the Canadian League. St. Thomas is in first place by small margin over Guelph, but there may be a change ere long. Louis Cook stated Saturday night that he did not expect to be in first this week, as his team plays Ottawa and Peterboro three games each, while St. Thomas has six with Berlin, three at home and three in Berlin. Cook said that the Leafs had a hard week's grind ahead of them, while St. Thomas would have it comparatively easy, with six in a row with the stall-enders.

Sporting Comment

We want the pitchers. Oh, for some pitchers.

And they say Brantford won't support a losing ball club.

President Nelson has a right to feel very much discouraged.

Did you notice that the Guelph hits travelled at a mile a minute pace.

The Red Sox are away for six days—all week, and everybody is glad of it.

Guelph made 43 hits in two days, and yet had to fight hard for their games.

There are only three or four dependable ball players in the Brantford club.

If Manager Kane can land Walter Johnson, Joe Wood, Tris Speaker, we might have a chance yet.

When a club plays errorless ball and gets beaten the way Brantford did on Saturday, there is no disgrace.

With Lefty Smith off, injured, and everybody having either sore arms or faint hearts, what could fans expect.

It is to be hoped Kane's trip will result in securing some real ball players and not paid amateurs for the Brantford club.

There were some fans at Agricultural Park on Saturday fair enough to say that a good game of ball had been provided.

St. George's Club Defeated Trinity Team

Fourth Cricket Match of a Series of Seven Was Played on Saturday—The Score in Detail.

St. George's vs. Trinity. The fourth match of the City League was played on the O. I. B. grounds on Saturday last between St. George Cricket Club and the Trinity Cricket Club, and resulted in an easy victory for the former by 63 runs.

The weather was ideal for cricket, and the pitch was the best of the season playing true. Trinity winning the toss sent in St. George's to bat, who taking advantage of the conditions offered, ran up the highest score made in any match yet played this year. With 102 up for nine wickets, the St. George skipper, declared his innings closed at 5.15. Trinity fielded well throughout, and had bad luck in not making a better show. Their batting was rather weak, no one with the exception of Vickery reached double figures. The attendance was fair.

Berlin might accidentally walk off with four out of the six games. However it will be interesting to see how these two teams stand one week hence.

Keep Out the Weeds

Weeds unchecked will ruin the crop.

It isn't sufficient to plough and sow well in Spring and Fall and leave the rest to nature.

There are weeds to fight.

There are weeds in Business, too—weeds of competition and opposition—of public indifference from without, and of lack of enterprise from within—weeds that unchecked seriously retard business growth.

Cultivation is the only effective weed-killer. Keep cultivating and the weeds never get a chance to thrive.

There is a combination plough and harrow, fertilizer and spray, for every business—an effective weed-killer that will keep out the weeds.

It is Advertising

It is not enough to plough and sow well with advertisements in Spring and Fall and leave the rest to human nature.

Human nature and the respect your customers bear you are not proof against the Summer weeds that can thrive on rest and apathy.

You must keep busy in the hot weather—you must keep cultivating.

Turn Summer dullness into activity by Summer Advertising. Plan Summer attractions and plant for a crop of Summer profits, and the Advertising cultivation will keep out the weeds.

Football Games Played on Saturday

Interesting Hot Weather Matches Were Puled Off—The Scores.

Tutela 4, S. O. E. 1.
Tigers 3, St. Andrews 3.

Only two games were played in the baseball league on Saturday. The Tutela team were victorious over the Sons of England eleven 4 goals to 1, and the Holmedale Tigers and St. Andrews teams played a draw, 3 all.

Tutela 4, S. O. E. 1.
Tutela met the S. O. E. Saturday before the largest crowd of the season. Tutela won the toss and the Sons kicked off and had most of the play for the first fifteen minutes, after which Tutela played up and the game was more even, and before half time Tutela forced a corner and scored through Mitchell. This was all the scoring before half time. The second half opened with the Sons pressing, and Budd soon scored for them. This invigorated Tutela up and Mitchell again put the Tutelas ahead. The game was now fast, considering the hot weather, the ball going from one end to the other, but the Tutela goal-keeper was safe as a rock. Tutela scored two more through Usher and Gore and won by 4-1. The Sons greatly missed the champion goal-keeper of Holmes who is down with a bad hand, but we all hope to see him back in a hurry.

Notes
W. Mitchell was the best man on the field.
Tutela deserved the win. They played good.
Budd has scored. He deserved to. Oh for five minutes of Holmes.
The bulldogs have lost their teeth. Trainer Clays' smile is wearing away.

Duffs at Camp
The Duffs have every reason to be proud of their performance at camp. To have gained the Niagara football championship banner two years in succession, is no mean achievement.

Horse Notes

The Spring Meeting of the Hamilton Jockey Club will open on Wednesday, June 25th, terminating on July 2nd. The meeting this year promises to surpass all previous efforts of the club as there are already over 300 horses at the track and among these many of class including Haspethorn, the sensational two-year-old of last year. Haspethorn recently arrived from Louisville and is being pointed for the Hamilton Derby which this year will no doubt furnish the sensation of the season on the Canadian turf. Among those that will face the starter for this classic event are Ten Point, Hawthorn, First Sight, The Widow Moon, Horton, Barnegat and Huskin. The Kentuckians who are known as the "hard boys" generally come well prepared to give battle to the eastern contingent and this year there are many more than usual, so that the racing promises to be particularly interesting. The track is in excellent condition and if the club is only favored with fine weather on Derby day, a new record for one mile and one quarter will undoubtedly be recorded. Special cars on the B. and H. Ry. will run each day during the meeting leaving Brantford at 1 o'clock.

WOMEN DON'T WEEP NOW

Broader Outlook on Life Banishing Tears

One of the most interesting and significant phases of the evolution of woman is that she is ceasing to weep, writes Dorothy Dix, in the Cleveland Leader. I don't know how science explains it, but it is a self-evident fact that every observing person must have noted that as women have developed backbone their tear ducts have dried up.

Time was, and not so long ago, when the very name of the feminine sex was synonymous with crying. It was woman's hereditary destiny to weep, just as it was man's to work, and she did what was expected of her by sitting down and howling whenever she came up against any of the propositions of life.

The modern woman has changed all of that. You hardly ever see a woman weep now. There are—God help us—just as many things to wring a woman's heart to-day, and just as many causes for tears as there ever were, but if she weeps she weeps in private. It is almost as unusual and startling now to see a woman give way publicly to emotion as it is to see a man doing so, and I can think of no other one thing that so emphatically marks the progress of my sex.

It measures all the distance between hysteria and reason. It marks the immeasurable difference between the spoiled child crying impudently for forbidden sweets, and the stroped adult who takes what life gives with unflinching bravery and cheerfulness. The trouble with women's tears in the past has been that they wept too much and in the wrong way. A tear as a tear is as ineffective as any other drop of salt water, yet people make the mistake of reverencing it as if weeping over a thing was going to perform some kind of a miracle.

You might weep over a starving family until you shed an ocean of tears, yet it would keep them from perking of hunger. It is only when you begin to sob with your pocket-book that you do any good. It isn't the people who come to weep with us when we are unfortunate and poor and downcast who help us. It is those who have learned to sympathize with their bank book and personal interest and assistance.

Sentimentalists have embalm'd a mother's tears in song and story, and made them sacred, but I tell you the tears of a mother shed over an ill-raised son or daughter are shameful. There should be no cause for them, and there would be no cause for them, once in a million times, if she had done her duty. Weep with strict authority, mothers, sob with a wise up-bringing while your children are little, and when they are grown you will not have to shed salt and bitter tears over sons and daughters who have brought disgrace upon you.

It has also appeared to me—that women have wasted quite an unnecessary amount of tears over their husbands. For a thousand generations wives have clung to the theory that a man could be wept into all the virtues of a beatitude. When a woman had a drunken husband she opened the door for him in the early hours of the morning, and bedewed him with her tears. When she had a brutal one she wept when he mistreated her, but she forgave him and let him go on doing it.

Any way you look at it, it is a hopeful sign when have abandoned doing the baby act.

Mishap to "Walking Parson." When cycling from Gristhorpe to Filey, Yorkshire, the Rev. A. N. Cooper, popularly known as "the walking parson," was injured in collision with a motor-cycle driven by Mr. Alfred T. Long, a well known cricketer, of Filey. Mr. Long was injured and his motor-cycle smashed.

PROVED BEYOND DOUBT. The disappointed victims of poor, Catarrh remedies elsewhere, read the statement of J. R. Smith, of Lake Stream, N. B. In Catarrh zone he found an absolute cure and says: "Last winter my little girl of eight caught cold which lodged in her ears in the form of catarrh. She became sick and deaf and nothing helped. By inhaling Catarrh zone she got relief and gradually the discharge went away. She was cured perfectly. I can recommend Catarrh zone for coughs and throat irritation. It is a wonderful medicine." Sold every where, 5c and 15c.

"The Last 'Old Sedan Chair'" The Sedan Chair is not yet extinct as a means of transport. A visitor to Hampton Court Palace, near London, Eng., has recently discovered one of these chairs in active service. Some of the ladies residing there use it when visiting one another's apartments in the evening; but it is never seen outside the precincts of the palace.

THE ALMENTS OF WOMEN. The girls and women who suffer with what they think is "Female Trouble" would look to their kidneys. They'll soon find the source of their ill-health. The kidneys are closely allied with the female organs, and if the vitality of the kidneys is interfered with, great suffering occurs. There is no better medicine than Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they stimulate and strengthen the kidneys, assist other organs to do Nature's work, cleanse the system and thereby maintain perfect health. Great benefit and certain cure is guaranteed for all women who use Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

"I inherited my Kidney Disease from my parents," Mr. Burkett states. "I was treated by a doctor, and tried various medicines, but it was not until about eighteen months ago, when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills that I got any permanent relief.

"Since then I have not felt any effect of my old trouble, and I feel that anybody troubled with kidney disease will be benefited by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills if they follow directions closely.

"I hope that others may be helped by Dodd's Kidney Pills. I am well-known here, and anybody who wishes more particulars of my cure can have them by writing me and enclosing stamps for reply."

Dodd's Kidney Pills never fail to cure any form of kidney disease.

LORD STRATHCONA'S GRANDDAUGHTER Married to Lieut. James Buller Kitson, of the Navy.

The Duke and Duchess of Connaught sent a large silver-mounted mirror as a wedding gift to Miss Frances Margaret Frances Howard, who was married on Saturday at St. Mark's Church, North Audley-street, to Lieut. James Buller Kitson, R.N., and the happy couple also received a large silver cup from the Landgrave of Hesse.

Lieut. Kitson is the son of the Rev. J. B. and Mrs. Kitson, of Lanreath Rectory, Cornwall, while the bride is the daughter of Mr. Robert and the Hon. Mrs. Howard, who as Lord Strathcona's only child, inherits the title by special remainder.

The service was fully choral, and performed by the bridegroom's father, assisted by the Rev. H. P. Cronshaw, the vicar.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a robe of pure white tulle, with a Court train of old Brussels lace given by her grandmother, Lady Strathcona, while her long lace veil was arranged over a spray of orange blossom and white heather.

She was attended by two children—Miss Nancy Carus Wilson and Master Quentin Riley, and eight bridesmaids, Miss Edith Howard (sister of the bride), Miss Bolitho, Miss Betty Proby, Miss Iris Lund, Miss Barbara Ormerod, Miss Morwenha Riley, Miss Phoebe Wright, and Miss Elizabeth Barton. They wore pretty dresses of pale blue crepe de chene, with Dutch caps of cream lace, while each carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Lieutenant R. F. Eyre, R.N., acted as best man, and at the conclusion of the ceremony a large reception was held at Lord Strathcona's house in Grosvenor-square. Later in the afternoon Lieut. and Mrs. James Kitson left for Scotland for their honeymoon.

Among the many handsome wedding presents were a diamond necklace, the gift of Lady and Lady Strathcona, a pair of diamond earrings to the bride from her mother, and a complete set of china from Mr. Howard. Presentations were also received from tenants and employees (Argyllshire), Debdon Hall (Staffordshire), and the household servants in London.

BIG SHOW TO-MORROW

Barnum and Bailey's Greatest Circus Will Arrive During the Night WILL PRESENT NEW PRADE

Big Spectacle of "Cleopatra" Begins Regular Performance—Performance at 2 and 8 o'clock.

The Barnum and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth will arrive in Brantford during the small hours of tonight. The first of the five long trains is expected soon after midnight. It will come to the hotel, and kitchen outfit. The other trains will follow it closely. The menagerie and parade will come on the second section. On the third will come the vast equipment of the spectacle of "Cleopatra," the portable stage, the tons of scenery, thousands of costly costumes and carloads of stage properties and electric devices. The fourth section will bring the ring properties, the shops, the canvas, horses and draft wagons. The performers and business staff live on the last train, which is made up entirely of Pullman coaches.

Already visitors from afar have begun to arrive in the city, and the indications point to a record in circus days. Those who desire to avoid the crowds on the grounds can buy reserved seats and admissions at the downtown branch box office, which will be conducted in Wade's Music Store. Prices there will be the same as at the regular ticket wagons.

The program under the big tent will be one of great novelty. It is presented by European talent, new to America. There is a world of thrillers.
