

END OF TURKEY IS WHAT RECENT ACT OF HOSTILITY MEANS

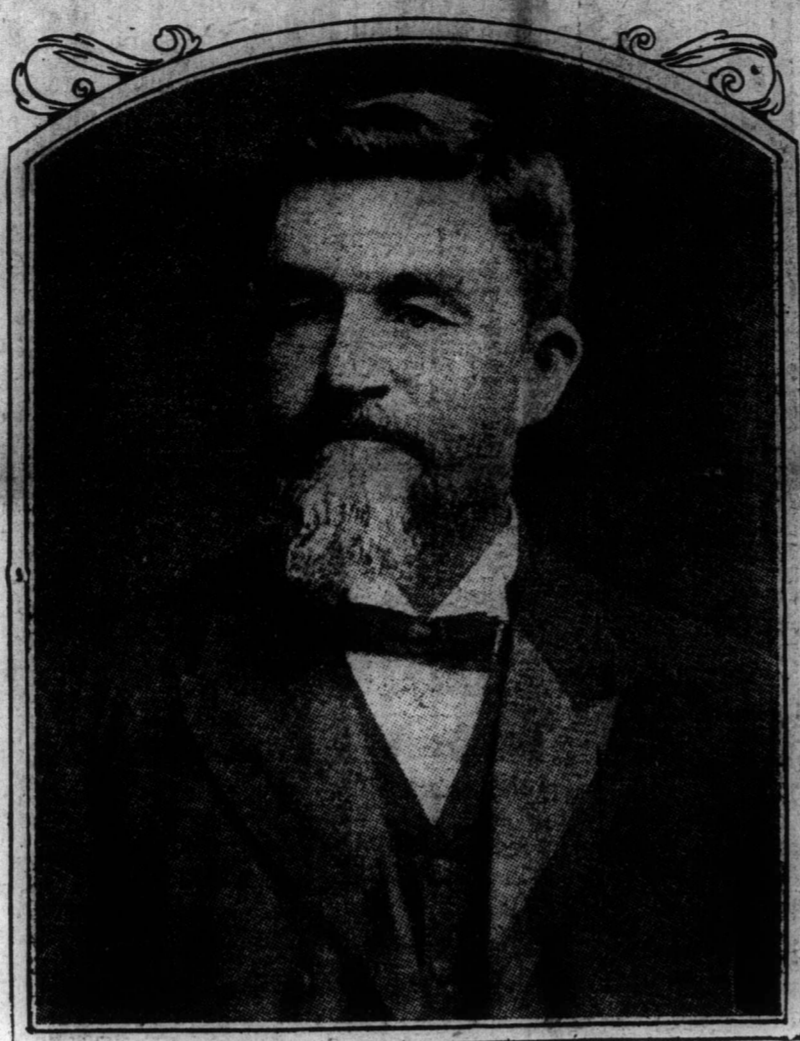

Allies are Perfectly Well Prepared to Meet the Situation - Suspicion Held For Some Time That Ottoman Government Was Getting Ready.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The Times commenting to-day on its Petrograd despatches reporting the Turkish bombardment of peaceful sea coast towns, says: "The situation in the Near East has developed logically. For some weeks past the influence controlling the Ottoman Government have been working to provoke the allies into declaring war on Turkey. These efforts have been in vain, as the allied powers were determined not to be the aggressors. They met acts of provocation, like the incorporation of the German cruisers Breslau and Goeben in the Turkish navy and the abolition of the capitulations, merely by protest. Then a sort of ultimatum was addressed to England regarding the watch kept upon the mouth of the Dardanelles. This also failed, but finally the Turks began a military demonstration against the Egyptian frontier, but they found all preparations made for an attack. "Now comes the bombardment of the Russian towns. It is believed that the sultan and some of his advisers favor a policy of neutrality, but that they have been overborne by the committee of union and progress which is bent on war. "The great numbers of Turkish troops are supposed to be massed along the Russian frontier, where the problem of feeding them must be arduous. To the south the Ottoman forces are believed to be stretched through Southern Syria and Palestine, with forces advanced upon the Egyptian frontier at Rafa on the Mediterranean and Akaba on the Red Sea. "The allies are quite ready for Turkey. All preparations have been made by England in Egypt along the banks of the Suez canal and the peninsula of Sinai. Greece too is ready, as Turkey will soon discover. "By her foolish yielding to the instigations of Germany, Turkey has pronounced her own doom. The Ottoman Empire in Europe will soon be merely a memory, self destruction, we do not regret her appearance in the ranks of the combatants. "The present mighty struggle will mean for Europe not only the end of Prussian militarism, but also the end of the Turks in Europe. These have been the chief menaces to the peace of the old world for more than 50 years. Syria, Arabia and Mesopotamia will also be freed from the blighting influence of the Turk, who will be relegated to the obscure valleys of Asia Minor. "ODESSA BOMBARDED A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Petrograd declares that Odessa was also visited by Turkish warships. It says: "Two Turkish destroyers fired shells at Odessa harbor, sinking a merchant ship. The Turks also bombarded Novorossysk, a seaport of Caucasus. "Two Turkish officers landed at Theodosia, on the southeast coast of Crimea, to demand the surrender of the port. The governor promptly imprisoned them. "There is keen interest here as to the attitude of the Balkan states. Bulgaria recently gave assurances that she was bound by no treaty compelling joint action. It is believed that she would join the allies against the Turks if assured of some reward at the end of the conflict. Rumanian feeling is more than ever favorable to the allies. "Public opinion here, while surprised at Turkey's action, welcomes the opportunity presented to settle the eastern question once for all."

FAMOUS BOER GENERAL WHO IS LEADING REVOLT AGAINST ENGLAND

GENERAL CHRISTIAN DE WET

General Christian De Wet, famous Boer general and Minister of Agriculture of the Western Transvaal and the Orange River Colony of South Africa, an English possession, is reported to be the leader of a new rebellion started in the colony. It is asserted that his chief lieutenant is Brigadier General Christian Frederick Beyers, until recently commander general of the citizen forces of the Union. Both these officers were mentioned in the first reports of the disaffection of sections of the Boer and African population.

SENSATIONAL ENTRANCE OF TURKEY INTO WAR IS FEATURE OF ENTIRE SITUATION TO-DAY

Britain and Russia Accept the Matter Philosophically—Russia Will Merely Maintain a Defensive—German Cruiser Bought by Turkey Did the Damage.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

LONDON, Oct. 30.—10 a.m.—Turkey's sensational entrance into the arena of the European conflict is the most striking incident of the past twelve hours. It seems a fateful coincidence that one of the famous German cruisers the taking over of which by Turkey led to the first friction between the ports and the entente powers, Great Britain, France and Russia, should have been the instrument of hostility, which makes war between Turkey and Russia inevitable. "Petrograd accepts the situation quietly and disclaims any idea of aggressive warfare against the Turks. Russia asserts her intention merely to protect Russian interests around the Black Sea from attack. It is interesting to note the belief that the entry of Turkey into the field is of more interest to Great Britain than to Russia on account of Britain's trade routes to India and other points in the Far East. English newspapers take an equally philosophic view of Turkey's action, and express the belief that, while the military situation will not be greatly changed, Turkey in Europe is doomed to extinction. Unless Bulgaria joins the enemies of Turkey, an invasion by land of European Turkey is impracticable, according to British observers and the warfare will be naval. The Turkish navy, assisted by the former German cruisers Goeben and Breslau, is considered here to be far more formidable than her army, which is said to be inefficiently equipped and poorly fed. Greece will jump at the chance of again measuring swords with her ancient enemy, it is felt in London, and with the two battleships recently purchased from the United States she will be in a position to meet the Turkish ships on equal terms. In the Black Sea the Russian fleet has no single units as powerful as either the Goeben or the Breslau, but the number of her vessels, it is argued in London, will give her command of this inland sea.

The state of Albania, considered a masterpiece of the diplomacy of great powers, has effectively disproved the theories that she was a compact nation, by resolving herself into several separate governments, some of which are nothing more than independent municipalities. The disrupted European concert is represented at Avlona by Italy and by four wandering commissioners with no government to accept their advice. Greece has invaded Northern Epirus and announces her action has met with the approval of the great powers. In the north, Essad Pasha, representing Turkey, evidently is preparing to occupy the unstable throne recently deserted by Prince William Wied.

In the area of purely military activities there seems to be a general lull. Special despatches from the west describe the battle there, but marked the great battle there, but official communications from both sides indicate that there has been little change in the relative situation of the opposing armies.

TRIAL OF GERMAN SPY WAS OPENED TODAY IN MIDDLESEX GUILD HALL

First Court Martial Held in Many Generations in England—Prisoner Accused of Having Sent Information to Germany.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

LONDON, Oct. 30.—11.30 a.m.—A court martial, the first convened in England for many generations, met to-day under the Presidency of Lord Chylesmore at the Middlesex Guild Hall in the shadow of Westminster Abbey, for the trial of Carl Hans Lody, alias Charles A. Inglis, on the charge of espionage.

The lofty hall presented a novel court scene with virtually all the officers of the court, except the attorneys, in uniform. Prosecutor Archibald H. Bodkin, opening the case, declared that the crime of giving information to an enemy was properly triable by a court martial and that the defendant was an alien enemy—a German subject—although he spoke English fluently.

During the course of his tours, the prosecutor said, the accused posted as an American tourist and visited Edinburgh, London, Liverpool and Dublin. On August 4, he received a passport from the United States embassy in Berlin, under the false name of Charles Ainglis. Late in August, Lody arrived in this country going to Edinburgh and from there to various other places. The prosecutor alleged that the defendant had sent valuable reports to Berlin.

Interest in the battles raging in the east and west of Europe, where decisive results are still to be attained, was momentarily overshadowed by Turkey's entrance into the great war through her declaration of hostilities against Russia.

London and Washington agree that this new development probably will have slight effect on land operations, but will manifest itself chiefly by sea and give the allied fleets in the Mediterranean and adjacent waters some busy days or weeks.

Aside from this, the most interesting phase of Turkey's action is its probable effect on the delicate Balkan situation, and next, what Greece will do.

It was made known to-day that, in addition to sinking two steamers in the Black Sea and bombarding the city of Theodosia in the Crimea, Turkish warships had entered the port of Odessa, sunk a Russian gunboat and damaged a French liner. Although no formal declaration of war is reported, the Russian ambassador at Constantinople has been withdrawn.

Little news filtered through to-day from the scene of the great battle in Flanders, and indications were that the censorship had become still more rigid. The French official statement, while again optimistic in tone, was general in tones and contained nothing to indicate that decided advances had been won by either side, and inferred that the deadly struggle was yet to run its course.

The enormous sacrifices made by the Germans to force a passage of the Yser River, are said by the French war office to have been in vain. The German forces who maintained their hard-won place to the south of the Yser, notwithstanding the heavy loss of life, are now said to have withdrawn.

What the shot and shrapnel could not accomplish has been achieved by another device, the Belgians having flooded the lower valley of the river.

French official statement indicates that it has again fallen to the lot of the British troops to bear the brunt of the battle. Their presence along the line from Ypres to Dixmude revealed in the statement, which says that violent German attacks in this vicinity were beaten back and that the British and French were able to push forward. At points north of La Bassée, just south of the Belgian border, the British forces are credited with having repulsed superior forces and to have won back territory previously yielded. On the remainder of the front progress is claimed by the French "almost everywhere."

Admiral Lord Fisher, according to advices, is to succeed the Austrian-born Prince Louis of Battenberg, whose resignation as first sea lord of the British admiralty has been brought about by anti-alien agitation in England.

Russia Assuming Vigorous Attack

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

PETROGRAD, via London, Oct. 30.—5.25 a.m.—General Maslov, military critic of The Novoe Vremya, in summing up the war-situation in the east, says: "Although, generally speaking, the trend of the Russian military operations is becoming increasingly favorable, battles rage on all fronts with unprecedented tenacity and stubbornness. Not only the Germans but the Austrians, despite their recent defeat, are fighting with intense energy, and it would not be surprising if the Germans should reinforce their fighting lines and attempt to assume the offensive. As a result, however, the Russians largely retain the initiative. The Army Messenger announces that the Russian commander-in-chief, has sanctioned the formation of Polish legions under Polish commanders. The legions are furnishing their own uniforms but the Russian Government will provide the arms, ammunition and commissariat. Proclamations have been posted in all Polish towns and villages exhorting the people to join the legions and expel the enemy.

SITUATION IS HOPEFUL FOR ALLIES

Paris Gets Little News but Regards Outlook Cheerfully.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

PARIS, Oct. 30, 7.20 a.m.—The deadlock in the extended battle line in France and Belgium continues to-day, according to all the information that has been made available regarding the great battle raging between the Germans and the allies.

The latest French official communication, briefer than ever, declares simply that there is no important news to report. While the fighting appears to be somewhat more general, it is not so fierce or continued as was the case for the better part of two weeks after the battle line in the north-east extended into Belgium along the Yser and to the coast. Evidently both sides are recuperating, as much as possible, from the strain of these tremendous efforts and are strengthening their lines with the fresh troops brought up by reinforcing forces.

No one here doubts that the Germans will shortly renew their efforts to take the channel front but there is every confidence that the allies, as heretofore, will check them in their objective.

Winter has made its presence felt all along the battle line. The last few nights have been very cold and in the Vosges a heavy snow has fallen, stopping the German operations there. On the rest of the line, the cold has not interfered with the fighting which, however, as previously noted, is of a desultory character, because of the exhaustion of the troops.

General Berthaut, a French military critic, in summing up the situation to-day in a published article, declares that the outlook for the Germans is bad all along the line. He predicts another effort against the allies which will be a serious one. The idea is advanced by some observers, that the Germans will abandon their effort to get through to Calais and try instead to reach Boulogne, but it is not believed that this slight change of route will increase the chances of success.

Many rumors are circulating in Paris due in large measure to the lack of news from the front. For example it was persistently reported last night that Ostend had been recaptured by the allies. A list of promotions issued by the War Office gives the assignment of eight generals to fill the places made vacant by the death in battle of Generals Rafflen, Barbaie, Dupus, Sibille, Rogues, Broussard, Ballest and Drouot. Thirteen other generals are assigned to fill the places made vacant by the death of the late general. REAL WAR WITH TURKS BY RUSSIA

Important Matter For England on Account of India and Egypt.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

PETROGRAD, via London, Oct. 30.—In the highest official sources here it is stated that Russia views the action of Turkey in bombarding two unfortified Russian ports without a declaration of war, as infinitely more important to England than to Russia on account of the English communications with India and her position in Egypt. Although Russia, it is stated, now has a new war on her hands, her policy will not be one of general aggression against Turkey, but merely a defence of her own interests in the Black Sea. It is pointed out that the allies had previously guaranteed the integrity of Turkey only if she remained neutral.

Farahidine Bey, the Turkish Ambassador here said to-night: "I have had no instructions from Constantinople, communication now being cut, and have heard only from the Russian newspapers about Turkey beginning war. I am now in the hands of the Russian government, whose instructions I am now awaiting. "I am sorry that my labor to improve the relations of the two countries has had so disastrous an ending. What moved the Sultan's government to take this step is absolutely unknown to me. I am sure I have nothing to fear personally."

While giving this interview in the Turkish embassy, a clamorous throng surrounded the building, manifesting against Turkey. The people were restrained from violence by mounted gendarmes. Earlier the same mob paraded the streets with bared heads, singing and cheering. They called the orchestras out of the hotels and demanded that they assist by playing the national anthem. The excitement in Petrograd is the greatest since the declaration of war against Germany.

EMPEROR BILL WEEPS HEAVILY OVER THE POLES

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

PETROGRAD, via London, Oct. 30.—The Gazette, which is now published by the Germans at Czenstochowa, Russian Poland, prints the following proclamation which it credits to Emperor William: "Poles: You of course, remember how once at night the bell of the holy Swiatogorsky monastery began to ring without human aid and when all the pious people understood that this great and important event had been signalized by a miracle. "That event was my decision to wage war with Russia and restore to Poland her saints and annex her most cultured land to Germany. I had a wondrous dream, and I proceeded to fulfill her divine behest. Know you this, Poles and meet my troops like brothers, saviours. Know ye, Poles, that all who are with me will be liberally rewarded; that those against me will perish. With me are God and the Holy Virgin. She lifted the sword of Germany to succor Poland."

NOT TAKING ACTION

The report that the Ontario Government was considering the advisability of shortening the hours of sale of liquor as a war measure to relieve distress this winter provoked a smile from Hon. W. H. Hearst when it was referred to him. As a result of fact, the Prime Minister pointed out that the Government has no authority to take any such action.

The only means by which the hours of sale may be shortened is by legislation either shortening them or giving the government power to do so. Since no such legislation can be made effective until well into spring, the "winter war measure" would not accomplish much.

Judge Coatsworth has decided that he has the jurisdiction to try the United Life case. The counsel for the accused director will appeal.

Nuptial Notes

NIXON-JACKSON. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson, Edinburgh Road, Guelph, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when their eldest daughter Alice A. was married to Mr. Harry J. Nixon, B.S.A., of St. George, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Nixon, also of St. George. The bridegroom is a graduate of the O.A.C., of 1913. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of invited guests, by Rev. R. J. Cunningham of Petrolia, assisted by Rev. W. E. Hindson, of Woolwich street Baptist Church. An interesting fact in connection with the ceremony was that it was Rev. Mr. Cunningham who married the bride's parents exactly thirty years ago.

SUTHERLAND-SHAPLEY. One of this week's prettiest weddings was that of Ruby Leone, daughter of Mr. H. Shapley, and Lewis Henry Brody, of Sutherland, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sutherland, Dunn avenue. The wedding took place at the bride's home on Tuesday, her father giving her away, and Rev. A. L. Goggin officiating at the ceremony under an arch of chrysanthemums and lilies. The bride wore ivory charmuse with iridescent lace, yellow with Brussels net, and a lovely veil with orange blossoms. Her sister, Miss Anna Shapley, the bridesmaid, was in pale blue charmuse with overdress of Chantilly lace, her black velvet hat being brightened with pink roses. Little Margaret Henderson, the flower girl, was in a lingerie frock, and Mr. W. J. Appledorf, of Dunville, was the best man. Mrs. Reginald Henderson, the bride's sister, wearing a gown of yellow crepe de chine, and the groom's mother, in grey brocade crepe, received the guests, with Mrs. Shapley and after congratulations and the wedding feast Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland left for New York, the bride travelling in taupe cloth with black velvet hat. They will take up their home in Tyndall Gardens, Tyndall avenue.—Toronto Globe.

Young People's Societies Meet

A very interesting and most helpful meeting was held in the Immanuel Baptist Church. Monday evening where the Baptist Young People's Societies of the city gathered to hold their Fall Rally. The meeting was presided over by the President of the City Union, Mr. W. E. Lemon. After and inspiring song service and a season of prayer, Mr. McIntyre of Immanuel Baptist Church led in the reading of the Scripture which was found in Matthew 26:36-46. Rev. H. H. Bingham, former President of the B. Y. P. U. of Ontario and Quebec, delivered the address of the evening. Mr. Bingham is a prominent leader of young people's work in the province and his address was well deserving of the excellent audience which was present. During the evening the choir of Immanuel Church rendered excellent music and a solo given by Miss Jones was much appreciated.

GENERAL VON MOLTKE MODEST AND SILENT

He is Chief of Staff and Commander of German Forces Under the Kaiser.

General Count Helmuth von Moltke, now 66 years old, namesake and favorite nephew of the great Field Marshal who led the Germans to victory in the Franco-Prussian war, has been chief of the German general staff since 1904 and as such is in supreme command of the united forces of Germany—under the Kaiser.

The reservation concerning the Kaiser is important, because von Moltke, modest and silent as the famous uncle whom Germans nicknamed the Great Taciturn, has never believed that he is the man for the place he occupies. In fact, he refused the job twice, and accepted it when the Kaiser ordered it to him for the third time, only because his imperial master declared with brutal frankness: "In time of peace any man can do the work. In time of war I shall be my own chief of staff."

As a 22-year-old lieutenant von Moltke served through the Franco-Prussian war. For conspicuous gallantry in the fighting before Paris he was decorated with the order of the Iron Cross. He was among the victors who marched under the Arch of the Star. His uncle, the Field Marshal, was very proud of him and wrote home to Helmuth's father, Adolf von Moltke: "Yesterday Helmuth marched in with his regiment—the tallest man in it. The king asked me his name. He looked splendid with his Iron Cross."

In the last years of the greater Moltke's life Helmuth and his wife kept house for the old soldier. Of the four sons of Adolf von Moltke, who were known as the "four giants," Helmuth resembled his uncle most and was regarded by him as his son. He stands 6 feet 4 inches, has blue eyes and, like all the Moltkes, is very blond.

When Helmuth fell in love with Ellen, a daughter of Count von Moltke-Hvitfeldt of Denmark—she was a distant cousin—his future father-in-law refused his consent to the match. But the field marshal had given his Count

THE SITUATION.

Matters have become still more seriously complicated by the entrance of Turkey into the war zone. She is not in such heavy fighting shape as heretofore, because of the crippling she sustained at the time of the Balkan trouble, nevertheless she constitutes an additional force with which the Allies will have to reckon. The main danger is that an appeal may be made to Mohammedans as such, and there are 3,800,000 people of this faith in Europe and 142,000,000 of them in Asia. Her action is quite likely to bring Italy, Greece and Roumania into the fray, and then mayhap Japan will want to have her scope enlarged. This terrible world war may become all of that before the thing is ended. In fighting men Turkey's present forces are estimated at about 400,000, and she possesses some fine and modern fighting ships.

The Franco-British forces still continue to do well, but Germany is preparing for another supreme effort in a district out of range of the British fleet guns. The Russians are reported to have been again victorious after four more days of fierce fighting. The Emden is still at it. She has recently sunk a Russian cruiser and a French destroyer. They were in harbor off the Straits Settlements, and this tireless wasp crept in under range by the addition of a fourth smoke-armor of fort guns, having disguised herself stack and the use of the Japanese flag.

A HISTORIC INCIDENT

Among the many touching incidents of the last few weeks nothing quite equals the impressive conclusion of the historic session of the British Parliament. No one could have imagined in the earlier part of the session when strife reigned and raged that so dramatic an ending would have been possible. The account given in the "Times" is particularly interesting and impressive. After the reading of the King's speech, "Mr. Crooks, the well known Labor leader, astonished the House by asking the Deputy Speaker whether it would be in order to sing 'God Save the King.' The Deputy Speaker did not answer the unprecedented question. Nor did the House wait for an answer. Mr. Crooks had struck a chord that vibrated in all hearts. With one consent ministers and members, strangers and journalists, rose to their feet, and with bared heads joined in the National Anthem. The noble music, which no Englishman can ever hear quite unmoved, has been sung generation after generation by untold millions of our race on the great occasions of our wondrous story. But never has it been heard at a time more solemn or momentous, in circumstances more impressive or pregnant with deeper import, than when the British House of Commons, with one mind and one heart, made the roof of the Chamber ring with the notes, well-nigh sacred to all."

VIEWS OF U. S. PROFESSOR

President Emeritus Eliot of Harvard University, sees a duty for Americans in regard to the European war even more imperative than that of neutrality, which has been so generally observed since the President's proclamation. In an interview last week at Boston, President Eliot said that we must not confuse our minds as to the actual policy of Germany and Austria, whose cause is "imperialism, militarism, a government by force." "Once we realize this grim fact, neutrality in our hearts would be out of the question. His sympathies are all with the two great nations in Europe, England and France, nations to which we are indebted for our own freedom, democracy, faith in liberty, and law."

Commenting upon this, another Harvard instructor, Prof. Leo Wiener, leading authority on Slavic literature and history, backed Prof. Eliot's words with emphasis. He thought the United States must declare its real sentiments toward the Allies within the next two months. "The United States cannot restrain its sympathies in the present crisis and keep its self-respect," said Prof. Wiener. "We have heard so much of Prof. Hugo Munsterberg of Harvard since hostilities began, that many people may have been deceived into thinking that our foremost seat of learning was dominated by Teutonic influences, like many of our newspapers. Munsterberg, by the way, is a man who here the Kaiser is concerned. He deserves some sort of credit for his loyalty to a nation which, because he is a Jew, refused him a professorship in a German university. Gradually the intelligent American

CURLERS READY FOR SEASON

The prospects for the city curlers during the coming winter are excellent, and the local clubs have already been preparing for the advent of winter and the pastimes associated with it. To this end the Brantford Curling Club has met and appointed its officers and executive. The election resulted as follows: Hon. president, Walter Turnbull; patron, Adam Spence; chaplain, Rev. Mr. Woodside; president, Dr. W. D. Wiley; vice-president, Thomas Henderson; treasurer, H. D. McClintock; secretary, W. Lahey; assistant secretary, Sam Burnley; auditors, Hugh Howie and W. Muir.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The use of the word "she" in connection with the Emden indicates that her destructive actions are of the military suffragette order.

It is estimated that at present the European war bill amounts to $40,000,000 daily. And there are more coming in.

Germany's preparedness for war has proved to be one of the most colossal things of all history. All the more credit to the plucky little Belgians, who were the first to oppose the advance of this huge juggernaut.

A big London firm sent a cheque for $50,000 to the Prince of Wales fund. Later it was found that a number of the staff had been dismissed as an offset. The cheque was promptly returned and the firm notified that they would not receive any more patronage from the royal family.

ANOTHER EFFORT

Is Expected Will be Made by the Germans in the Near Future.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—Paris regards as very favorable the situation this morning in Flanders. It is to be noted in official circles there prevails an air of satisfaction surpassing the impression created by the official communication. The second visit of President Poincaré to the battle front is regarded as a good sign, and is taken to presage important developments.

Military critics regard the prolonged assaults of the Germans along the Yser as having failed and they expect that the enemy, following their custom, will now make another effort elsewhere.

The great activity in Upper Alsace during the last few days, suggests an attack from that quarter.

It is declared here that all the German wounded at Saint Louis have been taken across the Rhine and that all applications for safe conducts in Upper Alsace have been refused.

Battenburg Out—Fisher Takes the Job

(By Special Wire to the Courier) LONDON, Oct. 30.—1.55 p.m.—The appointment of Baron Fisher, admiral of the fleet, to succeed Prince Louis of Battenburg as first sea lord of the Admiralty, was announced officially by the press bureau to-day.

Prince Louis of Battenburg resigned the post of first sea lord of the British Admiralty yesterday.

There have been no open charges against the prince, but much talk goes on because of his Austrian origin, and certain London newspapers recently conducted a campaign against his holding such a high command. The prince was born in Austria, the eldest son of Prince Alexander of Hesse. He married a daughter of Louis IV, Grand Duke of Hesse. He is a naturalized British subject, and entered the royal navy in 1868.

He is related by marriage to Emperor William of Germany.

He has been considered one of the most noted strategists of the British Admiralty, but in spite of this there was strong opposition to an officer of Austrian birth being retained as the professional head of the navy.

Immediately after his resignation, Prince Louis was appointed by King George a member of the Privy Council.

Lord Fisher of Kilverstone, has been admiral of the British fleet since 1905. He was born in 1841, and entered the British naval service when thirteen years of age, working his way up through all the grades.

When the British channel fleet was reorganized in 1907, Admiral Fisher had a serious difference with Lord Charles Beresford over its composition. Both the public and members of parliament took sides in the controversy, and ultimately Lord Charles Beresford was forced out of the fleet.

TWO FATALITIES IRRICANA, Alberta, Oct. 30.—The six-year-old son of J. G. Stevens was burned to death and his three-year-old daughter fatally burned in the destruction of a barn.

DETAINED AT MONTREAL TORONTO, Oct. 30.—James J. Rowens, clerk in Louis Gurofsky's steamship ticket office, who was detested by the police and military authorities, suspected of conniving to get Austrian reservists out of the country under the guise of Roumanians, was to-day handed over by the military to the civil authorities. He was charged with assisting a public enemy at war with his Majesty's dominions. He pleaded not guilty, and was remanded without bail till November 6.

PRINCE LOUIS OF BATTENBURG, Britain's first sea lord, resigned his position.

As a result of the Bennett charges in Petrograd saying Odessa has been bombed and some American property destroyed.

Late Wires. MONTREAL, Oct. 30.—It is announced by Mr. Frederick Stobart, purchasing agent for the Imperial government, that an order has been placed in the Dominion for six hundred thousand sweater coats to be delivered by December 15. It is not stated who the firms were who were fortunate enough to secure portions of the order. The average price per dozen at which the coats are to be supplied is $18.00. The order, therefore, represents the sum of $900,000 to be distributed among factories in Canada; and is a mere beginning to other large business that is to follow. In sweater coats alone, it is the intention of Mr. Stobart to order an additional four hundred thousand in the course of the next week. By this Canadian manufacturers will receive $600,000 additional business.

GERMANY'S THREAT. BERLIN, Oct. 30.—(by wireless to Sayville)—Germany has notified Great Britain, through American Ambassador Gerard in Berlin, that if German civilians in England, excluding those against whom there are grounds of suspicion, are not liberated by November 5, all British subjects in Germany will be similarly arrested. The feeling on this subject in Berlin is high.

The pallbearers were Otto and George Sage, Reginald and John Feely, Wm. Hatcher and R. Manning. A number of beautiful wreaths adorned the bier.

Continued enthusiasm was evidenced by the large number of members who turned out to the meeting last evening, and everything points to another successful year. The principal course to be followed this year, is that of literary work.

Four judges were appointed and allotted their respective classes. The prize list committee was also appointed, and will meet to-night to draft the prize lists. The treasurer stated that the annual government grant had been received, and the opinion was expressed that the city, township and county councils would also stand by the association this year and vote their usual grants, and thus enable the Association to go ahead with "business as usual."

RIFLE CLUB DRILL

The civilian rifle club turned out in large numbers last night when the second drill was taken in hand by Captain Gibson, at the Collegiate Institute. They were over 200 strong, and were much too big to be handled as one class. However, Cap. Gibson was able to give a very instructive lecture and to give the men their second lesson in the art of musketry. So large is the number enrolled that the club is to be divided into two squads. One squad will be formed of those who have a little experience and the other will be of those who have no experience. Thus the present difficulty of drilling the body as a unit will be solved. Capt. Gibson was so pleased with the performance last night that he has promised to take charge permanently. Mr. J. H. Fisher, M.P., Paris, and Mr. Thompson of Paris were amongst the interested spectators. Mr. Fisher gave a brief and patriotic address.

INDOOR BASEBALL.

The official opening of the indoor baseball league at the Y.M.C.A. took place last night, when the business men fell in opposition to the Dormitory Kolts. From the first the Kolts put up a star brand of ball and their score went away ahead of the business men's tallies, and they finished easy winners. The score was estimated at 17-9. The fact that the business men lacked practice, while the Dormitory men have been steadily pegging away for some time, may account for the difference in the teams. The business men, however, promise to come back strong and show the Kolts what they have been. The battery for the younger men was Fleming and Robbins, while the battery on duty for the older men was Atkinson and Thorburn. George Nixon of Hamilton was umpire, and he never had occasion to lecture Harold Good or his helpers in the fray. The Kolts proved a good hard-hitting side and beat the moderate fielding with their terrific drives to field.

A WOMAN'S RIGHT TO HEALTH

To every woman belongs the right to enjoy a healthy, active, happy life, yet nine out of ten suffer, often in silence from splitting headaches, torturing backaches, violent heart palpitation or some other of the many evils that follow anaemia, or bloodlessness.

That is why one sees so many women with pale, thin cheeks, dull eyes and drooping figures—sure signs that the blood is out of order. All suffering women should take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Through this medicine, thousands of tired, suffering women have found new health and strength. Mrs. James Dross, Chipman, N.B., says: "For years I did not know what it was to be entirely free from headache or backache. My hands were cold and clammy all the time. It was the doctor stopped giving me medicine as he said he could not help me. Do you wonder that I was in despair. My mother urged me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but I said, 'what's the use, medicine can't help me.' However my husband got six boxes of the pills, and to please him began to take them. By the time I had finished them I undoubtedly had improved and there was the signs of returning health in my cheeks and hands. My husband thought the improvement so great that he got another half dozen boxes, and before these were completed I was enjoying such good health as I had not had in years, in fact I was a well woman, and have since enjoyed the best of health. I sincerely feel that I owe my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and shall always recommend them to all sick people."

You can get these pills at any medicine dealers, or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

EMDEN WAS DISGUISED. PETROGRAD, Oct. 30, via London 12.46 p.m.—Russian naval headquarters has received some details of the destruction in the harbor of Penang of the Russian cruiser Jemtschug by the German cruiser Emden. The Emden appeared disguised off Penang at 5 o'clock on the morning of October 28. She was taken by the lookouts on the fort to be a vessel belonging to the allied fleet. She came forward at full speed and approaching the Jemtschug, fired a torpedo, which exploded near the boat. The Russian cruiser opened fire on the Emden, but a second torpedo from the German vessel sent her to the bottom. Eighty-five members of her crew were drowned. Out of 250 men saved, 112 were wounded. GERMAN CONTRADICTION. BERLIN, Oct. 30 (by wireless to Saville, L.I.)—The alleged raid of German troops into Angola, West Africa, is declared officially to-day to be a "flat lie forged in order to justify Portugal's participation in the European war."

ADMIRAL PRINCE LOUIS RESIGNS AS SEA LORD

London Press Regrets Step but Characterizes it as One in the Right Direction--Fisher Succeeds Him.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] LONDON, Oct. 30.—The morning newspapers, in editorials dealing with the resignation of Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg as first sea lord of the admiralty, without exception express great sympathy with the prince and regret over the unfortunate circumstances which deprive the country of his valuable services. At the same time the newspapers generally think that Prince Louis has taken the right step. The Times, in an editorial protesting against what it terms the unjust campaign which has driven

Prince Louis of Battenberg from his post, says: "The fact that his resignation follows the news of Prince Maurice of Battenberg's death should be sufficient to kill once for all the suggestions involved in malignant scanda. The appointment of Lord Fisher as first sea lord of the admiralty, will undoubtedly meet with national approval. It puts in the position a man who more than any other is the creator of the British battle fleet of to-day, and who stands to the navy in something of the same relation as does Lord Kitchener to the army."

POOR MAKER OF MAPS HARDLY KNOWS WHAT TO DO WITH EUROPE

Pity the poor maker of maps! He had no sooner drawn a zigzag line across the little neck of land that connects the two great American continents, for the purpose of showing the Panama canal, when the Balkan states began to swap boundaries with Turkey. He finished that job and then it looked as though the world's map would remain as corrected for many a long day, and the map maker could go away for a much-needed rest. But there were rumors of war, which soon grew into noisy talk, and then somebody threw a brick, since when the poor, tired maker of maps has been sitting up nights trying to follow the armies and line them up in little red dot battalions, until now he has entirely lost track of the original border lines and is wondering if Europe will ever again be separated into divisions or will consist in one state of delirium. But the young idea who is learning to shoot need not think that he is going to escape his study of geography. He will be supplied with a new one, for publishers are now waiting to learn what changes are to be made in Europe.

EMBDEN SANK TWO

SHANGHAI, Oct. 30.—Reports received here from Hong Kong give some detail of the German Cruiser Emden's operations at Penang. It appears that she entered the south channel there on Wednesday, and that the Russian cruiser Jemtchug was found anchored in the harbor repairing her machinery. After torpedoing and sinking the Russian cruiser, the Emden left by the north channel, where she met the French destroyer, which she also sank.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-Time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

An Armenian Rifle Club

The formation of an Armenian Rifle Club is under way in this city. Some thirty or forty members of the colony got together with their missionary Armen Armirkanian and decided that they would form into a club exclusive for Armenians. Permission has been obtained for the use of the Collegiate rifles and gymnasium and the members of the club will be instructed by their missionary in the use of rifles. He has had former experience in a position to put his flock through the preliminary stages. Every Tuesday night they will practise at the school. It is proposed to get competent instructors to give lectures which will be interpreted. Mr. Armirkanian has already secured promise of aid from several military experts and he says the Rifle Club will soon be in a flourishing condition. The object of the Armenians is that should they ever be called upon to defend the Dominion they will be well able to do so, and trust to qualify in marksmanship as a result of their efforts.

LONDON Oct. 30.—9.40 a.m.—The Lloyd's signal station at St. Catharines Point reports that another French Steamer, the Arimal Rigault, is ashore off Cape Barleur, seventeen miles east of Cherbourg, and needs assistance. The L'Infer La Savoie has gone to help her.

A CRYPTIC REPLY.

LONDON, Oct. 30, 7.11 a.m.—A Petrograd special to Reuter's Telegram Company says: "In the recent fighting near Przemysl, two generals reported to their commander, the Bulgarian General Radko Dimitrieff, who is leading the Russian army investing Przemysl, that they were unable to hold out owing to the overwhelming numbers of the enemy. General Dimitrieff replied with a aphorism which will doubtless become historic. He said: "Don't count the enemy; beat him."

GERMANS GET INFORMATION VERY QUICKLY

Four Submarines Were Dodging About British Battleships.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] LONDON, Oct. 30.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail in France, explains in a despatch today that if Dunkirk and Calais are to be of any use to the Germans, they must have the coast road unless they build a special road, because the coast road is the only one fit to bear the heavy guns with which they hope to bombard Dover. He adds: "The German naval gunners are doing better than the army gunners, having hit the torpedo boat destroyer Falcon and killed her commander and four men. The German fire, however, is quite insignificant in effect as compared with the British naval fire. "On the other hand the German spy system is amazingly efficient. It is puzzling the British officers how they get their news. Before the British battleship Venerable had been off the Belgian coast for half an hour a German submarine was dodging after her. Four additional German submarines were about yesterday."

Killed in France

First Real Member of Canadian Contingent to Die in Battle.

MONTREAL, Oct. 30.—William Cockhill, of Montreal, was killed at Lille, in France, while in active service. Messages to that effect were received here yesterday. Cockhill had been a chauffeur in the employ of Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor and went with the Canadian overseas expeditionary force, having joined the mechanical transport service corps as a driver. The majority of this part of the contingent at once proceeded to and joined the allied army to serve in the transport section. At Lille, a shell struck the car tank exploded, the driver being instantly killed. A sister received official notification of the death of Mr. Cockhill. Mr. Cockhill was married two days previous to his departure from Montreal.

RIVER IS NEUTRAL

PARIS, Oct. 30.—Edouard Clunet, an authority on international law in reviewing the history of the treaties concerning the River Scheldt, in The Figaro, concludes that Holland cannot allow the vessels of war of a belligerent power to pass through that part of the river, which is in her territory, and that Germany, therefore, could not use the stream for the passage of its warships without violating treaties bearing its seal. He declares that if Germany ignores treaty rights, it is the duty of Holland to resist and the duty of other nations which signed the treaties, including Great Britain, Belgium, France, Russia and Japan to aid Holland.

BELGIANS CAME NEAR RETREAT FROM GERMANS

But The Enemy Beat Them to it to Their Great Surprise.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] LONDON, Oct. 30.—Telegraphing from Northern France, under date of Thursday, the correspondent of The Times says: "A high official of the Belgian army is authority for the statement that there was a time during the early part of last week, when the Germans if they had sustained for a few hours longer, their fierce assault on the Belgian position, would have won a general and decisive victory on the Yser."

"The Belgians were actually on the point of retreat, partly owing to trouble with their supplies of ammunition. They decided, however, to fight as greatly as possible to the last cartridge. To their amazement the Germans, at the critical moment, hastily retreated and took up a position far behind their previous position. "The reasons which induced the German retreat probably will never be known. They were twice as numerous as the Belgians and tremendously superior in artillery. Their move must have been made under a total misapprehension of the condition of the staying power of the enemy, or may have been simply a clumsy invitation to the Belgians to risk annihilation by taking the general offensive. "It is pleasant to record now that the allied line achieved new advanced positions on both Monday and Wednesday, compelling the Germans to fall back considerable distances in the neighborhood of La Bassée."

CHANGED HER COURSE.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The British steamer Manchester Spinner, outward bound from Manchester from Montreal, is now off the south coast of Ireland, slipping her course for Queenstown. The only reason given is that she desires to obtain medical assistance for two wounded sailors. It is not stated how the were injured or whether the vessel is damaged. A sister ship, the Manchester Commerce, was struck by a mine off the north coast of Ireland on October 27. Reports reached a British seaport yesterday that an unknown steamer had encountered a mine off the Irish coast, and it is possible this is the reason that the Manchester Spinner is now returning to port.

"STICK-IN-THE-MUDS"—COMPLIMENT OF WHICH THE GUARDS WERE PROUD

A grimly realistic word-picture of fighting in the rain-soaked, shot-battered trenches along the Aisne was painted for a journalist by a private of the Grenadier Guards, now in hospital, says the Standard.

"For two whole days, he said, 'the rain came down on us in bucketfuls. It was like having the sea turned bottom upwards and the contents poured over us. At one point tents were floating around like yachts on the lake at the Welsh Harp. Those who had been foolish enough to get on the wrong side of their clothes that night before had the devil's own job to find them in the morning.

An Early Morning Call.
"Swimming after your things when you wake up isn't an aid to quick dressing. Most of us lay in our clothes the first night and the second and we were soaked right through to the skin. It was just when things were at their worst that the German devils made up their minds to pay us a courtesy call in the early morning.

As Ugly As Sin.
"Sure enough, it was as hot as any one could want or wish it to be. The Germans were in good fighting form—never better, if you ask me. They came right up to where we lay, firing from the hip, as they always do, but they took steadier aim, and their shots didn't go so wide as they used to. Then they came on with the bayonet, and by the piper that played before Moses there was as lovely a set-to as you ever say with your two eyes.

It was ugly as sin while it lasted.
On the rain soaked ground it was hard enough to keep a foothold, but if you are after a really tough job, just try a little bayonet exercise, with a mob of German heavyweights dancing around trying to give you an odd jab with the most fiendish things in the bayonet line that were ever conceived out of hell or in it. That'll give you an idea of what we came through.

"As a rule we don't like to be called such a thing at any time, but we were proud that morning after it was all over when the brigadier called us the old stick-in-the-muds."

Wont Please the Kaiser.
"Mind you, we had to anchor ourselves in a foot or more of mud to hold our ground against the heavy masses they kept pouring on top of us, just as if they were hunker-sliding or tobogganing down hill into us. We didn't get swept away anyhow, but the Germans did, and you can take my word for it, they were a sight for sore eyes when it was over.

The Points of Attack.
Theodosia (formerly Kaffa) is a Russian seaport on the southeast coast of Crimea, about a hundred miles northeast of Sebastopol, by which it is connected by rail.

The Despatches would indicate that the cruiser that attacked the Theodosia is the Breslau, one of the two German cruisers recently interned in the Dardanelles and later purchased by Turkey. The Hamidieh is said to be the Turkish name given to the other cruiser, formerly the Goeben.

Turkey Has Declared War On Russia

TOKIO, Oct. 30, 11:15 a.m. The Russian embassy here announces that Turkey has opened war on Russia.

THEodosia, Crimea (via Petrograd), Oct. 29.—From 9:30 o'clock to 10:30 this morning a Turkish cruiser with three funnels bombarded the station and city, damaging the cathedral, the Greek church, a pier and some sheds. One soldier was wounded. A branch of the Russian Bank of Foreign Commerce caught fire. At the conclusion of the bombardment the cruiser left in a southwesterly direction.

NOVOROSSISK. Caucasia (via Petrograd), Oct. 29.—The Turkish cruiser Hamidieh, which arrived here today, demanded the surrender of the city and the government properties, threatening in case of refusal the bombardment of the town. The Turkish consul and officials were arrested. The cruiser withdrew.

CROWN PRINCE WOUNDED

Sustains Injury Leading Attack On Verdun.
 ROME, Oct. 29.—It is reported here that the German Crown Prince has been wounded while leading an attack on Verdun.

NEW GIANT SUBMARINES

Germans Said to be Testing a Couple Near Elbe River.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 29.—It is reported from Hamburg that two giant submarines are making trial trips at the mouth of the Elbe. They are said to be four times the size of any existing submarines, and will be able to keep at sea for forty days without having to replenish or even join the mother ships.

THE GURKHAS CARRIED OUT A GREAT FEAT

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The correspondent of The Daily Mail in Paris describes how the Gurkhas (native Indian troops) blew up a German ammunition park, thus causing some of the German coast batteries to move to the rear. He says:

"All the efforts of the allies' artillery against these batteries had been unavailing, and the Germans were causing severe losses when the air scouts located the ammunition stores seven miles behind the German lines."

"At night the Gurkhas detachment embarked on gunboats which proceeded to the mouth of the Yser and after a long silent march the Gurkhas reached the German ammunition stores guarded by six sentries. The Gurkhas moved toward them, each carrying a long knife. Then a sound, like the croaking of a frog was heard, and the six sentries disappeared."

"Shortly afterward the general staff of the allies saw a great flash of light on the horizon and heard a great explosion, followed by countless others, as the shells and shrapnel in their cases exploded in all directions. The Gurkhas returned safely to the gunboats."

RUSSIANS TAKE TOWN

LONDON, Oct. 30.—A despatch from Bucharest, Roumania, to The Times, dated Wednesday, and which was delayed in transmission, says that the Russians, after beating the Austrians at Bojana, have re-occupied Czernowitz, capital of the province of Bukovina.

READY FOR RETREAT

LONDON, Oct. 30.—3.32 a.m.—A Daily Telegraph correspondent sends a despatch from the Belgian frontier that the Germans are making preparations to retreat from their present positions in Belgium. They are removing their wounded from Bruges to Brussels and are throwing up entrenchments all the way along the proposed line of retreat from Ostend.

Soap on Hair Causes Dandruff Scalp Gets Dry, Hair Falls Out

Girls! Get a 25 Cent Bottle and Try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse."

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed; your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet-counter and try it.

POWDER MAGAZINE

North Sea is Strewed From End to End With Mines.

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

LONDON, Oct. 30, 3.40 a.m.—A despatch from Flushing, Holland, to the Daily News says:

"An examination of the map of the North Sea with known mine areas marked, makes one wonder that any mariner dare sail. The Germans, English and Dutch all have been active in mine laying during the past few weeks, and as a result the sea is a veritable powder magazine."

The Germans are sending out motor boats to patrol the coast which they occupy. These patrol boats are also sowing mines, wherever they are likely to be useful. The motor boats were brought overland from the Baltic."

SEVERAL BOATS SUNK

GRIMSBY, England, via London, Oct. 30, 3.25 a.m.—The trawler Rosella struck a mine on the east coast Thursday afternoon and was sunk. Her captain and chief mate are missing. Eight survivors from her crew have been landed at Shields. The Ramsgate fishing boat, Ourton, struck mine Wednesday and went down immediately. A sister boat nearby cruised about in the vicinity for several hours in a vain search for the fishing boat's crew of three men. The Swedish lumber steamer Blanka was totally wrecked on a reef during an easterly gale last night near Rattray Head in Aberdeenshire, Scotland. The crew of seventeen were rescued by the life-savers. A whale killed by a mine, drifted ashore at Margate today.

HIS LIFE IN DANGER

OTTAWA, Oct. 29.—Owing to the numerous threats against his life, Malcolm Reid, immigration agent at Vancouver, who deported the Hindus on the Komagata Maru, has been transferred to Ottawa. His assistant, Hopkinson, and two others have been assassinated since the deportation.

BRIBE TO FRANCE TO DESERT ALLIES

Indirect Overtures Made to Influential Frenchmen Regarding Terms of Peace.

(By C. H. Ferris, Correspondent of The London Chronicle.)

PARIS, Oct. 30.—For combined audacity and trickiness nothing within my knowledge equals the attempt which the Kaiser, through his advisors and agents, has made during the last few days to separate France from her allies, and enable the German Government, while posing before the outer world and her own people as earnestly desirous for peace, to pursue the war with hopes of success at present non-existent.

Suing for Peace?

Briefly, information has been conveyed to certain influential Frenchmen, who were expected to act as intermediaries, that the German Imperial Government recognizes the quality of the stand made by the French armies, that she has never regarded France as her principal enemy in this struggle and is ready to make peace on terms not merely honorable but generous for the Republic. These terms would include the transfer to France of Metz and the neighboring portion of Lorraine and perhaps also of at least part of Alsace, Germany to retain Antwerp and part of northern Belgium.

I need say nothing of the spell-bound astonishment with which this proposition, brought, it is true, not through official, but through commercial and financial channels, yet with apparent authority, was listened to.

GEORGE ALBERT

MONTREAL, Oct. 29.—The announcement is made here that Madame Philippe Roy, wife of the Canadian commissioner-general in Paris, has given birth to a son, who has been christened George Albert, after the kings of England and Belgium.

WOMEN CAROUSING

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The army council and the commissioner of police are making an investigation into allegations that there has been a large increase in drunkenness among the women of London. According to the magistrates, many of the offenders are wives of soldiers on active service. It is stated officially that the police are considering issuing an order prohibiting saloons to serve any woman or to allow women to enter saloons.

A Child Doesn't Laugh and Play if Constipated

If Cross Feverish or Bilious Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, fall of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills, gives a reapportioned, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," cleansing, diarrhoea for babies, children of all ages and grow-ups are plainly on the bottle.

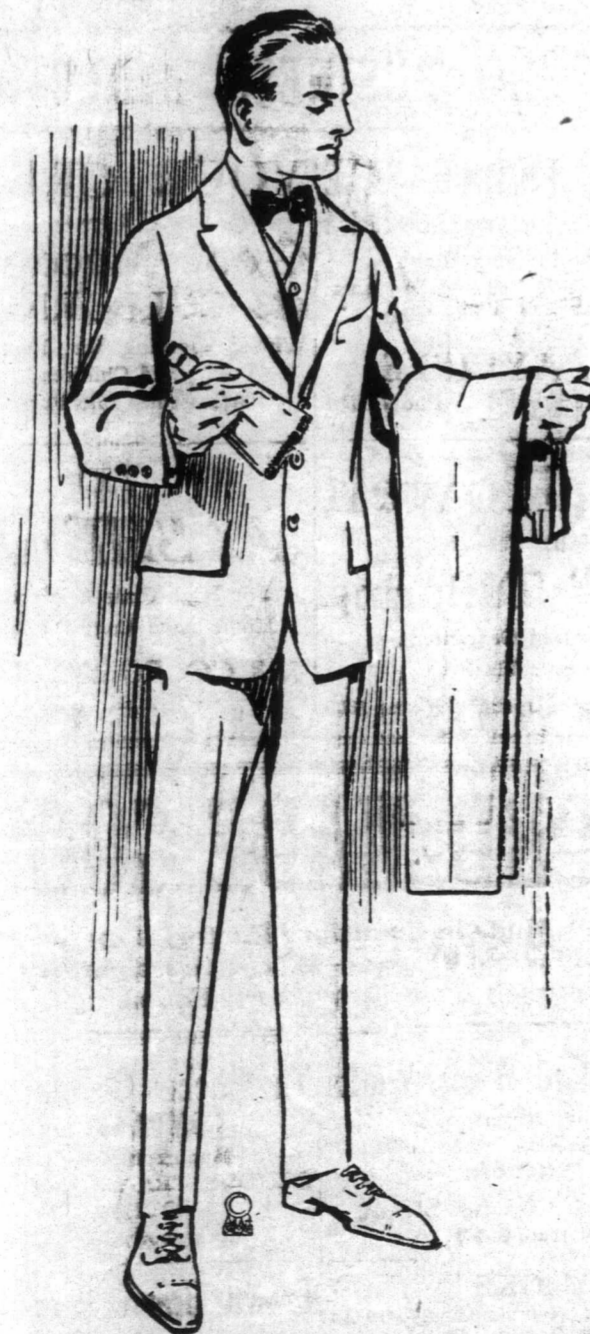

Keep it handy in your home. A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Sir Harry Johnston addressed a large audience in Toronto on the present war.

ANCIENT ART OF ANTWERP IS WONDERFUL

Priceless Works are Endangered by German Assault Upon the City.

The City of Antwerp, or Anvers as the French and Belgian French name it, the German name being Antwerpen. It is more than 1,300 years since the founding of Antwerp and it rapidly grew to be one of the most important seaports of Europe, with merchant princes rivaling those of Venice and Genoa. For hundreds of years, with occasional checks by reason of wars, it has been the principal seaport of all that region of Europe.

thousands of vessels arriving and departing every year. It suffered greatly in the old days of Spain's dominance. It was devastated by the Duke of Parma and the desolation was more pronounced when Belgium was invaded by the Duke of Alva, the fiend of the Inquisition, and who boasted that his executions numbered more than the soldiers killed in the whole history of the city is blood curdling up to the time of Napoleon, and it is a curious fact that Napoleon recognizing the splendid possibilities of the wondrous harbour, restored docks and quays and did much to revive the old glory of Antwerp. Again in 1874 the city had differences with the Belgian government which almost amounted to war, and the citadel, 300 years old, was blown up in the presence of King Leopold II.

If, however, the great city of the present, more than 300,000 in population, the capital of the Province of Antwerp with a population of around 1,000,000, is to have the fate of Liege, Louvain and other cities, the commercial paralysis will concern the world less than the sentimental contemplation of the loss of grand religious and other edifices of priceless and unique Musse Plantin-Moretus, an ancient printing house, the most notable in Europe in its day, producing wonderful works of art from the types.

Examples of these, impossible to reproduce, are preserved by the hundreds in this museum which is in the original house where Plantin amazed the then civilized world with his productions. Not only these, but some of the most precious paintings of the Flemish and Dutch masters, such as Rubens, Rembrandt, Van der Weyden, Steen, Hals, Matsys, Teniers, Van Dyck and Jordaens, are on the walls of the house, which in itself is one of the most interesting memorials of Europe. Rubens, Teniers and Van Dyck lived in Antwerp and have monuments there, and Jordaens, Matsys and other of the famed Flemish artists had their homes in Antwerp.

The Gothic cathedral, begun in 1352 and not finished until 1592, one of the towers unfinished in this day, as has happened to many of the ancient religious edifices, is one of the finest in Europe, its finished tower being more than 400 feet in height and holding a chime of bells incomparable for their sweet musical qualities.

AEROPLANE MURDER

LONDON, Oct. 30.—3.20 a.m.—Two German aeroplanes on Wednesday dropped two bombs at Bethune, France, according to the correspondent of the Daily Mail in Northern France. The first failed to explode but the second, which fell among market women, killed nineteen of them and injured forty others. Two bombs were also dropped at Dunkirk on the same day from a taube machine 9,000 feet up in the air. A woman and child were killed, and all the windows in the neighbourhood were smashed. The women of the town are terrified.

The Dominion Government is negotiating with St. Thomas citizens for 500 acres of land to cut up into ten acre plots on which to place Belgian refugees.

CLOSE NORTH SEA

Prevalence of Mines Has Become a Very Alarming Matter.

LONDON, Oct. 30, 9.41 a.m.—The newspapers continue to urge upon the Admiralty the desirability of the entire closing of the North Sea in order to prevent the alleged action of the Germans in sending out mine-layers in the guise of peaceful neutral vessels. In this connection the Times says: "We refer again to the disquieting discovery of mines on the main route between Liverpool and America. There is an increasing conviction that this danger will continue to grow and that the only remedy is the closing of the North Sea to neutral maritime traffic."

"The flags of neutrals have been persistently abused and we can take no risks with the fortunes of the empire and the race at stake."

SANK SUBMARINE

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The Daily Mail's correspondent on the allies left wing, reports that a German submarine boat which attacked the British Battleship Venerable off the Belgian coast, has been sunk.

Would Mean War on Turks By the Allies

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 30.—In anticipation of the possible invasion of Egyptian territory, British Ambassador Mallet, acting under instructions from his government, has plainly informed the grand vizier that if the Turks cross the frontier, it would mean war with the entente powers. It is understood that the embassies of the allied powers, fearing a rupture, have already made the necessary arrangements for the departure of the diplomatic representatives.

IRELAND IN THIS WAR

TO A FINISH
"The whole heart of Ireland which for years has been unsympathetic to Imperial aspirations is in this war to a finish."

Thus, Timothy Healy independent Nationalist member in the British House of Commons, sums up Ireland's attitude towards the war. "Ireland as well as in Canada or any other country," Mr. Healy went on "but the overwhelming majority of the Irish people both north and south are supporting Great Britain in the most enthusiastic fashion. We are not only combatting the Prussian military system, but we are supporting the English Government, which was forced into this war by the German Emperor and his advisers."

"The members of the Asquith ministry," said Mr. Healy, "were opposed to war, and did their best to avoid it. Nothing could be further from the truth than the statements made on this side of the Atlantic by Germans that England had forced Germany into war."

"The people on the other side," Mr. Healy added, "are delighted and grateful for the help that is now being sent over from the Dominion of Canada in view of the common danger. Not only are British people glad to see Canadian troops going over to help fight the Germans, but also for the other contributions that she is sending."

NO NAVAL RECRUITS NEEDED

Great Britain, it was announced, would release the American copper cargoes detained at Gibraltar.

WAR BRINGS RUIN TO FAMOUS MUSICIANS

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 30.—The war has ruined many of the world's famous musicians. Ferruccio Busoni, the pianist, who has often played before American audiences, and has a large following there, has had to cancel a $50,000 tour. Leopold Godowsky, the Polish pianist, whose home was in Chicago for six years, has fled penniless from his castle near Brussels. Disenberger, the famous teacher, is playing for $15 a month in a Berlin restaurant. Joseph Weiss, another noted German pianist, is playing at a third class cafe. Ignatz Friedmann has cancelled a tour guaranteed to net $37,000 and is going to Italy. Zador, the baritone, who made $75,000 in the United States last year, is almost the only one whose money is safely invested.

AUSTRIAN OFFICER

Claim Made That Over 70 Prisoners Are Being Held.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Amsterdam correspondent of Reuters Telegram Company, has forwarded the following Austrian official statement given out in Vienna Friday noon:
"There was no fighting yesterday in Russian Poland.
"On the Lower San (Gallic) strong hostile forces, which crossed the river, south of Nisko, were repulsed after severe fighting. Near Stary and Sambor our army has blown up a Russian ammunition depot. All hostile attacks on the heights west of Stary and Sambor have been repulsed. In the district, northeast of Tur our attacking troops occupied several important positions, heights which the enemy was forced to evacuate precipitately. Our landsturm captured numerous prisoners in these engagements."
"The total number of prisoners interned in Austria-Hungary, October 28 was 649 officers, 7,179 men, not including the prisoners taken in the battles last week."

Richard Taylor, an English rooming in Toronto, died in the night some time after he was set with illness.
