On 279 Special Trains, C. G. Railways

Up to March 1st 757,400 Troops have travelled over Government Railways.

Thousands arrive each week at Halifax and are sent forward to Dispersal Areas.

Since the war began in 1914 up to March 1st, when S.S. Belgic disembarked her returned soldier passengers at Halifax 757,400 troops have been carried on special trains over the Canadian Government Railways.

The first train which carried troops over the Government Railways the year the war was declared was numbered one and all special troop trains to and from Halifax since that time have been numbered consecutively. The last train from the Belgic on Saturday was No. 1279. Each train averages about twelve cars with an average of 50 men to a car, which figures up a total of 767,400 men carried. Of course in addition to this thousands of soldiers have journeyed between Montreal and Halifax by regular trains during the past four years.

The movement of troops back to Canada is now approaching its greatest activity. Last Sunday 5000 arrived at Halifax by the transports Lapland and Belgic and fifteen special trains were despatched westward inside of fourteen hours.

S. S. Megantic with soldiers and dependents arrived Wednesday and S.S. Adriatic is due Sunday. The movement of returning men is to be kept up actively all summer.

The process of disembarkation at Halifax is being carried on without a hitch, and there is a fine system of co-operation between the Military and the Railway officials.

MacLELLAN BROS.

To Recreate Louvain

It was on August 26th, 1914, that the main buildings of the ancient University of Louvain were burned to the ground, and its great library destroyed. Three hundred thousand volumes, 1,000 manuscripts, nearly as many incunabula, an incomparable collection of portraits and medals, all were consumed; and of the historic walls which sheltered them only fragments remain. To restore them, to recreate these collections—so far as the material is possible—by procuring them, and to furnish the University with the means of renewing and amplifying its life and activities are the objects of an appeal which has been made in the United Kingdom. Among the English members of the committee are the Duke of Connaught, Cardinal Bourne, Viscount Bryce and other prominent personages. Its warrant is in the universal indignation which the acts of destruction evoked, but also in the offers of practical assistance which followed. These led to the formation of an International Committee in various countries (twenty-one in all) from which expressions of sympathy have been received. The actual appeal was necessarily deferred until the conclusion of the war. The time for it has now arrived, and it should be prompt, vigorous and confident—prompt, because the needs of the University are urgent; vigorous because they are great; and confident, because the cause is one upon which all men can unite who have any regard for history, for tradition, for the things of the spirit, and who would reprobate the wanton destruction, even in war, of the innocent institutions which preserve and foster them. And in proportion as the contributions are general, this reprobation will serve a larger purpose. It will express the community of interest and of ideal among men of learning and of true culture everywhere, that community which regards certain things—monuments, museums, libraries, institutions of learning—as of concern not merely to their immediate owners, but to the entire world of learning and culture, which deems their continuity indispensable to human progress and which insists, therefore, that they shall be inviolate, even in war.

Louvain in itself presents claims upon the gratitude of civilization which are quite its own; claims due to the part it has played, the services it has rendered in the preparation and advance of religion and of knowledge. It was among the earliest to flower in the breath of the Renaissance. It was here that Vesale discovered anatomy, and Lipsius taught philology. Its long career presents a continuous and consistent devotion to scholarship, to research, and to the enrichment of learning. It will be a tribute also to that noble people whose history it has shared, and whose dignity, whose heroism, and whose sorrows have gained the admiration of the world. It will be a token of that fraternity which, irrespective of race or nationality, binds men in the fellowship of science, of art, of decency, and of humanity. And it will be a lasting rebuke and warning to those who assume that even war is wholly outside the law, that treaties may be ignored, and that the things which preserve and foster the human spirit can be destroyed with impunity! It is with confidence born of these considerations that the committee urges this appeal, with the hope that the response will join with that of many others to raise Louvain from her ashes, enable her to resume her interrupted activities, and create in her a lasting memorial of the common conscience and true fellowship of mankind.

In connection with Louvain, friends of the University will not be likely to forget the work of the governors of the Rylands Library at Manchester. Almost before the ashes of Louvain were cold, they set to work collecting books for the day when the library could be rebuilt, and for

New Guinea and Its Difficulties

Since 1914 many of the islands of the Pacific have existed in a state of almost complete isolation, and the priests would have starved but for their plantations and live stock.

From Tarule, East New Guinea, Father Andrew Puff, S.V.D., writes:

"We are here very distant from Europe, living in a savage wilderness in the midst of poor tribes in a state of nature, unknown to the great world. We cannot exhibit extraordinary success and numerous harvest which could attract the attention of men; the hearts of our natives are too stony, the field of cultivation is too fertile. We are satisfied that our Heavenly Father knows us and our work, and takes care of us. On account of the terrible war, we were more forgotten by the world than ever before."

"Burdened with many debts, we continued our work with confidence in God. The mission possesses plantations and live stock, from which we get now our sustenance. But the expenses are increasing every year, and we wish to pay a part of the enormous debts. If our work is blessed, we can help ourselves in favor of other missions after some years. Now, too, we wish to come only after other missions which are in a more precarious situation. But we ask a little help in order to diminish our debts."

"We are looking with special confidence from this distant Pacific island to the United States. From the States is coming much help to Protestant missions. Intentions for Missions would help us very much."

"Now, then! Line up alphabetically for pay," said the sergeant.

"What's your name, my lad?"
"Phillips, sir."
"Well, what yer doing down here? Get back with the F's at library could be rebuilt, and for

ARE YOUR BOWELS Constipated?

If So, Watch Your Health.

Unless one has a free action of the bowels, at least once a day, constipation is sure to ensue and it is one of the ills that cause more ill-health than any other trouble of the human system.

Keep your bowels regular by using Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills and you won't be troubled with your stomach; you will have no sick or bilious headaches, no wind, no gas, no heartburn, water brash, catarrh of the stomach, floating stools before the eyes, and everything will not turn black and make you feel as if you were going to faint.

Mrs. Gower, 1416 Morrisburg, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled for years with constipation. I tried many remedies but to no avail. I used four pills and am completely cured. I can gladly recommend them to every one who suffers from constipation."

Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills are 25 cents a trial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Native Chiefs Help Cathedral

Mgr. Stretcher, Vicar Apostolic of Uganda, acknowledges some unexpected help in the building of the new Cathedral at Rubaga.

"When the war broke out the lack of funds put on a definite stop to the building, the foundations of which had been scarcely laid. This year our Catholic chiefs resolved to undertake the work at their own expense. The subscription which they opened has yielded 13,450 rupees ($4,740). This amount appears quite modest, no doubt, when compared with the $54,400 collected by the Bagnada Protestants for the construction of the temple which rears itself on the crest of Naminembu, facing Rubaga; but these $4,400 have the advantage of being a voluntary offering, an alms of the heart."

HAD BOILS

All Over Back, Legs and Body For 39 Months.

Ex-Gar. F. Plumridge, 156 Curzon St., Toronto, Ont., writes—"I am writing these few lines to let you know how wonderful is the effect of Burdock Blood Bitters. For thirty-nine months, over and over, I had boils all over my back, legs and body, in fact I was simply covered with them. I tried several different remedies, and while in France had medicines sent from England, but all to no avail.

"On reaching Canada, July 12th, 1918, I was told to try your B. B. B. and on taking six bottles I had not even a boil left.

"The only way to rid yourself of boils, pimples and all skin blotches and blemishes, so that they will never return to bother you again, is to have the blood thoroughly cleansed of all of its impurities, and there is no remedy on the market to-day to equal Burdock Blood Bitters.

"This old and reliable preparation has been on the market for the past 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

Bishop McNally's Sermon

totally denounce as superstition the fact that God's believing servants cherish souvenirs or relics of the saints heroes of the spiritual life.

No, there is abundant justification for all the richness we can employ in the exterior worship of our God. Beauty and taste are necessary ingredients from the idea of an acceptable church. Beauty and intrinsic worth are a part of the sacrifice of obligation offered out before God, in duty to His creatures, and also, in duty to the human soul, reminding it of its own greatness, made as it is in His image, and for eternal bliss.

In fact, the artist and inspirator of all artistic beauty in every age and every has been the standards of worship, the serving of God. The Catholic church has been in all the years of her freedom the mother and patron of art in every form: architecture, sculpture, painting, music, the greatest results in all of these have had their birth within and by means of the church, and are the outcome and spontaneous growth of Catholic worship, both in ideal conception and in material execution.

Witness as proof the great cathedrals in Italy alone, of Milan, Venice, Florence, Siena, Rome, with hundreds of churches but little behind them in wealth of artistic beauty, to say nothing of the magnificent shrines which Catholic devotion has raised in countries further removed from the church's central authority.

Built for worship, and made beautiful with all the treasures that might be lavished by generous hearts and devoted hands, such sanctuaries are in very truth a Gate of Heaven, where man and the invisible saints and angels meet and adore the awful presence of God.

By divine command, as witness God's own description of the sanctuary referred to in our text, as well as by all the higher impulses of our nature, we are told to render unto Him of our best, to give Him freely of our treasure and our riches. He does not care for that which is inferior and secondary. "Our best is more nor bears His test, but let it be our very best." Can we then offer Him less? And of our best be intrinsically poor, the pains and sacrifices incurred to give beauty to what we offer to God confers upon it a value in His sight that cannot be estimated by worldly standards.

The incentive to such labor and generous effort comes from our sense of His presence that, in the tabernacle prepared for God's own presence to dwell, there daily in presence of angels and saints are celebrated the mysteries of the Catholic faith, should be brought only the choicest we can afford. So the church's architecture and decorations should be made as far as possible worthy of her glorious history, and of her fame as mother and guardian of the arts as a necessary adjunct of her purpose and her work.

And not only to make our church buildings worthy tabernacles of the living God, and visible manifestations of the church's nobility and primacy, we put forth our highest efforts in their construction, but also to make them serve as faithful agents through the ministry of their thought and imagination busy; of the divine teaching commission of God's universal and unending faith. We can teach by means of the eye sometimes more effectively than by means of the ear, the church has been a great, silent, irresistible agency for the salutary influencing of the souls of men through the ministry of exalted art, lifting her people out of the material world, with all its narrowing solitudes, agencies, to the splendour of the infinite God.

So a church, such as the new one whose dedication we rejoice today, is calculated to be not only an honor to our God, and a cherished home for every loyal heart within its reach, but also a perpetual education and incentive to higher things to young and old.

Under the direction of Rev. Father Callaghan the Mass of St. Cecil by L. Abbe Cheron was sung. Ecco Sacros Magnus being rendered as an introduction. The boys' choir, sing the closing hymn Salve Regina. Miss Bessie Blanchard was the organist.

With the dedicatory services at the Cathedral completed, a dinner in honor of the Papal Nuncio and visiting Prelates and clergy was held at St. Joseph's Convent.

Blessing of Dalton Hall.

On Thursday morning, Sept. 25th, another important epoch in the annals of Catholicity in this Province was marked by the formal blessing of Dalton Hall by His Excellency, the Apostolic Delegate. This important addition to the equipment of St. Dunstan's University is made through the munificence of Prince Edward Island's most generous public benefactor, Sir Charles Dalton. It is a substantial brick structure with accommodation for a hundred students, and is fitted up with all requisites for their comfort.

A sermon appropriate to the occasion was delivered by His Lordship Bishop Morrison of Antigonish, replete with the erudition so characteristic of this great Canadian Prelate, and abounding in salutary advice regarding the absolute necessity of sound Catholic education, such as made possible through such admirable institutions as St. Dunstan's. During the ceremony of blessing His Excellency was attended by the Rector, Rev. Gregory J. McLaughlin, and Rev. Dr. McPherson of St. Francis Xavier's, Antigonish.

On Friday afternoon the Apostolic Delegate, accompanied by the visiting Prelates and His Lordship Bishop O'Leary, motored to Vernon River, where they were warmly received by pastor and people, an address of welcome being read by the parish priest, Rev. P. D. McGuigan. His Excellency and suite left on return to Ottawa Saturday morning.

In the course of the discussion in the Chamber of Deputies, Paris, on the 24th on the peace treaty, Foreign Minister Pichon upheld the right of the British dominions to membership in the League of Nations. He declared France had no colony comparable with the British Dominions, which had raised nearly three million men during the war.

It seems as if Holland were to become the dumping ground for all of Germany's royal exiles, says a Rotterdam dispatch to the Daily Telegraph. The Duke of Brunswick has bought a house at The Hague in one of the best parts of the town. It is said that the ex-Kaiser will take up residence in the house he purchased at Doorn after the new year, and that 50 railway wagons will come from Germany with materials to furnish the house.

A general Provincial election will be held in Ontario on October 20th. The date of the last Ontario general election was June 19, 1914. The parties stood after the votes were counted: Conservatives 84; Liberals, 25; Independent Liberals, 1; Labor 1. The standing of the parties at dissolution of the Legislature is: Conservatives, 78; Liberals, 39; United Farmers, 2; Labor, 3; vacant seats, 2.

To Prevent Unemployment

Next year will be well advanced before Canada's main expenditures for war can be completed. Every dollar that can be raised for the Victory Loan 1919 will be required.

Although hostilities ceased in 1918 the war expenses went on. This is just as much a war year as last year was, as far as the money is concerned. Proving liabilities incurred by the war and involving vast sums of money have to be cared for. The simplest and most profitable manner in which this can be done is for the people to provide the money themselves.

The Victory Loan 1919 is entitled to just as much consideration as was given to its predecessors. It is up to every loyal Canadian to do his utmost to make the new loan an overwhelming success. The continuance of the prosperity of the nation is wholly dependent upon it.

It was naturally to be expected that trade depression in the Dominion would have followed the armistice, but this was averted by the application of a large proportion of the last Victory Loan as credits to Great Britain and our Allies for grain, dairy produce, fish, lumber and ships. These credits were absolutely necessary, and strictly good business. They must be continued. They are national re-investments. The debts will be paid eventually and in the meantime industrial and agricultural workers will be kept in busy and lucrative employment.

Notice of Sale

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and endorsed on the envelope "Tender for Lobster Hatcheries," will be received up to noon on Tuesday, the 23rd day of September, 1919, for the purchase of the Government Lobster Hatcheries at: Arichat, N.S.; Bay View, Pictou County, N.S.; Inverness, Margaree Harbor, N.S.; Innes Harbor, Guysborough County, N.S.; Little Bras, P.E.I.; Point, N.S.; Charlottetown, P.E.I.; Georgetown, P.E.I.; Baetouche, Baetouche Harbour, N.B.; Shegogue, Westmorland County, N.B.; Port Daniel, Que.

Alternative tenders will be considered for—

(a) The whole of each including the land, building or buildings and plant on the premises.

(b) The land only.

(c) The building or buildings only.

(d) The plant only, wholly, or in part.

All of the buildings are single storey and constructed of wood throughout, and are capable of being readily removed intact.

The several properties are open at all times to inspection, upon application to the Caretaker, who may be located readily in the immediate vicinity.

The rules and ethics of the exchange do not permit us sending out alluring price lists, yet we give you an exact and expert grading and pay you at a rate of five to twenty-five cents more on the dollar than the average advertising fur company, as we cut out all middleman's profit in dealing direct with you.

Forward, CANADA!

THROUGH sacrifice, Canada has gained the respect and admiration of all people.

The years of War that deprived Canada of so many of her bravest sons, have given her greater self-reliance and wider vision. The world has come to expect great things of Canada.

Our army has set us the highest example — to persevere and to succeed.

Canada has the fundamentals of success—strong, virile men, resolute and devoted women, and unbounded resources. In the readjustment of Canada's affairs, as in the affairs of the world, money plays a leading part.

The transition from War to Peace is long, tedious, costly; it takes money, time and effort to beat swords into plowshares. Men cannot drop their arms and return immediately to their former occupations.

War has left Canada a heritage of obligations.

War has left Canada—and the world—face to face with problems that are new and gigantic.

Money is required to discharge these obligations and to solve these problems.

Canada therefore is about to ask her citizens once more to lend their money to enable her to fulfil her obligations to her soldiers and to maintain the country in prosperity.

Canada can, if Canada will, march straight on to her glorious destiny.

During the hot summer months, the stomach is more susceptible to disease than at any other time of the year.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is exactly the remedy you need, and by using it you are not taking any chances to endanger your health as it has been on the market for the past 74 years.

Zealous Laymen Spread Faith

A work of truly apostolic character is being pursued in the Diocese of Pittsburg by a body of laymen, founded by the Apostolic Fathers of the Diocese, and known as the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Heart and Nerves So Bad Walked Floor All Night.

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long, instead of being sick and wretched.

CONSUMPTION

In the cure of consumption, concentrated, easily digested nourishment is necessary.

Scott's Emulsion has been the standard, world-wide treatment for consumption.

Your Soldier Boy Wants HICKEY'S TWIST

No matter where he is, or what other tobacco he can get, the Island soldier who chews tobacco is never satisfied with anything but HICKEY'S TWIST.

In hundreds of letters from the boys in Flanders, France, England and the training camps, they ask for HICKEY'S TWIST—and the 105th took along 20,000 figs with them.

Send your soldier boy a pound of HICKEY'S with the next parcel.

Announcement

For the information of our many patrons, in both town and country, we deem it necessary to announce that the Coal Business, successfully carried on in the past by the late Mr. Charles Lyons, will be continued by the Estate, under the old firm name of C. Lyons & Co.

By maintaining a high standard of service and by courteous and honest treatment of the public, this firm has, for a period of more than a quarter of a century, enjoyed a large and ever-increasing patronage; and in announcing our intention of "carrying on," we desire, most earnestly, to give expression to our appreciation thereof. We are deeply grateful to the firm's many patrons for their constant manifestation of confidence in it in the past, and we assure them that if they favor us with a similar evidence of their good-will in future there shall be no economy of effort on our part to make our intercourse both pleasant and profitable to them.

As we possess almost unlimited facilities for supplying the coal trade, and as we are desirous of extending our already large business, we respectfully invite the patronage of new customers; and if we succeed in thus increasing our present connection, we guarantee that we shall be indefatigable in our endeavor to justify the confidence of our new friends. We again thank our patrons for their past generous patronage, and respectfully solicit a renewal of their esteemed custom.

OPERATING ONE HOUR EARLIER

Important Daylight Saving Change of Time at 2 a.m. Sunday, March 30, 1919

All clocks and watches used in operation of Canadian National Railway will at 2 a. m. Sunday, March 30th, be advanced one hour. To prevent serious confusion and inconvenience to the public the attention of all concerned is directed to the following conditions resulting from the important change of time:

If cities, towns, villages and other municipal bodies do not change their local time to correspond with the new Railway time, all concerned should keep in mind that while trains continue to leave Railway Stations on present schedule, such schedule will be operated one hour ahead of present local time. Therefore any municipality where local time is not changed to correspond with the new Railway time, passengers must reach Railway Station ONE HOUR EARLIER than shown in current folders and public time posters.

Where municipal time is changed to correspond with the new Railway time, passengers will not experience difficulty growing out of the change.
