TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 27, 1888.

Persons leaving town for the season, and summer travelers, can have their World mailed to them for 25 cents per month, the address being changed as often as desired.

THEY MUST ACCEPT THE RESULT.

There are still a number of journals claiming to be liberal who will not accept the N.P. verdict.

They have no particular reason to defend Sir John Macdonald but they object to such a misstatement of facts as our contemporary has made in the above.

Nothing is to be more carefully avoided by Canadians than the political assessments made on the civil servants in the United States.

NOT ON THE RIGHT TRACK.

Actuated by the same spirit a grand rebuke has also just been administered to the party attempting to loosen the ties binding us to the independence of the country.

We see by the Montreal Gazette that the finance committee of the Montreal corporation on Wednesday last came to the conclusion that they have no legal power to aid the school commissioners in the money difficulties in which extravagance in building and other expenses has involved them.

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN

MORE INFORMATION WANTED ABOUT THE BUREAU.

The Lumber Deal—Coolman Road—Ald. Hallam's Free Library—several to be inspected.

Ald. Adams presented at the council last night in the absence of Mayor McMurich.

Communications were received from (1) Nolleitor McWilliams showing the different contracts entered into by the corporation from June 6 to 20 inclusive, (2) Robert Haughey, agent Canadian rubber company asking why the purchase of Eureka hose recommended by the fire and gas committee, had been referred back to that committee.

Petitions were received from (1) R. Walker & Sons asking for some better system for watering King street and avoid the large amount of dust in that quarter, (2) J. H. McWilliams asking for a water main in the north end of River street, (3) William Reunie for erection of a large building on the corner of R. Younger and others for the establishment of a free library, (4) William Irving and others against the construction of a cedar block in the western part of the city.

The report of the executive committee for the week was taken up. In the report of committee on works it was recommended that 200,000 feet of lumber be purchased for the western part of the city. Several aldermen thought the western part of the city was being dealt with in a partial manner and one or two thought it "ward grabbing."

Ald. Bowtell thought a sidewalk should be put down on the island from Hanlan's to the light house.

Ald. Farley would oppose this as the streets of the city should be put in repair before that on the island.

The recommendation of the committee was adopted after some further discussion.

The committee on fire and gas had advertised for tenders for hose and recommended that 850 feet of Eureka hose at $1.08 per foot, and 550 feet of the Baker 3-ply at 98 cents per foot be purchased. When it came before the executive committee they recommended that it should be referred back to the aldermen for their consideration, as an explanation as to why they took two descriptions of hose, supposed to be of the same class and pay ten cents a foot for one more than the other.

Ald. Farley gave a description of the different samples of hose presented and was sure the Eureka was the better class of the two. He said that it is referred back to the fire and gas committee for further information, and in the meantime they could submit them to a proper test. The Baker hose was supposed to be of the same class as the Eureka hose.

Ald. Adams explained that in 1878 they got 1600 feet of Eureka hose and they had 1500 feet left.

Ald. Shepherd wished to know what grounds the executive committee referred the report of the fire and gas committee back to. The latter committee had come to the interests of the city.

Ald. Hallam, who had some experience in buying hose, recommended that the Eureka hose was as good as the Baker. Ald. Farley thought it was his right that they should take the Baker hose as an experiment.

Ald. Adams then explained that only fifty feet of the Eureka hose was in the city and that was buried in the city center.

Ald. Turner pressed his motion to have it referred back, which was concurred in.

Ald. Adams presented a resolution that the waterworks committee recommend the appointment of W. N. Bacon in the place of James Crane, resigned. About a year before Bacon was employed in the department at indoor work, owing to ill health was forced to resign.

Ald. Duff thought the proceeding in the case of Mr. Duff should be referred to the committee and was concurred in.

Ald. Adams presented a resolution that the waterworks committee recommend the appointment of W. N. Bacon in the place of James Crane, resigned. About a year before Bacon was employed in the department at indoor work, owing to ill health was forced to resign.

ROYAL OPERA HOUSE.

John T. Hinds in the Irish Drama The Shaughaun.

Last evening the Shaughaun was the attraction at this theatre, John T. Hinds and Miss Irvan Lorraine sustaining the leading roles. It is as its name indicates an Irish drama opening in the troublous days of '98.

The play, although by no means devoid of the stereotypical of the Irishman, contains a good deal of original characteristics.

Con. McCarthy (the Shaughaun) gets of course into trouble and has to "bail" the country on account of his reasonable proclivities, leaving his wife and infant daughter behind him.

After eighteen years he returns, disguised as a beggar, in search of his family, and a certain Sir Roger Delacy (Frank A. Dou) who finds out who he really is, obliges him to personate the father of a young lady who is supposed to be the daughter of Lord Lismore, but who he Delacy listening to a private conversation between his lordship and one Redmond O'Hara, the prospective husband of the young lady, discovers that she is only an adopted child.

Lady Lismore's daughter dying at childbirth, the fraud being perpetrated to save the lady's life, Delacy, having squandered his patrimony, is desirous of marrying the heiress, Marie Lismore, in order to get her fortune, and thereafter the Shaughaun with the girl as his daughter. The Shaughaun, after much contention and consumption of whisky, consents. The girl turns out to be really his daughter. She marries O'Hara, and after many thrilling adventures she is happily married. There was very fine house, considering the warm temperature. The play played the audience immensely. The Shaughaun will hold the boards during the week.

LORETO CONVENT.

Midsummer Examinations and Presentation of Prizes Yesterday.

The midsummer examinations at Loreto convent took place in the drawing room of that institution yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance of the friends and relatives of the pupils, and the different rooms of the convent were tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers.

A program of music was given through by the young lady pupils, and Miss Francis Brown read an address on the occasion. This young lady took over a dozen first prizes, the largest number taken by any one pupil. Among the other successful pupils were the Misses Pape, Sullivan, McGinn, Mooney, Shillis, Mauler, McGill, Rogers, Foley, Hall, Nolan, Fenner, O'Connor and Vanderhorst.

The clergy present were His Lordship Bishop O'Mahony, Vicar-Generals Lurant and Rooney, Chancellor McGinn, and Rev. Father in St. Patrick's. The prizes were presented by Bishop O'Mahony and Vicar-Generals Lurant and Rooney.

BRIGOLI-KELLOGG CONCERTS.

A large gathering but not an artistic success.

A large and fashionable audience was attracted to Horticultural gardens last evening by the grand concert company, the leading artists being Miss Fannie Kellogg and Signor Brigoli. The latter soloist was not by any means up to his mark being his voice worse than when here before.

Miss Kellogg sang with a good deal of expression and was heartily received in rendering Roda's air with variations. The pianist, Sig. Genaro, was the worst we have heard in public for some time. His accompaniments in some places being very bad. Miss Pape sang with taste.

Three Madis Lee, the accompanist, was not apparently familiar with the ballad and made some horrible errors.

Excusing Grangers.

To-day there will be an excursion of grangers to the Agricultural college at Guelph. The party will include residents in portions of the three counties of Grey, Simcoe and York.

A Word for the Old Gentleman.

THE CRIMINALS.

Webb and Miller Found Guilty of the Robbery in the Jewelry Store.

The trial of Chas. Webb and James Miller charged with the larceny of $800 in money and checks from the jewelry store of Messrs Lee & Chillas, Wellington street, on May 23 last, lasted from the opening of the assize court yesterday morning until 9 p.m.

Judge Cameron was on the bench. E. Irving, Q. C., appeared for the crown and Dalton McCarthy, Q. C., and Nicholas Murphy defended the prisoners. Chas. Wilson the third man in the case, deposited $500 with the sheriff a couple of weeks ago and was released on receipt of the money.

He did not show up yesterday when called on and his bail was ordered forfeited. The particulars of this robbery have been fully reported in The World before.

The evidence against the prisoners was very straight and the Canadian money found in their possession was identified by the members of the firm robbed and more particularly a $20 on the Ontario bank. A verdict of guilty was returned by the jury. Mr. Murphy asked for a suspension of sentence for a few days in order that he might be able to charter a motor car and take the prisoners claim to residence. Judge Cameron granted the motion and said he was anxious to give prisoners every opportunity to produce evidence as to previous character.

On Miller when arrested $250 in money was found on Wilson $75 and on Webb $408. Of the $250 in Miller's possession $176 was in Canadian money. The firm who were robbed had already entered a civil action against prisoners for recovery of the money, which had been referred from Oregoo hall to the assize, Judge Cameron said he would not make an order as to the money until the sentence was passed. With regard to the other money, he did not say why it should be returned to prisoners. In the meantime Detective Reburn remains in possession of the wealth.

Mr. N. Murphy telegraphed to New York last night to the friends of Webb and Miller to forward the affidavits as soon as possible.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Her European trip.

Mr. Acheson got the whites.

And nothing will improve.

Yorville council did not meet last night.

William street, Yorville, is being cedar-blocked.

The city council last night fixed Aug. 14 as the city holiday.

Flower show at Horticultural gardens to-morrow and Thursday.

John Boyd of Yorville has been awarded the contract for building all the bridges, culverts and drains along the line from Peterborough to Onenome.

Samuel K. Champion was arrested by Detective Brown yesterday on a charge of stealing a coat and chain from Joseph Dunn, a milk-dealer.

The bad boys of the city are still after the slippery elm bark from the shade trees of the city.

A smile in court: At the assize yesterday Dalton Murphy Hester, a mammoth-looking red leather pocket-book found on the person of a prisoner to the ones usually carried by M. P.'s.

MR. REYNOLDS HAS BEEN UNJUSTLY DEALT WITH.

Last night a woman named Jane Clark was arrested for violently assaulting Mary Ann Healy at 68 Leonard street.

James Riorlan, a brother of John Riorlan of the Mall, died at St. Louis Saturday. His remains will be brought to Toronto for interment.

The Dan Mills Primitive Methodist Sunday school anniversary services were held on Sunday. Rev. Thomas Lewis and Rev. H. Morris conducted the services.

The annual picnic takes place to-morrow. The assize court sat till 9:30 last night. In flushing a case Judge Cameron told the jury that he was in their personal opinion, he kept them so long.

The trial was a case of felony, and had it not been finished that he was allowed them to separate.

Rev. Hugh Johnson formerly of St. James street Methodist church, Montreal, preached his inaugural sermon at the Metropolitan church on Sunday.

In the surrogate court yesterday Judge Mackenzie heard evidence in proof of the accuracy of the accounts of the estate of the late Mrs. E. R. Cook, who was administered by his son Robert and his mother Elizabeth, who gave evidence, together with his wife, of such account, the balance being $8908.86.

His honor told the administrator and administrators that he was authorized to grant them compensation out of the funds of the estate for their services, but they declined to receive anything.

WHAT HAS BECOME OF THEM?

Five Young Men Start out in a Yacht and are Seen No More.

About 1 o'clock on Sunday afternoon five well-dressed young men, from about 17 to 22 years of age, hired a yacht at Morris boat-house, foot of York street, and started on a cruise. They did not mention which way they intended to go. Up to 1 o'clock this morning nothing had been heard of them and fears are entertained for their safety.

Morris says that he does not know who they were, nor does he remember ever seeing them before. A World reporter last night from the residence of the late Mrs. Cook, who was administered by his son Robert and his mother Elizabeth, who gave evidence, together with his wife, of such account, the balance being $8908.86.

His honor told the administrator and administrators that he was authorized to grant them compensation out of the funds of the estate for their services, but they declined to receive anything.
