The Admiral was in imminent peril.
The steering gear of the Saikio-Maru was disabled by the explosion of one of the enemy's shells, and that vessel was obliged to drop out of the line. She was pursued by the Chinese, and forced to pass between the powerful Ting-Yuen and the Chen-Yuen, within a distance of Sometrees. The commanders of these vessels, thinking it was her intention to ram them, sheared off, leaving the packet room to escape. The Chinese discharged two fish torpedoes at her, but they were aimed too low and passed beneath her, doing no damage. Shortly after the missushima's forward quick-firing gun was struck by a shell, and many casualties resulted.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 27.—Congressman Ozee M. Hall, upon being renominated for Congress by the Third District Democrat's at South St. Paul yesterday afternoon, made an address in which he said: "The startling and scandalous disclosures connected with the opposition to the repeal of the Sherman law and the reform of the tariff made during the past year justify the developing of a demand for a reconstruction and a re-organization of the United States Senate. Between the Senate as it was in the early tween the Senate as it was in the early days of the Republic, and as it is now, the contrast is dark and humiliating. Unable and unwilling to disentangle itself from a code of rules, which in effect prevents the passage of any measure except by unanimous consent, it stands like the British House of Lords are investigating to all progress, the bulstands like the British House of Lords, an impediment to all progress, the bulwark of special privileges and existing wrongs, an almost insuperable obstacle to every honest effort. It is an un-American body, neither chosen by the people, responsible to the people, nor responsible to the people's will. Elections of United States Senators have become carnivals of legislative debauchery. So open and shameless have they become that many shameless have they become that many are of the opinion that the State prison ought to adjoin the State Capitol, with only the Grand Jury room as the connecting link between them."

CITY DEBT REDUCED $300,000

THIS GRATIFYING STATEMENT IS MADE BY MAYOR KENNEDY.

Ald. Shaw and Treasurer Coady Ban queted By City Officials-The Recent Sale of Toronto Bonds the Best Ever Made, But the Figure Obtained Not

The dinner given by the Mayor, alders men and chief city officials last night at Webb's restaurant to Ald. Shaw and Treasurer Coady in celebration of their safe return from England was a comfort able and interesting little gathering. There were present Ald. Atkinson

Thompson, Burns, Crane, Foster, Hube bard, Jolliffe, Macdonald, Allen, Hewitt, Hallam, Dunn, Frankland, Gowanlock, Bates, Murray, McMurrich, Crawford, Engineer Keating, Solicitor Caswell, Commissioner Chambers, Commissioner Coatsworth, Assisant Treasurer Patterson, Dr. Sheard, Inspector Awde, City Clerk Blevins and Auditors Anderson and Jones.

The Mayor, after cordially welcoming the two guests, gave a history of tha work of the City Council during the year, "Our policy," said he, "has been not to increase the debt unless the health of the citizens was involved, and we have been successful so far that if everything goes well the debt of the city on Jan. 1 next will have been reduced about $300,000, meeting the debentures that mature." He again referred to the necessity of prompt action in the matter of a pure water supply, and in regard to the unemployed he urged that some organization would have to be made to meet the demands of the coming winter.

Ald. Shaw's Reply. Hallam, Dunn, Frankland, Gowanlock, would have to be made to meet the designands of the coming winter.

Ald. Shaw's Reply.

The toast to Ald. Shaw and Treasurer Coady was drunk with musical honors.

Ald. Shaw in responding said he could not gather words suitable to return thanks to the Council, for he had received so many kindnesses during the past year at their hands. To deserve the good will of the Council he would have to redouble his efforts in the cause of the public.

When he was made chairman of the Executive Committee, went on the alderman, he felt most prood, and when their confidence was shown in him by sending him across the Atlantic to transact business for the city, he felt doubly bound to them. Perhaps the best thing he could do was to tell them that he believed they had succeeded well in what they had to do in the Old Gountry. They were entrusted with financial business, with matters connected with the welfare of the city, such as lighting and waterworks, and he was entrusted with the mission to the British Association. Describing his reception by the latter body, the alderman said he never desired more that the floor would open and swallow him up than when Sir Frederick Bromley said to the gathering: Alderman Shaw will now kindly extend the invitation of the city, of Toronto to the British Association. The audience treated him most courteously. The upshot of it was that the British Association would not make arrangements further ahead than two years, and meeting places for 1896 and 1897 had already been decided upon; but he believed that if Toronto again extended its invitation it would be accepted and the association would meet in this city, in 1897.

Excellent Financial Arrangements.

"Coming to the last important matter that we had to deal with, the financial business," continued the Chairman of the Executive Committee, "I believe we made an excellent arrangement. I have been going to call the Executive Committee together, but before doing so a wated to see Counsel Meredith on one of two points, so that everything might be clearly placed before the committee, and this is the reason of the delay in making known the terms of the arrangement. I expected Mr. Meredith to return to the city to-day. Had he done so a would have consulted him and made a statement to-night. The moment Mr. Meredith, comes home I will see him and immediately call a meeting of the Executive Committee.

"I think we have made a good arranges ment. Of course I am not a high-class financier, but considering the whole crecumstances, the condition of the money market and the discouragement we at first received, I think we have made an excellent hargain." (Amlause.) excellent bargain." (Applause.)

PLUMS IN CLOTHING.

The Clothing sold here is the reliable kind. Not a garment in the whole stock but what we'll be safe in recommending. Stylish young men can get "rigged" out here at about half what the goods would cost in the average ready-made clothing stores. It's worth while to note the prices for Saturday:

—Men's All-wool Tweed Suits, $4.75, were $7.50.

—Men's West of England Tweed Suits, $6.50, were $10.

—Men's West of England Tweed Suits, $8.25, were $12.50.

—Men's Frieze Ulsters at less than manual strength of the strength of th PLUMS IN CLOTHING. for $8, worth $15.

-Men's Fall Overcoats for $4, $5 and $6, worth $8, $10 and $12.

-Men's Frieze Ulsters at less than manufacturers' prices.

-Youths' All-wool Suits, from 30 to 35, for $4.50, cheap at $8.

-Boys' All-wool 5-piece Suit for $3,50, good value at $6.

-Children's 2-piece Suit, a variety of patterns to choose from, $1.50 to $2.90.

Glove and Hosiery Departments will be kept "ilvely" all day. Some "quick" prices for staple lines have been marked on the tickets. There's any amount of real "goodness" in qualities at "cheapness" of price. Not the trashy sort, you know — but qualities the same as when "better" prices were charged. tee yesterday afternoon by President Boswell and Secretary Harman.

The city has applied to the Government for the patent of all the Island water lots; the Yacht Club leases from the Government S1 acres of water lots; the club also leases 10 acres of land from the city, the lease of which runs out in seven years.

The Royal Canadian Yacht Club pays the city $50 a year for these 10 acres, and it is naturally afraid that when the lease expires the city will raise the rent. Now that the question of patent lots has arisen the club is auxious to use it as a means to the desired end, and commissioned its president and secretary to wait upon the Property Committee.

In effect this was ex-Mayor Boswell's proposition: Let the city renew our lease for the 10 acres for 21 years at the present rental—$50 per annum—and in return we will not oppose their efforts to obtain from the Government the patent for the water lots.

The proposal created much surarise among the committee. Ald Hubbard was among the commi the city, the lease of which runs out in seven years.

The proposal created much surprise among the committee. Ald. Hubbard was the first to speak. He said: "This suggestion that we renew the lease for 21 years at the same rental is something that I did not expect, even from Mr. Boswell. I know—many people in Toronto who would be willing to pay 10 times the rental."

Ald Stewart referred to the proposal

Finally, on the suggestion of Ald. Thompson, Ald. Stewart apologized for his strong language, and a sub-committee, composed of Chairman Crawford, Ald. Frankland, Hubbard, Thompson and Foster, was appointed to meet the club directors to-morrow at the City Hall and dispuss the subject.

THE LAW AGAINST THE LADY.

Mrs. Munroe Loses Her Suit For Alimony at

David Munroe won the suit instituted against him by his wife in the Civil Assize Court yesterday. The weman claimed that after her husband discovered her living with Milkman J. C. Kilston he agreed to a deed of separation under which agreement she was to receive $40 a month. This amount had not been paid her and she sued for the alimony. The agreement, which was produced, showed, however, that the $40 a month was conditional upon her leading a chaste life, and Munroe proved at the trial yesterday that since the deed of separation was drawn up she had been guilty of adultery. Mrs. Munroe's suit was therefore dismissed with costs. Since the separation from her husband't the plaintiff has resided at Embro. The couple formerly resided at 47

Ald Stewart referred to the proposal in the words quoted above. He did not think the committee had any right to deal with the matter at all. H such a thing were done for the R.C.Y.C., all the Island leaseholders would be entitled to the same treatment.

Secretary Harman said that the club was under the impression it was assisting the city, which remark caused the aldermen to laugh.

President Boswell objected to the insinuations of Ald. Stewart. "It is only a question," said he, "whether we shall oppose the action of the city in endeavoring to obtain the lots,"

"You seek to coerce us with a threat," interrupted Ald. Stewart.

Continuing, Mr. Boswell referred to the improvements that the club had made on the property and asked what the aldermen meant by talking about the increased value. TRUTH ABOUT THE UNVARNISHED CICANTIC SALE OF $67,000.00 WORTH OF CLOTHING.

LL summer, and while the majority of people were enjoying the cool breezes of the seashore, the Army & Navy staff were talking and planning and working-the heads of departments in our several stores were in frequent consultation with the directors of the company. All our thoughts, energies and ambitions were centred upon the manufacture of a stock of Fall Clothing which would be in touch with the stupendous proportions which the trade of our three great stores demanded. Buyers from the great Army & Navy stores visited every important cloth centre in the civilized world, with the result that thousands of dollars worth of the products, the finest weaves, the most "Recherche" designs in Fall Suitings and Overcoatings, were confined exclusively to the Army & Navy stores. There's immense capital behind this concern and in some cases we have been prevailed upon to take the ENTIRE OUTPUT OF SEVERAL mills. Bale upon bale, box upon box have been opened—day-time and night-time we worked and toiled—while the city was shrouded in the gloom of night; or perchance while the silver moon of a summer's night shed its pale rays on the deserted streets, the great Army & Navy staff are marking and ticketing the thousands of pieces of cloth from far across the sea. You know it's the truth, you know that the Immense Proportions of this business suggest buying on a colossal scale. Where else, we ask, would the public look expecting to find the largest, the most complete stock?

"It's like a mouse defying a lion---for the other fellows to set up similar claims." We make more clothing than their stores could hold.

YOU KNOW IT! EVERYBODY KNOWS IT! THE WORLD KNOWS IT!

But with all our ability, With all our great capital, With all our energies, and manufactured "Too Much." That's the whole secret of it. There's $67,000.00 worth of First-class Clothing distributed in our three stores, aside from our regular stock, which we consider far beyond the demands of fall business requirements. The directors of the Army & Navy Co., Limited, have given their ULTIMATUM, and this immense stock of clothing must be moved before the cold winds of a Canadian winter set in. It mean thousands of dollars loss to the company, thousands of dollars benefit to the public at large. The edict has gone forth. Cut! Slash! Tear! Rip! Maul! Bruise! the regular prices on every garment in our three greaf stores until there's such an awakening of clothing buyers as the city, the Province, the Dominion has never seen before. Every garment must go-and not stay upon the order of their
