Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

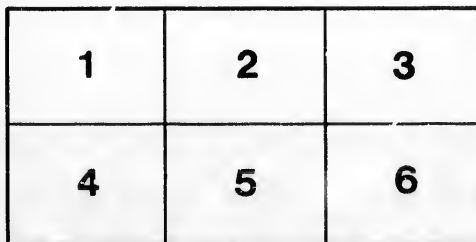

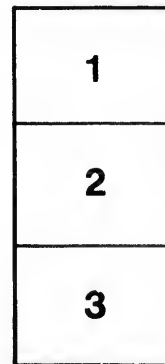

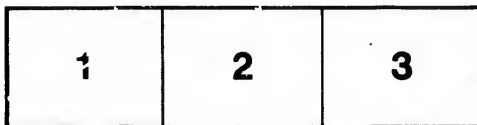

Library of the Public
Archives of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

La bibliothèque des Archives
publiques du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE FIFTIETH ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, began in the North Street Church, in the City of London, at Nine o'Clock A.M., on WEDNESDAY, the 4th of June, 1873.

The Rev. JOHN BORLAND, Co-Delegate, in the Chair.

The Co-DELEGATE gave out the 478th Hymn; the SECRETARY read the 10th Chapter 2nd Corinthians; and the Rev. Dr. WOOD, and the Rev. JOHN A. WILLIAMS, led in prayer.

The DISTRICT SECRETARIES then reported the names of the Ministers appointed to attend Conference. The roll was called, and Two Hundred and Twenty-five answered to their names.

The SECRETARY read an extract from the address of the British Conference, confirming the nomination of the Rev. SAMUEL DWIGHT RICE, D.D., as President, and the Rev. EPHRAIM B. HARPER, M.A., as Co-Delegate of the Conference.

The PRESIDENT delivered an appropriate address.

The Co-DELEGATE also briefly addressed the Conference.

The Rev. EDWARD B. RYCKMAN, M.A., was elected Secretary of the Conference.

On the nomination of the Secretary, the Revs. J. B. CLARKSON, M.A., and W. W. ROSS, were appointed Assistant Secretaries; and the Rev. GEORGE H. CORNISH, Journal Secretary.

The Revs. EPHRAIM EVANS, D.D., and CHARLES LAVELL, M.A., were appointed Official Letter-Writers during the present Session of Conference.

The Revs. BENJAMIN CLEMENT, THOMAS W. JEFFERV, JOHN PHILP, M.A., and EDWARD MORROW, M.A., were appointed a Committee on Statistics.

RESOLUTIONS RELATING TO OFFICERS OF CONFERENCE.

Resolved,—That this Conference records its grateful acknowledgments, and presents its cordial thanks, to the Rev. WILLIAM MORLEY PUNSHON, LL.D., for the important and most valuable services which he has rendered to our Church and country during the five years that, by our annual request, he has been our President. With our own, we embody the deep and universal feeling of the Members of our Church and congregations, when we express our humble thanks to Almighty God for the varied gifts with which Dr. Punshon has been so richly endowed; and our high appreciation of the truly Scriptural character and eloquence of his sermons and addresses; the faithfulness and great ability with which he has discharged his numerous administrative duties; the judiciousness and value of his practical counsels, his generous contributions, powerful and successful appeals on behalf of the institutions and financial interests of our Church, as well as the Christian courtesy and kindness of his social intercourse. We have sympathized with him in the sorrows through which he has been called to pass; and on his required return to the Parent Connexion and to his native land, our best wishes and our earnest prayers accompany him for the happiness of his future life, and the success of his future labors.

Resolved,—That the thanks of this Conference be presented to the Rev. JOHN BORLAND for the important services he has rendered to the Connexion as Co-Delegate during the past year, and especially for the kindness, impartiality, and ability with which he has discharged the responsible duties devolving upon him in the absence of the President during the latter part of the year.

Resolved,—That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. WILLIAM SCOTT for the ability, fidelity, promptness, and Christian courtesy with which he discharged his duties as Secretary of this Conference and its Committees during the past year.

Resolved,—That the cordial thanks of the Conference be, and are hereby presented to the Revs. E. B. KYCKMAN, M.A., and J. B. CLARKSON, M.A., for the valuable service rendered by them at the last Conference as the Assistant Secretaries.

Resolved,—That the thanks of the Conference be, and are hereby presented to the Rev. GEORGE H. CORNISH, for his very efficient services as the Journal Secretary; and to the Revs. B. CLEMENT, THOMAS W. JEFFERY, WILLIAM HALL, M.A., and GEORGE M. MEACHAM, M.A., for the excellent service rendered by them as the Committee on Statistics.

QUESTION X.—

Who have Died?

1.—EDWARD WHITE

Was born in the State of Pennsylvania, in the year 1822, and removed with his parents to the Township of Raleigh, in Upper Canada, in 1825.

In early boyhood he was convinced of his state as a sinner, under the preaching of the Gospel; and in his sixteenth year found peace with God, in a prayer-meeting held in his father's house.

He shortly afterwards felt it his duty to call sinners to repentance, and was constituted a local preacher, in which relation to the Church he labored zealously until 1847, when he was placed on a circuit under the direction of a chairman. During the year his health failed, and he returned home. Having recovered, he was taken on trial at the ensuing Conference, and received into full connection in 1852. In the Circuits to which he was appointed he labored with the energy and success which characterized his subsequent career. In 1858 he was selected as one of the first band of Missionaries sent to British Columbia, where, amid many privations, patiently and self-denyingly endured, all his powers were employed in the introduction and establishment of Methodism in the frontier towns and settlements of that infant colony of the British Empire. Those early and successful labors are held in grateful remembrance by the pioneer settlers in whose welfare, temporal and spiritual, his deep and friendly sympathies were enlisted.

In 1863 the office of chairmanship of the district was assigned to him, the additional burden and responsibilities of which probably superinduced the disease of the brain which necessitated his superannuation in 1871. Returning to Canada that year he visited England in hope of entire recovery, and returned to the Montreal Conference of 1872, with the intention of resuming Circuit work; but the Master, whom he had served with such fervor and fidelity, otherwise ordained. Attacked by small-pox, the result of exposure to that disease on the homeward voyage, our beloved brother was taken to his eternal rest on the 16th day of June, 1872.

As a Christian, brother White was devoted and consistent ; as a preacher, zealous and acceptable ; as a pastor, diligent, affectionate, and faithful. The fruit of his labors, on all his Circuits, bears testimony that they were approved of by God.

2.—EDWIN S. WASHINGTON.

Rev. Edwin S. Washington, B.A., son of Stephen Washington, Esq., of Darlington, was born in that Township, October 18th, 1846.

In his fifteenth year he was converted to God under the labors of Revs. W. McFadden and W. Sheridan, and throughout the remainder of his life evinced the soundness of his conversion by a clear and Scriptural religious experience, accompanied by a correct and earnest religious life.

After six years of successful study at Victoria College he graduated in 1869, and immediately entered upon the work of the Christian ministry, and travelled successively the Baltimore, Whitby, and Markham Circuits, in each of which he proved a good and faithful colleague, diligent in his work, and true and loyal in all his engagements.

His spirituality became deeper and more manifest every year ; and this, with his robust frame, his enlarging experience, and increasing pulpit efficiency, gave ground of the highest hopes for his future.

Desiring, on leaving the Markham Circuit, to spend a few days with his father and friends before going to Cooksville, his new circuit, he reached his father's residence on Wednesday, 26th June, in excellent health and spirits. The following day, while shooting off a gun in the woods, the barrel broke, and a part of it entering the centre of his forehead, he immediately became delirious. But two days before his death consciousness returned, and though the power of speech was gone, he was able, by signals, in answer to the questions of his friends, to assure them that his trust in Christ was unshaken, and that the religion he had preached to others, was now abundantly able to sustain himself in the hour of his pain and dissolution.

At midnight of Tuesday, July 2nd, 1872, he was released from his sufferings, and fell asleep in Christ.

3.—JOSEPH L. SANDERS.

Brother Sanders was born in Cornwall, England, in the year 1832. His father and mother were both members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, thus giving him the advantages of a pious home. In addition to parental instruction and example he had the sound Scriptural teaching of the ministers of the Parent Connexion in England; therefore his views of Christianity were in perfect harmony with the standards of our Church. He was never troubled with misgivings or doubts respecting the importance and necessity of experimental religion. At the age of sixteen he gave his heart to God, finding peace and acceptance with Him, while listening to the preaching of a local preacher. He soon began to exhort others to seek like precious faith, and was in due time put upon the plan as a local preacher in his native town. While the Superintendent of the Devonport Circuit, England, was negotiating with him to enter the itinerancy there, he received a letter from a friend in Canada, informing him that men were needed here. Regarding this as a providential call, he at once decided to leave all and come to Canada. He arrived here in the fall of 1854, and was at once appointed to assist the late Rev. Henry Wilkinson in the City of London, C. W., where he labored with great acceptability until the Conference of 1855, when he was received on trial and appointed to the Yonge Street Circuit, in the Toronto District. The work, however, proved to be too much for his strength. His health failed; and at the District Meeting of 1856, he requested to be allowed to retire, fully intending to return to his native land; but after a few months' rest among his attached friends on the Yonge Street Circuit, his health was measurably restored, which led him to change his purpose of leaving Canada, so he went to Belleville, to assist the Rev. John Carroll. From this time he continued to labor with more or less usefulness on the Three Rivers, Bradford, Lloydtown, Weston, Brampton, Whitby, and Oshawa Circuits. On the last-named his health failed again, and a change to an Indian Mission, as being less laborious, was deemed desirable. At the end of two years his health was so far restored as to encourage him to ask for an appointment in the regular Circuit work. In 1871, he received an appointment to the Baltimore Circuit, in the Cobourg District. During the greater part of the time he was able to do his work with some degree of comfort, and the usual success attended his faithful labors. In the latter part of the year the disease which at last brought him down to the grave began to appear. His days were numbered,—the messenger had come to take him from his labors to the promised reward. The Master was calling for him, and he must go. He, however, had to be made perfect through suffering. In his case, patience had its perfect work. His sufferings were severe, yet not a murmur ever fell from his lips. At times, such was his consciousness of the Divine presence, as to raise him above his bodily sufferings; and, as his end approached, his confidence grew stronger. "There was not a cloud to darken his sky." He could say "I am ready to depart and be with Christ, which is far better." "Christ is all." Thus lived and died Joseph L. Sanders, a brother beloved; in the 41st year of his age, and 18th of his ministry.

4.—WILLIAM RYERSON.

William Ryerson, the son of a United Empire Loyalist, a Colonist by birth, and an Upper Canadian by early advent and training. A marked conversion, by the agency of Methodism in its demonstrative stage of development, gave impulse to a capacious and powerful mind, and stimulated, developed, and directed to religious themes a native eloquence of thought and expression, which early made him the zealous and powerful exhorter,—and, in the course of years, one of the foremost ministers in this land, both for pulpit ability and platform eloquence. In the charge of circuits, the management of districts, and the Presidency of the Conference itself, he was both popular and successful.

He was born in the Province of New Brunswick, March 31st, 1797,—came to Canada in childhood, was converted at the early age of eighteen, under the ministry of the late David Youmans,—began very shortly to exhort and preach, but, because of an early marriage, did not enter the itinerancy until 1823. In 1828 he was appointed Presiding Elder of the most important district in the Connexion, on which he remained the full term of four years. The office of Chairman he alternated with such stations as Brockville, Kingston, Toronto, and Hamilton, for many years. Several years of his ministerial life were spent among the Indians of Grand River, for which people he had an uncommon aptitude in preaching. One element of his greatness was his versatility,—he could interest those of the highest attainments, and those whose knowledge was only elementary,—little children could understand him.

The circumstances of the country when he entered public life, and the disabilities under which most churches were placed, early identified him—naturally ardent and outspoken—with public questions and doings. It is not surprising that a man, whose earliest memories were stored with tales of loyalist valor and suffering during the American Revolution, and who—while yet the merest boy for age—girt on the sword, and sprang to the front to repel American invasion in the war of 1812-15, would not easily brook the violation of a Briton's rights by irresponsible parties in his own country. His taste for public matters, it must be confessed, had sometimes too much influence over him,—occupied too much of his time and thoughts; and, at an advanced period of his life, in opposition to the advice of his best friends, he was led to lay aside the regular work of the ministry for a few years, and to enter the Legislature of his country. But, from the very nature of things, the mistakes of a great man are exaggerated by the excellencies with which they stand in contrast. It was, however, a satisfaction to his brethren to have their gifted brother return to his proper vocation, in which he remained till death.

He passed away on the 15th of September, 1873, aged seventy-five years; thus ending (with a short hiatus), from the time of its commencement, a ministry of fifty years. His large person, combined with strong intellectual developments, could not otherwise than make his appearance commanding. As to attainments, he was not so much scholarly as intelligent,—he was not so much a methodical student as an omnivorous reader, and a man of profound and extensive thought. In his death we have to record the fall of one who, in his day, was “a prince and a great man in our Canadian Israel.”

5.—JAMES THOMPSON.

James Thompson was born at Switzerville, on the Newburg Circuit, on the 12th of September, 1829, and converted to God on the 16th November, 1840.

From the time of his conversion, till his entrance into the ministry, and—as his brethren know—until his death, his life was blameless. His voice was always heard in prayer-meeting. He never missed his class but once when at home and able to be present. Very soon after his conversion, feeling the importance of mental culture, in order to the ministry of the Word in connection with our Church, he applied himself faithfully to study, and in August, 1834, was sent to the Battersea mission. His next Circuit was Bradford. He was then sent to College for two years, after which he labored on the following Circuits in this order: Napanee, Brewer's Mills, Oil Springs, Milferd, and Rednervil'e, where he finally broke down in health from overwork, and was obliged to superannuate. From Rednerville he removed to Napanee, and there, so far as God gave him strength, he labored with great zeal and fidelity until his death; but, though early called from labor to reward, it was only after he had done a work of deep and abiding value to the Church of God.

"That life is long which answers life's great end."

On all his Circuits he was favored with extensive revivals, or he prepared the ground for them. The reasons of his success were as follows: he had great singleness of purpose, he was firm in his adherence to what he believed to be right, and faithful in his denunciation of all he believed to be wrong. His love for his Master and his work was absorbing. He was converted to God, and knew it. He had a profound conviction that he was called of God to preach the Gospel, and to fight with every form of evil about him. He believed himself guided of God habitually. He served the Lord Christ, and counting himself the servant of the Church, for Jesus' sake gladly gave to the promotion of its interest all his energies, and all his time, and when laid aside, he was not content with past achievements, but because he loved his Master and the souls of men, he was "instant in season and out of season," perpetually planning new works. And seeing what obstructions intemperance and ignorance offered to the spread of religion, he labored for the overthrow of the license system, and for the introduction of Methodist literature into the homes of the people.

So thoroughly was he in love with his work, that he felt anxious to live in order to carry out that on which his heart was set,—not that he was not ready to die at any time. He lived in the favor of God from day to day, and aimed only to finish the work given him to do. Seldom does the death-bed witness such unquenchable zeal.

It flamed and blazed until the last. Long after his voice failed him he was intent upon the Master's business. Knowing that his time was short he labored to compress the work of months into days—he sent for many whom he strove to commit to the work on which his heart was fixed. On Easter Sabbath, his last Sabbath on earth, his experience was unmistakably bright. Through all that day he was wonderfully animated, talking freely, and expressing his great joy in God his risen Saviour;—but the excessive exertions of that day wore him out. As the week progressed, the conviction became established in his mind that he must go. Said he, “I shall soon be home; tell the people that their prayers are answered, and more than answered. Tell them I said so.” And when he heard the call “Come up higher,” he exclaimed “I am going to a world where I shall work for Christ.” This passion for work—serviceable, practical work—was strong in death. To the latest questions put as to his experience of saving and supporting grace, his answers were always satisfactory. And on Saturday evening, 19th April, quietly and gently passed away the spirit of our beloved brother to the palm and crown in heaven. “The memory of the just is blessed.” May we catch his falling mantle, carry on his uncompleted work, and share, “by and bye,” in his recompense of reward.

6.—THOMAS HURLBURT.

Thomas Hurlburt was born on the 3rd of March, 1808, in the Township of Augusta. He was converted when about nineteen years old. Before his conversion, according to his own statements, a powerful impression was made upon his mind, that he should become a Missionary to the Indians. He saw, or thought he saw, at a short distance from him, an Indian standing, and pointing westward with his hand. In 1829, at the request and under the supervision of Eider Case, he commenced his labors as an assistant, at Grape Island Indian Mission. About six months afterwards he was removed to Muncey. When about two years and a half employed, with a full view of the difficulties and hardships before him, he concluded to consecrate his life, for Christ's sake, to the Indian work; and nobly did he pursue his course. In 1839 he was received into full connexion, and appointed to the North Shore of Lake Superior. During that year he established, at the Pic, the first Methodist Mission in that region. He built his own house with his own hands. He rejoiced in the conversion of souls. He taught a number of young men to read and write, so that by 1842, one of them was employed by him as his assistant. He made in all thirteen journeys along the North Shore of Lake Superior, visiting all the Indian tribes in that region, as far as Long Lake, the head of the Pic and Lake Nipegon. He thoroughly mastered their language,—preached in it, wrote in it, printed in it, delighted in it,—and in the end, had quite a continental reputation as a philologist in it. He also gave much attention to the science of geology. He held strong views in favor of the translation of the Scriptures into the language of the natives, and the employment of native agents in the Mission work. Failure of health induced him to leave the Lake Superior regions. Hopes of finding a wider field, in which his plans of evangelisation might be carried out, led him to the South-west, among the American Indians, where he labored from 1842 to 1850; but his favorite plan was not adopted there, or did not succeed to his satisfaction,—hence he was strongly inclined to leave the Indians, and engage in the regular circuit work, in one of the American Conferences. At this juncture, from intimations made to him, he supposed a favorable opportunity offered to realise among the Indian Missions in Canada his long-cherished plans for their benefit. With such a prospect, though his efforts had all been transferred to the South-west he returned at a great sacrifice, to his native country. At home again, he pursued his great life-purpose, with the same assiduity and success—laboring successively at Alderville, Rice Lake, Norway House, Garden River, St. Clair, and Waipole Island. For a short time he left the Indian Work; but in June, 1871, he accepted the appointment to a new mission at Manitoulin Island. There, though he had charge of a few scattered white settlers, most of his attention was given to the natives of those parts. He was already successful in that new field; but he was unexpectedly called, by Him who cannot err, to rest from his labors. He was ready. With brother Thomas Hurlburt, Christ and His cause were first—especially His cause among the aborigines of this continent. For Christ and them he lived, and planned, and worked, and suffered. Living and dying he belonged to them. With us he is no more. The Lord took him.

7.—W. H. WILLIAMS.

Rev. William H. Williams was born in Hartford, Connecticut, March 27th, 1795, and died in Iroquois, Ontario, May 11th, 1873. Very little is known of his early life. Some circumstances connected with his leaving home led to his conversion, which took place in Orange County, State of New York, in 1813. His educational advantages having been very limited, he availed himself of such opportunities as were now afforded him, and devoted his spare hours to reading and study, and was encouraged to exercise his gifts as an exhorter.

About 1818 he came to Canada, and held the position of a local preacher on the Niagara Circuit, from which he was recommended to the Genesee Conference, held at Lundy's Lane, in 1820. His first appointment was to the Long Point Circuit, where he labored with great acceptance and success. A pleasing appearance, combined with great energy of character, a clear conception of the scheme of salvation, and a warm and impassioned manner of delivery, rendered him both popular and useful. Pleasing reminiscences of his early labors are entertained by those who then knew him, and who still survive him. From 1820 till 1857 he continued in the active ministry, avoiding neither responsibility nor labor, toiling with zeal, fidelity, and perseverance, and God honored him. His early ministry was followed by great and glorious revivals of religion,—one in particular in Matilda, in 1823, when a great multitude of people turned to the Lord, some of whom remain to this day. Prompt and active, strong and healthy, he was fitted for any part of the service required in the days when Circuits were vast and the itinerancy laborious. But he accepted it, and was true to his calling. The ministry he had received in the Lord he fulfilled. Neither the roughness of the roads, nor the poverty of the accommodation, nor the limited remuneration for his services, nor the privations incident to the life of a Methodist itinerant of fifty years ago, induced him to turn aside from the work, to an easier and more lucrative calling.

Bro. Williams possessed a mind in which the logical and reasoning power was more prominent than the imaginative, which enabled him to render good service to the cause of truth, in the days when controversy was rife, and Arianism and Universalism were leading many astray. He had an extensive knowledge of the doctrines of Christianity, which he expounded with clearness, and enforced with earnestness. His preaching was remarkable for the power of its appeals to the conscience. He was firm in his attachment to the Methodist doctrine and discipline, and a man of inflexible integrity, and independence of spirit. His manner was sometimes abrupt; but he had a kind heart, in which those who knew him best could confide.

In 1857, although his mental vigor was unimpaired, such were his physical infirmities that he was induced to take a superannuated relation, and retire from the active work. He resided in Matilda, in the midst of the families of those who had been so greatly blest by his ministry, and by whom he was so highly esteemed. Here he continued, preaching as opportunity and health permitted, with matured piety, and mellowed feeling, as the patriarch of the community, going in and out, visiting the sick, consoling the bereaved, encouraging the aged, and instructing the young, till God's finger touched him, and beckoned him to his reward.

His sickness was of short duration, but marked by severe physical suffering; yet he was divinely sustained. His mind was still regnant, his intellect was clear. A few days before he died, he said to a brother minister, "For fifty years I have been enabled to exercise a saving faith in the great atonement; and many, many times, I have been filled with the spirit of joy. And now, in view of the passage of my soul, from this state to another, one which evidently lies before me, and which appears so wonderfully great, I desire a still brighter display of the Divine bounty, in an increase of joy: I want to rejoice more fully in the Infinite mercy." And he was heard in that request. His soul was filled with the joy of the Holy Ghost. His last moments were very happy. He called his family round his bed, turned his head slightly, closed his eyes, and passed away to the life that is eternal, in the 79th year of his age, and 53rd of his ministry.

8.—ROWLEY HEYLAND,

Who, in a good old age, exchanged mortality for life, happy in God, 27th of May, 1873.

He was born in Ireland, converted in his native country while yet young; and, by a pleasing coincidence, in the very same place and hour as his twin brother Edward, who also died in our Canadian Methodist ministry. Mr. Heyland began his ministry in Canada, in 1823, in the "New Settlements," north of Lake Ontario, then known as the "New Purchase." Rowley Heyland's name was a synonym for power in preaching. Imagine a man with a clear perception of Christian experience, just and impressive views of Wesleyan theology, fair education, ready command of strong, clear nervous language, possessed of a telling, manageable voice, with a simplicity of mind and manner which seemed totally devoid of self-consciousness, and a heart set on fire with love to God and souls, and it will give some idea of Heyland's ministry and the power of his early preaching. His natural talents and education fitted him for extended usefulness. His effective ministry was spent on the heaviest, though usually the richest of our rural Circuits,—(with once in a while an appointment to an Indian mission,)—ranging from the River Thames in the west, to the Bay Quinte in the east.

He was a man of sound judgment and great fidelity in his work, competent to the duties of almost any trust, but owing to secular incumbrances, together with defective vision through life, which ended in total blindness at last, he was kept from filling offices which otherwise would have been assigned to him.

Our brother, however, has not lived in vain; he set an example of laboriousness in the hard circuits of the olden times—was the instrument of hundreds of conversions, some of which converts have been long in the ministry of our Church; and he "glorified God in the fires" at last, by the patient endurance of suffering "in age and feebleness extreme," in which he felt "God did a sinful world redeem." In him was answered Charles Wesley's dying prayer:

"O let me catch a smile from Thee,
And drop into eternity."

THOS. S. KEOUGH, SECRETARY.

On the recommendation of the Committee the following resolutions were adopted :

1. That the Rev. James Gray be the Treasurer of the Fund.
2. That the Rev. J. C. Slater, and Joseph Lister, Esq., of Hamilton, be requested to act as Auditors for the coming year.
3. That inasmuch as the special demands upon the Contingent Fund for the past year have been unusually great, not only leaving the Fund in debt, but also largely reducing the appropriations to dependent Circuits, thereby entailing much suffering and want upon many of our Ministers ; this Conference urges upon all the Congregations under its care the pressing necessity for more liberal contributions to the Fund ; and also suggests that the District Meetings exercise increased watchfulness in guarding the interests of the Fund, recognising the fact that their recommendations should be made only in cases of real necessity, especially in the items of Medical Attendance and Funeral Expenses.
4. That the cordial thanks of this Conference be presented to those Medical Gentlemen throughout the country who have so generously given their professional attendance and advice, without charge, to Ministers of this Conference, and to their families, and that this resolution be inserted in the printed Minutes.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH RELIEF FUND
COMMITTEE FOR 1873.

The following resolutions were passed by the Committee relating to the sale of Church Property, and approved of by the Conference :

TORONTO DISTRICT.—Weston Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Smithfield Church property be permitted to sell the same. Proceeds to be applied to the erection of a new Church in the village of St. Andrew's.

HAMILTON DISTRICT.—Hullsville Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Parsonage Property in the village of Hullsville be permitted to sell the same. Proceeds to be applied to the building of a new Parsonage in the village of Hagarville.

NIAGARA DISTRICT.—St. Catharine's Circuit.—Resolved,—That permission be granted the Trustees of the Wesleyan Methodist Church Property, St. Catharines, to sell the rear part of the said property, reserving the Lot on Church Street, having the entire frontage from the Episcopal Church, to the new street surveyed by and along the north side of the Roman Catholic Church, and having a depth of 160 feet. Said Lot to be used wholly and solely as a site for a new Parsonage. It is moreover resolved, that the proceeds of the property hereby authorized to be sold, be applied in the cost of erecting a new Parsonage on the reserved lot.

LONDON DISTRICT.—Ingersoll Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Ingersoll Parsonage Property be permitted to sell the same. Proceeds to be applied to the building of a new Parsonage on a more desirable site.

Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Ingersoll Parsonage Property be permitted to sell a parcel of land held by them under a deed from James R. Benson. Proceeds to be applied to the building of the new Parsonage.

Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Ingersoll Parsonage Property be permitted to sell the northern part of a lot fronting on Duke Street, East side, and running parallel with the rear of the lots on Charles Street to the rear of said lot. Said lot held by deed from one James Chapman. Proceeds to be applied to the building of the new Parsonage on the remaining part of said lot.

CHATHAM DISTRICT.—Florence Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Parsonage Property be permitted to sell the same. Proceeds to be applied to the building of a new Parsonage on a more eligible site.

SARNIA DISTRICT.—Mooretown Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Mooretown Church Property be permitted to sell the Church and lot in the village of Mooretown. Proceeds to be applied to the building of a new Church at Cartwright.

Resolved.—That the Trustees of the Watford Church Property be permitted to deed one-half of the Parsonage Lot, to another Board of Trustees, for the purpose of erecting thereon a Wesleyan Methodist Church for the better accommodation of those of the village of Watford who may be desirous of attending upon the ministry of our Church.

Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Oil Springs Church Property be permitted to sell the village lots in the village of Oil Springs. Proceeds to be appropriated to the erection of a Church at the station of the C. S. E. R., known as Oil City, situate two miles north of Oil Springs Village.

GÖDERICH DISTRICT.—Dungannon Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Parsonage Property be permitted to sell the same. Proceeds to be applied to the erection of a new Parsonage.

WHITBY DISTRICT.—Pickering Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Jackson Church Property be permitted to exchange Lot on the 7th Concession of Pickering for a more eligible one, which has been generously offered to the Connexion by Mr. Samuel Jones.

PETERBORO' DISTRICT.—Peterboro' Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Church Property on the corner of George and McDonald Streets, in the town of Peterboro', be permitted to dispose of the same, for the purpose of purchasing a more eligible site on George, McDonald, and Water Streets.

Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Church Property, situate on the corner of Sherbrooke and Water Streets, in the town of Peterboro', be permitted to dispose of the same, for the purpose of securing a more eligible site on Charlotte Street.

PERTH DISTRICT.—Almonte Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Almonte Church be permitted to sell the old Church. Proceeds to be applied to the erection of a new Church.

OTTAWA DISTRICT.—Bell's Corners Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the 4th Line of Huntly Church be permitted to sell the same. Proceeds to be applied to the erection of a new Church.

STANSTEAD DISTRICT.—Farnham Centre Circuit.—Resolved,—That the Trustees of the Farnham Centre Church be permitted to exchange the present Church site for a more eligible site offered by Mr. James Barnett.

Resolved,—That the Church Relief Fund Committee meet on the first Tuesday morning of the Conference, and that the Secretary of the Conference send notice of the same to the Lay Members of this Committee appointed by the May District Meetings.

Resolved,—That the thanks of this Committee are due, and are hereby presented, to the Rev. T. Cosford as Treasurer; and that he be, and hereby is, re-appointed Treasurer.

The following are the Grants recommended by the Committee, and authorized by the Conference of 1873, held in London, commencing June 4th, 1873:—

REPORT OF THE SABBATH SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

RESPECTED BRETHREN,—

Your Committee, having given the District returns, and verbal statements accompanying them, their most careful attention, are thankful to report that, in their judgment, this most important department of our work is being carried on with increasing energy and success. Great changes have taken place in this department of our Church during the past few years, many of which are decided improvements. These changes affect not only the outward aspects of the work, but embrace every particular connected with the prosperity of the Institution. A prominent place may be given to the adoption of a uniform series of lessons designed for use in all the schools of Protestant Churches throughout the world. This system we are glad to find in practical operation in 462 of our schools in Canada. While recognizing fully the benefit of such a series, your Committee would express a hope that the use of the Berean Leaves and the Banner, or other helps designed only to assist in the preparation of the lesson at home, and when so employed of very great value, be used as sparingly as possible during the hour of teaching. If the Bible in the classes be the only text-book, the habit of independent thought will be much more fully developed than by leaning on such auxiliaries. We cannot too highly commend the example of those schools which hold regular weekly teachers' meetings for the study of the lessons.

Your Committee is also of the opinion that our lesson scheme, when prepared for future years, should always contain two questions from our own Catechisms for each Sabbath during the year; and we trust that the Conference will so direct for the ensuing year.

On several of the Districts a Convention is held every year in connection with the Fall District Meetings. This practice is earnestly recommended for the adoption of the entire Conference, because the interests of Wesleyan schools can be more fully and freely discussed in such a meeting than is possible or desirable in mixed county Conventions.

We find that many of our Superintendents do not know precisely what the Conference has recognized as the law of the Church in relation to Sabbath Schools. Therefore, it would be well to publish all that is now the law of the Church, together with this year's report, and forward at least one copy to every Superintendent throughout our work. The new schedules which have been adopted have enabled us to secure the address of nearly all the Superintendents, and we hope that by laying before them from time to time the condition and wants of our schools, to elicit a more thoroughly connexional spirit than has yet been obtained.

We regret that there has been nothing done by the Library Committee appointed by the Conference last year; but, believing that the object sought to be gained by its appointment is of great importance to our Church, respectfully ask the Conference to re-appoint the Committee, and give such directions as may be necessary to secure the performance of its work.

Many suggestions have reached the Committee from various parts of our work, involving subjects which merit a careful consideration; yet, knowing the pressure of business which the present Conference feels, we hesitate to lay them before you.

We venture, however, to suggest to the Conference, that steps should be taken to provide a better supply of Sabbath School papers. Although an excellent periodical, and having a very large circulation in our schools, yet the Advocate, being published only semi-monthly, is supplemented by large numbers of other papers, many of which are not well suited to the wants of our schools. We would most respectfully recommend the Conference, so soon as in its judgment the proper time has come, to establish another children's paper which shall be thoroughly Canadian and Methodistic, to be published alternately with the Advocate.

We trust the Conference will provide for the holding of an Annual Conference Sabbath School Meeting; the first to be held next year, on the evening of the second day of the Conference.

As there is considerable expense in the management of the Sabbath School work, we recommend the Conference to request each school to take up a collection in the month of October of each year, and forward it to the Treasurer of the Sabbath School Committee. The object of this collection will be the payment of expenses incurred in preparing and sending out the Annual Schedules; the publication of the Constitution and Report of our schools as now recommended; defraying the expenses attending the work of the Library Committee; lowering the price of approved libraries and other requisites for new and destitute schools; and such other objects as the Conference may approve from time to time as necessary to the better performance of our Sabbath School work.

The accompanying Statistical table will show more fully the present condition of our schools on the various Districts, as reported to your Committee.

The following resolutions, reported by the Sabbath School Committee, were adopted by the Conference:—

Resolved I.—That the Sabbath School lessons be published in the Christian Guardian weekly—the Guardian of each week containing the lesson to be used on the second Sabbath following.

II.—That the Book Steward be required to put two questions from the Wesleyan Catechisms in the regular lesson scheme for each Sabbath during the year.

III.—That we recommend the Conference to ask each school throughout the Connexion to take up a collection in the school for the purposes mentioned in the above report; and that we request the Conference to appoint the Secretary of the Sabbath School Committee the Treasurer of the Sabbath School Fund.

IV.—That this Committee recommend the re-appointment of a Library Committee, to meet during this Conference, and report before the close.

V.—That the subject of establishing another Sabbath School paper be referred to the Book Committee, to report upon at the next Conference.

VI.—That there be an Annual Conference Sabbath School Meeting—the first to be held next year, on the evening of the second day of the Conference; and that the arrangement of which be left with the President of the Conference.

REPORT OF THE SABBATH SCHOOL LIBRARY COMMITTEE.

Your Committee beg leave to report that, in their judgment, the time has come when it is the duty of the Church to provide authorized books for use in our Sabbath School Libraries, from which, if they choose, Superintendents may make their selections.

We recommend the Conference to request the Book Steward, to furnish 500 books (for the present) at half price, for examination by the committee, the balance of cost to be provided from the collections taken up in the Sabbath Schools during the year.

Should the Conference accept these recommendations, the Secretary shall order the books as soon as possible, and furnish to the Book Steward the names and addresses of the Committee, and the number of books to be sent to each for examination.

Every book shall be thoroughly read by some member of the Committee before receiving the Committee's sanction, except in the case of such books as are known to the majority of the committee as unexceptionable. All books approved shall be certified by the persons who have read them, then laid before the committee at its annual meeting, when it shall be competent for the Committee to give, by resolution, its sanction to such books. Whereupon their titles, the attestation of the reader, and the action of the Committee, shall be recorded by the Secretary of this Committee. All books rejected, shall be registered in a Black List, with the objectionable features of the book definitely stated, the name of the reader, and the date of examination.

The Committee shall meet at the call of the Secretary during the sessions of the Conference. All books approved by the Committee, shall be stamped accordingly.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Signed) D. C. CLAPPISON, Chairman.
A. ANDREWS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE MEMORIAL COMMITTEE.

The Committee on Memorials met on the platform of North Street Church, on Tuesday morning, June 10th, 1873. Rev. Richard Jones was appointed Chairman, H. F. Bland, Secretary.

In reply to the resolution from the Ottawa District, requesting the Conference to devise some plan of compensation, that ministers who have come to us from other bodies of Christians may have a claim upon our Superannuation Fund ; the Committee are of opinion, that as Conference has appointed a Special Committee to consider this question, it may be properly left in their hands. (See No. VII., page 10.)

In reply to the resolution from the Barrie District, requesting that the Superannuation Fund shall be augmented, and the allowances increased ; the Committee are of opinion, that the Jubilee Fund will cover the first part of the resolution, but that the allowances may be fittingly increased from $8 per annum to $10, and they recommend accordingly.

In reply to the resolution from the Whitby District that the annual subscription of ministers and preachers to the Superannuation Fund be raised from $5 to $8 ; the Committee recommend the Conference to take no action at present :—

This resolution of the Memorial Committee was amended by the Conference, which resolved that the amount paid annually to the Superannuated Ministers' Fund by the ministers, shall be henceforward $6, instead of $5, as heretofore.

In reply to the resolution from the Whitby District, recommending the discontinuance of the Church Relief Fund Collection ; the judgment of the Committee is, that in view of other pressing claims, the Annual Collection may be discontinued, and they recommend accordingly.

In reply to the resolution from the same District, recommending the formation of a Widows' Assurance Fund, on the basis of the payment of one dollar by each minister on the death of a minister ; the Committee approve of the principle and recommend its adoption.

The Conference appointed a Committee (See No. VIII.

page 10) to consider the propriety of forming a "Widows' Relief Society," and to report at the next Conference.

The Rev. Dr. Wood introduced the subject of the inadequacy of the amounts paid to the widows of deceased ministers; and by resolution of the Conference it was decided that hereafter a widow shall receive four-fifths of the amount her late husband would have received had he been superannuated.

In reply to the resolutions from the Trustee Board, and the Quarterly Official Meeting of Great St. James Street Church, Montreal, respecting facility of ministerial transfer, in the event of Conference being divided into several Annual Conferences; the Committee coincide with the resolutions, that the ability to transfer should be as accessible as possible, and recommend accordingly.

In reply to the memorials from the Trustee Board and Quarterly Official Meeting of the same Church, praying for an extension of ministerial term from three to five or six years, when both minister and people are agreed; the Committee are of opinion, that it is not expedient at present to alter our established usage.

In reply to the resolutions from the Quarterly Meetings of Great St. James Street and Dorchester Street Churches, Montreal, recommending a still further increase in the salaries of unmarried ministers and preachers, and a fitting increase in the salary of married ministers; the judgment of the Committee is, that the former class may, for the present, be left as recently amended, but that the salary of a married minister ought to be not less than $300, instead of $240 as now.

The Conference resolved to defer the question of the increase of ministers' salaries.

In reply to the resolution of the London North Circuit, requesting Conference to draft a course of study for local preachers; the judgment of the Committee is, that as Conference just now is in a transition state, action in the way named is not recommended at present.

In reply to the resolution from the same District, requesting that a membership certificate book shall be prepared, containing a duplicate certificate, one of which shall be given to the member removing, the other sent to the minister of the Circuit where he intends to live; the Committee, believing the regulation to be a desirable one, recommend its adoption, and that such book shall be a charge upon the Circuit Funds.

The Conference resolved to defer action respecting this matter also.

In reply to resolutions from Whitby and Bradford Districts, requesting Conference to express its disapproval of questionable forms of amusement, and objectionable modes of raising Church monies ; the Committee recommend that the Pastoral Address shall make pointed reference to these evils.

In reply to the resolution from the Cobourg District, requesting Conference to make some provision for the erection of a monument to the late Rev. Wm. Case ; the Committee recommend Conference to appoint a Committee to carry out so worthy a purpose.

In reply to the resolution from the same District, requesting Conference to re-affirm the resolution prohibiting probationers attending Victoria College from voting in the meetings of the Cobourg District ; the Committee recommend that the young men who have completed their collegiate course, and are about to enter the work, and they only, may have the privilege of voting.

With reference to the above, the Conference adopted the following resolution :—

That the resolution on the Journals of Conference forbidding the Conference students at Victoria College to vote in the Cobourg District Meeting be, and is hereby, rescinded.

In reply to a resolution of the Montreal District Meeting, requesting Conference to determine whether the returns of membership shall be based upon the last visitation of the year, or from the date of the May Quarterly Meeting ; the Committee recommend no action, as the law in the Discipline is specific.

In reply to the resolution of the Brockville District, requesting Conference to commend the holding of District Sabbath School Conventions in connection with the Financial District Meetings ; the Committee deem no further action in this regard necessary than has already been taken by the Conference on the recommendation of the Sabbath School Committee.

In reply to the resolution of the Ottawa District, requesting Conference to secure the services of a competent architect, who shall prepare plans and specifications of church buildings adapted to our work, and that every Circuit and Mission shall be supplied with a copy at cost price ; the Committee recommend Conference to appoint a Committee, who shall consider the subject and report next Conference. (For the Committee, see No. XVI., page 11.)

In reply to the resolution of the same District, requesting Conference to take immediate steps for the publication of tracts, primers, &c., which shall, in a popular form, state our doctrines and defend our Church polity; the Committee strongly recommend Conference to commit this question to the Committee on Tracts and Books. (See No. XI., page 10.)

In reply to the resolution from the Belleville District, complaining of irregularity in class-meeting attendance, and requesting Conference to appoint a large and competent Committee who shall consider the whole question involved; the Committee, while recognizing and deploring the evil complained of, are not prepared to recommend Conference to make the appointment named at present.

All of which, &c.

H. F. BLAND, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE TRACT COMMITTEE.

The Special Committee appointed to consider the memorial respecting tracts and religious literature report as follows:—

Resolved I.—That this Committee recommends the Conference to organise a Tract Society for the purpose of preparing, publishing and circulating tracts and books, setting forth our doctrines and Church polity, adapted to counteract the popular heresies of the day.

II.—That this Society consist of a President, one Vice-President, a Secretary and Treasurer, who, with ten additional members, five ministers and five laymen, shall constitute a Board of Management, whose duty it shall be to select suitable tracts for circulation, publish original tracts and books, and in all suitable ways provide a sound religious literature for general circulation.

III.—That in case the Conference accept the recommendation to form a Tract Society, an appeal be made to our people through the Guardian and the Pastoral Address, to contribute funds to sustain this important project.

E. H. DEWART, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE INSURANCE COMMITTEE.

Your Committee, appointed to prepare and submit a plan for insuring Connexional Property among ourselves, beg to report that they met twice during the year, and had lengthened conversation on the matter, but have found themselves unable, with what information they yet possess, to prepare a satisfactory scheme. They recommend that the subject be again committed for further consideration during the coming year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

THOS. S. KEOUGH, Secretary.

The Conference adopted the Report, and re-committed the subject to the same Committee (see No. XV., page 11) for further consideration.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OUR THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTIONS.

1. That all probationers sent to College be distinguished as Undergraduates or Theological Students; the class of Undergraduates to consist of those students proceeding to a degree in Arts according to the rules which have heretofore obtained in Conference; all others to be reckoned as Theological Students.

2. That the preliminary examination required of undergraduates who may offer themselves for our ministry shall embrace Biblical History and Wesley's Sermons.

3. That in the third year they shall substitute for Whately's Rhetoric, Watson's Institutes, Parts III. and IV.

4. That in case they proceed regularly to the degree of B.A., they shall be exempted from the remaining subjects of the fourth year's course of study.

5. That the students at the Theological Schools shall consist of a preliminary class, and two advanced classes for probationers.

6. That students presenting themselves for admission to the preliminary class, shall be recommended by a Quarterly Meeting, and shall present a certificate of such recommendation to the head of the school, such recommendation being made at the August Quarterly Meeting.

7. That the course of study for the preliminary class shall consist of the subjects at present assigned by Conference for preliminary examination.

8. That the examination of the preliminary classes be conducted by the Conference Board of Examiners as heretofore.

9. That the course of study for the Theological class of probationers shall extend over two years, and shall be accepted as equivalent to the present fourth year's course of study.

FIRST YEAR—

Systematic Theology.

Logic and Metaphysics.

Rhetoric, English Composition, and Elocution.

The Elements of the Greek Language.

A student who has already mastered the Elements of Greek, may take in this year the Elements of Hebrew with the New Testament Exegesis of the second year: Those whose age and previous circumstances render it inadvisable to commence the study of a new language may take an equivalent.

SECOND YEAR—

Systematic and Biblical Theology.

Church History or Natural Science.

Ethics and Evidences.

Homiletics and Exercises in Elocution.

The Greek or Hebrew Language continued.

New Testament Exegesis.

Those who take General Church History, may take in this year the History of Methodism and Methodist Church Polity in connection with Modern Church History.

10. That Examiners be appointed by Conference, who, in connection with the Professors in the schools, shall examine the Theological Students on the foregoing course, and award them graded certificates as heretofore, to be presented at District Meeting, and reported to Conference.

CHARLES LAVELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF VICTORIA COLLEGE, 1873.

---

To the Chairman and Members of the Board of Victoria College :

GENTLEMEN,—The Instructors in the Department of Theology in your University beg leave to submit the following Report of the work done in the Academic year now closing.

The instruction given has been partly in separate classes, and partly in the classes of the Faculty of Arts, and has embraced the following subjects :—

The Evidences of Christianity.

The Principles of Natural Religion and Ethics.

Homiletics.

The Exegesis of the New Testament.

Biblical Literature, Criticism, and Interpretation.

The Language and Exegesis of the Old Testament.

Systematic Theology.

Biblical Theology.

Practical Theology.

Biblical History and Geography.

In the Evidences of Christianity, the class have read the standard work of Paley, under the instruction and combined with the lectures of the President. They have also read, on the second of the above-mentioned subjects, Stewart's Active and Moral Powers, in the same way. The President has also delivered a course of lectures on Homiletics, and has given special instruction to Theological Students in Applied Logic, in addition to the Arts course in Theoretical Logic, which they have largely attended.

The classes in New Testament Exegesis have read the whole of the Gospels of Mark, Luke, and John, under the instruction of Dr. Wilson. He has also conducted a class in Biblical Literature, who have read Pts. I., II., III. and IV. of Angus' Bible Handbook, to page 179.

Prof. Burwash has conducted a class in Hebrew Grammar and translation, and a more advanced class in the Exegesis of the Old Testament. They have read parts of the first nine chapters of Genesis, with lectures on the Creation, the Primitive State of Man, the Temptation and Fall, and the History of the Flood. In Systematic Theology, the classes have read Pope on the Person of Christ; and the third and fourth parts of Watson's Institutes. These text books were accompanied by a course of fourteen lectures on the Method, Classification, and Relation of the Theological Sciences.

In Practical Theology, the class have studied carefully the "First Four Volumes of Mr. Wesley's Sermons," and those who presented themselves before the Conference Board of Examiners obtained, without exception, first or honor class certificates. This was also the case with the class in the third and fourth parts of Watson.

The classes in Biblical History and Geography have read considerable portions of the able works of Dr. Smith on the Old and New Testaments. Prof. Reynar took charge of the Old Testament History, and also gave instruction in Rhetoric to a number of Conference Students.

A commencement has also been made in the important subject of Biblical Theology, in a course of twelve lectures by Prof. Burwash, on the Theology of the Epistle to the Romans. In connection with this, the students read the Greek text upon which the lectures were founded.

The total number of Students who have availed themselves of this course of instruction during the year has been twenty-six. Ten of these have taken the Practical Theology and Biblical History of the preliminary year; twenty have pursued one or more branches of Exegesis, Biblical Literature, and Biblical Theology; six have taken the course in Systematic Theology, and twelve have pursued Ethics and the Evidences of Natural and Revealed Religion.

In conclusion, we would ask the attention of the Board to the favorable reception of the curriculum for the Degree of B.D., established during the past year. Four candidates have presented themselves on the subjects of the third year, and three on those of the first and second. Others have presented themselves for single subjects; and some who entered their names but did not appear may perhaps come up at the September examinations. By this course we believe a new impetus will be given to the cultivation of the highest branches of Theological science by the ministers of our own and of other churches; and we hope that ere long our University may be able to offer instruction, as well as examinations, in all of those subjects.

Signed on behalf of the Faculty,

N. BURWASH.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Jubilee Celebration.

Resolved,—That the whole subject of the Jubilee Celebration, including the three objects indicated by the Jubilee Committee, namely, the Superannuated Ministers' Fund, the Theological Institutions, and the Missionary Society, be referred to a large mixed Committee, to arrange the details both of the Celebration and the appropriation of the Fund.

Union and Confederation.

Resolved,—That a Committee, to be named by the President, be appointed, constituting a Union and Confederation Committee, who shall consider all legal and other questions involved in the proposed confederation of this Conference; the Conference of Eastern British America, and the New Connexion Conference; and who, in the consideration of such questions, shall meet any similar Committee appointed by the Conference of Eastern British America and the New Connexion, and report to the next Conference.

Temperance.

Resolved I.—That in view of the great evils of Intemperance, and the baneful effects of the present license system, this Conference would express its earnest conviction that it is the duty of our Dominion Legislature to enact a law prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

II.—That the propriety of petitioning the Government in favor of a Prohibitory law be laid before the Quarterly Meetings of the Connexion, and that they be asked to express their views on this subject.

III.—That a Committee on Temperance be appointed (see No. XIV., page 10), and that the preparation of a memorial to the Governor-General and Parliament, and of a suitable document to be presented to the Quarterly Meetings, be entrusted to this Committee.

Sabbath Observance.

Resolved,—That this Conference, recognizing the Christian Sabbath as a holy day, divinely appointed, and set apart from all secular employments, except works of necessity and mercy; and impressed with the fact that its desecration is not only a violation of a Divine commandment, but a certain prelude to national decay, would record its solemn protest against the increasing desecration of the Sabbath, especially by some of the Railway Companies and other Corporations of the Dominion; and we hereby pledge ourselves to use our best endeavors to secure a Scriptural observance of the Sabbath, by the employment of every legitimate means in our power.

Payment of Widows' Claims.

Resolved,—That the Board of the Superannuated Ministers' Fund be, and hereby are, authorized in paying the claims of the widows of deceased ministers, where there are children by a former wife, to make such a division of the money as may appear to them just and equitable.

French Canadian Missionary Society.

Resolved,—That this Conference cheerfully reiterates its frequently expressed sympathy with the operations and aims of the French-Canadian Missionary Society, whose Missions and schools are chiefly situated in the Province of Quebec for the evangelism of the Roman Catholic population, and we do earnestly pray that all Protestant Christians may be moved to more enlarged activity for the spread of the "truth as it is in Jesus" throughout our whole Dominion.

Rev. Dr. Punshon.

Whereas the Rev. Dr. Punshon has expressed his fixed determination to make over to the Canada Conference the amount presented to him as a Testimonial:

Resolved,—That we, the ministers of this Conference, accept, though reluctantly, this most generous offer; and, whilst engaging to appropriate the amount to the support of the worn-out ministers and their families, according to Dr. Punshon's request, we hereby record our admiration and gratitude for such generosity in our beloved and honored Ex-President.

Parent Missionary Society.

Resolved,—That the respectful and very hearty thanks of this Conference are due, and are hereby presented, to the Missionary Secretaries, Treasurers and General Committee of the Parent Society, for the prompt manner in which the commutation money, agreed upon with President Wiseman, has been remitted to the Treasurer of the Canadian Contingent Fund, and especially for the sum of £350 above the £7,000 sterling, intended to provide for loss of interest occasioned by these transactions; and that the Delegates from this Conference personally convey the same to the parties above-named.

The late Edward Jackson, Esq.

Resolved,—That a letter be written by the Secretary of the Conference to the widow of the late Edward Jackson, Esq., expressing the gratitude of the Conference, and of the friends of Victoria College, for the noble and Christian liberality of that gentleman's bequest of $10,000 for the establishment of a Theological Chair in Victoria College.

The London Friends.

Resolved,—That the thanks of this Conference be, and are hereby, given to the friends in the city of London, for their hospitality so generously extended to the members of the Conference during the protracted sessions of this its Jubilee Meeting.

The London Ministers.

Resolved,—That the thanks of this Conference be presented to the ministers of our Church in the city of London, for their kind attention to the comfort and accommodation of the members of the Conference during this session.

Steamboat and R. R. Companies.

Resolved,—That the thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby presented, to the Railway and Steamboat Companies, for the reduction of fares made to ministers and others attending this Conference; and especially to the London and Port Stanley R. R. authorities, and to Mr. Bowman, the Superintendent, for their kindness in arranging and carrying out a free excursion to Port Stanley and back.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS.

Order of Connexional Collections.

Resolved,—That the Connexional Funds shall be taken up in the following order, viz :—

1. CHURCH RELIEF FUND—In the month of July.
2. CONTINGENT FUND—In the months of September and March.
3. SUPERNANNATED MINISTERS' FUND—In the months of October or November.
4. EDUCATIONAL FUND—In the month of December.
5. VICTORIA COLLEGE FUND—In the month of February.

Financial and other Returns.

Whereas the Returns sent from the Districts to the Conference are frequently incomplete and incorrect, making it quite impossible to compile perfect and accurate tabular statements for the Minutes of Conference, it is

Resolved—(1). That the Financial and District Secretaries be required to have their accounts and tabular statements audited and certified as correct before handing them to the Conference authorities.

(2). That the Secretary of Conference, when sending the books for the May District Meetings, shall call the attention of the Chairmen to the above resolution.

Sustentation of Victoria College.

Resolved—That this Conference, on the recommendation of the Annual Meeting of Victoria College, now directs a special collection to be made in the month of February in all the Congregations under its care, the proceeds to be applied in manner and proportion as were the proceeds of the Assessment upon their Salaries formerly paid by the Ministers, and instead thereof.

Collections for Connexional Funds.

Resolved—That it is the judgment of this Conference, that when collections for connexional purposes are appointed to be taken in any of our churches, the whole of such collections throughout the day shall be appropriated to the respective Funds to which they are related, without any deduction for the Circuit, or any Trust, or other Fund.

Treasurers and Financial Secretaries.

Resolved—That it shall be required of every Financial Secretary, either by himself or by a proxy, to meet the Treasurers of the several Connexional Funds, to report the receipts of their respective Districts, on Tuesday, at two o'clock, P.M., the day before the annual meeting of the Conference.

Superannuated Ministers' Fund.

Resolved—That whereas the rule requires that all widows, claimants on the Superannuated Ministers' Fund, shall be members of our Church : therefore, it shall be the duty of the Chairman of each Annual District Meeting to make enquiries into the case of widows residing within their respective bounds, as to their membership, and report the fact annually to the Conference.

Income of Domestic Missions.

Resolved—That the Financial District Meeting shall examine into the circumstances and probable income of Domestic Missions, in the same way as in respect to Circuits, and suggest the amount that should be appropriated for the support or assistance of such Missions.

Chairmen and Domestic Missions.

Resolved—That the Chairmen of Districts forward to the Missionary Secretaries the amount recommended by the several September Financial District Meetings for the Domestic Missions, as soon as practicable after the close of each meeting.

Preachers Attending College.

Resolved—That in all cases when Preachers, who have travelled four years, are then allowed by the Conference to attend College, their reception into full connexion, and their ordination, are thereby deferred.

Relating to the Book Room.

Resolved—That every Minister and Preacher is henceforth peremptorily required to settle his account with the Book Steward, at or before the Meeting of Conference.

Resolved—That in the case of any Minister or Preacher who is indebted the amount of $100 to the Book Room, the Book Steward shall be authorised to draw on the Treasurer of any Connexional Funds on which that brother may have a claim, to the amount of not more than 25 per cent. of his claim annually, until his debt is paid; and that a like proportion prevail when the indebtedness is larger than the sum named.

Resolved—That the brethren indebted to the Book Room, they not being claimants on the Connexional Funds, be required to settle all overdue accounts.

Probationers.

Resolved—That any Probationer, assisted by the Educational Fund, who, within the period of ten years after Ordination, may wish to withdraw from the Conference, shall be required to refund the amount of aid given him before receiving a Certificate of standing; provided always that this requirement shall not apply to those who retire from ill health.

Visiting the Public Schools, &c.

Resolved—That the Conference earnestly recommends the Ministers of this body to avail themselves of the facilities afforded by the Council of Public Instruction, to visit the Public Schools as frequently as possible at the times prescribed, for the purpose of communicating religious instruction.

Attendance at Conference.

1. That the Conference shall each year, after the place of holding the next Session of Conference is fixed, determine the whole number to be appointed by the District Meetings to attend the Conference, and leave each District Meeting to select its proportion from among the members of Conference belonging to the District.

2. That this limitation shall not apply to the District within the bounds of which the Conference is to be held.

Registration of Baptisms.

Resolved—That the Conference re-affirms its resolution of 1843, on the Registration of Baptisms, viz:—

1. That it shall no longer be required to keep Registry Books on the various Circuits, but that there shall be kept, at the Conference Establishment, in Toronto, one General Registry of Births and Baptisms for the whole Church.

2. That the General Registrar shall be the Book Steward for the time being. The Registrar shall furnish each ordained Minister yearly with a small ruled blank-book, for the convenient and uniform entry and return of Births and Baptisms. The Minister shall return the said book, with the entries, to the Registrar at the Conference after. The returns shall be copied into the General Registry Book, which book shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar.

MODE OF EXAMINATION.

That Candidates for our Ministry and Probationers shall be examined under the supervision of the Chairman and Financial Secretary of each District, by means of printed papers prepared by the Examiners and transmitted to the Chairman.

That each Chairman and Financial Secretary meet the Candidates and Probationers on their Districts, on the last Wednesday in April ; place the printed questions before them, and transmit their written answers to the respective Examiners, who shall report the results to the Secretary of the Examining Board. The Secretary shall issue the Certificates and transmit them to each Chairman prior to the District Meeting.

In addition to the usual thorough Theological Examination of Candidates before the District Meeting, the Chairman shall examine each Candidate as to his Studies and General Reading for the year, with a view to giving advice as to his course and method of study. No Candidate shall be allowed the year of probation until the studies for that year are completed.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING CANDIDATES.

Every person, before being received as a full Local Preacher, shall have previously labored - at least three months as an Exhorter, and three months on trial as a Local Preacher ; and no Candidate for our Itinerancy shall be recommended by a Quarterly Meeting to a District Meeting, who has not labored at least three months as a full Local Preacher.

No Candidate shall be recommended by any District Meeting, to be received on trial for that year, who does not produce a Certificate from the Examining Committee of the District to which he belongs. But the cases of all young men on trial shall be reported to their respective District Meetings.

All recommendations of Candidates to be received on trial shall be made at the February Quarterly Official Meeting, and the Candidates recommended shall appear before the next meeting of the Examining Committee of the District to which they belong.

The District Meeting shall require the Superintendent of the Circuit from which any young man is recommended to be received on trial, to give a written statement of his religious character, talents, and usefulness, educational advantages and acquirements, employment and means of support, and such other particulars as the meeting may deem necessary; which statement shall be signed by him and recorded in the District Book.

If in any given year the number of Candidates recommended by the District Meetings shall be greater than the Stationing Committee deem it prudent to employ for that year, the Examining Board shall meet at Conference, and determine who are the most suitable to be employed in our Itinerant work, and who to be placed on the List of Reserve: being governed by their own class lists, and those of the District Meetings.

The District Meeting shall examine, as heretofore, all the Candidates in regard to their religious experience and belief of our doctrines, together with their general qualifications and suitability for our Itinerant work, and shall arrange them in three classes, according to the results of this Examination.

The Conference requires Candidates for our Ministry to preach a Trial Sermon before the District Meeting by which they are recommended, or before a Committee appointed by the District Meeting, who shall report their opinion on the sermon, and embody it in the recommendation of such Candidate to the Conference.

Nothing in our present Course of Study shall be understood to prevent a District Meeting, in special cases, from recommending a Candidate to the Conference for reception on trial after examination by the Chairman, before the District Meeting, on the subjects of the preliminary Course of Study.

ADDRESSES AND REPLIES.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH IN CANADA.

TO THE

MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH UNDER ITS CARE.

---

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,—

“Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. We thank God upon every remembrance of you, and pray that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent, that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ.”

With emotions of profound thankfulness we acknowledge the great mercy through which we have been enabled to meet in this our fiftieth Conference, to rejoice in the continued evidences of the divine guidance bestowed upon ourselves, and the churches committed to our care. Perhaps at no former session was the presence of Him who is both the “Giver of peace, and lover of concord,” more manifestly felt than at this. One of great labor—it has been one of special grace, harmony, and blessing. We have rejoiced in the intelligence received from every part of the wide and extensive field occupied by our ministry, of the blessing of God, which has descended upon the churches, rendering the preached word "the power of God unto salvation;" of the vitality and power of the truth, as experienced by scores of thousands of our members; of the fervor and zeal with which our great church work is pursued, and that intelligent determination everywhere manifest throughout our entire Israel to fulfil our Divine mission to spread Scriptural holiness throughout the world. "Thanks be to God who always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of His knowledge by us in every place."

In the death record of the year will be found the names of honored and beloved brethren who bore the burdens and privations of former years; who saw the Church in its comparative weakness, and were permitted to share in its later triumphs; and, also, the names of younger men, more recently called to this ministry, but eminently honored of God, who have passed upward to their reward, proving in death as in life the power and unfailing love of the living Redeemer. They now "rest from their labor, and their works follow them." They, being dead, seem to exhort us to "remember the words which they spake unto us, being yet present with us." Not a few of our members have also changed mortality for life; some of whom were among the princes of the people and leaders of the enterprises of the Church, both local and general; men whose saintly lives and holy endeavor gave a fragrance to their names, and a freshness to their memory which will not fade by the lapse of years. See, therefore, "that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who, through faith and patience, inherit the promises."

Though we lament the loss to the Church of the labors of those who have thus passed away, yet we rejoice in the communication of the Divine Spirit, through whose blessing upon the preaching of the word, a large number of persons have been brought from darkness into light, so that after filling up the vacancies occasioned by death, and other causes, we are enabled to report an increase of over one thousand to the membership of the Church. And we are sure, dear brethren, that you will share our joy in the fact that thirty-nine young men were set apart to the work of the ministry, of whom we have good hope that from the advantages they have received, and the marked evidence of devotedness to their work, that they will become "able ministers of the New Testament." We have also been gratified to learn, that thirty-seven young men have offered themselves as probationers for our ministry. Yet, owing to the progress and enlargement of the work, a number of the circuits are only partially supplied. We invite you, therefore, to unite with us in prayer, that the spirit of consecration to the great work of evangelization may rest upon the young men of the Church, that the waste places of Zion may be built up, and trophies of redeeming grace may be gathered in the desolate places.

Delightful intelligence reaches us of the continued success of our Sunday-school enterprise; and it will be a matter of grateful praise to you, as it is to us, to learn that 2,009 of the children and youth have set out during the year to serve God; and that not less than 5,409 of our scholars are now meeting in class. Such an agency for good must commend itself to your prayers and your Christian benevolence, that it may be rendered more efficient and equal to the great expectations we cherish concerning it.

Our University at Cobourg, from whose halls have gone forth so many of your sons, thoroughly equipped for the warfare of life, and are found in the pulpits and foremost places of the land, was never more prosperous, nor gave brighter augury of future success than at present. A theological department has, through the liberality of kind friends, been established at Cobourg and at Montreal, which we commend to your sympathy and support. Your Female College at Hamilton, under the successful government of the Rev. Dr. Rice, is accomplishing a great work in imparting the highest Christian culture to a large number of your daughters, and investing them with most potent influence for good in their future home circles, which cannot fail to bless the Church and the world. Institutions at Dundas, in Ontario, and at Stanstead, in Quebec, are also inaugurated under able governors for the higher education of your young people; and we ask your prayers that the Divine blessing may rest upon these enterprises, that they may be eminently successful in imparting a sound religious education, and thus advance the cause of truth and righteousness.

We have been greatly cheered and encouraged by the visitation to the Conference of two honored brethren from our distant fields of missionary labor, the Rev. George Young, of the Red River District, and the Rev. A. E. Russ, M.A., from New Westminster, British Columbia. These brethren came to us with tidings of success, and earnestly pressed upon us the importance of strengthening the staff of laborers in their respective districts. They ask for men to proclaim the truth which has wrought such wonders in this land, and for means to extend the Redeemer's kingdom in places where his name is not known. They appeal to you, as those who are put in trust with a dispensation of the Gospel, for assistance and succour. With the increase of wealth, of intelligence, and culture, let us not forget that it is for us to maintain the peculiar missionary character which has marked the history of this department of the Church from its inception. In this connection we mention the foreign mission to the empire of Japan, which your zeal and piety have enabled us to commence, thus taking a share in the true vocation of the general Church of Christ, the extension of the name and kingdom of our Lord to the ends of the earth. But, brethren, we cannot rest here. "The harvest is great, the laborers are few." We entreat you to pray "that the Lord of the harvest may send forth laborers into his harvest." We invite you to study the cause of the world's conversion in your closets, over an open Bible, until it touches your hearts by its own power, and sways your understanding and judgment by its own great argument; until a Macedonian benevolence, such as the Church has not yet given, shall exhibit the strength and force of our faith in the world's regeneration, and the warmth and earnestness of your love to Christ.

The Conference now closing is the Jubilee Conference of the Wesleyan Church in Canada, and is one of unprecedented importance to us. As we have looked over the past, and compared it with the present, we have rejoiced in the way in which the Lord our God hath led us. Our hearts have been full of praise and thanksgiving as we have thought of the successes vouchsafed to us, of the marvellous extension of the Church, the moulding influence it has exerted upon the character and institutions of the country, both in a civil and religious aspect, the position in the Dominion in which the providence and grace of God has placed us, the numbers that range themselves under our Wesleyan banner, the various agencies and resources now at the disposal of the Church for her great and glorious mission, and we say with the Psalmist, "Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things, and blessed be his glorious name for ever; and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen and Amen."

Another fact which gives interest to this Conference, is that this year is also the Jubilee year of the Missionary Society of the Church. Great and marvellous has been the work performed by this Society during the fifty years of its existence, both among the aborigines of the country, as well as among the new and destitute settlers. The Word of Life has wrought wonders among the Indian tribes, and has been a solace and a comfort to the emigrant amid the uncertainties and solitudes of his new position. The Holy spirit has shed abroad his influences "as floods upon the dry ground," "the wilderness has become a fruitful field," "and the desert has blossomed as the garden of the Lord."

In reviewing the events of the fifty years now closing, it becomes us to acknowledge with gratitude our obligation to Almighty God; and we are confident that you will join with us in suitable memorial services, that shall perpetuate our appreciation of the untold blessings and advantages which have been conferred upon us, and our beloved country, through the instrumentality of Wesleyan Methodism. After much prayerful consideration and thought, we have concluded that the Jubilee year of the Conference, and of the Missionary Society, affords a fitting opportunity of commemorating the commencement of that great work, which, under God, has wrought so much good in this land. We invite you, therefore, to unite with us in such religious and memorial services as may be indicated by the committee to which this matter has been assigned; and we heartily pray that the rich and animating presence of the Holy Spirit may descend upon the length and breadth of the Church, bringing to us those blessings which shall result in increasing unity, consolidation, and prosperity.

The legislation of the present Conference has been of singular importance to the whole Church. The subject of the division of the Conference into three sections, and the confederation of the Wesleyan Churches of the Dominion, involving some great changes in our economy, has, after a long, prayerful, and thorough discussion, been decided by the Conference. The entire scheme, as agreed upon, will be laid before you at the November Quarterly Meeting. No subject could be placed before you of greater moment than this, and we most confidently appeal to you to assist us in the accomplishment of so great a work. United as we are nationally, we seek to make the Church of our choice and our love more effective in moulding the destiny of the nation, and to impress upon its institutions that Christian character which shall be a pledge and augury of their stability throughout all time. We would claim this whole Dominion for Christ, and, by his help, confront and turn back the swelling tide of ungodliness, and hasten the period when upon every industry and activity of the country shall be written, "holiness unto the Lord." We pray that as a Church we may have grace to rise to the height of the great privilege to which we are called. Let us ask "the wisdom that is profitable to direct in all things." Let us seek the Divine anointing. Clothed with the garment of purity, under the inspiration of a high and holy endeavor, let us arise, and in the light of Divine direction, seize the opportunity of securing a United Wesleyan Church throughout the Dominion.

Another matter of great importance is the subject of union with the Methodist New Connexion Church of Canada. We are confident you will appreciate the motive, and second the endeavor of the Conference to secure so desirable a result. Too long has the Methodism of Canada been divided; and the ruinous influence of rival pulpits and rival interests prevented the growth and advancement of the truth as it is in Jesus. One in the essential elements of a common faith and of a common purpose, one in the love we bear to our great Redeemer, and, feeling that the prayer of our common Saviour for the unity of the Church must be answered, ere the great design of his mission can be accomplished, we are desirous that such an arrangement may be made as should give us an organic unity, that, being united in a common brotherhood, we may heartily unite around the only saving Name, with a fuller and more loving appreciation of its meaning. The plan we have agreed upon, as the basis of Union, will be submitted to you for your approval; and we heartily pray the God of all grace to grant unto you "the spirit of wisdom and knowledge," that the important matters which await your consideration may receive that attention which will enable you to arrive at such conclusions as shall best serve the interests of the truth, and effectually promote the peace, prosperity, and unity of the Church.

It is with gratitude to God, and for your encouragement we state, that the various funds of the Church are in a prosperous condition. The hearty co-operation we have received from you, in this regard, is not only encouraging to us, but is taken by us as an expression of your attachment to the Church, and of the cordial sympathy you have with us in those great interests which require your material support. May God, who is able, "make all grace abound toward you, that ye, always having all-sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work."

Dear Brethren, allow us to remind you of the very great importance of cultivating a thoroughly religious character. In these days of religious speculation, insatiable thirst for novelty, and increasing hostility to evangelical godliness, we earnestly exhort you to "hold fast the form of sound words," "the faith once delivered to the saints," the truth of which has been verified in your own experience, and by the many living examples of piety with which you have been associated. You have heard, you have seen, how mighty it has been,

"through God, in pulling down the strongholds;" and how, in our congregations, the declaration of the truth has been so accompanied by the power of the Holy Ghost, that multitudes have proved it to be "the savour of life unto life." Let this satisfy you that the Gospel has not lost its efficiency,—that by it glorious transformations of mind and heart are still accomplished; it still fills the Church with songs of triumph, and enhances the joy of angels; it still produces purity of life, and manliness of character. Rest not, then, satisfied with anything short of the mind of Christ. Know that you have "passed from death unto life." Realize the Word of God as a living and "present truth." Let assurance of your relation to God become the habit of the life. Rejoice in being of the household of God. Let your soul in the fulness of its faith say, "Christ is mine; his promises are yea and amen to me." Seek the baptism of the Holy Ghost; such culture of the affections and passions, such a mastery of self, as shall ultimate, by God's blessing, in a perfection of the fruits of righteousness, "that you may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing." God requires our best services, our complete surrender, our undivided heart. The world needs for its subjugation to the truth the most complete Christian character. "They overcame by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony." Sanctified exertion, unbounded self-consuming devotion, can only be the outcome of the "faith that works by love, and purifies the heart." By this alone shall we be qualified for the Christian work demanded of us. True labor for Christ can only be successfully prosecuted when there is a high commanding faith, and a holy sanctified endeavor.

We would remind you, dear brethren, of the importance of those means of grace that are peculiar to us as Methodists. While you have respect for the house of the Lord, and a regard for the preaching of the word, let the prayer-meeting have its importance with you. This cannot be neglected without great spiritual loss. If you would maintain a healthy spiritual life, all the means of grace must be appreciated by you. Suffer us to admonish you, as "those that must give account," that you neglect not those means which bring you into more direct Christian fellowship. In this connection we would press upon you the great importance of Class meeting. Forsake not this assembling of yourselves together, that by mutual prayer, and mutual sympathy, you may be encouraged and comforted. A condition of membership in the Church it has been from the beginning. Let us zealously maintain what has proved of such incalculable advantage in the moral and spiritual culture of our members; "let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same things."

We would earnestly commend to you the subject of family religion. Let your personal piety lead you to maintain the worship of God in your families. Amid the hurry and strife of the present time, the absorbing passion for secular business, the weariness, toil and excitement attendant upon every avocation, let your homes have the attraction which piety alone can give them. Remember you are the pastors of the household. Let then your devotions be punctual, fervent, judicious; your deportment kind, peaceful, conciliating; your control firm, Christian, discriminating. See that your children are trained in "the nurture and admonition of the Lord." Let not the facilities of the Sunday-school serve as an excuse for the non-performance of a duty which God has enjoined on you. Let there be Christian sanctity, joined with paternal love, and your household shall be known as of the tribes of the Lord.

Watching over you with a godly jealousy, we deem it incumbent upon us to warn you against the insidious influences which, under the name of popular amusements, would draw you away from the "simplicity that is in Christ." The exhortations of holy Scripture, at all times suitable, come to us in these days with singular force and appropriateness: "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him; for all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world." Be on your guard against the tendency of conformity to the world, whose friendship "is enmity to God," whose baneful influence corrupts the heart, withering its moral bloom, and blasting the fruits of holiness in the soul. Let not the illusions of pleasure, nor the desire for social distinction, beguile you from the holy duty and sublime enjoyment of living continually to the honor and glory of God.

See that your households are supplied with pure and Christian literature. We caution you against the irreligious and insidious influence which pervades so much of the literature of the day. We are persuaded that the preference so often given to the popular serial, daily journal, and ephemeral issues of the press, to the exclusion of more substantial and satisfactory reading, lowers the tone of piety, and creates a distaste for spiritual things. We would urge rather the pursuit of real knowledge, of useful inquiry, which, while it gratified the taste, would nourish the piety, expand the judgment, refine the feelings, and serve as an antidote to the teaching of a shallow and sophistical science, which has proved so disastrous to those who have been led away by its influence. Make yourselves well acquainted with the writings of Wesley and other standard writers of our Church, as well as the writings of the great Christian lights of this age. Our excellent Book Room will furnish you with a choice variety of the best Christian literature, while the CHRISTIAN GUARDIAN will supply you with information relative to the progress of the Church, at home and abroad. We earnestly commend our own publications to your liberal patronage and preference.

And now, dear brethren, we are about to separate, and take our departure to those fields of labor which have been assigned us. May we go, "in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ." Pray for us that this Jubilee year of the Conference may be marked by signal success. As we go forth to "proclaim liberty to the captive, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound," may the Lord go with us; "that as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth," so may "the Lord God cause righteousness and peace to spring forth before all people."

THE ANSWER
OF THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1872,
TO THE
ADDRESS OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST
CONFERENCE IN CANADA, 1872.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

Your fraternal Address has been received and read in open Conference. The interest with which its statements were listened to was deepened by the oral communication of the beloved brother, whom you had elected to represent you at this Assembly, and whom, you will be pleased to hear, we have elected to preside over our deliberations.

The assurance of your "loyal attachment to the Throne and to the Empire" is extremely grateful to us. You shared our grief at the affliction which threatened to remove from our midst the Heir Apparent to these realms, and our joy at his restoration in answer to a nation's prayers. By other dangers, now we may hope happily passed, the mutual friendship of the mother-country and her largest English-speaking dependency has been tested and confirmed. And so long as this fervent patriotism glows in the breasts of Canadians, we trust that we who still occupy the ancient home shall not be found wanting in our duty toward them.

Dearer to us, however, even than the integrity of the British Empire, is the unity of the catholic Church, and particularly of that portion of it which owes its existence to the large-hearted charity and world-embracing zeal of John Wesley. How much depends upon the maintenance of this unity is perhaps even more clear to you, looking as distant, though not uninterested spectators, upon the strife that rages every day within this original stronghold of Protestantism, than to ourselves, engaged in the hottest of the battle. A dispensation of the Gospel, not inferior in importance to that of the very chiefest of the Apostles, when he stood upon the confines of one continent, and heard the voice which summoned him to attempt the subjugation of another, is committed unto us and unto you. In proportion to the greatness of this Divine vocation should be our solicitude to maintain a perfect unity both in doctrine and in discipline. It is not a forced and formal unity we covet, but a real and vital spiritual unity, such as consists with the utmost liberty of thought and action in non-essentials,—such a unity as is best symbolized by the free and fraternal communings we are wont to interchange at our Annual Assemblies. That you are jealous of its maintenance is attested to us by the tone of your Address and the report of your Representative. We trust it is only an additional proof of your fidelity to ancient standards that is found in the fact that not only another Affiliated Conference, but also another body of Methodists, should have expressed a desire for closer ecclesiastical union with you. The existence of such a desire we cannot but regard as honorable alike to you and to them, and for its happy consummation, in harmony with the original principles of Wesleyan Methodism, you have our heartiest wishes and devoutest prayers.

We are thankful to hear of your efforts to secure a more thorough training for your rising Ministry, and of the munificent offer by which they have been recently stimulated. The benefits of a similar course we are reaping every day.

In reference, indeed, to all our general interests, we have abundant reason to join with you in sincere thanksgiving for multiplied signs of prosperity. Never were the soul-saving truths of the Gospel proclaimed more widely, or listened to more reverently, in England, than at the present day. Never were there so many noble enterprises set on foot for the instruction and elevation of the masses of the people. And we rejoice that you should be associated with us in the humblest, as well as what may be deemed the more honorable, portion of our work. It has therefore given us high satisfaction to hear of your generous response to the appeal made to you on behalf of the Children's Home. It has been a matter of serious concern to us, however, that the many visitations of the Divine Spirit which we joyfully acknowledge to have received, have not become so universal as to stay the loss of membership arising from ordinary, and, in some places, from extraordinary causes. Yet there is good ground for hoping that this may shortly be the case. Obstacles to the spiritual life are not less common than in the days when Apostles uttered their inspired denunciations of those who "walk according to the course of this world." But the inspired promise reassures us: "This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." We are jealous lest there should be any falling off in the force and fulness of the streams of evangelical truth and life, at what we have been accustomed to regard, perhaps with a pardonable pride, as their very fountain-head. We are resolved,—and here the most diffident candidates for our office and ministry will not fail to say “Amen,”—that we will use our utmost endeavors to maintain the lead in the great race of benevolence which we are called to run.

Death has been at work in our ranks as in yours, having removed from us, among many other burning and shining lights, such men as Dr. Dixon, Dr. Hoole, and Thomas Vasey. We are admonished by their departure, as well as by the retirement from active labor of some whose names have been towers of strength, to “work while it is day, because the night cometh, when no man can work.”

We are thankful that you receive the decision of your President and our beloved brother, Dr. Punshon, to return to his native country as an act of obedience to the guiding hand of Providence. You will lose a powerful preacher, an able administrator, and many of you a highly-valued friend; but you will gain on this side of the Atlantic an eloquent advocate of the claims, and expounder of the views, of Canadian Methodism. We on our part shall hail the re-appearance among us of one who, in the devotion of his talents and influence to the best of causes, has ever shown himself animated by the purest principles.

The nomination of the Rev. Samuel D. Rice, D.D., as your President for next year, and of the Rev. Ephraim B. Harper, M.A., as Co-Delegate, has received our cordial sanction.

And now, beloved brethren, convinced that a great future awaits your Church and nation, and that assisting its development you, like us, will need a full equipment of the power of the Spirit, we “commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.”

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

GEORGE T. PERKS,

Secretary.

TO THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE.

REVEREND FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Your paternal answer to our address of last year has been duly received; and the reading of it has afforded us grateful satisfaction, and has excited that deep interest which always attaches to your communications.

We rejoice to learn that in the extension of church accommodations, and in the means of supporting all your home institutions and Missionary operations, you have been blessed with unprecedented prosperity, while your ministrations of the Word have never been more faithful, and the attendance upon them has never been so large.

The unity of Methodism to which you give such forcible expression, has a profound response in our hearts. Ever since the English and American Conferences, in 1820, mutually declared that the Methodists were one body throughout the world, and were determined so to remain, we have cherished the noble and truthful sentiment; and we derive no small satisfaction and encouragement from the conviction and feeling that, with diversities of operations, and even gifts and administrations in various countries, on whatever continent of the globe, or island of the sea, Methodism has opened its commission, or proclaimed the Gospel of salvation, the same doctrines have been preached, the same hymns have been sung, the same have been established, the same conversions and reformations have been produced, the same experience has been realized, the same worship is observed, and the same spirit of unity, of universal progress, and universal extension is cherished and cultivated ; while the leaven and spirit of our scriptural doctrines and institutions have been widely diffused beyond the limits of our own denominational boundaries. Therefore, into whatever arrangements we may enter, or whatever methods we may adopt to advance our providential work in this Dominion, we purpose to keep steadily in view, as you suggest, the fundamental principles and distinguishing land-marks of original Wesleyan Methodism.

We gratefully record the undisturbed harmony, the uninterrupted success and expansion of our work during the five years of the presidency of the Rev. William Morley Punshon, LL.D., for whose permission to come to us and spend a term of years among us we are indebted to your kindness. During the last five years the work of our Church has been blessed in all its departments—been blessed with an unusually great increase and enlargement ; and that success is in no small degree owing, under the Divine blessing, to the administration, counsels, and labors of Dr. Punshon, who, on the expiration of his permitted period of service here, carries with him to the parent Church and his native land, the admiration, respect, gratitude, and affection of the ministers and members of our Church and congregation, and of our country at large, for his truly scriptural and eloquent discourses and addresses, his practical counsels, his extensive and unwearied labours. We have sympathized with him in the sorrows through which he has been called to pass ; and on his departure from us, he is accompanied by our best wishes and earnest prayers for his future happiness and welfare. We have requested Dr. Punshon to co-operate with our Representatives to you at your approaching Conference ; and to him, in connection with them, we refer you in regard to the details of the progress of our work during the five years of his administration among us, and especially during the past year. We simply add, that, during our present Conference we have received 39 young men on trial, and received into full connexion and ordained to the work of the ministry 37 young men, who have fulfilled their four years of trial, and passed all the required examinations in the most satisfactory manner, and give promise of great efficiency and usefulness. During the past year a large number of new and commodious places of worship have been erected; we have had an addition to the membership of upwards of one thousand, and a large increase in our Missionary, Circuit, Educational and other Connexional Funds. Our University, Colleges, and other Educational Institutions and Sabbath Schools, have shared in the general prosperity.

Besides the ordinary business of our Conference, the gravest and most vital questions have been largely and earnestly discussed, but without the slightest tinge of bitterness, and in the true spirit of brotherly love. We have considered with great care and decided upon the important question of forming all the Methodists in the several provinces of the Dominion of Canada into one Connexion, under the control of a Quadrennial General Conference and several Annual Conferences; and have also considered and adopted certain arrangements and regulations for a Union between our own Church and that of the Methodists of the New Connexion.

In order that you may be fully informed of and give your consent to these proposed measures, we have appointed as our Representatives to your Body, the Rev. Dr. S. S. Nelles, President of our Victoria University, and the Rev. E. H. Dewart, Editor of the CHRISTIAN GUARDIAN,—brethren holding the highest place in our esteem and affection—who will give you all needful information in regard to our contemplated organizations and arrangements, and whom we commend to your affectionate confidence.

From our experience of the great ability of the Rev. Dr. S. D. Rice, D.D., as our President during the proceedings of our Conference, we recommend him as our President for the ensuing year ; we have also nominated as Co-Delegate, our respected and long-tried friend and brother, the Rev. John S. Williams ; and we respectfully request your sanction to these nominations.

Never have the proceedings of our Conference been more harmonious, spiritual, and edifying than during the present Session ; and encouraged by the experience of past success and present prosperity, humbled under a consciousness of many short-comings, impressed by a deep sense of personal obligation, and animated by the promises and prospects of the future, we consecrate ourselves afresh to the Divine work committed to us by the great Head of the Church.

We entreat the co-operation of your prayers for a renewed and copious baptism of the Holy Spirit, that throughout all our congregations, and in all the departments of our Church operations, the Divine blessing, in all its fertilizing influences, may render our ministrations and labours more successful than ever in our sacred mission of spreading Scriptural Holiness over the land.

Signed by order and on behalf of the Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada.

ADDRESS

TO

HER MOST GRACIOUS MAJESTY VICTORIA,

By the Grace of God, of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, etc., etc., etc.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the ministers of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, in Conference assembled, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Majesty with renewed expressions of our ardent attachment to your Majesty's person and throne, and to present to your Majesty our sincere and hearty congratulations upon the recovery of His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, from his late severe and dangerous illness.

We embrace the earliest opportunity afforded us by our assembling in our Annual Conference, to assure your Majesty of the profound sympathy which we and the thousands of the Methodist people of this Dominion, in common with all classes of your Majesty's subjects, felt for our venerated and beloved Sovereign and the Royal family in the day of their affliction and the nation's peril; and of our devout gratitude to Him in whose hand are the issues from death, that in answer to the fervent prayers of a suppliant nation, He has been graciously pleased to avert a calamity which would have plunged your Majesty and the millions of your Majesty's loyal subjects in deepest sorrow.

We earnestly pray that the same merciful Providence which has hitherto shielded the Royal household may continue to be its defence, that your Majesty's life and illustrious reign may be prolonged, and that when your Majesty is called to exchange an earthly for a heavenly crown, the dignities which your Majesty has so worthily enjoyed may descend to your Majesty's Royal Son and Heir.

By authority and on behalf of the Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, in the City of Montreal, this thirteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and of Her Majesty's reign the thirty-fifth.

DOWNING STREET, 23rd October, 1872.

MY LORD,—

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Lordship's despatch, No. 59, of the 1st inst., enclosing an address to the Queen from the ministers of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, in Conference assembled, on the recovery of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

I am commanded to instruct you to convey to the President of the Conference and the ministers, the Queen's thanks for their kind expressions of sympathy and of congratulation; and to assure them that Her Majesty warmly appreciates the spirit of loyalty to the British Crown, and of attachment to the Person and Family of the Sovereign which is displayed in their address.

I have, &c.,

(Signed)

KIMBERLEY.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Dufferin,
K.P., K.C.B.

A D D R E S S

EARL DUFFERIN,

GOVERNOR GENERAL OF CANADA.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY :

We, the Ministers of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Canada, now in Conference assembled in the City of Montreal, desire to greet your Excellency upon your arrival in the Dominion of Canada, with hearty and very sincere expressions of congratulation.

It is a matter of sincere satisfaction to us that it has pleased Her Majesty to appoint, as her Vice-Regal Representative in our Dominion, one who has already distinguished himself by eminent zeal and wisdom, and devoted loyalty in the service of the Home Government of Great Britain.

We rejoice to be able to state that the Church of which we have the honor to be the pastors, occupies the distinguished position of being one of the largest Protestant Ecclesiastical Organizations in the Dominion. Its operations extend literally across the Continent from the Atlantic to the Pacific seaboard. Its missionaries are laboring zealously in the more remote and destitute settlements, and among the various Indian tribes of our country. Its Collegiate Institutions are endeavoring to afford facilities to all classes of our youth for acquiring all the branches of a liberal education.

The Conference of our Church consists of a body of upward of six hundred ministers, who are maintaining the regular preaching of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in one thousand eight hundred distinct churches and other preaching places, and the number of those attending our ministry is estimated at a quarter of a million of persons.

We assure your Excellency of the deep-seated and uniform loyalty of both ourselves and the numerous congregations committed to our care, to the Throne of Great Britain, which your Excellency has the honor to represent among us, and to the illustrious person of our rightful Sovereign Queen Victoria, by whose griefs our hearts have been deeply moved, and for whose joys we have heartily united in giving thanks to God.

We also assure your Excellency of the ardent attachment of ourselves and people to the Constitution of the Canadian Dominion.

And we further assure your Excellency, that our most fervent prayers shall continuously be offered that your occupancy of the Vice-regal Throne of Canada may be characterized by pre-eminent wisdom and great domestic happiness.

Signed by authority and in behalf of the Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, in the City of Montreal, this thirteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord 1872.

HIS EXCELLENCY'S REPLY.

TO THE MINISTERS OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH IN CANADA :

GENTLEMEN,

The address which you have done me the honor of presenting to me is not only most welcome, as containing your kind expressions of regard towards myself, but as bringing under my notice the noble work which your Church is performing, in encouraging religion and in waging war against vice and heathenism.

There is nothing in this country that I regard with deeper satisfaction than the spectacle of various religious denominations laboring side by side, in generous rivalry to secure the great aims of all truly good men ; employing their energies, not in intestine warfare, but in the dire struggle which demands the most earnest efforts of all Christians, under whatever banner they may fight.

I can well feel how great must be the labor and how trying the work of those whose duty it is to minister the Gospel, especially when, in a country of which the population is so scattered, they miss the visible co-operation and the kindly society of their fellow-laborers ; I can therefore appreciate the benefit which each and all, individually and collectively, derive from a Conference where six hundred ministers bring their united experience to bear on the great and difficult questions which must so often present themselves for solution to the struggling preacher, deprived for the time of all human advice and aid.

I can assure you that Her Most Gracious Majesty, for whom in such feeling language you express your sentiments of attachment and loyalty, views with no common interest the progress of the work you are engaged in, and that I feel certain that I shall fail in my duties as her representative in this country if I do not further, by example and by deed, the cause which you have at heart, and for the success of which you are putting forth your most vigorous energy.

I thank you heartily for your wishes for the happiness of myself and my family, and I trust as we become further known to each other, the esteem which we mutually feel may ripen into a lasting friendship.

Toronto, Sept. 29, 1872.

APPENDIX I.

REPORT

OF THE

Joint Committee on the Division of the Conference, and the Federal Union of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in British America, held in the Dorchester Street Church, Montreal, during the month of October, 1872, as amended by the Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, held in London, in the month of June, 1873:—

GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

1. The Wesleyan Methodist Conferences in British America shall be so altered in the form of their general government as to be composed of one General Conference, and several Annual Conferences.

2. The Name of the Church hereby organized shall be THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH OF CANADA, or if it should hereafter be found expedient, the United Wesleyan Methodist Church of Canada.

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

3. Whereas, under existing circumstances, it is deemed expedient to make such arrangements as will admit of the incorporation of Lay Representation in the General Conference, if it be found that the requisite majority of the Quarterly Meetings of the two existing Conferences desire such incorporation ;

The General Conference shall be composed of either one Minister for every four members of each Annual Conference, or of one Minister and one Layman for every eight members of each Annual Conference. Provided, nevertheless, that a fraction of three-fourths shall entitle a Conference to an additional representative. Provided always that the President of each Conference shall be one of those so elected; and also provided always that the whole number of delegates elected to the First General Conference shall not exceed two hundred and twenty.

4. The Ministerial members of the General Conference shall be elected by ballot.

5. The appointment of Laymen to the General Conference shall be made as follows:—

(1) The Laymen in each Annual District Meeting next preceding the meeting of the General Conference shall elect from among the members of our Church, within the bounds of the District, a representative or representatives to the General Conference; the number so elected to be determined by the number of Church members in the District, as compared with the entire membership within the bounds of the Annual Conference; the whole number not to exceed the number of Ministers appointed by such Annual Conference.

(2) The Lay members of the District Meeting making such appointments to the General Conference shall be elected by ballot by the Quarterly Official Meeting next preceding.

6. The Secretary of each Annual Conference shall compute the number of Laymen to be appointed by each District, in accordance with the principles laid down in section 5, and publish the same in the minutes of the Annual Conference next preceding such District appointment. Each delegate must be not less than twenty-five years of age, and must have been a member of the Church continuously during the five years next preceding the time of his election.

7. A majority of those chosen to constitute the General Conference shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

8. The first General Conference shall meet on the first Wednesday after the fifteenth day of September, in the year 1874, provided that the Conferences concerned shall have approved of the plan of Union; and thenceforward, once in four years, on the first Wednesday after the fifteenth day of September, in such place as may be decided by the General Conference.

9. Each General Conference, from its Ministerial members, shall, on its assembling, elect by ballot, without debate, a President, who shall preside over its proceedings, and all its Committees, during the four years of his Presidency.

10. Each General Conference shall, immediately after the election of the General Superintendents, elect by ballot, without debate, a Secretary or Secretaries, whose duty it shall be to keep a correct record of its proceedings, and publish the minutes under the direction of the General Conference.

11. The General Conference only, shall have power to make rules and regulations for the Church under the following limitations and restrictions, viz. :

(1) They shall not revoke, alter, or change any article of religion, nor establish any new standards or rules of doctrine, contrary to our existing and established standards.

(2) They shall not destroy the plan of our Itinerant system.

(3) They shall not make any changes in the General Rules of our Society.

(4) They shall not do away with the privilege of our Ministers and Preachers of trial by a Committee of Ministers, and of an appeal; neither shall they do away with the privileges of our members, of trial by a Committee and of an appeal.

(5) They shall not appropriate the profits of the Book Room to any purpose other than for the benefit of the Preachers, Travelling and Superannuated, of the Canada Conference, and the Travelling Preachers and Supernumeraries of the Conference of Eastern British America, their wives, widows and children.

(6) All new Regulations, and alterations of any Rule or Regulation now in force, respecting our temporal economy,—such as the building of Churches, the order to be observed therein; the allowance to the Ministers or Preachers, their widows and children; the raising of annual supplies for the propagation of the Gospel, (Missions excepted); for the making up of the allowances of the Ministers, Preachers, &c., shall not be considered of any force or authority, until such rule, regulation, or alteration, shall have been laid before the Quarterly Meetings throughout the several Annual Conferences, and shall have received the concurrence of a majority of the members, who may be present at the time of laying said rule or regulation before them, of two-thirds of said Quarterly Meetings.

(7) Nor shall any new rule, regulation or alteration, respecting the rights and privileges of our members; such as receiving persons on trial; the conditions on which they shall retain their membership; the manner of bringing to trial, finding guilty, reproof, suspending or excluding disorderly persons from Society and Church privileges, have any force or authority till laid before the Quarterly Meetings and approved as aforesaid: Provided, however, that on the concurrent recommendation of three-fourths of all the members of the several Annual Conferences who shall be present and vote thereon, then a majority of two-thirds of the General Conference succeeding shall suffice to alter any of the above restrictions, except the first and third, which they shall not alter; Provided, further, when such alteration or alterations shall have been passed by two-thirds of the General Conference, so soon as three-fourths of the members of the several Annual Conferences shall have concurred as aforesaid, such alteration or alterations shall have effect; Provided, also, that in case there shall be a Lay delegation in the General Conference, the appeal to the Quarterly Meetings, allowed in the above restrictions, shall not be continued in force, but shall be null and void.

12. Any act of the General Conference involving constitutional changes, shall become law, only when it secures a majority of three-fourths of the members of the General Conference, who may be present and vote thereon.

13. Any act of the General Conference affecting the rights and privileges of the Annual Conferences, shall become law only when it secures a majority of two-thirds of the members of the General Conference who may be present and vote thereon, and also a majority vote of the members of the several next ensuing Annual Conferences, who may be present and vote thereon.

14. The General Conference, by a vote of two-thirds of its members, shall have power to increase or diminish the number, or alter the boundaries of the several Annual Conferences.

15. Each General Conference shall appoint a special committee of not less than twelve persons, containing an equal number of Ministers and Laymen, whose duty it shall be, from one session of the General Conference to another, to watch over and guard the rights and privileges of our Church throughout the Dominion; to promote, as far as possible, the recommendations of the General Conference, and to consider and decide upon all questions affecting the general interests of the Church, and to adopt such measures as it may judge expedient to secure their accomplishment:—Provided, nevertheless, that this Committee shall not exercise any legislative power whatever, nor do anything that shall interfere with the duties of any Annual Conference or any Officers of the Church.

16. In the intervals of the Sessions of the General Conference, its President shall perform such duties as the General Conference may direct, and shall call and preside over all Standing Committees of the General Conference:—Provided, nevertheless, he shall not exercise a general superintendency, or any powers which are conferred upon other officers of the Church.

17. Toward meeting the expenses of the First General Conference, a collection shall be made throughout our whole work, and the Annual Conferences shall fix the time when such collection shall be made within their respective bounds.

THE ANNUAL CONFERENCES.

18. The work in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec shall be divided into three Annual Conferences, to be known as the Toronto, London, and Montreal Conferences.

19. The Toronto Conference shall embrace the Toronto, Bradford, Barrie, Collingwood, Owen Sound, Whitby, Cobourg, Peterboro, and Belleville Districts.

20. The London Conference shall embrace Hamilton, Niagara, Brantford, London, St. Thomas, Chatham, Sarnia, Guelph, and Goderich Districts.

21. The Montreal Conference shall embrace the Kingston, Brockville, Perth, Pembroke, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec and Stanstead Districts.

22. Each Annual Conference shall be composed of all Ministers received into full connexion and ordained, who are stationed and appointed by it.

23. Each Annual Conference shall retain all rights, powers and privileges at present possessed, except such as are vested in the General Conference.

24. Each Annual Conference shall, on its assembling, elect a President from among its own members by ballot, without debate.

25. Each Annual Conference, immediately after the election of a President, shall appoint a Secretary by ballot, without debate; and shall also elect the Chairmen of Districts, according to Discipline.

26. In the event of the death or disability of a President of an Annual Conference, the ex-President shall immediately enter upon the duties of the Presidency and discharge them to the end of the year.

27. Each Annual Conference shall examine the character and qualifications of all Ministers and Preachers on trial within its limits, and its decisions shall be final.

28. Each Annual Conference shall station all the Ministers and Preachers within its limits according to the rules of the Stationing Committee.

29. The Stationing Committee in each Conference shall consist of the President, the Chairmen of Districts, and another Minister from each District, for whose election the Lay Representatives shall also vote—the voting being always by ballot. One of the General Missionary Secretaries shall be ex officio a member of the Stationing Committee of each Annual Conference.

30. Each Annual Conference shall continue to act under its own Discipline until the meeting of the first General Conference.

31. The several Annual Conferences shall assemble during the month of June in each year, and shall appoint the place of meeting from year to year.

32. Each President of Annual Conference shall be stationed on a Circuit, or otherwise, as the Conference shall direct.

TRANSFER OF MINISTERS.

33. The President of the General Conference, the President of each Annual Conference, and one Minister elected annually by each Annual Conference, shall be a Committee for the transfer of Ministers and Preachers, from one annual Conference to another, and the decisions of such Committee shall be final. To the Chairman of such Committee shall all communications by all parties concerned be addressed, but not later than the first day of May in any one year:— Provided, nevertheless, that any minister who deems himself aggrieved shall have the privilege of appearing before the Transfer Committee and stating his case; and provided, likewise, that such transfer shall not prejudice the ultimate financial claims of any Minister or Preacher so transferred:—Each Minister transferred shall be subject to the action of the Stationing Committee of the Conference to which he may be transferred.

FINANCIAL ECONOMY.

THE GENERAL MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

34. All the monies raised for Missionary purposes in all the Conferences shall form one General Missionary Fund. Such Circuits as are now assisted in the Conference of Eastern British America by the grant from the Parent Conference and by the Home Mission Fund, and such Circuits and Missions of the Canada Conference as are now assisted by its own Mission Fund, shall hereafter be supported by the General Missionary Society, according to the principles upon which the Missions of the Canada Conference have been hitherto sustained.

35. There shall be a Central Missionary Board for the management of the Missionary Fund, which shall meet annually.

36. This Board shall be composed, for the present, of the President of each Annual Conference, one Minister annually elected from each Annual Conference, the General Secretaries and Treasurers of the Missionary Society, and twelve Laymen, of whom one shall be appointed by the Laymen of each Annual Conference Missionary Committee, and the others by the Laymen of the General Conference.

37. The duties of this Board shall be to review the Missionary work, and apportion the funds committed to them to the respective Conferences according to their necessities.

38. When a vacancy occurs in the Board by death, resignation, or any other disability, the Board shall fill such vacancy or vacancies. If the vacancy or vacancies arise from the members elected by the Annual Conference, such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled from among the Ministers or members of such Conference as the delegates belonged to, and for the interval till the next Annual Conference; and if from those elected by the General Conference, to fill the vacancy or vacancies so occurring till the next General Conference; but no person or persons shall be elected to, or remain a member of the Board, who is not a member of the Church in good standing.

39. The General Conference shall appoint the General Secretaries and Treasurers of the Missionary Society, who shall be ex-officio members of the Central Missionary Board.

40. The Districts of Red River, Saskatchewan, British Columbia and Japan, shall be regarded as Missionary Districts, and for the present shall belong to the Toronto Conference.

41. All Missionaries must be connected with some Annual Conference, and be amenable to such Conference for their conduct in all respects.

42. Each Annual Conference shall appoint a Local Missionary Committee, constituted as the General Conference may determine.

OTHER CONNEXIONAL FUNDS.

43. It is deemed desirable, as soon as legal and other difficulties can be removed, to amalgamate the different funds of the United Church, and to place them under the management of a Central Board.

44. For the present, the Superannuated Ministers' Fund of the Canada Conference, and the Supernumerary Ministers' Fund of the Conference of Eastern British America shall be kept distinct, each department being managed by its own laws.

45. The Toronto, London, and Montreal Conferences shall, for the present, have one General Contingent Fund, and one General Children's Fund.

46. The Contingent Fund (embracing the annual income from the Commutation Fund) shall be divided annually among the several Conferences, according to the number of Church members, including those on trial.

47. For the Children's Fund a uniform rate shall be levied on the membership, including those on trial, in the above named Conferences, and the amount so raised divided annually among said Conferences, according to the number of their respective claimants.

48. The Church Relief Fund shall not be made a General Conference Fund, and its discontinuance is recommended.

49. Whenever Connexional Funds are organized or amalgamated, their management shall be entrusted to a Board or Boards constituted by the General Conference, similarly to the Missionary Board.

EDUCATIONAL AND PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

50. The publishing interests of the United Church shall be under the direction of the General Conference.

51. The General Conference shall appoint the Editor or Editors, and the Book Steward or Book Stewards.

52. The General Conference shall determine the number and character of our Educational Institutions, and shall prescribe the manner of forming the Governing Boards of all Universities and Theological Schools. The General Conference shall also prescribe a Course of Study for all Candidates for the Ministry.

53. This Conference having considered the reports of the joint Committee appointed by this Conference, and the Conference of Eastern British America, to prepare a basis of Union of these Conferences into one Connexion or Church, having nearly brought its labors to a close, thereby initiating a movement which may somewhat alter the relations we have hitherto sustained to the British Conference, cannot allow the inauguration of the measures proposed, without expressing our deep and grateful sense of indebtedness for the liberal support and paternal care shown toward us by the Parent body during the many years of our past history. We devoutly pray that upon our fathers and brethren of the British Connexion, and upon ourselves, may continue to rest the peculiar favor of the Great Head of the Church, and that the strongest ties which should exist between the different branches of the same great Christian family, may continue to unite us in uninterrupted harmony, until the whole design of the Mediatorial reign of Christ shall have been accomplished to the glory of His Holy Name.

APPENDIX II.

THE ACTION OF THE CONFERENCE ON THE REPORT OF THE UNION COMMITTEES APPOINTED BY THE WESLEYAN
METHODIST CHURCH, AND THE NEW CONNEXION METH-ODIST CHURCH.

The Conference took into consideration the Report of the Union Committees appointed respectively by this Conference, and the Conference of the New Connexion Methodist Church in Canada, agreed upon at the several meetings of said committees, held in the Metropolitan Church, Toronto, on the 1st and 2nd days of October, 1872; on the 30th and 31st days of January, 1873; and on the 9th and 10th days of April, 1873; and after mature consideration of the comprehensive and admirably prepared report of said Union Committees, cordially adopts the same, with certain modifications, each of which, we believe, will render the proposed, and truly Christian Union, increasingly acceptable to our brethren of the New Connexion, as well as to the members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

I. The ten preliminary declarations of agreement of the Union Committees are as follows :

Preliminary Agreements.

1. This meeting deems a Union between the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, and the Methodist New Connexion Church, on such principles as may be mutually agreed upon, highly desirable.

2. A General Conference should be formed, to meet once in four years, having power to make rules and regulations for the whole Church, subject to such restrictions as may be mutually agreed upon.

3. Lay representation should be included in the General Conference, in such form as may be agreed upon.

4. The General Conference should be composed of ministers and laymen in equal numbers.

5. The General Conference only should have power to make rules and regulations for the entire Church, subject to such restrictions as may be hereafter defined and accepted.

6. The Annual Conferences should be composed of ministers only, who have travelled four years, and have been received into full connexion. They shall transact all business appertaining to the Circuits, Stations or Missions within their respective bounds, and their decision shall be final on all questions of ministerial character.

7. One or more General Superintendents should be elected by the General Conference, to hold office for a term of years corresponding to the term of the said Conference; such Superintendent or Superintendents to be set apart for the work by such form of service as may be agreed upon, and to be amenable to the General Conference for all their official acts.

8. There should be District Meetings, and they should consist of all ministers and preachers on trial within the District, with an equal number of laymen (to be appointed as may be determined), such laymen to have the right of taking part in all proceedings, except in the examination of ministerial character.

9. That the United Church should provide by legislation for the continuation of Class Meetings, Lovefeasts, Leaders' Meetings, Quarterly Meetings, and Local Preachers' Meetings, on the Circuits and Districts.

10. That the lay delegates to each General Conference should be elected by the lay members of district meetings, in such manner as may be hereafter decided, and that such members of district meetings—when such elections are to take place—be elected by the quarterly meetings.

This Conference concurs in and adopts the above declaration of principles and objects of the Union of the two Churches, except the 7th—in relation to General Superintendents—instead of which, this Conference thinks it preferable for the General Conference to elect a President, to hold office for the term of years corresponding to the term of said Conference; to preside over the proceedings of the General Conference, to call and preside over all Standing Committees of said Conference, to perform any duties which the General Conference may prescribe, but, who should not exercise a General Superintendency, nor any powers conferred by discipline upon other officers of the Church.

II. Under the head of "Accepted Details of Government, the Union Committees recommend in their 11th and 12th resolutions as follows :

11. The United Methodist Conference in British America, in the form of their General Government, shall be composed of one General Conference, and several Annual Conferences.

12. The name of the Church shall be called THE UNITED WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH OF CANADA. In case of a more general Organic Union of the Methodist Churches, it shall be called THE METHODIST CHURCH OF CANADA.

This Conference fully concurs in the above expression of views and recommendations.

III. The recommendations of the Union Committees "Respecting the General Conference," are contained from the 13th to the 26th resolution of their Report, as follows :

13. The General Conference shall be composed of one Minister and one Layman for every eight members of each Annual Conference. Provided nevertheless, that a fraction of three-fourths shall entitle a Conference to an additional representativo. Provided always that the President of each Conference shall be one of those so elected : and also provided always that the whole number of delegates elected shall not exceed two hundred and twenty.

14. The Ministerial members of the General Conference shall be elected by ballot.

15. The appointment of Laymen to the General Conference shall be made as follows :—

(1). The Laymen in each Annual District meeting next preceding the meeting of the General Conference shall elect from among the members of our Church within the bounds of the District, representatives to the General Conference ; the number so elected to be determined by the number of Church members in the District, as compared with the entire membership within the bounds of the Annual Conference : the whole number not to exceed the number of Ministers appointed by such Annual Conference.

(2). The Lay Members of the District Meeting making such appointments to the General Conference shall be elected by the Quarterly Official Meeting next preceding.

16. The Secretary of each Annual Conference shall compute the number of Laymen to be appointed by each District in accordance with the principles laid down in section 15, and publish the same in the minutes of the Annual Conference next preceding such District appointment. Each delegate must be not less than twenty-five years of age, and must have been a member of the church continuously during the five years next preceding the time of his election.

17. A majority of those chosen to constitute the General Conference shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

18. The first General Conference shall meet on the first Wednesday after the fifteenth day of September, in the year 1874, provided that the Conferences concerned shall have approved of the plan of Union ; and thenceforward, once in four years, on the first Wednesday after the fifteenth day of September, in such place as may be decided by the General Conference.

19. Each General Conference after the first, shall, on its assembling, elect by ballot without debate, one or more General Superintendents from among those nominated for that office by the Annual Conferences as hereinafter provided.

20. Each General Conference shall, immediately after the election of the General Superintendents, elect by ballot without debate, a Secretary, whose duty it shall be to keep a correct record of its proceedings, and publish the minutes under the direction of the General Conference.

21. The General Conference only, shall have power to make rules and regulations for the Church, under the following limitations and restrictions, viz :

(1). They shall not revoke, alter or change, any article of religion, nor establish any new standards or rules of doctrine, contrary to our existing and established standards.

(2). They shall not destroy the plan of our itinerant system.

(3). They shall not make any change in the general rules of our society.

22. Any act of the General Conference involving constitutional changes, shall become law, only when it secures a majority of three-fourths of the members of the General Conference, who may be present and vote thereon.

23. Any act of the General Conference affecting the rights and privileges of the Annual Conferences, shall become law, only, when it secures a majority of two-thirds of the members of the General Conference, who may be present and vote thereon, and also a majority of the members of the several next ensuing Annual Conferences, who may be present and vote thereon.

24. The General Conference, by a vote of two-thirds of its members, shall have power to increase or diminish the number, or alter the boundaries of the several Annual Conferences.

25. The General Conference shall appoint a Special Committee, which shall deal with questions of General Conference interests, in the interval between one General Conference and another.

26. Toward meeting the expenses of the First General Conference, a collection shall be made throughout our whole work, and the Annual Conferences shall fix the time when such collection shall be made within their respective bounds.

This Conference concurs in and adopts the foregoing recommendations of the Union Committees, except the 19th, 20th and 25th, which, we think, should be modified. We think the 19th recommendation of the Union Committees should be modified as follows :

“ 19. Each General Conference shall, on its assembling, elect by ballot without debate, from its ministerial members, a President, who shall preside over its proceedings.”

We think that, as a lay as well as clerical Secretary of the General Conference may be desirable, the 20th recommendation of the Union Committees should be modified as follows :

“ 20. Each General Conference shall, immediately after the election of a President, elect by ballot without debate, a Secretary or Secretaries, whose duty it shall be to keep a correct record of its proceedings, and publish the minutes under the direction of the General Conference.”

We think the 25th recommendation is not sufficiently explicit and comprehensive, and we therefore adopt the following modification of it :

“ 25. Each General Conference shall appoint a Special Committee of not less than twelve persons, containing an equal number of ministers and laymen, who shall, from one

General Conference to another, watch over and guard all the rights and privileges of our Church throughout the Dominion; promote, as far as possible, the recommendations of the General Conference; consider and decide upon any measures which may seem necessary for the general interests of the Church, and which could not have been foreseen at the meeting of the General Conference, and adopt such means for their accomplishment as it may judge expedient: Provided, nevertheless, it shall not exercise any legislative authority, or do any thing that may interfere with the disciplinary duties of any Annual Conference, or of any officer of the Church."

IV. "Respecting General Superintendents," the Union Committees make ten recommendations as follows:

27. General Superintendents, one or more, shall be appointed, who shall preside at the General Conference, travel through the entire connexion, preside at the Annual Conferences and their committees, and exercise a general supervision over the whole work. If two or more General Superintendents be appointed, they shall have co-ordinate powers and jurisdiction, but the senior General Superintendent present shall open and organize each General Conference.

28. For the present, each General Superintendent shall reside within the boundaries of the Conference electing him; but in the future, the General Conference shall designate the place of residence, having regard to the above mode of allocation.

29. After the first General Conference the election of the General Superintendents shall be made by the General Conference from those nominated by the Annual Conferences. Provided always that the other nominees of the Annual Conferences shall be considered alternates, so that in case of the death or disability of one or more of the General Superintendents, the vacancy of vacancies thereby occasioned, shall be filled by such alternates in the order of their seniority.

30. The General Superintendents shall arrange among themselves the portion of the work to be visited by each from time to time as convenience or necessity may require.

31. The General Conference shall make an appropriation for salaries to each of the General Superintendents, which, together with travelling expenses, shall be provided as the General Conference may direct.

32. Each General Superintendent shall be amenable for his moral and religious conduct to the Annual Conference within the bounds of which he may reside. And if accused of crime or immorality, the trial shall take place in the district and locality in which the alleged crime is said to have been committed.

33. The General Superintendents, with the advice and consent of the Presidents of the Annual Conferences, shall appoint the time for the meeting of the several Annual Conferences.

As we do not think it expedient to appoint "General Superintendents," the provision for their appointment, duties, and salaries, contained in the 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, and 31st recommendations of the Union Committees, do not appear to be necessary; and we think the words, "President of the General Conference," in the 32nd recommendation of the Union Committees, should be substituted for the words "General Superintendent."

As to the 33d recommendation of the Union Committees, we think the Annual Conferences should meet in the month of June, and that within this limitation each Annual Conference should appoint the time and place of its own meeting.

V. The mode of transferring ministers and preachers from one Conference to another, has been recommended by the Union Committees in their 34th, 35th, and 36th resolutions as follows:

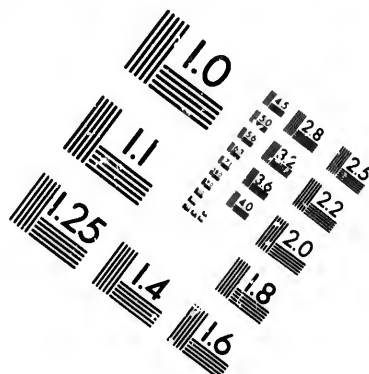

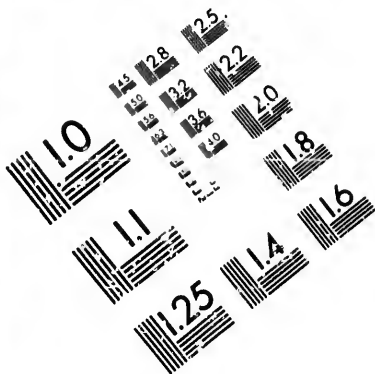

34. The General Superintendents shall have power to transfer from one Conference to another ; Provided always that no Minister shall be so transferred, without his consent and the consent of the Presidents of the Conferences to be affected by such change, as well as the Chairman of the District from which he is to be removed. Notice of all applications for transfer shall be given to the Chairman of the District, and the Presidents of the Conferences concerned, at least one month before the meeting of such Conference, and it shall be the duty of the President of the Conference from which such transfer is to be made, to notify the General Superintendent of all such cases.

35. No Minister shall be transferred from one Conference to another against the will of the Conference to which it is proposed to transfer him.

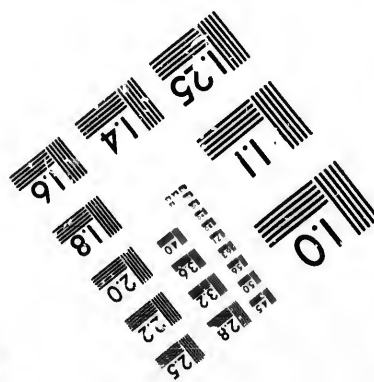

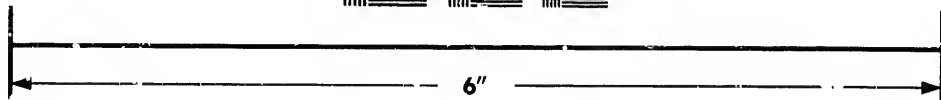

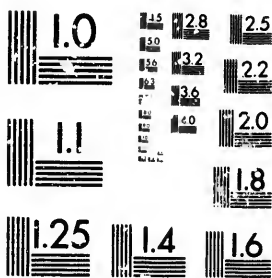

36. Each Minister transferred shall be subject to the action of the Stationing Committee of the Conference to which he may be transferred.

We think the mode of transferring ministers and preachers from one Conference to another, thus recommended, would be attended with serious difficulties, with many delays and much trouble, and in some instances with personal collisions. Each preacher entering into the itinerant work, enters not into a particular Conference—formed for convenience to embrace a part of a Province—but as a minister or messenger of the Church or Connexion throughout the Dominion ; and, in accordance with the principles of our itinerancy, to go to any part of the work where his labors may be most required. This is the case now throughout the Canadian Conference, which extends from British Columbia and Manitoba to the Maritime Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick ; and it ought not to be less so when this large Conference—for the more convenient and efficient promotion of our great work—is divided into several smaller Conferences. We think, therefore, that the most equitable, intelligent, convenient, and efficient mode of transferring ministers and preachers from one Conference to another, in order to meet, as far as possible, the demands of the whole work, is the following :—

The President of the General Conference, the President of each Annual Conference, and one Minister elected annually by each Annual Conference, shall be a committee for the transfer of ministers and preachers from one Annual Conference to another, and the decisions of such committee shall be final. To the chairman of such committee shall all communications by all parties concerned be addressed, but not later than the first day of May in any one year : Provided, nevertheless, that any minister who deems himself aggrieved shall have the privilege of appearing before the Transfer Committee and stating his case : and provided, likewise, that such transfer shall not prejudice the ultimate financial claims of any minister or preacher so transferred ; each minister transferred shall be subject to the action of the stationing committee of the Conference to which he may be transferred.

VI. The ten recommendations of the Union Committees “ Respecting the Annual Conferences ” are as follows :

37. The work in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec shall be divided into three Annual Conferences, to be known as the Ontario, Huron, and St. Lawrence Conferences.

38. Each Annual Conference shall be composed of all Ministers received into full connexion and ordained, who are stationed and appointed by it.

39. Each Annual Conference shall, on its assembling, elect by ballot without debate, a President, who, in the absence of a General Superintendent, shall discharge all the duties of a President within the bounds of the Conference electing him.

40. Each Annual Conference, immediately after the election of a President, shall appoint a Secretary by ballot without debate; and also elect the chairmen of districts, according to the Discipline.

41. Each Annual Conference next preceding the meeting of the General Conference, shall nominate for general superintendent a member of one of the Annual Conferences, and from amongst those so nominated, the General Conference shall elect one or more general superintendents.

42. In the event of the death, disability of, or occupation of the office of general superintendent by a President of an Annual Conference, the ex-President shall immediately enter upon the duties of presidency and discharge them to the end of the year.

43. Each Annual Conference shall examine the character and qualifications of all ministers and preachers on trial within its limits, and its decisions shall be final.

44. Each Annual Conference shall station all the ministers and preachers within its limits according to the rules of the stationing committee.

45. No change shall at present be made in the constitution of the stationing committee, except that the lay members of the district meeting shall also vote in the election of the representatives.

46. Each President of an Annual Conference shall be stationed on a Circuit, and shall be ex officio chairman of the district in which he is stationed or through which he may travel. In the absence of a general superintendent he shall fulfill all the duties of President within the bounds of the Conference by which he is appointed.

In regard to the foregoing recommendations, we think that in the 37th the Annual Conferences may be best defined by the names of the most central cities which they include, instead of by the names of lakes and rivers, and that they should therefore be called the London, Toronto, and Montreal Conferences.

The words, "in the absence of a general superintendent," in the 39th recommendation of the Union Committees, the whole of the 41st recommendation, the words, "or occupation of the office of general superintendent by," in the 42nd, and the last sentence of the 46th recommendation, are rendered unnecessary and inapplicable by our not having general superintendents.

We think, also, that the following should be substituted for the 45th : The stationing committee in each Conference shall consist of the President, the Chairmen of Districts, and another Minister from each district, for whose election the lay representatives shall also vote—the voting being always by ballot—and one of the general missionary secretaries shall be, ex officio, a member of the stationing committee.

With these verbal alterations and omissions, we concur in the foregoing recommendations of the Union Committees in regard to Annual Conferences.

VII. The recommendations of the Union Committees "Respecting Quarterly Official Meetings," are as follows:

47. The Quarterly Official Meetings shall consist of, the ministers and preachers on trial ; the local preachers, the stewards of the Circuit, the leaders of classes, the Superintendents of Sabbath Schools, being members of the Church ; one representative from each board of trustees, he being a member of the Church ; and also of additional representatives who may be appointed by the societies of the Circuit, the apportionment and scale to be fixed by the May quarterly meetings, which also shall specify the mode by which the vote shall be taken ; but such additional reprerepresentatives shall not exceed the number of the stewards on each Circuit.

48. The Chairman of the District, or in his absence the Superintendent of the Circuit, shall preside at the Quarterly Official Meetings.

49. The regular business of the Quarterly Official Meetings shall be :

1. To receive the financial returns from the several classes, and to pay the salaries, allowances, and expenses of the ministers and preachers.

2. To hear complaints, and to receive and try appeals.

3. At the November quarterly official meeting, to appoint the stewards of the Circuit, the number to be not less than three, nor more than seven, one of whom shall be recording steward, who shall keep a record of the proceedings in a book procured for that purpose.

4. At the February quarterly official meeting, to recommend candidates for the ministry.

5. At the May quarterly official meeting, to appoint a committee, which shall meet after the Conference, to make an estimate of the amounts necessary for the family or families of the ministers or preachers of the Circuit, a report of which shall be made to the August quarterly official meeting; and to appoint the lay representative or representatives to attend the ensuing district meeting.

6. Where there is no local preachers' meeting, to enquire into the character, gifts, labors, punctuality and usefulness of each local preacher by name, and, if there be no valid objection alleged and sustained, to renew their licenses.

7. To examine the character of exhorters, and annually at the May quarterly meeting, to renew their licenses.

8. At any quarterly meeting, where there is no local preacher' meeting, to license local preachers in case of necessity.

We concur in all these recommendations; and suggest, moreover, that all exhorters shall be members of the quarterly meetings.

VIII. The recommendations of the Union Committees, "Respecting Circuit Stewards," and "Society Meetings," are as follows :

61. Let them be men of solid piety, who both know and love the Methodist doctrine and discipline, and of good natural and acquired abilities to transact the temporal business.

62. They shall be appointed by the vote of the November Quarterly Official Meeting, the superintendent nominating.

63. It shall be the duty of stewards to take an exact account of whatever has been collected for the support of ministers and preachers in the Circuit ; to make an accurate return of every expenditure of money, whether to the minister, the preacher, the sick, or the poor ; to seek the needy and distressed, in order to relieve and comfort them ; to inform the ministers or preachers of any sick or disorderly persons ; to attend the Quarterly Meetings of their Circuits ; to give advice, if asked, in planning the Circuit ; to provide the elements for the Lord's Supper ; to write circular letters to the societies in the Circuit to be more liberal if need be ; to let them know, when occasion requires, the state of the temporal concerns at the last Quarterly Meeting ; to fill up the Circuit schedules correctly ; and to be subject to the president, the chairman of their district, and the ministers and preachers of their Circuit.

64. The stewards shall be accountable for the faithful performance of their duties to the Quarterly Official Meeting of the Circuit.

65. On each Circuit, there shall be not less than three, nor more than seven ; one of whom shall be the recording steward, who shall be nominated by the superintendent, and appointed by the meeting.

66. When a recording steward of a Circuit becomes incapacitated for the duties of his office, the superintendent of the Circuit shall have authority to appoint another of the stewards to that office until the next Quarterly Meeting, when his place shall be supplied according to discipline.

67. Society Meetings shall be held in all our Circuits, wherever it is practicable, once a quarter, and the principal object of these meetings shall be the spiritual edification of the Church.

We concur, without exception or alteration, in the foregoing recommendations "Respecting Circuit Stewards" and "Society Meetings."

IX. The recommendations of the Union Committees under the head "Financial Economy," including "the General Missionary Society," are as follows :

68. All the moneys raised for Missionary purposes in the several Conferences of the United Churches shall form one General Mission Fund.

69. There shall be a Central Missionary Board for the management of the Missionary Fund, which shall meet annually.

70. This Board shall be composed, for the present, of the General Superintendents; the President of each Annual Conference; one Minister annually elected from each Annual Conference; the chief Officers of the Missionary Society, and an equal number of Laymen, of whom one shall be appointed by the laymen of each Annual Conference Missionary Committee, and the others by the laymen of the General Conference.

71. The duties of this Committee shall be to review the Missionary work and apportion the funds committed to them, to the respective Conferences according to their necessities.

72. Vacancies occurring in the Central Missionary Board shall be filled by the General Conference Special Committee.

73. The General Conference shall appoint the officers of the Missionary Society, who shall be ex officio members of the Central Missionary Board.

74. All Foreign Missions now existing or that may hereafter be established, shall be under the direction of the General Conference. But all Missionaries must be connected with some Annual Conference, and be amenable to such Conference for their conduct in all respects.

75. There shall be within the bounds of each Annual Conference a Local Missionary Committee, constituted as the General Conference may determine.

We concur in the foregoing recommendations respecting the "General Missionary Society," with the following exceptions. In the 70th clause, omit the words "General Superintendents," and insert instead, "President of the General Conference;" also omit the words "chief officers," and substitute "General Secretaries and Treasurers."

For the 72nd clause, the following we think should be substituted:—"When a vacancy occurs in the Board by death, resignation, or any other disability, the Board shall fill such vacancy or vacancies. If the vacancy or vacancies arise from the members elected by the Annual Conference, such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled from among the ministers or members of such Conference as the delegates belonged to, and for the interval till the next Annual Conference; and if from those elected by the General Conference, to fill the vacancy or vacancies so occurring till the next General Conference; but no person or persons shall be elected to, or remain a member of, the Board, who is not a member of the Church, in good standing."

In the 73rd clause, for "Officers" substitute "General Secretaries and Treasurers."

Of the 74th recommendation, the first sentence, and the first word of the second, should be expunged.

In the 75th, omit the words "There shall be within the bounds of," and insert the words "shall appoint" after "Annual Conference."

X. "Respecting other Connexional Funds," the Union Committees recommend as follows :

76. It is deemed desirable, as soon as legal and other difficulties can be removed, to amalgamate the different funds of the United Church, and to place them under the management of a central board or boards.

77. The Superannuated Preachers' Annuitant Society of the New Connexion Conference, and the Superannuated Ministers' Fund of the Wesleyan Conference be amalgamated, and all claimants on the New Connexion Fund be placed on the same footing as Wesleyan Ministers, and receive from the Superannuation Fund of the United Church according to the scale laid down in the constitution of the Superannuated Ministers' Fund of the Wesleyan Conference.

78. The members of this Committee connected with the Wesleyan Methodist Church recommend to the Board of Management of their Superannuated Ministers' Fund, to take into their most favorable consideration the cases of those ministers of the New Connexion Church who are not members of their Annuitant Society, in order to constitute them claimants on the superannuation fund of the United Church.

79. Respecting the Missionary Fund, the Contingent Fund, the Church Relief Fund, and the Children's Fund, the Committee is of opinion that no difficulty exists to prevent an immediate and perfect amalgamation of the same.

80. Whenever Connexional Funds are organised or amalgamated, their management shall be entrusted to a board or boards constituted by the General Conference, similarly to the missionary board.

We concur in the foregoing recommendations of the Union Committees.

XI. "Respecting Educational and Publishing Institutions," the Union Committees recommend as follows :

81. The publishing interests of the United Church shall be under the direction of, the General Conference.

82. The General Conference shall appoint the Editor or Editors and the Book Steward or Book Stewards.

83. The General Conference shall determine the number and character of our Educational Institutions, and shall prescribe the manner of forming the governing boards of all universities, and theological schools. The General Conference shall also prescribe a course of study for all candidates for the ministry.

We concur in the recommendations of the Union Committees "Respecting Educational and Publishing Institutions."

P O S T S C R I P T .

IN the Publication of the "MINUTES OF CONFERENCE," the Stations are among the first matter printed, and therefore some of the requests of the brethren respecting P. O. Addresses, &c., could not be attended to.

The name of "Ernest M. Taylor" should appear among the Theological Students at Montreal; that of "D. A. Johnston," as Superannuated, at Belleville; and those of "John Tomkins" and "Malcolm Macdonald" at Stanstead.

On page 135, the name of "W. A. Robinson, Esq.," was inadvertently omitted from the Board of Directors of the Wesleyan Female College. Also, read "C. McQuesten, M.D., President," "Dennis Moore, Esq.; Vice-President."

On page 136, add the name of "James Ferrier, jun., Esq.," (accidentally omitted), to the list composing the Board of the Theological School, Montreal.
