LEATHER CO. OF FIGHT PACKERS

And Perhaps Establish a Plant in Toronto — Means a War Between Big Trusts.

BOSTON, May 12.—(Special.)—Would the free hide fight fall, there are many in the leather trade who believe the United States Leather Company will be forced to meet the packers at their own game and themselves become packers on a large scale and establish branches and packing houses throughout the whole United States and Canada.

This counter move will be necessary for self-preservation if the persistent advance of the packers towards the tanning, and even the leather industry, is to be checked—and if it is not promptly checked the prospects are certainly gloomy for the present leather interests.

The big leather company is in excellent shape to start such a campaign. It has been generally supposed that because of E. A. Valentine's prominence in the management of the United States Leather Company the packers had great influence there, since Mr. Valentine was formerly with Armour & Co. But Mr. Valentine's connection with Armour & Co., according to a prominent official of the leather industry, was completely severed at least two years ago.

U.S. MEAT TRUST IN BRITAIN

Government Committee Unable to Find Any Danger to Home Trade.

LONDON, May 12.—The departmental committee appointed in July, 1908, to enquire into the alleged combinations in the meat trade in the United Kingdom, issued its report this morning. A large portion of it is devoted to the American beef trust and its representatives in London, and the committee concludes that while a combination exists to a certain extent between four companies of the United States engaged in the United Kingdom, it is not at present sufficiently powerful seriously to endanger the beef trade as a whole.

According to the report the representatives of the American companies in London all told the committee that they knew nothing of the conditions prevailing in the United States, and commenting on those statements, the committee says:

"The committee, reluctantly, is compelled to express grave doubt as to the reality of this uniform ignorance, and its assumption naturally has tended to throw doubt upon the other statements made by the representatives of these firms. It is almost incredible that Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Morris & Co., and the Hammond Beef Co., the last named representing the National Packing Co., should be ignorant of the conditions in the United States, and in competition in the United Kingdom."

In a paragraph relating to the local tendency to exaggerate the power and malice of successful trade competitors, the committee comments upon the trade methods of the American companies.

"These are superior to those prevailing in this country," it says, "and perhaps less influenced by considerations of sentimentality as one witness put it: 'Business is business all the way, and we do not run business for love.' This maxim is ruthlessly applied by the American companies, they are, therefore, unpopular among their trade competitors."

The report finds that the American companies have a practical monopoly of cattle steamers from the United States, and to a great extent those from Canada, and that they also own a large proportion of the cattle landed at Deptford market, from the United States, but that there is no evidence that they made improper use of the market.

FAVOR PERKS' SCHEME

Members of Parliament Sign Memorial to Government.

OTTAWA, May 12.—(Special.)—Sir Robert W. Perks, the British capitalist and parliamentarian, who is here to confer with the government regarding the building of the Canadian Bay Canada company of which he is the head, but which might at any time be expropriated by the government, has been interviewed by several cabinet ministers and members.

A number of members have signed a memorial to the government favoring construction of the canal on the terms suggested.

HOW RICHARD WON.

Richard Cobden was a pretty clever old gentleman even though his tie did get rather high up on his neck at times, and his whiskers grew faster than a dull razor could shave them off.

Once in a while, when Richard happened to be in a reminiscence mood, he would tell me a story of how he first got a start in public life.

"To see," he would say between puffs of his pipe, "there was a lively contest held away back in the sixties among the people of our community. It was over an election for the county council. I was a green boy with a fondness for politics and argu-ment, and my party were looking for a dark horse, because the previous councillor belonged to the opposite party and while a very good man, was not generally liked even among those of his own stripe."

"Well, one day old Dan Sanford came to me and he said: 'Dick, me boy, we've decided to nominate you for the council. Will you stand?'

"You can imagine how this surprise took my breath away, but I thought to myself here's a chance to make myself known in the county and anyway I can't do any more than lose, so I answered: 'Yes, if you'll promise one thing.'"

"What is that?" he asked. "That everyone of the party will get out and hustle for me and turn out to every grocery store discussion that I bring on."

"Here's me hand, you can rely on me, if you don't win never ask me for another pipeful of tobacco."

"I know it's a hard game, but I'll try to come out on top."

"The next night I was nominated. When the elections were over I was declared elected by the good majority of the voters. In some cities, notably Lyons and Chambéry, the postal employees have openly expressed their disapproval of the strike."

FRENCH STRIKE ISN'T GENERAL

Trades Unions Not Giving the Support That Was Expected—Services Uninterrupted.

PARIS, May 12.—The first day of the postal strike passed peacefully. No disturbances were reported and the movement appears to have not gained ground.

The services in Paris and throughout the provinces to-night, with the exception of the railway mail clerks, are normal, and as a result there has been no need to take advantage of the preparations made by the various business organizations and commercial bodies to carry on a private letter service.

The cabinet to-night summarily dismissed 228 men under the decree issued on March 18, which authorized the discharge of strikers from the state service and made other provisions for dealing with recalcitrants. The ministers are very confident that the removal of the principal fomenters of the agitation will have the effect of crushing the movement.

The leaders of the strike experienced another discouragement in the failure of the miners' congress at Lens to vote a sympathetic strike, and up to the present none of the trades unions has made a sign of joining the movement.

Official figures issued to-night place the number of strikers in Paris at 465 out of 11,000. Owing to the defection of a majority of the mail clerks, the outgoing mails are more or less stranded. The hotbed of the previous revolt, the Central Telegraph Bureau, is very quiet, the night shift reporting for duty as usual.

Reports from the provinces show that the movement has not made much headway, except at Havre, where a special service, arranged by the chamber of commerce, will be inaugurated. In some cities, notably Lyons and Chambéry, the postal employees have openly expressed their disapproval of the strike.

"Well, in that election I learned a lesson that has always counted for me ever since. It was to make myself known in the nation and to put enthusiasm into those who are working for you. Had it not been that the party were looking for a dark horse at the time it is doubtful if I would be in political life to-day."

This story, so true to many men in Canadian affairs, is told here to show young men in Ontario what it may mean to be elected by a good nomination. The World's big popular contest is on. The prizes being offered are so many and valuable. He or she who nominates and gets a nomination and to entice friends and acquaintances with the importance of the candidate, turns out to be worth a good deal more in a few months than they are now and be widely known as the winner in one of the most important contests ever put on by a Canadian newspaper.

CRITIZES CIVIL SERVICE

Overworked, Underworked and Overpaid, Says Mr. Crothers.

OTTAWA, May 12.—(Special.)—The civil service bill was taken up in the house to-day and on second reading T. W. Crothers said that the large majority of the civil servants were grossly overpaid. They worked only five hours a day and it was reasonable to expect that they should work seven hours. If they did so the government could get along with six or seven hundred fewer, and the people would yearly be saved at least half a million dollars.

One deputy minister had a salary of $800, another $700 and so on; yet judges of the supreme court of Ontario only received $600.

Both eyes doing copying and routine work were in the $1200 class and while the average salary in the civil service was $167, yet the average pay all over Canada for males was only $918, and for females $360, making an average salary for the Dominion of $638.

WOMAN LIKELY MURDERED

Body Found in Clump of Bushes, Under Suspicious Circumstances.

VANCOUVER, B.C., May 12.—(Special.)—A body was discovered to-day in a well-dressed woman was discovered to-day under a clump of brush in Burnaby. Nothing near affords any clue except the remains of a small fire, wherein paper had been burned and possibly the woman's hat. No person has been missed in New Westminster or vicinity for months. The cause of death is not yet ascertained, but as the clothes are badly torn in places, there is a probability that she met with a violent death during a struggle. The corpse has apparently been exposed to the elements about four months.

THE KAISER IN ITALY.

Brindisi, Italy, May 12.—The German Emperor Wilhelm Hohenzollern with Empress Wilhelmina on board, came into Brindisi this morning and was saluted by the booming of cannon from the shore. The King and Queen of Italy immediately greeted the German Emperor.

The Hohenzollerns were escorted into Brindisi by a flotilla of Italian gunboats, great admirals, and the cruiser Albatross to Brindisi to salute the two rulers.

One hundred thousand dollars loss by fire was done in the water front at Alexandria, Va., yesterday.

REV. J. P. D. LLOYD CHOSEN VICE-PROVOST OF TRINITY

Corporation of the College Creates Office to Lighten Burden of Rev. T. Street Macklem.

At a meeting of the corporation of Trinity College yesterday afternoon Rev. J. P. D. Lloyd, D.D., who was appointed vice-provost of Trinity College on Oct. 1 next. The work of Trinity College has grown so rapidly during the past ten years that it has become inadvisable to lessen the increasing burden of work resting upon the provost, and the office of vice-provost has been created with this end in view.

Dr. Lloyd, who is a graduate of Trinity, is an exceedingly able man. He will be closely associated with Provost Macklem in the financial, educational and spiritual work of the college.

The corporation passed resolutions of welcome to Right Reverend James Fielding Sweeney, D.D., upon his taking his seat on the corporation as Bishop of Toronto, of congratulations to the late Rev. Charles Hamilton, D.D., upon his elevation to the office of Metropolitan of Canada and Archbishop of Ottawa, and of its deep sense of the loss sustained by the university, as well as by the whole church by the death of Archbishop Sweeney.

GIANT DYNAMITE BLAST CRUSHES OUT 20 LIVES

Premature Explosion in N.Y. State Quarry Attended With Frightful Fatalities.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 12.—At least 20 men were killed by a premature blast of dynamite this afternoon in a stone quarry operated by the Callanan Road Improvement Co., near the Village of South Bethlehem, 11 miles southwest of Albany.

The dead included John Hoyt Callanan, vice-president and general manager of the company; Charles D. Callanan, a brother; Leroy McMillan, assistant superintendent; Henriksen, steam drill foreman; Fred Snyder, master mechanic; Fred Zappert, agent of the National Power Co., New York, with two women and 12 Italian workmen.

One thousand pounds of dynamite exploded, scattering the bodies of the victims for hundreds of feet around, and it was with difficulty that the blackened, dismembered remains, mutilated almost beyond recognition, were identified.

Clothing hung in shreds from the bodies, from which the heads of some were missing; others lacked arms or legs or both. Italians with shovels searched here and there for portions of bodies, bringing the gruesome loads in boxes to the engine house, which served as a temporary morgue.

Thirteen holes five inches in diameter and about 75 feet deep, had been drilled at points about 20 feet back of the face of the big quarry. The displacement was expected to amount to nearly 40,000 tons of rock and over 8000 pounds of dynamite were to have been used.

The workmen had placed the 600 pound charges in six of the holes and were working on the seventh, when there was a terrific explosion, hurling tons of rock into the air and scattering the bodies of all the victims in all directions.

The blast was caused by the premature discharge of a percussion cap searched here and there for portions of bodies, bringing the gruesome loads in boxes to the engine house, which served as a temporary morgue.

Five of the great charges of dynamite remain unexploded in the quarry. This rendered somewhat difficult the search for the bodies, the workmen fearing further explosions.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—With victory perched on his golf stick, President Taft returned late this afternoon from the Chevy Chase Club links.

WHITNEY KICKS ON SMITH RIDER

Protests To Laurier That the Amended Waterways Treaty Is Unjust to Province and Should Be Rejected.

If the Ottawa Government is so moment in regard to the rights of the Province of Ontario under the terms of the waterways treaty as mutilated by the United States senate, Sir James Whitney has not allowed the occasion to pass unnoticed. The following telegram was sent to Sir Wilfrid Laurier yesterday, which indicates the feelings of the local administration:

"Rt. Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Prime Minister, Ottawa, Ont.: 'The Ontario Government is of opinion that if the waterways treaty be ratified by the parliament of Canada, such ratification should be the exclusive of the rider inserted at the end thereof by the United States Senate, and this government respectfully protests against such rider, as being unfair to the Province of Ontario in view of the other provisions of the treaty as to water and steam.'

"P. WHITNEY, 'Prime Minister of Ontario.' To The World Sir James afterwards said: 'It would seem, the treaty is ratified, that an injustice will be done to the province, as apparently the original situation is resumed at Sault Ste. Marie, while the other changes which affect British boundary waters remain.'

The Smith rider, to which exception is taken by the Ontario Government, provides 'that nothing in this treaty shall be construed as affecting or changing any existing territorial or riparian rights in the water, or rights of owners of land under water, on either side of the international boundary at the rapids of St. Mary's River at Sault Ste. Marie, in the use of waters flowing over such lands, subject to the requirements of navigation in boundary waters and of navigation of canals, and without prejudice to the existing rights of the United States and Canada, each to use the waters of the St. Mary's River within its own territory.'

PARALYTICS 'INSURABLY DEAD'

And Can Recover the Full Amount of Their Policy.

OTTAWA, May 12.—(Special.)—The new insurance bill was reported by the banking and commerce committee to-day.

An amendment providing liberal treatment to persons totally disabled was made. It permits the payment of whole amount of a policy to certain persons totally disabled. This would make it possible for a paralytic to receive the full amount of the insurance due to him.

The amendment was to the effect that the conditions imposed on the placing of fire insurance with foreign companies should not interfere with contracts of reinsurance between licensed insurers and unlicensed foreign insurers. Canadian companies will not have to notify the minister and pay 15 per cent. of the amount paid in premiums when re-insuring risks with unlicensed foreign companies.

SEEDING IN THE WEST

Will Be Practically Completed by the End of the Week.

WINNIPEG, May 12.—(Special.)—Seeding through the west will be practically completed by the end of the week, and most of it will be done by to-morrow.

This, in brief, is the substance of a splendid crop report issued to-day by the grain agent of the C.P.R. covering the three prairie provinces. With the heavy rainfall of yesterday, the crops will receive great benefit, as this was just what was required.

In most sections the quantity sown up to Monday was from fifty to seventy per cent. The provinces of Manitoba have made better progress with seeding and are almost three in an easier way, all seed is expected to be in by the end of this week.

Natty Fashions—Soft Feet

These splendid little hats in soft green and brown felt are the very proper thing for the well-groomed, well-clothed young man. Dixon, corner of Yonge and Temperance streets, handles exclusive lines in these hats.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT. If you knew of anything at which you could earn $100 without any more effort than that necessary in writing someone's name on a blank and in helping a little by word or deed, would you go after the money? Of course you would. Well, The World offers the $100, and all you have to do is to nominate the winner of the first grand prize in the big contest now on. After nominating him, or her, for ladies are splendid candidates, you will, in interest to yourself, turn everything his, or her, way; to see that he or she wins. Have you thought of this? Certainly you can never get $100 in an easier way. Try for it.

MARRIAGE AND ART

How the Hopes of a Young Woman Were Blighted.

A young woman with aspirations for the artistic life had spent many years studying the piano in America. Her friends praised her to the highest heaven and said she must go to Europe and continue her studies. She did so and applied to the good old Abbe Liszt, who in his day, was regarded as the greatest piano teacher of the century. The white-haired old man looked at the girl with some curiosity and then pointing to a piano in the corner of the room said "play." She began a Chopin Etude, but before she had completed it, the master said: "Go home and get married." This ended her career. It has been thought that art and marriage can never harmonize, particularly if it is musical art. But modern science has changed all that. The reason for the old idea was that a woman's household duties prevented her from maintaining that technical facility so necessary to artistic result. But now a woman of fine artistic taste and musical appreciation need not languish over the decay of her technique. She can buy a technique, and make it perfect, in the Angelus. Then with her right hand on the marvelous Phrasing Lever and her left on the Melody Button she can play the most difficult pieces and all the grace of expression and all the passion of temperament that Hoffman or Paderewski can produce. The Angelus is its simplicity and its artistic perfection. It is sold in Canada as an interior part of the famous Goulay piano and no musician can afford to miss hearing and seeing this delightful combination. The Goulay-angelus is on exhibition at the Yonge-street warehouse of Messrs. Goulay, White & Leming.

ality of dramatic feeling seldom seen, the characters being portrayed with rare artistic appreciation. His Mother's Sermon, by Ian MacLaren, was a beautiful piece of work, amounting to genius. A scene from Nancy Stair was graceful and brilliant with wit and humor. In the negro dialect Mrs. Burns was perfectly natural, and appealing. The Kentucky Cinderella, was a work of art. Mr. Kirkpatrick has done much toward putting the art of expression where it belongs, and can claim now the honor of introducing to a Toronto audience the most artistic and magnetic reader since the days of Mrs. Scofield Siddons.

Last evening in the Conservatory of Music Hall Mrs. Ethel Reese Burns gave a recital, which consisted of a miscellaneous program of great beauty and variety. The first number, the Rhyme of the Remittance Man, by Service, in which she caught the spirit of the west completely; a scene from Henry VIII, showed fine work in dramatic acting, her dramatic ability was shown in the tumbling scenes from Shakespeare, her dramatic ability was shown in the tumbling scenes from Shakespeare.

At Association Hall.

The benefit concert to be given in aid of the Toronto and Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives by the pupils of the Misses Sternberg is to take place at Association Hall on Monday, May 17, at 8.15 p.m. A great deal of interest is being shown in this entertainment, a number of well-known society people giving their names as patrons.

The consumptive hospital is one which has the full sympathy of everyone, and it is hoped that it will profit materially by the work done in its behalf by these progressive and well-known teachers. The dances and physical exercises composing the program are well under way, and a charming evening's entertainment should be the result. The musical numbers are by such well-known and popular artists as Miss Margaret George, contralto; Mr. George Dixon, tenor; Miss Edith Johnson, soprano; and Miss Mabel Johnson, soprano. Tickets for this concert are in great demand, and may be had at Nordheimer's Music Store, where the plan is held.

NELSONS HAVE LICENSE THOMPSON THE HOTEL

Judge Morson Orders Rossin House Proprietors to Vacate the Premises.

Judge Morson yesterday ordered Nelson Bros. to evacuate the Rossin House, to allow Samuel Thompson to take possession.

Nelson Bros. have the license and no hotel, and Samuel Thompson has an hotel and no license.

The Rossin House Hotel Co., who own the hotel, claimed that the Nelson lease expired on May 1 this year, and leave the hotel to the Nelsons.

The Nelsons claimed their lease did not end till May 1, 1914, unless the hotel was sold.

In view of the decision, Abner Nelson said last night: "The World that they had not decided what they would do in regard to purchasing an hotel."

Yesterday they issued a writ against the Rossin House Hotel Joint Stock Co., for the ratification and reformation of the other of June 1, 1904, and damages for wrongful interference in the management, control and operation of the plaintiffs' business as hotel keepers.

Mr. Thompson was unable to say last night how the license would be arranged. "Could you not buy Thompson's license? Yes; but they want much money for it. They want $40,000."

COLORED MOVING PICTURES.

First Successful Attempt in This New Art Will Be Seen Here Next Week.

There is considerable diversity of opinion as to whether Lyman E. Howe's program, presented this week at the Royal Alexandra, is superior to that of last week. The consensus of opinion, however, seems to be that this week's exhibition is the better of the two. Mr. Howe is so gratified with the appreciation shown by the Toronto public that for next week he has prepared a special program, which will embrace a number of the best features. Among them will be an amazing picture of wild birds at home, showing their nests and the mother feeding the little ones. A realistic torpedo attack, showing sub-marines and torpedo boats in action, will also be presented. Another series will be in many familiar and noted scenes in the west. A novel and interesting series will be the Swiss peasants' festival, a novel and interesting series. These are the first moving pictures ever produced. An interesting subject will be scenes in Darkest Africa.

UNIVERSITY CLUB.

Application Made to Provincial Secretary For Charter.

Following up the discussion at the annual meeting of the Toronto branch of the University Alumni Association, the project for a university club, to include in its membership graduates of any recognized university resident in the city, has taken definite shape. Application has been made to the provincial secretary's department for a charter.

A nucleus of this larger idea has already existed in the shape of a small lunch club of university men, which has had its quarters at 38 1-2 King-street east for some time past.

The amount of the fees has not yet been settled, but an announcement will be made shortly.

Similar organizations exist in the large cities in the States.

GAMEST OF SPORTS REPUTATION OF TORONTO

W. B. Findlay Attacks Race Track Gambling at Presbyterian Synod.

"I tell you, you'll have to get after this thing with a big club with a nail in the end of it," said W. B. Findlay at yesterday afternoon's session of the Presbyterian synod, speaking on the subject of racetrack gambling.

"We are getting the reputation of being the gamest lot of sports in America. There are horses for more money than you will find anywhere else. Race track gambling is co-extensive with our population, and it is doing the harm done at the Woodbine, the God knows, that is bad enough. You would be surprised if I told you the amount of money that was spent at Toronto last Friday for one horse at Pimlico."

The decision that kept the bookies moving came in for some fine scorn. "Hopping on one foot like a Shanghai rooster he is safe, so long as he is on the grounds of an incorporated track, and he is not a single night by 'roll' and then relieving them of their pile."

He would say, however, that Cobalt was perhaps the most moral mining camp in the world. The system of practical license of the social evil had been broken up, the one or two hotels were new, and a determined man would have to be watched. Sabbath observance was fairly good. "The men of that country," he said, "are not so bad, but they are good-hearted."

He deprecated stampeding the church into endorsing specific cures for the ills of humanity. "I should arouse a sense of righteousness. Otherwise they might narrow the church by excluding conscientious men who would not see eye-to-eye with them in all things."

Evangelical Work.

Dr. McTavish of Central Presbyterian Church opened the morning session by advocating more evangelical work in the church. "The prejudice against revivals is owing to the fact that the better I like it, and so does the public. Our show is the longest in the wheel, but we finish our performance in the same time as the others do. The reason for that is I do not allow any of my company to stand around and bow to the audience after their song is finished. They must go off the stage with a rush, the same as I do myself. And they do not appear more than twice in the whole show. Sometimes in the first burlesque, and the old, or perhaps in the last burlesque, I only appear in the latter myself, but I will not have one person 'hog' the stage. In fact, I have had a complaint to me about not having enough to do."

"There is where I made my hit, and the people of my home town shared their appreciation by making the opening day the largest in the history of the Gayety Theatre. I would have closed last week, if I wanted to see so many friends in the place of my birth, so I came here and here I close for the season. Then I am going on a summer tour in Europe."

It is to the credit of Mr. Henry that the public is indebted for having a good, clean burlesque house in the city which is the former having originated the same and the latter carried it thru, and they are both heavily interested in the same.

Monday night is the night that the complimentary performance of "A Soldier of the Cross" by Thompson's Comedy Company, will be tendered to James W. Cowan, manager of the Grand. It promises to be a record one.

As a result of a systematic study of the Pompanian remains, the "prophecy" of the ancient Greeks in Thomas E. Ross's production of "A Soldier of the Cross," which will be presented during Mr. Shea's third week at the Grand Theatre, has been secured for the first time. It is an exceptional degree of realism. In that of the Gladiator this piece Mr. Shea is playing a role which has been part of his ambition; and it is reported by the press of other cities that in this new piece his success has been universal.

INVERTEBRATE COUNCILMEN. Yague, indefinite approval which does not mean active support of enterprises necessary for the development of the city is the most deadly weapon the average alderman wields against them. The city should beware of the lukewarm alderman or controller. He will hesitate and procrastinate and fritter away time in the interest of the city's enemies, the grafters and the leeches and other parasites, but is never amenable to rebuke. He is doing his best, he pleads, and his best blocks the way of the man who would do better. Citizens should make a note of the lukewarm aldermen: They are the men who want information, who send deputations and who go touring round the country to find out what the regular officials are paid to know.

If these Laddicians of the council came out boldly against the important matters they side-track and jolly along into the future, the people would put them out of business, and put men in who would do things. There are always enough of these flabby fellows to spoil a year's work. A straight opposition can be understood and provided for, but the men who are neither for nor against, neither on one side nor the other, should be hoisted up in the air or deposited on the ground. If examples are needed take any necessary city improvement. How many aldermen can be got to say, "Put it thru" or "It isn't needed"? Just watch them on the Bloor-street viaduct proposal!

A SAFE TRANSMISSION LINE. Mr. Beck's assurance that the government transmission line for Niagara power will be absolutely free from danger and will prevent accidents such as that which recently occurred at Beamsville should be satisfactory to all reasonable citizens. It will not, of course, be pleasing to the enemies of cheap white coal, who still rage furiously within, and occasionally without, over the success of a policy ensuring the people a share in the advanced stages of hydro-electricity. The Beamsville tragedy was eagerly pounced upon by the supporters of the electric ring, who waxed virtuously indignant over the awful catastrophes which would be certain to result from the erection of the public line. No doubt the automatic cut-out which has been conspicuously successful elsewhere will also invite disapproval and ridicule, but the animus is too transparent to create even momentary prejudice. The insincerity of this charge of danger is obvious when it is remembered that the principal streets of this city are interlaced with overhead wires, any one of which if it grounded would expose passers-by to instant electrocution. But do these interested deprecators of the government line urge the removal of the element of danger from the city streets? No, certainly, but then there is no public ownership policy to knock and no private interests to serve.

THE KINRADE CASE. In the Kinrade case The World has not hesitated to indicate to the public what appears to be the facts underlying the pitiful occurrence of Feb. 25 last. The World has expressed its sympathy several times with the family in accordance with the views the testimony given compelled it to take. It was fully anticipated before the close of the inquest that some action of the crown would be taken to prevent any further similar tragedy. The crown, it is understood, and no denial of the fact will be made, is in possession of expert medical evidence to the effect that one of the leading witnesses in the case is the subject of mental disease, and is liable at any time to develop paroxysms of homicidal mania. That such a person is permitted to pass freely from the surveillance of the provincial authorities among innocent and unsuspecting people is surely a grave breach of public trust. Prevention is better than cure, and it should not require a repetition of the shocking circumstances of three months ago to compel the government to act upon the information it possesses.

STATE MANAGEMENT BY COMMISSION. Oklahoma is the New Zealand of the United States in so far as the radical character of its constitution and its experiments in lawmaking are concerned. Its latest scheme is contained in an act passed in the closing days of the recent session of its legislature creating a state board of public affairs composed of three members, who will be practically managers of the state business. According to a dispatch from the state capital to The Wichita Eagle, the board is to have charge of the maintenance of all institutions and departments and will allot to each state official or department the necessary space in the public buildings. All state property will be under the board's management, excepting the military stores and the state banking department. Together with the state superintendent of schools and the secretary of state, this board will also constitute the state board of education. The board is to purchase and contract for all furnishings, furniture and supplies of every kind and description for any and all state institutions. All bills and claims against the state must be audited and approved by the board before warrants are issued or payments made. The members, each of whom has to furnish a bond for $50,000, and will receive a yearly salary of $3000, must devote their whole time to the duties and prepare rules and regulations governing the various departments. They will hold office during the governor's term unless removed for cause.

If this experiment is given a sufficient trial, its result will be of exceptional interest. Government by commission is proving acceptable in cities, as is shown by its rapid extension throughout many U. S. states. The Oklahoma board will, however, be the first to take under control the general business of a state and everything will depend on the character and capacity of the members. So far as can be gathered the Oklahoma board, composed of two Democrats and one Republican, meet with public approval. The departure has not, however, passed without challenge, objection having been taken that it is unconstitutional and places too much power in the hands of the members.

GERMAN FORESTRY METHODS. Much of the success of German methods is due to their thoroughness and the manner in which the best means are utilized to achieve the desired end. A recent magazine article called attention to the way in which the rivers are made to work in Germany and the splendid facilities provided for the cheap movement of both passenger and freight traffic. The Teuton is not hampered by railway jealousies of the development of water transport. Throughout the country co-operation is assisted by the policy of the government, which uses the state railroads for the benefit of German industries.

So in the forest policy of Germany, every department is co-ordinated for the present and future advantage of the nation. Early in last century the Germans recognized the potential value of their timber resources and proceeded to devise methods for preventing waste and for securing the continuance of the supply. As a result German forestry ranks with the best in the world, and its forests are in better shape than ever. Forest conservation in Germany "means just two things, first, the fullest possible utilization of the present supply of timber, which will make it last longer, and, second, the handling of forest lands in such a way that succeeding crops of timber will be secured."

A comparison between German and American forestry management affords an excellent illustration of waste in the one and thrift in the other. "The United States, for example, takes 289 cubic feet per capita annually from the forests; Germany uses but 37 cubic feet." The republic uses seven times as much timber as Germany, but whereas the United States forests do not produce more than 12 cubic feet per acre, German forests yield 48 cubic feet per acre annually. In other words, "Germany has reduced waste and consumption and increased production." Canada is to-day in an unrivaled situation as regards forest resources and with a proper scientific system would be able to supply its own legitimate demands, to export largely and yet to maintain its forest lands on a permanent productive basis. All that is needed is federal and provincial governments and legislatures with enough statesmanlike capacity to recognize the need of an advanced forestry system.

TRAINING IN SELF GOVERNMENT. Imperfectly informed publicists in the United States are prone to find fault with British methods of governing crown colonies and dependencies. They belong chiefly to the section of public opinion that has been urging their own home authorities to bestow complete representative government on the Philippines, and reproaching the article authorities for refusing it to India. These idealists imagine that the conference of self-government is a universal panacea requiring no natural aptitude or term of apprenticeship for its efficient exercise. As for the complexity of the problem that the multiplicity of nations, races, languages and religions raises in India, that is not so much as considered. But the United States has its own troubles and is learning by degrees that the white man's burden is not so easily shouldered. President Taft has found it necessary to intrude upon the tariff deliberations of congress with a special message recommending the amendment of the act under which Porto Rico is governed. In his view a situation of unusual gravity has developed through the failure of its legislature to vote supplies, and he asks that the absolute power of appropriation should be taken away from "those who have shown themselves too irresponsible to enjoy it." Perhaps in course of time our neighbors will find out for themselves that something can be said for the more cautious British practice.

LESS DRUNKENNESS IN ENGLAND. The News of The World, a London (Eng.) publication, has the following article in a recent issue: "That the country is gradually becoming more sober is one of the prinincipal conclusions which one arrives at after a perusal of a blue book just issued dealing with the working of the compensation clauses of Mr. Balfour's License Act for 1908, and shows that the cost more every year to extinguish licenses, the reduction already made has had a marked effect in decreasing the amount of drunkenness. The net decrease in the number of licenses in the last four years was:—

Table showing the number of licenses in various districts from 1904 to 1908. Columns include District, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908.

These figures include the licenses which were taken away without compensation and also new licenses. The actual number for which compensation was paid last year was 1394, and the average cost was 1994, or 1113 each for 445 full licenses and 1228 each for 789 beer-house licenses. Each year the number of licenses is decreasing. The Blue-book shows an increase in the cost of licenses. In 1905 the cost was 1614 and last year it was 1994. The difference in the monopoly value in various districts is shown in some striking figures, giving the following average prices in the compensation areas named:—

Table showing average annual value in various districts: Cambridgeshire, 1122; Cardiganshire, 1131; County of London, 1282; Cardiff (one license only), 1418; City of London, 1586.

The average annual value in these cases were: Cambridgeshire, £23; Cardiganshire, £23; London County, £40; West Ham, £20; London City, £47. The average annual value of all the licenses paid for in 1908 did not exceed 150 for salaried houses and 140 for beer-houses. It is estimated that out of the existing 65,228 ale-house licenses there are still some 37,000 of an annual value not exceeding 150. Each year the 24,419 beer-houses some 23,000 do not exceed 140. The Total Sum Paid. For compensation since 1905 is $3,545,452. But the number of licenses has decreased during 1908 by about 282 in England and Wales 95,517 premises licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquors for consumption on or off the premises (on-licenses), and 24,924 off-licenses, giving proportionately according to the estimated population of 27,020,000 licenses and 7,08 for 10,000 persons. Accompanying the reduction of licenses was a remarkable fall in the number of convictions for drunkenness. The number of convictions was 157,903, a decrease of 9281, or 4.70 per cent, as compared with the total for 1907. A striking decrease following on varying decreases in previous years. "The decrease is spread over nearly all parts of the country, London, but in a few county boroughs the convictions increased in 1908. These places included Liverpool, Birmingham, Rotherham. The report also gives some very interesting facts about the contrast between density of population and proportion of convictions. In eleven exceptional cases the conviction ratio is worse, while the density ratio is better than the license ratio. These are:—

Barrow-in-Furness, Swansea, Tynemouth, Burton-on-Trent, Rotherham, Bradford, St. Helens, Lincoln, Wigan, Stockport, and Walsley. In seven other exceptional cases the conviction ratio is better and the density ratio worse than the license ratio. These are:—

Croydon, Devonport, Leicester, Cardiff, Hanley, Brighton, and Plymouth. The report notes that the Licensing Bill, as well as increased compensation of compensated licenses. As to the reduction of the number of licenses, the lack of employment and scarcity of money to spend on drink. Convictions among women contribute the highest proportion of the total. The inebriate (or repeatedly convicted) population is shrinking year by year.

CANADA'S MISSED OPPORTUNITY. An esteemed correspondent sends The World the following communication regarding the present need for strengthening the naval defences of the empire: "It is useless to bury one's head in the sands. It is far better to stand up and look facts in the face. Sir James Whitney was also quite right when he said in St. George's Hall, that he was proud to know that Canada had at last formally recognized her responsibility for the maintenance of a naval defence, and was about to adopt a systematic defence of her own coasts after consultation with the admiralty. He is glad that Canada has formally announced her determination to shoulder from this time forward a share of the cost of the maintenance of the empire, as our kinsmen in Australia are doing. He is sorry that Canada has not like them come forward in this hour of difficulty and danger with an offer of immediate aid. Col. Denison's suggestion that the ships being built for Brazil should be purchased by Canada and either given or sold to the mother country is admirable. It is most devoutly to be hoped that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will act upon it. This is no academic discussion, but a struggle in which, to use the words of Sir E. Gray, "Our very existence" is at stake.

A May-Day Calendar. A most delightful and springlike design in the way of a calendar being issued by the Elias Rogers Company. An attractive little lady is in an orchard and surrounded by the flowers of the year. "Always warm and springlike with Rogers' Cal." The calendar is a good idea, makes an interesting and attractive picture, and is very useful. It was reproduced by the Toronto Lithographing Co., Limited, from a painting by a well-known artist and reflects a credit on the Rogers Company for their taste and enterprise.

To Enlarge Fair Buildings. GUELPH, May 12.—The city council, at a special meeting, put through the extension to the present winter fair building, and now the only detail that remains to be settled is the financing of the scheme.

THURSDAY MORNING

COBALT---High-Priced Mining Stocks Are in Excellent Demand---COBALT

Mining Markets Are Steady LaRose the Strong Issue

Temiskaming on Offer But Well Taken---Beaver and Nova Scotia Active and Firm---Outside Buying Increases.

World Office,
Wednesday, May 12.
The local mining market to-day was firm with the high-priced issues the feature.
Most of the activity was centered around LaRose, Nova Scotia, Beaver and Peterson Lake. Strong buying was in evidence for all three during the latter part of the morning session, but was well taken. Any active bidding for this issue had the effect of drying up offerings except at higher prices. The setback appeared to be engineered for market reasons rather than genuine selling.
LaRose was strong, closing 7 points higher than on Tuesday, the buying of this stock coming almost entirely from investors. It was rumored that some of the buying was for English account, in which market the shares are now being placed. Brokers report an increase in outside business to-day and a scarcity of offerings in some of the listed stocks.

Mr. Neumann expects that Supt. Young's letter will give important details of the find. He is leaving for the properties in a couple of weeks to take charge of development work.

Market Letter

Greville & Co.'s (of 60 Yonge-street) market letter this week contains the usual interesting news of many properties in Cobalt.

Deep Levels Prove Productive.

The recent remarkable development of high-grade ore in the Eagle property, in the Rossland Camp, is very encouraging for the camp generally, and of very considerable interest to shareholders of the White Bear. It would go to indicate that intelligent development of the deep levels of the Rossland mines is bound to be productive of satisfactory results.

FIRST CANOE THIS YEAR FROM LATCHFORD TO ELK

Only Three Miles of Ice Encountered on Montreal River---Boats Expected to Run Any Day.

ELK LAKE, May 8.--The first canoe to arrive from Latchford via the Montreal River came in to-day with three men. According to their statement they only encountered about three miles of ice, and they were obliged to pass on account of the ice, and this was at the lower end of "Mountain Lake, where the ice has not yet begun to move. From this it must not be taken that the river is open for larger boats, but there is a wide strip of open water nearly everywhere along the shore, and the three voyageurs were able to navigate their canoe on this. The weather was very warm to-day. To-day the woods and many of the canoes are being launched plying up and down the river.
The canoeing season is now starting here, and on the whole the prospects are bright numbers of canoeists may be seen dispersing themselves at the rapid on Bear River, packing up along the shore and coming down the river again with the current. This sport may strike the average citizen as being rather dangerous, but the best here spend a large portion of their time in canoes, and are quite dexterous in handling them, and, in fact, the amusement in which they indulge is not perhaps quite as dangerous as the navigating of a canoe on the waters of Toronto Bay.

OPENING NEW ROUTES TO THE SILVER COUNTRY

Disco Connection Available in a Few Weeks---Using the Natural Highways.

There are few difficulties that mining men cannot overcome, providing they are not wholly insurmountable. In a few months the government work on the Elk City and Gowganda will be completed and a highway will be opened up for the expanding traffic into the new country. The railroad will follow in due course, for no man who knows the potentialities of silverland doubts that this season will furnish ample justification for proceeding with this work.
In the meantime the miners and prospectors will follow the lines of least resistance and many plans are being devised to make the country easily accessible. The most notable project now on foot is the toll road being proposed to be opened up within the next few weeks by the C.P.R. from Bischo. This route will be made serviceable by a chain of lakes and old Hudson Bay trails. Small steamers and wagons with heavy draught horses will handle the traffic. This road will have its terminal, it is believed, at the west shore of Lake Gowganda, near the Bartlett Mines and connection with Gowganda City will be completed by several miles, which will be delivered during the winter. From the east the Montreal River will be used from Latchford to Elk City. Above this point the portage will be brought into use down the east branch, and Lake Gowganda will be light collapsible canoes will be taken into the country, and the improvement will be used extensively during the season of navigation. The Bartlett people will have no ready for shipment when the wagon road is ready, and this applies also to half a dozen other mines.
Cobalt the wonder of the World. The richest silver mining camp that has ever known, but faintly conveys to the reader what Cobalt is, and its possibilities interested and enthused, and a result of their interest, and they made a personal visit to the camp. Thousands have done so, and made their way to the city of Cobalt, and the result is that intelligent young men ready to take a chance have no hesitation about going there and into the newer prospects, Gowganda, etc.
The "Cobalt Special" of the Grand Trunk leaves Toronto at 10:15 p.m., reaching Cobalt at 11:15 a.m., making it the most accessible silver camp ever opened up. The famous Temagami Lakes are passed en route and St. Paulman reservations, tickets, illustrated publications, etc., may be obtained by calling at City Ticket Office, north-west corner of King and Yonge-streets, or address J. D. McDonald, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

RETAILERS STAND TO GUNS.

On Other Hand Produce Men Say They Are Not Paying Up.
Two stories are told regarding the fight between the retail grocers and butchers, which was decided upon at a meeting of these sections of the Retail Merchants' Association on Monday night, because the produce dealers had issued a circular curtailing their credit. According to Secretary Trower, of the Retail Merchants' Association, the retail grocers and butchers are standing to their guns and will go on to test their strength.
On the other hand, the wholesalers say the fight has petered out, and the retail men are paying their bills promptly. White Bear say that 65 per cent. of their accounts have been paid. Other dealers say 50 to 75 per cent. have settled.

Care Thru Old Fort.

Acting Mayor Ward and Controller Hocken returned yesterday from Ottawa, where they were accompanied by George H. Gooderham, M.L.A., Dr. Orr, Senator G. W. Ross and Senator Jafray, on a mission to the minister of justice, concerning the legality of alibi grounds via the Garrison Court. They were assured that the "Old Fort" property could be used and the deed of same is now being engrossed. The minister of railways also promised a consideration of the city's request for permission power to prevent division in the matter of suburban fares.

New Street Car a Wonder.

The Toronto Railway Co. has just finished a new car of original design, wider at the bottom, longer, built than the top, broader, longer, built lower to the ground than anything heretofore attempted. The wheels will revolve inside the frame work, and it has a solid steel floor. It cost $10,000 has a solid floor and will likely soon be put on the Belt Line.

INVESTORS, TAKE NOTICE

WE HAVE A FEW VERY EXCELLENT PROPOSITIONS FOR your consideration. These are well situated Mining Properties in the rich Gowganda belt--adjoining native silver claims and in the rich ore-producing formation of the district. Owners will not sell outright, but circumstances compel them to raise money, and sixty per cent. interest can be obtained for a small cash consideration. We have made diligent enquiry regarding these claims and are advised they are in the same formation as the near by properties that have made the Gowganda camp famous as a producer of high-grade silver ore. Further particulars on request.
