GRIME WAVE AGAIN SWEEPS NEW YORK; POLICE ARE BUSY

Numerous Cases of Homicide, Hold-Ups and Robberies Are Reported.

MANY ARRESTS MADE

New York, Jan. 15.—Two cases of homicide, numerous holdups, robberies and increased police activity were reported today when New York's crime wave, abated after the Christmas holidays, apparently broke out afresh.

Shot during a fight in West 147th street, Edward Markie, clerk, died en route to a hospital. An acquaintance, Frank Bond, was arrested later charged with the shooting, which he denied.

An unidentified friend, with whom he had quarrelled, lay in wait for Jas. Sullivan early today and shot him to death as he walked from an east side saloon. The assailant, brandishing a pistol in the faces of a crowd that gathered, escaped.

Four of six men who entered a Greenwich avenue home today were captured after a fight with William Royen, his wife and daughter. A policeman, attracted by their shouts for help, clubbed the four into submission. The others fled. Those arrested were held in $1,500 bail each for examination Tuesday.

The renewed operations of outlaws resulted in the detaining of 150 recruit policemen to special detective duty in Brooklyn and sections outside the business district in Manhattan.

Police Commissioner Richard Enright, who denied reports current yesterday that he had resigned to appear tomorrow with Mayor Hylan before a special grand jury in connection with former Governor Whitman's inquiry into alleged corruption in the city administration.

Many Were Arrested. Police raiding squads operating late last night along the Bowery, in Harlem and the lower east side arrested more than 150 men. All were charged with either gambling or being suspicious characters.

Attacked by unidentified men as he entered his home in East Ninth street today, Alexander Lukin, a salesman, was clubbed into a hospital and had not recovered consciousness tonight.

After beating a young woman ticket agent to the floor, a man today robbed the box office of a west side moving picture house, ran into the theatre and escaped through a rear exit.

Morris, who lives at the rear of his store, was away from home when the robbery took place. The three boys are alleged to have entered a side door on Walton street by means of a key, after which they entered his living apartment and made a hole thru the plaster walls into the storeroom.

Another juvenile, aged 14 years, was arrested on Saturday afternoon.

ARRREST OF LEONI IS MADE IN HORROR AFTER HIS RETURN

Italian Who Killed Fred Bonniwell Came Back From Buffalo Last Night, and Was Taken by Surprise in House on West Richmond Street—Leoni Maintains Shooting of Youth Was Accidental.

Richmond street address, Dickenson immediately went to the house, and, entering the front door unceremoniously, found Leoni sitting in the front sitting room talking to Wassella and another foreigner. So surprised was Leoni that he did not offer resistance or attempt flight, and the handcuffs were quickly attached to his wrists.

P. C. Dinnen, the other constable who figured in the arrest, then entered the house. He had been told of Leoni's presence there by the man who informed Dickenson.

Leoni, in charge of the two constables, was taken to Clarendon street police station, where he was locked up.

Feather in His Cap. P. C. Dickenson is one of the latest recruits to join the police force, and has been on regular duty only about three weeks. His work in arresting the Italian, who is a considerable credit as he had to take the risk of Leoni being armed and ready to resist to the utmost.

At the conclusion of the inquest into the death of Fred Bonniwell on Friday afternoon, the coroner, who presided, said that he was satisfied that the shooting was accidental.

"Bonniwell came to his death by a revolver in the hands of Sam Leoni," the coroner said. "Leoni is a widow and is 33 years old. His wife, who was of English descent, died about two years ago. He has two children, Quentin, aged two years, and Edna, aged one year. Both children have been taken care of by the Morrison family since Leoni's disappearance on the night of the shooting."

DRAYTON AND FOSTER ENTER PETERBORO FRAY

To Campaign on Behalf of Government Candidate on Friday, While Mackenzie King and Lapointe Will Speak on Saturday in Support of Liberal Nominee—No Meetings by Burnham.

Peterboro, Jan. 16.—With election day just three weeks away the by-election campaign in West Peterboro is beginning to assume substantial proportions. Sir George E. Foster and Sir Henry Drayton will address a meeting here on Friday evening next in the interests of R. Denne, the government candidate, and on Saturday evening following Mackenzie King and Lapointe will speak here in the interests of N. Gordon, the Liberal candidate. This week the campaign will spread into the country, and several meetings are scheduled for a number of surrounding villages.

At the present, the roads have been excellent for automobile travel in the country, but a snow storm over the week-end may make it difficult for the candidates to get to all parts of the riding. The north country trip is a long, hard one in any kind of weather, but it is a great deal worse at this season of the year.

Three Meetings. On Saturday evening three of the candidates held meetings and addressed the workers. The exceptions were James Corbett Campbell and J. H. Burnham. The latter believes in the power of the press and on Friday afternoon he sent out a message to the voters, and has announced that he will not hold any meetings in the riding. All five candidates are working hard at an army of canvassers is making house to house canvass. Ward committees have been appointed and this week will see a large number of names added to the voters' lists, thru the medium of the county judge.

BERLIN COMMUNISTS CLASH WITH POLICE

Were Trying to Celebrate the Anniversary of Death of Leaders.

Berlin, Jan. 16.—Four persons were wounded, one of them seriously, in a clash yesterday afternoon between the security police and communists in Unter-den-Linden, when "reds" attempted to form a parade in connection with the second anniversary of the killing of Dr. Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, the radical socialist leaders.

Police reinforcements quickly broke up the demonstration and forced the crowds to disperse.

The fight followed fiery speeches, in which demands were made for the overthrow of the government. Six thousand persons in procession broke thru the police cordons at Charlottenstrasse and Friedrichstrasse and tried to rush a third cordon in Wilhelmstrasse, but fled in panic when shots were fired from the Brandenburg gate.

VAST SUM FOR TALCUM; LITTLE FOR MISSIONS

Halifax, Jan. 16.—"And country professing Christianity, which spends $750,000,000 on talcum powder and only $25,000,000 on foreign missions has dismally failed to understand the great business of Jesus Christ in this world," said Rev. Neil Herman in the course of a sermon today at the King Street Baptist Church. Dartmouth. He quoted copiously from a recently announced "luxury program" of the United States for the year 1919 to prove his claim that there is a great need for a Christian revival the world over.

"I think it is fine to save the youth of the United States from the tobacco habit," says Mr. Harding's reply. "I think, however, the movement ought to be carried on in perfect good faith and should be free from any kind of hypocrisy or deceit on the part of those who are giving it their earnest attention."

DE VALERA IS BUSY, MANIFESTO DELAYED

Dublin, Jan. 16.—Eamonn de Valera is said to have spent a busy week conferring with his associates and attending at least one "cabinet meeting" at which the heads of all the principal departments of the "Sinn Fein" government were present. It is stated that the "republican government" will continue to function without interruption.

Regarding De Valera's delayed manifesto, it is said that it may not be issued until the end of this week. It is understood that it will contain a review of the situation as De Valera found it on his return from the United States and perhaps deal with the results of recent attempts to bring about peace negotiations.

OVERSEA SECURITIES NO LONGER SUBJECT TO EMBARGO RULE

Arrangement Affecting Re-importation of Canadian Issues Is Lifted.

DRAYTON ANNOUNCES

Ottawa, Jan. 16.—(Canadian Press).—The "embargo" on reimportation of Canadian securities from overseas has been lifted. Interviewed by a Canadian Press representative tonight, Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, announced that it was not thought advisable to continue the work of the voluntary committees any longer, therefore they have been dissolved.

In proper sense of the word, there has never existed any embargo. What existed was an arrangement reached some months ago, with bankers and brokers, under which reimportation of Canadian securities, reinstated in London, was checked.

Protected Exchange. At the time, owing to the fall in sterling exchange, a considerable business in reimportation of Canadian securities had developed. As many of these securities were guaranteed either by the Dominion or some provincial government, heavy reimportation of Canadian securities was checked.

Drayton's Explanation. In his interview Sir Henry emphasized that the arrangement reached was never forced and was not a matter of government or legal control. "There seems," he said, "to be a great deal of misconception as to the so-called embargo. Embargo, proper sense of the word, only action taken was to point out to those interested in the particular business the adverse effect upon our exchanges of a large amount of these securities being brought in at the time of the payment of the volume of the volume of Canadian money when it was so heavily needed."

ITALIAN SOCIALISTS ARGUE WITH FISTS

Bolshevik Issue Will Be Fought Out at Present Congress.

Leghorn, Italy, Jan. 16.—Communism and Socialism matched forces yesterday at the session of the Italian Socialist Congress.

Signor Bombacci, the president, opened the congress by sketching the history of the Socialist party in fighting against prejudices and in overcoming a long and arduous struggle.

Signor Bombacci then mentioned the names of Dr. Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, the German Socialists, who were killed in Berlin during the disorders of 1918, who he characterized as the greatest and noblest of their names there was pandemonium in the hall.

FRENCH CABINET FORMED BY BRIAND

Louis Barthou Becomes Minister of War and Doumer Minister of Finance.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Aristide Briand, former prime minister of France, who yesterday acceded to the request of President Millerand that he form a cabinet, Raoul Peret having declined the office, succeeded today in the task undertaken by him yesterday to form a cabinet in succession to the ministry of Premier Leygues, who resigned last Wednesday.

Shortly before 6.30 o'clock tonight M. Briand presented the official cabinet list to President Millerand. The ministry is made up as follows:

Premier and minister of foreign affairs, Aristide Briand; minister of justice, M. Bonnevay; minister of the interior, Pierre Marraud; minister of war, Louis Barthou; minister of marine, Yves Le Troquer; minister of finance, Paul Doumer; minister of public instruction, Victor Berard; minister of agriculture, Edmond Leleux; minister of commerce, Lucien Dior; minister of labor, Daniel Vigout; minister of pensions, Andre Maginot; minister of public works, Yves Le Troquer; minister of liberated regions, Louis Loucheur.

Paris, Jan. 16.—"It is not the great cabinet that is being formed, it is a cabinet of ministers," said Premier Briand this evening.

Not Militarist Nation. "Those who have been in France for many years understand that we are not a militarist nation. We have the warmest desire to be on friendly footing with Great Britain and the United States, but there is a pact signed at Versailles, which must be fulfilled. I trust that in the fulfillment of that pact we make not in contempt with our friends."

"My ministry will make its bow in the chamber Tuesday. It may be that a representative of France will meet the British and Italian delegates the next day. I have asked for no postponement. France will meet the foreign delegates and discuss questions of international interest as if there were no ministerial crisis in France."

The general impression in political circles is that the cabinet as constituted by M. Briand is a very powerful element, although many are deploring the absence of M. Poincaré and M. Viviani from the combination.

CITY HAS BUYER FOR OLD BELT LINE

Section Within City Limits Gives Access to Industrial Properties.

The board of control will hold a conference with the Provincial Hydro Commission on the question of turning over to the commission the short section of the old Belt Line railway which the city owns in ward seven.

Both the G.T.R. and the Hydro are anxious to secure this right-of-way as it gives access to a number of industries in the Union Stock Yards district.

The piece owned by the city runs from Keele street to Gunn's road, north of St. Clair avenue, and is about three blocks in length.

The strip came into possession of the town of West Toronto about the year 1905 thru a tax sale, and Toronto secured it when West Toronto was annexed.

The strip is wide enough to give both the G.T.R. and the Hydro system trucking rights.

The officers stated that a case of eviction came to them on Saturday night and another on Sunday. In both instances families were turned out of their homes for back rent.

RELIEF IS OBTAINED BY FALSE PRETENCES

"We are badly in need of underclothing for the men," said Capt. McEhliney, one of the Salvation Army officers in charge of the Kraussmann House, to The World last night.

Many of these unemployed returned men are without underclothing of any kind," he said.

A case has just been reported of a married man who has been obtaining relief under false pretences. This man has been living with another woman at his mother's home, while his wife was working in service in the Wychwood district, and turning her earnings over to him.

His wife has now been taken ill, and thru her deception has come to light.

The captain considered this as going to show that none but investigators of years' experience should be used.

This case had been investigated, but the man had put on over the investigator. A police court action is quite possible against the impostor.

The bright side was that of a man who lived but forty yards outside the city limits, and brought back a pair of shoes which had been given him when he discovered that he did not properly come within the scope of the relief.

He was told to keep the shoes.

The officers stated that a case of eviction came to them on Saturday night and another on Sunday. In both instances families were turned out of their homes for back rent.

FORMER TORONTO MAN DROWNS AT BROCKVILLE

Brockville, Ont., Jan. 16.—(Special).—Three quarters of an hour after he had skated into thin ice off Mathews Dock this morning the body of Ernest Imman, aged 22, returned soldier, was recovered by persons who noticed the hole in the ice.

Imman left his home at 9 o'clock for a skate on the St. Lawrence and unseen by any person crashed thru ice which formed overnight, losing his life in 10 feet of water.

His watch stopped at 9.30 o'clock. He served overseas with the 15th Battery, C.F.A. Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Imman, formerly of Toronto, he is survived by two brothers, both war veterans, and by one sister. Coroner Harding decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

FOUNDED 1820. A morning newspaper published every day in the year by The World News-Paper Company...

Hurry Up the Co-ordination of the Grand Trunk.

There is a going id the mulberry leaves rather hard to understand. A mysterious dispatch from Ottawa announced the other day that the government was preparing to part with the National Railways.

Under some kind of inspiration some of the papers are talking of a widened Yonge street north of the Brewery Hollow at Crescent road right up to the north city limit.

We fear he does not exist. Sir Vincent and Sir Herbert and their faithful follower, The Montreal Gazette, are simply expressing their hearty dislike of public ownership.

The answer, we think, is not far to seek. The national administration of the National Railways already gives proof of well-doing. The readers of The Sunday World were able yesterday to glimpse something of the great terminal facilities and improvements that are coming to Toronto.

The road against government ownership is timed for this trying period when the government has practically acquired the old Grand Trunk, but has not co-ordinated with it the Canadian Northern and other lines incorporated in the national system.

The Grand Trunk was purchased because the Grand Trunk was in financial trouble over its other adventures and because its system needed to be completed and made profitable the National Railway system.

Yet even this measure of liberty is curtailed by common consent. We do not permit a man to commit suicide, and even punish him for the attempt. We may require him to be vaccinated, even though he be quite willing to get the smallpox and die from it.

The First Move in Toronto's New Street Car Lines.

Helen felt the tragedy of Tuesday, and as he advanced to greet her he noted with concern her air of distress and the troubled look in her eyes.

"You are so kind," she murmured as he placed a chair for her. "Babs told me you have promised your aid, and so I have come, because it is wiser to have your talk here." Her face brightened up at sight of a safe standing in one corner.

"Do you keep your private papers there, as well as the firm's?" she asked. "The envelope is unaddressed, I see, and I have retained one section and I'll take it to the office."

"I don't know," Syvester simply said that he had called to see me and was waiting in the outer office. Observing her indecision, Ken opened the door leading directly into the corridor.

"I will," Helen's voice lowered. "My father," Helen's eyes were hard and she dated the night before. "I am leaving this way without encountering Col. McIntyre."

"I don't know," Syvester simply said that he had called to see me and was waiting in the outer office. Observing her indecision, Ken opened the door leading directly into the corridor.

Turnbull's name or admit his guilt; there remain two days and a half before I take the affair in my own hands and make it public."

"I hope to establish Turnbull's innocence before that time," asserted Ken coolly. "Clymer, aware that the atmosphere was getting strained, diplomatically intervened."

"Dine with me, tonight, Ken," he said. "Perhaps you will then have some news that will throw light upon the present whereabouts of the securities. I found out on making inquiry that they have not been offered for sale in the usual channels. Come, McIntyre, I have a directors' meeting in twenty minutes."

"Call Miss Helen McIntyre," Penfield said to the morgue master. Helen was extremely pale as she advanced upon a throne to call him. He was very frightened, but he was not marked at their interview that morning.

"I am Helen McIntyre," she announced. "Daughter of Col. Charles McIntyre." "Tell us the circumstances attending the death of James Turnbull, alias John Smith, in your house on Tuesday morning, Miss McIntyre," directed the coroner.

CANADA CAN HIT U. S. TRADE HARD

New York World Sees "Suicidal Idiocy" in Emergency Tariff Bill.

New York, Jan. 15.—The New York World this morning deals editorially with the resentment shown by Canadian newspapers over the proposed emergency tariff now being considered by the senate finance committee at Washington. It mentions specifically editorials in The Toronto World, Toronto Globe, Montreal Star, Toronto Telegram, Manitoba Free Press, Victoria Colonist, and The Regina Post, advising retaliatory or emergency tariffs.

"They reflect a disposition up that way to strike back," The World says. "Next to the United Kingdom, The World continues, 'Canada, of all other countries in the world, is our best customer. We exported to the Dominion last fiscal year more than $30,000,000 worth of merchandise. We imported in return only about $37,000,000 worth. Our exports consisted chiefly of manufactures and raw materials. Our imports consisted chiefly of raw materials. No economic proposition is simpler or more indisputable than that if we further cripple Canada's ability to pay, we shall by the same measure reduce our present enormous export trade to Canada. And this is what the Fordney and McCumby tariff bill, preparing or prepared, aim to do if Congress should ratify it."

"Our Strong Position. 'The folly of this legislation is even greater than thus appears. Canada, above all other customers of ours, is in a position to hit back. She can get most of the manufactures now bought in the United States from Great Britain just as well, and a strong preferential tariff in favor of the mother country cannot fail to hit the Canadian manufacturing industry of the United States a staggering blow. And this is precisely what Canada is preparing to do if Congress shall provoke the retaliation.'"

"The World concludes: 'This is not merely a bournationism that cannot even be tolerated; it is a further crippling of the whole foreign trade of the United States radically changed. It is suicidal idiocy.'"

ST. LAWRENCE AND PRODUCE MARKET

Good Average Trade on Saturday With Steady Prices.

At the St. Lawrence market on Saturday there was a fairly good average amount of farm produce and kind, with a liberal sprinkling of citizens and a generally all-round market.

There is little doing in the way of poultry outside of chickens and older fowl, and prices held good and steady. Chickens sold around 50c to 55c a pound dressed, and fowl relatively a little lower.

Eggs started in around 90c to $1.00 a dozen for the best-to-goodness strictly new-laid, but later in the day eased off to 85c and a shade less. The market in eggs is about the same as it was a week ago.

Butter is running around 50c to 55c, and then some. The butter market, like the egg market, is a conundrum. You cannot always tell where you are at. In the event, as every housekeeper knows, there is a quality in butter, and it is selling at from 50c to 55c for creamery.

The average price of potatoes, as stated in another place is 90c a bag. Whether they will go higher or not remains to be seen. There does not seem to be much in the way of potatoes in the market at the moment. Wholesale warehousemen generally talk the way that there is only the ordinary average quality of potatoes in the market.

On the St. Lawrence market local dealers are selling turnips at 50c a bag, carrots at 40c a dozen, and radishes at 25c a dozen. Cheap and plentiful this year, at from 40c to 50c a dozen, and a few every housekeeper knows, there is a big difference in size and quality.

Apples. The northern apple crop will bring from 55c to 75c a barrel, but they have to go good to bring that. Not a few of a quality are bringing from 40c to 55c, and red Baldwins are selling at 40c to 50c a dozen. Apples are selling at 25c to 30c a bushel.

Wholesale prices to the retail trade: New York, cartons, 90c to 95c; Selects, 70c to 75c; Butters, 50c to 55c; Creamery prints, 50c to 55c; Bakers', 50c to 55c; Best grade, 30c to 35c; Cheese, 20c to 25c; Maple Syrup, 20c to 25c; One-gallon tin, 20c to 25c; Honey, extracted, 20c to 25c; White sugar, 20c to 25c; Ontario No. 1 white clover, 20c to 25c; per lb., 20c to 25c.

There is little or no change to note in the price of hides since Thursday. The prices of the various kinds are as follows: Beef hides, green, 7c to 8c; cured, 5c; calfskins, 10c to 12c; sheepskins, 10c to 12c; horsehides, 10c to 12c.

Wool, unwashed, is quoted at 11c; medium, 10c to 11c; and fine, 10c to 11c. Dressed pork is selling in country points at from 10c to 15c a pound, and on the 10c extra. The price of lard is selling at from 20c to 25c a pound.

Quite a lot of corn is coming in but the price is holding steady at the figures quoted. No. 1 timothy selling on the St. Lawrence at 20c to 25c. Little or no alfalfa coming in. Alfalfa hay, extra choice, at 25c to 30c for ton and from 20c to 25c for second.

CITY COUNCIL ALONE CAN INCREASE FORCE

Board of Control is Ready for a Conference With Police Department.

Altho the police commission have resolved to go ahead and increase the police force to 1000 men, such a step cannot be taken without the authority of the city council.

Chief of Police Dickson applied in November last for 250 more men to bring his force up to 1000 men, but council, on recommendation of the board of control, added only 150 men.

Controller Maguire: "We must go into the question carefully. I am of the opinion that the chief, in his campaign to round up law-breakers, is accomplishing the purpose for which the additional men are wanted."

Controller Gibbons: "I am opposed to the increase. However, if the people want 1000 men and are willing to pay for it, we cannot help it."

INSTANTLY KILLED IN ELEVATOR SHAFT

Car Descended While Victim Was Watching Search in Pit for Lost Locket.

George J. Pond, aged 45, of 15 St. Clarens avenue, was almost instantly killed at 11.15 on Saturday morning in the Canadian Sunbeam Co. building at 221 Dufferin street, when his head was crushed between the floor of the elevator and the basement floor.

According to the police one of the women employees had dropped a locket, down the elevator shaft, and while the operator, Fred Read, 147 Booth avenue, searched for the lost article among their rubbish in the well of the shaft, Pond opened the safety gate on the basement floor and inserted his head thru, watching Read search for the locket.

Dr. A. C. Bennett, King street and Cowan avenue, who was called, pronounced Pond dead, after which the body was removed to the morgue. Although uninjured, Read suffered considerable shock from his experience, and was advised by Dr. Bennett to go home, which he did.

Pond leaves a wife and six children, two boys and four girls.
