French Government Has Resigned; The British Lose Cruiser on The Scottish Coast

Briand Now is Head Of French Government

Viviani to Have Position in New Cabinet But Re-organization Likely Not Complete Till Tomorrow — Second Time Since War Began

Paris, Oct. 28.—The Viviani ministry resigned today. Aristide Briand has been asked to form a new cabinet. The following statement was made by M. Briand: "Premier Viviani took steps to enlarge his cabinet. I am continuing them in my turn, but I have no official mandate, since there is no ministerial crisis. Accordingly, the conversations I have had with various political leaders have been only semi-official and I ask you to explain that it is in that sense that my activities must be regarded. Perhaps I may be in a position to say more very soon. It is understood that Viviani will be minister of justice in the re-organized cabinet. The cabinet in its new form will probably not be ready to appear before parliament this afternoon, and Paul Deschanel, president of the chamber, will move an adjournment until tomorrow. Information indicates that M. Briand will become foreign minister as well as premier, with Jules Cambon, who was ambassador to Germany at the outbreak of the war, as his principal secretary. In addition to M. Viviani, probable designations are: Minister of war, General J. S. Gallieni, military governor of Paris; minister of marine, Rear Admiral Lacaze; minister of agriculture, Etienne Clementel, former minister of agriculture and finance; minister of commerce, L. L. Klotz, former minister of the interior and of finance, or Joseph Thierry, under secretary in the ministry of war; minister of instruction, Emile Combes, former premier. The other members of the present cabinet, according to this programme, will continue in their present positions. The Paris Journal states that there will be six ministers of state without portfolios, of whom four will be senators and two deputies. It is also said the under secretariats will not be filled except in the case of the minister of war in which department Albert Thomas is to be continued in office, in charge of the output of munitions. Former Commander of Bulgars To Lead Russians Against Them

General Dimitrieff, "Little Napoleon," of First Balkan War, Said to be Choice for Head of Czar's Army in New Field

Milan, Italy, Oct. 28.—The Corriere della Sera learns that General Radoo Dimitrieff will command the Russian forces sent against Bulgaria. He is now at Bucharest, trying to induce the Roumanian government to permit the passage of Russian troops through Roumania. General Dimitrieff, at the opening of the war, was Bulgarian minister to Russia. He resigned and offered his services to the Russian War Office. His offer was gladly accepted, for he had been commander-in-chief of the Bulgarian army in the last part of the first Balkan war. In the war between Serbia and Bul-

INNER WAR COUNCIL IS TO BE "OFFICIAL"

No Re-constitution of the British Cabinet Considered

POWERS TO COMMITTEE

Will Be Able to Decide on Executive Matters of War — Daily News' Parliamentary Correspondent Says That Winston Churchill Will Not Be a Member

London, Oct. 28.—No reconstruction of the cabinet or constitution of a smaller cabinet, is being considered by the government, at the present time, says the parliamentary correspondent of the Daily News. But it has been decided, he says, to give official recognition to a hitherto unofficial "inner war council or committee." Seven to ten ministers have heretofore taken part at various times in the deliberations of this body which is now to be officially appointed with an exact definition of powers and principles. The committee, the newspaper says, will sit daily and will decide on executive acts of war. Such decisions, moreover, need not in future be referred for approval to the full cabinet. It is not yet decided whether membership in the new council shall number three, five or seven. Two proposals as to its formation are being considered. The first is that the balance of political opinion represented in the full cabinet should be preserved in the council—in other words that the council should be a miniature of the cabinet. The other proposal is that the council should contain only ministers directly concerned with the conduct of the war. In the former case there would be seven members; in the latter case either three or five. In either case it is understood that Winston Churchill will no longer serve on the inner body. Since the resignation of Theophile Delcasse, a famous French statesman, as foreign minister, on October 18, it has been understood that there would be further changes but reports have not indicated such a sweeping reorganization. Delcasse's resignation had been previously reorganized since the beginning of the war. The Viviani ministry resigned on August 27 of last year and a coalition cabinet was formed, with M. Viviani remaining at its head. M. Briand held several cabinet positions and was premier from January 21 to March 18 of 1913. He is minister of justice in the present cabinet.

EIGHT BARRELS OF LIQUOR SEIZED AT FREDERICTON STATION

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 28.—The police last night seized eight barrels of bottled liquors at the C. P. R. station. It was shipped from St. John and consigned to fictitious persons. An advance party of one officer and nine men of the 8th Battery arrived here last night. At a meeting of the school board yesterday B. B. Barnes, a New Brunswicker, now teaching in Massey, Sask., was appointed Sloyd instructor for the city schools. The Brunswick Street Baptists held a very successful congregational social last night in connection with the centennial celebration. Dean William Cooper, the oldest member of the church, assisted in receiving the guests.

FOOTBALL MATCHES

The last game of the Interscholastic Football League will be played on the Rothesay College gridiron tomorrow afternoon between the College fifteen and the St. John High School squad, champions of the league for 1914 and for the present year. The St. John team's lineup will be unchanged. The second team from the High School will also play the collegians second team. This game should be very interesting as the teams are evenly matched. The lineup of the local team will be Fullbeck, C. Seely, halves, J. Dunlop (captain), Powers, McGovern and Russell; forwards, Barnes, Ritchie, Rustin, Phares, K. Seely, Regan and Taylor.

Argyll Aground; Likely Total Loss

Cruiser Ashore in Bad Weather But All Hands Have Been Saved

London, Oct. 28.—The British cruiser Argyll has run aground and may be a total wreck. All hands were rescued. This was made known by the Admiralty today, in the following announcement: "H.M.S. Argyll, Captain James Tancred, R.N., grounded this morning off the east coast of Scotland. Owing to bad weather prevailing, it is feared she may become a total wreck. All her officers and the crew have been saved." The Argyll, 10,850 tons displacement, was laid down in 1902. Her normal complement is 685. She is 450 feet long. Her largest guns are 7.5 inches, of which she carries four. She has six 6-inch, two 3-inch, and twenty-two 3-pound guns and two torpedo tubes.

The weekly meeting of the Hampton Branch of the Red Cross Society was held on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. R. G. Fiewelling. A shipment to the provincial branch was reported. It contained seventy night shirts, sixty surgical pads, sixty-two pairs of socks and ten property bags. Mrs. Ryan, in a few appropriate words, presented a life membership to Mrs. Charles Dickson, who is seventy-nine years old, and has knit seventy pairs of socks for this branch. The members are glad to show their appreciation of her good example and interest in the work by making her a life member.

GOES TO SUPREME COURT OF CANADA

The case of Elizabeth Wentzell, administratrix of the estate of Charles Wentzell, against the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Railway Company, was settled on appeal to the supreme court of Canada before Mr. Justice Grimmer in chambers this morning. This case was twice tried in Westmorland county; the jury at the first trial disagreeing, and the jury at the second awarding a verdict of $1,200 to the plaintiff. The company appealed, and the court of appeal on September 23 dismissed the appeal with costs. The case will now be appealed to the supreme court of Canada.

PAROCHIAL SCHOOL ABLAZE; MANY OF LITTLE ONES DIE

Fire Sweeps St. John's in Peabody and Children in Panic Break From Control of Sisters — Dead 30 to 50

Peabody, Mass., Oct. 28.—Fire swept through the three story brick building occupied by the St. John's Parochial school today, burning or driving to death in the panic that followed the alarm probably thirty of the 600 boys and girls who a few minutes before had assembled for their daily lessons. An hour later twelve bodies had been removed from the vestibule, where the janitor terrified little ones had resulted in the greatest loss of life. The police had estimated the dead as high as fifty. Many were injured in their flight down the stairs and a few jumped from the windows of the third floor. The students who ranged in years from seven to thirteen, were in charge of eighteen sisters. When the fire broke out the sisters marshalled their charges as for a fire drill and started them from the building. The procession was orderly until those from the third floor joined others pouring from the class rooms on the second floor. Suddenly there was a cry of fear from one of the throng. It was taken up by a hundred others and panic ensued. The sisters made frantic efforts to stop the pushing, struggling mass, but to no purpose. The smaller children fell under the feet of those behind them and soon the vestibule was so jammed with living and dead, that the firemen could not force an entrance. The sixteen sisters escaped.

GRANTS TO THE FUNDS

If the proposed grant of $25,000 for the Canadian Patriotic Fund is voted, the share to be paid by residents of the city — about ninety per cent. — will be $22,500, and this, added to previous grants, will make a total of about $55,000, to be provided by the city taxpayers. At the last meeting of the common council the resolution providing for a grant of $25,000 for the patriotic fund was referred to a special committee for consideration, and this committee will meet on Friday afternoon to decide upon their recommendation to the council.

TONIGHT'S MEETING.

Those who witness the parade through the streets of St. John this evening will be thinking of other parades through the same streets of men in khaki, some of whom have since become immortal through their deeds and others of whom are today in the trenches wondering why more of their comrades are not answering the call of their country in the greatest crisis in its history.

We remember the men of the 20th and other units as they went with heads up and swinging stride on their route marches, and we know now they went with the same springing step when they cheered but their own were heard, and the thunder of the guns welcomed them to the place of danger close to the enemy they went so far to meet.

Many a citizen of St. John will seem to see the serried ranks tonight, marching beside their former companions, and if young men who are fit and free do not imagine they see also an accusing finger-pointing in their direction as the phantom host goes by, it will be because they do not yet realize the need and the duty of the hour.

Tonight should be made memorable in the annals of St. John. The number of men rallying to the colors should leave no doubt in the minds of the people of other parts of Canada that St. John and New Brunswick will do their duty; no doubt in the mind of the King that his appeal will be answered; and no doubt in the minds of the gallant fellows now at the front that the gaps in the ranks will be filled and the men they left behind prove worthy of their fellowship.

Lt. Col. Fowler's appeal will be seconded by that of Sgt. Knight, who bears the scars of battle. The presence of the commander of the battalion will make tonight's meeting the more interesting for all intending recruits, and his words will be an inspiration as well to those who cannot go to the front, but can do a great deal at home. If the rank proves too small, arrangements are made for an overflow meeting.

THEY ARE NOT PAID

Every now and then one hears it asserted that men and women working for the Red Cross Fund are well paid for their services and that a portion of the funds collected goes for this purpose. The Times has already pointed out that the treasurer of the Patriotic Fund is the only official paid by that organization, and he gives his whole time to the work and is one of the busiest and most worried men in St. John. With regard to the Red Cross, the only other that the men are paid crops up now and give their time and effort to the cause, but are themselves contributors. They deserve something better than to have it suggested by anyone that they are prompted by self-interest or are paid for their service. Red Cross Fund work is volunteer work, nobly done by noble women all over the country. And yet the Times is told that within a week in this city a group of women discussed this very question of the amount spent for salaries and some were convinced it was a fairly large sum. In this case, as in that of the rumors about large numbers of St. John soldiers being killed, it is only necessary to start the story and it travels fast. And yet, in these days of accurate information without a moment's delay. Why will some people repeat silly or damaging or cruel rumors without making an effort to get at the truth?

HARD FIGHTING AHEAD

Capt. Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, the British press representative in the Dardanelles campaign, says: "To say we are going to hinder the march of Germany through Bulgaria is absolute nonsense. We cannot get into Bulgaria this year, for there are only three or four weeks more in which operations are practicable on account of winter. But there is no reason why we should not continue to hold Saloniki and keep our troops in Greece."

Capt. Ashmead-Bartlett asserts also that there are 800,000 seasoned Turkish troops at the Dardanelles and he sees no prospect of getting through to Constantinople.

A London cable last night said that the German and Bulgarian armies had effected a junction in north-eastern Serbia, and now had a clear road through Bulgaria to the Aegean Sea and Constantinople. This means that Germany is now able to supply both Bulgaria and Turkey with much needed munitions. The same cable points out that the Allies cannot afford to weaken the other fronts by withdrawing troops for the Balkans, for the Germans are showing activity on all fronts. They are continuing to attack the Russians in the east and the French in the west with great vigor, and we are told that the position of the Russians on the northern part of their battle line is still serious. This is the state of affairs today. It is not what has been desired or anticipated after fifteen months of war. The victory gained by German diplomacy in Bulgaria and Greece has made the task of the Allies very much more difficult.

Of course new elements may presently enter into the case that will brighten the prospect, and there is no doubt about the ultimate triumph of the Allies if the supply of men and munitions is kept up; but we may as well face the facts and prepare for a prolonged struggle.

A Doubting Thomas says Queen's Rink will not be filled with men tonight. In other words he thinks the men of St. John are not interested in the safety of their country. He will know better tomorrow.

This will be a great winter in Halifax. Not only is an army of men at work on the new harbor works, but in addition to the large permanent force there will be several battalions of troops quartered in the city. Halifax is to be congratulated on having a powerful influence at Ottawa.

The German government disowns the men who plotted in New York to destroy vessels loaded with munitions for the Allies. That is to be expected. The denial is made because the plot was discovered. Germany would deny anything nor affirm anything if it seemed to be of any advantage to her. She is the most faithless nation in the world today. Even the Turk is not in her class.

A number of Conservative papers have resumed their attacks upon Sir Sam Hughes, and it is hinted that those closest to the Hon. Robert Rogers are the most virulent in their attacks. This is worse than a grit and tory squabble in war-time. Sir Robert Borden should try his skill as a peacemaker at home, even while abroad he wields his trusty blade. If Sir Robert would also speed up the work of providing equipment for men as fast as they enlist he would be doing the Empire a good turn.

The Conservative Montreal Gazette mildly observed that the inquiry into purchases of military supplies at Regina indicated that the quantities supplied were not in every case equal to the amount for which bills were made out. This seems to open the way to a prosecution. In the horse purchases it may have been the duty of the government through its agents to see that the animals offered to it were fit for service. In the matter of giving under-weight and charging for full there is neither excuse nor defence in custom or in law.

King George appeals to Canada for more men. Sir Sam Hughes is reported as saying that men are coming in as fast as they can be equipped. The obvious remark is that Sir Sam is not producing equipment fast enough. King George wants men. The Empire needs them. They are needed to save Canada. Is a failure to provide equipment after fifteen months of war to prevent Canada from providing the men needed? Who knows best what is needed, the King and Kitchener—or Sir Sam Hughes?

BESIEGED BY BEARS ON DRIFTING ICE FLOE

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—A thrilling story of a fight with Polar bears on drifting ice at the mouth of Hudson Bay is brought to Ottawa by a government expedition which has been erecting wireless stations in the far north.

A T. Fleming, a wireless expert, who headed the expedition, reports that while the party of six were endeavoring to locate a site for a wireless station at the entrance to Hudson Bay they found themselves adrift on a huge ice floe in a blinding snowstorm.

On the following day they were without food, and on the approach of night discovered that they were being surrounded by two dozen Polar bears. The men took refuge on the top of the giant berg, while the bears gathered around and laid siege. During the night the bears made an effort to reach them, and one of them was killed by a well directed shot.

In the morning the unwelcome visitors beat a retreat, and the men, half starved and badly frostbitten, succeeded in reaching camp.

They're going quickly—the tickets for the $5,000 drawing.

Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas tells this one on himself: "I had an appointment to speak in a town in Eastern Arkansas on a Saturday, and I arrived on a late train the night before, carrying nothing but a small hand grip. I went to a hotel near the depot. There was no one on duty at the hour except the night porter, and he was acting as porter, clerk, and general overseer. I registered and he showed me to a room; but in a few minutes he came back and said: "Boss, my 'struction is, when a gentleman haven't any baggage, to collect in advance."

"Why, I've got baggage," I replied, pointing to the little grip. "Excuse me, 'boss," he said, "but you've stayed too long on that 'al ready."

STUDENTS ENLIST IN BODY FOR FRONT

College in Saskatchewan is Left Without Any Scholars.

Regina, Oct. 28.—The entire student body of St. Chad's Anglican College with the exception of two, have volunteered for overseas service. Seven of the nine students in session have volunteered, and five more who have made arrangements to take up the course this year have enlisted at other points. From this action on the part of the students, it is more than probable that the college will be forced to close its doors for lack of a student class.

Bishop Harding, of Qu'Appelle, has given his sanction to the men, even though it practically obliterates the student body at the institution. He is pleased with the excellent spirit which they have shown.

Diamonds

The "Wat" has not lessened the demand for Diamonds—the reason being, no doubt, that of all commodities "The Diamond" is affected less by business panics or depressions than any other. It is stable. It holds its value, while other classes of merchandise suffer. It is thus a safe investment at all times. Our prices have not advanced. We can show you some excellent values.

Pistol and Revolver Cartridges That Are Dependable and Accurate

YOU selected your pistol or revolver because you expected it to give you results. Now, results—whether in casual shooting—or in serious work at the target—depend more than you might think on the wise choice of ammunition. It is worth remembering that the biggest men in the Pistol and Revolver classes are shooting Remington-UMC Cartridges—made for every standard make of pistol and revolver used anywhere in the world.

For the right ammunition from the sportsmen's point of view, see the Remington-UMC Dealer. He displays the Red Ball Mark of Remington-UMC.

GETS HUSBAND AND FORTUNE BY WANT "AD"

William H. Burden, 76, Weds Miss Lula Douglas Thomson, Who is 28

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 28.—William Burden of New York who was married here Monday to Miss Lula Douglas Thomson, won his bride by means of a want advertisement.

Mr. Burden is 76 years old. He has been a widower for several years and has adult grandchildren. The bride is twenty-eight years old. It is generally reported Mr. Burden settled $800,000 on her just before the wedding ceremony.

The bride is a niece of the late V. S. Thomson of Atlanta and of Mrs. Leonidas F. Scott of Decatur, with whom she has made her home since childhood. She got a substantial estate after her parents died, but most of this was spent on her art studies in Philadelphia.

She answered an advertisement which appeared to ask for a companion and received a paper with questions to be answered. She filled them out and returned the paper. The next mail brought a letter from Mr. Burden who had been the anonymous advertiser.

Mr. Burden came to Atlanta and pressed his suit so successfully that he won Miss Thomson. The marriage, however was opposed by Mr. Burden's children and grandchildren, who live in the city, Ga., from which city Burden went to New York several years ago.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Burden left for New York where they will live at 800 West 143rd street. Mr. Burden was reared in Mason and made the larger part of his fortune there. His brother, R. A. Burden is a prominent dry goods merchant of Mason.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER

"Fruit-a-lives" Cleans, Purifies, Enriches

Fruit juice is Nature's own remedy. "FRUIT-A-LIVES," the famous fruit medicine, keeps the blood pure and rich because it keeps the whole system free of impurities.

"Fruit-a-lives" improves the Skin Action; enables the stomach to digest food properly; makes the bowels move regularly; and relieves the strain on the kidneys.

By its cleansing, healing powers on the eliminating organs, "Fruit-a-lives" rids the system of all waste matter and thus insures a pure blood supply.

MOTHER SUES THE PATRIOTIC FUND

Wants Allowance Restored To $25 a Month—Has Two Sons at Front

Montreal, Oct. 28.—The first action against the Canadian Patriotic Fund had its preliminary hearing here before Justice MacLennan, sitting in the Practice Court. The plaintiff, Mrs. Joseph Marcotte, represented by Eugene Audet, asks the court that she may be allowed, on behalf of herself and two minor daughters, to see in forma pauperis the Canadian Patriotic Fund for $150, which she says is due to her from May last.

The petitioner alleges that her two sons, her only support, are serving with the Canadian Expeditionary Force, and that from Sept. 1914 to May 1915, the fund paid her $25 a month, $10 allowance for herself and $7.50 for each child, but that this was reduced to $5 a month.

The defence, represented by E. Fabre, Surveyor, K. C., alleges that the act incorporating the Canadian Patriotic Fund plainly states that the latter should distribute their funds as they wished and according to the support given.

In answer to this the petitioner says that she sent out circulars and published notices in the papers that the families of soldiers would be supported. Furthermore in this particular case the fund had paid $25 to the petitioner for many months and she would naturally expect it to be continued.

Everybody wants 'em—the tickets for that $5,000 drawing.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK, THICK, GLOSSY

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when it has become gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 20 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you dandelion your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by moving the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

ADDRESSING OF MAIL TO THE SOLDIERS

The Times is asked to publish the following:—

Addressing of Mail.

In order to facilitate the handling of mail at the front and to insure prompt delivery it is requested that all mail be addressed as follows:—

(a) Regimental Number, (b) Rank, (c) Name, (d) Squadron, Battery or Company, (e) Battalion, Regiment, (or other unit) Staff appointment or Department, (f) Canadian Contingent, (g) British Expeditionary Force, (h) Army Post Office, London, England.

Unnecessary mention of higher formations, such as brigades, divisions, is strictly forbidden, and causes delay.

RUSSIA'S NEW BEVERAGE.

Now that the Russians have abandoned their old national drink, what is more natural than they should turn to tea as the most invigorating, refreshing and healthful beverage, but tea to be good must be fresh and clean. "SALADA" tea is composed of the finest, freshest young leaves; freed from dust and carefully preserved in the sealed aluminum package.

ONLY ONE MARITIME MAN IN THE LIST

64th Moving to Halifax—Recruiting Meetings Last Night—How Sergt. Cotter Died

The only maritime province name in the casualty list yesterday was that of Corp. Ralph Pines, Waterville, N. S., wounded.

The 64th Battalion is to leave Sussex next week for Halifax, where they will winter. About all the New Brunswick men and officers in it have been transferred to the 104th.

In Charlottetown a successful recruiting meeting was held when addresses were given by Sergeant Norman Knight of Halifax, C. B. Lockhart, M. P. P., who presided, Rev. G. Dickie, with songs and readings by S. C. Matthews, R. C. Hurley, and A. W. Baird.

Further word received yesterday by R. J. Cotter, Orange street, from Ottawa, said that his son, Sergt. Frank L. Cotter, of the 20th, had probably been killed during the gallant dash of a picked company of thirty men under Major Brown, to clear a crater of Germans.

Men quartered at Valcartier are hoping that the order to move will come soon, as the cold is commencing to be keenly felt these days when they are still in tents.

John W. Roberts, of Chipman, N. B., wounded with the 26th in action in France, writing to his wife at his old home, says that his injuries were received when he tried to "pot" a German sniper just twenty yards from him. He "got" the sniper, but the latter fired at the same time and Roberts was slightly wounded.

Rev. E. B. Hooper, writing to his daughter under date of October 9, gives an interesting description of mine warfare which he says is most exciting, but not always fatal. Many men are hurled high into the air, but come down unhurt, he says.

C. M. Kerrison, formerly a ship-broker in St. John, who has been in Halifax for two years, left St. John yesterday to join the 104th at Sussex.

They're going quickly—the tickets for the $5,000 drawing.

GAS MACHINES FIVE YEARS OLD

Capture of Ingenious Plant For Curing German Sufferers From Their Own Poison

North of France, Oct. 28.—(Correspondence)—Among the various important captures made by the French in the course of their great attack in Champagne, none was more significant of German plans and methods than the paraphernalia of an ambulance. A complete post was taken at one spot, including doctors, nurses and apparatus.

The most interesting object of all is a machine for curing sufferers from gas poisoning. It consists of a cylinder with two compartments, one containing oxygen, the other an alkaline substance now being analysed. Full instructions for its use were found and the French greatly admired the technical perfection both of this machine and of the great supply of surgical instruments.

But the most significant detail was an inscription on the cylinder itself. It is there described as "Patent D 1915, improved from Model C, 1913, improved from Model A 1910." This would seem to prove that the use of chlorine gas in the medicated water was settled at least as early as 1910.

At the same place and time the French also captured an elaborate machine for distributing poisonous gases. It is worn as a knapsack over the back and very much resembles some of the patterns of fruit-sprayer. From the cylinder flexible pipes come round under the arms of the wearer, enabling him to spray the gas in any direction he pleases. He himself wears a helmet very much of the pattern used by divers. Below the chin is a sack of oxygen and the man breathes the air he manufactures.

These knapsack sprayers are apparently supplied only to engineers attached in various forces to different divisions.

All information of the great attack goes to prove the amazing thoroughness and precision of the French artillery, both heavy and light. The full fury of the firing began at midnight. Observers could just see the shells bursting in what appeared to be an enveloping cloud of their own smoke. As dawn began to break it was seen that this smoke was in fact dust and debris which remained like a thick and turbulent mist high over the German lines till the attack was delivered.

Some of the German prisoners complained in a curious, petulant manner that such a bombardment was not fair. But their final charge of inhumanity against their captors was that the artillery had cut off supplies of food for nearly four days. How could they fight if they were hungry?

There is no doubt that only the weather robbed the French of a yet more wholesale victory. In wet weather, this barren, chalky soil becomes so slimy that it is difficult enough to drive even a single car in daylight along any of the minor roads. The overcoming of the difficulties due to the sudden downpour by the Service Corps, the artillery, the ambulances, and not least by the men who charged was a marvel of determination.

It is a subject of pride that a convoy of the British Red Cross for the time being with the French managed to cover the total of 22,000 kilometers with thirty-eight cars, much of it by night during the battles.

CIVIL WAR IN CABINET A concerted attack upon Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia is being made through various organs controlled by his colleagues in the government, particularly those of Hon. Robert Rogers.

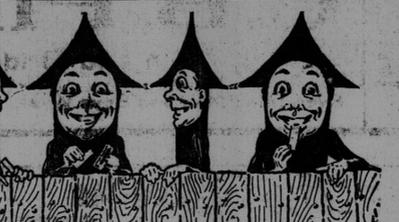

While the excuse is a demand for larger participation by Canada in the war and better administration of the militia department the attacks are largely personal and are believed to be a revival of the plot to get rid of Sir Sam.

Speaking at Guger Ales; have you tried City Club yet?

The Recruiting Campaign

TONIGHT. Monster meeting in Queen's rink, starting at 8 o'clock. Band processions will start in South End, Haymarket Square, River-view Park, Douglas Avenue, the Carleton flats and elsewhere and proceed by the principal routes to the rink. Follow the bands, Lieut-Colonel Geo. W. Fowler is going to speak to the men of St. John. So is Sergt. Knight. The best and biggest meeting of the whole war period.

FRIDAY EVENING. Sergt. Knight is going to speak in Queen's rink again. A dead-staid, private talk with the chaps who mean business—those fellows who know what the situation really is.

SATURDAY EVENING. Down in the St. James' hall (Temperance Hall, St. James street, South End), Sergt. Knight will hold a neighborhood meeting. The men are invited to smoke their after-supper pipes there.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON. There is going to be a bumper mass meeting in the Opera House at 4 o'clock. A good crowd—lace for an hour's discussion of the war—even if it is Sunday. Special and notable speakers. Good singing.

MONDAY EVENING. In St. Michael's Hall, opposite Adelaide street, North End, Sergt. Knight and some other of the returned lads will speak.

OTHER DATES NEXT WEEK. Tuesday in Victoria Park, Wednesday in the recruiting office, Mill street, Thursday in Fairville, Friday in the Every Day Club Hall, Union street (East).

BULING BELGIUM WITH MAILED FIST

Life in Brussels Unbearable Under New German Military Governor

Rotterdam, Oct. 27.—Since the appointment a few weeks ago of a Prussian cavalry officer as the new military governor, life in Brussels has been unbearable, the most oppressive regulations have been instituted, and large numbers of people arrested.

The principle of the mailed fist has also appeared at Antwerp, where between twenty and thirty persons have already been sentenced to long terms of imprisonment and transported to Germany.

In the villages the same process has been carried out. Lokeren, Rotselaar, and Ellichow have each been fined 4,000 marks ($1,200), because their authorities had not discovered in the three places a total of sixteen pigeons.

In this connection a remarkable description is contributed to the Nieuw Rotterdamse Courant by its Brussels correspondent—and the message is all the more extraordinary because it passed the German censorship.

"For some days past," it says, "the walls here have been covered with placards in such superfluity as has not been seen for a long time. Not only the quantity, but the tone and contents of the notices prove that something has altered. What it is precisely is difficult to describe. Perhaps I can indicate it by saying that the iron fist will make itself felt."

"On October 12 there was an order for the surrender of all men who during the war had belonged to the enemy's army, had and might be hidden here. Not only must the men themselves report, but everybody who knew of their presence was commanded, under threats of heavy punishment to disclose their knowledge."

"Now the inhabitants are threatened that on the renewal of the visit of the allies' fliers they will have German soldiers billeted upon them. To the usual allied logical connection may not be immediately grasped. It is this: The enemy's fliers have repeatedly made targets buildings in which it was known German troops assembled. It is presumed that the population has made known these buildings to the allies, therefore the population is held responsible, and, in order that they may be watched more narrowly, soldiers will be quartered in their houses if the fliers come again."

SHOP OPPOSITE TO ROCKEFELLER'S HOME

Business Invades His Residence Block Despite His Efforts

New York, Oct. 28.—John D. Rockefeller's efforts to keep free from trade the West 54-street block from 5th to 6th avenues on which he and his son have their homes, have proved futile, says the New York Sun. Trade has secured a foothold almost opposite the Rockefeller colony.

James, of Paris, an art dealer, has come to New York to open a place. He has secured the residence of Commodore Morton E. Plant at 25 West 54 street for his American branch, under lease for a long term at a rental which William B. May & Co. brokers would not divulge.

The Plant house is five stories, 25 feet wide and 100 feet deep. It is on the opposite of the street from the Rockefeller block and about 100 feet west of their houses. It will be altered and occupied Dec. 1.

For several years Mr. Rockefeller has been buying every house in the block where trade might get in. Three years ago the first attempt was made when a dressmaker secured a lease on the residence at 81 West 54th street.

About that time or just previous, Mr. Rockefeller bought Nos. 14, 16 and 18. The last house cost him about $200,000, the house at 16 was held at $120,000. The houses have been altered into apartments by Mr. Rockefeller at considerable cost.

Since Mr. Rockefeller arrayed himself against the invasion of his block the fight has cost him close to $1,000,000. In the case of the Plant house he was unable to prevent the invasion since Mr. Plant was not willing to sell for any figure.

AVIATOR'S VIEW OF ZEPPELINS New York, Oct. 27.—Claude Grahame White, an English aviator, writing in "New Days" on "The Zeppelin Menace" says they are in modern war, setting aside details, four questions to be considered in an act of offense. These are: 1—Its immediate effect on hostilities. 2—Its effect on the tenor of the campaign. 3—Its effect on the morale, not of the enemy's troops, but of the nation of non-combatants behind those troops. 4—Its effect from an encouraging point of view, on the nation whose rulers plan and deliver the blow. It is from such a focus preserving our sense of proportion, that we should regard Zeppelin raids. The fact that bombs come from the air and by night, lend them a more disquieting influence than as if, say, they were shells from a field gun. But this influence it is our business to resist firmly because it is the hope of the enemy that we should be so disturbed. We must not dwell exclusively on the fact that, favored by dark and moonless night, a Zeppelin dropped a number of bombs over London and killed a certain number of people and wrecked a certain number of houses. A raid by air, despite its strangeness and the attention it gains, needs to be judged from an unflinching standpoint. From a standpoint not as an isolated or exciting event, but as one happening among men, each having its influence on those sways of fortune which mark the progress of a great and costly war. Of immediate effect on hostilities the Zeppelin attacks have—owing to the form they have taken—had none. The legitimate role of these craft remembering their weight-lifting power, should be in dropping bombs, say, on the railway communication of the Allies; but Zeppelins are by their vulnerability, precluded from making raids in battle zones. The aeroplanes of the Allies penetrating behind the enemy's lines have repeatedly attacked railway junctions, damaging permanent ways and destroying stations and hampering the Germans materially in the transport of troops. But the Zeppelins have had to renounce such work; they would, had they attempted it, have been brought down by guns or wrecked by hostile aeroplanes; and it is a measure of their impotence from a military standpoint of view that, while there was work such as this to be done at the front, which might have had an influence at once on hostilities, they were deputed to fly by night across the North Sea and drop a few bombs at random—over the 700 square miles of city and outer city we call Greater London. What has been the effect on the German public of these raids? One may say, undoubtedly, that they have been encouraging. The Zeppelin has represented to Germany that a large airship, undauntedly, that they have been encouraging themselves of course as the greatest and most martial nation, possessed also—as it seems to them only right—an aircraft which was capable of flying further and carrying a heavier load of explosives than that of any other nation. It was typical of the German view-

REVERSES POLICY ON IMMIGRATION Supreme Court Lets Aliens go To "Crowded" City Washington, Oct. 27.—Immigration officials have been shown by the Supreme Court of the power of excluding aliens because in their opinion commercial depression at the place of destination might cause the aliens to become public charges. Some Russian immigrants destined for Portland, O., were ordered released from custody in which they were held for deportation. The decision reverses a policy of the immigration service. "The immigration law deals with admission to the United States and not to Portland," said Justice Holmes, "it would be an amazing argument for immigration officials to refuse admission to the United States because the labor market in the United States was overburdened, and yet that would be more reasonable than refusal to admit because of reported conditions in one city."

HAVE GERMANS SIEZED STEAMER?
Many Interned Naval Men Have Escaped
SAID TO BE ON ZEALANDIA
Yachts Manned by Germans Have Left Southern Ports — Attacks on British Steamers Expected

Washington, Oct. 27.—The Navy Department is investigating a report that the American steamer Zealandia has been seized by a party of Germans off the coast of Florida and that the German sailors who escaped from the interned German cruisers in Norfolk harbor are now on board the Zealandia. The Zealandia left Pensacola Oct. 8, ostensibly for Tampico. It is claimed she took on a new crew and a German captain. Yachts said to have been secured by Germans are reported to have put out from several ports along the Atlantic coast, including Norfolk, Pensacola and New Orleans for the purpose, it is claimed, of meeting at the same place at sea.

It is believed these yachts overtook or met the Zealandia and took charge of her. The naval station at Pensacola has been ordered to investigate the report, and the battleship Kentucky, now in Mexican waters will keep a lookout for the Zealandia. No ships were sent from this port to look for the Zealandia, although the battleships New York, New Hampshire and several others are a few miles off the Virginia Capes.

The Zealandia was formerly a British ship. She was built at Glasgow in 1875, and is now owned by C. L. Diamond. Her home port is New York. She is of 1,718 tons and carries a crew of about 1200.

The report received at this station says the six officers from the interned cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm who escaped on the yacht Zepheus are among those believed to have seized the Zealandia.

Government officials apparently believe an effort is on foot to get as many men as possible to leave the interned cruisers here, but established a warlike guard over the ships. Six sailors from the Eitel Friedrich started to Norfolk in a rowboat last night but were halted by an American sentinel patrolling the sea wall at the navy yard. They were found to have received permission to come to Norfolk to bring an officer back to his ship. There were several sailors from the German cruisers ashore today, despite the statement by naval authorities that no liberty is being granted the men.

A German Trick
New York, Oct. 27.—A man in the employ of the United States government expressed the opinion yesterday that the internment of the German converted cruisers Prinz Eitel Friedrich and Kronprinz Wilhelm at Norfolk in March last was a shrewd German trick designed to aid in getting armed vessels at sea for the purpose of capturing or sinking if possible some of the best passenger or munition ships of the allies.

"The fact that the two cruisers should make the same port at about the same time should have created suspicion in the minds of any live government official," he said. "Two officers, Lieut. Brauer and Surgeon Nolte, and 14 men of the Eitel broke their parole and word of honor last May and escaped to Germany. After this episode it might have been assumed that the United States naval authorities at Norfolk would not be fooled a second and third time."

"The Germans realized that Norfolk was a valuable port at which to intern. They have had a free run of an important section of the United States and have undoubtedly gained a thorough knowledge of that section for possible future emergencies."

"I think a part of the German scheme was to be in a position to provide crews and officers for steamers that might be secured in Sweden or some other neutral country, and with guns concealed under cover of the American coast by officers and men from the interned cruisers. You may yet hear of a surprise attack on a valuable British steamer by these wily Germans on the Atlantic."

TEMPERANCE VOTE IN OTTAWA SOON
Alliance Has Secured Sufficient Signed Petitions to Call For Ballot of Rate Payers

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—Reduction of licenses in the capital will be voted on by the rate-payers on January 8 next. The city temperance alliance has secured sufficiently signed petitions to call for a ballot. If the vote is favorable to the petition it will cut off twenty-eight tavern and ten shop licenses.

GERMANS SAY THEY ARE NOT STARVING

Berlin, Oct. 27.—In response to a request from Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the imperial chancellor, Arnold Wahnschaffe, under-secretary of state, has given out a statement regarding Germany's most pressing problem, the food supply. The under-secretary's statement follows:

"The hostile press is trying to convince the world that our enemy's plans to starve out Germany are succeeding, and that the Germans, with all their live stock, are hungering and, therefore, soon to be forced to make peace."

"The only thing about this talk that is true is that our enemies have cut us off from the importation of all the necessities of life and, in violation of all international law and all the principles of humanity, are trying to starve out our peaceful and working civil population. Thereby Germany's whole economical life has been changed. The old law of supply and demand no longer holds out, as in times of peace. Government regulation must supplement this law at many points in order to spare the poorer population from excessively high prices. As a matter of fact, we have carried over from the last year's harvest into the new so much grain that we are compelled to let three million tons of it be fed to the cattle. We can do this because we know the quality and quantity of our new grain crop."

"We have also this year such a record potato crop as Germany has never known."

GERMAN ACTIVITIES IN U. S. INVESTIGATED

Chief Conspirator Now in British Military Prison — Kept Mexico in Turmoil?

New York, Oct. 27.—Facts disclosed through other than federal sources indicate that the Federal grand jury investigation, with its nucleus in the Rintelin-Meloy passport had broadened into a widespread inquiry into various kinds of German activities in this country, including the alleged scheme to keep things stirred up in Mexico so that this country would have to concentrate its attention on affairs there, and keep its hands out of the European war.

"For the purpose of consulting with German officials concerning his schemes and raising the necessary money in case they were approved, Rintelin, it is said, decided to return to Germany last July and according to the government charges induced Andrew D. Meloy, a promoter of mining enterprises in Mexico, to help him convince the federal authorities here that he was an American citizen and as such entitled to a passport. He posed on this occasion, it is said, as Edward Y. Gale, a wine agent.

The government agents, however, frustrated his plan to get a passport. Meloy and Rintelin must have learned of the espionage, for on August 8 they both left on the Holland-American liner Noordam, Rintelin sailing under the name of Edward Y. Gascho and bearing a Swiss passport, which it is said he had procured beforehand, to meet just such an emergency. At Falmouth the entire party was taken off the ship and Rintelin put in a military prison after the British authorities had seized papers establishing his identity.

Meloy and the others were sent back and Meloy was arrested when the steamer arrived at quarantine. He and Rintelin were subsequently indicted for the alleged passport fraud.

QUICK WORK SAVES LIFE OF A PRISONER

Lynn, Oct. 27.—Prompt work on the part of keeper George Coombs of the Lynn Police Station probably saved the life of Frank S. James, a prisoner, who attempted suicide by strangulation.

It was just before noon, keeper Coombs found James lying on the floor of the cell. He had removed his collar and necktie and had looped the latter about his neck in such way as to prevent breathing.

"Without waiting to call a doctor Coombs set to work to revive the prisoner, who was in dangerous condition. Vigorous work resulted in James being brought back to nearly normal condition within a short time. Despondency is thought responsible for his act."

Don't Forget!

Tea and coffee contain the drug, caffeine—from 1 1/2 to 3 grains to the average cup.

Some people use tea or coffee for years and either forget or don't know that caffeine is a cumulative poison, working away in the system, insidiously undermining and destroying health.

Some of the signs are headache, heart flutter, sleeplessness, biliousness, and various stomach, kidney and liver troubles.

Of course, if one prefers his tea and coffee, and is willing to put up with these "comforters," why—keep right on!

But, if one values health and real comfort, and at the same time would enjoy a delicious, wholesome beverage, the thing to do is to quit both tea and coffee and use

BASEBALL

Jack Coombs to Texas
Jack Coombs, formerly of the Athletics and the last summer member of the Brooklyn team, who has been passing a few weeks at his farm in West Kennebunk hunting and fishing, left on Sunday for Chicago accompanied by his wife. He will be met in Chicago by other members of the All-American and All-National teams which are to play from Chicago to the Pacific coast. They will play 28 games in this circuit and expect to go to Portland, Ore. Later Mr. and Mrs. Coombs will visit the Panama Exposition, visit Coombs' aunt in Bakerville and go to Texas to his wife's home where they will spend the winter.

Moran to Manage Phillies
Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—There is not the slightest bit of discord between Pat Moran and Pres. William F. Baker. President Baker denied that there was the slightest hitch between Moran and the club and that Pat would sign a 1916 contract when it was presented to him.

Zimmerman's Wife Disappears
New York, Oct. 28.—The marital troubles of Henry (Hine) Zimmerman, second baseman of the Chicago Nationals, came to an issue yesterday when Supreme Court Justice Brady dismissed a suit for separation brought by Mrs. Helen Chase Zimmerman, but ordered that the action for absolute divorce which Zimmerman brought should proceed. The separation suit was dismissed when Mrs. Zimmerman's attorney announced that his client had disappeared with her daughter and that he had been unable to communicate with her.

Murphy Signs With Athletics
Binghamton, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Catcher Murphy of the Binghamton team today signed to play with the Philadelphia Athletics, his release having been recently purchased by Binghamton from Montreal. Connie Mack is said to have paid a good price for Murphy who is regarded as the best throwing catcher in the State League and a timely hitter.

Canadian League May Disband
Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 28.—It looks as if the Canadian League will suspend business next year. All the clubs in the circuit last month this year and the directors do not feel like taking a chance until after the war. The Ottawa club, pennant winners, lost $2,000. The Hamilton club lost nearly $2,000 owing to the fact that it had to pay exceptionally heavy rental for the grounds and London also finished with a heavy deficit.

Diamond Sparkies
Stalling says Fred Snodgrass will play centre field regularly for the Boston Braves next year.

Pittsburg newspaper is holding a voting contest to select a manager for the Braves to succeed Fred Clarke. Hans Wagner so far has received twice as many votes as George Gibson and Bill Hinchman, who are running neck and neck.

Roger Bresnahan has been notified that he will manage the Cubs next year. The Red Sox have reached the conclusion that Walter Johnson is a greater pitcher than Alexander.

They will shoot a match of 100 targets in eighteen cities with teams of amateurs at each place. The opening shoot will be held at the West End Gun Club, Richmond, Va., November 8. On Thanksgiving Day the ball players will meet a team at the New York Athletic Club grounds, New York.

RING

News of the Boxers.
Mike Gibbons is to take on Soldier Bartfield at Milwaukee next month. The wrestling game cannot be producing the money that the wrestlers desire, for some of them who are stars in the game want to get in the boxing game. Dr. Holler tried the game several times but was not very successful. Now he wants to try again. Kousif Hussain, who says he is a real Turkish wrestler, offers to meet Dr. Holler in the ring. Jack Curley is the manager of Hussain. Jimmy DeForest, an old time manager of boxers, who has had a wide experience in the game, has been appointed a referee in New York.

Quebec, Oct. 28.—Unless Mr. Quinn considers his decision, the Quebec Hockey Club will have to look for a new manager. Mike Quinn has successfully led the Bull Dogs to two championships and is extremely popular with the players. At the annual meeting of the Quebec Hockey Club all the former officials were re-elected, but though accepting the vice-presidency again, Mr. Quinn stated that it was impossible for him at present to undertake the management of the club, due to pressure of business.

Though the financial statement of the club showed a large deficit, the directors and shareholders are looking ahead to a good season. Several of last year's players have signed and the rest are expected to turn in their contracts soon.

BOWLING

On the Victoria Alleys
In a match game last night on the Victoria alleys Robinson's team defeated Morris' team by 106 pins. Smith was high man for the winners while O'Regan led the losers. The following is the score:

ATHLETIC

Ask for New Trial.
New York, Oct. 27.—A notice of appeal to the board of managers of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union from the decision of the registration cards of Abel R. Kiviat and Harry J. Smith, Olympic runners, was cancelled, has been sent, after a meeting of the athletic committee of the A. A. U. last week for having demanded excessive expense money to appear in an up-state athletic meet.

HOCKEY

Quinn Resigns.
Quebec, Oct. 28.—Unless Mr. Quinn considers his decision, the Quebec Hockey Club will have to look for a new manager. Mike Quinn has successfully led the Bull Dogs to two championships and is extremely popular with the players.

Dr. Dudley A. Sargeant of Harvard holds that sex is good to military service—that a woman would make as good a soldier as a man. Dr. Sargeant said that Boston said to a group of flattered, smiling girls. "Why shouldn't you, indeed, make as good soldiers as men? Look how resourceful you are. I know a young fellow who said to a girl doubtfully: 'I consulted a palmist last evening and she told me I would marry a blonde within three months.' The girl tossing her raven locks, answered with a radiant smile: 'Well, I can easily be a blonde' by that time, Jack.'

At the annual meeting of the Quebec Hockey Club all the former officials were re-elected, but though accepting the vice-presidency again, Mr. Quinn stated that it was impossible for him at present to undertake the management of the club, due to pressure of business.

Though the financial statement of the club showed a large deficit, the directors and shareholders are looking ahead to a good season. Several of last year's players have signed and the rest are expected to turn in their contracts soon.

CHAMP. WILLARD FAVORS A NEW CLASS IN BOXING

Jess Willard, the champion heavy-weight pugilist writes in an article to an American sporting paper: The American Boxing Association which has been formed, may work a great deal of good for the boxing game. For one thing, if this organization gains universal recognition, it will save me the trouble of fighting in that division. I will then be immune from the persistent challenges of the middleweights. Since the fighting has been in vogue, it has been the custom for heavy-weight champions to be challenged by much lighter men, and many instances where middleweights have been given a chance at the heavy-weight title. But this only in cases where the heavy-weight champion scaled less than 300 pounds. Only one has a middleweight been successful in wrestling with the heavy-weight champion. This was Bob Fitzsimmons, who held three titles at the same time—middleweight, light-weight and heavy-weight—following his defeat of Jim Corbett.

Stanton Ketchel came within a punch of winning the heavy-weight championship while he was the possessor of the middleweight title. When he floored Jack Johnson, then in the heyday of his powers, in the eleventh round, it looked as if Ketchel had duplicated Fitzsimmons' feat, but the "Michigan Assassin" forgot himself for a few brief moments as Johnson arose and he plunged headlong into a terrific right uppercut and a knockout.

When Tommy Burns was heavy-weight king, by grace of his victory over Marvin Hart, to whom Jeffrey awarded the title upon his retirement from the ring, Tommy was bombarded with challenges from middleweight fighters, but he declined to accept them and chose to make the mistake of tackling Johnson.

Johnson had the trouble of considering challenges from men forty to fifty pounds lighter than himself. And I expect to be bothered likewise unless the American Boxing Association becomes a factor in the game and its cruiserweight class is taken seriously.

BURGLAR NO TERROR TO 13-MONTHS CHILD

Thought It Funny as He Showed Reason—New York Baby Wanted to Play Peek-a-Boo.
New York, Oct. 27.—While a masked burglar searched her room, thirteen-month-old Virginia Fox, daughter of Irving J. Fox, a broker, living at 1215 Madison avenue, stood upright in her bed and watched him with open-eyed wonder. When he drew near to her and held a revolver near her head, she extended her hands and gurgled with great delight.

Agnes Ferrick, Virginia's nurse, was awakened when the electric light was flashed on and saw standing above her a man holding a revolver. Her first impulse was to scream, but the man aimed his revolver at her and told her to keep still.

"Hush, don't wake the baby," said the nurse. But Virginia was awake and taking in the whole situation. She mistook the white canvas-covered about the man's face for a challenge to a game of peek-a-boo and, dodging behind the bedpost, she gurgled again in glee.

"Money or your life," demanded the burglar. "Do," answered Virginia, extending her arms. Just then the man saw the nurse's pocketbook and shook its contents to the floor. Two nickels fell out and once more Virginia gurgled with satisfaction.

The burglar started to ransack the room. In doing so he approached the dresser, which stands near Virginia's crib. But Virginia was not afraid, and while the burglar towered above her she continued to bubble with her delight. For half an hour the visitor tarried, and then the light suddenly flashed out and Virginia was in the dark. Though burglars held no terror for her, darkness did, and a few lusty shouts were enough to wake the family.

The police of the 86th street station were notified, but although the block was surrounded, the burglar escaped. The two nickels he threw back into the purse.

MONTREAL BUGLER AWARDED DISTINCTION

Interesting Figure at Duchess of Connaught's Hospital—Is Only a Boy But a Real Soldier

London, Oct. 28.—As indicated in a brief call the staff and patients of the Duchess of Connaught's Canadian Hospital at Clivedon were keenly interested in a young visitor who arrived there straight from the front. He was dressed in khaki which gave evidence of recent associations with the trenches; he bore a rifle and carried a soldier's pack. The youth was a puzzle to many, who announced his arrival with amusement as well as with amazement. He had not come for treatment; he was sound in mind and limb, and marked like an "old hand" in the hospital.

It was not long before the boy soldier was the centre of an admiring group, and he speedily revealed the object of his visit. He was Anthony Gineley, boy bugler of the Royal Montreal Regiment, whose persistence won for him a place with his regiment at the front, and whose work—so he has been informed—has resulted in his being recommended for the D. C. M.

The lad was searching for Captain Richardson, the hospital's quartermaster. He was introduced to the officers' mess, and very soon after the nurses had dimly watched him in a photographer's van appeared. The boy, in fact, was the lion of the institution, and produced a thrillingly pleasurable excitement in all the wards.

Gineley is of Scottish parentage, but an orphan. His father died when he was about eighteen months old, and he afterwards went with his mother from Scotland to Canada. The mother died about three years ago, and Major Woodside of the Canadian Heavy Brigade, took an interest in the lad, engaging him to work on a small farm which he has near Ottawa. When war broke out Major Woodside volunteered for active service. The boy was also eager to go, but as he was so young his employer did not feel able to consent.

The lad was so insistent, however, that Major Woodside agreed to his joining the 14th Montreal Battalion as a bugler. He landed in England and crossed with them to France last February. He was keen as mustard for active service, and prayed to be allowed to accompany the men to the trenches. He was told he would have to shoulder a rifle, and declared himself quite equal to it. In the time he has been in France Gineley has grown three inches. He was at both battles of Ypres and also at Festubert. Once he received a small flesh wound and was given attention at a dressing station. Soon after he was missed from that party of wounded; it was discovered he had returned straight to the firing line.

Recently he was granted a few days leave in order to visit Captain Richardson at Clivedon and some friends in Scotland. He spent a full day at Clivedon, then proceeded to Scotland and afterwards returned to his regiment at the front.

Emilio de Gogorza, while passing a residence in Bath, Mr. caught the strains of one of his own song records. The famous baritone ran up the steps and rang the bell. When the woman responded, he explained, with apologies that the record was being played much too fast and asked for permission to remedy it.

"BLUE BLOOD AND YELLOW" IS BLUE BLOOD RED BLOOD GONE STAGNANT? This chapter shows in a most forcible manner that class distinction is vulgar, except to show your superiority over your neighbor and that when nature claims its own there is no aristocracy but the aristocracy of the mind.

Girl Returning After a Vain Search for Work Finds Gems and Carries Them to Police Station.

New York, Oct. 28.—Louise Schmitts, twenty-eight years old, a seamstress out of work, started out to continue her search for employment, but the evening found her trudging, weary and footsore, in 42nd street back toward her lodgings. Near 6th avenue she espied something sparkling on the sidewalk. It proved to be a bracelet of precious gems.

A few minutes later Miss Schmitts ran into the West 47th street police station. Throwing the bracelet on the desk, she gasped: "O, I'm so relieved. I was so afraid something would happen to them. Please take them. You see I never had anything like that before."

Next, Wash found the bracelet was composed of thirty-five bluish white diamonds, each apparently weighing about three-fourths of a karat. Each diamond was set in a platinum square. A silver chain encircled the bracelet and the gold clasp was broken.

"I don't deserve any credit," Miss Schmitts protested, when the lieutenant complimented her on her honesty.

Wouldn't know what to do with such a thing. Besides, it isn't mine. "We'll find the owner, and perhaps she will reward you," the policeman persisted.

"Do you think so?" asked the girl, her eyes gleaming. "Well, even if she doesn't, a man at the last place I went told me to come back tomorrow. He said he might possibly have a place for me. I do hope he will."

THE GREATEST OF VITAGRAPHS! A COLossal RAILWAY DRAMA with the most appealingly dramatic climax ever conceived for the camera. A whole railway train dashes on to a high trestle-bridge and is plunged full-steam ahead into the waters below. Then follows the indescribable struggle of the imprisoned victims to free themselves and swim ashore. The story is intense throughout and the leading roles are played by Anita Stewart, Earle Williams, Julia Swayne Gordon and others. Towards the end the tension of the depiction grows tremendous, culminating in the grandly awful wreck—a masterpiece of preconceived realism.

GILBERT'S GROCERY

JOIN THE PARADE TO QUEEN'S RINK TONIGHT

The Men of St. John Asked To Give the 104th Battalion a Big Boost

Follow the band tonight. Every man and youth in the city of St. John is asked to place himself on record this evening as heart and hand in strong support of the plans on foot for helping save the empire.

COLONEL G. W. FOWLER

It is not expected that every man will be able to hand his name into the recruiting officer for enlistment, but it is confidently expected that tonight's demonstration of honor will indeed be an honorable one. In any case, the male population is asked to attend the big demonstration in Queen's Rink.

The South End contingent will start at the Armory with the 6th regimental band. The City Cornet Band will bring the crowd from the Haymarket Square district. The Temple of Honor and Bugle Band will head the parade starting at Riverview Park at Douglas Avenue and combining with Fairville and North End people. This particular crowd will escort Colonel Fowler from a friend in Doufay, las avenue. The Carleton section will proceed by way of the ferry, headed by the Carleton Cornet Band.

The speakers at the rink will be Lieut. Col. Fowler, Sergt. Knight and T. William Barnes, a well-known St. John citizen who is one of the officers of the 104th Regiment now forming. It will be remembered that Mr. Barnes surmounted a captaincy in the 8th Hussars and entered the 58th Battalion as a private. Colonel Fowler has added him to his excellent staff of officers for the new organization.

Every man and youth in St. John is invited to participate in tonight's demonstration. As the bands proceed from their starting points, it is requested that the men folk join in behind and by their presence and good will, show the people of St. John and province that the heart of the Loyalist city is still in the right place.

At the rink Colonel Fowler's medical officials will be prepared to make a final examination of every man who offers, thus cutting out any delays. In fact, before the crowd leaves the building, each volunteer will know whether or not he is to be a member of the new crack regiment.

SIXTH C. M. R. PART OF RESERVE ARMY CORPS

Probably Left England Nearly Two Weeks Ago

WERE HIGHLY ELATED

Proud at Being Brigaded With Such Crack Regiments as 42nd, 49th and Royal Canadians—News in St. John Boys' Letters

The news that the 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles were to leave England for the front on October 17, and that time is conveyed in a letter from Trooper Arthur Lannon to his mother, Mrs. John Lannon of Metcalfe street. He says:—

"I am going, happy and not a bit afraid to go and do my little bit for my country and far and my love ones at home, and even for other boys at home who should be in uniform now, and they will have to be long for they want as many more men over here as have come. This war is not half over yet."

Speaking of what field comforts would be most appreciated during the winter he says that woollen socks and gloves are the chief things needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lannon have two other sons in the King's service, William, in the British navy and Alphonse, with the 55th at Valenciennes.

BRIGADED WITH CRACK REGIMENTS

Signaller E. A. Belding of the 6th, writing on Oct. 12, also spoke of their probable departure from England in a few days, and said:—

"We are going with the 42nd, 49th and Royal Canadian Rifles, and feel complimented on being brigaded with such crack regiments. After eight months of training we are to see the real thing. A very funny chap is amusing a crowd in the other end of this tent at present. I think we will always find someone to keep up the spirits of the crowd. We feel a bit keyed up about going, but once we know we will be all right. I wish you could be here to hear the boys laughing and joking."

The correspondent of the Toronto Mail and Empire, writing on Oct. 12, said:—

"The first half of the recently-formed extra Canadian unit, of which Brigadier-General Mercer is to take command, left Shorncliffe for the front on Saturday last (Oct. 9). With cheery faces and in buoyant spirits which found many channels of expression, the 42nd Montreal Highlanders, under Col. Cantile, and the 49th, of Edmonton, under Col. Griesbach, marched into Valcartier and proceeded to camp by the time this reaches Canada. Both these battalions were neighbors in the front line of the 6th Canadian Regiment and the Mounted Rifles Brigade will probably follow, and thus complete the 6th by the time this reaches Canada. Both the two battalions which have gone to the front will be reserve battalions, and they expressed the greatest gratification that they have been allowed to go forward as units."

"The Mounted Rifles Brigade, 4th, 8th and 6th battalions, under Col. Smart, are in camp between Folkestone and Shorncliffe, but are due to appear in front. It is likely that the Royal Canadian Regiment will also be at the front before the end of this month."

WOULD HAVE GONE FREE THROUGH SOLDIERS' COMFORT ASSOCIATION

Matter of Heavy Charges on Parcels to Soldiers—If in Hurry, However, Best Way is to Pay and Use Mails

St. John, N. B., Oct. 25, 1915.

To the Editor of The Times,
Sir,—My son wrote to me from the front to ask me to send him a sweater, which I did this morning, and I also enclosed four cakes of tobacco and one cake of chocolate and the cost to send the same was sixty-four cents, and to register the parcel would be two cents an ounce, bringing the price to $1.30. Do you think this is the way to help recruiting, to charge so much when a man gives up a good position to serve his king and country? I and several other mothers would like often to send little comforts to our dear ones but cannot, as the postage costs more than the goods. My son went with the first contingent and is serving with Major Magee.

MOTHER.

With regard to this above enquiry The Times has been informed by the officials of the Soldiers' Comfort Association that the sending of the package referred to would not have cost anything if it had been sent through them. The object of their association is to do away with all expense in the forwarding of packages to the soldiers. They point out that now, however, persons desiring any article to reach its destination in a hurry would do well to send it themselves and pay postage, as it may be slightly delayed if forwarded by the association. They explain that the reason for some delay in delivery now is the very large quantity of goods they have to handle before Christmas. But they are constantly receiving and sending forward parcels to soldiers free of all charge.

HON. COL. R. S. LOW WAS BOSS OF HASSAM PAVEMENT WORK HERE

An Ottawa despatch to The Times yesterday announced that Honorary Colonel Robert S. Low had volunteered for the front. He is now manager of Bate & McMahon Construction Company, who supervised the preparation of Valcartier Camp last year. He has a brother and nine nephews in uniform.

Mr. Low came to St. John as superintendent for the Hassam Paving Company, which had secured contracts for permanent pavements from the old council. He supervised the laying of what were practically the first modern pavements in this city, including the granite blocks in Main street and the Germain street boulevards.

His stay in St. John was marked by many interesting episodes, chiefly connected with disputes which arose among his company, members of the council and some of the citizens. There were special investigations marked by somewhat sensational incidents on both sides but nothing came of them. Low was a great hustler.

Boys' Suits and Overcoats Built for Good Wear and Good Looks

Wherever else it might be "sneaked in unknown" and never discovered, poor quality can never finally escape notice in a boy's suit. Trust a live boy to find it out.

Every mother knows that strong, healthy lads, as a rule, are not "particular about their clothes." They are particular about the joys of life.

That is why this store is doubly particular to provide the suits and overcoats that stand the hardest test of wear, and Oak Hall boys' clothes are best where wear comes hardest.

New lots of Boys' Suits and Overcoats of this wear-proof kind have been coming in for some days. There is no need to write about their good looks and correctness in fashion, for these are things that all can see. In everything that goes to make a fine stock, this is the finest we have ever had.

WONIX-MIST

As the name implies, is a wonderful preparation, applied by a sprayer in the form of a mist, for the cleansing, polishing and beautifying of furniture, floors, wood-work of all kinds, marble, bronze; in fact, every surface which becomes dull and needs reviving.

For use on automobiles it provides the quickest and most satisfactory method of polishing the highly finished surfaces, and preserves their lustrous appearance to a remarkable degree.

The method of applying makes it very economical, and a given quantity goes four times as far as other liquids applied in the ordinary way.
