New Haven Wreckage is Now Cleared Up

NOT TO BE DISTURBED

That Was Instruction Sent by Interstate Commerce Commission—Inquiry Secret and Report For Public is Given Out by Railroad

(Canadian Press)

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 3.—The aftermath of the Wallingford wreck on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad found the death list still standing at twenty-one today, the hospital list at seventeen. The trainmen who saved the heavy parts in the tragedy are under detention by a coroner's order, and the machinery for the community, state and federal investigations in motion.

Concrete Mix and Chief Engineer Elwell, of the Public Utilities Commission, Connecticut, were prepared to resume ten o'clock a "star chamber" investigation which they began yesterday jointly with the railroad company.

August B. Miller, engineer of the White Mountain express, was to tell of the conditions under which his train crashed into the standing Bar Harbor train. Elbert A. Robinson, the man who was in the engine, and Charles Henry Gray, the flagman, sent back to present a rear-end collision, are also present to submit to long cross-examinations.

What these men testified to yesterday was given by the New Haven road statement said to be a synopsis of testimony was prepared and issued to the public.

Statement

Testimony of men in charge of the train, which stated that the signal of the locomotive, was in first position, and that the danger signal was not seen until it was too late to stop.

Turning back through the heavy fog, they heard the on-coming White Mountain express, and placed two torpedoes on the rails. Murray saw the end of the standing train took form before the eyes of Engineer Miller of the White Mountain express, the same moment as he ran over the torpedoes.

Miller was then 400 feet from the standing train and was running fifty miles an hour. He whistled on the emergency brakes, realizing it he could not avoid a crash.

Engine 1307, which headed the White Mountain express, was twin to the big-headed Pacific type locomotive which hauled the second section of the freight express into the first as the train was standing at Stamford.

Investigators have tested the sea in the engine that figured in the wreck, and found that such engine, pulling a train at forty miles hour, required at least 1,600 feet to stop.

Murray, the flagman, was 1,000 feet back of his train when 1,000 feet or more was necessary as a margin of safety for the big 1800 type locomotive was a point which the investigation hoped to make clear today.

Whatever reached the public from the hearing this fair to be sifted through the New Haven's publicity department.

Interstate commerce commission's engineers on their arrival today, and practically no vestige of the wreck along the New Haven right-of-way. Notwithstanding telegraphic orders from the commission that the wreckage be undisturbed, officials of the road gangs of men clearing up the road.

The two rear Pullmans of the Bar Harbor express, where nearly all the lives occurred, were splintered by crash. What few portions remained intact were made matchless.

Would Like to See Some Thaw Money

Lawyers Desirous of Some Responsible Member of Family Being in Sherbrooke

—The Situation Today

Harry Thaw's "Guardian Angel," Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie and her husband, Mrs. Carnegie is Thaw's sister. She has made every possible effort to free him.

(Canadian Press)

Sherbrooke, Que., Sept. 3.—Lawyers working for and against the deportation and return of Harry K. Thaw to Montreal were on the alert today, mindful of the fact that Judge Hutchison might at any time hand down his decision on the habeas corpus writ, arguments on which he heard yesterday.

The court's ruling will be in writing, and the judge agreed to summon counsel to chambers in ample time before his delivery. If the writ is sustained, Thaw will be freed from the Sherbrooke jail and arrested by immigration officers, for deportation. His counsel may then seek to cite out another writ of habeas corpus demanding his release from the immigration department.

N. K. Lafamme, of Montreal, one of the most eminent criminal lawyers in the province, was here today, to reinforce the Thaw lawyers. There were current reports that Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, mother of the fugitive, would soon arrive in Sherbrooke, to insure counsel of their fees and expenses.

Some of the Thaw lawyers, it is said, have again expressed dissatisfaction over the fact that no responsible head of the family has remained on the scene and that while money was talked of, no large amounts have been in evidence. A great deal of money will be needed to carry on a protracted legal fight.

A by-product of Thaw's escape, as it were, the case of "Gentleman Roger" Thompson was put over for a week. His bail was continued.

SEPTEMBER BRIDES; THIS IS THE FIRST OF THE WEDNESDAYS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized with nuptial mass in the Church of the Assumption at 6 o'clock this morning by Rev. J. J. O'Donovan, when Miss Mary Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Fitzgerald, of West St. John, was united in marriage to Charles Joseph Mitchell, of the staff of the Charlottetown Examiner.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very charming, gowned in ivory satin with train and with bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a white prayer book with white satin ribbon and orange blossoms.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very charming, gowned in ivory satin with train and with bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a white prayer book with white satin ribbon and orange blossoms.

Miss Florence, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore gray figured voile over white satin, and black picture hat with plumes, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The bridegroom was supported by Richard J. Fitzgerald, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents, 288 Gullford street, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left on the Boston boat this morning for a short honeymoon trip to Boston and New York. The bride's going-away costume was a navy blue tailored serge with Alice blue hat with tan trimmings.

American elite and bridegroom will return via Halifax and proceed to Charlottetown, where they will reside.

Among the numerous presents were a set of glass tumblers from The Maritime Stationers, Charlottetown, with which Mr. Mitchell was, at one time connected, and a cut glass pitcher from the staff of the Examiner; also a substantial check from R. L. Cotton, proprietor of the Examiner.

Emack-Powers A wedding of popular local interest took place this afternoon at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Edna G., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Powers, was united in marriage to Miles R. Emack, formerly of Fredericton, and now of this city, where he is manager of the Canadian Home Investment Co. for the maritime provinces. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, 61 St. James street, Rev. J. A. MacKigan, pastor of St. David's church, officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was prettily gowned in white charmeuse satin with a full veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Miss Margaret Powers, who was bridesmaid, was attired in a dainty costume of blue satin. She also carried a shower bouquet of roses. The groom was supported by William F. Carruthers of Fredericton.

After the ceremony, luncheon was served and wreckage that could burn did burn in half a dozen or more bonfires kindled close to the right of way by the wrecking gangs. The damaged locomotive was hauled away with the third Pullman from the end, which was damaged more than the other two.

During the cleaning of the road, and the lighting of the bon-fires, General Superintendent Woodward and Superintendent Drogge of the Short Line division, were on the ground supervising the work.

Chatham, Ont., Sept. 3.—Harold, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillon, of Raleigh, is dead of tetanus. About a week ago, the boy trod on some wood and a splinter ran into his foot between two toes. The splinter was extracted and no more notice taken of it until the child complained of pains in the neck of his neck.

Berlin, Ont., Sept. 3.—Before issuing a permit for the burial of the ten days old child of Corneil Karm, of near Centreville, City Clerk Miller requested Coroner F. H. Hester to investigate the circumstances in connection with the death of the infant, it being reported that it died from poisoning by a cordial.

Doctor Hester found that the infant, suffering from colic and had been given a teaspoonful of a medicine called "cordial." This caused almost instant death. Five drops of the medicine is all that is prescribed for infants, and the coroner ascertained that the mother had forgotten the directions, and that the death was accidental.

He, however, found fault with the manner in which the "cordial" was being sold, the directions being printed on the wrapper, which is torn off before the medicine can be used.

THEFT OF DIAMOND AND SILK DRESS; GIRL ARRESTED

Remanded in Fredericton Court—Was Serving in H. G. Ripley's Home

(Special To Times)

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 3.—A girl named Florence Forbes, aged eighteen, belonging to Waasila, is under arrest here on a charge of the theft of a diamond pin and a silk dress, from the home of Harry R. Ripley, with whom she had been employed as a servant.

The girl was found by Ripley with the pin and dress soon after she had been employed as a servant. She was before the police court this morning and remanded until Monday.

A young man named Harvey McNeill, belonging to Maple Grove, had a leg badly crushed a few days ago while assisting in removal of a house.

FOR CITY SURVEY

There have at various times arisen disputes concerning ownership of lands about the city, in the matter of borders being indistinctly defined and as a result of remarks made by Mayor Frink this morning at a meeting of the common council it is likely that Engineer Murdoch will be called upon to settle all such matters.

The question arose through a query by the mayor to the commissioner of the city in regard to a survey of North End, concerning the city and what Marble Cove. The city, he said, had never endeavored to permanently establish its rights about this water and it is said that trespass has occurred on city lands bordering thereon. It was a rather delicate matter, but one which should be taken up and he thought that Engineer Murdoch should be requested to proceed with a survey. The engineer, who was particularly clever at surveying, was kept busy now with various jobs which might be within the province of a master carpenter, and he thought it would be much better to have him make a survey to fully define the city properties.

Commissioner Agar said the matter would be taken up in the near future, and that a report would be submitted upon the survey work being done or already done.

SEVEN KILLED IN DUBLIN; TWO OLD HOUSES COLLAPSED

Dublin, Sept. 3.—Seven persons were killed and five seriously injured by the collapse of the two old tenement houses in Church street last evening.

The situation brought about by the strike of transport workers in Dublin, was rendered more acute today by a lockout in the coal trade. The merchants decided that they would no longer employ men belonging to the Transport Workers' Union, which organization they say, will not permit its members to deliver the coal of certain firms with which the union is at loggerheads.

The feeling between workmen and employers is very bitter.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 3.—R. B. Bennett, M. P. for Calgary, makes the announcement that the Alberta Pacific Elevator Company has purchased the plant of the Brown Hovel Company of Vancouver, the elevator company on the water front, and that it will divert a large percentage of this year's crop to the Pacific.

He adds that the people of the central west are more and more looking to Vancouver as the real gateway to the world's markets.

Edmonton, Alb., Sept. 3.—With five districts yet to hear from, a few scattered returns from the polls already received, Alphonse Patterson, Conservative, is leading W. A. Rae, Liberal, by ninety-two votes, and both Rae and W. F. Bredin, the latter the independent candidate, by fifty-four, in the deferred election for Peace River constituency.

The result is something of a surprise here, as it was thought that Rae, the government candidate, had the best chance of winning. The remaining polls, however, will not greatly affect the figures.

Edmonton, Alb., Sept. 3.—James McNulty, a real estate salesman, was murdered in a shock in the Hudson Bay reserve last night.

Covered with a mattress and bedding and lying upon the floor of a one roomed shack on the Hudson Bay reserve, McNulty was found dead by his partner, Burrard Mosebeck, on the latter's return from work on Tuesday evening. McNulty had been killed by a shot gun, at close range, and had been dead six to eight hours. Up till a late hour no arrests had been made.

McNulty had been in Edmonton three years, employed generally as a clerk. He came from Norwood, Ontario, where his father is a prominent farmer.

Nanaimo, B. C., Sept. 3.—E. Morris, Extension, was committed for trial yesterday by Magistrate Simpson, on a charge of attempted murder of Percy John, at Extension on August 18. The charge was committed by the alleged offense of firing a shot at the rioting in Extension in which several homes of strike-breakers and part of the mine type were destroyed by fire. Constable Hannay testified to seeing the accused in possession of a rifle and Percy John, William Moore, John John, Frank Bevan, testified to seeing Morris fire two shots at Percy John.

The defence did not produce any witnesses. In committing the accused for trial the magistrate remarked that the case against Morris was a very strong one.

NEW C. N. R. LINE TO BE OPENED NEXT MONTH

North Ontario and Toronto Connection With Montreal and Quebec

Toronto, Sept. 3.—Vice-president D. B. Hanna of the Canadian Northern Railway, announces that the new road from Toronto to Ottawa will be opened about October 15.

The line is one of the main connecting links in the Canadian Northern system and will open a straight connection from Northern Ontario and Toronto to Montreal and Quebec.

The road is practically complete, all the ballasting being finished and the steel almost laid.

POLICE COURT Things were quiet in the police court this morning, only four prisoners being on hand to face the magistrate. John O'Hearn, arrested in Pond street, last night, by Policeman Rankine, charged with fighting, pleaded guilty and was remanded. A Norwegian pleaded guilty to being drunk on South Wharf last night. He was remanded. Two others, charged with drunkenness, one a man and one a woman, also were remanded.

There is a complaint that the granite curbing at the corner of Germain and Princess street has been causing annoyance to citizens and is a menace to the safety of persons walking there after dark. The curbing is elevated above the street, so much that persons are liable to stumble to a bad fall. At the northeast corner, the curb is fully ten inches higher than the street, and a serious accident is liable to result if it is not removed. The other corner is a bad. Citizens feel that if necessary other work might wait a few days until these conditions might be remedied.

GOLD HEADED CANE FOR H. PRICE WEBBER

Happy Presentation to Popular Theatrical Man in Westville, N. S.

The popularity of H. Price Webber not only as a theatrical man, but as an individual, is everywhere conceded, but a tangible evidence of this admitted fact was given a few evenings ago during one of the performances of his capable company, headed, of course, by Miss Edwina Gray (Mrs. Webber) and now playing through Nova Scotia and meeting the most generous patronage wherever they appear.

It was at Westville, N. S., the recent incident occurred, when, in the Acadia theatre and at the end of the second act of the evening's play, the curtain was lifted and company and audience were delighted to witness the presentation of an elegant gold-headed cane to the general recipient.

The manager of the Acadia read the accompanying address. Mr. Webber in reply made a happy speech in which he thanked his kind friends for their favors. The audience and company joined in singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" in a manner to make the welkin ring and the event will be long remembered.

HUMILIATED WOMAN

Would Not Attend Social Functions Because of Her Hair

There are many women in this world, handsome in features, perfect in form, graceful of movement and brilliant of mind, who keep in the background just because they have thin, colorless and lustreless hair.

In spite of their understanding things about the hair that we do not know in this country, it was a Parisian, Dr. Sangre-bond, who discovered that thin hair and dandruff are caused by a microbe.

It is Parisian Sage that proves Dr. Sangre-bond's theory to be correct, for it is rigidly guaranteed to kill the dandruff germ and cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is a delightfully pleasant hair dressing and invigorator; it is not sticky or greasy. It should be used freely in spring and summer, as it keeps the scalp clean and cool and free from sores.

Parisian Sage comes in large 50-cent bottles and is for sale by all druggists and leading grocers everywhere on the money-back plan. "The Girl with the Auburn Hair" is an every package. Made in Canada by The E. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont.

THE LOCAL SAW MILLS

After a four-hour conference between Premier Flemming, the mill owners and the striking millmen in the offices of the government yesterday, the mill owners made a proposition which the committee of strikers will present to a mass meeting of the millmen probably tonight.

This offer was to the effect that the mill owners would recognize a local independent union of the men providing they returned to work at the original wage scale—$2.40 per day for the dealers and $2.25 and up for the raftmen. Then during the next few months the question of increased wages can be discussed on its merits.

At a meeting of the "longshoremen" held last evening, it was decided to handle no lumber manufactured in mills employing non-union deal piers and pondmen, as the scowmen's international union No. 272 refuse to scow any lumber manufactured under such conditions.

Easy to Make Hairs Vanish from the Skin

(Bouloir Secrets).
 Aggravating hair or fuz is easily removed from the skin by this simple treatment: Mix into a paste enough detemine and water to cover the hairy surface, apply and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and all traces of hair have vanished. This treatment is infallible and leaves the skin smooth and spotless.
 Thin eyebrows come in thick and glossy merely by rubbing pyroxin on, and if the eyelashes are straight and stubby, apply some at high-noon with thumb and forefinger. This makes them grow long and slightly curly. Use care and don't get any where hair is not wanted.

 MAKE COOKING EASY

If you are going to purchase a new range, come and see the celebrated Glenwood line before making your selection.

This cut shows one of our leaders, the Cabinet Glenwood. Not the neat attractive appearance of this range, no fussy ornamentation or fancy nickel to catch the dust or dirt, just the plain smoc' casting.

As a baker the Glenwood is unequalled having a large room oven, and every modern improvement to help make cooking easy.

SACRIFICES CONVICTIONS FOR THE SAKE OF THE PARTY
Ontario M. P. P.'s Opinion of Premier Whitney's Stand on Labor Matters

Ottawa, Sept. 3.—"He's taking the same old position," said Allan Studholme, M. L. A., for Hamilton East, who was in Ottawa yesterday, when asked for his opinion on the reply, Sir James Whitney gave to a deputation of Toronto labor men, who waited on him and registered their objection to his stand on such questions as tax reform, compensation of workmen, etc.

Mr. Studholme said that so long as Sir James is convinced through the ballot box, and the recent bye-election in North Grey tells its own story, he will go along in the same old way, and the reforms the thinking people want will never come.

"What is the use of mincing matters," said Mr. Studholme, "the only way, therefore, measures will ever be put on the statute book is when the people of Ontario show they want them through the ballot box. Send half a dozen position members or more to the legislature, and you will soon see Sir James alter his ways. He has got to be convinced that the people want tax reform and other progressive measures when his own party meets defeat at the polls."

"I believe that Premier Whitney believes in his heart that tax reform, woman's suffrage and measures of a similar kind are good, but he sacrifices his own convictions for the sake of his party. You may be sure he will not alter his position until he has to do so."

Shell as many peas as required, and put them in boiling salted water, to which has been added a sprig of mint. Boil the peas for five or ten minutes according to age, and then drain. Place the peas on a hot vegetable dish with a shake of pepper and a piece of butter.

Ammonia is excellent for cleaning hairbrushes or brushes of any kind. To do this pour a quart of water and add one ounce of household ammonia. After washing the brush rinse it in clear water, shake and place it on a clean cloth to dry. Borax is equally good for the purpose.

OUR BENEFACTORS

Mr. W. Frank Hatheway appears to have spent a portion of the hot season commencing with himself, and dallying with his imagination. As a result he has given to the Standard a most remarkable story to the effect that if the Grand Trunk Pacific passes by St. John it will be the fault of the Tweedie-Pugsley government, the Laurier-Fielding government and the owners of the St. John Telegraph. These various criminals, thus startlingly arraigned, will doubtless take measures for their defence; but in the meantime the average citizen will remember that when the Laurier government was defeated by Mr. Hatheway and his friends, the Nationalists of Quebec, everything was in line for the construction of G. T. P. terminals at Courtney Bay in ample time for their use by the company, and that the Grand Trunk Pacific was to be connected with the St. John Valley Railway, giving a short haul to St. John for all traffic routed this way, the Chipman-Moncton line being for the convenience of trade routed to Halifax. Unfortunately the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was defeated, and the plans of Hon. Wm. Pugsley are not yet being carried out, although Mr. Hatheway's friends have had two years in which to make a beginning. We are now represented in the government, not by Dr. Pugsley, but by Mr. Hazen, the gentleman whom the Borden Club have found it necessary to interrogate openly and publicly concerning the affairs of his constituency.

When a comparison is made between what Dr. Pugsley as a public man has done for St. John, and what Mr. Hazen, Mr. Hatheway and as many other Tories as anyone cares to throw in for good measure, have done, the showing is so enormously to the advantage of Dr. Pugsley that even the Standard would blush at the contrast.

THE LUMBER TARIFF

The Bangor Commercial does not believe that the owners of timber lands in Maine have anything to fear from a reduction in the tariff on lumber from Canada. In the course of an article dealing with this question, that journal says:

"The large owners of timber lands are not worrying over the provisions of the tariff measure nor do they have cause to worry. Since 1892 the price for stumpage have been greatly increased as the price of lumber has increased. In 1892 hemlock and spruce boards were selling by the thousand, delivered in Bangor, at $7, $8 and $10. By inquiry from Morse & Co. we learn that the price today is $21 a thousand for hemlock and $23 a thousand for spruce, delivered in Bangor."

The Commercial submits that these prices are high enough, without any protection, and that the owners of timber lands are not entitled to a continuance of the high protection which they have enjoyed. Indeed it says they are not making any claim to protection, and that the only thing they are worrying about is fire; and if they care to protect from its ravages they should be well satisfied.

Let us all hope that the statement is true that most of the cheering for law in Sherbrooke is done by his own friends and relatives. Let us also hope that he will be hurried out of this country as quickly as possible.

The customs revenue of the Dominion continues to increase. The receipts for August were larger than in the corresponding month last year, and for five months an increase of $3,840,082 is shown. The trade of the country continues to expand, and the amount of money available to be squandered by the Borden government continues to increase. That it will be squandered is quite evident from the rate at which the expenditure has advanced in the last two years.

The amount of building in progress in St. John this year has been much larger than last year's record, but not large enough yet to meet the demand for comfortable tenements at a fair rental. No doubt the financial stringency has to some extent interfered with building operations, but it is also alleged, apparently with some basis of truth, that it costs more to build a house in St. John than in most other cities.

A despatch from Boston says that thousands of children under sixteen years of age were thrown out of work on Monday last by the operation of a new state law which prohibits the employment of any child under fourteen in a workshop, and provides that no child under sixteen shall work more than 48 hours a week. It is said that as a result there will be a large increase in attendance at school, and that manufacturers will be compelled to make some change in their working schedules. It is claimed that nearly 60,000 employees and more than 75,000 children are affected by the new law. It may cause some hardship to families who have found it necessary to depend upon the earnings of some of the children, but in such cases some arrangement may be

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3
The Hon. R. M. Britton, Judge of the King's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice of Ontario, reaches his eightieth birthday today. Born at Gananoque, he was long one of the leaders of the bar in Central Ontario.

The Hon. George E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce in the Borden government and long prominent in the political life of Canada, was born sixty-six years ago today in New Brunswick.

Donald MacMaster, now member of the British House of Commons and for many years prominent in legal circles in Montreal, was born at Williamstown, Ont., on September 3, 1846.

J. A. Ruddick, Canada's dairy and cold storage commissioner, was born in the county of Oxford, fifty-one years ago today.

Colonel Septimus Denison, Canadian regular military forces, now in command of the regimental depot at Halifax, was born in Toronto on September 3, 1859.

A. E. Ames, a prominent Toronto politician, is forty-seven years old today. He is a native of Lambeth, Ontario.

LIGHTER VEIN
Her Figure
Judge—
"He fell in love with her figure."
No wonder, for she was a peach.
He shook at the thought of proposing.
She seemed so far out of reach.

"He fell in love with her figure."
She was constantly in his thoughts.
No wonder he loved her madly—
Her figure was one and six noughts.

Easily Ascertained
As a preacher in a country village was walking to his pasture one bright Sunday morning he saw the son of one of his parishioners fishing in a creek.
"Now, John," said the minister, reprovingly, "what would your father say if he knew you were here?"
"I could easily find out," the boy replied, "as he is over in the next field, digging more bait."

How Her Mind Ran
Patience—I see Esperanto is taught in some of the state-supported schools in England, France and Germany.
Father—Is that anything like the Tango, I wonder?

A Sympathizer
A clergyman was being shamed by a barber who had evidently become unnerved by the previous night's dissipation. Finally, he cut the clergyman's chin. The latter looked up at the artist reproachfully and said:
"You see, my man, what comes of hard drinking."
"Yes, sir," replied the barber consolingly. "It makes the skin tender."

Impossible
"Does the baby take after his father?"
"No. His father is not the kind of man to leave anything behind him to take."

The Father—"If I give you some money to spend while you are in London you won't go to no music halls or gambling places, or drink champagne with 'em, will ye?"
Son—"No, dad."
The Father—"Well, then, here's a shilling, an' mind ye keep yer word."

DOUGLAS AVENUE AND THE NEW BRIDGE

As a result of the discussion in the common council yesterday morning, relative to the partial blocking of the approach to the Suspension bridge, as recommended by A. R. Springer, an engineer of the provincial department of public works, the commissioners visited the ground in the afternoon and left on the understanding that the engineer would provide plans for the temporary widening of the road on the south side at the approach to the bridge, the plans to be considered by the council.

His worship said that, in spite of the inconvenience involved, he was convinced that the people of St. John would be willing to put up with the partial blocking of the approach if this was found necessary for the ultimate perfection of the new bridge, as Mr. Springer had said it would be, in order that the concrete of the new anchor pier which he proposes to put down immediately, should be given time to season properly. The question will come before the council for further consideration.

SUICIDE IS VERDICT AT THE COYLE INQUEST

The shooting of Hartley Coyle, which at first appeared to be mysterious, was last night officially declared to be a case of suicide. Coroner Berryman conducted an inquest into the affair and after several witnesses had testified the jury returned a verdict that Coyle had come to his death by a bullet from a rifle, and that death was caused by his own hand.

Among the witnesses were Mrs. Amelia Snow, Mrs. Alice Carr, Andrew Coyle, Albert Coyle, Policeman Hamm, Dr. Dunlop and Dr. Dickson, the two latter of the staff of the general public hospital. The testimony went to prove that the Snow woman had left the Coyle house in Brindley street before the shooting, and Dr. Dickson told of a confession by the young man that he had shot himself on account of a girl. The jury was out only a few minutes.

MANUEL'S MARRIAGE A PUZZLE TO THEM

A King Who is No King is The Bridegroom

EUROPE INTERESTED
Farical Arrangements By Which a Delegation of Royalists Will Attend—An Ormolu Clock Figures Largely in the Negotiations

(Times' Special Correspondence)
Dresden, Aug. 29.—Pleasant Sigmaringen on the peerless Danube is nervous. The trouble is the coming wedding of King Manuel of Portugal with Princess Augustina Victoria Wilhelmina Antoinette Mathilda Ludovica Josephine Marie Elizabeth, the twenty-two-year-old daughter of Prince Wilhelm of Hohenzollern.

All royal marriages make trouble, but this royal marriage makes trouble, it has complications of position, of politics and of money. First Manuel is a king who is no king; secondly, the Hohenzollerns of Sigmaringen are royalists who are no royalists. They are kinsmen of Wilhelm II. and his themselves are more than him because they are an older branch, but they have no kingdom and it is sixty years since they had even a principality. Thirdly, Manuel has no money and the Hohenzollerns have. Fourthly, there is trouble in Portugal; and fifthly, there is the Balkan war. Hence Sigmaringen's perturbations, permutations and combinations, and telegrams fly all day and night explaining things and explaining the explanations, till the telegraph clerks turn as blue as the Danube itself.

All over this "marriage de convenance" Manuel, indeed, truly in love, but his Princess Augustina is not, and no man knows why she weds Manuel, when all the world has laughed at his amours, his debts and his bad shots at golf. However, wifeless kings are rare and Manuel's chances to be real king again are not so small. No one in Portugal wants Manuel, but thousands want a change; and being bored with the republic they may turn monarchy. And to become a queen is something, even if you are a princess of Sigmaringen and rank yourself higher than knaves.

The First Trouble

In such condition trouble was certain. The first trouble was Manuel's claim to kingship. Although Manuel is called a king in polite conversation, he is not a king either in law or in fact. All states recognize Portugal's republic formally and they cannot recognize Portugal's king. King Manuel's cousin, the Anglo-Portuguese Marquis de Soveral, advised him to be married with full royal ceremony. This caused difficulties.

The etiquette at minor German courts (such Sigmaringen likes to count itself) is that the local sovereign is superior in rank to any visitor who is below kingship and the court gives the visitor precedence only out of courtesy. The Prince of Hohenzollern is a great stickler for correctness and he ruled that Manuel is not a king, therefore he is not a guest and he might claim the highest possible position. A debate ensued. Fiercest Manuel caused nothing about it. But his advisers, backed by an able intermeddling lawyer, named Serres, insisted that he should be full king and that the marriage etiquette should be royal.

Sturdy Prince Wilhelm of Hohenzollern, keen as he is on etiquette, wanted to give way. At this moment, lawyer Serres did a thing that caused trouble. He sent Manuel a typewritten paper declaring that the Prince of Hohenzollern had no right to insist on anything in a minor court. The prince lost his sovereignty in 1849, just as scores of other German princes lost theirs in Vienna congress times, and so far from being a full royalty like Anhalt or Schaumburg-Lippe, he is a mere mediatized royalty like the Salmas and Hohenzollerns.

The question of etiquette was complicated by the relationship of Manuel to his bride. The bride's grandmother was herself a Portuguese princess and a great-aunt of Manuel. Manuel, in his public infantile way, showed the typewritten document to Prince Wilhelm and Prince Wilhelm was wroth, and told Manuel in future to seek advice only from the Marquis de Soveral, who is a gentleman and would not stoop to use a typewriter.

The trouble was allayed by admitting that Manuel should have full royal etiquette at the wedding but should use the title King of Portugal only informally and be mere "king" in formal documents. A dispute again raged over this last point, because Princess Augustina insisted that Manuel must be everywhere King of Portugal. She told Manuel to fight and Manuel, who always obeys, fought. His valor overjoyed the Portuguese royalists. They proclaimed in their newspaper that Manuel is keeping up his claim royally—in reality his bride was doing all the work—and they brought up the question of sending a royalist delegation to Manuel's wedding. At first four members would come to Sigmaringen "to make political arrangements in case Manuel should have an heir." Six more were later to arrive, and ten would grace the wedding.

Prince Wilhelm of Hohenzollern disliked this prospect. He felt sure that the royalists, who have muddled everything they undertook, would muddle this also and would convert the harmless wedding into a royalist demonstration in favor of Manuel as king and Augustina as queen. He asked Manuel to reduce the number. Manuel, who agrees with every one, said yes, but next day he agreed with his imperative bride who said no. The bride boldly swore that Manuel is anointed king and that "the regicide ruffians of Lisbon are beastly usurpers. If Sigmaringen were independent and had an army and navy, a royalist demonstration might cause trouble; but we are private individuals and shall make no demonstrations we like."

As usual Princess Augustina got her way. Were it not for Kaiser Wilhelm and Foreign Secretary Jagow—who would have kept it. Herr Jagow is a great stickler for correctness as is Manuel's future father-in-law, Kaiser Wilhelm had promised to send a representative of his family to the wedding and he chooses Prince Eitel, Frederick—because his figure would harmonize with podgy Manuel and sturdy Prince Wilhelm.

BURDENSOME NAMES

Here Are Some That Must Bring Little Joy in Later Years

(London Tilt-Bits)

The most burdensome name ever bestowed on a child was that given by Arthur Pepper, a laundry-man of West Derby, Liverpool, his daughter, born in December, 1882. It comprised one name for every letter of the alphabet, and was certainly ingenious in its execution: Anna Bertha Cecilia Diana Emily Fanny Gertrude Hypatia Inez Jane Kate Louise Maud Nora Ophelia Quince Rebecca Starkey Teresa Ulysia Venus Winifred Xenophon Yetty Zeno. P, of course, was provided in the surname, Pepper.

Hundreds of examples of this poor form of parental wit occur in the entries for the past few years. Noah's Ark Smith, Sardine Box, Jolly Death, Judas Iscariot Brown, One-too-Many Johnson, Not-Wanted Smith, Bovril Simpson, Merry Christmas Figgett, Odious Heald, Anno Domini Davis, are the names of children probably living who will have to bear them through life, unless they wash themselves clean with subterfuge. How can such children observe the Fifth Commandment?

There was for a long time a curiosity in nomenclature on the Australian pension list. His name was "Through-much-trouble-in-we-enter-the-Kingdom-of-Heaven Smith." The officials of the Pension Department very pardonably abbreviated him into "Trippy Smith." Has any diligent student of our pension list discovered anything that caps this? It is not surprising that the names of Dickens' characters—odd though they are—should be found in real life, for it was from life that many of them were taken. Some, as we know, were copied from the names over shop doors, etc., but this was not the novelist's only source of selection. Among his papers John Forster found carefully-drawn-up lists of names, with the source from which he obtained them, and the longest lists were those drawn from the "Privy Council Education Lists." Some of the names thus noted are too extravagant for anything but reality—Jolly Stick, Bill Marigold, George Musal, William Why, Robert Gospel, Robin Scrubbam, Sarah Goldsacks, Catherine Two, Sophia Doomsday, Rosetta Daid, Sally Gimblet!

For quaint surnames one should search the records of Northumberland. A. G. Bradley has made a collection of some of these Northumbrian patronyms. He is writing of the times of the Border raids, and there was a Robert Unthank in those days. Among others, too, we find the name of Adam Aydranken, who "upset his boat in the Tyne, and accidentally drowned his wife, Beatrice." "Ceelia, the wife of John Unkuthman (uncouthman), cut her throat with a razor." The incident requires no explanation. "Another unfortunate person figures as Adam-with-the-nose."

In Rosenberg, Or, a certain section of the registration law was overlooked, and as a result only 18 voters out of 2,500 are eligible to vote at the September primaries.

The Hand That Moves The Lever Saves 16.2-3 Per Cent. of Your Coal Bill

Here is the opportunity for the housewife to deal the high cost of living question a hard jolt without any effort on her part.

The way is to make sure that her new range is controlled by a Gurney-Economizer, which will save 1 ton of coal in every 6 burned in an ordinary range.

The Economizer is to the stove what the control lever is to the engine or automobile. Without control neither is efficient.

With the Gurney-Economizer it is possible to quickly vary the heat of the oven. Various foods require different temperatures. The Economizer keeps this desired temperature absolutely uniform.

It also means that when cooking is over, you may have a cool kitchen and still have your fire going—while you can have the fiercest heat in a few minutes by a slight pressure on the lever.

If you possess a Gurney-Oxford your advantages are innumerable. The Divided Flue means heat for every hole on the stove. The New Special Grate guards the lowest fire. The Broiler exposes every inch of the coals.

These features are exclusively "Gurney-Oxford."

It will furnish your kitchen handsomely—it will do your work adequately.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING TO THOSE INTERESTED IN THE DRINK CURE One year ago we opened a Neal's stitute treating the drink habit. Crown street, St. John (N. B.), demonstrate to the public that we treat patients who would cure all desire craving for alcohol in three days. Some few call it a "fake" while others call it a "miracle" while others call it a "cure" because we have cured several scores of men and women. St. John was only one of our branches. We have established branches throughout Canada, U. S. A., and other countries. After running it big expense for one year we close each branch as well as several places where there was a danger of becoming known that certain people had taken the drink cure. We have a large central hospital at the City of Ottawa some two years where we have every convenience, fully trained male nurses and female nurses for women, by two private rooms with electric bath and every modern convenience guaranteed to the outside patient while the ride may seem rather when starting, it is well for the patient to know that it is not necessary to arrive here perfectly inasmuch as we never cut a straight off from liquor. Another feature that makes our treatment from home is the fact that a good ride after completing the Neal's cure acts as a tonic, the free change of scenery and the fact that when one returns nobody is a bit the wiser. Remember our charge is $125 out of which we pay transportation both ways and understand that we guarantee to turn all money paid if the patient perfectly satisfied that all craving for liquor has been done when leaving the Institute. If you are a loved one at home who is dear to you speak kindly to him and persuade him to take the treatment. P. S.-There is no charge should patient wish to stay with us a few longer after completing treatment. make sure he is perfectly cured.

SUFFERED 2 MONTHS WITH HEMORRHOIDS

Began with Itching Sensation. Kept Awake at Night. Caused Great Pain. Thought Operation Only Cure. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Entirely Cured in 6 Weeks.

64 Strange St., Toronto, Ontario.—"I suffered for two months with the piles. They first began with a sudden itching sensation which used to keep me awake at night. I tried different kinds of ointment to stop the itching which did not prove valuable in the least and to my surprise after a few weeks they began to bleed. I did not know what to do as they caused me great pain. I began to think that an operation was the only cure for them. I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and decided to try them. I used a sample and after using them a few times I found out to my great relief they gave me less pain and later on the bleeding began to cease. I got some more and continued with the Cuticura Ointment and Soap. I began to get better sleep at night and after six weeks' careful treatment I find that I am entirely cured." (Signed) A. Bennett, Mar. 23, 1912.

If you wish a skin clear of pimples, blackheads and other annoying eruptions, hands soft and white, hair lustrous and glossy, and scalp free from dandruff and itching, begin to-day the regular use of Cuticura Soap for the toilet, bath and shampoo, assisted by an occasional light application of Cuticura Ointment. Ex-President Declares Judges Are More Independent Than Under the Elective System

Montreal, Sept. 2.—Ex-President Taft launched out with no uncertain sound tonight on the subject of the appointment of the judiciary, in an address delivered before the session of the American Bar Association. The reception tendered the distinguished visitor was of the most cordial character, and when he entered the hall and took his place on the platform, the audience rose spontaneously and manifested its feeling in a prolonged outburst of applause.

TO PROBE LABOR DAY BAND MATTER

Artillery Officers to Investigate Reasons Why Band Declined to Take Place in Parade

An investigation is to be made into the reasons why the Artillery Band declined to take part in the celebration of Labor Day in the parade held in the city under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Council. Some feeling has been aroused over reports circulated as to the reasons given for their not joining the line after having been understood by those in charge that they would do so. One of the reasons given is as to a question of precedence. It being said that some members objected to marching in the parade when another musical body, the City Cornet Band, a citizens' organization, had the distinction of marching ahead of them in line. But there was said today, from official sources, to be another reason for the action of the bandmen, one which has nothing whatever to do with any regulation in the K. R. & O. and is not even a matter of military consideration.

When seen this morning in regard to the matter, Colonel B. R. Armstrong, commander of the regiment, and Major Frank Magee, president of the band committee, in behalf of the officers of the regiment disclaimed all knowledge of the affair, saying that they were entirely unaware of any trouble until after the parade. They were not at all in sympathy with the attitude of some of the bandmen in the matter, and said that it was the intention of the officers to investigate the matter at once.

WEDDING NEXT WEEK
Montreal Star—The marriage of Miss Isabelle Fitz-Gibbon, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitz-Gibbon, to Andrew Fisher Jones, son of Simon Jones, formerly of St. John, is announced to take place on September 12 at the country residence of the bride's parents, at Dorval, after which Mr. Jones and his bride will spend their honeymoon abroad.

THE PLAYGROUNDS
The King's Daughters have undertaken to keep the Harriet R. Allison playground open during September, providing the necessary supervision. There is a fairly good attendance in the earlier part of the day, children too young to go to school, and many older ones are there after school. The kindness of the King's Daughters in this matter is worthy of all praise and should stimulate others to take a greater interest in children and playgrounds for them.

COACHMAN'S CASE
A coachman named Harry Cronin, who had been reported by I. C. R. Policeman Smith for accosting passengers at the depot thirty feet within the line prescribed by the by-law, pleaded guilty in the police court this morning but said that he had committed the offence when under the impression that a passenger had beckoned for him. The magistrate struck a fine of $2 or 8 days against Cronin, but allowed the fine to stand.

TO BECOME MINISTER
After several years in newspaper work about the city on the Daily Telegraph, Standard and latterly with the Globe, George Scott today severed his connection with the latter newspaper and will enter into the service of the Presbyterian home mission board for duty in New Brunswick. Mr. Scott will have the best wishes of many friends in his new work. He occupied the pulpit of St. David's church on Sunday morning last and made a very good impression upon a large congregation.

ON THE RIVER
The river boats are bringing in a large quantity of freight including potatoes and other vegetables. The passenger traffic is also good and although some people have moved in to the city on account of the opening of the schools, many are still enjoying the fine summer weather in the country. The shooting season has been open only for three days but already successful hunters are returning to the city well supplied with wild fowl which they say are very plentiful this year, especially the black duck.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN SAUNDERS
Captain George William Saunders died this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Noonan, Main street, at the age of seventy-two years. He was an old deep sea captain, sailing out of St. John years ago, and at one time having schooner of his own. He had been retired for quite a number of years and lived on his farm in Rothessy parish until coming to St. John some months ago. He was a native of Kings county. He leaves his wife and four daughters. The latter are Mrs. Noonan, Mrs. Julia McAuley, Mrs. Annie M. Gunn, and Mrs. Eliza Dale Spear. He leaves also a brother, Edward, in Rothessy, and a sister who lives in Chicago. Many friends will learn with regret of his death. His remains will be interred in Rothessy parish, old home.

TAME SQUIRRELS FOR CITY SQUARES

That is in Mind—Three American Greys Received in Rockwood—Park Notes

Attention having been called by the Gagestown episode of a month or so ago to the fact that the American grey squirrel will live in this climate, steps were taken to secure some of these interesting little animals for Rockwood Park. To this end the management communicated with the authorities in charge of the zoological department of Franklin Park, Boston, with the result that John T. Benson, director of that department, kindly interested himself in the matter and succeeded in procuring three of these squirrels, which he forwarded without delay, and which can now be seen in their new home in Rockwood Park, near the tea house. The scientific or zoological name of the American grey squirrel is Sciurus Carolinensis, and as it is nearly always the case, refers to some leading characteristic thus in the present instance the nomenclature "Carolinensis" from "Carolina," a shade and "ours" tall, indicates the large and flowing caudal appendage which is used, sometimes as a sunshade and sometimes as an umbrella, while "Carolinensis" denotes the country or state of which they are natives, the Carolinas. While these squirrels are now much larger than those which ordinarily frequent our woods, it is believed that they are young specimens and that they will attain a larger size. Probably later on there will arrive some natural additions which may eventually be liberated, possibly in the squares of the city and in the Old Burying Ground, and thus in time we may have them there in as plentiful numbers and in the same state of tameness as they are found in the parks, gardens and other lounging places of the populous cities of the neighboring republic.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
Acknowledgements are due to two more youthful contributors, Edward Davidson of 72 St. Patrick street, for a pair of rabbits, and John Holman, of 262 St. James street, for a pair of "Mus Candidus"—White Rats.

On Sunday afternoon there was a very large number of visitors at the park, as was evidenced by the amount of papers littered about the place, the cleaning up of which caused considerable work to the park attendants on the following morning. Much valuable time of the men would be saved if persons would be so thoughtful to throw their rubbish into the receptacles which are provided for that purpose.

No other person is reported to have seen wolves near the park and it is now considered improbable if there that they should not have been seen by others ere this.

ALERTS' FORMER STAR WILL BE OUT OF THE WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

Jack Coombs Wrenches Side in Bating and is Kept to Bed Again

A Philadelphia despatch says that Jack Coombs, once pitcher for the St. John Alerts, and whose pitching helped to bring two world's baseball championships to Philadelphia, will probably not be in the world's series next month, in the event of the Athletics winning the American League pennant.

After being ill all season, he has been compelled to take to his bed again, as a result of a severe wrenching of his side during bating practice on Labor Day. Coombs is in an enfeebled condition and his physicians said it would be out of the question for him to rally in time to take part in the series.

NOT LETTING OUR RIVER BE KNOWN ENOUGH

C. H. McIntyre, Now of Boston, Says There is Great Asset There

"The advantages of the St. John river are not sufficiently advertised," said C. H. McIntyre, prominent barrister of Boston, who has been yesterday returning after a trip to his old home at Hatfield's Point, Kings county, today. "I have been through the Evangeline country recently, and although it is undoubtedly very pretty, yet in comparison with the beauties of the St. John river valley it is much overrated. What it seems to me is most required is energetic advertising by the hotels and steamboat companies; they should have folders scattered through the hotels of the New England states so as to bring the district to the attention of the travelling public there. There is no prettier trip in the maritime provinces than between here and Fredericton by boat."

Mr. McIntyre was interested in the farm settlement movement, when he was in New Brunswick before, and today he expressed himself as much pleased with the renewed interest people are taking in the idea.

TWO MATTERS IN PROBATE

In the probate court today, the will of Mrs. Louisa J. Smith, wife of Peter Smith, Janitor of Ritchie's building, was proved. She gives her estate to her husband and to J. Roy Campbell, barrister-at-law, in trust to pay the income to Peter Smith, and after his death to transfer the same to his daughter, Agnes J. Smith, and she nominates J. Roy Campbell and her husband executors. They were sworn in as such. There is no real estate, personally $9,000. Dr. Richard F. Quigley, K.C., is proctor.

The court also took up the matter of the estate of Peter Brough, late of Black River, Parish of Simonds, farmer. He died intestate, leaving one son, Hugh V. Brough, of Black River, and two daughters, Catherine, wife of George T. Whalen, of Mount Pisgah, Kings county, farmer, and Julia E. Brough. On the petition of the son he was appointed administrator. Real estate is valued at $500; personal estate $1,500. Heber S. Smith, is proctor.
