JOHN REVERLEY ROBINSON ON EDWARD BLAKE.

The following extract from a recent political speech by Mr. Robinson, member elect for West Torouto, explains itself:

They would agree with him that all his (Mr. Robinson's) contests in this city had been carried out in a becoming spirit. (Hear, hear.) Mr. Blake, however, when on that platform the other evening, instead of discussing public questions, and endeavoring to refute what had previously been said against the policy of the Government, went out of his way to smeer at him (Mr. Robinson). On that occasion Mr. Blake to speer at him (Mr. Robinson). On that occasion Mr. Blake to speer at him (Mr. Robinson). On that occasion Mr. Blake to speer at him (Mr. Robinson). TWELVE VOTES ON A DIVISION.

If we can do that in Ontario, what can we not do in Quebec, where they have comparatively little hold upon the public mind, and where a recent election shows that these men have been weighed in the balance and found wanting. They came into power upon a false issue, and have been engaged in trampling down those principles which are the sateguard of the people. * * * I believe there never was a time in the history of Canada, when from the Atlantic to the Pacific, thoughtful and intelligent men were asking themselves with more earnestness whether it was not a solemn daty incumbent upon them, regardless of all party ties, to unite and endeavor to raise Canada from the depression in which unhappily we have for the last two years been making considerable progress. I believe that is the feeling of intelligent men, and that what we see in Ontario and Quebec will exhibit itself also in this Province, and that when the THURSDAY, November 25th, 1875.
