Another Undersea Pirate Meets Deserved Fate

NEUTRALS REFUSE TO CARRY GOODS MADE IN GERMANY

LONDON CITIZENS WILL PROVE ADMIRATION FOR MEN OF 18TH BATTALION DEEP-ROOTED; ARRANGING FOR ANOTHER MARCH IN CITY

Citizens Will Not Allow Men To Go Away Feeling That London Is Unappreciative of the Service the Men Are Rendering the City, Canada and the Motherland.

LT.-COL WIGLE AGREES TO ANOTHER MARCH

Bands Are To Be Secured For March and Is Expected Many Business Places Will Be Closed For Time Being —School Children Will Get Holiday To See Soldiers.

The men of the 18th Battalion will not be allowed to go away feeling that the citizens of London are unappreciative of the service the men are rendering, and unwilling to make their appreciation plain if Walter Smith, a fine citizen of London and a British soldier too full of years to take an active part in the fight, but determined that the lot of the men who have volunteered shall not be cheerless, can prevent it.

Mr. Smith, as his letter following makes plain, has exerted himself to the extent of having another route march of the 18th Battalion arranged. He believes that the people of London have a great admiration for the 18th Battalion, and that they desire to show it.

Commander Agrees.

Lieut.-Col. Wigle has agreed with the request of Mr. Smith, and the date will be announced several days in advance so that citizens may have a chance to witness this parade—one that will be historic.

Mr. Smith's fine spirit has been appreciated both by soldiers and citizens. He has a son serving in France at the present time, and he believes that the boys who are soon to be with him should be given the most rousing send-off in the history of London. All the more because many of them are outsiders is there reason for making a hearty demonstration.

Bands To Be Secured.

Bands are to be secured for the march and it is expected that many business places will be closed for the time being. The school children will also be given absence to see the soldiers on the march with full equipment, just as they would move into the trenches in France or Belgium—or Germany.

Mr. Smith's letter, outlining the plan is as follows:

Saw Lieut.-Col. Wigle.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Would you be so kind as to publish the following in your most valuable and patriotic paper? I had an interview with that noble and large-hearted man, Lieut.-Col. Wigle, this afternoon, asking him if it would be possible to hold another route march through the city, and I beg to state "that his heart is right there," (not in Tipperary, but in London). He not only gave me permission to publish the grand news in the papers, but also stated that he would, through the press, give notice a day or two in advance when his gallant men do their route march.

Fine Body of Men.

Mr. Editor, I presume you are not aware of the fact that the gallant colonel "has the finest body of men under the sun." This fact he told me, and I believe him. And I do know that the men have the finest colonel under the sun.

There were thousands of people unaware of last Saturday's march, but this time will be given due notice; and I trust these heroes in khaki will get such an ovation that they will never have cause to reproach the citizens of London for want of loyalty.

School Board In Line.

I might add, I telephoned a member of the school board regarding permission for the school children to view the parade of this magnificent battalion, and this gentleman was quite as enthusiastic as I am, in fact, more so. "You want the kiddies to get off for an hour or so to view the procession?" "Yes, sir; that's the idea." "I am right with you," he said. So now I intend to see our loyal mayor, Major Stevenson. I think I can

GERMAN ATTACKS FAIL COMPLETELY

Petrograd Reports Enemy Attempted To Remedy Weakness of Position.

BATTERING AT OSSOWETZ

Almost All Kaiser's Armies in North Poland Are Retreating.

[Canadian Press.]

Petrograd, March 10.—Via London, 1:55 p.m.—To remedy the strategical weakness of their position at Ossowetz, which was left open to a Russian outflanking movement by the retirement of the right wing of their northern army, toward the Augustowo forest, the Germans have attempted an advance in force along the road from Kolno to Lomza. The Russian general staff reports that the attacks failed completely.

Still Hammering.

Notwithstanding their exposed position at Ossowetz, the Germans continue to concentrate their heaviest attacks at this point. Meanwhile they are conducting desultory operations along the whole front from Augustowo to Brobin, which is twenty miles northeast of Plonsk, in order to distract attention from the Ossowetz battle, and cover the retreat of the forces which encountered a reverse at Przasnysz. This force already has retreated close to the border, in the district between Jablow and Mlawa.

Nearly Full Retreat.

With the exception of the German forces at Simno and Ossowetz, and those advancing south from Drobin, with the evident intent of reaching Wyszogrod, the German armies operating in the north of Poland have executed a general retreat to within a few miles of the Prussian boundary. The occasional evidences of offensive activity by the Germans along that front are viewed by the Russian authorities as defensive manoeuvres designed to allow their forces to retreat in good order, and to prevent an invasion of their own territory by the Russians.

Russian aviators from Ossowetz succeeded in bombarding a German wagon train at Szozuczyn, west of Ossowetz, on the German border.

COUNTESS RECOVERING.

London, March 10.—Countess Laszlo Szechenyi, formerly Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, of New York, is recovering from the smallpox she contracted while nursing wounded in an Austrian hospital, according to a Budapest dispatch to the Post dated March 2.

GERMAN CRUISER IN NEWPORT NEWS

Prinz Eitel Frederick, Auxiliary, Puts In For Supplies and Repairs.

SHE MAY BE INTERNED

There Remain At Large Now Only Three German Warships.

[Canadian Press.]

Newport News, Va., March 10.—The German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich arrived here today, presumably for coal and supplies. She also is said to be in need of repairs, and may intern here. She is reported to have 326 French and Russian prisoners of war aboard.

Very Secretive.

The Prinz Eitel Friedrich arrived off the Virginia Capes last night, but did not enter Hampton Roads until this morning. Much secrecy covered her movements. One report, which is unconfirmed, has it that the big steamer was chased to the mouth of Chesapeake Bay by a British cruiser.

The Prinz Eitel Friedrich has three 8-inch guns and ten 5-inch guns. She carries a crew of 350 men and 13 officers. Where the 326 Russian and French prisoners were taken aboard was not known here. While at sea, the German cruiser has been painted white on one side and black on the other.

Wants Repairs.

Within an hour after the Prinz Eitel had arrived in Hampton Roads a request was made to the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company for information whether the concern could at once begin work on repairs. The shipbuilding company immediately communicated the request to the navy department at Washington and asked whether the United States would have any objection.

Rear-Admiral Beatty, commanding the Norfolk navy yard, after reporting the arrival of the German cruiser, received instructions from Secretary of the Navy Daniels to make an investigation and send him a full report.

AMERICANS ABOARD.

Newport News, March 10.—Captain Kielne, of the American sailing ship William P. Frye, and his wife, are said to be on board the Prinz Eitel Freidrich. The Frye sailed from Seattle November 6 for Queenstown, and has not been reported since she passed Tatoosh, Wash., the following day.

MAY GET TIME ALLOWANCE.

Washington, March 10.—According to the doctrine laid down by the American Government in other cases similar to the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, the collector of customs at Norfolk must give the commander of the German ship 24 hours from the time of his arrival to take coal and provisions.

If the ship needs repairs, however, she has a longer respite. In that case the naval constructor at the port will make an examination and report what would be a reasonable time in which to make the necessary repairs and the German ship would be given 24 hours in addition to that time. Meanwhile the U. S. Government would keep the time of departure a secret, so no unfair advantage might accrue to hostile ships which might gather in wait for the German auxiliary.

The disposition of any prisoners of war the German ship may have aboard will raise another question. It is possible that they may be paroled.

Only Three Left.

With the Prinz Eitel Friedrich definitely located in an American port, there remains at large on the high seas only three ships of war flying the German flag. These are the Kron Prinz Wilhelm, an auxiliary cruiser, last reported off the coast of Brazil; the protected cruiser Dresden, last reported after the battle off the Falkland Islands, in Chilean waters, and the cruiser Karlsruhe, last reported as operating in the West Indies. One report said that the Karlsruhe had been successful in reaching home waters.

GERMANY READY TO TALK PEACE?

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10—2:08 a.m.—The Daily Telegraph's Paris correspondent says he learns that Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, will make a statement in the Reichstag today setting forth the terms on which Germany is willing to make peace.

GERMAN EXPORT TRADE BLOCKED

Neutral Shipowners Will Not Permit Vessels To Carry Goods.

AMERICANS FEEL PINCH

Meeting of Importers Called To Discuss Interference With Trade.

[Canadian Press.]

Copenhagen, March 10.—Messages from seaports say that German minelayers have been actively engaged in laying mines near the Danish coast. It is not reported, however, that the coastal rights of Denmark have been violated.

The Politiken says that the export of German goods via neutral states is now at a complete standstill. Scandinavian shipowners will not take the risk of their vessels being stopped by British and French warships. The Trackett United Shipping Company has forbidden its captains to sail without guarantees that their cargoes are not from Germany.

Proved Charge a Lie.

A sensation has been caused in Norwegian shipping circles by the accusation of a Socialist newspaper, the Norst, against a prominent ship-owner to the effect that he was sending copper to Germany in one of his ships which had left Christiania. So angered was the shipowner that he immediately recalled the vessel by wireless. On its return he had the ship thoroughly searched by Norwegian state detectives, who found an innocent cargo. A libel action is to be the sequel.

IMPORTERS CALL MEETING.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, March 10.—A meeting of the American Importers' Association has been called for today to discuss the interference with trade caused by the blockade measures undertaken by Great Britain and France against Germany and Austria.

Local importers say the situation was brought to a critical stage by a notification from the Holland-American Line that the company will no longer accept for shipment at Rotterdam for New York goods of German or Austrian origin. Since the beginning of the war this line has been bringing a large part of the German imports to this country.

LIQUOR GIVEN AS CAUSE OF KILLING

But Crown Prosecutor Says Drunkenness No Excuse For Hartley.

SOLDIER'S TRIAL BEGINS

Charge Is Murder of Teddy Burgoyne of St. Catharines.

[Canadian Press.]

St. Catharines, March 10.—Charged with murder on October 7 last of his comrade-in-ranks, "Teddy" Burgoyne, 17 years old, son of Mrs. E. W. Burgoyne, a well-known singer, on the canal bank, while they were on guard, Frank Hartley, soldier, was put on trial at the spring assizes this morning before Justice Sutherland and a jury. J. C. Makins, K. C., Stratford, is Crown prosecutor, and A. C. Kingstone, of this city, defends the prisoner.

A jury was sworn in in ten minutes.

In opening his address to the jury, Mr. Makins said it had been contended that Hartley was drunk.

"Can a man fill himself with liquor and then run out with a gun and shoot somebody dead and then ask you to excuse him?" asked the Crown counsel.

The only words Hartley and Burgoyne seems to have had between them were that Hartley said: "I'm an Englishman, and proud of it." And Burgoyne retorted: "Well, I'm a good Canadian, and just as proud of it."

Afterwards, said Mr. Makins, Hartley raised his rifle and shot Burgoyne down. There was a rule against rifles being loaded when men are off duty.

No Right to Load Rifle.

Capt. Allethorne Dyke said Hartley knew how to handle the rifle all right. He pointed out the safety catch, which unless drawn back, prevented the weapon discharging. It is a very simple act to remove the safety catch, just requiring a touch of the finger.

Capt. Dyke said each man was allowed to have cartridges in his barpouch, and never under any circumstances was the rifle to be loaded except when the soldier was on sentry duty, and saw somebody approach who still approached after being challenged twice.

"Had Hartley any business to have a cartridge in his rifle?" asked Makins.

"No, sir," said the captain.

No Underwriting Commission Needed

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—4:15 p.m.—David Lloyd George, the British chancellor of the exchequer, revealed in the House of Commons this afternoon the interesting fact that no underwriting commission whatever had been paid to issue the British war loan of £325,000,000 (approximately $1,625,000,000.)

WAR CAULDRON EQUALIZES ALL

Never Community More Cosmopolitan Than Soldier-Town at Queen's Park.

NOBLE AND OTHERWISE

Scores of Noble Families Rub Shoulders With Less Highly Born—Happy Family.

Surely never was a community more cosmopolitan than "Soldier-town," out at Queen's Park. Here are to be met men from every walk of life and from almost every part of the English-speaking world. And not only do the scions of noble families rub shoulders with others of more plebeian blood on terms of absolute equality, but architects, surveyors, managers of theatrical enterprises and big corporations take orders without any feeling of loss of self-respect from non-commissioned officers, who, in private life, perhaps, have been store clerks, bookkeepers, and so on.

In the Base Company alone are an automobile mechanic, the manager of a theatrical company, the manager of a powder factory, an engineer, an impersonator, an architect, four members of a well-known company of vaudeville entertainers, and, in short, representatives of almost every business, trade and profession known. There are four Australians, a South-African born Englishman, and, of course, dozens of native-born Englishmen and Scotsmen, with a sprinkling of United States citizens.

The "Big Four."

The four Australians, all enlisted in Windsor, and are known as "The Big Four." They include T. S. Raywood, a former manager of the Hercules Powder Company, of Chicago; R. Findlay, a drafting-room expert from a big automobile concern in Toledo, Ohio; Harry Livingston, formerly business manager of the Ganeswitch Theatre, of Salem, Mass., and H. G. Bolton, who, until shortly before he came across to Canada to enlist, was acting as engineering expert to a coal mine in West Virginia.

Bolton is the son of W. K. Bolton, at present serving with the Australian contingent as a brigadier-general, and he has two other brothers with the Australian troops in Europe, the one having the rank of adjutant, the other's rank being unknown to his brother.

Promising Architect.

Then there is Stanley Gardiner, an Englishman, who has travelled over most of this old world, and who until recently was quite well known in Canada as a promising architect. As a young man he left England and went to Nigeria, where for some years he was in control of a gang of native workers in the tin mines. From there

London, March 10.—4:30 p.m. — The Government offering of £50,000,000 ($250,000,000) of exchequer bonds, has been largely over subscribed. As far as is now ascertainable, bidders at £95, 10s, 6d will receive only 19 per cent of the amount for which they applied. Bidders above that figure will receive full allotments.

MORE SUCCESS IN DARDANELLES

Allied Warships Make New Progress After Short Lull In Attack.

SPLENDID FRENCH WORK

British Admiral Compliments Gaulois' Crew—Commander's Narrow Escape.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, March 10.—Operations of the Allies' fleet in the Dardanelles stopped yesterday (Tuesday) morning by unfavorable weather conditions, were resumed vigorously in the afternoon, says an Athens dispatch to the Matin.

The warships are reported to have made additional progress in the Narrows, silencing Turkish batteries on the heights of Renkui, the fire from which had proved troublesome to the fleet.

ADMIRAL NEARLY HIT.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, March 10.—A fragment of a Turkish shell fell Tuesday at the feet of Rear-Admiral Guspratte, commander of the French division operating with the allied fleet in the Dardanelles, as he was directing the operations of the battleship Suffren, which had executed a daring manoeuvre by penetrating the extreme limit of the mine fields, says a Tenedos dispatch to the Petit Parisiene. Several shells are reported to have struck the warship, but the correspondent makes no mention of her having been damaged.

Praise for French Crews.

After yesterday's operations, the Tenedos dispatch says, the crew of the battleship Gaulois was warmly praised by Vice-Admiral Carden, the British commander, for the assistance lent in the reduction of the Dardanus redoubt. Powerful Turkish batteries were silenced by the Gaulois, which was herself struck by two six-inch shells, although the damage done is declared to have been insignificant.

Operations of the French warships have been delayed for a few hours by the necessity of taking aboard coal and ammunition.

ITALY HUNGRY FOR SLICE OF TURKEY

This Is Likely To Compel Aid To Allies, Independent of Others.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Rome says: "It is affirmed in political circles here that Italy's final choice between neutrality and intervention is wholly independent of the attitude not only of Greece, but of Roumania. Among the considerations which render a decision more pressing now than has been the case since the outbreak of the war is the specific axiom, which underlies a policy of the consulta—that Italy cannot maintain a disinterested attitude toward the partition of Asiatic Turkey, which the forcing of the Dardanelles has thrust into the foreground.

"As the break up of the Turkish state is now a foregone conclusion, Italy's status and her vast potentialities render it incumbent upon her Government to establish an indisputable claim to an adequate share in the division of the spoils, and it is recognized that there is but one way of effecting this, viz., by co-operating with the Allies, not merely in the local action, but in the general land and sea operations of the campaign."

GERMAN SUBMARINE RAMMED BY TORPEDO

U-20 Sent To Bottom by Ariel, Crew Being Saved and Held For Trial—Was One of Largest and Fastest.

(Canadian Press.)

London, March 10.—2:35 p.m.—The German submarine U-20 has been sent to the bottom, according to a statement issued today by the British Admiralty.

The submarine, according to the official announcement, was rammed today by the British torpedo boat destroyer Ariel. It went to the bottom. The members of the submersible's crew surrendered and were saved.

CREW HELD FOR TRIAL.

The location of the sinking of the submarine is not disclosed in the admiralty announcement.

The captured crew will be deprived of all special privileges, as was done in the case of the men on board the U-8, and they will be held for trial in connection with the sinking of merchant vessels.

The U-20 is probably the submarine which yesterday sunk the British steamer Blackwood.

The submarine U-20 was built in 1913. She had a displacement of 840 tons, and a speed of 17 knots on the surface and 12 knots submerged. She was equipped with four torpedo tubes, two in the bow and two in the stern.

ONE OF LARGEST.

Comparatively she was one of the larger of the German submarines, the U-8 and the U-9 having a tonnage of only 300, and a submerged speed of not more than 8 knots. The maximum radius of boats of the U-20 type has been given in marine authorities at 2,000 miles.

The loss of the U-20 makes the seventh German submarine to be destroyed since the beginning of the war, according to the statements given out officially in London. These boats are U-15, sunk by the British cruiser Birmingham in August; U-18, rammed and sunk by a British patrol boat November 23, and three unidentified submarines officially declared lost on October 26, October 30 and February 28. The sixth submarine to be destroyed was the U-8, which was sunk off Dover on March 4.

CONSULTING JAP EMPEROR.

WILL FIGHT FOR VOTE OF PEOPLE

Ald. W. A. Wilson To Demand Ratepayers' Expression On L. and P. S.

SPECIAL ELECTION SURE

Determined Effort Being Made To Have One On Board of Control Question.

That the end is not yet in the fight to have the people express themselves on the question of the additional $60,000 asked for by the London and Port Stanley Railway commission, to complete the electrification of the L. and P. S. is apparent. Ald. W. A. Wilson who, at the special meeting of the council on Monday, introduced a motion to have it go to the people will, it is stated, repeat his motion when the council meets in regular session next Monday night.

Around the city today it was freely predicted that such a motion would be introduced, and it is being confidently looked for.

There is a determined effort being made to secure a special election this year in order that the abolition of the board of control can again go before the people, and it is expected to submit this $60,000 bylaw at the same time.

In addition to these two questions there are some industrial bylaws that Industrial Commissioner Gordon Philip will bring forward.

With this to work on those who favor the vote of the people on the $60,000 request, claim that the expense of such an expression of opinion would be lightened by the number of questions to be voted on.

"WHISKEY ROW" IS STABBED TO HEART

Orders of Military Officials Placing Hotels There "Out of Bounds" Keenly Felt.

PROPRIETORS DON'T SMILE

No More Are Drunken Soldiers Seen in Barroom of These King Street Hostelries.

"Whiskey Row," save for a few stragglers, one or two old-timers, a couple of military policemen and a patroiman, was practically deserted last night as the result of orders issued yesterday by the military authorities, putting all hotels between Richmond and Talbot streets out of bound for the men of the 7th C. M. R.

While the district out of bounds, figuratively speaking, was dead, the other bars did a land-office business. Extra help was taken on in some bars, and in more than one the proprietor doffed his coat and hat and himself helped to dispense John Barleycorn.

But "Whiskey Row" saw one of the dullest nights it has experienced in many a week. The bartenders, for the first time in weeks, were able to "swap" stories with a customer while he "downed" a schooner or one of the other drinks they serve there.

Not Smiling Now.

Prior to the orders issued by the military authorities, hotelmen on the row and their employees were all wreathed in smiles. Drunken men reeled about the bars. The night air was often broken by snatches of songs or curses that floated out on to the street. Drunken men paraded up and down the street. Many ended up at police headquarters. Some are now doing 21 days in the county jail.

It was all changed last night. The proprietors were bemoaning their luck. Bartenders said that one or two unscrupulous hotelmen were responsible for the action taken by the military authorities. The cash registers were strangely silent. For once in years "Whiskey Row" was different.

The old frequenters, who tell you a hard-luck story and then beg you for the price of a "tall one," were gone last night. They, like the crowd, were plying their game where the money was being spent.

True, there was drinking on "Whiskey Row," but compared with other nights it amounted to nothing.

Discharged, Robbed Now "Down and Out"

Pte. Ellison, Soldier Recently Sandbagged Here, Is in Dire Straits in Detroit—Was To Have Gone to England as Aviator, But Wine, Women——

Detroit, Mich., March 10.—A. Ellison, aviator, who declares he has been offered a commission with the British army birdmen, and had been slated to a post as lieutenant in the aerial corps, is stranded in Detroit. More than that, he bears evidence of being assaulted, and his pockets are empty. What hurts Ellison's feelings most is to think that it is some of his fellow-subjects who battered his face and took his money.

Ellison says he went to London, Ont., Monday, to bid good-bye to some friends. Had he not done this he would now have his money, and might be on the way to Liverpool to accept his commission. Four years ago, according to Ellison's story, he participated in an aerial fete before King George. He remained in the air for 11 hours, and on descending was presented to his majesty.

Flew Four Successive Years.

"I flew machines in England four successive years, and made ascensions in many cities of the United States," said he. "I had been promised $15 a day for flying in the British Corps. I met some women in London, Ont., got over on the east side, and the first thing I knew I didn't know anything. I am in communication with Ottawa, and expect to get word from authorities there any moment."

Ellison's nose bears a deep gash, one eye is badly discolored, and his cheek is cut. His pockets are empty. Christian Leidich, steamship agent, is helping him, and put him in touch with Windsor authorities. One of them promised to look after Britain's embryo warrior until such time as he gets word from military headquarters.

Ellison is the man who was granted his discharge here some days ago, and who was lured into Belton's lumber yard by a woman, when two men sandbagged him and took away the money that was to have taken him to England, where he was to join the British aerial corps.

He appeared in police court here, and on being discharged, military officials held a court-martial, when Ellison's papers, discharge and all, were taken from him, and he was practically disgraced.

GERMAN EXCUSE PROVED TO BE FALSE

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—Replying to a question in the House of Commons today, as to whether there was any validity in Germany's excuse that the submarine which tried to torpedo the British hospital ship Asturias, on February 1, was unable to discern the distinctive marks on that vessel because of darkness, Dr. Thomas J. MacNamara, parliamentary secretary to the admiralty, said:

"The master of the Asturias reports that it was 5:15 p.m. on a clear day, and light, leaving no possibility as to the identity of the ship being mistaken."

Saw Torpedo.

Dr. MacNamara added that several officers and a number of other persons aboard the Asturias saw a torpedo and observed the submarine following the vessel.

"As the submarine was thus plainly seen, it is difficult to believe that the identity of the hospital ship was not equally plain," he said.

ENEMY'S SUBMARINES SINK THREE MORE BRITISH SHIPS

Sent To Bottom Without Warning, and Thirty-seven Are Drowned—Raiders' Activity Extends Around England.

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, March 10.—12:25 a.m.—During the early hours of Tuesday morning German submarines made their presence known at three widely separated points on the British coast, and, it is stated officially, without giving warning to their crews, sank three British merchant ships.

In one case, that of the steamer Tangistan, which was torpedoed off Scarborough, in the North Sea, 37 men of her crew of 38 are missing. Only one man from the vessel was picked up, he by a passing ship. The attack which sent the Tangistan to the bottom was made half an hour after midnight.

At 6 o'clock in the morning another submarine sank the steamer Blackwood off Hastings, in the English Channel, while a third submarine sank the steamer Princess Victoria, off Liverpool, at a quarter past nine o'clock.

The news of the latest exploits of the German submarines came just as the British public was congratulating themselves that the threatened German sea blockade had been a failure.

Official Statement.

An official announcement was issued, as follows:

"The steamer Tangistan was sunk by a German submarine off Scarborough at 12:30 o'clock, the morning of March 9. Only one man of her crew of 38 men was saved.

"The steamer Blackwood was sunk by a submarine, without warning, off Hastings at 6 o'clock the morning of March 9. Her crew of 17 was saved.

"The steamer Princess Victoria, of Glasgow, was sunk without warning by a German submarine at 9:15 o'clock the morning of March 9, off Liverpool. Her crew of 37 was saved."

TANGISTAN GOES DOWN IMMEDIATELY.

WEST HARTLEPOOL (via London), March 10.—The crew of 38 men of the British steamer Tangistan all were drowned, except one man, according to the statement made by the sole survivor of the vessel, who has been landed here by the steamer Woodville.

"The Tangistan," said this man, "was torpedoed off Scarborough. She was struck amidships and went down almost immediately. All the members of the crew were in the lifeboats, but they were unable to disconnect the lowering tackle before the ship sank and dragged down the boats with her. I caught hold of a piece of wreckage and clung to it for nearly three hours in the icy water until I was rescued."

The survivor of the Tangistan is James O'Toole, an Englishman. Sixteen men of the crew were English and the remainder Arabs. The boats had already been swung out in view of a possible submarine attack and most of the men on board wore life belts, when the vessel was torpedoed.

O'Toole said later that four other men caught pieces of wreckage and remained afloat for some time.

OBSERVED TWO SUBMARINES.

NEW HAVEN, Eng. (via London), March 10.—1:30 a.m.—The captain and crew of the steamer Blackwood, which was sunk off Hastings at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, were landed here Tuesday night. They say that their vessel, laden with coal and bound from Blyth for Havre, was torpedoed during a snowstorm early in the morning, 80 miles south of Dungeness, without warning.

Fortunately, in view of the submarine sea zone menace, the men say they had their boats swung out and ready for launching, and that, therefore, all of them were saved. Nobody on board the steamer was injured. The vessel sank within ten minutes after she was struck.

According to the men, a submarine was observed just awash of the Blackwood, but her number could not be seen. One of the officers says he saw the periscope of another submarine close by the steamer.

SPEED SAVED CLAN MACRAE

LIVERPOOL, via London, March 10.—7:15 a.m.—The Clan Line steamship, Clan MacRae, was chased by a German submarine boat off the Mersey Bar, in the Irish Sea, yesterday (Tuesday) morning for 25 minutes.

The steamer escaped by zig-zagging at full speed.

The Clan MacRae left Port Natal, January 21, for Liverpool.

SPRING HAS COME IN EASTERN QUEBEC

QUEBEC, March 9.—Cows were in a number of fields yesterday, along the Grand Trunk line, throughout the eastern townships, according to travelers who went over that section of the province yesterday. At two different points near Richmond, Que., cows were out in the meadows. In most of the eastern townships, summer vehicles are in use. The snow has melted from a good section of the highway.

JUST SHOT TO SCARE IS SLAYER'S EXCUSE

Criminal Case Follows Hallowe'en—Hunting Fatality Trial.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OWEN SOUND, March 9. — The spring assizes opened this afternoon, Justice Lennox presiding. There are four criminal cases in the docket, which is an unusual thing for a Grey County court.

The most important is that of Rex vs. Harry Knowles, and the indictment will be either manslaughter or murder. The case arose out of the shooting by Knowles last Hallowe'en of Joseph Ferry, a young man of St. Vincent, while he, with a number of others, was playing tricks around Knowles' house.

While admitting the shooting, Knowles claims it was only done to frighten the boys, and he had no intention of doing bodily injury to any of them.

A Hunting Tragedy.

Joseph Hamlet is also accused of manslaughter, arising out of a shooting affair near Durham last fall, when Hamlet shot and killed Edgar Lawrence, of Durham, while hunting on Thanksgiving Day.

DENIES FREIGHTERS GO TO WEST INDIES

[Canadian Press.]

MONTREAL, March 9.—Col. Cantley, vice-president and general manager of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, denies the statement wired from Toronto yesterday that 26 upper lake steamers had been chartered by the company for service between this country and the West Indies and South America. He stated today that five boats had been chartered for carrying coal from the coast to inland ports, but that no vessel had been secured for West Indies or South American service.

It was stated in Montreal today that about fifteen of the Canada Steamship Line's fleet of freighters had been chartered for ocean and gulf service. The Dominion Steel Company will use some of these vessels in carrying steel products to England and some of the boats will be used by the Nova Scotia Company to transport coal to inland centres.

GERMANY APOLOGIZES TO U. S. AMBASSADOR

Promises Interruption of Mail Will Not Occur Again.

[Canadian Press.]

THE HAGUE (via London), March 9. —10:15 p.m.—The German Foreign Office has sent, through James W. Gerard, the American ambassador in Germany, an expression of regret and an explanation to Henry Van Dyke, the American minister to Holland and Luxemburg, regarding the interruption of Dr. Van Dyke's correspondence with Luxemburg.

The trouble is attributed in the explanation to a misunderstanding on the part of the military commandant at Treves, and it is stated that orders have been issued to prevent such an incident occurring again.

LET NEW TAX AID CAUSE OF ALLIES

Rowell Suggests Government Devote Funds to Cause of War.

NOT FOR EXTRAVAGANCE

Expenses in Ten Years Have Increased by 186 Per Cent.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, March 9.—Warm passages between the Liberal leader and the Prime Minister characterized the closing speeches of the budget debate in the Legislature today, and for the first time in many years the budget was passed and the House went into committee of supply without an Opposition amendment. While Mr. Rowell maintained to the letter the party "truce," he did not find himself bound to refrain from a criticism of the policy of "wanton extravagance" that has brought the province to the era of direct taxation. It was futile to claim that the war was responsible for the present situation.

Direct Taxation.

"It is direct taxation," he said, "rendered necessary by the manner in which the finances of this province have been handled by the Government. direct taxation rendered necessary by the wasteful expenditure of large sums of public money, in respect of which the province is facing this situation today."

The Prime Minister went to some length to prove that the falling off in revenue was directly attributable to the war, and instanced the case of the failure in crown lands revenue and the refusal of the life insurance directors to pay the new tax. He had little sympathy with the directors of these companies, and met the claim that they should not be called disloyal by showing that they reached their decision to fight the tax weeks after the war broke out.

Mr. Rowell's Suggestion.

At the outset of his speech, Mr. Rowell said that so far as the Opposition was concerned, it would give its cordial support to the Government in making whatever contributions to the allied cause necessity might dictate. "I venture now to make this suggestion," said Mr. Rowell, "that as the (Provincial Treasurer) has told us, the entire proceeds of this tax will be devoted to war purposes, I believe the people of Ontario would like in some effective way to make a direct and immediate contribution which would tell in the final result, and I would submit to the Government for consideration whether they could not, through the proper channels, consult the imperial authorities as to the manner in which the balance of the money raised under this act could be most effectually employed towards the Allies, and bring this war to a successful termination. We might do it by providing a base hospital somewhere near the fighting line, or by making some direct contribution to the active progress of the war (Applause), and I would further venture to suggest that whatever the imperial authorities should suggest as most desirable and most effective in accomplishing the purpose we have in view, the Government would be actually in accordance with the will of the people of the province in whatever steps they might take to carry it out."

How Expenditures Grow.

Analyzing the financial statement, Mr. Rowell showed that the actual income for the year, apart from borrowings and cash balances was $10,747,768, while expenditures were $20,076,461, practically two for one. The income in 1904 was $6,123,358; in 1914, $10,747,788, an increase of 75 per cent. The expenditure for the same period was: 1904, $5,267,453; 1914, excluding hydro-electric and T. and N. O. which were interest-bearing, $14,942,239, an increase of 186 per cent. In 1904 there was a surplus of $860,905; in 1914, the deficit on current account over ordinary income, was $4,204,471. The public debt had correspondingly gone up from $11,709,551 to $40,405,000.

Further, the Liberal leader showed that the claim of the treasurer that the revenue had fallen off, was not borne out by the facts. Last year the revenue was estimated at $9,793,378, while the actual revenue was $10,576,891, an increase over the estimate of $783,513. He criticised the expenditure on Government House and the Guelph Prison as being wanton, and declared the cost of civil government had gone up out of all proportion to the requirements of the service.

Premier Makes Defence.

Concluding the debate, Mr. Hearst defended the financial policy of the Government and said that no apology would be offered for the expenditure. He reviewed the progress of the province since the Whitney Government had come into power, pointed to the advance in prison reform, the betterment of the condition of the mentally deficient, the blind and deaf. He instanced the improvement in education and in agriculture. He delved into history to show that the old Government liquidated the assets of the province by selling timber limits to make up a deficit, and in closing, spoke of the effect of the war in bringing the outlying parts of the empire closer together, and expressed confidence in the future progress and prosperity of Ontario."

The House then went into committee of supply and voted considerable of the supplementary estimates.

CANADIANS SAFELY LAND IN ENGLAND

New Contingent Well Pleased With Accommodation At Salisbury Plain.

GET HEARTY RECEPTION

March Into Camp In Dark Early Morning, Find Hot Meal.

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, March 10.—1:07 a.m.—It is officially announced that the second contingent of Canadian troops landed in England yesterday.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

LONDON, March 9.—Visiting the camp today I found the new contingent of Canadians, which has just arrived busy settling into their new quarters. Officers and men alike were delighted with the accommodation, which far exceeds their anticipations. They had heard of Salisbury Plain, and some of the discomforts attending encamping there, and were prepared to rough it, if necessary, but found that the Salisbury Plain accommodation leaves nothing to be desired.

The English fashionable watering place on the south coast camp has a magnificent situation overlooking the English Channel, and special instructions had been issued by the war office that everything should be done to render the quarters as comfortable as possible for the new contingent.

The work of the garrison staff in this direction was much appreciated by the Canadian officers and men.

On all hands I heard satisfaction expressed with the arrangements that had been made. Troops are lodged in a camp consisting of permanent brick buildings, with all the conveniences that contribute to the happy barrack life of the English soldier. Expansive parade grounds afford ample scope for military work, and means for recreation are not lacking.

Create Favorable Impression.

The new body is, of course, only a small part of that which is training in Canada, but they have already created favorable impression by their smart appearance and keenness for work. Although they have only been two days in camp, they already are seriously engaged in military duties.

The contingent is made up of several batteries, artillery and battalions of the second Canadian expeditionary forces. They were conveyed in three transports. The crossing, I was informed, was delightful, particularly at this time of the year. The sea was smooth, and drill and sports were organized on the different boats.

Boats Sailed Together.

The boats kept together until Queenstown was reached. There they separated. Disembarkation was expeditiously carried out and this portion of the contingent reached England late Saturday. Special trains were awaiting them. It was not until the early hours of Monday that they arrived at their destination. They met a very hearty reception from the garrison staff. They marched in darkness to camp and on their arrival there they were delighted to find a hot meal provided, while fires were burning in the barrack rooms. Needless to say this hospitable reception was much appreciated as were also the comfortable camp beds provided for the troops.

The men created a very favorable impression by their smartness and general demeanor. They are in close proximity to a number of regiments of Kitchener's army. The men appreciate the excellence of the military environment, and are naturally keen to prove themselves fit for the front. They certainly are more favorably placed than were their colleagues of the first contingent, who experienced some of the worst English weather on Salisbury Plain. Nobody appreciates this fact more than they.

ANNOUNCED AT OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, March 9.—The four thousand Canadian soldiers who left Halifax a short time ago have reached England safely.

This announcement was made to Parliament today by Sir Robert Borden. He added that the Canadians had landed in good condition, and that they are now stationed at various points in England.

Further information was given by the Minister of Customs upon the Canadian potatoes recently condemned in Boston as affected by powdry scab which resulted in the restoration of the embargo against Canadian potatoes. He said that when the Canadian expert reached Boston he found that the consignment of potatoes had immediately after condemnation been purchased by another dealer and shipped to Cuba. The shipment had been inspected by two American inspectorse at Boston and samples forwarded to Washington where the plant pathologists confirmed the report that the potatoes were diseased. Canada was now endeavoring to secure samples from Cuba.

Canadians at Front.

Official lists of the Canadian soldiers at the front were asked for by Mr. A. A. MacLean, who was told by the Minister of Militia that it was being printed at the Government bureau and would be distributed as soon as printed.

The debate upon the budget was resumed by Mr. George Bradbury, who held that it would be unpatriotic to reduce expenditure on public works at this time; that there should be as much public money spent as possible to give employment; that the Liberals should be condemned for not having reformed the senate; that Britain had prospered not because of free trade but in spite of it; that in spite of the change in the British preference the British manufacturer was as well off as previously; that the Cockshutt company had only increased the price of its plows to Eastern Canada; that the distribution of seed grain had been a great boon to Western farmers.

ROBBING WOMEN OF THEIR HEALTH

Anaemia, Unless Checked, Passes Into Hopeless Decline.

Anaemia is like a spectre that steals on you unawares and drives all happiness out of existence. It is a thief that robs you of your life and energy. Thousands of women in this country are the victims of anaemia (that is, bloodlessness), which spares neither rich nor poor, young or old. It robs woman of her health, her vitality, her beauty—of everything that gives a woman her charm. The chief symptoms of this trouble include a distaste for food, prostrating headaches, extreme langour, loss of weight, nervousness, pale cheeks, lips and gums, heart palpitations, dizziness and a constant feeling of wretchedness.

The only way to effect a cure is to increase the blood supply—to make it pure, rich and red. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have saved thousands of young girls and women from the early fate that threatened them through anaemia's ravages, for these pills enrich the blood, stimulate the circulation, nourish the nerves, and restore the energy and perfect health that make women attractive. If you are a victim of bloodlessness in any way, do not let it run into a hopeless decline, but begin the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. The following bit of evidence proves the worth of this medicine. Mrs. Maurice Sims, Liverpool, N. S., says: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been a blessing to me. About two years ago I was so badly run down that I had to give up all work and go to bed. My husband and parents were much worried about me as they thought I was going into consumption. The doctor who was attending me changed his medicine several times, but it did me no good and I began to feel very much discouraged myself. One day a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to do so. In a few weeks I felt much better and I continued taking the pills for a couple of months until I was again in perfect health. I believe that if I had not taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I would not have survived, and I shall always be very grateful for what they have done for me."

You can get these pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CASCARETS KEEP BOWELS REGULAR AND CURE COLDS

No headache, sour stomach, bad cold or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Colds—whether in the head or any part of the body—are quickly overcome by urging the liver to action and keeping the bowels free of poison. Take Cascarets tonight and you will wake up with a clear head, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your cold. Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember, the quickest way to get rid of colds is one or two Cascarets at night to cleanse the system. Get a 10-cent box at any drug store. Don't forget the children. They relish this Candy Cathartic, and it is often all that is needed to drive a cold from their little systems.

CENSORSHIP AGAIN CRITICIZED BY PRESS

British Papers Think Canadian Comment Should Have Been Passed.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—The evening Star (Liberal), commenting on the debate in the House of Commons Monday on the action of the censor, Sir Stanley Buckmaster, in suppressing comment on the promotion of Colonel Seely, M. P., to be brigadier-general, and his appointment to command the Canadian troops, says: "We have no sympathy with the critics of that appointment, but it is a strong order to suppress entirely the utterances of Canadians on the subject."

The Globe thinks that the principle involved in the action of the censor is dangerous in the extreme. "So far as the bureau can prevent," the Globe adds, "the British public is not to be allowed to hear evidence on so vital a fact as the manner in which the people of the Great Dominion regard the qualifications for office of a politician to whom has been intrusted the command of troops sent us. If Buckmaster's plea of military necessity is to be accepted, Haldane might be substituted for Kitchener and the press forbidden to comment adversely."

BAD BLAZE AT HAMILTON

HAMILTON, March 9.—Fire tonight did damage to the extent of $10,000 to the building occupied by W. L. Brock & Company, the Laurel Manufacturing Company and the Boy Scouts. The firemen had considerable difficulty in handling the blaze. Much damage was done to stock and fixtures by water.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP—25 CENT DANDERINE

Girls! Girls! Save your hair! Make it grow luxuriant and beautiful.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

WILL CONSIDER BETTER LIGHTS

Committee Deals With Illumination Question at Meeting Tonight.

COST SIX CENTS A FOOT

Estimate Secured On Ornamental Lighting System For Residential Streets.

Property-owners who desire to improve the appearance of their street by having ornamental lights installed will only have to pay about 6 cents per frontage foot per year for this improvement. In other words, the owner of a 40-foot lot will pay about $2.50 or less per year for 20 years in order to secure better street illumination and to beautify his property by the installation of ornamental lighting standards, replacing the present lamp-stuck-out-from-a-pole system.

This six-cent charge, of course, will only apply to the residential streets, as the cluster lights in the down-town area will run about 30 cents a foot per year charge to the property-owners.

City Pays Maintenance.

As in the case of the down-town lights the residential ornamental system will have its lamp renewals and maintenance charged up against the city as a whole, the ratepayers only bearing the expense of the debenture and sinking fund charges to cover the installation cost.

The fire, water and light committee meets tonight, and among other questions to be considered will be this one of ornamental lighting for residential districts. General Manager H. J. Glaubitz and Electrical Engineer E. V. Buchanan, of the public utilities commission, will be present, and will prepare estimates and plans for the aldermen.

How Estimates Work Out.

It is expected that their estimates of cost will be similar to those worked out for The Advertiser, and on which the 6-cent figure is based. The Advertiser estimate was secured on a computation basis of 30 cents a foot for armored cable and $60 per standard. This $60, it was said, would cover the cost of wiring, fixtures and standard itself. As one standard will be placed every 125 or 150 feet, and as it is proposed to pay for them on 20-year debentures it will be seen how the 6-cent charge was arrived at.

General Improvement.

In addition to the question of ornamental lighting in residential areas it is expected that the committee will consider plans for the better illumination of the city as a whole. Some of these plans, which include larger lights for street intersections and extra warning lamps with red globes over all fire-alarm boxes, have already been referred to in these columns.

Other improvements that will undoubtedly be considered will be the extension of the light-on-every-pole idea that was carried out on Queen's avenue and also the lighting of both sides of the street both with a light on every other pole or so, and with a light on every pole, as is carried out in Toro-- answer for his worship. He's all right.

LONDON CITIZENS

Mayor Promises Help.

I have his promise to help us right through. What we want now is the help of the 7th and Hussar Bands. Major Spittal will, I am sure, give permission for the 7th Band to play, and Col. Abbott, no doubt, will do the same by the Hussar Band to play. I will see these two gentlemen personally. I was speaking to a bandsman the other day, and he told me there would be no difficulty securing the services of the bands. One storekeeper has promised me that he will close his store while the soldiers are passing, so as to allow his employees to view the march, and I am sure the other stores on the route will close also.

Bring Out Your Flags.

Bring out your old flags, we don't mind how old they are. "The Flag" that has braved a thousand years the battle and the breeze. Mr. Editor, bear with me a little longer (where do you think my heart is, while I am writing this?) You state "these men in khaki stand between us and the loss of everything in national and home life that we hold dear. They stand between us and the dread spectre of the foreign invader at our very doors.

Don't Realize.

Do we realize this? The majority of us do not. Why should we be down-hearted? Are we down-hearted? "No," a thousand times "No." Then give these heroes a cheer, even if the tears drop from your eyes while doing so. By giving these heroes a cheer we shall have but done our duty, as they are doing theirs. God bless you, Tommy Atkins. Many thanks for your patience, Mr. Editor, I arm, yours very truly,

ANOTHER "SHORTAGE" OF GRAHAM REGIME

$14,500 Overdraft in Streets General Account of Engineering Department.

Still another of the "shortages" left by the late municipal regime as a legacy to the incoming council was brought to light at the meeting of the board of works on Tuesday evening. These shortages have become so numerous that they hardly excite comment, but in this particular instance it meant a deficit of $14,000 in the streets general account of the engineer's department.

Last year the estimates for the year were placed at $21,000 in round figures. The late head of citiy affairs in London sliced $7,000 off this, in order to keep the rate down. The rate was kept down all right, but $28,000 was expended in this department, leaving the account with a debit balance of $14,000 to start the current year.

The estimates this year call for $21,000, and it is hardly to be expected that they will be appreciably sliced.

GRANDDAUGHTER AND GRANDFATHER BURIED

Double Interment of Mark Ashman and Sylvia Today.

The double interment of Mark Ashman, aged 88, and his granddaughter, Sylvia Ashman, aged 13, was made in Webster's Cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Both funerals, that of the grandfather from his late residence, lot 5, concession 1, Nissouri Township, and that of the granddaughter from the residence of her mother, 934 Colborne street, this city, met at the cemetery at 3:30 and interment was made at the same time. The little girl died Friday evening of pneumonia, and the second bereavement in her family occurred the following morning when her grandfather died.

Girl Ill One Day.

Funeral services of the girl, who had only been ill one day, were conducted at the residence at 2:15 by the Rev. S. A. Anderson, pastor of the Memorial Methodist Church. The floral tributes were many.

The pallbearers, who oficiated at the grave and the house were Arthur Milligan, J. J. McWilliams, Gordon Kibler, Chester Forman, Ruben Wilson and George Haslam.

For the grandfather Rev. Mr. Dunbar, rector of the Thorndale Anglican Church, conducted services at the house at 2:30. The pallbearers were, William S. Ashman, T. H. Ashman, Charles Legg, Robert Ashman, Stanley Legg and Roy Ashman.

Both funerals were very largely attended.

COLORED PEOPLE FORM ASSOCIATION

Idea Is to Better Their General Conditions in This City.

Colored men and women of the city, of whom there are about 350, were represented at a meeting last night in the home of Mr. Hodge Duncan, 461 Phillip street, where an association was formed, known as Progressive Afro-Canadian Association.

The idea of the association is to better the conditions of colored people in this city, religiously, financially, morally and in a political manner. Members of the association believe that neither Liberal nor Conservative parties are helping the colored people as they should.

The members must not allow card-playing, dancing and gambling in public, and only innocent games are to be indulged in. The education of children and their moral and physical development will be a part of the progressive work of the association, according to its officers.

The officers of the association are: President, C. H. Brown; vice-president, J. M. Mallott; chaplain, Prof. T. Wallace; secretary, E. Johnson; sergeant-at-arms, Hodge Duncan; treasurer, J. W. Duncan; pianist, Katherine Duncan.

Meetings will be held every week, and the club rooms will be taken shortly for a permanent meeting place.

SMALLPOX DECREASING

Less Than Score of Cases in City Reports Health Department.

Smallpox in thec ity is fast decreasing, according to the statements given out by the doctors of the health department. According to Dr. W. S. Downham, assistant M. O. H., there are now only eighteen cases in London. It is only a comparatively short time ago when the number was around 33 and 35.

"We've got it on the run now, I thing," said Dr. Downham today.

BLUE CROSS MEETING

On Monday Next Will Finish Work on Saddle Pads.

The Blue Cross Society will meet in Hyman Hall on Monday, March 15, at 3 p.m. for the purpose of finishing the saddle pads which are to be shipped at once to the secretary in England. All those who have not already returned their pads are requested to bring them to Hyman Hall on the above-mentioned date. So far there have been 125 pads returned.

WAR CAULDRON

he drifted to various countries, and eventually came to America, practicing as an architect in the United States, and afterwards coming to Canada.

A. H. Hodgson, although of English parentage, was born in South Africa, at Viljeon's Drift, Orange River Colony. He also has been a globe-trotter, and has visited India, Australia, China and Japan as a marine engineer in the employ of the Peninsular and Oriental and Union Castle Lines of steamships. At the time of his enlistment with the Canadian forces he was a fireman on the C. P. R. He was taken on as an engineer, but work became slack and he had to be content for a time with firing.

Famous Bell Ringers.

Four members of the famous Imperial English Bell Ringers who visited London last spring in the course of a tour of America, are with the battalion. They are H. W. Cash and his brother, W. A. Cash, W. Tope and J. Harper.

A surveyor who has worked for the Cuban Government in Cuba, and for the Government of the United States in connection with the construction of the Panama Canal, is another interesting unit of the battalion. He is John Price, who joined at Windsor at the same time as the Big Four.

G. T. Runciman, in charge of the bugle section, was at one time—for some 18 months, to be precise—on the English and Scottish vaudeville stage as an impersonator, and more lately an automobile mechanic in Detroit. He is of Scottish extraction, and has been in America about six years. He learned the automobile business in Detroit because he felt that he should have a definite "trade" at his fingers' ends in case of need.

Runciman has a brother and a cousin, the former of the engineers and the latter with one of the British infantry regiments, now prisoners of war in Germany. He has not heard from either of them direct since their capture, but learned of the fact through friends in Scotland.

CHECK FOR $750 FOR PORTABLE KITCHEN

Lieut.-Col. Wigle Gets Quick Response From Leamington Man.

In connection with the movement to raise funds for the purchase of portable soup kitchens for the 18th Battalion, Lieut.-Col. Wigle wrote a letter on Monday to William T. Gregory, of Leamington, apprising him of the movement, and informing him that each kitchen would cost $1,500. The letter reached Mr. Gregory yesterday afternoon, and this morning early Col. Wigle received a telegram from him, stating that he was forwarding a check for $750.

Leamington has been particularly generous in its gifts to the soldiers and the provision it has made for their dependents. Although a town of only 2,500 population, it has raised $20,000 for a patriotic fund and has contributed 1,500 pairs of socks and 1,200 bandages for the soldiers. This is not the first time, either, that Mr. Gregory has come forward as a practical friend of the men in khaki. At Christmas time he sent 1,200 pouches of tobacco to be distributed among the members of the battalion.

YOUNG LADY TELLS HOW TO SPEAK IN PUBLIC

Miss Georgia Newbury Addresses Young Men of Debating Club.

A most enjoyable evening was spent by the Young Men's Debating Club in their rooms at the Y. M. C. A. Building last night, when Miss Georgia Newbury, the popular elocutionist, addressed an appreciative gathering of members and visitors upon the subject of "How to Speak in Public."

Miss Newbury, in the course of her address, handled with practiced case the many points that come under this wide heading, and in view of the occasion dealt in particular with "Principles of Debate."

As is usual, Miss Newbury sustained her reputation as one of London's foremost elocutionists, and at the close of her address answered a number of interesting questions bearing upon the subject.

E. R. Wilson, on behalf of the club, expressed general appreciation and tendered thanks to Miss Newbury for her excellent address.

At the close of the meeting, several new members were enrolled.

A unique program is promised for next Tuesday night, at which meeting visitors will again be admitted.

18TH TRANSPORTS PARADED TODAY

The transports of the 18th Battalion, in command of Lieut. Hodgins, were paraded today and everywhere expressions of admiration were heard for the magnificent horses that have been secured for the corps. Practically every team is perfectly matched and every animal is in the pink of condition. Lieut. Hodgins was warmly congratulated upon the excellent shape in which he has the corps.

HEALTH BOARD TO GUARD CITY MILK

Will Enforce Regulations To Safeguard Local Supply.

CO-OPERATION SUGGESTED

All Public Health Officials May Be Brought Under Single Board.

Stringent enforcement of the city regulations to safeguard the milk supply of London was decided on by the board of health at its meeting yesterday. An effort will be made to have all farmers and wholesalers, supplying milk to London, licensed under the supervision of the board.

Ald. J. A. Tancock, who is acting veterinary inspector of the board during the absence of Captain C. S. Tamlin, V. S., now buying horses for the Canadian remount department, reported on his findings. He instanced several cases where he had banned further supply and others where he had given the owners notice to clean up within a week.

Free Vaccination Popular.

Free vaccination in the public schools was popular according to Chairman C. R. Somerville, who reported that the doctors had vaccinated some 2,000.

Another new question that was brought up was a suggestion to have all the public health work in the city under the direction of the board of health. At present there are several organizations working in this field, including the visiting nurse of the Byron Sanatorium, the school nurses and others. This concentration of outside assistance will be dealt with later.

Estimates $7,500.

Estimates for the year were submitted. They totalled $7,500. Last year the total was $5,350. However, $7,050 was expended last year. The $7,500 does not include the $3,000 salary it is proposed to pay the new M. H. O.

WOMAN'S AUXLIARY OFFICERS NAMED

Mrs. (Rev.) Sage Is Again President—All in by Acclamation Vote.

NAME DIOCESAN OFFICERS

Mrs. Williams, Bishopstowe, Honorary President—Meetings Are Continuing.

Mrs. (Rev.) Sage, president, and other officers of the Huron Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary, were by acclamation re-elected this morning at the continued sessions of that organization now convening in Cronyn Hall. The motion was voiced by Mrs. Arthur Shore, of Port Burwell, seconded by several delegates, and passed by a standing vote. Mrs. Callard, convenor of the nominating committee, stated that this had also been the desire of her committee, that the present officers be re-elected, as they had done such splendid work in the past. The other diocesan officers are: Honorary president, Mrs. Williams, Bishopstowe; honorary vice-president, Mrs. H. A. Boomer; first vice-president, Mrs. De la Hooke; second vice-president, Mrs. Richardson; treasurer, Mrs. Alice Smith; recording secretary, Miss Beatrice Taylor; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bartlett; dorcas secretary, Miss Gower; junior secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Bowen; literary secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. Moore; Zenana secretary-treasurer, Miss Battersby, Port Dover; secretary extra-cent-a-day fund, Mrs. C. B. Edwards; editor Leaflet, Mrs. H. B. Gahan; superintendent babies' branches, Miss H. Priddis; secretary Indian affairs, Mrs. (Rev.) Robinson, Strathroy; education, Mrs. Waller; work among non-Christian foreigners, Miss Kate Elliott; nominating committee, Mrs. Callard.

It was announced at this morning's session that a young woman from St. George's Parish, West London, had offered herself for the mission field, and will shortly enter upon two years' training.

The president's address was a feature of the morning session. Mrs. Sage welcomed the convention visitors, stating that it was little thought when they last met annually that a few short months would see seven of the civilized nations of the world engaged in terrific conflict. The people of the British Empire should be glad that Great Britain was standing for honor and liberty, and as the late Field Marshal Lord Roberts stated, the men at the front were standing for the defence of principle, sacrificing themselves for a future in which they might take no part. One result of the conflict was to bring the various lands of the British Empire into closer communion. In India, the missionaries stated that never before were Hindus, Moslems and others, so drawn together, and the hope was for a harvest for Christ.

One Blessing of War.

One blessing the war had brought was that men and women of the church were leaning more and more on a divine power for strength. There was special realization of the need of a heavenly uplift and guidance in trying hours. From the soldiers, too, came messages asking those at home to pray for them, and thus religion was becoming a very real thing to many.

It had been feared by many that the war would interfere with the work of the Woman's Auxiliary. The triennial meeting, which was to have been held in Vancouver in October, was cancelled, and the general executive empowered to transact all business, a meeting for which had been held in Montreal. On the whole, however, it was a matter for satisfaction that the work had not suffered. The president emphasized the fact that if each branch fulfilled its pledges, the work need not stand still at all.

Refers to Death.

Mrs. Sage referred feelingly to the removal by death of Miss Marjorie Nash, who after a year or so in China, was brought home, only to pass away in August last. The sudden death of Miss Ella Waller, just after she had offered herself as a missionary candidate, was also spoken of with deep regret.

In regard to the future outlook, Mrs. Sage said that there was need of constant prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and constant service "In His Name." She bade the members look forward to the new year with faith and hope.

President's Excellent Work.

Mrs. Boomer, in moving a vote of thanks to Mrs. Sage, spoke warmly of the excellent work the president and the women of St. George's Church had been doing for the Red Cross Society. Mrs. Richardson also gave warm praise to Mrs. Sage.

The minutes of the board of management meeting which was held yesterday afternoon, were presented by Miss Taylor, recording secretary. The following reports were received, discussed, and adopted, during the morning: Literature committee, presented by Miss Moore, recording secretary, Miss Taylor; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bartlett, and babies' branches, Miss Priddis. Secretaries of local branches were urged to send in annual reports earlier, so that the general secretary might incorporate them in her report.

This afternoon consideration of pledges, additional reports, and voting on life membership fees, will occupy the session. Miss Trent speaks again at 4 o'clock.

Many Children Present.

Cronyn Hall was the scene of a most inspiring gathering yesterday afternoon, when almost two hundred children, members of the junior and girls' branches W. A. from the city churches, gathered to listen to an address by the Bishop of Huron, and Miss Trent, of Japan. A large number of seats in the centre of the hall had been reserved for the children, and it was an inspiring sight to see them marching in, singing "Who is on the Lord's side?"

His lordship in an informal way, greeted the children, and discussed with them the merits of a soldier. Obedience, courage, and the ability to act in unity, were found to be characteristics of a good soldier and Bishop Williams impressed upon them the truth that they were enlisting as soldiers of Christ, and needed the same qualifications.

Tales of Japan.

Miss Trent appeared in Japanese costume, and in an interesting way explained to the children the customs of the "Flowery Kingdom," where men, women and children alike wore the same garb, differing in color and the length of sleeves. The children gave close attention, while the missionary told of the work done among Japanese youngsters in the kindergartens and Sunday-schools. Politeness was said to be one of the great characteristics of the Japanese people. A pleasant feature was the singing of a familiar hymn in Japanese, by Miss Trent, the children present joining in the chorus with great enthusiasm. Miss Trent closed her remarks with an earnest appeal to the young people to take a personal interest in missionary endeavor. The very hopelessness of the Japanese religions, and the sorrowful hearts of these apparently gay people, were ample proofs of the need of Christ's gospel. She urged them not only to pray, but to go. There was great need of more workers in Japan, and other fields.

At night, Miss Trent was again the speaker, when she addressed a large gathering in Cronyn Hall, illustrating her remarks with some excellent lantern slides. Views of the Japanese people, their home life, labors in the agricultural district, and some of the natural beauties of Japan were thrown on the screen and described by Miss Trent. In the rice fields, and other farming districts, the methods used were most primitive, much of the labor in sowing, reaping and threshing, being done by hand.

Tells of Work in Japan.

A number of the temples, and the gods worshipped by the Japanese were shown, among them being the great statue of Bhudda, and also a smaller image with "the raised hand," which was visited by thousands of diseased persons each year, their belief being that to rub the ailing part against the hand of the image would effect a cure. Miss Trent also introduced her audience to the members of the Anglican missionary staff, including Bishop and Mrs. Hamilton, Miss Young, Mr. and Miss Spencer, and several native workers. "What can a few do amid the 40 thousand people in our district alone?" she asked, with a plea that many more young people offer themselves for the mission field. "We see thousands of candidates offering themselves to serve our earthly king, why are there not more recruits for the King of Kings?" The Japanese Christians were earnest, fine people, zealous for the cause of Christ, and eager to bring their fellow-countrymen to a knowledge of Him.

A cordial motion of thanks was voiced on behalf of the audience by Canon Tucker.

At this morning's session, roll-call, address of the president, reports of diocesan officers, and report of the board of management, will occupy the attention of the delegates. One of the matters to be included in this report is the result of yesterday's discussion as to whether $150 now given towards the salary of Miss Young in Japan should be transferred to a diocesan pledge.

COCAINE FIEND FOUGHT TO GET DRUG WANTED

Police Looking for Man Who Had Row in Drug Store.

The police are looking for a man, who last night entered a drug store and after being refused cocaine, attempted to fight his way into the dispensary, and was only put out of the place by the clerk and the combined efforts of three soldiers.

Shortly after 7 o'clock a man about six feet in height and of sallow complexion entered the store. He called the clerk aside. The customer then stated that he wished to purchase some cocoine. When refused, he pleaded for it. He then attempted to walk into the dispensary. The clerk grabbed the man, and they wrestled for a couple of seconds, when a trio of soldiers entered the store. The four took hold of the man, and he was shoved out into the street.

The police have been notified of the incident, and are now investigating the story.

GETS APPOINTMENT

Montreal Man Engineer for British Military District.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]

London, March 10.—Michel Helbronner, partner in Pringle & Co., architects and engineers, Montreal, who rejoined the army directly after the war began, has been appointed engineer for a military district.

MONTH FOR ASSAULT

William Coyne Sentenced for Injuring Osman Hatssan.

William (Red) Coyne, found guilty today by Police Magistrate J. C. Judd on a charge of assaulting and wounding Osman Hatssan in a fight at Hyman's tannery, was sentenced to serve one month in the common jail.

Coyne, in the prisoner's docket, stated that the complainant hit him first, and that he then picked up a club and struck Hatssan a blow on the head, felling him.

The prisoner told a story about settling the doctor bill and giving the injured man $20. This story was proved by Crown Attorney James B. McKillop to be untrue.

"Well, I guess I'm guilty enough," said Coyne.

MANY PAVEMENTS FOR SOUTH SIDE

If Proposed Program Goes Through, It Will Be Best Paved Part of City.

INCLUDES CROSS STREETS

Present Year's Schedule Will See Greatest Road Development of London.

If the paving program put through by the board of works last evening goes through in its entirety this year it will mean that South London will be one of the best-paved sections of the city.

The program is the biggest budget ever considered in London. New work alone totals more than $195,000, while there is close to $30,000 of paving work that was authorized last year but uncompleted.

In South London it is proposed to pave Ridout street from the bridge to Garfield avenue. This work, as far as Ferguson Place, was authorized last year. However, it is one of the biggest individual jobs in the city, ranking in importance with the paving of Hamilton road in this year's program.

In "Good Roads" Class.

With this South London "artery" given a permanent surface, it will put the majority of South London in the good roads class. Wortley road is already paved, and the most of the cross streets between Wortley and Ridout are either permanently surfaced or will be this year.

Windsor avenue, the most southerly cross street in the "paved area," is already finished with asphalt. Last night a concrete pavement for Briscoe street, the next street north, was put through, the estimated cost being $4,787, and the annual charge to the ratepayers some 34 cents a year. Tecumseh avenue is already partially paved and the concrete work will be extended to Ridout street this year. Duchess avenue is completed and Elmwood avenue between Ridout and Wortley was added to the list last night. The cost of surfacing this street with asphaltic concrete is estimated at $5,838. The ratepayers will pay 38 7-10 cents a year as their share.

To Complete Several

Marley Place, now partially paved, is another South London street to be completed this year. Bellevue avenue is in a similar position. The pavement on this later street will be extended to Duchess avenue.

Gerrard street was authorized last night, and Belgrave last year. Elmwood avenue between Wortley road and Ridout street is another to be put through. Windsor avenue, east of Ridout, already has a pavement down.

These works will mean a wonderful improvement to the south side of the city, and will, as before mentioned, place South London in the position of being the best-paved section of London.

BRASS THIEVES' APPEAL REFUSED IN TORONTO

Fountain and Chantler, Colored, Must "Do" Three Years.

The appeal of Edward Fountain and George Chantler, the two colored men, who were sentenced to three years in Kingston Penitentiary on February 13 by Judge Elliot, on a charge of stealing a quantity of brasses from Grand Trunk cars in the sand pit in East London last December, was dismissed and conviction affirmed in the appelate division, Osgoode Hall, Toronto, before Chief Justice Falconbridge and Justices Magee, Riddell, Latchford and Kelly yesterday.

When the colored men were sentenced, both were loud in their protestations of innocence, and declared that they would appeal the case. They did so, with the above result. George S. Gibbons appeared for the prisoners, and E. Bayly, K. C., for the Attorney-General.

Since the prisoners' conviction, Morris and Meyer Gootson, the two junk men Chantler and Fountain sold the brasses to, have been arrested and will stand trial at the spring assizes on a charge of receiving stolen property.

GET BAIL OR TO CELL

Wm. McFadden Will Be Tried Shortly on Grave Charge.

William McFadden, arrested by the detective department on a theft charge, was given the option, by Police Magistrate J. C. Judd today, of securing $400 bail or occupying a cell until his trial comes up on Monday.

McFadden, who pleaded "not guilty" to the charge, is alleged by the police to have held up a man named Joseph Gallagher at the Grand Trunk depot some nights ago, and, with the aid of an accomplice, whom the detectives are now searching for, secured about $4.

LOCAL NEWS

—The Princess Patricia Chapter, I. O. D. E., is giving a dansant on Saturday, March 13, at 4:30 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. The Cortese orchestra will furnish the music. The chapter is now working on supplies for the Canadian hospital at Shorncliffe, and the proceeds of this entertainment are to be devoted to this work. The public are cordially invited to help.

AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.—The following addresses will be sufficient: Andrew Carnegie, Fifth avenue; John D. Rockefeller, 22 Broadway avenue; Cornelius Vanderbilt, Fifth avenue. All are of New York City, N. Y.

"A TRIP TO PANAMA."—Saturday evening, in the First Congregational Church, an illustrated lecture will be given on "A Trip to Panama." One hundred views will be shown by J. McRoberts.

AN ANNIVERSARY DAY.—Just 52 years ago today King Edward VII. was married in St. George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, to Princess Alexandra, eldest daughter of the King of Denmark. King Edward ascended the throne on January 21, 1901, and died on May 16, 1910.

LADIES ENTERTAINED.—The members of Lady Fraser Lodge, No. 54, D. O. S., were entertained to a social evening last night by the officers at the close of their business meeting in the Moose Hall. A light luncheon was served and songs were well rendered by Sisters Farquharson and L. Scott. Afterwards games and dancing were indulged in and a pleasant time spent.

"THE MASTER KEY."—Announcement was made in this paper on Saturday last that the usual pictures of "The Master Key" would be shown on Thursday and Friday at the Unique Theatre. This was a mistake, as it should be Wednesday and Thursday. This well-known film is creating more interest than any other weekly serial picture that has been shown in London, and on Wednesdays and Thursdays each week it is shown at the Unique.

"ISSUES OF THE WAR."—On Friday evening citizens of London are invited to hear a free lecture on "Issues of the War," in the Normal School, when the speaker will be George Smith, professor of history in Toronto University. Special interest is connected with the speaker who is a Rhodes scholarship graduate of Oxford University, and who at one time attended collegiate institute in this city, when Mr. Radcliffe was principal. His lecture is sure to be of an interesting character.

BUYS FRUIT LANDS.—J. F. Sifton, of this city, has purchased about seventeen acres of choice fruit lands, just west of Burlington on Maple avenue, which is considered one of the prettiest drives in the vicinity of Hamilton. The farm is known as "the Porteous Place," and has the advantage of town water, electric light and radial cars. It is laid out with over 1,000 fruit trees, besides a quantity of berries and currants. The price is supposed to have been in the neighborhood of $20,000. Mr. Sifton will remove there after disposing of his stock of books, etc., in this city.

DELIGHTFUL DANCE.—Hamilton Gault Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire held a delightful dance at Arcadia last night, at which over one hundred couple participated. Twosteps, waltzes and the one-step, in a prettily decorated hall, where the floor was excellent and Cortese's orchestra playing the latest music, provided an excellent evening's entertainment for the large number who were in attendance. Last night's dance was so much a success that those in charge of the chapter are seriously considering holding another dance in Masonic Hall in the near future.

SCOTCH CONCERT SUCCESS

Money Will Assist in Purchasing Car of Flour for Belgians.

The Scotch concert given in Knox Presbyterian Church, South London, last night to assist in purchasing a car of flour for the destitute Belgians, was largely attended and a handsome sum was realized. Rev. J. G. Stuart presided, and the program was as follows:

LOCAL FIRM MAY DONATE OUTFIT

Three Soup Kitchens Needed by the 18th Battalion.

Mrs. Edwards, of this city, has donated $25 towards the fund for three soup kitchens needed by the 18th battalion, and it was stated to The Advertiser this afternoon that a local firm is contemplating donating one whole outfit, valued at $1,500.

SOME SHOES FOUND OF VERY POOR MAKE

Inquiry Into Boots Issued to 7th C. M. R. Men Yesterday.

The inquiry made yesterday afternoon at the quartermaster's stores into defective boots issued to the men of the 7th C. M. R. was not as productive of thoroughly "rotten" shoes as the first investigation. Out of about 30 pairs shown to Captain McEwen and other officers, only three or four were found to be comparatively trashy. Some of the others had suffered by their owners having placed them too near hot stoves. A full report of the investigation is being made at headquarters today.

THE EASIEST WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much danduff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and you hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhance its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

AN EASY WAY TO GET FAT AND BE STRONG

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This master-stroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through its regenerative, re-constructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every starved, broken-down cell and tissue of your body. You can readily picture the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Leading druggists of London and vicinity have it, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

Caution—While Sargol has given excellent results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles it should not be taken by those who do not wish to gain ten pounds or more.

Applying This Paste Actually Removes Hairs

(Beauty Notes.)

Merely applying an inexpensive paste to a hairy surface, say beauty specialists, will dissolve the hairs. This paste is made by mixing a little water with some powdered delatone; after about 2 minutes it is rubbed off and the skin washed. This simple method not only removes every trace of hair, but leaves the skin free from blemish. To insure success with this treatment, be careful to get real delatone.—advt.

Operation Decided On As Only Means of Relief

But the Writer of This Letter Resolved To Try Dr. Chase's Ointment First and Was Cured.

MR. BEAUVAIS.

This is not an isolated case, for we frequently hear from people who have been cured of piles by using Dr. Chase's Ointment after physicians had told them nothing short of an operation could bring relief and cure.

If you could read these letters, coming as they do, day after day and year after year, you would realize what a wonderful curative agent Dr. Chase's Ointment really is. Few ailments are more annoying or more persistently torturing than piles, and when this suffering is promptly relieved by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment there can be no doubt as to where credit is due. Friends and neighbors are told of the results and so the good word spreads, and Dr. Chase's Ointment is becoming known far and wide as the only actual cure for piles or hemorrhoids.

Mr. Charles Beauvais, a respected citizen of St. Johns, Que., writes: "For 14 years I suffered from chronic piles or hemorrhoids and considered my case very serious. I was treated by a well-known physician who could not help me, and my doctor decided on an operation as the only means of relief. However, I resolved to try Dr. Chase's Ointment first. The first box brought me great relief, and by the time I had used three boxes I was completely cured. This is why it gives me such great pleasure to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to everybody suffering from hemorrhoids as a preparation of the greatest value."

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10.

If the Conservatives bring on the election they have been holding over the heads of their opponents, the Liberal party may well nail the British Preference Flag to the mast, and keep it flying there. Sir Wilfrid Laurier raised this flag. The country knows who pulled it down!

There is something in this boot scandal. Unfortunately, it is a soldier's foot. And no contractor would have been bold enough to use shoddy unless he thought THE DEAL WAS GOING THROUGH.

The public lives in the expectation of an attempt at Ottawa to fasten the army boot scandal upon Gen. Sam Hughes. The Government thought the country was laughing at Sam, and was ready to make him the scapegoat for anything.

HITTING BRITISH GOODS.

THE scuttling of the good ship British Preference by the tariff "boosters" appears more and more serious as an offense against the Motherland as the conviction forces home that the present tariff has little, if anything, to do with the war.

When the tariff was raised against British goods it was to secure revenue to meet expenditures such as the C. N. R. guarantee, and for the tremendous increase in the internal financing of the country.

Not one dollar in a thousand collected under the new tariff will be used for purposes of war or because of the war. It will be used to cover the most tremendous extravagance ever known in Canada and for the adequate protection of the Government's pet private corporations. It is, therefore, the rankest kind of hypocrisy to claim that it was necessary to put another turret on the fort that keeps British goods out of Canada.

The Toronto News may talk itself black in the face, but a tariff of 30 per cent will keep more British goods out of Canada than a tariff of 25 per cent. If, as the Conservatives claim, this was necessary because of the war, then it is a greater sin, because it is fighting the Mother Country commercially while making a loud noise about aiding her in her struggle.

History is repeating itself. It seems to be a case of "so much worse for British connection."

THE VICTORIA CROSS.

FEW have been the Victoria Crosses awarded in the present war, although there has been no lack of heroic deeds. How different is the case with the Iron Crosses of the Germans, which have been handed out by the thousands. The Kaiser's famous decoration has been cheapened. Already he has given it to no less than 35,000 sailors and soldiers. But the Victoria Cross is given to comparatively few, and is an honor greatly coveted in consequence.

The Victoria Cross was instituted by Queen Victoria during the Crimean War. It is made from cannon captured from the enemy and is in the form of a Maltese cross. On a scroll are inscribed the words: "For Valor," and above them the royal crest. To the man who bears the Victoria Cross there is a pension of £10 per year, and if he wins it a second time another bar is added to his decoration, and he becomes entitled to an additional £5.

Midshipman Lucas, of the steamship Hecla was the first to win the Victoria Cross. A live Russian shell fell on the deck of the Hecla as she was taking part in the bombardment of a fort, and Lucas, picking it up threw it overboard, the shell exploding as it touched the water.

On her brave sailors and soldiers France pins the ribbon of the Legion of Honor; Russia the Cross of St. Vladimir, and Austria the Ancient Order of Marie Therese, but no decoration occupies a higher place in history than the Victoria Cross.

THE RADIAL PROGRAM.

THE Advertiser was the first paper in Western Ontario to conduct a campaign for an extensive system of radial railways. At the same time, no immodest credit for the discovery of the conditions existing is claimed. The people who brought the need for more radial railways to the attention of this paper were those who lived many miles from railway connection, such as those in the rich Arkona district.

The district within a radius of sixty miles of London is crying for radial lines. The public ownership principle should be brought into their construction wherever that is possible. When the people of a certain district are willing to invest their money in an enterprise and believe it to be a feasible proposition, they should back up that faith by building the line. Private capital may often be willing to "take a chance" where the merits of the scheme are more doubtful. The promoter has visions that the average man does not have.

Now that Sir Adam Beck is seeking a subsidy for radial lines in Ontario it may be opportune to wish him success. It is to be hoped that the Dominion Government will give every possible assistance to the far-flung network of lines that are inevitably to bring more people in closer touch with one another, and when the amount that has been handed to private railways is considered it would not be a great charity for the Government to make a grant of $6,400 a mile. It would greatly aid the scheme, and while other provinces might object, Ontario has the right and the will to fight for its own.

The Advertiser is a firm believer in public ownership. It believes that every sound scheme which concerns a public utility or a private monopoly should be taken up by the people and carried through by the people. It believes in hydro-radial lines for this district. Moreover, it believes that a system of hydro-aided telephones could be logically advanced at this time. The telephone in Ontario is a monopoly. The province has a system of towers that would carry telephone wires to many districts. It might be commenced as an inter-city line.

Radials and phones might link up well together. Public ownership is coming for many utilities. It may prove a good thing that private ownership does not fail to stay in the field. Monopoly is not always the best thing even for public ownership.

And another point is that public ownership does not mean ownership of the public by any individual. Those who themselves control monopolies, for instance, may have their good faith called in doubt. But for general benefit and for sound practice, there will be unanimity of opinion on the part of press and public.

WHEN ROUMANIA WARS.

WHETHER or no Italy or Greece enters the conflict, it is almost certain that Roumania will line up with the Allies. A cable dispatch saying Roumania will move in April is credited to King Ferdinand's minister of the interior, and as Great Britain has just granted the Roumanian Government a large loan, the report is probably correct.

It may be that this intention accounts for the rushing of operations at the Dardanelles. Once Constantinople is in the hands of the Allies, Roumania is freed of the menace of an attack by the Turks by way of the Black Sea. What is of still more importance is that Bulgaria, all along a doubtful quantity, encircled by a hostile ring, dare not join Germany or Austria.

The entrance of Roumania should tend to shorten the duration of the war, as Austria-Hungary, already showing signs of exhaustion, could never withstand the hammering of the fresh and enthusiastic armies of Ferdinand. Roumania has a standing army of 600,000 men, equipped after the most modern standards, and the moment hostilities opened the Austrian left wing which has been battling desperately for months to keep the Russians out of Galicia, would be threatened. With the pressure removed from Servia, the three armies —Russian, Roumanian and Servian— would doubtless advance simultaneously and the Austrians would find them irresistible.

With Budapest and Vienna taken there would then begin a great drive to Berlin, and Germany could not possibly cope with the tremendous pressure on all sides. Roumania's entrance into the conflict will be almost as important to the Allies as the running of the Dardanelles.

MR. ROSS' GOOD SERVICE.

MR. DUNCAN C. ROSS, M.P. for West Middlesex, performed a service of great importance to the farmers as well as the consumers of this country when, in the House of Commons a few days ago, he brought to the attention of the Government the necessity for taking action to prevent the encroachment of the foot and mouth disease in Canada.

This disease has affected cattle throughout the middle and New England states and has appeared in Detroit. Its ravages are so rapid and serious that when it shows itself in a herd the only remedy is the immediate slaughter of the cattle. No amount of precaution or care on the part of the farmer can head it off. Only this week a prize herd of cattle in the United States, valued at $40,000, had to be killed because of the infection—a collection of stock that the owner would have saved at almost any cost if it were possible.

Especially at a time like the present when production to the fullest extent is being urged upon the farmers of Canada, the question of preserving the stock now on hand is of utmost importance. Mr. Ross was the first to point out to the Ottawa Government this necessity. He asked that everything possible be done to keep the disease out of Canada, and from the reply received from the Minister of Customs, in the absence of the Minister of Agriculture, it appeared that the question had not received serious attention. The member for West Middlesex asked if every precaution were being taken to prevent this disaster from reaching Canada and also whether it was the intention of the Government to amend the act to provide compensation for farmers and graziers whose cattle have to be slaughtered in the public interest.

The Minister of Customs had no information as to the latter part of the inquiry, and when Mr. Ross insisted that prompt and very serious attention was necessary, Premier Borden admitted that the act, as it now stands on the statute books, had been in force for many years. The Minister of Agriculture had not brought to his attention any proposal to amend it, but he promised to ask for a report on the matter.

In the interests of the whole country, it is to be hoped that Mr. Ross' insistent demand will result in immediate action being taken.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Greece wants to be in on the plucking of Turkey.

Italy, Roumania and Greece are engaged in a thrilling balancing act.

A German professor has discovered a method of making food out of straw. Too late. Germany has about reached the last straw.

Nietzche's Germanic dream of a "blond giant avidly rampant" appears to have had about as much substance as most other dreams.

If they can keep up their present rate of smashing the Dardanelles forts, the Allies will not find it such a long, long way to Constantinople.

Henty's most thrilling tales would make tame reading for that 14-year-old Belgian Boy Scout who killed two Germans, was taken prisoner, joined the German Red Cross, and, making his escape, after a running fight with the guards, for his bravery was decorated by King Albert, and appointed to the general staff.

PRETTY GOOD WORLD.
[London Tit-Bits.]

This world's a pretty good sort of world,
Taking it altogether,
In spite of the grief and sorrow we meet,
In spite of the gloomy weather.
There are friends to love and hopes to cheer,
And plenty of compensation,
For every ache for those who make
The most of the situation.

There are quiet nooks for lovers of books,
With nature in happy union;
There are cool retreats from the noonday heats,
Where souls may have sweet communion;
And if there's a spot where the sun shines not,
There's always a lamp to light it,
And if there's a wrong, we know 'ere long,
That heaven above will right it.

So it's not for us to make a fuss
Because of life's sad mischances;
Nor to wear ourselves out to bring about
A change in our circumstances.
For this world's a pretty good sort of world,
And He to whom we are debtor,
Appoints our place and supplies the grace
To help us make it better.

PHILOSOPHY AND THE GRIP.
[Detroit Free Press.]

Philosophy instructs us how
To bear our cares and sorrows,
To suffer all the ills of Now
And wait for glad tomorrows.
It bids us to be Spartan brave,
Nor whimper in our grieving,
To tread, from cradle to the grave

In better things believing.
But now to me the thought occurs,
And here I let it rip,
Have ever these philosophers
Been victims of the grip?

Philosophy, when we're oppressed,
Comes in and softly mutters:
"All things are ordered for the best,
There's hope while life still flutters."
It bids us all to banish hate
And curb our harsh resentment,
And pictures all the glories great
That follow with contentment.
But now upon my back I lie
With parched and fevered lip
And wonder if that Spartan guy
Had ever had the grip.

Old Socrates bore patiently
With courage never flagging,
As far as mortal eye could see,
Xanthippe's constant nagging.
And all his kindly life was spent
In philosophic labors;
As one who'd mastered discontent
He lived among his neighbors,
But every time I have to sneeze,
A dozen at a clip,
I wonder if old Socrates
Had ever had the grip.

THE HUMAN MOTOR.
[Lurana Sheldon, in New York Times.]

Astounding, marvelous invention—man!
Thou camest forth from Nature's workshop door,
Greater by far than all machines before,
Built, to be sure, upon an oldish plan.
But wearing on thy patent sundry seals
Of great improvements, which have brought the power.
The missing model, lost some lucky hour,
Gave thee the best of all known earthly deals.
But vexed with more, perhaps, than Nature meant
Of vital "juice" and swift revolving wheels,
Thy beat-the-record, kill-the-pace intent,
Has ditched thy progress, dumped thee head and heels
Along the highway of thy greatest speed
A human motor, badly used, indeed!

Music and Musicians

"O Music! Sphere-descended maid, Friend of Pleasure, Wisdom's aid!"

—William Collins.

Singing in the Original.

Certain of our singers have been of late putting the stamp of their disapproval on the time-honored custom, established by our greatest artists, of singing foreign songs in the original tongue. If this idea of singing every song—whether Italian, French or German—in the English language ever gained ground, it would be a fact to be greatly deplored. There is no sign of it, however; singers of the first rank, with one or two exceptions, still realize the immense artistic advantage of a song sung in the original, over one sung to a translation, no matter how good the translation may be.

There are two vital reasons for rendering songs in the language in which they were composed. Even supposing the translation to be as perfect as the original, the phraseology must of necessity be different. The composer has written his music to words phrased in a certain way, and, it being impossible to change the music to suit the translation, it must be damaging in the extreme to be obliged to adapt it to words phrased in an entirely different way. Many of the finest musical effects are lost in this way, and to hear a fine song robbed of many of its beauties, because listeners want to hear it in their own language, is simply heartbreaking.

Then, again—a composer worthy of the name, in writing music to words, is influenced to a great extent in forming his melody, by the position of the vowel sounds. He realizes that certain color effects can be produced in this way. He also knows that he must avoid using certain words in extreme high or extreme low tones. He calculates the effect of his climax with the utmost care, knowing that a strong emotional passage can be rendered utterly feeble by the injudicious use of a vowel. These points are lost when a translation, no matter how good, is used by the singer in preference to the language in which the song was originally composed. A song, although an art production, in which words are used, is first and foremost a musical composition, and the re-creative artist should always give first place to considerations of a musical nature. The singing of all vocal works in the vernacular would only result in the destruction of the numerous musical beauties which all great songs possess.

Try to imagine some of our lovely folk-songs translated. Think of Robin Adair sung in French.

Instrumental Battles.

About eighty years ago a curious fad took possession of the European composers. It consisted of instrumental representations of different battles. "The Battle of Navarino," "The Battle of Prague," "The Battle of Waterloo" and many others were the out-crops of this mania. A musical composition of the same nature has been discovered in China. The Chinese certainly have better instruments than we had, wherewith to represent the din of combat.

It would take a composer of wonderful parts to depict the present carnage in instrumental form.

First Man to Come Back From the Infernal Regions.

Louis Elson tells us that at the first representation of Meyerbeer's famous opera, "Robert le Diable," an accident occurred which nearly resulted in disaster. In the last act, Bertram, the tempter, has to descend to the infernal regions, alone; Levasseur, who performed the character, leaped down the trap, and Robert, represented by the tenor Nourrit, who should have remained on earth, saved by the prayers of Alice, leaped after him.

There was consternation on the stage. In the audience they thought the opera had a rather immoral ending, since Bertram, the tempter, had triumphed over the prayers of Alice.

When Bertram, on landing at the bottom of the trap, saw Robert coming after him, he was vastly astonished to find that he had bagged his victim after all. He asked him in amazement: "Has the plot been changed?" But Robert, recollecting his mistake, hastened back to the stage, where the audience were astonished to see him reappear, but soon grasping the situation, burst into loud applause.

Answers to Correspondents.

Questions to this department should be addressed, "Musical Editor, London Advertiser," and must be brief and to the point. They must also be of general musical interest.

Several teachers of music in this part of the country seem to be especially delighted to have the title "Professor" attached to their name. Would like to hear from you in your musical column about the "Professor" in music.

INTERESTED.

The musical men in your part of the country seem to be differently constituted to the men in London. As a general thing, a musician greatly dislikes being called "Professor," as a mere complimentary title. In the states to the south of us it is quite common to attach the title of "Professor" to the names of nearly all male teachers of music. The title is rightly given to men engaged as teachers in a university. It has no especial significance, however, and implies no superior qualifications on the part of the man who uses it.

* * *

Do you consider vocal or instrumental music the higher form of art?

MUSICAL AMATEURS.

Instrumental, because it is absolute music, and depends on no other medium of expression. Vocal music, on the other hand, is a combination of two arts, each depending on the other.

How to Look Years Less Than Your Age

The most aged face will look years younger, after the use of ordinary mercolized wax for from ten days to two weeks. This remarkable substance, because of its peculiar absorptive power, actually removes the thin veil of faded or withered outer cuticle, a little at a time. Gradually the fresher, more youthful skin underneath is revealed. This absorption process being a purely hygienic one, an entirely natural complexion is acquired—quite different from the artificial complexion, which appears anything but girlish, though often bearing painful evidence of childishness. An ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is sufficient to rejuvenate any complexion. It is put on like cold cream at bedtime, and removed mornings with warm water.

To eradicate such age marks as wrinkles and furrows, make a wash lotion by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pt. witch hazel. This has wonderful astringent and tonic properties. It quickly effaces all kinds of wrinkles, no matter how caused, making the skin firm, smooth and young looking.

DAILY PAGE FOR ADVERTISER WOMAN READERS

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

Rhymes for Brown Eyes.

BROWN EYES.—Better send me your address for the list; will try to send you enough to go round, and it would take up quite a bit of space—besides, the others might see them, and thus the fun be destroyed.

More Wedding Queries.

Dear Miss Grey,—Could you spare me a few minutes out of your busy life to answer these queries?

1. Could you give me a menu for a simple luncheon for a quiet home wedding?
2. How long before the wedding day should the invitations be sent out?
3. Should the clergyman who officiates receive an invitation?
4. I saw some time ago where you said the bridal couple were not wearing gloves any more. Does that just apply in a case where the bride is married in a suit?

Hoping I have not been too much trouble, I am, sincerely yours,
IGNORANCE.

Ans.—1. Please note answers to "Orphan Annie" in Monday's issue.
2. Two weeks or ten days before the day set for the ceremony.
3. It is not necessary, but a very nice idea to send him one.
4. No; I know of several brides, one at least of whom was married in a church, in full regalia, too, who omitted the gloves; it is a matter of choice; white kid is proper, but they are fearful to remove when the ring has to be placed. Some brides cut the ring finger of the glove around the bottom, and it can then be pulled off without removing the glove, but 'tis a pity to spoil a good pair of gloves thus!

No trouble at all, I assure you.

Sends Kitchen Kinks.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am coming once more to your helpful page. Please forgive me if I go against the rules and inclose four or five pages. But I will try and solve a few problems that I have noticed in your page from readers.

1. Could you tell me what will whiten a white felt hat that has a few raindrops that have left a stain? Also do you think a white felt would look all right for first part of spring?
2. Please, more meanings: Jessie, Billy, Joseph, Norma, Theadora and Wilfred and Angela?
3. Could you tell me if this is an old piece or song "Sweet Bunch of Daisies?" I know a few lines: "Sweet bunch of daisies, fresh from the dell." Could you print it?

Now, I am sure you will feel like pushing this Logthy note in your large W. B. I wonder, Miss Grey, how many of your many readers are feeding our winter birds? Going into my garden I found one morning a bird with its foot frozen. I carried it in, and Mrs. Bird is quite contented to remain indoors, although I have left the door open to let her go. She will go for awhile, and then return. I have called her Lady Bird, and Miss Grey, she knows her name. I love pets—don't you?

Although I have disregarded your rules, I think you will forgive me just this once. Oh, I almost forgot someone asked how to clean pearls. Put them in a solution of 1 tablespoon of ammonia powder to 1 tablespoon hot water; place the whole pearls in this, and you will see the difference. This is harmless, as a friend who is a jeweler advised me for SPRING BLOSSOMS—are you?

Ans.—Yes, I am; could do very nicely without any more of Canada's winter. Your very practical "kitchen kinks" I am using elsewhere on this page, as I thought they might overfill the Mail-Box.

1. Once a white felt hat has got marked by raindrops it can hardly be cleaned. To rub well with French chalk, leave for a day or so, then brush out thoroughly, is a help. Yes, it would be very nice for early spring wear.
2. Jessie, wealth; Billy, same as William, defender or protector; Joseph, he shall add; Norma, abbreviated and feminine of Norman, meaning a Norseman; Theodora, gift of God.
3. Yes, "Sweet Bunch of Daisies" is an old favorite—one of the sweet ones. It has already appeared in our old-song column; can send you a copy if you send address and a stamp.

Blue Eyes' Queries.

BLUE EYES—1. I have seen the letter and figure reversed, meaning "yours as before"; this probably means the same.
2. It's fair.
3. Yes; a new idea for sport coats is to have one of corduroy.

A Cream Cake.

Dear Miss Grey,—I'll send a recipe for cream cake, which I find is very nice. Two eggs, 1 cup granulated sugar, 1 cup sour cream, a pinch of salt, two teaspoons baking powder, and 2 level cups flour; flavor to taste and bake in layers. This is my first time. But admire your page very much. Yours truly, MRS. D.

Ans.—Thank you, Mrs. D. Your other communication was sent to "Beth."

Passed It Along.

Dear Miss Grey,—In this morning's Advertiser, through the Mail Box, "Ireland" was inquiring if anyone knew of a cure for callouses. She did not say if they were on her feet. But I will tell if for the good of our Mail Boxers what cured mine, also took away those soft corns and a callous and left my feet so nice and comfortable, I thought I must really pass the good thing along. I got a 25-cent bottle of Nyal's Corn Cure from the drug store—they nearly all keep it. I followed the directions: Apply twice a day for six days, then soak feet in hot water till you can pull the corns off. I soaked mine over half an hour. Try it all ye corn sufferers.

We all get so much help from the Mail Box. It is nice to have a place where we can go to tell our troubles. Even the men like to peep in once in a while also. Bachelors, too! I did not think they had any troubles. Are they really going to tax the bachelors? It serves them right. Then they will get busy.

Miss Grey, can you tell me what will clean a burnt-orange hat of fine straw? I have worn it two seasons. I would like to have it retrimmed.

I am afraid this long epistle will find the W. P. B. Yours, with best wishes for the corner, ENGLAND.

Ans.—Nothing like co-operation! It's fine to see "England" helping "Ireland" in this fashion. The drug stores sell a bottled preparation with which you can clean your hat very nicely. To sponge the hat in a solution of oxalic acid and water (after removing all the loose dust with a damp cloth), is also very satisfactory; or you could dye the hat black or dark brown by using any of the pocket dyes which druggists sell.

From Glencoe.

Dear Miss Grey,—Here I am again to ask you a few queries. Some time ago in one of my letters I wrote to you I asked for a song. It was "J. A. Burchill" or some name like that, and I also sent you my address with a stamp and an envelope. If you have the song, will you kindly send it to me, please?

Pink Cream—Use 3 gills raspberry syrup mixed with ¼ lb. sugar, and 1 pint thick, sweet cream; whisk until very light and serve in whip glasses.

Egg sauce (for fish)—One cup cream sauce, 2 chopped hard-boiled eggs, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1 teaspoon lemon juice or vinegar; add parsley after taking from fire.

A GLENCOE READER.

Ans.—1. Many apologies for not sending you the song, I find your address and shall mail it now.

2. In regard to your query, if you send me the name of your friend, and an idea of when she was married, I could maybe get trace of her. All to be private, of course.

His Little Housekeeper.

Dear Miss Grey,—Mother loves your page very much, but as we have sent her on a big long holiday, poor Daddy and I are "baching." I try to cook something every day to surprise him. I get a lot of help from The Morning Advertiser.

Would you please send me a recipe for those little cakes called "Hermits," and how I could make pie paste?

Daddy loves pie, and if I could make one I would be the happiest little girl in this world.

I am just 10, and have been sick all winter, but study hard at home. What do you think of my writing?

Please answer my questions in the morning paper as soon as you can.

CHARCOAL.

Ans.—You are a brave little girl to undertake housekeeping, cooking and all. I am sures Daddy is very pleased when you make something new. To make the little drop cakes use 1½ cups brown sugar, ½ cup butter, 2½ cups flour, 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon soda dissolved in 1 tablespoon water, 1 cup raisins, ½ cup walnuts broken in pieces, teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon allspice. Beat the eggs with a pinch of salt, add sugar and shortening, beat well, then follow with rest of ingredients. This makes a stiff batter; drop from a spoon on to buttered pan.

I am afraid you would find it difficult to roll out pie crust, but why not try a "deep pie," which is good and much easier to make. Peel enough apples (and slice them thinly) to cover the bottom of a basin one or two inches deep; add half a cup of sugar and a little sprinkle of cinnamon; make a batter of one good cup of flour, quarter teaspoon salt, level teaspoonful baking powder, a level tablespoon lard, and sweet milk to make the batter not too thin. Spread over apples and bake. If you like this, you can vary it by making the batter sweet sometimes.

2. You write a neat hand for your age.

Dad's Dinner Pail.

Dear Miss Grey,—Could you get me the words of that old song, "My Dad's Dinner Pail"? I will watch for it in The Advertiser.

ALVINSTON READER.

Ans.—Query referred to readers.

Red Cross Column

Mrs. Brown, treasurer of the Red Cross Society here, reports the receipt of $100 from the Literary Society of Western University. The gift was accompanied by a beautifully worded letter, as follows:

"Dear Madam,—Everybody connected with the Western University wishes to register in some practical and tangible way the gratitude felt toward the people of London for the magnificent reception they gave the play presented under the auspices of the Literary Society of the University last month. Red Cross work in these days must appeal to every citizen; anything done to help the work your association is doing is helping a project dear to London's heart. What is more fitting than that this gratitude should take the form of a small check for that cause? The Literary Society has authorized the issue of the enclosure for $100, and only regrets that it cannot be many times as much.

(Signed), REGINALD E. CHARLES,
General Manager of the Play.
K. P. NEVILLE,
Chairman of the Play Committee.

Another splendid donation of $100 has been received by the Red Cross from Wyoming yesterday.

Quite a number of the delegates to the Huron W. A., now convening in annual session in Cronyn Hall, are interested in Red Cross and war contingent work, and yesterday took the opportunity of visiting the quarters at Hyman Hall, where they were shown the various branches of activity. Bandage-rolling, opening of bales from outside points, entering them carefully on lists, packing, all these phases of the work proved of interest to the visitors, many of whom have been engaged in knitting or sewing for the soldiers for some months.

Timbale of Pumpkin.

One pint of stewed and sifted pumpkin, one tablespoonful of butter, four eggs beaten, half a cuptul of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of ginger, half a teaspoonful of cinnamon and half a pint of milk. Pour into buttered molds. Set in a pan of water in a moderate oven until firm. When the timbales are cold, unmold and serve with whipped cream.

MANY HUNDRED POUNDS IN BELGIAN CARLOAD

The great value of the fourth Belgian relief carload of clothing and day by the Women's Canadian Club foodstuffs sent from London on Saturwill be realized from the following figures which composed the carload: 3,390 pounds of clothing, 100 pounds dried apples, 200 pounds beans, 50 pounds condensed milk, 4,160 pounds biscuits, 4,100 pounds pork and beans, 1,050 pounds salmon, 2,400 pounds of salt, 400 pounds starch, 500 pounds rice, 1,000 pounds rolled oats, 360 pounds syrup, 116 pails jam.

The treasurer, Mrs. Edwards, reports some $300 still remaining in the treasury, and efforts will be made to fill a fifth carload. This will likely be the last under the direction of the Women's Canadian Club, as the members will likely be devoting especial efforts towards hospital supplies for the hospital at Shorncliffe, England.

A TALE OF THE FRONTIER

Copyright 1912 By A. G. McClurg & Co.

(By Randall Parrish.)

It was after nine o'clock when the sentries challenged the advance of Custer's column, as it stole silently out of the gloom. Ten minutes later the men were hovering about the fires, absorbing such small comforts as were possible, while the General and Major Elliott discussed the situation and planned to push forward. An hour later the fires were extinguished, the horses quietly saddled, and noiselessly the tired cavalrymen moved out once more and took up the trail. The moon had risen, lighting up the desert, and the Osage guides together with the two scouts, led the way. At Custer's request, Hamlin rode beside him in the lead of the troopers. Not a word was spoken above a whisper, and strict orders were passed down the line prohibiting the lighting of a match or the smoking of a pipe. Canteens were muffled and swords thrust securely under saddle flaps. Like a body of spectres they moved silently across the snow in the moonlight, cavalry capes drawn over their heads, the only sound the crunching of horses' hoofs breaking through the crust.

The trail was as distinct as a road, and the guides pushed ahead as rapidly as by daylight, yet with ever-increasing caution. Suddenly, one of the Osages signalled for a halt, averring that he smelled fire. The scouts dismounted and crept forward, discovering a small campfire, deserted, but still smoldering, in a strip of timber. Careful examination made it certain that this fire must have been kindled by Indian boys, herding ponies during the day, and probably meant that the village was close at hand. The Osage guides and the two white scouts again picked up the trail, the cavalry advancing slowly some distance behind. Custer accompanied by Hamlin, rode a yard to the rear and joined the scouts, who were cautiously feeling their way up a slight declivity.

The Osage in advance crept through the snow to the crest of the ridge and looked carefully down into the valley below. Instantly his hand went up in a gesture of caution, and he hurriedly made his cautious way back to where Custer sat his horse waiting.

"What is it? What did you see?"

"Heap Injuns down there!"

The General swung down from his saddle, motioned the Sergeant to follow, and the two men crept to the crest and looked over. The dim moonlight was confusing, while the shadow of timber rendered everything indistinct. Yet they were able to make out a herd of ponies, distinguished the distant bark of a dog and the tinkle of a bell. Without question this was the Indians' winter camp, and they had reached it undiscovered. Custer glanced at his watch—the hour was past midnight. He pressed Hamlin's sleeve, his lips close to the Sergeant's ear.

"Creep back and bring my officers up here," he whispered. "Have them take off their sabres."

As they crept, one after the other, to where he lay in the snow, the General, whose eyes had become accustomed to the moon-gleam, pointed out the location of the village and such natural surroundings as could be vaguely distinguished. The situation thus outlined in their minds, they drew silently back from the crest, leaving a single Osage guide on guard, and returned to the waiting regiment, standing in horse less than a mile distant. Custer's orders for immediate attack came swiftly, and Hamlin, acting at his orderly, bore them to the several commands. The entire force was slightly in excess of eight hundred men, and there was every probability that the Indians outnumbered them five to one. Scouts had reported to Sheridan that this camp of Black Kettle's was the winter rendezvous not only of the Cheyennes, but also of bands of fighting Arapahoes, Kiowas, Comanches and even some Apaches, the most daring and desperate warriors of the plains. Yet this was no time to hesitate, to debate; it was a moment for decisive action. The blow must be struck at once, before daylight, with all the power of surprise.

The little body of cavalrymen was divided into four detachments. Two of these were at once marched to the left, encircling the village silently in the darkness, and taking up a position at the farther extremity. A third detachment moved to the right and found their way down into the valley, where they lay concealed in a strip of timber. Custer, with the fourth detachment under his own command, remained in position on the trail. The sleeping village was thus completely surrounded, and the orders were for those in command of the different forces to approach as closely as possible without running risk of discovery, and then to remain absolutely quiet until daybreak. Not a match was to be lighted nor a shot fired until the charge was sounded by the trumpeter, who remained with Custer. Then all were to spur forward as one man.

CANADIAN LEAGUE HAS PREDICAMENT TO FACE

Where, Oh Where, Is That Sixth Franchise Going To Get a Foothold—Kingston Has Been Suggested As a Likely Place—Would Break Ottawa Jump.

[BY BERT PERRY.]

The Canadian League is facing rather a serious predicament at the present time, and one which is liable to cause some worry on the part of the club owners before the season opens. The league has only five clubs at present, and there is no tangible sign of a sixth city yet. The dropping out of Toronto and Peterboro for a year seriously cripples the circuit. Both these cities, although losing propositions last season, helped to make the circuit a compact one, and to reduce the transportation expenses. Now, with four of the five cities in the league all located in Western Ontario, the jump to Ottawa will be a considerably expensive one this coming season unless some intermediate point is included in the circuit.

Londoners Downhearted.

Locally, the directors of the London club are a bit downhearted over the outlook, and there was some talk of discontinuing the league for a season, despite the fact that most of the clubs have signed up managers, and are going ahead signing up players at the present time. Before the Canadian League meeting last Friday afternoon, the league's prospects for the coming season, although not appearing as bright as in previous seasons, looked fairly good, and all the clubs were confident that, with a good, strong salary limit, the circuit could easily weather through the season without any of the clubs being much out on the season. But now the situation presents a different appearance, and it would not be surprising to see the league discontinue for a year at least.

The task of relieving the predicament of the league has been given to George H. O'Neill, of this city. Mr. O'Neill has been trying to locate a club in Guelph, but without much success so far. Niagara Falls, New York, may be given a franchise, but nothing definite has been done yet toward interesting anybody in the Falls as to the proposition.

Kingston Might Be Good City.

The suggestion has been made that Kingston would be a likely spot for a Canadian League franchise. Kingston is larger than Guelph, and more suitable in many ways than the Wellington County city. The only drawback to Kingston is that as a baseball city it is an unknown proposition, and the fans there mightha ve to have a couple of years of Canadian League ball before working up any enthusiasm. Kingston has quite a floating population in the summer time. It is a strong lake port, and it has a great number of tourists calling there in the summer months. It is also quite a military and university city, and it is admirably located as an intermediate point between the other four cities in the league, and Ottawa. Kingston should be as good, or an even better paying proposition than Peterboro or Erie, and Mr. O'Neill might have no trouble locating a franchise there should he attempt to do so. If Ottawa remains in the league it is best that the sixth city be located somewhere between the capital and the four Western Ontario cities, so as to break the long jump as much as possible.

The Advertisers dropped a couple of games to St. Peters in the City Bowling League last night, and as a result dropped out of second place. Both teams were not up to their usual form and some of the scores were pretty light. The Advertisers did not get working right until the last game, which they won. Alf Sheere's 529 was the best aggregate score, while the best individual score was 199, made by Ken Murray.

PORT ELGIN AGAIN DEFENDS BOWMAN CUP SUCCESSFULLY

PORT ELGIN, March 9.—The old rivals, Southampton and Port Elgin, were at it again tonight for the Bowman trophy. The north town team came down strong, with a determination to take the mug back to where it came from. Cully Rocker was brought up from Listowel to keep a fatherly eye on the love-tappers, and as a protection to the peace of the community. The game was clean, penalties being given out readily, stopping the roughness. The visitors were strong, but the locals were playing in better form than ever. Howe, who was on his holidays at Listowel, came home to help defend the cup. Good combination marked the play at times, but was mainly from the Port Elgin team. In the first period Port Elgin scored 2 to 1; in the second period the Port Elgin lads led by 6 to 1, and in the last period the score stood 9 to 2. The teams were:

JESS WILLARD LEAVES TO BATTLE JOHNSON

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.— Jess Willard, heavyweight pugilist, left here today for Havana, Cuba, to meet Jack Johnson in a battle for the world's championship, April 3. Willard has continued light training while here.

ARIZONA TO ADOPT THE PARI-MUTUELS

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 9.—A bill to permit horse racing in Arizona, under the Pari-mutuel system, was acted upon favorably today by the lower house of the Legislature, sitting as a committee of the whole. The bill already has passed the Senate.

LEADING DOG AUTHORITY AND SPORT WRITER DEAD

NEW YORK, March 9.—James Wellson, for more than 30 years a leading authority on the breeding of high class dogs and a judge of big kennel shows, is dead here. He was 63 years old. Mr. Wellson was one of the best posted sports writers in the country. After working on several New York papers, he joined the staff of the Philadelphia Press as sporting editor. He was the first secretary of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen.

TONSILITIS, SORE THROAT, CHEST COLDS, CAN BE CURED OVER NIGHT

They Vanish Quickly if Nerviline is Well Rubbed in.

When the throat tickles, when it hurts to draw a long breath, when you feel as if a knife were stuck in your side, it's time to draw out the congestion that will soon become pneumonia.

An ordinary cough syrup has no chance at all—you require a powerful, penetrating liniment.

Nothing is known that possesses more merit in such cases than Nerviline.

Rub it liberally over the sides and chest—rub it in hard.

The warm, soothing effect of Nerviline will be apparent in five minutes.

Nothing like it for quick relief—takes soreness out of the throat in one rubbing—breaks up the chest cold, draws out the inflammation, stops the cough quickly.

Rub it on for rheumatism—it destroys the pain—drives it right away. Try it for stiff muscles—it works miracles in just such cases.

Give Nerviline a chance on your neuralgia, prove it out for lumbago, see what it can do for sciatica.

No pain-relieving remedy compares in power to cure with Nerviline. Largest sale in Canada of any liniment for nearly forty years. The reason is plain. It satisfies every time.

The large, 50-cent, family-size bottle is more economical than the 25-cent, trial size. Sold by dealers everywhere, or the Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Canada.

Lay Off of Johnson-Willard Fight! Don't Bet a Cent Fullerton's Warning to Boxing Fans

Expert Reviews Questionable Features of "Battle for Heavyweight Championship of the World," and Can't See It as a Contest for Americans to Get Excited Over.

Jess Willard

HOW JESS WILLARD LOOKS IN TRAINING

POSES OF WHITE HEAVYWEIGHT WHO IS TO FIGHT JACK JOHNSON AT JUAREZ, TAKEN IN TRAINING QUARTERS NEAR EL PASO, TEXAS.

Advertiser Illustrations.

(BY HUGH S. FULLERTON.)

Whether Jack Johnson and Jess Willard fight at Juarez or Havana on April 3 or any other date, here is the best tip on the battle: DON'T BET A CENT!

The conditions surrounding the match are, to say the least, suspicious, the recent betting among those alleged to be close to the principals and the promoters is more so, and the entire atmosphere is bad. There are rumors and gossip among the sporting fraternity that hint at a big job being pulled off. I have heard it stated in several ways, but whether or not the match is on the level it is the best one of recent years to avoid in a betting sense.

Jack Johnson is not now, has not been in the last two years and never will be again in condition to fight a good heavyweight. He has not fought "on the level" in a long time. His match with Jim Johnson in Paris was a cross between a joke and a scandal, and his match with Frank Moran was as bad.

Johnson went into the ring against Moran in wretched condition, bloaty, rather than fat, and showing the effects of the evil life he has led for years. There is no evidence that he has slowed down in the pace he has been keeping. Those who saw him in London recently say he was still going as rapidly as his purse would permit.

Then he took a long sea voyage to South America, and those aboard the ship report that they did not see him training, and that he was living as high as possible on shipboard. The same report comes from the vessel that brought him from South America.

He has no training force, no sparring partners, and he has done very little work. If he manages to reach Juarez there will be but a brief period for him to get into condition.

It is reported in Chicago among negroes and others who have been close to the big cotton-field coon that Jack is broke and needs the money. On that basis, reports have gone out that he has agreed to "flop" to Willard.

In justice (or, rather, in reason) I must say I do not believe Johnson would lay down to anyone. He is an ignorant, conceited, spoiled negro. His vanity is beyond belief. If anyone could persuade him he would not lose his standing, he would be willing enough to lay down. No moral scruples would hold him.

I doubt whether money, even, would tempt him to throw away his title.

Nothing would be gained by arranging for Willard to lay down. Nine-tenths of the fight fans believe that Johnson, if he is even half way in condition, can whip Willard.

From a sporting standpoint, the fight is a joke. Johnson, in the condition he was when he fought Jeffries, could beat four Willards in an evening.

Some one has kidded Willard into taking himself seriously. He is a very bad, very awkward and strong fighter. He is old—from a ring standpoint. His footwork is a jest, and the only redeeming feature is that he is willing and a hard worker. He can hit almost as hard as Eddie McGoorty can, and has about one-half the skill in delivering blows.

In plain English, if Johnson is in fit physical condition to punch a bag eighteen minutes, he can whip Willard, whose only chance is to avoid being massacred until the negro gets so weary he cannot hold up his arms or move his legs.

The other contingency is that the whole thing is a frameup. One is not justified in trusting Jack Curley, the man who is managing the affair and also the man who pulled off the infamous Gotch-Hackenschmidt wrestling match in Chicago.

The day after the "fight" (if it ever takes place) the entire country will be saying these same things. Why not say them now instead of "bunking" the public into thinking a great battle for the heavyweight championship is to be fought?

When Friendship Was a "Knock."

Both Griffith and Killifer say that Maurice Uhler, whom the Reds released to Baltimore, is destined to become a grand ballplayer. Uhler was a victim of friendship, odd as it may appear. For a novice, he was doing very nicely with the Reds, but when Herzog had to pick someone for release he selected Uhler—because Uhler, a Baltimore boy, was his own best friend, and Buck wouldn't stand for the fans to even think that he would show favoritism to his pals.

SOO TEAM DOUBLES SCORE ON WESTERN U.

Got Away to Safe Lead in the First Period.

LONDON'S SECOND HALF

Students Outplayed Opponents in This Period—Defence Was Good.

SAULT STE. MARIE, March 9.—The American Soo hockey team tonight defeated the Western University, of London, by a 4 to 2 score. The ice was in much better condition than last night, and the game was faster. In the first half, the Soo outplayed London, and rolled up three tallies, shutting the visitors out. In the second period London spruced up, and forced the Soo hard, getting two goals to the Soo's one.

Every man on the London team played a strong game, the defence men carrying off the greater amount of credit. Ross, Ritchie and Edwards played brilliantly, while Chapman displayed marvelous ability in the nets during bombardments of the Soo team in the first period.

McAvoy played only in the first half. Kenny going in at right wing, Edwards to point, and Ritchie to rover. The teams:

Western U.		American Soo.
Chapman	Goal	Tallon
Ritchie	R. defence	Elliott
Ross	L. defence	Murray
McAvoy	Rover	Godin
Phillips	Centre	Couter
Edwards	R. wing	Hill
Arthurs	L. wing	Thompson

YESTERDAY'S JUAREZ RACES WILL BE RUN OFF TODAY

Heavy Snowstorm of Monday Still Keeps Track in Poor Condition.

EL PASO, Tex., March 9.—Clear and warm weather prevailed at Juarez this afternoon, but the track was in well nigh impossible racing condition, following the snowstorm of Monday, when six inches of snow fell. Under these conditions Col. Wynn deemed it best to postpone the resumption of racing until Wednesday and to allow the program originally intended for this afternoon to stand until that day.

The exodus of horses intended for racing on the Kentucky tracks started in earnest today, when a carload of runners was sent by express to the Churchill Downs track in Louisville. Included in the consignment were seven head belonging to ex-jockey Carroll Shilling, and an equal number, owned by J. H. Mead. The three-year-old Thaka, that John Ferris has been racing here and which is consigned to George J. Long, was also among the lot.

VARSITY'S STRONG FINISH GIVES THEM TIE AT BERLIN

Union Jacks Will Have To Go to Toronto Without Margin on the Round—Final Score Was 7 to 7—Soft Ice Slowed Up Game Somewhat.

BERLIN, March 9.—Playing spectacular hockey, 'Varsity Juniors scored two goals in the last five minutes of tonight's game, and tied the score with the Union Jacks in the first O. H. A. junior final, 7 to 7, and there is little doubt but that the Blue and Whites will be able to beat the locals easily on Thursday night.

There were plenty of things doing during the entire game, close checking keeping much combination play down, although 'varsity occasionally broke through with a pretty piece of two and three man work. The ice was heavy, and during the last period the going was very hard, which told on the visitors, who are used to hard ice in their own rink. The Union Jacks led until the last five minutes, when 'Varsity developed some fast work, which was too much for the Berlin defence. The period scores were 4 to 4, 6 to 5, and 7 to 7.

The locals had the better of the initial period, when they drew first blood in three minutes, Karges scoring on a pass. This was followed five minutes later by another, this time Snirk doing the trick. Varsity was working hard, and with two of Griffin's men on the fence Ramsay scored on an individual rush, with this, 'Varsity swept down the ice, and one minute later tied the score. Krug broke away in the next three minutes, and beat Malone, both of Berlin's second and third goals were disputed, and the umpires were changed on each occasion.

'Varsity Comes Strong.

'Varsity came back strong in the second period, and swept through the Dutchmen's lines, Smythe scoring on a pretty pass from Saunders in two and a half minutes. It took the locals five minutes to come back, and tie the score, the goal coming from Shirk's stick on a pretty piece of individual work. Schnarr scored once more before the close of the period.

There was little to choose in the third period, but the heavy going was telling on both teams, the disc continuing to roll, and the game developing into a slugging match. The Union Jacks increased their lead when White beat Malone on a long shot, which slipped under his skates. It was then that 'Varsity made their great sprint and scored the two goals which tied the score.

On their showing here tonight the visitors were away below their usual form, being unable to get away with their machinelike tactics, which have meant so much to them this season. While they checked close, none of the forwards were able to break away in their usual spectacular style.

Smythe and Saunders reached the mouth of the locals' net several times, but the cool work of Mernet in goal saved almost sure tallies.

This was the first game of the season for Schnarr on left wing, and he put up a great exhibition, checking Stratton to a standstill, and having the most wicked shot on the ice. Another wonder on the Union Jacks' team was Shirk, who checked like a demon, and was on the puck at all times. Krug, on the other wing, was taken out of a sick-bed to play hockey and he played a strong game. Both Erb and Karges worked hard on the defence and broke up many dangerous rushes.

'Varsity's Forwards Below Form.

All of 'Varsity's forwards played below form, and only occasionally played the real game which they are capable of doing.

There were several delays during the game, on one occasion the referee losing his skate, while on other occasions a couple of players received minor injuries. The locals are a heavy aggregation, and, in fact, both sevens loomed up large. While the Union Jacks are fast on their skates, the visitors have them shaded slightly in this department.

The locals got away with combination early in the game, but this dwindled down, and after the middle of the second frame it was largely individual play. The close checking was what saved the locals from being defeated on their own ice.

'Varsity brought a special train of over three hundred supporters. About three thousand saw the game.

The line-up:

Berlin.		'Varsity.
Merner	Goal	Malone
Karges	R. defence	Sheldon
Erb	L. defence	Ramsay
White	Rover	Gourinock
Shirk	Centre	Smythe
Krug	R. wing	Staratton
Schnarr	L. wing	Saunders

Referee—Dr. Gilfillan, Uxbridge.

The Summary.

First period—
1. Berlin, Karges, 3:00.
2. Berlin, Shirk, 5:00.
3. 'Varsity, Ramsay, 4:00.
4. 'Varsity, Saunders, 1:00.
5. Berlin, Krug, 3:00.

14. 'Varsity, Smythe, 1:00.

BANNIE TELLS ONE

"Take it from me," said Frank Bancroft, while some of the athletes were discussing famous bonehead plays, "the oldtimers pulled some bones that had all you youngsters blocked off the map. Best I recollect, right now, was sprung by Miah Murray, when he was catching for me at Worcester about 35 years ago. With a runner on first, Miah steamed back to the stand and made a magnificent catch of a foul fly. The crowd broke into roars of applause; Murray, leaning against the stand, took off his cap and bowed right and left —and the runner, sizing up the situation, lit out from first, kept right on going, and came all the way around while Miah kept bowing and the rest of the team were screeching and raving, all in vain!"

Woodstock Girls Add Another Win To Their Record

Defeated Stratford Girls by Score of 5 to 2 in Glorious Game.

STRATFORD, March 9.—Before a well filled house the young ladies of Woodstock easily defeated the local girls by the score of 6 to 2, in a glorious little hockey battle tonight. The Woodstock girls are much more experienced and are splendid skaters, while the local girls are good skaters, but lacked the stickhandling ability of the visitors. Miss Janet Allen, of the locals, was the star of the game. The line-up:

Referee—Duff Baker, Stratford.

RIDGETOWN SHOOTERS HELD BLUE ROCK MATCH

[Special to The Advertiser.]

RIDGETOWN, March 9.—A shooting contest between teams captained by H. L. Taylor and Wm. Thorold was held yesterday afternoon at the Gun Club ranges. Owing to the heavy wind which prevailed all afternoon small scores were made. Thorold's team won the contest by 20 points, thus it will be up to Taylor's team to pay for the supper for both teams at the patriotic tea on Saturday afternoon next. Blue rocks were used, and 25 targets were allowed for each man. The following are the scores and the names of the shooters:

TORONTO CLUB BUYS NEW FIRST BASEMAN

TORONTO, March 9.—The Toronto International League Club tonight announced the purchase of First Baseman Donaldson Graham, of the Cincinnati National League Club. Graham was drafted from Roanoke of the Virginia State League last season, but a prior draft by Cincinnati landed the player. He batted .295 and fielded .893 in 117 games last season. Graham will report to the Toronto club at Washington on April 9. Manager Clymer is now in the south selecting a training camp.

Extry, Extry.

San Francisco—Ban Johnson says there will not be any Federal League in existence next spring.

Knotty Lee Was Always Springing Stuff Like This

ST. THAMAS, March 9.—Speaking of funny plays in baseball, said ex-Umpire Charlie Smith to a bunch of fans sitting around the stove at his pantorium one day recently, while this occurrence did not take place on the diamond, it was mighty close to it.

Knotty "Geo." Lee, the promoter of the Canadian League, was managing a team over in New York State some ten years ago. "The street car company in one of the towns had been having some trouble with their conductors for the failure of some of them, to place the fare in the proper depository.

Lee's team happened to be playing in the town mentioned, and he rode out to the ball park with me on the car, when the conductor happened along to collect the fares. Knotty handed him a Canadian five-cent piece. The conductor held it for a moment, then said: "I can't take this." Knotty replied quickly, "Give it to the company then."

CHURCH LEAGUE FINALS AT SIMCOE RINK TONIGHT

The final match in the Interdenominational series will be played tonight at the Simcoe street rink between St. Andrew's and Wellington Street. The teams will line up the same as on Monday night. Wellington Street has a two-goal margin on the Presbyterians, and it is confident of being able to hold this lead.

King Street and New St. James will play the second game. "Stinger" Munro will in all probability referee.

FEDS RECEIVED $25,000 FOR KANSAS CITY CLUB

Chicago, March 10.—Hearing of the suit filed by the Kansas City Club of the Federal League, to restrain the league from transferring the Kansas City franchise to Newark, N. J., was expected to be completed today.

Counsel for both sides after a conference with Judge Baldwin, of the circuit court, indicated that the proceedings would be finished and adjournment taken before night.

It was brought out at the hearing yesterday that Harry Sinclair, who, with Patrick Powers, took the Kansas City franchise for Newark, paid the league $25,000 for the privilege.

POSTOFFICE TEAM WON FROM MANHATTAN CLUB

The fastest game of the present season was staged last night at the University Arena when the Manhattans and the Postoffice teams battled for 1 hour and 15 minutes before the game was decided. At full time the score was 2 all, but in the overtime period the Manhattans faded and the Postoffice won out 3-2. Prudholme, in goal, was the best for the losers, while "Mushy" Arnott, of the Postoffice was mainly responsible for his teams' victory. S. W. Reid refereed satisfactorily. Line-up:

Manhattans.		Postoffice.
Prudholme	Goal	Crawford
Geoghegan	Left defence	Wickerson
McCormick	Right defence	Arnott
Jones	Rover	Calpwn
Sumner	Centre	Morrison

VANCOUVER TRIES SIX-MAN GAME.

Vancouver, B. C., March 10.—The Vancouvers, Pacific coast hockey champions, experimented with the six-man rules last night as a tryout for the games for the world's title with the N. H. A. winners and defeated a team composed of Victoria and Portland players by 3 to 6.

LONDON CURLERS BREAK EVEN AT GALT

Lose in Morning Games, But Win in Afternoon.

DOWN ON DAY'S PLAY

Lost by 17 Shots in Morning and Won by 11 in Afternoon.

GALT, March 9.—The London curlers broke even on the day's play here today. This morning they lost to the Galts by seventeen shots, but won the afternoon game from the Granites by eleven shots. The ice was very sticky for the afternoon match. This evening the visitors were banqueted at the Imperial Hotel by the local clubs, and a couple of social hours spent, the visitors stating that they had thoroughly enjoyed the outing. The scores:

KING INTRODUCES HIS NEW RECRUITS

Gracious Act of Albert of Belgium Towards Untried Men.

ADDRESSES OLD TROOPS

Asks Them To Treat Fresh Comrades Kindly and In Helpful Way.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—A dispatch to the Daily Chronicle from a point in the north of France says: "As a result of the new royal decree summoning all refugee youths to the colors, Belgium's new recruits are growing daily in number, and the King recently conceived the gracious idea of presenting in person, with appropriate ceremony, the young soldiers, who have not yet received the baptism of fire, to their older comrades, who have been fighting since August.

"The ceremony took place a few days ago on the snow-covered plain. Veterans of the 60th and 26th Regiments formed a square with bayonets fixed. The commanding officer made a speech, whereupon King Albert delivered this address to the older soldiers by way of introducing their new comrades:

"'Old soldiers of the 60th and 26th regiments, I desire you to give kindly welcome to the new recruits, who are going to be your comrades in battle. Be helpful and kindly to them amid the difficulties of war. Be genuine brothers in arms, so as to oppose an unbreakable barrier to the invader, for even at the price of death we must fight on with the aid of our allies until our territory has been liberated.'

"The King then addressed a few words to the officers. He mentioned the splendid achievements of the two regiments, and declared they were worthy in the highest degree of the confidence of the nation.

"Both in time and place the incident was singularly impressive. The scene only a few months ago was reddened with the blood of Belgium's much-endured valiant army, in its supreme effort of resistance against one of the enemy's most terrific attacks. The occasion was the first mustering of the youth that is the flower and hope of Belgium for the still greater effort that is coming.'

SUFFERED FROM BILIOUS HEADACHE

At Times Thought She Would Go Mad.

Headaches are one of the most aggravating troubles a person can have. They are many and varying; but when the headache starts you may be sure that there is some other chief cause of this most painful difficulty. The stomach may go wrong, the bowels become constipated, the blood may not circulate properly, but the presence of the headache clearly shows that there is some other baneful disease which is liable to assert itself unless the cause of the headache is removed. Get rid of the headache and thus perhaps save yourself many years of trial and suffering.

Burdock Blood Bitters has, for the past forty years, been curing all kinds of headaches, and has also proved itself to be a remedy that cures where all others fail. It does this by removing the cause of the trouble.

Miss Mary A. Roberts, Hampton, N. B., writes: "For about two years I have suffered from bilious headache. At times I thought I would really go mad. Not long ago a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after taking three bottles I have never been troubled with any kind of a headache. I think that B.B.B. is one of the wonders of the world. I can safely recommend it to all who suffer from bilious headache."

Burdock Blood Bitters is the oldest and the best-known blood medicine on the market today, and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PALPITATION CAUSES COLLAPSE

Now In Wonderful Health Through Dr. Cassell's Tablets

So Bad She Thought She Was Going to Die.

Also Had Acute Dyspepsia and Simply Awful Headaches.

No Treatment Tried Was of Any Permanent Avail.

Obtained Quick Relief and Speedy Cure Through

DR. CASSELL'S TABLETS

Elderly folk all over the Dominion who suffer from Dyspepsia or heart palpitation should read this story. They will then know what wonderful power there is in Dr. Cassell's Tablets to cure these torturing maladies, and to restore bright health and comfort even to those of middle and advanced age.

"I can't praise Dr. Cassell's Tablets enough for all the good they have done me," says Mrs. C. Harris, of Charnham street, Hungerford, England. "When I first got them," she continues, "I really thought I was going to die, and now to see the splendid progress I have made! It is almost a miracle. For years I had suffered with my heart, and windy spasms, and this brought me so low that I had hardly any strength left. I was much troubled with Dyspepsia, too, and simply awful headaches. My head used to ache till I really wished myself dead. But it was the heart palpitation that was my great affliction. It just fluttered like a bird, and if I exerted myself at all I went cold from head to foot, and so faint that I almost collapsed. I could not do any housework at all; if I tried to I fainted right away. I used to be in bed for days at a time. Pounds and pounds I have spent on treatment, but it was little use. I was told I could only be patched up, that there was no real cure. Once I tried a convalescent home, but I came back from it rather worse than when I went in. I was getting weaker as the years advanced, and oh! so helpless.

"It is only about a year since I first got Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Their quick relief was wonderful. First they gave me sound refreshing sleep, and then I gained strength rapidly. The windy spasms and headaches ceased to trouble me, and my heart grew stronger. Now I am in wonderful health."

It is the wonderful power of Dr. Cassell's Tablets to feed and strengthen the nervous system that has made them the most popular remedy in the British Isles. Dr. Cassell's Tablets renew the power of the nerves, stomach and kidneys, and so bring health to the whole body.

DYSPEPSIA, HEARTBURN and Palpitation Made Life a Misery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Forner, a lady of 67 years of age, of 9 Mainsforth Terrace, Sunderland, England, where she is well known for the interest she takes in religious work, said: "I feel it is only right that I should tell you of the wonderful benefit I have derived from taking Dr. Cassell's Tablets. It is about four years ago since I first began to suffer with Dyspepsia, and during that time I am sure I have gone through martyrdom. The trouble came on with heartburn, which got worse and worse till I could keep nothing on my stomach. I was afraid to eat even the lightest thing. Sometimes even a glass of water would return. My life was a daily misery. Another trouble, perhaps my worst, was the frightful heart palpitation I had to endure. My heart used to flutter till I felt like to collapse, and I had to throw myself down on a couch, utterly helpless. Sometimes I hardly cared whether I lived or died, I was so tortured and miserable. There was pain constantly at my chest, and I was so weak and faint that I could do nothing.

"Of course, I had medicine. I also tried other things. But it was all useless. I seemed incurable till at last I got Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Then I grew better. All pain left me, all the sickness and palpitation; I could eat without fear, and now I am as well as ever in my life."

Largest Sale in Britain. Popularity now world-wide.

Remarkable as these cures undoubtedly are, the facts as here given are true in every detail, and are simply an unvarnished story of what Dr. Cassell's Tablets are accomplishing every day in homes both here in Canada and elsewhere. Make a trial of Dr. Cassell's Tablets today, you will never regret it. They are a remedy of world-wide repute for Nervous Breakdown, Nerve Failure, Infantile Weakness, Neurasthenia, Sleeplessness, Anaemia, Kidney Trouble, Dyspepsia, Stomach Disorder, Wasting, Palpitation; and they are specially valuable for nursing mothers, and girls approaching womanhood. All druggists and storekeepers throughout the Dominion sell Dr. Cassell's Tablets at 50 cents. People in outlying districts should keep Dr. Cassell's Tablets by them in case of emergency. A free sample will be sent on receipt of 5 cents for mailing and packing, by the sole agents for Canada, H. F. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., 10 McCaul street, Toronto, Ont.

Bringing Up Father . . . . . By George McManus

TURKS IN A PANIC FLEEING CAPITAL

Refugees Tell of Dread of Advancing Forces of Allies.

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, March 10.—3:06 a.m.—"The panic in Constantinople has been increased by the stories told by large numbers of refugees arriving from the Dardanelles district," says the Daily Mail's Saloniki correspondent.

"Most of the shops in Constantinople are closed, and the banks have transferred everything movable to Konieh, Asia Minor. The Government is forcing the populace to join the army, without distinction as regards nationality."

SAY FARMERS BANK WAS NEVER A BANK

TORONTO, March 9.—Whether the Farmers Bank ever was a bank, in spite of the fact that it did business with the public for some time, is a question to be argued shortly before official referee J. A. McAndrew, K. C. Those whose names appeared in Government blue books as shareholders take the ground that as the charter was irregularly issued the bank was never properly organized and as a result they cannot be held liable under the double liability which applies to bank shareholders.

The matter comes before Official Referee McAndrew on an application to settle the list of contributories.

The amount involved is about $1,000,000.

DOCTOR SAID SHE HAD BRIGHT'S DISEASE

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HER.

Bright's disease is a term applied to one of the most serious of all diseases of the kidneys, the symptoms of which are often of a severe character.

Severe pains in the back appear at first and are followed by disturbances of the urinary organs, which show that the urine contains a large amount of albumen. Dropsy is also another forerunner of the dreaded Bright's disease. On the first sign of any kidney trouble you should at once put the kidneys right by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. The pill that cures kidney troubles only.

Mrs. C. A. Heistand, Mooswa, Alta., writes: "Last May I was taken down sick. The doctor told me I had Bright's disease. My kidneys got so bad I could not rest day or night. The doctor's medicine did not give me any relief. I used four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, and they put me in good shape again."

Doan's Kidney Pills are the original kidney pill, so when you ask for "Doan's" do not accept any others with similar names.

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by the T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct, specify "Doan's."

NO MORE DESIRE FOR TOBACCO

Arthur Krouse is a locomotive fireman who has been using tobacco since he was a boy. About two years ago he began to have spells of illness. His memory was getting very bad and his eyes bothered him a good deal. He had tried in vain to conquer the habit until he got a certain book and now he is freed from the thraldom of tobacco and his health is wonderfully improved. Anyone who desires to read the book can obtain it absolutely free by writing to Edward J. Woods, 549 K, Station E, New York City. It tells how the habit of smoking, chewing or snuff taking can be conquered in three days.

GREECE HAS NOW NEUTRAL CABINET

General Election Must Be Held Within Ten Weeks.

LONDON, March 10.—2:48 a.m. — A dispatch to the Times from Athens says:

"M. Gounaris consented to form a new Cabinet on receiving the King's sanction to dissolve the Chamber after an adjournment for a month. According to the constitution a general election must be held within 45 days after Parliament is dissolved.

"M. Gounaris is one of the most distinguished of the younger Greek politicians. He is a good speaker, and has a considerable fund of knowledge, particularly in financial matters.

"His policy will be one of neutrality, marked by a favorable disposition toward Servia."

A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Athens says M. Gounaris submitted the list of his new Cabinet to King Constantine last (Tuesday) night. The King confirmed the appointment of the new ministers, who will be sworn in tomorrow, the Cabinet follows:

Premier and minister of war, M. Gounaris; foreign minister, Christakis Zographos; minister of communications, M. Baltadjis; minister of instructions, M. Vozikis; minister of finance, M. Protopapadakis; minister of the interior, M. Triantafillakos; minister of national economy, M. Eutaxias; minister of justice, M. Isaldaris; minister of marine, M. Stratas.

Potato Tickets Are Now Issued In German Town

BERLIN (via London), March 10.—12:15 a.m.—The suburban town of Wilmersdorf has voted to issue potato tickets, similar to the bread tickets recently introduced in all cities in Germany. Wilmersdorf, which is the first town to adopt this method for conserving the potato supply, will allow 22 pounds per capita weekly.

PRUSSIAN SOCIALISTS VOTE AGAINST BUDGET

Poles and Danes Decline to Go On Record In Diet.

LONDON, March 9.—The Prussian Diet accepted the budget on the third reading today, says a Reuter message from Berlin. The Socialist members voted against the measure, and the Poles and Danes refrained from voting.

Addressing the Chamber of Deputies, at its final session, the president, Count Van Schwerin-Lowitz, said:

"When the House meets again I hope that under the powerful blows of our glorious troops we shall have progressed further in vanquishing the enemy, west, north and east, and that the certain confidence in a final victory, with which we adjourn today, will then have approached nearer to fulfillment."

ARSENAL EXPLODES AT ANTWERP, KILLING 14

LONDON, March 9.—5:37 p.m.—The Central News correspondent at Amsterdam telegraphs that 14 men were killed and 70 injured today by an explosion in a German arsenal at Antwerp.

SPEND HUNDRED MILLION TO HELP UNEMPLOYED

MONTREAL, March 9.—In an open letter which he this morning addressed to Premier Borden, the prime ministers of the various provinces and the mayors of the larger cities of the Dominion, Controller McDonald suggests that the federal, provincial and municipal authorities vote a credit of $100,000,000 to be applied to public works all over the Dominion for the relief of the unemployed. The controller estimates that there are at present 100,000 unemployed in the country, and the $100,000,000 would, in his opinion, provide work for this number for one year.

Out of the $100,000,000 the sum of $70,000,000 would be expended in wages and the balance in materials for work.

"CLEAN-UP MONTREAL."

MONTREAL, March 9. — "Clean-up Montreal" was the slogan advanced at the luncheon of the Montreal Publicity Association today, and the annual cleaning up of the lanes, alleys and yards has begun.

Notice to Creditors.

IN THE MATTER of Joseph Francis Moralee, of the City of London, in the County of Middlesex, produce dealer, insolvent:

Notice is hereby given that the said Joseph Francis Moralee, carrying on business as a produce dealer at the said city of London, has made an assignment, under R. S. O., 1914, Chapter 134, of all his estate, credits and effects, to The London and Western Trusts Company, Limited, of the said city of London, for the general benefit of his creditors.

A meeting of creditors will be held at the office of the said assignees, in the city of London, on Thursday, the 18th day of March, 1915, at the hour of 3 o'clock in the afternoon, to receive a statement of affairs, appoint inspectors, and for the ordering of the affairs of the estate generally. Creditors are requested to file their claims with the assignees, with proofs and particulars, as required by the said act, on or before the day of such meeting.

And notice is further given that after the 30th day of April, 1915, the assignees will proceed to distribute the assets of the estate amongst the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which notice shall then have been given, and that they will not be liable for the assets or any part thereof so distributed to any person or persons of whose claims they shall not then have had notice.

THE LONDON AND WESTERN TRUSTS COMPANY, LIMITED.

GERMAN ROYALTY LIVE SIMPLE LIFE

Scarcity Is Felt, and Even Empress Only Eats To Live.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—A dispatch to the Daily Chronicle from Paris says: A diplomat of a neutral power, who has just arrived from Berlin discusses the rigid severity of life that prevails at the court of Prussia. There are no more receptions, no chatty "five o'clocks" in the afternoon, and the number of domesttic servants has been reduced to a minimum. The effect of the general scarcity is beginning to be felt in the royal household as elsewhere.

Kaiser Superintends.

The Empress has left the royal palace with its vast and deserted apartments which gave her profound depression. She has betaken herself to Mon Bijou, which is a conglomeration of several pavilions in old Berlin. She has for entourage only two ladies of honor and two chamberlains. From time to time the Kaiser makes a brief appearance at the court. On such occasions he makes it his business to see that the necessities of the food regime are being strictly followed, and in consequence the mode of life at the court has undergone a radical change.

Modest Meals.

"Meals are modest to a degree. The Empress Augusta Victoria's breakfast consists of a cup of tea and one plain boiled egg. Lunch at midday consists of soup, a single serving of meat and some fruit. For dinner she has soup, a single dish, and a plate of vermicelli or macaroni. Potatoes are served in their jackets, as peeling them in their raw state is regarded as a waste of good edible material. The Kaiser never tires of recommending the virtues of war bread, and he likes the members of his suite to nibble it in public."

NO ELECTION, SAYS BORDEN SUPPORTER

Would Be Wrong—Laurier To Appeal For British Preference.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, March 9.—"There should be no election held in Canada until the war is brought to a close and the Allies are finally victorious."

The declaration was made by the last speaker in the debate tonight, by Mr. H. B. Tremaine, one of the Conservative followers sent to Sir Robert from his own province. Mr. Tremaine declared that this was no time for a difference over politics in Canada. The efforts of the country should be confined to bringing the present struggle to a successful conclusion. He said that not only should Parliament be allowed to run its full term, but that if it was not closed it should be arranged that Parliament continue after the statutory time.

The announcement from the Conservative side made a considerable impression.

Sir Wilfrid to Speak.

Tomorrow two of the important speakers of the debate will be heard. Sir Wilfrid Laurier will speak, and is expected to offer an amendment which will condemn Finance Minister White's proposal to destroy the British preference.

Dr. Michael Clark, of Red Deer, will be heard in defence of the British doctrines which he has always stood for so strongly.

It is expected that the debate will finally be closed early next week.

Blain Speaks for Farmers.

Because they criticized the budget, the Liberals tonight were charged by Richard Blain, of Peel, with indulging in political, partisian discussion.

"The farmers are able to take care of themselves," said Mr. Blain, "and the poor men don't require special pleaders in this House." He said that the farmers were willing to bear their share of the burden of taxation, which the minister of finance proposed to place upon them.

A plea for economy and greater production was made by Mr. Roch Lancelot (Liberal), speaking in French. He urged the Government to drop its proposed taxation increases and to abandon its plan of destroying the British preference.

Canada Should Send Food.

Mr. Bellemare, of Maskinonge (Conservative) quoted with approval the declaration of the Westminister Gazette that Canada could best aid the empire by growing greater quantities of foods. For himself he believed that it would be better for Canada to send fewer men to the front, so that the capacity of the Dominion for production might not be decreased.

Manufacturer the Gainer.

That the "Made in Canada" cry was simply a scheme to rob the consumer, and, to give the scheme an air of respectability it had been rolled up the old flag, was declared by Levi Thompson, of Quappelle. The stamp and customs taxes which are now being applied would possibly put thirty millions of dollars into the treasury but would certainly enable the manufacturers to take fifty millions out of the pockets of the people.

J. H. Fisher, of Brant championed the "Made in Canada" propaganda and urged that soldiers at the front should have the right to vote, he spoke for a thousand men who had gone from his riding and who should be allowed to exercise their franchise while fighting.

B. B. Law, of Yarmouth, contrasted thep romises and performances of Sir Robert Borden. In opposition he had promised economy. In Government he had doubled expenditure.

DEMANDS OF JAPAN CALLED DISQUIETING

Daily News Lays Stress On the Vague Reply of Sir Edward Grey.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—The Daily News in an editorial says: "Sir Edward Grey's answer in the House of Commons yesterday on the subject of the demands which Japan has made on China was vague, but disquieting. As to the nature of the demands, there seems to be no dispute. They are of a character which, in normal circumstances, would evoke world-wide discussion, for they amount practically to an overlordship by Japan in regard to China and a far-reaching claim to control China's internal economy, with all that claim involves in regard to the interests of other nations.

"Sir Edward Grey said he had made no communication on the subject to any foreign government, and, while he expressed readiness to listen to authoritative commercial opinions, and stated we were considering how to safeguard British interests, he declined to make any detailed statement on the subject at present. His reserve is, in the circumstances, natural, and doubtless necessary, but the incident shows that grave problems are cut off from public discussion by the silence imposed by the war."

NOT ADVANTAGEOUS TO BORROW FROM AMERICA

Lloyd George Discusses Means of Steadying Rates of Exchange.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—The question of preventing fluctuations in rates of exchange was discussed last night at a meeting between David Lloyd George, chancellor of the Exchequer; Lord Reading, lord chief justice, and the governor of the Bank of England and a committee of members of Parliament.

Explaining the attitude of the Government, Lloyd George said he had made a special arrangement with Russia under which no embargo would be placed on butter, wheat or other foodstuffs so far as Britain was concerned. With regard to the United States, he said that as long as Great Britain enjoyed the confidence which existed with regard to loans it would not be advantageous to borrow in America at present. He believed exchange with Russia would right itself as soon as that country could resume exportations with the opening of Black Sea ports.

NEW ZEPPELIN

Berne, via Paris, March 10.—A new Zeppelin, which is now being given trials over Lake Constance, will be the ninth to leave Friedrichshaff since the war began.

DESTRUCTION ONLY OBJECT OF ENEMY

Germans Bombard Factories and Works Without Hope of Capture.

[Canadian Press.]

North of France, March 10.—An apparent sign of the mental state of the Germans is the manner in which they start bombardments for which there is no justification from a military point of view.

For a week they have been trying to destroy as many works and factories between La Bassee and Bethune as they could find within range of their guns. They now realize that they will never be able to force the Anglo-French barrier that is drawn across their path between these two towns, and as they can never hope to make use of those industrial concerns, they are apparently doing their best to make them of no use to anyone else.

The same motive explains their course at Lille, Roubaix and other industrial centres. Their fire for the last week has been principally directed upon the coal mines of Noeux-les-Mines, four miles south of Bethune. Fortunately some pits are well out of range of the German guns.

WOMAN WAS FROZEN

Nome, Alaska, March 10.—The body of Mrs. Emma Dalquist, who became lost in a blizzard Sunday night while driving a dog team from Safety to Nome, a distance of 22 miles, was found buried under a snowdrift yesterday. She had been frozen to death. It was believed the woman's mind had become deranged in the bitter cold, for she had thrown away her mittens and muklaks (fur shoes).

The body was found by A. A. (Scotty) Allan, racing-dog driver, who had been on a search for her.

BELGIAN VIOLATION AROUSED BRITAIN

Many Would Have Opposed War But For Germany's Action.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—The Yorkshire Post says that Premier Asquith was evidently disinclined yesterday to discuss the statement of Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George that, but for the violation of the neutrality of Belgium, he would not have been a party to the war.

"The Prime Minister," says the Post, "can hardly at this stage be expected to reveal the differences that existed in the cabinet at the end of July, but it is generally believed in political circles that at least seven members of the Government were prepared to resign and start an anti-war agitation, until Germany began to send her armies through Belgium.

"That made all the difference. It was not only a case of our pledged word, but of high British policy, and every speaker who has addressed a public meeting since the war began agrees that it is the violation of Belgium that most aroused the British people to the necessity of taking up arms."

CREW OF SEALER ESCAPES OVER ICE

[Canadian Press.]

St. Johns, Nfld., March 10.—The wireless operator and ten men of the crew of the sealing steamer Erik, caught in the ice off Bay Bulls, 15 miles south of here, came ashore over the ice today, having left their ship last night. The Erik has about 120 men on board.

Earlier reports were that the Erik had escaped from the ice, with three other sealers.

ALLIED SITUATION NEVER BRIGHTER

Britain Considers Situation On Land and Sea Distinctly Favorable.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—As Britain sees it, not since war began has the situation, both on land and sea, been more favorable to the Allies than it is today. Confident opinions of this nature are finding constant expression in London.

Slowly, but surely, the allied fleet is creeping toward Constantinople, and thus opening another road to Berlin; the retirement of Field Marshal von Hindenburg's army from North Poland is said to be imminent by many British observers of affairs; in the west the Allies claim the ascendancy all along the line, although no decisive engagements are being fought, while in the Balkans and in Italy, according to British interpretation of the political news from these countries, the majority is clamoring for intervention on the side of Great Britain, France and Russia. This is said to be notably true in Greece and Roumania, in spite of the fact that the governments of these countries still cling outwardly to the policy of neutrality.

MORE FALSE RUMORS

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, March 10.—The Government again called attention today to the dissemination of false news, such as the reported suspension by order of all correspondence between soldiers and their families, and the requisition of public school buildings for the use of the sanitary department.

A semi-official note says that these rumors are absolutely false, and tend to demoralize the people.

INVITED TO ADDRESS AMERICANS ON WAR

Rev. R. J. Campbell, of London, Asked to Make Tour.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, March 10.—A London cable to the Herald says: "Rev. R. J. Campbell, the distinguished Congregationalist minister of the City Temple, announces that he has received a letter from one of the foremost preachers of the United States, asking him to address the American public on the war. The writer offers to take charge of the City Temple during Rev. Mr. Campbell's absence.

"If I go," says Mr. Campbell, "it will be after Sunday, March 21."

WHITE STAR STEAMER TAKEN BY ADMIRALTY

MONTREAL, March 9.—Another liner was taken off the Canadian route today when the White Star-Dominion Ship Southland was commandeered by the Government for war purposes.

This leaves the White Star-Dominion Line with one passenger steamer between Canada and Great Britain, the Northland, which was chartered from the Red Star Line. The Southland which carried part of the last detachment of Canadian troops to England, was booked to sail from Liverpool on March 13, and from Halifax on the 28th on the return voyage.

BARLEY EXPROPRIATED

Bundesrath Seizes All Stocks Over Ton, Except for Seeds.

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, via London, March 10.—Expropriation of all stocks of barley exceeding a metric ton (2,204 pounds) has been ordered by the Bundesrath. Certain exceptions are made, however, for farmers, stock owners and persons who wish to use the grain for seed purposes.

PNEUMONIA TAKES MAN; WIFE AT DEATH'S DOOR

[Canadian Press.]

New York, March 10.—Charles A. Schieren, formerly mayor of Brooklyn, who has been at death's door with pneumonia for several days, died at his home in Brooklyn today.

In an adjoining room his wife lay so ill of the same malady that it was thought she could not live the day out. They had been planning to celebrate their golden wedding in November.

NOTED EDUCATOR DEAD

Sir James Donaldson Was Eighty-Four Years of Age.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 10.—Sir James Donaldson, vice chancellor of the University of St. Andrew's and principal of the United College of St. Salvador and St. Leonard, died last night at the age of 84 years.

Sir James Donaldson was one of the widely-known educators of Great Britain. He was knighted by King Edward in 1907.

ALL REDUCE RATES.

London, March 10.—All British trans-Atlantic steamship companies have followed the lead of the Cunard Line and reduced the rate for second-class passengers to New York to $50.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

THE LOCAL MARKET

It was a case of the early bird catching the worm, or rather, the high prices for hay on the local market today. The first few men on the square with hay realized $17 per ton for it. Later on, the prevailing price was $16 per ton, a few getting $16.50 per ton. There were 40 loads in.

Oats ran from $1.84 to $1.87 per hundredweight, with a good demand.

Butter is still extremely scarce. No change in prices is noted.

Apples are also scarce. The demand seems to be picking up a trifle.

Dealers declare that eggs will be cheaper again Saturday.

There is a good demand for wheat at quoted prices.

Straw is in demand from $8 to $8.50 per ton.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, March 9.—Another substantial advance took place today in the wheat market, opening prices being 1⅝c to 4½c higher, and May advanced a further 1⅞c, while July and October opening figures were the high points previous to noon. All the months eased off considerably, and at noon May was $1.50½; July, $1.50⅛, and October, $1.15½.

While the amount of business in futures was not so heavy as on Monday, there was a good class of buying. Sentiment, it was claimed, was less bullish about midday, a reaction being expected in the face of the very rapid advance of the past few days, but this did not materialize.

Export business was active, so far as inquiries go, but no new transactions were recorded, the rapid advance being a deterrent. The demand for cash wheat was excellent, and quite a heavy business was carried through in No. 2 northern wheat, both for spot and for the opening of navigation delivery. The spreads were again narrowing today, showing the keenness of the demand.

Inspections on Tuesday were 487 cars, of which 325 were wheat, and in sight today were 400 cars.

Oats opened ½c higher, making a further fractional gain, and flax was unchanged to 1c higher, but trading was light. Wheat futures closed 5c higher for May and July, and 1⅝c higher for October. Cash wheat closed 4⅝c to 5⅛c higher on contract; oats, ¼c to to ⅝c, and flax, ½c to 1½c higher.

Cash Grain: Wheat—No. 1 northern, $1.50; No. 2 northern, $1.48½; No. 3 northern, $1.45¾ ;No. 4, $1.40; No. 5, $1.36; No. 6, $1.32; feed, $1.27.

Oats—No. 2 Canadian western, 62c; No. 3 Canadian western, 59c; extra No. 1 feed, 58¼c; No. 1 feed, 57c.

Barley—No. 3, 75c; No. 4, 72c; feed, 67c.

Flax—No. 1 N. W. C., $1.62¾; No. 2 Canadian western, $1.59¾.

Chicago, March 10.—Wheat prices tumbled today as a result of London rumors that the German Imperial Chancellor would announce terms on which Germany was willing to make peace. The market was also affected by assertions that shipping facilities for exporters were getting worse daily, and that charters were difficult to obtain at any price. Scantiness of country offerings, however, helped to cause rallies. After opening 1⅛c to 4⅛c lower, the market suffered a slight further break, and then recovered to a moderate extent.

WALL STREET.

New York, March 10—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Standard stocks were inclined to greater heaviness in today's initial trading, Reading, Southern Pacific and United States Steel making fractional declines. Specialties moved irregularly, gain in Motors, American linseed and Pittsburg Coal, preferred, being offset by proportionate declines in American Tobacco, Great Northern Ore certificates, Consolidated Gas and American Express. Traders seemed disposed to await the result of the New York State bond sale and the steel tonnage figures for February before taking a definite stand. Of the entire international list Canadian Pacific alone showed strength in the London market.

Noon.—Speculative favorites made full recovery by noon, Canadian Pacific gaining a point. Trading was exceedingly dull, however, with no initiative from either side. Developments bearing upon financial conditions were mixed, but the further rise in the price of the New York State bonds on the curb augured well for the success of that offering. Missouri Pacific yielded more of yesterday's rise, in anticipation of a drastic reorganization of the interests now in control. American Tobacco's decline was followed by an adverse annual report. Bonds were heavy.

1:30 p.m.—Prices rose spiritedly in the afternoon, Steel rising ¾ above its early low quotation, although the tonnage figures were not up to expectations. American Sugar was unusually active and strong, and other specialties extended their gains of the morning.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

London, March 10.—Money and discount rates were quiet today. Bar silver advanced ½d, owing to lack of supplies from America and small Indian buying orders.

The features on the stock exchange were the large business done in oil shares and a broadening demand for South African gold mines at firmer prices. Gilt-edged securities, especially colonial bonds, were wanted by investors and the war loan was active. Japanese and Brazilian bonds were most active in the foreign section.

American securities failed to maintain yesterday's improvement, and closed easy.

WEST OXFORD'S REEVE HEADS PATRIOTIC FUND

INGERSOLL, March 9.—The campaign in West Oxford on behalf of the patriotic fund has been launched under very encouraging conditions at a meeting at Folden's. Reeve James Pullin, of the township, presided, and it was decided to canvass on March 24, and it will continue for two days. Reeve Pullin was appointed chairman for the township, and B. G. Jenvey, secretary-treasurer. Committees were appointed for four divisions, and the work will be inaugurated along the systematic lines laid down by the Oxford County Patriotic Association.

Reeve Pullin started the ball rolling with a subscription of $100.

How to Curl the Hair In Damp Weather

Damp days have no terror for the woman who has adopted the slimerine method of keeping her hair in curl. The effect is more lasting than where the hot waving iron is used, and yet the hair is quite manageable, regardless of how it is done up. Besides, the hair has the appearance of being more naturally wavy and curly, and the application is really beneficial to the life and growth of the hair.

In dry weather the hair will, of course, remain beautifully curly and fluffy for a still longer period. Most any druggist can supply the liquid slimerine and one need not get more than a few ounces. A small quantity should be put on before retiring, using for the purpose a clean toothbrush, drawing this down the full length of the hair from root to tip. The effect upon arising is delightfully surprising and there is no discoloration, no stickiness, greasiness, nor any other unpleasant accompaniment.

Voice of the People

Cheers for the Soldiers.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I notice in your issue of the 8th the letter written by Mr. Walter Smith, of Byron. I quite agree with everything he says.

I will take my hat off to every soldier that goes to the front, and I think we should give the boys a warm send-off when they leave our city; in fact, I think we should do it in some way before they leave. I will admit that I was one of the many standing on Dundas street on Saturday, watching the boys march down the street, and did not cheer.

It was not because I did not wish to cheer, but there was a feeling came over me, which I think did over the majority of the people, that made us feel that we did not want to cheer. It really seemed more like a funeral procession than anything else.

I never saw a finer body of men march down our streets, and why the people did not cheer them is more than I can understand. I really think had there been a good band at the head of the procession to liven things up, you would have heard lots of cheering.

I think myself, had Col. Wigle asked the citizens of London to subscribe some money to have a good band or more, he would not have had much trouble in getting it. We often hear that the city of London has always been against the military, which I do not believe. I think the citizens of London could warm up a little better than they do towards the military, but as to their being dead against it, I do not believe it. I, for one, have always done everything I could to make their visit here as pleasant as possible.

I have not seen one drunken soldier since the men have been in this city. No doubt, there have been a few, but when you take into consideration the number of men here, I think they have done well. Because a few men should get a little too much liquor, why should we throw stones at the whole lot of them. It is not in keeping with the Good Book. In my travels around the world, I have seen ministers of the Gospel get too much liquor, and there would be just as much reason for us to condemn all of them as there would be for us to condemn all the soldiers.

I remember a few years ago of a ministers' convention being held in this city, and our papers stated that some of them nearly came to blows. Now, if people of this kind cannot get along without scrapping among themselves, how can you expect the soldiers to always walk in the straight and narrow path.

I, for one, will give three cheers and a tiger for the boys that go to the front.

Yours truly,

J. L. JOHNSON.

DEMAND FOR YOUNG MEN IN ELECTRICAL FIELD

Wonderful Curative Mineral Springs.

Remarkable results have been secured in the treatment of rheumatism and kindred diseases by mineral springs in various parts of the world.

Canadians, however, will be surprised to learn that at their very door are springs that are equal to any of the famous spas of Europe.

The waters of St. Catharines Well, at St. Catharines, have been proven to be of wonderful curative properties. Rheumatism, uric-acid diseases, etc., respond quickly to their effects.

And St. Catharines enjoys the advantage of having an hotel where those who are taking the baths may stop in surroundings that are not to be excelled.

Comfort, quiet and a feeling of "athomeness" are characteristic of The Welland.

Those who are anxious to know more of this remarkable place are urged to write to The Welland, St. Catharines, Ont., for a booklet describing the waters and the accommodation to be had.

Board of Works Adopts Program For Trunk Sewers

Estimated Cost of Work Is $268,000—Protection From Flood.

The board of works last evening adopted and will pass on to the board of control the program recommended by Willis Chipman, the engineer in charge of the main storm and sanitary sewer, for this year. The estimated cost of the work recommended is $268,000, $190,000 for the storm sewer and $78,000 for the sanitary sewer.

The city engineer's pavement program, the details of which already have been published in The Advertiser, and which involves an expenditure of $185,000, also was recommended for adoption. This matter was passed upon at the last meeting of the committee but through some oversight no formal recommendation was sent on to the board of control and council. This was done last night.

General Work Totals $94,780.

The following estimates for the general work of the engineer's department for the year, amounting in the total to $94,780, were submitted by Mr. Brazier and passed: Automobile maintenance, $349; bathing camp, $659; bridges, Adelaide street, $245; Blackfriars, $1,155; Dundas street, $1,690; Egerton street, $100; King street, $1,815; Oxford street, $240; Roders bridge, $95; Ridout street, $2,910; Wellington street, $345; York street, $200; city hall supplies, $3,403; pavement sweeping, $15,659; railroad crossings, $197; registry office expenses, $408; sewers and culverts, $6,824; storage building, $935; street cleaning, $11,975; street oiling, $12,845; street oiling equipment, $11,400; streets, general, $21,271.

He recommended that the frontage rate for street watering and oiling be 4 cents a foot, the same as last year. This was approved, as was his recommendation that tenders be called for the construction of the following pavements, the bylaws for which already have been passed: Ridout street from the bridge to Craig street, vitrified brick; from Craig to Ferguson Place, asphaltic concrete; Colborne street from Queens avenue to King street and Waterloo from the G.T.R. to Bathurst street, asphalt.

Ask Protection from Flood.

A deputation headed by John Weld and including G. E. Coleman, H. B. White, C. L. Jeffrey and J. C. Middleton, all owners of property on The Ridgeway, appeared to ask that the city take some steps to prevent damage to properties by reason of the heavy flow of water down that branch of the river in flood seasons as a result of the confining of the waters which previously found a way over London West by the construction of the London West breakwater.

The delegates pointed out that, whereas there properties had never suffered before the breakwater was built, its construction had caused the water in flood times to come down with a much greater force because of its limited channel and parts of the flats had been inundated and swept away. They urged that someone competent should be instructed to make a report as to the volume of water here both before and after the breakwater was built in order to give an idea of the damage its construction had caused to Ridgeway property owners, and that the bank of the river along the flats should be protected in some way. It was suggested that the work should be done as part of the breakwater work and charged up with it.

They were promised that an investigation would be conducted.

Horses for Garbage Department.

Several of the members of No. 3 committee attended the meeting to discuss with the board of works a proposal that several new teams should be purchased for the garbage department, and rented to the works department during the spring and summer months. The question of price caused some discussion, but eventually it was agreed that the difference between the actual cost to the garbage department, which Superintendent Dodd placed at $3.20 a day, and the usual hire rate of $5 a day should be divided equally between the two departments.

It is expected that at least eight new teams will be bought under this arrangement, which will mean a saving to the city of $14.40 a day at the rate of $1.80 a team.

A communication from the trades and labor council, suggesting the erection of ap ublic bathhouse on the ground that "cleanliness was next to Godliness," was filed.

A number of damage claims of various natures, referred to the committee from the board of control, were dealt with, most of them being filed on the ground that they were outlawed or simply sent back without recommendation.

MILITARY ORDERS FOR 1ST DIVISION

Division orders issued by the officer commanding 1st Division, headquarters, 1st Division, London, Ont., March 8, 1915:

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF.

President, Maj. D. H. Hogg, A.A.D. M.S., first division.

Members: Maj. H. A. Kingsmill, A. M. C.; Hon. Capt. W. H. Irvine, A.M.C.

No. 47, Infected Clothing and Equipment.

No infected bedding, clothing or equipment is to be burned without first obtaining the sanction of the A.D.M.S., 1st Division.

(Signed) W. A. McCRIMMON, Lieutenant-Colonel for A.A.G., 1st Division.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

ST. CATHARINES, March 9.—The grand jury today returned a true bill against Pte. Jack Hartley, charged with the murder of Pte. Theodore Burgoyne. The two soldiers were part of the canal guard here, and the shooting took place last fall. If the soldiers who were alleged to have witnessed the shooting are unable to be present, their depositions will be taken as evidence for the crown.

Mr. Ross Urges Compensation For Farmers

Points to Danger From Foot and Mouth Disease—Premier Makes Promise.

That immediate legislation should be provided to compensate adequately farmers whose cattle have to be slaughtered in the public interest, was urged by D. C. Ross, M. P., West Middlesex, in the House of Commons recently.

Mr. Ross brought to the attention of the Government the danger from the foot and mouth disease, and up insisting upon his point, notwithstanding an evasive reply from the Minister of Customs, drew from Premier Borden the acknowledgment that no steps had so far been taken to amend the present inadequate act governing this question. The Premier promised to ask for a report.

The debate appears as follows in the official report of the House of Commons:

Mr. D. C. Ross (West Middlesex): I desire to make an inquiry of the Government with regard to a matter that I consider of very urgent public importance at this time of great need for the conservation of our food supplies for Canada and the empire. I refer to the foot and mouth disease, which has approached very close to our borders, having reached Detroit. I would like to know from the Government if every precaution is being taken to avert this great provincial and national disaster. I would like to inquire further, whether, considering the danger that is threatened, and considering the increased price of cattle and the absolutely inadequate compensation that is made for cattle slaughtered in order to prevent the spread of the disease, it is the intention of the Government at this session to so amend the act that proper compensation can be made to graziers and farmers whose cattle have to be slaughtered in the public interest and to prevent the spread of the disease?

Hon. J. D Reid (Minister of Customs): The Department of Agriculture are taking every precaution to prevent the foot and mouth disease entering Canada. An extra staff of employees has been placed at all ports of entry, and the head of that branch of the department, Dr. Torrance, is giving the matter special attention, with a view to doing everything to prevent this disease entering Canada. As to the latter part of the honorable gentleman's question, that is a matter with which, I suppose, the Minister of Agriculture has been dealing and in his absence I am not informed on the subject.

Mr. Ross: In spite of the absence of the Minister of Agriculture, the matter should receive the Government's very prompt and serious attention.

Sir Robert Borden (Prime Minister): The fact as it is now on the statute books has been in force, I believe, for many years. The Minister of Agriculture has not brought to my attention any proposal to amend it. However, I shall inform him of what the honorable member has suggested and will ask a report from him in regard to it.

CRIME AMONG WOMEN NOT DECREASING ANY

Sheriff Cameron Asserts It Is Increasing—Few Interned At Jail.

That crime in the city among female delinquents is on the decrease, is doubted by the jail authorities, yet it is a well-known fact that the number of women that are sentenced to terms in the county jail is becoming smaller and smaller each year. It is two weeks now since there has been a female prisoner at the jail, and since Christmas they have been few and far between. It was stated that some years ago it was a common occurrence for the eighteen cots in the women's portion of the jail to be occupied every night, but that it had been years since even half of them were used at one time.

Says Crime Is Decreasing.

Is crime on the decrease among women? It is, according to Deputy Sheriff Watterworth, who also occupies the position of high constable.

"There is no doubt that crime of all classes is decreasing, especially among women," declared Mr. Watterworth. It is more than 50 per cent lighter than it was 20 years ago. The drinking characters, both men and women are growing fewer each year, while the female class is decreasing all the time. It is very seldom that a woman is sent down for a term these days.

On the other hand, Sheriff Cameron believes that crime is on the increase. "Facts are against the statement that crime is on the decrease," said Sheriff Cameron. "It is statistics that tell, and the jail statement issued last September showed that there were a good many hundreds of female delinquents who were registered at the jail for various periods of time. It was the largest number for the same period that have been in jail for at least 20 years. The warden of the Central Prison is the authority for the statement that there is a lamentable increase in crime among young women between the ages of 18 to 24."

Not As Many Women Prisoners.

"Of course, we don't know whether crime among women is on the decrease or not," said one of the jail matrons in conversation with an Advertiser reporter, "but we do know that we are not getting the same number of prisoners that we were 20 years ago. It is a fact that the women will not stay here if they can possibly get their fines paid. They will send out and collect the money from friends in nickels and dimes if necessary, and if this method fails, they will often get friends to pawn their household goods. They will do anything rather than spend a few weeks in jail. It has been some time since we have had the cells even half filled with women prisoners."

DON'T NEGLECT BOY IN RACE FOR RICHES

Advice of Dr. Gordon To Fathers in the City of London.

MISTAKE IN BUSINESS

Evangelist Advises Hearers Not To Sacrifice All Else to Occupation.

Dr. Gordon, the Winnipeg evangelist, who has entered on the second week of his three weeks' Christian citizenship campaign in the First Methodist Church, drew a large crowd last night. Although Dr. Gordon's talks (they are not sermons) may appear to be somewhat sensational, as far as the title indicates, yet no preacher or evangelist has given more good advice or spoken more common sense to the people of London than has Dr. Gordon, church-people say.

"The Mistakes of Married People" was the subject of Dr. Gordon's talk last night. While having a word of advice to all classes, he paid particular attention to the masculine division of humanity. He began by quoting the words of Thomas Carlyle: "If I could only find men like my father and his minister."

"I wonder what there was about the father of Thomas Carlyle and his pastor that impressed the younger Carlyle so profound," said Dr. Gordon. "All truth comes to us, through personality. Emerson has said that every true man is a cause, a country and an age.

"Germany has produced great thinkers, England great statesmen, the United States great merchants, Scotland great philosophers, France great writers, Wales great preachers, Ireland great orators, Italy great artists: Israel produced great prophets. I wonder what will be the predominating characteristics of our future Canadian manhood. Our theme tonight is 'Manhood in relationship to home life,' and I am to speak to you concerning the mistakes of married men.

Social Selfishness.

"First, let me speak of the mistake of living for your own family alone. There is such a thing as social selfishness enthroned in the home life. Your children are exceedingly precious to you, but no more precious to you than other children are to their parents. The man who refuses a contribution to the Y.M.C.A. because he has no boys or youths in his family practically decides that the young men of the community can go to the devil so far as he is concerned. It is a pardonable weakness that a man should have too high a regard for the welfare of his own family, but herein is sometimes illustrated the meanness of a selfish heart; in other words, the hellishness of selfishness.

"Let me speak of the mistake in not providing for the future financial welfare of your family. A marriage certificate and an insurance policy should go together. A love which does not include financial foresight is a beggarly sort of affection. Sir Bulwar Lytton hit the nail precisely on the head when he said 'Never treat money affairs with levity, for money is character.' Make some provision for the future. Let it be understood that the insurance agent is one of the best promotors of our civilization. He stands for a sane type of socialism. Never sneer at an insurance agent. His presence is exceedingly welcome as representing a great institution for human co-operation when the crepe hangs black on the door bell.

"Let me speak of the mistake of compromising your family, by engaging in a mean business. No man engaged in the liquor business today is proud of his calling. If he is shy on the subject, it must also be remembered that his wife and his daughters are called upon to hang their heads in shame. There are a lot of lovely people who are engaged in the liquor business, but please God I will do all in my power to get them out of it. It doesn't take brains, genius, or peculiar ability to make a financial profit by selling whisky at fifteen cents per glass or two for a quarter. The saloon is a national nuisance and an individual curse.

Children's Knowledge.

"It is a mistake to suppose that your children are not acquainted with your habits. A man once said to me, 'Dr. Gordon, I swear, but not in the presence of my children. My children do not know that I swear.' Friend, do not fool yourself. What your children do not know about you is not worth knowing. There is nothing so sensitive as the soul of a child. If you swear, if you drink, if you lie, if you gamble, if you are impure, your children know it.

"Let me speak of the mistake of club life, to break and to blast your home. A decent club is a splendid thing, but how many stenchful institutions of a social sort are crowned with the appellation club. Dr. Newell Dwight Helles stood in a Brooklyn mansion, stood by an ancient millionaire banker, and looked down into the coffin which contained his dead daughter, eighteen years of age, and these were the words he muttered, 'Daughter dead; son disgraced; billiards; society; the club; bank all the week; the club every evening; automobile all day Sunday; money; wine; cards; parties; my family ruined; there's nothing in it.'

"The mistake of neglecting the boys who shall bear your name. The boy needs a father just as surely as a girl needs the attention of a mother. Dwight L. Moody said that he knew twelve men in Philadelphia who would give a quarter of a million dollars each if their sons could be redeemed to honor, sobriety and industry. These men were millionaires, and while they made their millions their boys were being lost. Will a million dollars pay for the ruin of a boy?

"Let me speak once again of the working of seven days in the week. The Sabbath is a physical necessity. If you do not take your Sunday regularly, the chances are that you will take them in a row. The Sabbath is a spiritual necessity. Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every thought that proceedeth out of the heart of God. Voltaire once said 'There is no hope of destroying Christianity so long as the Sabbath is kept sacred.' No Sabbath, no church. No church, no worship. No worship, no religion. No religion, no morality. No morality, then anarchy.

Too Much Business.

"Let me speak of the mistake of allowing your business to crowd out every other issue. When Harriman, the American millionaire, was dying, there were three telephones in his room and a telegraph instrument ticking just outside the door.

"Let me speak of the mistake of living and working on stimulants. That man is a fool who mortgages the future by burning out the fuses of his body before he is fifty years of age. When your liver is rotted even Christian Science can't save you. I have a message to the drinking man, when he turned to the procession that was following him and attempted to remonstrate with the men. His voice was drowned in the uproar that broke out afresh.

"We want no cowards in our ranks," one of the men in khaki is credited with calling shrilly, as a parting shot.

I wonder if he will come to this building next Sunday night and listen whilst I speak dramatically on the subject which I have chosen, 'Ten nights in a bar-room.' That talk will be more thrilling and more real than the best motion picture film that is in the city at the present time.

"How the children loved Eugene Field. Was there ever a poet more tender-hearted? What magnificent things he wrote about childhood, and yet such was his weakness for strong drink that when he served a great American newspaper as a reporter, his wife was compelled to report at the cashier's desk every Saturday and collect his salary in order that it should not be spent for drink. 'I am dying,' said a man whose whole nervous system was aflame with strong drink. 'I am dying, hopeless, friendless, penniless, an absolute outcast and it might have been so different.'

Wife's Religion.

"The mistake of opposing your wife's religion in the presence of your children. The man who sneers at his wife's religion is an ignoramus. He is about the smallest specimen of humanity to be found in the community. If he knew about the eternal fitness of things he would crawl into some miserable rat hole of human obscurity and hide his brazen face from the gaze of decent people. Even an infidel might be proud of the fact that his wife is a pious devout and religious woman. The daughter of Colonel Allen, the famous infidel of Vermont, when dying, exclaimed, 'Father, shall I believe you or shall I believe mother?' After a moment of extreme agitation he said "Believe what your mother has told you." "Those are memorable words of Hannah Moore, 'No man has ever been known to defy Christianity in his dying hour.'"

Dr. Gordon's subject for tonight is "The Temptation for a Country Girl in City Life."

SOLDIER 'ESCORTED' OUT OF CAMP BY COMRADES

Alleged To Have Sought Discharge To Escape From Active Service.

Because, it is alleged, he asked for his release from the 18th Battalion, thinking that the unit was to leave the city shortly for overseas service, an ex-sergeant-major of the 16th Field Battery was "drummed" from the ranks of the battalion, at Queen's Park, yesterday afternoon.

The soldier, his erstwhile comrades allege, secured his release from the battery, because he feared that it was to leave for active service, and succeeded in enlisting in the 18th. Rumors of departure, it is said, again caused him to seek discharge from the ranks. The story spread among the men, and yesterday afternoon the word was whispered around "that there was going to be some fun."

The soldier was crossing the parade ground when the demonstration commenced. From every direction men with tin pans, drums and other instruments calculated to be excellent noise-makers, flocked towards the trooper. Then pandemonium broke loose. The man was "escorted" to the King street gate of the big concentration camp, his recent comrades who were disowning him following at his heels, with shouts of derision and clashing of tin against tin.

The dishonored one stood the ordeal coolly until the gates were reached.
