MISSING TUG FOUND BEACHED AT PT. COLBORNE

Mutinous Troops Kill Doctors In Hospital At Khartum

TUG DRIVEN ASHORE AT ERIE PORT

Fishing Craft Harold G. Beck Found Beached West of Port Colborne.

NO WORD OF CREW Vessel Despatched to Scene of Wreck in Search of Survivors.

Canadian Press Despatch. Port Colborne, Nov. 28.—The missing Buffalo tug Harold G. Beck was found beached ashore one and a half miles west of Port Colborne, between Sugar Loaf hill and Morgan's Point this morning. The tug Home Rule was despatched from this port as soon as word of the find was received by telephone. She is expected back in port early this afternoon. At noon nothing is known as to whether there are any survivors.

SEARCH IN SNOWSTORM. Dunkirk, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Coast guard crews and the fishing tug fleet here resumed search this morning in a blinding snowstorm. The missing fishing tug Harold G. Beck of Buffalo, which disappeared in a fog early on Thursday morning with Captain John Beck and three members of the crew on board, was rescued by the tug Home Rule which was on the scene of the wreck. The tug was on the scene of the wreck at 10 o'clock and was able to rescue the crew. The tug was on the scene of the wreck at 10 o'clock and was able to rescue the crew.

MINERS BATTLE BIG ODDS TO RESCUE COMRADES. Cardiff, Wales, Nov. 28.—After working waist deep in water and battling deadly black damp all night, rescue crews at reach nine miners who were entrapped last night in the Penlan pit at Dunvant, when a sudden rush of water caused numerous fatalities. One body has been recovered from the debris. Several score miners escaped through water reaching to their necks.

THE CITY HALL QUESTION. This has been settled by the citizens on three previous votes, that the building is to be built on the federal square and that is where it will be built in 1925 if you vote NO on the proposition (to build on the Spencer site) that you are asked to vote on at this (1924) election. AS IT IS UNNECESSARY TO HAVE YOU VOTE AGAIN.

PROMISE AND PERFORMANCE

Here on one side is a list of what Mayor Wenige promised to do in his last election platform, December, 1922—and here on the other side is a parallel list of what the city's records show on each promised point—compare these lists and ask if Wenige has made good as a business mayor.

Mayor G. A. Wenige tells the people that he is the candidate "who promises nothing he cannot perform." He used the same claim and by it won election in 1922. In 1922 the people had to take his word for it. He had no record, good or bad. In 1923 he excused his failures to make good his promises with the claim that the aldermen would not work with him; this despite the fact that nine months after assuming office he endorsed for re-election eight of the twelve members of the aldermanic board. He was returned for 1924 by acclamation and claimed at the commencement of the year that a majority of the new council were his supporters. Thus bereft of the ground on which he sidestepped his responsibilities a year ago, he stands before the people for judgment today.

"City management," he told the people, "is like building a house. Have a plan and work to it. MY PLATFORM WILL POSITIVELY BE CARRIED OUT IF YOU SAY SO."

George A. Wenige was elected by the people on the strength of his pledge to work to his plan. Here is his platform, as he gave it before election, and here is the record of his work:

WENIGE'S ELECTION PLATFORM.

CIVIC WORK.

All jobs must be on a competitive basis, and the engineer will be compelled to tender along with others, and will be made to do the work within his tender.

CITY HALL SALARY REDUCTIONS.

Not one salary has been reduced. Some have been substantially increased.

COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

An immediate move to secure a commission form of government, with a city manager, a finance director, and a purchasing agent, who will be responsible for all city purchases, together with a small board of directors, elected by the people, who will in turn be responsible for the appointments they make. The Ontario Municipal Act PERMITS THIS and you have already voted in favor of it. (At Ealing school on Friday, Dec. 11, 1923, and at other meetings Wenige quoted George V., Chapter 14, Section 2D, to prove it could be done, and added: "You voted in favor of this several years ago, but BRING AT THE CITY HALL DID NOT TAKE UP THE QUESTION IN THE RIGHT WAY.")

CITY OF LONDON BILL.

Will be used only for the purposes for which it was intended—emergency cases—and WILL NOT BE USED IN PUTTING THINGS OVER ON THE CITIZENS AGAINST THEIR WILL.

A PAY-AS-YOU-GO POLICY.

will be adhered to. The amount of work to be undertaken must be within our income. NO NECESSARY DEBENTURES WILL BE ISSUED. OUR DEBT MUST BE REDUCED, AND THIS WILL REDUCE OUR TAXES.

LARGE EXPENDITURES OF MONEY MUST BE VOTED ON BY THE PEOPLE.

SETTLEMENT OF THE GAS QUESTION. I will insist on the return to the citizens of the $65,000 illegally collected, which the judge said they had no legal right to collect and no moral right to retain. THIS IS A MATTER FOR THE CIVIC AUTHORITIES TO COLLECT, AND IT CAN AND WILL BE COLLECTED.

SOUTHEASTERN PART OF THE CITY

will receive better and more street lights. London is the home of hydro and is one of the poorest lighted cities in Ontario.

WEST LONDON

will get the pavements they are entitled to. This is a part of the city that has been neglected too long.

THE CITY HALL QUESTION.

This has been settled by the citizens on three previous votes, that the building is to be built on the federal square and that is where it will be built in 1925 if you vote NO on the proposition (to build on the Spencer site) that you are asked to vote on at this (1924) election. AS IT IS UNNECESSARY TO HAVE YOU VOTE AGAIN.

KHARTUM REVOLT IS QUELLED

Three Doctors in Army Hospital Killed by Mutinous Native Troops.

TROUBLE EXPECTED

Arrest of Egyptian Extremists Will Relieve Situation to Great Extent.

Associated Press Despatch. Cairo, Nov. 28.—Two platoons of the eleventh Sudanese at Khartoum today mutinied and attacked the military hospital, killing one British and two Syrian doctors. British troops fired on the mutineers, who suffered several casualties. Further details of the mutiny are not yet available. It is known, however, that a certain restlessness existed in the eleventh battalion last August. The big meeting of the students of Al Azhar university, called for today, passed off without incident. British cavalry and infantry again paraded in the morning. The room was well filled with residents of the 10th line district who are interested in the matter. Mr. and Mrs. Hart, the parents of the girl who has so narrowly escaped, being among those present. Crown-Attorney Ball stated that he did not think the girl realized what it was a difficult matter to decide what to do until after Mr. Ecker had made his investigation.

Arrests Remove Danger.

It is stated in official quarters, however, that it was expected, if trouble broke out along the Nile, it would originate in the Sudan. While a mutiny of troops was not an expected possibility, it was not left outside official calculations, and the government feels that it has the position so in hand that spreading of the disorders to Egypt is improbable. The arrest and imprisonment of the leaders of the Egyptian extremists removes the greatest dangers to the situation in Cairo and Alexandria, which are the old, wasteful, unsympathetic customer, with no co-ordination of spending units is undisturbed. The plan of a small directorate has been dropped since 1922, and a vote is now to be taken on new proposals devised by a joint committee.

BROTHER DENIES HE SLEW HALF-SISTERS

H. D. Williams Arraigned in Fredericton on Murder Charge.

Canadian Press Despatch. Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 28.—Harry D. Williams, charged with murder of his half-sisters, appeared in the police court this afternoon and was remanded until Friday, Dec. 5, when his preliminary examination is to commence.

REPLY OF RUSSIANS RECEIVED IN LONDON

Dissatisfaction Over Red Letter Situation Is Hinted.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Nov. 28.—The Russian reply to the British note regarding the alleged Zinovieff letter and the Anglo-Russian treaty has been received in London and it is expected that Christian Rakovsky, the Soviet charge d'affaires, will deliver it to the foreign office today.

SIR GILBERT PARKER SPENDS RESTFUL NIGHT

Aiken, S.C., Nov. 27.—Sir Gilbert Parker, the Canadian author, who was run down by an automobile here last night, spent a restful night. Sir Gilbert is spending the winter here.

R. P. GOUGH, former Home Bank director, whose trial on charges of making false statements, started in Toronto this morning before Judge Coatsworth. Gough is the fourth director to face the court.

JEALOUSY NOT MOTIVE IN ATTEMPT TO POISON

No Charge To Be Laid Against East Zorra Girl Until Examination.

TEACHER TESTIFIES

Paris Green Placed on Girl's Lunch Few Minutes to Twelve.

Special to The Advertiser. Woodstock, Nov. 28.—No charge of any kind will be laid against Mildred Potter, the East Zorra school girl who admits having placed Paris green on the lunch of Margaret Hart, one of her school mates at the tenth line school, until a mental examination is made and a full investigation procedure could be taken, and he felt that under the circumstances, the girl being under 13 years of age, it was the best thing to do in the matter.

Jealousy Not Motive.

That jealousy was not the motive for the poisoning attempt, as was at first thought, was made apparent from statements made by Mrs. Hart and by Miss C. Dundas, teacher of the school at which the incident occurred. The girl's parents, it appears, have been separated for some years, and for other reasons, Mildred Potter was shunned to a large extent by the pupils of the school, with the exception of one who had been her classmate. At various times there has been trouble between her and the other scholars, and this culminated in the poisoning of Margaret Hart's lunch. Mrs. Hart had the food to show the magistrate this morning, and several pieces of bread were sprinkled with the deadly poison.

Threatened To Commit Suicide.

According to Miss Dundas, one of the other scholars told her that the girl had threatened to take Paris green herself the day before this incident occurred on account of the attitude of the other pupils towards her. She was a fairly bright pupil, said Miss Dundas, and was very good in some subjects. She was in the Junior class and was twelve years old. There always had been a more or less extent, some had feeling between her and the rest of the pupils, however, and the other girls did not associate with her at all.

RECORD IS CREATED IN RADIO COMMUNICATION

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—What is believed to be a record for two-way communication between ship and shore was established recently when the radio station of the department of marine and fisheries at Estevan, P.C., communicated with the Es. Takiti, bound from Australia to San Francisco, at a distance of 4,800 nautical miles.

What Saturday Brings

The tradition of the Saturday night bath is fading—fading because no one has time for it. And the Advertiser is to blame! The splendid rotogravure section, with local and world pictures—eight pages of the brightest comics produced, and a magazine section brimful of interest, are added features each Saturday. Tomorrow Advertiser writers and artists tell a new story—watch for it!

QUEEN'S ALUMNI WILL HOLD BANQUET TONIGHT

The Western Ontario Queen's Alumni Association is holding its annual banquet tonight at Smallman & Ingram's at 6:30 p.m.

WOMEN MISSIONARIES DID NOT LEAVE HOME

Associated Press Despatch. Hankow, China, Nov. 28.—Misses Elizabeth Berglund and Ingeborg Nystul, United States missionaries, reported missing after Chinese bandits captured Juchow are now reported to have remained at Juchow. All other foreigners in Juchow at the time escaped to Kiahshen, 25 miles away.

YOUNG FARMER LOSES LIFE IN TRYING TO SAVE ANIMALS

Quebec, Nov. 28.—J. Beaulieu, a farmer of Ste. Francoise, Temiscouata county, was burned to death yesterday when he made a valiant attempt to save the animals in his father's stables, which had caught fire.

LIVE STOCK COMMISSIONER DIES

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 28.—W. T. McDonald, 55, live stock commissioner for British Columbia, and one of the best-known cattle experts in the West, died yesterday.

Canada's Trade On Increase

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Nov. 28.—Canada is buying less from and selling more to the United States than she was a year ago. In the twelve months ended October, the imports from the United States were $34,000,000, a drop of $66,000,000 compared with a year ago. Exports to the United States were $418,000,000, a betterment of $7,000,000 over a year ago. Canada's balance of trade with the United States therefore shows an improvement of $92,000,000.

JUDGE HAS GIVEN LEAVE TO APPEAL

Three Western Provinces Will Take Action Against Crow's Nest Pass Decision.

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Nov. 28.—Leave to appeal to the supreme court of Canada from the railway commission's majority judgment suspending the operation of the Crow's Nest Pass freight railway commission last night to the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. The majority judgment asserted the commission's regulatory authority despite any special act of parliament in conflict with the act creating the railway commission. Judgment was reserved as to the form of questions to be submitted to the court.

AUTO CRASH VICTIM'S CONDITION UNCHANGED

Charles Rider Lies in Hospital in an Unconscious State.

Charles Rider, of 535 Lorne avenue, who was struck by Mayor Wenige's car last night and taken to Victoria hospital, is reported this afternoon to be in an unchanged condition. Last night the diagnosis was given as suspected fracture of the skull. Hospital authorities this morning stated that diagnosis in the case was still incomplete, and that the patient is in a semi-comatose condition. Mr. Rider was struck by the car while getting off a street car. The mayor was driving from Chesley avenue school to Lorne avenue school, in which he was scheduled to hold a campaign meeting. The street pavement was covered with a slight film of snow at the time, and it is thought that it was this which caused him to slip as he stepped off the car step.

ONE KILLED, 11 INJURED WHEN TWO CARS CRASH

Lowell, Mass., Nov. 28.—In a head-on collision early this morning in this city on the Lawrence boulevard, one woman, Dr. Sadie Hopner Lightman, was killed and eleven others were injured, several seriously. The collision was between two automobiles, and all the occupants were injured.

PROVINCE'S BONDS ARE STRENGTHENED

Exchange of Ontario, Quebec Governors Augurs Well For Relations.

Special to The Advertiser.

Toronto, Nov. 28.—Canada frequently reads of important visits paid by one European diplomat to another, yet many may miss the significance of the recent exchange of courtesies between the lieutenant-governors of Ontario and Quebec at the banquet of the Ontario associated boards of trade.

Two keynote speeches were delivered, one by Hon. Narcisse Perceat, lieutenant-governor of Quebec, and the second by Lieutenant-Governor Harry Cockshutt of Ontario. The former acknowledged the great services of Mr. Cockshutt in his efforts to promote the bonne entente between the two provinces.

Reference was made by Premier Ferguson to Ontario and Quebec as "the pillars of Confederation."

Mr. Cockshutt's address was a ringing call to Ontario and Quebec to realize the opportunities that lay ahead in the development of northern Ontario.

Quebec and Ontario have sounded the spirit of co-operation in the vast work that beckons from the north to both provinces. The resources of mine, forest, farm and stream present common problems. The permanent development of northern Ontario is soon to be duplicated in northern Quebec.

Just what this means to the older parts of these provinces will be realized from the fact that last year approximately $55,000,000 was expended by the north country in wages, machinery, supplies, etc., a very substantial contribution to the welfare of Canada.

The coming together of two leading spokesmen of the provinces looked upon as the first step in adopting a "team work" policy of northern development.

C. N. R. CUTS SIX HOURS FROM WINNIPEG TRIP

A new short-cut on the Canadian National railway, via Beaverton and Parry Sound, has made possible speed records for transcontinental trains. On Dec. 6 the run from Toronto to Winnipeg will be made in 38 hours. This will be the fastest time to Winnipeg. It is 18 hours better than the present running time.

In announcing the fast service, Canadian National officials said today that the saving of nearly a working day should make the journey an attractive one.

The new schedule provides a sleeper to Fort William as well as Western points.

PAY FINES. Police court cases this morning included three citizens who were fined for speeding. The customary fine of $10 and costs was assessed in each case.

Five men were fined for being disorderly last night at a house on Clarence street. The fine imposed was $10 and costs for each offender. Two drunks also paid $10 and costs, one of the guilty ones being a resident of the Oneida reserve.

DeValera Taken Across Border

Associated Press Despatch. Belfast, Nov. 28.—Eamonn de Valera, the republican leader, who on Nov. 1 was sentenced to one month's imprisonment after entering Ulster territory in defiance of a warning from the authorities, was released at 6 o'clock this morning. He was placed on a train for Dublin and escorted to the border.

IMPERIAL BANK SHOWS GOOD REPORT FOR YEAR

Dividends and Bonus Are Paid Despite Business Depression.

The fiftieth annual statement of the Imperial Bank of Canada, which was presented at the annual meeting held in Toronto on Nov. 26, was an excellent one and reflects great credit upon a conservative and careful management.

In view of the depressed business conditions and the admittedly difficult times which our banks have been passing through, the statement of earnings and the balance sheet demonstrate what can be accomplished by a moderate-sized and conservatively-managed bank.

The profits for the year are $1,575,859.99, which added to the balance carried forward at the end of the previous year gives a total of $2,141,723.91.

The balance sheet shows that deposits are about the same as last year, and now stand at the respectable total of over $35,000,000.

The bank is in a particularly strong liquid position. Cash on hand and to order 27 per cent of the bank's liabilities to the public, while quickly realizable assets are over double this amount, or $59,000,000, representing 59 per cent of the public liabilities.

The liquidity of the bank's position is further borne out by the large amount of Dominion and provincial government securities held. During the past twelve months these holdings have increased by $1,400,000, and now stand at the large sum of $13,487,000.

It is to be expected that during a year in which business has been hesitant and backward that there would not be as large a demand for current issues of the public securities. Under this heading with those of a year ago it is noticed that there has been a reduction of $5,000,000.

One very gratifying particular in the statement is that while non-current issues at the end of the previous year stood at $650,000, they have now been reduced to $223,000. Taken all in all the statement of earnings in the face of business depression is a very good one, and was received with much gratification by the shareholders.

HORSES FIND GOING HARD AFTER LIGHT SNOWFALL

The light snowfall last night made it extremely difficult for horses to navigate on paved streets this morning.

On the Pipe Line road hill, just west of the Warden road, teams of horses and brinks had to be unhitched, while an S. O. S. was sent out for motor trucks to pull the wagons up the hill.

MAYOR HAS CLEAR FIELD WITH HIS OPPONENT TILL

Three Large Meetings Hear One-Sided Arguments When Ald. Anderson Is Kept Away by Illness—Wenige Speaks On Railway Ballot, But Not the Loaded One.

OTHER CANDIDATES GET GOOD HEARING

With John Anderson, mayoralty candidate, confined to his bed through illness, municipal election meetings last night were somewhat brief and one-sided. Meetings were held in Wortley road, Tecumseh avenue and Chesley avenue schools.

They were all well attended. The candidate accommodation greatly overtaxed, indicating intense interest in the mayoralty and other issues of the campaign. However, all were of much shorter duration than any others of the campaign.

Regrets were expressed on many sides when it was learned that Mr. Anderson could not speak. Signed statements from Mr. Anderson's physician were read at all the meetings. C. A. Mitchell, chairman of the board of health, and F. Lawson expressed regrets at Mr. Anderson's illness.

Apparent support for Mr. Wenige at the three meetings, and while he dealt with the street railway issue in a sort of explanatory way, he did not go to any great length in criticizing his opponent's platform.

Charges "Bunk." "There is a serious question, and a more serious question than the darned old street railway issue, which the mayor told his Wortley road audience. "Much has been said about that famous 'loaded ballot'—yes, it's loaded—loaded with bunk."

Board of education and aldermanic candidates were given rather more support than at previous meetings, with attention growing apace from the mayoralty issue in the absence of Ald. Anderson. Though Mayor Wenige still rapped the newspapers a bit, other candidates last night were quite the reverse in their attitude toward the press.

Ald. Allan Towse, chairman of the traffic committee, came out with the plain statement that newspaper reports of the election throughout the year had been fair and impartial, and that there was never, in his opinion, deliberate distortion of the facts.

Mayor Wenige's remarks about the street railway issue were woven chiefly around a five-clause ballot, a ballot which never went to the count. The mayor told his Wortley road audience that the council rejected, against the mayor's wishes, in a meeting a year or two ago, an issue of a meeting of the trip of himself and a number of aldermen to Cleveland some time ago was undertaken at the expense of the White Motor Company, when a bus system was investigated. He declared that the street railway issue wasn't an issue at all as it had been settled for the next fifteen years, and the aldermen were powerless to take any action on it.

Unemployment Question. Switching from the street railway issue, the mayor treated with the matter of unemployment at some length. He did not offer any suggestions for alleviating unemployment conditions, but went into some detail on his actions for the out-of-work. "The men who stepped hardest on relief measures were the men who held personal animosity for the mayor," he said.

For the 23rd time in his campaign the mayor recited his oath of office: "That I will honestly, truthfully and impartially carry out the duties of mayor et cetera," the same oath which each of the aldermen take, except the term "mayor," he then asked if there was ever any charge against his integrity or his honesty.

Opposes Holiday Pay. Declaring that he was standing behind his actions in the council and offering no apologies or retractions, Ald. John Greer, chairman of No. 2 committee, spoke briefly at the two week's holidays with pay for civic workmen because the city could afford no more than any other big corporation could to let the men have such a vacation. "I will not vote for expenditures that have no revenue

ALFONSO PLANS BIG COUP, CLAIM

New Charges at Spanish March Hurdled by Vicente Blasco Ibanez.

Paris, Nov. 28.—Vicente Blasco Ibanez from his Paris headquarters has hurled two new charges against King Alfonso of Spain.

The first is that he is conspiring to supplant all the democratically inclined officers of the home forces of infantry with reserves and regulars to seize officers loyal to him in order to be able to rely upon the infantry for a coup d'etat making the monarchy absolute.

The second is that, being short of funds, his majesty recently dumped two million pesetas worth of shares in the Madrid Subway Company on the bourse, and caused shareholders to lose heavily.

Ibanez explains that the king feels he can rely on the cavalry and artillery officers, because they are all nobility, all the infantry officers are commissioned from the ranks of society, including a majority favoring the monarchy with many of their number republicans in belief.

"The king," the author writes, "wants to have all the army in hand, and to seize control of the ground. He has been a long time planning to have the great majority of the present officers replaced in a single night by others subservient to his interests. This information has been given to me from any number of reliable sources in Spain."

Ibanez also claims the same reliability for the sources from which his subway stock disposal story came, adding that the king for some time had been notoriously short of money and obliged to resort to a number of expedients in order to carry on, being still heavily indebted to nationals of a number of countries.

"Little by little," adds the writer, "my pamphlet against Alfonso and Prince Rivera is getting into Spain. We have thousands of copies of it, and cannot expect that all the 2,000,000 copies, each containing the same ground, will be so easily suppressed. There are casualties and prisoners; but before the end of the year you will see an immense number of Spaniards reached by it."

Ibanez announces the issue of another and smaller pamphlet in the near future, unmasking the aldermen and to seize control of the whole army, and detailing the stock deal charges.

CURIOS FROM FAR TIBET DISPLAYED NEXT WEEK

China Inland Mission Plans Exhibit at Talbot Street Church.

Where houses are built without nails, and people sleep on heated ovens for beds; where skin-clad Tibetans with their butter-greased bodies mingle with hot-blooded Mohammedans, descended from Persian, Turkish and Arab ancestors; where Chinese, Mongols and aboriginal tribes of the most backward type are to be found, this is a part of the world about which the people of London may learn next week.

Under auspices of the China inland mission an exhibit of models and curios showing the life and strange customs of the races in the far interior of Northwest China, will be shown Dec. 1 to 3, at the Talbot street Baptist church.

The exhibit will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, and on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons from 3 to 5 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. George K. Harris of Sinking, Kansu, China, will have charge. This exhibit is of exceptional educational value, as well as of missionary value.

CLASSES AT TECH. SHOW INCREASE

Second Draughting Instructor Named to Care for Present Attendance.

Increased day class attendance at the Technical high school has necessitated the appointment of a second draughting instructor.

Last night the advisory vocational committee appointed H. F. Bessent of the Toronto technical high school to that position.

The appointment was made necessary through the report of the provincial technical school inspectors, M. A. Sorselle and J. A. Rutherford a few weeks ago, to the effect that the school was understaffed.

The committee approved of the formation of a class in dietetics for 24 nurses of St. Joseph's hospital, similar to that opened recently for nurses-in-training at Victoria hospital.

Principal H. B. Beal tabled a report from Senior Inspector V. K. Greer showing that the technical school had this year absorbed 43 per cent of all city candidates who had successfully passed their high school entrance examinations last June. This percentage represents an increase of 5 per cent over last year's figures.

The tech. took in last September 264 students from a total of 612 pupils who had passed their entrance examinations. The Central collegiate was second with 156 pupils, the East collegiate third with 105, and the South collegiate fourth with 88 pupils.

Authority was granted by the committee to partition off a part of the motor mechanics shop to provide temporary addition class room accommodation and also to increase the number of bicycle racks in the boys' bicycle room from 200 to 300.

Accounts totaling $1,486.27 were approved by the committee, including the account of the public utilities commission of $274.36 for light and power for the months of September and October.

There was a 66.66 per cent attendance of the members of the committee at the meeting, there being only four absentees in the persons of Trustees Bryden N. Campbell and N. F. Willmot and W. N. Manning and J. Hussey.

THIRD LONDON SCOUT TROOP HOLD SUCCESSFUL MEETING

A successful meeting was held by the Third London troop of boy scouts last night in the parish room of St. David's church.

During the evening District Secretary A. Blanchard and District Scoutmaster P. Potter made a visit of inspection to the troop and complimented them on their fine work and proficiency.

A number of new members were sworn into the troop with the usual ceremonies. The next meeting is on Thursday evening.

MAYOR IS HEARD AT PERRIN'S PLANT

Speaks of "Guns" But Again Refuses to Discuss Street Railway

The last of Mayor Wenige's noon-day addresses was delivered at the D. S. Perrin plant during the luncheon recess. The employees of the Perrin company gave him a warm and attentive hearing, but it did not display as much enthusiasm as Mayor Wenige reached anything like its culmination, over a score of his audience had adjourned to the lower floors of the biscuit factory.

At last Mayor Wenige has made a statement on the street railway question. Wenige has been asked to explain why he changed from his promised "showdown" of 1922 to the loaded ballot "hold-up" of 1924.

Wenige says: "It makes no difference what the mayor thinks or attempts, the majority vote of the council is necessary." This is an extraordinary point of view. Does Wenige mean that it doesn't matter what the mayor of London thinks about the street railway question?

Wenige says: "What can I or any other mayor do regarding it in 1925? This is the question of a man who is baffled and distressed by a problem that has been too much for him for two long years. It is a natural question for Mr. Wenige to ask because he has accomplished none of his promised defiance of the railway company in two years' performance. The only thing he has accomplished is ten years' delayed payments for the company in paving. He didn't quite accomplish the loaded ballot.

Anderson Vote Swept District. The verdict of ward one electors in the aldermanic campaign of last December rolled up a total of 2,426 ballots for John Anderson, the largest vote ever polled by any alderman in any ward of the city. In every subdivision of the ward and in the railway poll Anderson's popularity was evident.

WENIGE SPEAKS

Makes his one and only statement of street railway policy, and says: "It makes no difference what I think or attempt"—and "what can I or any other mayor do regarding it in 1925?"—Anderson's statement is clear cut.

At last Mayor Wenige has made a statement on the street railway question. Wenige has been asked to explain why he changed from his promised "showdown" of 1922 to the loaded ballot "hold-up" of 1924.

GANG OF THIEVES IS STILL SOUGHT

Half of Goods Stolen From Belmont Store Has Been Recovered.

County and city police have no new developments to report in connection with the rounding up of the gang of thieves operating in Middlesex county during the past few months. Half of the goods stolen from the Belmont store of W. C. Barons two weeks ago was recovered by police Wednesday night at 124 Hamilton road. Mrs. Margaret McCulley and Dauris Sweeney, who were found on the premises, are locked in the county jail on charges of receiving stolen goods.

The same band of thieves are known to be responsible for the theft of a large quantity of butter at the Kenwood cooperative last summer, as some of the butter was discovered in the house on the Hamilton road. The fact that only half of Mr. Barons' goods were discovered, lead the police to believe that other houses are used as caches by the gang, and every effort is being made to find just where the goods have been stored.

No trace has been found of the 30 hams and tobacco stolen from a C. P. R. freight train at Komoka last Saturday night. It is believed that the same men are responsible for this robbery.

TRINITY CHURCH. The Women's Guild of the Anglican church of Chelsea Green were delightedly entertained at the home of Mrs. Fred Crossley, Adelaide street recently when an afternoon was spent in sewing for the bazaar which takes place on December 1st. Master F. Crossley and Mrs. C. Young contributed piano solos to the program, and afternoon tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. P. Ferguson, Mrs. White and Mrs. Arthur Reid. A substantial amount was contributed in aid of the bazaar funds.

CHRIST CHURCH. On Saturday afternoon the children of the Sunday school of Christ church will gather in the parish rooms to practice for the annual Christmas concert, when it is thought that all the members, numbering nearly 100, will be present. The concert will take place either the week before Christmas or the week following it, but the date has not yet been set.

ANDERSON READY FOR BIG MEETING

Mayoralty Candidate Spends Restful Night and Shows Improvement.

John Anderson, the mayoralty candidate for greater co-operation in carrying on the city's work, was not able to speak either last night or at noon today. Mr. Anderson is suffering from overstrain, but his physician, Dr. Robert Ferguson, says he will be able to speak tonight in the Masonic temple.

He passed a good night, and did not get up until noon today. He expects that until this evening he will be able to speak to his campaign this evening, which is the stiffest task he has faced so far. Both candidates have been saying that they are for the last law, which all experienced campaigners says is the hardest and also the most effective. The auditorium of the Masonic temple affords the largest speaking place which has been used so far in this election campaign.

KHARTUM REVOLT QUICKLY QUELLED

responsibility for the arrest and incarceration of those dangerous extremists now being carried out by the British, and in the face of this the British will take no further action against the fanatics. The persons arrested by the British have been turned over to the Egyptian authorities.

BLOODSHED AVERTED.

One of the points in the British demands upon the Egyptian government following the assassination of Sir Lee Stack, the sirdar of the Egyptian army, was the evacuation of the Sudan by all the Egyptian military forces there.

A Cairo despatch last night said that when the sirdar gave the necessary orders for the evacuation of the Egyptian officers and troops declined to obey and offered resistance, declaring they would not leave unless they received orders from the Egyptian government.

The British troops thereupon surrounded the Egyptian and the government at Khartoum, capital of Sudan, telegraphed Cairo asking that such orders be issued. The message intimated that Egyptian troops were ready to resist further, but pointed out that they had only 20 rounds of ammunition per man, whereas the British had unlimited supplies. After a meeting of the ministry the minister ordered their withdrawal to avoid "useless bloodshed."

FURTHER ARRESTS.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Nov. 28.—A number of additional arrests of Egyptian deputies were made today, says an agency despatch from Cairo.

The Cairo correspondent of the Morning Post has cabled that it is reported that further arrests have been made. He is unable, however, to obtain confirmation. He adds that more arrests are to be expected in the near future.

The Daily Mail's Cairo man believes Ziwar Pasha was happily relieved by yesterday's arrests, as the prisoners, according to the correspondent, were the premier's political enemies and if they had been left at liberty might have endangered his life as well as the lives of British officials.

There seems to be some anxiety in Cairo with reference to the attitude of the students in the higher schools who still refuse to resume their studies. The students of Alazhar issued a statement to the newspapers, declaring their intention to strike for ten days in protest against the British measures. They called upon the Moslems of all classes to attend the mosques of Alazhar today for a meeting after prayers to decide what to do. It is assumed here that the British authorities in Egypt will take strong measures to prevent trouble.

INSISTS ON RIGHTS.

Associated Press Despatch. Cairo, Nov. 28.—A resolution adopted at a meeting of members of the Nationalist delegation, including several who held cabinet portfolios under Zakiouli, declares that the nation should not ask for an arrangement regarding the waters of the Nile, but that "it insists on the rights of Egypt in the Sudan."

The resolution protests against the government's consent to the withdrawal of the Egyptian troops from the Sudan, to which step the Zakiouli cabinet and parliament categorically refused to agree.

The government has no excuse for this action, says the resolution. It also protests against the action of the British military authorities who, "ignoring the constitution," entered the domiciles of deputies and arrested the occupants. "The Nationalist delegation considers that, in permitting such action, the Egyptian ministry has accepted an attack by the British on the constitution."

Lastly, the resolution says the Nationalist delegation regards the acts of the present government as null and void and impossible of ratification by the country, as the government "has not faced the parliament's confidence."

LEAGUE RECEIVES PROTEST.

Associated Press Despatch. Geneva, Nov. 28.—The league of nations today received a protest from the Egyptian senate, condemning the Great Britain's recent action in Egypt. The document is couched in terms similar to the protest received from the Egyptian chamber of deputies, characterizing the British demands for satisfaction for the assassination of Sir Lee Stack, the sirdar, as excessive and iniquitous.

The league also received a letter from H. Hymans, president of the league's council, notifying the secretary-general, Sir Eric Drummond, that Hymans had already received direct from the president of the Egyptian chamber a copy of the protest distributed by that body to all the world parliaments and to the league.

M. Hymans received the correct text of the message, whereas that delivered to the league had a line dropped out at Marselles, where it was repeated during the telegraphic transmission from Cairo to Geneva. The corrected text shows that, by an extraordinary coincidence, the error affected one of the most important points in the message, namely, an appeal for league intervention. Of-

$1,200 IS CLAIMED IN MISHAP SUIT

Hodge, Thomas, Geil Action Heard in Supreme Court Today.

The $1,200 damage action being brought by Mr. and Mrs. William Hodge, of Mitchell, and Mrs. Jennie Thomas, against George Geil, of Logan township, and the county of Middlesex is in progress before Mr. Justice Kelly at the supreme court today.

The action is the result of a motor accident on Sept. 11 last, on the 12th line of Edinburgh one mile south of Granton, where the plaintiffs allege their car was struck by one owned by Mr. Geil just at a culvert across the road. The Hodge car was tipped into the ditch, Mr. and Mrs. Hodge both sustaining broken arms, while the sister had three ribs broken. Mr. Hodge is claiming $500 damages, his wife $300, and Jennie Thomas $450.

Mr. Hodge, in giving evidence this morning, stated that both cars were proceeding in the same direction. The accident happened when the defendant's car endeavored to pass his machine at the culvert, his machine being struck on the front wheel by the car owned by Mr. Geil. The plaintiff claimed that the road was very narrow at this point.

F. H. Thompson, K.C., of Stratford, appeared for the plaintiff, W. G. Owens of Stratford for Mr. Geil, and J. C. Elliott, K.C., and J. G. Gillanders for the county of Middlesex.

PASSES THROUGH CITY.

Grant Hall, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific railway, will pass through London tomorrow afternoon at 1:15 on his way from Detroit to Toronto. He will be accompanied by General Superintendent H. C. Groat of the Ontario lines.

Deals said today that the senate's protest makes no specific request for intervention.

In his letter to the secretary-general, M. Hymans did not indicate what, if anything, he would do about the Egyptian affair in connection with the next meeting of the league council, which is to open in Rome on Dec. 8.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Associated Press Despatch. Cairo, Nov. 28.—A Masonic memorial service for the assassinated sirdar, Sir Lee Stack, was held this afternoon. All the recognized lodges here, including the Egyptian, attended without distinction. Lord Allenby, the British high commissioner, has excused himself from attending the St. Andrew's dinner tonight on account of illness.

SITUATION UNDER CONTROL.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Nov. 28.—The mutiny of the Egyptian troops at Khartoum cannot spread sufficiently to endanger the British position in the Sudan, nor is it likely to have any influence against the British there, it was announced by an official this afternoon. It was pointed out that the battalion at Khartoum constituted the only force of Egyptian troops now left in the Sudan and that the British military there were strong enough to keep the situation in hand. The battalion in question was to have left Khartoum today in the wake of the first battalion, which moved out of the Sudan yesterday.

The Sudanese troops and people, particularly in the southern part of the territory, have appeared satisfied with the conditions there, it was stated, and there has never been any indication of trouble from that quarter.

CITY ENGINEER RETURNS FROM BUSINESS TRIP

W. P. Near, city engineer, returned to his duties at the city hall this morning after a business trip to Kitchener and Toronto. At Kitchener Mr. Near attended a town planning conference, where the city of London's recommendation that building restrictions be enforced on low-living lands was favorably considered.

In Toronto Mr. Near inspected snow ploys and asphalt paving apparatus which the city is considering purchasing. Purchase of three snow-plovers was recommended by the council at its last meeting, and Mr. Near was favorably impressed with the type used on Toronto's streets. They have seen much service and are considered to be excellent value. Mr. Near will have a report for the next council meeting on the equipment.

Two Years of Taxes

Wenige has been mayor two years. In each year both assessment and taxation have increased. Assessment has increased by $6,285,800. Taxation has increased by $197,559.70. The figures are in the city treasurer's books.

SONGS AND DANCING FEATURE ORIENT MINSTREL CHUCKLES

Revue Presented at Grand Theatre Rollicking With Laughs.

AID CHRISTMAS FUND

The Orient Club stepped before the footlights last night in a clever minstrel revue. The name "Minstrel Chuckles" was appropriate to the last rollicking laugh of an audience thoroughly pleased. Black faces brought their irresistible humor to a review that abounded in merry songs, pretty choruses and gay dancing. It was produced by the John B. Rogers Company under the personal direction of George Zarfus.

It would be difficult out of so varied a program to select any single number which seemed better than the rest. Every turn had its share in making a fine evening of entertainment.

Frank Tucker as the interlocutor in "Minstrelsy La Spanish," which opened the show, was well alive from beginning to end, while the black-faced comedians who acted up to him were a clever sextette, including Jack Murray, Siz Hamilton, Dago Henry, Charles Boyce, Walt Finch and Charley Crosby. "No Long, Male" sung by Dago Henry and chorus, "Shine," sung by Siz Hamilton and chorus, and "Bible Stories" by Jack Murray and chorus, were the biggest hits of the production.

Has Beautiful Voice. Harry Shaw as the ballad singer displayed a beautiful singing voice. His solo, "A Dream," was one of the finest numbers of the evening. Other excellent numbers were given by C. Boyce, C. Evans, Fred Dowling, G. Ruse and C. Crosby. The large chorus of men's voices in the minstrel show formed an effective background to the solo numbers, and was heard to advantage in the great opening and final numbers, "I'm Going Back To My Mammy" and "Minstrel Finale."

The "Saw Mill River Road" was a pretty little musical sketch in which Miss Elsie Crocker and Wes, Williamson starred. It was one of those pretty milk-and-honey affairs with choruses of fisher boys and gingham girls.

Dago Henry and Walt Finch provided a clever vaudeville and comedy scene, the character work of ago Henry being exceptionally fine.

"Tut Tut Tuttle," a wild and woolly Arctic skit, brought the evening to a close. There was the bad man, "Icicle Ike," played by Gordon Erskine, the pretty girl, played by Miss Margery Biggs, and a company of detectives, Indian maidens, black-malers, darky and Eskimo raids. Last of all there was "Little Nell," who was so little that she must have weighed two hundred pounds.

Stage Settings Attractive. The stage setting for this number was exceptionally effective and vivacious. The cast for "Tut Tut Tuttle," included Gordon Erskine, Blake Jones, Margery Biggs, Jack Murray, Charley Crosby, Frank Tucker, Siz Hamilton, Morgan Weide and Wald Friel.

In "Minstrelsy a la Spanish": Chorus men—L. Elliot, H. Ball, G. R. Nichols, K. Drummond, F. Dowling, G. Rush, M. Waide, F. Gamme, F. Cooke, R. Malone, M. Russell, B. Jones, J. Burgess, R. Hodgins, H. Logan, W. Logan, R. Sage, H. Shaw. Second row—B. Loney, W. Parkinson, R. MacLaren, S. Schafe, Doc Ruse, F. Parker, A. Ingram, H. Boyce, B. K. Smith, R. Smith, H. Ross, S. Young, A. Gunther, G. Erskine, M. Fysh, H. Ashplant, A. Morrison, F. Chambers, A. Tisdale, D. Hodgins, D. Logan.

In "Saw Mill River Road": Fisher boys—Virginia Dyer, Winnifred McDonald, Iris Graham, Bessie McCullough, Stella Yake, Jean McGowan, Jean Matland, Nora Norris, Gingham girls—Dot Thorne, Margaret Matland, Doris Drake, Nellie Crocker, Dorothy Dickerson, Margaret Carter, Kathleen Dickerson, Lillian Atkinson.

In "Tut Tut Tuttle": Eskimo maids—Winnifred McDonald, Nora Norris, Virginia Dyer, Jean McGowan, Doris Thorne, Margaret Matland, Stella Yake, Doris Drake, Bessie McCullough, Lillian Atkinson, Jean Matland, Dorothy Dickerson, Virginia Dyer, Nora Norris, Kathleen Dickerson, Iris Graham, Jean McGowan, Bessie McCullough, Stella Yake, Doris Thorne, Jean McGowan, Stella Yake, Jack Russell, M. Bob Cat Yowler and Old Man Coyote Have a Fight As the Beavers Escape

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Paddy the Beaver and Mrs. Paddy had almost finished their work for the winter. In fact, one more night would finish it. And it was high time. For two or three nights very thin ice had formed along the edge of the pond. Old Man Coyote and Yowler the Bob Cat had seen this, and they knew that any chance they might have of getting a beaver dinner would soon end.

Now, both Old Man Coyote and Yowler had been studying the habits of Paddy and Mrs. Paddy. They had found out that the Beavers came to work at just about the same time each evening. Both made plans for a last attempt to catch a beaver dinner, and, of course, neither knew of the other's plans.

There is an old log very close to where these Beavers are now working," said Old Man Coyote to himself. "If I can hide behind that log before those Beavers begin work and the wandering Little Night Breezes do not play any tricks on me I ought to get that dinner I've waited for so long. It looks to me as if tonight will be my last chance to try it."

At about the same time Yowler the Bob Cat was talking to himself. "Those Beavers are pretty near through with their work," said he. "Tonight may be my last

MARRIAGE ANNULLED AS THREAT REVEALED

Woman Claims She Was Forced Into Act at Age of 15.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, Nov. 27.—When she was but 15 years of age in 1905, Lilliane Mathilda Viau married Adrien Charlebois, because, according to the story she told Mr. Justice Bruneau this morning, he threatened to disfigure her face with vitriol if she refused. Declaring herself satisfied that the charges were true, the court granted her request and annulled the marriage.

The woman told his lordship that at the age of 15 she left home, and, while workless and friendless, met Charlebois, who took her to his sister's home "for protection." Shortly after this he told her that if she would not marry him he would disfigure her for life, and, under this threat, she went through a marriage ceremony with him. However, when the clergyman asked him "if he took this woman for lawful wife," Charlebois, while pretending to answer in the affirmative, murmured "no" under his breath in so low a tone that only she heard him. Two years later he left her, declaring that she was not really his wife because of the "no."

After hearing her story, Mr. Justice Bruneau expressed himself as assured that she had married under threats, and accordingly declared the marriage null and void. Charlebois was not in court.

WESTERN PASTOR SUED BY HOTEL PROPRIETOR

Action Caused by Letter Published in St. Marys Paper.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Lacombe, Alta., Nov. 27.—Suit for $5,000 damages against Rev. J. F. Knight of Edmonton, has been filed by J. C. McCormick of Lacombe on behalf of A. Inskip, proprietor of the Adelphi hotel, Lacombe, following dismissal of the action brought by the Alberta liquor commission against Inskip for alleged breaches of the Alberta liquor act.

Evidence for the prosecution hinged on a letter written by Mr. Knight to his sister at St. Marys, Ont., and published in the local press at that place during the recent Ontario liquor plebiscite campaign, and also quoted by Rev. Mr. Graham of Brantford, Ont., in a letter to the Brantford Expositor.

Mr. Knight's letter, treated of alleged drunkenness witnessed by him on July 1 last, when passing through Lacombe. The Adelphi hotel at that time was the only hotel in Lacombe holding a liquor license. The charge against Inskip was dismissed, and the present action against Mr. Knight will be one of defamatory libel for publication of the statements which plaintiff claims were not in accordance with the facts.

most the usual time for Paddy and Mrs. Paddy to appear. Then, when he was sure that no spying eyes were watching him, he crawled behind that old log and lay flat down. He could peep around the end of it and watch for the coming of Paddy and Mrs. Paddy. It was absolutely still. Not a Paddy, it was absolutely still. Not a single wandering Little Night Breeze was around. Old Man Coyote grinned happily and prepared to wait. Just a few minutes after he was night settled, a dark form with short, switching tail came softly but swiftly sneaking along straight towards that old log. It was Yowler the Bob Cat. Old Man Coyote didn't see him and didn't hear him. Yowler didn't see Old Man Coyote behind the log, for Yowler was watching the water for Paddy and Mrs. Paddy. Perhaps you can guess how surprised and how very angry Yowler was when he reached that old log and found Old Man Coyote behind it. He flattened his ears back and snarled.

Old Man Coyote jumped to his feet for he was badly startled. He turned to face Yowler, and drawing back his lips to show all his teeth he snarled back. There they were facing each other, snarling and growling and each afraid to attack the other. Each threatened to do dreadful things to the other if he didn't leave. But each held his ground. They called each other names. Their snarls and growls were dreadful to hear. They forgot all about what they were there for until they were startled by a sharp report out on the water. It was the tail of Paddy the Beaver slipping the water as a warning to Mrs. Paddy. He had heard three two quarrelling there by the old log. Yowler and Old Man Coyote looked as foolish as they felt. Their last chance for a Beaver dinner had been ended by that quarrel. With a parting snarl at each other, each turned and sneaked away. Paddy and Mrs. Paddy watched them go and chuckled. ### NOTED SPEAKERS PLEAD FOR UNION

Toronto Ministers Address Large Audiences at First Presbyterian Church.

Church union is a distinct Canadian movement which started in 1817 when the Burchers and Anti-Burchers united in Nova Scotia. It was then that Canadian churches adopted the principle that the memory of outworn issues should not keep believers apart.

This was the chief point upon which Dr. George Pidgeon, chairman of the assembly's committee, and pastor of Bloor Street Presbyterian church, Toronto, brought out in a stirring plea for union before a congregation which filled First Presbyterian church last night on the occasion of the union rally under the auspices of the union committee of the Presbyterians of London.

Dr. Pidgeon said that there had been some bitterness in the controversy, but it was possible to have a great deal of bitterness along side of a great deal of love. He urged Presbyterians to treat the question on its merits in a fair-minded, enlightened and dutiful manner. Presbyterians should be so sure as to all could work for the glory of God.

The church does not lose its identity when it joins. It goes in with all its privileges, with its full genius, said the speaker, pointing out that in Canada two forces of the Methodists began in Canada; one branch from the British Wesleyans, the other from the United States, the Methodist Episcopalians. They had united happily.

Committee's Good Faith.

The minister spoke of the good faith of the general assembly's committee on church union. He wanted to remove all grievances and feelings of coercion, to maintain the strength and peace of the church, showing that a church must partake of the character of the people, because it interprets the spirit of the people and ministers to its needs.

"What we want is an indigenous Canadian church, the home of the people's souls," he said.

The Presbyterian Church in Canada was made up of 18 different bodies brought together by 40 different bodies. When people say I stand for the church of my father, I say: "What church? We are an amalgam. We stand for the glory of God and the good of his people," said the minister.

Going back to 1899 he spoke of the work in the mission fields of the west. To avoid overlapping a Methodist pastor would minister to the flocks of the Presbyterians. Where there was no Methodist church the Presbyterian minister looked after the spiritual welfare of the Methodist members. If it was all right to leave the Methodists in charge of the flocks, if the scheme worked equally well both ways, and it actually did, he saw no reason why he should not come under the same pastoral care, no vital principles separating them from their churches.

"Today there are five churches in villages of 500 souls. In the name of all that is holy, is it Christian?" asked Dr. Pidgeon.

Too Many Churches.

He said he knew a stretch of country, where in 20 miles there were 18 churches. He liked to think of the community spirit, where there was one church radiating the Christian church in a village. One church where all worshipped across from it the community school, where the children studied. There was needed a great movement of national scope and national outlook, and people should put their whole moral and spiritual energies into it.

Dr. J. R. P. Slater, pastor of Old St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Toronto, the second speaker, has been in Canada, but a short time. He said that it was the first time he had spoken on church union, with the exception of one address to his own congregation.

The minister believed that he had learned the principles laid down by the venerable leaders of the ecclesiastical problems in Scotland, and he

Junkman Finds Pearl In Oyster

Canadian Press Despatch. Moose Jaw, Nov. 27.—When his teeth closed on one of a number of oysters supplied at a local restaurant on Wednesday, Sam Tadmán, a junk dealer of this city, proceeded to investigate matters.

The substance, which had nearly broken several teeth, was disclosed as a very fine pearl. A leading jeweller of the city estimated the value of the pearl, when polished and cleaned, at about $100.

believed there was no more confirmed unionist than himself.

Dr. Slater said that he believed in the Holy Catholic church. He believed that it should have visible expression. He believed also that it had no right to squander its resources, the church material or otherwise. The church should husband its resources. It had no right to drag its money and its material under the wheels of the chariot of the Lord. If the churches could check up the squandering of men's enthusiasm it would stagger the world.

In the present days of grace there was a call for drastic readjustment in the machinery of the church in view of the position it found itself in the world, and the condition the world is in. The church was in danger of tragedy if it did not awaken and stand for the kingdom of God.

Not Lose Identity.

The minister pleaded that people not be content to let well enough alone. The church could move into a larger body without losing its identity. Two separate entities could unite and still be themselves. It was done in the material world every day and the same held true for the spiritual.

People in Scotland and in Canada were sick to death of controversies. They want to give expression to the Holy Catholic church, Presbyterian would not lose their Presbyterian lineage by going into the Union church.

Upon the conclusion of the address, Dr. William Beattie, pastor of First Presbyterian church, moved a vote of thanks to Dr. Pidgeon and Dr. Slater. Rev. T. A. Symington seconded the motion.

G. A. Wheable, clerk of the sessions of New St. James' church, occupied the chair.

DISTRICT RADIO FANS AGAIN "GET" OVERSEAS

Eula R. Franklin and Vic Webbe Report Signals Heard Clearly.

London and district radio fans are still enjoying English and Scottish concerts, proving that the feat is not a trick of atmospheric phenomena but the result of a staid international effort to test the receptivity of amateurs on this side of the Atlantic.

Eula R. Franklin, R. R. No. 3, Rowan, writes that on Monday night last she picked up Aberdeen, Scotland, quite distinctly around midnight. Two piano solos and announcements were heard clearly. Static and wireless interfered a little at times, she says, but no difficulty was found in identifying the station. Miss Franklin uses a Marconi telephone No. 2 set. It is a three-tube dry cell hookup with a loud speaker in the circuit.

Vic Webbe of 2 Weston street, city, tuned in on an old country station last night at 11:45, but the signals faded before the call could be caught. A vocal solo, "The Rose of Picardy," came in splendidly he reports.

MRS. A. DODS DIES.

Word has been received in the city of the sudden death of Mrs. Andrew Dods at her home in Toronto recently.

Mrs. Dods was a daughter of Mrs. Mary and the late John Geary, 339 Hill street, this city.

VETERANS' BAND GIVES SPLENDID PROGRAM

Harry Wray Expresses Thanks for Co-operation Given by Roman Catholics.

A well-balanced and an exceptionally well-rendered musical program won the favor of a large audience at the Catholic club auditorium last night, when the G. W. V. A. band sponsored a concert in aid of the Sisters of the Precious Blood.

The musicals brought to an end the 1925 bazaar program. The bazaar proper was concluded on Saturday night last.

In an introductory address, Harry Wray, president of the G. W. V. A., voiced the appreciation of the association and all returned men in the city for the active interest the Catholics of London had taken in the cause of the veteran.

The G. W. V. A. chief lauded in a special manner the House of Providence, which, he said, had been ever

CUT IN PARKING TIME DOWNTOWN IS URGED

Traffic Committee Will Ask Council to Reduce Limit to One Hour.

Recommendation to the city council that the time limit in the downtown parking area to be reduced to one hour will be made by the traffic committee. The committee met last evening, and after hearing several arguments in favor of further restrictions, endorsed a resolution for the one-hour limit. This clause would be in effect up to 6 o'clock in the evening of each day.

Ald. Allan Towse, chairman, declared that street lighting would have to be improved before the present unrestricted parking area could be enlarged. He mentioned Clarence street, particularly and advocated better lighting there.

On the suggestion of Police Chief Birrell and Edward Bernard, the

WINTER GARDEN HEAD SUPPORTS WOMEN'S PLAN

With the mothers' clubs seeking to prevent girls under 16 attending local dance halls unchaperoned and the managers of the halls co-operating, it is probable that the time is not far distant when the idea will be put into effect.

The executive of the union mothers' club has appointed a committee to work with the citizenship committee of the local council of women in an effort to see that all girls under 16 attending a public dance hall be accompanied by an older person.

In an interview with The Advertiser, William H. Baines, manager of the Winter Garden, expressed himself in favor of such a plan yesterday.

He said that bodies wishing to prevent girls under 16 attending the dances alone would have his fullest co-operation.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT PLAN ASKS C. OF C. AID

Request Made to Back Brucefield-Wroxeter Highway Scheme.

A request that the highway from Brucefield to Wroxeter be improved, so that it will be in the same category as the main road from London to Brucefield and Wroxeter to Southampton, has been received by the London chamber of commerce and will receive attention from that body in due time.

Improvements to the road would serve as an inland highway, running parallel to the Blue Water highway. The road from Wroxeter to Southampton runs through Wroxeter, Chesley, Paisley and other towns.

The Proof Line road from London to Clinton is in good condition, and it is proposed at Brucefield to link up

HON. CHARLES STEWART RETURNS TO HIS OFFICE

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Nov. 27.—Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, who has been ill for several days, is again at his office. Mr. Stewart was asked this morning whether or not any progress had been made in the direction of a solution of the Lake of the Woods control problem. He replied that his recent conference with Premier Ferguson in Ontario had not resulted in the discovery of any method for meeting the demands of Manitoba in regard to the Norman dam.

R. J. YOUNG IMPROVING.

R. J. Young, proprietor of R. J. Young & Co. dry goods establishment, who was hurt on Tuesday in a fall from his carriage, is reported to be progressing satisfactorily. It was learned at his residence, 138 Albert street, today that he was still confined to bed and that he would not be out again for a little time.

GIRL SCATTERS PARIS GREEN IN FELLOW STUDENT'S LUNCH

Mildred Potter, Woodstock, Admits Attempt To Poison Scholars. JEALOUSY MOTIVE

Canadian Press Despatch. Woodstock, Nov. 27.—When Margaret Harris, 16-year-old student at an East Zorra school, went to eat her noonday luncheon yesterday she found that someone had sprinkled paris green on her sandwich. She at once reported the matter to her teacher, and following an investigation, suspicion pointed to another pupil, Mildred Potter, aged 13. Questioned, the girl is said to have admitted placing the paris green on the sandwich and to have declared that jealousy prompted her in her act. A quantity of arsenate of lead was found scattered about the pump in the schoolyard, and the girl is said also to have admitted placing it there. High Constable Hill today investigated the affair, and as a result the Potter girl was brought to Woodstock, and is detained at the children's shelter. The excuse given by Mildred, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Potter, 10th line, for sprinkling the paris green was that "I didn't like her, so I thought I'd try to make her sick."

Porter Booster Jumps In River

Canadian Press Despatch. Belleville, Nov. 27.—There have been several freak bets on Tuesday's by-election paid or are about to be paid in Belleville, in which wheelbarrows, baby carriages and such things enter, but the best election story comes from Frankford, a village near this city. Here two old friends of opposite views in politics made a bet that the one on the losing side should jump off the bridge into the river. On Wednesday, the loser, who was a supporter of E. Guss Porter, dressed in his usual clothing, jumped the eighteen feet into the water below, while crowds from the village enjoyed the sight.

Canadian Press Despatch. Calgary, Nov. 27.—Hon. Charles R. Mitchell, member of the legislature for Bow Valley and provincial treasurer of Alberta in the Stewart administration, late this afternoon was elected Liberal leader of the province at a convention held here attended by 600 delegates from all parts of Alberta. The election was by acclamation, nine other candidates whose names were placed before the convention having withdrawn. Mr. Mitchell succeeds Hon. John R. Boyle, former attorney-general, who recently was elevated to the supreme court bench. The convention was largely attended, 72 widely-separated constituencies being represented. Resolutions lauding the Mackenzie King administration and congratulating the party on its remarkable success in West Hastings by-election were passed. W. A. "JUST MARRIED" PLEASURES PATRONS

Stock Company Playlet Delights Majestic Audiences —Cullen Is Star.

"Just Married," the farce comedy chosen by the Majestic Stock Company for its opening offering at the Majestic theatre, continues at the theatre to enthusiastic audiences. The laughable hit by the author of "Able's Irish Rose" will continue until the end of the week.

Seldom does London see so much real fun crowded into a single performance than that offered by the Majestic players in "Just Married." It is a rare play that carries a smile in every line, and it is an exceptional company which is strong throughout, yet that is what the theatre-goer may expect to find at the Majestic theatre this week.

It is safe to say that given enough plays of merit the members of the Majestic Stock Company will continue to delight London's playgoers for some time to come, for the players have both individually and collectively made many friends since their premiere on Monday night.

"Just Married" offers much humor for the faded businessman and those who are just suffering from the boredom of these monotonous times. There is not a dull moment in the farce. The humor is refreshing, and what is more original? It has been drawn from life. True, the story is wildly improbable, but the philosophy offered in the book is not just the shallow theorizing of the uninitiated, it goes much deeper and a casual observation of a world of experience in the ways of a man with a maid.

Edward Cullen plays the role of Robert Adams, a gentleman, drunk or sober. He is responsible for much of the merriment in "Just Married." He has lots of ideas which should bring out of chaos, but they do not always work out.

Peggy Coudray plays opposite Mr. Cullen. She gives a nice interpretation of a lack of sophistication in ultra-sophisticated surroundings.

Other members of the laugh-producing cast are George Henry, Miss Hazel A'ron, Matt McHugh, E. M. Johnstone, Forest H. Cummings, Walter Sherwood, Lyle Clement and Miss Mary Richards.

THREE ARE REMANDED OVER DEATH CHARGE

Held On Manslaughter Count When Winnipeg Girl Dies of Diphtheria.

Canadian Press Despatch. Winnipeg, Nov. 27.—Facing a joint charge of manslaughter in connection with the death last Saturday of 12-year-old Theresa Watson, David S. Robb and William Elder, said to be Christian Science practitioners, together with Robert Watson, father of the girl, appeared in police court today and were remanded until December 5, at the request of their counsel.

VALENTINO STARS AS SPANISH LOVER

The Famous Rudolph Appears in "The Sainted Devil" at Loew's.

Rudolph Valentino, screen star, who is beloved alike by "Judy O'Grady and the Colonel's Lady" certainly had a crowded house last night at Loew's to see his latest picture, "A Sainted Devil." It was a regular Valentino picture with a picturesque Spanish background, which never fails to thrill.

It is by the way, the last Valentino offering to appear on the screen before next summer, and movie fans would do well to attend Loew's either today or tomorrow.

"A Sainted Devil" is "The Sheikh" and a sort of Spanish "Robin Hood" combined—a tense, exciting, melodrama, with the star in the role of a young Spaniard who roams South America in search of a notorious bandit who had stolen his bride on his wedding night.

As Don Alonzo Castro, Valentino is the Valentino of old—the Valentino of "Blood and Sand," the Valentino the fans like to see.

Supporting the handsome Rudolph is Nita Naldi. It is not often that a tumbling act receives the feature position among the vaudeville acts, but after seeing Deszo Retter perform last night it was quite easy to understand why his act had been placed in that position on the list.

David O'Dowd and the La Piro sisters drew a fair share of applause for their comedy and dance act, as did La Pan and Bastedo in comedy talk and harmony songs.

A mermaid comedy, "Poor Butterfly," concluded the program.

CAPITOL PRESENTS TALE OF THE SEAS

"The Fire Patrol" Is Crammed Full of Thrills and Actions.

"The Fire Patrol," a Hunt Stromberg picture, featuring Rex Ballard and Jack Richardson, showing for the remainder of the week at the Capitol theatre, is a tale of the seas. Dealing, as the story does, with ships and sailormen, the right kind and the wrong kind, it provides ample scope for realistic scenes and display. The supporting cast is good, and the story itself holds one's interest to the very through.

Jack Dempsey, in No. 8 of the "Eight and Win" series, is good in the "Town Hall Night," giving the fans, both fight and movie, lots of action. Keith Macdonald makes a welcome appearance in between films, when he sings a number of songs. He has a good baritone voice, and sings pleasantly.

TO LICENSE EVERY MOTOR CAR DRIVER

Resolution Calling For Dominion-Wide Action Adopted at Conference.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, Nov. 27.—Recommendations will be forwarded to the various provincial governments in Canada for the adoption of the principle of licensing each and every person operating a motor vehicle as a result of a decision made by the interprovincial roads conference which closed here today.

NUMBER FOUR
The University Plebiscite

Next Monday, December 1st, you are asked to vote on the University By-law. There is only one way to vote, that is "Yes." This vote means the indorsement or otherwise of the University—its educational policy, its enterprise in getting students, its extension work, its big building program, its value as a business concern, its scientific and research work.

The annual grant by the City to the University has never been questioned by any City Council since the City entered into its agreement with the University in 1908.

If the University Bylaw should not receive strong support it would be a serious blow.

The indorsement of the City of London should be so overwhelming—the City of London should be so solidly behind the development of the University of Western Ontario—that the Provincial Government and the counties and cities of Western Ontario will be glad to co-operate and to contribute in increasing measure to the University's support.

WHO WILL RECEIVE THE BENEFIT?

As the University is a public service institution and endeavors to extend its facilities to all classes of people and distribute its business as widely as possible throughout the City, the benefits are carried directly to everyone in the community.

The growth of the University of Western Ontario will benefit the children and the parents of London because the highest educational facilities are provided at minimum cost; will benefit the businessmen, the property owners, the tradesmen, the workmen because of the large amount of money for buildings, maintenance and students' expenditures carried directly into general circulation; will benefit London itself in the very largest sense by making it an educational center. Think what it means to increase the population of the City by bringing families here to educate their children, to draw hundreds of students to the City for their four or six years of college life, to bring conferences, conventions and associations to the City because of the presence and activities of the University!

Your vote on December 1st will be an indorsation of the work of the University, will give stability to its sources of revenue, will help every man, woman and child in the City to live a richer and fuller life.

VOTE "YES" FOR THE UNIVERSITY BYLAW. MAKE IT UNANIMOUS

TRIAL OF GOUGH STARTED TODAY

Judge Coatsworth Hears Evidence in Case of Home Bank Director.

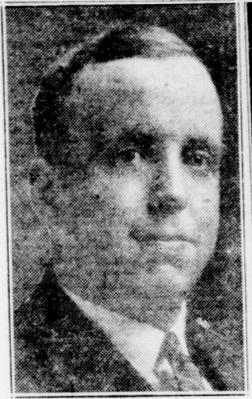

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Nov. 28.—The trial of R. P. Gough, fourth director of the defunct Home Bank to be tried, started this morning before Judge Coatsworth. As well as being tried on charges of making, using and concurring in false statements in the annual statement for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1923, Mr. Gough is also charged with making, using and concurring in a false statement of the bank's affairs for the month of December, 1922. It is alleged that the accused signed this monthly statement which the crown claims is false.

W. N. Tilley, K.C., is defending counsel. Mr. McCarthy, crown counsel, briefly reviewed Mr. Gough's connection with the bank. Gough was elected to the board of the bank in 1916 and was later elected vice-president, a position he held until the bank collapsed.

R. J. Roberts, secretary of the department of finance, was the first witness and put in copies of the reports complained about including monthly reports which the crown claims were signed by Mr. Gough. Mr. McCarthy read in the court records considerable correspondence between the minister of finance and Home Bank officials. These letters were from the evidence of the royal commission.

CERTIFICATE REFUSED.
Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Nov. 28.—County Judge Coatsworth today refused to grant a "certificate of reasonable doubt" to facilitate appeal to a higher court in the case of C. A. Barnard, K.C., of Montreal, director of the Home Bank of Canada, convicted recently on three charges in connection with the collapse of the bank. It is understood that counsel for Barnard will carry the motion for appeal to the supreme court of Ontario.

STORMS HAMPER VESSELS.
Canadian Press Despatch.
Fort William, Nov. 27.—Although dirty weather is still hampering the work of the grain elevators, ten boats took out from the ports of Fort William and Port Arthur today 2,592,000 bushels, chiefly wheat.

RUNNING FOR BOYS' PARLIAMENT.
London will send strong candidates this year to the boys' parliament session in Toronto, as the race has now narrowed down to three campaigners who will contest two Forest City seats. The polling takes place on Saturday. The candidates are, left to right: Hiles Templin, Allan Johnston, and Alex Knox. All three are leaders in boys' work here and in Upsahl, London boy mayor, will be the third delegate from here in virtue of his office.

NINE PLANKS FORM JOHNSTON PLATFORM

Candidate For Boys' Parliament Will Support Adams For Premier.

Nine planks constitute the platform of Allan Johnston who is running for a place in the boys' parliament. The elections take place tomorrow. Mr. Johnston pledges his support to Frank Adams as premier. That a vocational guidance bureau be established in each constituency. That a social event be conducted once a year, with the C. S. E. T. groups. That better support be given the C. S. E. T. camps and mentors. That improvement be made in C. S. E. T. financing.

ADVANCE POLL VOTE MAY PROVE RECORD

City Clerk Declares Number Is Greater Than in Previous Elections.

The first day of the advance poll in the municipal election came to an end last night, with 32 citizens exercising their franchise. Most of them came in to the city hall after lunch. A number voted this morning. While 32 voters may be considered a small figure, City Clerk Sam Baker declared today that the number was greater than on any five previous days of the first day of a municipal advance poll. Those who voted yesterday were about half of them railwaymen, and the others commercial travellers.

The poll will remain open until 7 o'clock tonight, and will be open again on Saturday from 9 in the morning until 7 at night. Most of the advance voting is expected tomorrow.

MAN PAYS $10 FINE FOR STRIKING WOMAN

Mrs. Rose Rowan Testifies Nose Broken in Skirmish.

Ernest Blackwell paid a fine of $10 and costs in police court this morning for assaulting Mrs. Rose Rowan, on the night of Oct. 23 last.

Mrs. Rowan told the court that she was living apart from her husband, and had three children. She said that about 11 p.m. on the night in question she had consented to go for a drive with the defendant and a second man, providing a second woman be secured to make up the party.

She further testified that no attempt was made to get another woman, and that the car was driven out the Wellington road to Erick street and stopped. Upon refusing to get out of the car on the invitation of the defendant, the witness declared that she was dragged out, and in the struggle which followed Blackwell hit her between the eyes with his fist, fracturing her nose. Her clothing was torn and stained with blood in the mix-up. She later caught a ride back into town with a taxicab driver, who happened to pass along, and with whom she was acquainted.

Blackwell gave a flat denial to the story told by Mrs. Rowan, but the court was satisfied to accept it at its face value in its entirety.

H. R. Cliff appeared on behalf of the accused.

300,000 ENGLISH CHURCHMEN PROTEST SERVICE CHANGE

Weighty Memorial Is Laid Before Archbishop of Canterbury.

"OBEY" IS TALKED Ring For Bridegroom, Too, Rejected as Too Expensive Project.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Nov. 25.—The Archbishop of Canterbury has received a memorial signed by 300,000 churchmen against the proposed alternative form of the communion service. Bishop Knox who has retired from the bishopric of Manchester, a diligent promoter of the memorial, claims that the petition represents only a small proportion of the members of the church of England who, while not desirous of tying the church to a rigid Protestantism are gravely disturbed by the continued advance of an ecclesiastical Catholic clergy, who, it is feared will force this alternative form of the service upon unwilling congregations.

CHAMPION ST. ROCHE GIRL GUIDE.

owned by James Cassina of Toronto, adjudged champion bitch, and best building in the show at the Royal winter fair, winning the sweepstakes cup.

of the ring on the bride's finger should be introduced.

The desire to protect the British bridegroom's pocket from too many financial inroads which it was contended might prove a serious deterrent to marriage—already affected by unemployment and the housing shortage—led to the rejection of the double-ring proposal.

Hilarity Is Scored. Dean Fry of Lincoln, who is well known in Canada, started a speech with: "When I was a young and inexperienced bachelor," but was interrupted by an equally venerable cleric who deprecated the introduction of an element of hilarity into "such a solemn matter."

The dean subsided, but he is in receipt of an apology from the clergyman who rebuked him. The dean adds that "if St. Paul were here today, he would be on the side of equality of the sexes. The saint lived in very different times, and had found it necessary to rebuke the women of Corinth."

RECOGNITION OF LABOR PEERS BRINGS PROTEST

Associated Press Despatch. London, Nov. 25.—The decision of the Baldwin government that the Labor peers shall be the official opposition in the house of lords has annoyed the Westminster Gazette, which says the Labor party has been pressing for this a long time. The Gazette regards it as an affront that a party numbering only five members should have recognition over more than 100 Liberal lords.

Lord Chelmsford is not included in the list of Labor peers by the Westminster Gazette, as it says he probably lapses into being a mild Conservative.

To you—if you are sick—if you suffer—if you are afflicted with any ailments of MEN—if you are worn out, tired or failing, if you need medical advice—if you are not in perfect health—if life is a dragging, miserable existence—if you lack energy, vim and vigor that make life worth living, to you—rich or poor—young or old—you need my treatment at once.

Nerves and Blood Are Life

The lack of nerve force is found among men of all ages. This is true with men in all walks of life, from the day laborer to the mechanic or professional man. Merchant and clergy are alike sufferers—no man is exempt from the ailment who has rebelled against nature's laws—so if you have the result of overwork, dissipation, sedentary habits or worry, and your vital organs are disturbed, remember, delay in seeing the right doctor makes it more difficult to overcome the symptoms, and you might reach an incurable condition beyond relief if you delay too long.

NO PAIN, NO LOSS OF TIME FROM WORK BY SCIENTIFIC METHODS

My Equipment is composed of the latest and best known agents in Electrical, Surgical and Mechanical Apparatus and I am prepared by the knowledge of their uses and the experience in prescribing them so as to get the greatest uniform results from them.

I am Prepared to Give You Serum, Bacterins, Vaccines and any and all forms of treatment of this character that have been tried and proved a success.

YOUNG MEN—THINK OF YOUR FUTURE

How about it, are you qualified to face it—are others doing more and getting more out of life than you are? Find out, if you don't know already, what is dragging you down. No one can violate nature's laws and succeed. I have helped thousands physically, mentally, morally. I believe I can help you. Just be frank and tell me your troubles and I will help you to regain and maintain your health.

The Dangers of Bad Blood Overcome by SCIENTIFIC METHODS

MRS. PHILIP SNOWDEN WILL TOUR CANADA

Associated Press Despatch. London, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Snowden, wife of Philip Snowden, who was chancellor of the exchequer in Ramsay MacDonald government, was asked by the Baldwin government to serve on the royal commission being appointed to investigate food prices in Great Britain, but she replied she intends taking a trip to Canada early next year, about the time that the commission will be sitting, so that it will be necessary to appoint another woman to act along with Dame Hieier Charlotte Isabella Gwynne-Vaughan, chairman will be Sir Auckland Geddes, former British ambassador at Washington, and the other members of the commission are likely to be Sir Harry Pest, the eminent accountant and President Ryland of the National Farmers' Union.

PROMISE AND PERFORMANCE

WENIGE'S ELECTION PLATFORM. A SHOWDOWN WITH THE STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.

And no purchase of the company at the present time. We will wait. There will be a favorable time shortly to buy this outfit, if we decide to buy at all. But we will INSIST THAT THE COMPANY LIVE UP TO BYLAW 916, which is a contract they made with the city. EVERY STREET WHERE THE COMPANY HAS HELD UP WORK WILL BE PAVED AND IF THE COMPANY DOES NOT PAVE IT VOLUNTARILY WE WILL DO IT AND CHARGE IT TO THEM. Paving accounts have been collected before from them, when some of the wise ones said it couldn't be done.

WHAT BECAME OF IT.

The company has defied the city as never before. No pavement has been laid on any street where the company operates (except Wellington south), but company operates (except Wellington south), but the public petitioned for them. On Wellington south the sides of the street are paved, but NOT THE COMPANY'S TRACK ALLOWANCE. Mayor Wenige backed down when the time came for his showdown. He has become as zealous for the street railway's interests as President Currie or Manager Tait. With him, what the company says is law, whether in service, paving or increased fares. The company proposed the loaded two-question ballot that would have shaken off the only hold the people have on the company today, and that would have forced the car rider and taxpayer, either to buy the system at the company's exorbitant price or to grant a new long-term franchise with higher fares. Every member of the city council voted against the loaded ballot EXCEPT MAYOR WENIGE.

MAYOR WENIGE WAS ELECTED ON HIS PROMISE TO REDUCE YOUR TAXES!

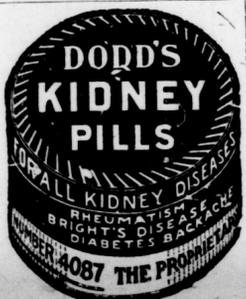

The taxes levied in the year before he took office totalled $2,100,665.28, exclusive of local improvements.

The taxes levied in the first year of his regime exceeded this sum by $117,218.42, and in this, the second year of his mayoralty, by $197,559.70—a new high record in London's history.

Since 1922 property assessments have jumped from $63,749,926 to $69,035,726—an increased field for taxation of SIX MILLION, TWO HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-FIVE THOUSAND, EIGHT HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Did that get you a reduction in taxes?

WENIGE'S PLEDGES WERE ELECTION PROMISES; THEY HAVE NOT BEEN CARRIED OUT!

THORNDALE LADIES' GUILD HOLD ANNUAL BAZAAR

Special to The Advertiser. Thorndale, Nov. 27.—The ladies' guild of St. George's Anglican church, Thorndale, held its annual bazaar on Wednesday. The fancywork booth was in charge of Mrs. William McMartin, Mrs. H. J. Harding, Mrs. William Ardiel; the apron booth by Miss L. Lee and Miss L. Holland; the homemade cooking booth by Mrs. McFadden, Mrs. Fred Abbott and Mrs. Dawson, and the homemade candy booth by Mrs. A. Reid. The proceeds for the day amounted to $151.

ARGENTINE WHEAT CROP.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, Nov. 28.—The statistical department of the Argentine ministry of agriculture, in its final official estimate of the grain crops for 1924, received here today, states that the total wheat crop area is 2,900,000 acres, an increase of 50,000 acres over its first estimate. The annual wheat acreage for the past ten years averaged 2,640,000.

Watch your Skin!

It's up to you to look your best

Young girls, old girls, plain girls, pretty girls—don't we all know those days before the mirror when, with a sigh, we turn away and say, "Gosh—I do look plain!"

On those days when our skin looks bad and won't get right—our noses won't powder—our eyes are dull! We all know them. But wise women watch their skin and at the first sign of something take the best remedy—a dose of

Becham's Pills

They purify the blood, clear the skin, make you happy, bright and attractive. Sold Everywhere in Canada.

Sir Adam Should Not Retire

Sir Adam Beck gave the Ontario Municipal Electrical Association to understand that if attacks on hydro enterprises did not cease he would have to consider the question of withdrawing from participation in the work. He had reached the limit of his patience, and past that he did not feel that a man could go or should be expected to do so.

Although Sir Adam did not say so, he probably had particular reference to the Settell charges. The tenor of these was unusual and of such a nature as to make a man wonder how far he could trust those in whom he placed confidence. For years Settell had been private secretary to Sir Adam; a man who is handling a business the size of the hydro undertakings must of necessity leave much to a private secretary; he depends on him to do many things for him that he has not the time to do himself. In such a connection an unusual degree of confidence must result. To find that this has been betrayed, and that the man he trusted had prepared to decamp with public funds and at the same time leave a long list of charges against his former chief, is a harder situation to face than might appear on the surface.

Sir Adam Beck is a public servant; he is engaged in an enterprise that strikes at the system of private ownership, and that combats the theory that companies have the right to exploit the natural resources of the country for their own gain. A man who takes up this work is bound to meet with opposition, and antagonism will show itself in many sources. There is no way of avoiding it, and it must be squarely met. It is quite conceivable that in the case of Sir Adam the process of continually meeting opposition should become wearisome, but it is the price any man must pay who seeks to blaze a new trail, especially one that dislodges formidable and well-entrenched interests from a field formerly regarded as their own.

We do not believe Sir Adam has much to worry about from the Settell charges; there was nothing in them to reflect on his personal integrity. Looking back at the incident now, it would have been much better to have ordered the letter of Settell printed in its entirety right at the outset. There would have been no room for suspicion then.

Sir Adam may or may not have been serious in his half threat to retire from the chairmanship of the commission. Were he to give way to the desires of those opposed to him he would resign. Sir Adam must look beyond his own inclinations to the municipalities who have supported him, and who only yesterday pledged their faith in him by way of a resolution of confidence. The St. Lawrence situation, with its thousands of horsepower going to waste every day, must be handled in such a way that this vast wealth shall become the property of the people. Sir Adam's work is not yet finished, and we believe he will see the situation in this light.

Good Thing Both Ways

A woman at her marriage may promise to "cherish" and serve her husband, but chances look bright that no more will she promise to "obey" him as far as the Church of England service is concerned. The house of clergy of the church voted on it, and "obey" lost by 86 to 78—not a sweeping victory, but a definite move in the right direction.

That word really should come out of the marriage ceremony. As one looks over the list of men who got married he cannot but wonder why under the sun a woman would have to promise to obey any of them.

The word gives the impression that a man is lord and master of the domestic situation, whereas a fairly slow married man can find out in ten days that he's no such thing.
Therefore the removal of the word "obey" takes away a sense of foolish superiority that men might have, and frees women from making a pledge they never did have any intention of keeping.

The Real Reason Comes Out

Washington has undertaken to deal with Chicago's water stealing case. All the states bordering on the lakes have joined in the effort to make Chicago stop stealing water. A dispatch announcing this concludes with the wording, "The practice has also brought protests from Canada."

Protests from this country should have been so vigorous that they would have been the main cause for Washington's action.

If anything were needed to show the real reason for Chicago's water steal it comes from the fact that Missouri, Tennessee, Louisiana and "commercial" organizations in the Mississippi valley are backing Chicago on the claim that Chicago's canal aids navigation on the Mississippi river.

That is exactly the reason why the canal was built in the first place—to take water from the Great Lakes through an artificial course, develop power plants and improve navigation on the Mississippi river.

And all this was done under the guise of protecting human life in Chicago from the scourge of disease, while all the time Chicago could have tackled her sanitary problem exactly the same way as has been done by other large cities.

If 100 men from London went to Washington and started to tear down the Capitol in order that a city hall might be erected in London, there would be trouble right straight off, and Washington would make the trouble.

Yet London people would be just as much within their rights in such a move as Chicago is in stealing water from the Great Lakes.
In this case it is primarily an action of Ottawa against Washington, and Ottawa need have no apologies for making her protest frequent and strong. She may have cause for apology to her own people if this is not attended to right up to the letter.

Explaining West Hastings

London Free Press says West Hastings gave the Liberals their only chance to cheer since the general election in 1921. St. Antoine, in the heart of Montreal, was thrown open to a straight tariff issue; it was almost as traditional a Conservative seat as West Hastings. Since Confederation it returned only two Liberals at general elections, in 1874 and 1921. On the other twelve occasions St. Antoine voted Conservative. Yet on the by-election there only a few months ago the Conservatives lost, and the defeat was so outstanding that the Montreal Gazette, the leading Conservative paper there, used it as a point to start a campaign to oust Hon. Arthur Meighen from the leadership of the Conservative party.

The Free Press finds refuge behind the fact that the Liberals "had much the better of the candidates in Mayor Hanna of Belleville, personally popular, young and aggressive. Guss Porter in a quarter of a century of public life had succeeded in collecting many enemies even in his own party."

If the Free Press were in possession of this information it should have spoken before. It is poor sportsmanship, when a cause is defeated, to turn on the man who represented that cause and publicly announce that he was a back number.

Learning To Sell Eggs

U. F. O. reports that the egg pool operated by it this year handled 3,000,000 eggs, and that the price paid to producers was on an average ten cents a dozen higher than the market price for farm eggs.

The U. F. O. has accomplished something in an experiment of this nature. It is very easy to talk about co-operative marketing and to pass resolutions urging the government to assist in the work, but one such successful experiment carried on by the farmers themselves will do more to put co-operative marketing on a real basis than all the resolutions that could be moved, seconded and carried in a month.

It may have been on a fairly small scale that this egg pool operated, but it was sufficient to give those who went into it a sense of accomplishment and a profit on the undertaking. Once the farming community thoroughly realizes that it can do its own merchandizing it will see better days.

What's In a Name?

Sir Philip Lloyd-Greame, president of the British board of trade, has disappeared, and in his place comes Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister. No person was hurt in the change, and Sir Philip is the same person under the new name as under the old.

The difference is in a very large fortune being tagged to the new name. Sir Philip could have followed custom and been known as Sir Philip Lloyd-Greame-Cunliffe-Lister, but that would have been a little hard on the supply of hyphens, and still more tedious for formal wear.

No one will be inclined to quarrel with Sir Philip. If by changing Henry Perkins to Henry Derbyshire, Henry could gather up a million pounds sterling, we imagine Henry would gladly make the transfer.

Note and Comment.

The O. T. A. has been again vindicated. The good people of West Hastings do not even want Porter.

The geese are headed south, and so are a number of people who want to avoid goose flesh in the winter.

In some parts of South Africa a man may have as many as 40 wives, but of course they don't wear silk stockings or fur coats.

Talking Big

One chap he comes and says to me that he is Mr. Steven Hash, and says he'd like to talk a spell to show me how to use my cash. He's got some bonds, some gilt-edge stuff, I ought to grab the thing up quick, assurin' me the goods he sells is nothing like the old gold brick.

Then he sits down and talks some more, he tells me of one dude he knew, who started in a buyin' bonds away back there in '92—and how today he doesn't work but only four days in two years, that's when he cuts the coupons off and waves aloft the trusty shears.

And then he pictures unto me how I am driftin' in my way, and not a-plin' up the scads against a comin' rainy day.
He makes me feel quite guilty like, I see myself a few years hence, a-livin' on sweet charity, a-leavin' on a poorhouse fence.

And next week Joseph Spud comes in and hands me out a business card, and lays prospectus on the desk, and starts a-talkin' yard on yard. He has a sure thing up his sleeve, he taps his finger on a book, and says the stock is just the kind a brainy man like me should took.

And then he names off sixteen men what's customers upon his list, he looks me square upon the eye, and pounds his pudgy little fist—he makes me puff up in the chest comparin' me with wealthy jays, each one of them I know darn well could buy and sell me sixteen ways.

Then just today come number three, as dapper as a gent could be, he took for granted he could sell ten thousand here and there. He says as how he big business men was comin' back and buyin' more, and how he knew how I was one the moment that he crossed my door.

When all these chaps they talk to me, I never register surprise, but just keep mum all through the spell, and stay right on a-lookin' wise.
And when they talk ten thousand and lots I never blink so they can see, but grunt as though ten thousand bones was just a trifle unto me.

There's only one thing worries me, and gives me shivers full of fear, that these here chaps may come around when all my creditors are here. On such a time I fear I'm lost, the pride would slump from out my chest, for then these chaps would know for sure that I have nothing to invest.

THE BATTLE OF HASTINGS.

"Gather 'round, my children," said the oldest living Tory.
"And just before you go to bed I'll tell a bedtime story;
It is a tale of woe and war, of punches, jabs and pastings,
When in the year of '24 my party fell at Hastings;
Guss Porter was our leader then, a man of great renown,
For years and years old Guss had been the Meighenest man in town,
He rode to power and defeat,
And this is how he lost his seat:

"He charged Jim Murrdoch, good old Jim, with drawing out his cash,
And claimed that this was wrong of him before the bank went smash;
The angry Grits called Gussie's bluff, and Grumpy Guss—alack—
Resigned his seat in Hastings 'cause he thought he'd get it back.

"The Liberals fought and Porter brought Art Meighen, Prince of Gloom,
To muster votes in Hastings and to swell the Liberals' doom,
But when the day was over it was found a wicked Grit
Had taken Gussie's votes, and now Guss has no place to sit;

His boasted triumph fell to dust, our Porter turned to malt,
And all who heard him speak said it was Arthur Meighen's fault,
And now Guss claims his broken heart is actually a work of Art."

A New York psychoanalyst says bald-headed men are usually brave. In the face of danger they never turn a hair.

We never met a woman who was so fond of antiques that she wanted to wear last year's hat.
Mah Jong is a pung game, but we know lots of people who think it's a pung game.

Mr. Meighen seems to have taken for his political motto: "Everything comes to him who hates."

To the Editor

About Third Terms.

Londoner Thinks It Took Mr. Wenige Too Long to Become a Canadian Citizen.

Editor of The Advertiser:

Sir,—As a British subject and a taxpayer in the city of London, I am ready to take issue with those who would say that a two or three year term for a good mayor is too much. It has been said during the present campaign that a third year for one man in the mayor's chair is "going the whole hog," as the Americans say. Sportsmanship and British fair play stand in the way of saying this of all the men who have served London for two or three year periods in the past. I think that any man, who is a British subject, a law-abiding citizen and has qualities of a capable leader, and who is willing to give up the time, should be offered the chance of running for mayor.

Just the same, Mr. Editor, there is another angle to the question which has been brought to my attention by a number of workers in an east-end factory. The workmen down there are thinking over the mayoralty question seriously, and they have put their side of the viewpoint in this way:

"How about a man who has only been a Canadian citizen for five years and has been on the council for three years of those five? Isn't that just a little bit too much for a man who only became a naturalized British subject at the end of the great war? Mayor Wenige lived in Canada for 20 years before he became naturalized, and immediately he goes out to seek office." That argument is worth considering. I have no fault to find with good, law-abiding people who come from the States or from the continent and become good citizens. They are numbered among our best Canadians today. But if it took Mr. Wenige 20 years to learn the benefits of being a naturalized Canadian and then only when he wanted to run for public office, his claim to a third term as mayor will not carry much weight to British-born citizens. Let us have someone who has more than desire for political honors at heart.

The Orators Start Again.

Western Ontario Secondary Schools Association is too long, so it is shortened in this age of speed to Wossa, the beauty of the abbreviation being that those concerned know what is meant by it.

The debating schedule is complete for the winter term; the subjects are big enough to have general interest, and profound enough to make the speakers dig deep for their ammunition.

The contest last season was a success; it helped scholars to develop as public speakers, and many a young man who opened the season with a wavering "Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen," ended up with a resonant thump of the fist on the table and a torrent of verbal assault.

The boy who comes out of a collegiate as even a fairly good public speaker has something practical to take away with him.

The London Silk and Woolen House

CELEBRATES FIRST ANNIVERSARY

FEMINE MODE CENTERS IN SILK, WOOLEN HOUSE

Extraordinary Fabrics From Many Parts of World Make Hit With London.

GROWTH RAPID
Anniversary Sale Will Mark Firm's Appreciation of Forest City Custom.

MAX W. GRAFFSTEIN, proprietor and manager of the London Silk and Woolen House.

On Dundas street there is a store that sparkles; a shop that fairly radiates good times. Just a year ago the blinds went up on the opening day and there in the windows were the brightest, newest and richest fabrics for feminine apparel. It was only a few moments until the women of London were enthusing over the silks and woollens within.

The firm, as you probably guessed, is the London Silk and Woolen House. It hasn't changed much in the last year. It is still one of the most attractive stores in the city. The crowds still go there. Fashion makes her home at 259 Dundas street and there it is that shoppers pay homage to the mode.

Max W. Graffstein is the manager of the local branch which is one of a chain of five such shops. This week the genial manager is celebrating the anniversary of the opening of the shop of dainty things. The celebration takes the form of an anniversary sale for, as Mr. Graffstein says, the people are more interested in the goods within than they are in the exact day the store opened. So while he looks back on a year of ever growing values his customers may enjoy the realization of purchasing in silks and woollens at remarkably low prices.

Custom Appreciated.

As a mark of appreciation to the people of London who have by their custom placed their seal of approval upon the house the management has arranged to give away souvenirs in the form of beautiful wall pocket calendars. Each person who leaves his or her name and address next five years the Dominion has shown a marked increase in silk production. It is believed by the trade that the quality of the silk will be far superior to that of the United States.

From Many Countries.

However the goods at the Silk and Woolen House are not the product of one country or two. They come from all over the world. The countries which have the newest and the best are drawn upon. In the Dundas street store are goods from England, France, Switzerland and Japan. This makes possible a wide selection of materials.

The firm set quite a record in the first year by selling 1,005,000 yards of silks and woollens. Present indications are that the second year will greatly exceed the first for the business is increasing.

The firm handles McCall patterns and it is arranging to have a McCall designer in attendance all the time.

It is hoped shortly after New Year's this will go into effect. In the meantime McCall designs, magazines and the McCall needlework publications are on hand.

Soon the London Silk and Woolen House will install a ladies' restroom and McCall fashion parlor to make for the further comfort of its customers. It looks as though expansion will take place in the near future.

JUST A FEW SUGGESTIONS HOW DRESSES CAN BE MADE AT A VERY MODERATE COST BY BUYING YOUR MATERIALS AND PATTERNS AT THE LONDON SILK AND WOOLEN HOUSE.

First Anniversary Sale of the London Silk and Woolen House

The London Silk and Woolen House has done a wonderful business in the short period of one year we have been in London. We have progressed in leaps and bounds. Our year's business was greater by far than we anticipated when we opened. It is the people of London and vicinity we have to thank for our wonderful progress.

Starting Tomorrow and Running Until Dec. 6th

Our big problem for the past two weeks has been how to repay our patrons for the wonderful manner in which they helped us build this business. After considerable thought, we decided on this plan—forget profits entirely, and during our anniversary sale, which lasts one week, we guarantee absolutely to sell anything in yard goods at exactly invoice price. A look at these prices will convince you. Come prepared for your share in these wonderful savings.

TECUMSEH CLUB PLANS CONCERT

John Parkinson Addresses the Mothers' Club at Largely Attended Meeting.

John Parkinson, principal of the school, was the chief speaker at last night's meeting of the Tecumseh avenue mothers' club. His talk pointed to the four essentials that a boy or girl should have in leaving school, to make life a success. These were, he said, truthfulness, health, concentration and manual dexterity. Mrs. S. Wilson, the president, was in the chair.

Plans were made for a concert to be held in the school on Dec. 11, the proceeds to be devoted to Christmas cheer.

Last night's meeting was largely a social gathering with the teachers of the school as special guests. A song-song, led by Clifford Reid, Miss Ada Jolliffe at the piano, was a jolly feature of the event.

A great deal of merriment was caused when slips bearing the names of well-known historical characters were pinned on the back of each guest. The object was to carry on conversation as if the guests really were the persons they represented.

The serving of refreshments brought the evening to a close, Mrs. A. Knowles and Mrs. F. Martin pouring tea from a table prettily arranged with candles and flowers.

COURSE FOR LEADERS CONTINUES AT Y.W.C.A.

Mrs. J. D. Detwiler and Miss Bessie McCamus Are Special Speakers.

The second session of the leaders' training course arranged by the London girls' work board was held last night at the Y. W. C. A., King street, a large number of women interested in girl leadership being present.

Mrs. John D. Detwiler, president of the board, gave a very fine address on "How to Use the C. G. I. T. Program at the Mid-week Session." A second interesting talk was given by Miss Bessie McCamus, convener of the Y. W. C. A. girls' work committee. Miss McCamus dealt with the same subject, but referred to the manner in which the C. G. I. T. program could be applied to the Christmas season.

There was discussion on "Gift Giving" by Miss Kathleen McNaughton, who had a practical list of things needed in the homes and institutions at Christmas time.

Miss Doris Werner gave a talk on "Christmas Music and Carols," while Miss Phyllis Johnson told the girls about "Christmas Tableaux." Miss Ruth Tanner told Christmas stories and explained some of the sources of Christmas lore and customs. Miss Vera Moseley-Williams spoke on "What About the Week Between Christmas and New Year's?" explaining that the Christmas spirit should be carried on after Christmas day.

Miss Ada Minihnick presided over the meeting, announcing that Miss May Gemmill of Toronto would be the speaker in the next session of the training course.

MISS M'KAY WILL ADDRESS RALLY

Former Y.W.C.A. Secretary in Hong Kong To Speak to C.G.I.T. Groups.

Miss Olive McKay of Woodstock, formerly Y. W. C. A. secretary in Hong Kong, will address the rally of senior C. G. I. T. groups in the Dundas Centre church tonight. Miss McKay takes the place of Mrs. D. C. MacGregor, who is unable to give her address owing to illness.

The program will also include two-minute talks on what it has meant to be a member of a C. G. I. T. group, by Miss Kathleen Copeland of Hamilton road church and Miss Eva Holmes of Talbot street church. A lively sing-song led by Mrs. Frederick Schofield will open the meeting.

A demonstration of initiation will be put on by Christ church group, while Miss Blanche Roberts of the Bell Telephone Company will give practical advice on what a girl should be.

Vocal numbers by Miss Gladys Shildrick will also be an attractive feature of the evening. Miss Grace Pierce will act as accompanist.

EDITH CAVELL LODGE ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

Mrs. Stanley Grosvenor Made Worthy Mistress at Annual Meeting.

Mrs. Stanley Grosvenor was elected worthy mistress of the Edith Cavell lodge, L.O.B.A., at the annual meeting held this week. Other officers of the lodge are: Immediate past mistress, Mrs. Percy Allen; deputy mistress, Mrs. William McCracken; chaplain, Mrs. Stanton; recording secretary, Miss Mabel Tebbell; financial secretary, Mrs. L. McRoberts; treasurer, Miss May Cornelius; first lecturer, Mrs. Frank Wilkes, director of ceremonies, Mrs. G. Fletcher; inner guard, Mrs. Andrews; outer guard, Miss Bella Miller; committee, Mrs. Greenway, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Ball and Mrs. J. Cornelius; trustees, Mrs. G. E. Burridge, Mrs. J. Cornelius and Mrs. Percy Allen; auditors, Mrs. A. E. Saville and Joseph Carson; secretary, Mrs. C. E. Burridge.

The lecture was conducted by Mrs. J. Cornelius, past mistress. An announcement was made that Mrs. George Bolton, 3 Terry street, had won the rug drawn for at the lodge bazaar held recently. Mrs. Adams was the winner of the tray.

ENVOIUS MAW.
New York, Nov. 28.—"Why can't my tailor turn out a coat like that?" So exclaimed one well-dressed man today as he watched the newest woman's topcoat strolling up the avenue. The coat was a double-breasted tweed, with long wide lapels between which was worn a black handkerchief tightly wrapped about the throat. The coat ended two inches above the skirt hem, was shaped slightly at the waist, and was completed by big patch pockets.

A TOUCH OF WINE ROSE.
New York, Nov. 28.—This is a red season, even for finger nails. The latest finish imparted to the almond-shaped nails of fashion's favorites is not really red but rose. The same tint without the polish can be attained by making home-made wine in the Italian fashion.

MOTHER STILL KEEPS MAIDEN NAME.

One of the most militant of American feminists became a mother last week. She is Elsie Hill, of Washington, chairman of the executive council of the national women's party. Although married to Prof. Albert Levitt in 1921, she still persists in being called by her maiden name. While her baby daughter will be known as Elsie Hill Levitt, the mother will still be Miss Elsie Hill. She is a graduate of Vassar and a daughter of a former congressman from Connecticut. During the Wilson regime she was among those suffragets who went to jail for picketing the White House.

Sports Frocks Have an Accepted Use in Women's Wardrobes Aside From Sports Wear.

To wear sports frocks one does not have to be a sportsman—not in the least. One may not belong to a country club, one may not know a putter from a driver, nor ever have stepped foot upon a tennis court.

Many women might tell you that they first solved their dress problem to the best advantage when they adopted the plan of wearing sports frocks for almost all daytime occasions. There is a tendency on the part of a good many busy young married women, as well as on the part of business and professional women alike, to dispense with the fussy afternoon frock. If you like you may "get all dressed up" to go to an afternoon bridge party or to drink tea with a friend, but you may drop in in a smart-looking sport frock and look just as well.

The sketch shows a sports frock of henna, simply trimmed with brown buttons and a leather belt and—most important—the new inverted box pleat at the front, which seems to be regarded at the present time as the smartest way to introduce the fullness of the skirt necessary to a sport or general utility frock.

Sports frock, with inverted box pleat in front, of beige and brown kasha.

This Little Brandon Lassie Is Never "Dosed" for Colds

The Browns Now Use the "External" Treatment for Croup and Cold Troubles.

Mrs. John Brown, of 425 24th St. Brandon, Man., is the mother of this fine little girl, and one of the many Canadian mothers who now use the vaporizing salve, Vicks Vaporub, in treating the colds of all the family. After using Vicks for some time Mrs. Brown writes:

"I have eight small children—aged from one to twelve years—and can certainly say that Vicks is the only cold remedy I have in the house all winter. If the cold is in the child's head I just put a little up each nostril and it gives relief in a short time. If it is in the chest I rub Vicks well in at night and by morning the cold has almost disappeared. I also use Vicks for chilblains and for burns—in fact I use it too for severe headaches and find relief in a very short time. I always recommend Vicks to my friends, especially those who have children.

Vicks is the external direct treatment for cold troubles—absorbed like a liniment and inhaled as a vapor. It is the ideal treatment for children's colds. Just as good, too, for adults.—Adv't.

CLUB NEWS

BAILEY W. M. S.
The November meeting of the W. M. S. of Bailey was held recently at the home of Mrs. Henry Baskerville, with just a fair attendance. The present, Mrs. Mossop, conducted the devotional exercises and Mrs. R. Judd gave a reading from the study book. Mrs. C. Letick also gave an interesting paper and Mrs. Warwick a poem. Solos were given by Mrs. Praiten and Mrs. David Stevenson, and at the conclusion of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

GOLDEN LINK CLUB
The Golden Link club was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. Steel, Grey street, yesterday. Ten games of euchre were played, Mrs. R. Brown winning first prize and Mrs. F. Arbutnot second prize. Mrs. A. Sheridan was happily surprised during the afternoon when the members presented her with a handsome pair of hand-worked pillow covers. It was the occasion of her birthday. The presentation was made by Mrs. H. Aitken, Mrs. E. Shildrick reading the address.

"Say It With Flowers"

249 Dundas St. — Phone 2187.

of Winnipeg. Rev. H. B. Workman officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was prettily gowned in white georgette over satin, trimmed with silver and orange blossoms, wearing the conventional veil and carrying a shower bouquet of roses and carnations. Her only ornament was a beautiful rope of pearls, the gift of the groom, Miss Dora Richardson of Watford was the bride's attendant, and wore a lovely gown of Oakwood brown satin, and Mr. Lee A. Cook of Warwick, a cousin of the groom, acted as best man.

The house was attractively decorated in pink and white and ferns, and after the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, following which the bride and groom left, amid a shower of confetti, by motor for London, the bride traveling in a suit of navy blue polart twill with radium blue blouse and hat to match, and Isabella fox fur.

Mr. and Mrs. Ladell will reside in Detroit. Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. G. Cundick of this city.

New York, Nov. 28.—Do you galosh? If you do not now, you will before the winter is over, for the newest are easier to put on than a pair of rubbers, faster over a double fold with a single snap, and have a convertible cuff which fits tight around the leg with an elastic band. Also, they are light enough so that the sound of galoshed footsteps does not resemble a baby-hippo leaving the Nile mud.

Keeping the Peace Dorothy Dix Shows Futility of Domestic Strife

Do You Want Your Home To Be A Haven of Peace Instead of a Perpetual Debating Society? Put a Ban on All Arguments, and Keep Away From All Taboo Subjects.

A young woman said to me the other day: "I have been married four years, and in that time have had about four million spats with my husband. We love each other, but we can't seem to get along together in peace and harmony. At first I did not take these quarrels seriously, because I thought that it was natural for young married couples to disagree, and that it took time for them to adjust themselves to each other.

"But now I am beginning to realize what a terrible thing it is for a husband and wife to live together in strife, and to see that love can't live long in a home where there are perpetual black frowns and hard speeches, and silent meals."

"Right-o," said I. "The theory that quarreling is an innocent and innocuous indoor sport for husbands and wives has done more harm than any other one thing to make marriage a failure, and furnish grist for the divorce mill.

"Because every domestic row does not end in the man rushing out and buying a ticket to Reno, or the woman jamming on her hat and going back to mother, and because when they have cooled off, they have kissed and made up, even the fighting couple often think that no harm has been done. "But it has. Every wound leaves a scar. In every domestic spat things are said that stab into the heart like a dagger thrust. Weakness and faults that each believe hidden from the other are dragged ruthlessly into the light. Reproaches are uttered that humiliate almost beyond endurance.

"And long after the one who, in the madness of rage, said things that he or she never intended to say, and that he or she has forgotten, the other still remembers. The cruel words, the harsh criticism, the rattling of the bones of the skeleton dragged from a secret closet, rankles in the mind, an unforgettable insult, for in anger, as in wine, the truth will out.

"Every disagreement between a husband and wife leaves them a little bit more disillusioned with each other, a little hurt and sore. It leaves them caring a little less for each other, and wondering a great deal more if marriage is worth while. For a sporting partner is not what they married for, and what they looked for in a home was a haven of peace, and not the storm center they have.

"Now, it is, of course, impossible that any two human beings of different sexes, with a different heredity, brought up in a different environment, should always think alike, or want to do the same thing. But because they differ they need not quarrel. Nor need they give up their point of view. There are other ways of killing a cat besides choking it with butter.

"The first move toward coaxing the dove of peace to roost on your fireplace is to put a cast iron ban on all arguments. Give every one the right of free speech. Let every husband and wife concede to each other the right to believe in any God they prefer, to belong to any political school they fancy, to have high brow or low brow tastes in literature, the theatre, and the movies.

"You do not have to believe a single thing your husband or wife believes. You can retain your personal opinion, and you can save yourself not only from an unpleasant scene, but from unmitigated boredom, because an argument falls very flat, and peters out into silence, if no one tries to refute it.

"Nine-tenths of the family quarrels start in an argument. Cut that out and the domestic millennium would dawn. And after all, what an unnecessary source of discord the argument is. Nobody was ever convinced by one. Its only result is to make a woman think that she married a pig-headed mule, and to prove to a man that his wife is a stubborn fool.

"The second way to keep the peace in the family is for husbands and wives to take the trouble to use a little diplomacy in dealing with each other. There are certain subjects that in every household are as good for a free-for-all fight as a nickel is for a ginger cake. Why not put the taboo on them, instead of dragging them out into the arena?

"If the husband cannot abide his wife's mother, or the wife and her husband's mother-in-law, or the wife and her mother-in-law, why not visit the old ladies in their own homes, instead of precipitating civil war by bringing them into yours?

"Why not settle the money question before marriage instead of afterward? Why not jolly husband and wife into doing what you want them to do instead of brooding them into it?

"And, finally, remember that a soft answer turns away wrath, and that you can stop any quarrel by merely saying, 'I am sorry. I did not intend to hurt or displease you.' Any husband or wife who will do that has signed a perpetual peace treaty with his or her storm and strife."

WOMEN and THE HOME

SUCCESSFUL FETE AT ST. GEORGE'S

Wide Range of Articles Are Placed on Sale For Merry Customers.

In St. George's parish hall there is an interesting event taking place. It is the bazaar arranged under the auspices of the women's guild of the church. It was opened last night and has been gratifyingly patronized by the members of the congregation. At the attractively decorated booths there is a wide range of merchandise for sale. At a large centrally-located booth there is a wide range of centrally-located goods, decorated in two tones of yellow, there were aprons of every description, as well as an array of children's wear and piles of lovely fancy work. The fancy work is in charge of Mrs. Fred G. Turville, Mrs. E. H. Talbot, Miss Lizzie Raymond, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. T. P. Dexter, Mrs. A. Jeffries, and others. The aprons are in charge of Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mrs. C. H. Linnell, Mrs. Bowles, Mrs. Frank Cotton, and others, and at the children's wear section were noticed Mrs. R. J. Rowe, Mrs. Dawson, and others.

At the handkerchief booth a very Christmasy atmosphere prevailed, for here the decorations were evergreens, icicles and snow. It was very effective and there was good material for the small squares of daintily embroidered linen and lawn, sold from a cosy bow of greenery. It was in charge of Mrs. William Hunt, Mrs. Frank Humphries, Miss Andrews, Miss Margery Dexter, and others.

The gift shop was attractively decorated in black and white, with a cleverly-inscribed sign over the entrance, successfully advertising its wares. Miss Adelaide Smith and Miss Ada Platt, conversers, had charge of the booth, assisted by Mrs. L. L. Lachie and Mrs. Kennedy. The home-cookery booth, in charge of Mrs. A. H. Greig, assisted by Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Samhan, was decorated in red and white, while at the candy booth and flower stall a gay maypole made an effective center. Here Mrs. J. Hobbs, Mrs. R. Stephenson and Mrs. Osborne were in charge. Mrs. Garrett and her Girl Guides were in charge of the fish pond and Christmas tree, which was effectively lighted. The men's booth took the form of a general country store.

The King's Daughters had a lovely stall, which was centered with a bell and decked with morning glories in the club colors of purple and white. Here a variety of lovely articles were sold. Those in charge included Miss Jennie Andrews, Mrs. Sydney Slim, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Ruse and Mrs. Kennedy.

At dainty flower-centered tables ice cream was sold, with Miss Susie Cushing and Miss Hattie English in charge. Supper was served from 5 to 8 o'clock under the direction of Mrs. William Garrett, Mrs. M. Ker-shaw, Mrs. Gash, Mrs. H. R. K. Tozer, Mrs. Sidebohan, Mrs. Johnston and Miss N. Crowder. An orchestra was supplied throughout the event by the St. George's orchestra, under the leadership of Frank Humphries.

For this very successful bazaar, Mrs. G. B. Sage and Mrs. Guy Guymer were the general conveners.

Tells Whether She May Vote Monday, And How It Is Done

That the women of London are interested in the municipal election and want to cast their votes on Monday has been shown by a keen desire to find out just how to vote and whether they are eligible.

City Clerk Baker has come to the rescue. And this is what he says: Every owner, tenant or income earner, man or woman, who is assessed for $400 or more, may vote.

Every married woman is entitled to vote in the right of her husband as owner or tenant of property.

Every man or woman entitled to vote may vote on the questions of mayor and for six school trustees—no more.

Every man or woman entitled to vote may vote for all of the six bylaws. This is something new. Other years voters have required property qualifications to cast a ballot on certain of the bylaws.

It is only on the ballot for alderman that there is any restriction on the voting. In the case of aldermen, the voter may cast her ballot only for the aldermen running in her ward. She may mark the ballot for one, two or three aldermen—no more. If she is a property owner in more than one ward she may vote in each of the wards in which she owns property, but on the question of aldermen only. On all other questions she has but one vote.

On Hill street, when about 50 guests enjoyed an evening of dancing.

Miss Agnes England, who is teaching at Oil Springs, is coming to the city this evening for the rugby dance, and will be a guest with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George England, Elizabeth street.

Miss Isabel Armstrong of Ottawa is expected in the city for the Christmas holidays and will be a guest with her brother, Mr. M. T. Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong, at the Adanac apartments.

Mr. John Tanton and Mrs. Tanton of St. Marys will be guests of the university alumni tonight at the annual banquet. Mr. and Mrs. Tanton will spend the week-end with Miss Claypole, South London.

Mrs. W. J. Clark of Montreal forced one of the city, is a guest with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Allen, Ridout street south. In Mrs. Clark's honor, Mrs. T. P. McCormick entertained informally at the tea hour this week.

Mrs. Fred Moon of Brydges street, entertained yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Wm. Davies of Munro, Mich., who is a guest with Mrs. L. P. Moon assisted at the tea hour.

Mrs. M. V. Romig, the W. M. S. secretary, who will address the young women's league of the church of Christ Disciples on Saturday, will be a guest with Mrs. W. McCrooklin, 221 Wortley road, while she is in the city.

Rev. Father Brennan was one of the speakers at the council, Knights of Columbus, of Sarnia, when they held a very enjoyable booster meeting in their lodge rooms on Tuesday evening in the form of a banquet for the members.

Miss Lillian McCormick, who is attending the Ontario ladies' college at Whitby, spent last week-end in Toronto, a guest with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick, who were in Toronto attending the Royal winter fair and horse show.

Mrs. Alexander Mackenzie and small daughter, Sheila, of Toronto, are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McBride. In Mrs. Mackenzie's honor, Mrs. O. G. Bayly, Princess avenue, entertained at a bridge on Wednesday evening.

Professor Manly Baker of the geological department of Queen's university, Kingston, will be a guest with Mrs. and Mrs. V. K. Greer, South London, while he is in the city. Professor Baker will address the Queen's Ingram dining-room this evening.

Mrs. Norman Keene was the hostess of a smart tea and shower at the Highland golf club yesterday afternoon, for Miss Hilda Keene, a bride-elect of December. The gifts were accompanied by novel rhymes, and Mrs. C. E. Keene presided over the pretty tea table, which was centered with pink 'mums.

A charming birthday party was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. T. Loschard, 324 Waterloo street, in honor of her daughter, Kathleen, who celebrated her eighth birthday. Mrs. L. Wilson assisted the hostess in the serving of a dainty supper to the small guests invited. Among the guests, who were schooled in the small hostess, were Winnifred Therault, Earl Wilson, Frank Leschard, Leona Wilson, Jean Haine, Nancy Fraumeni, surrounded by billows of white tulle, studded with marigolds. Tall candles in quaint low silver holders repeated the note of orange in the decorations.

A. E. Ement and Mrs. T. S. H. Graham presided over the tea in the afternoon, the former wearing a black georgette gown headed in steel, while Mrs. Graham was gowned in black cut velvet and georgette, and wore a black and silver hat. Miss Olive O'Neill, a housewife, was a guest with the hostess, was a tea-room assistant, wearing a lovely frock of powder blue georgette with rhinestones and black picture hat. Mrs. Ement and Mrs. O'Neill were in the dining-room the tea table, covered with a handsome point de Venice and rich embroidery cloth, was centered with the bride's cake, surrounded by billows of white tulle, studded with marigolds. Tall candles in quaint low silver holders repeated the note of orange in the decorations.

Mrs. A. E. O'Neill, who received for the first time since her marriage, the first time she welcomed many callers to her lovely home in Hayman court. The bride was charming in her modish gown of nasturtium velvet with trimmings. Her mother, Mrs. Edwin Brown of Port Hope, who received with her daughter, was gowned in black georgette heavily brocaded in panne velvet. Mrs. V. K. Greer also received in the afternoon, wearing a brocaded gown in orange tones and wearing black hat. The living-room was most attractive with deep rose 'mums and slender vases holding roses and pink picture hats. Mrs. E. A. Miller received with Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill, wearing a gown of gray crepe with chic black hat. Miss Keis, wearing a black lace gown and black hat, and Mrs. A. H. Dolan presided over the coffee urns, and Miss Mary Macpherson, wearing a smart gown of oakwood brown, with trimmings of marabout, and taupe hat, ushered to the tea-room.

COLDSTREAM W. I.

The November meeting of the Coldstream women's institute was held at the home of Mrs. Isaac Hamacher, with 25 members present. The business was chiefly concerned with the giving of reports from the recent convention in London by Mrs. Charles Wilson, vice-president, and Mrs. John Currie of the Beechwood institute. An excellent paper on "Thanksgiving," prepared by Mrs. MacArthur, was then read, followed by a few remarks from Esther Hy-craft on hints for Christmas gifts. The December meeting will be held on Dec. 9 at the home of Mrs. Mary Cameron.

LONDON JUNIORS TO GET REAL TEST AGAINST GREYS TONIGHT

Dominion Champions of Last Year Have Not Been Weakened Any.

LOCALS DRILLED

TONIGHT'S LINEUPS.
London. Owen Sound. Fris. Barrett. Goal. St. Smith. Defence. R. Burmister. Pritchard. Defence. Brochy. Zeigler. Goal. Callahan. Monahan. L. Wing. Keeling. Wade. R. Wing. J. Smith. Philmore. Subs. Handie. Launder. Subs. Burns. Lowrey. Subs. Clarke. Sturgeon.

Judging by the demand for pastebards, widespread interest is being taken in tonight's opening junior fixture between the London juniors and the fast sextet from Owen Sound, last year's Dominion junior champions. The other teams have an exceptionally speedy outfit, a fact that is well known to local fans, who witnessed their performance here last season when they defeated Kitchener in the O.H.A. final. Some changes have naturally taken place in the club since that time, but the visitors are still reckoned as the team to beat for this season's O.H.A. honors.

Wings Formidable.
Keeling, at left wing, is regarded by critics to have no peer in junior hockey while Jimmy Smith, who holds down the opposite wing, is well remembered by Londoners, as his all-round ability stood out last season when he played right wing for Woodstock who defeated the locals for group honors.

The London lads, however, are keen for the fray, and have been practicing assiduously for over two weeks in preparation for the test tonight.

They realize the opposition is just about as tough as could be found anywhere in the Dominion, but this fact has inspired them to make every effort to prove to local fans that they have the goods.

In Pines London has been fortunate enough to find one of the best net-minders in junior hockey, and there is no worry over that position, as he is able to stand between the posts.

Barrett has buckled down to work with a vengeance, and appears to be for a great season. In work-outs he has stood out prominently, and should prove a tower of strength on the defence, where he is most likely to be found, during the balance of the season.

Bill Pritchard, student who hails from Harrison, will likely start off with Barrett on defence. He appears a find, but has a habit of hogging the puck, though of late his passing has been better, and he realizes that to make good he has to fit in with the machine. He is very speedy, and packs a wicked shot.

Philmore, another student who is attending Normal school, is another defence man from whom much is expected. Last season he was a regular with Ingersoll. He is a clever stick-handler, and may gain a regular berth before the O.H.A. season opens.

Zeigler, last year captain of the Kitchener juniors, who went into the finals as one of the outstanding stars of the club. He is holding down the center position, and should score a good many goals before the season is over, as he is fast, a very clever stick-handler and a good shot. In addition, he is brainy, and has the reputation of guessing all the time as to his intentions.

Monahan, at left wing, has improved greatly since last season, and seems speedier than ever. The fans were well satisfied with him then, and are counting on him heavily to come through tonight.

Wade, from Preston, who holds down right wing, is also fast and packs a good shot. He should have a good account of himself from the start.

Launder, another student from Durham, will hold down a subbing job for the time being. He started slow, but of late has been travelling fast, and, as in the case of Philmore, may yet land a regular position.

Jerry Lowrey of the seniors, who is still eligible for junior hockey, will assist in subbing at intervals, although club officials are going to keep the regular crew on as long as they can.

GARRISON A. A. A. TO LIMIT FIELD

Entries For First Boxing Show Will Close Next Wednesday.

JIMMY GARDNER, former Montreal pro, who has begun his duties as coach of the Hamilton pro hockey team.

Last night the entries for the boxing show of the London Garrison A. A. A. on Dec. 12 was definitely and officially limited to members of units within military districts Nos. 1, 2 and 3. The report of the boxing committee arrangements for the preliminary show of the season was the most important part of last night's general executive meeting.

Sergt. Burns, chairman of the boxing committee, intimated last night that an attempt was being made to develop district boxers, rather than take the chances of a deficit in making up matched cards. The executive agreed with the wisdom of this principle and believed that from the fan point of view an attempt would prove the most attractive.

Cy Poek will probably be found impossible to make up an opponent for the former light-heavyweight champion of Canada, and he was handed as a fine choice for referee.

Major Smith suggested that some of the units might give cups to the winners in individual classes, but it was afterwards decided that it would be better to give a cup to the winners in a stated number of tournaments.

The indoor baseball situation has not been cleared up, but there are four teams already assured, the London Fusiliers (formerly W. O. P.), First Hussars, Western University C. O. T. C. and R. C. R. The 2nd Field Battalion and the Second Canadian Machine-Gun Brigade are the other two teams that are almost certain.

The Garrison A. A. A. will not attempt to foster basketball and hockey this year, unless plans change radically in the next few weeks.

Entries for the boxing tournament close Dec. 3.

Looks Like McPhee's Chance

ST. THOMAS HIGH READY FOR FINAL

Special to The Advertiser.
St. Thomas, Nov. 27.—The local collegiate senior "Wossa" players will be a highly disappointed outfit if they are not able to overcome the eleven-school lead secured by their old rivals, Sarnia Collegiate, when the two meet here on Saturday. Every day this week the S. T. C. I. squad has been put through the most rigorous training. In rain or snow, the unrelenting pace has been kept up. Social functions and appetites have suffered in the general cause, which was the first setback of the season, and to a certain extent expected it or, at least, they feared that the old routine would be their lot again. Inspired by a desire to thwart the fate that has trailed them for many years, they set to work Monday at Athletic Park to reach a state of perfection which would deny any rate for once at least. Expert coaching has been secured, and signals and plays have been introduced, and all divisions strengthened. The team fans are betting on the local gang to win next Saturday's game and to overcome the eleven-school lead.

The Elgin Regiment twelve is being drilled to perfection for its final game in the O. R. P. I. championships here Saturday. Captain Davy has unlimited material to draw from, and is making a selection of his line and back field. Some slight changes will undoubtedly be made in the two weeks' advantage in stopping the Faddies.

OTTAWA ENTHUSES OVER PRESENT TEAM

Newcomers To Capital City Club Making Good Impressions.

Canadian Press Dispatch.
Ottawa, Nov. 27.—Although the Ottawa Senators are playing with only two survivors of the great team of 1923, they have won the world's championship at Vancouver two years ago, it looks as if they have rounded out another wonderful age.

Don't make any mistake—we will have a hitting club in Brooklyn next spring. The pitchers won't have to do all the work.

If Mr. Elsbets would make a deal with the Giants he probably could get value for his money. The Giants need a veteran left-hander like "Dutch," and he probably would give them good service. But Elsbets has always refused to strengthen any team of McGraw's, although the National League champions have inquired what he could do for them. There's not much chance for a deal whereby Ruetter will land with the Giants.

McPhee, the former West Lorne boy, should time in on opportunity next year at spring training. McPhee has not been remembered that he was not right physically. The matter is being much out of him. Bashing gave McPhee a good recommendation never before at the end of the season, hence Dan's transportation, which he will receive shortly for Chevrolet. Elsbets knows pitchers and knows how to develop them, and if McPhee can't get what he needs to get more now in his arm than lots of big league hurlers, but he will be proud above the shoulders from now on.

Propping himself up in a sick bed at home in Baltimore, Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, yesterday sent out requests for sealed bids and estimates on the good left arm of "Dutch" Ruetter, one of his favorite pitchers for the campaign of 1925.

"Uncle Robbie" has been mighty high of pique, contracted while on a hunting trip in the south with Col. T. L. Huston, but he is on the mend now and ready to talk baseball business, when the big league managers assemble on Dec. 9.

Ruetter is on the market. He's about the only Brooklyn player who is "Robbie" is satisfied with the team which finished the season the heels of the big money's worth out of Ruetter and bidding the left-hander a farewell.

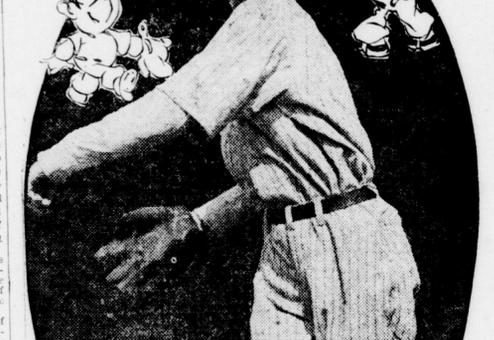

"Ruetter is a fine pitcher," said "Uncle Robbie." "There are few left-handers better." He has never done great work for us. No one who saw him beat the Giants in the opening class gave a good exhibition of cleverness. And yet he hasn't made any headway with the public in Brooklyn. He is in the hands of the draw.

Mr. Elsbets thinks it best for the Brooklyn club that it not try to make a deal. This man is valuable. He will give you a lot of games to a team that you can't get any other way. He figures to beat you next year without getting something good for Chevrolet.

"I take it that the best pitcher who can hit, an outfielder who can hit and run, a catcher who can catch and exchange for Ruetter. If I can't get them, I'll keep him on the bench and make him a utility player. That boy can sock the ball."

WALLACEBURG MITT SEASON UNDER WAY

Ring Fans Witness Five Fast Bouts in Initial Show of Season.

Special to The Advertiser.
Wallaceburg, Nov. 27.—The boxing season opened here Monday and attracted a very large crowd of fans to the arena of the Wallaceburg Amateur Club, where a fine display was witnessed.

The entertainment was staged by the recently formed Wallaceburg amateur boxing club, and it is to be highly congratulated upon its initial effort.

The main bout of the evening was between Ernest Gallen of Port Lambton and Clayton Lucas of Dresden, in the 185-pound class. The Dresden boy put up a fine show against his much taller opponent, who stands 6 feet 2 inches.

For the three rounds he took a lot of punishment from the Lambton man. However, he lacked condition, and the bout was given in favor of Gallen.

The 150-pound bout was another whirlwind and saw some of the best boxing of the evening. It was a fight between R. McKinley of Chatham and Frobol of Wallaceburg. The former being awarded the decision.

Roy Claxton of Sarnia and Walter Lamb of Leamington in the 135-pound class gave a good exhibition of clever boxing. The former showing himself greatly improved since last season.

Another bout which created much interest was that in which Charles McKinley of Wallaceburg outpointed Ernest Campbell of Tapperville.

Frankie Hearn and J. Weir, both local lads, opened the program with a very creditable show of boxing. The bout between J. Montague of Chatham and Bert Martin of Wallaceburg was cancelled owing to the former having broken his nose a few days previously.

Ben Millman officiated as referee.

43 GIRLS AND BOYS TEAMS ENTER WOSSA CAGE SERIES

All District Winners Must Be Declared by January 31.

Special to The Advertiser.

BANQUET PLANNED FOR INTERMEDIATES

Football Committee Has First Surplus in Many Years.

The L. A. A. A. rugby committee met last night and although a date was not selected, the team which gave Sarnia such a hard battle will be banquipped, and otherwise amusements will be taken of its very best years in the fall pastime and from which may be dated the revival of football in London.

It is suggested that the first series consist of a game with each school twice during the time allowed, that is, each group convenor with the representatives to arrange to have each school play as many games as the dates will permit, and where such an arrangement holds the winners shall be declared on the basis of the number of games won and lost. Should a tie occur, home and home games are to be played, with the total number of points on the round to decide the winner. This series is to be completed by Jan. 31, 1925.

Second Series.
(a) Winners of district 2 vs. winners of district 3.
(b) Winners of district 5 vs. winners of district 6.

BOB SAGE OUT.
Associated Press Dispatch.
Pittsburg, Nov. 27.—Robert Sage of Detroit has wired that he will be unable to meet Harry Greb, middleweight champion, here Monday night because of a sprained wrist. Another opponent for Greb will be obtained.

(b) Winners of district 5 vs. winners of district 6.

STRATFORD Y. W. C. A. PLANS GIRLS' HOCKEY TEAM

Special to The Advertiser.
Stratford, Nov. 27.—Provided that the girls can get some consideration from the male authorities that the Stratford Y. W. C. A. will back a sextette that will be sent after provincial honors in ladies' hockey this winter. The announcement made by Miss Grace Dand, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., is a very interesting one. She stated that she is going to ask the Stratford parks board to set aside one open air rink this winter for the use of girls only. If the board will provide a rink to look after the sheet. In addition to this the Y. W. C. A. authorities will endeavor to secure the use of the new arena for one hour's practice a week.

There are a good many girls in Stratford who are neat skaters and a strong team could be selected from among their numbers. Some of those who could be expected to turn out in an endeavor to make a place on the team are Violet Zimmerman, who has played hockey with Mitchell teams; Christine Miller, Joan Fraser, Lorena Demsey, Martha Vandland, Helen Lennahan, Bernice Esson, Bonnie Hazerty, Alma Slatyer, Frances Stevenson, Helen Legless, Corinne Breneman, Caro Harrison, Ellen McLean and others.

AMERICAN FOOTBALL.
New York, Nov. 27.—The following are scores of prominent football games today:
At Philadelphia—Pennsylvania 20, Cornell 0.
At Pittsburgh—Penn State 3, Pittsburg 24.
At Providence—Brown 20, Colgate 6.
At New York—Columbia 6, Syracuse 7.

BRITISH FOOTBALL.
London, Nov. 27.—In friendly soccer matches today, West Ham defeated the Corinthians by 4 to 2 and the football association team won from Cambridge University by 2 to 1.
Rugby matches had the following results:
Cambridge University, 21; Dublin University, 0.
Country championship, East Midlands, 6; North Midlands, 6 (at Northampton).

All District Winners Must Be Declared by January 31.

Special to The Advertiser.
St. Thomas, Nov. 27.—The local collegiate senior "Wossa" players will be a highly disappointed outfit if they are not able to overcome the eleven-school lead secured by their old rivals, Sarnia Collegiate, when the two meet here on Saturday. Every day this week the S. T. C. I. squad has been put through the most rigorous training. In rain or snow, the unrelenting pace has been kept up. Social functions and appetites have suffered in the general cause, which was the first setback of the season, and to a certain extent expected it or, at least, they feared that the old routine would be their lot again. Inspired by a desire to thwart the fate that has trailed them for many years, they set to work Monday at Athletic Park to reach a state of perfection which would deny any rate for once at least. Expert coaching has been secured, and signals and plays have been introduced, and all divisions strengthened. The team fans are betting on the local gang to win next Saturday's game and to overcome the eleven-school lead.

BANQUET PLANNED FOR INTERMEDIATES

Football Committee Has First Surplus in Many Years.

The L. A. A. A. rugby committee met last night and although a date was not selected, the team which gave Sarnia such a hard battle will be banquipped, and otherwise amusements will be taken of its very best years in the fall pastime and from which may be dated the revival of football in London.

It is suggested that the first series consist of a game with each school twice during the time allowed, that is, each group convenor with the representatives to arrange to have each school play as many games as the dates will permit, and where such an arrangement holds the winners shall be declared on the basis of the number of games won and lost. Should a tie occur, home and home games are to be played, with the total number of points on the round to decide the winner. This series is to be completed by Jan. 31, 1925.

Second Series.

STRATFORD Y. W. C. A. PLANS GIRLS' HOCKEY TEAM

Special to The Advertiser.
Stratford, Nov. 27.—Provided that the girls can get some consideration from the male authorities that the Stratford Y. W. C. A. will back a sextette that will be sent after provincial honors in ladies' hockey this winter. The announcement made by Miss Grace Dand, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., is a very interesting one. She stated that she is going to ask the Stratford parks board to set aside one open air rink this winter for the use of girls only. If the board will provide a rink to look after the sheet. In addition to this the Y. W. C. A. authorities will endeavor to secure the use of the new arena for one hour's practice a week.

There are a good many girls in Stratford who are neat skaters and a strong team could be selected from among their numbers. Some of those who could be expected to turn out in an endeavor to make a place on the team are Violet Zimmerman, who has played hockey with Mitchell teams; Christine Miller, Joan Fraser, Lorena Demsey, Martha Vandland, Helen Lennahan, Bernice Esson, Bonnie Hazerty, Alma Slatyer, Frances Stevenson, Helen Legless, Corinne Breneman, Caro Harrison, Ellen McLean and others.

VARSITY GRIDDERS DEFEATED 30-18 BY DETROIT UNIVERSITY

Canadian Team Held Scoreless in Second Half Under U. S. Rules.

SNYDER SHINES

Special to The Advertiser.
Detroit, Nov. 27.—Ten thousand football fans witnessed the first American football game in Canada, when the Varsity Gridders of Detroit defeated the Canadian team by a score of 30-18. Snyder, the star of the Varsity team, was the only Canadian player to score a touchdown. Snyder's performance was the highlight of the game, as he scored three touchdowns and kicked five extra points. The Canadian team, coached by Arthur J. Stewart, was held scoreless in the second half of the game. The game was played at the University of Michigan Stadium in Detroit.

ART SCHOLES, of Toronto, yesterday finished first in the Irish-American A. C. ten-mile marathon in Detroit.

NOTS WILL HAVE CHANCE SATURDAY

Is Favored To Take Lead by Defeating Blackburn Rovers.

Associated Press Dispatch.

London, Nov. 27.—Notts county the leaders in the first division of the English football association will have an opportunity Saturday of getting out of the bracket in which they are travelling with Sunderland when the county act as hosts to Blackburn Rovers. There is a considerable margin between the respective teams, the Rovers having acquired 16 points throughout the season to 21 credited to Notts county.

Sunderland is less certain to emerge victorious, though it plays Aston Villa on its own ground. The Villa has been coming back gradually and struck a good stride last week when it ran up a 3-0 score against Everton.

Birmingham, which has been steadily improving, will have to play a great deal better than it did against Newcastle United last Saturday if it is to keep its place in the running for the title.

Liverpool, on the other hand, was tremendously encouraged over even such a thing as a 1 to 0 victory in the second division.

Manchester United, which has been steadily improving, will have to play a great deal better than it did against Newcastle United last Saturday if it is to keep its place in the running for the title.

Liverpool, on the other hand, was tremendously encouraged over even such a thing as a 1 to 0 victory in the second division.

Thistles Look Good For Cage Campaign

Setting Fast Pace in Practices On "Y" Floor.

Special to The Advertiser.

London, Nov. 27.—The Thistles, one of the London entries in the L. O. B. A., went through a strenuous practice at the Y. M. C. A. gym last night, and unloosed bursts of speed and bits of fancy shooting that made the railbirds sit up and look excited.

Last year's defence, Bessie Graves and Frances Talbot made the scrum attackers give up hopes of scoring from inside and kept them shooting from center. The defence is the best part of the team this season and should make the Toronto representatives look twice before a rush and dazed after one. Bessie Graves plays a marvellously steady game at all times, leaves Old Man Chance away in the back-ground, and gradually makes her way forward once in a while to try a shot for her own benefit.

The team made frames until after Christmas, and the big girls look foolish with their peculiar defensive tactics. The Thistles are gradually making their way into the opposition wonder how the acrobat got in.

The forward line has its qualities, too. Rena Currie, Ann Hazlegrove and Lucy Milne make up a dangerous trio that will bear watching in the coming year. Lucy is good on the long tries, and Ann does her tricks from all corners. This attacking line is strengthened when Billie Graves adds her weight for relief work, and the scrumming of Audrey Taylor puts a little more height in at center. If the defence can feel this quintette aspers are in the future. The girls worked hard in the practice last night, but Coach Good-Nowe did not seem satisfied. He scolded the girls, and they were all over the place, and he blew off steam and drove them like so many horses.

The schedule doesn't call for a game until after Christmas, and with the girls setting the pace that they are at present the fans are all agog over the whirlwind play they will see after Santa Claus distributes his presents.

JUDGE RESERVES DECISION IN CASE

Trial of Toronto Director of Home Bank Is Ended.

JUDGMENT DEC. 16

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Nov. 27.—Late this afternoon the hearing concluded in the trial of J. F. M. Stewart, director of defunct Home Bank of Canada, and Judge Emerson Coatsworth announced that he would reserve his judgment on the case until Dec. 16.

The major portion of the day was occupied by the argument of counsel, I. F. Hellmuth, K.C., and N. W. Rowell, K.C., for the defence, and D. L. McCarthy, K.C., the special crown prosecutor.

The latter emphasized, in closing his address to the judge, that when a director accepted a position on the board of a bank his first duties were towards the shareholders and the depositors, and not towards himself, his friends or the companies in which his friends were interested. Mr. McCarthy said that the affairs of the bank for the last six years were conducted in a process of "gambling in the hope that the assets could be sold," the bank at the same time paying dividends on the assumption of that hope.

Actions Scandalous.
He could conceive of nothing more scandalous than the manner in which the interest accounts were treated during the last year of the institution's operations and while Mr. Stewart was on the board. Gambling with hope was wrong every time, he said, and eventually the time came when, through treating book entries as cash, there was not enough money to go around, and the bank had to cease operations. That was the sort of thing which continued during Mr. Stewart's time on the board.

"It must have been a perfectly simple thing for Mr. Stewart or any other director to look up the books and statements of the bank and discover that since 1916 the deposits had increased from eight to nine million dollars to around $20,000,000," said the prosecutor. "That was the sum for which he accepted responsibility; and I even venture to say that if all the assets of all the directors were added together they would not amount to that sum. There were $20,000,000 of money held in trust for the public; and I must say that if Mr. Stewart was too much engrossed in his own affairs to keep a close eye upon that twenty millions deposit of the public, then he was very ill-advised to accept the position of director."

Did Not Know Details.
Mr. Hellmuth advanced the argument that Mr. Stewart could not possibly have been expected to know all the details of the bank's affairs and that probably he had merely taken the word of older directors that everything was all right.

Defence counsel contended that his client was not negligent in failing to go to the books of the bank and inform himself upon all the details of various transactions. Such an obligation, he maintained, would be an intolerable burden.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED.
Wallaceburg, Nov. 27.—A Chevrolet coupe which was reported to have been stolen from the front of the residence of Dr. Fred Hall at Chatham on Monday evening was recovered on Tuesday morning by Constable Charles Warwick of Wallaceburg.

GERMAN RAILWAY FINANCING STARTS

Large Credit Given by United States Bankers Under Dawes Plan.

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, Nov. 27.—First steps in financing Germany's railways, as reconstituted under the Dawes plan, were taken today by British and United States bankers, who placed a credit of $15,000,000 at the disposal of the German state railway company.

One-third of the loan will be in pounds sterling, and will be underwritten by a London banking group headed by J. Henry Schroeder & Company, the New York Banking Syndicate, the Chase Securities Corporation, Blair & Company, the Bank of Manhattan Company and the J. Henry Schroeder Banking Corporation.

Organized in accordance with the Dawes plan to take over the operation of German railroads under private management, the German state railway company constitutes what is said to be the largest railway system in the world, having 33,000 miles of road. Two-thirds of the equipment, consisting of 31,000 locomotives, 70,000 passenger cars and 750,000 freight cars, is less than 10 years old.

The original cost of the system, lines of which extend into every part of Germany, was $6,200,000,000.

Pride of Prince Sold For Steaks

Wales' Famous Prize Steer Is Bought by Toronto Butcher.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Nov. 27.—The pride of princes becomes the food for commoners and the paths of a famous steer's glory lead but to the grave. The Prince of Wales' prize steer, Princeton Alberta, from the royal ranch in Alberta, which has been on exhibition at the royal winter fair here, was today sold to a local abattoir for Christmas steaks.

Mobilize Fleet of Cars For Anderson

Majority Candidate Is Endeavoring To Get Out Record City Vote.

A large number of citizens have volunteered the use of their automobiles for Aid Anderson on December 1. Those offers have been accepted and duly acknowledged. As there may be many others who wish to offer their cars it is noted that a telephone call to 860 or 861 will be given prompt attention. As a very heavy vote is expected it is suggested that everyone who can possibly do so, should volunteer his car for that day. Aid Anderson's workers present, increasingly encouraging reports daily, and with sufficient facilities to get the electors to the polls, the largest vote in the history of the city is anticipated.—Adv.

OUR NEW DETECTIVE-LOVE-STORY

DARKENED WINDOWS
By Cornelia Kane Rathbone

THE WOMAN HE LOVED WAS GUILTY according to all the evidence.
On the night of the murder she had tried to conceal a wet blood stain on her sleeve.
Upon investigation she was proved to have been in touch with a dangerous gang of anarchists.
And John Graham, himself, had seen a valuable bracelet, which was his own property, in her possession.
Yet, Graham shielded her and believed in her.
Was his faith justified?
Follow the threads of this enchanting love story which weave in and out in colors of scarlet through the black pattern of a mysterious murder.

Co-operation With All the People All the Time

Read this list of Mayor George Wenige's activities during the present year and remember they are all in addition to the many hours he spent daily in the Mayor's Office at the City Hall, attending to routine business and never turning a deaf ear to anyone in any walk of life. Now ask yourself this question: "Did you ever hear of Mayor George Wenige refusing to co-operate with any organization for the upbuilding of the City of London?"

A NEW STORY

Wenige's campaigners circulate clumsy alibi of their threatening lawyer's letter to John Anderson—Say Anderson sent letter to himself—It came from Wenige's personal solicitors—George himself pays rent to city.

The letter which was sent to John Anderson in an attempt to scare him into withdrawing from the mayoralty contest has come to the top again. The letter met with general condemnation as an act of poor sportsmanship and Mayor Wenige's campaigners are now trying to get out of it by circulating the rumor that Anderson sent the letter to himself.

Probably few people will pay much attention to such a stily alibi, but in fairness to Anderson The Advertiser gives below a photographic reproduction of the warning letter with its veiled threat.

The letter came from the office of Macpherson and Perrin, a legal firm on Dundas street. Macpherson & Perrin are Mayor Wenige's personal lawyers. They have represented him frequently in local court cases in which Wenige has sued people for bicycle payments.

Macpherson & Perrin quite properly decline to disclose the names of their client who expressed his wish to remain anonymous. Mayor Wenige states that he did not send the letter personally, but it is quite obvious to everyone that the attempt was made at his direction and the attempt of his workers to twist it around as an Anderson strategy merely provides added proof.

HERE IS THE LETTER: Macpherson & Perrin

Mr. John Anderson, 137 Wharncliffe Road S., City.

Dear Sir: We have been instructed by a rate-payer who represents some other rate-payers, that you have a contract as a lessee with the Municipal Corporation of the City of London, and if such be the case, that you would be ineligible to hold Municipal office under Section 53, Subsection 1, Subsection F of the Municipal Act.

We thought it only right to point this out to you in advance in case instructions should afterwards follow in the event of your being elected to office.

Yours truly, Macpherson & Perrin

The basis of this letter is the fact that John Anderson pays rent to the city for property in the market square. Anderson was in the same position when he served as alderman this year. His father and his grandfather before him paid rent on the same property for forty years. It was the flimsiest sort of technicality—a poor bluff to frighten Anderson.

How flimsy it was is shown by the picture below. In the white circle is shown a gasoline pump which Mr. Wenige has in front of his bicycle store. The pump station is built on city property. The rent which Mr. Wenige pays to the city was $25 until a while ago, when an order was put through council reducing it to one dollar a year.

This is quite all right and we don't mind giving George another free advertisement of his bicycle business. The only point it serves to bring out is that WENIGE'S LAWYERS SOUGHT TO DISQUALIFY JOHN ANDERSON ON A TECHNICALITY WHICH EXACTLY APPLIES TO WENIGE HIMSELF. Mr. Wenige's followers will be well advised if they avoid that letter in their election efforts.

Here is the gasoline station which the mayor has on city property.

VITAL FACTS FOR WOMEN

Sooner or later almost every woman is brought face to face with the fact that she is a victim of some weakness or ailment peculiar to her sex. It may be the young woman suffering from pain or irregularities, a mother who has brought on some weakness or displacement from overwork or the middle-aged woman passing through the most critical period of her life. For each of these periods Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved the greatest help ever given to women, and there are women living in every town and city in the country who testify to its value.—Adv.

Disease Germs Doomed

Many have lost terrors for the Scientist

The progress of recent years in medical research is little short of marvellous. Daily, science kills germs by the million. Daily, new ones are being discovered, isolated and exterminated by the march of medicine.

Science is winning. What were once regarded as serious diseases are now laughed out of countenance by the doctors. Fearlessly they plunge naked hands into swarms of them, their only precaution being to rinse their hands afterwards with a reliable germicidal preparation. We are witnessing the birth of an era when the world will have little to fear from microbes.

Absorbine Jr., besides being the all-purpose liniment that removes pain and soreness, and hastens healing, is a powerful antiseptic that is death to the microbe world.

Absorbine Jr. is just what is needed in the house in case of accidents and to correct the many little household hurts that constantly occur. $1.25, at your drugist.

DIRECT TO SHIP'S SIDE FOR DECEMBER SAILLINGS.

A through sleeper direct without change from Toronto to the St. Montclair, sailing from West St. John on Dec. 12th, is a convenience that will be appreciated by travellers intending to visit the old country. The Standard Sleeper will be attached to the Canadian Pacific train leaving Toronto Union Station on the ship's side at 12:20 p.m., Dec. 12th. This service avoids the necessity of changing trains at Montreal and passengers are assured the usual high standard service and courteous attention which has placed the Canadian Pacific in the forefront of transportation companies in the world. Reservations may now be made on application to any Canadian Pacific agent. Mr. H. L. McCallum, passenger agent, 417 Richmond St., London.—Adv.

New Lamp Burns 94% Air

Beats Electric or Gas. A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil). The inventor, P. B. Johnson, 246 Craig street, west, Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $200 to $500 per month.—Adv.

CLEAN KIDNEYS BY DRINKING LOTS OF WATER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts. Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created irritate the kidneys. When they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation. The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water, and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means, have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv.

FASHION NEWS NOTES

Reported for us from New York by THE BREATH OF THE AVENUE

The favorite coat of the season is brightly colored and takes lavish trimming of long-haired, light-toned fur. The combination wins because the coats are youthful and the furs are flattering.

Bracelet, necklace and earrings that match make up the fashionable jewelry ensemble of the fall. Thus the jewelry, like the costume, is smartest when it combines a harmonizing ensemble.

Smart little hats in ruddy and tawny tones cast a becoming glow on complexions that venture abroad on frosty days, and they tell a story of style-rightness that adds to their popularity.

Bright artificial flowers are much sought for, because they add interest to new costumes and freshen the interest in old ones; and they bloom in so many colors that no costume need be limited to one flower. Thus its smartness may be varied by different flowers for different days and places.
