We extract from Dr. George's article in the American Sunday School Worker, the following

A result worthy of Sunday school efforts is only secured when pastor and superintendent, church and teachers, all interested and engaged in the exercises, regard the school as a means sanctified through Scripture-lesson, prayer and song of praise by the power of the Holy Ghost Then the conversation of the children is anticipated and direct efforts made to bring them into the church. Giving due moval to St. John's, he for many years held the weight to these circumstances, we should ting the probable increase in full membership for the year. 2. That British Methodism is becoming ncreasingly liberal and high principled in its support of the cause of God. For although during the year there existed very considerable depression in various important branches of industry, and the pressure 10th, he seemed as well as usual, perhaps more of poverty was severely felt among the of the Royal Exchange, and is to be continartizan classes throughout that period, the ued. Trustee meetings for examination into the financial state of church property, held near the time at which the Quarterly Meetings took place, showed also that a large amount of debt had recently been liquidated or was in course of removal or about to be manfully grappled with. Besides, victions of sin were very powerful, but he de- the sanction of Quarterly Meetings was givliberately counted the cost of a holy life before en to numerous projects for enlarging old chapels and school houses or the building of new ones. Altogether the indications furnished of the existence of a growing liberality among the people called Methodists were refreshing to note. Old British Methodism was a thoroughly genuine article without doubt. But in the matter of enlightened, spirited, open-hearted liberality in Christ's cause, it is far transcended by modern Methodism

3. That British Methodism is paying close attention to its Sabbah school operations. The Quarterly Meetings took careful cognizance of the state of the Sabbath school interest on the respective circuits-heard reports read of the condition of the schools, appointed committees to visit them, and recognized that Methodist Sabbath schools are an institution of the church entitled to hung over the journey had vanished at its close. with a good memory, and he had read many of its fostering care, and labouring for the advancement of its best interests. THE GOLDEN SIDE.

There is many a rose in the road of life If we would but stop to take it; And many a tone from the better land If the querulous heart would make it. To the sunny soul that is full of hope, And whose beautiful trust ne'er faileth, The grass is green and the flowers are bright Though the winter storm prevaileth.

Better to hope, though clouds hang low, And to keep the eyes still lifted, For the sweet blue sky will still peep through When the ominous clouds are rifted. There was never a night without a day, Or an evening vithout a morning; And the darkest hour, so the proverb goes, Is the hour before the dawning.

There is many a gem in the path of life. Which we pass in our idle pleasure, That is richer far than the jeweled crown Or the miser's hoarded treasure; It may be the love of a little child Or a mother's prayer to heaven, Or only a beggar's grateful thanks For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web of life A bright and golden filling; and do God's work with a rea And hands that are prompt and willing, Than to snap the delicate minute threads Of our curious lives asunder, And then blame heaven for the tangled ends And sit, and grieve, and wonder,
