Huge Seas Caused Government Steamer Montcalm and Allan Liner Virginian to Crash Together While Attempting to Transfer Mails--One Man Injured--Passengers Had Lots of Excitement.

HALIFAX, June 9.—Under conditions far from being favorable the first fast mail test via North Sydney was made today and proved beyond all doubt the great advantages that port has as a port of call. The transfer of mails and passengers was attended by many stirring incidents and at one time it looked as if it would result in a marine tragedy. Fortunately, however, owing to the good judgment and cool-headedness of Captain Belanger of the government steamer Montcalm everything worked out well and no serious result occurred.

CELEBRATED THEIR 79TH ANNIVERSARY

The seventy-ninth anniversary of the Fortland Methodist Sunday school was celebrated last evening, an extensive programme, creditable alike to scholars and teachers, being carried out. The programme prepared for the occasion shows the total membership to be 78, the increase over the past year being twenty-five. Besides the choruses, quartets and dialogues, solos were rendered by members of the school. The recitation, "Suppose," by Miss Eva Oatley, was nicely given, and the "Message from the Flowers," by Eva Chase, was also particularly good. H. W. Bromfield, Miss Evelyn Huéy, Mrs. C. Cowan assisted in the rehearsal, and Miss Mabel Sandall performed the duties of organist. There were over one hundred pupils on the platform, the majority of them being quite young. The small girls were dressed alike, in white, each a bow of ribbon tied in her hair and the general effect was most pleasing. Flowers surrounded the platform, one pot being sent by a child, who through illness was unable to attend. In the choruses the voices of the children rang clear and loud, and the lessons taught by the dialogues and songs of the young artists were wholesome. At the conclusion of the programme Mr. Hayes returned to the presence of Rev. Mr. McLaughlin, that being the first anniversary the present pastor had attended. Rev. Mr. McLaughlin then complimented the teachers and officers upon the work they were performing and urged them to continue on in their most important work.

PROVINCIAL NEWS

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., June 7.—The remains of Daniel J. McDonnell, aged 38, a prominent merchant of Murray River, were found last night about twenty yards from the bridge. He was last seen at ten o'clock on Wednesday night when he left Ross' drug store, saying he was going home. A sister of the schooner Diastor being at the railway wharf, says sometime between ten and eleven he heard a cry of distress from the bridge, but heard no splash. The doctor who performed the autopsy says he did not drown, as there was no water in the lungs. There was a mark under the right eye. The bridge has a new railing and it is thought that as the night was dark, he may have made a mistake and fallen over, but some fear that there has been foul play, although there is no evidence that there had been robbery committed. An inquest is now in progress. The affair has created great excitement. He is even asserted that they can produce persons who will say that they themselves committed murders of the kind which Orchard accuses himself. Haywood shows little concern. He even laughs outright when asked what he thinks of the testimony. He asserts positively that the connection of his name with the murders is a falsification, and that Orchard has connected him with the crimes partly out of spite and partly at the suggestion of detectives and enemies of the Federation. It is not known yet if Haywood will go on the stand. His counsel says they do not know that this will be necessary.

THE CONFERENCE GRAND SUCCESS, SAYS BORDEN

Sir Frederick Talks on His Trip Abroad, and is Enthusiastic About the Work Accomplished by Colonial Delegates—Sir Wilfrid Laurier will Sail for Canada About July 13th.

OTTAWA, June 9.—Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia, returned to Ottawa on Saturday from attending the Imperial conference, well satisfied with the result of the conference and the manner in which the colonial representatives were received and entertained by the British government and the British people generally. Sir Frederick says Sir Wilfrid Laurier had behind him a majority of the members of the conference. Every resolution the Canadian Premier put forward and every argument he advanced was endorsed with the single exception of the debate on the demand of the other colonial premiers for a British preferential tariff to the colonies. As to the attitude of the British government on that subject, no other result could have been expected. The Bannerman government could not adopt a policy the people returned to power in the last general election in Britain, but failing a return preference from Great Britain there were other ways in which the dominions over the seas could be benefited, and hence came the unanimous adoption of the fast Atlantic and fast Pacific steamship project. The suggestion came from the British chancellor of the exchequer, and other members of the government supported it. Sir Frederick thought there is good reason for believing that the scheme will be carried into effect in the near future.

SHOOTING THREW PEOPLE IN PANIC. Police Feared Attempt on the Life of Odesa's Governor General—Was Accident However

ODESSA, RUSSIA, May 21.—A mysterious shooting occurred this week at the governor-general's palace, and while no one was killed the incident serves to illustrate certain features of present conditions here. Daily concerts are given by a military band on the boulevard in front of Governor General Kauflaur's palace, drawing thousands of listeners on a daily concert was in progress two shots rang out, apparently from the roof of the palace. The crowd was thrown into a panic, and almost immediately troops and police poured into the vicinity. The block was surrounded by a cordon of soldiers and the police began a search of the crowd, arresting all persons on whom arms were found. A report gained instant credence that an attempt had been made to assassinate Governor General Kauflaur while he was taking his daily airing on the palace roof. This is his only out-of-door exercise and the roof has been prepared especially for his public. It is practically inaccessible to outsiders, and a strong guard is maintained to prevent attacks from neighboring buildings. No official report of the shooting has been made public, but General Kauflaur explained to the Associated Press correspondent that he was not on duty on the roof but had liberally shot himself in the arm in order to free himself from military service. Another story was so started by the "shot" that he dropped his rifle, which was accidentally discharged. The wounded report, however, maintained that he was shot by a man whom he caught attempting to invade the roof.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 7.—Owing to the fog today, the capital steamer Bridgewater, Capt. Abner Reid, from Halifax for Guysboro and intermediate points on the eastern coast, struck on the rocks at Nixey's Mill, off Fort Beckett, and became a total wreck. The passengers and crew were saved, reaching the shore in the ship's boat. The Bridgewater left here this morning with a full general cargo and 25 passengers, most of them young students who were returning home for their summer vacation.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—That the Japanese of the Pacific coast and the Progressive, a political party of Oregon, have entered into an alliance which has the earmarks of an international conspiracy, with the overthrow of the present ministry in Japan and the annulment of the clause in the immigration bill excluding Japanese, copies labor from continental United States, as the ultimate objects, was learned authoritatively here today. The preliminary step in this scheme, it is said, will be to induce the Tokio government to recall Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador to the United States, and to demand an apology and perhaps indemnity from this government for the alleged acts of violence against Japanese subjects residing in San Francisco.

STEAMER LOST IN THE FOG S.S. Bridgewater Struck the Rocks and Filled

The steamer was proceeding at a moderate rate of speed, when she brought up on the rocks and held fast. The engines were reversed and every effort made to back the vessel off, but without avail. In the meantime water rushed into the holds of the vessel, and any further effort to get her off would be useless, so the boats were quickly launched, and the passengers and crew made hasty preparations for abandonment of the steamer. There was considerable excitement aboard among the passengers, but no panic, the captain assuring them that there was no danger. The sea was quite calm, and after rowing a mile and a half all reached the land safely. The Bridgewater is owned by the Coastal Steam Packet Co., but was under a three month contract to the Canso Steamship Co. She was a steel built vessel of 205 tons, was valued at $25,000, and is insured for two-thirds of that amount. The Bridgewater was making the place of the steamer Strathcona, which was burned off Isaac's Harbor last December, and a peculiar feature in connection with the wreck today is that several of the students who were on the burning steamer on that occasion were passengers on the Bridgewater today. Some of the cargo, which was saved if the weather holds moderate.

INTERNATIONAL CONSPIRACY Alliance to Overthrow the Present Japanese Ministry A Political Party in That Country Conspire with Japanese of Pacific Coast—Plans Discussed

These facts became known today for the first time when it was learned that T. Takahashi, representative of the Seattle Japanese Society, O. Noda, representative of the San Francisco Japanese Society, and K. Kawakami, staff representative of the Vancouver newspaper, Tokyo, came to Washington on April 27 and remained until May 17, during which time they were negotiating with the Japanese ambassador looking to the amendment of the Japanese immigration law. This delegation failed in its purpose, and it is stated after charging Ambassador Aoki with treachery to the Japanese of the Pacific coast and with misrepresenting conditions to the home government, they telegraphed to Okiyama Yamaoka, personal representative of Count Okuma, that they were ready to support the anti-administration leader in Tokyo.

At the afternoon session Principal Patrick in presenting the report of the committee on union with the churches, recalled the steps taken at this end since the origin of the movement. The union movement had two sources, first, the Presbyterian Church was responsible for the initial steps, and the great Methodist Church for the next step. He then proceeded to detail what had been done in the matter since the close of the conference, and reviewed the correspondence that has passed with the Baptist and Anglican churches. A circular had been sent out to the bishops of the Church of England and the presidents of the four Baptist unions, explaining the object and efforts that were being made to bring about the union. Replies to that communication had been received from eleven archbishops and bishops of Anglican churches, and from four presidents of Baptist unions. The Bishop of England was pleased to say that he breathed the spirit of brotherly love and expressed the desire to do what was possible to bring about the union. As far as the Baptist church was concerned, the reply from president of the union of the Maritime Provinces expressed the belief that the time for an organic union had not come, but if a large committee was appointed to consider the creation of a federal union, which might ultimately lead to an organic union, they would be ready to cooperate on the question.

CHURCH UN DISCUSSE

Principal Patrick's Report Committee Enthusiastic Seconded by Principal Gordon Strongly in Favor of the Union Dr. Mackay of Montreal Church Desires Union—Says to be Accomplished Under Pres

MONTREAL, June 10.—For a long time this morning the General Assembly discussed various minutes which gave rise to a discussion much of which was of no public interest. The property rights were of a most prosaic nature. On consideration of the report of Queen's College, Principal Gordon asked the Assembly to note one or two matters. It was gratifying to note an increase of students. There were 1193 enrolled of whom 700 were in arts, 221 in science, 210 in medicine, and 32 in theology. This was down what it was ten years ago and 97 more than last year. Rev. Mr. Mackay moved the adoption of the report. He believed that the church could little afford to lose Queen's though there were so many universities around Hon. Mr. Laird seconded. He said at any rate whether it was 97 or 98, it was a university free from state control and was able to speak out its mind. Rev. Mr. Laird read the report of the committee appointed by the trustees of Queen's University in securing the additional endowment for the university. Mr. Laird said the work was going on slowly but satisfactorily. Up to June, 273 churches had been visited and $211,000 had been received. That the work was progressing was proved by the fact that $5,000 had been received in the last two weeks. Mr. Charlton had just paid in his subscription of $50,000 for the endowment of the chair of moral philosophy. Andrew Carnegie's promise to endow a chair of moral philosophy $500,000 he would complete the half million dollars. So far, most of large wealth had not done much, as most of the subscriptions ranged from $5,000 to $6. It was certain that the endowment was going to be a success and in a year or two they would accumulate $100,000 to enable them to challenge the gift of Carnegie. Dr. Laird said and in going to stated that he believed Queen's was doing a grand work. The university had struck the right note for the Canadians. The report was carried and the sitting ended.

Figures issued by the Census Department showing the value of manufactures in the Dominion, indicate that this province is not making anything like the progress it should in manufacturing. Careful observers are every day

The value of Canada's manufactures increased from $41,668,378 in 1901 to $114,644,838 in 1906, an increase of $72,976,460 in five years. In this increase, New Brunswick had but a small share. In 1901 our manufactures were valued at $12,133,631, but in 1906 they were valued at $28,129,470, an increase of over a million dollars.

It is our destiny to be the workshops of the West, we are plainly not fulfilling it. The increase in Nova Scotia is, of course, largely accounted for by developments at Sydney, which has practically sprung into being during the past five years, the increase there amounting to nearly three and one-half millions, but in other parts of the province, at Amherst, and elsewhere, development has been extensive.

EXTRAVAGANCES REALIZED.

The dreams of the young men in the world of science are being fulfilled so remarkably that the old men do not disdain to see visions and tell of them. At the annual meeting of the Iron and Steel Institute in London recently, Sir Hugh Bell, the new president, delivered a striking address in which he outlined some of the things of the twentieth century might very well bring forth.

JAPAN WANTS TO FIGHT.

Japan at the present time is in the position of a growing boy who having punched the school bully is swaggering about among the older boys, carrying a chip on his shoulder, and during one of the big fellows to knock it off. At the same time his aspirant for further honors endeavors to hide his black eye and to conceal from view the body bruises which are still stinging. Japan has beaten Russia and is now spooling for a fight with the United States. Any country that is so full of conceit as to flaunt itself in the presence of a more powerful nation, and at the same time maintaining or endeavoring to maintain an outward appearance of simplicity and innocence. The country is suffering from the effects of the late war finances are in a dangerously contracted state, and the army and navy are yet to be restored to a normal condition.

Presbyterian churches and missions in California. The Presbyterians are a particular Liberal set of rivers to the schemes of the church. In 1875 the union of the different Presbyterian bodies took place, and since that time the church has raised a total of over sixty million dollars. Its income in 1906 exceeding three millions. In home missions it spends $150,000 a year and in its eleven foreign mission fields nearly $7,000,000 annually.

The Montreal Star in an instructive article on this meeting of a great church legislative assembly, that is essentially democratic in its basis, it is a popular assembly, and in an especial manner it may be said to gain its powers of government from "the consent of the governed."

["All this puts the value of Presbyterian teaching beyond denial. A church which can produce and nurture such men is a national benefactor, whatever else we may think of it. To us we must acknowledge a debt in the matter of nation-building; for into the weaving of the national fabric, the warp and woof of the best thought and best endeavor of the Presbyterian school, if we could analyse the finished national tapestry, and separate in the weaving the threads of gold and silver that are not a few of the best and most enduring names in the history of the nation, which comes by right from the loom of the Presbyterian."]

JOSTLING FOR A FARM. This land rush business, where crowds of settlers in the bargain seeking farms in front of Macaulays, and push and jostle for a leading position throughout a night and day, is something new in Canada, and a tradition of Western lands. The lands for which there is such a rush are principally those originally allotted to Doubtchors, and which these pioneers have divided up for some seasons connected with their rather inconvenient and pneumonia-producing "religion" lost through not performing the necessary work thereon.

THE PREBYTERIAN PARLIAMENT. The General Assembly of the Supreme Church, Court and Parliament of the Presbyterian body in Canada is now in session in Montreal, and particularly full accounts of its deliberations will be found in our columns from day to day.

By the last census the number of Presbyterians in the Dominion was given as $4,422,027 of whom 39,498 were in this province, making it the third largest of the thirty or more religious denominations in Canada. In 1906 there were 241,311 communicants in the 1,992 Pres-

MANY FAIR JUNE Sun Shone Brightly on Those Who Had Selected Great Event in Their Lives

SCHOENFIELD-INCHES. In St. Andrew's church on Wednesday at 4:30 o'clock, an interesting society event took place, when Miss P. R. Inches, of German street, became the bride of Harold Schoenfeld, son of the late Mr. Schoenfeld, and Joseph manager of the Robert Reid & Co. Montreal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. David Lang, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. A. Gordon Dickie of St. Stephen's Church. Miss Inches, who is one of the first favorites of St. John society, and who has also won many distinctions in curling, golf and tennis, was attended by her sister, Miss Constance Inches, Miss Lou McMillan and Miss Winifred Barker, daughter of Judge Barker. Mr. Schoenfeld was accompanied by Paul Longley, while the bride's three brothers, Kenneth, Cyrus and Errol Inches, Harry Schoenfeld, brother of the groom, and Mr. E. H. Inches, were in the wedding party. The wedding was a simple one and after the ceremony the young couple will reside on Canterbury street.

At the cathedral at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning the marriage took place of Miss Ella Sullivan, daughter of the late Cornelius and the late Rose Flanagan of Minto, Quebec, to Mr. J. P. SCENES ATTENDANT UPON THE BIRTH OF HEIR TO SPANISH THRONE AND SOME PERSONS ASSOCIATED WITH THE EVENT

WOMAN DESCRIBES SCENES AT ROYAL BABY'S BIRTH

Was in the Palace at Madrid When the Momentous Event That Gave an Heir to Spanish Throne Occurred.

The following account of the birth of the heir to the Spanish throne is from a woman who was in the palace on the eventful day. It is addressed to a fashionable member of London's exclusive smart set and will be read with interest.

THE PALACE LIKED A BEEHIVE. I begged each other's pardons, and I asked him if there was any news. In Spain one gets most awfully frank about these things, and I have found myself 'gossiping' with utter strangers in a way that would make one blush in any other country.

Of course we all tried to talk and even to laugh, but we had a queer, tight sort of feeling all over while her wet handkerchief into a damp ball. She was getting on my nerves, when I never knew before how fearfully frightened a man could be at such a time.

Then he went away again, and we were all marshalled into the saloons near the royal apartments, according to our rank. We all looked like characters at the end of a pantomime, and how tired, how nervous, how anxious we were.

By this time—all in a moment—it seemed—the palace swarmed and hummed like a hive. Behind closed doors I heard the electric switches turned on, while half-dressed maids hurried from room to room.

THE GREAT CHURCHMEN ARRIVE. Presently all the crowd in the square bent and waved to and fro. The great churchmen were arriving. They had come more carefully dressed than had most of the bishops who were a very 'up-alright' and very impressive.

He looked out at the people, who were too busy with their peepings, pushings and prayers to see him, and other was white.

Then he went away again, and we were all marshalled into the saloons near the royal apartments, according to our rank. We all looked like characters at the end of a pantomime, and how tired, how nervous, how anxious we were.
