OF THE ELECTIONS.

REDUCTION FIRST THING.

No Time Will Be Lost Bringing On the Issue.

Peregrine and Lees Mentioned For Finance Committee.

Majority Claimed For the Existing Cataract Contract.

There will be a reduction of the num ber of licenses in Hamilton before the end of the year. That assertion was made to-day by the temperance people and they seem to feel quite sure of their Although they have elected only eight straight pledged temperance candidates, they declare that they have the promises of at least three men who were not on their slate to stand them. These candidates, it is said, were given temperance support without public ity, on condition that they should back ity, on condition that they should back up the temperance canadates in the Council if enough were elected to have any weight. While they may not go as far as to vote in the Council for a reduction of licenses, they will vote for a by-law to go to the people, and it is understood that the temperance people are willing to abide by the result of the public's verdict. It is believed that the first move will be to force a vote in the Council on reduction. The matter n the Council on reduction. The matte has to be deart with before March, and it is likely that at the first business session of the Council on Monday evening next the question will be brought up. There will be a meeting to-night of the committee which had charge of the campaign, and the plan of action will be discussed then.

Already the slate makers are busy, the inaugural meeting of the Council ill not be held until Monday morning att, but the experts are doping out to chairmanships. It looks very much the charmanships. It looks very much as if the temperance candidates would have the say this year of who the chairmen will be. Before the election it was stated that if they did not get a majority those who were elected would, in severe the control of the contr stated that if they did not get a majority those who were elected would, in selecting chairmen, stand by the aldermen who would pledge them support. This would seem to kill any chance of successful Tory slate making this year. The Conservative aldermen who were knifed by the machine say they will not attend a caucus. Two prominent Tory aldermen, who had the "machine" back of them declared this morning in the City Hall that they would not be a Brely shake-up in chairmanships. Three of the old chairmen were defeated, Alderman Batley, who presided over the Finance Committee last year; Alderman Nicholson, who was Chairman of the Markets Committee, and Alderman Howard, who was Chairman of the Board of Works, over which he presided last year. Alderman Allan is being boosted for that position, and he may land it. Alderman Cark will have opposition for the Chairmanship of the Fire and Water Committee. Ald. A. J. Wright, who was Chairman last year of the House of Refuge Committee, is out for it. It is likely Ald. Jutten will have the Sewers Committee, again. Two names are mentioned for the Finance Committee as Chairman, Alder-Finance Committee as Chairman, Alderman Peregrine and Alderman Lees. Ald Peregrine has already been approaches by a number of the aldermen, who ar

There is very general regret that the nurses' home by haw was defeated. The feeling is that, as the Times feared would be the case, the roadways by haw carried the nurses' home proposition down to defeat, and almost sacrificed the sewers by haw too. The need of more accommodation for nurses is great, and the question will have to be faced this year.

The vote in yesterday's municipal election was the largest polled in Hamilton's history. Ald. Batley was defeated for the mayoralty, although he polled a larger vote than elected Mayor Stewart Jin'1907. Mayor Stewart polled 4.149; Findlay, 3.226, and Barrett, 910, a total of 8.285. Yesterday Bailey polled 4.260 and McLaren 6.545, a total of 10.865.

Mayor-elect McLaren called at the Times office as soon as the result was known, last evening, and again this morning, to express his gratitude for what his paper had done to promote 1 his election: "I owe my success in a great measure," he said, in a great measure," he said, "to the fair, straight issue which the Times made of the campaign and the consistent manner in which it supported that issue."

A POPULAR VICTORY.

A POPULAR VICTORY.

Seldom if ever before in the city's history has the election of a mayoralty candidate been made the occasion for such a demonstration of popular approval as greeted the announcement of Alderman MeLaren's election, and Hamilton cut loose last night to celebrate. Although the candidate's opponents, probably without Alderman Bailey's consent, spread stories during the campaign that Alderman MeLaren had thrown up the sponge, he and his supporters were confident from the beginning. Their hopes were raised from day to day by scores of prominent Conservatives, who pledged their support to Alderman MeLaren on his record in the Council.

While Ald, Bailey's supporters were boasting yesterday that the strong Tory organization would roll up a majority of as high as 1,500 for him, Ald, McLaren's workers were chuckling up their sleeves. CHAPTER XV.

The day drew to a close. It was about eight o'clock when Rex entered the hotel at which the ladies were stopping.

Then, if success were denied him, he must give the business up as a bad job. It was not so written.

He had a bit of luck at the very next house, for his eager scrutiny was rewarded by a sight of Miss Moore in a box.

How it electrified him Really, Rex was vexed to discover matters had already gone so far that a face had power to control his destiny.

What pleasure to devour that countenance with burning eyes. He was not the only one who took delight in leveling his lorgnette toward that quarter, for the box holding the American beauty was the centre of pretty general observation.

The count liked not the manner in which this little incident came about: this intervely receptively need to he instinctively recognized a rival in this American, and such had been his successes in the past that this new experience galled him fearfully, When, therefore, Rex accompanied the girl from the box, the other glared after the twain, and half arose from his chair, as, though he would follow, but a pecking at his sam recalled him to his seuses. Rex and Madge had passed halfway around to the boxes on the other side of the house when his companion came to a sudden halt.

She looked up in his face, and he could we see there an expression that savored of trust, as well as feminine curiosity. It to the spinion curiodist the following the American beauty was the control of the house when his companion came to a sudden halt.

The count was in plain sight, and his devoted manner seemed to announce that he had at last met one who could sway his personality with the crook of her finger, and he did not care who knew it; any man might be proud to feel himself prestrate at the feet of such beauty.

Rex tried to plan what he should do. He had a latent fear that the tricky count might have another wonderful scheme in view, to be sprung after the play was over; no one could say what so fertile and daring a mind might not conceive when hard pressed by the advent of a rival in the field.

At first Rex thought to wait until the last curtain fell, and seek a chance to say a few words to the girl in the crush of the exit.

Then another idea sprang up. Rex felt depressed. Had they gone to the theatre, or was this but a continuation of the slumming episode?

He glanced over the list of attractions at the prominent theatres, and selected three to visit. It seemed almost as hopeless as looking for a needle in a haystack, searching for anyone in this great modern Bablylon.

First he chartered a siansom for the right, and then began his round.

Thus he would enter, immediately rent an opera glass, and begin to sweep the house, examining every available and probable-spot, utterly oblivious of what was transpiring on the stage.

He did the three houses in record time, and without a ghost of success.

What odds? There were almost two hours left during which the theatres might be expected to remain open, and he reckoned in visiting all he desired in half that time.

LONDON TREASURE HOUSES.

Many Private Mansions Worthy to Rank as Museums.

The men who built the great mansions of London which endure to this day or London which endure to this day prepared them for the reception year after year of the most beautiful objects, of that now hardly anything remains to add to them. There are a hundred great houses in London of which the least important could be taken to any other great town and proclaimed as a wonderful museum.

Dorchester House, the present home Dorchester House, the present home of the American Ambassador; Bridgewater House. Sir Alexander Henderson, a great railway magnate, hides the nobility of his possessions behind a modest street frontage. At No. 17, a house built 159 years ago by Lord Carteret and now owned by Lord Yarborough, lives H. Gordon Selfridge, late of Chicago. It is a simple looking London residence, but the vast interior, spreading out as you progress, is a perfect storehouse of beautiful objects of antiquity.

The Pope Much Moved-Italian Parliament to Meet.

Messina, Jan. 5.-Earth shocks are entinuing here, though they are diminishing in intensity. The fires in the also are being gradually extinguished. Thirty, thousand rations were istributed yesterday.

Official figures show that 14,000 bodies proposed that every house in which it s believed persons are buried shall be overed with quicklime.

Numerous persons, still living, were taken to-day from beneath the ruins of Reggio, while the voices of others can be distinctly heard appealing for aid. The work of rescue at the home in Messina of the British Chaplain Hulatt Messina of the British Chaplain Hulatt was most pathetic. The rescue party had succeeded last Saturday in reaching a portion of the ruins from under which came groans.

This fact infused fresh vigor into the men, and although they worked until tate into the night, no success rewarded their efforts. Work was again resumed at daybreak on Sunday, the men feeling certain that Mr. Hulatt, his wife and four children were alive beneath the debris. Only one voice was heard now, and that seemingly in lamentation. Evening fell, and there was another shock of earthquake, and the tottering walls undiscovered finds scattered about here and there is spite of the cry that nothing more is to be purchased.

VALETS FOR ALL AT OXFORD.

Life Easy at the English University, Says a Student From Missouri.

Morrison Beall Giffen, at the University of Missouri last year and now a Rhodes scholar at Oxford, has written a letter to the head of the Cosmopolitan Club in Columbia, of which he was a charter member and the first chairman.

Mr. Giffen says that during the last two months he has been kept busy preparing for an examination which free must take before the Christmas holidays.

Oxford has a peculiar system of extra feet of the corner of Mr. Cheney, the United in the corner of Mr. Cheney, the United Strength of Mr. Cheney, the United Strength must take before the Christmas holidays.

Oxford has a peculiar system of examination. There are three examinations only during the entire course, one for entrance, one in the middle of the course and one at the end.

Life is very easy at Oxford—perhaps too easy—thinks Giffen. There are servants for everything. A day's programme begins at 7.30 o'clock in the morning, when a servant wakes the student and gets his bath ready. Breakfast is brought into the room at 8.30 o'clock.

From 9 o'clock to noon the student is supposed to study. At 1 o'clock a light lumeh is brought into his room. At 2 o'clock he goes out for physical exercise and may not return until about 5. Then comes the afternoon tea, to which one usually invites a friend.

Dinner is serxed at 7 o'clock in the common dining-room, where students and teachers dine together. The place in which Giffen has dinner is a big, fine room, with a high ceiling. The sides are panelled in oak and hung with the portraits of ancient benefactors of the col.

The Secret of a Famous Healing-Balm

The re-discovery of a secret that has lain hidden in the dust of 20 centuries is an event full of fascinating interest, lain hidden in the dust of 20 centuries is an event full of fascinating interest, and the story of Zam-Buk, the world-famed first-aid and skin cure will always enlist attention. Zam-Buk is the virtual descendant of those wonderful and mysterious herbal balms by the use of which the many athletes of ancient Greece and, the stalwart gladiators of Rome ensured the healthiness and ready-healing—of their skin.

Many are the attempts that were made to produce a perfect balm for the skin, but only in Zam-Buk has the ideal been realized. Since its discovery Zam-Buk has been welcomed in mansion and cottage, and the people of two hemispheres realized that they have been placed in possession of an absolutely unique cure for skin complaints.

The reasons for this triumph of science are simple and few. Taking a lesson from the Ancients, the proprietors of Zam-Buk first of all wisely decided that the ideal balm must be purely herbal and contain not the slightest trace of rancid animal fats, or poisonous minerals. Thus Zam-Buk is made solely from rich and pure essences obtained from certain rare medicinal herbs. These

JAPPY LAND.

"Round the World to Jappy Land," which appears at the Grand on Jan. 8, presents in the second act a German scene—a creation of Mr. Jack Hackett's—that is a decided novelty. Opening in a beer garden with a German song and dance, it includes a song by Fred Murphy and quartette: a German Indian song, by Chas. Wilson, also a poney ballet by 16 German kiddies, the curtain going down just as the population have got the craze for the "Merry Wildow Waltz," which is a very funny finale for the act. A company of 1st Highlanders will also take part in the Scotch scene. The box-office opens on Wednesday.

They wonder why they have Sallow Complexions—Indigestion—Headaches—Rheumatism—while all the time their systems are clogged and poisoned with waste tissue and indigestible food which these organs should have removed.

What they need are Fruit Juices—nature's provision for keeping the eliminating machinery of the body working right. "Fruit-a-tives" are the concentrated juices of fresh, ripe fruits, combined in such a way that their medicinal action is greatly intensified. They stimulate and regulate the action of Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Skin, thus clearing the system of the accumulated waste and poison, purifying the blood, and banishing those distressing troubles that make fire miserable.

success elsowhere, will be presented at the Grand to-morrow evening. Report says that the production is rich in material that makes for laughs. Beautiful effects in several of its pageants is another reported quality, said to go beyond the common range of the picturesque in similar diversiments. The score, too, is credited with an unusual number of popular airs. The story is not what the title might suggest. It has nothing of the mediacval. Contrarywise, the comic interest is very much of to-day. Briefly, it relates the thisadventures of a little, nimble-witted restaurant water and a dull-minded, awkward "servant lady." The enmeshment of this pair involves a real "knight," but of the modern, frock-ccat kind. A girls' school in Evanston III., on commencement day sees the little waiter appear, posing as the knight, the real reason having been attended by the waiter, art. failing to tip the waiter, the waiter tips himself to the knight's papers, and from this arrises his inspiration to become "blue blood" on his own account. A BOY'S STRUGGLE FOR LIFE

TWICE DELIVERED FROM DEATH

Mr. S. J. New of 154 Baldwin St., Toronto, says: "I can trace my son Harold's trouble to when he had the measles five years ago, from which he never really recovered. Some of the best physicians attended him, but with months of suffering he in turn contracted whooping cough, bronchitis, and then pneumonia."

"MY POOR BOY WAS REDUCED TO A SHADOW." "Month after month went by that we shall not soon forget; months of sleepless nights, fearful coughs, weakening night sweats, left my boy a mere shadow. He had no appetite, and my heart ached to see how he was wasting away. He spent one whole summer at the Lakeside Home for sick children, and came home greatly improved, but the cold winds of October took him off his feet again. The doctor advised me to each him to Muskok's but heavy again. The doctor advised me to send him to Muskoka, but heavy doctor's bills had depleted my financial resources and such a step seemed out of the question. Scores of friends advised the use of PSYCHINE, but I was inclined to place PSYCHINE on a par with many advertised remedies and cheap nostrums. However, my friends proved such strong advocates of it that I at last consented to provite." sented to try it."

"HUMAN LIPS CANNOT DESCRIBE THE CHANGE." "We tried PSYCHINE and human lips cannot describe the change that took place. No words can express the thankfulness of his mother and myself when we saw the crisis was over and realized that our boy was fighting his way back to life and health. PSYCHINE had mastered that which all the doctors' prescriptions had failed to check. Day by day Harold grew stronger and all through the winter of 1906 although continually out of doors he failed to take cold, and he put on flesh very quickly. By the spring my son was completely cured, and developed into a strong, sturdy lad."

HAROLD AGAIN FALLS A VICTIM TO DISEASE. "About last Christmas he was again attacked, this time with diphtheria; and had this dread disease very badly. After spending some time in the Isolation Hospital he returned home cured of his illness, but oh! in such a pitiable state of emaciation. The latest struggle with the grim monster death had reduced him to a skeleton almost, and the boy could scarcely stant, he was so weak."

PSYCHINE AGAIN GIVES GOOD SERVICE. "Again we began to give him PSYCHINE and before one bottle had been used he showed a marked improvement. We continued the treatment, and in a very short time Harold was as strong as ever and able to go to school. We haven't any need for a doctor in our home since we started using PSYCHINE. It is certainly a wonderful remedy. Can you wonder that I am never thred of proclaiming its merits?"

"Though pay in such a prorked degree I may early there whild the have been greatly."

remedy. Can you wonder that I am never tired of proclaiming its merits?"

"Though not in such a marked degree, I may say that my other children have been greatly benefited by this medicine. It saved my boy Harold's life without doubt, and no sufferers should despair until they have given PSYCHINE a trial."

PSYCHINE is the greatest strength restorer and system builder known to medical science. PSYCHINE regulates and tones up all the vital organs. It cures stomach troubles, alds digestion, destroys disease germs in the system. The greatest of tonics, it makes the blood pure, rich and healthy, giving renewed vigor and energy to those who are weak and tired and It revitalizes eve y part of the system, and cures when all else fails. AN UNFAVORABLE STATEMENT. Heavy Pressure on Imperial Bank of Germany

Berlin Jan 4.- The unfavorable statement issued by the Imperial Bank of Germany to-day was much discussed on the Boerse. The heavy pressure on the bank against the previous weekly return has been its sixty-second year as a dafly newspaper, and to-day ranks as one of the bat dailies in Canada. It is clean and moderate; honest in its opinions and exerts a good influence on public affairs not only in Montreal but throughout the country. "World Wide" is also published by the Witness management. It is a paper for thinkers, for those interested in world wide public affairs.

| The previous weekly return has beef known, but the total outgo of $125,000,000 exceeds all expectations. The note circulation of $464,000,000 is the highest ever reached, being partly due to the discounting of $16,000,000 Imperial Government treasury bills, bringing up the Government's short term bills to $98,500,000. The expectation is that money rates will be much easier a little later in January.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Jan. 5.—Noon letter.—
There were sensations enough in yesterday's market to satisfy the 'rading element, but in most cases the recling was that they would have been contented with a limit of less excitement. The decision of the United States Supreme Court in the gas case made a wild market, and not only was there a sensational break in Con. Gas, but in many other stocks also. When a stock breaks 26 points it necessitates and involves serious trouble for some one. Brokers report that the bullish element in the stock market was taken absolutely by sarprise, that muen of the stock was at a low figure, the bullish inspiration having developed principally between 12 to 12:30.—Ennis & Stoppani.

No action has yet been taken in the matter, but it is expected that the games will be arranged for. The Hamilton Y. M. C. my, some of us have had to take a licking for less than that.

'tommy Burns simply cannot see any sense in celebrating Emancipation Day.

Who was it said a nigger was 'God's image cut in ebony'? A man named Brusso wants to meet him.

It Lincoln were alive to-day he would not get a solitary vote from that distinguished American citizen, Noah Brusso.

Tommy Burns 'sinner consisted of punch, and very little else.

That "yellow streak" that Tommy said was in Johnson turned out to be a bine streak.

Johnson drew the color line on the white man's eyes.

Thirty thousand dollars and a licking are better financially (not physically) than $5,500 and a victory.

"Johnson made a meal of him," says a newspaper. A sort of Burns supper, we suppose.

If Tommy Burns has any conceit in himself let him now challenge an English suffragette.

A prize fight is called a mill because there are so many belts connected with it.

There is only one lap now for Tom Longboat, the groom.

The International War Against Tuberculosis.

"Every two minutes and thirty-six seconds somebody dies of tuberculosis in the United States," is the startling announcement flashed out by electric light conspicuously placed on the second floor of the tuberculosis exhibition, which is being held in the Museum of Natural History, New York. To offset the morbid effects caused by this sign, others being the measurement. London, Jan. 4.—In England the drink habit is undoubtedly on the down grade, brewery shares are dropping, small manufacturers and publicans are being crowded out and the big, comprinies and hotels are less prosperous than formerly, and restaurant keepers are in despair at the lessened consumption of wine.

There are many reasons for this besides diminution of spending power. One man is forbidden by his doctor to touch stimulants, mother fears to touch port or champagne, for fear of gout, and the man of limited means finds, that a whiskey and soda provides the needful stimulant at a quarter the cost of wine.

Drunkards there are in plenty, but they are becoming increasingly the exception. To a great extent the drink habit has been replaced by the teal habit; tea shops have to a large extent killed the public house. Britons may not, however, attribute the change wholly to virtue. Heads are not what they were, and many a man keeps sober because he dare not get trunk.

Important Change in Canadian Pacific Trancontinental Service.

During the months of January and February the C. P. R. "Imperial limited." As sweeping victory for local option is the result of the keenest contest ever waged in the Province of Ontario on behalf of temperance reform.

At an early hour this morning the returns were not complete, but those to hand demonstrated that the movement in favor of the aboliton of the bar had advanced even beyond the expectations of the most hopeful prohibitionists. The question of whether local option should be adopted was the issue of sixty-one municipalities, and the returns from forty places show that the by-law was carried in sixteen townships or incorporated villages, meaning the wiping out of some forty-one licenses; that in fourteen municipalities, with fifty-five Idenses, there was a majority in favor of the by-law, though not sufficient to meet the three-fifths requirement, while in only nine municipalities, with forty licenses, was there a majority against local option—in other words, but for the three-fifths clause approximately one hundred licenses throughout the Province would have gone by the board as the result of yesterday's voting.

The Liberal party took no part whatever in the election. Ald, McLaren's organization was his own and not a single candidate in the field had the backing of the Liberal party, although Ald. The elections afforded some genuine surprises, chief of which was the defeat of three members of last year's Council, Aldermen Dicksons and Ald. Thomas, man. For second place there was keen rivalry betwee Aldermen Wright and go weeney, and the former won out by sixteen votes. George Hill was fourth, with seventeen less, and only one ahead of Ex-Ald. Kennedy. Alderman Jutten had lead of 272 over Ryan the third man. Ryan is only two votes ahead of Howard. In the newspaper extras last night Ryan was given 72 in division 5, but according to the city clerk's count this should have been 50. Cooper, Anderson and Robson had a walk over in Ward seven, although a bitter attempt was made to down them. Cooper was high man, 30 ahead of Anderson. The latter had a lead of 63 over Robson, who beat Ewing by 240.

POWER NOT THE ISSUE.

A careful analysis of the vote shows clearly that the power question was not the issue in the election. Not only is this strikingly demonstrated in the Mayoralty returns, but also in the voting by wards. In Ward 1 the three Conservative candidates who tried to ride to victory on the power horse were defeated, In Ward 2 only one Hydro-Electric man man was elected, among the defeated being C. Bird, a pronounced Hydro-Electric man. The defeat of Ald. Dickson in this ward cannot be attributed 30 b's ward cannot be attributed to vote for the Cataract agreement, because Ald. Nicholson, a staunch Hydro-Electric supporter, was also defeated. In Ward 5 both Ald, Gardner and Ald.

Sweeney, who supported the Cataract contract, were elected. Ald. Wright, a Hydro-Electric advocate, was returned and two Hydro-Electric men defeated. With the exception of Ald. Howard, who was defeated by two votes in Ward 6, all the candidates in that ward declared themselves in favor of Hydro-Electric power. In Ward 7 at least one alderman, who has been classed as a Hydro-Electric man, will stand by the Cataract contract as soon as he has an opportunity to look into it and convince himself that it is in the best interests of the city—an opinion which he ests of the city—an opinion which he has freely expressed already. It is beyond question that more than one of the successful candidates—who have been announced as "Hydro-men" have declared that they will support the ontract entered into last year with the

GOOD ROADS BY-LAW. GOOD ROADS BY LAW.

The defeat of the good roads by-law was no surprise to those in touch with municipal affairs. Although it was predicted after the by-law was voted down last year that it would carry with an overwhelming majority this year, the fact that of the $200,000 to be spent some of the wards would receive an lenoverwhelming majority this year, the fact that of the $500,000 to be spent some of the wards would receive no henefit at all and others only a small amount practically assured the defeat of the by-law. At several of the ward meetings the matter was brought up, and objection was taken because the money was not more evenly divided among the wards. The intention was to spend the bulk of it making permanent roads of the main thoroughfares, such as Barton, Cannon, York, Main and James streets, and fixing up the side streets with the material taken from these. If the street railway improvements are gone aliend with this year it will be absolutely necessary to get money to fix ap the streets where the tracks are to be relaid, and it will probably he necessary for the city to appeal to the Railway and Municipal Board, or if a reduction by-law is voted on early in the year another by-law for roadwork improvement for a smaller amount to do work where the tracks are being relaid may be submitted.

Senior Cabinet Discusses Important Matters of Finance.

The Y. M. C. A. Senior Cabinet held its regular meeting last evening. It was well attended, although some of the lections. Mr. Russell T. Kelley was lecced chairman, and conducted the cussion on the advisability of the Cabcussion on the advisability of the Cabinet undertaking a canvass for new members and new subscribers in the near future. The concensus of opinion seeme! to be that it would be a wise and popular move on the part of the Cabinet, and that $2,000, made up of 300 members and 100 subscribers at $5 each, should be aimed at, and that the calvasshould be begin the last week in January or the first of February. A short term canvass was favored by most end the speakers. Nearly all the minables of the Cabinet. ary or the first of February. A short term canvass was ravored by most politic speakers. Nearry all the minorial of the Cabinet participated in the discussion. Mr. Airred Powis, senior chairman of finance, was present, and solve encouragingly about the undertaking that they were suggesting, emphasizing the importance of the members taking a larger share in the burden of finance. He thought young men who were in a position to afford it should pay $10 for their membership privileges, as that was practically the amount it cost. He thought that they should be above receiving assistance from the subscribers, yet all felt inclined to hesitate about raising the membership fee above $5 lest some of the young men on small salaries would be shut out from the membership privileges.

Scott Waite Carried the Day in Ancaster Township.

The result of the county elections hel yesterday shows that the Tory machine was again defeated. The standing in the Council will practically be the same as last year, nine Liberals and six Conservatives. It is almost a certainty that Mr. J. Walter Gage, Reeve, from Barton township, will be Wentworth's next Warden. In all matters pertaining to the county he has exercised great care, sagacity. As the head of the county he would do the position honor, and prove a worthy successor to Warden Emery whose reign was peaceful and triumph ant. The returns of the elections are as follows:

The New York Tribune recently.

The New York Tribune recently published a paragraph about Uncle Sam's staff of cats that is maintained in the post office building to kill the mail-destroying rats. Those cats are honored in life by being regularly on the Government commissary rolls. England goes one better, however in her treatment of official four-footed rat catchers. She honors them after death. Major, the British War Office cat, which died recently, has been mounted and placed in the Natural History Museum.

in order that the high caste vegetarian Hindus may be defiled. The employment of compressed paper tablets in the shape of coins wherewith to teach school children to count is sufficient proof that the powers that be intend to withdraw all metal coin from circulation and issue token of leather and pigskin in order that the religion of both Mohammedans and Hindus may be destroyed. It is difficult to argue with a people so credulqua and childish as this. But it is useless to blink our eyes to the fact that the people at large are saturated with ridiculous ideas of this kind and that sooner or later the feeling engendered by the dissemination of the vitest misrepresented by characteristic action.

What, it may be asked, does the Indien patriot look forward to, if his magnum opus is achieved and the English turned out of his country? From the present Secretary of State for Lodic downward we have but one of the country?
