INNOCENT MAN WAS IMPRISONED

Hans Hering, a German, Served Nine Months For Crime of Another Man.

A clear case of miscarriage of justice has come to light in this city and it has been proven by the confession of a convict that an innocent man has spent nearly nine months in the Edmonton penitentiary for the crime of another.

On June the fourth, Hans Hering, a German, fresh from the old country, was sentenced to the Edmonton penitentiary for two years for horse stealing near Wetskwin. The story is that Hering came out to this country and was employed to work on the farm of a man by the name of Morrow, near Wetskwin. This farm was owned by two partners, King and Morrow, who did a large business in horses.

Made to Sign Paper. These men took advantage of the man Hering and made him sign a fictitious name to a paper that they had, and which later turned out to be a bill of sale of some horses.

The convict King made a confession that he had done the crime. Hering was entirely innocent of the charge, and that he had forced him to sign the paper at the point of a revolver, and that he was in on way connected with the crime. This confession was sent to the department of justice in Ottawa, and after the case had been thoroughly investigated the following pardon was received:

The Pardon. W. S. Robertson, Secy. sheriff, Edmonton, Alta. Sir,—I beg to advise you that His Excellency the Governor General has directed that you be pardoned on the condition that you be confined to the penitentiary for a period of nine months.

His Wife Suffered. The most distressing feature of this case is the fact that the man Hering has a wife and family in this city, and the unfortunate woman has been compelled to support her family on the meagre proceeds of her husband's earnings while he has been in the penitentiary.

Best Time For Road-making. W. F. Puffer, Lacombe, said the best time to make the road is now. He urged the government to do what it could in the month of May or June in the fall.

George Hoadley, Okotoks, said he would not oppose the grant of $10,000 to the Peace River, but he would never consent to have the work done by settlers just coming into the country with no knowledge of road making.

THE CALL TO ARMS.

(Monday's Daily)

The call to arms has been made. Who makes it is uncertain, for he signs himself only "Canadian. His trouble is the state of the tariffs between Canada and the United States and he starts a couple of pages of foolery with the whooping demand to be told "How long will Canada endure the present state of things."

Having got away to the start of this whirling challenge the minister proceeds along the usual lines. He says Canadians can get only one dollar's worth of goods from the United States for every two dollars' worth of goods they send over to us.

least a warm champion of it. He lays down the proposition: "What should we say and do if the United States passed a law, in specific terms, limiting imports from Canada to one-half the exports to Canada, or prohibited altogether the importation of numerous Canadian products?"

To come back to the opening demand for information, we should say that Canada is likely to stand for the present condition of things as long as the present condition of things will stand. As nearly as Canadians understand matters that condition is on the whole about as satisfactory as it could be.

By which it is meant that for every two dollars' worth of goods they send over to us we send them back only a dollar's worth.

Monday emphasized the need of a railway into the Peace River country. A considerable party of new settlers who left the City early this month were reported stranded half-way to their destination.

A similar fate, together with settlers from the district who had been to the City for supplies. The cause of their grief was the rapid disappearance of the snow. Sleighting was excellent when they left Edmonton. Now it is gone, and the only course for the parties scattered along the trail is to make the best of a very bad situation.

THE WAY TO "RETAIATE." (Wednesday's Daily) It is unlikely that President Taft will further estrange the dissenting faction of his party by imposing heavy taxes on them in respect of goods they buy in Canada.

The London Post says Canadian consuls of the Canadian fleet is a necessary condition of local self-government. The Post must have joined the "separatists."

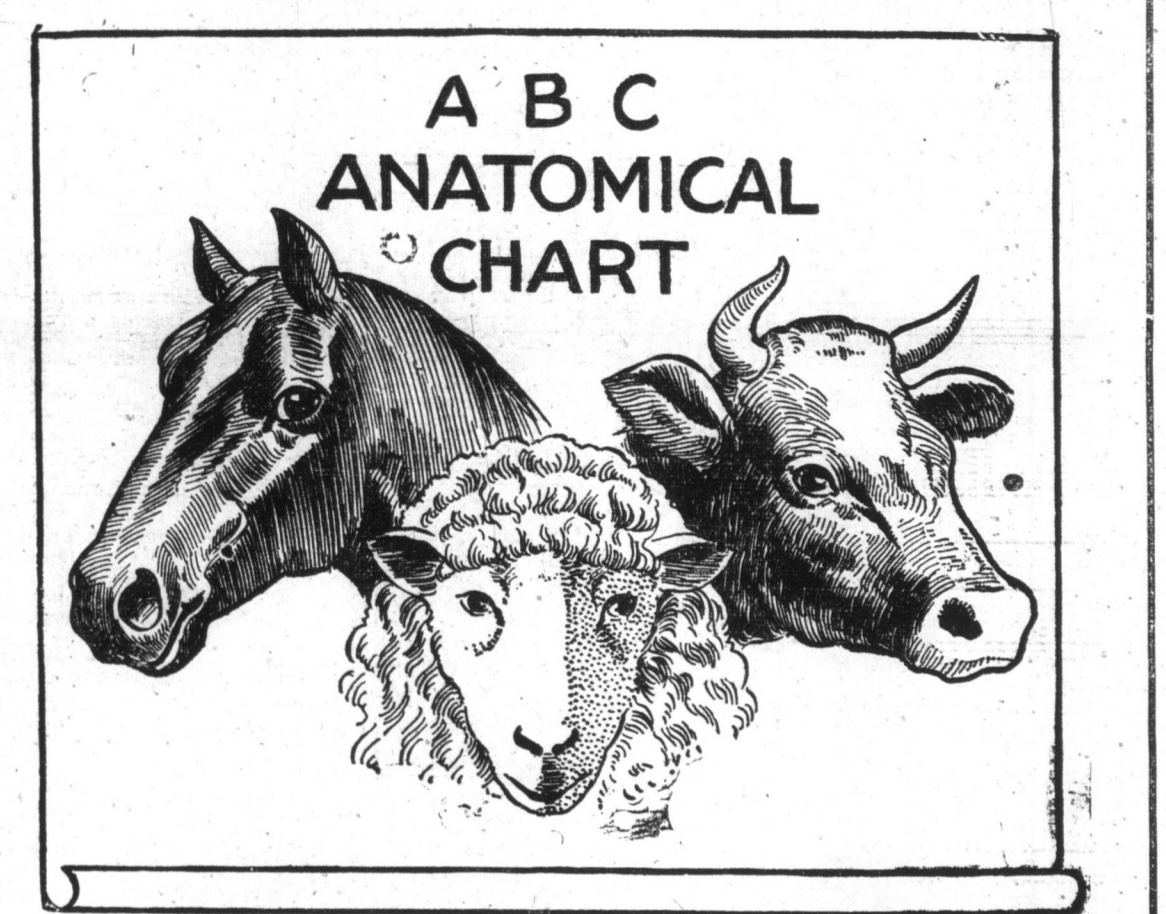

It is unlikely that President Taft will further estrange the dissenting faction of his party by imposing heavy taxes on them in respect of goods they buy in Canada. But should he do so the effect must be to partially destroy trade between the Republic and this country.

TO HOLD THAT ARGUMENT IN THIS COURT ON THE MERITS OF THE BARGAIN MADE BY THE BARGAIN-MAKERS IS REVIEWED BY THE COMMISSION, IS A CASE TO BE AVOIDED.

ASQUITH SUBMIT VETO PROPOSAL

Three Resolutions Designed to Heve House of Lords of Power of Veto.

London, March 22—Premier Asquith gave notice in the House of Commons last night of three resolutions bearing on the power of the House of Lords to veto bills which have passed the House of Commons.

While the Lords are considered these resolutions, presented to the Commons, will be only accepted the budget if Asquith pledges himself to demand from King immediately a promise to allow the peers in the acceptance of the veto proposals by creating peers, if necessary.

ASQUITH SUBMITS VETO PROPOSALS

Three Resolutions Designed to Relieve House of Lords of Power of Veto.

London, March 22.—Premier Asquith gave notice in the House of Commons last night of three resolutions bearing on the veto power of the House of Lords.

The first resolution declares that the House of Lords is disabled by law from rejecting or amending a money bill, but that any such limitation shall not be taken to diminish or qualify the existing rights of the House of Commons.

The second resolution declares it expedient that the powers of the House of Lords over bills other than money bills be restricted by law, so that any such bill which has passed the House of Commons in three successive sessions and has been rejected by the House of Lords in each of these sessions shall become a law without the consent of the House of Lords.

The third resolution proposes to limit the duration of each parliament to five years. The resolutions were issued too late for many opinions to be gathered on them.

The chief objection among the supporters of the government is made to the provision that the introduction of a bill and its becoming law. The radicals urge that with five year parliaments this provision would mean a general hold-up of legislation.

Lord Rosebery's reform resolution suffered a rebuff in the House of Lords last night. The resolutions were agreed to without discussion.

PRESIDENT TAFT ASSURES CANADA OF HIS FRIENDSHIP

Sends Message to Canadian People Expressing His Desire For Closer Trade Relations With Canada.

HIS DELIBERATE PURPOSE TO PROMOTE RECIPROcity

Is Convinced Two Countries Have Many Interests in Common Requiring Special Legislation and Administration.

Hon. W. S. Fielding Has Made No Announcement of Details of Albany Conference. Negotiations Government Maintains Its "Stand Pat" Attitude and Initiative Must Be Taken by United States—Reciprocal Trade Treaty May Grow Out of Tariff Embroglio.

Toronto, March 21.—J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Globe, telegraphs as follows: Albany, N.Y., March 20.—"Say to the people of Canada that my most sincere desire is that not only this present unforeseen difficulty arising out of our new tariff law, but all other difficulties between the two nations shall be held with justice in both countries and in a spirit of friendship and generosity. I assure them that if it were only a matter of business and not the interpreting of a statute I would have had no trouble in at once proclaiming Canada as having the right to our minimum tariff. I have seen too much of the Canadian people. I have too high an appreciation of Canada's worth and I am too profoundly in sympathy with Canada's aspirations as part of the British Empire to haggle over mere advantages or disadvantages of international trade."

Hopeful of Solution.
"My whole difficulty has been with the interpretation of the statute of Congress, which never before was interpreted. After my conference with Hon. W. S. Fielding, I am hopeful of finding a solution which will have regard for my judicial responsibilities as President of the United States and will also serve the trade interests of the business interests of both countries."

"And please assure the people of Canada that it is my deliberate purpose to promote in such ways as are open to me, better trade relations between the United States and Canada than at present exist. I am profoundly convinced that the two countries, touching each other more than three thousand miles, have common interests in trade, require special arrangement in legislation and administration which are not involved in the relations of the United States with countries beyond the seas. We may not always have recognized that in the past, but that must be our viewpoint in future. Say that for me to the people of Canada with all the earnestness and sincerity of my heart."

U.S. Has Neglected Us.
The above was the special message which President Taft gave me tonight to give to the Canadian people through the Globe. As he spoke the words, the tone of voice and expression of his great genial face gave emphasis to his friendly intention, to every statement. Above all things, the President is open, direct and sincere. He has no craftiness or diplomatic deceit. He makes no concealment of his admiration for Canada's spirit, and he has no illusions as to the future. In his subsequent speech last night he spoke plainly of the "smug way" in which in the past the United States had neglected that great country with its youth and wealth and magnificent possibilities, lying on our northern borders, while he gave great attention to countries on the other side of the world."

In his conversation with me I found how his mind turned to the new problem of world politics and to obligations resting upon both nations on the American continent to live in mutual peace for their own sakes and for the well-being of the world. His special message to Canada is not to be discounted in any respect. Those who are nearest to him in his cabinet and in political circles assure me that at all times his word and spirit are in harmony with what he said to me tonight. On that point there can be no possible doubt.

Not to Be Solved in a Day.
To be sure the present difficulty over the tariff was not to be solved in a two hours' conference between President Taft and Hon. Mr. Fielding. The official announcement is that the matter is in "friendly negotiation." That is satisfactory. Nothing more could be expected. Friendly negotiations will go on until the President returns to Washington and Mr. Fielding to Ottawa. Speaking of it afterwards, President Taft was most appreciative of Hon. Mr. Fielding's spirit and attitude and his presentation of Canada's position even if a satisfactory solution is not found.

Silver Lining to Cloud.
Ottawa, March 21.—Though Hon. W. S. Fielding, Canadian minister of finance, brought back with him from Albany today, announcements as to the details of his conference with President Taft on the tariff question beyond a repetition of the vague statement that the whole question is still one of "friendly negotiations," it is learned from sources in close touch with the situation that behind the passing clouds of a threatening tariff war there is already visible a clear sky, promising better trade relations between Canada and the United States than have obtained for over a quarter of a century past. Instead of mutually disastrous tariff reprisals there are now well defined indications of a coming reciprocity in trade be-

CANADA'S TARIFF CLUB IN THE EVENT OF A TRADE WAR

Should a war of tariffs unfortunately break out between the United States and Canada the Dominion is not unprovided with weapons of defense. The first to be brought into use would be the surtax. The clause in the tariff governing the surtax is as follows:

"Articles which are the produce or manufacture of any foreign country which treats imports from Canada less favorably than those of other countries may be subject to a surtax over and above the duties specified in Schedule A, such surtax in every case to be one-third of the duties specified in the general tariff in the said Schedule A. Any question arising as to any foreign country or goods coming under the operations of the provisions in regard to the surtax shall be decided by the Minister of Customs, whose decision shall be final."

"Provided, that the Governor in Council may make regulations for carrying out the purposes of this section, and may, by order in council, from time to time suspend the surtax from application to the goods of any country."

Here are some of the chief items of import from the United States, the existing duties and the duties that would be imposed under the surtax on the basis of last year's figures:

tween the two neighboring countries, in which there may be a mutual lowering of tariff barriers to the exchange of products which each country needs and which will convert a situation ominous with injury to mutual trade to neighboring good feeling. In his subsequent speech last night he spoke plainly of the "smug way" in which in the past the United States had neglected that great country with its youth and wealth and magnificent possibilities, lying on our northern borders, while he gave great attention to countries on the other side of the world."

Details Confidential.
To your correspondent today, Mr. Fielding stated that by agreement with President Taft, pending some definite conclusion of the negotiations now under way, all details as to the proposed solution of the difficulty must be regarded as confidential and that an announcement could not be expected for some days yet.

While the danger of a tariff war after March 31st is not to be avoided, it can be stated definitely that the outlook in government circles here is now regarded as distinctly hopeful. President Taft's message to the Canadian people, as printed in the Toronto Globe this morning, in which he makes the deliberate promise that he will endeavor to promote in such ways as are open, better trade relations between the United States and Canada than at present exist is tantamount to a promise that he will urge upon Congress a special law giving Canada freer access in American markets for her natural products, such as farm and dairy exports, cattle, lumber, etc., for which this country unsuccessfully contended in reciprocity negotiations of 1874, 1888 and 1897.

The Friendliest Message.
This message was the most friendly official statement from Washington in the matter of trade relations which had been received for many years and practically marks a turning point in the relations which for years past have been decidedly strained. A reciprocal trade arrangement between the two countries cannot, of course, be made off-hand. It will probably take weeks or perhaps months of negotiations. But the way has been paved at least. The discussion of the past few weeks on both sides of the line as to the evils which would result from a tariff war has served to emphasize some of the anomalies of the present situation, brought to the restriction of natural courses of trade between the countries. The campaign of education has had a good effect, and it is evident that the Canadian government is well pleased with the prospect. Last week the Morning Post dealt editorially with the riddle start in 1911 with two ships.

SUFFRAGETTE MADE A SENSATION IN TORONTO

Miss Olivia Smith, Prominent British Suffragette, Protested at Prorogation of Legislature Against Women's Suffrage Having Been Neglected.

Toronto, Ont., March 20.—The woman who made a sensation at the prorogation of the Legislature Saturday, by protesting against women's suffrage having been neglected, proved to be Miss Olivia Smith, a prominent British suffragette. She has been imprisoned for militant methods. Miss Smith explained she was so accustomed to making interruptions in England that it came natural, but she feared afterwards her course might be thought vulgar here. She came to America a year ago. She is a professional nurse and received the Red Cross leaf silver for nursing miners in Cobalt during the recent typhoid epidemic. Local suffragists condemn her course, claiming that women here have been given freedom of speech and that woman suffrage will be achieved in five years.

LLOYD GEORGE IS ON VERGE OF COLLAPSE

British Chancellor of Exchequer Forced to Take a Rest After Six Months of Very Strenuous Labors. Friends Think He Will Not Remain Inactive.

London, Mar. 21.—Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George is on the verge of what his friends fear is a physical collapse. He left today for Brighton for six weeks rest.

Brighton for six weeks rest. The chancellor plainly shows the results of terrific work and worry he has undergone in the last six months. "I simply need a brief rest," he said, in taking leave of his friends. But the latter are afraid he is over sanguine. The political situation is still so complicated that it is not believed the chancellor will submit to as long a period of inactivity as his condition requires.

LOOKS LIKE STRIKE FOR THE FIREMEN

Officials of 49 Western Railroads and Firemen's Association to Present Grievances—Rock on Which They Split Concerns Engineers.

Chicago, March 20.—After four days of persistent efforts to adjust the differences between the 32,000 locomotive firemen on 49 western railroads and the railroad officials, not a single point has been conceded by either side and the crisis is expected to come tomorrow. The general opinion tonight is that a strike is certain. The difference between the firemen and their railroad officials over the two rail rates is today, the firemen in the Firemen's Association to select their own representatives in presenting grievances and to be promoted according to understandings between the railroads and the firemen.

The firemen also asked for an increase of from 13 per cent in wages which the railroad officials refused to arbitrate. The firemen refused to arbitrate the wage scale unless the two rules governing engine men and the firemen were dropped. The firemen who have an entirely different organization on matters pertaining to the engineers because of these contracts. "We have agreements with Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers, covering the same points asked by the firemen. We would simply arbitrate ourselves out of one trouble into another."

The constitution of the firemen is that the engineers who were members of their organization should be protected by the firemen. This principle they have maintained all during the mediation of the government officials. The general managers contend that they are tied hand and foot and are helpless to grant the demands of the firemen. Should the firemen break this would mean, that they prefer them to a wage advance for 32,000 firemen if the rules were conceded about 3,000 engineers in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen would be affected.

Shackleton Headed for America.
London, March 19.—Sir Ernest Shackleton, commander of the expedition that got within 600 miles of the South Pole, left today on the liner Lusitania for America. He will go direct to Washington, where it is expected he will discuss Antarctic conditions with the managers of an expedition headed by Commander Scott. It is reported that Lieutenant Shackleton is preparing for another trip on a much larger scale than his last, toward the South Pole, to start in 1911 with two ships.

THE NEW FLAVOR MAPLE

Better Than Maple Sold By Grocers

The Editor and Manager of the Bur's Falls "Arrow," is only human. This being so it is not surprising that he should feel that he has a very severe attack of La Grippe which left me very weak, spiritless and run down. I seemed to have lost all ambition. "At this point I realized that my condition was likely to become more serious unless I took myself in hand. One day while in this "Half dead and alive condition" I was luckily looking over recent issues of your paper, "The Bur's Falls Arrow" (of which I am Editor and Manager), when my eyes rested on an advertisement for PSYCHINE. This clearly and explicitly set forth a case so exactly resembling my own that I at once purchased a bottle at the Medical Hall. After taking two or three doses I felt like a new man, and before half the second bottle had been used, every trace of the bad effects of La Grippe had left me. "PSYCHINE is a marvel and I have strongly recommended it to some of my friends similarly afflicted and they have used it with equally beneficial results."

BASEBALL.
LEAGUE OPENS IN MAY.
Moore Jav, March 22.—Every day in the Western Canada baseball league was represented at an important meeting here yesterday afternoon, which brought a message conveying the determination of his club to remain in the league and to support the board of directors in whatever action they may draw up calculated to appeal to the West.

A spirit of perfect harmony characterized the entire proceedings and the business in hand was dispatched with the same like precision and major it augurs well for a successful season. There had been considerable talk of possible division in the league into an eastern and western section. The matter was barely discussed at yesterday's meeting. W. G. Weatherston, president of the Brandon club, introduced the matter but refused to press it in view of the unanimous contrary opinion. Consequently the league remains intact as far as the present season is concerned.

A telegram from Saskatoon asking a franchise was read, but the application was refused on the grounds that the constitution allowed only one club per city. Some discussion took place as to the question of the double club. It was decided in favor of the double club. It might be advantageous if the first one made one trip around, filling a double schedule on that trip. This would reduce traveling expenses, and would, in fact, be an all round saving. In the end, however, the representative decided in favor of the double club. The matter which aroused the keenest discussion was the question as to whether it was desirable to play more games in the large cities of the circuit. Major representatives of the smaller towns would like to see more games, but the number of games should be played in each city. The original idea of giving the clubs more games was that it would result in greater profits, but some club thought the plan had not worked, as well as expected.

Blackburn of Winnipeg, and Grey of Edmonton, were particularly careful examination of reports were shown favorable to last year's meeting, more games were played, and the result in greater profits, but some club thought the plan had not worked, as well as expected.

The all important matter of umpires was next taken up, and it was unanimously recognized that something better than the incompetent officials as were made of last year's men, is needed. The public support is to be gained by the public representative had something to say on the subject. Only two of last year's umpires received unanimous endorsement, and one of those received unanimous endorsement. It was decided on motion to leave the selection of these officials to the president, if salary being named.

When the matter of the 1910 schedule was introduced, and several questions were raised, Ralph Mailey, of Moose Jaw, submitted a draft schedule which he said was drawn up with the design of reducing the mileage covered. By the schedule the season was extended, and the opening was arranged for later in the season. Various opinions were expressed on this provision, the general idea being that the season should finish earlier this year. Finally it was decided to open the season on the first Wednesday in May and close about September first. Blackburn of Winnipeg, and Grey of Edmonton, were particularly careful examination of reports were shown favorable to last year's meeting, more games were played, and the result in greater profits, but some club thought the plan had not worked, as well as expected.

 A deputation from Lethbridge was in the city Saturday and interviewed the government with reference to the proposed land office at that place. The southern gentlemen were: C. F. P. Compbeare, representing the lawyers; Alderman G. B. Bowman, representing the real estate men, and W. C. Simmons, ex-M.P.P., representing the board of trade, in the place of C. S. K. Nourse, who was unable to make the trip. The interview with the government was arranged by W. Buchanan, a former business man of this city and now located in Vancouver, B.C.

SEDEWICK FARMERS SEEDING.
 The farmers of the Sedgewick district are busy getting the land in shape and several have commenced actual seeding. The fall wheat could not look better, and it is expected that the district will produce a good and a bad crop this year. The district is one of the earliest districts in Northern Alberta and as an extra test, it is sometimes the difference between a good and a bad crop this year that has led to the present state of the district.

TAKES ACTION AGAINST CITY.
 A writ has been issued in the District Court against the city by E. G. Dakshott, a former employee of the waterworks department, claiming one month's salary, $75, and $350 damages for wrongful dismissal. Mr. Dakshott absent himself from duty one afternoon without permission and upon his return was summarily dismissed by the superintendent, A. McLean. The case has come before the city council on several occasions and the city has refused to pay the wages of the plaintiff.

Chalmers, Cochrane; grand secretary, J. A. Nolan, Hardisty; grand lecturer, R. V. Campbell, Calgary.

DIED AT WOLF CREEK.
 Particularly sad circumstances surround the death of George Heatherington, aged 62, a farmer living about sixteen miles from Edmonton on the Nanawo road, which occurred on Monday evening at the Grand Trunk Road hospital, west of Wolf Creek. Mrs. Heatherington had returned from her husband's bedside on Sunday, leaving her home at about 10 o'clock. She found her husband on the floor and was driving home from Edmonton on Monday when a telephone message interrupted her trip. She found her husband had died of a complication of brain fever. Owing to difficulties in the train service on the railroad, no funeral arrangements have yet been made, but the remains may possibly be sent to his former home in Missouri, for interment. Besides a wife, the deceased leaves two children.

THE UNIVERSITY CONSTRUCTION.
 It was generally expected by the University authorities that the grand would be put in the temporary estimates for the work on the new arts building in Strathcona, and some were of the opinion that the absence of such grand would stop the work for the time.
 Such, however, will not be the case, according to President Tory. Arrangements will be made for the necessary money, as the Senate has borrowing powers by the University Act, and the work on the dormitory, as well as the larger building, will go ahead at once.

MEMBERS RETURN TO HOME.

Mr. Stevens returned from his own trip and the reports that he has heard from the G.T.P. and Wetskiwin line that it will be impossible to get enough logs on the first-cambered log guarantee the opening of the plant. The proposals have been very favorably received at all his meetings and while many questions were asked, there was little or no opposition. The meeting was held in the school-house and was presided over by Thomas Griffin, Red Deer, and on the Wetskiwin branch by D. W. Warner of Clover Bar.

 Suicide Epidemic in St. Petersburg.
 St. Petersburg, Mar. 22.—Something like an epidemic of suicide due to military and naval melancholia, was recently remarked there, and further attention was called to it yesterday by the suicides of three girls of social status, one of them an heiress, $100,000. After one of them had played Chopin's funeral march, they all drank poison and died. The Russian law severely punishes suicides, but a bill has been proposed by some members of the council of the empire abolishing the penalties on the ground that life is an individual's private property, and he should be allowed to dispose of it accordingly.
 EDMONTON'S 1910 TEAM.
 The baseball magazine in conclave at Moose Jaw has decided that the Western Canada League team for 1910 will be on the same basis as in 1909, with better uniforms and better players than last year, that deficits will be turned to surpluses. With the opening of the season less than two months away, what of the Edmonton team which is to aspire to the honors of pennant winning? It is practically complete. Manager White, taking some things for granted, has been quietly gathering together his players since the opening of the year, and has now filled practically every position on the team. The lineup as he announced it is as follows:
 First base, Moose Baxter.
 Second base, Ede Ross.
 Short-stop, Ede Ross.
 Catchers, Copeland, Burridge and Gosnell.
 Centre field, McChaire, Barnstead and Samuels.
 Spare infielders, Kras and Wester. Spare outfielders, Whitfield, Bolly, Moran.
 These men are all personally known as good ball players. Manager White, with the exception of two youngsters who have been strongly recommended to him and who are paying their own expenses to Edmonton from points in the States to be given a try-out, he will report at Edmonton two weeks before the opening of the season and will bring with him some of the best players ever with Crisp's Calgary semi-pros.
