Two St. Marys' boys Messrs. Bod-being out of a job and with funds

Now they are being rewarded for

Despite the large number of newspapers put out of business by rising costs, the Inland Printer predicts that at least two thousand more will cease publication within the next two years. There is nothing like cheerful news anyway.

It's up to the driver of a motor vehicle to avert an accident. Even if you are on the right that doesn't entitle you to stop thinking or acting in order to make sure an accident is not going to occur. The woods are full of careless drivers who never think of the other fellow's safety and if the week-end toll of accidents keeps up the force of public opinion will force the government to institute stringent laws in regard to those that may or may not drive a motor car.

From week to week the local newspaper has its say about matters local and general. Sometimes the reader agrees with the opinion expressed by the editor, sometimes he does not. But the reader does not need to let the editor have all the say. Letters to the editor on questions of community interest are always welcome, no matter whether the views expressed are shared by him or not. If you have an idea you think they should know or a suggestion that will benefit the community in any way, sit down and write a letter to The Guide-Advocate. Contributions, particularly those on subjects of local interest, are always welcome.

The establishment of an old age committee which has been investigating the subject. The annual pension payable, according to the plans of the committee as far as indicated is to be $240, payable in monthly instalments of $20. The residence qualification is stated to be twenty years of continuous residence. The pension age is not finally settled, but will be either 65 or 70.

To Tulip Growers.—Just now is the time to nip off all the seed pods on the tulips whose petals have fail-en. This allows the strength of the plant to go to the bulb. If you intend moving your tulips to make room for summer plants, be sure and plant them immediately in some corner of the garden so that the bulb may finish storing up its next year's food. When the leaves dry up, take up the bulbs and dry them for fall planting. Of course the easier way is to leave the bulbs in the ground from year to year.

If transient traders who make a practice of importing a few cases of goods and then go about from house to house selling them want to do business in Windsor, they must first pay a license fee of $250, in accordance with an Ontario statute regulating such practices, Mayor Mitchell explained to an applicant for such a privilege on Friday morning. The applicant, who left without his license, explained that he wanted to do business in town for about a week only, and was willing to pay a small fee for license. "You don't get it unless you come across with $250," said the mayor. "We have to protect merchants, who are here all the time, pay big rent and help support the town with their tax contributions.
The $250 is required by law, and you fellows will either have to pay or stay out of Windsor." The mayor explained that he had received an unusually large number of such applications lately, and that not one of them had been willing to pay the $250.

World-wide interest will be taken in the progress of the already famous murder case in Chicago where two young men kidnapped and put to death a third, all three beings sons of millionaires. The public seems always attracted by the sordidness of a murder trial. According to all that can be seen there is not the slightest doubt but that the two men arrested committed the killing; but yet their families are out with statements that they have millions that they will employ to save them from paying the penalty. No doubt they have great encouragement from the fact that in 1923 while there were more than three hundred murders committed in Chicago there was only one criminal paid the death penalty. In the eyes of the whole civilized world what is to be tried is not so much these two young men but the law and justice of the criminal courts of the United States. Is it to be true that crime of such a fiendish nature—or indeed of any nature—can be committed and the courts used to so comfort the laws that criminals with wealth and influence may escape the consequences?

Chevrolet Brings Town
and Country Close

IT is no longer necessary for the farmer to remain a recluse—for his children to forego the youthful companionship which they all crave. Neither is it necessary for the town or city dweller to think of the countryside as a delightful place to be visited only at vacation time. The automobile has made communication swift and easy. It has brought friends near each other, though they live miles apart.

And Chevrolet has made it possible for almost every Canadian to enjoy the benefits of an automobile. For Chevrolet is not only an exceedingly low-priced car, but it is also the most economical car in the world to maintain.

Even though you have not the ready cash with which to purchase at present, the General Motors Acceptance Corporation makes it possible for you to pay for your Chevrolet while you are using and enjoying it.

Investigate Chevrolet and learn how easy it is to own and operate.

Cutting Off Oil Bounty To Hit Petrolia Hard

Vigorous Discussion in the House on Both Sides of Question.

Ottawa, June 10.—Final stages of bills to give effect to the Budget proposals aroused long discussion in the House to-day. Debate turned mainly on provisions made last year for discontinuance of the bounty on crude oil. Sir Henry Drayton—and his point was passed by other Conservatives—took the ground that discontinuance of the bounty had not been justified, that the effect of the Government's policy would be to deny employment to a large number of people. Hon. J. A. Robb, Acting Minister of Finance, took the ground in reply, that Canada had been subsidizing the industry for 20 years; and surely—he argued—there was no unfairness in cutting off the subsidy.

Sir Henry Drayton (Conservative, West York), took occasion to call attention to representations made by owners of oil wells against the legislation passed last year to extinguish the bounties on crude oil by July 1, 1925.

Sir Henry said that there were 3,500 oil wells in Western Ontario with an annual production of 160,000 barrels. The counties of Lambton and Kent alone produced 145,000 barrels. Sir Henry said that on the basis of existing conditions the House must face the wiping out of an industry. There was nothing political, he declared, in the representation.

B. W. Fansher (Progressive, Lambton East), remarked that Sir Henry Drayton had voiced a plea on behalf of the farmers, who were interested in the production of oil in Canada. He was at the loss to know why this plea was made entirely from the farmers' point of view. The production of oil was in the hands of companies who leased the land from the farmer paying him the equivalent of one barrel of oil in every eight that was produced. Therefore, when Sir Henry Drayton spoke of the bounty on oil going to the farmer, he was referring to only one-eighth of the bounty. This amounted to $10,000 out of the $80,000 paid last year in bounties.

Mr. Fansher said that the duty on refined oil imported into Canada should have been reduced when the Government decided to remove the bounty on crude oil. The oil industry in Lambton County was now long past the experimental stages. It was by no means a new industry. Mr. Fansher disapproved of the principle of paying bounties to oil companies.

Earnings All Absorbed. Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen was surprised to hear that Mr. Fansher did not support the payment of bounties to the oil industry in Lambton County. It was proven that this industry was unable to carry on without them. Practically all the earnings of the wells was taken up with overhead and cost of piping to refinery. A discussion ensued between Mr. Meighen and A. R. McMaster (Liberal, Brome), as to whether or not the wells which were producing sufficiently to make them worth keeping up would not be able to get along without the bounty. Mr. Meighen said that none of them could really get established on their own.

Necessity the Mother of Invention indicative of the presence of the sinister form or forms which originally called into existence that particular invention.

I well recall the impressions experienced the first time I saw our Indian guide of the French River, drink from his paddle. We had gone up the Murdoch and portaged to Crooked Lake. (A lake that only last year was opened up by the Canadian Pacific Bungalow Camp—above). No sooner had we got into the canoe and gone a few lengths than the guide ceased stroking and careened the paddle blade so that the clean, cool water dripped as from a clear fountain into his thirsty mouth and throat. No weight had changed, the canoe still ranged ahead from the last stroke, the guide did not change his posture, there was no sound, his eye still commanded the scene. The action was so swift and silent that without bidding my own eye ranged off to the wooded bank, searching for the imaginary foe whose moss-cased feet and wary intuition may have traced the invasion by the summer camper of this hitherto undeveloped haunt of trout.

The secret of making ends meet, is, not infrequently, the difference between Success and Failure. Adaptability to hard Circumstances in order to study them with a view to overcoming them, is a mere stepping-stone to the foot of the born Inventor. And, however we look at them, Inventors are "born" as well as "made".

An Inventor has the ability to step off into Space as it were, to "take the plunge" to quote the man in the street, which more timid, or more sophisticated folk, lack.

Most Inventions come out of two desires. A desire to save labor, and a desire for better service. But an even more fundamental stage lies back of these. The period in some man's life, of Rock-bottom Necessity. And so there has come down to us from the Ancients, who were fond of putting Truths into adages the pithy statement that "Necessity is the Mother of Invention."

The Age of Necessity, is therefore the Age richest in Inventions. The Inventions of a fundamental order, those that saved mankind from extinction, rather than those that spared his strength.

Regarded from this viewpoint what people more rich in Invention than the Indian? What people more capable of "making ends meet"? What people closer in spirit to the Secrets of Nature? What people so able to see possibilities, "a way out" where no way apparently exists, as these simple people of the woods, lakes, rivers, plains and mountains? From these Fundamentalists, the Pioneer had at once most to fear and most to learn. It was this antithesis which sharpened desire to take up the land and hold it against the veritably embodied Spirit of Circumvention. And it was when the early Pioneers began to appreciate the cleverness of the Indian and the Indian began to appreciate the qualities of life as introduced by the new people, that one began to learn of the other and to prosper by exchange of experiences and by exchange of the inventions for which each stood.

The Indian and the pioneer have this in common. Both were always face to face with Necessity. Danger was clear-cut... everywhere. No getting away from it. And to some extent it is interesting to be able to decipher in most of the primitive inventions of the Indians, whether their habitat was the shores about the Great Lakes, the Prairies from the Lakes of the Woods to the foothills of the Rockies, or the Rockies themselves or the littoral of the Pacific, a certain something, like an Atmospheric, a Curious Fragrance, suggestive of Danger... a bizarre note...

Thus swiftly did this simple act recall the time when it was first practiced. That time in the history of Canada when the Red man's foes were so numerous, when the urge of hunting so keen that even when he took a drink of water he must never lose that vigilance which kept him always on guard.

In itself a mere straw, it holds a psychological subtlety that in detail shows us to what necessity and to what finess or inventiveness those who live right down to the elemental were driven by the combative elemental forces with which they warred for existence.

We admire these things in ancient and distant peoples, but we are given to overlook them and set little value by them when they occur at our very doors as it were.

Canada is particularly rich in "inventions" of this nature. They are not here things of the Past but of the living Present. I saw the Indian drink from the paddle only last summer. You may see him this.

Adaptation or resourcefulness in so simple acts are among these primitive, progressive after a fashion. The next time our guide took a drink of the cool lake water, he broke the deep flower of a pitcher plant from a clump that grew by the bank and made a drinking-cup of it. Not limited to one cup you see. And in the transition from the ear we can feel there was a transition in poetic fancy. It was a drink of relaxation... a sip of nectar from the flower's heart. And had he been of the Far East we should have said "See the artistic development of this Jay" but being of the West and of the Wilds, it was wholly unlooked for and evoked more of surprise than anything else. It called out on elemental feelings of lurking danger or watchful foes, but the pleasing cognizance that Art is Universal and that some of the primitive inventions follow the sweeter paths of fancy, rather than the ever-present Danger spelled of the "ear-blade" cup.—By Victoria Hayward.

The following cities and towns in Ontario are on daylight saving time: Toronto, Ottawa, Kingston, St. Catharines, Welland, Thorold, Merriton, Bridgeburg, Port Erie, Port Dalhousie, Port Colborne and Gananoque.

John "Casey" Yohn, of London, Ont., well remembered in Lambton county as the only member of the Wyoming bank robbery gang who was acquitted, was sentenced to Marquette prison from 20 to 40 years for robbing a garage attendant of $500. He was previously charged with a murder in Detroit, but was acquitted.

The Lambton summer school will be held in Brigden June 30 to July 7. Rev. C. W. Mille general superintendent of the O. R. E. C., will be dean of the school. Rev. R. B. Herbert J. Daly, president of the defunct Home Bank of Canada, died in Toronto on Monday morning from hardening of the arteries. Thus, three officers of the Home Bank have died within the last ten months. J. Cooper Mason, general manager died last August, two weeks before the bank failed. The radio knife, the latest X-ray instrument known to the medical world, is now in use in Toronto General Hospital, the first in Canada. The radio knife's function is particularly that of removing growths from the body in a quicker and more efficient manner than heretofore.

Howard Heaton's son of Harrow met with a peculiar accident on the ball ground, Thursday of last week. During the course of the game, a companion in fun put the nozzle of a bicycle pump in his ear, and worked the plunger, the explosion of air rupturing the ear drum it is thought.

"Mustard Gas," as it was called overseas on the battle front, or "Chlorine Gas" as it is properly known, is now proven to have effectively cured whooping cough, bronchitis, influenza, etc., and medical experts in the research department are confined that it will yet prove infallible cure for tuberculosis.

Seeing Niagara Falls for the first time is a great experience in the life of the normal human being. But suppose one had to do it without the eyes wherewith to see and grasp the majestic beauty of the mighty cataract with only one roar of the waters to tell the ears that one stood before a sublime example of Nature's work? That was the case Saturday last with forty blind boys from the Brantford Institute, who went to "see" the Falls and who were entertained by the Niagara Falls Rotary Club; and from all accounts those blind boys "saw" and perhaps carried away with them a more deeply graven impression than is registered upon those lacking the sense of sight of which these boys are deprived.

Get far more wear from dainty garments

It isn't because they're so fragile that your crepe garments, fine silks, and laces wear out quickly. It's the injurious things contained in ordinary laundry soaps.

You can get far more wear from the sheerest, faintest things you own—by laundering them this way:

Use snowy-white, crinkly PALMOLIVE PRINCESS SOAP FLAKES. Nothing but purest soap. A great foam of suds that gently dissolves all dirt and soil—but never injures the finest fabric. And if anything it really brightens and renews delicate colors.

Being pure soap—nothing else—they go farther and clean more thoroughly. That makes them actually economical for use in the washing machine, for all laundering, and for all household purposes in fact.

Your dealer has them in handy one-pound packages. Do get some—if only to try—today.

Seventy-five telephones were burned out in Amherstburg on Thursday of last week when a live Hydro wire upon which the repair gang were working fell across the telephone cable. The juice shot through the cable and burned through it in several places in a way that is almost unbelievable unless one could see the pieces of metal with holes bored through.

Painless childbirth, without harm to mother or baby, has been successfully accomplished, according to Dr. James G. Watsmay, nationally known obstetrician of New York. His process is known as "synergistic analgesia," the active principle being magnesium sulphate. Dr. Watsmay made the announcement at a meeting in Chicago of specialists in various diseases.

"High-powered motor cars, dances, theatres, cabarets, liquor and the other innumerable factors that play a part in the regular life of many of our young people today have set such a hectic pace that the human nervous system isn't equal to it. It results in complete fatigue which prevents the natural elimination of the toxins of the body, resulting in goitre," declared Dr. G. N. Newell before the American Medical Conference in Chicago last week. He claimed over half the girls in the Middle West were afflicted with goitre, entirely due to the nerve-racking excitement of present day pleasures.

From Detroit today comes a message that: "A cordon of 150 patrolmen, 50 physicians and many assistants effected a smallpox quarantine today about a 15-block section of the East Side in a determined effort to prevent any new outbreaks of the epidemic, which is now under control. Other districts probably will be similarly segregated. Dr. Henry F. Vaughn, health commissioner, announced. "The quarantine yesterday was made necessary, according to Dr. Vaughn, because the percentage of smallpox cases there was high, indicating, he said a lack of co-operation on the part of the residents in an effort to curb the disease."

Constipated children can find prompt relief through the use of Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which never fails to regulate the bowels and stomach, thus driving out constipation and indigestion; colds and simple fevers. Concerning them Mrs. Gaspard Daigle, Demain, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets have been of great benefit to my little boy, who was suffering from constipation and indigestion. They quickly relieved him and now he is in the best of health." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MOTHER OF TWIN BOYS

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieved Her of Inflammation and Great Weakness

West St. John, N. B.—"I was in a general run-down condition following the birth of my twin boys. I had a great deal of inflammation, with pains and weakness. Finally my doctor recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. He said that your medicine would be the only thing to build me up. I am sure he is right, for I am feeling much better and am gaining in weight, having gone down to ninety-three pounds. I was in bed for over a month, but am up again now. I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to my friends and give you permission to use my letter."—Mrs. ELMER A. RITCHIE, 82 Rodney St., West St. John, N. B.

There are many women who find their household duties almost unbearable owing to some weakness or derangement. The trouble may be slight, yet cause such annoying symptoms as dragging pains, weakness and a run-down feeling.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for such conditions. It has in many cases relieved those symptoms by removing the cause of them. Mrs. Ritchie's experience is but one of many.

Rearing Young Turkeys

By A. G. Taylor, B. S. A.

The rearing of young turkeys is not as difficult as is generally supposed. It is true that they will not stand exposure to cold or damp weather, but when given a reasonable chance they can be successfully reared in any province in Canada. When the poults are ready to be taken from the nest, they and the mother turkey should be taken to a suitable place in the open. A convenient coop should be provided and be in waiting for the brood. An ordinary sized turkey can brood from twenty to twenty-five poults with safety. If any turkey eggs have been set under hens the poults should be given to the mother turkey at hatching time as she can rear them more successfully than can the foster mother.

Feeding the Poults: Poults should not be fed until they are at least forty-eight hours old and even sixty hours is not too long to leave them without food. The first feed should be chick size oyster shell which should be scattered on a small board. Sour skim milk should also be given at this time. This is sufficient for them for most of the day and should be given in the morning. About four o'clock in the afternoon they should be given some hard-boiled eggs which have been chopped fine. The following morning start regular feeding on hard-boiled eggs and bread crumbs mixed together and fed three times daily until the birds are one week old. At this time the eggs should be gradually discontinued and the feed consist of bread alone. When the birds are about two weeks old a little moist shorts may be added to the ration and the bread crumbs discontinued until the feed consists of shorts alone. Any change should be made gradually and no evil effects will result. At this stage it will be found that the young poults are getting much of their feed on the range and require very little feeding, and the feeds should then be reduced to two, morning and evening.

Sour skim milk and pure water should be given daily from the start. Grit and oyster shell should also be provided. Care should be taken never to overfeed or to offer any food that has been mixed for a previous feeding. As the poults develop it will be found that the area over which they travel becomes greater and that the amount of feed consumed at home decrease, until very little feeding is necessary. It will also be found that the birds grow and thrive better on the wide range with very little feed. This is why turkeys must have free range to make economical gains.

Shooting the Red: When the poults are about six weeks old they should get their red heads after which time exposure to rain does them little harm and they may then be allowed to roost in the open, on trees or on roosts put up for the purpose. They should be allowed to roost high enough from the ground to protect them from beasts of prey. Before the poults get their red heads they should be protected from cold rain storms as they take cold very easily if they get wet over the back when young and when the feathers are undeveloped. Dew on the grass will not hurt them providing the weather is warm.

A LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

Mrs. Francis Powell, Brooke, Township.

Dear Mrs. Powell,
As pastor and recording Steward of the Brooke Methodist circuit on behalf of the board allow us to extend to you our deepest sympathies in your recent bereavement. The memories of your dearly departed husband will linger long in the minds of each of us as a truly devoted toiler in all matters of religious work in the church and as a member of the board.

We join with you in the glad hope that soon we shall all be united in that kingdom where partings are no more and where we shall be known as we are known among the redeemed in heaven. May the absence of his bodily presence but increase our sense of the reality of the realness of his spiritual presence and inspire us with the hope of the Gospel of Christ who said, "Where I am there shall ye be also."
Yours Affectionately,
J. L. Foster, John Zavitz.

Handling Natural Swarms

(Experimental Farms Note). To facilitate the handling of natural swarms, clip the wings of all laying queens early in the season, preferably during the first honey flow. Clipping the queen's wings does not stop the colony from swarming but prevents the queen leaving with the swarm, which will return as soon as the bees realize that the queen is not with them. When the swarm issues, the queen will usually be found on the ground in front of the hive. Place her in a small box or cage and while the swarm is in the air move the old hive from its stand, replacing it with a new hive fitted with empty drawn comb or foundation. Over the new hive place a queen excluder and on top of this, all the supers from the old hive. The swarm will return to the new hive and as the bees enter the queen can be released among them at the entrance.

To prevent after-swarms, the combs in the old, or parent colony should be examined at once, all queen cells destroyed and a young laying queen introduced. If no queens are available, leave one capped and one uncapped cell. The parent colony is left standing by the side of the new hive, but with its entrance facing at right angles to that of the new. Turn the parent colony a little each day so that in about six days its entrance will be facing in the same direction as that of the new hive. On the ninth or tenth day, when the bees are flying freely, move the parent colony to a new location, this will cause all the workers to unite with the swarm.

If by accident a swarm issues with a flying queen, it will usually cluster on some nearby tree or bush. After the bees are all settled, the limb on which they cluster can be cut off and the swarm carried and shaken down in front of a hive prepared for it, or it can be returned to the hive from which it issued, first destroying all queen cells. The old colony requeened ten days later with a young laying queen.

Victims Of Anaemia

Need New, Rich Blood to Restore Health and Strength.

It is an unfortunate fact that nine women out of every ten are victims of bloodlessness in one form or another. The girl in her teens, the wife and mother, the matron of middle age—all know its miseries. To be anaemic means that you are breathless after slight exertion. You feel worn out and depressed. You turn against food and often cannot digest what you eat. Sleep does not refresh you, and when you get up you feel exhausted and unfit for the day's duties. If neglected anaemia may lead to consumption.

You should act promptly. Make good the fault in your blood by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the most reliable blood enricher ever discovered. These pills purify bad blood, strengthen weak blood, and they make good blood, and as the condition of your blood improves you will regain proper strength, and enjoy life fully as every girl and woman should do. The case of Mrs. Mary Trainor, Perth, Ont., shows the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind. She says:—"I had not been feeling well for some time and had been gradually growing weaker. I found it very hard to do my work; had severe headaches and was very pale. I took doctor's medicine for some time, but they did me no good. I was growing weaker and used to faint and take dizzy spells. In this condition I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills; and after a time found they were helping me. I continued their use until I found the troubles that afflicted me had gone and I am once more enjoying good health and strength."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in Medicine or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

With so thorough a preparation at hand as Miller's Worm Powders the mother who allows her children to suffer from the ravages of worms is unwise and culpably careless. A child subjected to the attacks of worms is always unhealthy, and will be stunted in its growth. It is a merciful act to rid it of these destructive parasites, especially when it can be done without difficulty.

"WE'RE COMING HOME!"

Quotations From Letters Received By the Secretary From Old Boys Who Send Their Dollar to Further the Cause.

Dear Sir, and old friends:—

Thank you for the invitation to "Come on Home." It is still the dearest spot on earth to me. I hope I shall be able to "get." It is just in harvest time here in Saskatchewan. If possible will be there with my family—Husband and two daughters and two sons. Mrs. W. W. Kearns. Kinistino, Sask.

Enclosed is a postal note for one dollar for my membership fee for the Watford Old Boys Reunion. I hope to be there as I am arranging to get my holidays then. David W. White, Toronto.

Please find enclosed, $1.00 for the home coming week. I thank you very much for your invitation, and would certainly like to be in the old town for that week, but as August is always a very busy month here, I can make no rash promises.—E. T. Ross, Port Arthur.

Sometime ago we received your rather "heart pulling" invitation to come home to the Old Boys Celebration in August. We have not decided whether we will be there or not but certainly hate to think that such an event would take place in the old town without our being present to enjoy it. We are, however, enclosing our fees of $2.00 and also $1.00 for Mrs. G. H. Brigham, (nee Lillian Howden) and trust same reaches you safely. Yours for a big time on Old Boys Week.—John and Amy Brent, Coleville, Sask.

Please find enclosed postal note for $1.00 fee for membership to the Old Boys. Thank you very much for the kind invitation I appreciate it very much and hope to be with you. Mrs. Henry Shannon, East Claridon

I am deeply interested to learn from the circular, which has just reached me, of the arrangements which are being made for the jubilee celebration of my old home town of Watford. The touching language which the appeal contains has made a strong pull on a heart which has always been full of affection for the scene of my boyhood days, and I should count it a great privilege to be able to meet with you on the days fixed for the celebration in the month of August. Whether I shall be able to do this or not it is at present uncertain, but it seems very doubtful that my duties in this part will permit me. I enclose however, the sum of $1.00 dollar as my membership fee, and if I can at all manage it, I will come along and grasp your outstretched hand and to partake, at any rate of some of the good things, of which you say "the pantry is full up." Rev. I. B. R. Westgate, Winnipeg.

Enclosed please find $1.00 for membership fee for Old Boys Reunion. Mrs. S. Laughlin, London.

SUMMER CAMP FOR C.S.E.T. BOYS BLAINE'S GROVE

Gathering For Yearly Camp is Expected to be Larger Than Ever

The Lambton county boys' work board have planned an extensive and highly interesting summer program for C. S. E. T. boys. A summer camp will be held from July 7 to 14 at Blaine's Grove, Lake Huron. Qualified experts will be in charge of the work and give instructions on astronomy, aquatics, athletics, life-saving, motor mechanics, bird life, trees, flowers, etc. The site which is situated beside Lake Huron, five miles west of Forest on the Wyoming side-road, is one of the most beautiful camping grounds on the lake, with a wide sandy beach and a cool grassy glen and also a large athletic field.

Last year the Lambton county boys' camp was attended by over a hundred boys and the leaders are expecting a much larger number this year.

Instructors
The following instructors and leaders will be in charge of the camp: camp director, Jas. Finley, Courtright; devotional, Murray Stuart, Petrolia; first aid, A. D. McMurtie, Sarnia; athletic and aquatics A. L. Spracklin, Alvinston; nature study, W. H. MacDonald, Brigden; astronomy, Prof. Kingston, London; E. A. Wagborne, F. H. Gilroy and others.

The camp will last seven days and will cost each boy six dollars. Boys of any denomination, creed or color can register.
