NONE OF OUR BUSINESS

None of our business! Wandering and sinful,
All through the streets of the city they go,
Hungry and homeless in the wild weather;
None of our business! Dare we say so?

None of our business! Children's wan faces,
Haggard and old with their suffering and sin!
(Hold fast your darlings on tender, warm bosoms, Sorrow without, but the home light within.)

What does it matter that some other woman,
Some common mother, in bitter despair
Wails in a garret, or sits in a cellar,
Too broken-hearted for weeping or prayer?

None of our business! Sinful and fallen.
How they may jostle us close on the street!
Hold back your garments! Scorn! they are used to it;
Pass on the other side, lest you should meet.

None of our business! On, then, the music,
On with the feasting, though hearts break forlorn;
Somebody's hungry, somebody's freezing,
Somebody's soul will be lost ere the morn.

Somebody's dying (On with the dancing);
One for earth's pottage is selling his soul;
One for a bauble has bartered his birthright,
Selling his all for a pitiful dole.

Ah! but One goeth abroad on the mountains,
Over lone deserts, with burning, deep sands,
Seeking the lost ones (It is His business!)
Bruised though His feet are, and torn though his hands
Thorn-crowned His head, and His soul sorrow-stricken (Saving men's souls at such infinite cost),
Broken His hear, for the grief of the nations
It is His business saving the lost.

Special Notice.

In the past some of the delegates attending the High Courts and the Supreme Court have taken out accident tickets for the whole time of their expected absence from home. Though why they should have accident tickets while sitting in the High Court any more than while sitting in their parlors at home, is one of those things that no "follah" can make out. The design of the law is to protect the Order against railroad accidents during the journey to or from the sessions; hence, as a rule, members should get only one day tickets for the journey to and another for the journey home from the sessions. In the future these will be all that the Supreme Court will refund.

Accident Tickets.

The necessity for the provisions in the Constitutions regarding Accident Tickets on the occasions of Foresters' Excursions was forcibly brought out by the incident which attended the recent excursion of Court Lafayette, of Elizabeth, New Jersey. The Order is very popular in Elizabeth, owing to the fact that all the Courts have taken great care to admit only first-class men. The boys in Lafayette, as a matter of course, are very popular among the people, and their excursion is one of the events of the season. From the New York papers we have learned that not less than 3,000 people patronized Lafayette's excursion, held at the beginning of July.

The excursionists were carried in two excursion barges in tow of a steamer, and on the return journey when near "Hell Gate" the steamer Miranda ran into one of the barges, and, according to the New York Herald's account, would have capsized the barge but for the fact that the two were lashed together. A dozen or so of the excursionists were injured more or less by the collision, but fortunately none were killed. Had the barge been sunk by the collision hundreds would doubtless have been drowned. The members of the Order who were on this excursion, we are glad to know, did not forget the provisions of the Constitutions, as the Supreme Officers received from them a large bundle of Accident Tickets, thus protecting the Order and themselves fully. We hope in all Foresters' excursions the members of the Order taking part therein will be equally thoughtful, and not forget their duties in the premises.

Special Instructions.

To Financial Secretaries.

1. In every communication give name and number of your Court, and the location of the Court.
2. Never take any money from any member without giving to the brother the official receipt. In writing such receipt always fill in the stub first.
3. If there are any of the members of your Court who have not paid their dues and assessments by the last meeting in the month, notify them by letter or personally, that they must pay you before the end of the then current month, otherwise they will stand suspended.
4. On the first week day of the month complete your report, get it verified, as directed in the Constitution, and get from the Treasurer the amount called for by your report in the shape of a draft, payable at par, in Toronto, or P. O. Order, or an Express Order, made payable to the Order of The Molsons Bank, Toronto, and immediately send the report and remittance to the Supreme Secretary, John A. McGillivray, Toronto, Canada. Never send bank drafts. If you do, it is at your own risk.

5. If any suspended member wishes to reinstate himself, whether he has been suspended for only one day or for the full period, viz., thirty days, you are not at liberty to accept any moneys from him till you have been notified by the Supreme Secretary, that he has been reinstated. The first step requisite to be taken is to get the brother to sign the official reinstatement Form, and the same duly certified to by the Court, as required, after which send the Form forthwith to the Supreme Secretary, and when the Supreme Secretary notifies the Court of the brother's reinstatement, then the brother can pay you the money, and his reinstatement is complete. In case of any dispute the date of your receipts, which, however, must be after the date of the Supreme Secretary's notice, will settle as to the precise date of reinstatement.

6. Hereafter make but one remittance each month to the Supreme Court, retaining in the Subordinate Court Treasury all receipts from your members till the first week day of each month, then send to the Supreme Secretary all you have received for the Supreme Court since the last report. In future therefore, notwithstanding the provisions thereto, even in the case of changing policy, do not remit to Supreme Secretary "between times," but simply endorse on the application for the change, "The required fee has been paid into Court."

7. In making remittances, never send bank notes, because if lost in any way your Court must make it good to the Supreme Court, and you will then be called on to make it good to your Court. Always send as directed by the Constitutions, by Draft, P. O. Order, or Express Money Order, then if lost in transmission your Court will not be called on to pay the second time.

8. In making out monthly reports, commence with the first month after your institution. This means if your Court is instituted on the 1st or 31st July the first Report should be sent, together with the Assessment for August, on the 1st day of August.

There are three Forms used by Financial Secretaries on which to make their monthly reports. The first is for the first month after institution and is made on Special Form No. 31. For January and July in each year there must also be a special report made on Form No. 12. On all other months "Form No. 3 A" is used.

When making your report on "No. 3 A" that all the numbers, especially No. 12 or summary of the report, are fully and properly filled up.

If you send less money than last month explain fully why a less amount is sent. So also if you send more see that full explanations are given why you send more.

10. If any member does not get his policy or certificate of membership within a reasonable time—say within a week or two, find out first, if a charter member whether, the Brother has passed the Medical Board. If he has, then find out if he signed the Application and Examination Forms in the same manner. If this has also been done and all the fees required by the Constitution paid then report the facts at once to the Supreme Chief Ranger.

To Recording Secretaries.

1. In each and every letter give name and number of your Court and its location.

2. No policy can be issued until a brother has been initiated, which means that he must have previously passed the Medical Board, and the application for membership Form No. 1 has been duly signed and fully and properly filled up. This means that the brother must sign the Application for Membership Form precisely as he has signed the Medical Examination Form. If it is "John Smith" in the one it must be the same in the other, and not "John Smith" on one paper and "John A. Smith" on the other. In a word, Foresters should always sign all official papers in connection with the Order in the one way.

Then the Christian names of all beneficiaries should be given, the relationship should also always be stated.

"Mrs. Smith, wife," "Mrs. John Hill," mother, "wife and children" are all improper phrases in an application for membership. When an applicant gives them insist that he furnish the Christian name of each beneficiary. Thus instead of saying "wife and children," he should say, "Mary Smith, wife," and

|                |             |
|----------------|-------------|
| John Smith,    | } Children. |
| William Smith, |             |
| Annie Smith,   |             |

Do not forget always to give date of initiation, and to transmit the Form to the Supreme Secretary immediately after initiation. It ought to be done the night of the initiation.

3. If there is a High Court in your Province or State your Court is under the jurisdiction of such High Court, no matter by whom your Court was organized. In that case you must send all your orders for supplies to your own High Secretary, and not to the Supreme Secretary.

4. All the supplies included in the list published in THE FORESTER must be procured of High Courts, except "pins and charms," which may be procured of the Supreme Court or of any jeweler most convenient to the purchaser. Ballot boxes and ballots and gavels may also be procured where most convenient to the Court. Uniforms for Royal Foresters must be procured only from the Supreme Court. Courts located where there is no High Court, are under the immediate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, and must procure their supplies from the Supreme Court.

5. When any of your members are permanently suspended, and you have the right to assume this if they fail to reinstate themselves within two months, advise Brother Atwell Fleming thereof, giving name and P. O. address of the parties. So, also, whenever you get new members write to Brother Fleming, giving name in full and their P. O. address. If in large cities give street and number, so that THE FORESTER may be duly sent to them.

6. All answers to letters sent to the Supreme Officers or to the Officers of a High Court will come back addressed to the Court Deputy. He therefore should be at the meetings of the Court regularly. Or if prevented by unforeseen and unavoidable circumstances from attending a Court meeting, he should send all official communications to the Recording Secretary in order that they may be presented to the Court at the earliest date possible. If he cannot or will not do this elect another and send his name to your High Chief Ranger, who will commission him at once. A failure to have the official communications received from the Supreme or High Officers is sufficient cause for removal of a Court Deputy.

Correspondence.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., 14th July, 1890.

Oronhyatekha, M.D., S.C.R., Editor Independent Forester:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I herewith send you an account of our installation as it appeared in the Tribune of Friday, 11th July:

PUBLIC INSTALLATION OF THE OFFICERS OF COURT TEMPLE, NO. 510, I. O. F.

The spacious west end hall on Temple street was densely packed on Wednesday evening to witness the public installation of officers of Court Temple, No. 510, which was conducted by H. Rowland Lee, D.S.C.R. of Santa Monica, Cal., assisted by C. L. Wild, D.S.C.R., of Los Angeles, and H. C. Parks, D.S.C.R., High Secretary of California. The following officers were duly installed: C. D. H. C. R., J. H. Collins; P. C. R., W. E. Rogers; C. R., Wm. Wicks; V. C. R., A. O. Gale; R. S., C. M. Warren; F. S., Wm. C. Mooney; Treas., F. R. Brant; Chap., F. M. Lowrey; S. W., J. N. Green; J. W., H. L. Pawling; S. B., W. A. Newell; J. B., F. H. Cunningham; Phys., L. Dearth, M.D.

At the conclusion of this imposing ceremony the following selections were rendered: Duett, (piano and violin) Mrs. J. C. Gould and H. Braash; solo, (vocal) Mrs. W. E. Beeson; recitation, Miss Pearl Weller; solo, (vocal) Mrs. Mrs. C. L. Wild; song and banjo, Mr. Edwd. Doe; recitation, Miss Helen Bennett; solo, (vocal) Mrs. J. Torey; recitation, Mr. Tom Barnes; address on Forestry, Mr. H. Rowland Lee, D.S.C.R.

All the foregoing selections were well rendered and loudly encored. The address on Forestry was pointed and practical. Courtesies and congratulations were then exchanged, and refreshments served to all present, free. Thus ended an evening with the I. O. F. long to be remembered by all who participated.

Yours in L., B. and C..

CHAS. L. WILD.

P. S.—We have received eighteen applications for membership since 1st July. There is a boom all along the lines.

TORONTO, 1st August, 1890.

To Dr. Oronhyatekha, Editor of the Forester:

DEAR SIR,—Below please find a copy of a postal card received by me to-day:

"DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—This is to notify you that I have changed my occupation, and am railroad-ing at present.

Yours truly,

W. R. SHEPHERD.

This card is simply addressed to J. A. Mc. Gillivray, Toronto, Ont. As you will notice it bears no date or address.

You will please have this appear in large letters for it seems strange to me how any brother could expect that I could get any trace of him from this card, as we have many thousand members in the Order, amongst whom are a great many by the name of Shepherd.

I send you this item in order to give you a slight idea of how some members do their business. I am continually receiving letters or cards just as troublesome as this one. Why the membership do not put the name and number of their Court upon all their communications to this office is really a wonder to me in view of the fact, that the Forester is continually asking them to do so.

All I have to say in the matter is, that Brother Shepherd will never receive a reply to this card, unless he sees this letter of mine, and writes me the requisite information.

I may just add that the membership of this Order would save us many hours of labor at this office, if upon every communication they forward here, they would state the name and number of their respective Courts.

Trusting that Brother Shepherd, who sins in the same manner, may see this letter, which is the first one that I have troubled you with since I became Secretary of this Order some ten months ago, I am,

Yours in L., B. and C.,

JOHN A. MCGILLIVRAY.

Words of Cheer.

FOREST RIVER, N. D., July, 1890.

Our Court is getting along very nicely, and the members take interest in it. I look for a great boom in Forestry this coming fall and winter. Our prospects for crops are unusually good, and we look for a large increase in number of Courts and members. Trusting the good work will go on, and that you will again visit Dakota at some future time,

I am, very truly, yours in L., B. and C.,
W. H. DANIELS.

POINT EDWARD, ONT., 8th July, 1890.

DEAR SIR,—You will no doubt be pleased to hear that Court Huron, No. 163, Point Edward, at its meeting last night had no less than thirteen applications for membership.

We heard your commands and are on the march and would advise you to have in readiness those badges, and also the new officers' sashes, so that we may secure them without delay upon our arrival.

We have a Court of fifty-three live members, who are all on the march. Look out for us.

Yours in L., B. and C.,

J BEVERIDGE, C.D.H.C.R.

Among the Courts.

Court Ivy, No. 157, hold their Annual Demonstration.

On Wednesday, 25th June, Court Ivy, No. 157, I. O. F., held their annual demonstration at Thorndale. The event had been the talk of Thorndale for some time. At an early hour processions of visitors might have been seen wending their way to the pleasure grounds to secure suitable and comfortable places where the procession might be viewed. At 2 30 p. m. Court Thamesford, with their excellent cornet band, came piping forth and soon fell in line, accompanied by other visiting brethren, making the procession nearly 100 strong. As the company arrived on the grounds they were closely followed by a crowd of people which nearly numbered 800. Brother Mathieson, C.R., made a very suitable and fitting address, and then introduced the chairman, ex-Mayor Gibson, P.M., of Ingersoll, who was greeted with the warmest applause, and who gave an address which interested and amused everyone. The chairman then called for a selection from the band, to which they heartily responded and commanded attention and earned applause from all. Following this Rev. A. R. Birks, of Thamesford, gave a very interesting and instructive address on Forestry, portraying it in all its aspects. Captain T. E. Robson, then being called to the platform, favored the crowd with a patriotic song, and was encored. Miss Ada Cosgrove, being called upon, sang a number of excellent songs, and at each appearance was given rounds of applause. When she had finished Rev. J. E. Moore, of Dorchester, was introduced and gave an animated soul-stirring address. At this period the 5 p. m. train was due, and the worthy chairman was forced to go on that train, business being urgent. The Chief Ranger then presided to the satisfaction of all. He introduced Geo. Moir, of Stratford, and comic singing, with action to suit, George supplied in a most ludicrous manner. Another selection was given by the band, and Miss McGuffin rendered an excellent recitation, and a duet by Mr. and Miss Crawford concluded the programme.

As tea was being served the band continued to pour fourth volumes of music, which wrought praise from each and all. At a late hour the company dispersed, much pleased with their afternoon's sport and entertainment. The proceeds were $:80, and are to be applied to Court furnishings.

Court Gore, I. O. F.

Mr. H. O. Sonntag, who has been quietly working for some days past in the interests of the Independent Order of Foresters in this city, brought his labors to a successful close last night by the organization of a fine Court of that Order, which will be known as Court Gore, being named after the old Gore district. The application was signed by thirty-three gentlemen who presented the appearance at the institution of being particularly good material. Mr. Wm. Griffith, Supreme Vice-Chief Ranger, presided in the absence of Dr. Oronhyatekha, Supreme Chief Ranger, who was unable to attend, and he was assisted by Thomas Lawless, Acting Supreme Secretary; James Slater, Acting Supreme Treasurer; T. B. Spence, Acting Supreme Marshal; and H. O. Sonntag, Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger. These are the officers of the new Court: C. D. H. C. R., Wm. Amor; C. R., Wm. A. Thompson; V. C. R., John Lynn; R. Sec., John Mitchell; F. Sec., John Stewart; Treas., James H. Farmer; S. W., John A. Murray; J. W., Wm. Mitchell; S. B., George T. Baker; J. B., John Gilmore; P. C. R. and Phys., James Anderson; Chap., Fred. J. Dodman; Trustees Wm. A. Thompson, John Mitchell, J. H. Farmer, G. A. Black and F. J. Fralick; Representative to High Court, Dr. Anderson. The new Court will meet on the second and fourth Fridays of every month, and the indications are that it will soon be one of the largest and most popular in the city.—Hamilton Times.

Court Lansing, No. 247.

Court Lansing, No. 247, having determined to wake up and buckle on its armor and do some work, arranged for a public meeting in the Grand Opera House, at Lansing, Mich., on the evening of Monday, 14th July. It was a notable occasion, His Excellency Governor Luce honored the occasion with his presence and made the Foresters happy by presiding at the meeting. There was a magnificent audience present, notwithstanding the heat, fully one-half being ladies, thus lending additional grace to the meeting. The Governor was supported on his right by the Supreme Chief Ranger, and on his left by Brother Fred. Dunn, High Secretary of Michigan, and on the platform were the officers of Court Lansing in their beautiful regalias and badges of office. The programme opened with music, readings and recitations, followed by a short address from the Supreme Chief Ranger on the principles of the I. O. F. Among the rich literary food presented was the original poem by Prof. G. M. Ritchie, of Lansing, who we understand has since made an application for membership in Court Lansing, so that by the time this is read by the Foresters Prof. Ritchie will be a brother Forester. The following is the poem:

Human Strength and Destiny.

"I'll work and save," said a youth one day
To one whose locks were thin and gray;
"I ne'er shall fear this world of strife,
My strong right hand shall guard my life.

I ask not alms of any man,
I mean to do the best I can,
And all alone I'll hew my way
In this old world from day to day.

I ne'er shall join a secret band
That offer men a helping hand,
Who claim to aid the weak and poor,
And scatter alms from door to door;

Who say that we should all unite,
And use our money and our might
In aiding those who chance to be
A little poorer clad than we;

Who say the strong should guard the weak
With gentle care and natures meek,
That we each other's load should bear,
That all an equal lot should share;

That rich and poor throughout our land
Should join in one fraternal band,
But I shall never join their ranks,
Nor sign their old endowment blanks."

Then said she whose locks were grey:
"Twas fifty years ago to-day,
My boy, when I was young like you,
When I could work, when I could do.

When I did wed a youth so gay,
With health and strength like you to-day,
Who said his hand should guard my life
From toil and trouble, care and strife.

Who promised that my life should be
O'erspread with happiness and glee,
And O! I thought it would be true,
I thought he all these things could do.

For as I looked upon his face,
And noble features there did trace,
And saw his broad and massive breast,
With which he was by nature blest;

And heard his vows, both great and small,
Which from his ruby lips did fall,
This thought within me did abide
What danger can my life betide,

While he with sinews young and strong
Kept watch and guarded it along!
But O! Thou noble, valiant youth,
List now while I shall speak the truth.

And say when I have told you all,
You fear no danger may befall;
And that your strength 's all you need,
To aid you in your onward speed:

And set at naught fraternal aid,
And all endowments by them paid,
Now list, my boy, now list to me,
While I my tale shall tell to thee.

We had been wed a year or more,
When Bessie, dear, crept o'er our floor;
Now Bessie was our babe, my boy,
And was to us our hope and joy.

She'd often sit on papa's knee,
And he would say what wilt thou be,
My own, my darling little child,
In this cold world so rough and wild!

O what! O! what shall be thy fate
When thou shall leave thy childhood state
And launch upon the stormy tide
Where want and danger doth abide!

And when we knelt in humble prayer
And prayed for God's eternal care,
We ne'er would rise until we'd say,
God keep our darling safe to-day!

O! how our hearts did fondly beat
When we looked on our child so sweet,
But O! young man there came a day,
Just as our hearts were light and gay,

Which made my life as black as night,
And did my hopes forever blight.
One time when toils of day were o'er
I heard a step at front room door.

I said to baby lying sweet
Within her little crib so neat,
'Tis papa, dear, come home at last,
But lo! when I looked up aghast.

The sight I saw did freeze me dumb,
My baby's papa dear, had come;
But in a shroud all cold and dead;
The strong right hand the which he said

Would guard me from all care and strife,
And keep all trouble from my life,
Lay in a lifeless state of rest
Upon that broad and massive breast.

But where are each noble manly vow?
And how was he to guard me now?
Who now would care for baby dear
In this cold world so sad and drear?

I said I'd work from day to day
And keep all care from her away,
But lo! how fate did mock that speed;
And what a lesson it did teach:

For soon disease upon me came,
And all my limbs were sore and lame;
I lay for weeks upon my bed,
With body cramped and aching head.

The neighbors came within our cot
And saw our poor and humble lot;
They thought that we had best to go,
Because our lot was so and so,

To that good house where poor are kept,
So in that house for nights I slept;
For ne'er again my limbs were strong,
They ne'er my form would bear along.

So all my life you see was spent,
And all my joys have thus been pent
Within a house just made for poor,
Where naught but gloom comes to the door.

My little babe while sleeping there
Mid all the foul and filthy air,

With scarce a glimpse of sweet spring sky,
To soft the flash in each bright eye,

Fell sick, and worse she grew from day to day
And ere a month had passed away
She lay upon my bosom dead;
And with her life my hopes had fled.

So all my life from that dread day,
When him I loved did pass away,
Has been a foul and blackened page,
And now has left me in mine age

Without a hand to help or save,
'Without a hope this side the grave;
But had my husband been a Knight
They'd cared for me and kept me right.

Or if a Forester he'd been
I'd felt I had some noble kin;
And I should not in anguish sore
Been kept behind a poor-house door.

And now I say to man with wife,
If you would guard her all her life,
Enroll your name while on the land
Within some good fraternal band.

They always help in time of need,
Thus friends they are, and friends indeed,
For when you least expect to die
The angel Death is passing by.

And when you think success is sure
A cruel fate will oft allure,
And you will fall within its snare
In spite of all your wit and care."

So spoke the one whose locks were grey,
And so she lived from day to day,
Now men and women here to-night,
Think you that this is just and right?

That in our land so bright and fair,
That some should only reap its care,
While others live from year to year
With eyes ne'er moistened with a tear!

O! no, my friends, this should not be,
In this our land so rich and free,
And now I tell you here to-night,
If we our efforts should unite

And let the bond of friendship rule,
And send each little child to school,
And do our duty to a man,
And always do the best we can,

And each a FORESTER should be,
The cruel fates which oft we see
Within our world of toil and troubles,
Would turn to be but airy bubbles.

O! FORESTERS with helping hand,
Long live thy Courts within our land,
Move on, O Order grand and great,
For on thee hangs a humane fate.

Humanity with care and fear
Look up to thee from year to year,
The child that sits on papa's knee
Is taught to put its trust in thee.

Let not thy royal banner trail,
But with old union let them sail,
Fear not the mocks of this cold world
Which oft at thee are fiercely hurled.

They ne'er can rend thy royal crest,
For love and truth reign in thy breast;
And God himself from throne on high,
Will guard thee with a watchful eye.

For on each cause that's just and right,
He always sheds his holy light,
Move on, O valiant hearts and brave,
The poor and needy ones to save.

Do not thy duty e'er forget,
But with your eyes for ever set
On right and truth and charity,
March on, and on, to victory.

great success, the committee having spared no effort to make it a pleasant one, and although the evening was somewhat chilly, there was a large crowd on board, amongst whom were Dr. Oronhyateka and Supreme Officers. Dancing was indulged in, the Heintzman band furnishing the music for the occasion.

There are a good many thankless jobs to be done at one time or another in every church, in every fraternal order, in every school and guild. Somebody must do them. They are usually done without any question being asked as to whether they are thankless or not—done through the inspiration of a generous impulse, which is its own law, and luckily is often sufficient to bring its own reward. That is, the action itself, in its sweetness at the time and fragrance ever after is reward enough.—Rainbow.

Notes.

The attention of the brethren in Michigan is called to the fact that there is a Directory of all Courts in the State published in each issue of this paper.

We advise all Financial Secretaries and Recording Secretaries to carefully read the Special Instructions for them, found elsewhere in this issue of the FORESTER.

Owing to high railway rates the brethren of Niagara Falls have been compelled to abandon their project of holding a grand demonstration and picnic as previously announced.

A very pleasant time was spent at the last meeting of Court Hazeldean, No. 507. Brothers Hickmett, Cooper, and Bradley, of Court Ottawa and Brother Brown of Court Oakwood, were present, and assisted at the initiation, and also at the election of officers. The prospects of the Court are bright.

Brother Cramer, R. S. of Court Buckeye, No. 312, writes: "We have a very good set of officers for the present term, and the whole Court is working harmoniously, and we propose to be the banner Court of Ohio. We have 92 members in good standing now, and by next January we hope to make the number 125 strong."

The members of Court Brock, No. 242, Toronto, held their first annual Moonlight Excursion on Thursday, 10th inst., per palace steamer "Macassa." The excursion was a

Some men live as though life on earth was eternal—to them. They expect to outlive wife and children. They make no provisions for those dependent upon them; because they will always be here in health and vigor to provide for them. Such men remind us of the man who went to the bank to borrow a sum of money. The banker requested an endorsement, "because," said he, "I know if you live you will pay the loan, but you may die." "Die," said the borrower, "who ever heard of a man dying in thirty days?" The man who neglected to get insured, and the member who fails to pay his assessment before the day of suspension belongs to the same class. He can't possibly die in thirty days.—E.V.

Brother J. W. McElroy, of Court Oakwood, No. 364, writes: "We have quietly worked away, trying by all means to increase our membership and advance the interests of the Order generally. Our Court numbers thirty-two endowment and two social members, thirty-four in all. Financially we are in a prosperous condition, and the members work hand in hand for the general good of all. During this month we lose one of the most active and energetic members in the person of our esteemed Recording Secretary, Brother W. T. Jamieson, who is removing to Ottawa. He has been our Recording Secretary since the Court was organized, and has always been ready to advance the interests of Forestry. On Friday evening, the 25th inst., the members repaired to the residence of Brother Jamieson and presented him with an address, accompanied by a golden and cut glass inkstand. Refreshments were very kindly served by Mrs. Jamieson and some lady friends present. Speeches, interspered with music, followed, and the members repaired to their homes at an early hour, all satisfied at having spent a pleasant and enjoyable evening."

Still Another.

TORONTO, 9th August, 1890.

To the Editor of the Forester:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I received $3.06 in a letter, of which hereunder is a copy:

6th August, 1890.

J. A. McGillivray:

DEAR SIR,—Enclosed please find $3.06 assessment for June, that should have been sent from C. H. McClintock, but through error, he being initiated the very last of the month, it was omitted.

Yours in L., B. & C.,

A. B. SWEENEY.

I will have to keep this money until I hear from the brother stating the Court to which he belongs. He does not even state the place from which he writes the letter, and he evidently expects that I shall hunt him up out of 21,000 members, something which I have neither the leisure nor inclination to do.

If the brethren will not observe the instructions issued by the Supreme Court (that is to mention on each letter the name of the Court to which they belong), the blame of any loss that may occur thereby will be theirs, not ours.

I am, yours, in L., B. & C.,

JOHN A. MCGILLIVRAY,

Supreme Secretary, I.O.F.

Foresters at Church

The Courts at St. John.

From Daily Sun, 2nd June, 1890.

The Foresters had a glorious day yesterday for their parade and there was a large turn-out of members. The route announced on Saturday was followed to Germain street Baptist church. Following the Artillery band, Courts Frederick, of Carleton, La Tour, of the east side, and Loyalist, of the north end, marched in the order named. H. C. Creed, H.C.R.; Mr. Coleman, H.V.C.R., and Dr. Geo. A. Heatherington, P.S.V. C.R., walked in rear of the procession. J. A. Fowler, of Court La Tour, was the grand marshal. Arrived at the church, the members formed in open order, allowing the Grand Officers to pass through first. The Foresters are a fine looking body of men, and in their handsome regalia presented a splendid appearance. Their marching was excellent, and the route both going and returning had many interested spectators.

The church was crowded during the service, which was one of unusual interest. The platform was beautifully decorated with flowers. The Scripture lessons included the responsive reading of the 112th and 133rd Psalms by pastor and congregation, and the reading by the pastor of Romans, 12th chapter. In addition to the hymns sung, the choir chanted from Isaiah, "How Beautiful upon the Mountains are the Feet of Him that Bringeth good Tidings," and sang an anthem and Te Deum. The music was particularly harmonious and pleasing.

Rev. Mr. Gates preached a thoughtful and eloquent sermon from Proverbs xxii, 3—"A prudent man foreseeth the evil and hideth himself." Prudence, he said, was wisdom applied in action. It had reference to the future. It aimed at a good object to be accomplished by right means. A prudent man was a man of forethought and anticipation, who knew rightly to choose in view of things to come. The speaker contrasted the prudent with the slothful man and the heedless one. The prudent man knows that if there is no work there will be no harvest. He also knows what it means to live beyond his income. It is, said Mr. Gates, a shame and disgrace that in this, the best of all the centuries, there is a temptation to men to live beyond their means—that a man's position is so much dependent upon the cut of his coat or the number of stories in his house. But the prudent man knows that the borrower is the slave of the lender, and, so far as he can, he pays as he goes. He goes further. He is not narrowly selfish. A narrowly selfish man is the meanest thing on earth. There are such men. They spend everything upon their own pleasures and gratifications, though their wives may toil and slave and their children go barefoot on the streets. It is wonderful, said the speaker, how man can go down and down until he loses almost the semblance of manhood; as wonderful as that he can, if he will, rise upward and develop and become godlike. The prudent man lives not for himself alone, but grasps the meaning of the truth that it is more blessed to give than to receive. He looks upon his children, and, seeing that henceforth not brawn but brain will win the world's battles, makes sacrifices that they may be fitted by education for the struggle. And the prudent young man does not consider that his education is complete though he has passed through school and seminary and college. He does not spend five or six nights in the week at games or pleasures that have no elevating tendency, but realizing that new fields of knowledge are ever opening up, we find him in Chautauqua circle or elsewhere, keeping in touch with the knowledge of his time, so that he is young along with the new generation. He anticipates, too, the days of old age, and makes provision for the time when his hand will have lost its cunning and he will be borne down by weariness and weight of years. He saves from his income, not in parsimony, but in economy, for the needs of that time. But beyond his own needs he owes it to his wife and children. It is a wretched shame for a young man to ask a woman, who is able to make her own way in the world, to become his wife and minister to his wants if he makes no provision for her future. He makes her his slave, for if he is suddenly taken away from her she is in no position to face the world alone. He leaves her in chains and misery. The prudent man makes provision for his wife and children.

The preacher said he had no doubt these were some of the ideas had in view by the Foresters in banding themselves together. There was to be social and moral benefit to them and benefit for their wives and children. He noted that the fundamental principles of their Order were most praiseworthy. From the fact that last year the Order had 19,898 members, held $195,238 in funds, besides spending $495,136 for the benefit of members or their families, he assumed that the Order was prosperous, and he could heartily wish them God-speed in the coming years. But there was another thought. Their Order recognized the fatherhood of God. He counseled them to take God into their plans, to realize that fatherhood, and listen to the voice of Him who said, "Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness." The prudent man takes thought of eternity. While taking thought for body and intellect he does not forget the soul. God in Christ would make their pleasant days more pleasant and in the hour of pain and darkness sustain and comfort them.

At the close of the service the men marched by way of Queen, Charlotte, Cobourg and Garden streets to Paradise Row and Main street back to the hall. The band, during the march, played the following airs in their usual spirited and pleasing manner: "Rolling Home to Dear old England," "Harum Scaram," "Abide With Me," "Christ Whose Glory," "Battle and the Breeze."

After the return to the hall the members were called to order by Chief Ranger Vincent, of Court Loyalist. H. C. Creed made a brief address, congratulating the officers and members on the success of the parade. On motion of Dr. Heatherington, thanks were voted to the pastor, to the choir for their choice music, and to the trustees of the church for the beautiful floral decorations.

The Courts at Hamilton.

About 350 members of the I. O. F., of Hamilton, attended divine service at the Central Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening, 22d June, in compliance with a proclamation issued by Dr. Oronhyatekha, Supreme Chief Ranger of the Order, directing that all Courts attend divine service and give thanks for the remarkable prosperity of the Order. Since last year $495,136 has been paid in beneficiaries to widows and orphans; the membership has increased from 13,415 to 19,898, and the surplus from $140,000 to over $198,000.

The following Courts attended church: Oronhyatekha, F. J. McMichael, C.R.; Hamilton, W. Pocock, C.R.; Amity, John Gardiner, C.R.; Orient, W. A. Kerr, C.R.; North Barton, J. Zimmerman, C.R. Wm. Griffith, S.V.C.R., was among those present. Rev. S. Lyle, B.A., preached from the text in Romans xii., 15: "Rejoice with them that do rejoice and weep with them that weep." The collection went to the Girl's Home.

Courts at Petrolia and District.

Last Sunday Court Petrolia, No. 42, Independent Order of Foresters, together with brethren from Courts Sarnia, Alvinston, Garnet, of Wyoming, Oil City, of Oil City, Success, of Oil Springs, Pyramid of Marthaville, and Court Huron, of Point Edward, assembled in the Court room at 2.30 p. m. and marched in procession (half a mile long) to Victoria Hall, where Rev. A. Beamer preached an eloquent and instructive sermon to a large congregation. Previous to the commencement of the service a proclamation from the Supreme Court, authorizing the Foresters of the Independent Order to attend divine service on the above mentioned date, was read by Provincial Deputy High Chief Ranger, Dr. J. Dunfield. The Hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and the Foresters, in their handsome regalia, made a fine appearance. The sermon was one of the finest ever listened to in this town; the singing by the choir was first-class, and the procession passed off without a hitch, being under the able management of Past Chief Ranger, Geo. Denham, who discharged his duty as Marshal in his usual efficient manner, with credit to himself and entire satisfaction to the brethren.—Exchange.

Courts at St. Thomas.

The Foresters of Court Maple, No. 155, and the Juvenile Court, Oak Leaf, St. Thomas, selected yesterday to attend public service, and invited Rev. Richard Whiting to preach their annual sermon. Notwithstanding that the morning was very unfavorable and that the rain poured down in torrents at the time for service, the members turned out in large numbers, and no less than forty Juvenile members and about 50 members of Court Maple were in the procession. Headed by their own fine band they marched from the Court room on the corner of Southwick and Talbot streets, to the First Methodist Church, where the sermon was preached. Court Maple was marshalled by Brothers P. R. Williams and Thomas Courtney, and the Juveniles by Brother Wm. Hayden. The Foresters occupied the centre pews of the church, which was well attended, notwithstanding the unsettled state of the elements. Rev. Mr. Whiting took for his text Galatians vi., 2: "Bear ye one another's burdens," and delivered an able discourse, pointing out the duties and responsibilities which rested upon them as members of the benevolent Order. He reviewed the work accomplished by such organizations, and pointed out the great field open to them for further efforts in the future. His address was well received by the members and all present.

From the statistics of the Order he read the following facts: In a year their membership had increased from 14,000 to 20,000, and their surplus from $140,000 to $200,000. Besides their expenses, money had been received to meet current expenses and pay a large sum to widows and orphans, and sick claims, as well as some insurances. The law of Christ was the law of (1) human hearts, though warped into selfishness, the true instinct was that of sympathy and tenderness; (2) of nature. Scientists at one time thought the law of the universe was "adaptation to surroundings;" then found another principle in "the survival of the fittest;" but now were coming up to Christ's law, in fixing the principle of nature to be mutual dependence, interaction, and helpfulness. He eloquently described some of men's burdens, such as toil for bread, poverty, sickness, anxiety, bereavement, and man's greatest burden that of sin. These burdens must be met and sustained in the places where God had placed us. Men existed as individuals, and so everyone had manfully to carry his own burden: as families, and father and mother and children must be helpful to each other; as business men and their help and love may be manifested; as nations, and God blesses the nation which opens its heart and bounty to another nation in times of famine and distress. Specially we can fulfil Christ's law, by (1) kindness, showing our appreciation of others; (2) by benefit and benevolence. This seems to be the niche in God's field of labor that Foresters and kindred societies fill, but the greatest burden, sin, can only be lifted by omnipotence, and our place in this work is to take the sin-burdened ones by the hand and lovingly lead them to Christ. The sermon ended with a telling peroration in which Christ, the great burden-bearer, was depicted as the one who should finally lift away every sorrow and usher in the day of joy.—Exchange.

Obituary.

"There shall be no night there"—
"God shall wipe away all tears."

Believing heaven is the real home, that what is called death is but the beginning of a life, the brightness and fullness of which no language describes; having the certitude that parent will again meet child, husband wife, friends be re-united never to part, we feel the earthly loss but cannot repine when a dear one is taken hence, his or her translation binding by another of the many golden links of love the finite with the infinite.

The messenger came suddenly and in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye the genial, lovable, friend and brother, Thomas Webster, was absent from the body and, we believe, present with the Lord.

But a few short hours had elapsed since we spoke face to face, grasped each other's hand in affectionate farewell. Little did the writer think it was the last good-bye on earth, and that then a close, intimate friendship of seventeen years was ended for time, to be resumed, we trust, where there are no more partings.

Brother Webster's life was peculiarly blameless. Generous to a fault self was forgotten in benefiting others. Truly, humbly and reverently, he imitated the Master by going about doing good. Unostentatious in all his actions, no one can tell the blessing he was to others, but it was ever patent his great desire was to relieve distress, raise up the fallen, and many, very many, were by his efforts reclaimed from lives of misery to be useful and honored members of society.

Whilst identified with our beloved Order and holding commissions therein, marks of esteem and respect entertained for him by the Supreme Chief Ranger and High Chief Ranger of Ontario; holding high rank as a trusted initiate of the Orange Order, his great life work was accomplished in the Sons of Temperance, which organization he joined as a cadet. Subsequently, on entering the Subordinate Division, he gradually rose until reaching the Grand Division where, eventually, he was elected to the important position of Grand Scribe, an office he worthily occupied for fourteen years. Shortly after withdrawing from this, the highest honor in the gift of the Grand Division was conferred upon him, and as Grand Worthy Patriarch he was the recognized head of the Order in this Province for three years. He had retired therefrom only a few months previous to his death, and no organization has ever lost a more faithful adherent to its principles, nor one who will be more universally regretted within its borders.

In the church to which he belonged Brother Webster was looked up to and respected. From earliest years he had taken much interest in Sunday school work, and in him the Baptist denomination have sustained a great loss.

Born in Kingston, Ont., on the 27th July, 1837, he died on the 20th July, 1890, whilst quietly conversing with his brother, at the residence of the latter in Montreal, within a few days of attaining 53 years of age, respected and beloved by all who knew him. Verily the good man ceaseth from his labors and his works follow him.

Ottawa, August, 1890.

Foresters Attention.

The Supreme Chief Ranger will be absent from his office attending the meetings of the High Courts of Ontario, Michigan and Quebec, until about the 24th inst. Correspondents will therefore understand the cause of delay in answering letters addressed to him. In this connection all the officers who have correspondence with Subordinate Courts, including Brother Atwell Fleming, Business Manager of THE FORESTER, complain very much of the neglect in giving proper addresses. It is urgently desired that all brethren having occasion to write to the Supreme Chief Ranger or to any other officer of the Supreme or High Court will give in each letter or postal card the name, number and location of their Subordinate Courts.

Juvenile Foresters.

COURT OAK LEAF, I. O. F.

Last night Brother Jas. Crawford, of London, assisted by Brothers C. Basket, F. Rawlinson, J. Baskett, J. Quaid and other members of the Independent Order of Foresters, instituted a fine court of Juvenile Foresters with 41 Charter members and installed the officers. The election of officers was conducted by the Juvenile members themselves and resulted as follows: Worthy Commander, Fred. Dunn; Worthy Vice Commander, E. McDonald; Past Commander, Wm. Popham; Chaplain, Arthur Gray; R. S., Jas. O. Cruse; F. S., G. Clark; Treasurer, A. R. Williams; S. Con., B. Hayden; J. Con. A. G. Brebner; S. Guard, H. Tummons; J. Guard, Thomas Considine.

The following honorary members were ap pointed committee of management : Brothers B. Baskett, (superintendent), F. Rawlinson, A. McAlpine, W. Hayden, J. Quaid. The officers and committee continue in office until the end of December. The instituting officer in his remarks stated that the Court is a credit to the city of St. Thomas. The Court was given the suggestive name of "Oak Leaf," and truly these young Foresters are leaves of the mighty oak that is growing up in this country, extending its roots and spreading its branches in all directions and is destined to give shelter and protection to many thousands of the human family.

What It Meant.

It was only a scrap of paper, but the perusal of the words upon it brought light into the darkness and hope to the breasts of those who were watching at the bedside of a man who lay unconscious, slowly passing away from the earth. This paper meant the difference between poverty and competence, between a life of comparative ease and a long, bitter struggle against adverse circumstances. The man of whom we write had been in the prime of life, robust and healthy, but while driving he was thrown from his carriage, and falling upon his head received such injuries that he was carried in a dying state to the home he had left a short time previously. He was a kind and indulgent parent, he spent his money freely, keeping right up to his income, and was a popular man among his neighbors. It was a bitter blow to the family to see the father of the household thus stricken down. In looking through papers found in his pockets a receipt for the last premium on an insurance policy for $10,000 was found, and as he had never said anything about carrying the policy, the joy of the wife and children on the discovery can be imagined. How much it meant to them! If he lived he could easily pay debts incurred in furnishing the best medical advice, and if he died there was money enough coming to pay these charges and still make provision for the future. That scrap of paper was a silent witness to the love of the husband and father for his family, and showed how he had paid a generous heed to the moral demands upon him to provide for the future welfare of his dependents.—Spectator.

"To have what we want is riches, but to be able to do without is power."—George MacDonald.

The Time to Make a Speech,

BUT BROTHER GEO. H. SAXTON, HIGH JOURNAL SECRETARY OF MICHIGAN, WAS UNABLE TO EXPRESS HIMSELF.

Past Worthy Master Geo. H. Saxton, of Lansing Lodge, A. F. and A. M., was the most thoroughly surprised man in Michigan last evening. When Mr. Saxton retired at the first of January, after having zealously served the lodge for five consecutive years as its worthy master, his fellow members decided that the least they could do to attest their appreciation of his faithful services was to present him with a handsome souvenir badge. This was at once ordered from a Detroit firm, but the La Grippe epidemic delayed its completion from week to week, and the memento did not arrive until yesterday.

However, last evening was an excellent night for the presentation, as a number of prominent Grand Lodge masons from other cities attended the meeting of Lansing Lodge, and this added zest to the little surprise party. Just before the adjournment hour Geo. Hasty began a whimsical address, and suddenly giving point to it by a few well-chosen words abruptly pinned the sparkling gold and gem-set badge upon the breast of the bewildered Mr. Saxton. The recipient struggled to his feet somehow, and attempted to voice his thanks.

"You know I never made a speech in my life," he said reproachfully. "To-night is the time when I should make it, and I would if I could, but, boys, I can't," and the past worthy master dropped helplessly into his chair again, but his suffused eyes expressed the emotion which he was unable to round up into language somehow just at that moment.

The emblem is a magnificent affair. A bar bears the name "G. H. Saxton," and suspended by gold ropes from this is another bar, bearing the words, "Lansing, No. 33." From the upper bar hang the emblems of the worthy master and from the lower hangs pendant a circle engraved with masonic devices and with the altar and bible at its top. A handsome stone sparkles in the Masonic eye engraved below the altar and within the circle hangs the square and compass with the figures "1885-1889." On the reverse side of the circle is the inscription: "Presented to Geo. H. Saxton by Lansing Lodge, 33, A. F. and A. M., Jan. 6, 1890." The whole affair is of solid gold.—Exchange.

FRED. H. RICHARDSON.

On motion the aforesaid report was taken up seriatim, and after a full discussion of each Article and Section thereof, upon further motion the report of the Committee was unanimously adopted as read.

The Committee on State of the Order made their report as follows :

To the High Court of New York :

BRETHREN,—As this is the first annual session of your body, and as the High Court was organized only last February, at which time but eleven courts existed within our jurisdiction, we would quite naturally presume that very little could have been accomplished in the past and yet notwithstanding the brevity of our existence, we can review our work with pride and look forward to the future with a well grounded hope. The first Court organized in New York was Court Richmond, Mariner's Harbor, Staten Island, and it was instituted by Dr. Oronhyatekha, the present Supreme Chief Ranger, in 1884. Little or no effort was made to extend the Order in this State until May, 1888, when Court Flower City, of Rochester, was instituted by Dr. Kennedy, of London: Canada. In the meantime the Order was having a steady, healthy growth among our Canadian neighbors, with whom the Independent Order of Foresters originated. It soon became evident that the Order was wisely framed and was meeting a long felt want. It is not only a fraternal organization, with very beautiful moral lessons and an impressive ritual, but it is an Order which carries the principle of mutual help into all the relations of life, follows and protects the Forester in his old age in a most substantial manner, and when he is gone the mantle of its protecting love falls upon those nearest and dearest to the brother. The organization was thoroughly sound in principle, in practice it was proving itself grandly useful, and its machinery and methods of business challenge the admiration of the man of sense and forethought. While not an insurance organization, it puts life insurance upon a scientific and Christian basis, and it is destined in this direction alone to work a great revolution and be the means of saving millions to the people. It takes the English and American life tables, establishes reasonable rates of insurance, exacts the most rigid medical examination and then extends its noble work beyond the grave itself to the widows and orphans of the deceased. Men saw that it was not a mere assessment association, like so many that have arisen and fallen in a day, but that it was the very embodiment of sound business principles and the most noble benevolence. So soon, therefore, as a little attention could be given to the work in New York, the Order grew at a most encouraging rate, and now we have a membership of nearly one thousand. The following Courts have already been established:

Court Clayton, No. 171, of Clayton; Niagara, 227, Buffalo; Richmond, 234, Mariner's Harbor; Flower City, 336, Rochester; Marble City, 343, Gouverneur; Genesee, 387, Rochester; Monroe, 391, Rochester; Buffalo, 459, Buffalo; Watertown, 465, Watertown; Sackets, 468, Sacket's Harbor; Cape Vincent, 480, Cape Vincent; Dexter, 490, Dexter; Lyme, 498, Three Mile Bay; Americus, 499, Rochester; Theresa, 501, Theresa; Philadelphia, 502, Philadelphia; Ogdensburg, 512, Ogdensburg; Fonda, 513, Rochester; Rochester, 519, Rochester; Olean, 520, Olean; Morristown, 542, Morristown; Hammond, 545, Hammond; Oswego, 549, Oswego; Thousand Isles, 550, Alexandria Bay; Iron City, 557, Fort Leyden; Brownville, 561, Brownville; Brockport, 569, Brockport; Independence, 570, Rochester; Antwerp, 573, Antwerp; Albion, 595, Albion; Batavia, 599, Batavia. Total, 30 Courts.

Surely, we may say that this is an excellent record, when we remember that nearly all of these Courts have been organized within a few months, and the good already accomplished is very great.

Looking over the Order at large, our eyes behold a spectacle inspiring to all our hearts. We see over 600 Courts, with 20,459 members (June 1st) and a Reserve Fund of $204,814.86, July 1st, which has been increased since by between $2,000 and $3,000. Nearly half a million dollars in benefits have been paid by the Order since its institution.

When we shall close this, our first annual session, we believe we shall be in a position to prosecute the work with due earnestness and wisdom. Up to the present time we have been obliged to rely largely upon the Supreme Court to do the missionary work in our State, and it was fortunate for us that we had in the chair of the Supreme Chief Ranger, a gentleman whose interests in and sympathies with our American people were of the most kindly character. A graduate of Oxford University, England, a graduate of one of the best English schools of medicine and surgery, and a gentleman known in many countries and many languages, through his personal worth and benevolent feelings, he has brought to the discharge of his duties rare executive abilities and untiring zeal. So that to day we find the Order as firmly rooted in Canadian and American soil as the oaks and the pines that are native to our lands. To Dr.

Oronhyatekha, our Supreme Chief Ranger, we owe a debt of gratitude we can never pay, but thousands of widows and orphans will yet bless his name and God himself will give a crown of many jewels.

While we shall no doubt continue to enjoy the co-operation of our Supreme Chief, if we by our acts, legislation and official personnels, show ourselves worthy of it, we must depend somewhat upon ourselves, and every Forester in New York should make himself a missionary for the purpose of making known the blessings of the Order, and bringing worthy men within the circle of its moral influence and protecting care.

While it is always true in new work and with new workers that there are many difficulties to be overcome, and many occasions arise when there is imperative need of charity, patience and brotherly love, it may be said that we are in a good working condition. Within our High Court jurisdiction a good feeling prevails, order and earnestness are manifest, and we believe we are at the dawn of a happy and prosperous day. Surely our principles are sublime, being nothing less than the teachings of the wisest philosophers and the out-breathings of the Infinite Spirit. Our methods and machinery are quite as perfect as anything human can be. And now, dear brethren, it is God himself who in the love of our hearts calls us to take our noble institution and go forth into the world to bless mankind and ourselves.

But while we would congratulate you upon the state of the Order, and would with you join in thanksgiving to God for His guiding influence, we must not forget our responsibilities and dangers. The Order will be what we ourselves make it, and however good its principles, and however Christian in aim and spirit the world will judge Forestry by Foresters. While we should set up no standard impossible of attainment, and while we should not encourage among ourselves or others any spirit of phariseism, we should, nevertheless, seek good material with which to build up the Order, and we should insist that every member should seek to become what our principles demand. Let us go from this High Court with a resolve that we will do all we can to increase the interest of Subordinate Courts, and extend the influence of the benign principles of our Order. We certainly believe we have the best fraternal organization of its kind in the world, and we trust that when we shall assemble next year we shall find we have a hundred courts and a membership more than doubled. Thus shall we carry blessings to thousands, and make our Order an instrument of good in the hands of the Infinite Father of Souls.

HENRY C. MUNSON.
 GEO. F. FRANK.
 ALPHONSO J. GROF.
 GEO. SCOBELL.

On motion the report of the Committee was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

On motion the High Court took a recess until two o'clock p.m.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

The High Court resumed its session at 2.30 o'clock p. m., Hon Judge Stern, High Chief Ranger, presiding.

On motion the High Standing Committee was authorized and directed to procure one hundred copies of the Watertown Daily Times for distribution among the members of the High Court, as it contained the general proceedings of the High Court at this its first annual session.

The Committee on Credentials report the name of Wm. S. Comstock as delegate from Court Dexter, No. 440, and on motion the report was duly accepted.

The High Counselor was delegated by the High Chief Ranger to confer the High Court Degree upon the following :

John L. Schuyler, Court Lyme, No. 498.
 Walter O. Hewett, " " " "
 Frank E. Hewett, " " " "
 Wm. T. Comstock, Court Dexter, No. 490.
 H. D. Ford, Court Philadelphia, No. 502.
 T. J. Howland, " " " "
 O. E. Tallman, " " " "

The Finance Committee reported as follows :

To the High Chief Ranger, Officers and Members, High Court State of New York :

BRETHREN,—We have examined such accounts as have been presented and found them correct.

Owing to the fact that we have no precedent to direct us, we can make no accurate estimate of probable expense for the ensuing year. There will be the expense of the High Standing Committee, necessitated by virtue of their office ; incidental expenses, such as printing, postage, hiring hall, &c.

Our By-Laws provide a per capita tax of fifty cents per member for the year. This gives us practically now in our treasury about $200, deducting expenses of present session, leaves about $100.

The amount of the per capita tax will depend upon the number of new members enrolled during the year.

On a basis of fifty per cent increase, the amount would be about $600. We look for even more, and would estimate that this sum, with the profits from sale of supplies, will be sufficient for the year,

FRED. H. RICHARDSON.
 HENRY B. COOKE.
 A. A. HILDREDTH.
 C. W. LEE.
 A. E. KOERNER.

On motion the report was adopted.

On motion the High Standing Committee was empowered to contract with the publishers of THE FORESTER for publication of the names and P. O. address of the officers of the High Court and all Court Deputies in the State of New York, for the term of one year, at a price not to exceed $25 for such period.

The following brethren received the High Court Degree.

D. J. Winsfield, Court Cape Vincent, No. 480.

Fred. A. Johnson, Court Cape Vincent, No. 480.

Abram Fralick, Court Brownville, No. 561.

Charles P. Clark, Court Brownville No. 561.

W. J. I. [unclear], Court Lyme, No. 498.

The High Court then proceeded to the election of officers, Supreme Chief Ranger Dr. Oronhyatekha presiding.

The following were appointed tellers :

Brothers J. A. McGillivray, Supreme Secretary ; J. S. R. McCann, Court Frontenac, and J. W. Empey, Court Watertown.

Nominations were made for each elective office and the following members of the High Standing Committee were all elected by acclamation.

"Remember this: that as you live your life each day with an uplifted purpose and unselfish desire, each and every event will bear for you a deep significance—a hidden meaning—and as you learn their import, so do you fit yourself for higher work."

"If we work upon marble, it will perish: but if we work upon immortal minds, if we imbue them with principles, with the fear of God, and love of our fellowmen,—we engrave on these tablets something which will brighten for all eternity."—Daniel Webster.

A Fact

WORTH knowing is that blood diseases which all other remedies fail to cure, yield to Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Fresh confirmation of this statement comes to hand daily. Even such deep-seated and stubborn complaints as Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, and the like, are thoroughly eradicated by the use of this wonderful alternative.

Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th street, New York, certifies:—

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months. I am pleased to say that it effected a complete cure, and that I have since had no return of the disease."

Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H., writes: "One year ago I was taken ill with rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."

"I have taken a great deal of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I felt its beneficial effects before I had quite finished one bottle, and I can freely testify that it is the best blood-medicine I know of."—L. W. Ward, Sr., Woodland, Texas.
