C.P.R. DECLARES THAT THE STRIKE IS ENDED Sufficient Men Engaged to Fill Strikers' Places Those Out of Work in Montreal Booming Restless—Explanations Offered of Yesterday's Trouble.

MONTREAL, Aug. 25.—There was a serious clash yesterday between the strikers and the strikebreakers. The latter were on a seven coach special train going from the shops to their homes when the strikers to the number of two hundred stoned the train. It was at the corner of Frontenac street that the train slowed up to let off two or three men who lived near there. As they appeared on the platform, they received a volley of stone and two of them went down and did not move again. They were carried to the grocery store at the corner and a doctor summoned. They were painfully cut but there was no serious injury and they are at work this morning. The chief damage was done to the cars, for the Police Captain Bellefleur was on the train but made no arrests and there were no other police at the time. Today again there were a large number of applications for positions including a dozen strikers who were taken on. The men are beginning to get restive in the face of the steady filling of their places and are demanding that the strike committee do something. There is, however, no move on either side towards a settlement as both say that to move first means a back-down. C. P. R. say that the strike is over as far as it is concerned. That the strikers are becoming dissatisfied was shown yesterday when several of the pickets refused to go on duty. The committee docked them and they did not wait any more carpenters. The strike committee today issued a statement that the attack on the strikebreakers last night was not made by them but that a strikebreaker shook a stick from the train and tried to hit one of their men, who hit back. Then a lot of looters who were near, but were not strikers, took a hand in the fight. The police announce that the names of a number who threw stones are known, and that there will be a couple of dozen arrests today.

THREATEN TROUBLE FOR EMPLOYERS OF BLACK LABOR SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 25.—Employers of negro labor in Springfield are being threatened by a flood of anonymous letters, which has been growing in volume daily since the race riots. For the first few days it was thought the letters were the work of boys or irresponsible individuals, but yesterday the condition of affairs was found to justify an investigation by Governor Densen. A delegation of negroes visited the governor and promised to co-operate with the law abiding whites in investigating the letters. The seventh regiment will leave for Chicago tomorrow if present conditions continue.

NEW YORK'S LEGLESS NEWSBOY A SUICIDE NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Clifford Savage, the legless newsboy of Brown street, who was killed by a horse among his newsboys at the "Flying Dutchman," committed suicide here today by inhaling illuminating gas in his home on the east side. His wife found him dead. Savage sold newspapers from a go cart, which was propelled by a pair of trained dogs.

THE TENNIS CHAMPS. NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 5.—Four of the leading tennis players of the country were drawn for the semi-finals in the all-comers tournament for the National Championship at the Casino today and the best sport of the year was sufficient to attract an unusually large crowd. The two semi-final matches had paired. B. Alexander, of New York, against W. J. Cholier, of Philadelphia, and Nathaniel Emerson, of Chicago, and Beals C. Wright, of Boston.

UGHT TO BE UNKNOWN. (Woodstock Sentinel Review). Through the medium of the fall falls the battle against tuberculosis is to be carried on education by means of recreation and in a manner which strips the work of all ideas of earning in the narrow sense is always the most effective. May all success attend the scheme. In this country tuberculosis ought to be unknown. The weather was ideal. Mr. Keith, in his speech of acceptance, "The people rule." He deprecated what he claimed is excessive power in the hands of the speaker of the house of representatives and denied that the people have ruled, because, he said, their will had not been given effect.

DR. JACOB GOULD SCHURMAN TALKS TO THE STAR ON UNITED STATES POLITICS Tatt's Election Conceded, But the Campaign is the Quietest on Record --- How Roosevelt's Activity Has Raised the National Standard of Morality --- The Influence of Politics on Labor.

Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell University, was in the city for a few hours yesterday, returning to Ithaca, N. Y., after a brief visit to his former home in P. E. Island. Dr. Schurman is not the style of man who favors newspaper interviews, and preferred not making any statement, yet in the course of conversation he briefly expressed his ideas on various subjects of interest. Dr. Schurman keeps in touch with the political situation not in the United States alone, but in other countries as well, and is always seeking knowledge of men and things. Today again there were a large number of applications for positions including a dozen strikers who were taken on. The men are beginning to get restive in the face of the steady filling of their places and are demanding that the strike committee do something. There is, however, no move on either side towards a settlement as both say that to move first means a back-down. C. P. R. say that the strike is over as far as it is concerned. That the strikers are becoming dissatisfied was shown yesterday when several of the pickets refused to go on duty. The committee docked them and they did not wait any more carpenters. The strike committee today issued a statement that the attack on the strikebreakers last night was not made by them but that a strikebreaker shook a stick from the train and tried to hit one of their men, who hit back. Then a lot of looters who were near, but were not strikers, took a hand in the fight. WOLFVILLE WILL ESTABLISH FULL THEOLOGICAL COURSE Report Adopted This Morning Will Lead to Establishment of a Course Qualifying Students for Degree of B Th—Field Secretary for University—Report of Historical Committee Turned Down

Another important session of the Maritime Convivial was held in Georgetown this morning. The leading feature of the morning was the adoption of a report which will lead to the establishment of a full theological course at Wolfville leading to the degree of Bachelor of Theology. The report of the historical society which was presented was only partially adopted, the convention refusing to receive in complaint that several sections were not ending in their records and that no receipted receipts were provided for the archives and the recommendation that this should be done.

LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT. The report of the Laymen's Missionary Committee was submitted by T. S. Simms. They recommended that the existing committee act as the convention committee with power to add to their number and to arrange such plans as may be necessary to carry into effect the movement throughout the convention field. The committee recommended the appointment of a central executive in St. John; that in the enlargement of the committee, representative business men be selected; that a stenographer be employed to attend to the correspondence; that steps be taken to organize first in the larger centres and subsequently in every church; that a standard of giving $4.00 per annum per member be kept before the church; that a small committee be appointed in each church to assist the work. The report concluded with urging the men to push the movement in every locality.

THE HAGUE, Aug. 5.—The Netherlands Govt. today received an unofficial copy of the second note sent to it by Jose de Jesus Paul, the Foreign Minister of Venezuela in connection with the difficulty which has arisen in the West Indies between the two states. The original document has not yet come to hand. The cabinet met this morning and considered the note at length. The general tenor of the note does not give the Netherlands Government much encouragement to persevere in its attempts to reach a peaceful settlement with Venezuela.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE IN SESSION Annual Gathering Commenced Business This Afternoon Reports From Officers Show Condition of Order to be Very Satisfactory.

The forty-first annual gathering of the Grand Lodge of Free Masons, of New Brunswick, met this afternoon, at 2:30 in the Masonic Hall, with Grand Master J. D. Chipman in the chair. The reports of the Grand Master, the Grand Secretary, the Grand Treasurer and the Board of General Purposes were received and referred to the proper committees. As far as is known there is no important business to come before the meeting. The election of officers will take place this evening. The following is a summary of some of the reports presented:

GRAND MASTER. Col. J. D. Chipman in his address expressed deep gratitude for the exercises and blessings of the past twelve months and extended a cordial welcome to those present. He reported that peace and harmony reigned in the Order and that increased prosperity and interest have been noticeable. He submitted the names of the brethren who have died during the past year, who are: John McKenna, Woodstock, 8 Oct. 1907; William Dickson, Foster, St. John, Nov. 28, 1907; Charles E. Jones, Keswick, York Co., 28 Nov., 1907; John D. Short, St. John, 24 Dec., 1907; Arthur I. Trueman, St. John; Fred W. Thomson, St. John, 3 April, 1908; Dr. J. H. Seammell, St. John; Geo. M. Jarvis, Moncton, 3 June, 1908. The Grand Master paid an special tribute to the last Past Grand Master, A. I. Trueman. Referring to his visitations Mr. Chipman said that he had visited thirteen lodges and opened a new lodge at Eglarville. The Grand Master warned the members of the existence of clandestine lodges in Boston and urged care in admitting visitors. He recommended that the Grand Master be authorized to provide instruction to private lodges.

GRAND TREASURER'S REPORT. The report of the grand treasurer, Mr. Fred J. G. Knowlton, showed the following benevolent fund account:

GRAND TREASURER'S REPORT. Received. To balance ... $ 88.07 Grand Lodge grant ... 1,000.00 Interest and cash ... 235.25 $1,323.32

PAID OUT. For St. Railway bond ... $1,000.00 By balance Aug. 10 ... 548.31 $1,548.31

BOARD OF GENERAL PURPOSES. The report of this board states that during the year 500 certificates were printed, also 500 copies of the funeral service. Membership rolls of subordinate lodges will be printed hereafter in annual reports. A $1,000 bond of the Street Railway Company maturing in 1928, and bearing five per cent, was purchased. The board advises that $1,500 be transferred from general (Continued on Page Six)

THREE FARMERS WERE MURDERED YESTERDAY Man Fell in Love With His Father's Young Wife and Made Her a Widow—School Teacher Killed by Whipping Lad.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 25.—A farmer named Turner, residing about ten miles from this city, was shot and killed at a late hour last night by his son. Bad blood has existed for some time between them, because the younger Turner was in love with his stepmother, a young girl whom his father had married a short time ago. Young Turner was arrested and lodged in jail in this city. HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Aug. 25.—Harvey Fisher, a prominent farmer of Lincoln Township, was cut and fatally wounded yesterday at the Dewey Schoolhouse in that township, by Gerfield Lewis, a school teacher, who is alleged to have published the boy for a misdeed, and who was said to have quarreled with the boy's father when the latter went to the school to investigate the matter. The weapon used was an ordinary pocket knife. Officers from the city was despatched to the scene to arrest Lewis. PATERVILLE, Ark., Aug. 25.—Lewis Luttrell, a farmer was shot and killed at Savoy, yesterday, by a tenant and immediately after the killing the tenant was cut and probably fatally wounded by the son of Luttrell. The tenant and elder Luttrell, it is stated, quarreled over rent.

ALL SYDNEY DRUG STORES WERE CLOSED ON SUNDAY Load's Day Alliance Was Too Busy to Sult the People—Help for Famine Sufferers

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 25.—Dr. A. S. Kendall, M. P., has issued a writ against the Sydney Post for libel, claiming $25,000 damages. The action arose out of the publication of some correspondence charging Dr. Kendall with accepting a "compensation" for assisting in the miners' election in 1904. The Post will defend the action. As a result of the action of the Lord's Day Alliance the drug stores of the city were closed all day Sunday. This caused great inconvenience to all those who needed drugs, particularly physicians, who at a largely attended meeting last night, protested strongly against the action of the druggists in closing their stores on Sunday. There will be a joint meeting of physicians and druggists this evening and the matter will no doubt be satisfactorily adjusted.

CONFESSED TO BRUTAL MURDER OF OLD MAN Killed Him With an Axe Because His Victim's Groaning Disturbed Him During the Night.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Frank Bryant, 23 years old, was arrested in Chicago yesterday and confessed he murdered Thomas Brady, an aged clerk, Sunday night in Springfield, Ill. Bryant and Brady slept in the store of George L. Forsyth. Bryant said he drank a pint of whiskey after he went to bed and as a result could not go to sleep. After tossing for hours Bryant went into Brady's room, he says, and heard the old man groaning and moaning. "I was not feeling good," said Bryant last night, "and told him to shut up. He muttered something and kept on groaning. Then I grabbed an axe lying on the floor and hit him on the head."

LITTLE HOPE OF PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT WITH CASTRO

THE HAGUE, Aug. 5.—The Netherlands Govt. today received an unofficial copy of the second note sent to it by Jose de Jesus Paul, the Foreign Minister of Venezuela in connection with the difficulty which has arisen in the West Indies between the two states. The original document has not yet come to hand. The cabinet met this morning and considered the note at length. The general tenor of the note does not give the Netherlands Government much encouragement to persevere in its attempts to reach a peaceful settlement with Venezuela.

WAVE THE BEEF OF THE BALKANS

While some daughters of American millionaires vie with each other in trying to secure prestige abroad by marrying fortunes for titles, it may fall to the lot of an obscure actress to be the first American to mount the steps of a throne.

In other words, if Prince Lazar Lazarevitch, claimant to the Serbian crown, now worn by King Peter, succeeds in his aim of uniting the Balkan States under one head, his wife formerly Miss Eleanor Calhoun, of Montreal, will have the satisfaction of calling herself Queen.

HIS DARING AMBITION.

Thus Chance turns its wheel; and if in its eccentric revolutions the present Princess Lazarevitch is carried to an eminence that will make her an object of envy to many of her countrywomen, her good fortune will doubtless go far to compensate her for a disappointed career as an actress.

Eleanor Calhoun is a name now almost erased from the annals of theatrical life. She has represented one of the many instances of light hearted women who have taken a high place through her historic genius, only to fall into the meshes of a cruel fate.

It was something more than a decade ago that Miss Calhoun, then in her prime, left America with the determination to make her way on the French stage. The ambition was in itself as unusual as it was daring. She possessed only the ordinary linguistic equipment that an American boarding school offers to its graduates. By dint of application mastered the difficulties of French pronunciation, and appeared—where few of her countrywomen had before or have since—behind the footlights of one of the leading theatres of Paris, in a great role.

QUENCHED BY POLLY.

Fortune seems to wear a special smile for Eleanor Calhoun. Success of a high order was in her young hands. Her first success was a triumph. She had her choice of several flattering engagements. Why then has she not become a star? The answer contains a striking lesson of talent quenched by the whims of fate.

Eleanor Calhoun has a rare art—since then the actress's life has been a futile effort to recapture the past. Such is the story of the brilliant young woman, one day a star of the Paris footlights, who now, in the Parisian absence has returned to America to confer with Secretary of State, Root on the subject of the Servia over which she hopes one day to reign as the spouse of King Lazar Lazarevitch.

FROM AN OLD FAMILY.

Eleanor Calhoun was born in 1885 in Canada, at a family which claims the distinction of relationship with the Calhouns, one of the proudest names in America. Her father, a man of early youth to become an actress, she was fortunate in attracting the attention of a wealthy widow of a millionaire, who not only undertook the expense of her education, but backed her in the most reserved and difficult of all classic French drama.

STAGE OF REAL LIFE.

With this last triumph Miss Calhoun's stage successes came to a sudden end. Intoxicated with her success, she made the mistake of breaking her engagement with her manager, who she should never again have the opportunity of appearing as a first class theatre, either in England or in America. Miss Calhoun was confronted by a boycott against which neither genius or influence availed. And thereafter the name of Calhoun ceased to figure on playbills. Her meteoric career as a momentary flash across the heavens of theatrical promise—died out in the darkness of failure. Eleanor Calhoun has become a memory—a light of genius that has faded.

INTREPID YOUNG WOMAN.

But alas for Cupid's plots and plans! The young man's mother, already suspecting the cause of her son's departure from America, fled to the Atlantic, with the result that the enamored heir to millions returned in his native land, and still unswayed.

This dash of her matrimonial hopes which involved the loss of her financial backing, did not affect the spirit or ambition of the intrepid young woman. Her star, though momentarily dimmed, was still on the rise.

Obtaining a theatrical engagement in London, she drew the attention of the critics to her remarkable rendering of Hester Prynne in a stage version of Hawthorne's "Scarlet Letter." This led to an introduction to a well-known English baronet, whose interest in the fair aspirant's art career, led him on her declaration that she had reached her true vocation, to provide her with ten thousand dollars to enable her to continue her studies in Paris.

JEALOUS NOBLE'S CRUEL REVENGE

Imprisons His Beautiful Wife in a Garret.

—Rescued at Point of Death.

The Lisbon newspapers are full of a sensational scandal which has just been exposed. Two or three years ago a noted society beauty, daughter of a rich banker, married Count Marghio, who belongs to the oldest nobility of Portugal, and held the post of Lord-in-waiting to King Manuel.

For almost two years she lived happily together, but last September the countess and her child, aged 5 months, suddenly disappeared and nothing was seen or heard of them. When questioned the count always returned an evasive answer.

Eventually so many rumors got about that the police took the matter in hand. It was impossible that the world's supply of stuff that goes under the cork is also disappearing at the rate usual in campaign years.

ALSO DISAPPEARING.

Hicks—So Mr. G. boy is going to spend of tonight at Old Orchard while his wife is in the mountains?

Wicks—Yes; what of it?

Hicks—Oh, nothing—only she ought to tie a string around his finger to remind him that he is married—Somerset Journal.

POLITICS IN P. E. ISLAND.

In Prince Edward Island there has been during the past month or two a brief resumption of activity in political circles. The situation is more than usually interesting, inasmuch as a federal contest is anticipated in the near future, the provincial (general) elections must take place before the end of the present year, and the contest which comes first will undoubtedly have a marked effect on the later one. Another condition which adds to the uncertainty is that while the chief campaign cry of the Conservative party is that it is time for a change, this phrase seems to be more of a stereotyped remark than an expression of an actual feeling.

The last general elections took place on December 12th, 1904. Because of a tie vote and the unseating of a member-elect, two by-elections became necessary, and when these, necessitated as a result of the general contest, were held, they resulted in a Liberal majority of twenty-two and the Conservative party eight of the thirty seats. Since the 1904 contest there has been only one by-election inclusive of the two previously mentioned. Hon. George Simpson, Liberal member for the first district of Queens County died, and this seat was captured by Mr. Murdoch Kennedy, a Conservative. This has been the only change since the general election, and while members of the Conservative opposition are inclined to regard Mr. Kennedy's success as a good omen, its effect is lost by the recollection that after redeeming two constituencies in the previous period of four years, the Conservatives were in a worse position after the 1904 struggle than before it. At the present time the standing in the legislature is eighteen to nine. Three vacancies exist in the Liberal ranks, caused by the deaths of Premier Peters, and the speaker, Dr. Douglas, and the retirement of Mr. George Godkin, who was appointed to the position of collector of customs at Summerside.

The government has not yet come to any decision as to the election. The present legislature expires by lapse of time in December of this year, and thus the contest cannot be far off. Already practically all the candidates are in the field, only three or four remaining to be selected, and as a rule are, irrespective of party, men qualified to represent their fellow-citizens with a fitting appreciation of the responsibility of their position. But he is a new man and has had no opportunity to display to the people his ability as a leader. In suggesting him as premier, the electors will necessarily have to be guided by his record only as a member of the legislature, a record which is in every way creditable.

Mr. John A. Matheson has for a considerable time been the recognized leader of the opposition for some years. He has many of the qualities of a leader, and is known for his determined method of attack and persistence in following up his campaign. He is a hard biter, but unfortunately for him there have been few and very unimportant weaknesses in the administration of which he could take advantage. Premier Hassard is absolutely confident as to the result of the coming contest, and believes the government will be returned to power not only with its present numerical strength, but with a gain of one seat in Queens County, and two or three in Kings, which latter is the Conservative stronghold. And here reference might be made to the paradoxical situation in Kings County, which returns seven Conservatives out of ten members, to the provincial house, and is at the same time the only constituency sending a Liberal to Ottawa. The premier does not believe the federal contest will have any effect on the provincial election, if the dates are reversed, will the provincial result affect the federal campaign. Mr. Matheson, on the other hand, is of the opinion that should the federal election come first, and result in a Conservative success, the present opposition will come into power. He estimates that in this event the new legislature will contain twenty Conservatives and ten Liberals.

The present government has been in power for seventeen years. There are no charges against it other than the usual neglect of duty. The people appear to be quite satisfied with the administration of affairs and there is certainly no any outstanding grievance which could warrant the assumption that a change of government is desired. Yet the approach of the two contests, which must take place within a few weeks of each other, create an interesting situation.

RECOGNIZANCE.

I wonder if I knew in pre-existence This hillside road. That wanders on by many an old and ivied And mossed abode.

Though like to none my feet have ever traversed Though like to none My mind has ever pictured, with no strangeness It leads me on.

I reach its crofts, its orchards and its pastures That from it rise, Its sudden turns, its long and leafy vistas. With no surprise.

But with a sense as of familiar objects, There seems to be A greeting that is sweet with recognition From all I see.

I feel at home! the very lights and shadows That on me fall, The gentle airs that kiss my grateful forehead, seem blessed all.

I can but think that long before my spirit A body found, I tarried here, and here was of delight— By all around!

—Ralph H. Shaw, in Boston Transcript.

DEEDS, NOT LOOKS.

—That was Mr. Newcome who was sitting next to you on the hotel piazza, this evening. What did you think of him?

—Yes, but how did you know?

—I heard him remark several times that "handsome is as handsome does."

A HAPPY INTERVAL.

"He certainly has a good disposition. The last time I saw him he was looking for work, and he didn't seem the least bit unhappy."

"No, that's where he's happiest; because when he's looking for work he hasn't any to do."

THE TALKING DOG.

A ventriloquist and his dog arrived at a country hotel. The man had only a dime in his pocket but he sat down at the table and prepared to order a meal.

"What will you have?" asked the landlord. The ventriloquist saved his throat and turning to the dog he asked "What will you have?"

"I will take a ham sandwich," the dog seemed to answer. The hotelkeeper was breathless for a moment with astonishment.

"What did he say?" he asked. "Tell him again, Nero," responded the man.

"I said a ham sandwich," the dog seemed to reply. The landlord was so impressed by the talking of the dog that he offered $20 for it. The owner of the dog held out for $50, which the landlord paid.

As the ventriloquist was leaving the place the dog turned to him and said: "You've taught to sell me for $50! I will never speak another word." And he never did.

THE SORRY BOY.

Office Boy—"Please sir, a gentleman called when you was out."

Editor—"What did he want?"

Office Boy—"E said 'e had come to give you a good thrashing."

Editor—"Did he? What did you tell him?"

Office Boy—"I said I was sorry you wasn't in."

A SOLUTION.

The Connecticut man who, after tasting the dishes of his newly-engaged cook married her after twenty-four hours' acquaintance, may be said to have solved the servant problem.

CREW OF PICKED MEN.

Her crew are all picked men, principally Nova Scotians and Newfoundlanders, as able a lot of men as ever shipped in Halifax.

Everything in the schooner's equipment is of the best and she carries a motor boat, the first time that auxiliary power has been used on a seal-boat. A compact yet powerful engine has been fitted in one of the sealing boats and Capt. Balcolm expects to find this very handy.

There is practically no part of the world where there are known to be seals that Cap. Balcolm has not been in but this will be the first time he has been in the Indian Ocean. On the Pacific he has been hunting seals from the Behring Sea to the South Shetlands and in sealing circles his name is a household word.

NOVA SCOTIA SEALER ON 25,000 MILE TRIP

Schooner Agnes G. Donahoe Leaves on a Cruise Around the World—Goes to Indian Ocean First.

(Halifax Echo.)

Bound for a trip around the world on which she will cover over twenty-five thousand miles, be absent from one to two years and visit grounds untouched by sealer for nearly a century, the schooner Agnes G. Donahoe, queen of the Nova Scotia sealing fleet, will sail for the Indian Ocean this morning. Before returning Capt. Balcolm will have scoured the South Sea from Mauritius to the Arctic Circle and from the Kerguelens to New Zealand and back again to the Falklands, a trip that has never before been attempted by any sealer.

With a schooner as seaworthy as Nova Scotia's skill can make her and as fine a crew as ever sailed out of Halifax, Capt. Balcolm goes well prepared for his pioneering expedition. Not for nearly one hundred years has any attempt been made to get seals in the Indian Ocean, while the methods in use by New Zealand vessels in the Archipelago away to the southward of that Dominion, are primitive in the extreme.

CAPTAIN BALCOLM CONFIDENT.

Excellent seal are to be found there, on the edge of the Antarctic Circle, and by the use of up-to-date Canadian methods Capt. Balcolm is confident he can get a full catch there. Should the venture in the Indian Ocean prove successful, the Donahoe will go to Cape Town to dispose of her skins there and then sail for New Zealand. From there the schooner will sail for the Falkland grounds, rounding Cape Horn, and thence back to Halifax.

For the last year or two the Falkland Islands seal fisheries have been in a state of depression. The old grounds and the Donahoe is off on a search for her new ones. From a careful study of the fisheries and their history Capt. Balcolm has come to the opinion that the seals have deserted the South Atlantic for either the Indian or the South Pacific Oceans and hence the Donahoe's trip.

At the beginning of the nineteenth century American sealers used to get good catches in the Indian Ocean. In 1820 there have been practically no catches there or any efforts made to locate the seals south of the Falkland Islands became the chief breeding grounds but since that place has become deserted and the seals have returned to their old haunts.

SHOOT THE SEALS.

The New Zealand fisheries have long been prosecuted but in a rather primitive way. The method there is to send out small schooners carrying about two long boats, like seine boats. Each boat takes about ten men and they land on the islands and kill the seals with clubs.

But that is not the Canadian way. Captain Balcolm's men will go after the seal in the water, shooting them with sporting rifles. Small boats each holding about two men will be sent out and as Captain Balcolm told a Chronicle reporter last night, "We'll get as many seals in three or four days that way as the New Zealanders would get in a month."

In preparation for his long cruise the schooner has been thoroughly overhauled. She has been recaulked and repainted. New rigging has been set and she is in the opinion of her owners the finest Nova Scotian owned schooner today.

DEAF DELEGATES HAVE ENJOYABLE EXCURSION

Large Party Went up the River This Morning—Spent This Afternoon at Luncheon—Yesterday's Session

At yesterday afternoon's session an address was given by President McKenzie in which he praised the work of the St. John School for the Deaf, and warmly commended the work of J. Harvey Brown, who had been instrumental in starting the school, and who in other ways has done so much for the deaf.

A letter was read from the president of the Ontario Association offering his congratulations on the occasion of their fourth convention, and congratulating them on their brilliant leader, Mr. McKenzie.

An inspiring and instructive address was given by Mrs. Dixon, of Portland, Me., on the subject of thrift among the deaf.

Wm. Baillie gave an address on courtesy and good manners, which was much appreciated.

Mr. McKenzie asked to be relieved of the office of president, as he had already served three years. In response to the request of the members he consented to serve again and was unanimously re-elected.

About eighty members answered to the roll call. The evening session was devoted to entertainment. The members with much pantomime and rapid gestures told amusing stories and anecdotes of their own.

This morning the entire gathering with a large number of friends and others who availed themselves of the opportunity, took a trip up river in the steamer Wagon. The boat went as far as Brown's Flats and returned about noon.

On their return the delegates went over to the School for the Deaf at Luncheon where they enjoyed a picnic on the grounds.

This afternoon at three o'clock a serious affair will be held on the grounds for which handsome prizes have been donated by the merchants of the city.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—A special from Constantinople to the Times says that a member of the Young Turks is authority for saying that the Young Turks are ready to go some way in the direction of administrative autonomy for Macedonia, but will refuse to admit it to the enjoyment of privileges denied to other provinces. The committee, he said, desires to make education compulsory, leaving the question of language to be settled by the inhabitants of each locality, but making the study of the Turkish language as the official language obligatory. In general the committee is willing to discuss matters with the different Macedonian committees in a friendly spirit.

WATER GATE RESTORED.

Thames (Eng.) embankment, built in 1825, for the use of the Duke of Buckingham, has been restored to use after a century and a half of neglect. It is a fine, historic structure, but it gradually became half-buried during the nineteenth century, as the arch of Severn was slowly immersed by the silt in the ground of the Roman Forum. Workmen have been clearing away the accumulated earth, with a view to the use of the steps and gate by the King.

Several holiday-makers paused to watch her in her strange grimacing, some of them wondering whether she expected coppers for her performance. Then an evident female acquaintance approached her hurriedly. "Why," exclaimed the new-comer, "what on earth is the matter?" The facial acrobatics ceased, and a sweet smile succeeded. "With me? Why, nothing!" "But you looked ill! Your face—you were twisting it into all sorts of shapes!" The lady held out her hands—one with the paper parcel in it, and the other the umbrella. "I was only trying," she explained, "to work the edge of my veil under my chin, dear."

NO ANXIETY OVER MOROCCO. PARIS, Aug. 25.—Official circles view the situation in Morocco with a calm spirit. It is pointed out that the change in rulers does not change the problems. The act of Algeria was devised to meet these problems and is equally applicable to the new as to the old regime. Therefore, it is considered unlikely that it will be necessary to summon a new conference of the powers, for there appears to be no reason why an agreement as to concerted action cannot be arranged through the usual diplomatic channels.

YESTERDAY'S SESSIONS OF THE BAPTIST CONVENTION

MONDAY AFTERNOON.

The afternoon session began at 2.30. The report of theenary committee was very lengthy, containing memorials on all the Baptist churches who had died during the year.

The attendance was the largest in the history of the college, 151 students having been enrolled—137 men and 14 women, classified as follows: Senior class, 25; junior class, 22; sophomore class, 24; freshman class, 70. There were in the arts course 130; in the B. Sc. course, 28; in the abbreviated science course, 13. Those taking only theological studies, 4.

In theological study 22 students pursued a course in pastoral theology, 6 in the systematic theology, and 4 in Hebrew.

The academy had a good enrolment last year, viz. 100, but the attendance was less regular than usual. Twenty-seven students took the full work of the senior class; 21 in the middle class; 13 in the junior class; 15 in the business class, while 23 students took partial and special courses.

The seminary has had another prosperous year. The total number enrolled, was 231. Of these, 112 were in residence during the whole or part of the year, and 119 enrolled as day pupils, including a number from the public schools attending classes in domestic science.

MONDAY EVENING.

Last evening's session of the Maritime Baptist convention was devoted to education. Three addresses were delivered by prominent educationists of the church—Dr. Hutchinson, president of Acadia; Principal De Wolfe, of Acadia Seminary; Dr. C. Goodspeed, of Baylor University, Texas. The address tion that although he had been absent from the Maritime Provinces for some years, he still was much interested in the educational work of the provinces. He gave a brief account of Baylor University, Texas, with which he is now connected. One thing which he hoped would never occur in the history of Acadia by which spirituality would be lost and a cold intellectuality take its place. The greatest safeguard against this was an adequate endowment. Education, in his opinion, was the making of the most of the whole man for the highest possibility. The development of power was the first attribute of education. Education did not consist of building up a man, but of having something out of him, in developing his powers of thought, of action, and of the higher part of the nature. The last named was necessary not for preachers alone, but for all students.

LOVE TALE OF A RECKLESS SAILOR

His Foreign Bride Now Charges Him With Bigamy—Weeping in Denmark.

A nautical romance was unfolded in a charge of bigamy preferred at South Shields, England, on Wednesday. The accused, a sea-going fireman named Andrew Martin, thirty-five years of age, belonging to Blythe, was accused of having taken Margaret Korte, the wife of a sailor, on July 28, 1906, his former wife Annie, to whom he was married on March 7, 1906, being then alive. Landgren, who described himself as a widow living at Gateshead, stated that in September, 1906, she kept a restaurant in Aalborg, Denmark, and at that time accused, who had come by a ship lying in the dock, came to her house. He paid her much loving attention, and eventually asked her to marry him. She declined, and explained that she had been a Captain in the Army and had taken part in the South African campaign. Further statements which he made were to the effect that his stepfather was named Andrew Martin, and that he was living in Dalmeijer Hill, Dublin, which was accused's property. He added that Lord Roseberry was his uncle.

He showed her a Naval Reserve book bearing the name of Andrew Martin, and told her that he belonged to the public estimation—good pictures, was going to America. Martin had given him the book in order that he might secure a berth on board ship. She refused his request to marry him before his ship left Aalborg, and when he was away she married a man from her home with reference to their proposed marriage.

In December, 1906, a further letter arrived, asking her to meet him in Copenhagen, and she did so. While there he renewed his offer of marriage, asserting that he had no wife. Shortly after reaching home again she received a telegram from accused asking her to marry him. She refused the money, telling him not to come to Aalborg, but he put in an appearance next morning.

He stayed at her house until January 15th, 1908, when he was sent home by the British consul. A week later a letter arrived from him from South Shields and they corresponded until April. His agents asked her to marry him, and requested her to give up her business and proceed to England. He repeated his statement that Dalmeijer Hill belonged to him, and added that his father and mother had plenty of money.

She believed his story, and selling her business, she came to the Tynes, and took lodgings in Newcastle. About a week later accused arrived with his ship from Germany, and they went to York, where he showed her the regiment he had been in. Subsequently they proceeded to Hull, where they were married on July 28, 1906, at a registry office, accused giving the name of Clarence Victor Dalmeijer, and describing himself as a bachelor.

Accused secured a situation on the North-Eastern Railway, and furnished a house in which they resided until February, 1907. Meanwhile, her children had come over from Denmark, and in October, 1906, a child was born of which accused was the father. Afterwards they lived in Speth Shields, and then returned to the Tynes, where he subsequently went to Methyl, where he left her in March, 1908.

Later she saw the accused and his wife at Blythe, and he asked her what she was going to do with him. She replied that she ought to give him in charge, but she would forgive him if he would do what was right to her and his wife.

She afterwards lived in South Shields where the accused visited her. She told him that she could not keep him as she had spent her money and pawned her things. One result of this case was that on the next occasion she saw him he ran away from her, saying he was tired of her.

AMUSEMENTS.

NICKEL'S IMMENSE TRIUMPH.

The Nickel scored another remarkable triumph last evening, not only in point of numbers but in its magnificent programme, the equal of which has seldom if ever been given the people of St. John for five times the price asked. Each or any number was worth the admission fee, the orchestral selections—lovely overtures, etc.—included. The Hummel players excelled all their previous efforts in "The Old, Old Story," a melo-drama of intense human interest, full of homely scenes, lifelike action and natural human dialogue. This part of the bill alone earned twenty-one minutes and the whole show ran over forty. Al Weston was accorded an ovation every time he sang "The Town Where I Was Born," and Miss Felix was in bright and cheery form singing Vesta Victoria's unique hit, "Swing Me Higher, Obedience." The pictures "Mephisto's Affinity," "The Boundary," "The Improved Statue," and "Mr. Trouble," rounded out a great big entertainment. Today's patrons should be early.

BIG JOY BUBBLE AT THE BIJOU.

LAST NIGHT.

Just like a big "Joy bubble" last night at the Bijou! Everybody pleased that they went to see the good pictures which were howling. There was as big a crowd as ever this house held. The Bijou is certainly coming to the front with his played "Dick Carew" was pictures of variety, something to please every taste, that's why! But didn't mean enjoy real good drama, "The Veteran's Story" and "The Nurses' Strike." Each a prolonged laugh; no less—fun from start to finish. "Spanish Postal Views" was real interesting and gave the people a chance to learn about Spain and its people. For real good drama, "Forsaken" won merited applause. It's a pretty little love story and the audience enjoyed it. "The Clever Dog" was a wonderful piece of dog acting and dog lovers enjoyed it immensely. David Higgins excelled himself in his new song, "When the Evening Breeze is Sighing Home Sweet Home." Same show again tonight for last time, so don't miss it.

HAPPY HALF HOUR.

One of the best programmes ever given at the Happy Half Hour was presented to S. R. O. crowds last evening by Dr. Arthur Kennedy, M. P., from the musical comedy, "The Storks, and Judging by the scores demanded, the audience were delighted. Mr. Buchanan sang "Heldberg from The Prince of Pilsen, and he, too, received the usual accolade. The pictures are very fine. One of the best scenic pictures ever shown here is "The White Man and His Work, showing the work accomplished on the Cape to Cairo rail in South Africa. Splendid pictures of Delagoa Bay, where they are building immense docks, and Johannesburg, the garden city, are shown. This picture is totally different from the picture of South Africa shown at this house a few weeks ago, and is well worth seeing. A Fight With Morrell and The Tramps and the Soup are two excellent comedy pictures. A Flower of the Island is a special dramatic picture, finely acted and splendid scenery. Prof. Titus sang My Dearie, and Harry LeRoy sang We Have No One to Care for Us Now, both singers receiving generous applause. Last time for this show today. See it.

MISS MAE POWERS AT THE UNIQUE TODAY.

Those who visited the Unique Theatre last night were loud in their praise of Miss Mae Powers, the new soprano, who is now singing here. All music critics admit that she is superior to any ever heard in this city. The pictures consist of four of Pathé's latest subjects, and each of them is worthy of special mention. "The Inconvenience of Taking Moving Pictures" is one of the best instructive comedies ever produced. "The Curse of Drink" is a picture of the misery and crime that can be laid to the door of the head alcohol. We see a peaceful home, a happy and contented family brought to ruin and disgrace through the father's love for intoxicating liquor.

THE GIRL NIHILIST AT THE CEDAR TONIGHT.

The great Russian story, A Girl Nihilist, was greatly appreciated by the large audience present last night. The Triumph of Love is an interesting love story. The Youthful Motorists, a comedy film and sure to please everybody. Percy Sayce had to respond to several encores in the new song hit, Tipperary. Same show tonight. Admission 5c.

PARRSON PLAY.

At the Princess Theatre yesterday large crowds enjoyed the large play of Parrison Play. It is a new version and is obtained by the Princess management at considerable expense. It is the longest picture that has ever been shown in the city and must be seen to be appreciated. Hundreds of persons are in the drama, which is shown true to life, with a scenic background most suited to the occasion. The regular price of admission is charged for this big attraction, and as a feature Madame Demby is heard in some high class sacred solos, while Harry Newcomb's rich baritone voice is being heard in the Palace.

BIG HIT AT OPERA HOUSE.

That Joseph Selman and his excellent company will win their way to popularity with our playgoers was evidenced last night by the large audience who applauded "When We Were Twenty-One." A wonderfully effective performance of this charming play—added to the favorable impression made by the Selman Company on their former appearance here. The performance was remarkably smooth and proved to the audience that the fine reputation which preceded this excellent company was by no means exaggerated and the fall of the curtain left a feeling of delighted wonderment of being privileged to see dramatic work so well done. Mr. Selman earned all the applause bestowed and the manner in which he played "Dick Carew" was particularly brilliant. Miss Du Bois as "Phyllis" charmed her audience. Theodore Daly, as "The Imp" gave a splendid portrayal and proved himself a capable actor. Ethel Eastcott as "Kara, the Priestess" had an exceptionally difficult task, but handled the character with efficiency. A pronounced hit was scored by Messrs. Townsend, Messrs. Bryce, Wilson, Misses Lee, French and Herman. No better specialties have been seen on our stage than those offered by the Selman Company "When We Were Twenty-One" will be repeated this evening. Sherlock Holmes, Wednesday and Thursday. Let Lyons, the advertiser, boom your business. Phone 809.

SUES SYDNEY PAPER FOR CRIMINAL LIBEL.

HALIFAX, N. S. Aug. 24.—A writ has been issued but has not yet been served against the Sydney Daily Post, by Dr. Arthur Kennedy, M. P., charging that paper with criminal libel in an article published on August 17 and 18, which contained the accusation that the Doctor had received consideration for supporting Alex. Johnston in the federal election of 1904.

The Post will say tomorrow morning: "It is just possible the Doctor may be serious and that this action may not be taken for political effect. If he is really in earnest the sooner he brings the case to trial the better. If he institutes his action right away the country will speedily know the whole story. It should not be put off until after the election because delays will probably be interposed and may be of service during the campaign."

The case of the Vaughan Electric Co., in connection with the Hampden, S. S. Company, was postponed yesterday until September 22.

Looseness of The Bowels.

It is very seldom during the summer months that most people are not troubled with "looseness of the bowels." Sometimes it only goes that far, but generally it develops into Diarrhoea, Dysentery or Summer Complaint and has a tendency to weaken the whole system. When the bowels get loosened up in this way, and you wish to check the unnatural discharge without bringing on constipation, there is only one remedy to use, and that one is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. This remedy is not an experiment as it has been used in thousands of families during the past sixty-three years. When you ask for Dr. Fowler's you get it, as many unprincipled druggists will try to palm off a cheap substitute on you. Miss M. Hopkins, Roseville, Sask., writes: "I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and found it all it is recommended to be for Diarrhoea and Summer Complaint. We would not be without a bottle of it in the house." Manufactured by The Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 35c.

SIX

SALOME AND STUFFED PEPPERS

Major and Mrs. Max Consider Two Topics of the Hour at the Same Time.

Mrs. Max had had thought to her and set forth on the otherwise cleared dining table some green bell peppers, some lemons, caviar and other food-stuffs which engaged her thoughtful and the Major's lively interest.

"You weigh things sometimes," remarked the Major, "and measure them in receptacles sometimes, but this serving engine, work in new to me, how do you weigh something to eat which has just been translated as it were, 'whose curves and gradients have been established'?"

"I'm going to try the Churchill pepper," Mrs. Max replied, "and I must have two slices of lemons which are wide enough to cap the tops of two peppers. I find it will take rather large lemons and medium sized peppers."

"It's Russian originally, but Russia is so far away and so so amorphous I thought I'd try the recipe for us first before I fought the cook; though, to be sure, Mrs. Jack wears a Russian peasant blouse pattern for an automobile coat, so she would probably like them anyway."

"The effect of a taste in clothes on the taste in food is something which interests me deeply," the Major said. "I think it would do rather well as the subject for a chapter in my book. I'm having something about the Snark having the taste of a coat that's too tight in the waist?"

"First, however, I must try to analyze the subject of popular amusements. I have seen it recently stated that the Salome dance is the chief attraction at seven first class theatres, four road gardens, six vaudeville shows and one negro minstrel show. The opera season, of course, is yet to come."

"Now I cut off the blunt end of these two peppers, the stem end, you see, for the pulp there is not so highly flavored as at the other end, the pointed end. The cap I cut off are thrown away."

"Mrs. Max was sulking her actions to her words, and when she had scraped the pulp and seeds from the stems and peppers, leaving a firm wall of pulp, she put the pulp and seeds on a plate and directed the Major to throw out the whole seeds."

"While you are doing that," she said, "I will be chopping up fine two cloves of garlic, and when you have removed the seeds then chop up the pulp and mix it with the garlic. Why Salome?"

"It is owing," the Major replied, "to the fact that the Salome dance is the chief attraction at seven first class theatres, four road gardens, six vaudeville shows and one negro minstrel show. The opera season, of course, is yet to come."

THE BROOKLANDS MOTOR TRAGEDY

The holiday crowd at Brooklands on Monday were the horrified spectators of a terrible accident in which one man was killed and another seriously injured in a one hundred miles motor race for the O'Gorman trophy."

GIRL'S LONG SWIM

Miss Lily Smith's Attempt to Break Webb's Record.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Amid the cheers of hundreds of spectators Miss Lily Smith, a London girl, at 10.40 on Saturday morning dived off the prominent pier at Dover in an attempt to beat the late Captain Matthew Webb's record of eight hours for the twenty mile swim to Ramsgate, an attempt which after a gallant effort failed. All the same, considering that she had to contend with dead water and a choppy sea, she put up a performance of which she has every reason to be proud. Her father, mother and trainer accompanied her in a lugger."

DIED ON ICE FLOE

How Danish Explorer Perished in the Arctic Regions.

A telegram from Copenhagen on Thursday says a London postcard sent by Mr. Mylius Erichsen, the leader of the Danish Greenland expedition, and two companions, a Dane and an Eskimo, had perished in a snowstorm while traveling inland.

They were driven on to an ice-floe during a snowstorm and drifted away from land. Their provisions being exhausted, the explorers became so weak that they were unable to return to the station. The Eskimo who brought the news arrived in a dying condition, and succumbed immediately after making his report.

The general work of the expedition, has, however, been successfully accomplished and the whole northeastern coast of Greenland has been charted.

The expedition left Copenhagen on June 25, 1928, under the leadership of Mr. Erichsen. It consisted of twenty-seven men—scientists and crew—and the expedition is due to return in September.

The object of the party was to explore the unknown northeastern coast of Greenland lying between the 75th and 83rd degrees of latitude. The plans of the expedition were to land on Shannon Island or Cape Blomquist. After wintering off Shannon Island twelve men in groups of three were to undertake sledge expeditions to the North.

After the winter of 1927, which was to be spent on the 23rd parallel sledge expeditions in groups of three were to be carried out on the inland ice of Greenland. It is probably one of these groups of three men, under the leadership of Mr. Erichsen, which has been overwhelmed by the present troubles.

A certain number of bakers and carpenters, already referred to, the men already on shore, such as chimney-sweeps, who had been out for ninety days, were the contingents which formed Monday's strike army.

Absolute order reigned until between five and six o'clock, when some of the crowd began to grow restless, and eventually some revolutionaries tried to make speeches from the terrace of a cafe. The result was a sharp conflict with the police, several persons getting their heads broken in the melee.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT IN CAMPBELLTON YARD

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., Aug. 24.—A most shocking accident occurred at the I. C. R. yard here yesterday morning. The streets and the principal shops were decorated with flags and a general holiday was observed. The speedy rebuilding of the city is now regarded as assured.

PARIS LABOR WAR

Strike as Reply to Government Action Ends in Fiasco—Employers Retaliate.

A European newspaper in an account of the Paris labor troubles says: "Though several thousand workmen obeyed the call of the French General Labor Federation for a general strike on Monday, the main body of workers refused to respond, with the result that the much trumpeted 'demonstration against the tyranny of capital' proved a complete fiasco."

On Tuesday the industrial war assumed a new phase in the announcement by certain employers that they intended to retaliate on their striking workmen. As a first result of this the contractors for the several sections of the Metro Extension works unanimously decided upon a lockout of their employees and work will cease on Saturday."

The contractors aver that the unsatisfactory behavior of the men in the past has resulted in financial losses to the employers, and they say they would prefer to abandon their contracts altogether rather than face repeated strikes.

The strike of the Seine steambank employees ended on Tuesday. A sufficient number of strikers accepted duty on the old conditions to permit of the company running nine of their boats. The reappearance of the steamers on the river was eagerly welcomed, more especially as the day was very warm."

Monday's strike was called as a reply to the action of the French government in arresting on Saturday some 40 militant members of the committee of the General Confederation. The latter were seized as being the authors of the sanguinary riots of July 23 at Villeneuve, near Paris, when the Confederation called a general strike for twenty-four hours to show sympathy with the strikers in the Paris building trades."

and to enable the workers to demonstrate against the government as revenge for being dispersed by the military a fortnight before.

The Confederation tried its hardest especially to induce the electricians and the printers to respond on Monday to the strike "call." If it was argued, Paris could be kept without electric light and newspapers for twenty-four hours the strength of the Confederation would be proved beyond dispute, and employers must give way to all demands.

But the electricians did not respond and the printers only partially responded, the result being that the only inconvenience caused was to several papers. Most of the important journals appeared, the only morning papers that did not come out being "L'Humanite" and "La Voix du Peuple."

The only body of men who struck generally on Monday were the hatters, but Monday is their weekly holiday. A great many building yards were open, as usual, although the disputes in the building trade were the origin of the present troubles. A certain number of bakers and carpenters, already referred to, the men already on shore, such as chimney-sweeps, who had been out for ninety days, were the contingents which formed Monday's strike army.

Absolute order reigned until between five and six o'clock, when some of the crowd began to grow restless, and eventually some revolutionaries tried to make speeches from the terrace of a cafe. The result was a sharp conflict with the police, several persons getting their heads broken in the melee.

MAJORITY OF MINISTERS FAVOR ELECTION IN FALL

OTTAWA, Aug. 24.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier came back to Ottawa this afternoon looking greatly benefited by his holiday. Many of the other cabinet ministers are in the city and all the rest but Mr. Templeman will be here tomorrow to attend the meeting of the country which has been called. There is no doubt the question of going to the country will be tentatively settled. In fact it is settled now, as a majority of the government favor an appeal to the country this autumn and the chances are ten to one the appeal will be made. This is well understood by both sides, as the political activity throughout the country indicates. However, there will be no dissolution of parliament and no definite announcement of an election date immediately. The election will probably take place in October or November, and there is ample time still for dissolution.

CHILD FATALLY BURIED

HALIFAX, Aug. 24.—Dillon, aged three, daughter of Frederick Hill, was seriously and probably fatally burned while playing with matches while in bed at her home on Conroy's street. Her father was in an adjoining room, and though he rushed quickly to the rescue of the child, he was unable to reach her before she was horribly burned about the lower portion of the body.

BIG A. O. H. CONVENTION WAS OPENED HERE TODAY

A Fine Parade to the Cathedral, Where Service Was Held— Official Welcome and Reception at the Assembly Rooms

The Ancient Order of Hibernians in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia will open their annual convention here today. This is the first time in the history of the order that the convention has been held in St. John. The Ladies' Auxiliary will also hold their convention at the same time.

All through yesterday large numbers of delegates arrived by the different trains and boats. The Prince Rupert brought a large party from Nova Scotia. The Hibernians were met by a strong reception committee, of which Sergeant John Daley is chairman, and escorted to the different hotels and boarding houses. Among those who were F. J. McManus, Halifax, provincial president; Rev. J. J. McLaughlin of Richibucto, provincial chaplain; Hon. F. J. Sweeney, Moncton; Hon. John Morrissey, Chatham. Michael McDade, past provincial president, who organized the order in this province, will also be present. Miss McCarty of Woodstock, provincial president, is here to preside at the Ladies' Auxiliary meetings. She is visiting Mrs. M. T. Cavanaugh, county president. Miss Carrigan, Woodstock, president of the division there, also arrived in town. She is the guest of Miss Gertrude McCarthy, provincial secretary. Both conventions will be held in the assembly rooms of Keith's Theatre. The Hibernians will occupy the rooms at the right, while the ladies will hold their meetings in the rooms to the left. All the rooms have been handsomely decorated.

The Ladies Auxiliary will open their convention in the afternoon with addresses by Miss McCarty, of Woodstock, provincial president, and Mrs. M. T. Cavanaugh, county president. Thirty divisions will be represented at the convention. The complete list could not be obtained last evening. The officers who will be present are: P. J. McManus, president, Halifax; Rev. J. J. McLaughlin, chaplain; Hugh F. Hamilton, treasurer, Moncton; John R. McCloskey, secretary, St. John.

The delegates from the North Shore include: Campbell, Patrick O'Leary and William Arsenault; Dalhousie, P. M. Shannon; Newcasttle, Patrick Hennessy, John Fallon, T. H. Whalen, C. J. Morrissey; Barnaby River, Wm. Goggin; Blackville, Thos. Dunn, M. W. McCarthy and James Quinn; Chatham, W. F. Cassidy, Patrick Mulhearn, William Moran, Nelson Patrick Sullivan. About seventy of a party arrived from Halifax. The delegates are: F. B. Downey, president; F. W. Smith, King's printer; Joseph F. Da Leo, Judge, B. G. Mulvey and P. J. McManus. The remainder of the divisions will be well represented.

The following are the delegates to the ladies' convention: Woodstock—Miss Margaret W. Hughes, county president; Miss Carrigan, Miss Kate Scott, Miss Annie Elford, Miss Minnie Hall and Miss Mary McDade. Moncton—Miss Ella Fogarty, Miss Rose MacArthur, Miss Marie Susan, Miss Agnes Hogan, Miss Kate Fitzpatrick, Miss Lucy Fitzpatrick, Miss Alice Joyce, Mrs. Mary Joyce and Mrs. Richard. Halifax—Mrs. P. J. McManus, Mrs. F. W. Smith, Mrs. Sullivan, Miss McCarty and Miss. Chatham—Mrs. J. F. Connor, Miss Mary Ryan and Mrs. D. Fraser. Milltown—Miss Annie Cronin, Mrs. W. J. Graham, Miss Annie Shannon, Mrs. McDermid, Miss Cecelia O'Brien. Miss Mary Carver. St. John—Mrs. M. T. Cavanaugh, Mrs. J. T. Sheehan, Mrs. M. L. Peters, Mrs. James McCarthy, Mrs. Winnie MacNeill, Miss Mary Audrey, Miss O'Brien.

A most able sermon and asked his hearers to pray for St. Patrick and the Virgin Mary who take care of the first people. The service took about an hour and a half and at its conclusion the procession reformed in front of the church and proceeded to the Keith Theatre, King Square, King St., Dock, Union and Peel Sts. Before breaking ranks the Knights were photographed. In the Keith Assembly rooms the committee had everything well arranged. A stage was erected and very prettily decorated with palms and green and white bunting. W. L. Williams, the president of the order, presided, and the rooms were crowded with ladies and gentlemen. In a brief address President Williams introduced His Worship Mayor Balfour. With a happy smile His Worship extended a hearty welcome to the delegates and said he hoped that there would be a pleasant and most profitable season, and that their deliberations would be seasoned with wisdom, and would bring every man to his highest and best.

He spoke of the society's constitution of friendship and unity with Christian charity, which deserved thorough recognition and the best that the city could give it. He said it would be proper for all who belong to the church to join such an excellent order as the A. O. H. The mayor was followed by Joseph Herrington, the president of the C. M. B. A., who on behalf of the order which he represented gave a hearty welcome to the delegates to the city. He said that the A. O. H. were a little more Irish than the other societies, and were doing a good work in teaching the young to remember Irish history. The Irish have taken first place in history, but what is the result? He said, we must remember we are Canadians first, and that there is nothing in the laws of the lodge that will conflict with anything. Hon. R. J. Ritchie, of the Irish Literary and Benevolent Society, was the next speaker. He said that the different societies may not agree in all things, but they do agree on many things. The A. O. H. is more essential than many other organizations because it is a national organization and turns its attention to Irish ideas and thought. "When the Irish feeling grows cold," when the Irish went abroad they were as apostles, and like Champlain at Quebec, planted the cross and taught their religion. While it appeared that the Irish were wronged in leaving their country it was in a way a blessing for they were given an opportunity to spread Christianity. He thought it would be well for all Irish societies to have a federation of Catholic organization. The day will come when Ireland will enjoy the benefits of the Catholic flag in Canada. Irishmen are proud of their heritage, but with all that they are proud of, they are proud of Canada for, as Canadians, they are the freest people under the canopy of Heaven. Dr. McDonald, Knight Commander of the Knights of Columbus, was the next speaker. He welcomed the delegates to the city and congratulated the order on its fine appearance this morning. He extended an invitation to the delegates to visit the quarters of the K. of C. on Charlotte street. The Vice President, Mr. Balfour, was next called on, and made a brief yet able address thanking the mayor and other officers for the welcome and the order and said he expected the session would be a most profitable one. H. P. Hamilton, of Moncton, the Provincial Vice President, and Michael McDade, the ex-Provincial Vice President, gave excellent addresses and the reception was brought to a close. The delegates will commence convention work late afternoon.

This evening the ladies' auxiliary will entertain the Hibernians to a reception taking the form of a dance in the assembly rooms of Keith's Theatre. Each member of the order is entitled to bring one lady. The City Cornet Band will be in attendance at the dance and will furnish suitable music. At 8:30 o'clock this morning the Hibernians met in Keith's Theatre and paraded to the Cathedral.

Leading the procession was Thomas Sullivan, the Grand Marshal, mounted. He was followed by the City Cornet Band. Then came the Uniform Band and A. O. H. Cadets. Following the Cadets were the subordinate members, and barouches occupied by the officials of the order.

The procession was a lengthy one, and was one of the most creditable seen in the city for some time. The Cathedral was filled with a most attentive congregation. His Lordship Bishop Casey celebrated high mass. Rev. Father Meahan was Deacon; Rev. Father O'Keefe, Sub Deacon; Rev. Father Duke, High Priest, and Rev. Father McLaughlin, Master of Ceremonies. Rev. Fathers O'Neil and Chapman were also in the sanctuary. After high mass, Rev. J. J. McLaughlin, of Richibucto, preached a most eloquent sermon. He took his text from St. Luke 14th chapter 14th verse, and the subject was, "Deceive thy sight and thy faith will be lowered."

He said that a person might pray anywhere, but it is good to go up to the temple and pray. The Pharisee comes up and says, "I thank thee because I am not like the rest of the men. The rest are stayed with all crime that men can commit. The Publican stands in the back of the church with his head bowed, and says: 'Oh Lord, I am a sinner.' His humility is justified. The preacher told of the Lord meeting the blind man on the way to Jerusalem and of restoring sight to the unfortunate. He asked his hearers to pray the confident prayer of the blind man and obtain the infallible will of God. The reverend gentleman preached

Anty Drudge Tells How to Avoid Sundry Soaking.

Mrs. Hurryup—"I always put my clothes to soak on Sunday night. Then I get an early start on Monday and get through washing by noon. I don't consider it breaking the Sabbath, for cleanliness is next to godliness, you know."

'Anty Drudge—"Yes, but godliness comes first, my dear. And you should keep the Commandments. Get a cake of Fels-Naptha and you won't have to soak your clothes over night, and your washing will be all done by noon; without boiling, without hard work and with more satisfaction than any other way."

Rough, red hands are the trial of most housewives. "I don't mind the work if I could only keep my hands nice," sighs the young woman. You will have less work and nice hands at the same time if you use Fels-Naptha soap in washing clothes. Hot water chaps the hands; hard-rubbing on the washboard swells the knuckles. Using Fels-Naptha in cold or lukewarm water, you have neither hot water, hard-rubbing nor nauseous steam. But Fels-Naptha must be used the Fels-Naptha way—no boiling. Follow directions on the red and green wrapper.

WOLVILLE WILL ESTABLISH FULL THEOLOGICAL COURSE

The supplementary report of the Board of Governors of the Acadia College, Acadia, N. S., was read and adopted. The second section recommending that a professor of theology should be secured for the academy passed. The third section was not adopted. The fourth section which recommended that if the extra $1,000 be raised, it should be devoted to extending the course to qualify the students for the degrees of B. Th. was then adopted.

FIELD SECRETARY. Rev. E. J. Grant, of Hampton, moved that a field secretary be appointed to visit the parishes for the college and also by coming in contact with young men to encourage them to enter the college for preparation for the ministry. Dr. Calhoun suggested that such an official should have power to solicit for the ministers' education fund as well.

HOME MISSIONS. The annual report of the Home Mission Board of which printed copies had been distributed, was read by Rev. I. W. Porter, the corresponding secretary. The following is a summary of the year's work which is included in the report: Three hundred and thirty-two members have been added to our Home and Foreign Missions since the forty-five by baptism. Seven fields on our list that were not ten years ago. For the most part, this is the result of a better arrangement of aggressive work. Six new houses of worship have been obtained, and there has been some advance in securing parishes. LADY BALFOUR'S KINDNESS. Lady Blanche Balfour, the mother of Mr. Balfour, was one day hurrying to catch an afternoon train for her home, when she noticed a child weeping piteously in the street. Lady Blanche at once stopped and inquired the reason of its distress and the little one sobbed out that her mother was dying and that they were all starving at home. Lady Blanche, the kindest-hearted of women, put all thoughts aside of catching her train and went instead with the child to ascertain if the story was true. It proved to be so, one of these terrible tragedies of human life where the dying widowed mother was troubled in death over the future of her children. Her visitor, however, reassured her and promised to care for those helpless little left behind to face the battle of life. Lady Blanche kept her promise, she took an active interest in her proteges and finally started them in various useful professions.

MERRY JESTS OF LIMERICK WRITERS

The Alluring Limerick in Esperanto. Nothing Easier in the World—Puzzles Envoing Esperanto Pass are Frequently Met.

(New York Sun.) A large number of Esperantists are at present devoting their attention to the limerick in Esperanto. The limerick in Esperanto? Nothing easier in the world. To be sure the meter is not exactly according to the model usually accepted by English speaking people of which the first, second and third lines should be trimeters and the third and fourth dimeters, all anapestic. But that was because the French style of the Esperanto limerick is entirely different. He offered his lines all trimeters. The first one made to competitors to finish was this: Lam, plu' alparolis la venton, The requisite fifth line had to rhyme with the first and second. The four lines may be translated as follows: To the wind, said the rain once in a while: "Temptation strong comes over me To humble your pride!" The wind calmly replied: The judge appointed to decide the prize—fifty francs, or the equivalent in Esperanto, was awarded to Aleksandr Vjetkov of Moscow-Darna, Russia. The second prize was awarded to P. H. Bonal proza konstanto. Which to rhyme with the above verse in English, may be given as: Let us rather attempt to agree. The winning line was commended, not only for its perfectness and arbitrariness of prosody, but particularly on account of its tendency toward the ideal of universal peace and arbitration, thus appealing to the inner sense of Esperantism.

Esperantists are now working fervently over another "Limerick" the fourth given lines of which may be put thus into English: Said John to his sweet Angelina: "I adore you, my charming young queen!" She looked in his eye With this chilling reply: "It is evident that Angelina is to crush you. I have a plan. My friends and I are inventing the most rapid like threats of reparation that can be thought of on behalf of Angelina." An Esperanto problem which some eminent French professors thought it not undignified to attempt to solve was one of the kind that begins "OM E—3—9 is a well known pseudonym, my 6—7—11—3—2 is a natural ege," etc. "E" to "M" is to be a frequently seen signature. The details were not easy, and most of the French professors began to end by looking up names of famous modern personages consisting of twenty-two letters. Others picked out the separate quantities first, and the "signature" was found to be "Tobekfomaldmalpermalpa" (smoking not allowed). Increase chapter on the part of the professors. In the current issue of Tra la Mondo, an illustrated Esperanto monthly, is given this puzzle: GAN LE PRI KO PRO DE SED PA NE LA RAN DE PA NOX GO DE PLA DRES VI IOJ BON KVA DE SUR VE NON LO KAR NE SIZ GA LA DIA YE

Nothing is said about the manner of solving it, but an expert at problems of this kind naturally supposes that the knight's move on the chessboard is the general key. This proves to be the case, for if the reader starts from the right top corner and threads his way carefully with the step of that cavalier throughout, he will find the following sentence: "Oni legas sia karta de propagando pri la kvaza: 'Venu Dresdenon koran bonvenon.' Simpla sed alloga devizo," meaning: "Come to Dresden, a hearty welcome!" A simple but attractive motto. The first solver of this puzzle is to be rewarded by the multifarious prize of twenty illustrated post cards. Puzzles involving Esperanto puns are frequently met.

Why do you call him a diamond? Because he's a lover of the gods. Key: "diamanto"—"diamond"; "di-amanto"—"a lover of the gods." Why do you say a partner is always stubborn? Because he's a thick neck. Key: "koligo"—"a colleague"; "kol-eg-o"—"an augmented neck."

These merry jests do not occupy the attention of old Esperantists, but beginners chuckle appreciatively over them. To see the point argues gratifying progress in the study of the language. A more ingenious enigma of the above kind was to be solved from the following sentences: "I gave a boy something to drink, and asked him his name. My name is what I'm drinking—a gift of tea." This combination of letters "olo olo a a a a a a a a" would scarcely suggest the twelve Apostles, yet that is what it does mean. "Twelve Apostles" in Esperanto is "dekdu apostoloj" that is "dekdu post oloj," which being translated means "twelve after the plural of 'olo'." Thus, adding chess and checker problems for the more serious do the propagandists of the universal language try to lighten the labors of the student by means of the more frivolous class of Esperanto construction.

useful service she found bifurcated garments most convenient. On the other hand, there is a new ruling in the general department relating to mail-carriers in which it is held that when women are employed in that capacity they must wear trousers.

Such arbitrary decisions in both instances upon sober thinking are unjust and unreasonable. Mrs. M. O. Burghin, of Woodward, Oklahoma, has been placed in her town. She is one of the few women lawyers of the southwest.

All of the sky-scrappers of the women are cleaned by women, who get down on their knees and clean the floors. Women through long time have done a generous share of the work of the world.

Mrs. Taft believes in woman suffrage. She has always believed in it. She says that except on rare instances the influence of women on politics is for their elevation. Mr. and Mrs. Taft are examples of true comradeship in married life.

The Independence Party of the State of Illinois adopted a woman suffrage plank in its state platform and nominated two women for the board of trustees of the University of Illinois. Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, of Chicago and Mrs. Winifred Fay Godley, of Joliet.

OUT OF 1700 children examined lately in the District of Columbia, under the new child labor law, seventy boys and two girls were rejected because of physical disability. The increase of physical strength among girls and decrease among boys has for sometime attracted the attention of educators. If this condition continues for another generation, women will be the strong sex physically as well as morally.

PECULIAR. (Hamilton Spectator). The changing of the conspicuous holiday attire of the United States flag, of white, scarlet and gold, to the war paint of dull grey, prior to their trip to Japanese waters, may possess no special significance, but, if true, it will certainly create suspicious comment. The latter is the prevailing color used on British warships of every description, which are thus ready for action at all times, in all waters.

WOMAN ARRESTED FOR WHOLESALE STEALING

Fifteen Thousand Dollars Worth of Staff Found in Mrs. Curtis' Rooms.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—In a room in West Thirty-seventh street, where detectives today arrested Mrs. Minnie Curtis, charged with complicity in several important jewelry robberies, in this city, was found more than $15,000 worth of jewelry, fine silks, furs and various other articles of wearing apparel. The arrest was said to have been made on information given the police last night by Harry Hill, who asserted that he was a brother of former Congressman Hill, of Paterson, N. J., and who was arrested yesterday on a charge of robbery. Although Mrs. Curtis declared that she was a widow, the police insisted that she is the wife of Albert Curtis, who is now serving a sentence in Auburn prison. Hill, Curtis and his wife, the police charge, worked together in a number of daring robberies. When Hill was arrested yesterday in Paterson, the police allege that they secured a statement from him implicating Mrs. Curtis. Hill was released on $2,500 bond. He said a great mistake had been made and members of his family at once came to his aid.

JUDGE WAS SORRY TO SEE DAVIS GO FREE

Would Have Been Pleased to Give Him a Term

True Bill Found Against Burns on the Charge of Theft—Other Cases Come Under Speedy Trials Act.

At the August sitting of the county court, which opened this morning, with Judge Forbes presiding, five criminal cases were on the docket. Georgeina Eddins, was up on a charge of arson, for attempting to burn Philip Bushan's house on Union Alley, and a young boy, charged with theft, arrested by the police, was tried under the Speedy Trials Act. Their cases will probably come up this afternoon. The case of Martin Downs, of Miramichi, who faces a charge of criminal assault, is postponed until September. Jury Case.

Watson vs Finnamore; H. H. Pickett. Non-Jury Case.

Jack vs Cox; J. King Kelley. Thomson vs Malcolm; J. B. M. Baxter.

Hazelwood vs Cowan; J. R. Armstrong.

The list of the grand jurors are as follows:—Hugh L. McDowan (foreman), Albert E. Trentowsky, Enoch S. Paul, William Searle, Ira B. Kierstead, Louis King, Timothy Collins, Charles M. Langley, Albert McArthur, Francis McAvon, George W. Parker, John K. Parsons, Frederick A. Foster (excused), William G. Skoville, Stephen S. Thomas, William A. Wetmore, Frank White, David Magee, Frank H. Foster, Henry Gallagher, Michael J. Cullinan, I. Chester Brown, S. Walter McLaughlin, and William E. McIntyre.

The following are the names of the petit jurors:

John B. Eagles, James H. Garnett, Andrew McNicol, Melvin T. Gibbon, William S. Ferris, James Gault, A. S. Hart, James Daley, John P. Williams, Dominic Hayes, Walter H. Irvine, Wilmore W. Howe, William Hodgkin, Thomas Foley, James Wilson, William V. Hatfield, Clifford J. Elderkin, Francis E. McManus, Thomas McMaster, Sidney Gibbs, Robert McAfee.

About half past eleven his honor charged the grand jury in the two remaining criminal cases. His charge was very brief. These cases are King vs. Frank N. Burns, for theft of a small sum of money from his employers. The local agency of Colliers' and John J. Davis on charge of perjury in connection with an illegal liquor selling case, brought against the Ottawa Hotel. Shortly after one o'clock the grand jury returned to the court room and Foreman McDowan reported that they had found no bill in the case of the King vs. Burns.

The grand jury was then excused for the present. Burns being brought before the court pleaded not guilty. His honor called Davis before him and discharged him, saying, however, that the grand jury had dealt more leniently with him than he would have done.

"Nothing," he said, "would have given him greater pleasure than to have sent Davis to the penitentiary for two or three years."

The court adjourned until tomorrow afternoon when the case of the King vs. Burns will be heard.

CHILD DIED AFTER A SURGICAL OPERATION

Raffing Will be a Little Less Costly This Year—Another Scott Act Case.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Aug. 25.—George Beverly, only child of George H. Purton, commercial traveller, died at the private hospital here this morning from the effects of an operation for appendicitis, aged 3 years. The parents are much grieved over the sad event and are receiving many expressions of sympathy. The body will be taken to Montreal this evening for burial.

A third offense case Scott Act, against the Waverley Hotel, was taken up in the police court this morning. The defense called no witnesses and the case stood over until Friday for argument of counsel.

It is estimated that log owners will have to pay about $5 cents per thousand for raffing at boom this season against $1.00 last season.
