STRONG EVIDENCE AGAINST THE BOYS

Witnesses Identify Lads Seen in the Cathedral

Mrs. McCormack Says Grogan and Rogers Stole Five Dollars From Her Restaurant While Buying Lunch.

From the evidence given in the police court this morning it appears that Bartholomew Grogan and William P. Rogers, the two Boston lads arrested by Policeman Hamm yesterday, are the church thieves. Stolen property that was found in their possession was identified, and they were identified as two who left the Cathedral Monday afternoon.

To Magistrate Ritchie his morning Grogan said that he and his chum lived in Boston, but had been in Canada for a month. They were visiting came to St. John on their way home to Boston.

Thomas Burns, the sexton of the Cathedral, testified that in response to a message from the Bishop he went to the church and found his office forced open and the roll top desk broken into. The contents of the desk were searched around and all of the drawers were open. The key to the safe was stolen from the desk. He found the safe open and all of the books and papers taken from the safe and thrown on the floor. About forty-six cents was stolen.

In addition to this a small box of defaced coppers and defaced silver was stolen. Officer Hamm produced a key which witness identified as the key of the safe.

There were six contribution boxes fastened to the walls of the church. One was removed from the wall and taken down near the front of the church. The lock was still on it and it had not been opened. Two locks on other boxes were removed altogether, and another was broken on the wall. One box on the right main door was not tampered with. There was also an envelope full of foreign coins stolen from the safe. Officer Hamm produced the coins, some of which were identified by the witness. There is one Chinese coin.

Detective Killen produced an iron bolt which he picked up in the church office and witness said it was not the property of the church. Four padlocks presented were identified as church property. The money is gathered up for the orphans by the Sisters of Charity on Sunday afternoons. Mr. Burns said he was in the church office at 8.45 o'clock and every thing was all right then.

Mrs. Mary McCormack testified that she saw the prisoners in her restaurant on the corner of Prince William and Duke streets. She prepared a lunch for them and when about to serve it she heard the door open and saw the two defendants going to the rear side door of the restaurant. Witness found the hill on the floor, and five dollars stolen. When ordered to pay in coppers and they counted out twenty cents on the table. Both took with them when they left the restaurant.

Phillip Fitzpatrick said that about 3.30 o'clock Monday afternoon during the heavy thunder and lightning storm the only persons he saw were the two defendants, who were coming from the rear side door of the Cathedral. Witness identified the defendants, but said that they wore different hats than those on them in court. When they left the church they went down Richmond street at a fast walk. Both wore soft felt hats with the brims pulled down on the front.

The prisoners were remanded to jail.

NOBODY WAS TO BLAME FOR COAL CREEK WRECK Jury Finds the Affair Was Purely Accidental—Injured Men are All Recovering.

At inquest before Coroner Nugent, of Chatham, into the death of the two men killed in the recent train wreck near Coal Creek, evidence was given by Messrs. H. A. Corbett, W. J. Jacobs, A. S. Donald, Albert Ford and others. The jury upon hearing the testimony reached a verdict in accordance with the facts. They classed the wreck as purely an accident and completely exonerated the Corbett-Floesch Company from all blame.

Mr. Donald who gave testimony, is the resident engineer of the Transcontinental Railway Company on the Corbett-Floesch contract. In his report to headquarters, Mr. Donald does not attach blame to any person. He states the tracks were in such a condition that the engine wheels could not take proper hold.

Dr. Sutherland has just returned from Coal Creek to Chatham, and reports the injured workmen as doing nicely. There are at present about eight men unable to perform their work. John Gillis and Joe Danaro, the two most severely injured workmen, are improving at Dr. Hay's hospital at Chatham. Their recovery is expected.

SEMMERING, June 23—E. H. Harriman arrived here last evening and went immediately to the Hotel Parkmans where a suite had been engaged for him and his family. Mr. Harriman appeared to be in excellent health.

SCENE OF THE SIGEL MURDER WHICH HAS CREATED SUCH A SENSATION IN NEW YORK

DIAGRAM OF APARTMENT SHOWING WHERE BODY WAS FOUND

SCENE K. LEON AND DON WING

NEW YORK, June 23—If the statements by Chung Sin last night accusing Leon Ling of having killed Elsie Sigel has given the authorities the tangible clue to the hiding place of Leon, the police have not made it known and it has as yet resulted in no arrest. In the conflicting stories told by Chung and even after he apparently gave in under the incessant accusations and questions of the police Chung is quoted as asserting that he does not know where Leon hid after trying Miss Sigel's body in the trunk, although he admitted giving Leon the largest part of $80 which Chung had borrowed from Chu Sin.

There was much telegraphing about the country by the police last night following Chung's story that he saw Leon strangle the young woman. Chung's reluctance in telling the facts, his evident first intention to deny that he knew anything at all about the murder, and his extraordinary indifference as to the terrible fate of the young missionary, all convince the police that the cool and wily Chinaman has by no means told all the facts which the police most desire, those giving a clue to Leon's hiding place, will be made but there seems to be scant hope of getting any useful information.

ANOTHER AWFUL MINING DISASTER; BETWEEN 100 AND 150 MEN ENTOMBED

Explosion in Colliery Near Pittsburg Occurred This Morning--A Few Bodies Recovered, But Full Extent of the Calamity Cannot Yet Be Ascertained--Victims Horribly Mangled

PITTSBURG, June 23—(Bulletin)—An explosion occurred today in the mine of the Lackawanna Coal and Coke Company at Wehrum in Indiana County. Over 100 men were in the mine. A number are reported injured.

PITTSBURG, June 23—(Bulletin)—At 10.15 three bodies, terribly mutilated, had been recovered from the mine. At that hour, ten injured men, some of them fatally, had also been taken to the surface.

Between 100 and 150 miners were in the mine. The few men who escaped from the mine were burned and blackened indicating that the force of the explosion was heavy. None of them were in condition to give details, but from one

U. S. AGITATOR GETS HIS BUMPS IN LONDON

New York Lawyer, Who Contemplates a Preaching Tour of India, is Severely Criticized.

LONDON, June 23—The Daily Express, announcing today that Myron H. Phelps, the New York lawyer, who is regarded as a leader of the Indian House agitation under British rule in India, had been ordered to quit the Waldorf Hotel, London, publishes an editorial article expressing the hope that Lord Morley, Secretary of State for India, will take steps to prevent Mr. Phelps' projected tour of India.

The Express yesterday published a long article denouncing Mr. Phelps as a preacher of sedition in India. Mr. Phelps replied with a column letter, printed in the Express today, repudiating his anti-British intentions, and explaining his views. In a postscript he says:

"My writing of the above was interrupted by urgent demands that I vacate my rooms in this hotel. I myself that even on a newspaper trial I am to be condemned without a hearing."

COTTON CROP IS HEAVY; WEEVIL IS HURTING IT

MONTENE, Ark., June 23—According to reports made to the annual meeting of the National Cotton Association in session here, the yield of cotton for the past year will exceed that of last year by a good margin except in the eastern and northeastern Texas and southwestern Arkansas, where the boll weevil is reported as causing much damage. Other than reconmencing the preliminary work of organization, the hearing of reports occupied all the business session today. Mobile, Memphis, New Orleans and Saratoga Springs, N. Y., have exteol invitations as the next place of meeting.

WINE CHECKS TELL OF MRS. GOULD'S WEAKNESS

St. Regis Accounts Do Not Agree With Declared Evidence of Waiters About Amount of Liquor Consumed.

NEW YORK, June 23—With fifteen or more witnesses remaining to be called in rebuttal by counsel for Mrs. Catherine Clemmons Gould at the trial of her suit for a separation from Howard Gould, there was little prospect at the beginning of proceedings today that the case would be finished today. Justice Dowling announced his intention of holding a night session and insisted that all the rebuttal testimony with the exception of the plaintiff herself should be presented today.

Mr. Shearn, Mrs. Gould's counsel, continued the march of servants and friends of his client to the witness stand today in an effort to refute the testimony of intoxication and other indiscretions which was given by the witnesses for the defence. Three things occurred yesterday to stay the progress made by Mr. Shearn in Mrs. Gould's behalf. The admission of a large number of refreshment checks from the Hotel St. Regis for large quantities of cocktails and other beverages furnished her during her residence at the hotel, and particularly during the fall of 1908, when the defence contends that Dustin Farmen, the actor, often dined with Mrs. Gould in her apartments at the St. Regis, did not coincide with the testimony of today's and made and other St. Regis employees who were in attendance on Mrs. Gould, that they had never seen her drink anything. The waiter who swore that he practically served all of Mrs. Gould's meals for a period of eight weeks in her rooms and never knew of her ordering anything but a little light wine now and then with her dinner, unfortunately got his garter rick and repeatedly placed the time of his service at a period when it was conceded by both sides that Mrs. Gould was in Europe.

RAILWAY MEN SHOW PRACTICAL SYMPATHY

Members of Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen Accompany Remains of Deceased Member to the Province.

The remains of James Steeves passed through the city today en route to Boundary Creek for burial. Mr. Steeves was employed in the yards of the B. and M. Railway at Fitchburg, Mass. His death, which occurred on Monday was due to heart disease. He was in bathing when the attack occurred and was dead before he could be taken from the water. He was formerly a resident of Steeves Mountain in this province.

The deceased leaves a widow, formerly Miss E. L. Ritchie, of Moncton, and two children. They accompanied the body. With them were also H. Y. McInerney and Chas. Constain, members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, of which order deceased was a member.

DIED WHEN LEAVING ON WESTERN VISIT

Tragic Death of Mrs. Walter J. Elliott

Was Ready to Board the Train to Spend the Summer With Her Children in North Dakota.

NEWCASTLE, N. B., June 23—The death of Mrs. Walter J. Elliott, widow of Walter J. Elliott, occurred about two o'clock this morning. Last night Mrs. Elliott had planned to leave on the express for Minot, North Dakota, to visit her children there, thence to visit another daughter in Vancouver. Her ticket was bought, luggage sent to the station where part of her family were awaiting her, and she with hat and gloves on was waiting for a coach. Suddenly she felt a pain in her breast and took some potassium bromide to steady her nerves. Two minutes afterward she took a terrible pain in her head and roared and exclaimed to her sister, Mrs. Parlen, that she was blind. She then became unconscious. This was about 12.30. She died shortly before two, continuing, except for one brief space, unconscious till the last. Death was probably due to hemorrhage of the brain, hastened by excitement of the journey. Two of her thirteen children survive. They are: Mrs. James Smallwood, Minot, N. D.; Mrs. John Robins, Newcastle; Mrs. (Rev.) Frank Atkinson, O'Leary, P. E. I.; Charles, Perth; Mrs. Fred Chesman, St. John's, N.H.; Mrs. Charles J. Stewart, Umanabi, Natal; Bertha, Minot; Mrs. Graham Jardine, Vancouver; Rita, at home; Osborne N. Deceased was sixty-two years of age, a very respected and well known member of the Baptist church. Her death has cast a gloom over the community.

NEWCASTLE, N. B., June 23—Bread cast upon the water fifteen years ago in the shape of kindness to a Civil War veteran has returned to Joseph E. Chesman, of this city, in the unexpected form of a bequest of $5000.

A letter from a New York lawyer brought the news to Chesman yesterday that Harry Green, an old pensioner in a New York suburb, had died, and in token of his appreciation of kindness which Chesman himself had forgotten, had willed him the money.

Green was very deaf. When he was employed in a Camden factory as a shoe-cutter fifteen years ago, Chesman was a fellow-employee. Because of his deafness Green had few companions. Chesman, however, communicated with him through the medium of notes, and a friendship sprang up between the veteran and the young man.

"I'll reward you some day for your kindness," Chesman says Green told him when they separated.

JUDGE MADE MISTAKE IN READING THE VERDICT

Built Up the Prisoner's Hopes by Declaring Him Not Guilty, but Soon Realized His Error.

CHICAGO, June 23—A fleeting hope of freedom held out to a prisoner in Judge Bronson's court yesterday was snatched away from him in a way that caused a sigh of pity to spread among the spectators when it was found that the clerk of the court should have read the jury's verdict as guilty instead of not guilty.

The prisoner was Frank O'Donnell, accused of robbing a citizen at the point of a revolver. The jury had been out but ten minutes. Two foremen of the jury handed the clerk two forms one form guilty and the other for acquittal.

"Not guilty," read the clerk absentmindedly, failing to note that he was reading from the unsigned form. O'Donnell jumped from his seat excitedly laughing and waving his lawyers' hand. He darted from the room with his head in the air and his eyes sparkling. Then the mistake was discovered and O'Donnell was brought back. His head sank on his chest to the real verdict was delivered. "Guilty," and condemned to serve the term of his natural life in prison.

RESCUED FROM THE DEEP.
Divers Found Strange Ship Filled With Men of Giant Stature.

LONDON, June 22.—The Bardo Museum in Tunis has just been enriched by a collection of antique marbles rescued from the deep.
Sponge spongers operating between Sfax and Sussa about two and a half miles off shore, returned to port with the news that their divers had found on the bottom of the sea a strange ship, through the burst sides of which they caught sight of men of giant stature reclining inside the vessel. The French authorities immediately took steps to raise the vessel and recover its contents.
It turned out to be an old Cretan sailing ship, 130 feet long by 80 wide, laden with large Corinthian and Doric marble columns and statuary, evidently intended for a temple or a palace. Among the statues are an exceedingly fine Eros, eight feet high, a Bacchus, a Hermes and a number of fawns.
Fortunately the marbles had been to a large extent saved over with

Boils and Pimples

Are caused entirely by the blood being in an impure condition, and the quickest and simplest way to get rid of them is to take a few bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters.

This purely vegetable remedy has cured thousands of cases of these painful and unsightly troubles during the past thirty years.

Mr. S. J. Weir, River View, Ont., writes:—
"Last summer I had nineteen boils on my neck and back. I was off work for over two weeks. I took everything I could think of but to no effect. I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and before I had used half the bottle the boils were gone. I took the rest of it, however, and I have not had a boil since."

Mr. W. J. Crandon, St. Mary's, Ont., writes:—
"I was troubled with pimples on my face for a couple of years and tried a good deal of patent medicine, but they were not of much use. Finally I used four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and am now entirely cured."

THE NEW DREADNOUGHTS
Will Fire Single Broad-sides of 15,000 Pounds.

NEW YORK, June 22.—A cable despatch to the Sun from London says: At the recent naval review at Spithead for the Imperial Press Congress it was remarked that in the fleet the famous Dreadnought was already generally referred to as the "Old Dreadnought."
The new Dreadnoughts will have ten 15.5 guns mounted in pairs. The guns will be of 50 calibre. The shells will weigh 1,500 pounds each. They will be 67 inches long. The gun breech will be nearly five feet in diameter. The ships will have increased length and beam, but the measurements have not yet been given out.
The new ships, which will be capable of firing ten guns in a single broad-side of 15,000 pounds, will require practically no larger crews than the present ships. All the guns which are now controlled hydraulically or by hand power will be electrically controlled, so that when the guns of one barbette cover the barbette or guns of another pair the electricity will be switched off, making it impossible to fire them.

UMBRELLA ETIQUETTE IN TURKEY.
In China ladies are attended by servants who hold umbrellas over their heads. The Chinese and Japanese introduce both the umbrella and parasol into their decorative work and athletic sports. In western Turkey it is necessary to close an umbrella on meeting people of high rank, and a European traveller, who was passing one of the palaces of the sultan was nearly run through by the guard before he comprehended that he must put down the open umbrella he carried. Every one passing the actual residence of the sultan lowers his umbrella as a salutation to "the brother of the sun and the moon."
EASILY RECOGNIZED.

"Did they?" Six of them recognized it at once.—Exchange.

WERE MARRIED 50 YEARS AGO TODAY
Mr. and Mrs. Hannington's Anniversary
BIG GATHERING TODAY
Best Man and Bridesmaid of Fifty Years Ago to be on Hand

Postmaster and Mrs. T. B. Hannington will today celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their summer home, Kestope, on the C.P.R. Just fifty years ago today in the quaint little Episcopal church at Gagetown, Miss Frances Phoebe Augusta Tilley was united in marriage to her cousin, Thomas Benjamin Hannington, son of the honorable Charles Hannington, of Shediac. Rev. Thomas Neale performed the ceremony.
An interesting feature of the anniversary is the fact that Edwin J. Everett, of C. & E. Everett, and Miss Georgiana Hannington, sister of the groom—who acted as best man and bridesmaid respectively at the wedding—will both be present at today's gathering.
Hou. Thomas Tilley was a general storekeeper at Gagetown, of Loyalist stock and considered by the community in which he lived as a man of much ability and strength of character.
Mrs. Hannington is a sister of the late lieutenant governor, Sir Leonard Tilley. She had five sisters, Mrs. Harrison of Chatham; Mrs. Alderton of Jacksonville, N. B.; Miss Augusta Tilley, Mrs. T. B. Barker, of St. John, and Mrs. Taylor of Gagetown, the two last named being deceased.
Mrs. Hannington's family history goes back to the beginning of this province when the ancestors were few and far between and St. John was little more than an encampment. In 1779 Wm. Hannington, a merchant, a royal warrant by the King of England for a large tract of land supposedly near Halifax, but finally located, with the help of Indian guides, near the present site of Shediac. His son, Daniel Hannington, represented the community for upwards of forty years in parliament and for several years as Speaker of the House. Hon. Daniel Hannington, who was for several years customs officer at Shediac, left a family of five sons and three daughters: viz: T. B. Hannington, William Hannington, Rev. Canon Hannington, of this city, Dr. J. P. Hannington, of Montreal, C. F. Hannington, C.E., Mrs. E. V. Covert, Georgiana C. Hannington and Dr. Ernest Hannington of Victoria, B. C.
Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hannington have been residents of St. John for many years and are held in high esteem by all who know them. Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Hannington, of whom six are living, namely: Fred E. of this city, Dr. E. Hannington, Philadelphia, Mrs. Dr. Jas. Manning and Mrs. H. Wetmore of this city, Miss Gertrude of Boston and Mrs. Geo. Harper of Winnipeg.

CATCH BLACK HAND CHIEF IN PITTSBURG
Oratio Runfola, Said to be Lieutenant of Lina, Taken by United States Inspector.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 21.—The arrest here of Oratio Runfola, alias Raimondo Cardinale, who is alleged to be a member of the Black Hand, is another step which the government has taken in its rigorous and systematic campaign against Black Hand outlaws.
Another alleged member of the band was arrested at Meadville, Pa., as the result of information obtained from Runfola. He gave his name as Pettino Galvo, Post Office inspectors J. F. Oldfield, E. F. Hutchison and George Belyea, who were on duty in the morning, and when Galvo learned that he would be brought to Pittsburgh he said that he would rather go directly to Cleveland, where he is now in jail.
Inspector Oldfield yesterday made a full revelation of the circumstances leading to the arrest of Runfola. The Pittsburgh man is said to be one of the ablest of the Black Hand leaders out for this region and watched the growth of prosperity of Italians so that when the time was right a victim could be selected.
Oldfield said that when Lina was arrested in Meadville she was searched and several letters were found, among which were some from Runfola, signed by his right name as well as by the alias he is said to have assumed. Runfola's effects were examined yesterday, but beyond a revolver nothing incriminating was found. Oldfield explains this by saying that since the Ohio arrest the various members of the band have been active in riding themselves of anything incriminating.

HORSE TOO PROUD TO BECOME A PAUPER
New York Fire Horse Ran Away From Farm, and Now He's In Harness Again.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Jim is only a Paterson Fire Department horse, but he is too proud to remain on the Almhous farm, to which he was committed on Wednesday, when the fire authorities decided he was no longer fit for active service.
For five years he was the pet of Engine Company No. 7 in the New Jersey city, and when he was started on his journey to the Almhous farm, the boys gathered about, stroked his mane, patted him from head to tail and said "Good-bye, old Jim."
On Wednesday night he was placed in a box stall at the farm. There was no place for a real horse with red blood in his veins, thought Jim, and while the employees were abed Jim took French leave by leaping through a window in the rear of the stall, carrying the entire window sash with him. He sped across the farm, leaped a barbed wire fence and was rapidly disappearing cityward when it was found he was missing and the alarm was given.
Chief Stagg, of the Fire Department, decided that Jim would find his way to some engine house. All the engine companies were notified to be on the look-out, and an hour later Jim was found standing in front of engine house No. 4. Chief Stagg was called, and after looking Jim over, concluded that the old horse was entitled to a place in the active ranks, so it was decided to assign him for the present to the job of hauling coal to the engine house.

FORFEIT BEQUEST IF THEY GAMBLE
Toronto Woman Leaves Property to Nephews on That Condition—Had Horror of Gambling.

TORONTO, June 22.—By the will of Matilda Bernard, who died at 11 1/2 Grove Avenue in June, two of the beneficiaries are precluded from ever engaging in gambling or encouraging others to gamble on pain of forfeiting their share of the estate.
Mrs. Bernard left property, real and personal, worth $25,000. Her first care was to safeguard the future of her only child, John Francis Bernard, who if deaf and dumb, if he dies unmarried the property is to be divided into two equal parts, one of which is to be shared equally by the nephews and nieces of her husband, the other, by her own. Should the son desire to attend the deaf and dumb school at Montreal, the trustees are to pay the expenses, and in every other way provide for his comfort. In case he has not visited Montreal, prior to his mother's death, she directs that the trustees, after consulting his guardians, are to provide the expenses of the journey there and for a stay of a month in that city in company with his cousin William Gray.
The deceased appears to have had a horror of gambling, and in a codicil to the will makes the bequest of a store and lot in the village of Brechin, Ont., to her nephews, Frederick, Forest and Richard Frawley, dependent on their abstaining from that practice. In case it is found out that either or both nephews are addicted to gambling or cause others to gamble, then that portion of my property which would have gone to my nephew or nephews is to revert to the estate, reads the codicil.
"In case it is found that only one of my nephews gambles, then a half interest in it is to be conveyed to the other nephew; the other half to be given to my sister, Elizabeth Forest."

SIEGEL INTERESTS COMBINED TO FORM HUGE CORPORATION
Chicago and New York Stores in $10,250,000 Merger.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Henry Siegel has explained the purposes of the new Siegel Store Corporation, which today filed a certificate of incorporation in Delaware. The corporation has a capital of $10,250,000. Two million dollars of this is seven per cent. accumulative preferred stock and $8,250,000 in common stock. Henry Siegel is president.
The Siegel Store Corporation takes over the Siegel-Cooper Company, of Chicago, the Simpson-Crawford Company and the Fourteenth street store, of Manhattan. The Henry Siegel and Company store in Boston is not included in the new combination, but Mr. Siegel states that this store will be taken in later.
"The new corporation," said Mr. Siegel, "is a holding company, and each separate store remains as at present, but it is to be controlled by the new corporation. The formation of this corporation is the result of a long series of other departmental stores."
The $800,000 capital additional to the $10,250,000 of 7 per cent. preferred stock to be exchanged for Simpson-Crawford collateral bonds, will be used in the business. More than 70 per cent. of this $800,000 has been subscribed for by our help in Chicago and New York. We have sold this stock at par to our employees. The remaining stock cannot be sold at less than $108 a share."

NOT TO SINK SHIPS BUT LOCATE THEM
Real Use of the Airship in Warfare.
Their Power Far Too Limited to be Effective—Aeroplanes Will Not Become Battleships of the Sky.

LONDON, June 22.—With every flight of the Zeppelin airship alarming pictures are drawn of Dreadnoughts sunk by bombs from the skies, but Fred T. Jane, the naval expert, scorns the idea that jinking warships will be one of the chief uses of airships in war time. The power of high explosives, he says, is far too limited. The real danger lies in quite another direction.
Experiments made some time ago in Austria proved conclusively that from a balloon all ships are clearly visible at night. The present main defence of a battleship fleet against night torpedo attacks is its invisibility. Aerial scouts will make it very hard not to be seen. Such scouts could easily report by wireless the location of a fleet of destroyers.
Of course the fleet might also have its destroyers, which would speedily spot the destroyers, but this would be little help, at gun-fire very seriously believe that gun-fire will prevent a torpedo attack. The only remedy will lie in a better and more complete net defence than now obtains, that is, all around defence instead of a three-quarter defence, and in plenty of destroyers to meet the hostile boats. The first fruits of aviation are likely to be more destroyers and more torpedo nets.
Jane is sceptical as to the offensive power of aeroplanes. They may, he says, become the torpedo boats of the dirigibles, but there is not the remotest present prospect of their becoming the battleships of the skies.

CLERK BREAKS LEG IN SEARCH FOR FIRE
ST. STEPHEN, June 22.—At about one o'clock this morning guests of the Windsor Hotel, merrily smoking gas, and Dell Belyea, a clerk, started out on a round of inspection. Holding a lighted match he exploded the several rooms of the hotel. All went well until the sample room at the rear of the first floor was reached, when a gas explosion was heard. In a moment the room was in flames and Belyea suffering from a broken leg was only recovered with difficulty.
An alarm of fire brought the department in quick response and the blaze was extinguished with little damage. Upon investigating the damage it was found that the glass of the sample room had been badly shattered as a result of the explosion. Belyea received his broken leg as the result of being hit by a table which was hurled across the room. There was no panic among the guests of the hotel.

BRITISH NAVY IS AS FINELY ORGANIZED AS GERMAN ARMY
American Correspondent in London Sends Interesting Cable.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The Tribune's special correspondent in London cables that comparisons between the Liberal revolt against the land taxes and the Cave of Adulam in 1865 are defective in many respects. The leaders of the discontent are less important than were Lowe and Horland, who might have been easily conciliated if more attention had been paid to them. Sir J. Dickson-Foynder and Sir F. Whittaker are the principal Liberal opponents of the taxation of undeveloped land and ungot-to grievances. Something may be done to conciliate them, but a complete surrender is impossible, when the Radicals and Labor men are rallying with ardor to support the budget. The critical clause in which the troglodytes are interested will not be reached next week, and before the division takes place the Prime Minister may succeed in finding a middle course which the Radicals and Whigs can take without a sacrifice of principle.
The budget is not likely to be abandoned in the Commons when the Government majority is so large, nor will it be rejected by the Lords when it is unpopular and can be depended upon to increase the Liberal majority in the next parliament. The weak points of the budget are heavy taxation to obtain a big surplus next year, and the incorporation of the land valuation scheme in the financial measure without a separate act which the Lords can amend or veto. The importance of the Liberal despatch is magnified by the fact that the Radicals and Whigs are not likely to make a determined stand against the Government.
The naval manoeuvres are proving anew that the country is well prepared for a conflict over sea power. The thoroughness of the military mobilization of Germany, England's supremacy on the high seas is adequately proved by the fact that the Government and signs of better trade also favor the Liberals.

WALLA WALLA, June 22.—Ford car No. 1 in the New York to Seattle race, broke down 12 miles west of here late last night and at last accounts was stalled and unable to proceed. An automobile with a repair outfit was dispatched from this city at an early hour this morning.
"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins. "I am learning a lot about baseball. I can pick out the umpire every time."
"Oh, you can?"

TOUR CLOSES ON THURSDAY
Colonial Journalists Return to London on That Day

LONDON, June 22.—Today the overseas delegates to the Imperial Press conference are enjoying a tour of the Scottish lake district. The tour included a visit to Loch Lomond, the Trossachs, Callander, etc., as guests of the city of Glasgow. The delegates go to Edinburgh tonight, where they will be the guests of the Lord provost tomorrow.

THURSDAY
Thursday the tour closes and the delegates will return to London. On Friday the final session will be held in London, when formal action will be taken in regard to cheaper cable rates and press intercommunication. The Hon. H. W. E. Lawson will preside at this meeting.
Yesterday the University of Glasgow conferred the degree of LL.D. upon Sir Hugh Graham of Montreal and the Rev. J. A. MacDonald of Toronto.
Mr. MacDonald, in returning thanks to the senate of the university for the honors conferred, said that their work as journalists was in the midst of a crowd, but they felt that when they went back, having been called to the true university ideal, they would see go back to strive for peace and not strife.
At the banquet last evening tendered by the Lord provost and the corporation of the city of Glasgow, P. D. Ross of the Ottawa Evening Journal was called upon to respond to the toast of "Our Guests."
He said that the colonial had every confidence in Great Britain. The delegates from the overseas dominions believe, said Mr. Ross, that before Great Britain has been called upon to spend her last shilling and sacrifice her last man" she will find that her foe has the worst of the game. Those across the sea realize that the mother country is carrying a tremendous burden of Imperial insurance and they feel that the time might come when the burden might prove too heavy. The colonies might compare politically or commercially with those mighty islands, but they had unlimited confidence in the future possibilities.

BUILDING UP A SPEECH
Before making a speech Charles Dickens would decide on his various heads and then in his mind's eye like the whole subject to the tire of a wheel, he being the hub. From it hub to the tire he would run as many spokes as there were subjects to be treated, and during the progress of a speech he would deal with each separately, elaborating them as he went round the wheel, and when all the spokes dropped out one by one and nothing but the tire and spokes remained, he would know that he had accomplished his task and that his speech was at an end.

The leaders of the discontent are less important than were Lowe and Horland, who might have been easily conciliated if more attention had been paid to them. Sir J. Dickson-Foynder and Sir F. Whittaker are the principal Liberal opponents of the taxation of undeveloped land and ungot-to grievances. Something may be done to conciliate them, but a complete surrender is impossible, when the Radicals and Labor men are rallying with ardor to support the budget. The critical clause in which the troglodytes are interested will not be reached next week, and before the division takes place the Prime Minister may succeed in finding a middle course which the Radicals and Whigs can take without a sacrifice of principle.
The budget is not likely to be abandoned in the Commons when the Government majority is so large, nor will it be rejected by the Lords when it is unpopular and can be depended upon to increase the Liberal majority in the next parliament. The weak points of the budget are heavy taxation to obtain a big surplus next year, and the incorporation of the land valuation scheme in the financial measure without a separate act which the Lords can amend or veto. The importance of the Liberal despatch is magnified by the fact that the Radicals and Whigs are not likely to make a determined stand against the Government.
The naval manoeuvres are proving anew that the country is well prepared for a conflict over sea power. The thoroughness of the military mobilization of Germany, England's supremacy on the high seas is adequately proved by the fact that the Government and signs of better trade also favor the Liberals.

WALLA WALLA, June 22.—Ford car No. 1 in the New York to Seattle race, broke down 12 miles west of here late last night and at last accounts was stalled and unable to proceed. An automobile with a repair outfit was dispatched from this city at an early hour this morning.
"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins. "I am learning a lot about baseball. I can pick out the umpire every time."
"Oh, you can?"

TOUR CLOSES ON THURSDAY
Colonial Journalists Return to London on That Day

LONDON, June 22.—Today the overseas delegates to the Imperial Press conference are enjoying a tour of the Scottish lake district. The tour included a visit to Loch Lomond, the Trossachs, Callander, etc., as guests of the city of Glasgow. The delegates go to Edinburgh tonight, where they will be the guests of the Lord provost tomorrow.

THURSDAY
Thursday the tour closes and the delegates will return to London. On Friday the final session will be held in London, when formal action will be taken in regard to cheaper cable rates and press intercommunication. The Hon. H. W. E. Lawson will preside at this meeting.
Yesterday the University of Glasgow conferred the degree of LL.D. upon Sir Hugh Graham of Montreal and the Rev. J. A. MacDonald of Toronto.
Mr. MacDonald, in returning thanks to the senate of the university for the honors conferred, said that their work as journalists was in the midst of a crowd, but they felt that when they went back, having been called to the true university ideal, they would see go back to strive for peace and not strife.
At the banquet last evening tendered by the Lord provost and the corporation of the city of Glasgow, P. D. Ross of the Ottawa Evening Journal was called upon to respond to the toast of "Our Guests."
He said that the colonial had every confidence in Great Britain. The delegates from the overseas dominions believe, said Mr. Ross, that before Great Britain has been called upon to spend her last shilling and sacrifice her last man" she will find that her foe has the worst of the game. Those across the sea realize that the mother country is carrying a tremendous burden of Imperial insurance and they feel that the time might come when the burden might prove too heavy. The colonies might compare politically or commercially with those mighty islands, but they had unlimited confidence in the future possibilities.

BUILDING UP A SPEECH
Before making a speech Charles Dickens would decide on his various heads and then in his mind's eye like the whole subject to the tire of a wheel, he being the hub. From it hub to the tire he would run as many spokes as there were subjects to be treated, and during the progress of a speech he would deal with each separately, elaborating them as he went round the wheel, and when all the spokes dropped out one by one and nothing but the tire and spokes remained, he would know that he had accomplished his task and that his speech was at an end.

BRILLIANT WEDDING IN GERMAIN ST. CHURCH

Miss Winifred C. Barnaby Weds Capt. M. F. White.

Church Beautifully Decorated—Mr. and Mrs. White Leave for Scotland in the Fall and for India Next Year.

Germain Street Church was the scene of one of the most brilliant society weddings of the season at half-past three o'clock yesterday afternoon when the marriage of Miss Winifred Chapman Barnaby to Captain Maurice Forbes White, M. B. of the Indian Medical Service, was solemnized in the presence of a congregation which completely filled the sanctuary.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barnaby, of Prince street, and the groom is the youngest son of the late John Forbes White, LL. D., of Charlottetown, Dundee and Aberdeen, Scotland.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns, palms and white lilies. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. McMaster, pastor of the church, Stanley E. Fisher acted as organist, and the choir was directed by Geo. T. Cooper.

The invited guests, who numbered about one hundred, were admitted by ticket and shown to the space reserved for them at the front of the church by the ushers. The latter were: Dr. I. D. Walker, Cyrus F. Forbes, A. L. Fowler, Stanley L. Emerson.

After the guests were seated the doors were opened to admit other spectators. By the time set for the ceremony the church was completely filled.

Promptly at 3.30 the bridal procession, consisting of the bride, her parents and attendants, appeared at the door of the church and proceeded to the altar, while the choir rendered "The Voice That Breathed Our Eden."

The bride's gown was of white satin decorated with rich hand embroidery and seed pearls with yoke of Brussels net and lace. The bridal veil is of rose point lace with a wreath of orange blossoms and white heather. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Nan A. Barnaby, sister of the bride who was the bridesmaid, wore pink satin trimmed with silver chiffon cloth and a pink chip director's hat with pink plumes.

The brides was also attended by two maidens of honor. They were Mrs. J. F. Walker, daughter of Frederick, A. L. Mrs. W. A. Harrison, cousin of the bride. They were gowned in soft white and grey trimmed with lace with pink girdles and wore large picture hats of white net with plumes and pink roses.

The bridesmaid and matrons of honor carried bouquets of pink and white sweet peas and wore rare old brooches of early Norman design, the gift of the bridegroom.

Mr. Hazen C. Barnaby, brother of the bride, supported the bridegroom.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. W. H. Barnaby. The bride's mother was gowned in grey embroidered silk with chiffon hat trimmed with grey and white plumes and mauve sweet peas.

While the ceremony was being performed the choir chanted "God Be Merciful Unto Us and Bless Us." At its conclusion the bridal party marched to the vestry to sign the marriage certificate, to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, and when the party left the church Mendelssohn's wedding march was played.

Immediately after the service a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Princess street. There were about one hundred guests present and many beautiful presents, including jewelry, silver, china, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. White left on the Montreal express for a trip to Upper Canada. The bride's travelling costume was of navy blue tussore silk, tailored made, with a navy blue chip hat and crimson roses. They will return to St. John in about two weeks and will remain until September, when they will leave for England and Scotland. They will remain in Great Britain until next summer, when they leave for India.
