

PETROGRAD SO CLOSELY INVESTED BY ANTI-BOLSHEVIK FORCES THAT ONLY A MIRACLE CAN SAVE IT

Neither London or Paris in Receipt of Any Official Confirmation That Petrograd Has Fallen—Great Commercial Activity, However, Has Followed Reports of Petrograd's Fall—Reds Reported Successful at Selo Krasnoye—Yudenitch Successful.

London, Oct. 18. (By The A. P.)—Petrograd tonight was so closely invested by the anti-Bolshevik forces according to the latest official advice that military experts expressed the belief that little short of a miracle could save the hard pressed Bolsheviki. Indeed, one newspaper despatch reports that Yudenitch's cavalry is in the capital. But there is no confirmation of this. Neither had British official confirmation been received of the reported surrender of Kronstadt, although the war office states that the Estonians on Friday, operating in conjunction with Yudenitch, got within four miles of the Krasnaya Gorka, facing Kronstadt. This, it is stated, would be in a dangerous position, as with the capture of Petrograd, it would be cut off.

Coincident with these reports comes a vitriolic announcement by Leon Trotsky, the Bolsheviki war minister, referring to the anti-Bolshevik forces as "a pack of bourgeois curs worrying the body of Soviet Russia," and declaring that Petrograd will not fall. In the meantime, in the south, General Denikin has reported his successes. But he is meeting with strong resistance in the region where the fiercest fighting is going on.

Paris, Oct. 18.—No confirmation has been received here of the report that Petrograd has fallen, apart from a private message to the Stockholm Svenska Dagbladet, reported from "an authoritative source," that cavalry of the Northwestern Russian Army has entered Petrograd.

London, Oct. 19.—A Reuters despatch from Helsinki dated Saturday says: "The report of the surrender of Kronstadt and of the imminent fall of Petrograd has caused great commercial activity here, and there has been a sudden rise in the value of the ruble. Contracts for delivery of food and other necessities have been hurriedly concluded."

M. Margulies, minister of commerce for the Northwest Russian government, has arranged for 50,000 kilograms of rice to be shipped to Petrograd as soon as the treaty is ratified.

London, Oct. 18.—A Reuters despatch from Helsinki dated Saturday says: "The report of the surrender of Kronstadt and of the imminent fall of Petrograd has caused great commercial activity here, and there has been a sudden rise in the value of the ruble. Contracts for delivery of food and other necessities have been hurriedly concluded."

An earlier Bolsheviki announcement reported that Kiev had been captured Wednesday by an impetuous surprise attack. General Denikin had not reported the loss of this town, one of the most important in Southern Russia, but confined himself to announcing that fierce fighting was in progress in the vicinity of Kiev. The Bolsheviki offensive in this region is evidently continuing.

Reds Successful. Bulletin—London, Oct. 19.—The Red troops which retired from Kras-noye Selo and Gatchina, shortly afterwards victoriously re-occupied both towns and the Soviet army started a counter offensive which is promising brilliant results, says a wireless despatch received here this evening from Moscow.

The despatch adds that the land batteries at Kronstadt repelled attacks by a British fleet.

Yudenitch's Troops Successful. London, Oct. 19.—General Yudenitch's troops have occupied the station at Ligovo, about eight miles from Petrograd, according to a Helsinki despatch. They have also reached the railway junction at Putilov, a suburb of the capital.

Still in Doubt. London, Oct. 19.—Up to the present hour (6:35 p. m.) no news has been received which would throw any light on the Russian situation, except a Helsinki despatch, dated Saturday, reporting that the Red flag was again flying over Kronstadt, and that the batteries of Krasnaya Gorka had been active Friday the night long.

A Copenhagen despatch, dated Saturday, said the report was still unconfirmed that the White forces had cut communication between Revel and Petrograd.

Sazonoff in the Dark. Bulletin—Paris, Oct. 19. (By A. P.)—Sergius Sazonoff, representing Admiral Kolchak and General Denikin in Paris, is informed the Associated Press this evening that he had received no advice of the capture of Petrograd. He considered however that it was likely.

No information regarding the fall of Petrograd has been received by either the peace conference or the American delegation.

Washington Informed. Bulletin—Washington, Oct. 19.—The fall of Petrograd and the occupation of Kronstadt by the Russian and Bolsheviki forces has been reported officially by the general staff of the Finnish army to the Warsaw representative of the Northwest government of Russia. This information was reported to the State Department tonight.

Concentration of Forces. Bulletin—Helsinki, Oct. 19.—A communication of the Northwest Russian army received here today confirms the capture of Krasnaya Gorka, and claims that the railway between Petrograd and Moscow has been cut by blowing up a bridge over the Tosna river.

The communication asserts that the Bolsheviki have concentrated 20,000 men at Gdoff, on Lake Peipus, and 10,000 near Petrograd, and declares that they will offer strong resistance. The Tosna river crosses the railway line at Tosna 23 miles southeast of Petrograd. Krasnaya Gorka lies on the Gulf of Finland to the west of Kronstadt. Gdoff is on the western shore of Lake Peipus about 70 miles north of Pskov.

GREAT WAR VETERANS NOT TO TAKE POLITICAL SIDES SHOULD THEIR REQUESTS BE DENIED BY OTTAWA

Realize the Situation in Which Canada is Placed Today, But Sincerely Hope Action, Favorable to Those in Need, May be Voted by the Government.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—A vigorous denial was given this evening by Lieutenant-Colonel W. P. Furney, Dominion President of the G. W. V. A., to the rumor recently circulated that the veterans contemplated political action should their requests before the parliamentary committee on re-establishment be refused.

"We realize the gigantic proportions of the problem which now confronts the parliamentary committee," he stated, "but we are impressed that the remarks of the chairman, Hon. J. A. Calder, at the conclusion of his inquiry, foreshadowed comprehensive and progressive remedial legislation for returned soldiers and dependents."

Colonel Furney, together with other members of the Dominion Executive Committee of the G. W. V. A., has recently arrived in Ottawa to await the decision of Parliament in respect to the report of the select committee of the House, which will probably be tabled the early part of the week. He has recently returned from an extensive tour of the Maritime Provinces.

"The attention of returned soldiers everywhere is focused most intently upon the outcome of the present investigation," he stated, "and the earnest hope is entertained that substantial provision will be made for those who need a helping hand to regain a career of usefulness in civilian life. Canada gave unlimited support to her soldiers to make their achievements upon the battlefield, and she should accord these men the same measure of support to insure equally valorous feats in our national activities. Optimism prevails at present among returned men in regard to the pending action of Parliament, as it is gener-

NARROW ESCAPE FROM SERIOUS AUTO ACCIDENT

Rev. Bowley Green of Moncton to Conduct Evangelical Campaign in Massachusetts.

Moncton, Oct. 19.—An automobile party, on route to Hillsboro, Albert county, had a miraculous escape from death Saturday night. The driver of the car, Leslie Barnett, in an effort to get clear of striking cattle on the road, went over Scott's Hill, the worst hill on the road. The car turned over. The wind shield and fender were broken, but with the exception of one of the occupants of the car, who was badly cut about the face, the damage was slight.

Rev. Dr. Bowley Green, pastor of the First Baptist church leaves tomorrow for Lynn, Mass., where he conducts the next two weeks an inter-denominational evangelistic campaign.

PRINCE OF WALES RECEIVED BY LOYAL CANADIANS AT NIAGARA

Stately City of Hamilton Transformed Into a Fairyland of Gaiety and Good Humor on the Occasion of the Visit of His Royal Highness Saturday — Streets Thronged With Eager Crowds Who Met Their Royal Visitor With a Right Royal Welcome.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 19.—His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, is enjoying quiet stay in the presence of the world's greatest waterfall, after his visit to Hamilton, which proved, through the enthusiasm of the Hamilton people, one of the most strenuous days of the royal tour. The stately city of Hamilton was transformed Saturday into a fairy land of gaiety and good humor, happy crowds, and unrestrained festivity.

Long before the royal party reached the T. I. and B. station, the streets were thronged with eager crowds, who met their royal visitor with a royal welcome indeed. The scene at the city hall beggars description. It was impossible to hold back the crowds which converged upon the building from all sides and restrained its entrance only long enough to permit of the reading of an address of welcome and the response, which the prince read from the steps of the city hall. Inside the building the people crowded about to shake the prince's hand and to speak their words of welcome.

The opening of the streets, which was a brilliant ceremony, attended by another huge crowd and featured by the singing of the school children. Visits to the hospitals rounded out the morning.

After a private luncheon at the Yacht Club the prince reviewed the veterans on the athletic grounds. War medals were presented to several scores of war veterans, and the long lines of soldiers, the grandstand thronged with the next of kin of the soldiers, and the big grounds packed with spectators of both sides, a brilliant and impressive function.

The royal party played golf before dinner, which was given by the civic authorities, and the prince spoke/teasingly of his visit to Hamilton.

He also knew the water of Lake Ontario, and round about its shores was fought the last decisive fight which preserved Canada for British institutions and the crown. But for the loyalty and fighting spirit of the British settlers here, the province would have been a part of the United States.

The prince's visit to Hamilton was a triumph for the city, and the people here are proud to have been the first to meet the prince in the province.

our own mind. One of the monuments to your victory stands not far away at Stony Creek, and the names of women like Laura Secord are household words.

"It was then in full keeping with your past traditions that your men and women did such splendid service for Canada and the empire in the last four years. I was greatly touched by the number of your veterans who came on parade to see me this afternoon. I have already spoken to them, but I should like to thank also, the men and women who did their part so well here at home in providing for and equipping the fighting men. I greatly value the close association which I formed on service at the front with my brother officers and men from this and all parts of the empire, and I hope that they and their kindred will regard that as a link between us for all our lives. I can say most sincerely for myself that time will not weaken it in any way."

The city's send-off was in keeping with its welcome. When the prince finally boarded his train, forty-five minutes late, the Grand Trunk station echoed with the cheers and good wishes of great crowds assembled. The prince's conquest of the city was complete.

Another great ovation greeted the prince at Niagara Falls when he arrived at a late hour last night. The royal party was taken on arrival to the residence of J. Y. Grant, overlooking the great cataract, and in a few minutes the prince had presented a button which illuminated the Canadian falls with electric lights for the first time in years. It was a species of magic. The prince faced only a low cloud of mist gleaming in the darkness and suddenly every detail of the falls became as clear as day.

The party later went down to the lower levels and viewed the scene at close range. The prince walked up the stairs, his hand on the banister, and tear himself away from the spot.

Today he is housed at the Clifton Hotel, overlooking the falls, his room being furnished with the same bed his royal father used a number of years ago on his Canadian visit.

On Monday the prince will receive an address of welcome from the city and will review veterans and inspect the power houses and the lower rapids before leaving for Brantford to begin the last leg of his Ontario tour.

There are many possibilities in the way of surprises—Prohibition Question Produces Many Considerations Which Place Political Judges at Sea.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—With everybody guessing as to the probable result of the voting tomorrow on the Ontario liquor bill, the Ontario provincial elections promise to be exceptionally interesting. There are many possibilities in the way of surprises in the election tomorrow than in any provincial general election in the history of Ontario. There are more candidates, under more varieties of names, than ever known before, and for the first time in a general election in this province women have the franchise. Added to these elements of uncertainty as to the outcome is the prohibition question—which doubtless will bring out a very large number of votes and which will probably affect the results in the ballots cast for the various candidates. What this effect may be is a question that is keeping them guessing and will keep them guessing until the ballots are counted tomorrow night. Whatever the result may be each of the parties in the contest has put in a hard week of work.

The prohibitionists and anti-prohibitionists carried the contest right through today, when a number of meetings were held by each side, and when a majority of the pulpits of the evangelical churches were used in a last call for votes for the continuance of the Ontario Temperance Act. Saturday night meetings were held by both sides, and today the usual final Sunday "quiet work" was probably performed by all the parties to the contest.

With the exception of Toronto, the polls in every central district in Ontario will be opened at 8 o'clock and close at 6 o'clock on Toronto and in East York and West York the polls will open at 7 o'clock (daylight saving time) and close at 6 o'clock. In the contest in southwest Toronto, where H. H. Dewar, K. C., Liberal leader in Ontario, is opposed by George H. Gooderham, a good deal of interest was taken in the anticipated visit to this city of S. W. Jacobs, M. P., Montreal, to speak Saturday

PERSONS SUSPECTED OF BEING HOSTILE TO CAUSE OF D'ANNUNZIO WILL BE SUBJECT TO RIGOROUS MARTIAL LAW

Fiume, Oct. 18.—(By The Associated Press).—D'Annunzio has announced that the most rigorous martial law will be invoked in dealing with persons suspected of being unfavorable to the Fiume cause. "The City of Fiume will be considered as a fortress in time of war," the announcement says. "Whoever professes sentiments hostile to the cause of Fiume will be considered a public enemy and the penalty of death will be immediately carried out."

Taken literally it is pointed out in some quarters, the decree would automatically make the Greeks enemies of the D'Annunzio cause, but the belief is expressed that only those who actually carried on a campaign against the D'Annunzio regime will be affected.

LIBERALS OF VICTORIA COUNTY DISGUSTED WITH THE LEADERS

All Are Sweeping into Line With Col. Melville and Will Support Him to the Finish Believing He Represents the Responsible Party—Returned Soldiers and Business Men Lined up in His Fight.

Special to The Standard. Grand Falls, N. B., Oct. 19.—To say that Colonel W. W. Melville's nomination as a candidate in the by-election is meeting with the support of people of this town would be putting it too mildly, for it is hard to realize the great change that has taken place in this community since the last general election.

For years the voters have rolled up a large majority for a Liberal candidate, but since their interests have not always been guarded by the members elected they have, with but few exceptions, swung over to the more responsible party. This is more noticeable among the deep-thinking business men who are coming out openly and lending their support to Col. Melville. Although the returned soldiers, as a society, are non-political, every returned man, both in the town and outlying districts, has volunteered to assist in the election of Col. Melville, as they feel if he could be trusted at the front to safeguard Canada and her people, no better man is better fitted to represent the Canadian people at Ottawa.

Arrangements have been made to have Colonel Melville speak in McLaughlin's Theatre on Monday evening, October 20th, and, measured by the conversations and feelings of the people, a bumper house is anticipated. The younger element of the Liberal party do not feel like following the wishes of Hon. J. F. Tweeddale and support the Farmers' candidate, as they are of the opinion that Mr. Tweeddale is playing with the way the few selected leaders of the Liberal party in this county are handling affairs. In fact, several of the prominent workers for the Liberal party are about disgusted with the way the few selected leaders of the Liberal party in this county are handling affairs. It is understood that already a farmer has been promised the nomination in the Local House as a farmers' candidate, thus eliminating any opportunity for other aspirants for the position. This does not seem fair to the majority of the Liberal supporters, who can foresee the abolition of their party in Victoria County.

TROTSKY VITUPERATIVE IN HIS COMMENT ON OPPRESSOR'S

Says a Pack of Bourgeois Curs is Worrying the Body of Soviet Russia on All Sides—Lays Considerable of the Blame Upon Stock Exchange — Thinks French and English Are Overjoyed at Failures of His Cohorts.

London, Oct. 18.—(By The A. P.)—The following description of the situation in the Baltic is attributed to Leon Trotsky, the Bolsheviki minister of war, by a wireless message from Moscow:

"The pack of bourgeois curs is worrying the body of Soviet Russia on all sides. Polish knights are gnashing their teeth. The German general, Von Der Goltz, under instructions by the stock exchange and the outflowing of all lands, is seizing the Baltic coast with the help of monarchist bands in order to attack Moscow from there. In the northwest, the blood-drunk trio, Yudenitch, Balakitch and Rodzianko, are advancing on Petrograd. The Estonian peace negotiators served as a means to lure the Red Petrograd troops and as a soporific. "The army defending the ap-

CREW OF BRITISH SCHOONER ONATE FREE OF CHARGE OF RANK MUTINY

The Charge Against Them Was Preferred by Captain of American Steamer—British Consul, After Investigation, Finds No Cause—Seamen Returned to Their Homes.

Philadelphia, Penna., Oct. 19.—The four survivors of the crew of the British schooner Onate, who were charged with mutiny by Capt. Sullivan of the American steamship Zirkel, were freed today by T. P. Porter, the British consul, after an enquiry into the charges. They will be sent to their homes in Newfoundland in a few days as shipwrecked seamen. Mr. Porter was assisted at the inquiry by H. A. Ford and T. H. Fox, vice-consuls, and Captain Joseph Legge, of the Newfoundland schooner David Ritchey, now in port.

The four survivors, Thomas Monton, Ernest Pizzaro, Douglas Nicholls and Lorenzo Ash, drifting helplessly in their little craft, were picked up by the Zirkel in mid-ocean October 8, and the schooner set adrift. Captain Brubett, master of the Onate, and his brother, Ernest, the first mate, had been killed. Believing there had been a mutiny on board, Captain Sullivan of the rescue ship, placed the survivors in their little craft, turned them over to the authorities upon his arrival here last Thursday.

After the inquiry Mr. Porter stated he was satisfied there were no grounds for the allegation of foul play and that the testimony had convinced him that Captain Brubett and his brother

FLYING PARSON WINS HONORS IN AIR DERBY

TRAIL OF DEATH MARKS CONTEST

Spectre of Death Winged Its Tragic Flight With the Transcontinental Air Derby—Magnanimous Victor.

Minesota, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Lieut. B. W. Maynard, victor in the army air race across the continent and return, landed here at 1:50 p. m.

Generous Tribute. The first words uttered by Lieut. Maynard when he put his foot on another earth again were a generous tribute to Sergeant Klein, his companion on the flight.

Spectre of Death. The grim spectre of death winged its tragic flight with the transcontinental air derby. Ten lives had been the toll to the time Lieut. Maynard crossed the finish line. Seven had died actually in the contest and three in connection with it.

From New York to San Francisco the route of the flight was dotted with disabled planes which were forced to land and quit the race, or crashed to destruction. Many fliers were injured and the twenty control stations between terminal points saw first aid work from day to day as the derby progressed. Sixty-two contestants started the big race. Forty-seven took the air from Minesota and fifteen from San Francisco Wednesday, October eighth, for the 5,200 mile round trip.

DEATH AND INJURY FOLLOW POLICE FIGHT AT AMHERST

Two Returned Soldiers in Mixup With Police—One Dead and Official Down With Serious Injuries.

Special to The Standard. Amherst, N. S., Oct. 19.—Theodore McKay, returned soldier, dead; Frederick Brine, police officer, seriously injured, and Roy Rushton, returned soldier, held under arrest, are the summary of the fight and shooting fracas in Springfield on Saturday night. An inquest was held late tonight before Dr. Warnepe and Crown Prosecutor James A. Hanway. The verdict has not been rendered at the time of writing. The fight started when Roy Rushton, who had been ordered to move along home by Police Constable Brine, instead of doing so, it is alleged, grappled with the officer, who told him he was then under arrest. Rushton continued the resistance. Seeing McKay's approach, and knowing that he could do nothing against the two men, Brine drew a gun and fired a shot at the ground. It is alleged that the bullet inflicted a slight wound in McKay's leg. The shot failed to deter either McKay or Rushton, and they got Brine down and commenced to punish and kick him. Brine again fired and the second shot hit McKay in the breast, causing death. Brine was then in a serious condition and was removed to hospital and was in too precarious a state to give evidence before the Coroner. His injuries are very serious, and it is thought possible that he will not recover. Rushton was placed under arrest Sunday afternoon. The three men were all overrears in the great war.

AMERICAN GUNBOAT IS DISABLED OFF CANSO, N. S.

Sydney Agent of Marine Department Receives Wireless from Montralite.

This evening in a wireless message sent out by the Imperial Oil company's steamer Montralite. Two tugs have been sent to the assistance of the disabled boat. They sailed through the Bras d'Or Lakes, leaving North Sydney at 6 o'clock tonight and they should reach the gunboat by one o'clock tomorrow morning. The wireless message sent out by the Montralite which was passing Eagle No. 41, did not mention the nature of the disablement of the boat. It simply stated the fact and asked that assistance be sent at once. The Montralite did not state whether she was standing by or not, but if her condition is very serious no doubt she would likely do so.

WORLD BROTHERHOOD AND THE IDEAL TO BE AIMED AT

Recent Congress and Organization of the Federation Held in London—Canadian and American Delegates to the First World Brotherhood—Next Congress in America in 1920.

When the Canadian Pacific Steamship, Empress of France, added her first transatlantic trip to Quebec this week there stepped off the majestic ship the Canadian and American delegates to the first World Brotherhood Congress—the men who had been instrumental in organizing the first World Brotherhood Federation, and who had attended one of the most unique and potential meetings ever held in Old London. The Canadian delegation was by far the largest ever overseas, and was exceeded only by the British representatives. It numbered about 57, which included the wives of some half dozen of the delegates. The Prime Minister of Canada, Sir Robert L. Borden, gave the movement its unique recognition in a message sent by him and read at the opening session by Rev. R. B. Whyte of Ottawa. Premier Gen. J. C. Smart of South Africa, President Woodrow Wilson of the United States and other distinguished world men, also sent their messages and congratulations. The Canadian delegates were given quite a leading place in the public and business meetings, in fact, it was conceded by all that it was the world vision, the energy and ability of the Canadian Secretary, Thomas Howell, of Toronto, which made the world congress possible, and was Mr. Howell who associated Mr. J. O. McCarthy and other Canadian enthusiasts. Rev. J. G. Shearer of Toronto, spoke for the Canadian delegates at the opening; Rev. J. W. Southern, of Winnipeg, spoke on "Brotherhood and Religion"; Bishop Browning of Toronto and Rev. W. Davidson of Montreal, on "Brotherhood and the League of Nations"; Cal. Davis, of Hamilton, led the discussion on "The Press and the Brotherhood"; Rev. J. T. Conby Morris, of London, spoke at the Lord Mayor's reception in Mansion House; Rev. E. B. Lancelotti of Toronto, took part in the great service in the City Temple at which Premier Lloyd George gave his wonderful address; Rev. J. W. Williamson, of St. John, was leader of the congress music; Rev. C. L. Melville, Hamilton; Rev. W. H. Harvey, Hespeler; Rev. M. C. Platt, Winnipeg; Rev. John Colburn, of Midland; E. B. Terryberry, of Woodstock; Ross Smith, of London; F. R. Yule, of Montreal; Dr. H. C. Manly, of Saskatchewan; J. H. Seyre, of Calgary; Rev. A. P. MacKenzie, of Toronto; Rev. A. P. Lattin, of Winnipeg; and other Canadians were heard either in public meetings or in council. The great Labor Leader, Peter Wright, became one of the party coming home, and was foremost Brotherhood speaker on the Empress. When the World Brotherhood Federation selected its officers the following Canadians were chosen: Thomas Howell, Associate Secretary for North America; J. O. McCarthy, Cal. Davis, Dr. J. G. Shearer, Rev. J. Colburn and Rev. J. W. Southern, Executive.

The World Congress and the formation of the World Brotherhood Federation show that "humanity" has struck its tent, as says General J. C. Smart, "and once more is on the march." Many signs indicate that humanity is trying to find its way into a better world order. And the Brotherhood Congress which met in the City Temple, London, September 12th, 1919, is one of the significant signs of promise.

From the inside this Congress means that the Brotherhood movement now claims a definite status and place as a great force in the main current of the world's life. From the outside it provides evidence in the presence of delegates from twenty different countries that there is a widespread response to the Brotherhood message throughout the world. These two aspects of the movement find concrete expression in the creation of a permanent international organization to be known as the World Brotherhood Federation.

In a real sense the congress had its inception in the feeling of a few men on both sides of the Atlantic that the time had come for Brotherhood men to get together and take counsel. The actual beginning of the Congress is found in the visit during last spring to Canada and the United States of Mr. William Ward and Mr. William Heel, of London. This call issued by the British National Brotherhood Council invited Brotherhood men of all lands to meet and consider what the spirit is saying into men, and to ask what we can do to create the brotherly spirit among the nations. Large credit for the development of the plans must be given to the Christian Men's Brotherhood Federation of Canada, and especially to its Secretary, Thomas Howell, Toronto.

Saturday afternoon, September 13th, was named as the first gathering of the Congress. An enrollment showed that twenty countries were represented by 276 delegates. Of these 57 were from Canada and 15 from the United States.

It is impossible here to give any detail of the proceedings. A volume is to be published at an early date giving the addresses and discussions in full. This will be a valuable encyclopedia of Brotherhood information. Several noteworthy things may be mentioned. First is the large response given to the brotherhood by the London papers. Some men have said that this congress won a larger recognition from the press than any other religious gathering for thirty years.

Another is found in the personnel of the congress. Sunday morning the Lord Bishop of London preached in St. Paul's a remarkable sermon on "Brotherhood" which in a real sense sounded the keynote to the congress. On the same day in Westminster Abbey Canon de Candolle spoke on the religion of brotherhood, and Dr. J. Fort Newton, in the City Temple, spoke on the brotherhood of mankind. In thousands of churches throughout Britain brotherhood sermons were also given. Then a congress that can bring to its platform such men as Lord Robert Cecil and Prof. Gilbert Murray, Mr. Arthur Henderson and Sir Harry Johnson is sure to be a notable one. Beyond this, a congress that can be invited to a reception in the Mansion House by the Lord Mayor and the Lady Mayoress of London, and is further addressed by the Prime Minister himself has a deep meaning. The congress also brought congratulations from Cardinal Mercier of Belgium and other notables.

The congress formally opened Monday morning with an inspiring devotional service, led by Rev. F. B. Meyer, D. D. This was followed by the President's address, by Dr. John Clifford, who discussed international brotherhood, its great task and its mighty hope. In a truly prophetic message he lifted the congress to a more Christ, and all ye are brothers. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear. Mother! You must say "California."

The delegates were of one mind in believing that the time had come to effect some kind of permanent world brotherhood organization. After free discussion a constitution was finally adopted providing for a world brotherhood federation.

The motto of the federation is the words of Christ: "One is your Master, even Christ, and all ye are brothers." The officers elected were as follows: President—John Clifford, D. D., London.

Vice-Presidents—Dr. Robert B. Speer, New York; Dr. T. Albert Moore, Toronto; Premier Jan Smuts, South Africa.

Secretary and Commissioner—William Ward, London.

Treasurer—William Heel, London.

Rev. T. Sykes, of London, was elected as European Associate Secretary, and Mr. Thomas Howell, of Toronto, as Associate Secretary of North America.

The constitution provides for a world brotherhood council, made up of ten delegates from every nation with a brotherhood organization. It also provides for the election by the council of delegates from other nations which do not at present have a national brotherhood organization. The congress also adopted a brotherhood message and challenge. This is the message of the century made the world a neighborhood, it remains for the twentieth century to make the world a brotherhood. It calls attention to the fact that the sorrow and troubles of the world, social, industrial and international, are due to broken brotherhood. The special task of the men of goodwill and the brotherly spirit is to knit up the strands of our broken humanity into a great new bond of brotherhood. It summons men throughout the world to exemplify brotherhood in their own lives, to interpret the principles of brotherhood in their full scope and power, and to strive for the reconstruction of the social, industrial, international, and church life upon the foundations of brotherhood.

It is proposed to hold a world brotherhood convention in America next year, when the constitution will be fully ratified and the federation become a fact. The Canadian and American delegates were instructed to make necessary arrangements for this convention in Washington, Philadelphia, or possibly Detroit or Buffalo, in the latter part of April, 1920.

Following the Congress the Canadian and American delegates held several conferences to consider their special tasks, and to plan their future work. The following general suggestions were adopted, and are now commended to the Provinces and the States:

1. The naming of the third Sunday in March as World Brotherhood Day, with such exercises as may be fitting for the fullest observance of the day.

2. The frequent exchange of visits of representatives of Canada and the United States who shall interpret and emphasize the Brotherhood message.

3. The preparation of such material in the form of articles, lessons and papers as shall interpret the principles of brotherhood.

4. The dedication of ourselves and all to the task and privilege of seeking the reorganization of the industrial order upon the basis of brotherhood, and in expression of its spirit.

5. The dedication of ourselves to the superlative work of emphasizing the brotherhood of mankind, of securing an effective League of Nations, and the cultivation of that international spirit which will make the League a reality and a power.

6. The development and unification of men's organizations to the end that all men of kindred spirit may apply themselves to the sympathetic study of social conditions and bring to bear a united purpose in the defence of what is wholesome and worthy, and in the rectification of evils and inequalities that stand in the way of brotherhood.

OPPOSITION CONVENTION

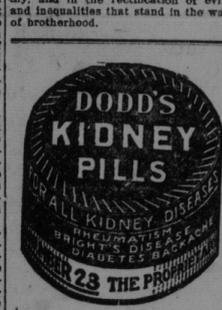

Attention is directed to the announcement appearing elsewhere in this paper touching the Opposition Convention to be held in St. John on November 6th. It will be noted from this that a change of very great importance in the make-up of that convention is made, and one which will prove of interest to electors in every part of the Province.

GERMAN NOBILITY SUING GOVERNMENT FOR THEIR ESTATES

Former Members of Nobility Were Deprived of the Greater Part of Their Possessions and Now Want Reimbursement.

Chasel, Germany, Oct. 15.—(By The Associated Press.)—Two Germans, formerly of the nobility, who have been deprived by the new regime of the greater part of their estates, have been obliged to sue the new government for reimbursement. They are the Prince of Waldeck and Pyrmont and the Duke of Coburg-Gotha.

The former principality of Waldeck and Pyrmont is now governed by the Diet in Arolsen where the Prince owned before the revolution two castles and a vast domain of forest. Most valiantly offering to buy these from him, the Diet confiscated all the Prince's property promising to pay him what the courts should determine to be a fair price.

By one stroke of the pen the commissions who now rule the new Free State of Gotha, confiscated the property of the Duke of Coburg-Gotha estimated to be worth 6,000 marks and this without offer of reimbursement. The commissioners who were Spartacists took forcible possession of the ducal buildings, estates and bank accounts and, in 24 hours, the Duke was stripped of everything he owned.

The other portion of the duchy, Coburg-Gotha, rests on a financial agreement with the Duke. Both Prince and Duke have sued the new governments. In the case of the Duke the court which sits in Gotha has obtained a legal ruling from government attorney that confiscation with reimbursement is illegal, so that the Duke is likely to recover his money or be paid for his property. After all, Heir, for Princes and other nobility in Germany today is unhappy.

The Navy League of Canada has secured the old Fairweather building, 74 Yonge St., Toronto as headquarters for the "Nelson Day" campaign next week. The place is being appropriately decorated and the campaigners will move in on Saturday. School Children Parades.

Carrying banners with the war slogan "We want a new school," the seven hundred school children of the Central School at Ingersoll, Ont., headed by the teaching staff, held a monster parade recently. The children gave vocal accompaniment to the slogan on the banners and the parade interested interest in the new school campaign. Voting on a by-law to raise $125,000 will take place shortly.

C. N. R. CONNECTIONS.

The official explanation of the reduced service to Prince Edward Island carries the delightful information that this condition is due to a strike of the car ferry being cancelled; and the reason that the Ocean Limited, which carries more than sixty per cent of the passengers bound for Prince Edward Island and all Upper Canadian mail for that Province, fails to connect with the solitary trip made by the car ferry each day is because the car ferry leaves before the Ocean Limited arrives. Quite so.

This explanation of the situation as given by President Hanna of the Canadian National Railway is perfectly clear but not entirely satisfactory, especially to those who are compelled to wait at St. John for twenty-two hours for connection with the ferry. Neither has it brought comfort to the business men of Prince Edward Island who in their isolation are compelled to depend on the mails for a great proportion of their business. And while they admit very willingly indeed the ingenious simplicity of President Hanna's presentation of facts, they are not able to realize that his words contain very much comfort or encouragement. During the summer months the car ferry makes two trips daily, and indeed as the run does not take more than half an hour the boat might cross even oftener during daylight hours. But with the shortening days difficulties in navigation are experienced at Port Borden and for this reason it is considered advisable not to keep the ferry out too late at night. Naturally the idea which would occur to anyone living in these provinces would be to advance the running time of the Ocean Limited and other connecting trains so that the whole day need not necessarily be wasted at St. John. This, however, did not appear to those responsible for the present winter timetable, nor did it seem advisable to them to consider St. John in the matter at all. A great many people travel from the holders of annual passes, and a considerable number of these are destined for St. John. They have been given no opportunity to make connection, but every facility for spending part of a day in Moncton, admiring the progressiveness of the railway city, including in the amenities of its cabarets, or as was formerly the case with the residents of that city, watching the trains go by. Evidently, judging from Mr. Hanna's illuminative explanation, the situation is to continue as at present.

FOOD SUPPLY IS AMPLIFIED FOR WORLD'S NEEDS

According to a report just issued by the Department of Agriculture at Washington, the production of wheat there would be famine in great areas because of the world shortage of food are discredited. The report concludes that this year's crop is sufficient to take care of the world's needs, and that the problem now is one of effective distribution. Taking wheat, the dominant factor in the situation, the United States has a crop of 928,000,000 bushels; valued at $2,000,000,000, as against $1,875,000,000 last year. The United States consumption of wheat per capita is 5.3 bushels; and after setting aside 600,000,000 bushels for home consumption, the United States will have nearly 300,000,000 bushels for export. In pre-war times the United States shipped an annual export of wheat was 155,000,000 bushels, and in 1918 when special efforts were made her export was 287,500,000 bushels.

The Washington authorities estimate that Canada, Australia and Argentina will have a surplus of wheat for export of 384,000,000 bushels. India is short 80,000,000 bushels, and will, it is estimated, have to import about 30,000,000 to avoid famine. It is estimated that North and Eastern Europe, including Germany, Austria and Italy, have a deficit of 640,000,000 bushels, though better crops may have been raised in those areas than are supposed. But balancing the surplus against the shortage the world has a net surplus for the year of 51,000,000 bushels. This is not a large margin, but the Washington authorities say it is sufficient to hold prices steady, unless manipulation takes place.

The United States rice crop is 5,400,000 bushels less than in 1918, but there will be 36,000,000 bushels for export, and the rice trade next to wheat among the cereals. The American oat crop for 1919 is 1,325,000,000 bushels, as compared with 1,538,000,000 in 1918; the barley crop is estimated at 195,000,000 bushels, which is less than last year, due to the coming of frost; and the buckwheat crop is placed at 57,200,000, the same as last year.

The rice crop, which is growing in importance is estimated at 44,000,000 bushels—only three greater than the previous five-year average. The crop of root root sugar in the United States will be the largest on record; probably for weeks.

estimated at 7,200,000 tons, or 1,200,000,000 greater than the five-year average. The hay crop is a bumper one, being placed at 102,000,000 tons.

The potato crop is expected to be 240,000,000 bushels, which is about 26,000,000 short. On the other hand the sweet potato crop is a bumper one, being 100,000,000 bushels, or 26,000,000 more than the five-year average. The cotton crop is the only other crop of importance which is short, and the prospect is for 11,200,000 bales, which is 1,000,000 below the five-year average.

On the whole the 1919 crop affords an ample supply," says Mr. Beta Brooks, Chief of the Bureau of Crop Estimates at Washington, "but the public need not think the farmer can stand reduction in prices. The only chance I see is for a saving in the cost of distribution—between the producer and consumer."

TO CHECK BORDER.

Newton W. Baker, Secretary for War in the United States Government, in an address made a few days ago before an important mercantile convention, outlined for the first time the attitude of the Washington Government toward those who are attempting to incite labor to acts of violence and to interference with the normal operations of the country. This address came on the day following an extended meeting of the Federal Cabinet and is generally regarded as having been authorized by President Wilson.

Mr. Baker stated that during the preceding week telegraphic addresses had been sent to every State governor in the Union to the effect that in the event of disorder, rioting or interference calculated to impede the prosperity of the country, federal troops may be requested without preliminary notice and will be available to the holders of annual passes, and a considerable number of these are destined for St. John. They have been given no opportunity to make connection, but every facility for spending part of a day in Moncton, admiring the progressiveness of the railway city, including in the amenities of its cabarets, or as was formerly the case with the residents of that city, watching the trains go by. Evidently, judging from Mr. Hanna's illuminative explanation, the situation is to continue as at present.

A DANGER POINT.

The mysterious collapse of St. John's water service a week or so ago, and the failure of City Hall to produce anyone in the civic employ capable of dealing with the situation, should direct attention to a condition which is full of danger. Every main water pipe in St. John enters the city by the Marsh Bridge, and between that bridge and Haymarket Square, where distribution begins, there is a congestion of piping, a complication of mains, a cross-pling of heavy pipes which is nothing less than a standing invitation to disaster. A serious break in one of these pipes at this critical point would in all probability result in so undermining the others as to bring about a weakening of the whole group. There, in a space of only a couple of hundred yards, is found a veritable net work of water mains of vital importance to the safety of the city. There the initial distribution takes place; there are located all the important gates and valves, and, in short, the whole water supply of this city depends upon the condition of this little neck of made ground which on its surface carries the bulk of out-of-town traffic. In this most important of all public services we have for years been content to place our confidence in this one city with our realising that in the event of a serious accident there the city would be completely deprived of its water supply, not for a few hours, but indefinitely for weeks.

WHAT THEY SAY

And Intolerance. Philadelphia Public Ledger: Lynch law prevails nothing but the detective education of the community in which it occurs.

Has Big a Man. Hamilton Herald: There is a report in Montreal that Sir Lomer Gouin, Premier of Quebec, may accept appointment as Canadian Commissioner of Prisons. It is to be hoped the report will be authoritatively contradicted. Gouin is too big and useful a man to be shelved at so critical a time in the history of his province and country.

Patti's Last Curtain. Buffalo Commercial: The older ones of this generation were the more fortunate by the enjoyment of the talents of Adeline Patti, but it is a dull soul indeed that has not been cheered or impressed by the simple songs made famous by this great prima donna. Her death at an advanced age is a distinct loss to the musical world, but her life had been a long and useful one.

Sugar Rationing. Washington Post: Although the war is over and actual if not technical peace prevails, the United States is faced to face with a sugar famine which is necessitating the re-establishment of the rationing plan. Housewives are unable to can as much fruit for winter use as they would like, because of a shortage of sugar, and grocers are forced to parcel it out to the customers in small quantities.

Caution in The Woods. Bangor Commercial: The open season on deer has begun and also the rush of sportsmen to the Maine woods, although the number will be greatly increased as the weather grows colder. The deer are reported to be fairly plentiful and it is expected that the season will be a more successful one than in the past few years, and that a return will be had to the conditions prevailing before the war.

Persons frequenting the woods in search of game are urged to take all precautions against accident. Invariably the hunting season in Maine brings a serious loss of life. Some are killed by falling trees and others by their own firearms, others through the carelessness of other sportsmen. There has been an effort to curb this careless by law and persons guilty of such have been charged and sentenced for manslaughter, although the courts have generally dealt leniently with such offenders, recognizing the lack of intent.

A BIT OF VERSE

THE COWARD.

I must be off and a long time gone before the spring comes on.
Before the last snow melts and runs,
before the first bird sings, before my heart's like of a hare with yelpin' hounds on its track.
With the old sounds and the old sights and the liftin' of new-fledged wings.

I must be off and a long way off before the spring comes on.
Before the hedges are again green before the ways that I used to go.
'Tis well enough on a winter's night to be tucked up by his log, but I'm dreading the time when Phebe's pines sing up from the glen below.

I must be off and a long way off there's no one to bid me stay.
And she and the man of her choice may laugh at me in a fool's depart.
I must be off and a long time gone before the spring comes on.
Before the sight of a child of hers would lead the strings of me heart.

"Surely I do, what do you take me for?" I said. And I sat down again as if I hadn't got up for anything, and Joe said, "I bet I know something you can do, I bet you can throw them up and catch them in your mouth."

PROGRESSIVENESS.
St. John, N. B.,
Oct. 18, 1919.
Editor Standard: In your article issue October 16, dealing with Progressiveness in St. John.

Just think how much faster St. John would grow if the water power now and about our city was harnessed and utilized to develop electric power.
A visit across the line to the high-lying State of Maine shows what cheap power has meant for that country.
New Brunswick has rivers which can be dammed. Make commercial use of these and give an impetus to industry, a boon for our towns and villages and a benefit to our province. New Brunswick with its numerous railway lines and immense waterways is favored as regards transportation facilities, now to encourage industry, farming and the development of natural resources.

Respectfully yours,
"PRODUCTION."
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—
Electors of Charlottetown and Victoria, I beg to solicit your support in this election.
My motto will be, to encourage in the strongest possible way all legislation in the interest of our agricultural life.
I am not in favor of a high tariff for free trade, but will encourage a tariff suited to our needs, and which will tend to develop our resources and stimulate the industrial life of our Dominion. I cannot support free trade, as this would mean direct taxation. I will promise, however, to encourage and support a free interchange of our farm products.

Resisting the great sacrifice, our boys make in the great world struggle, just ended, and having passed through some of the hardships myself, I feel it my duty to protect the interests of the returned man in every possible way.
All other questions that come before parliament will be given my independent consideration, always keeping before me the great problem of reconstruction, which, I am well aware, will require the most serious thoughts and independent action.
The time is so short I will be unable to call on the electors personally, so

THE LUMBER AND TIMBER SITUATION

The current issue of the Lumber Export Bulletin of Washington, D. C., reviewing the general domestic and export lumber and timber situation throughout the country, will say: The general market continues its trend toward stable conditions. Spasmodic advances are noted here and there, but in contrast with those there are some well-defined drops to be considered. It is to be hoped that these slight breaks for now, which are in excess of a few points, are not misinterpreted as an indication of coming weakness. All the industrial factors are clearly feeling more at ease, and they afford a sound basis for the conclusion that firm conditions may be anticipated in the near future, perhaps a bit before existing figures. Production. The hardwood output is steadily gaining, having been helped somewhat by a slight improvement in the car shortage in the hardwood centres. Lumber conditions hold about the same. Weather has been good, with corresponding advance in the lumber trade. The mills are making every effort to increase their cut, and we trust that a good figure will be attained, for we believe that the lumbering situation next spring. The demand continues very firm on the domestic side. The steel strike, by now, has been ended, and a fairly rapid resumption has not as yet influenced the demand offered by the buyers for the implement and automobile manufacturers. Every item in the upper-grade is moving very briskly. Stocks are still badly broken. The total production is by now not far from the normal figure. A decrease in orders is noted in the Pine field. Stocks are so depleted, however, that millmen have every incentive to maintain their cut at the highest possible figure. The actual production is a good percentage below normal, the industry is making fair progress towards recovery from the unfavorable logging conditions of the past few weeks. Stockpiles are being freed, and a decided price softening is noted. Douglas Fir production now leads the total of orders by a comfortable margin. Transportation difficulties have aided the mills in building up their year reserves. Demand continues strong, but exporters, who are moving cargoes to any extent, owing to labor troubles. We look for a slight falling off in prices. California White and Sugar display somewhat different conditions from those attached to Douglas Fir. White pine is very short at the mills, and stocks are increasing, but are accumulating, but production conditions have not been so favorable here, and it does not seem logical to anticipate any drop, or even much of an "easing off" in the near future. The Lumbermen Bureau of Washington met last night, and a resolution prevails throughout the entire industry a feeling that the price peaks have been reached, and that the firm conditions are coming. A settlement of the treaty debates and the strike situation will very probably hasten this long-expected era of sound business conditions. Demand. Export demand is at a quiet level. Foreign stocks are still crowded and promise to remain so for some time to come. Sterling change is still fluctuating at a low figure, but the general tendency now appears to be in the direction of strength.

Three Prisoners On Theft Charges

Harold Smith and George Stanton were before the police magistrate yesterday afternoon, charged with stealing lead from the City Water and Sewerage Department. John Patterson, foreman in the department, S. Sewell, a clerk, and J. Friedman, a junk dealer, gave evidence, as well as the chief of police. The prisoners were remanded until Tuesday afternoon. Friedman in his evidence told of Smith, who gave his name as Harry Goodwin, bringing lead to the dealer and offering it for sale. The first lot was bought for $10, but two other lots, the witness had refused to buy as the lead pipe appeared to be new. He said that a man, whom he knew as "Scottie" had accompanied the prisoner (Smith) on two occasions. The magistrate asked for a description of "Scottie" and after being told said, "O, I know him well. Why is he not in court?" The detectives explained that he had been found yesterday but it was expected to have him later on. The case was set over until Tuesday afternoon. Eleven drums pleaded guilty and were remanded. William Godson was charged with breaking and entering the drug store of T. J. Durick. The prisoner was remanded.

Patrick Faraher Of Chipman Dead

Grandfather of Detective Bid-descombe Was One Hundred and Eight Years Old—Only Sick Two Days Before Death. Detective Bid-descombe received word yesterday of the death of his grandfather, Patrick Faraher, at Chipman, Queens County, on Thursday. Mr. Faraher was 108 years of age last April. He was born in Cork, Ireland, and came to New Brunswick the time of the famine in Ireland. He is survived by two sons, Martin and Austin, Faraher of Chipman and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Bid-descombe and Mrs. Cornelius McNeill of Chipman. Mr. Faraher had been in good health up to the time of his death. He was extremely active for a man of his advanced years and had taken a deep interest in the happenings in his neighborhood. He had been wonderfully active and had never had a day's sickness until two days before his death. His passing will be greatly regretted by a wide circle of friends.

OPPOSITION CONVENTION

Attention is directed to the announcement appearing elsewhere in this paper touching the Opposition Convention to be held in St. John on November 6th. It will be noted from this that a change of very great importance in the make-up of that convention is made, and one which will prove of great interest to electors in every part of the Province.

The Rev. L. H. Crandall took as text Rom. 1. 16. He spoke of Bible as a book of limitless riches. Jesus had a world purpose. He urent is life among the most Christian nations of today. T constitutes the churches call to quest and opportunity. There is call for the preaching of the Gos of reconciliation. This alone lay the foundation for the needed construction. The call comes to apply the Gospel to all the rations of life. We stand related other individuals. This relation all be made Christian. The Gos is an individual matter, but it es the love of God in Jesus Chr The church needs to be Christian in order to relate to Christ. The h come when we need it.

Instructive Talk By Wm. McIntosh

Members of Teachers' Association Delighted Last Evening by Lecture Given by Natural History Curator. There are some lecturers who know how to clothe dry facts with interest, and that William McIntosh is such a speaker was shown last evening at the regular meeting of the Teachers' Association, held in the Natural History Society rooms. Mr. McIntosh, curator of the Museum gave an instructive talk on trees, showing pictures of many stately and beautiful trees, native to New Brunswick, some standing singly and gracefully, others grouped. Evergreen trees were chiefly described, and how to tell the age of a tree, the injuries which happen to trees and how nature tries to remedy these ills, and how the growth of the tree affects the bark were some of the subjects touched upon by the lecturer. Gems of poetry were introduced and both the word pictures and the photographs were greatly appreciated by the teachers. William L. McDermid, the president, presided, and school matters were discussed including the pension scheme.

Resolution Presented for Nova Scotia, P. E. I. and Head—Great interest in Woodstock, Oct. 18.—The report of obituaries was presented by the Rev. F. H. Basis, Lawrencetown, N. S. special reference was made to the large losses through the influenza epidemic. Tender reference was made to Rev. B. E. Kempton, D. D., Rev. Isaiah V. Carpenter, Rev. J. W. Weeks, Rev. J. S. Wilson, Rev. H. Percy Eves, Rev. W. P. Porter, Rev. Fletcher D. Jordan, Lic. M. Morgan, Mrs. M. N. Armstrong, Mrs. Maria Saunders, Mrs. A. L. Tedford, and Mr. Augusta Keith. The retiring president, Rev. C. Freeman, delivered his address speaking of the opportunity of the church to participate in the inter-church for special reference was made to the large losses through the influenza epidemic. He thought there should be a definition of the relation to the Y. M. C. A. Our pastoral churches should be better looked after. This call for more for the ministry even though salaries are small, he declared the greatest need of our day is in the revival of religion which takes hold of the whole man so that his religion will take hold of every ill in society today. The church should be a spiritual center, but we do need a spiritual union. We must reach the great principles of our denomination. We have the great basal principles of any church in existence. We must train our people in loyalty to these principles.

Home Missions. The first matter before the United Baptist Convention this evening was a statement by Dr. David Hutchison regarding the loss of the Onomoto church by fire. He stated that the Home Mission Board would be reported by Rev. R. S. Greig in his work. The board also recommended that the churches to take an offering on the second Sunday in November to the Onomoto church in rebuilding. The Rev. M. A. McNeil spoke on the home missions in New Brunswick, stating that the Home Mission Board is reporting over 97 churches with 1 preaching places to the care of the Home Mission Board. He also stated that there are twenty other places to be entered. He pleaded for good pastors in which mission work may have a chance. He also stated that the Home Mission Board is the places where the most of our pastors start their work. It is from these churches that many of our most effective workers come. The large turns from some home mission fields shows the importance of maintaining this work. The work to which we are men in the world is the work in all the world. The greatest task on earth is going out to win men for Christ. It is the duty of every earnest officer of men of means an opportunity for investment, and many have grasped it in their offerings. Rev. S. L. Hueston, of Halifax, continued speaking of the home mission work. It is found in the Bible study. There is also a problem of penuriousness among some of the members. Sometimes there is the problem of the minister, and often the problem of the underpaid minister. Mr. Hueston also paid a tribute to the worth of the men who have worked with him on the Home Mission Board and to the worth and service of the superintendent, Rev. E. Mason. There are 30 pastoral fees in the Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island constituency, hence a great need for consecrated men. We must not seek these men by lowering the standard for ordination. We must have trained men and stand behind them financially. We must stand behind them in sympathy. The Home pastors should be brought together once a year to compare notes and get instruction for their work.

The gifts, exclusive of legacy and large gifts, was $102,000, grand total $117,399.89. The goal for educational efforts seemed within reach. The work of social service is developing in our churches and needs a definite programme. T committees recommended co-operation with other communities in inter church Forward Movement League Sunday's Programme. October 19, Sunday, was a holiday at the United Baptist convention in the Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island constituency. At 10 o'clock Rev. D. Hutchinson, D.D., conducted a Christian hour, speaking of Christ's Peace. This service was followed by public worship with the preaching of the convention sermon by the Rev. L. H. Crandall, of Halifax, N. S. This service was conducted by the President, Rev. W. C. Casselby, by the vice-presidents, Dr. A. T. Dykeman and I. A. Corbett, by the Rev. J. W. Hastings. Music, led by the choir of the retaining church. Before the sermon Rev. A. Colborn, D.D., spoke touchingly of Rev. Josiah Webb, whose death had just reached the convention. Mr. Webb died in Halifax following a surgical operation. had worked usually in rural districts and had been unsuccessful as an evangelist as a soul winner. The Rev. L. H. Crandall took as text Rom. 1. 16. He spoke of Bible as a book of limitless riches. Jesus had a world purpose. He urent is life among the most Christian nations of today. T constitutes the churches call to quest and opportunity. There is call for the preaching of the Gos of reconciliation. This alone lay the foundation for the needed construction. The call comes to apply the Gospel to all the rations of life. We stand related other individuals. This relation all be made Christian. The Gos is an individual matter, but it es the love of God in Jesus Chr The church needs to be Christian in order to relate to Christ. The h come when we need it.

City and Farm Equally Benefit

The man in the city and the man on the farm is each concerned with the other's prosperity, and each has equally strong personal reasons for supporting the Victory Loan 1919.

Last year Canada shipped to Great Britain and our European Allies $496,932,191 worth of the products of our farms.

The future of Canadian Agriculture depends upon holding and extending its export trade in farm products, and the future of city and town prosperity is interwoven with agricultural prosperity.

Great Britain and our European Allies provide a ready market. But as a result of the strain of war, they are short of cash. They must buy on credit for a time.

The British market particularly, we must not—dare not—lose, because we have spent many long years in cultivating it, and establishing a prestige there for Canadian products.

Great Britain asks for a credit to buy our surplus food stuffs, and Britain always pays her debts. Our ability to extend this credit depends upon the success of the Victory Loan 1919.

Just think what it means to all of us to keep Canadian agriculture prosperous. Canadian farmers form a large porportion of the buyers of Canada's manufactured products, resulting in trade for the manufacturer and retailer, and employment for the man in city and town.

With the money from the sale of his products the farmer buys agricultural implements, gasoline engines, tractors, wagons, seed, wire fences, fertilizers, milk cans, building material, roofing, furniture, carpets, furnishings, stoves, clothing, boots and shoes, groceries, drugs, pianos, talking machines, automobiles, papers, and scores of other things.

The city and town man makes these goods, and his wages are spent in his local stores, so that starting with the farmer the chain of trade travels through every class of the community.

The city again furnishes a home market for the farmers. Our cities have been built by our farmers—by those farm boys who have developed genius in organization, business and finance, and who do not have to leave Canada to find a field for their activities.

The man on the farm there rests a direct responsibility. Both must shoulder it and unite in making an overwhelming success of the

CONFERENCE AT MONCTON TO TALK ABOUT HIGHWAYS

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 16.—Hon. P. J. Young, Minister of Public Works, and the chief highway engineer, H. M. Hill, will represent New Brunswick Friday at a conference to be held in Moncton between our province and the three Maritime Provinces and Federal Highway Commissioners. The Federal Commissioners will be represented by Chairman McGrath and one of his colleagues. It is not known here who will represent the other two provinces. The conference will be upon various matters connected with improved roads and federal assistance.

A new company, to be known as Co-operative Sale and Garage, Limited, is being promoted in Fredericton and vicinity. The new company is to be capitalized in the vicinity of $25,000 and the co-operative principle will be applied to it. The promoters of the new organization have been negotiating for the wooden building in Westmorland street, formerly used by the John Palmer Company as a factory, and it is understood, will alter it and use it as a garage. The incorporation of the new company is expected at an early date, probably next week.

Robert S. Barker, official secretary to Lieutenant-Governor Pugsley, has received word from his son, Captain Theodore Barker, who is now attached to the Imperial Forces, that he was leaving soon for Egypt, Hong Kong, China or Constantinople. Captain Barker has just completed a course of instruction at Aldershot, and stood well in a class of fifty. He went overseas with the 2nd Battery from this city in February, 1916.

To the Electors of the Federal Constituency of Carleton-Victoria: Having been nominated by a Convention of the UNITED FARMERS OF NEW BRUNSWICK, which was held in Woodstock on September 2nd, to contest the coming by-election in the above constituency to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. Union Minister of Public Works, and as the Election is to be held on October 27th and the time being so short, it will be impossible for me to personally call on all the Electors in the two Counties, I, therefore, take this opportunity to state to you what the aims of the UNITED FARMERS are.

They are, in brief, as follows: THE UNITED FARMERS are strictly independent of both the old Political Parties, and their representatives will be perfectly free to support any measure that is for the best interests of the Farmers of Canada, and just as free to oppose any measure that they feel is not in the interests of the Farmers.

And Canada, being an Agricultural Country, we believe that any legislation that is beneficial to Agriculture is indirectly beneficial to every citizen of Canada.

THE UNITED FARMERS also stand for PURITY in elections, as they believe that the lack of this is the starting point of all the Political Graft and Corruption which is so much in evidence in Canada today.

We would therefore appeal to every loyal citizen of Canada to support the FARMER'S PARTY, and to the Electors of Carleton-Victoria, to support me as the UNITED FARMERS' Candidate in the coming By-Election.

Yours sincerely,
T. W. CALDWELL.

Died At The Age Of Ninety Years

Lieut.-Col. Arbuthnot Blain Died Yesterday — Prominent in Local Military Circles and One of St. John's Leading Citizens.

Lieutenant-Colonel Arbuthnot Blain, who for eighteen years was in command of the 62nd Regiment, St. John's Fusiliers, passed away yesterday at his home, 74 Duke street, after a short illness.

Colonel Blain was born in Killbeggs, County Donegal, Ireland, in 1829, and came to St. John when a lad. He entered the employ of J. and A. McMillan, printers, as an apprentice, and was with that firm until his retirement in 1876. He took a keen interest in the volunteer movement and entered the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel. This position he held for eighteen years retiring in 1893.

He was a volunteer for the Fenian Raid and when the Northwest rebellion was in progress he took four companies of the 62nd Regiment to Sussex in order to form part of the New Brunswick Battalion. The rebellion, however, came to an end before the New Brunswick men were needed and they got no further than Sussex.

Colonel Blain also took a great interest in dogs and was in evidence at exhibitions and shows as a judge of canines. In later years he was the owner of several noted dogs.

He was married to Miss Wilson, an aunt of LeBaron Wilson of this city. Mrs. Blain passed away about eleven years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. E. Walker, and one grand-daughter, Miss Norma Blain, of this city.

Colonel Blain was well known throughout the province and the news of his passing will be heard with sincere regret by a wide circle of friends. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock, daylight time, from his late residence, 74 Duke street. Interment will be in Fernhill.

Terrible Accident At The Pulp Mill

Frank Andrews and William Eagles Scalded When Steam Pipe Burst Yesterday Afternoon — Andrews in Critical Condition.

As the result of a boiler explosion at the Nashua Pulp and Paper Company mill yesterday afternoon, Frank Andrews of Marsh Road was terribly injured and William Eagles, of 43 Erie street is also at the General Public Hospital suffering from burns which will leave bad scars on face and legs.

The accident happened shortly after the noon hour, according to the statements of fellow workmen. Andrews, who is only 21 years old, and Eagles, aged 42, were seated in front of the boiler when one of the steam pipes burst and the jet of live steam enveloped them. The ambulance arrived, making a record run to the General Public Hospital.

Here it was found that both men were severely burned about the arms, legs, lower part of the body and face. Andrews was so severely injured about the body that from the outset grave doubts were entertained regarding his recovery. Eagles was tragically burned about the face and arms, with lesser injuries to his legs. Burns about his body are of a minor nature. Late last night it was thought by the hospital authorities that the injuries from which Andrews was suffering would prove fatal, but good hopes were held for the recovery of Eagles, the older man.

Memorial Tablet Was Unveiled

Memory of Men from Queen Square Methodist Church Honored Yesterday — Address by Rev. M. E. Conron — Former Pastor Preached.

"They played the game." It was with these words that Rev. M. E. Conron described those who had given their lives in other might live, love and serve in a free country. The occasion was the unveiling of a memorial tablet to the men of the Queen Square Methodist Church, yesterday afternoon, at the annual Sunday School session. One hundred and eighty-five scholars and teachers were present and several visitors.

The superintendent, E. Duncan Smith, explained that the tablet was presented to the school by the General Missionary Board, as the scholars had purchased a $200 Victory bond which had been given to missions. Another tablet is to be put up in the main church.

Mr. Smith introduced Rev. M. E. Conron, who spoke briefly but most impressively on the lives of the men who had made the supreme sacrifice in the war. He said that it was Sunday length of time a man lived which counted, but how he lived, and which pointed out that the life of Christ, which lasted only thirty-three years on earth, was the most complete life the world had ever known. His words were the mould of all future thought and in that short space of time he had lifted the world off its hinges. Those who die on duty give a completed life. Mr. Conron quoted from Henry Newbolt's poem, "Play the Game," and after unveiling the tablet gave a solemn prayer that the world might be worthy of the sacrifice made.

After the singing of the National Anthem, the Benediction was said by Rev. George Morris, pastor of the church.

The tablet is an oak shield and is placed on the south wall of the Sunday School. On the shield are bronze maple leaves, with the names of the men inscribed upon them. Across the top is the inscription: "Our Church, Our Country, Our God." Below this is written: "In memory of our men who gave their lives in the World War, 1914-1918. Memorial Buildings erected in Mission Fields, St. John, N. B."

The names of the men in whose honor the tablet was erected are: Lieut. Ernest Walsh, Lieut. A. Clair, Lieut. Gordon Tufts, Ray Tufts, George Runciman, Harry White, Eugene Clark, Willard McG. Robb, A. J. McAlpine, Ronald Machum.

Queen Square Methodist Church is celebrating its 125th anniversary, and the special preacher at both the morning and evening services was the Rev. Hammond Johnston, of Moncton, N. B.

Interest Shown In County Contests

Election for County Councilors Takes Place Tomorrow — Extraordinary Circumstance in Musquash Parish.

The elections for county councilors will take place tomorrow, and outside of the Parish of Musquash big interest is being shown in the contests. In Musquash, there is only one nominee, E. O'Donnell, and he is rather an extraordinary circumstance for no one to offer for a position that might be attained without a contest, but it is suggested that the present situation is due to the hope that ex-Councillor W. J. Dean, who is now unwell, may soon recover sufficiently to permit him accepting the position of councillor again. Fred Thomson could have been elected by acclamation, but preferred to retire. Another election in Musquash will have to be held to fill the vacancy.

In Lancaster the candidates are making a vigorous canvass. All are well-known citizens who have long taken an active interest in the affairs of Fairville and the parish generally. Warden Gohling, Councillor J. E. O'Brien and Chas. F. Belyea are running on one ticket, and Glendon Allan and W. Murray are making a fight to gether, their platform being Fairville's welfare.
