

CONFERENCE ADOPTS PLANS OF AMERICANS

Zionists Fall in With Scheme Proposed by Delegates from United States.

IMMIGRATION IS BIGGEST PROBLEM

In Making Real Home for Jews in the Land of Their Fathers.

Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic News Service.

London, July 8.—After a two days' withdrawal campaign by the American representatives to the Zionist conference the plans outlined by them for construction in Palestine were adopted on Wednesday, the English speaking delegates being a unit in their support.

These plans include the sending to Palestine of a large unit of engineers, scientifically trained men in the planning of railroads, layout of cities, location of large factories, designing of buildings, testing of soil for the best crops, building of irrigation dams and ditches and all things needful to prepare the promised land for its new population of many millions.

With the arrival today of the Polish and other continental delegations the personnel of the conference is complete. The leaders include Dr. Max Norden, Dr. S. E. Sokine, and Jewish National Fund Commissioner Dr. A. Sayadra.

On the eve of meeting Dr. Max Norden outlined his views on the problem of immigration, which he regards as the most important.

"Zionism stands or falls with the Jewish majority, insignificant foreign elements in the midst of strange nations, we will probably be tolerated and even granted religious national rights under Arab rule. The fundamental problem, therefore, is speedy mass immigration.

"I think the hardships of the task have been greatly overestimated. Undoubtedly there are a million brothers feverishly awaiting to be saved from massacres and persecution by immigration to Palestine, and the prevalent opinion that these people have to be cared for and financed from first to last is untrue.

"The Zionist organization must obtain from the British Government all the land not previously owned, land formerly belonging to the Turkish government and now the property of the British Crown, or we cannot establish a Jewish home in Palestine. This land is needed to divide into homesteads for immigrants who undertake the work of development."

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble—Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloot right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

MEIGHEN LEADERSHIP ENDORSED BY ALL

Regarded as the One Man Best Fitted to Lead the Newly Formed Party.

Sydney, N. S., July 8.—The selection of Hon. Arthur Meighen as prime minister of Canada will meet with enthusiastic approval by the rank and file of the Liberal-Conservative party, both in parliament and in the country, says the Post editorially today.

"By common consent, and in the opinion of both Conservatives and Liberals, the new prime minister is the most brilliant debater in the present House of Commons. Endowed with fine mental qualities, alert, resourceful and masterful in debate, he is precisely the type of leader to inspire his fellows with confidence and to stir up their enthusiasm, whether in the House of Commons or on the public platform. Even better, his public record is unblemished, his sense of integrity is unquestioned and he possesses, to the highest degree, the confidence of the ministerial members and the respect of all his colleagues in parliament. There is no doubt that, under Premier Meighen, the organization of the ministerial forces will be promptly perfected, intelligent publicity work will be undertaken and the era of drift, which has done so much to weaken the government in the constituencies, will be ended."

Jamaican Port Plans to Spend $15,000,000 on Improving Facilities.

Kingston, Jamaica, July 8.—The Jamaica government is planning to borrow in London $15,000,000 in order to make the port of Kingston a first class one by deepening of the channel to the piers and other improvements. It is proposed to extend the railway to the wharves, to construct additional piers, erect a big dry dock and a wireless station and establish an oil and coal depot for ships. One purpose of this programme is to make Kingston a port of call for vessels passing through the Panama Canal. Members

FARMERS WANT TO KEEP THEIR FIREARMS

Berlin, July 8.—There is a reluctance on the part of some German farmers to surrender their firearms, due to "the legitimate desire to protect their homes against marauders," Minister of Agriculture Braun said to a Tageblatt representative. He added, however, that a number of farmers have been "storing arms deliberately for subversive purposes," but he said these were not as numerous as generally believed. "If the people only will keep their heads," Herr Braun said, "I do not believe there will be any organized outbreak in the near future. The rural situation at this time inspires confidence."

BEER AND WINE WILL WIN!

THE PROHIBITORY LAW WILL BE DEFEATED!

Very direct reports come from all parts of the Province that the best political observers who have sized up the situation in their various constituencies, and who in all New Brunswick are best capable of judging the trend of public opinion, have come to the conclusion that, judging by the expression of opinion heard on all sides, the Prohibitory Law, as it stands today, and even with the amendments proposed by the present administration, does not find favor with the people of this Province.

Their verdict is that this law will be condemned by the majority of electors on Saturday.

More than this, they are firmly convinced that the proposed legalized sale of beer and light wines in the Province of New Brunswick will be supported by a tremendous majority as a result of the plebiscite to be taken on Saturday.

Maude Fulton is the only actress I can think of who insists on writing successful plays. She wrote "The Brat" some years ago and for all I know produced it in addition to playing in it. I hear that in London five actresses are going into the production management. Here Miss Fulton has given Oliver Morosco the chance to make millions with her new play, "The Humming Bird." Consider that the same house will produce "Whistler," I should think they would have called it "The Butterfly." "Poe" is another characterplay to be seen next year and I understand that Thomas Dixon, who was among those who made money out of "The Birth of a Nation" by the happy accident of writing "The Glensman," is doing a Lincoln play, but not under the name of Lincoln. Apparently John Drinkwater has become the sole legitimate proprietor of that piece of nonmanufacture.

McIntyre Won At Glace Bay

Exciting Bout in Halifax Last Night—Jones of Halifax Was Knocked Out in the Eleventh Round.

Halifax, N. S., July 8.—Johnny McIntyre of Glace Bay knocked out Harry Jones of Halifax in the 11th round of a scheduled fifteen round bout tonight, in the most exciting bout yet seen in Halifax. This was their third meeting. Jones having previously got the decision on both occasions by a narrow margin. McIntyre knocked Jones down in the fifth round when the bell rang. But neither the participants or the referee could hear the bell with the shouting and McIntyre knocked Jones down again. The latter did not claim a fall and he came back strong, outpunching McIntyre until the 11th, when the latter with a succession of blows knocked him out.

Fred Hoskings of Montreal outpointed Bert Noonan in the preliminary bout and Referee Leathan declared it a draw.

Harry Lyman of Monoton and Kid Blakie of Halifax fought each other to a standstill. Lyman was the aggressor, having Blakie in a bad way several times, but the latter fought back so hard that he knocked Lyman down for the count of five. They were so evenly matched that it looked at one time as though either might be knocked out. Everybody expected a draw, but the referee declared in favor of Blakie, and the crowd were so disgusted that a new referee, Ted Power, had to be secured for the main bout.

RESUME OF OLD COUNTRY SPORTS

The boxing world can now look forward to a meeting between Joe Peckett and Tommy Burns, who are to meet in London next month. The great point is whether the Canadian can show form within reach of the Billy who possessed in 1905, when he won the world's championship, the title being lost, when he opposed Jack Johnson at the end of that year in Sydney. It is a big undertaking for a man of 39 years of age to take on the best in his work and getting down to weight, but there must always remain that very important matter known as vitality. Naturally it is not so good when one is nearing 40, the ideal age being 21 to 25.

The match will prove a draw, for Burns has a fine record here, and is recognized as a boxing fighter. With an international flavor to the chief matches at the National Sporting Club matches on Monday, the bill of fare looked tempting and some excellent bouts resulted. Vince Blackburn, the Australian ex-champion at the bantam weight, was able to take the ring in better condition than when he last met against Jim Higgins, so that he had lots of supporters against George Clark. The Londoner showed something extra, however, and boxing better than at any time in his career, he was so far ahead in the seventeenth round that the referee stopped the bout in his favor.

France has done so well of late that it was quite a shame to find J. Broker of London, outboxing M. Scotto of France, the latter restricted in the seventh round. The loser is a sturdy little fellow and like all French boxers, a real demon for fighting, even though lacking somewhat in science.

Features of Cricket.
Hobbs of Surrey, less rapidly comes to the top in the batting averages and at the close of last week he was second on the list with 67.50 opposite his name, which gives him second place. Hendren shows the way with an average of 55.36, third place being held by Rhodes 55.50. The latter also tops the bowling averages with 32 wickets for an average of 10.56, figures which put him in first place as the champion all-rounder. Whoolley's batting average is 46.37 and his bowling figures 32 for 14.34, so that both these Test players are showing form which warrants their selection for the M. C. O. Australian tour.

A feature of recent play was the collapse of Leicestershire against Sussex, the Midlands being dismissed for 47 runs, the lowest score of the season to date. This was largely due to Roberts, who took five wickets for 27 runs.

Another excellent bowling performance was accomplished by J. W. H. T. Douglas, who secured eight victims for 39 runs in the Essex vs. Derbyshire match.

Hobbs has also been showing his ability as a bowler by taking five wickets for 21 runs in the first innings of Warwickshire against Surrey. He followed this up by making a century (101) and Duxist also making three figures.

Woolley and Patterson were responsible for a bad failure of the Worcester batsmen against Kent. The former took six wickets for 30 runs in the first innings, whilst Patterson took 5 for 31 in the second. The two innings only producing a total of 168 runs.

Wants No Benefit From Accidents

Lipton Desires to Lift Cup Only in Fair Races.

New York, July 8.—As Shamrock IV, his America Cup challenger was being towed up the bay today for measurement, Sir Thomas Lipton remarked: "There has been a lot of talk about the cup yachts being lightly built. If anything happened to Resolute, such as an accident, I would wait for another race until she were repaired, no matter how long it took."

"I don't want the cup through accident. Legally I might be entitled to it under such a serious circumstance, but I want to win it fairly and in sporting competition. Let them lick me or let me lick them. And I am sure they would feel the same way if my boat should be the sufferer through mishap."

That is Sir Thomas Lipton, who smiles his best when a small boy calls him plain "Tommy" and that may have been why South Brooklyn did not have nearly as much of a blow-out on the Fourth as there was today, when his green yacht fleet moved up to the Morse Drydock and Repair Company's plant at the foot of 56th Street. The house boat Killarney, from Glen Cove, up the Spund, Her topmast had to be lowered to enable her to pass under the East river bridges.

Shamrock IV was placed in one of the big docks at 1 p. m. and five hours later Resolute arrived in tow of her tug, the steam yacht Victoria, which towed the motor boat had to be taken along the pier. The crew has to be on board when she is measured. The tug Gov. Smith towed the Killarney.

During the afternoon Shamrock's bowsprit was taken off and a slightly longer one put in its place. The measuring of the yachts will begin at 10 a. m., under the direction of the America Cup committee.

Schoolhouse For American Team

G. T. Kirby Explains About Quarters of Athletes.

Through the courtesy and assistance of the Belgian Olympic committee, Mr. G. T. Kirby was able to secure a palatial school building in the heart of Antwerp as the quarters for the American athletic team. The building, which occupies an entire block, is quadrangular in shape, enclosing a large central park-like court. Accommodations are available for some 400 athletes, with sleeping halls, shower baths and complete sanitary facilities. Special locker and sleeping equipment is to be supplied by the Belgian committee. From the American army headquarters at Coblenz will be furnished scores of army lorries to convey the athletes to and from the various athletic courts. Similar arrangements have been completed for the swimmers, oarsmen, gymnasts, boxers, wrestlers and other contestants. For the army polo, rifle and riding teams special provision has been made to give the individual members every training benefit of the great army camp at Coblenz.

The excellent co-operation extended by the Belgian Olympic committee and the American Army of Occupation, together with the need of greater financial support for America's Olympic teams, are the outstanding features of the report of President Gustavus T. Kirby of the American Olympic committee following his trip to Belgium. Mr. Kirby's complete resume of the conditions surrounding the Olympic games to be held at Antwerp will be presented to the American officials at the special conference at the New York A. C. today.

"I am greatly impressed with the preparations made by the Belgians for the staging of the seventh Olympiad," said President Kirby, "and my only fear is that America will be unable to live up to the Belgian expectations, due to a lack of funds to properly finance the athletic expedition. The Belgians have done wonderfully in arranging details for our team conveniences and apparently look for the United States to sweep forward to victory."

Equal consideration is being shown for American tourists and spectators who will attend the games. Special sections of seats in the grand stand adjoining the royal boxes and the finish line have been reserved by the American Olympic committee for their countrymen. Housing accommodations have also been secured in various sections of Antwerp for such spectators.

RESOLUTE IS A STRONG FAVORITE.
New York, July 8.—(By Canadian Press)—A prominent member of the New York Produce Exchange, actively engaged in the shipping business, this port, yesterday made a bet of $500 against $1,000 that Shamrock will lift the cup in the coming international yacht race. Resolute, however, was still held a strong 10 to 2 favorite.

Babe Ruth Still Believes In Yanks

Washington July 8.—Well, the Yankees are putting up the fight for the American League leadership that might have been expected from them. It was easy to see before the season started that the Yanks would be in the thick of the fight from the very first. When they pulled to blossom out with a rush of winning streaks in the first weeks of the campaign some folks foolishly jumped to the conclusion that they would be unable to pick up with sufficient speed to overhaul the American League leaders. Well, we have been plugging along, and we have struck our true gait and it now is only a matter of weeks until we will be out in front with a lead that never will be cut again.

There is still a lot of talk about Cleveland being the strongest club. But persons who are advancing them as favorites have neglected to witness the fact that when winning three out of four games from us in Cleveland, their lead has been steadily cut down until the race looks better for the Yankees than for them.

I hope it doesn't sound conceited for me to say that I cannot figure them so strong. Their pitching staff is positively weak, no matter what other virtues may be claimed for them. The team has been supremely lucky to pull through thus far with a pitching staff that should have cracked long ago. Covelleskie is the only pitcher who is absolutely dependable. Garby is so-so, while it seems to me that Ray Caldwell has reached the end of his effectiveness. Uhler may come through. He has lots of stuff and a game heart. But Covelleskie is the burden carrier and can't keep it up indefinitely.

Compare this with these two factors. Ernie Shore apparently has returned to winning form and Rip Collins has blossomed into a real star. Yankee pitching staff enhances their chances more than I can tell you. Putting them alongside Bob Shawkey and Jack Quinn certainly speaks a lot for the chances of the New York club.

At any rate the race undoubtedly is one between the two leading clubs. The rest of the field doesn't appear to class in such company. Chicago might have offered stronger opposition had Dick Kerr remained winning form, for Babe is going good again. With Clocite and Williams to work with those two the Sox would have been dangerous. They shot their bolt early, however, and will be lucky to finish third. No team can get set with out pitching in spite of the fact that Clocite and Williams pitched the Sox to a championship a year ago. That was an accident and will not happen again.

Conditions Not Ideal Yesterday for Beginning Between French and United States Davis Cup Teams—Rain Interrupted Contest.

Eastbourne, England, July 8.—Conditions were not ideal today for the beginning of the matches between the French and United States Davis Cup teams to decide which shall continue in the contest for the international trophy.

The first match was between Johnston and Gobert. Only seven games of the first set had been played when rain interrupted the match, which stood four games to three in favor of Johnston.

When there appeared to be no prospect of the storm passing over the singles matches will be resumed tomorrow.

Grand Circuit Races Yesterday

Rain Set in After the First Dash for the Three Year Old Trotters at North Randall Yesterday and Programme Was Postponed.

Cleveland, O., July 8.—After the first race, a dash for three year old trotters had been raced at North Randall today, a heavy rain set in flooding the track to such an extent that the balance of the Grand Circuit programme was postponed until tomorrow.

Miss Montgomery, favorite, won today's race. It was Miss Montgomery's sixth victory of the year.

Today's postponement makes it necessary to crowd three days' racing into tomorrow and Saturday. Five events will be continued Saturday. The 2.05 trotting sweepstakes was definitely called off.

American Olympic Coach Appointed

John F. Moakley of Cornell Will Be Head Coach of the Team—Decisions of the American Committee at N. Y. Athletic Club.

New York, July 6.—John F. Moakley of Cornell will be head coach of the American Olympic team; George V. Brown of the Boston A. A. will be assistant manager, and Carl Linder of Quincy, Mass., winner of the 1915 Boston Marathon, and Arthur V. Roth of Boston will be the American entries in the Olympic Marathon as a result of decisions reached at an all-day meeting of the American Olympic committee at the New York A. C. today.

The meeting was a joint one of the nominations, selection and executive committees.

Marathon Team Selected.
In addition to Linder and Roth, Joseph Organ and Jack Weber of Pittsburgh, Charles Mallor of Chicago and Frank Zula of Newark were picked for the marathon with Edwin White of New York as substitutes.

Matthew P. Halpin of New York A. C. again was appointed manager of the Olympic team with Mr. Brown as assistant manager. Otto Wahle, New York A. C., will have the management of the male swimmers, and Miss Charlotte Epstein of New York will act in a similar capacity for the women swimmers. Roy Moore of New York will have charge of the gymnasts, and F. Denny was selected as manager of the bicyclists.

A board of athletic coaches for track and field was appointed with Moakley as head coach. The other members of the board are Lawson Robertson, University of Pennsylvania, and Mike Ryan, Colby. The Pacific section will be represented by either John Maloney of Stanford University or B. Crimwell of the University of Southern California.

Appeal Made for Funds.
Spike Webb and Joe W. Bateman of the Naval Academy, Annapolis, were appointed as coaches for the boxers. Webb will sail with the track team and Bateman will go over on the U. S. A. Frederick Wilhelm.

S. M. Pennoe will coach the wrestling team, while the fencers will be taken care of by Paul Geles and his assistant, George Sternitz, both of the United States Naval Academy.

An appeal was made for generous subscriptions from Americans who wish to have a full complement of team members in every branch of sport sent across to do justice to the athletic supremacy which the United States representatives have won and upheld since the revival of the Olympic games at Athens in 1896.

It is estimated that $200,000 will be required to send a full team in each branch of sport. About $20,000 has been subscribed and pledged for twice that amount have been given. The committee believes that the gate receipts at the final tryouts will net about $40,000, so that another $100,000 will be necessary, and this sum must be given within 10 or 12 days.

AQUATIC SPORTS.
The Commercial Club, through the Athletic Association, is arranging for a series of harbor sports on Monday evening from 6:30 to 7:30, when the warship Calcutta is in port. Yesterday afternoon a conference was held with Mayor Schuchler, who promised to assist in any way possible. If at all possible a race between a crew from the warship and a city crew will be arranged.

CABINET RECONSTRUCTION.

The Ottawa correspondents of the Opposition newspapers in their despatches suggest that difficulties may be experienced by the new Premier, Hon. Arthur Meighen, in making up his cabinet. Their arguments in support of this suggestion are more specious than convincing, and what is fitted will be found to have very false premises as their foundation. Differences are foreshadowed by them where none exist, except in the perverted imaginations of the writers, and they seem to think that the best that can be expected is some temporary arrangement that will last for a time. Perhaps they cannot be blamed, for they are under no misapprehension as to the outlook for their own party, which they realize is about as black as it will could be, and if they can do nothing else to cheer up the drooping spirits of their friends, they can at least tell their own. One thing at least Mr. Meighen can be sure of. None of his followers are of the "little Canadian brand of supporters, who, when their country needed men to uphold its honor, either went over the border to take safe appointments at substantial salaries, or stayed quietly at home and exhorted everyone else to do the same. These same men would sell their country's honor again today, just to get into power. It is their one and only idea.

The governmental party at Ottawa is in about as healthy a condition as it well could be. There is absolute confidence in the ability of the new leader, in the soundness of his policies and in his determination to carry them through. The party is in complete agreement upon the policies to be adopted, and it has the satisfaction of knowing that the great mass of public opinion in the country is behind it. The only policy that has proved any permanent benefit to the country is the good old National policy, under which Canada has become what she is today. This is the policy that will be continued, with such improvements as will bring it into line with present-day requirements. The platform of the government is broad enough and comprehensive enough for any patriotic citizen, and there will be no difficulty whatever in finding men willing enough to stand upon it. Any difficulty that Mr. Meighen may experience in choosing his colleagues will arise from the fact that he has so much good material from which to select. He will have no trouble in holding them together, for the reason that they are all agreed. The coalition that has been in existence for the past three years could not have been hardened into a solid party organization had it not been the intention of the members of it to stick together for the country's good. It was only by sheer force of patriotic will that Sir Robert Borden overcame the great difficulties that confronted his efforts to form a Union Government. He prevailed then, as Mr. Meighen will prevail now, in the matter of keeping the two sections permanently yoked together. If the new party holds faithfully to the articles of the policy it has adopted, it need not let its name be a worry to it. Long though the name is and without historic allusions though the term "National" is in it, it cannot in itself be a stumbling-block. There is this to say for the term "National"—it emphasizes a matter that needs emphasizing at the present time. It is National business that must be the concern of a party organized to take part in Dominion politics, but the National idea seems to be absent from the minds of the organizers and agitators who are to be found among the opposition.

If Mr. Meighen, in the task of selecting his cabinet, follows the line of least resistance, he will choose from among the present members of Parliament whose seats are absolutely safe, but if, on the other hand, he should decide to take in the ablest men he can find either in or out of Parliament, he will find that the country has sufficient confidence in him to elect them.

THE STUMPAGE QUESTION.

In view of the fact that the Rev. Mr. Kierstead, the eminent political economist and authority on taxation and food control, was in the city during the early part of the present week, it may be assumed that he came to advise the Government what they had better do with regard to the future rate of stumpage. During last session they managed to secure increases in about every other source of revenue, leaving stumpage till the last. One can of course sympathize with the Government in this matter to some extent, because an organization that boasts that it has made and unmade governments in the past, and is prepared to do the same thing again if necessary, must needs be handled gingerly; and as the present Government is fully aware of its slender hold on the confidence of the electorate, it needs to watch its steps with more than ordinary care. Last year the amount received from stumpage was according to the Crown Land report $561,890 on a cut of 221,645,634 feet. This year the Minister of Lands and Mines anticipated receiving $1,000,000, but the Premier and the Comptroller-General, knowing more about the matter than the Minister does, of course, estimated the amount at $1,200,000. This leaves $400,000 more to be raised from the lumbermen, or considerably more than twice the amount they paid last year. This means that the rate must be doubled, as we understand that the cut is not expected to be much more this year than last.

Unless the estimated receipts from stumpage, $1,200,000, is mere camouflage intended to make the estimated revenue balance the expenditure, it would seem that the new rate cannot be less than $7, and it can scarcely be expected that the lumber interests will be pleased with the outlook. Just how to "gild the pill" is probably occupying the Government's attention at the present time. There will of course be an outcry that the business won't stand so large an increase, that lumber is high enough already, it certainly is; but that fact won't stop the manufacturers increasing the price still further to cover the extra outlay. The lumber shirkers will see to it that they still get their full pound of flesh, no matter who has to pay for it. However, the long-suffering public must hope for the best; and trust to Mr. Keirstead having been able to evolve some plan or other that, while letting the lumber interests and the ultimate consumer down as lightly as possible, will also enable the Premier and Comptroller-General to make good their estimate.

HANDS OFF.

Ambassador Davis and former Attorney-General James M. Beck drew a storm of applause from a London audience when they declared that Britain and the United States should not interfere in the internal affairs of each other. This, as the Mail and Empire says, was a polite way of stating a general principle, but the depth of feeling in Britain over American-irish machinations made it sound unbecomingly. The British people are maintaining a reserve and a restraint in this trying situation worthy of their best traditions. By common consent, nearly all Britain's public men and newspapers ignore the efforts of anti-British factions in the United States to use American officialdom to embroil the two countries. A shock was undoubtedly produced in Britain by the passing in the Senate resolutions on a subject of Britain's domestic business, but even this has not passed. The record of this policy is shown by the defeat of the Irish faction at both the Republican and Democratic conventions. In no case did the politicians, eager as they are for vote-getting devices, fall for schemes to endorse recognition of the Sinn Fein movement. By the time the Presidential election is over, probably the Irish agitation in the United States will have little effect on politics at Washington, for by then Americans will be so sick of the question that they will turn their backs on the mischief-makers. But advisory by leading Americans in London of the sound principle of non-interference sounds grateful to English ears.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

One Reason For Increase. (Victoria Times.) But whatever might have been the representations made to the government by its supporters for increased indemnities, there is strong justification for such a course. Under the present indemnity allowance only men of independent incomes can afford to be members of parliament, and that is not a good thing for the country.

A Dominion Educational Bureau. (The Veteran, Ottawa.) No argument is required to support the statement that education is the real key to any adequate policy of national construction. It is the one great factor which levels upwards. Although the benefits accruing from education are quite apparent yet in this country education has not been fully appreciated. The Great War Veterans' Association, recognizing the fact that education is a state function, and that the benefits are for the good of all classes, Dominion wide, is firmly of the opinion that some attempt should be made at an early date to institute an educational bureau as part of the federal government.

Cannot Be Too Careful. (Canadian.) The new curate was to preach his first sermon, so naturally he was desirous of looking his best. Arriving at the rectory, he found to his chagrin that it contained no mirror, so seeking the sexton, an old Scotsman, he asked in low and nervous tones, "Er, James, can I—that is, do you think you could get me a glass?" With a shake of his head, James disappeared, returning in a few minutes carrying something under his coat. Withdrawing his hand, he brought to light a large black bottle which he presented to the curate, saying at the same time, "Ye maunna let on about it, for I got it as a special favor, an' wadna hae got it at all if I hadna told 'em it was for you."

Government Without Paternalism. Our rulers will best promote the improvement of the nation by strictly confining themselves to their legitimate duties, by leaving capital to find its lucrative course, commodities their fair price, industry and intelligence their natural punishment, by preserving peace, by protecting property, by diminishing the price of law, and by observing economy in every department of the state. Let the government do this, the people will assuredly do the rest.—Lord Macaulay, 1859.

A Modern Industry.

A motorist touring in a western state got stalled in a tonacious mud-hole. While making a vain attempt to escape, a boy appeared with a team of horses. "Hail you out, mister?" "How much do you want?" "Three dollars." "After a long and fruitless argument the motorist was made to dry land. After handing over the money the motorist said: "Do you haul many cars out in a day?" "I have hauled out twelve today." "Do you work nights, too?" "Yes, at night I haul water for the mudhole."

THE LAUGH LINE

How It Was. Old Salt (spinning yarn)—"An' when I come by the river I found the dock gate locked." Landlubber—"Well, couldn't you unlock them?" Old Salt—"No. You see, there was a man standing on the gate."

Good For Him.

Manager—"Thomson, you are discharged." Clerk—"But I've done nothing, sir; absolutely nothing." Manager—"Exactly. That's why you're discharged."

Considerate.

Dr. Jalap—"Yes, I am going to write. I've got enough, and am willing to give somebody else a chance." Page—"I see. Your motto henceforth will be, 'Live and let live.'"

Deep Dilemma.

Victor—"Whatever is the matter?" The Other—"I don't know what to do. If I buy new things, I shan't have any money left to go away with, and if I don't buy new things, what's the good of going away?"

His Altered Tastes.

"Do you remember the old fishing hole of your boyhood days?" "Certainly do. And if I could equip it with a sofa and an electric fan, and have a buffet handy, I'd rather like to pass an afternoon back among the old familiar scenes."

He Had.

A snail, boy, who was sitting next to a very haughty man in a crowded car, kept sniffing in a most annoying way, until the woman could stand it no longer. "Boy, have you got a handkerchief?" she demanded.

The small boy looked at her for a few seconds and then, in a dignified tone, came the answer: "Yes, I've got one, but I don't lend it to strangers."

Nothing in Him.

A stout and elderly man stood upon a defective weighing machine. When he placed the penny in the slot the indicator registered only 100 pounds. Two small urchins watched the proceedings with amazement in their faces. "Say, Jack," said one, "that chap must be 'low!"

Her Husband—Did you vote today?

Mrs. Newtater—"No, I went to the polls, but they didn't have a single ballot to match that pink sample ballot you gave me."

Nothing is so painful as some men's efforts to be funny.

WILHELM DREAMS OF RESTORATION

Wonders Why the Germans Do Not Think of Calling Him Back to Power.

Berlin, July 8.—Despite the reports that the ex-Kaiser is resigned to his fate and does not dream of returning to Germany, the Gazette correspondent hears from a trustworthy source that he still cherishes hopes of restoration. When he was visited recently by a man formerly connected with the German navy he asked for a detailed report of the difficult situation created by the result of the elections and the approach of the Spa conference. Wilhelm listened with almost breathless attention and finally exclaimed: "And they're not yet thinking of calling me back!" He then made several suggestions, in his characteristic, overbearing manner, of how he would handle the Spa conference. The imperial remark was reported freely among the small number of Germans who still believe in William's divine mission and who feel outraged that so little notice is taken of the commands of the "All-Highest." Most of the monarchists, however, are heartily sick of him and characterize his latest utterances as part of his rone, believing that he has neither the will nor the courage to come to his country's aid. Even the reactionary Tagliche Rundschau recently pictured with brutal frankness the ex-Kaiser's weakness and deficiencies, calling names that might make even Vorwarts turn green with envy. But, of course, the Tagliche Rundschau's candidate for the imperial throne is the ex-Crown Prince.

DENOUNCE JAPANESE SCHOOLS IN HAWAII

Abolition is Demanded in Report of Investigating Commission.

Honolulu, T. H., July 8.—The report of the Federal School Survey Commission, just made public by Vaughan MacCaughy, Superintendent of Public Instruction for the Territory, recommended that the Japanese language schools of Hawaii be abolished. The federal commission was headed by Dr. Frank P. Bunker, chief of the city school division of the Bureau of Education at Washington. It is suggested that opportunity be supplied in the public schools, whenever the demand is sufficient, for the study of Oriental languages in special classes after regular school hours, taught by teachers regularly employed by the territory.

The commission's report declared that "language schools, which in the aggregate outnumber the public schools of the Territory, are centres of an influence which, if not distinctly anti-American, certainly is un-American."

"While doubtless many teachers are brought from Japan rather than procured from among Hawaiian born Japanese, because it is sincerely believed they speak pure Japanese, nevertheless some, at least, share the opinion frankly expressed recently before the Japanese Education Association of Maui by Ohta Shuan, formerly head priest of the Jodo Shu Mission at Punnene, on the Island of Maui, and principal of the Misaka girls' school. Mr. Shuan said: "Any man who is to teach in Japanese language schools should not be a man with democratic ideas. A man of strong Japanese ideas should be his teacher."

In the police court, yesterday afternoon, further hearing was given the case of John Edmen, of 20 Pond street, charged with selling liquor without a license. Charles Ackleson, the informant, was put on the stand and identified the defendant as the man from whom he had bought the bottle of gin produced in evidence. The witness stated that he bought the crackers and cheese from the defendant in his front shop and then went into the back shop, where the defendant put a bottle of gin in the pocket of witness and received $4.50 for it. Inspector McAineh stated that he had accompanied the defendant's shop, pointed out the defendant who had sold him the gin, and the prosecution.

The case was postponed Wednesday afternoon. J. A. Berry appeared for the defendant, and W. M. T. the prosecution.

A two-year sentence for penitentiary was given by the magistrate sitting of the case charged with breaking into and stealing from the cottages of F. E. Williams, of Lomond. He had pleaded guilty to the charge.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

To the Editor of The Standard: Sir—Many eminent people are being quoted by the Prohibitionists as advocating Prohibition. Up to date I haven't seen that two of the greatest temperance workers in this world have had their opinions on Prohibition quoted. I refer to His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons, and to Lady Henry Somerset, the one a worker for temperance in the United States, and the other a worker for temperance in Great Britain.

Cardinal Gibbons when asked by the Anti Saloon party as the Prohibitionists are known in the U.S.—to endorse Prohibition refused to do so, and volunteered his reason as follows: "I do not think this course the public. You can educate but you cannot force."

Lady Henry Somerset who has been one of the world's foremost advocates of temperance all her life and who has preached it in many countries and from many pulpits, came out strongly against Prohibition when it was announced that American invasion of Passifooters would attempt to force Prohibition on Great Britain. Her remarks were almost identical with those of Cardinal Gibbons. Briefly they were that Great Britain was not ready for Prohibition, and that if it were attempted there would be a revolt against such a law even if it were passed, and that it would undo all the good that she and others who had worked for and preached temperance all their lives had accomplished.

Of course to fanatical prohibitionists opinions of people like the above mentioned will count as nothing and I don't expect that this letter will influence them in any way, but it may have an effect on temperance people.

I count myself among that class. On rare occasions I take a glass of beer, wine, or whiskey and intend to do so whenever I want it in spite of all the laws. For a Prohibition law I have no respect whatever, particularly one that has been passed like this one was.

A few days ago a writer in your columns I think, in discussing the assertion previously made that drink had ruined Great Britain and almost lost the war, said that Great Britain was a beer drinking nation, and had managed to do very well in the scrimmage. The Rev. Mr. Hutchinson came back with the query that if beer drinkers were a factor in winning the war why was it that Germany who was admitted to be the greatest beer drinking nation in the world had not won the war? I would like to ask Mr. Hutchinson if Prohibition as such a wonderful success and would have been such a factor in winning the war why was it that the Turks, who are the best living examples of Prohibition outside of the U.S. and Canadian specimens, didn't win the war? I would also ask him if he is proud of his fellow prohibitionists, the Turks, a leader of whom recently sent a message of congratulation to his fellow prohibitionists in the U.S.

I was informed today from what I consider a very reliable source that at least one member of the Prohibition executive has been showing within the last few days a letter from Premier Foster in which it is stated that if Prohibition is carried tomorrow that within four weeks a law will be passed making New Brunswick DRY.

Now Mr. and Mrs. Voter unless you want to become a Turk there is only one way to vote tomorrow and that is to vote for light wines and beer and also against the present Prohibition law. A vote for the present law and one for light wines and beer will only mean that your vote will go to assist the Prohibitionists, for remember that the majority of votes cast will carry the day, therefore if you do not put a little backbone in place of the wishbone that the majority of our politicians possess.

Some months ago I was very well informed as to the total membership of the local house at one of the sessions since Prohibition came in there was just exactly seventy-five per cent of them became so elck while attending to their legislative duties that they were often secure prescriptions from druggists in order to ward off the "FLU". Yours truly, QUILLER FOX.

To the Editor of The Standard: Dear Sir—Magistrate Ritchie's endorsement of the Prohibition Act, as published in the advertising columns of the press today is most amusing in view of his recent statement, after the trial of the ten arrested victims for the day that St. John was given to the devil, but then the magistrate was a "pollition" at one time and it is often hard to break away from old associations. We often hear today that the world is upside-down. In view of the recent disclosures of the Prohibition propagandists one would be inclined to think that more than the world was upside-down.

Ex-Commissioner McLellan, a man who has seen a little of human nature found it necessary this morning to pay his respects to Frederic's Chief of Police, whose face also looked out from the press columns upon an unsuspecting people. The same Mr. Finley was at one time on the police force here under Mr. McLellan's guardianship. The ex-commissioner asks why he left the force? I do not think the ex-commissioner was looking for information. As the magistrate said to the lemon extract victims "Onward Christian Soldiers."

DARE TO BE A DANIEL. St. John, July 8.

BANK CLEARINGS. The St. John bank clearings this week were $4,200. Last year in the corresponding week they were $2,908,640, and in 1918, $2,561,910. Halifax bank clearings were: 1920, $7,391,492; 1919, $5,707,048. Clearings this week in other cities: Sherbrooke were $1,783,244.75; Quebec, $9,294,554; Ottawa, $12,013,162.

POISON OR NOT.

To the Editor of The Standard: Dear Sir—Kindly allow space in your columns for a brief statement of the issues involved in the coming referendum.

The vote is to decide two questions, but the Prohibition forces claim the question about light wines and beers is only another form of the first. Their three-point argument is well taken; viz, that there is no guarantee as to how strong the so-called "light" wines and beers may become; that in any case the drinker can take enough to intoxicate; and that, when even in prohibitory law is unknown it is reasonable to suppose that any law which allows alcoholic beverages up to a certain strength to be sold will simply open the way for the bootlegger and make others to import any sell more deadly liquors under cover of the law. The man or woman who votes "for light wines and beers" is therefore cancelling the force of any vote he or she may cast "for Prohibition." The issue is then, "Do the people want intoxicating liquors sold or not?"

No man needs alcohol in his system. It is listed in medical books as a poison. The leading physicians of Great Britain, France, United States and Canada, and even of Germany, are practically unanimous in stating that the usefulness of alcohol as a medicine is much exaggerated; that any good it does can be better done by some other drug; and that in the fevers, especially pneumonia, it does much harm, whether taken moderately before the disease or during the attack. Such well known authorities in the medical world as Sir William Osler, Sir Victor Horsley, Dr. W. A. Evans, Dr. Wm. B. Swan, as well as Prof. Delbove, Dr. Painsus and other authorities on the continent of Europe, are agreed that alcohol is not a food but a drug with serious consequences to the habitual though moderate user. This decision is corroborated by the findings of government inspectors, and the unanimous testimony of life insurance companies. Authorities are agreed that alcohol is a fruitful source of crime, accidents and insanity; and it causes insanity, epilepsy, degeneration, idiocy, in the children of drinking parents. In these days of high-priced food-stuffs, the business of making alcoholic drinks takes vast quantities of grain and molasses and turns them into drugs which, when used as a beverage, destroy life, weaken resistance to disease, creates unhappiness, breeds crime, forces cheap labor on the market, and lessens the demand for necessities and luxuries.

The question for the people of New Brunswick to decide is whether they want alcoholic beverages enough to put up with the consequences, but they should not blind their eyes to the fact that the consequences are very real. When York county was a poor farm, the people should remember that many of the people who make such an institution necessary are paupers because of drink. In Kansas state, where they have had prohibition for a good many years, 40 poor farms have been changed to agricultural stations, because there are no poor to occupy them.

A great many letters and statements attempt to turn the minds of the electors away from the real issue as above stated, by raising side-issues.

All criticisms of the present Prohibition Act lose much force when it is pointed out that the Provincial Government, in case prohibition carries by a large majority, will be required to take steps to put into force two laws already existing but not yet applied, one a Dominion law which would prohibit importation of alcoholic liquors into the province; the other placing the distribution of alcohol for medicinal and scientific purposes in the hands of the government itself, instead of private vendor. To vote for Prohibition and against light wines and beers will be to cast one's influence in favor of enforcement of these additional laws.

Claims that the present law is a "rich man's law" are misleading. In the first place both poor and rich will be unable to import liquor if prohibition is sustained, as above shown. Moreover, the poor man does not need alcoholic drinks, and neither does the rich man. As a beverage they work on his resistance to disease, injure innocent unborn children, and tend to keep the poor man poor. Alcohol is not needed in any house as a medicine, any more than opium or strychnine. The leading doctors of the world unite in declaring that the medicinal use of alcohol in disease does far more harm than good. It is especially harmful in pneumonia, as often complications, influenza. Osler says that among pneumonia patients 18.5 per cent. abstainers die, as compared with 25.4 per cent. moderate drinkers, and 52.8 per cent. steady or heavy drinkers.

The Prohibition law is broken. So are all other laws. It is not that the law breaks crime, but that criminals break the law. Will the same men be more virtuous when tempted to break the weaker law which anti-prohibitionists urge.

Neither license nor Government ownership of the liquor traffic can ever stop the trade, because they make no pretense of doing so, and they will allow a new crop of drinkers to acquire the appetite for alcohol. They are simply ways by which the citizens of the country, through their elected representatives, enter into a partnership with the liquor seller, and accept part or all of the profits of the business of poisoning the people who will drink alcohol.

We are all aware that many medical men object to accepting the responsibility for authorizing the obtaining of alcoholic liquors. Is not this largely because it is so hard to get from the popular fallacy that liquor is a beverage with beneficial results, and to adopt in daily practice the modern scientific attitude, which all doctors know in theory, that alcohol is a drug to be administered with care, just as opium or belladonna.

Prohibition is needed to help the man who wants to stop drinking, to restrain the man who will drink in spite of the consequences to himself, his neighbors, and his children; and most of all to prevent the formation of another generation who will be so tied by the drug habit that they will drink lemon extract and shoe polish in order to satisfy their cravings for the poison alcohol.

Surely would be a step backward for this province to begin dispensing poison to its people, so as to raise

RIBBON EMBROIDERY FOR BRIDES

Easy and effective old-world embroidery executed with tiny china ribbons in delicate pastel shades is being revived for trimming wedding lingerie. One June bride made an exquisite little camisole, done with a delicate spray of roses and forget-me-nots, with faint green and grey leaves.

The ribbon is passed right through the material—satin or crepe de chine make the best background—for petals and leaves, and work any "contour" required with a wee French knot or two in ordinary sewing silk. The shaded ribbons are best, and it is hardly possible to choose too pale a tint. An inexpensive frame is used, and a handkerchief or machine can be made in an hour or two.

FLOUR MARKET
Minneapolis, Minn., July 7.—The Northwestern Millers' weekly report of the flour market says the holiday, combined with slowness in receipts of new crop wheat to make the flour market even duller than it has been for the past month. Prices show a slight decline of 10 to 20 cents per barrel and soft winter patents are now about on a level with hard winter and less than $1 per barrel below spring stocks are small enough so that a revival of demand is looked for within a few weeks. The flour outlook last week was generally light the spring wheat mills reporting an output representing 43 per cent of capacity, the Kansas-Oklahoma hard winter wheat mills 65 per cent, and the Ohio group of mills 35.

RATE INCREASE DECIDED UPON

Should Their Schedule Go Railroad Labor Will Not Get Its Demands.

New York, July 8.—According to a newspaper report the I. C. C. has practically decided on rate increase of 30 per cent. in Eastern territory; 24 per cent. in Western territory, and 31 per cent. in the Southern territory, making estimated earnings advance of something over one billion. The report states that this will be announced about July 15th, but that is a question as the labor board award is not expected until July 20th.

BRAZILIAN IN FLATTERING REPORT

Current assets for the year are reported at $16,371,197, against current liabilities of $6,146,304. These figures compare with assets of $13,702,980 and liabilities of $10,025,836 in 1918.

BROMPTON TO INCREASE SHARES

Montreal, July 8.—At a meeting today Brompton Pulp and Paper Co. Ltd., shareholders ratified recommendation of directors that common capitalization, consisting of 70,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, be increased to 210,000 of no par value, holders of the present stock to receive two shares of new securities for each one of the old held. The new shares will be placed on a six per cent. dividend basis, being the equivalent of 12 per cent. on the present stock.

TWO FACTIONS ON MARKET ACTIVE

Important New Developments Are Expected from Reading Soon.

New York, July 8.—There are two factions at work during the early market. Big operators who have been responsible for advance of last few days were still extremely bullish on the outlook, although somewhat inclined to shift from groups that had largest advances into others that have not fared so well during recent market advances. Reading is in high favor just now by those operators. One man in close touch with Reading situation expects important news developments on a distribution to stockholders during the next month. Some largest buyers of Reading, since Monday were responsible for move in Vanadium from 79 to above 93. Opposed to these interests bullish on the market were rank and file traders who took position recovery had gone far enough for present, and were selling stocks short. They directed their selling at the Doheny Oil stocks. Vanadium, Baldwin and the Tobaccos.

THAT PROPOSED DISCUSSION ON QUESTION OF PROHIBITION

Rev. David Hutchinson Tells Why He Has Delayed in Accepting Mr. McDonnell's Challenge and Why the Debate Will Not Take Place — Mr. McDonnell Has His Own View of the Case and Thinks the Temperance Party is to Blame.

MR. McDONNELL'S STORY

To the Editor of The Standard: Dear Sir,—May I ask you to again allow me the use of your column to set aright the misunderstanding which has arisen regarding the acceptance of my challenge of Rev. Dr. Hutchinson.

Thursday's issue of The Telegraph contained a news item under the caption "Challenge Accepted," intended to convey the impression that it was a genuine acceptance by Mr. Hutchinson himself. Nothing of the sort, it was a camouflaged, bogus acceptance, admitted to be without authority by Frank Hamm, the Secretary of the Prohibition Headquarters, as far as he was aware Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Thursday afternoon I had a call from Rev. Dr. Hutchinson accompanied by Rev. Mr. Goodwin. Then and only then had I any intimation of Dr. Hutchinson's acceptance of my challenge. The Rev. Dr. asked me if I was prepared to go fifty-fifty in the payment of the Hall if so he would accompany me to the Imperial to make arrangements with the manager.

Thanking you for your space I am Yours truly, JOHN J. McDONNELL, 84 Princess Street, St. John, N. B., July 8, 1920.

REV. MR. HUTCHINSON'S LETTER

To the Editor of The Standard: Sir,—In your issue of the Standard of Tuesday, July 6th I find myself challenged to publicly discuss the subject of Prohibition with Mr. J. J. McDonnell. I left the city on Monday morning on the 7.10 a. m. train, and did not return till Thursday afternoon.

Why I personally should spend $400.00 for the use of the Imperial Theatre, or a lesser amount, for some other building to discuss the subject of Prohibition with Mr. McDonnell, impressed me as too one-sided. For this reason, many who were looking forward to a public discussion of the subject of Prohibition, will be disappointed.

Yours sincerely, D. HUTCHINSON.

The Issue In Saturday's Election

Important Details That Should be Read Carefully by Saturday's Voters Who Might Not be Thoroughly Familiar With the Conditions—To Thoughtlessly Cast a Vote Against Prohibition Seems Almost Criminal—Less or More Prohibition the Issue—No Citizen Should Shirk Responsibility.

Hundreds of queries indicate that comparatively few appreciate the advantages offered by the opportunity to cast the ballot Saturday in favor of Prohibition. The present local conditions, poor or good, lemon extract sales and the existence of dope dens are all secondary to the paramount question. Do we want more Prohibition than during the last three years or less? The latter must mean a new crop of dope fiends, drunkards and ruined lives for the coming decade and generation, while the former makes possible, if the present act is retained, to go forward and accomplish more than in the past. This represents first—to take the sale of liquor for medicinal and sacramental purposes from the drug stores in favor of government depots, as provided for by law at present on the statutes. Then a Dominion Referendum on inter-provincial traffic is obtainable by a request through proper channels, which if successful, as it doubtless would be, makes it impossible for the rich man to stock up his cellar. These and other possible changes, with much better enforcement, which will be aided and abetted by every man and woman who has helped to retain the Act, will create a really dry Province. From the vote for Prohibition and against light wines and beers we will go forward to conditions that eventually may be come ideal, but from the contrary vote the path leads backward and downward, and the voter who proposes to cast his or her ballot Saturday with the intention of leading New Brunswick in that direction, is not only a poor patriot, but an unfeeling parent and citizen. Prohibition advocates feel confident that the vote Saturday will be in favor of Prohibition and against light wines and beers, but if, perchance they are wrong, it certainly will be an unfortunate thing for this Province. Vote for Prohibition and take no chances.—Adv.

Chief of Police Rideout

The Moncton Chief of Police, Mr. Rideout, is probably one of the best known figures in the Province, and no other official's experience better fits him to pronounce an opinion on the efficiency of the present Prohibitory Act.

him to pronounce an opinion on the efficiency of the present Prohibitory Act. Mr. Rideout does not believe that there has been as much liquor sold under Prohibition as before, and goes down to the root of things when he expressed himself as follows in a recent communication to Mr. Donald Fraser: "Much as the bootleggers are to be despised, still I am of the opinion that it is better for the sale of liquor to be confined to bootleggers than sold openly and given sanction of the law." Mr. Rideout speaks with considerable authority, and his experience of many years suggests respect for his opinion in this matter.—Adv.

Public Mind Is At Last Aroused

Feeling Running Strongly Against Prohibition Act and in Favor of Light Wine and Beers.

Tomorrow is taken the vote on Prohibition and the legalizing of the sale of beer and wine under Government control. The campaign is nearly over. Who has won? The prohibition advocates have accomplished the following things:

- 1. Become involved in a libel suit. Rev. Alfred Standen on the character of one of our soldier heroes.
2. Two members of the local executive have themselves been convicted of violation of the Act which they defend and furthermore, thus insuring newspaper reports, have sought protection from the government against the operation of the Act insofar as it affects their interests. Who are the government to interpret the Act?
3. Distributed literature apparently printed in the United States and intended for the black population of the United States, thus insulting the intelligence of the people of this British Province of New Brunswick.
4. Quoted public officials as to the efficacy of the Prohibition Act—Judge Ritchie for instance—whereas not two months ago from his magistracy's bench, His Honor remarked: "St. John is a city of churches with the address pointing towards Heaven but the people are going to Hell as fast as they can."

Major (Rev.) E. B. Hooper, Chaplain of the Fighting 26th, comes out over his own name and writes that he will "D. Y. v. v. against Prohibition and for the sale of light wines and beer."

Major (Rev.) E. B. Hooper, Chaplain of the Fighting 26th, comes out over his own name and writes that he will "D. Y. v. v. against Prohibition and for the sale of light wines and beer."

There is every evidence that the public mind is veering towards moderation and common sense. The larger the vote polled, it is now freely admitted, the larger will be the majority against Prohibition and for light wine and beer.—Adv.

ELECTION RETURNS IMPERIAL SATURDAY

The Imperial will endeavor to give its patrons the referendum returns on Saturday evening. The city returns will of course be available and it is expected enough news will come through from the various parts of the province to give completion to the totals. There will be no Saturday editions after the half-holiday papers at noon, which impels the theatre staff to collect as much news as possible for its patrons.
