B. M. E. CHURCH ESTABLISHED IN SYDNEY, N. S.

There are about 500 colored persons in this community made up principally of West Indians, with a few Canadians from other parts of Nova Scotia, besides a very small number of Americans. Coming to Sydney about the spring of 1922, Rev. C. A. Stuart started this church, which, from the time of its inception here to the present time has grown by leaps and bounds.

Being a wide-awake man and also capable of doing big things, Rev. Stuart's next step was to set about the erecting a building for the purpose of religious worship. He went about the city and parts of Nova Scotia soliciting aid from the business men and sympathizers of this noble work. It was not long before enough money was raised to purchase a site for erecting the church. The price of said site being $1000.00. This site is situated on one of the main arteries of the business section of this city, known as the pier district and in close proximity of the colored settlement. The excavation necessary for the preparation of the superstructure has also been finished.

But, unfortunately for Rev. Stuart, it is not his good fortune to complete that which he has started, for, at the last annual conference held here August last, he was removed from this field of action and sent to Bermuda to carry on in the same capacity of presiding elder. The work here has fallen on Rev. T. A. Kennedy. Already he is negotiating for the completion of the church and it is expected that the fall of this year will see the completion of same.

At present religious worship is carried on in a local building. Several members have already enrolled as members, while a goodly large number are followers and supporters. The church is sadly needed in this field, so that by the time it is completed the members and supporters will be increased an hundredfold.

E. Hogan Started Jazz

New York, N. Y., April —. (By The Associated Negro Press)—In a dressing room interview given out by Fred Stone, singer and dancer now starring in "Stepping Stones," Ernest Hogan, negro minstrel and song writer of several decades ago, is given credit for being the creator of modern jazz. Stone traces ragtime back to a song "The Pasmala," written by Hogan, the name of the song being a corruption of the French words, meaning a mixed step. The white actor claims that ragtime music gave birth to a new school of dancers, the eccentrics. He first heard it played by a negro in New Orleans and asserts that it had its premiere in New York in a big way through E. B. Harney, a white man who took to the new music easily.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mary A. Pierman, who passed away 14 years ago: March 29, 1910. The month of March again is here, To us the saddest of the year, Because it took our dear one away, Just fourteen years ago to-day. Although she sleeps, her memory lives, Cheering comforts to her mourners gives. She followed virtue as her guide; She lived as a Christian, as a Christian she died. Sad and sudden was the call Of her so dearly loved by all.

Pullman Porters Win All Demands

Chicago, Ill., April —. (By The Associated Negro Press)—The representatives of the Pullman Porters and maids who have been in session here with the management of the Pullman Company all week have proven they are diplomats in more ways than simply giving service to travellers. Elected by the nearly 10,000 porters and maids of 20 great pullman divisions to present the claims and grievances of their fellow employees they began by securing a 12% increase in pay. The company recently granted voluntarily an 8% advance. The porters contended this was insufficient to meet the high cost of existence these days and the company added 4% more.

Considerable improvement in hours and working conditions were granted. Preparatory time, that is, time which men put in at the yards preparing cars for the reception of passengers, is to be paid for as well as overtime put in on late trains. "On belated trains and adjustment of time will be made and compensation given," read the agreement.

Every matter brought to the attention of the management is said to have been satisfactorily adjusted by the men in conference. The delegates departed Saturday for their homes to report back to the men of their districts, smiling and confident that the plan of sitting across the table and thrashing out differences was the right and proper one. The delegates were: James Sexton, New Orleans district, as chairman; E. W. Willis, St. Louis district, as secretary; A. L. Totten, New York Grand Central; A. A. Miller, Kansas City; M. C. Oglesby, Boston; A. Lancaster, Penn. Terminal, New York; Berrie Tinsley, Portland, Oregon; P. A. Simms, Los Angeles; A. H. Hohman, San Francisco; A. S. Fisher, Denver, Colo.; A. M. King,

GOOD SERVICES AT B. M. E. CHURCH

Three very interesting services were held in the B. M. E. Church, London, on Sunday, the 30th, the occasion being the third quarterly communion. At 11 a. m. the pastor gave an interesting discourse from St. Luke 24: 15, subject, "An Absent Lord." It was claimed by the speaker that while it be true that corporally, indeed, Jesus is absent, yet to His many believers, He is very much alive.

The 3 o'clock service was one that will not soon be forgotten by those who were present. The speaker for this hour was the Rev. E. M. Woods, of the Hill Street Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Woods brought a very forceful message from the text found in John 18: 12, subject, "A Bound Christ-Conqueror." The exegesis given on this topic was indeed very helpful and the finished work of Christ appreciated more than ever before by all present. A large portion of the Baptist congregation were also present to worship with us. There were about 30 communicants.

The day was brought to a successful close when the pastor spoke from the text, Phil. 2: 5, subject, "The Importance of Possessing the Mind of Christ." The speaker set forth three phases of the Christ Mind, by 1, The Exhibit of its Nature; 2, The means of its possession.

Solos were rendered during the day by Mrs. E. Workman and Mr. P. Lewis, afternoon and evening respectively.

Chicago Central; S. T. Wynn, Pittsburgh; T. A. Jones, Jacksonville, Fla.; C. S. Wells, Cleveland, Ohio; D. Bass, Fort Worth, Texas; C. D. Hardin, Detroit, Michigan; A. S. Morris, Chicago East; J. E. Stewart, Jersey City, Erie; J. D. Bannister, Phila.

Editorial

SATURDAY, APRIL 5TH, 1924.

We spoke in the B. M. E. Church at St. Catharines last Sunday upon "The Historic Background of the Race." We have never spoken to a more enthusiastic audience. We found the people eager, waiting and ready for any form of race co-operation which means progress. As we stood in that historic church building, whose beams and rafters were hewn by refugees who had escaped from slavery, we were reminded that St. Catharines was the very first station of the underground railway planted upon Canadian soil, and later, the next day, when we were escorted around to view the magnificent homes and the other signs of prosperity of the colored people, we were forced to believe concerning them that virtues of the fathers had been visited upon the heads of the children even unto the third and fourth generation.

We believe there is no place in Canada where our people own better homes than in St. Catharines.

The parsonage of the B. M. E. Church on Water Street is a big, roomy, comfortable and beautiful building. This, of course, speaks volumes for the condition of the church. The small building on North Street, in which Superintendent S. R. Drake was born, which was then a log cabin, has been stuccoed in order to beautify and to preserve it. Mr. Geo. Bell, whose home is on Welland Streets, is one of the city's most prosperous business men. His home is not surpassed in beauty by any other building on his street. Mr. Peter Freeman, whose beautiful home is situated on Welland Street, is a painter and paper hanger, and the leading one of the city. Mr. Aaron Carter, who owns a very large home on Welland Street, is remodeling the building, making it into a three-story apartment house. Prominent among the citizens and property owners is A. J. Carswell, who has been employed as measurer at the Welland House for thirty years. Mr. B. Brewster, whose very beautiful home is on North Street, is one of the head carpenters working upon the new Welland Canal. Mr. Chas. Bell owns a very cozy home on Geneva Street; he is in the ice business at which he is doing exceedingly well. Mr. Morris Dorsey is among the leading plumbers of the city as well as one of the largest property owners.

Other homes which we were privileged to see were those of Mr. Frank

Collins, Mr. C. Harper, Mrs. S. Sumner, Mr. Fred Dorsey and Mr. Ivan Dorsey.

We left St. Catharines, the Garden City, with the conviction that with just a little more coaxing, just a little more effort on our part, St. Catharines would become the garden city of the race; that St. Catharines is a good place to live in, and, as Rev. Logan expressed it, "a good place to die in, although I have not tried THAT yet."

FOLLOW ME

By S. E. G. Allen

Father in Heaven, Thou seest all beneath,

Thou knowest all; nothing is hid from Thee.

And unto us Thou didst in love bequeath

Blessings unnumbered, saying, "Follow Me."

And we have thought to follow, failing oft;

Yet wished we knew the truth, to follow truth.

But Satan wins us, Satan stealing soft, Unbidden, but too welcome guest, forsooth.

And we, beguiled, will listen to his cry,

Seductive, winsome, but weak mortals we,

Refusing when still sweeter voice says "I

Will hold and guide you if you follow Me."

Could we but trust, with faith unfaltering, trust,

Keeping our hand in Thine. Help us to see

The path of right—the one sure path we must

Not fail to walk in, would we follow Thee.

DO HONOR TO BURLEIGH'S SERVICE

New York, N. Y., April —. (By The Associated Negro Press)—A signal honor to Harry T. Burleigh, for 30 years baritone soloist at the fashionable St. George church, white, will be paid this coming Sunday when an entire program, made up of Burleigh's own music will be sung. Some fifty songs have been written by Mr. Burleigh, besides two festival anthems and four compositions for the violin. He received much prominence a few years ago when he was called upon to sing at the funeral of the late J. Pierpont Morgan. He has also sung for the cultured of this and other lands. In 1917 Mr. Burleigh was awarded the Spingarn medal. He was born in 1866, grew up through hardships, and made the position of soloist at St. George after having been deck hand, stenographer, janitor and so forth. Sixty applicants applied for the vacancy in the choir at St. George at the time he did. He was the only negro, but he won.

OWEN SOUND NEWS

The Sunday School had a jolly good time on the 17th, and after the sleigh-ride refreshments were served, which they enjoyed very much. The conveners were Rev. Richardson, Carl Woodbeck and Mrs. Talbert.

March 24th was Rev. Richardson's calendar month of the Calendar Club. It took the form of a musical concert, instrumental duets, trios, piano solo and Jubilee songs, and recitations. It was a great success.

On March 30th was quarterly meeting Sunday, and we were pleased to have with us Rev. S. R. Drake, our General Superintendent, on his annual visit. He took part in the Sunday School session and preached in the evening service. Theme of his sermon was the suffering Christ, St. John 19th chapter, verse 30. The sermon was enjoyed very much.

Hope of Progress In Young America

Akron, O., April —. (By The Associated Negro Press)—Faculty members of the West High School declared to William Pickens, field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, after an address at the school that he "got more applause than any man that ever spoke from the school platform." There are several thousand white students in the school. Negro students number thirty.

Mr. Pickens told the whites that they did not know their colored mates as well as the latter knew them and that that was one of the chief reasons the colored students were more decent in their attitude toward the whites than the whites toward them; that the histories given white students left out facts about colored students' ancestors, and that the white students should not copy the prejudices of their mothers and fathers, but should form their own ideas and be broader.

Basing his belief on the attitude of these and other students he has addressed throughout the country, Mr. Pickens expressed the opinion that "there is hope in Young America."

A white man was dragged from under the subway in New York the other day and thrown in jail. It was charged that he had lived there as a mole for three years while amassing a fortune from the sale of discarded from the sale of discarded newspapers. Which rather punctures what the so-called better race has to say about Japanese standards of living, as does also the instance of three white men, of the so-called better race, who died in a Chicago shack the other day. There were two brothers and a sister, between the ages of 65 and 72. They all died of malnutrition and neglect. They had valuable real estate holdings in the district and a large account in their neighborhood bank. What was their standard of living? What did they want out of life?

A skull has been found by American scientists out in California which is supposed to be nearly 500,000 years old, much antedating the Piltdown and the Neanderthal man. The scientists of the so-called better race easily admit that the skull is not that of an Indian or darker person. The same care must be taken with this new man as has been taken with the Grimaldi and the Hottentot ancestors of the French, who also knew how to paint.

Wanderers All

By Andrew F. Jackson

(For The Associated Negro Press)
As from a foreign land they come
Rejoicing in the things they seek:
To live as men and friends to meet.
Oh! Lord, turn on Thy light to some.
From out the hords they are espied,
As sweet and fresh as morning grass,
When kissed by nature as it passed.
My Father! Did they the rules defy?
The good in them is sure to out;
The bad, forsooth, will sneak away.
But love and truth is here to stay,
Of that, dear Lord, there is no doubt.
To those of us who've seen the sod,
But now have turned our eyes to God,
Teach them, so that no harm befall,
Those weak, those strong, those wanderers all.
