A Man of Real Learning

De Apender se desdena
El literato grave?
Pues mas debe estudiar el que mas sabe

Thus every man of real learning
Is anxious to increase his lore ;
And feels, in fact, a greater yearning.
The more he knows, to know the more.

CANADIAN AND AMERICAN HISTORY AND POLITICS

Statues, Rare and Valuable Pamphlets Relating to Canada, Etc.

1 SENEX (John) Rare Old Atlas, comprising 34 large and extremely interesting folding maps of a large size, 38x26, including the hemisphere, North and South America, etc., and including the Solar System by William Whiston. Illustrated with numerous fine old cornerpieces. Tall folio, sewn, in good state; $17.50. At the Globe, against St. Dunster's Church in Fleet Street, 1725. One of the American maps being dated 1710.

2 JAILLOT (Hubert), Rare Old Atlas; comprising 22 large and extremely interesting coloured maps, including the hemispheres of North and South America, etc., illustrated with numerous cornerpieces. Tall folio, half calf, in good state. $20.00. 1706.

The American maps are the following: L'Amerique Septentrionale divisee en ses principales Parties scavoir les Terres Arctiques, Le Canada ou Nouvelle France, le Mexique ou Nouvelle Espagne, Le Nouveau Mexique, les Isles de Terre Neuve, de Californie, et Antilles ou sont distingues les uns des Autres les Estats comme ils sont possedés presentement par les Francoiis, Castillans, Anglois, Suedois, Danois, et par les Estats Generaux des Provinces Vines ou Hollandois.

L'Amerique Meridionale divisee en ses Principales Parties scavoir La Terre Ferme, Le Peron, Le Chili, Le Bresil, Le Paraguay, La Terre et Les Isles Magellaniques, ou sont distingues les uns des Autres Les Estats comme ils sont presentement possedés par les Francoiis, Castillans, Portugais, Hollandois.

One of the American maps is dated 1709. Old Atlases in anything like good condition and in perfect state, are becoming extremely scarce and valuable owing to the fact of European Booksellers disposing of the maps separately at a pound or thirty shilling each, and we may add they are well worth the money.

3 WARNER & BEERS, Atlas of Macon Co., and the State of Illinois, to which is added an Atlas of the United States, Maps of the Hemispheres, etc., etc. Folio, cloth, illustrated. $2.50. Chicago, 1874.

4 MILES, Standard Atlas of Canada; compiled by special permission of the general Provincial Governments, from the latest official maps and surveys; comprising a complete and correct series of Geological, Topographical, and Timber Land Maps of Canada, etc., letterpress descriptions of the Provinces, Cities, Chief Towns, Geology of the Dominion, etc., etc., arranged from special reports; Atlas folio; becoming scarce, half calf. $8.50. Walker & Miles, Toronto, 1875.

5 LAWRIE & WHITTLE; Scarce Old General Atlas, 1784. $10.00. A collection of 36 coloured interesting maps, with descriptive letterpress and cornerpieces; six large coloured folding maps of North and South America; Maps 34 to 39 are those of America, which are as follows: 34, the Continents and Islands of America; 35, a New Map of the Whole Continent of America, divided into north and south, and West Indies, with a supplement to North America, containing the countries adjoining Baffins and Hudson Bay (this map has a splendid old copperplate cornerpiece of Indians); 36, Map of North America with the West India Islands, divided according to the Preliminary Articles of Peace, signed at Versailles, 20th January, 1783; the United States, and several Provinces, Governments which compose the British Dominions; 37, South America and California; 38, Peru and Brazil; 39, South America, Tierra Firma, Guayana, New Granada, Amazonia, Brazil,

Complete from Vol. 1, No. 1, May, 1873 to Vol. 5, 1875, No. 17 in Vol. 5 missing, thence complete from 1883 to its termination on July 15th, 1893. 25 volumes, 3 years, in cloth, the remainder in parts as issued; also Grip, 113 parts, between the years 1879 and 1882; also the Grip Almanac, 1883-84-86-87-88-90-91-93. Scarce. $78.00 the lot.

A Rare and Valuable Publication, illustrative of the History, Politics, Manners, and Customs of the Canadian People during a very important period of Canadian History. As far as is known only two sets being in existence, one of which we sold several years ago for $275, and will never be offered for sale again. Grip is decidedly the most clean, and the most impressive pictorial history of Canada during the time of its publication, and no complete history of the country can be compiled without consulting its overflowing pages. It contains many thousands of illustrations which are not merely fantastic portraits or grotesque and comic representations of the events of the day, but are Speaking Likenesses of Modern Characters, suggesting maxims or preaching truths before the time.

- 12 GRIP ALMANACS for the years 1883-84-86-87-88-90-91-92-93; interesting lot. Scarce. $4.00.

Frontispiece of the Heroine being chased by a Bear, with Indians in the distance, and vignette on title "Capture of the Pirate of Quebec," and other engravings, and is an interesting old sentimental tale illustrating Canadian Life in Old Times. 716 pages; 8vo, cloth; scarce. $3.50. 1838.

Chapter 1. Towards the close of a bright and warm day a young girl was walking alone in one of the sublime wildernesses of Upper Canada. She might be fifteen or sixteen years of age. Her head and feet were uncovered, and the tattered English frock she wore, with tight sleeves, barely hiding her shoulders, left her arms also exposed. As she walked slowly she leaned on a strong branch of a tree she had picked up, but it was evident that even with the assistance of this she could scarcely move onwards, so much was she fatigued. In truth, her solitary journeying had continued nearly all the day, during which time she had not seen one human habitation. Boundless woods surrounded her, and with the lake whose margins she pursued was silent to awfulness.
