

GREAT HAMILTON'S MOST RELIABLE NEWSPAPER

COUNTY POOR HOUSE AGAIN DISCUSSED,

But the Council Takes No Action.

Inspector Smith Made Strong Plea.

A Warm Passage With the Sheriff.

It was a warm session indeed that the County Council put in this morning, when Dr. R. W. Bruce Smith, the Inspector of Prisons and Hospitals, appeared to ask that the county make some definite move in regard to the care of its poor. Dr. Smith was given a very respectful hearing, but it was the aftermath that was exciting. After Dr. Smith had left the Council chamber, Sheriff Middleton, at the request of the committee, appeared and said a few words. He started in by going after some of the Councilors for the manner in which they spoke to Dr. Smith while he was in the chamber, and referred especially to Councilors Hills. Mr. Hills immediately rose to his feet to ask the Sheriff a question, but the latter preferred to speak without interruption. "When the time comes you can have your say," he remarked. This was accompanied by a roar of laughter from the rest of the Councilors, who seemed to be enjoying the proceedings with zest. The Sheriff then spoke at length, but he had loaded the Judges with material by which they could go after the county, and said it was untrue. Amid the hubbub, Councilor Hills secured an opportunity to ask his question, and it was a simple one. He asked the Sheriff if he was speaking as a ratepayer or as the Sheriff in regard to the County House of Refuge. The Sheriff replied that it was in his official capacity that he was addressing the Council. Councilor Hills then replied, that "He was not here to take any instructions from the Sheriff of the county." The Sheriff remarked that he would have to take what he was handing out, no matter what they might do later. The Sheriff went on to point out that Crown Point had been a bitter sufferer during the past winter, and he could not point out that Barton township, to which it belonged, had taken care of the inhabitants as it should have.

Fatal Flood

Texarkana, Ark., June 2.—Several persons were reported to have been drowned, hundreds of others are marooned, and thousands of acres of cultivated lands are under water as a result of an almost unprecedented rise in the Red River. The crest of the flood should pass to-day. Until then an accurate estimate of the monetary loss and the number of dead cannot be had. The latter, however, it is believed, will not be large.

GENERAL REDVERS BULLER DEAD.

Had Brilliant War Record and V. C. Previous to the Boer War.

THE LATE GENERAL BULLER.

London, June 2.—General Redvers Henry Buller, who has been ill for several months, is dead. He was born in 1839. Gen. Buller entered the army in 1858, and in 1891 he had risen to the rank of lieutenant-general. He saw active service in many parts of the world. He served in China in 1860, in the Ashanti war in 1874, in the Kaffir war, in the Zulu war in 1878-79; he was in South Africa in 1881, and in Egypt in 1882, and was present at the battle of Telenkebi; he also fought in the Sudan war in 1884, and was Under Secretary of War in 1887. He became well known during the Boer war as the man who relieved Ladysmith. He went out to South Africa in 1899, first as general commanding the forces in South Africa, and afterwards as general officer commanding in Natal. He conducted the operations for the relief of Ladysmith, which was successfully accomplished after an investment of 118 days, and subsequently he conducted the operations that resulted in the capture of the Boer army from Natal. In April Gen. Buller contracted a chill in London, and indisposition was followed by a severe attack of jaundice and other complications. Early in May a hopeful view of his recovery was entertained by his physician, and the turn for the worse was unexpected. Gen. Buller married Lady Audrey Jane Charlotte, daughter of the fourth Marquis Townshend.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

Vote for McClellent and Wardrop. Too big a majority for a Government is a bad thing. If the Tories attempt the buying of votes they will be sure to get into trouble. The church people have not forgotten Mr. Scott's insulting language. My North Westworth friends will now please to get to work and give Mr. Thompson one of those old-time boosts. Punish the men who stole our Normal College. Mr. Hendrie has not yet done justice to Hamilton. I suppose he would let Whitney take away the City Hall if he wanted to. Can Mayor Stewart give any good reason why we should not wait and see Whitney's power contract figures before the city decides to plunge into this thirty year business? If Whitney is to have all that major more reason Hamilton should send two Liberals to keep him in order. The Dominion Government has no price labor contracts to compete with free labor. Mr. Scott forgot or didn't know that we have free schools now. Ross spent $5,000,000 a year. Whitney spends nearly $10,000,000. What do you think of that? John Milne made more money under Liberal Government than he ever did under Tory Government, and he can't deny it. Look at his books. The junior Tory organ is working hard for its candidates. Let us have a decent campaign, Mr. Scott. Liberal canvassers tell me that they hardly ever come across anybody who is to vote for Scott. Don't believe those Tory special despatches about Whitney going to be returned to power. They know nothing about it. Now, boys, help our candidates this week all you can. Whitney and the Manufacturers' Association are the ones who flooded the Ontario labor market. I am glad Mr. Southam had no string to that hospital money. Mayor Stewart is mad because the Times got on to his curves on the power question. Go to the circus and cheer up. Make a note of your polling booth, so you will know where to vote next Monday. If Mr. Scott knows no more about technical education than he does about immigration he must be in the dark. Of course the Sunday driving of a Provincial returning officer and a machine ward boss have no significance, I presume, Mr. Peitinger, eh?

SHAPING TOWARDS GOOD SETTLEMENT.

Death Sentences

Warsaw, June 2.—Three girls and eleven men were sentenced to death by court martial here yesterday for attacking a post car at Zokolow, on the Vistula Railroad last January. A bomb thrown at the car killed two and wounded ten soldiers and railroad employees, and after the car was wrecked the safes were looted.

WILL BE READY BY OCTOBER.

WORK TO BE PUSHED ON NEW ST. GILES' CHURCH.

Committee Appointed to Arrange About Tent Services and Look After Pulpit Supply.

A meeting of the congregation of St. Giles' Presbyterian Church was held last evening in the Victoria Curling Rink with a good attendance. Rev. D. Anderson, of Burlington, who was appointed by the Presbytery to organize the congregation, opened the meeting. Mr. J. B. Graham occupied the chair, and asked for the report of the committee which waited on the Presbytery. Mr. A. M. Cunningham reported having in company with Mr. Graham, visited the Presbytery at an adjourned meeting at Chippewa, and that the Presbytery had accepted the petition, which bore 116 names. The Presbytery again adjourned until last Thursday night, when Rev. Mr. Anderson, of Burlington, and Mr. George Rutherford were appointed to organize the congregation. William Lees, junr., reported for the committee which met the Extension Union. He said they had been kindly received, and that the union would give the desired assistance, and that of the first money taken in by the union the congregation would receive about $500. They would require an agreement to be entered into, that the interest be paid on the mortgage and that the grant given might be used for payment on the lot. Rev. Mr. Anderson congratulated the meeting on the success which attended their efforts thus far. He suggested that as soon as a meeting could be held they should arrange for the organization of the congregation. It was decided, on motion of Mr. Lees, to hold services in a tent erected on the lot, commencing on June 21, and that the tent, which will be 40x60 feet, be erected facing Main street. He urged this date in view of the fact that some of those who were identifying themselves with the new congregation wished to attend the opening of the new Central Church. Mr. A. M. Cunningham was against opening the tent services unless the architect would be ready, and that if they would get into their new building by the time the rough weather came. Mr. J. B. Turner was not altogether in favor of the tent services, which, in his opinion, would cost in the neighborhood of $45 every Sunday. It would also be necessary to secure the services of a caretaker, as it would not be safe to leave the tent alone throughout the week. Mr. Walter Stewart, the architect, said that by the end of the week working drawings would be ready, and that if the work was started by the middle of June the building would be ready by October 1. Mr. Graham urged that a start be made at once, as it was necessary to have organization completed by the time of the meeting of the Presbytery in July. The congregation would then be in better shape to go into the new building. Mr. Lees took a more sanguine view of the situation, and said that he thought many of the troubles that some of them saw would disappear when the work began. Mr. Cunningham moved that a committee be appointed to consider the advisability of starting the tent services. An amendment was made that if the committee decided that it was feasible they should have power to act. The motion in its amended form was passed. Messrs. J. B. Graham, A. M. Cunningham, J. B. Turner, A. McKennie and Carl DeKam were appointed a committee to act on this resolution. Agreements were passed around and signed by those present, stating that each one was willing to pay towards the maintenance of the church. The amount was entirely satisfactory. It was decided to leave it to the committee to arrange for pulpit supply, if they decided to have the tent services.

Street Railway Details Being Worked Out.

The Tory Aldermen Are Very Indignant

Over Mayor's Speech at Nominations.

Everything appears to be moving smoothly towards a settlement of the street railway matter. Yesterday afternoon the sub-committee had a conference with Hon. J. M. Gibson and General Manager Hawkins, when most of the clauses in the proposed agreement were consented to by both sides. The company seems rather backward about granting the city's request for a line across Bold street and it wants it stipulated in the agreement that the Ontario Railway Board can only force it to build extensions when the city can show that there would be something in it for the company. This morning there was another session of the City Solicitor's office, when several details were agreed upon. The solicitors will get a by-law in shape now for the next council meeting, when it is expected it will be given one reading. There will likely be a hot time at the next council meeting when the power question is dealt with. Some of the Tory aldermen say Mayor Stewart can't get up to having a meeting of any kind without having a whack at his followers who do not agree with his views. Some of the Conservative aldermen who heard the Mayor's remarks in Association Hall yesterday threatened after the meeting to say some things to his Worship on the first occasion that presented itself, which would not be appreciated by him. They also resent the Mayor's efforts to make a political issue of the power question when Whitney has repeatedly declared that the Hydro scheme is aside from politics. Acting on the recommendation of the grand jury that more turnkeys should be engaged at the jail, Sheriff Middleton has asked the city for an extra man, and the Markets Committee yesterday decided to grant the request. It was also agreed to purchase a new flag pole for the City Hall in view of the fact that Chief Ten Eyck reported the old one was in a dangerous condition. Contracts amounting to $1,600 for building a new wall on the south side of the city streets, north of the City Hall, were awarded as follows: W. A. Smith, masonry, $1,000; J. E. Riddell, tin work, $50; R. & J. Pong, carpenter work, $578; P. Thomson, painting, $65; J. Clapham & Son, plastering, $50; Hamilton Bridge Works, steel girders, $93.

The value of building permits issued during May amounted to $119,500, as compared with $428,950 for the corresponding month last year, or a decrease of $309,550. The permits issued to-day were as follows: Stewart & Wilton, brick house, Herk. (Continued on page 5.)

HOUSE SITTING.

Foster Renews the Obstruction to Prevent Supply.

Discusses Pringle's Charges of Immorality in the Yukon.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Ottawa, June 2.—The first morning sitting of the session was held to-day, and on motion to go into supply obstruction was resumed by Mr. Foster taking charge and bringing up the charges of Rev. John Pringle of immorality and misconduct on the part of officials of the Yukon district. This has been discussed in the House and threshed out for the past two years. It served its purpose again this morning as a time killer. Before Mr. Foster complained that a return regarding paroled prisoners had not been brought down as ordered by the House. Mr. Aylesworth said the order was a large one, and the preparation of the return would take one man fifteen months working eight hours a day. On the Yukon question Mr. Foster read from a letter written in 1902 by Mr. Pringle, in which he said there were 210 licensed liquor places for 20,000 population, and a large number of gambling houses and disorderly places. Mr. Pringle interrupted to say that he thought the reverend gentleman would have been better employed in bringing these matters before the proper authorities in the Yukon instead of to Ottawa. Mr. Foster said this was a reflection on Mr. Pringle. Mr. Fielding—No, but it is strange that these papers should have been before the House all session, and of which Dr. Thompson, the member for the Yukon, and who was a member of the Opposition, had taken so little stock in, he had never brought the matter up in the House, and Mr. Foster waited until Dr. Thompson had left Ottawa before he brought the matter up. Mr. Alex. Johnston—He is only doing it to kill time. Mr. Foster had not finished at 1 o'clock.

T. H. & B. DIRECTORS Elected at the Annual Meeting Here To-day.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway was held at noon to-day in the office of the general superintendent, Hunter Street Station. The only business transacted was the election of directors, which resulted as follows: William K. Vanderbilt, New York; William H. Newman, New York; H. B. Lybrand, Detroit; John N. Beckley, Rochester; Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, Montreal; David McNichol, Montreal; Charles F. Cox, New York; E. B. Osier, Toronto; Neal Kingsmill, Toronto; W. P. Torrance, Toronto; David Scott, Ottawa.

ADJOURNED AGAIN.

The non-jury High Court met this morning and adjourned until June 25th. The action of Morden vs. Morden was settled for $900. The case of American Street Lamp & Supply Co. vs. Ontario Pipe Line Co. will be continued in Toronto.

BELL MEMORIAL.

Park or Monument For the Inventor of the Telephone.

Township Assessment—Three Arrests For Theft.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Brantford, Ont., June 2.—A deputation from the Bell Memorial Association yesterday waited upon the Township Council with the request that if the association purchased the Bell homestead on Tutela Heights, the township would provide for the maintenance of the property as a park. The Council decided by resolution that the homestead was not suitable for a park, and would not further consider the matter. It was the general opinion that the $40,000 should be expended in the city on a monument erected on a suitable site. The site committee afterwards held a meeting, but was unable to agree on a suitable location. The assessment roll submitted yesterday to the Brantford Township Council shows an increase in the total assessment of $250,000. The total assessment reaches over $4,000,000. Two arrests were made yesterday by the police, by which they hope to clear up local theft cases. An Armenian was arrested for stealing a watch. He carried a revolver and the watch to the same jeweller who had recently sold it to a young lady. The article, however, has not been recovered. Dolly Phillips, who boarded at 224 Market street for a time with her husband, was arrested for stealing a quantity of clothing from the boarding mistress. She was bailed out by her father and will appear to-morrow.

HAS NO DOUBT OF SUCCESS.

Mr. John Patterson Confident About H. W. & G.

Although He Has Had Some Difficulty

In Interesting Capital in the Old Country.

Mr. John Patterson, who has been devoting his time to the financing of the Hamilton, Waterloo & Guelph Railway, is home again for a short time and will leave for England again in about ten days on business connected with the enterprise. He has no doubt as to the ultimate success of the project, in spite of the financial stringency. In an interview Mr. Patterson said: I have had some difficulty in interesting capital for the Hamilton, Waterloo & Guelph Ry., owing to the very large amount of Canadian bonds being offered in England, in fact, some of the bankers state that hardly a town from the Atlantic to the Pacific is not in the field for money. I think, however, that there will be fair chance to float the bonds later on, although the cost of the road, owing to the enormous expenses at the Hamilton end, is much larger than the financiers care to arrange for. There is an enormous accumulation of money in England and the banks are only allowing 1 1/2 per cent on deposits, but so many first-class investments are offered that it is even harder than usual to float ordinary debentures at a reasonable figure. As showing the indifference of the public to Canadian municipal and other bonds some underwriters in London are holding 90 per cent of over $20,000,000 of bonds, which they have had to pay for and which the public will not buy from them at the price they gave. I expect to return in a short time and hope to get enough encouragement to make a start in the fall. Closing To-morrow. And every Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock during June, July and August and would ask the assistance of our numerous customers by placing their orders as early as possible on those days. Would be pleased to have you trade with us during your stay at the Beach. We offer you the very best service, the very best groceries, wines and liquors, mineral water, etc., at reasonable prices. Bain & Adams, 89, 91 King street east.

QUIET WEDDING.

Hamilton Lady Weds and Leaves For Europe.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at 10:30 yesterday morning at the residence of Mrs. Scott, Spring street, when her daughter, Mary Winter, was married by the Rev. John Young, M. A., to Mr. Harold Hasbrouck, of New York. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. After the wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Hasbrouck left for Montreal, en route for Europe and on their return will reside in New York city.

SECRET MARRIAGES.

The Church the Place For These and For Baptisms.

Does Use of Candles Prevent Union of Churches?

Ottawa, June 2.—To-day at the 29th session of the Synod of the Diocese of Ottawa, his Lordship the Bishop of Ottawa came out very flat-footed against secret and private baptisms. He said the church was the place for these and in his annual address given this Tuesday morning, handed out the following to the clergy and laity: "In former generations of old in Canada, when our church buildings were few and scattered, there was some excuse for the request that the marriage service might be held in the home of the bride. There is none now. One evidence of this is to be seen in the fact that the members of other church bodies who have no such rule as we have, are having their marriages blessed—not in their own homes but in God's house of worship. The Bishop also regretted that so many people tried to get the clergy to conduct marriages in the homes of the contracting parties and said relative to this: "All right minded people will recognize that they ought never in any single case to ask their clergy to forage or transgress any rule or practice or custom which is binding." His Lordship came out equally strong on the baptism question. Delegates, both lay and clerical, from all over the diocese are here attending the Synod. Discussing the proposition of union between Catholicism and Protestantism before the lay and clerical members of the Synod of the Diocese of Ottawa, which is now in session here, Rev. George Boufield, rector of St. Margaret's Anglican Church, Ottawa, traversed the statement made in Toronto lately by the Hon. S. Blake that the use of candles and other ritual accessories prevented the great Protestant communions from uniting with the Church of England. He disagreed entirely with this. He did not believe that the noble and God-fearing men and women who belonged to Protestantism would ever refuse reunion because of candles, etc. Protestants had very different reasons for their position in the matter. Catholics might sweep every ornament away and still reunion would be difficult, for in the words of a leading Protestant, "It is futile to talk reunion on the basis of Catholic theology, even if that be confined to the great historical creeds."

THE METROPOL.

Richard Baird, the new proprietor of The Metropole, 29 John street north, has had the hotel thoroughly remodelled and restocked and is prepared to furnish the best of accommodation and service to guests. The piano and music stores will close at 12 o'clock on Wednesday during June, July and August.

MARGUERITE'S SECRET

But I will be truer to my friend than Peter to his master," replied Cornelia. Marguerite drew the girl's face down closer to her own, gazed wistfully, not into, but upon those brilliant, superficial brown eyes, that because they had no depth repelled her confidence, and then with a deep groan and a mournful shake of the head, she released Nellie, and turned her own face to the wall. Did she deem Miss Compton's friendship less profound than pretensions? I do not know; but from that time Miss De Lencie maintained, upon one subject at least, a stern reserve. Cornelia, and, at last, directly, though most kindly, and respectfully, questioned as to the origin of her agitation and swoon in the ball-room, she declared it to have been a symptom of approaching illness, and discouraged further interrogation. Slowly Marguerite De Lencie regained her strength. It was the middle of March before she left her bed, and the first of April before she went out of the house. One day about this time, as the two friends were sitting together in Marguerite's chamber, Cornelia said: "There is a circumstance that I think I ought to have told you before now, Marguerite. But we read of it only a few days after you were taken ill, and when you were not in a condition to be told of it." "Well, what circumstance was that?" asked Miss De Lencie, indifferent. "It was a fatal accident that happened to one of our friends. No, now! don't get alarmed—it was no particular friend," said Cornelia, interrupting herself upon seeing Marguerite's very lips grow white. "Well! what was it?" questioned the latter. "Why, then, you must know that the venture, in which Lord William Daw sailed, was wrecked off the coast of Cornwall, and Lord William and Mr. Murray were among the lost. We read the whole account of it, copied from an English paper into the Richmond Standard. Lord William's body was washed ashore, the same night of the wreck." "Poor young man, he deserved a better fate," said Marguerite. "Miss De Lencie went no more into society that season; indeed, the season was well over before she was able to go out. She announced her intention, as soon as the state of her health would permit her to travel, to terminate her visit to Richmond, and go down to her plantation on the banks of the Potomac. Cornelia would gladly have attended her friend, and only waited permission to do so; but the waited invitation was not extended, and Marguerite prepared to set out alone. "We shall meet you at Berkeley or at Saratoga, this summer," said Cornelia. "Perhaps—I do not know—my plans for the summer are not arranged," said Marguerite. "But you will write as soon as you reach home?" "Yes—certainly," pressing her parting kiss upon the lips of her friend. The promised letter, announcing Marguerite's safe arrival at Plover's Point, was received; but it was the last that came thence; for though Cornelia promptly replied to it, she received no second one. And though Cornelia wrote again and again, her letters remained unanswered. Weeks passed into months and brought mid-summer. Colonel Compton with his family went to Saratoga, but without meeting Miss De Lencie. About the middle of August they came to Berkeley; but failed to see or to hear any tidings of their friend. "Indeed, I am very much afraid that Marguerite may be lying ill at Plover's Point, surrounded only by ignorant servants who cannot write to inform us," said Cornelia, advancing a probability so striking and so alarming, that Colonel Compton, immediately after taking his family back to Richmond, set out for Plover's Point to ascertain the state of the case in question. But when he arrived at the plantation, great was his surprise to learn that Miss De Lencie had left home for New York, as early as the middle of April, and had not since been heard from. And this was the last of September. With this information, Colonel Compton returned to Richmond. Extreme was the astonishment of the family upon hearing this; and when the month after month passed, and no tidings of the missing one arrived, and no clue to her retreat, or to her fate was gained, the grief and dismay of her friends could only be equalled by the wonder and conjecture of society at large, upon the strange subject of Marguerite De Lencie's disappearance. CHAPTER III. Christmas approached, and the gay belles of Richmond were preparing for the festivities of that season. Colonel Compton with his family and a few chosen friends went down to Compton Lodge to spend the holidays in country hospitalities, hunting, etc. The party had been there but a few days, when, one Christmas morning, while the family and their guests were assembled in the old, oak-paneled, front parlour before breakfast, and Colonel Compton was standing at a side table, presiding over an immense old family punch bowl, from which he ladled out goblets of frothy eggnog to the company, the door was quietly opened, and without announcement Marguerite De Lencie entered, saying, "A merry Christmas, friends!" "Marguerite! Marguerite!" exclaimed—first Cornelia, and then all the young ladies that were present, pressing forward to meet her, while the matrons and the gentlemen of the party, with less vehemence but equal cordiality, waited to welcome her. "My lost sweetheart, by all that's amazing!" cried Colonel Compton, who in his engrossment, was the very last to discover the arrival. "Why, where upon the face of the earth did you come from?" inquired Cornelia, scarcely restrained by the presence of others from laughing and covering her friend with kisses. "From Loudoun street," answered Miss De Lencie, gaily, as she shook hands right and left. "From Loudoun street? that will do! How long have you been in Loudoun street, sweetheart? You were not there when we passed through the town in coming hither," said Colonel Compton. "I arrived only the day before yesterday, rested a day, and hearing that you were at the Lodge, came hither, this morning, to breakfast with you." "Enchanted to see you, my dear! truly

so! But—you arrived the day before yesterday, when?" "I may be mistaken, yet it seems to me that Colonel Compton's asking questions," said Marguerite, with good-humored sarcasm. "Oh! ah! I beg pardon, ten thousand pardons, as the French say," replied Colonel Compton, bowing with deep depression, and then raising a bumper of eggnog. "To our reconciliation, Miss De Lencie," he continued, offering her the first, and filling for himself a second goblet. "And you, a vous," said Marguerite, pledging him. "And now to breakfast—sortez, sortez!" exclaimed the colonel, leading the way to the dining-room. Cornelia was, to use her own expression, "dying" to be alone with Marguerite, to hear the history of the last seven months' absence. Never before was she more impatient over the progress of a meal, never before seemed the epicureanism of old folks so tedious, or the appetites of young people so unbecomingly; notwithstanding which, the coffee, tea and chocolate, the waffles, rolls and corn pone, the fresh venison, ham, and partridges were enjoyed by the company with equal gusto and deliberation. "At last!" exclaimed Cornelia, as rising from the table, she took Marguerite's hand and drew her stealthily away through the crowd, and up the back stairs to her own little bedchamber, where a cheerful fire was burning. "Now, then, tell me all about it, Marguerite," she said, putting her friend into her easy-chair of state behind the fire, and seating herself on a stool at her feet. "Where have you been?" "Gypsying," answered Miss De Lencie. "Gypsying? oh, nonsense, that is no answer. What have you been about?" "Gypsying," repeated Marguerite. "Gypsying!" exclaimed Cornelia, now in wonder. "Ay! Did you never—or have you too little life or too little feeling to spread your wings and fly away, away from all human ken—to feel the perfect liberty of loneliness, as only an irresponsible stranger in a strange place can feel it?" "No! no! I never did," said Cornelia, amazed, "but tell me then, where did you go from Plover's Point?" "To Terra del Fuego, or the Land of Fire," said Marguerite, with a deep flush. "Fidesticks! Where did you come from last to Winchester?" "From Iceland," said Marguerite, with a shiver. "Oh, phaw! you are making fun of me, Marguerite!" "My dear, if I felt obliged to give an account of my wanderings, their wild liberty would not seem half so sweet. Even my property agent shall not at any time know where to find me; it is enough that I know where to find him when he is wanted," said Miss De Lencie, with such a dash of hauteur that Cornelia dropped the subject. And then Marguerite, to compensate for her passing severity, tenderly embraced Nellie. The Christmas party at Compton Lodge lasted until after New Year, and then the family and their friends returned to Richmond. Miss De Lencie, yielding to a pressing invitation, accompanied them. And in town, Marguerite had again to run the gauntlet of questions from her acquaintances, such as: "Where have you been so long, Marguerite? To what would you answer?" "To Obdorskoi on the sea of Obou," or some such absurdity, until at last all inquiry ceased. Miss De Lencie resumed her high position in society, and was once more the bright, particular star of every saloon. Those who envied or disliked her, thought the dazzling Marguerite somewhat changed; that the fine, oval face was thinned and sharpened; the brilliant and changeable complexion fixed and deepened with a flush that looked like fever, and the ever-carrying graceful, glowing vivacity rather fitful and eccentric. However, envious criticism did not prevent the most derisive parties in the city becoming suitors for the hand of the belle, muse and heiress, as she was still called. But Marguerite, in her old spirit of sarcasm, laughed all these overtures to scorn, and remained faithful to her sole attachment, her inexplicable love for Cornelia. "I am twenty-four, I shall never marry, Nellie. I wish I were sure that you would live long enough to do so; that we might be sisters for life, and that when your dear parents are gathered to their fathers, you might come and live with me, and we might be all in all to each other, forever," said Marguerite, one day, to her friend. "Marguerite, if that will make you happy, I will promise you faithfully never to marry, but to be your own dear, little Nellie forever and ever; for indeed you should I not. I love no one in the world but my parents and you." "Will it be credited, even although we know that such promises are sometimes made and always broken, that these two girls entered into a solemn engagement never to marry; but to live for each other only?" "From the day of this singular treaty Marguerite De Lencie grew fonder than ever of her friend, lavished endowments upon her, calling Cornelia her Cousin, her Hope, her Star, and many other pet or poetic names besides. Nevertheless when the fashionable season was over, Miss De Lencie left town without taking her "consolation" with her. And again for a few months Marguerite was missing. She was not one to disappear with impunity or without inquiry. Where was she? Not at either of her own seats, nor at either of the water places, not so far as her most intimate friends and acquaintances knew, at New York, Philadelphia or Richmond, would have been chronicled by some one interested. Where was she, then? No one could answer; even her bosom friend, Cornelia Compton, could only reply, "Gone gypsying, I suppose." Again seven months rolled by, while the brightest star of fashion remained in eclipse. Again a Christmas party was assembled at Compton Lodge, when the news of Miss De Lencie's arrival at her house on Loudoun street reached them. Colonel and Mrs. Compton waited some days for her call, and then not having received it, they found Marguerite

ite, as ever, gay, witty, sarcastic. She told them in answer to their friendly inquiries that she had been at "Seringapatam," and gave them no further satisfaction. She accepted the invitation to join the Christmas party at Compton Lodge, went thither the same day, and as always before, distinguished herself as the most brilliant conversationalist, the most accomplished musician, the most graceful dancer, and the most fearless rider of the set. At the breaking up of the company, however, though invited and pressed to return with the Comptons to Richmond, she steadily declined doing so, alleging the necessity of visiting her plantation. Therefore the Comptons returned to Richmond without their usual guest, and Cornelia, for the first time in many years, spent the whole winter in town without Marguerite. But if Cornelia was bereaved of her friend, she was also freed from her mistress and entered with much more levity into all the gayeties of the season than she ever had done in the restraining companionship of Marguerite De Lencie. (To be continued.) THROUGH TICKETS. Important Decision Rendered by the Railway Commission. (Special Despatch to the Times.) Ottawa, Ont., June 1.—The Board of Railway Commissioners has given judgment on application of Canada Northern Railway for an order requiring the C. P. R. and G. T. R. to admit the C. N. R. to the existing joint agreement between the two old companies with respect to issuing of through tickets to Muskoka district. The board has refused the application in so far as it effects the issuing of through tickets via C. P. and G. T. R. lines to Toronto, or other points, when a C. N. R. connection is made, and hence to Muskoka district. Through tickets need only be issued by C. P. and G. T. R. in cases where C. P. R. points are not also reached by the first two companies. The Empress (and the Queen of Sweden in a six horse equipage, were on the left of the reviewing stand, where drawn up in four lines were the carriage of the diplomatic corps and many distinguished guests. Vigor comes from good, red blood. Almost everybody's blood is thin and watery in the spring. Hence the tired, languid feelings, the loss of energy and ambition, and the general weakness of the bodily organs. The appetite fails, digestion is imperfect, the filtering and excretory organs are irregular, and, in short, life is a burden instead of being the joy it should be. You can feel yourself getting stronger and vigor when Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food is used. The blood is made rich and pure, the appetite is sharpened, digestion improves and every organ in the body feels the benefit of the rich, red blood such as is formed by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. 25c. at all dealers or Edmunds, Bates & Co., Toronto, Ont. Portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, M. D., the famous Receipt Book author, on every box. AT R. They Try to Throw Foreman on Circular Saw. Vancouver, June 1.—A visitor from Golden reports a ferment caused there by the attempt of Hindu employees of the Columbia River Lumber Company to murder the white foreman by throwing him on a circular saw. Four Hindus, he says, disobeyed instructions regarding lumber being shipped. The foreman, a Frenchman, hot-tempered, reprimanded them severely and threatened to discharge them. Seizing him, they were carrying him to the big saw. A young white man came on the scene, picked up a slab, laid out three Hindus and the other turned and fled. KELVIN Rev. C. Cookman goes to Conference to Hamilton on Wednesday next, and Mrs. Cookman and himself will take up their home in Saskatoon. Their friends here will be very sorry to part with them.

Several from here attended the garden party at Oakland on Monday evening last. Mr. and Miss Leggett, of Brantford, attended church here on Sunday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker, of Vane- ssa, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Potts, of this village. The articles are well written, and one of two being in French. Duncan Campbell Scott has a story en- titled "The Winning of Marie Louise," which is worth reading. The magazine has for one of its objects to "revive the almost lost art of writing amongst Can- adian girls," and it is hoped that the con- tributors in future will be largely girls. The Times cannot speak too highly of the May Court Club, its work and its aims, and if future issues of the magazine are as good as the June one it should be a success.

The Times cannot speak too highly of the May Court Club, its work and its aims, and if future issues of the magazine are as good as the June one it should be a success.

THE HAMILTON TIMES

TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 1908.

BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

There is no scarcity of political candidates in Hamilton. With three in the West riding, and four in the East, even fastidious electors will hardly be hampered for choice.

The Liberals have in East and West Hamilton two worthy candidates—both men of high principles, clearly defined policies, and with the interests of the people at heart.

Glance at the men and policy against which they are pitted. Can it truthfully be said that they merit the support of the people of Hamilton?

Looking at personal pledges solemnly made to the people by the Conservative candidates at last election, we find that perhaps the most prominent was that relating to the immediate abolition of contract prison labor.

And as were the pledges of the candidates disregarded by them as soon as they were elected, so were the promises of the Premier and his ministers ruthlessly broken.

He solemnly pledged himself against the spoils system. He surrendered with-out even a show of resistance to the vilest machine element of his party, and has since made power by a means of billeting hungry office seekers upon the Province.

He promised to reform and improve the educational system. He has placed it in the hands of partisan incompetents, and brought it into chaos.

He promised "a square deal," and at the close of the Legislature he goes out of his way, within two years of a census year, to perpetrate the most subtle and cowardly of gerrymanders, by which he confesses that even with a majority of 42 he feels that he dare not trust himself to the electors whom he has betrayed, deceived, and insulted.

The electors of East and West Hamilton have it in their power to deal with these men on Monday next. There come now before them two candidates who ask them to forgive and forget their detestable violation of the confidences reposed in them and in Whitney less than four years ago.

THE PROVINCE.

The Liberals need not feel the least depressed because six of Whitney's supporters were returned by acclamation yesterday. These constituencies are so uniformly and wholly Tory in their nature that the Liberals very wisely refrained from wasting their ammunition upon them, reserving their fighting strength for those ridings where it would tell.

It was a foregone hope the Liberals had to contend with last election. It is quite a different matter this time. The party is a unit behind its leader. It is full of hope and fight.

The candidates in the constituencies of North and South Wentworth are now officially before the electors, and there remains now but to receive their verdict on the issues presented.

Mr. Scott insists that he doesn't want any license board composed of county officials. We rather thought he wouldn't. There are reasons.

The first thing ex-Adm. Reid knows, he will become unpopular with the Tory machine if he asks such embarrassing questions as those which tied J. J. Scott up in a double bow knot with three half hitches, on Monday.

Mr. Walter Rolfe is credited with saying that free and compulsory education was a concession for the Tories by Labor.

It will not be wondered at that such an enormous increase of expenditure calls for explanation and defence. Recklessness of this kind, in the face of promises of contraction in the squandering of money, demands that the strongest reasons be presented for its justification.

Its plea is that the "greater proportion of the growth in Ontario's expenditure has been incurred in extending the agricultural and educational services of the Province."

Such a plea would be insufficient to excuse such a large increase in expenditure, even were it true. And it is not true.

In 1904 the expenditure for the advancement of agriculture by Ross was $448,481. In 1907, under Whitney, it was $480,317.

The increased amount expended for agriculture by Whitney was $33,836, or 7.57 per cent.

done by Mrs. Hoodless, under Hon. George W. Ross, and in the face of bitter opposition from your party and its machine. Why, its "new bloods" went into the school board with a boastful threat to bust the "fads"!

THE BABY ACT AGAIN.

At a Norwood meeting recently, Premier Whitney declared that Mr. MacKay "has a knife out for the University of Toronto, and he is an enemy of it."

This contention is consistent with the true theory of responsible government, and with true friendship for the University. The support of the institution on these lines would tend to public confidence and pride in its success.

It is not such conduct on the part of a Premier, full grown, and professing a moral sense, calculated to make his followers blush!

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Will some benevolent citizen please explain to Dr. Carr what "technical education" and "technical classes" mean?

Hamilton Liberals have reason to be proud of the showing made by their candidates, Messrs. Wardrope and McClelland, on Monday.

Mr. Scott insists that he doesn't want any license board composed of county officials. We rather thought he wouldn't. There are reasons.

"Sour grapes!" Col. Hendrie. It would have been more manly on your part to defend the city in the Normal College matter than to belittle its loss.

The indications are that, owing to the Whitney Government's bungling and precipitancy, a large number of the voters of the new northern constituencies will be disfranchised at the coming elections.

Mr. Stewart's prediction that 90 per cent. of the people of Hamilton would support the Whitney Government is just one of His Worship's feeble efforts. Like an engine without a governor, his mouth outruns his common sense.

But there are thousands, Mr. Mayor, who take no stock in your assertion that "it would be disastrous to Hamilton to return Col. Hendrie."

Mr. Walter Rolfe is credited with saying that free and compulsory education was a concession for the Tories by Labor. Mr. Hanna did not need to send a commission to the United States for information which might easily have been secured at Ottawa.

Again we have an illustration of Ganeley's hold upon Whitney in the way colonization roads expenditure is hustled in Manitoulin. Ganeley crooks his finger, and Whitney comes down, and stands not on the order of his coming.

A peculiar thing in this election campaign is that many Conservatives are supporting McClelland or Studholme solely from a desire to rebuke the machine by securing the defeat of Scott. At the same time many labor men, convinced that Studholme has no chance and that his usefulness in the Legislature, even if elected, is nil, are working for McClelland.

Mayor Stewart is concerned because, he says, the Times has got it into its head that he wants to oppose Adam Zimmerman in West Hamilton. The Mayor's bump of self-esteem is getting too big. A prospect like that would not alarm the Times at all.

Palmerston, June 1.—About 8.30 to-night, while the way freight, in charge of Conductor M. Thomas, engine 179, was passing, a car came in from the siding at Port Elgin.

Here's Dr. Carr coolly asking credit for Whitney and his party, for encouraging the beginnings of technical education in our public schools. Pie! Dr. Carr. Where is your chivalry? That work was

OUR EXCHANGES.

Were All Right. (Toronto News). So far as the Administrations of Sir Oliver Mowat and Mr. Hardy are concerned, the News has no complaint to make. The business of the Province was handled in the main with efficiency and economy.

PRISON LABOR. How the Dominion Government Employs Prisoners. The Expositor has already made it clear that long since the Dominion Government did away with the contract system of employing prison labor.

FOOLING THE FARMER. Startled by the contrast between the records of the Whitney Government of Ontario and the Gouin Government of Quebec, the Toronto News sets itself the task of fabricating excuses for the prodigality of Whitney.

Between 1904 and 1907, the Gouin Government reduced the annual expenditure of Quebec by about $200,000. In the same period the Whitney Government increased the expenditure of Ontario—an expenditure which Whitney had denounced as excessive—by about $2,500,000, or 47 per cent.

It will not be wondered at that such an enormous increase of expenditure calls for explanation and defence. Recklessness of this kind, in the face of promises of contraction in the squandering of money, demands that the strongest reasons be presented for its justification.

And what does Whitney's apologist offer? Its plea is that the "greater proportion of the growth in Ontario's expenditure has been incurred in extending the agricultural and educational services of the Province."

Such a plea would be insufficient to excuse such a large increase in expenditure, even were it true. And it is not true.

The increased amount expended for agriculture by Whitney was $33,836, or 7.57 per cent.

What a paltry excuse to put forward for adding $2,500,000 a year to the cost of running the Province!

WARDROPE IN NORTH END.

Fine Reception At Point Hill Last Night

And Gave a Telling Address To Electors.

Dan Reed Held Good Meeting At Cotter's.

On Point Hill last night W. H. Wardrope, Liberal candidate in West Hamilton, addressed an enthusiastic meeting of Ward 5 Liberals, and held the undivided attention of the crowd for nearly an hour.

William McLaughlin, chairman of that ward, presided, and briefly stated that Mr. Wardrope was a broad-minded man, worthy of the support of the people of that riding.

Mr. Wardrope was in a prosperous condition, and that the reckless extravagance had caused the depression. He declared that Colonel Hendrie had never done anything for Hamilton, and, in his opinion, never would.

Mr. Wardrope was given an enthusiastic reception. He dwelt at considerable length on the prison labor problem, touching on the famous Taylor-Scott contract, and contrasting the 30 cents a day paid by Whitney with the 50 cents a day paid under the Stewart Government.

During Mr. Wardrope's speech he had contracts for prison labor had to pay for them. The Taylor-Scott people had given nothing to the Government for its contract, but in return the Government had given them the use of Government officials free, and workshops free, for the manufacture of goods.

Mr. Wardrope then produced a ladder made by prison labor, and pointed out that it was the Taylor-Scott people exactly who had a half cent to produce it. "I ask you if it is fair to the workmen of this city to allow such labor to be put on the market in competition with skilled labor? It is impossible for manufacturers of woodware in Hamilton or Toronto to compete and pay a living wage to the men they employ."

Whitney had a golden opportunity to make good an appeal. Instead of the square deal Whitney had given the people of Ontario a raw deal. The Government had been in power but the Liberal commissioners, license inspectors and justices of the peace, notwithstanding the fact that the Liberals had supported him in the election of 1905.

The speaker had been saying many pointed things about his stand on temperance, and he wished to say that it was taking a wrong stand in the matter. He was not a teetotaler, but he held strongly in regard to the three-fifths clause, in connection with local option. It was unjust and not British.

Mr. Wardrope showed that the expenditure of the Ross Government in 1904 was $8,300,000, against $7,500,000 in 1907, a difference of $2,400,000. He declared that Colonel Hendrie should have looked after Hamilton's interests better than he had in connection with the Normal College.

Ald. Dyer appealed to Ward 5 electors to give William McLaughlin, the chairman, the same hearty support that he had given him in the past. He felt confident that Ward 5 would redeem itself in this election and show Col. Hendrie the broken promise he had supported.

He concluded with a strong plea for the election of the Liberal candidate.

Milne and Stoves. Coming back to the question of John Milne's letter about moulders' pay and the importation of stoves by Hamilton manufacturers, a moulder, who was on the union's committee when the manufacturers, a few years ago, tried to get the men to consent to a reduction in wages, replied that at that time, at a meeting at which every stove firm in Hamilton was represented, including Mr. Milne's, a statement was made that the Hamilton foundrymen did not import stoves from the United States.

Some men were prepared for just such a statement and at once produced an affidavit from Ottawa showing the Hamilton manufacturers to be large importers. Importation has been going on since. Here are some figures taken from the Government returns:

1906—Stoves imported by Hamilton firms, value $1,326; duty, $7,335.50; stoves imported by Ontario manufacturers, value, $209,864; duty, $51,935.76; stoves imported by Canadian manufacturers, value, $573,307; duty, $142,968.

1907—Stoves imported by Hamilton manufacturers, $17,388; duty, $4,260. Imported by Ontario manufacturers, $90,061; duty, $40,001.30. Imported by Canadian manufacturers, $493,038; duty, $23,280.50.

1907—Parts of stoves imported by Hamilton firms, $3,945; duty, $394.50. Ontario firms, $12,275; duty, $1,227.50. Canadian firms, $13,725; duty, $1,372.50.

Of course, Mr. Milne could not be supposed to know anything about this—oh yes!

Mr. Reed at the East End Incline. Last evening Mr. Daniel Reed held a meeting at Cotter's Hotel, which was all attended, and at which the speaker got an attentive hearing. Mr. Woolcott was chairman. Mr. Regan, the Tory candidate, was invited by Mr. Reed to attend, and he was allowed the privilege of speaking first.

The two prominent points in his remarks were that he had had no word of censure for the three-fifths clause in the Local Option Act, and that he had not one word of censure for the three-fifths clause in the Local Option Act, and that he had not one word of censure for the three-fifths clause in the Local Option Act.

Mr. Reed had not one single complaint against him. A pretty good record for Dan. Mr. Regan was followed by Mr. Guesst, Rev. J. C. Sycamore, who spoke in the interest of Mr. Reed. He held the three-fifths clause was fair neither to the temperance people nor to the people. (There is an impression, however, that Whitney will abolish the three-fifths clause three years from now, when the abolition of the clause is up before the electors.) He also had some insight into the crooked work of the Tories in South Wentworth at the election. Mr. Wilson Crockett then spoke for Mr. Regan. He dealt principally with the La Rose mine deal, and went away in his facts, as he was out Mr. Reed having sold his farm and quit farming. Mr. Reed stated that he would more than do his own-ness and would make it himself. Mr. Reed received a fine hearing, and

THOMPSON MADE A HIT.

R. A. Took Well at the Nomination Meeting.

Dundas Accepts the Carnegie Public Library Offer.

House of Providence Report Is a Good One.

Dundas, June 2.—(Special.)—The June meeting of the Town Council was held last evening. Mayor Moss and Councillors Bertram, Newitt, Lawason, Mount and Lunn were present.

A number of accounts were presented for payment, the largest one being that for water from the Cockburn dam, $220.80.

A circular from the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, calling attention to the Canadian municipal securities act, was referred to the Finance Committee.

A circular from the Northern Electric & Manufacturing Co., in reference to fire alarm systems, was referred to the Fire and Water Committee.

The annual report from the House of Providence showed that during the year 161 homeless and aged poor had been cared for; seventeen inmates were from the County of Wentworth and ten from Dundas. Of the 161 homeless inmates cared for 116 were from 60 to 90 years of age, 44 from 18 to 60 and one from 12 to 18.

Applications for town water were made by Frank Brant, Thomas Bradley, James D. McKay and R. T. Wilson. They were referred to the Fire and Water Committee.

An account from H. C. Gwyn for $391.10 for legal services was, on recommendation of the Finance Committee, referred to a special committee composed of Mayor Moss and Councillors Bertram and Lawason, with power to act.

Councillor Newitt reported verbally regarding the fire alarm system, and some discussion ensued, which will result in the Fire and Water Committee preparing plans for a ten alarm system, and asking for tenders for the same.

Councillor Mount brought up the matter of street lighting. It came out in the discussion that followed that twenty new lights are required, and the present company expires this fall, and the Council will be prepared to care for the town's interest in the matter.

Councillor Lawason reported re Carnegie Library project. Annual contribution to the Carnegie Library project, which, in addition to the amount of the present town grant of $350, brought the annual amount for maintenance up to $1,132, besides which there was the Government grant which at present amounts to $120. The Council had, at a previous meeting, passed a resolution that upon the assurance that $1,000 a year would be secured for maintenance, the Council would accept the Carnegie offer.

He further stated that Col. Gratton had secured an option on vacant lot on the corner of King and Ogilvie street, which he would donate free for the purpose, provided the town erected the building. A motion was offered pledging the town to comply with the conditions on which the $10,000 gift from the Carnegie was offered. This was followed by an amendment by Councillor Bertram that the matter be left over to be voted on at the time of next municipal elections.

The Mayor stated that Councillor Bertram's amendment would require a two-thirds vote to carry. On being put the amendment was lost by 3-4. The Mayor, Mayor Moss and Councillors Newitt, Lawason and Spauld, will report to accept the Carnegie offer and proceed with the building was carried by the same vote reversed. Mr. Bertram opposed the project as the donor of the money was an alien and had, in his writing, expressed respect for Canada and British institutions. Messrs. Mount and Lunn opposed because they thought it was imposing too great a burden on the taxpayers. Councillor Lawason, who had assisted in securing private subscriptions, was not one of the opponents to the project, said he had met could be counted on the fingers of two hands. He read over the names which certainly was convincing that the people of the town wanted the library.

A by-law was passed authorizing the Council to borrow $2,000 to pay current expenses pending the collection of taxes.

The Nominations. The nominations here yesterday were exceedingly tame. At no time during the nomination hours, 12 m. to 2 p. m., were there a dozen present at one time. The speech making began after 2 o'clock, when the hall began to fill, and in a short time was fairly well filled. After the Times report was sent in yesterday John Brant was nominated by Frank Collins, but withdrew. The four candidates took up a good part of the afternoon in discussing the issues of the day, and saying other things. Brant and Collins had a few lively blows. Liberals were prepared to find the meeting largely predominating for the Conservative candidates, but in the case of the "Bobby" Thompson got a good hearing, and made some exceedingly good hits, and did not come out second best, by any means. Everything was orderly.

BATTLEFIELD ASSOCIATION. The sub-committee of Quebec Battlefields Association met in the Board of Trade rooms last night. S. F. Lazier, R. C. president, reported the collection of names for the fund in the public schools on Empire Day, but the returns are not in yet. Miss Nisbet reported on her visit to the Stoney Creek Workmen's Institute.

The members unanimously expressed appreciation of the fete to be given by the Women's Wentworth Historical Society, on June 6, in aid of the fund, and the officers were appointed to go down to represent the association.

PUGLISIT RUNS AMUCK. Drunken Fighter Shoots Up Express Train. Moncton, June 1.—Enraged by drink and flourishing a revolver of western type a foot long, Chester Thomas, a Prince Edward Island puglist, entered a car on the C. P. R. express to-day and began firing right and left. In a moment he had cleared the train car, most of them being women and children and a number of men, while those who remained dropped under the seats. Thomas shot several windows out before he was overpowered by the train crew. He is now in jail. When taken before a magistrate he said he wanted to get to his mother, who is drizng at home.

DECORATION DAY. A meeting of representatives of all the local lodges of the Independent Order of Oddfellows was held last evening, with the D. D. G. M., Bro. C. H. Mann, in the chair. The object was to discuss the establishment of a permanent decoration day in connection with the order. The idea, which was proposed by Bro. Mann, was approved, and June 28, the last Sunday in the month, was agreed upon as the date. A meeting will be held next Thursday night to complete arrangements.

GOOD TEMPLARS. Washington, June 2.—The International Order of Good Templars convened in triennial session to-day. Delegates from all parts of the world in attendance upon the meeting, which will continue for ten days.

CAXTON CHAPTER.

Enjoyable Outing at the Battlefield Yesterday.

The outing of Caxton Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, at Stoney Creek battlefield yesterday was a most successful and enjoyable affair, and the members feel indebted to the management of the H. G. & B. for the excellent service rendered.

A preliminary business meeting was held. Mrs. R. G. Sutherland, regent, in the chair.

Miss Woolcott, secretary, reported on the work done since the annual meeting, which was varied and successful. The Dickens Club proved a popular feature, many members of other chapters availing themselves of the privilege of belonging to it. Excellent readings from Dickens' works were given by Mrs. Elmore Richards, Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. W. E. Baker, Misses Nisbet and Dempsey.

Mrs. Petrie, treasurer, reported $52.15 on hand. Mrs. Sutherland gave an interesting report of the meeting of the National Council in Toronto. Among other facts she told of a newspaper cutting, telling that some citizens of the United States had asked permission to erect a monument at Fort Erie to the memory of the soldiers who were killed in the war of 1812-13. Mrs. Sutherland moved a resolution, in Toronto, indignantly protesting against the erection of a monument to the enemy who invaded the country, which was unanimously carried.

Mrs. Elmore Richards was elected a councillor in place of Mrs. Wallace Bruce, who is leaving the city. A request was received for a grant to the Army and Navy Veterans' fund for raising a memorial where the old soldiers are buried at Stoney Creek, and $5 was voted for it. A letter was read from Mrs. Killey, Stamford, Conn., thanking the chapter for its kindness to her mother, Mrs. J. Rose Holden, during her life, and for flowers sent after her death.

Mrs. Elmore Richards gave much pleasure with a recitation, "Arabella and Sally Ann," and several songs. Miss Emily Dempsey recited "When Melinda Slings," and Miss Nisbet gave a brief account of the battle of Stoney Creek, and some interesting facts about the old house. Afternoon tea was served, and an enjoyable time spent until late in the evening.

COUNTY POOR HOUSE AGAIN DISCUSSED.

That every presentment that was handed to the county was cooked up. Councillor Lawason declared that he was in favor of the building of a House of Refuge, and thought the county would be ahead financially if it were to build such an institution. It was no difference to him whether the county should be ahead or behind, as long as it was out of his pocket.

The final upshot of the matter was that Councillor Gage moved, seconded by Councillor Guest, that the committee rise and report no action taken. This carried.

Dr. R. W. Bruce Smith, in opening his remarks referred to the fact that the county had appointed a committee two years ago to select a site, and it had been his pleasure to meet this committee. The site was decided on and approved of and he thought that everything would proceed, but for some reason the committee considered that it had done enough, and the matter was dropped. Mr. Smith said that it was needless to point out that during the past winter the need for the house of refuge was felt. He did not think it was right for the poor of the county to be left in jail. For years Wentworth had sent its poor to the jail, and he recognized the fact that the county should do something for them. Dr. Smith said that he had built houses of refuge for the hours of the day. The newspapers and the courts of the county had been speaking of the necessity of having a refuge. It was his intention to lend any assistance that he could, and he hoped that either a house of refuge would be built, or an agreement would be effected by which the poor would be put in on public charity, so that when juries go through the jail they would not find old and decrepit men, but that these would be properly taken care of.

Dr. Smith was of the opinion that Hamilton was deserving of great credit for the manner in which it has conducted its charities, but he did not think it was fair that the poor of the county should be loaded on the city.

Councillor Gage, in reply to Dr. Smith's address, said that he had been waiting patiently for some time for a list from Sheriff Middleton, giving the number of people from the county who are in jail. Mr. Gage held that the county can always take care of its poor and he felt that the city had been imposing on the county for years past. All he wanted now was that the Sheriff produce the list.

Councillor Guest could not see where the county could do anything with the building of a house of refuge. The county has at present a heavy debt on the road system, and also an overdraft, and he did not think it would be in the interest of the county to build.

Councillor Hills thought that Dr. Smith was speaking in such a manner as to lead one to believe that the County of Wentworth was shirking its responsibility in the care of its poor. It was his desire to repudiate the impression, and he also wanted to know why the Sheriff had not presented a list to the county of the poor who were in the jail. Mr. Hills considered that the judges who visited the county should be rightly posted on county matters before they made any comments. A poor house is not a necessity for the county. Ample provision has been made and would be made in various houses throughout the county, and the poor can be looked after without raising the tax and burdening of the people.

Councillor Binkley stated that he was an advocate of the house of refuge. He did not think the County Council was making provision for one case of poor in the county, and he remembered the time, not so far back when the poor were put in jail. He said the cost of the care of indigents for West Flamboro' would be nearly $1,000.

HORSE DEAL HAS BAD LOOK. And James Morrison Is Under Arrest For It.

McKay-Cohen Feud Has Come to an End.

Street Corner Cutting Case Goes Against J. W. Gage.

James Morrison, 17 Hess street north, a teamster, who is only 27 years of age, and unmarried, was arrested by Detective Donald Campbell this morning on a serious charge. Some time ago, the police say, Morrison bought a team of horses and drove them for a while. They were not paid for by Morrison, it is alleged, and the original owner had a mortgage on them for their worth. A week or so ago Edward Reiger saw the horses and after looking them over asked if he could buy them. Morrison assured him it would be all right, and put the price at $350. Reiger took the team and gave several promissory notes in payment. He was working the team a few days ago when the original owner appeared on the scene and seized them. He promptly swore out a warrant, and it was on this Morrison was arrested. His case was laid over till to-morrow, at the request of the Chief.

The McKay-Cohen feud has ended. Mrs. McKay moved out of Mrs. Cohen's house yesterday and did not appear against her this morning on a charge of assault, alleged to have been committed yesterday after police court. Magistrate Jelfs dismissed the case and thanked the fates that his day as referee of the feud was done.

John W. Gage, who said there were five street cars in half a block on James street, just north of King, and claimed he could not help cutting the corners on this account, was fined $5 this morning. The witnesses he was to get did not show up, and as the police had a man who said there was no obstruction, the case went against him.

Pat Garrity, Rice Carson and Robert Cowan paid $2 each for being drunk.

The Board of Works' regular meeting to-night has been cancelled. The Fire and Water Committee meeting to-morrow night has been called off so that the aldermen may go to the circus. The police commissioners meet at noon to-morrow.

Engineer Montgomery, one of McKenzie & Mann's engineers, is expected here to-morrow to look over the ground along the top of the mountain in the east end, where it is proposed to install a water service for the mountain residents. It is believed that a compressed air system might be used with economy, and Mr. Montgomery has installed several of these.

AGED WOMEN'S HOME. The Ladies' Committee of the Aged Women's Home will be at home to their friends at the institution, Wellington street, south, to-morrow, Wednesday, from 4 to 7 o'clock. Lomas' orchestra will be in attendance. Refreshments will be served, and ample opportunity afforded for inspecting the building and seeing the many comforts the Home provides.

POLICE AND ANARCHISTS. Detroit, Mich., June 2.—More than 100 police officials to-day attended the opening of the fifteenth annual convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, which will continue until Saturday. The problem of the anarchists and of the Black Hand Society will be brought up, and an effort to endorse a plan to have the Federal Government take charge of the national bureau of identification will be made.

WARDROPE IN NORTH END.

Fine Reception At Point Hill Last Night

And Gave a Telling Address To Electors.

Dan Reed Held Good Meeting At Cotter's.

On Point Hill last night W. H. Wardrope, Liberal candidate in West Hamilton, addressed an enthusiastic meeting of Ward 5 Liberals, and held the undivided attention of the crowd for nearly an hour.

William McLaughlin, chairman of that ward, presided, and briefly stated that Mr. Wardrope was a broad-minded man, worthy of the support of the people of that riding.

Mr. Wardrope was in a prosperous condition, and that the reckless extravagance had caused the depression. He declared that Colonel Hendrie had never done anything for Hamilton, and, in his opinion, never would.

Mr. Wardrope was given an enthusiastic reception. He dwelt at considerable length on the prison labor problem, touching on the famous Taylor-Scott contract, and contrasting the 30 cents a day paid by Whitney with the 50 cents a day paid under the Stewart Government.

During Mr. Wardrope's speech he had contracts for prison labor had to pay for them. The Taylor-Scott people had given nothing to the Government for its contract, but in return the Government had given them the use of Government officials free, and workshops free, for the manufacture of goods.

Mr. Wardrope then produced a ladder made by prison labor, and pointed out that it was the Taylor-Scott people exactly who had a half cent to produce it. "I ask you if it is fair to the workmen of this city to allow such labor to be put on the market in competition with skilled labor? It is impossible for manufacturers of woodware in Hamilton or Toronto to compete and pay a living wage to the men they employ."

Whitney had a golden opportunity to make good an appeal. Instead of the square deal Whitney had given the people of Ontario a raw deal. The Government had been in power but the Liberal commissioners, license inspectors and justices of the peace, notwithstanding the fact that the Liberals had supported him in the election of 1905.

The speaker had been saying many pointed things about his stand on temperance, and he wished to say that it was taking a wrong stand in the matter. He was not a teetotaler, but he held strongly in regard to the three-fifths clause, in connection with local option. It was unjust and not British.

Mr. Wardrope showed that the expenditure of the Ross Government in 1904 was $8,300,000, against $7,500,000 in 1907, a difference of $2,400,000. He declared that Colonel Hendrie should have looked after Hamilton's interests better than he had in connection with the Normal College.

Ald. Dyer appealed to Ward 5 electors to give William McLaughlin, the chairman, the same hearty support that he had given him in the past. He felt confident that Ward 5 would redeem itself in this election and show Col. Hendrie the broken promise he had supported.

He concluded with a strong plea for the election of the Liberal candidate.

Milne and Stoves. Coming back to the question of John Milne's letter about moulders' pay and the importation of stoves by Hamilton manufacturers, a moulder, who was on the union's committee when the manufacturers, a few years ago, tried to get the men to consent to a reduction in wages, replied that at that time, at a meeting at which every stove firm in Hamilton was represented, including Mr. Milne's, a statement was made that the Hamilton foundrymen did not import stoves from the United States.

Some men were prepared for just such a statement and at once produced an affidavit from Ottawa showing the Hamilton manufacturers to be large importers. Importation has been going on since. Here are some figures taken from the Government returns:

1906—Stoves imported by Hamilton firms, value $1,326; duty, $7,335.50; stoves imported by Ontario manufacturers, value, $209,864; duty, $51,935.76; stoves imported by Canadian manufacturers, value, $573,307; duty, $142,968.

1907—Stoves imported by Hamilton manufacturers, $17,388; duty, $4,260. Imported by Ontario manufacturers, $90,061; duty, $40,001.30. Imported by Canadian manufacturers, $493,038; duty, $23,280.50.

1907—Parts of stoves imported by Hamilton firms, $3,945; duty, $394.50. Ontario firms, $12,275; duty, $1,227.50. Canadian firms, $13,725; duty, $1,372.50.

Of course, Mr. Milne could not be supposed to know anything about this—oh yes!

Mr. Reed at the East End Incline. Last evening Mr. Daniel Reed held a meeting at Cotter's Hotel, which was all attended, and at which the speaker got an attentive hearing. Mr. Woolcott was chairman. Mr. Regan, the Tory candidate, was invited by Mr. Reed to attend, and he was allowed the privilege of speaking first.

The two prominent points in his remarks were that he had had no word of censure for the three-fifths clause in the Local Option Act, and that he had not one word of censure for the three-fifths clause in the Local Option Act, and that he had not one word of censure for the three-fifths clause in the Local Option Act.

Mr. Reed had not one single complaint against him. A pretty good record for Dan. Mr. Regan was followed by Mr. Guesst, Rev. J. C. Sycamore, who spoke in the interest of Mr. Reed. He held the three-fifths clause was fair neither to the temperance people nor to the people. (There is an impression, however, that Whitney will abolish the three-fifths clause three years from now, when the abolition of the clause is up before the electors.) He also had some insight into the crooked work of the Tories in South Wentworth at the election. Mr. Wilson Crockett then spoke for Mr. Regan. He dealt principally with the La Rose mine deal, and went away in his facts, as he was out Mr. Reed having sold his farm and quit farming. Mr. Reed stated that he would more than do his own-ness and would make it himself. Mr. Reed received a fine hearing, and

CAXTON CHAPTER.

Enjoyable Outing at the Battlefield Yesterday.

The outing of Caxton Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, at Stoney Creek battlefield yesterday was a most successful and enjoyable affair, and the members feel indebted to the management of the H. G. & B. for the excellent service rendered.

A preliminary business meeting was held. Mrs. R. G. Sutherland, regent, in the chair.

Miss Woolcott, secretary, reported on the work done since the annual meeting, which was varied and successful. The Dickens Club proved a popular feature, many members of other chapters availing themselves of the privilege of belonging to it. Excellent readings from Dickens' works were given by Mrs. Elmore Richards, Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. W. E. Baker, Misses Nisbet and Dempsey.

Mrs. Petrie, treasurer, reported $52.15 on hand. Mrs. Sutherland gave an interesting report of the meeting of the National Council in Toronto. Among other facts she told of a newspaper cutting, telling that some citizens of the United States had asked permission to erect a monument at Fort Erie to the memory of the soldiers who were killed in the war of 1812-13. Mrs. Sutherland moved a resolution, in Toronto, indignantly protesting against the erection of a monument to the enemy who invaded the country, which was unanimously carried.

Mrs. Elmore Richards was elected a councillor in place of Mrs. Wallace Bruce, who is leaving the city. A request was received for a grant to the Army and Navy Veterans' fund for raising a memorial where the old soldiers are buried at Stoney Creek, and $5 was voted for it. SHAPING TOWARDS GOOD

REED THE MAN SOUTH WANTS.

Old Wentworth Gives Him a Fine Hearing And the Liberal Candidate Makes a Fine Address. Cat Calls For Tory Eulogy For Gagey.

A fairly good crowd turned up at the South Wentworth nomenclature yesterday afternoon at Vosper's Hall on the Mountain Top, and enthusiasm, when it got started, ran high till the close of the meeting about 5 o'clock. The nominations were announced shortly before 2 o'clock as follows:

Mr. Daniel Reed, Liberal, nominated by E. J. Guest, Ancaster, and seconded by William Martin, Ancaster.

Mr. James T. H. Regan, Conservative, nominated by Col. W. H. Ptolemy, Saltfleet, seconded by Benjamin Hunt, Barton.

Shortly after the nominations closed Clerk Lewis was elected to the chair and the candidates and their supporters were called upon. Mr. Regan was first speaker. He started out by eulogizing the present Government and then spoke of the work they had done and the criticism they had received. He felt sure that the Globe had been upholding the Government right along until the last few weeks when the Opposition compelled it to go after the Government on account of the party it represented. He went over a lot of ground covered by Whitney in his visit here, and spoke of the going out of power of the late Government as the work of the Liberals and the Conservatives joined.

When asking for your suffrages the Premier made a certain number of promises and I think he fairly well kept them," was what he spoke of Whitney's pre-election promises, which are being shown up by the Liberals every day as being unfulfilled. His main plank was the educational question and the abolishing of the numbered ballot. He spoke of the school book question and said that while the Government was not holding out in this campaign much about the school books he was almost in a position to say that the people would get free school books when the new one was put in. The present administration deserved great credit for breaking the "school book ring" and diverting millions from the pockets of the publishers into the pockets of the people. To their good, honest businesslike methods did he attribute the "extra three millions dollars" in the treasury of the present Government. The abolishing of the bucket shops was a great moral move on the part of the Government. Every dollar that came in was expended wisely and well. Look at our roads and public buildings. This Province has the best asylums and hospitals of any in the Dominion.

Taking up the educational question and the cheap school books, Mr. Reed said he could not see where there was a saving getting books at the price one could now, and then having to replace them with a new issue in six months or so. The people might get them free from the Government but the cost would come out of the people's pocket in the end. Speaking of the prison labor contracts he said the best the Government could promise was that they would carry out all his promises, but his supporter here says he did. I will take up a few of these promises and if the rest of his promises are on a par with some I will mention Whitney is a dead failure. The breaking up of the school book ring is a thing they claim great credit for. They appointed a Royal Commission which cost $71,000. The commission discovered that the books might have been sold for less and adjudged the amount which might have been saved to have been $200,000 in 22 years, not $10,000 a year which figures out to less than 2 a pupil per year. There are your millions of dollars every year" which Mr. Regan spoke of and which in reality amounted to less than $200,000 in 22 years, at the Tory commission's estimate. Incidentally Mr. Stanton got $2,200 for this commission for cross-questioning some witnesses and he is a worker for Regan. Promises were made that the prices of all school books would decrease, but that has not been carried out. The Ontario readers are the only ones selling at a lower price than formerly and that is because the tender price was considerably reduced by the publishers who were afraid that a new book would be put on the market and that they would be left with a stock on their hands. That is the work of this wonderful man Mr. Regan who thinks more of getting his friends liquor licenses than looking after schools. He spoke of the many different books on each subject in use in the public schools at present. An old friend prepares a book and takes it to Dr. Pyne and gets it introduced. This reduction in the prices of books may last one year and a half, according to the Government's own expert on the commission, who says the new books will cost as much or more than the old ones. Mr. Whitney is digging an awful grave for himself on this question, he said. Speaking of the finances of the country, he said much of the alleged increase in the revenue was from the sale of Cobalt and Kerr Lake. They sold these properties and put the money into the general revenue, but they cannot sell them again next year. When they have the extra two millions gone that this wonderful businesslike cabinet has made. Beck's horses being exhibited on the other side took some of it and the LaRose mine also got some. The present Government talked much of economically run governments before they were in power, but they were green at the game, because as soon as they got in power they went to work and raised the salaries of the ministers $3,000 each. That is their way of economy all through. What has the Government ever done for the farmers since they were put in power. Hon. John Dryden was the most abused man from one end of the Province to the other when he was in power and he was the best minister of agriculture that ever held the position. Speaking of Hon. Frank Cochrane, Thompson said the only thing this ornamental minister has done to show he is a minister was to send a blind mare to the Agricultural College.

Speaking of the Minister of Power, the speaker advised them to look up the Hamilton Spectator, the party organ, to see what it had been saying about his scheme and the local concern. He referred briefly to the Normal College steal and spoke of the Government starting out to build Normal Schools and going to do away with Model Schools. Both these schools are still running, he said, and some of them have no pupils in them. Dr. Thompson was cheered and applauded loudly when he retired.

Chairman Lewis then announced that Ald. Farrar, of Hamilton, would speak in support of the Tory candidate in favor of the Conservative candidate. His name was greeted with chilling silence. He spoke of gerrymanders of the Liberal regime to cover up the late gerrymander of the present Government. Speaking of various statements he veered to Mr. Gagey. "They tried to corrupt Mr. Robert Gagey but he stood—jeers, catcalls and hisses from both parties which lasted five minutes—"Who stood," began Mr. Farrar with a sly grin when he saw the mess he had made, but he was again cut off and was forced to stand and hear laughter and jeers and groans that made Mr. Regan creep. "He stands to an honest man who has never withdrawn his statements in regard to the corruption which was thrown at him," Mr. Farrar managed to get out between jeers, and this pretty nearly broke the meeting up. Liberals and Conservatives alike roared with laughter and about fifty different questions were asked of the speaker at once. "How's that for an independent man," shouted somebody in the back of the hall. "I have to appeal to you on behalf of Mr. Regan," said Mr. Farrar, "but I have nothing against Mr. Reed," and sat down.

Daniel Reed was then called on to address the meeting and his name was hailed with cheers and applause, which clearly showed his prestige was still there as it has been ever since he stepped before the public. "I think it a great honor to represent you in this riding, the wealthiest and most intelligent in the Province. I feel that when I am in this position I represent all alike, Tory and Grit and no man who ever came to me can say I didn't give him a square deal no matter what he wanted to lay before the House." Mr. Farrar, he said, passed off as a joke the raising of the salaries of the cabinet members and laughed at the way the doctors have raised their fees. With doctors you have an option. If you are not satisfied with a doctor you don't have to engage him again, but there is no option with the cabinet ministers. A man who could do his work properly might be worth the extra $2,000 a year, but some of the men who are holding the positions now are men who never made $1,000 a year in private life and are now in a cabinet calibre to make it now. Mr. Farrar says there was never a better Government in any Province than the one we have at present. Now there are none of you, and think he is an unbig game player and a cheat. You know his record and you know how he favors things from one side of the house (more laughter and cries of "We know").

"Look at the way the money was expended in the time of the late Government. Every dollar that came in was expended wisely and well. Look at our roads and public buildings. This Province has the best asylums and hospitals of any in the Dominion." AMUSEMENTS

Last evening saw the formation of the Hamilton Musical and Dramatic Club, which promises to be a power in musical circles during the coming fall and winter. The meeting was held in the recital hall of the Conservatory of Music, and was very largely attended. The election of officers resulted in the following being chosen: Executive Committee, Mrs. J. H. Hoodless, Mrs. Almon Abbott and Mr. S. F. Washington, K. C. Addressed were given by Dr. Glasco, C. Percival Garratt, Mrs. J. Hoodless and Miss Jeannette Lewis, outlining the objects that might be attempted in the programme of the club's work. Messrs. George Hope, Dr. Glasco and T. B. Pheop were appointed a committee to draft the constitution.

Mr. Leslie Carter's play, "The Little Minister," was presented at the Savoy last night by the Summers Stock Co. The play was presented in a most creditable manner and the performance was enjoyed as fully as the previous performances of Mr. Summers and his clever company. Harry Lindsay did well in the leading role, Little Doris Campbell, who did a specialty last week, appeared in the juvenile role, and made a hit. A new lot of motion pictures were presented between the acts. The same bill will be presented all this week.

Judgment was given yesterday in Pilgrim vs. Wentworth Mineral Water Company, on the appeal by the defendants from the judgment of the County Court of Wentworth, in so far as unfavorable to defendants. The action was to recover arrears of interest upon a mortgage, and there was a counter-claim for goods supplied. Judgment at the trial was given for plaintiff for $151.25, with costs, and for defendants on their counterclaim for $27.75 with costs. The appeal was to increase the amount of recovery on the counterclaim. The court at the hearing dismissed the appeal as to items relating to the parties to adduce further evidence as to the item relating to siphons. The further evidence having been taken, the court holds that the defendants are entitled to get the fair value of 302 second-hand siphons on his counterclaim, say $100, the counterclaim, with costs of the extra evidence, and of so much of the appeal as relates to siphons. J. L. Counsell for defendants; W. A. Logie for plaintiffs.

At the Girls' Home, George street, last evening the girls and friends of the institution were entertained. A good programme was provided. Mr. Adam Brown gave an illustrated story that was pleasing to all. The views through, and the canvas were fine. Captain Hardy operated the picture machine. Mrs. Hendrie, Miss Armstrong and R. A. Cunningham sang. The accompaniments were played by Mr. James Dick. Among those present were Mrs. Lucas, President of the Home; Mrs. (Dr.) Malloch, Rev. S. B. and Mrs. Russell, T. H. Keller, Nelson Glazier, Miss Horseburg, Mrs. Weller, Mrs. McAllister and others. James Weller was chairman and spoke of the good work being done, thanking Mr. Adam Brown for his kindness and others for their presence. The girls of the Home at the close tendered a vote of thanks to Mr. Adam Brown and Captain Hardy.

FASHION AND FAT

Isn't it fortunate that when fashion demands slender gracefulness of women who have to break corset laces to themselves even presentable that steps in and makes their task easy? For dieting and exercise it has substituted a pleasant, wholesome and that can be obtained at small cost any drugist, viz.: 1-2 ounce Maca, 3-4 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara, and 4-8 ounce Syrup Sassafras. One teaspoonful of this mixture and six bedtimes will take to seven pounds of fat a week, causing wrinkles, interfering with diet, or distressing the stomach, etc.

WARDROPE MADE A FINE IMPRESSION

In His Reply to Hendrie at the West Hamilton Nomination Yesterday Afternoon.

McClemont Won Supporters by His Manly Speech in the East Riding.

Declaring that if elected as the member for West Hamilton he would resign rather than accept a position in the cabinet and allow the city's interests suffer, on account of the Government power for the time being, W. H. Wardrobe, the Liberal candidate, was enthusiastically applauded by the electors who attended the nominations in association hall yesterday afternoon.

Earlier in the afternoon Col. Hendrie had prophesied that the Whitney Government would in all probability be returned to power with an increased majority. "My prediction is," said Mr. Wardrobe, "that if the Whitney Government is not wiped out of existence it will not have a majority of over fifteen. I will ask you to mark my words to-day and mark Colonel Hendrie's and see which is nearer the truth."

Mr. Wardrobe asked the electors to forget Colonel Hendrie's pleasing personality, and leave him at home for a season, and allow the Liberal candidate to go to the House for a short time at his own risk.

"And if the interests of the people are going to suffer," he added, "I will resign rather than accept a position in the cabinet and allow the city to suffer on account of the Government which is in power for the time being."

Mr. Wardrobe throughout his remarks as given a splendid hearing. He stood before the electors, he said, as a friend of Colonel Hendrie, but the Government Colonel Hendrie represented should not be returned to power. To him personally Mr. Wardrobe said it made no difference whether he was elected or not.

The College Steal.

Taking up the question of the Normal College, which Colonel Hendrie had said had done his best to retain, and contending that Colonel Hendrie had done his best to get rid of it, Mr. Wardrobe said that he did not amount to anything, as he had limited in one breath, while in the next he told how hard he had tried to do it.

But the taking of the college did mean much. It meant the taking away one hundred and twenty-five to one hundred and fifty of the best educated young people, whose influence could not be helpful. Many people had bought houses and boarding house keepers had taken a living through its going. But that was the smallest thing. The greatest loss was the loss to Hamilton of its prestige as an educational centre. He had protested against it going to Toronto, which had nearly all the educational institutions. The Government was warned that it was sure as it took the college from Hamilton it would have to establish one in Kingston. Colonel Hendrie said it was only a mere pittance, this institution in Hamilton, having only one principal and teachers from the schools. But, said Mr. Wardrobe, Hamilton succeeded in educating the students here. The college went through, and at double the cost of the Government, because it had to make an annual grant of $20,000 to Kingston. "If Col. Hendrie strived so hard," he said, "to keep the college here could not it show a great lack of power on his part with the present Government. It shows he has no more influence than if I had been sent there."

Prison Made Goods.

Mr. Wardrobe dealt trenchantly with the prison labor contracts. The Province had lost $21,000 a year by reason of the prison labor contracts it had made with the Scott-Taylor Company. He charged the Government with failing to fill its pledges on this matter.

Mr. Wardrobe made reference to the statement made by Premier Whitney at a meeting at the Ross Government, Ontario as the Ross Government. If his was so had the Whitney Government, when it got control, shown that he was not a dishonestly spent? Why did it not make the exposures it threatened to make when in opposition? (Applause.)

The Lawyers' Fees.

The old Liberal Governments had conducted the country's affairs, so honestly and carefully that its followers, finding they could not get anything from it, turned to another party that had more to give them.

Mr. Whitney, when the Ross Government spent $14,000 in a year on lawyers' fees in the last year it was in power, had denounced it as a scandal, yet Mr. Whitney's Government in 1907 had spent $40,000 in lawyers' fees, or an increase of 240 per cent.

That Famous Holdup.

Mr. Wardrobe also took up the celebrated La Rose mine deal in which Whitney and his followers paid $130,000, "for information." The Government in this matter took O'Brien by the throat and squeezed him out 25 per cent. on the output from his mine. If Mr. O'Brien was not right and did not have a just claim the Government had no business compromising with him on the matter. Regarding the $130,000 paid the La Rose people "for evidence," Mr. Wardrobe pointed out that the evidence was given at the time. The brother-in-law of Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Mines, was one of the heads of this company.

seems a most remarkable thing."

Mr. Wardrobe, "that just a few days prior to the election $130,000 had been given without any receipt."

That Bond Guarantee.

Wardrobe also touched on the

C. N. R. guarantee and the development of Northern Ontario, referred to by Whitney, when in Opposition, as "the land of the stunted poplar." While the Whitney Government was taking the credit, the loss administration that had blazed the way, and formulated the policy of development in the north-land.

Whitney's famous appeal, not only to the Liberals and Conservatives, not only the good men of the Province, but the Christian men of Ontario, was also dealt with by the speaker.

Mr. Wardrobe characterized the guarantee of the C. N. R. bonds in the dying hours of the session as suspicious in any event. Col. Hendrie charged that Mr. Mackay had sat silent and not opposed the guarantee. The bill was not printed until Col. Mackay answered Mr. Mackay's questions, or when Mr. Whitney made his statement. The printed bill was brought in on Saturday, the day Parliament prorogued, a day which everyone knew was not a sitting session. Mr. Mackay had taken the Premier's word and Col. Mackay's statement, and on the floor of the House. At this earliest opportunity a search was begun, and it was discovered the first mortgage was not the work of the old Ross Government, but was signed by Col. Mackay, who was charged that Premier Whitney and Col. Mackay had deliberately misled the people of the Province in this matter.

The License Law.

The speaker declared that he stood on the administration of the license law. He would have it out of politics. Mr. Wardrobe made a slashing attack on the Government over the license administration, touching on the resignation of the three Conservative license commissioners as a protest against the dismissal of License Inspector Hastings, who refused to recommend in favor of a license for a man convicted of breaking the law fourteen times. It was Dr. Pyne, the Minister of Education, who wanted a license for this man, and who was pulling for it. Was Dr. Pyne, the man who wanted a license for a man who broke the law fourteen times, and who said, "Go to the devil and shake yourself," the man to be at the head of Ontario's Educational affairs, and looking after the moral welfare of children?

"For hours I could go on," said Mr. Wardrobe, "and show you how this Government has fallen from its lofty position down to the pitiable exhibition it is making to-day."

Mr. Wardrobe dealt with the Government's autocratic stand on automobile legislation.

Col. Hendrie Replies.

Only fifteen persons remained to hear Colonel Hendrie reply to Mr. Wardrobe. He made a weak defence of the charges over the Normal College steal by saying that Mr. Wardrobe forgot to tell that it was not the old Government which was building the Normal School in West Hamilton. Mr. Hendrie also attacked the old Liberal Government over prison labor contracts. He said that because three high toned gentlemen resigned over the dismissal of a license inspector that was no reason for condemning the Government. Mr. Hendrie denounced the bill providing for automobile legislation as the work of two or three fanatical and partisan license commissioners cannot administer the law fairly and properly. He said that he believed Premier Whitney had intended to keep his promise to take the liquor license business out of politics, but his supporters would not permit it—and the spoilsmen compelled him to break his promise to the people of Ontario.

He spoke of the regrettable action of the Minister of Education in regard to the administration of the license law in Toronto as an example of what the spoilsmen can do if the Premier and his cabinet are not strong. The Tory Government is in a worse state already in its short term of office in regard to the license business than the Liberal Government was after 33 years in office. Mr. Wardrobe's plan was to remove the license matter from the realm of politics, just as the police departments of cities were. He would have the License Board composed of the Judge, the sheriff and the clerk of the court of each county. With such a board the license law would be enforced in such a way that the hotelkeeper who observes the law will get a fair deal, and the ever increasing temperance element could find no cause for complaint on the question of enforcement.

Mr. McClemont expressed regret that Mr. Scott, the Conservative candidate, showed so little respect for the other candidates as to leave the meeting as soon as he finished his address. He would like to have said some things regarding Mr. Scott's candidature in the presence of Mr. Scott, but he would not say them in his absence. He regretted that some Tory canvassers should slander him as they had done. Falsehoods had been told the electors about him in regard to his dealings with clients. "If Mr. Scott is to be judged by his treatment of clients and tenants, God help Mr. Scott on June 8th," was Mr. McClemont's parting shot. In conclusion he thanked the auditors for the patient hearing, and expressed the hope that Mr. Stuholme and Mr. Gordon would be treated as well as he had been treated.

Loxton, the Socialist candidate, followed Mr. McClemont and spent ten or fifteen minutes in telling about the last time he was in the Police Court room, when he was being "tried for breaking a by-law that did not exist."

Mr. Stuholme, the Labor candidate, was the last speaker and he was also given a good hearing. He reviewed briefly his work in the Legislature during the 18 months and contradicted Mr. Scott in several matters.

NOMINATIONS IN QUEBEC.

FIVE MEMBERS OF LEGISLATURE BY ACCLAMATION.

The Conservatives Putting Up a Strong Fight in Expectation of an Early Election to the Commons—The Contests in Montreal District.

Quebec, June 1.—The whirl of the Provincial elections is now on. Sixty-nine out of seventy-four constituencies will be contested. The remaining five went by acclamation. The Conservatives realize that they cannot possibly capture a dozen seats, nevertheless they have contested every riding they possibly could, with a conglomerate of candidates. There are in the mixture, straight Conservatives, Castor Conservatives, Independents and Nationalists, who have entered the lists for the fun of the thing. The Conservatives hope to make a good showing in the local elections, that will give them courage to contest every seat when the Federal elections take place, with the hope of improving their position in the Province of Quebec. But the general consensus of opinion is they will not even have a ghost of a chance. The obstructive tactics of the Opposition during the past few weeks, especially their refusal to allow supplies to be passed, has utterly disgusted the public against their actions.

The members elected by acclamation are:

Huntingdon—W. H. Walker (Liberal). Dorchester—L. P. Pelletier (Conservative).

St. Saver—Dr. Cote (Liberal). Sherbrooke—Dr. Pelletier (Liberal).

Richmond—P. S. G. MacKenzie (Liberal).

Hon. Mr. Gouin, the Premier, was nominated in two constituencies—St. James' division at Montreal, and also in Portneuf county—the latter being an old Liberal stronghold.

Mr. Henri Bourassa, who will oppose Hon. Mr. Gouin in St. James' division, was also placed in nomination in St. Hyacinthe.

All of the Ministers of the Gouin Cabinet will have to meet opponents in their constituencies. Hon. R. Devlin is opposed in Nicolet by Mr. S. Godreau, Hon. W. A. Weir is opposed in Argenteuil by Mr. W. J. McDougall, Hon. A. Turgeon is opposed in Belchasse by Mr. Audet, Hon. L. A. Taschereau is opposed in Charlevoix by Mr. H. C. D'Autelle, this Minister was also nominated in Montmorency and there he has for an opponent Mr. Cauchon; Hon. J. C. Kaine, in Quebec, is opposed by Mr. W. J. Breen.

In five divisions of Montreal and two other constituencies on the Island there will be a hot fight. In two of the city divisions there are no contests. In St. Lawrence Dr. Finnie was nominated as the Government candidate, and opposed to him will be A. A. D. Fraser, running in the Independent Conservative interests, and A. J. B. Clearius, the latter running on an Independent ticket.

In St. Louis Mr. Godfroi Langlois, the late member, was nominated in the Liberal interest. Mr. H. B. Rainville in the fight as an Independent, while Mr. Harry Bloomfield will represent the Conservative interests.

There were two labor candidates nominated in Hochelaga, Mr. Gustave France, and in St. Mary's Mr. F. P. Tremblay, the latter being opposed to Dr. G. A. Lacombe, the late member.

One of the features of the struggle will be in Montigny. Senator Choquette has been nominated in the Liberal interest, and running on the Independent ticket is Mr. Armand Lavergne.

Man's Most Critical Age.

Very often the vital resources are small at forty-two, but if not then, between fifty-seven and sixty-two years of age there is a strange slowing down and loss of vitality. It is important that this transient period of decay should be checked; strength must be imparted to the tired brain, the weakened nerves must be fortified. The wise man will use Ferrozone, whose potency is particularly applicable to these critical periods. Ferrozone quickens the whole being, imparts vigor and power, pushes back the onset of senility in a very manifest way. It's because Ferrozone gives strength, vitality and vigor that it is useful to old men. Try it. Price 50c.

BIGAMIST ANDERSON

His First Wife Can't Understand Why He Left Her.

Toronto, June 2.—John E. Anderson, former inspector of public schools for the town of Brockville, who was arrested on a charge of bigamy by Inspector Joseph Rogers, visited his first wife and nine children at their home, 49 Northcote avenue, only last Easter, and Mrs. Anderson had no idea that her husband was married to her until a few days ago, when one of her sons received a newspaper from Brockville containing an account of his father's second marriage. Anderson, who is 55 years of age, has been married over thirty years, and has four sons and five daughters. It was through the son that the Attorney-General's Department took up the case, and had Anderson placed under arrest.

Mrs. Anderson, at her home in Northcote avenue, said that she could not understand why her husband would leave her and marry another woman, nor could any of her neighbors, who all speak very highly of her and her family.

Anderson took an active interest in church affairs in Brockville, and even went so far as to give a lecture on "The Ideal Man" before the Young Men's Club of a Brockville church. He went to Brockville from Renfrew, and it was at Renfrew that he married Miss Jamieson, daughter of Rev. Mr. Jamieson, the Methodist minister at Renfrew. He gave his age as 39.

DEATH IN COBALT MINE.

British Columbia Contractor Victim of an Explosion.

Cobalt, Ont., June 1.—Shorey Hayden, a young contractor, from British Columbia, was killed this morning instantly, at 10 o'clock, at the Patterson mine, below the Temiskaming. The accident happened presumably through a defective fuse, which caused the explosion. Hayden had been employed by contract at the mine, and had been in Cobalt over a year. His partner was slightly injured in the explosion. Hayden was unmarried.

QUASI-PERSONAL

PREMIER'S STATEMENT—Both in the Conservative campaign pamphlet and in the Premier's speeches reference is made to elections in North Grey. As near as I can gather from abbreviated reports, the Premier's statement is somewhat as follows:—That I owed my first election in North Grey to the exclusion or non-counting of four ballots, which were marked each with two crosses, one apparently the ordinary cross, the other being discoverable only by means of a magnifying glass; that he has in his possession affidavits of certain parties who were present at the count at the close of the poll, who say that these ballots were not then marked with these small crosses. The campaign book says "the election of Mr. A. G. Mackay, the present Leader of the Opposition, was achieved through the placing of a little cross on the margin of each of four ballots that had been marked for the Conservative candidate, thus spoiling them, and excluding them from the count." At Hamilton it was stated that by such an unholy ladder I had climbed into the Legislature.

Again, the Premier, suppressing the main facts, and giving but a small portion of the truth for the whole, says that when I was next elected a protest was filed; that I was then taken into the Cabinet, and that to stop the election trial and save disclosures the House dissolved and a general election followed, thus staying the court proceedings.

THE FACTS—I did not owe my election to these four ballots. My majority was one if these four ballots were counted for my opponent; if not counted, my majority was five. I prefer to accept the judgment of the courts with reference to the facts, and not statements contained in ex-parte affidavits, taken for political purposes by an agent with uncertain and slippery methods. There was a recount before the County Judge and an appeal therefrom to a High Court Judge, which appeal was heard by Mr. Justice MacLennan. I invite any person sufficiently interested in this matter to read Mr. Justice MacLennan's judgment, wherein, as I recollect it, he finds that the ballots had not been tampered with or changed after they were placed in the box. The absurdity of saying in the one breath that these small crosses were subsequently discovered with magnifying glasses, and yet the scrutineers or others, at the close of the poll, in the hurry of the count to get away to hear the general election returns, must necessarily, with the naked eye, have detected them, if they were there, is laughable, and shows how absolutely worthless such affidavits are if any such statements were ever really sworn to. I do know that this same agent who took these alleged affidavits went to a Liberal scrutineer, wrote out a statement, then misread the statement, and was promptly called for his knavery. I am told that no affidavit whatever was made by any Liberal scrutineer. I also have had for years in my possession the sworn declaration of one of the Conservative scrutineers, pointing out that the statements contained in what purported to be an affidavit of his fellow-Conservative scrutineer should not have been made, because this latter had left the poll at an earlier stage and was not present during the time of the occurrence of the proceedings his alleged affidavit pretended to cover.

Again, I did not take my seat in the House as a result of this election. A protest was filed. I was unseated because of payment by an agent of a livery bill for taking the crew of a C. P. R. boat, about one-half of whom were Conservatives, home the day before the election. In the by-election all this stuff about the four ballots was thrashed out. My majority was increased at the very poll where these ballots were deposited, and in the riding was increased to 269. A protest was again filed. The Premier should be fair enough to state the whole truth. A trial actually took place. It lasted six days. Charge after charge absolutely failed. As early as Thursday of the week of the trial the senior counsel was begging for an adjournment. Court sat till Saturday. Nothing proven. If four Conservative lawyers with about two hundred witnesses took six days to prove nothing against me, will the Premier tell his next audience how many days, how many lawyers, and how many witnesses would be required to prove something? Adjournment after adjournment followed. Nobody treated the fact end of the case seriously. Had not there been talk of a dissolution there would have been another adjournment; but certainly of a dissolution led to the clever move on the part of my opponents of insisting on going on. Trial went on for another half day, and dissolution ended it. Six and one-half days of trial and not a solitary charge brought home, and yet the Premier insinuates there was something wrong. This is unkind, indeed, to eminent Toronto counsel who had charge of the case.

I may add that the judgment of every court was in my favor; the judgment of the greater court of public opinion, where all parties are known, was in my favor. My majority in a good old Conservative riding was 272 at the general elections in 1906. For this majority I am indebted to a large number of staunch old-time Conservatives, who understand local conditions and the reliability of all parties a great deal better than the Premier. One of these staunch old Conservatives, one of Owen Sound's leading citizens, took the trouble, of his own motion, to come to Toronto to warn the Attorney-General, during last session, as to the unreliability of the source of the Premier's present information. Well, the courts, the Judges, the electors, and the Ninth Commandment are all against him. Still he talks. Let the people judge—"Trust the people."

CANADIAN FORESTRY

Press Bulletin No. 5—Forest Protection Along Railways.

Before the advent of the railway, a beautiful green forest; after the railway is built, only a blacked waste.

Such has often been the case during the construction of a railway; that there is no necessity for such to happen has been proved by actual experience. The Canada Atlantic railway runs through what was one of the most valuable pineries in Canada. Its builder, Mr. John R. Booth, was himself a lumberman of long experience, and he placed on his contractors restrictions as to burning brush and setting fires generally, such that no forest fire of importance occurred in the whole course of the building of the railway. In the building of the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway, too, serious forest fires have been conspicuous by their absence, by reason of continual and watchful patrolling of the line; and this notwithstanding the fact that the road runs through some tracts of timber of the greatest value.

During the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway and other railways, unfortunately, similar vigilance has not been exercised; and we find that along that line many serious fires took place. To this, more than to all other causes is due the fact that the whole country from Nipigon, Ont., west to within a short distance east of Winnipeg has been burnt over—to say nothing of many tracts in the Rockies, covered until the railway was built, with one of the finest forests in the world. In 1869 there was a solid forest stretching from Nipigon westward nearly to Winnipeg. Partially burnt at the time of the first Riel rebellion, railway construction in 1882-84 completed the destruction; though even in 1884 one could walk a hundred miles east of Lake Superior through unburnt forest.

The building of the Grand Trunk Pacific furnishes the greatest problem of the present in forest protection. Both in the eastern section and in that now being constructed westward from Edmonton much danger from fire must be guarded against. The authorities of New Brunswick have conferred with the Dominion authorities as to the taking of steps to guard against the setting of forest fires during the building of the road in that province, where some very valuable tracts of timber are traversed by the right of way, and arrangements have now been made for a patrol of the lines this summer. Patrol of the G. T. P. west of Edmonton, Alta., has also been arranged and is now in operation.

John McLaughlin, an Ontario farmer, who arrived at Winnipeg on Friday, was robbed of $1,200 by convivial spirits by whom he was welcomed to the west. Four severe earthquake shocks were felt at Yalta, in the Crimea.

Valuable Mixture to Be Prepared at Home GOOD SPRING MEDICINE

For a good spring tonic, get from your druggist: One ounce Fluid Extract, Dandelion. One ounce Compound Seltzener. Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix, shake well, and take in teaspoonful doses, after meals and at bedtime. The formula is given by a prominent physician, and is said to have remarkable results in ridding the blood of the uric acid and poisonous waste matter which the blood is likely to be charged with during the season of the year, particularly of persons afflicted with rheumatism or kidney disease. It strengthens and assists the kidneys to filter these poisons from the blood, restoring the healthy normal action, so necessary to perfect health. If you feel that you need a tonic, prepare a bottle and try it anyway, for being so highly recommended it can bring nothing but good results.

KEENE'S CELT WON BROOKLYN.

Second Big Handicap For J. R. Keene In Two Days.

Celt Ran Johnny Madden's King James Off His Feet—Hendries and James Crooks Buy Southern Yearlings.

New York, June 2.—That James R. Keene's Celt is the equal of the mighty Colin was the opinion of the hundreds of turf experts after he had won the $25,000 Brooklyn Handicap, 1.14 miles, at Gravesend yesterday in magnificent style. After the first quarter of a mile Celt made all the running, and setting such a terrific pace that nothing could live with him, he passed the judges' stand 11.2 lengths in front of August Belmont's 3-year-old Fair Play, by Hastings Fairy Gold, who, under a driver, had a half length over Samuel Emery's Master Robert, by Mazagran—Florence. For the first time in the history of the race, therefore, the 3-year-olds cut up the rich prize. Celt, under a perfect ride from Notter, ran the distance in 2:04 1-5, a new track record, the best previous time being 2:04 2-5, made last September by Dandilion, carrying 119 pounds. The best previous record for the Brooklyn was 2:05 2-5, made in 1903 by the 3-year-old Irish Lad, with 103 pounds. Celt is the fourth 3-year-old to capture the famous Gravesend classic, which has been won by James R. Keene five times, with Hornpipe, Courroy, Delhi, Superman and Celt. Celt's wonderful speed was a revelation to experts and novices alike. Having run John R. Madden's King James completely off his feet before they were straightened out in the back stretch, Celt was timed for the half mile in 46.4. He ran five furlongs in 59.25, passed the three-quarter pole in 1:12 flat, covered the seven-eighths in 1:25, turned the mile in 1:38 2-5, breezed the mile and furlong mark in 1:51 2-5, and raced home a real turf king in 2:04 1-5. That was pace enough to take the heart of almost any good horse, and when the clockers snapped their watches at the end of many of them said: "Colin could not have done better." Though ten horses were named to start, only eight faced the barrier, the withdrawal being Rifleman and McCarter. It turned out that McCarter was scratched because he had suddenly developed lameness after a gallop over the course. It was a rumor that he was on the verge of a breakdown. McCarter's absence robbed the race of some interest, for it had been predicted that McCarter would be the horse for Celt to beat. The race was truly run, there being no traces of rough riding or crowding, and the horses getting away to a splendid start, executed by C. S. Pettigill, who handled the barrier in the absence of Mrs Cassidy, whose wife had passed away after a long illness. Summary: Fourth race, the Brooklyn Handicap, mile and a quarter—Celt, 106 (Notter), 4 to 5; Fair Play, 99 (E. Dugan), 8 to 5; Master Robert, 96 (Gilbert), 5 to 2 to show; Time, 2:04 1-5. Montgomery, Old Honesty, King James, Don Creole and Berkeley also ran.

W. E. P. C. CHALLENGE TO THE HAMILTONS.

Following is a copy of the letter sent yesterday afternoon to Mr. Fred Paige, manager of the Hamilton Baseball Club, by J. Bradley, manager of the West End Pleasure Club's nine: Dear Sir, I take this opportunity of submitting to you, as manager of the Hamilton B. C. C., a challenge on behalf of the West End Pleasure Club B. C. C. to play a game of baseball, terms and conditions mentioned here being quite agreeable to me, and I would be quite surprised if they are not satisfactory to you, as the conditions contained therein are only fair to us both. In reference to this game I would say that we desire it played, in the event of the challenge being accepted, on any Saturday mentioned by you in the near future, with the exception that we would like two weeks to get our men in fair shape. We would also ask for 50 per cent of the gate receipts, leaving you the remaining 50 per cent, and the entire gate stand, this condition being necessary to defray our necessary expenses, if agreeable to you the entire receipts could be devoted to a deserving charitable cause. I would also mention that it is the team you have at present that we desire to play. I might say that we feel sure our team would make a good showing, with an equal chance with you of winning, else we would not wish to play. In conclusion, I would say that your reply is awaited, and, if everything is satisfactory, arrangements can be proceeded with without delay.

HAMILTON PURCHASERS. Toronto, June 2.—The event of the early part of the day at Woodbine yesterday was the sale of the thoroughbred yearlings from the Woodbine and Avondale Studs in Tennessee, the first occasion of a sale of purely American-bred blood stock in Canada. The decision to hold the sale here, instead of in New York, where the produce of these farms has hitherto been offered, was due to the belief of the Canadian owners, of Edenwold, that there was a market in this country for yearlings of proven blood lines, and he determined to put the question to the test at his own risk. The outcome was wholly satisfactory, and both sellers and purchasers are to be congratulated. The following summary of the number of the offerings, and the top prices were $900 each for the sister to Notsaugia and the Maud Blackburn colt. The total amount realized was $8,900. A TIE GAME.

Burlington Lacrosse Team Here Last Night.

The first game in senior city lacrosse league was played at Victoria Park last night, between the fast Burlington bunch and the Beavers of the east end. The play was very even, the defence on both teams worked like trojans. The game was enjoyed throughout by a large and enthusiastic crowd who caught on to the fine points of the game which from the attendance point of view, will become very popular before the end of the season.

Score at the finish was 1-1. The teams were: Burlington Goal, Beavers, Hazel Point, Hudson Cover Point, Leclair Brownridge, Schram Coates, W. McMann Sheppard, J. Stewart Brownharry, Cherry Wine, L. Smith Third Home, Dingle, Murdoch Second Home, Olawa, Sancier First Home, Stobbs, R. Gordon Outside Home, Onkes, J. Drouhan Inside Home, Referee—J. Jarvis, Burlington.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

A junior lacrosse league will be formed at J. W. Nelson's store this evening. The Clippers, Young Ramblers, Junior Northern Grays, Union Jacks, End Champions and any other teams average age 13, will enter.

ON JULY 4TH.

Hamilton Gun Club to Hold a Target Shoot.

The regular monthly meeting of the Hamilton Gun Club was held at the Hotel Royal last evening, with Dr. J. Overhill in the chair. The club will hold a practice shoot next Saturday, and a final shoot of 50 targets for the Robertson, Reardon and DuPont trophies will be held on Saturday, June 13. All members are eligible to shoot for the above trophies, and those desiring to compete must send in their names to the secretary by June 10, in order that handicaps may be arranged. It was also decided to hold a one-day target shoot, open to all amateurs, on Saturday, July 4, and a committee consisting of Ralph C. Ripley, Thomas Up-ton and Walter P. Thomson was appointed to manage the same. The programme for this shoot will contain some very valuable merchandise prizes, and should prove attractive. July 4th being a holiday in the States, a large party has been promised from Buffalo, Bradford Pa., Cleveland and other American cities. The Hamilton Club's five-man team got second money in the big shoot at Buffalo on Saturday. The Bradford team won the United States championship.

SALE OF THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE'S STRING.

The entire racing stable of the late Duke of Devonshire was sold recently at Newmarket Park paddocks and it was the most notable event of its kind in recent years. Nearly all the prominent turfmen in the British Isles were there, and to sum up what occurred, twenty-two horses in training were sold for a total of $101,150, a little over an average of $4,595. Though the prices were good, there was an idea that the public runners did not reach their real value, for many of them were ready-made race horses of approved excellence, and yet they did not bring as much as some of the yearlings at Doncaster in September. The top price of the lot was $18,500, paid by Mr. Buchanan for Acclaim, and it was considered a capital bargain. He was placed in last year's St. Leger and came home in front of such good ones as All Black, Stick Up and Glass Doll, winner of the Oaks. Fugleman, a half brother of Acclaim, brought the next highest price on the list, as he was knocked down to his trainer, Sam Darling, $2,500 from $3,000. Three other animals went to the same buyer, and they were evidently worth the money. For the four-year-old Black Spot, by Black Sand, Darling paid $4,100; for a three-year-old filly by Diamond Jubilee he paid $1,200,

COMMENT AND GOSSIP

Charles Conkle has been nominated by the printers' devil as umpire for the proposed game between the City League Stars and the Hamiltons. He will put a strange hold on any of the players who get too gay. The Beavers ought to have flat bats—like real live beavers' tails. It is to be expected that lacrosse players will not be garnered by the head animal man with Cole Brothers' circus to-morrow. Yesterday Paige's Tigers were almost as "fierce" as the tigers that will be seen with the circus here to-morrow are reported to be. Buffalo is given credit by its own magnates with being one of the hardest losing baseball towns on the circuit, and also the roughest. To quote President Stearns: "Cincinnati has the reputation of having more baseball knockers than any other city in the country, and it has resulted in driving some of the greatest stars of the diamond out of the city. Buffalo is running Cincinnati as close second, and the final result must be the same. Buffalo needs a few years of tail-end baseball in order to appreciate good baseball. Since

TIGERS MADE MOST RUNS AND ERRORS.

London Beaten Here Yesterday by Score of 6 to 3.

Game Yesterday Was Ragged—Buffalo Won From the Torontos—Scores in the Big Leagues.

Monday is generally an off day with the baseball fans, but yesterday was also an off day with the teams that performed at the Barton street ball yard. Before a very large number of empty seats the Hamiltons and London played a ragged game. However, the Tigers beat the Beavers at run getting and also at error making, and as Hamilton people dearly love to see London outdone, there was applause from the occupied seats. A clever double play on the part of a trio of Beavers was the best thing about the game. There was a diversity of opinion as to what the worst thing about the game was. The assistant manager thought the attendance was; some in the stand branded Finnmore's work as the worst, while many in the bleachers declared the umpire was the worst ever. The umpire was Ostermoot Smith, the general manager, and it was his Eastern League scores.

GIANELLI RELEASED.

"Kid" Gianneli, the London southpaw, was released by Manager Wreath after yesterday's game at Britannia Park. Gianneli pitched a good game, and it was no fault of his that the Beavers did not win. It is said he was released over personal differences. The manager caught him breaking a rule in London the other day, a rule against being in a bar-room in uniform, and words followed. Gianneli was offered a contract by the Hamilton management, and he may accept it.

EASTERN LEAGUE SCORES.

Buffalo—It was a very classy game of ball which Toronto and Buffalo played, and which the Beavers won by 2 to 0. Toronto hit much oftener, but not at a time when it would have meant victory for the Maple Leafs. The visitors had nine men left on bases to Buffalo's three. It was pure luck that won for Buffalo. They made but 4 hits off young Rudolph, and managed to lurch a pair at a time when the only Toronto error dropped to the surface, it didn't appear that the visitors could be prevented from crossing the home plate, as, with but two exceptions, there was either one or two on bases, twice on third, and repeatedly on second. Score: Toronto 2, Buffalo 0. Batteries—McCormack and Archer; Rudolph and Sweeney.

COLEY IS ILL.

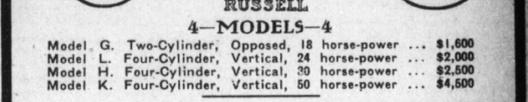

Toronto, June 2.—Tom Coley, of St. Patrick's Athletic Club, Hamilton, formerly of this city, will not be a starter in the final 25-mile Marathon trial at Rosedale on Saturday. Coley, who has not been feeling well for the past few weeks, is now under the doctor's care, and unless his condition improves considerably he will not face the starter in the big event. In the opinion of an old-time athlete who saw Coley just before the start of the 15-mile at Rosedale on Monday, the Hamilton boy is over-trained, and after he collapsed at the six-mile post with cramps in the stomach. With Tom Loughout out and Tom Coley undecided, Canada's chances for the Olympic Marathon begin to look bad. It is to be hoped that both these men will round into condition in time to face the starter on the morning of July 25. This morning the British Columbia entries, arrived in town. They are a likely party, but look to be outclassed in the Marathon field, as the first eight men who finished in the fifteen mile on the holiday are fast enough for any company.

ST. PATRICK'S CLUB RUNNER MAY NOT START ON SATURDAY.

Toronto, June 2.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen, held at the Toronto Rowing Club, the following Regatta Committee was appointed for the Royal Canadian Henley, to be held on the St. Catharines course on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 7 and 8: Ed. Mack (Chairman), A. J. Hesson, E. T. Roland, Claude Macdonell, M. P. Alex. Boyd, Capt. John Wilson, G. S. Ewart, E. F. Seixas, Capt. A. H. Macdonell, J. W. McAllister, P. J. Mulqueen and L. C. Hoskins (Secretary). It was decided to suspend Rule 14 of the laws of boat racing at the discretion of the umpire for the Olympic trial races, to be held at St. Catharines on June 26, Rule 14 reads as follows: "Accidents—(14) Every boat shall abide by its accidents, except when during a race, a boat, while in its own water (while on the course) shall be interfered with by an outside boat, the umpire may order the race started over, if, in his opinion, such interference materially affected its chances of winning the race."

It's All in the Gear

Many motorists buy in the dark. The much advertised and so-called "hill climbing car" is the bait. They fail to consider the fact that the engine that "glides" up-grade would race itself to death on a flat, straightway run. It's simply a question of gears. Any motor car can be equipped with a reduced gear adapted to hill climbing purposes. It is the car constructed for general service and that gives genuine satisfaction in running up hill or down dale, across country or on the level that proves its thorough dependability. Simplicity in construction and consequent ease of control demonstrates the Russell to be your servant, not your master.

Little Paragraphs of Sport From Far and Near.

Halifax, N. S., June 2.—At the Olympic trials yesterday the time made was slow, owing to the heavy condition of the track. The trials were to decide upon men to be sent to Montreal and Toronto Saturday. The men selected and who won the events to-day are: H. W. Fleming in 100 metres, W. Ross in half mile, F. Schaefer in 200 metres, H. Holmer in 1,500 metres, B. W. Fleming in 400 metres, A. Rodgers in five-mile. Toronto, June 2.—Deputy Chief Constable Stark leaves Friday for England, as representative of the C. A. A. U. to the Olympic games. Mrs. Stark and Master Stark go with him. He will return in August. The Alerts Baseball Club will play in Caledonia to-morrow afternoon. All the players are requested to meet at H. C. Woods' barber shop at 10 o'clock. A tally-bo will leave for Sidwowntown at 10:05.

Fugleman, a half brother of Acclaim, brought the next highest price on the list, as he was knocked down to his trainer, Sam Darling, $2,500 from $3,000. Three other animals went to the same buyer, and they were evidently worth the money. For the four-year-old Black Spot, by Black Sand, Darling paid $4,100; for a three-year-old filly by Diamond Jubilee he paid $1,200,

COLEY IS ILL.

Toronto, June 2.—Tom Coley, of St. Patrick's Athletic Club, Hamilton, formerly of this city, will not be a starter in the final 25-mile Marathon trial at Rosedale on Saturday. Coley, who has not been feeling well for the past few weeks, is now under the doctor's care, and unless his condition improves considerably he will not face the starter in the big event. In the opinion of an old-time athlete who saw Coley just before the start of the 15-mile at Rosedale on Monday, the Hamilton boy is over-trained, and after he collapsed at the six-mile post with cramps in the stomach. With Tom Loughout out and Tom Coley undecided, Canada's chances for the Olympic Marathon begin to look bad. It is to be hoped that both these men will round into condition in time to face the starter on the morning of July 25. This morning the British Columbia entries, arrived in town. They are a likely party, but look to be outclassed in the Marathon field, as the first eight men who finished in the fifteen mile on the holiday are fast enough for any company.

Hoskins (Secretary). It was decided to suspend Rule 14 of the laws of boat racing at the discretion of the umpire for the Olympic trial races, to be held at St. Catharines on June 26, Rule 14 reads as follows: "Accidents—(14) Every boat shall abide by its accidents, except when during a race, a boat, while in its own water (while on the course) shall be interfered with by an outside boat, the umpire may order the race started over, if, in his opinion, such interference materially affected its chances of winning the race."

Her run by Daunt's Rock at 4.35 a.m. on May 28th, at record speed, and maintained the pace throughout the voyage. The fastest time of the voyage was made in the last day's run, when she reeled off 635 miles in 24 hours, a new record. A VERY SAD CASE.

A pathetic case of poverty, suffering and death came under the attention of Relief Officer McMenemy to-day, when a little Italian boy marched into his office, accompanied by a ten-year-old girl, and appealed for clothes for the child, her sister and mother, that they might attend the funeral of the woman's husband, Bartoli Modrich, who died during the night at his home, 13 Railway street. The man was a victim of consumption. The relief department has been assisting the family for some time. Mr. McMenemy had no clothes that would fit the children and their mother, and he asks that any charitable disposed person who has clothes to spare for the two children and the woman should leave them at 13 Railway street, in time for the funeral.
