31ST YEAR

C.N.R. LINE BETWEEN OTTAWA AND PORT ARTHUR WILL OPEN UP IMPORTANT TERRITORY

Route Which the Road Will Follow—Open For Traffic in Three Years—Valuable Water Powers Along the Line—Runs Close to Proposed Georgian Bay Canal at Many Points.

The survey of the main line of the Canadian Northern Ontario Railway, extending from Ottawa to Port Arthur, has been completed, and the exact location of the road, as decided upon by the company, was given to The World Saturday night.

The Canadian Northern Ontario Railway, which name is given to that portion of the C. N. R. transcontinental line running thru the Province of Ontario, commences at Rideau Junction on the Toronto-Ottawa branch, now under construction, and crossing the Ottawa River at Fitzroy Harbor, will continue along the Ottawa Valley on the Quebec side to Portage du Fort, where it returns to the Ontario side, and runs thru Pembroke and Petawawa to North Bay.

Continuing, it will pass up the Vermilion Valley and great clay belt of the Algoma District to Lake Nipigon, and thence to Port Arthur, where it connects with the C. N. R. proper.

Runs Near Proposed Canal. Taking the Ottawa Valley as its route, it will run in close proximity to the proposed Georgian Bay Canal at many points. At first it was believed that two highways would work in opposition to each other, but upon further consideration of the industries and utilities served by each, the C. N. R. decided that far from interfering with one another, they will be complementary, and both necessary to the full development of the district thru which they pass.

The great basin drained by the Ottawa River possesses unlimited resources, which bid fair to make the Ottawa Valley one of the greatest fields of industrial activity on the continent. Two things are necessary for its development, cheap coal and cheap and rapid transit facilities. The canal will supply the one, and the railway the other.

The Canadian Northern Ontario Railway, also exploiting a new country, will make five crossings of other roads, and in every case overhead. It will pass thru regions rich in iron and manganese, besides the coarser minerals, phosphate of lime, felspar, mica and graphite, which all lie dormant for want of cheap transportation.

Rich agricultural districts and large areas of timber, including first quality pine, the timber and that required for pulp development will be opened up. The country is unsurpassed for its aesthetic value, possessing innumerable streams and small lakes, which afford the sportsman another "hunters' paradise."

Will Develop Water Powers. The new line will leave Rideau Junction some six miles southwest from the point of entry into Ottawa, and will run directly west thru the Village of Bells Corners, thru the rich and comparatively undeveloped country in March and Thorburn Townships, unobscured by any existing road, and cross the Ottawa at Fitzroy Harbor to the Quebec side of the river.

By taking this route the company hopes to encourage manufacturing establishments at the magnificent water-power at Chats Falls, such as have been promoted by inferior powers on the Mississippi at Carleton Place, Almonte and Galleata, and on the Bonnetiere at Renfrew.

Fitzroy Harbor, although difficult to reach at present, is already quite a resort for Ottawa people, and a more than commonly beautiful spot. The Quebec side is quite as valuable as the Ontario from the agricultural point of view, and it is well settled. Some iron deposits were worked for a time at Bristol, close to the line, but were too remote from coal supply to be successful. It seems more than likely that the Georgian Bay Canal, making it possible to bring low rate, together with the cheap power and railway, encouraging manufacturers using pig iron, will have the effect of reviving the industry, and making even very low grade and impure ores of value.

Aid to Government Works. The railway will give indispensable aid to the government as well as themselves in the building of the navigation and controlling works, and

FOR THE ADVANTAGE OF UNITED STATES MILLERS

Reciprocity, Says Taft, Will Give Americans Much Greater Control of Wheat Market Than Ever Before—The Parting of the Ways. Our Grain, Says Report on McCall Bill, Will Pour Into Minneapolis—Turning Trade North and South Instead of East and West.

Significant Phrases.

"Now is the accepted time. She (Canada) is at the parting of the ways. Shall she be an isolated country, as much separated from us as if she were across the ocean, or shall her people and our people profit by the proximity that our geography furnishes and stimulate the trade across the border that nothing but a useless, illogical and unnecessary tariff wall creates?"

"It will give the United States much greater control of the wheat market than it ever had before. It will enable its milling plants to turn Canadian wheat into flour and send abroad the finished product, and it will stimulate the sale of manufactures and other things that we have to sell to Canada."

Diverting Our Trade.

The development of Canada will be rapid, the report points out because she will have the opportunity to trade straight across the border, instead of over the long and narrow artificial route from one end to the other of the Dominion.

Canadian grain will pour into Minneapolis, it adds, to the benefit of American millers, handlers and exporters of grain, but for every bushel that comes across the border, a bushel will be exported as New York so long as the United States continues to raise more wheat than it consumes.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The seven members of the committee who opposed the McCall bill at the final session of the ways and means committee were given permission to file a minority report next week.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 12.—President Taft defended the proposed reciprocity agreement with Canada in an address yesterday as the "logical conclusion" of the protection plank in the last Republican national platform.

He defined the protection theory as one that should impose a tariff not exceeding the difference in the cost of production in the United States and abroad, and allowing a fair margin of profit for the home producer. He argued, therefore, that inasmuch as the conditions of production from the United States and Canada, "were substantially the same, the widest latitude was given Secretary Knox and the commissioners who represented the United States in offering to Canada a reduction of duties on goods, and products coming into this country from Canada, in consideration of the establishment of the same duty, or freedom from duty, on similar goods going into Canada."

The president explained that it was thought wiser on behalf of both governments not to make a formal treaty, "but to make an agreement between the executives, by which each, exercising his constitutional power in his government, should submit the agreement in the form of a statute to be enacted and to go into force on condition that a similar statute was passed by the legislature of the other country."

Easy to Withdraw. He said in part: "This form of agreement between the two countries makes it one from which either country can withdraw at will by simply changing the statute by new legislation. But if the identical statute is adopted in both countries, as long as it remains unamended in either, the agreement is in force.

"I am a protectionist. That is, I believe that there are certain industries in this country which need the encouraging effect of a tariff upon imports from foreign countries to enable them to pay good wages and furnish a reasonable profit to those who engage in them. The difference in condition which generally makes this tariff necessary is the lower price of labor in the foreign country as compared with the price of labor in our own. The country has been on a protection basis nearly all the time since 1861, and the tremendous strides in industrial progress which it has made seem to me to vindicate the wisdom of the policy.

"There was a time when leading Republicans thought that there was no danger of having a tariff higher than necessary to protect the country. It was thought that if the country was made dependent on manufactures behind the tariff wall the competition between the manufacturers would stimulate the reduction in the cost of production and thus reduce the price.

"But the temptation to combine by which the price could be controlled and thus the excessive tariff taken made on our products that will be seeking a Canadian market, and these reductions are small.

"No other nation so strongly remembers this country. The forces of nature draw the two countries commercially together with a potency which cannot be nullified by mutual tariffs and by the other devices by which statesmen keep nations asunder."

NOT SURE ABOUT IT HIMSELF.

MISS WILFRID: Keep up, Mr. Taft, you're doing fine.

Defeat the Proposal by Agitation

It is up to the people of Canada to defeat the Knox-Fielding deal. We believe the feeling against it is widespread. The patriotic sentiment independent of party, is slow to manifest itself, because for the time being unorganized, but it is beginning to find its voice and we believe that before a fortnight is over there will be such an outcry that parliament will hesitate to pass the bill no matter what is done at Washington.

Now is the time for those who are against the surrender of Canada's future into the hands of the Americans, to speak out.

Let the business men of Toronto go on record.

Let meetings be held.

Ask members of parliament to come before their constituents and explain themselves.

This is the week and the day to make the fight in the country.

"UNCLE JOE" CANNON OUT AGAINST RECIPROCITY

Cannot Agree With Democratic Endorsement and Will Put Up a Fight.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 12.—Senator Bailey of Danville made public today, a letter directed to him from Speaker Joseph G. Cannon of the national house of representatives, in which the speaker strongly opposes reciprocity with Canada. The speaker's followers in the senate and house, according to the Danville Senator, will put up a hard fight on the floor when the Canadian reciprocity resolution is offered next week.

In the course of his letter the speaker says: "Of course free trade in these products is by itself one-sided, because we give Canada an immense market for her products, both in theory and in fact, while she affords us practically no market for farm products in fact, whatever may be theory. Of course, if there can be any advantage given us which will compensate for the burden of competition thus placed on our farmers, we should be able to find it in the terms. I have not found it so far, and I note that the Canadian envoy, Mr. Fielding, explains to the mother country that while Canada is gaining a large market in the United States, the United States is not to gain market enough in Canada to interfere with English trade, since few reductions are made on our products that will be seeking a Canadian market, and these reductions are small.

"No other nation so strongly remembers this country. The forces of nature draw the two countries commercially together with a potency which cannot be nullified by mutual tariffs and by the other devices by which statesmen keep nations asunder."

"I note also some conspicuous discrimination. Food animals on the hoof, such as our farmers have to sell, come into this country free of duty, but on the meats manufactured from these animals there is levied a duty of a cent and a quarter a pound."

GREAT DISADVANTAGES TO CANADIAN FARMER

T. W. Crothers, M. P., Takes a Poll of His Constituency on Reciprocity.

AYLMER, Feb. 12.—A big mass meeting under the auspices of the East Elgin Liberal-Conservative Association was held here Saturday with David Marshall, Oliver Wilcox (North Essex), and T. W. Crothers (West Essex) as the speakers. Mr. Crothers dealt particularly with the reciprocity issue, pointing out that while there must be some advantages for the Canadian farmer in securing entry to the U. S. market, it must not be forgotten that there were great disadvantages to the Canadian farmer from the fact that the American farmers to the number of over 40,000,000 would sweep their products into the Canadian market, even as they are doing to-day to some extent in spite of the duty.

"I received a great bundle of letters," said Mr. Crothers, "letters from Liberals and Conservatives, from farmers, mechanics, professional men and all classes, and only two out of the whole lot believed that reciprocity would be a good thing for Canada. And not one of those who favored it was a farmer."

The annual election of officers also took place, J. P. Martin being elected president; L. N. Newell, vice-president, and E. A. Miller secretary-treasurer. There were over 500 farmers at the meeting, and much enthusiasm was shown.

The annual meeting of the East Elgin Liberals will be held at Aylmer on the 29th.

WANTS TO ADMIT MORE OF CANADIAN GOODS

Iowa Senator Says That Timber, Ore, Flour, Etc., Should Come in Free.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa spoke in advocacy of Canadian reciprocity before the Union League Club of Brooklyn to-night.

"I am not one of those who believe that the free admission of agricultural products into the United States from Canada will materially affect our farmers," he said, "but I do believe that while we are admitting free the things which the farmer sells we should also admit free some of the things the farmer buys. The objection I have to the arrangement is not that it is too free, but that it is not free enough. I do not expect to ask Canada to change her duties further than prescribed in the agreement, but I do expect to insist that with regard to imports from Canada into the United States there shall be admitted free of duty timber and lumber in all their forms, including timber, however sized or squared, laths, shingles, sawed boards, planks, deals and other lumber, planed or unplanned, finished or unfinished; coal in all its forms; iron ore of all kinds; iron or steel in all its forms; glass, woolen and cotton cloth, clothing, boots and shoes, carpets, furniture, meat in all its forms, flour, and all such things.

"It is not necessary to ask Canada to agree to these additions to our free list, for they will not be reciprocally free, and WE PUT THEM UPON OUR OWN GOOD, and to equalize among our own people both the advantages

MISS PANKHURST HEARD BY TWO THOUSAND

Young Militant Suffragette Leader Addresses Large Meeting in Massey Hall—Mayor Geary in the Chair—Inequalities of Woman Wage-earners.

It was a notable gathering in Massey Hall on Saturday night of about 2000 people to hear Sylvia Pankhurst, youngest daughter of the suffragette leader in England, and herself one of the foremost of the militant in demanding equal rights. Mayor Geary presided. He recognized that among the questions that agitated Great Britain, none excited more attention than the women's movement for suffrage. He reminded himself that the mayor of Seattle had just had to vacate his seat as a result of the women's exercise of the recall. All classes of citizens welcomed Miss Pankhurst, and he regarded the spirit of hope and confidence in the women's ranks as a sure augury of success.

On the platform were a number of suffrage leaders, including Dr. Margaret Gordon, Dr. Stowe-Guller, Mrs. Flora M. Denison, Rev. Percy Billings, Rev. R. J. Hutcheon, J. L. Hughes, Arthur Hawkes, J. W. Bengough, Allan Studholme, M.L.A.

After the mayor's speech, Miss Elsie Mackenzie presented a bouquet to Miss Pankhurst. This was on behalf of fourteen members of the National Social and Political Union of London, England, now settled in Toronto. These ladies took part in the hunger-strikes in the English prisons, and Miss Mackenzie herself holds a record in this respect. They, with others, acted as ushers during the meeting, many of them wearing the insignia of their collegiate rank. Anything further removed from Bishop DuMoulin's idea of "vixens and vicious women," than these charming women it would be difficult to discover. Arthur Hawkes, in moving a vote of thanks to the speaker, recalled the famous episode when

COMPACT OF DEATH

Shot Herself and Son in Agreement With Dead Husband's Wish.

OXFORD, Me., Feb. 12.—In fulfillment of a compact alleged to have been made with her husband during his lingering illness, which death ended yesterday, Mrs. Linwood S. Keene took her own life to-day, after fatally shooting her 14-year-old son Gerald. The compact, dated about a month back, was found by the coroner in a sealed envelope in the woman's room. Keene was formerly a prosperous farmer, but, according to the compact, the family had become impoverished and discouraged during his long sickness.

Husband and wife wished to be buried in a double casket, and asked that their son's coffin and theirs be placed in the same box for final interment. So it has been arranged, and the triple funeral will be held here next Wednesday.

Baseball Eastern Schedule Curling Seven Rinks Still Unbeaten Hockey League Scores

Note and Comment

The baseball dates are out and seem to satisfy the local management. It's not where the Leafs play so much as how they will perform under the circumstances at any place any old time.

Bill Bradley writes the president that he will himself forthwith to Hot Springs to start at once the boiling out process, but it is not explained why he should require any longer to become fit.

But Willie Keeler may play in Canada this season without reference to Toronto, except to help the Peas Scouts to beat up the Leafs. It is reported that the use of the name of Keeler will probably be seen with the Royals.

Speaking of strike out records, Walter Johnson struck out 33 men in 1910, beating Waddell's record of 31 in 1907. Waddell's still is tied with Glade for the American League's record of strikeouts in a nine inning game.

Chicago sporting writers have taken a poll of the sporting writers of the cities along the route of the National League general convention of opinion of the sporting writers seems to be that the teams will finish in the order: First, Chicago; second, New York; third, Cincinnati; fourth, Pittsburgh.

The curlers keep up their vigorous task at Winnipeg. The Blue Ribbon on Saturday showed a victory over the Whites. Only in one year, 1907, since the competition started in 1902, have the winners been less than six easterners.

There are just seven competitors in the season open for Toronto in 1911, including the local Ontario groups and district. Of these the city clubs landed an except two, the following being the honor roll for 1911:

Tankard Group 4—Toronto Queen City. District Cup No. 1—Toronto Lakeview. Lakeview and the Granite thus divide the honors with two each.

After this one series they make their first visit to Montreal, returning home for a series with Newark, on June 15. They leave for the remainder of the month.

Wilfrid R. Marchand, coal-keeper of the champion Junior Frontenac team of Kingston, is not eligible to play O.H.A. Junior, under the age limit, so the games in the second round against Peterboro will be replayed.

Marchand, it appears, was born in a small village in Quebec from which the parish priest sent his birth and baptismal declaration. The declaration was written in French and when translated made his birth Aug. 20, 1891. By his own declaration, he was born on Oct. 19, 1891. These dates made him eligible to play junior O.H.A.

One club in looking over the declaration asked for a translation of Marchand's declaration and it was found that an error had been made in the first translation and the correct dates are: Birth Oct. 19, 1890, and baptismal Aug. 20, 1891. By this it is seen that Marchand is two months over age.

No protest was entered by Peterboro or any other club, but the O.H.A. decided to play the games in the second round again, with all justice to the Kingston club they were perfectly innocent of any wrong doing. Fully believing that Marchand was eligible to play.

Kingston will play in Peterboro Tuesday, Feb. 14, with return game in Kingston on Friday, Feb. 17.

The first half was won by Broadviews, 4 to 1. The second game was a rough contest of good hockey and was won by Brougham with a score of 6 to 2. The rink has been filled every night with a very enthusiastic crowd and the games next week will be of a superior class. Monday night North Toronto, Broadviews, Brougham, Markham intermediates will play, and on Tuesday night the final game will be fought out and the watches presented to the winners. A Toronto referee has been engaged for the balance of the games.

Apple-Kings v. Duchesses. Fair-Stockings v. Helianthians. Eaton-J.V. Engineers; Fifth Floor v. S.S. Athenaeum Mercantile-Sun Life v. Photo Engraving. Dominion Express—Money Order v. Treasury.

At the Toronto Bowling Club Saturday night, Tonies won three straight games over H. Murby, who was the champion of the Men's League series, the "big store" representatives seeming to be in fine fettle, as they usually play better than any other of their big totals, with a 266 count. On the other hand, Murby & Co. were away off color, and getting away high had start in the first game, picked up little in the last two. Four Tonies rolled 90 or better, Murby leading with the big total of 996, while Dennis and Templeton were second and third, with 858 and 877, respectively. H. Murby was high for Murby, with 474. The Apple League

It was a shame what happened Tom Vance's Greenings in the Apple League at the Toronto Bowling Club Saturday night, when George Everist's Duchesses cramped home with three easy wins; in fact, Tom's variety were left flat-footed at the start of each game, even Dave Spence could not stem the tide, while Geo. Stronach was just as bad and with 274 looked to have handed his own team something; George Everist for Duchesses was high and the only roller over the 900 mark, with 618. Jack Phillips was high for the Greenings with 497. The scores:

MARY DAVIS, FAVORITE, WINS YANKEE HANDICAP

Defeats Guy Fisher a Head in Feature at Moncrief - At Juarez and Oakland.

JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 11.-Mary Davis, 9 to 5 won the Yankee Handicap at 11:16 miles here this afternoon by a head from Guy Fisher after a fighting finish, Aldrian being third, a length farther back.

A sixteenth out, Aldrian gave up the fight and dropped back while Guy Fisher, coming fast on the outside, challenged for the lead. A dirt-dog finish followed, and had not little Wilson on Guy Fisher's side to the whip 20 yards from the wire the latter could hardly have lost, but as it was he succumbed to punishment and could never get up. Jack-Doman was disappointed and the played by his people, was never a factor.

The seven-furlong event, which came third on the card, promised to be a real horse race in the opening betting Donald MacDonald and Via Octavia were equal favorites at 5 to 2. But the former's price receded to 10 to 1 at 1:45, while Via Octavia was backed down to 11 to 5.

MONDAY MORNING, Feb. 13, 1911.

THE FRUITMEN AND THE GARDENERS WERE TOO LATE.

The Fruit Growers and the Market Gardeners were told by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, on Friday last, that their protest had come too late!

Did they know before he had committed the act that he was to negotiate to deal with the Americans that would greatly injure, if not destroy, their business? They came when they heard the facts.

And what concern was it of theirs to have been at Ottawa when the farmers were down from the west to protest the tariff grievances of the west. The fruit men and the gardeners were surely entitled to some notice.

Other interests were surely entitled to notice that the food facts of American competition were to be opened wide!

But only this, "You are too late!" In other words, they've got to swallow the deal, whether they like it or not. They are to have no say in it before the proposal is put through parliament.

But they can say in the next election! That is what Sir Wilfrid and Mr. Paterson tell them. That is all. We believe they will speak out when the appeal is made. But for years now our people seem to have lost their political courage, deserted the practice of holding public meetings, of expecting their members in parliament to discuss before them the questions of the day, of taking part in the selection of candidates.

There has been ten years of swallowing whatever was forced on them, and swallowing without protest. They have been so docile that the commercial union proposal of 1888-91 that was then rejected, has been revived in the Knox-Fielding treaty of to-day. The men who proposed it first and were unable to bring it about are now in power, and at this moment are engaged in forcing it on the people without any authority from them.

The two things mean the same thing—a movement to lead Canadians into the American union—to continentalize us, to unify the continent.

The hope of the Americans, which they had abandoned, namely, that of wiping Canada from off the map of North America, has been repeated in ten times its former strength by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The American press is filled with joyful acclamations of the great work of unification now so auspiciously begun under the auspices of Canadian statesmen. There may be Canadians who support the proposal because they expect higher prices for their products; the mainprinciple of the support coming from the States is that it means one great republic from the Arctic Ocean to the Gulf of Mexico.

Make no mistake of that. That's the meaning it has for Taft and Hearst, for the two great parties in the United States. They may be willing to swallow some of their protectionist things for a political and aggrandisement of their country. They sacrifice their tariff for the country; Sir Wilfrid Laurier asks us to sacrifice our country for a tariff. And that makes all the difference in the world.

But we believe that a great awakening is at hand. The market gardeners and the fruit men must accept the battle that is ahead and fight to the end. So must all the rest.

Liberals who resent the proposals for trade or national reasons must speak out.

Canadians must speak out.

And when we have beaten this last annexation movement we will never need to do it again. We are going to finish the making and the moulding of Canada by reasserting our national manhood!

THE PORCUPINE. Long before the public expected it gold bricks have begun to come out of the Porcupine. We have seen, ourselves, a solid brick of 250 lbs. value from the Hollinger; a second is now out, of at least half that amount; a small one is coming out from the V. pond; and dumps of gold-bearing ore are being formed on several of the properties. When fifty thousand dollars is collected from the shafts that are sunk for test work the thing begins to look good.

But more significant than the first output of gold is the setting up of large and expensive plants on the Dome, and the Hollinger, on the East Dome and Preston, the ordering of other plants for other properties; the development of water power on the Metagami River nearby to work the drills and stamps; the building at high pressure of forty miles of railway into and beyond the camp; and still most important of all, the attraction to the camp of big capital and of miners from all over the world. Already eminent European and United States engineers have visited the camp from Europe and the United States; they have gone home and made their reports, agents have returned to buy or are on the way. That's the point. These people know more about the camp than we do.

It looks now as if gold bars will be common shipments from Porcupine before the summer is over.

RECIPROCITY AND U. S. POLITICS.

Time is not sustaining the first enthusiasm shown by the supporters of the reciprocity arrangement. As its terms are becoming better understood they are being recognized to involve serious menace to the best and continuing interests of the Canadian people.

Hitherto the policy governing the development of the Dominion has been conditioned chiefly by the principle of national, commercial and industrial independence. Its success needs no demonstration. Under it Canada has advanced by leaps and bounds, and never had the prospect of expanding and yet stable prosperity been fairer than that offering at the moment when the federal government sent Mr. Fielding and Mr. Paterson on their pilgrimage to Washington. If current reports are to be credited these gentlemen were not prepared to find the proposals of President Taft of so sweeping a character as that they proved to be on discovery. This should have counselled reserve rather than haste in confronting government supporters in parliament with the alternative of either ratifying the agreement or dissolving their party allegiance.

Opposition to reciprocity of the kind contemplated is growing in weight and volume. It comes not only from consideration of its terms as directly affecting the solidarity of the Dominion, but also since it is evident that President Taft has been prompted very largely by the necessity of restoring the Republican party of the United States to the public confidence its tariff action had gone far to destroy. All this side of the question has been ignored by the Dominion Cabinet. Canada had everything to gain by awaiting the advent of the new congress and allowing the Democrats an opportunity to fulfill their pledge for a general tariff reduction. As matters now stand the Dominion Government has made itself a catspaw to draw the Republican chestnuts out of the fire, has harpered the Democrats in the prosecution of their tariff reform movement, and has committed Canada to a policy entirely at variance with that which has laid broad and deep the foundations of an independent and self-contained nation.

ELK LAKE AND GOWGANDA. Since the great deputation of those interested in hydro-electric power six years ago no organized movement has reached such important proportions in the province as that which is to take the form of a deputation to the premier in Washington to place before the government the claims of the Elk Lake and Gowganda district to an extension of the T. & N. O. Railway into that territory.

The government has hitherto postponed the question on the ground that such action was not warranted. It is felt, however, that in meeting the wishes of those interested in Porcupine the government affords good reason for those equally interested in the Gowganda district to expect a full consideration of the situation there.

They believe that such consideration will lead the government to proceed with the spur now running to Charlton, and they propose to place before the government such evidence of the value of the Gowganda mining interests as will warrant the extension of that branch.

Heretofore no action has been taken to crystallize the sentiment of those interested. A strong presentation of the case was made at Elk Lake two years ago when the minister of lands, forests and mines, the provincial secretary and other representatives of the government were present. Nothing came of this and considerable discouragement was felt in the district, and in consequence of the fires in Elk Lake.

Now, however, it is believed that the government can be convinced that a profitable field for development exists, and a strong effort will be made to persuade Sir James to consider the situation as one calling for action.

Two mines are regularly making carload shipments by horse and wagon, but without proper transportation no adequate development can be carried on.

All who are interested are requested to associate themselves with the deputation on Wednesday, and to add to the information as well as the influence at the disposal of the committee in charge of the arrangements.

NOTHING TO IT.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—Before Henri Bourassa left for Montreal to-day he said in regard to the statement that he was resigning from the Quebec Legislature in order to enter the Dominion arena:

"The story is on a par with the ones when I was abroad that I was really in a lunatic asylum. There is nothing to it."

$10.00 Round Trip New York, Via Lehigh Valley R. R., Thursday, Feb. 16, from Suspension Bridge, Particulars 6 King St. East. TORONTO. 452945134.

Master's Chambers.

Before Cartwright, K.C. Master. Sands v. O'Connor—H. E. Rose, K.C., for defendant. G. C. Campbell, for plaintiff. Motion by defendant for an order dismissing action for want of prosecution.

Judgment: The only question is really as to costs. It was urged by plaintiff's counsel that the delay was due to negotiations for settlement. Unfortunately there is no documentary evidence as to this, and the fact is denied by the defendant's solicitors, and they have not been cross-examined on their affidavits. Under these circumstances the usual order must be made that plaintiff undertake to go to trial at next sittings at North Bay, and do costs and either pay $500 or pay $50 into court as security, as he may prefer. In the latter case, costs of this motion will be to defendant in any event. The plaintiff to elect in ten days. In default of above provision, action to be dismissed with costs without further notice.

Schmlahaw v. McLellan—M. Macdonald, for plaintiff. H. D. Gamble, for defendant. Motion by plaintiff for an order for costs of the action after taking money out of court. Reserved.

Urely-Cooper (Rowell & Co.) for plaintiff. Motion by plaintiff on consent for an order dismissing action without costs. Order made.

Re Way and Trustee Relief Act—S. G. Crowell, for executors. Motion by executors of estate of Mrs. Way for an order for costs of the action to each of two infants. Order made for payment in full of the sums of $100 each, less costs, fixed at $5 for each infant. Order made.

Duke v. Urely-Cooper (Rowell & Co.) for plaintiff. Motion by plaintiff on consent for an order dismissing action without costs. Order made.

Judge's Chambers.

Before Middleton, J. Re Bonnin and Catholic Mutual Benefit Association—T. H. Penie, for Bonnin. J. R. Meredith, for defendant. Motion by plaintiff for an order for payment out of court of $850, less costs to be taxed. Order made.

Re Cochrane Cobalt Co.—M. L. Gordon, for petitioner. No one contra. Motion by petitioner for a winding up order. Order made. Harry Vigeon appointed interim receiver. Reference to the master-in-ordinary.

Single Court.

Before Middleton, J. Re Mulgrew—H. E. Stone (Barry Stone) for executor. Motion by executor under C. E. Statute for an order construing will of Hannah Mulgrew. Judgment: The testatrix gives the lands in question to her surviving husband for life, but in the event of her surviving her husband the lands are to go to her son. The only gift of the remainder is to her daughter. The daughter's life estate is in the residuary clause by which everything not disposed of is given to the husband. "If he shall at the time of my death survive me."

The husband survived the testatrix several years and took by the combined effect of these clauses the lands. The son has been notified of the motion, but does not answer and as the husband alone is concerned, and he is an executor, no order need be made as to costs.

Re Cottrell Estate—J. W. McCullough, for executor. For. V. Violet Glocking v. W. McKewen, for widow. Elizabeth Cottrell, J. R. Meredith, for infant. Motion by executor of estate of John Cottrell, of the Township of York, for an order construing his will.

Judgment: The testator left some $5000 personally and left of considerable value. He devised all his property to his wife, and then provided "that upon the death of my wife, my son Samuel Cottrell, shall receive 50 per cent, and the balance to be equally divided among my daughters." The devise to the wife is without limitation of time and since the Will Act would give the fee unless a contrary intention appears. I think a contrary intention here clearly appears. Upon the wife's death, the estate is to go to the children in the shares indicated. The wife has a life estate only, and the shares of the children in the remainder are vested interests. The personal property is given to the wife in the same way. On her death the children are to take. This would not apply to things quasi ipso user consuetudine. Costs may be allowed out of the estate.

Divisional Court.

Before Mulock, C.J.; Teetzel, J.; Middleton, J. Pratt v. Waddington—R. McKay, K.C., for defendant. Grundy, R. G. Hunter, for plaintiff. An appeal by defendant and Grundy from the judgment of the County Court of York of Dec. 12, 1910. An action to recover $200, being the price of a horse, harness, etc., hired by plaintiff to defendant. Plaintiff alleges that the horse was overworked and underfed whereby he died, and his harness so damaged as to be rendered useless. The action was dismissed as against defendant Waddington, and judgment given plaintiff against defendant Grundy for $100 and costs. Judgment: Appeal dismissed with costs.

THE QUESTION OF WAGES.

If it was a question of skill in Lancashire, men earn $2 to $3 per week at the mill and were paid 14 to 15 shillings a week.

The question of wages was a serious one, for employers when they got women in some districts was that all the family was working but the father, and all the family being sweated, in Australia one of the first laws passed was that a woman on one equal pay for equal work. (Applauded.)

"That is better than stopping married women from working," said Miss Pankhurst.

More signatures had been attached to petitions on woman's suffrage than on any other subject. Ever since 1840, when the Anti-Saxon race, the right of the subject to agitate has been recognized. When the reform bill of 1884 was introduced by the house of lords, in 1885 no man opposed to the act was allowed to speak in public. In 1905 the suffragists determined to adopt the tactic of the "picketing" and their questions and have them answered as men's were.

"Instead of having our questions answered by the House of Commons," declared the speaker, "so they decided to render action impossible."

The language of the bishop had been described as Billingsgate. "And it was," he affirmed, and the "hear, hear," from the platform evinced the general approval.

Rehab Tandy sang "Rule Britannia," and "Land of Hope and Glory," at the close, the audience joining in the chorus of the "Shrieking Sisterhood."

Miss Pankhurst, who left the city on Saturday night and spoke in Syracuse on the 11th, is a slight, girlish-looking woman of 28 or 27 years. She is not tall, and her voice is not strong, but she speaks with a penetrating force, and is generally audible. There is absolutely nothing of the "shrieking sisterhood" in her delivery, and her gestures are almost entirely unobtrusive.

Her speech put the whole question of woman's suffrage in a different light. It was not a question of the right of the woman to vote, but of the right of the woman to be treated as a human being.

Lord Lyndhurst described the woman of his day as a slave. Women had no right to go to a university. A woman had no right to her own property. It was so in Quebec in 1763. In England it was so in 1832. In Ontario the law gives a mother the right to the earnings of her minor children, but the children belong to the father.

"It is said that there must be a mad dog in the world. If I thought that I would be inclined to give the children to the mother who brought them into the world. But I do not want to take them from the father any more than from the mother," she declared. If the law could not see why the father and mother could not be joint guardians.

She related an English case under the common law where the magistrate stated that she and her husband had conscientious objections to vaccination, and the child had to be vaccinated. Another case of a Roman Catholic girl who had been betrothed to a Protestant. The children were, under agreement, to be brought up as Protestants. The father changed his mind and sent the child to a convent. The mother went to the magistrate and asked him to let her have the child. The magistrate refused. The father said, "I do not want to take them from the mother, but I do not want to take them from the father any more than from the mother."

The father changed his mind and sent the child to a convent. The mother went to the magistrate and asked him to let her have the child. The magistrate refused. The father said, "I do not want to take them from the mother, but I do not want to take them from the father any more than from the mother."

She related an English case under the common law where the magistrate stated that she and her husband had conscientious objections to vaccination, and the child had to be vaccinated. Another case of a Roman Catholic girl who had been betrothed to a Protestant. The children were, under agreement, to be brought up as Protestants. ARCHBISHOP RYAN DIED ON SATURDAY

Head of Archdiocese of Philadelphia Was in His Eightieth Year—Will Be Buried Thursday.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—The gallant struggle of Archbishop Patrick J. Ryan for life has failed. The venerable prelate of the Roman Catholic diocese of Philadelphia passed away at the archbishop's residence at 4:08 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after an illness that became serious nearly two weeks ago.

Leading relatives and priests surrounded the bed when the famous church leader breathed his last. They had been hastily summoned to see at 10 o'clock to-day. The physicians knew that death was near and the last rites for the dying were administered by the Rev. Joseph Hughes, S. J., one of the attending physicians, the aged prelate's heart had "practically worn out."

An infirmity which he never had appeared himself, and the illness that prostrated him shortly after Christmas was the result of over-exertion. Ryan, the first bishop of Philadelphia to be elected to the office, had been in the probability of heart failure, and stimulants to keep that organ strong were almost constantly administered.

Had Archbishop Ryan lived until the 20th of this month he would have been 80 years old. The funeral will be held on Thursday and it is expected to be attended by practically all the prominent clergy in the American hierarchy who can reach Philadelphia in time. The body will be in state at the cathedral and will be entombed back of the altar of the great church, beside the remains of Bishop Egan, Bishop Conwell and Archbishop Wood, who were his predecessors in the diocese. This was his wish.

Until Archbishop Ryan's successor is appointed Rev. Prendergast, D.D., V.G., titular bishop of the university, the Rev. Joseph Hughes, S. J., will be administrator of the archdiocese.

Patrick John Ryan was born in Thurles, County Tipperary, Ireland, Feb. 20, 1831. His family was distinguished in Irish history, being descended from the O'Ryan, princes of the Ironside. He came to America at the age of 21 and became a professor at Canonale Seminary.

When the falling health of Archbishop Ryan demanded a coadjutor's assistance, Ryan was appointed to that position in 1872.

In January, 1884, he was appointed archbishop of Baltimore, and on August 18 of the same year archbishop of Philadelphia. He was formally installed Aug. 20, 1884.

The Royal Alexandra Theatre last night a bright well-attended meeting of Rev. J. D. Morrow's congregation was very strongly attracted by Miss O'Connell of New York, speaking on the cause of Israel and the work of the New York Jewish Society.

She said, "I am not a Jew, but I believe in a God who answers prayer, but the Jew prays and prays yet receives no answer. The Jew asks nothing through the name of Jesus, but through the name of God. I know the way to God. The Christian people feel very self-satisfied. The Jew is becoming more and more distinguished in Irish history, being descended from the O'Ryan, princes of the Ironside. He came to America at the age of 21 and became a professor at Canonale Seminary.

No Prospect of Compromise Till It Reaches the Lords—Political Situation Slackening.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(New York Tribune Cable)—The tension of the political situation is slackening. This is evident, notwithstanding the hard trade agreement between America and Canada. The trend toward a compromise is unmistakable on the Unionist side...

There is less satisfactory evidence that the government will meet the Unionist demand for a definite scheme for the reform of the upper chamber, as now assuming that Premier Asquith will substitute a definite scheme for the preamble of the veto bill. PREPARING TO CROWN GEORGE V. AND HIS QUEEN

Festivities on a Scale Never Before Attempted—Expect Two Million Visitors in London.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Since the beginning of the British chief functionaries of the British court have been busily absorbed in preparations for the coronation of George V., which will surpass in pageantry and in historical interest all former coronations of the character. While the ceremony of crowning the King and Queen in Westminster Abbey on June 22 will be most identical with that of which has been followed in the vestiture of British sovereigns since William IV. and Queen Adelaide, the auxiliary functions are expected to exceed in pageantry and magnificence anything that the nation has witnessed in the past.

These will include the progress of the court through London on the day after the coronation, and a visit to the Guild Hall with the coronation King and Queen by the city authorities, a great naval review, a gala performance at the opera, with minor coronations and pageants, among which will be a 'festival of empire' at the Crystal Palace.

While the attitude of the government is not conciliatory and the peers are raising objections to a premature revision of the scheme of reform, the chances of a settlement are steadily improving. The King is greatly relieved by the prospect of an ultimate arrangement between the two sides.

and disadvantages of the treaty. To me it seems absurd to admit Canadian wheat free and maintain a duty on wheat flour; to admit Canadian cattle and hogs free and charge a duty on Canadian meat; to admit Canadian dairy products free and keep a duty on Canadian iron and steel; to admit Canadian poultry, vegetables and fruits free and charge a duty on Canadian coal, oil, and gas.

VEGETABLE GROWERS

W. A. Robinson Makes Out Strong Case—Annual Banquet on Wednesday Evening—Suburbs.

The members of the Toronto Branch of the Vegetable Growers' Association look upon the proposed reciprocity treaty now under discussion at Ottawa with distinct alarm and believe that they see therein a movement for the complete ruin of this important branch of agriculture. This feeling is so general and widespread that the matter has assumed serious proportions.

To the World last night, Mr. Robinson in a few brief, clear statements makes out a strong case for the retention of the present duty. "As far as the vegetable growers are concerned," he said, "it will be a heavy blow to them. It may not be so disastrous to the small fruit growers who desire a larger market in the United States, but the competition with the American growers in their outdoor stuff in the Toronto district alone, is worth thousands of dollars.

"The government cannot realize the enormous capitalization involved in the grading business with a radius of forty miles on the west, Brantford to the northwest, and Scarborough to the east. There must be 600 men engaged in the business in this district, representing at least 20,000 souls in this district alone. Labor is high, and my fellow-growers will bear me out. In the statement, it was stated that a cost for labor alone for the season of $200 before we have a dollar for ourselves. On a five-acre plot $1000 for labor alone.

"Porcupine" GOLD MINES

THE PORCUPINE OUTPUT SETS IN
 Porcupine is beginning to show results. The brick brought down last week from the Hollinger is at least the second to be produced. Two months ago a brick worth $25,000, weighing over 1200 ounces, and producing over $25,000, was deposited with the Imperial Bank, and found its way to the mint at Ottawa. The second brick weighs about 750 ounces, and will produce $15,000.

A brick from the Vipond came out last week worth $2000.

These bricks are produced by the simplest process for the collection of gold, namely, the ore is put thru a crusher and then put thru a stamp mill. This fine product of the stamp mill is then watered and the slime run over plates coated with mercury, which attract the gold. The plates are then taken out, the amalgam of gold and mercury scraped off, put into a retort in a little furnace which evaporates the mercury and a yellow cone of gold is left at the bottom.

These cones are then put over the fire and run into a brick. Improved methods will follow later on, but this is the simplest and readiest process of collecting gold. At least four other mines are now or have been collecting ore, and some of them have considerable dumps. The Dome collected a good deal, but stopped mining ore in order to get ready for the installation of their big plant.

It looks now that in a very short time there will be several other small stamp mills put in, and that several dumps of ore ready for crushing will be under way in a few weeks.

It is more than certain now that bricks will continue to come out in small quantities, and that the number will steadily increase, and that by June, when the Hollinger customs mill is ready, there will be a lot of dumps of gold ore on various properties ready for treatment. From that time on there will be a steady and constantly growing output of gold from Porcupine.

WORKERS, NOT SPECULATORS
 Porcupine Needs Those Whose Object is to Develop Mines.

PORCUPINE CITY, Feb. 11.—(From Our Man Up North.)—The worker, the real developer of a camp, and not the speculative buyer, is wanted in Porcupine, and it is more and more necessary every day to show the necessity of giving longer operations, with small first payments, in order that the men who buy will remain as developers of the camp. It should be said that within the last ten days three buyers have driven out of Porcupine in a rather disgusted mood.

"When we buy," said one man, "the work is done so far as to know what the property holds for the future, but when a speculative buyer steps in and overbids us, which he must do in order to get the property, then you get a speculative worker as a camp developer."

"What Porcupine needs today is more buyers who come here to do the preliminary work, and not to speculate on it," he continued. "With a half-dozen good mining companies working on these good leads in addition to the half-dozen now doing development work, Porcupine would soon have some big showings, and have no doubt, which could only mean one thing—more capital and a stronger name as a gold camp."

SMITH VETERAN CLAIM
 Open to Inspection to Those Wanting to Make a Deal.

PORCUPINE CITY, Feb. 11.—(From Our Man Up North.)—The early sale of the Big Kesley, in South Lorrain, and the secured option on the Jowsey-Woods claims, in Deloro, last November, for an English syndicate, attracted the attention yesterday in the company of W. G. Gordon, barrister and solicitor, who is one of the owners of the J. Smith veteran claim, near the Armstrong-McGibbon holdings.

Messrs. Gordon and Smith left immediately for the property to look over the showings. Not until there has been a chance to size up the exposures will Mr. Smith be able to state just what will be done.

Since Monday Mr. Smith is the fifth agent for companies who have inspected the showings on the J. Smith veteran.

The first of the week it was understood that the property would be held open for inspection by the Bewick-Moreing party.

GOLD FROM PORCUPINE
 Bricks of Precious Metal From Hollinger Being Stamped Out.

What is to be the future of Porcupine might be judged from the present. On the Hollinger a little three-stamp Tremaine mill is working. Ten bricks are gold to the value of over $25,000 was sent out from Porcupine by this company.

This week a brick was brought out, which weighed between fifty and sixty pounds. The measure in the precious metals is in Troy weight of 12 ounces to the pound. The price of gold is varied according to its fineness, or freedom from alloy.

The last shipment from the Hollinger will return anywhere from $12,000 to $15,000, according to the assay test.

A mill of thirty stamps is being ordered for concentrating the ore from the Hollinger, and gold bricks should be a frequent occurrence when this machinery is in motion.

On several of the Porcupine claims there are ore dumps which only await the installation of a mill to convert them into the best kind of currency.

Jewish Young Men's Association.
 The Toronto Jewish Young Men's Association will hold a progressive six-course on Saturday evening, Feb. 18, at 8 o'clock, in their club rooms, 249 Simcoe-street. Three prizes are offered, and light refreshments will be served after the game.

MULHOLLAND CLAIMS HELD AT HIGH PRICE

W. A. Edwards Has Made a Bid For the Property With the Object of Proving It Up.

PORCUPINE CITY, Feb. 11.—W. A. Edwards and G. A. Clarke left for Halleybury Thursday evening, after taking several looks at various parts of the district, more especially the Mulholland claims, to the east of the Scottish-Ontario and the J. Smith veteran, to the west of the Armstrong-McGibbon.

Mr. Edwards would not commit himself as to whether or not he had made a bid for the property. An offer of $100,000 cash down, with a price of $100,000 set, and it is known that the sellers wanted $100,000, and not as a fixed price in the sale.

Just whether Mr. Edwards will accept the request for the extra $100,000 is not known, but it was generally understood that when the party left before the party an agreement reached before the party arrives in Halleybury.

Should Mr. Edwards get the property, he intends to start work on the big leads for the purpose of making better showings, and mining engineers and chemists are practically sure of the great value in the leads now opened is indicated by the fact that they are not willing to dispose of their interests till the top-notch price is agreed upon. No question now in the leads, and that the J. Smith veteran catches up the big Scottish-Ontario leads, and that the Mulholland claims are being worked, having handsome showings of free gold, one of those very common occurrences in Porcupine, as good in body as on the Scottish-Ontario at the 100-foot level.

HOLLINGER ATTRACTS ATTENTION

Hollinger, the first representative Porcupine security to be put on the market, has shown remarkable strength since a week ago, at which time it sold around 4.90 a share. On Saturday last the price reached 5.15, or 15 points higher than the par price, which is a fact that is not to be overlooked by those who are interested in the properties owned by the company, as it tends to discount its intrinsic value.

Porcupine Notes

PORCUPINE CITY, Feb. 10.—(From Our Man Up North.)—J. A. LeBaron of Port Cobalt is interested at present in the development of the Cody section and hopes to be able to get things under way before the end of the month. The leads may be opened up. He is positive that will as much work as Whiteley has done in the district, and yet yielding something starting.

The exposures on the Mulholland are of such a nature that they are already the Hughes firm are collapsed.

Alex. Miller of the Miller Transportation Company and connected with the Miller Porcupine, left here hurriedly last evening for Kelso Mines, in response to a cable message. He will have a cable message. He will have a cable message.

Halleybury at once, Scottish-Ontario details are expected over soon.

One of the grand old men of the district with no great amount of the accent, the "old" is Peter McLaren, an acknowledged authority on mining, who stands pre-eminent in the district.

With Messrs. Pope and Kuhn, engineers for the Bewick-Moreing Syndicate, working in the district two weeks ago, something definite should be known as to the fate of several of the lots that have been handed up by the big financiers.

Engineer Wilson, representing F. Augustus Heinz, who has taken over the Foster to the west of the Dome, is expected by the morning stage and will be glad to welcome to the property who are interested in the entry of one so prominent in the district territory.

It is reported here on good authority that the account payment on the Jowsey-Woods claims was taken on the 10th of the month by outside parties thru Proctor, who has just returned to the camp, has been made. The Jowsey-Woods holdings lie in Deloro on the big dyke which cuts entirely across the township from a mile east in Shaw.

It is said that the formation, ribbed like on the Middle-McGibbon, is very similar to that found on the Augustus Heinz. The working company with Joe Houston as engineer, it is said, has closed down for the present. An option for $25,000 was taken on the property with $1000 paid down and it is not clear if the holding graduate are to make the second payment. William McCready is now sampling the veins.

The claims belonging to Simpson and Redford in Orden, near the Deloro line, were sold this week for $2000. Just to the south of this holding considerable work is being done and the finds are said to be encouraging, although no report of free gold in the veins has come from the section.

J. and C. T. Young are the owners of five claims on the eastern part of Orden, near the Deloro line, where work that is now starting up on the many good claims in that section shows some very valuable finds. Claims here were staked last year and just now the second year's work is being done with surprising results. The district is in a southwest line near the Timmins holdings.

One of the active buyers in the district is R. W. West of Detroit, who, although entirely unused to snow-wading, makes his trip into the hills and near the drifts are generally filled a little higher.

A virtual properties in Coddington and claims that nowhere in the district has been seen such handsome showings. Some of Mr. West's yet in the estimation of Mr. West.

COBALTS STILL GOOD

Close observers of the Cobalt market conditions believe that everything is due for a rise. That is every 50-pound shipping property is enhanced in value by reason of the real mining that has been going on for the past six months and more. It is not probable that a dividend will be paid on Beaver, but the public are buying it on the strength of the development of the property.

TWO NEW RAILROADS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED

Elk Lake and Gowganda Require Transportation Facilities—Activities in Districts Merit Action.

MONTREAL, Feb. 11.—Two new railroads are urgently needed for the development of the new mining region in northern Ontario, both starting out from the Timiskaming and Ontario Railway, one from Charleton to Elk City and Gowganda, and the other from Kelso to the Porcupine.

Such is the declaration made by Mr. Thomas Kennedy, superintendent of the Silver Alliance Mine, Elk City, who is now on a visit and who will next week form one of the large delegation that will visit upon Premier Whitney and the minister of mines in the Ontario Government to urge the construction of the line to Elk City and Gowganda, a 40-mile extension of the spur that runs out from the government road at Englehart to Charleton.

Mr. Kennedy is an old Montreale, the son of John Kennedy, the former engineer-in-chief of the harbor board and now consulting engineer. He has been in the silver country for the last four years, and is therefore well acquainted with the conditions there, and what is needed for its development.

"There has been a slackening of operations there during the last two years," said Mr. Kennedy, "not because the prospects are any less encouraging than they were, but because people are discouraging from putting capital into development work on account of the high price that has to be paid for the transportation of machinery and supplies. If the Ontario Government built a railway and operated it as part of their system, we could get in supplies and take out the ore to market for one-quarter of the expense we have to incur at present. Two of the mines are now shipping ore regularly, and from many others there are occasional shipments."

"About a hundred teams are now at work between the railway and the mines. This is sufficient to provide for the requirements of the mines, which are well stocked with fuel, supplies. In fact, the machinery and provisions already brought in will see us well into the summer. There are about 8000 people around Elk City and Gowganda now, and that would, without doubt, be multiplied many times.

"Recognizing the people of Elk Lake and Gowganda appointed committees to organize a monster delegation to the Ontario Government, and ask for the immediate building of a branch line from the T. and N. O."

Speaking of the Porcupine, Mr. Kennedy said the new gold field had opened the experimental stage, and the existence of gold in paying quantities had been amply demonstrated. There were now about 15,000 people in the Porcupine camp.

DEAL FOR BRYDGES' CLAIM

New Yorkers and Others Are Examining the Property.

PORCUPINE CITY, Feb. 10.—(From Our Man Up North.)—Excitement relative to the new gold field has been particularly pronounced in the Brydges' Claim. Already several buyers have visited the showings and to-day Engineer Anderson of New York, sampling the property.

It is said that the Preston East Dome syndicate are anxious to purchase the Brydges, but others are also anxious and the bidding is likely to be on.

Engineer Anderson's sampling is for the purpose of determining if the New York company will take over an option.

Showings in the reefs now uncovered are what many men call spectacular and as the property lies in a section where big rich veins have been found, there is of course an encouragement to learn more of the district.

W. A. Edwards and party visited the showings on Wednesday and were particularly pleased with what they saw.

The Brydges lies near the Dome and east of Preston.

At the annual meeting of West York County Orange Lodge, in St. James' Hall, Dundas-street, Saturday afternoon, W. J. Douglas was chosen county master to succeed A. W. A. Baird, who retired.

Other officers elected were: J. C. Boylen, D.M.; John Buchanan, chairman; John McCure, P.S.; R. G. Agnew, P.S.; E. Connolly, treasurer; and Charles Yealmanor, director of ceremonies.

Among the prominent Orangemen present were J. L. McElroy, M.L.A., past county master of Carleton; Capt. Tom Wallace, M.P.; William Crawford, county master, Toronto; William Bush, past county master, Toronto; ex-Rep. G. S. Henry, and Councillor Thomas Griffin.

One of the prominent speakers was J. B. West of Detroit, who, although entirely unused to snow-wading, makes his trip into the hills and near the drifts are generally filled a little higher.

A virtual properties in Coddington and claims that nowhere in the district has been seen such handsome showings. Some of Mr. West's yet in the estimation of Mr. West.

Spring Suits

Here is a little description of four very special New Spring Suits: they will be on view on Tuesday. It will be noticed that this season's suits are cut on straighter models, with shorter coats; skirts, too, are only shoe-top length, and apparently it is "good-bye, hobble," but we need say no more, as you will see them, which is much more satisfactory.

Style I—A very attractive Model Suit, made of black and white anchor check imported coating. Coat is lined throughout with blue silk; has tailored collar; fastens with black bone buttons; semi-fitting back and front; cut with square effect; skirt has panel front, with deep bias piece around bottom of skirt. ## You Find the Furniture You Want at Our February Sale

It is just as essential for the graceful woman to have graceful furniture in her drawing room as it is for the artistic picture to have an artistic framing. We all know the room in which the carpet, the furniture, the coverings, and the walls clash louder than cymbals, and we say a silent prayer that the owner may not be injured as he or she tumbles down in our estimation.

It is much more difficult to introduce one piece of furniture to the other tenants of the room than it is to furnish the whole room. You can advantageously furnish one, two or twenty rooms from this store at any time; especially so during the February Sale; and we pride ourselves that we can supply just that one piece wanted, be it for the apartment of a graceful woman or the den of a mere man.

Maybe the precise thing you are in want of is included in this partial list:
