SOLD LIQUOR TO AN INDIAN

Another Colored Man May Come Up On This Charge Shortly

Circus Jag Costs One Man $5—The Police Court

A circus jag yesterday cost Joseph Lewis $1 and the costs, $5 in all, in Police Court this morning. Lewis was very penitent when he woke up in the cells this morning. He had the usual morning after reflections, and he told the police he is never going to touch red-eye any more. Lewis comes from Moraviantown.

Another colored man is likely to figure in the Police Court shortly on the charge of selling liquor to an Indian. It seems as though no amount of warning is sufficient to stop this offence. Two men were recently given heavy sentences for this misdemeanor, but the examples made do not seem to have had the desired effect.

Fred. Laells, an Indian from Moraviantown, was picked up on the streets in a drunken condition yesterday. All that could be gotten out of him in the sweat-box this morning was that a very dark colored man sold him the booze. He was sent back to the cells, where a bread and water diet may help to brighten his memory.

The horse belonging to Mr. Nelson, which was supposed to have been stolen from St. Joseph's church stables, was found wandering around one of the country roads. It is thought that the animal broke out of the stable itself.

"In order to convict fast auto drivers it is not necessary for the informant to lay the information," said Chief of Police Holmes this morning. "All that is necessary for them to do, is to give the number of the auto or the name of the driver. They should also give the name of another witness."

Man wanted to drive and take care of grey delivery team. Apply to Wm. Gray & Son.

INJUNCTION RAISED

J. G. Kerr sent a message to Chas. Hadley this afternoon to inform the contractors that the injunction had been raised to temporarily stop the extension of the C. W. & L. E. to the lake. The contractors, Messrs. Blight & Fielder, will put a staff of men at work in the morning.

THE LOCATION OF THE SUMMER SCHOOLS

(Special to The Planet.)
Toronto, June 19. — After careful deliberation, the government has decided upon the location of the Summer Schools which will be established to give instruction to the teachers of Roman Catholic Schools. It was with considerable difficulty that the department was able to arrive at conclusions, as there were only a limited number of schools to be established, and the district to be served is very large.

It has been decided to establish the schools at Ottawa, Peterboro, Toronto, Hamilton, Berlin and London. Chatham made a strong bid for one of these schools, but it was felt that the Maple City would not prove as central a point for the western district as would London.

In reference to the subject of Summer Schools, information concerning which is contained in the above despatch, Mr. J. W. Plewes, of this city, has received word that he has been appointed instructor for the school to be held in the Toronto University. The term will be from July 3 to August 3. He has been informed that the course of study will be sent to him in a few days. The position carries with it an enviable salary for the summer months, and Mr. Plewes is to be congratulated upon being worthy of an appointment to such a responsible position in such an important post.

This city should feel proud in the possession of an educationist who is held in such high respect and esteem among the leading men of the country.

ROPES FOR PARK

Chathamites have witnessed with a great deal of pleasure, the revival of baseball in the Maple City. The two games on Saturday were well attended, and this sport promises to be very popular in the city this summer. Judging from the spirit of the first two games, a good exhibition of this popular game may be expected throughout the season. One thing the management should do at once is to provide better facilities for enjoying the play, by making arrangements to keep the crowds back from the diamond. It has been suggested that ropes be secured to be stretched around the trees, to keep the crowd out. If this were done, it would add greatly to the pleasure of those spectators who wish to enjoy the game from a respectable distance.

BLUE RIBBON MEET

Canada will have a formidable representative in the first heat of the Blue Ribbon meeting of the Detroit Driving Club begins on July 22. The place of honor as the inaugural event is given to the Horseman stake of $3,000 for 2.14 trotters, and to-day there is no candidate for this held in higher regard than Quintell, 2:11 1-4. This trotter won many events on the half-mile track of Oshawa last year, and then changed ownership, passing to the stable of Havers H. James, of Hamilton, the best reinsman in Ontario. Mr. James moved his horses to Cleveland where they are well advanced in work, and he thinks that Quintell will be a prominent factor in the races in which he starts. The Chamber of Commerce $5,000 pace is the same afternoon, and the famous $10,000 M. & M. trot will be on July 23.

SWALLOWS DIAMOND IN FRIGHT

Was Moistening It In His Mouth When Moose Scared Him.
Montreal, June 19.—A man named Charles Cochrane arrived by C.P.R. at the Windsor station from Kippewa district. He appeared to be suffering acute agony, saying that he could find no relief until he arrived at his journey end.
Cochrane is a diamond expert, and went north with two others to the district north of Kippewa, diamond prospecting.
Cochrane was moistening a large stone with his lips, in order to bring out its brilliant when, he says, he looked up and saw an immense moose standing within a few feet of him. In his sudden fright he swallowed the stone and started to run for his life.
He is now hurrying to New York to be operated upon.

FOUR DROWNINGS.

Fatalities At Port Credit, Bond Lake and New Ontario.
Toronto, June 19.—James Pinkney aged 24, of 1,288 Brunswick avenue, was drowned while bathing at Port Credit. He was subject to epileptic fits.
Word has been received at the Crown Lands Department of the drowning of two prospectors on Mountain Lake, Temagami.
Philip Whitney, while canoeing on Bond Lake, was upset and drowned. He was an employe of the Metropolitan Railway.

CROWDS VISIT THE BIG SHOW

Forepaugh and Sells Street Parade Is Viewed By Thousands

Menagerie and Performances under tents were Magnificent

William Shakespeare is the gentleman who is credited with first saying that the circus is the thing. To judge by the tremendous interest it still awakes in this the twentieth century, William might have gone one better, and, without fear of contradiction, remarked that it is everything. At least on the day of its arrival it is about all the populace appear to have time to think about or talk about. It has come and it has gone again, and the small boy can once more apply himself to his books and his lessons in a much less disinterested fashion. School teachers will tell you, and they will be corroborated by parents, that it is a good thing that circuses do not come every day.

Ideal, real old-fashioned circus weather marked the triumphant coming of yesterday's event, and Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Enormous Shows United evidently left this city richer than they came. Crowds poured into the city from outside places all morning, and the main streets of the city for a time previous to and during the parade were black with surging humanity, and well nigh impassable. The big street procession of the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Show is strictly modern, and many of the old time features have been passed up. The parade, however, was much above the average, and was well up to popular expectations in every way. Tremendous crowds visited the shows out at the grounds both afternoon and evening, and nearly every seat in the big amphitheatre was filled on both occasions, and to judge by the opinions expressed afterwards everyone was greatly pleased with the performances.

The stellar attraction of the show is, of course, the somersaulting automobile, and its frail lady occupant, which are plunged down a steep incline, hardly in plain into space, do complete harm in the air, and eventually alight safely on a pile of mattresses conveniently placed on a spring platform. The young woman is strapped in the car, and hoisted high on the apparatus, which has been blazoned in lurid colors on the bill-boards. She awaits the word to start.

"Are you ready?"
"Ready."
"Whizz-z-zip!"
Ten thousand eyes are strained as the car shoots down the steep incline.
"Whirr-r-r!"
The car is in the air now, with the wheels whirling around in space.
"Bang!"
It is all over. The car with its living freight has turned a complete somersault in the air, and has finally alighted safely on the mattresses. The spectators breathe easy once more.

The circus opens with a spectacular feature known as "Fighting the Flames." This depicts a lively street scene to the fore of a big hotel. The hotel eventually catches fire, and the fire brigade rush to the rescue. The scenes which follow are thrilling and laughable by turns.
The three large rings in the big tent were enlivened by continuous performances from the opening to the finish. Space will not permit of a detailed criticism, but it is safe to say that all the routine performances were creditable and pleased the large audiences.

The menagerie is one of the most complete that has ever been shown in this city, and several very rare animals were shown.
A threatening thunder storm in the evening was the cause of a great number leaving before the show was over.

BIG BOA CONSTRICTOR DIES AT THE CIRCUS

One of the big boa constrictors, which form a portion of the side shows with the Forepaugh and Sells Bros., died under the tent yesterday. The monster, a very valuable one, died, it is said, from stomach trouble.
The circus people made a present of the pet of the big serpent to Provincial Detective Greer, who is accompanying the circus in its tour through the province.

ORDINATION SERVICE

The ordination of Mr. W. E. Matthews, B. A., the new pastor of the William St. Baptist Church, will take place Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.
Representatives from the churches in this district will be present, together with Rev. Prof. Keirstead, of McMaster University, Rev. J. J. Ross, and A. M. Walker, B. A., of London, and others. The proceedings promise to be of an interesting character, and will be public.

PRESENTATION TO MRS. GEO. B. CRUMB

A special meeting of the Ladies Aid of St. Andrew's church was held Monday afternoon at 3.30. It was reported at the meeting that the excursion on the City of Chatham was a success in every particular, and over $62 was realized, clear profit, besides providing an excellent outing for the children.

When the business of the meeting was concluded, the President, Mrs. W. A. Hadley, called upon Mrs. Trotter and Mrs. Manson Campbell to come forward and officiate at a very pleasant presentation. Mrs. Crumb, who is leaving the city, was also called upon and made the recipient of the following token of regard: Mrs. G. B. Crumb.

Assistant Secretary Ladies Aid: Dear Mrs. Crumb,—The Ladies Aid Society of St. Andrew's church, having learned that you are leaving the city to reside in Niagara Falls, cannot let you depart without expressing to you the sincere regret we feel that you are going away, and the hope that God will prosper you in your new home. Your going is a distinct loss to the Society and the church, where you have worked for the good of both, so faithfully and so long, as a member and officer, and it is our hope that you will be spared many years to continue the work in the new home you are going to, and you will be able to afterwards visit us, or return to our Society. We feel that you should carry with you some token of the affection and esteem we feel for you, and we would ask you to accept this candelabra, with our best wishes for the future happiness of yourself and family, and may God bless and keep you.

Signed on behalf of the Ladies Aid. MRS. W. A. HADLEY, President.

MRS. TROTTER, MRS. MANSON CAMPBELL.

A TOWN WITHOUT A TAX.

The Chicago Tribune's attention has been drawn to the municipal record of the historic shore town of Guilford, in Connecticut, as an example of New England thrift and economy. For political economists, it says, Guilford will henceforth be held up as a model of prudent government.

Guilford has just voted to lay no tax whatever for the coming year. It has all the money on hand that it needs, will have more from the sale of franchises before the year expires, and it has no debt. When the annual town meeting was held the other day there was passed a unanimous vote not to levy a town tax, because there was no need of it, and its collection and investment would be a bother.

MACHINE IN THE YUKON.

Ex-Judge Henderson, of British Columbia, will be the next Chief Commissioner of the Yukon. It was thought that the Government might respond to a strong demand from this district and appoint Dr. Thompson, M. P., who represents the element demanding reform in the Administration and the suppression of graft and extravagance. Dr. Thompson was elected by the best element in both parties against the Dawson ring and in the Commons has stood up for the interests of the Yukon while maintaining a non-partisan attitude in other matters. Mr. Oliver discussed with him the question of his taking the Commission and seriously considered the appointment. But he has been obliged to back down before the demands of the machine and the appointment made is in line with the old system. Judge Henderson was a machine politician before his appointment to the bench. When the Laurier Government and the Grand Trunk Pacific exploiters combined in the attempt to drive Premier MacBride, of British Columbia, from power, the two men called to lead in this attack were Commissioner McInnes from the Yukon and Judge Henderson from the bench. The Judge was nominated at a party convention while holding Court and continued to decide cases after the nomination. But the combination failed. Both the ex-Governor and ex-Judge were buried under tremendous majorities. The MacBride Government still lives and the Grand Trunk Pacific speculators failed to get their land deal. Then something had to be done for Judge Henderson and so he is to be made Governor at Dawson.

THE NEW REMEDY

Take It Now That Vacation Days Are Fast Approaching.

Thousands of men and women are anxiously looking forward to the vacation days that come in June, July and August—not so much for the pleasure or enjoyment as for the chance of getting rid of their ill health.

To thoroughly drive away troubles of the stomach most people think they have to make a business of it with dieting, exercise, and perhaps a vacation. But Mi-na stomach tablets taken with regularity, in a very few days will drive away indigestion, dizzy spells, distress after eating, headaches, sleeplessness, and the many other symptoms of bad digestion and sluggishness of the digestive organs that keep people from enjoying themselves.

Day after day, at work behind desks or in the factory with poor sunlight and air, soon results in sluggishness of the entire physical and mental apparatus. The first slight symptoms of indigestion can be easily cured, but when they are allowed to increase without any help, then the stomach complaints become hard to shake off.

Strengthen the whole digestive system with Mi-na and you will soon find that both stomach and bowels do their work as they should. C. H. Gunn & Co. sell Mi-na in 50 cent boxes and guarantee to refund the money if the remedy does not give complete satisfaction.

The man who kills time may be starving the family with the same stone.

"Loving is a painful thrill, Not to love more painful still, But ah! it is the worst of pain, To love and not be loved again." (When you feel that way, better take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea.)

LETTERS

AUTO SPEEDING.

To the Editor of The Planet: Sir.—The Mayor's memory must be getting short, when, as reported in The Planet, he said at Council meeting Monday night that no one would swear to charges against autoists. If his memory had not gone back on him he would have remembered the celebrated case, last year, when I swore to the speed of Auto No. 2097. Two years previously I went to the Police Station about 6 a. m. and made complaint to the Magistrate himself against two autoists, who had raced at a terrific speed side by side on Park St. the previous evening. The Magistrate said that he would attend to it at once; but at 11.30 a. m. they were at Hotel Garner—and nothing had been done. I heard afterwards that they were from the U. S. I did not know who they were, and cared less. I did not think they should be allowed the privilege of running over Chatham children.

Last year, when I laid the charge against Auto No. 2097, which proved to be O. L. Lewis, in an endeavor to let him down easy, I swore to a speed of 15 miles an hour; that was the slow rate of a mile in four minutes. He would not swear that he was not going over 10 miles an hour—the legal limit—but the Magistrate apparently thinking that neither of us knew what we were talking about, and consequently could not be believed, dismissed the case. Or, did memory revert to the former case, and the feeling prevail—that no Chathamite in his own city should be debared from the same pleasure as the foreigner in endangering the lives of people.

By the way, I notice that some cities in the U. S. are placing a special tax on autos, as they claim that autos destroy pavements far more rapidly than any other form of traffic. How are Chatham pavements standing it? W. K. MERRIFIELD.

THE MARATHON RACE

The first event of the McKough school picnic was held Monday evening, when the annual Marathon Race was pulled off. It was a great race, one of the best road races ever held at this annual North Chatham event. There were thirteen entries, and the course covered a distance of about three miles, starting in the country and ending at the corner of St. Clair street and Grand avenue. The contestants were Fred Burnie, Harry Grant, S. Arnold, Clarence Brien, Tom Holmes, Geo. Connibear, Roy Dagneau, Harold Wells, James Foster, Charles Harwood, Archie Hedrick, Frank McLean, and Floyd Burnie.

The winner was Fred Burnie, who won the prize last year. The time was 16 minutes. An accident befel the winner at Jackson's. He fell on the road and cut his knee. In spite of this, however, he ran the full distance of the course and finished a good winner. At one time in the race Harry Grant held the lead for some distance. He, however, did not have the staying powers of young Burnie, who in the meantime was saving himself for the final dash. Grant made a good second, and deserves great credit for the way in which he stuck to his tough proposition. Arnold, Brien and Holmes finished close together, and they were followed by another bunch, Connibear, Dagneau and Wells, who were not far behind. The rest struggled in, but they ran the whole distance and received the ice cream which was promised to everyone who finished anyway. The contestants were taken from all classes of the school, and for this reason even the losers deserve great credit, for the winner is the biggest boy, and studies in the highest room. The rest of the picnic is being held to-day.

QUARRELL RESULTED IN MAN DRAWING KNIFE

One of the most sensational street brawls that has occurred for some time was witnessed yesterday morning on Colborne St., near where the circus people unloaded their wagons, animals, etc. Two men, one of short stature and quite stout, the other tall and husky looking, were wrangling over some little affair. It is supposed that a dispute arose through a money deal and both were very indignant and excited. They continued talking for a short time, the latter saying but very little, and the other feeling assured that he was the better man. All at once the tall man drew a knife from his pocket and looked daggers at his opponent. For an instant the onlookers began to shiver and it was feared a stabbing affray would result. The threatened man was now much afraid and in a short time moved out of sight, while the other journeyed across the river and was seen no more.

Selby Woods, late of England, an employe of the Wm. Gray & Sons Company, was "touched" for a $15 English lever watch, a $4 chain, and a medal with gold centre, value $4, besides $2 in money, bills, and a chain and keys, on Thursday morning. The thief did the work between 10 a. m. and 12 noon. The pockets of the vest were found inside out, and it was a general cleanup. The young man had hung up his vest in order to be more free in working, and had only worked a day and a half for the firm. Quite recently Mr. Stephenson, a long-time employe of the same firm, lost a watch in a similar manner. It caught an example should be made of such a person. Mr. Woods highly valued the medal with the gold centre mentioned above.

WALLACEBURG

Wallaceburg, June 18.—The site for the new Hawkins mill has at last been definitely decided upon. It is a strip of land near the Pere Marquette station and between the freight sheds and the skating rink. This should be a very desirable situation, as it is convenient both for shipping and to the farmers and general public. Wm. Drader, of Chatham, has secured the contract for the erecting of this mill.

The delegates from the Wallaceburg Baptist church to attend the council for the examining and perhaps the ordaining of Mr. Matthews of the William street Baptist church, Chatham, are Rev. W. A. Ganton and Messrs. Joseph Howard and E. Zaitz. HOMESEEKERS' EXCURSIONS.

If you think of making a trip to Manitoba or the great Northwest Provinces this summer, you should make a point of securing, from the nearest C. P. R. agent, a free copy of that railroad's booklet giving information about the popular Home-seekers' Excursions. These excursions are well known money savers, and this year are more attractive than ever. Increased traffic has meant a larger number, nine of them this season, of which, at the time of writing, seven have still to run, leaving Toronto July 2, 16, 30, August 13, 27, September 10 and 24. Special trains are used, carrying colonist and tourist sleepers, berths in the latter at small additional charge. Tickets are issued from all Ontario stations at remarkably low rates, ranging from $32.00 round-trip to Winnipeg to $42.50 round-trip to Edmonton, and embracing all important points in the Northwest. They are good to return within sixty days, stop-overs permitted. Ask nearest C. P. R. agent for particulars, or apply direct to C. B. Foster, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

PRESENTED AT COURT

Experience of an American at an English Royal Levee.

A RAPID TRANSIT FUNCTION.

He was in and through and out before he really realized what had happened—The Way His Difficulty About a Costume Was Overcome.

A six foot American who had secured a "command" to one of the English royal levees recently found himself in a pretty predicament.

On his notification paper was the hint that levee dress was indispensable. In the guileless innocence of his democratic soul the American took this to mean that frock coat and shiny shoes would be called for.

He was in the act of looking over his best outfit of that nature when a more experienced friend called and caught him in the act. The friend made haste to inform the misguided Yankee that levee dress involved silk stockings, ruffled sleeves, black sword and other items.

Consternation ensued. It consoled to ensue when owing to his height and girth no borrowable suit was discovered and no tailor could be found who would make one before the next afternoon. At last a stage levee dress was rented from His Majesty's theater, where it had done duty in "The Last of the Dandies."

After the levee was over the American confessed that he hardly knew what had happened. When he reached the palace he was first surrounded by the yeomen of the guard, who started him upstairs with great dispatch. In the course of his progress upstairs the yeomen disappeared, and he found himself in a lane of tin plated life guardsmen.

Again the scene changed, says Town and Country, and there was a lane of royal footmen and next a large room filled to overflowing with admirals, generals, diplomats, peers, chamberlains, soldiers and sailors of all degrees of commissioned rank and a great host of men attired like himself in levee dress. One by one they were singled out and ushered into the royal presence in the adjoining room, where the king surrounded by his suite.

The work of presentation was so rapid that the American found himself out and in another room before he knew what had happened. His overcoat was on his back in the same rapid, mysterious fashion, and the next thing he knew he was outside in the courtyard. But he was actually "presented" and is now forever Hof fahig, or eligible for presentation at any court in the world, provided he behaves himself.

All this was preliminary to the presentation of the man's wife and daughter at the drawing room. Men are presented at the king's levees, and the women undergo the same ordeal at the courts or drawing rooms, which are by far the more imposing functions. It is probably no exaggeration to say that every time a drawing room is held $100,000 is spent by the people who go to court.

None but a very old habitue of the court—and then she is never below the rank of a countess—would dream of appearing at court in a costume that she had worn there before. The item of flowers alone is one of vast importance. If it were not for the drawing rooms the large florists could not exist.

Every woman who is presented goes armed with a bouquet, whose value is at least a pound, and some of them are worth ten times that sum. Then there are the bookmakers and the hostlers and the milliners to consider, to say nothing of the people who lend carriages.

Suppose there are at a low estimate 500 people on the presentation list. Of these every mother's daughter has herself photographed in her court costume, and London court photographers are notorious for their stiff prices.

St. James' park on the night of a drawing room is filled with Londoners who wander up and down the double line of carriages stalled in the mail, peering into the windows and criticizing the costumes of the matrons and their debutante daughters. It is a legitimate privilege of the populace to consider those waiting for presentation as objects of interest, and there the latter have to sit, some of them over an hour, subjected to the gaze of London's citizens. You see half a dozen shopgirls flattening their noses against the window of a motor brougham and carrying on a rapid fire conversation about the dress of milady and her daughter inside.

"Ain't she beautiful, Mary Ann?" or "Wot do you think of this un? Oi don't like 'er gown at all."

All this has to be borne with Spartan fortitude so long as there is no rowdiness; but, strange to say, there never is.

A good many people starve themselves for months so that they and their offspring may have the money to enable them to go to court. There are many half pay colonels who live in the country whose one object is to come up for a drawing room.

Generally they have influential and wealthy friends who make it easy for them in the matter of lodging in town and lend them their horses, carriages and footmen; otherwise it would be impossible for them to go. There seems to be a tradition that if a man's daughter has not been presented at court her way to a successful marriage will not be so smooth. That of course is a fallacy, but the tradition never dies, and so people stint themselves and endure endless sacrifices that they may put the hall mark on themselves and their offspring.

MADE PROGRESS IN CAMP.

Raw Recruits Take On Appearance of Seasoned Veteran.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, June 17.—All along the line there has been a most phenomenal improvement in a week in the appearance of the troops in camp.

The raw infantry who shambled into camp Tuesday in disorder are now executing maneuvers with a decided military swing and precision.

The progress made in the cavalry brigade is most remarkable. It is about nip and tuck between the men and horses as to which have taken to the manual most readily.

As to the general behavior of the men, Sergt.-Maj. Widgery, the camp sergeant-major and chief of police can testify. There has been only one desertion and two arrests for misdemeanor. Few men have been seen under the influence of liquor.

The army medical corps up till Friday had not been called upon to do much work. Minor cases of sickness have been practically all in the cavalry.

Pte. William Irwin, a cook, of the 34th Regiment, died in the camp hospital yesterday afternoon, of acute kidney trouble. This is the first fatality which has occurred on the camp-ground in five years.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the deflection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, dependent, frequent headaches, pain or distress, "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, "water on the eye," "rising" in throat after eating, and kidney symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic. It is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

A Stable Distance. Two travelers were journeying along a dusty road on a hot day toward Squashville, where they expected to satisfy their thirst and their hunger and to put up for the night. A native approached, driving a weary team.

"How far is it to Squashville?" they asked.

"About two miles," he replied, squinting back over the road as though measuring the distance.

Encouraged by the progress they had made, they jogged along hopefully until it seemed as though they must have gone six or eight miles when they met another stranger.

"How far is it to Squashville?"

"About two miles," he replied carefully.

"Sure?"

"Course I am. I live there."

Another long and weary walk, seemingly of several miles, followed, when they met a third man.

"How far is it to Squashville?"

"Two miles," replied the stranger.

"Well, thank goodness," said one, "we are not losing anything."

SCALY ERUPTIONS COVERED HIS BODY

Itched Constantly—Scratched Until Blood Flowed—Suffered 10 Years—Doctors and Medicines Were Fruitless—Tries Cuticura and Is Completely Cured

BY THREE BOXES OF CUTICURA OINTMENT

"When I was about nine years old small sores appeared on each of my lower limbs. I scratched them with a brass pin and shortly afterwards both of those limbs became so sore that I could scarcely walk. When I had been suffering for about a month the sores began to heal, but small scaly eruptions appeared where the sores had been. From that time onward I was troubled by such eruptions until I became accustomed to it. I would scratch the sores until the blood began to flow. This would stop the itching for a few days; but scaly places would appear again and the itching would accompany them. After I suffered about ten years I made a renewed effort to effect a cure. The eruptions by this time had appeared on every part of my body except my face and hands. The best doctor in my native county advised me to use arsenic in small doses and a salve. I then used to bathe the sores in a mixture which gave almost intolerable pain. In addition I used other remedies, such as iodine, sulphur, zinc salve, and a salve. Ointment, and in fact I was continually giving some remedy a fair trial, never using less than one or two boxes or bottles. All this was fruitless. Finally my hair began to fall out and I was rapidly becoming bald. I used Cuticura, but it did me no good. A few months after having used almost everything else, I thought I would try Cuticura Ointment, having previously used Cuticura Soap and being pleased with it. After using three boxes I was completely cured, and my hair was restored, after fourteen years of suffering and an expenditure of at least $50 to $60 in vainly endeavoring to find a cure. I shall be glad to write to any one who may be interested in my cure. B. Hiram Mattingly, Vermillion, S. Dak., Aug. 18, 1906.

HODGINS—BOLES.

A pretty but quiet wedding was celebrated at Christ Church at 6.30 last evening, when Miss Annie Boles, only daughter of Captain and Mrs. Gordon Boles, of Wellington street west, was united in marriage to Earle Chisholm Hodgins, of Ailsa Craig. The invited guests consisted of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was given away by her father, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Rural Dean Robert McCosh. Dr. Fred. Hall, of Cleveland, Ohio, assisted the groom, and the bridesmaid was Miss Florence Hodgins, Miss Hope Rodgers acted as flower girl. The bride was attired in cream silk, and she wore a Limerick lace veil, which was worn on similar occasions by her mother and grandmother. She carried a bouquet of roses.

The bridesmaid wore white Baptiste and carried pink roses. Mr. Galloway rendered the wedding march, and the choir of the church were present during the ceremony.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pendant, to the bridesmaid a pearl crescent, to the flower girl a pearl brooch, to the groomsmen a pearl pin, and to the ushers, Messrs. Gordon McCosh and Kenneth Lawson, pearl pins.

After the wedding, a tasty wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride, after which the couple left on a wedding tour to the west. On their return they will take up their residence at Belleville, where the groom is accountant in the Standard Bank.

LIGHTS FOR LAUNCHES

Now that the summer season has opened, and boating will no doubt be a popular pastime, it might be mentioned for the benefit of the owners of launches that speeding on the river is a dangerous habit, and will no doubt end in disaster to some carelessness, unless a little more care is exercised. It is complained by many that most of the launches on the river do not carry lights even on very dark nights. This is a big mistake. The river does not belong to the launch men, and they should not try to monopolize the pleasure of boating. This is a matter which should be considered by the owners of launches.

POPULAR MUSICIANS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Laurie entertained the members of the Holy Trinity Choir last evening at their fine home on Victoria avenue. The evening was a most enjoyable one to those present, and the time was very pleasantly spent in music, etc. The real object of the evening was to present the two retiring members of the choir, Mrs. Cooper and Miss Rose Morrison, with tokens of appreciation from the members of the choir themselves. Mr. Beaton read a very appropriate address to Miss Morrison, and followed it up with the presentation of a dozen handsome silver spoons. Mr. Edwin Bell read a similar address to Mrs. Cooper and presented her with an expensive pair of opera glasses. Both ladies made brief and feeling replies. Mr. and Mrs. Laurie are to be complimented upon the success of the evening. The enjoyment was thorough, and the host and hostess proved themselves ideal entertainers.

SUPPORTS HIS STATEMENTS.

To the Editor of The Planet:

Dear Sir,—My attention has been called to your editorial in Monday's daily, relative to a remark I made Sabbath morning, when giving a report of the proceedings of the recent General Assembly.

Permit me to give three examples of "the unfortunate inaccuracies of the press," to substantiate my statement:

1. In referring to the loss of Knox, Collins, and such misleading statements were made in the Gazette, the Herald and the Star, that Principal McLaren had to take exception to them on the floor of the Assembly.

2. Speaking of the debate on Church Union the Globe says, "The amendments of Dr. Barclay and Dr. Seringer met with comparatively little support, and the motion was carried by a triumphant majority."

3. A vote of 64 to 124 "comparatively little support" is a gain of eleven a "sweeping majority," with 300 commissioners present!

The fact is that as a result of such statements as these, made this year and last, many who depend on the press reports do not know at what stage we are in these negotiations.

And several commissioners told how such reports have been used to the loss of our denomination.

3. The morning following the discussion on moral reform the Mail and Empire came out in large type with this heading, "Graft, not intemperance, is the curse of Canada. Go to Ottawa and you will find it. Canada is shamed by some men in public life who do not elevate moral standards."

What the layman who is here quoted (I did say was, "Graft, not intemperance, is the besetting sin of Canada to-day. We are not an honest people. Go to Ottawa and find out. Go to the election courts and find out. Look at the report of the insurance commission."

Is the Mail and Empire "honest" in this report? You say in your editorial "there is more than one way of viewing an action." Is this one of them? Again you say, "the press desires to present to the public those things which the public desires to see and hear." Is the above a specimen of the kind of reporting they desire? Such reports serve the party more than they do the cause of truth.

In your closing paragraph you say "surely the clergy have nothing to fear from a mere lay version of their actions." Until I read this I thought the writer might have heard my address on the morning in question, when I said there were about as many elders as ministers in attendance at the Assembly. But of course he did not. Neither could he have noticed the leading part taken by the laymen in all the discussions. Neither can he be a Presbyterian or he would know that in all our church courts the laity has equal representation with the clergy. It is this that makes our church essentially a church of the people and one of the most democratic of institutions.

Trusting that you may find space for this letter in your paper.

Sincerely yours,
A. H. MacGILLIVRAY,
Pastor First Presbyterian church,
Chatham.

On account of the above and because of their uniformity satisfactory stones can be duplicated exactly. They can be supplied in either fine, medium or coarse grit. A "Hecla" Furnace will always keep your home warm and comfortable, and provide in addition a system of ventilation that will always keep the air fresh and pure and free from gas, smoke or dust.

Hecla Fused Joints guarantee this purity of atmosphere, because they are made by fusing the iron and steel of the Hecla together at a white heat in such a way as to make a joint that is absolutely tight for all time. In all other furnaces, this joint is made with bolts and cement, and the difference in the ratio of expansion between iron and steel soon strains the bolts and loosens the cement, leaving openings for the escape of gas and dust. Fused Joints are everlasting.

Sectional Fire Pots.

I make Hecla Fire Pots in sections to prevent cracking in the centre where most fire pots give way. I provide for expansion and contraction in such a way that there is no strain on Hecla Fire Pots. The flanges, cast on Hecla Fire Pots, add 50% to the heating surface.

Triangular Grate Bars

keep the fire clean with less trouble than any other grate bars made; one turn of the crank clears out the ashes, removes clinkers and leaves a bright, clean fire.

If you are building a House or installing a heating system, you should know why the Hecla is the most sanitary, the most efficient and most economical furnace made. See our nearest agent or write the Clare Furnace Builder for the latest catalogue and a free estimate.

CZAR TOOK INITIATIVE

Dismissal of Douma Was Resolved Upon a Fortnight Ago.

Stolypin Opposed the Proposal—Reactionaries Hold High Festival—Held All Night Fete at Which Champagne Was Served to All Comers—General Strike Not Likely—News Received Quietly.

St. Petersburg, June 18.—From a well-informed source the Associated Press learns that the decision to dissolve the Douma and abolish the former election law was due to the initiative of the Emperor, whose original intentions went far beyond the steps actually taken. His Majesty wished to dismiss Parliament a fortnight ago and prolong the interval between the convocation of a new assembly, thinking that this would permit the agitation throughout the country to subside.

He was encouraged in this attitude by court circles, but finally yielded to the argument of Premier Stolypin, who strongly advocated the convocation of the Douma in the autumn. The Premier also succeeded in having stricken from the electoral law provisions increasing the educational and property qualifications for suffrage and raising the age limit of voters from 25 to 30 years, working upon His Majesty, by what is disgustingly described by one of his opponents as "the bugaboo of reaction."

It is learned that the manifesto was drafted at Tsarskoe-Selo over a fortnight ago, only a few minor changes being introduced Saturday night. Copies of the manifesto reached the papers, with the date Tsarskoe-Selo uncorrected. It is stated that the Emperor was one of the most vigorous enemies of the Douma.

Reactionists' Jubilant. Reactionary circles here are jubilant over the dispersion of the Douma, the Conservative deputies holding an all-night fete at the Conservative Club in celebration of the Emperor's decree. Champagne was served to all comers. The Emperor's decision was hilariously cheered, and ultra-loyal speeches were delivered. Ex-Minister Yermoloff, hitherto considered a moderate Liberal, in an oration, glorified the change in the Douma as rescuing Russia from the hands of aliens and Jews and restoring the power to the classes which heretofore ruled the empire.

Telegrams from practically every city in the empire announce that the news of the dissolution of Parliament was received quietly and with almost an entire absence of demonstrations. Even at Odessa and Kiev no disturbances occurred. The prefect of police of Kiev issued orders that no demonstrations on the part of the reactionists or revolutionists be allowed, and that no open discussion of the dissolution of Parliament be permitted.

The order of Gen. Drahofski, prefect of police of St. Petersburg, prohibiting hostile criticism of the Government, was copied almost universally throughout Russia by the Governor-generals and completely muzzle the Liberal press.

The few newspapers appearing here yesterday make extremely guarded comments on the situation, the radical Russ contenting itself with expressing the hope that two election campaigns in one year will widen the political horizon of the people and make them firm adherents of the ideal parliamentarism.

The Novoe Vremya, which has aligned itself with the reactionists, attacks the new election law as a half-way measure, affording the possibility that the revolutionary elements will again be able to enter Parliament.

A close study of the new election law, which is a bulky document of eighty pages, in complicated phraseology, has somewhat dispelled the feeling of gloom in Liberal circles. The idea is gaining ground that the Government has failed in its intentions, and that there is a possibility there will be an oppositional majority in the third Parliament, as in the case of its predecessors. Even under the new law it is thought that the Constitutional Democrats will retain control of the cities, though perhaps they will be swamped by the Social Democratic proletariat in the elections of the second and poorer categories of urban voters.

The Constitutional Democrats also hope to return a considerable number of the sixty land-owning representatives whom the Government believed would be exclusively Conservative.

Too Much or Too Little. According to the opinion of a foreign diplomat, who is in close touch with the court, the Government has done either too much or too little. It has violated the fundamental laws, or constitution, and laid itself open to the charge of accomplishing a coup d'etat without altering election law sufficiently to produce the desired results.

The feeling in court circles against Premier Stolypin, who has undertaken full responsibility before His Majesty for a speedy convocation of Parliament on the present basis of suffrage, is said to be most bitter, and he is alleged to be the object of a strong reactionary intrigue.

The grant of seven Parliamentary representatives to the Armenians and Tartars was decided upon at the last moment. The original plan was to disfranchise the Caucasus entirely, but this was abandoned owing to the representations of Count Von Vorontzoff-Dashkoff, viceroy of the Caucasus, who is now here fighting to save his political head.

The holy synod has ordered the imperial manifesto to be read in all the churches next Sunday. The committee of the lower House of Parliament, consisting of 22 members, appointed to investigate the charges against the Social Democratic deputies, decided to issue its report posthumously. It came to the conclusion that the evidence was too weak to justify the suspension of any of the accused deputies. Even Moderates

PRICE OF A LIFE.

Willing Murderers Plenty in the Slums of London.

I am told that a ten pound note will buy a man's life in London—that any unsuspecting person can fall into the Thames on a dark night or break his neck going round a slippery dark corner or fall under a van in a little bit of crisp paper changes hands, says a London writer.

I know that a very distinguished playwright, wishing to work out the plot of a melodrama, went into a high class den of thieves, made friends with some of the leaders and unfolded to them as something he wished to put into execution the plan he had devised for his villain's action.

He told his listeners that there was a very important financier he wanted out of the way for forty-eight hours while he played the very dickens on the Stock Exchange with the stocks the financier controlled. He suggested to his listeners that an attractive lady and a yacht would be the simplest means of insuring this object.

His hearers concurred. They knew the very yacht for give purpose of skipper and a crew could easily be produced, and concerning the lady there would be no difficulty whatever. "Then, after the forty-eight hours, we will of course bring him back," said the dramatist brightly, thinking of his fourth act.

A cloud came over the faces of his audience: "Well, gov'ner, of course, if you wish it, but it would save such a lot of questions being asked if he just went quietly overboard," the spokesman suggested.

LORD METHUEN AND BOTHA.

When Premier Left London Former Enemy Saw Him Off.

Lord Methuen was a conspicuous figure among those who assembled at Waterloo Station to give a send-off to General Botha. His presence, besides emphasizing in an agreeable fashion "the burying of the hatchet," served as a reminder of one of the final incidents of the Transvaal War. If ever a British general experienced to use Sir Redvers Buller's phrase "rank bad luck" it was surely Lord Methuen, who, after playing so brilliant a part in these protracted operations, was fated almost on the eve of the Vereeniging Peace Treaty to be wounded and captured by the Boers. This untoward occurrence took place while he was moving with a small force from Vryburg to Litchenburg. A panic seems to have seized some of the raw and almost untrained mounted troops, and though the infantry and artillery made a splendid stand, Delany won the day. Lord Methuen, who afterwards paid a warm tribute to the kindness and courtesy of his captors, was, when sufficiently recovered, sent by the Boers into the British lines at Klerksdorp. Though it is more than five years since he received his wound, he still walks with a slight halt, which is hardly perceptible to a stranger, and which detracts not at all from his strikingly military mien.

A Marine Monster of 1800.

"When I saw our latest leviathan warship, the Indomitable, launched at Glasgow the other day," writes a correspondent, "I could not help wondering what our forefathers of a century ago would have thought of her. In 1800 a leading naval authority wrote: 'The size of our ships seems now to have reached its ultimatum. The French indeed have lately built a ship of most extraordinary size, 172 feet keel, 55 feet 9 inches by the beam, tonnage about 2,850 tons. But she is pronounced to be entirely unfit for service.' And yet this marine monster of 1800, whose size made her so unwieldy that she had never been out of harbor, was but a third as long as our latest cruiser, little more than two-thirds the width and a sixth of the tonnage. In fact, she was relatively so small that she might easily, one would think, have been carried on the Indomitable's deck. Although a fifty acre forest had provided her timbers and it had taken 200 shipwrights a year to build her, her total cost was less than one-tenth that of her successor of to-day."—Westminster Gazette.

WILL DEPORT CHINESE

Transvaal Government to Act When Their Contracts Expire.

Premier Botha Makes Announcement—Sixteen Thousand "Chinks" to Go This Year—May Be Disastrous to Business—Alleged Bargain For Loan of $25,000,000—Kaffirs Will Not Work in Mines.

Pretoria, Transvaal, June 17.—Premier Botha has announced in Parliament that the Government intended to send home all the Chinese miners when their contracts expired.

Sixteen thousand will go this year. In their places the Government proposes to secure native workers.

London, June 17.—The mining magnates here believe that the withdrawal of Chinese labor from the Transvaal will prove disastrous to business.

They say it is impossible to find enough Kaffirs willing to work to replace the coolies.

Under the title, "A Gigantic Scandal," The National Review this month contains an amazing explanation of the evident friendship between Gen. Botha and the members of the Home Government.

The National Review declares that a bargain was made between Gen. Botha and the Government, by which he agreed to repatriate the Chinese coolies now in South Africa in return for a promise that the Government would guarantee a Transvaal loan of $25,000,000.

"The Most Delicious Pastry I Ever Tasted"

THAT'S the verdict when "Kent Mills' Gold Medal Flour is used. It's the most perfect pastry flour in existence—the kind you ought to have in your pantry.

"Kent Mills' Gold Medal Flour is a combination of best Manitoba Wheat with the finest Ontario Red Winter Wheat.

By our method of blending we use the milder, more delicately flavored Red Winter Wheat Flour to dilute the strength of the stronger, more nutritious Manitoba.

All Manitoba Flour is too strong for pastry. When used alone it makes pies and cakes that are inclined to be heavy, soggy, stomach-worriers.

But pastry made from "Kent Mills' Gold Medal Flour is beyond compare.

It's light and flaky, irresistibly tempting. My I how tasty—and so easily digested.

ARBITRATORS MAKE AWARD.
Said That Longshoremen Will Not Get
Increase in Wages.

Ottawa, June 18.—The award has been made by the board of arbitration in connection with the Montreal
longshoremen's strike and has been revised by the labor department. This is the committee of which Archbishop Paul Bruchesi is chairman.

Owing to the desire, however, of the department to forward the award
first to the parties concerned, the department stated that the terms would be made public to-day.

It is understood, however, that the wages of the longshoremen will not be increased. The evidence submitted tend to show that the men were paid as well, if not better, than those in other ports.

The decision of the board of arbitration was unanimous.

were always stopping up and I had

tacks came on I thought I couldn't

SHE WAS WILD WITH PAIN.
From Willow Creek, Ont., Miss E.

just wild with pain. I applied batting soaked with Nerviline to my back and rubbed on Nerviline for the lambo. That rubbing relieved and in a few hours I was well. No other liniment could do this." It's the penetrating power of Nerviline that

REJECTED ROYAL BUST
ALL LONDON LAUGHS AT ACADEMY HANGING COMMITTEE.

Portrait of Queen Victoria of Spain Turned Down—Refused Place at Royal Academy Exhibition—Was Wedding Present From Women of England—King Edward Intervenes
to Secure Its Admission.

All London is amused at the regular annual "mistake" of the Royal academy.

Mr. Conrad Dressler is the sculptor of the bust of Queen Victoria of Spain
which was rejected and then demanded by the Royal academy hanging committee.

The bust, at the express wish of the King, is to be accorded a prominent place in this year's exhibition. It is clear that the bust was not rejected on account of any supposed imperfection, but owing to the ignorance of the committee as to the circumstances under which it was executed, combined with enormous pressure of their work through which every year splendid works of art are sent back while inferior ones are accepted.

Mr. Conrad Dressler cited another reason. "It is largely," he said, "because all the members of the hanging committee are painters and not sculptors, and are therefore unable properly to appreciate sculpture."

The bust is a wedding present to the Queen of Spain from the women of England. A clay model of it was exhibited with the other wedding presents in London last summer.

All the critics have pronounced it a fine work, deserving to rank with Mr. Dressler's many celebrated sculptures.

The Marchioness of Granby, who is herself an able sculptor, first thought of the idea of giving something to the young queen from "The Ladies of England." The Duchess of Norfolk, the Duchess of Beaufort, and the Duchess of Sutherland, and the Duchess of Marlborough also were actively concerned in the arrangements.

When the bust was sent back by the Royal academy the directors of the New gallery secured it. But in the meantime the Royal academy had received a letter from the King in which His Majesty expressed the wish that the bust should be exhibited in this year's academy.

The King, as usual, has accurately gauged popular feeling, for every one desires to see this work which is afterwards to be placed in the Camera
gallery in the palace at Madrid.

LIVE TO GET DRUNK.
Queer Tribe of Savages Recently Discovered in Africa.

Some explorers, who have just returned from Africa, report the discovery of a curious tribe, the chief object of whose existence seems to be to get gloriously drunk.

They have mastered the art without any assistance from the white man.
From millet they brew great quantities of a peculiarly potent beer. Not being subject to any tax, it is so cheap that the poorest native can afford to get drunk on it. It is fully equal to whiskey in promoting that bellicose condition, which in America is known as "spilling for a fight."

In the report made to the Government, Lieut. George relates how, with an escort, he arrived at one of the native villages during a particularly happy period of general inebriety. He had much trouble in securing his fire for himself and his men, because it was considered contrary to native
etiquette to interrupt a spree in order to attend to anything in the nature of business.

Later in the day the chief called upon the lieutenant, and proposed, by way of appropriately winding up the festivities and amusing his guests,
that his men should fight the soldiers.
The lieutenant explained to him they did not regard fighting as fun. That seemed to astonish the chief. However, he hospitably deferred to his guests' feelings in the matter. But a fight he was bound to have, and promptly made arrangements for one among his own people. The liveliest kind of a shindy followed. In less than a quarter of an hour a score of the dusky combatants were killed. The chief himself was among the first to fall.

King's Old Racehorse.
General Oliphant has recently arrived from Buenos Ayres, where he had been on a curious mission, none other than to visit the King's old horse, Diamond Jubilee. His Majesty has not forgotten the good animal that brought him fame on the turf
when Prince of Wales.

Signor Ignacio Correas, the present owner, was proud to show the horse in his Argentine home. The animal is now said to have "lost his violent temper and to have become a pattern
of high-bred composure."

Halifax, N.S., June 18.—After his vessel had been seized by the Canadian custom officials at the Magdalenes for an infraction of the fishing laws, Captain Henry Arsenault, of the American fishing schooner Henry M.
Stanley, hoisted sail and put to sea,
while a prize crew were preparing to

the Stanley on Saturday, June 8,
for buying bait without a license.

RARE EXPONENTS OF THE CABINET MAKERS' ART.

The cases of the New Scale Williams Pianos are indeed rare exponents of the cabinet makers' art. Nothing more surpasses their chaste simplicity, or, if you are a lover of the ornate, the gorgeousness of their finish.

The New Scale Williams Piano itself, however, is the real value of the instrument, and it fully carries out the promise of its beautiful exterior. 191

only affected Toronto and Ottawa.

Eighteen Hurt in Wreck.
Trinidad, Col., June 18.—(C.A.P.)—

The wreck was caused either

A VALUABLE AGENT
The glycerine employed in Dr.
Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent,
nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

ing away of flesh, loss of appetite,
with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in primarily digesting and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages.
It will cure very severe, obstinate,
chronic coughs, bronchitis and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

BECOMES NAVAL CADET
PRINCE EDWARD OF WALES
JOINS TRAINING COLLEGE.

England's Future King Makes His First Official Acquaintance With British Navy—Will Serve Four Years and Then Join the Army—
Spartan Life At Osborne—"Eddy"
To Go Through Full Course.

Prince Edward of Wales has commenced his preparation for the serious business of life, having just been admitted a cadet into the Royal Naval College of Osborne. Accompanied by his father, the young Prince left London for the Isle of Wight, His Royal Highness was in mild, while young Prince Edward looked very smart in his cadet's uniform. Their Royal

THE COLLEGE TRAINING SHIP.

Highnesses, on arriving at Portsmouth, went on board the Albert,
where, from the bridge, the young Prince closely examined the Dread-nought along with his father. On landing at Cowes the Prince and his son drove to the residence of the Duke and Duchess of Argyll, where H.R.H. is spending a few days while his son shakes down as one of 400 cadets at the college. Although for four years Prince Edward's name will figure as a future officer of the fleet, he will,
in 1911, move from the sea service
into the Army, in accordance with the precedent set in the case of the late Duke of Clarence. The cadets at Osborne are given the general education essential to an officer, in which history and mathematics have foremost places. Prince Edward will go through the composite course, spending a good deal of time in the drawing office, the foundry, the smithy,
and the carpentering shop, besides learning by instruction ashore and afloat, all the rudiments of machinery. By the time he leaves the Navy
he will be able to repair with his own hands an automobile or a motorboat, and use saw, chisel, and hammer in a practical manner. The life
at Osborne is somewhat Spartan,
but the cadets are very young when they enter. The daily routine of the college begins at an early hour.
The food is simple and good. Study and workshop training are carefully adjusted, so as to have plenty of time
for games, and the cadets go afloat for short cruises. Prince Edward will be treated very much as are the other cadets, sleeping in one of the detached dormitories, with his sea-chest marked merely with "E. of W." at the foot of his bed, taking his meals with his companions like an ordinary boy,
and sharing in all their sports.

CALL OF NEW ZEALAND.
Attractions That Allure the Immigrant
to That Far-Off Land.

Quite apart from the prospects held out to the emigrant so far as monetary advantages are concerned, the character of New Zealand's Government, its broad-minded and liberal social enacments, says a writer in T. P.'s Weekly, has won the admiration and envy
of thousands of thinking young Englishmen in the old country. There is some chance for a fellow with brains and enthusiasm to make a mark in a rising country with something under 3,000,000 inhabitants; where adult suffrage, male and female, is the rule;
where locally-elected licensing benches deal with the liquor traffic; where members of the House of Representatives are paid for their services, and where old age pensions have become an established fact. These are some of the attractive features of New Zealand life to the up-to-date young man who desires to emigrate. The knowledge that the state recognizes its duty to the citizen from his early days to hoary old age, offers him advice as to the choice of a career, sends consulting scientists to deal with problems
in his crops, supplies a state veterinary surgeon to keep his flocks in good health, and owns and controls the railways by which he travels and over which he sends his produce to market or to ports of embarkation—all this helps him to come to a decision, and exercises a magnetic influence towards the New Zealand islands.

Bishops Use Autos.
The Bishop of London is the latest member of the episcopate to succumb to the motor-car. Dr. Winnington Ingram used to say that his horses were the hardest-worked in London, but as he now states that, with the aid of an automobile, he hopes to visit his parishes more frequently, the inference is that he will gain rather than lose in influence by shutting down his stable—if, in fact, that step is actually contemplated. Although one bishop after another has taken to the motor-car, there is an impression that the archbishops have yet to be converted to it. Nevertheless, while in the Roman Catholic Church
it is still an open question whether it is in accordance with propriety that high dignitaries should employ the automobile, the problem must be regarded as having been solved long since so far as the Anglican hierarchy
is concerned.

Public Taste Improving

Much greater attention is now a-days being paid to the interior decoration of homes. Striking and original effects are being sought for,
and harmony of decoration is considered essential. Perhaps this will account for the increasing popularity of metal in place of wood, plaster and wall paper for the interior of homes.
Classified Metal Walls and Ceilings have many advantages over ordinary building materials. They are fire-proof, vermin-proof, sanitary and washable.
They are rich in appearance, and lend themselves to many handsome color schemes. There are designs suitable for the most expensive, as well as the more unpretentious, homes.

Where Metal Walls and Ceilings are used the insurance rates are about one-third less than the usual charges.

It is not necessary to build a new house in order to enjoy the advantages of metal instead of plaster. Both walls and ceilings may be put on over the present woodwork at very little expense.

The Metal Shingle and Siding Co., Limited, of Preston, Ont., have issued a handsome catalogue, showing many beautiful designs for homes. Those intending to build or rebuild, should send for a free copy. 58

TREATIES GUARANTEE PEACE.
French Agreement With Spain Is Purely Pacific.

Paris, June 18.—Speaking on Sunday of the new French-Spanish and British-Spanish treaties, the signature of which virtually creates a new triple alliance, M. Piebon, Minister of Foreign Affairs, said:

"Such arrangements are the best guarantee of peace that can be conceived. Our agreement with Spain is surely pacific. It accords with the interests as well as the sympathies of both nations. The negotiations for this safeguarding of the common interests of the two countries have been going on for several months, and the instrument now signed has been communicated to the other powers, with explanations as to its scope. Its intention is purely pacific. It is intended to assure the status quo of that region, which could not be altered without injury to the two contracting signatories, and the security of the communications of the respective outlying territories, which is especially important in the case of our possessions in Africa, and on both the Atlantic and Mediterranean coasts."

Better Than Spanking Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs.
M. Summers, Box W, 4, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother
her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her to-day, if your child troubles you in this way. Don't blame the child. The chances are it can't help it. The treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

THIRTY WERE KILLED.
Dismissed Portuguese Workmen Took
a Terrible Vengeance.

London, June 18.—A despatch to The Standard from Lisbon says that an explosion of dynamite at Covilhao,
a manufacturing town, killed thirty persons. It is believed that the explosion was caused by dismissed
workmen, who sought vengeance.

Fierce Storm in Neepawa.
Winnipeg, Man., June 18.—Neepawa

storm ever seen there. It lasted only half an hour, but three inches of rain fell, and the hail cut off growing crops. Many buildings were damaged.

First Time in 172 Years.
Sts. Genevieve, Mo., June 18.—The saloons closed their doors on Sunday, and for the first time in 172
years the town was "dry." The ac-

MILLER-GILBERT
A very happy event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert, Rodney, when their eldest daughter, Miss Rosie, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles W. Miller, of South Dakota. Under an arch of evergreens, lilacs and roses the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Wicks, of Rodney.
The bride was charmingly dressed in Persian lawn, trimmed with lace and insertion. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Minnie Gilbert, who wore white, trimmed with lace and insertion. The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. John Miller, of Rodney.

The wedding march was played by Miss Kate Leitch, of Rodney. The presents were numerous and costly. Immediately after the ceremony the assembled guests sat down to a sumptuous repast. The bride's travelling suit was of blue lady-cloth, with hat to match. Their many friends and acquaintances join in wishing them much happiness and prosperity in their new home in South Dakota.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Wallaceburg, June 18.—Last evening, Frank Bushy, a Frenchman, well known here, got Antioxiated, and while in this condition he purchased some Paris green, and, knowing that it was poison, took some to see how it would act. He did not take enough last night to affect him much, but this morning took another dose, this time large enough to send him into convulsions. Dr. W. W. Hay was hastily called and worked over him for some time. There is a slim chance for Bushy's recovery.
