NOTE AND COMMENT

The Omaha Bee presents the following problem in mathematics: "It costs $1.20 to $2.80 to produce a ton of bituminous coal, and $1.23 to produce a bushel of wheat. The coal sells at the mines for about $5.50 a ton. The wheat sells at the farms for about 85 cents a bushel."

In the event of a reduction in the United States income tax, there is almost certain to be a similar reduction in Canada, as when and since the Canadian income tax was imposed it has been a fixed principle that it must never greatly exceed that in effect in the United States.

Despite the great expenditure of nervous energy in modern life man, with the assistance of widened medical knowledge, is living longer than his ancestors did. The average length of life in the United States is now 56 years; in 1910 it was 52 years, and in 1870 it was 41 years.

Carlton Place Canadian:—The assessor of the city of Ottawa has increased the assessment of the Chateau Laurier, the G.T.R. hotel, from $300,000 to $1,516,211. He has evidently dined at the Chateau and felt the taxes should correspond with the price of meals.

School children all over England are playing the races, deserting their books for bookies. Testimony given by a woman school teacher at the Government's inquiry into betting revealed that out of a class of forty-two boys, averaging eleven years old, nineteen admitted they backed horses.

Montreal Witness: A primary rule in taxation is to make the collection as little annoying to the taxpayer as possible. The recent regulation forbidding the use of postage stamps in stamping cheques is an offensive departure from this rule. The reason given is the convenience of book-keeping in keeping the accounts of two departments of government separate. Against this is the inconvenience of thousands. To business houses in the constant issue of cheques this inconvenience is at a minimum, though not nil. Take the head of the house making out a subscription cheque, and having perhaps to go down stairs to get that little stamp, and complimenting the government on every step of the stairs. But that is nothing to the worry ordinary private men and women are put to who do not know even where to get revenue stamps. How much the departmental inconvenience may amount to we do not know. We can easily imagine it to be great and hard to obviate; but we know it is not insuperable as British stamps are all marked "postage" and "revenue."

Ex-President Woodrow Wilson in his Armistice Day message to the people of the United States said "That the sullen and selfish isolation" to which the United States withdrew after the world war is "deeply ignoble because manifestly cowardly and dishonorable." The former President asserted that "demoralizing circumstances" which the United States might have controlled have gone from bad to worse until now, as if to furnish "a sort of sinister climax," France and Italy "have made waste paper of the treaty of Versailles." "The affairs of the world can be set straight," Mr. Wilson continued, "only by the firmest and most determined" exhibition of the will to lead and to make the right prevail. He added that happily "the present situation in the world affords the United States an opportunity to retrieve the past." This was the first time in many months that Mr. Wilson has broken his silence on international affairs. He spoke into a microphone in the study of his home, and his address was broadcast to every section of the United States by two of the most powerful radiophone stations in the east, one in Washington and the other in New York.

Slats' Diary

By Ross Farquhar

Friday—Ma and pa never seldom agree on nothing. They was at a Party last nite and when they was a tawking about it this morning ma remarks that a certain guest had the appearance of a Chesterfield and pa sed No he looked to him more like a Camel. Witch is all greek to me. As I don't no neither 1 of them.

Sat.—Tomorrow is Ottoists day at are church. That is evry buddy witch runs a ottomobile or a ford is susposed to be present at the service. Ma says we are all a going. And pa says he hopes it rains so he wont feel like he is loosing so much good time in that kind of a case.

Sunday—Fair and cooler. weel it diddent rain and are happy family went to chinch in a body. ma was a waiting for me when Sun. skool left out in case I mite ferget about chinch as she joakingly remarked. The first song on the list was intitile Threw that Beautiful Land in high witch was very appropriate pa sed. Enjoyed a good nap and I and pa kept ma busy nugging us evry now and then.

Monday—I have ben trying to figger out what I am a going to be when I am groan up a little more. Pa advised me to lern a good trade like being a bricklayer or sum of those kind of things witch pays a dollar a hr. but I gess I drather be a Dr. because insted of getting payed by the hr. they get payed by the few minutes.

Tuesday—Played a innocent joak on Jane today and I gess she diddent like it. I slips her powder Puff out of her pocket book and sprinkles some pepper in it and just as we was a going to recite arithmittleck she gives her nose a dabb and commenced to start sneezing. She has treated me like I had the smallpox ever sence.

Wednesday—Pa tuk us out in the ford for a spin on witch he has had a new Carbarater put on and he was slinging dust at the rate of 95 miles purr and he turns around smiling joyfully and ast us how did we like it and ma sed not much it was to much like as if you was a rideing fast to yure own Funeral. Witch is not the way it is being done in these day and ages.

Thursday—I have found a new way to make money. By writinge pomes to put on greeting Cards & sell them. Sent in 1 today witch went like this—
Sun travels East and sun travels West. But never the trains shall Meant.
They are only 1 thing to keep it from being a Success. I mite not be able to sell them.

One hundred and five bushels of Marquis wheat have been threshed on a one-acre patch on the farm of the Provincial School of Agriculture at Olds, Alberta. This is believed to be the record wheat yield for one acre in the history of agriculture in Alberta. The wheat was grown only on this acre, and graded No. 1 Northern. The record crop compares with an average yield for Canada of 20.34 bushels per acre.

Great Britain's proposal to offer a preference to Dominion production of apples, canned salmon and similar products, is expected to be of considerable benefit to Canada. The United States now furnishes two-thirds of Britain's imports of apples and salmon. Under the proposed preference, Canada will probably capture all this trade. Grape juice is another product for preferential treatment and this will mean a big market for the grape counties of Ontario. Most of the grape juice now imported into Britain is from California.

Miller's Worm Powders act so thoroughly that stomacic and intestinal worms pass from the child without being noticed and without inconvenience to the sufferer. They are painless and perfect in action, and at all times will be found a healthy medicine, strengthening the infantile stomach and maintaining it in vigorous operation, so that besides being an effective vermifuge, they are tonical and healthgiving in their effects.

TOO MANY CHANCES

The country is face to face with a serious problem. There are too many chances being taken and too many people being injured because of the chance-taking habit. The motorist who habitually takes chances is reasonably sure to be involved ultimately in an accident. The same general rule applies to the pedestrian. The worker in industry who has not time or thinks he has not time to be careful, is hastening the day of his injury, and the employer who prefers to take a chance rather than provide safeguards for his dangerous machinery, is inviting injury to his men and increased compensation costs for himself and other employers in his class.

Too many chances are being taken in a country that needs to conserve all its forces, but more particularly the lives of its citizens. There is a saying that "The chance-taker is the accident-maker" and this has been abundantly proven by the history of accidents in industry in this country. On the other hand there is a record of a foreman in a wire plant in Hamilton showing sixty years of service, with never an accident to himself, nor a serious accident to anyone in his department. The reason he advances is "being careful." It sounds simple, but sometimes it is a difficult roll to play. The toll of accidents in and out of industry, however, quite justifies more attention to care and caution, and the curbing of the "Take-a-chance" spirit.

"THE WONDERFUL HEROINE"

A subject of conversation throughout Canada at the present time is the identity of "The Wonderful Heroine" whose amazing life story was published in the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. Living under appalling conditions, handicapped more often than aided by her great beauty, this wonder woman strived and achieved where ten million others might fail.

It is now announced that a beautiful painting of "The Wonderful Heroine" has been secured, and a reproduction in true colors, size 18 x 24 inches will be given free to subscribers of the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, that is to those who subscribe in time.

Christmas Collars

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER
Copyright, 1921, Western Newspaper Union.

I LOVE him, I love him, I love him," Agnes Allen said. And as she was alone in her room, and as no one could hear her, naturally there was no answer to her statement which she had repeated several times.

She was speaking of George Farwell. George was so good looking with his wonderful blue eyes, his brown hair, his fine erect figure.

Wherever she saw men she thought how insignificant they looked beside George. She was glad that she thought that way. She hoped others thought that way about the men they cared for. Then everything would be so smooth and so simple.

She wanted everyone to like her George immensely. But it would be embarrassing if everyone thought just the same about him as she did.

The wedding was to be Christmas afternoon. Then they had planned to go to their own new little home which they had just finished furnishing and fixing up. They were going to have their own little Christmas tree there—quite by themselves, and their friends had left their wedding presents and their Christmas presents there, though almost all of the former they had seen, of course.

"Are you almost ready?" It was Mrs. Allen calling up the stairs.

"Almost, mother dear," she answered.

"You'll be late," her mother called.

"Till hurry," she said.

"Do you want any help?"

But she had taken longer than she had thought. Yes, if she didn't hurry she would be late! Still she would have George all her life now. How wonderful it would be! She wondered if that was why brides were so often late because they felt they had so much time!

It was a gloriously happy thought to realize how much time she had. She was only ten minutes late. The few friends were at the Christmas day wedding. And her bouquet was of holly and mistletoe. She had always said she would love to have such a wedding bouquet. It would be so merry and Christmasy and such a happy, gay kind of a bouquet.

George had consented of course. He agreed to everything she said, because he loved her so, and she was so fair with him, too, because she loved him so!

The ceremony was over. They drove away in a low sleigh with jingling bells to the small house. There, by themselves, they opened presents. What a glorious time they had.

And she had a little surprise for him. Just a little bit of a surprise. But she knew he would like it.

"Open that box, there, George," she said.

He opened it.

And looked at some collars, many, many collars, all much too big for him.

"When I was buying my wedding clothes in town that time, George,

I remembered that you'd spoken of a wonderful kind of collar you liked. I remembered the name too. I was a little puzzled when the man asked me your size. I told him though that as long as he had the right kind the size didn't make any difference. When he asked me if you were big or small I told him you were big of course!

"Why, George, what is the matter? Won't they fit you? Is the size so important?"

"My darling little girl," he laughed, "what does it matter what the size is. That is—it does matter about wearing them I'm afraid, my love. But to think you thought of me even when you were getting the wedding fineries and remembered the name of the cellar.

"They're my Christmas collars," he exclaimed, "and I'll put them away in the box with the Christmas bouquet we're going to save. Such a Christmas gift from a dear little bride should never be mangled by any laundry!"

"What a silly I am," she laughed gaily.

"But such an adorable silly," George answered as he kissed her.

BELIEFS OF THE PEASANTS
Odd Christmas Superstitions Handed Down From Past Ages to the Ignorant Europeans.

THE peasantry of Europe have had certain Christmas superstitions handed down to them from past ages.

Just how far these simple folk can be fooled is to be wondered.

If the light is let go out on Christmas morning, you will see spirits.

If you are born at sermon time Christmas eve, some one in the house will die within the year.

If you steal hay the night before Christmas, and give the cattle some, they will thrive and you will not be caught in any future thefts.

If you eat a raw egg, fasting on Christmas morn, you can carry heavy weights. It is unlucky to carry anything from the house on Christmas morning until something has been brought in.

It is unlucky to give a neighbor a live coal to kindle a fire with on Christmas morning.

If the fire burns brightly on Christmas morning, it betokens prosperity during the year; if it smolders, adversity.

If a dog howls the night before Christmas, it will go mad within the year.

If you steal anything at Christmas without being caught, you can steal safely for a year.

On Christmas eve thrash the garden with a flail, with only your shirt on, and the grass will grow well next year.

The wet strawbands around the orchard trees on Christmas eve and it will make them fruitful.

On Christmas eve put a stone on every tree, and they will bear the more.

Beat the trees on Christmas night, and they will bear the more.

If after a Christmas dinner you shake out the tablecloth over the bare ground under the open sky, crumb-worm will grow on the spot.

If on Christmas day or eve, you hang a washcloth out on the hedge, and then groom the horses with it, they will grow fat.

As often as the cock crows on Christmas eve, the quarter of corn will be as dear.

If you burn elder on Christmas eve, you will have revealed to you all the witches and sorcerers of the neighborhood.

Cookie Rocks.
One and one-half cupfuls of sugar, one-half cupful of butter; cream. Add three eggs well beaten, three cupfuls of flour, one teaspoonful of soda in a tablespoonful of hot water, one pound of dates cut in small pieces, three-quarters pound of shelled walnuts (one and a half pounds in shell), one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-half teaspoonful of allspice. Break the nuts in large pieces and cut the dates about the size of raisins. Drop this stiff dough from a spoon on buttered tins in the size of walnuts. Bake in a slow oven.

MERELY POSTPONED
Frank: So you didn't manage to catch Ethel under the mistletoe?
Jack: That's all right. I'm going to take her for a sleigh-ride tonight.

The Indian's Vigil.
In a book of sketches of upper Canada, a pretty incident is cited of the writer meeting an Indian at midnight, on Christmas Eve, during a beautiful moonlight, cautiously creeping along, and beckoning him to silence. In answer to an inquiry the Indian said: "Me watch to see the deer kneel; this is Christmas night, and all the deer fall upon their knees to the Great Spirit and look up."

what is the matter? Won't they fit you? Is the size so important?"

AVOID CHRISTMAS TREE FIRE

Utmost Care Should Be Used in Trimming, Thus Preventing Fatalities in the Homes.

PEOPLE cannot be too careful in guarding against fire when trimming a Christmas tree, says a correspondent in Good Housekeeping.

There have been scores of Christmas tree fatalities in homes and in Sunday schools which a little care might have prevented. The writer once set a tree in a blaze, consuming nearly half of it, tinsel ornaments going with the green branches. A tiny candle had been wired too high, and it took only a few minutes of its brisk heat to char a branch above it and start a flame. A thick portiere was torn from its pole and thrown over the blaze. If it had not been at hand the light window curtains would have caught fire in another minute. Since that Christmas our tree has always been placed in the center of the room, and we have eschewed cotton wool, tissue-paper angels, and celluloid ornaments. First of all, we wire each candle securely in place at the furthest end of a branch which has nothing above it, either fir tree or trimming. Then as the tree is denuded we watch carefully the fast-disappearing candles. Sometimes one of them, nearly burned down, will topple over or be merely a spark of flame, but near to something inflammable and be a menace.

GOOD TURNS ON CHRISTMAS
Chance for All to Aid the Friendless in Having Happy Yuletide Season.

REAL purveyors of Christmas cheer may often find a market for their precious wares outside the pale of charity, for all homeless people are not necessarily poor, and neither are all childless homes necessarily unhappy. Housekeepers who are short on homes may combine these two lackings and make Christmas day a merry delight for the grown-ups in spite of these unfortunate conditions.

There is always something peculiarly pitiable in the idea of any one "flocking alone" which should appeal to the home-maker without a family, so that this should be the occasion for her to gather in all the bachelor maids and homeless men of her acquaintance and give them a joyful opportunity to "flock together." Even the Scrooges, if she knows any, should be rescued from their lonely hovels of gruel and persuaded to open their shut-up hearts and wear them outside for general inspection, as Dickens says, "For Christmas daws to peck at." Therefore, collect six or eight of these birds of a feather who are destitute of near-by kith and kin and make your Christmas feast a center of good cheer for all the charming solitaires you are able to draw within its radius.—Woman's Home Companion.

Good Year for Violets.
Sweet peas have been forced for the Christmas market only for many years past. They must be started blooming before the cold weather begins. Then they will bloom all winter. Daffodils do not get in until February, but almost all the rest of the spring flowers, hyacinths, narcissuses, bavardias, and so on, are on the Christmas counters. Easter lilies, too, though rather cold and white for Christmas, are sold. Violets, are fine this winter, deeply, darkly, beautifully blue. Some magnonette now comes in enormous sprays. There are carnations but the bright red Christmas carnation is the favorite. Holly comes from the hills of Maryland and the south. The wild holly supplies the market and there has never seemed to be any perceptible diminution of the supply. Great quantities of it are purchased by all sorts of dealers, who decorate their stores with it and send out a sprig attached to every Christmas parcel.

Dalles, Ore., Nov. 19—Doctors at the Hamilton hospital here have decided that Mrs. Ruby Pettis, who lay pinned under an overturned 1,000-pound wagon for more than 15 hours will live. They report her to be slowly recovering. She owes her life solely to the devotion and initiative of her two shepherd dogs.

The heavy wagon which Mrs. Pettis, aged 53, Sherar's Branch ranch woman, was driving collided with a boulder which had slewed on the slippery trail of a lonely mountain road twelve miles from here after dusk on Sunday night and overturned on top of the unfortunate woman. For hours in the darkness the two dogs worked feverishly digging a hole under the wagon so that its pressure on their mistress was eased and she was able to rest with some comfort.

All Sunday night and until early noon Monday the dogs stood by, protecting Mrs. Pettis from carnivorous hogs gathered about the overturned wagon. With their teeth the dogs tore frantically at the boards of the wagon in efforts to release her. She declares that one of the dogs, the female, crept close to her as though to give her comfort, while the other, a male, snarlingly held the dogs at bay.

Neighboring ranchers driving over the little-travelled road released Mrs. Pettis about noon and brought her to the hospital here for medical attention.

The best yields of potatoes in the famous Caradoc fields this season will be in the neighborhood of 300 bushels (or 200 bags) to the acre," said a farmer from the south on Saturday, "but the majority of growers will have about half that quantity."

MEETS DEATH IN ACCIDENT

Mount Brydges, Nov. 19—When his horse became frightened at a passing M.C.R. train about a mile from his home on the town line between Ekfrid and Caradoc, near Middlemiss, this morning, David H. Anderson was thrown to the road and died within a short time. He was on his way to see his son when the accident occurred.

S. Broadbent, St. Thomas, conductor on the passing train, saw the accident and had the train stopped. Members of the train crew rendered first aid to the injured man and summoned help from near by. John Finnie, of St. Thomas, was engineer on the train.

An inquest into the fatality will be held in the town hall at Middlemiss on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock before Coroner Dr. Wood, Mt. Brydges. There were no external injuries apparent on the victim and an autopsy will be performed by Dr. Bice, of Delaware, and Dr. Dewar of Melbourne.

A bean thresher, valued at $500 was completely destroyed on Saturday, Nov. 3rd, when struck by a G. P.R. train at a crossing in Ekfrid township.

They fought in 1858 and 1859, both times for a purse of £200, a big purse for a championship fight then. The seventh round of the second match is described by critics as being one of the fiercest in British ring history. Tom Sayers fought one notable battle for a purse of £5—just the price of a fair ringside seat now.

ALVINSTON A very enjoyable evening was spent in the basement of Guthrie Presbyterian church on Friday when the Ladies' Aid entertained the congregation to a social evening. The program consisted of games and contests, prizes for various contests going to John Osborne, Ella Martyn, and Hugh Leitch. At the conclusion of the evening refreshments were served by the ladies during which a social hour was spent. The second literary meeting of the school year was held in the local high school on Friday afternoon. Form II was responsible for the splendid program presented. A feature of the afternoon was an interesting debate "Resolved that co-operation has done more for the world than competition." Jane Johnston and Ewart Munroe upheld the affirmative while Florence McIntyre and Duncan McKellar upheld the negative. The former winning by a close margin. Hazel Goldrick sang a very acceptable solo and Blanche Halby recited in a very able manner. Mary Bindner played a cello solo which was very much appreciated. The reading of the school paper "The Salt Shaker" created much fun and merriment for the audience. The regular monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. Henry Ormerod. Mrs. Chalk, president, had charge of the meeting and after the devotional exercises read Thanksgiving Psalms. At the conclusion of the business program Rev. A. L. Spracklin gave a very helpful and interesting paper on Scientific Temperance. Misses Leta and Ila Bowie are visiting at the home of their grandfather, Henry Ormerod. Mrs. D. ## STOMACH TROUBLE

DUE TO THIN BLOOD

It Usually Disappears When the Blood is made Rich and Red

Thin blood is one of the most common causes of stomach trouble. It affects the digestion very quickly. The glands that furnish the digestive fluids are diminished in their activity, the stomach muscles are weakened and there is a loss of nerve force. In this state of health nothing will more quickly restore the appetite, digestion and normal nutrition than good, rich, red blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood, making it rich and red, and this enriched blood strengthens weak nerves, stimulates tired muscles and awakens to normal activity the glands that supply the digestive fluids. This is shown by an improved appetite, and soon the effect of these blood enriching pills is evident throughout the whole system. You find that what you eat does not distress you, and that you are vigorous instead of irritable and listless. If your appetite is fickle if you have any of the distressing pains and symptoms of indigestion, you should at once take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and profit by the better condition in which they will put your blood.

These pills are sold by all dealers in medicine, or you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ANNUAL MEETING OF BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEAGUE

The annual meeting of Baptist Young People's Societies of Lambton and Middlesex counties was held on Monday at the Central Baptist church, Sarnia, with about 300 delegates present, the Rev. A. H. Jones of Arkona, presided. The convention was one of the most successful this organization has held.

The proceedings were opened in the afternoon with devotional exercises by the Rev. J. L. Stones of Wyoming and the first address was one on "Consecration" given by the president. An address of welcome was given by Rev. R. R. McKay, the Rev. A. B. Vincent of Strathroy presiding.

The main address of the afternoon was that given by Professor New of McMaster University, his subject being "Using the whole man". The substance of his address which was a masterful one in every way was that consecration was considered by the average man as the devotion of his whole life to the ministry or to missionary work. An address was given by Rev. Raithby of Petrolea, a former president of the organization, on the help and hindrances of the work.

The evening was preceded by a song service led by Miss W. Howarth, president of the Sarnia society.

The Rev. A. Burgess of London, gave an address on "The path to power" and Professor New spoke on "Consecration, the secret of wealth". As in the past, the societies pledged themselves to raise funds to help students for the ministry.

The Unity male quartette rendered two selections and a solo was given by F. W. G. Hammore.

In the evening the visitors were entertained to a banquet served in the market hall by the Ladies Aid of the Central Baptist church.

Those who attended from Forest were: Clarke Burney, Malcolm Gray, Clayton White, Orville Daley, Dr. and Mrs. Huffman, Rena Campbell, Olive Kernohan, Irene White, Rosannah Gray, Elsie May, Edna Wilson, Melba Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. E. Burney, Ella Mack, Louella Shannon, Mary Shepherd and Gladys Shepherd.

All subscribers paying their subscriptions, either past due or for next year, before the 31st of December, will get two chances on the Ford Sedan and cash prizes being given by the Watford Community Club. Those from a distance sending subscriptions by mail will be allotted signed tickets for each dollar sent, which will be placed in the ticket box on our counter.

Autumn Weddings

WILKINSON—DODGE

A quiet wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage, Warwick, on Wednesday, Nov. 7th, when Edna Alexa, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dodge was united in marriage to Mr. Neil Wilkinson, youngest son of Mrs. Wilkinson, by Rev. A. Roy Johnson. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Marjorie B. Dodge, and the groom's brother, Mr. Archie Wilkinson. The bride looked charming in a tailored suit of navy porette twill with blouse of henna crepe and black hat and shoes to match. She wore a corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses. After the ceremony they returned to the bride's home where a wedding dinner was served. Later Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson left on a short trip to Detroit and other points. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm on the 10th line of Plympton.

RITCHIE—JOYNT

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. John's church, Wyoming, on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 10th, at 4.30 o'clock when Margaret Lillian daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Joynt, Camlachie, became the bride of Mr. James G. Ritchie of Windsor., the ceremony being performed by the Rev. W. J. H. Petter. The bride was charmingly attired in navy chiffon velvet with shoes and hat of beaver shade and carried bronze mums. Miss Coretta McCordic, a cousin of the bride, dressed in olive green canton crepe with hat of coral duvetyne acted as bridesmaid and carried yellow mums. Mr. Justus Joynt, brother of the bride, acted as groomsmen. The young couple left Wyoming on the five o'clock train for London and other points east, and will make their future home in Windsor.

THE COW, THE MOTHER OF PROSPERITY

Valuable Illustrated Treatise on Dairy Farming being Distributed by the Bank of Montreal

"Where the cow is kept and cared for, civilization advances, lands grow richer, homes grow better, debts grow fewer."

The above is an extract from the preface of a book entitled "The Cow, the Mother of Prosperity," copies of which are being distributed by the Bank of Montreal. This book is probably the best popular treatise on dairy farming which has ever been published. It has been written with a view not only to guiding the farmer in the selection and breeding of the best and most profitable types of dairy cows, but also to guiding him in the care and feeding of dairy cows in every condition of climate and soil throughout the continent of North America. The author, Mr. Ralph A. Hayne, of the Agricultural Extension Department, International Harvester Company, in his foreword, describes the cow as one of the greatest blessings to the human race. "No nation or people," he says, "has become highly civilized without her. She produces the best human food on earth. She makes this health-building strength-giving food from grass and coarse plants. Without her agriculture is not permanent or prosperous, people are not healthy or happy. Wherever the cow has taken her rightful place, and man has done his part we and farms furnishing an income every week of the year. We find homes with conveniences. We find intelligent, thrifty, debt-free people with minds and hearts alert from steady employment. We find a good citizenship, a good agriculture. Truly the cow is the mother of prosperity."

He proceeds to describe typical localities to which the cow would bring prosperity. Then he tells how to select the right kind of cows, describing in detail the good and bad points of cows from head to tail. The breeding, care and feeding of cows, the best kind of feeds in various localities, the construction of barns, the making of silage, a testing of cows and their milk, methods of milking and the type and care of dairy utensils, the best methods of marketing milk, the care of calves, either for rearing or for the production of veal, the use of manure, the best breeds for varying conditions and the treatment of diseases are all dealt with fully and in plain language that anyone can understand.

A valuable feature of the book is the fact that every point dealt with is illustrated by photographs specially taken for the purpose or by diagrams. Over 250 photographs are reproduced.

The Bank of Montreal is doing a splendid work for farmers by having a special edition of many thousands of this valuable book printed for free distribution throughout farming districts in Canada. We understand that the demand for the book has exceeded all expectations, but that a reserve supply has been secured, so that a limited number is still available free of cost. Application for the book should be made to the local branch of the Bank of Montreal.

New Lamp Burns 94 Percent. Air BEATS ELECTRIC OR GAS

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, F. N. Johnson, 246 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him to-day for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

Rub it in for Lame Back.—A brisk rubbing with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will relieve lame back. The skin will immediately absorb the oil and it will penetrate the tissues and bring speedy relief. Try it and be convinced. As the liniment sinks in, the pain comes out and there are ample grounds for saying that it is an excellent article.

CHRISTMAS BAN IN 1643

Yuletide Observance Was Not Permitted by Edict of "Roundhead Parliament" in England.

IN THE northern part of Europe the ancient people kindled great fires to their gods, Odin and Thor, and sacrifices of men and cattle were made. The ancient Goths and Saxons termed this festival or feast "Yule," and we still use the word "Yuletide" in our day. Among the Teutons this holiday season was celebrated by decorating giant fir trees. The decorations consisted of lights, nuts, balls, golden apples and animals. These were to symbolize flashes of lightning, moon, stars and sun, while the animals represented sacrifices.

Christmas was not among the early festivals of the church. We find the first evidence of the feast from Egypt, according to the historians of the church, and December 25 was not the day on which it was universally celebrated. It was not until the fourth or fifth centuries that the celebration of the festival on this day spread to the East. The Nativity was celebrated December 25 at Rome before 354, and at Constantinople, not prior to 379.

As paganism began to be supplanted by Christianity, many of the old customs were taken and handed down through the generations. In the Anglo-Saxon days of King Alfred the holiday season began December 16 and closed January 6. When Puritanism arose in England the fate of Christmas was threatened for a time, and even extended to this country, since the Puritans brought along with them to New England a feeling against the celebration of Christmas.

In 1643 the "Roundhead parliament" in England put a ban on the observance of Christmas. The court of Massachusetts in 1659 followed England's example and Christmas was put under a ban there. With the restoration of the English royalty the restoration of Christmas was brought about, and Massachusetts again followed England's example and in 1661 the ban was lifted. From this time on Christmas has remained, and is now celebrated throughout the entire civilized world.

TOY TREE TABLE DECORATION

Miniature Christmas Emblem May Be Surrounded With Presents Tied With Red Ribbon.

DECORATE the table with a Christmas tree, one of the toy-trees, and pile around its foot a quantity of presents tied with red ribbons.

These should be only what a college man would call "grinds"—perhaps a tiny tin piano for a would-be performer, a lantern for the one the points of whose jokes are difficult to see, a placid paper golf bag for the enthusiastic player, and so on, each with a rhyme or quotation, says Harper's Bazaar. If one considers a goose a somewhat undignified bird, ducks may be exchanged for it, either the domestic fowl or the more expensive canvas-back or redhead. Fried celery is very good with duck, the crispest pieces dropped in butter and then cooked in deep fat. But the apple sauce croquettes should not be omitted even with this. For this informal dinner there is a very good and innocuous drink to serve with the heavy course—sweet cider, spiced and sugared to taste, cooked ten minutes and served hot.

YULETIDE THORN TREE SAVED

Blooming Glastonbury, Subject of Beautiful Legends of Christmas, Was Doomed to Destruction.

ONE of the most beautiful legends of Christmas is that of the Glastonbury thorn. The thorn tree grew at Glastonbury Abbey, in Somersetshire, and was supposed to have developed from the staff of Joseph of Arimathea. According to the legend, Joseph came to Glastonbury and while he was resting on a hill, afterward known as Weary All hill, he stuck his staff in the earth. The staff immediately grew green and budded, and at Christmas time it blossomed into beautiful flowers.

One chronicler states that during Queen Elizabeth's reign the thorn had a double trunk, but that a somewhat bigoted Puritan, who disliked the tree because to his mind it smacked of popery, started to cut it down, and succeeded in demolishing one of the trunks. A miracle rescued the remaining trunk of the tree by causing a chip of wood to fly up and hit the Puritan in the eye, while at the same time he slipped and cut his leg. Later the tree was grubbed up, but a number of smaller trees raised from slips of the original are said to be owned by persons in the neighborhood.

The twenty-fourth anniversary session of the world-famous International Live Stock Show will be held in Chicago December 1st to 8th and promises to surpass all former exhibitions of this mammoth agricultural show. Reduced rates will be in effect on all railroads during the holding of this great educational event.

The liability of Municipal Councils is again shown in a judgment at Osgoode Hall, dismissing the appeal of the town of Orillia against the judgment of Simcoe County, which awarded Mrs. Alexander Pilkey $2,500 for injuries received when she fell on an icy sidewalk. The County Court's decision was confirmed and the town must pay $2,500 and all costs.

Three freshmen at college were discussing the income of their fathers. One said: "My father writes a song in an evening and takes it down town next morning and sells it for $25." The next continued: "My father writes a story in an evening and takes it down town the next morning and sells it for $50." "That's nothing", declared the third. "My father gets up in a pulpit on Sunday and talks for an hour, and it takes six men to carry the money up to him."

Peter McArthur advocates the advertising of Canada to Canadians, instead of sending all the alluring pamphlets telling of the opportunities in this land to Great Britain and the Continental countries. He thinks by this means many young Canadians might be induced to remain in Canada and help to develop its illimitable resources rather than seek their fortune across the border. It might be a good idea; but "far off fields look green."

Read the Want Ads on Page Four.

The Dominion Government is preparing to father a system of agricultural credits. Dr. Tory, president of the University of Alberta, has been empowered to conduct an enquiry into the question, and the announcement conveying this news says that an at least partial report may be expected during the next session of parliament. It is believed that the Government has been converted to the necessity of introducing a policy on this matter, and that what is expected of Dr. Tory is a recommendation as to the best way to go about it.

An unusual combination of business is revealed in the case of the company which was granted letters patent under the name of Laval-Fortier, Limited, according to notice appearing in the current issue of the Quebec Official Gazette. The notice, in part, announces that incorporation has been granted for the following purposes: "To carry on the business of funeral director; to carry on the business of dairyman in general, including the preparation and sale of the milk, cream, butter, cheese and all products derived therefrom; to carry on a laundry business, including the washing, cleaning and dyeing of all household linen."

"Indian Summer" is not a definitely fixed season in the calendar, officials of the United States Weather Bureau declare, but varies in date and duration and is not, strictly speaking, a season at all, but merely a type of mild, calm, hazy weather, likely to prevail at any time of the autumn or early winter. The popular belief that "Indian Summer" is a period occurring more or less regularly every autumn is not based on an accurate meteorological observations. The term is applied in this country to a period of mild fall weather following a spell of unseasonably cold weather known as "Squaw Winter." Thoreau, in notes on weather conditions at Concord, Mass., from 1851 to 1860, records the occurrence of "Indian Summer" weather on dates ranging from Sept. 27th to Dec. 13th. In different parts of Europe this mild weather is known as "St. Martin's Summer," "St. Luke's Summer," or "St. Michael's Summer."

When Canada is still called a "young country" it reminds me (writes Frank J. D. Barnjum) of the man who raises a colt and begins by calling it "the colt" and the animal continues to be called "the colt" as long as it lives. Canada has been settled just as long as has the United States. The United States has a population of one hundred and twenty million people, while Canada has less than nine million. We have been largely exporters of raw materials which they have manufactured and grown rich on. American are today operating nearly fifty pulp and paper mills in the United States, with a daily capacity of one hundred tons newsprint each, wholly on Canadian raw wood. We supply the United States with the most precious of all raw materials. We are used as a dumping ground for their surplus manufactured goods, coal and other surplus products and have an embargo placed by them against our farm products, fish, cattle and in fact everything that we would really like to export. Verily, "Yes, we have no brains today." If the people of Canada are satisfied with present business and living conditions and do not want any change for the better there is nothing more to be said, but unless my hearing has become defective and my eyesight is failing, this is very far from being the situation.

Cause of Asthma. No one can say with certainty exactly what causes the establishing of asthmatic conditions. Dust from the street, from flowers, from grain and various other irritants may set up a trouble impossible to irradicate except through a sure preparation such as Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Uncertainty may exist as to cause, but there can be no uncertainty regarding a remedy which has freed a generation of asthmatic victims from this scourge of the bronchial tubes. It is sold everywhere.

Following in Magellan's Footsteps

Higher civilization has not killed the Spirit of Adventure. It may even be, that people now-a-days are affected more by Wanderlust than they ever were, and enhanced facilities for travel with a greater degree of safety have stimulated, and not a little, the desire to see other lands than their immediate environs. In the old days when Columbus, Vespucci, Balboa, De Soto and Drake, Cartier and Champlain, and other bold mariners sailed into the unknown and its perils on the seven Seas, much courage was needed but today the World is every-man's oyster, nor does it have to be opened with a sword. With a little time and comparatively little money, one can see the places where history was made, far off countries and strange people, and live the while, in comfort. Four hundred years ago, the first vessel to sail round the world lifted anchor at Seville, and after three years of adventurous hardship, returned to her Spanish port. Only thirty-one of the two hundred and seventy who set out came back, and only the Victoria out of the original Armada of five sailing ships. The spirit of these seafarers is illustrated by the vow of Fernando Magellan their commander, as he set out from Tierra del Fuego across the Great South Sea, that he would push on if he had del Fuego across the riggin'. Magellan himself was killed in the Philippines, but as he had already reached that longitude on a previous voyage eastward from Spain, he is rightly credited with being the first to circumnavigate the globe. Sixty years after the Victoria set out from Seville, Francis Drake with a fleet of five sailing ships and 164 men sailed from Plymouth in The Golden Hind, and after a voyage round the world of almost three years, returned with a rich loot of silver and gold, silk, pearls and precious stones, to replenish the coffers of Queen Elizabeth. The Golden Hind was the only vessel of the five to complete the voyage and it became the favourite resort of tourists on the Thames in the days of Shakespeare.

The Golden Hind, originally named The Pelican, was a ship of 120 tons, whereas the Empress of Canada, which sets out on a Round the World Cruise from New York on January 30th, 1924, registers no less than 21,500 tons. Instead of three years of privation and hardship, the voyage will occupy four months of luxurious comfort. The route will be shorter, as instead of rounding the Cape of Good Hope the route taken is through the Suez Canal, and instead of traversing the stormy Straits of Magellan, the American continent is finally crossed on the excellent road-bed of the Canadian Pacific Railway. But many of the points touched by Sir Francis Drake and Magellan will be visited by the Empress of Canada, for instance, Batavia, Sourabaya and the traverse of the Celebes Sea to the Philippines. The circumnavigators on the Empress of Canada will return laden with the rich experiences and mental treasures gathered from visions of eighteen different countries, and contact with the costumes crafts and civilizations of fifty different races. Encouraged by successes of former years, the Canadian Pacific has arranged for four cruises in addition to the Round the World voyage of the Empress of Canada. The Empress of Scotland will visit the cradle of civilization in a trip Round the Mediterranean, sailing from New York on January 14th. The superb Empress of Britain will make two cruises Round the West Indies, leaving New York on January 22nd and February 23rd, and, before setting off round the world, the Empress of Canada will travel Round America, sailing from Vancouver on January 4th, visiting the Pacific coast, California, and going via the Panama Canal and Cuba to New York. This vessel will be commanded by Captain S. Robinson R. N. R. who figured so conspicuously in the relief work which followed the recent Japanese disaster.

Owen McNally & Son, Alvinston, have disposed of their brick block and barbering business to Wes McCarter.

Exeter barbers have gone back to pre-war prices, 15 cents for hair cut and ten for a shave. They set a good example to reduce the cost of living.

The Harwich township council granted the Women's Institute $300 towards helping to wipe out the debt on the memorial hall in Blenheim.

A St. Thomas citizen was fined $10 and costs for transferring a marker from a car for which it had been issued to another car.

The merchants of Leamington, with the exception of the grocers, have decided to close their places of business on Friday afternoons throughout the year.

Cauliflowers in quite large quantities are being shipped from Harrow those who grew this crop find that their returns are running in the neighborhood of $200 per acre.

Isaac Carrothers of Florence had the misfortune to fall when the rung of the ladder he was standing on broke and as a result fractured his shoulder and ribs, while working on H. Dawson's house.

The churches are closed and a ban placed on public meetings in Sombra owing to the discovery of a case of smallpox in the Village. Public school children have been ordered vaccinated.

Melbourne Ingram, a farmer of East Nissouri, has been arrested charged with being one of the leaders of the poultry thieving gang in the neighborhood of Thamesford, over 500 chickens being stolen.

On Wednesday, James Moore, the well-known Malden hunter, accompanied by his three sons, went after wild geese. Three flocks came in from the lake, and they succeeded in getting thirty-six of them.

An auction sale of the chattels of the late Frank C. Donald, was held on the premises, 2nd line, Plympton, on Tuesday and realized about $4,000. Horses and machinery sold at an average price and Holstein cows brought from $150 to $170.

The nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McVicar, townline range Harwich, near Mull, died as the result of internal injuries received when a window flowerbox fell on him while he was playing around the school near McKays corner. Everything possible was done for the lad but he lived only a few hours.

White beans are the best crop in West Elgin this year, according to reports received. The crop in Aldborough township is a particularly large one, and great quantities are being marketed. William Tolmie, the bean king, has harvested one of the largest crops ever produced on his farms.

A few nights ago, before retiring to bed, Herbert Wright, of Campbellton, heard a strange noise upstairs in his house. Going up to investigate, he found the floor on fire, having evidently caught from an overheated stovepipe. By using a fire extinguisher he got the flames under control before any great damage was done.

Mrs. Victoria Herbert, 72 years old, mother of John Herbert, deputy reeve of Ford, died last week. Mrs. Herbert was leaves her husband and 15 children, formerly owned Pêche Island, which she is said to have sold to the Detroit & Windsor Ferry Co. for $250. The property is now valued at $1,000,000.

William Cooper, 12-year-old son of Josiah Cooper, Strathroy, had his leg fractured above the ankle last week while playing in the Colborne street school yard at recess. While playing with another lad, Cooper fell turning his leg under him, and the other lad fell on top of him, the weight snapping the limb.

The death of the Rev. E. J. Haines, of Freeton, occurred at the Guelph hospital, Friday. Mr. Haines was well-known in Wyoming several years ago while pastor of the Baptist church. During his pastorate he married Miss Elizabeth Park, who survives him. He also leaves one daughter, Eva.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkins, who have been visiting the Maw family at Wyoming during the past two months returned to Trinidad Thursday, sailing from New York. Mrs. Wilkins was formerly Miss Martha Maw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Maw townline, Plympton and Enniskillen. Mr. Wilkins has been drilling for oil for the last six years.

Mr. Malcolm Toohill, Napier, entertained about forty couples of his young friends at a delightful dancing party. The rooms were beautifully decorated and festooned with lanterns for the occasion. The merry-makers tip-toed in their pretty evening gowns and dainty little satin pumps, "the latest from Paris", until the wee short hours of the morning, to the harmonious strains of the Sarnia Orchestra. An excellent lunch was served, and after singing "For He is a Jolly Good Fellow" the company dispersed, declaring Malcolm a very genial host.

BLENHHEIM SUFFERS LOSS WHEN MRS. DENHOLM DIES

Blenheim, Nov. 20.—Word was received here tonight of the death of Mrs. J. M. Denholm, wife of Mercer Denholm, publisher of the News-Tribune, which took place today at the home of Dr. Kenneth Denholm in Collingwood.

About ten days ago Mrs. Denholm who was not feeling in the best of health, went to Collingwood on a visit. She did not improve and on Saturday last, Mr. Denholm was called to Collingwood. Hopes were entertained for the recovery of Mrs. Denholm until today.

The late Mrs. Denholm was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McGregor and spent her lifetime in this town. She was very active in the Presbyterian church, the I.O.G.E. and other organizations, and quickly endeared herself to all who came in contact with her. She was about 40 years of age.

Surviving relatives are the husband, one brother, W. R. McGregor of this town, and a sister, Mrs. William Greenwood of Thamesville.

The remains will reach Blenheim on Wednesday, and the funeral will take place Friday.

WATFORD GIRL REJECTS

MISS GERALDINE DURSTAN FIRED BY C

Her Chum, Miss Viola Topping, Shot Through Breast Arrest. She is I

Clarence Topping in London P Killing

Not for many years have the people of Watford and vicinity received such a distressing shock as they experienced during the past week caused by the murder in London of Miss Geraldine Durstan, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Durstan of Watford, by Clarence Topping, aged 23, a rejected suitor and the accidental shooting of her chum, Miss Viola McNaughton, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNaughton, also a resident of town.

The first known of the tragedy was the receipt of a telegram Friday morning by Mr. Naughton, stating that his daughter and Geraldine Durstan had been shot that morning. The parents and other relatives of the victim immediately left for London together with their pastor, Rev. Rayner.

The following report of the affair, largely from the London Press:

History of the Crime
Two girls were wounded fatally, in a shooting affray at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cook, 318 York street, early Friday morning. Miss Geraldine Durstan, 18, of Watford, received two bullets in the abdomen from a gun in the hands of Clarence Topping, 23, her sweetheart, Viola McNaughton, 19, who was pierced through the chest by a bullet from the revolver of Constable Walter Harpur, who on the scene at the time and shot was directed toward the murderer.

Both girls were rushed to the hospital. The young ladies were stimulants to overcome the shock as soon as they were admitted hospital.

The shooting took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cook, both girls boarded, soon after 11 o'clock Friday morning. Topping, who had left the house in a jealous rage five hours prior after his suit had been rejected by Miss Durstan, with whom he had kept company for several months, returned as Mr. and Mrs. Cook and the two girls were sitting down to their morning meal. He said he wanted Miss Du go with him to her home in London to talk over the desired matter with her parents.

Twice Cook advised Topping to leave the house in peace and get his love affair with Miss Durstan. When he refused the first time he phoned for the police and Constable Harpur responded to the siren. Loathe to see Topping placed under arrest, Cook gave him a chance to leave peacefully, but advice again went unheeded and persistent wooer.

Several shots rang out in the room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cook, where the girls had to get after Topping appeared a desperate lover had broken the door and when the police rushed in from the kitchen and closely by Cook, he saw kneeling over the girl's form with a smoking revolver in hand. At the sight of the police he is said to have raised his weapon. Constable Harpur, had pulled his gun, and, air Topping fired.

Miss McNaughton appeared in the bedroom door and the bullet officer's revolver is believed to have entered her chest. Five shots in all are said to have been fired, one of which struck the wall of the bedroom. A forward extracted and held in place.
