FEEL THE EFFECTS OF A WAR BUT WON'T LOCALIZE THE EFFECT

Press on Balfour's Speech.

(C. A. P. Cable.)
London, Jan. 12.—Referring to Mr. Balfour's speech, The Daily News says he goes on quibbling while Chamberlain burns his house over his head. He is alarmed at the rate Chamberlain is going, but while the fire flames from every storey the languid chief fireman directs a mere garden watering pot on it.

The Morning Post says Mr. Balfour is right in urging the tariff reformers to go more slowly on the ground of the difficulty in persuading the colonies to modify their protectionist regime in favor of Britain, but he forgets that under the Canadian preferential tariff the Canadian woolen and cotton manufacturers have suffered loss, yet the Imperialist movement has grown stronger.

The Daily Telegraph says the Prime Minister puts the unification of the empire before all other objects. The publication of the Duke of Devonshire's letter has done more than anything else to consolidate the Imperialist party. All over interest is alive and alert. The Unionist party is fervent in the cause of the ultimate of Great Britain and the British colonies and seas.

The Daily Chronicle says Mr. Balfour's theme was the humiliating one of explaining his abdication. He laid down one proposition, of which more will be heard, when he said that any proposed arrangement with the Colonies must be based on a modification of their tariff walls against British manufacturers. It was Chamberlain who spoke of the Australian invitation, but he did not protest the Australian offer included that.

The Standard says Mr. Balfour declined to commit himself to the preferential scheme because he sees the people of these islands as yet unconverted to a tax on food and the colonies unconverted to a lowering of the tariff. It fears behind which the manufacturers are behind, while the Times says Mr. Balfour does not conceal his sympathy with Chamberlain's policy, but adheres to his opinion that a new tax cannot be placed on food merely as a financial expedient. A great Imperial reorganization must await an Imperial wave. Chamberlain is in entire sympathy with this view, and it is his task to convert public opinion in Great Britain and the colonies.

The cable report of Balfour's speech apparently has been delayed, but the comment of the London papers given above affords an index to his remarks.

CORONER COTTON WERE BARRIED OUT OF CITY HALL

Police Chief and Alderman Unintentionally Create an Annoying and Peculiar Situation.

Coroner Cotton did not continue the inquest on William Durell last night, as was intended, for the reason that he had no place to hold the inquest. He and his jury, who were looking for a place to hold the inquest, were barred out of City Hall by the police chief and the alderman.

On Oct. 23, 1902, the City Council passed a resolution ordering that a room in the City Hall be used for the disposal of the bodies of the dead, and that the inquest on the body of William Durell be held in that room.

Twelve Men Leaving East End Barn
Quit Work Because of Alleged Unfairness.

Twelve "night" street car conductors and motormen last night were fined by others taken from the ranks of the regular relief men who work thru the evening. The strike is confined to the East End street cars, where the car starter, Bird, is claimed, has not been giving the night car employees the first extra car starts from the barn in the morning.

Woodstock, Jan. 11.—(Special.)—Intense excitement prevailed at the meeting held here to-night to appoint delegates for the Reform convention here to-morrow. Almost without exception the meetings were "packed" by the friends of the prospective candidates, among whom the feeling is so strong and bitter that an open rupture in the ranks to-morrow is considered inevitable.

So keen was the contest to-day between Col. Munro and George Smith that Conservatives were openly canvassed and asked to attend the meetings to-night and support certain delegates pledged to certain candidates. These were the delegates chosen and the Liberal members have brought strong pressure to bear on the government. They insist that at least one more session of parliament should be held before the general elections. They want the seasonal indemnity, and ministerial assurances to the effect that Liberals will not be asked to leave the government of an election than the Conservatives can have not proved to be an effective argument.

Sir William Mulock has gone south for a couple of weeks. The commission which is dealing with the consolidation of Dominion statutes sits at Ottawa. The Ottawa Thomas McKeefe, one of Mr. Sifton's most active supporters from the West, this is taken to mean that the elections are not to be held within the next few weeks, but there can be no doubt that Sir William Mulock could be back in time to have the campaign in full swing by the first of February. The elections could be held early in March.

Those who believe that the elections are imminent found their theory on the prospects of hard times within the next year, on the uncertain health of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and on the progress of the fiscal campaign in England, which threatens to raise an awkward issue for the Laurier government. Delay is thought to be dangerous to the government, and some of the best political prophets in the Capital believe that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, hence he will be their standard-bearer on Jan. 26.

The moderate amount of daylight thrown upon the Greek Letter Society proposals to equate upon university property has resulted in acquiescence with the inevitable. It is understood that the claims to land either have been, or will immediately be, withdrawn, and the cause being given way to calm and deep peace.

THREE THOUSAND BRITONS KILLED 5000 OF THE ENTRENCHED ENEMY TO ROUT

READY FOR THE SESSION
LEADER WHITNEY'S HERE

Can't Tell What Opposition Will Do
Until He Sees Government Program.

J. P. Whitney, K.C., M.L.A., is at the Queen's waiting the opening of the legislature. Last night he was the centre of a coterie of political friends.

Ministers in the Dark.
Having asked Mr. Whitney to observe that he did not think the ministers themselves knew what important legislation would be brought down. The session was called in such a hurry to get rid of the election trials for a time that they had not sufficient time to get their program into shape. But there were the supplies and the affairs of the Dominion Railway, which would receive consideration. As to the assessment bill he did not think it would be brought down for a couple of weeks anyway, as the chairman of the special committee, Hon. J. M. Gibson, had indicated that the committee would hold several sessions during the sitting of the House. It was a matter that would require very full consideration and might occupy the attention of the House for a considerable period. Mr. Whitney would not hazard an opinion as to any probable tentative legislation.

Conservatives Physically Fit.
The leader of the opposition will be supported by an unbroken phalanx of Conservatives. Col. Matheson, who has been suffering from pneumonia, will be back by Monday, or earlier, if necessary, and all the other opposition benches are physically fit and ready to give the government an uncomfortable few weeks.

Will Open With Pomp.
The legislature will open on Thursday at Victoria. There will be a display of pomp, as it will be the first occasion on which Lieutenant-Governor Bannister will open the session of the House. The last session was inaugurated by the administrator, Chief Justice Moss, and closed by the new governor.

A large number of invitations have been issued for the opening, to representatives of the various branches of the province and their ladies, who will occupy the floor of the house. The speaker, Mr. Bannister, will be accompanied by the members of the cabinet and the opposition benches.

Nothing Starting in It.
The speech from the throne will be read by the speaker, Mr. Bannister, and will be of a nature to give the impression of a startling nature in it, but he declined to say what legislation the message would forecast. There is, however, the temperance legislation, and the Department of Agriculture, and the assessment bill, also laid over. There is good reason to believe that the temperance legislation will be more drastic than that contemplated a year ago, but on that subject the ministers are singularly silent.

Notice of Private Bills.
Notice of 24 private bills have been received by the clerk of the House. Those dealing with the subject of the bill have till Jan. 25 to notify the clerk, but at this period the number is remarkably low.

A meeting of the cabinet was held on Monday afternoon, the major portion of the afternoon being taken up with the estimates of the various departments. There will be some increase in the Department of Agriculture, and provision will have to be made for the new McDonald Institute at Guelph, and other bills are also incorporated along other lines.

Three Thousand Britons Put
5000 OF THE ENTRENCHED
ENEMY TO ROUT

WITH 11 SLAIN AND 32 WOUNDED

London, Jan. 11.—A despatch to The Times from Aden, Arabia, says:

An engagement in Somaliland between a British force and the forces of the Mad Mullah has resulted in a severe defeat of the latter, who lost one thousand men killed. The British had two officers killed and nine officers severely wounded.

The War Office to-night gave out the following despatch, which had been received from Major-General Egerton, commanding the Somaliland expeditionary force, and which is dated from Jiddah, Somaliland, Jan. 11.

Advanced on the morning 11 miles to Jiddah. First brigade commanded by Manning, second brigade under Fakin, and mounted troops and Kenes. Total strength of the regulars 2200, irregulars 1000. Jiddah held by 6000 Derwishes. Mounted troops enveloped enemy's right and infantry advanced within seven hundred yards of his position. Derwishes advanced, but were unable to face from a couple of weeks anyway, as the chairman of the special committee, Hon. J. M. Gibson, had indicated that the committee would hold several sessions during the sitting of the House. It was a matter that would require very full consideration and might occupy the attention of the House for a considerable period. Mr. Whitney would not hazard an opinion as to any probable tentative legislation.

A later despatch from Gen. Egerton says that one officer, Capt. Lister, is missing. Capt. Lister is Lord Ribblesdale's son and heir.

ARISING IN THIBET.
London, Jan. 11.—The Shanghai correspondent of "The Daily Mail" says that a Chinese resident of Lhasa is raising troops in the Province of Szechuan to service in Thibet against the British advance.

STRANDED IN ROCHESTER.
Toronto Woman Went With a Friend, Who Left Her.
Rochester, N.Y., Jan. 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Man, daughter of Mr. Dillon, of Toronto, Ont., is stranded in Rochester, N.Y., and is unable to return to her home in Toronto.

Two weeks ago she was accosted by a friend in Toronto who said there was money awaiting her in Rochester, but she had nothing to pay her fare with.

Mrs. Dillon was told that if she would buy tickets they would go together and divide the legacy. Tickets were purchased and both women came to Rochester.

Upon arriving here the other woman gave Mrs. Man a check for $1000, which she had hidden away in a trunk in Toronto, and Mrs. Dillon, whose funds were limited, had applied to the poor department for transportation back home.

CHARGE TWO EX-CONVICTS
With Burglary and Jewelry Store in Tilbury Recently.

Windsor, Jan. 11.—Detective Campbell and Mahoney to-day sent out circulars to the police departments of cities in Canada and the United States, asking for the arrest of Thomas Bishop and James Pearson, ex-convicts, on a charge of burglarizing W. A. Polley's jewelry store in Tilbury, Ont. Dec. 18 last, when goods to the amount of $2000 were stolen. Both men are well-known crooks. Bishop is 41 years old, and his partner, Pearson, is 31 years old. Bishop has done time in the Central Prison, and Pearson in the Kingston Penitentiary. Pearson is 31 years old, and has lived in Delhi, Ind.

Eglington, Jan. 11. (Special).—South York liberals gathered in Eglington Town Hall here this afternoon for the selection of a candidate for the Federal House. Every sub-division in the riding was represented and the meeting was characterized by the greatest unanimity. The candidates were ment's A. S. composed of: W. A. Grant, James Percy and Mr. Ogilvie. At the conclusion of their labors it was found that only two delegates had failed to attend. Among those present were: W. Parsons, president South York Liberal Association; R. W. Ferguson, secretary-treasurer; John Silbbard, A. B. Rice, W. E. Smith, J. Ellis, Eljah Armstrong, E. D. Brown, John Armstrong, G. W. Ormrod, J. C. Smith, J. C. Smith, W. Harner, M. G. Thompson, J. L. Playter, A. J. Anderson, A. J. Anderson, W. F. G. Gibb and many others. W. Parsons presided over the ball for nominations and A. B. Rice recorded the names of A. J. Anderson, Armstrong, Toronto, and W. F. G. Gibb. At the nomination Mr. Rice asserted that

He declared, could be achieved only by the adoption of a "free-trade" policy. One was Mr. Anderson's financial position and the other, and supreme consideration, was the welfare of the great government, and on this point he never for West York would faln have been the Hon. John A. Macdonald and the Laurier government. "Canada's prosperity," said Mr. Campbell, and while he admitted that the Laurier government contributed to the general result, he pronounced the course pursued by the government in the matter of trade protection, and the financial figures he had given, as Canada's foreign trade had increased by 100 per cent in the last seven years. Mr. Campbell then proceeded to tell Mr. Fisher had succeeded in getting the Laurier government to agree to the tariff entering the United States, and that which removed the trade had increased the trade of Canada in 4 years. He also stated that the establishment of gold currency in ship and railroad lines, together with the coal and iron resources, and heralded as the product of their administration. Referring to the enormous public debt he enormously increased within the past few years, Campbell declared that the outlay was justified by the rapid expansion of the country. "I have seen," he said, "New York, 'always taken the ground' and 'paid the expense' for the country you have the money to pay it."

lection to important Chairmanship in Breeders' Association.

A singular compliment was paid the province of Ontario when Hon. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture, was elected chairman of the animal section of the new organization called the American Breeders' Association, which was perfected at St. Louis on Dec. 29 and 30 last. Mr. Dryden was notified a few days ago of his election, which was a surprise to him, as it was an or he did not seek and knew nothing of till last week. The American Seeders' Association includes both animal and plant breeders, also scientists, and in the study of heredity in plants and animals. The purpose of the organization is to apply the laws of breeding and to promote the improvement of plants and animals and the development of expert methods of breeding.

On James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture in President Roosevelt's administration, made present at the meeting, the following statement: "The Government men connected with the association are Hon. L. H. Kerrick, Commissioner; Mr. Prof. W. M. Hayes, University of California; Mr. George E. Prof. Erskine, Kansas Agricultural College.

Mr. Dryden's wide knowledge of animal breeding places him in the front of the breeders of America, and his election to the chairmanship of this important branch of the association is a compliment to the province as well as to himself.

Received Convention's Unanimous Support Without the Formality of a Ballot.

Exeter, Jan. 14.—(Special).—South York Liberals gathered in Exington Town Hall this afternoon for the election of a candidate for the Federal House of Representatives in the riding was represented and the meeting was characterized by the greatest unanimity. The Committee on Credentials was composed of Chas. Murphy, J. A. Grant, James Percy and Mr. Ogilvie, and at the conclusion of their labors it was found that only two delegates had failed to attend. Among these were Messrs. Parsons, president South York Liberal Association; R. W. Ferguson, secretary; Messrs. John Stibbard, A. B. Rice, W. E. Hancey, Peter Ellis, Eljah Armstrong, E. D. Brown, John Levanbrough, G. W. Osmund, John Richardson, Mr. Oakley, Wilfred Tompkins, J. T. Smith, V. Hartney, Milton, J. L. Playter, J. A. Anderson, J. W. Chappell, M.L.A., Robert Gibbs and many other. W. A. Fairman was nominated for nominations and A. B. Rice re-elected. Toronto Junction. In making the nomination Mr. Rice asserted that one name was practically before us whether, namely, that of Mr. Anderson. Mr. Anderson, Mr. Grant, Mr. Osmund, Mr. Brown, Mr. Levanbrough and the nomination of Mr. Anderson made unanimous.

Mr. Anderson's name was received with very demonstration of enthusiasm and on being he was received with a rousing cheer. He briefly stated his gratification at the support conferred on him and regret that he could not recurred the possibility of addressing them at length.

Contest Between Party Records

It was with this feeling that he accepted the nomination, but relying on the efforts of the government he intended to carry the day as a victor. If not success on the fault line, he would have been a black and white journalist who had fairly won his way and was well known to himself and the members for East York, who he believed to be the backbone of the Liberal administration on Ottawa and the main-stem of the Conservative party during their tenure of office. North York and East York were safe for the Liberal party and South York was the battle-ground.

"I can do it all alone," he said, "but if I cannot do it, I will rally round me. You never can tell what may happen." On rounding the street Mr. Anderson was accorded an ovation.

A. Gibson urged the Liberals of South York to present a united front.

The Start

In married life is generally made on an equal footing of health in man and wife.

But how soon, in many cases, the wife begins to start and fade—feels sore and falls in love, while her husband grows ever more rugged and robust.

There is one chief cause for this wifely failure and that is, the failure of the womanly health. When there is irregularity or an unhealthy drain, inflammation, ulceration or female weakness, the general health is soon impaired.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures women's diseases. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"A little over a year ago I wrote to you for advice," says Mrs. Elizabeth J. Fisher, of Diana, Va. "You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and now I can support my family."

son will hold an at home for the old and young at St. George's Hall, on Sunday night. A first-class orchestra, in attendance, and a program carried out. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

A special meeting of the Hamilton Old Age Association of Toronto is called for Tuesday, at the Temple Building, to consider the report of the special committee on the constitution, bylaws, etc., due to the officers for the ensuing year, and to elect officers at the regular monthly meeting, fourth Monday of this month. Arrangements are about complete for the giving of an at home at an early date.

result. I was troubled with female weakness and bearing-down pains. Had a very bad pain nearly all the time in my left side, never once walk across the street without my hands walk across the street. Was so weak I could hardly get up stairs. Could not sit only just a little while at a time. My husband got some of Dr. Pierce's medicine and I began its use. Before I had taken two bottles I was able to help do my work. I used three bottles in all and it cured me. Now I do all my household and my own errands.
